"Gat" Howard

The Most Fearless Man in South Africa.

Members of the second contingent speak in the highest terms of "Gatling Gun" Howard, who is staying on to the finish. The unanimous testimony is that he is the most daring man in South Africa. He seems to court death, yet he has never been hit. He has ridden a white horse across the veldt—a trotter, which jerked the rider up and down with great violence; he has bent over his gatling gun while showers of bullets whizzed around him; and there is no man in the British army who has been so often shot at by the Boers. The boys say that the thought of fear has never entered into his mind. He has commanded a lot of men like-minded with himself—brave, reckless fellows, who were the envy of the regiment. "Gat" Howard is thin and spare, with keen black eyes. He loves fighting for its own sake.

Blank Forms

We have for sale at the Advertiser office the following Blank Forms at the usual prices: Mortgages, Chatel Mortgages, Bills of Lading, Writ of Summons and a few Magistrate Blanks.

Our chattel mortgages have the proper affidavit attached. Send in your order at once.

THE WEATHER

The coldest of the season, in fact the coldest for two years at least, was that snap of Saturday and Sunday. The mercury dropped to 8, some say 10, below zero, this was much colder than any day last winter.

By the way, taking the month of December, and January so far we have had more frost than for many years.

We have application for purchase of small farm for about $1500, anywhere in the County near railroad. Parties wishing to sell should apply to us at once.

KENTVILLE BOARD OF TRADE

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Officers and Members of the Board of Trade.

Gentlemen,—
I have the honor on this occasion in accordance with our established custom to present an address to you concerning the progress of our institution, and the matters which have claimed our attention during the past year; and also to indicate briefly such subjects of present and future interest as deserve consideration, and as are calculated to be of advantage primarily to the town and incidentally to the county and country.

I am well aware that I cannot hope to entertain or interest you to the same extent or with the same success as my predecessors in office by the able and comprehensive addresses with which they have favored you. I must accordingly ask for your favorable indulgence, and I beg to assure you, that however much I may fall short in the way of performance, my abilities and my efforts, such as they are have always been at the service of the Board in everything that promised to further its interests and extend its usefulness.

TRADE AND FINANCE

The general trade of the town and vicinity may be said to have been fairly satisfactory, as regards volume character and conditions during the past year. While, however the amount of business done was well maintained and even considerably augmented in some of our productive industries, there has been a considerable shrinkage in the amount of money in circulation, which will result in merchants and traders having to carry forward to next season a larger percentage of credit accounts than usual. This financial stringency has arisen in a large measure, if not indeed wholly, in connection with, and as a result of the unsatisfactory returns which have been so far realized in connection with the apple export business—apple being as you are aware the great staple product of our county.

A year ago my friend, Mr. Dodge, was able to say in his address "it is estimated that the apple crop alone of the last season will realize not less than half a million of dollars;" and it will readily be understood what an encouraging and stimulating effect the success of the farming community has upon the trade of the town. This year I have no such promising report to make. On the contrary, of the crop of the past season it is estimated that so far as returns have been received up to the present time our shippers have netted a loss of one hundred thousand dollars, and as a consequence the town has this year lost the encouraging and stimulating effect which the success of the farming community would have had upon its trade and prospects.

It is hoped however that the experience of this year, although deplorable, is only temporary, and that means may be devised to avert a recurrence of similar disasters in future. I repeat, that, outside of the apple business and its present unfortunate effects, the general trade of the town and vicinity is satisfactory and fairly prosperous. In support of this view, I may state that the import duties of the past year for the county amounted to twelve thousand four hundred and thirty five dollars being an increase of almost two thousand dollars over the duties of the previous year. Of the total amount no less than eight thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars was paid by Kentville importers.

MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE

The principal event of the year as far as our Board was concerned was the holding of the annual session of the Maritime Board of Trade in Kentville on the 15th, 16th and 17th of August last. The weather unfortunately was not altogether propitious, but there was nevertheless a large and representative attendance of delegates, and our Board ably seconded by the Kings County Board, did what was possible under the circumstances to render their visit agreeable and enjoyable. The session was in all respects a highly successful one. A number of leading subjects, not less of national than provincial importance were ably and broadly discussed, and the entire proceedings were of so interesting, practical and business like a character that they were fully reported in the principal trade journals of the country.

We look forward with confidence to the Maritime Board becoming one of the foremost representative institutions of these provinces and their intelligent leader and guide in all matters connected with their commercial and industrial progress and development.

NOVA SCOTIA FARMERS' ASSOCIATION

At the last annual meeting a resolution was passed tendering an invitation to the Nova Scotia Farmers Association to hold their next annual meeting in Kentville. The invitation was accepted and the session will open on the 31st inst. Our Board in co-operation with the Kings County Board, will make such arrangements as are necessary to extend a hearty welcome to the members of the Farmers Parliament, and show them such courtesies as will contribute to their comfort and enjoyment while they are with us.

Living in the shire town of what is proudly claimed to be the banner county of the province we understand and appreciate how intimate and reciprocal are the relations which subsist between the town and the county, and how closely and largely our success and prosperity depends upon the prosperity of the agricultural community. Therefore such meetings as that of the association in question is of immediate personal interest to us, because the beneficial results of their deliberations are not confined to their own class but extend to all classes, for their gain is also our gain and their loss is our loss.

LOWER AYLESFORD

Miss Lottie Bentley of Sheffield Mills was at Tremont last week to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. I. W. Randall, who was brought home from the U. S., to be interred in her family lot by her brother, S. G. Baker, Esq. At the funeral on Sunday, 13th inst. was Mr. I. W. Baker, of Somerset, who broke the road all the way to Kington Village in three hours. William knows a good horse and always keeps one.

It looked rather peculiar to see road breaking on Sunday at Tremont, yet it had to be done or postpone the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pierce of Butte City, U. S., are visiting friends in Wilmet and Aylesford.

Amongst the recent marriages in this vicinity are Miss Florence Bowley of Tremont, to Mr. Lester Whitman of Boston.

Mr. George Holland of Torbrook to Miss Belle Whitman of Torbrook Mines.

Mr. Ernest Neily to Miss Katie Spianey both of Greenwood.

Mr. Percy Banks of Meadowvale to Miss Anna Maud Perry of Spring Hill, N. S.

Mr. Isaac Brown to Miss Ella Crocker both of Meadowvale.

We are sorry to report the death of the veteran lumberman, Jas. Gordon of Tremont, who died on the 20th inst.

Mr. Wm. McGill was interred in Tremont cemetery on 15th inst. He was the father of G. B. McGill, who is well known in Annapolis and Kings Co.

Miss Zilpha Banks of Meadowvale, who went to Greenwood, (Mass) U. S. to get the six year old daughter of her recently deceased brother, Joseph D. Banks, has returned to Boston with her charge, and is expected home in a few days.

Our interesting budget of news from Cambridge Canning and Kingsport, etc. is crowded out until Tuesday.

Well, said the red-faced man, the most exciting chase I ever had happened a few years ago in Russia. One night, while sleighing about ten miles from my destination, I discovered to my intense horror that I was being followed by a pack of wolves. I fired blindly into the pack killing one of the brutes, and to my delight saw the others stop to devour it. After doing this, however, they still came on. I kept on repeating the dose with the same result, and each occasion gave me an opportunity to whip up my horses. Finally there was only one wolf left, yet on it came with its fierce eyes glaring in anticipation of a good hot supper.

Here the man who had been sitting in the corner burst forth into a fit of laughter.

Why, man, by your way of reckoning the last wolf must have had the rest of the pack inside it.

Ah! said the red-faced man, now I remember, it did wobble a bit!

Matters in regards to civic affairs are very quiet and as yet we have not heard whether the Mayor and three retiring Councillors are going in by acclamation or not. What about it electors? Hurry up and get your candidates into the field.

Training

Is indispensable to athletic success. In training, much stress is laid upon diet; careful attention to the quantity and quality of the food eaten, with regularity of meals.

That is the secret of strength for every man. No man can be stronger than his stomach. The careless and irregular eating of business men, causes disease of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. There can be no sound health until these diseases are cured.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the body to be built up into vigorous health by the assimilation of the nutrition extracted from food.

"I was taken with the grippe, which resulted in heart and stomach trouble," writes Mr. T. K. Caudill, of Montclair, Allegheny Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his Golden Medical Discovery, which I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used nearly six bottles. I am highly recommended it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

SCOTCH VILLAGE

Too late last week.

Although quite a fall of snow here, your correspondent is not snowed under.

At times there is such a dearth of news, that it seems impossible to get any happenings that are interesting.

Quite a few teams have gone to the logging woods, and this snow fall must be to their liking.

Messrs. James and Isiah Anthony are at home on a visit.

James and Young Campbell had a rather unpleasant experience on Thursday last, starting to hunt rabbits, in the afternoon, they wandered too far. Night coming on they attempted to find their way back. At 10 p. m. they gave up the struggle, and prepared to pass the night as best they could. Starting a fire and making a couch of boughs, Campbell lay down and slept the sleep of the just and exhausted, while Anthony on whom the responsibility rested kept the fire burning brightly. Their friends located them next morning, and all this time with nothing to eat.

Our post master, Mr. J. C. Northup has been quite ill and is now slowly mending.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Mr. Wm. Davidson, St. Andrews, Que., states—"Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has cured me of bronchitis. I have, without success, tried many remedies for the past six years. Last winter when I had a severe attack and was unable to work, I procured a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and am happy to state that the third bottle made me a well man."

Mr. W. R. Alger, insurance agent Halifax, N.S., says—"I used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for a severe attack of bronchitis. I permit me to testify to its splendid curative properties. I got better from the time of taking the first dose. Having a family of young children, my doctors' bills have annually come to a considerable sum. I believe a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup occasionally will aid me in reducing them very materially."

SUMMERVILLE

Mr. Editor:—
Dear Sir:—It has been several weeks since I spoke to the public through the columns of your valuable paper. My silence was not for lack of items, but I have been watching the effect of my last few common place remarks. It reminds me of my boyhood, when dropping a pebble in a lake would watch the ripples expand one after another and disappear. Just so with my remarks.

Sleighing has been excellent for some time past, and woodmen seem to take advantage of it.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Zwicker have returned from a visit to friends at Chester.

Miss Nellie G. Sanford made a flying visit at her home Lower Burlington.

Mr. Embert Zwick has taken his departure for Bear River, where he expects to spend the winter.

A number from this place attended the District Division in Burlington on the 15th.

Miss Flo Lake spent a few days in Burlington with friends.

"Observer," has asked me to explain my insinuations. I thought the time has passed when a man could be hanged for his thoughts, "But old times have become new." Now Observer don't think too seriously over the matter, for perhaps you weren't the criminal, but late there has been very few "Jewel Gatherers" at the Banks. May I ask why? There is certainly just as many Jewels as ever, and likely more valuable.

Miss Alice Sanford has returned from her visit in Burlington.

Mr. Tramp, which is the Turnpike road phase have it lighted up.

Have all received their Photos? How do you like the new style of mounts?

As Observer has to explain, "Tracks" I will thank you for space given me and sign myself,

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper

A RACKING COUGH

Afflicted the Sufferer for Twenty Years

Often Sat Up in Bed Coughing the Whole Night Long—Doctors Ultimately Told Him the Trouble was developing into Consumption—How Rest was Obtained—From the Times, Picton, Ont.

Nothing rakes the body more than a severe cough. If it is allowed to run for any length of time, it is very hard to get rid of, and often leads to that most dreaded of all diseases—consumption. Such a sufferer was Mr. Thomas Jinks of Prince Edward county. Mr. Jinks relates the following facts in a Picton Times reporter:—"I am now sixty-seven years of age and for the last twenty years I have had a bad cough. I was troubled with catarrh, which started in my head, but later spread to my stomach, leaving me dyspeptic. For two years I was troubled with pains in the stomach and was not able to raise my arms above my head without experiencing severe pains about my short ribs and stomach. Then my kidneys began to trouble me and at times I could not get out of a chair without help. My limbs and feet were often so swollen that I was unable to lace my boots, but as soon as the swelling went down I was but a mere shadow. My wrists and arms were so swollen that I could span them with ease. My cough raked my whole body. I have sat up in bed and coughed the whole night long. I tried several doctors but without success. They finally told me I was in the first stages of consumption. In the spring of 1899, a little pamphlet was thrown in the hall floor telling about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to try them. Before finishing the second box, I noted a change, and after using them for a couple of months, I was completely cured and the cough had left me. At present my health is as good as I can wish for, and I can truly say through all my suffering, I never got any permanent relief until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Mr. Jinks added that it was not in his own case alone that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had proved of advantage in his family. His daughter, Miss Mildred, was in very poor health, and scarcely able to go around. In fact, her friends feared her trouble was developing into dropsy. She used five boxes of the pills and is now enjoying the very best of health.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such apparently hopeless cases as Mr. Jinks' because they make new, rich, red blood, and they reach the root of the trouble. These pills are the only medicine offered the public that can show a record of such marvellous cures after doctors had failed. If you are at all unwell, this medicine will restore you to health, but be sure you get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box.

DEATH OF QUEEN VICTORIA.

The whole country was stirred on Saturday when the news was announced that the Queen was dangerously ill and that death was expected any moment. The Royal family was called to the bedside to watch the life of one, who had been a kind and sympathetic mother and a much loved and respected Queen, ebb away. On Sunday her condition was announced from the city pulpits and prayers went up for her from the millions of her subjects.

On Tuesday "Queen is dead" was flashed around the globe at which time flags were set at half mast and bells were tolled. It has brought sadness in to many homes. Death occurred on Tuesday morning at 6.30 a. m.

She was born at Kensington Palace, on May, 24, 1819, the infant daughter of Prince Edward, Duke of Kent, fourth son of George III, and the Princess Dowager of Lemingen, sister of Leopold, of Saxe Coburg, afterward King of the Belgians, was of regal descent, in her veins being the blood of the English Saxon and Norman princes, of Tudors, Plantagenets and Stuarts. From the latter she took her crown. The early life of the young Princess Victoria Alexandria was uneventful. Left fatherless during her first year, she was carefully trained and educated by her mother.

In 1831 it became almost certain that she would succeed to the throne of England, and when she attained her majority, she stood at the foot of the throne, for King William IV. was then dangerously ill. On the death of William IV. she was awakened from her sleep and told that she was Queen of the British Empire. The same day she took the oath, but was not crowned until a year afterwards. Thus at eighteen years of age, Her Majesty came to preside over the destinies of Great Britain, and on June 29, 1838, she took the oath of coronation in Westminster Abbey. According to the terms of this oath, she promised to do the utmost in her power to maintain the laws of God and the true profession of the gospel and to cause law and justice in mercy, to be executed in all her judgments, and how well she has kept all her promises we have all good cause to remember.

This was the commencement of the greatest reign in the history of the British Empire. While several of the other countries have had several kings and queens changed from a republic to a monarchy within the past 63 years Great Britain has had only one Queen, and that one, won the love of the people who would have gladly laid down their lives to allow her to live. What ever may be said of the past kings or queens who have held the reins of this Empire or any other, more can be said of Queen Victoria, which cannot be said of them. She never shut herself from her subjects but always sympathized with them in their joy and sadness. Her death will be mourned many days by her millions of subjects. She is dead but she will live forever more in the hearts of all British people.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.—Trooper W. H. Snyder will give his illustrated lecture on the Boer War in Victoria Hall, Berwick, on Saturday evening, in Bennett's Hall, Conning, on Monday evening, in Regent's Hall, Aylesford, Tuesday evening. He goes to Weymouth on Wednesday, Brighton Thursday, Bear River Friday. In addition to his talk on the South African Campaign he will give a full account of the reception of the Canadians by her late Majesty Queen Victoria, also by King Edward VII, which at the present time will be very interesting. Mrs. J. R. Webster was at home to a number of friends last Friday evening. Music, readings and various games made the evening pass very pleasantly.

Winnipeg Pastor Speaks on Sale of Crow's Nest Coal.

Winnipeg, Jan. 9.—Rev. J. B. Silcox, one of the leading men in the city, referring to the Crow's Nest coal lands deal in his pulpit on Sunday night, before an audience which could scarcely find sitting room, regretted the lack of more good men in our Provincial and Dominion Parliaments, when there would be better laws on the statute books. He said: "God Almighty placed great beds of coal in this cold country for the use and comfort of the people, but cliques of men seize the mouth of the coal pit, and demand toll for every pound that goes out, and the worst of it is that the people have not the intelligence to protect it by law. Nothing can be more un-Christian than this deal in the hands of the people, they will not permit such wrongs to be shielded by law."

IN MEMORIAM

That stern reaper "whose name is death" has gathered into his vast treasure house one more of God's children ripe for Heaven. Mrs. Helen Randall passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter in Boston, on Wednesday the 9th inst in the 78th year of her age. According to her earnest wish her remains were brought home and interred in the family burying ground at Tremont, Aylesford, on Saturday the 13th. Mrs. Randall was the wife of the late I. W. Randall of Boston, formerly of Aylesford, and daughter of the late Deacon Calvin Baker of Tremont. She was born May 6th 1825. Early in life she gave herself to Christ and united with the Baptist Church of Tremont, remaining there throughout her life to her Christian principles. During her residence in Tremont she endeared herself to a large circle of friends by her gentleness, sympathy, hospitality and sterling qualities of mind and heart.

In 1865 the family removed again to Boston where she has spent the early years of her married life and where she has since made her home.

She will be greatly missed in the family circle of which she has so long found a part, and by her many friends.

She leaves one brother Samuel G. Baker Esq. of Tremont, and two daughters, Mrs. Geo. G. Bentley of Sheffield Mills and Mrs. Frank S. Wiley of Boston, to mourn their loss.

Miss Myrtle Caldwell, teacher at Cambridge, was in town from Friday till Sunday visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Webster.

The old reliable remedy for Spavin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, and all forms of Lameness. It cures without a bluish because it does not blister.

From His Standpoint. "What are you going to have for dinner?" asked the new arrival at a country hotel.

Why McCorker Weakened. "It is shameful the way Mr. McCorker has treated Miss Fitzperkins."

Enjoyment. "Don't you enjoy the gentle zephyrs and the sweet music of the season?" asked the poetic youth.

All Ours. "Where is the American section?" asked the visitor to the Paris show.

Believed He Had. "Have you any good cookbooks?" asked the customer.

Gossiping Neighbors

People will talk and when neighbors get together there is very likely to be something said about Dr. Chase's Ointment and the surprising cures it has effected among sufferers with piles and itching skin diseases.

ARTISTICALLY MANAGED

Gallant Man, aside.—At last I have her all to myself. Now I can tell her how much I love her and ask her to be mine.

Gentle Maid, aside.—It is surely coming. I am so nervous and frightened! I know he is going to be terribly dramatic. I do hope I shan't have to help him up off his knees.

Gallant Man, smilingly.—No; I'm saving it for a wedding trip.

Gentle Maid, demurely.—Why, how funny. So am I.

Gallant Man, meaningly.—Then why shouldn't we take it together?

Gentle Maid, innocently.—Possibly your wife and my husband might object to going in such a crowd.

Gallant Man, brilliantly.—The crowd wouldn't be objectionably large if your husband and my wife were husband and wife.

Further conversation disjointed and indistinct.

A Catarrh Specialist

Mr. James Spence, Clachan, Ont., says: "I have been a sufferer from catarrh for 15 years; which became chronic. I have spent a lot of money and consulted several doctors, among others a specialist in London. I have tried everything I could hear of or see advertised, without doing me any good. But, thanks to Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, I am completely cured after using three boxes of it. I recommend it to anyone suffering from catarrh."

Musical Item

"I'm sorry I didn't go to that bargain sale, remarked the soprano. I understand some very lovely things went for a song."

That's so, dear, replied the contralto, but do you think any of your notes would be high enough?—Philadelphia Press.

Useful in Every Home.

To know the virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment and the innumerable uses to which it can be put in the family, is to prize it as a friend of inestimable worth.

For women it cures the pimples, blackheads and skin eruptions which mar the beauty of the skin, gives instant and lasting relief to the itching from which they suffer, and positively cures eczema, salt rheum and piles.

For men Dr. Chase's Ointment is most frequently used for piles, which are caused by exposure to cold and dampness or by bodily derangements.

It is the only guaranteed cure for itching, bleeding and protruding piles. 50 cents a box at all dealers, or E. J. Mansson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS AT MIDNIGHT

COWES, Midnight, January 19.—The Queen lies at death's door.

She was stricken with paralysis to-night.

Reuter's telegram company understand that the Prince of Wales has received authority to act in Her Majesty's stead and thus has been created a practical, though not a constitutional regency.

LATEST BULLETINS

COWES, January 22nd, 5 a. m.—The Queen is expected to live until Thursday morning, unless unexpected complications occur.

COWES, Isle of Wight, January 21st, 4.33 p. m.—A slight improvement is said to be visible in the Queen's condition. But there is no hope of anything but a fatal ending. The night is awaited with the greatest anxiety. Paralysis is spreading to vital parts.

Nourishment is being artificially administered. The palace is packed. There is scarcely room for the emperor of Germany and his staff. With the exception of newspaper correspondents there are only a few people outside the gates. Inquiries from all parts of the world continue to pour in.

Nova Scotia Farmers' Association

The Annual Meeting of the above Association will open at Kentville, Kings County, Wednesday evening Jan. 30th at 7 o'clock and continue in session during the next two days. It is to be hoped that all of the one hundred and thirty Agricultural Societies in the Province will try and attend, as an excellent programme has been prepared and some interesting subjects will come up for discussion.

Among the visitors and speakers from outside the Province who are expected, are the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, F. W. Hodson, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner, W. T. Macout, Horticulturist at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, and others: B. W. Chipman, Secretary of Agriculture for N. S.; Prof. H. M. Smith, of the School of Agriculture, Truro; R. Robertson, Superintendent of the Experimental Farm, Nappan; J. E. Hopkins, of the Dominion Dairy Station, at Nappan and Prof. Sears of the Horticultural College, Wolfville, will also be present and give short addresses.

Whilst C. C. H. Eaton, of Canada, will read a paper along the Beef line, Jno. Donaldson, of Port Williams, will read one bearing the Dairying; W. E. Roscoe, of Kentville, will present one relating to Roads; and D. Logan, of Pictou, and B. H. Lee, of Berwick, will take up Sheep and Swine raising, respectively; J. E. Wood, Secretary to the N. S. Exhibition Commission will also be there with a paper on Exhibition matters.

On Friday evening, it is expected through plans are not sufficiently developed to speak for certain, that a dinner in honor of the distinguished visitors from outside the Province will be held.

Parties attending by train can obtain reduced rates by purchasing a first class out way ticket to Kentville and securing from ticket Agent a starting point a Standard Certificate which when properly filled out and signed, will entitle the holder to a free ticket for return journey.

Literary Readers

Read Our Great Clubbing Offer

We have just completed a range of monthly magazines with our own paper which will give our subscribers the magazines for about one half price.

Table listing various magazines and their prices, including 'Success', 'Current Literature', 'McClure's', etc.

The first three offers figure up at $7 and we offer them for $4. Others are as good offers. Success is a favorite New York monthly 48 pages at $1.00 per year.

Our authors, says a publication, are holding their own. As a rule, however, they own so little it is easily held.

Apparently Satisfactory.

"How do you get along with your new hired girl, Mrs. Upson?" "Well, of course one can't always be certain in such matters, but we seem to please her."—Chicago Tribune.

Altogether Too Sensitive.

First Politician—Clubs ain't just the right stuff for a police captain. Second Politician—Not much! He's worryin' because the grand jury censured him.—Brooklyn Life.

Capit's Mistake.

"It's not to think that Cupid At times makes grave mistakes And hearts that he united Are often feeling sad."

We now and then are startled When starting tales of woe From those who seemed so happy A few brief months ago.

At times a "perfect angel," These girls are oft been sung, Will prove to be a tartar, With ever scolding tongue.

Now, while the little cherub Is blamed for such mistakes, It's wrong to charge poor Cupid With all domestic breaks.

HUMOR

AN OBLIVIOUS CASE.

So Oblivious That a Tragedy Was Clearly in Sight. Going up town from the depot, I saw a young colored man cautiously peering out from an alley and also noticed that he had a razor in his hand.

"What's the trouble between you?" "It's an oblivious case, sah—werry oblivious. I've den fugged-to a gal, an de weddin day am sot. He knows how dat gal lubs me an how we's gwine to be f'ined, but he desists in prognosticatin' aroun an declarin he can't jist lib widout her; just goes ober to her house an cries like a child, an eb'ry day he sends me word dat he's gwine to insinuate my anatomy."

"What does he mean by that?" I asked. "Why, to carve me up wid a razor, sah—carve me up wid two razors mite be. I've on de lookout fur him right dis mornin'. Yes, sah, when we turn de nex' co'ner we may run right into dat specific individual, but don't yo' be skeert if we do. Yo' jist take yo'r satchel an stand one side an witness de tragedy."

"Then there'll be a tragedy?" "There will!" he shouted as he jumped around. "Sah, don't yo' make no mistake on me. If dat reprehensib'le gusson comes along yere, dar will be de mos' tragical tragedy yo' ever heard tell of, an while he will be left lyin dead on de bed I shall hold my head up an glide away wid an asperity of pomposity to astonish yo' fur de nex' few weeks to come."

Caive the Woman.

Caive the woman is a topic not a whit less fascinating than her career as a prima donna. Each summer is spent at her chateau at Carriere, near Aveyron, France. There is a pretty romance connected with this country seat. When as a girl she used to walk past this place each day, her most daring dream was to some time be rich enough to purchase it.

Today she spends as much time as possible there in company with her parents and brothers and sisters. To the village folks Caive is an ideal Lady Bountiful. She visits the poor, takes the sick all sorts of tempting delicacies, interests herself in securing positions for the unemployed. The village children fairly worship her. Caive loves children. She will sit for hours on the lawn under the big trees surrounded by a group of admiring children, telling them strange tales of what she has seen and heard in foreign lands or relating legends of long ago.—George T. B. Davis in Woman's Home Companion.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The Turkish government has issued an irade prohibiting the importation of all apparatus connected with electricity.

Should Russia ultimately succeed in her scheme for dominating Asia she will become mistress of some 800,000,000 people.

The grand vizier of Turkey gets twice the salary enjoyed by the British premier and has perquisites of about as much more.

Care of Cage Birds. How and where will you keep your bird? That cleanliness is obviously of the first importance and that it is hard to keep fanciful cages free from dirt and parasites is enough to condemn them.

Where you shall place your canary or other bird to good advantage is a matter to consider carefully. In summer weather he enjoys being out of doors or in an open window, but not in the direct hot sunshine, nor exposed to a shower, nor where dogs or cats, hawks or shrikes can seize him or perhaps frighten him to death.

PROGRESS IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA.

By S. Alberta is meant the portion lying between the C. P. R. main line and the International Boundary, a tract of land about the area of N. S., excluding Cape Breton Island. It is the land of the chinook, a warm western wind which carries a heavy snow fall away in a few hours. This enables cattle to graze and thrive throughout the winter and has made Southern Alberta the great cattle and sheep country of Canada. The summers are dry, the rainfall being too slight for general farming. Agriculture has been carried on in connection with small ranching. If the crop failed the farmer had his stock to carry him through. Working on this principle, a settlement of northerners from Utah located in the South West corner of Alberta has thriven. The success of these pioneers has attracted to this Cardston district a good many settlers who wished to continue farming and ranching. In the eastern part of S. Alberta is the town of Lethbridge, with a population of about 3000. The town has been built up by the coal mines located here and is connected by R. R. with Montana. In the centre of the area is MacLeod, the business centre of this ranching country. Further west, Pincher Creek, the centre of trade for the foothills. The foothill region has attracted considerable settlement, owing to fine scenery, good soil, mildness of climate, comparative abundance of water in springs and creeks and nearness to timber.

The era of progress in S. Alberta dates from the building of the Crow's Nest Ry. This gave the towns and districts named, direct connection with the markets of the Kootenay. Not only has the cattle trade been helped, but large quantities of oats, hay, potatoes, etc., have been shipped from the foothills.

But it is in other facts that we leave our expectations concerning the future prosperity of S. Alberta. The first of these facts is the mining prospect. Not only may the ranchers and farmers of the district find a market in B. C., where they may compete favorably with North Alberta and Washington, but ere long they will have all to themselves a large mining population within their own district. Much has been heard of the coking coal lands in the Crow's Nest Pass. When the Crow's Nest Ry. charter was granted it was supposed that the original B. C. company had a monopoly of the coking coal lands adjoining the Ry. It now appears that they have only the fringe of these deposits and that the greater portion lies east of the summit and in Alberta. Here the deposits are easily accessible and so unlimited that they cannot be conserved. The Lethbridge Co. is opening a mine and other companies are prospecting in the pass itself. A wealthy Montana Co. is developing a mine 20 miles west of Pincher Creek. It is supposed that this Co. is working in the interests of the great smelters at Butte and Anaconda, Montana, and that a Ry will be built from Montana to these deposits. So long as there are smelters in Montana and B. C., there will be a demand for coke from these mines.

Besides coal there are undoubtedly other mineral deposits on the easterly slope of the Rockies which may be profitably worked. Rich copper mines are being recently developed just south of the boundary, and there is no reason to suppose that valuable deposits cease at the 49th parallel. The existence of coal oil has been established at Pincher Creek and opens up interesting possibilities not only to the capitalist, but also to the western settlers, who pay 45 cents per gallon for this necessary article. The second notable fact is the present and prospective development of irrigation. There is plenty of water in S. Alberta, but unfortunately for the farmer it is in rivers instead of rainfall. But these rivers flow from the mountains and being fed by mountain snows are fullest in the season of heat and drought. The lay of the land is such that much of it may be easily irrigated.

Besides several lesser schemes the Alberta Ry Co. have opened a ditch about 60 miles in length with a branch 20 miles in length to Lethbridge. It carries the waters of the St. Mary's river through a range of rolling hills out on to the level prairie in sufficient quantity to supply the needs of a great tract of land. The surplus water (which left the mountains for Hudson Bay,) is discharged into a tributary of the Missouri, and so finds its way to the Gulf of Mexico. Irrigation not only means the reclaiming of farming land but the beautifying of the towns and villages. Thus Lethbridge, which was situated on a dry level prairie, 500 feet above the river, had no beauty of situation to attract population. With the construction of the ditch the water now runs in clear streams along the sides of the streets and around the squares. With this will come trees, flowers, grass and lawns and the utilization of waste ground for cultivation. The Co. is so confident of the results of irrigation that it is now building a Ry along the line of the canal.

One other fact which may mean a great deal to the district is worthy of mention. S. Alberta has not been counted a safe grain growing region. The risks of drought in summer and early storms in fall were against spring grain. Experiments seem to have proven that fall wheat stands these risks much better than spring grain. It was supposed that fall wheat would winter kill; but the experiments have shown that it does not, even when sown on the high prairie from which the snow blows away. One farmer reports ten successive crops, threshing from 40 to 60 bushels per acre. If further experience bears out these results, it means that thousands of acres in the foothills and adjacent country now worth perhaps $1.25 as grazing lands will, without irrigation become valuable as fall wheat lands. Such was the history of the Palouse country in Eastern Washington, which is now one of the best wheat-growing sections of the U. S. With irrigation on the plains and fall wheat in the hills, added to the ranching industry, S. Alberta bids fair to take a good place among the agricultural districts of Canada. By the way, many of your readers will be interested in the fact that G. J. C. White lately Baptist pastor at Annapolis, is now stationed at Lethbridge. Yours,
C. B. Freeman,
