A Remarkable Test!

Locally Made

By Messrs. W. & G. RENDELL.

To test Solignum as a preservative for Wood against the attacks of Worms, we tried a piece of 2 x 4 Spruce, about two feet in length, by painting one-third with Solignum, leaving the balance clear wood, this we suspended by a wire through the centre, in the water about one foot from the bottom, immediately over a pile of stones, the remains of a snaken wharf (which is the place where our Wharf Shores are eaten off first) for Three Months. On taking it up at the end of that time we found some half-dozen small holes only a very short distance in the clear part of the wood, which shows the liquid had penetrated through the whole piece and the worms had hardly begun boring before coming in contact with it.

Last year as a test of some brands of Copper Paint we handle, we had a similar piece of wood treated at both ends, leaving the centre third clear; this was in exactly the same place as the piece for the Solignum test for Three Months and Three Days, when taken up the painted ends were perfect but the centre was riddled with worm holes.

Both these pieces of wood are to be seen at our Office by those interested in the preservation of Wharf Piles or any other wood work.

Baby Prisoners.

Infant of Eighteen Months Charged as a Wanderer.

A baby of eighteen months, Frank Warwick, was charged in London, England, under the Children's Act, with wandering, and was carried into court by the matron. The magistrate remarked that it seemed ridiculous to charge one so young, but the police inspector replied that he had had to charge babies under twelve months old. A further remand was ordered.

When taken into court on a previous occasion young Frank caught sight of his mother, who is charged with exposing her children in a manner likely to cause them injury, and there was no further peace until he was allowed to cling round her neck. The magistrate thought it absurd to charge children of that age, and ordered them to be sent to the workhouse.

There was another scene when an attempt was made to separate little Frank from his mother. Both mother and child had to be taken out together and when the actual separation took place the little boy's screams could be heard throughout the court.

Only Eight Senators

Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 4.—At a session of the State Senate recently the Rev. A. F. Randall, the chaplain, requested the Senators to repeat with him the Lord's Prayer. Only eight Senators were able to join in its audible repetition. Since that the chaplain has distributed copies of the Book of Common Prayer of the Episcopal Church among the members. At the opening of yesterday's session the chaplain again requested the Senators to say this prayer. Fully half of the Senators were able to repeat it.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Ruth Cameron

Preserve me from the people who go out of their way and even deny their convictions for the pleasure of disagreeing with you on every possible subject. But equally much, preserve me from the folks who swing the pendulum to the opposite extreme by being fairly fulsome in their acquiescence. I wonder if you know just the kind of people I mean?

Let me elucidate by telling you some of their ways. These folks are so prone to agree with you and so sure they know just what you are going to say that if you pause an instant in your speech, they supply the word for you. Quite frequently it isn't the right word, but politeness forbids, of course, that you should tell them that.

They always gaze intently at you while you are talking, presumably in order to demonstrate their interest more thoroughly. As a natural result of this painfully direct gaze your eyes begin to feel as if you were trying to look into the sun, you feel yourself becoming embarrassed and start looking at the floor, the ceiling, out the window or anywhere to avoid meeting their gaze.

They almost always nod their heads frequently in approval of what you are saying. You ought to be grateful.

Ruth Cameron

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or nausea, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, burps at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed under each. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fads and Fashions.

Delicately colored buttons in soft blues, pinks and purples will be used on silks and chifons. For girls' blouses will not be as much favored as stripes and checks with material trimming.

Some of the latest girdles are very wide, six to eight inches in front and three inches less in the back.

It is not thought that the short frock for evening wear will outlast the season, as it lacks elegance.

The fichu is very much in favour and it is certainly a pretty accessory—picturesque, too, and coquettish.

Black velvet shawls are considered very stylish, caught with a diamond buckle, using very lightweight velvet.

The newest Dutch collar closes in the back and has a five-inch pleated jabot over the front from the neck edge.

The ricorne again has a place in millinery, cocked hats according with a decided military tendency in dress.

The latest mode brings in a black velvet evening coat, with sailor collar and cuffs and long, tasseled revers of white satin.

There is a strong rogue for the black-and-white in millinery, and the hat of this type is becoming to every type of beauty.

Spring predictions for tailor-made suits are: Jackets, 26 inches, half-fitting, tight at the hips, plain sleeves, broad collar, narrow and straight.

Some of the new shawl-shaped styles are made of a new material, very much like plush, and they are usually seen in the soft taupe shades.

Draped models are extensively used for evening gowns. The tunic is crossed or disposed in irregular folds; it is twisted and turned in curious ways.

In the new satins and crepes many of the delicate intricate designs of the odd evening shawls are given in contrasting tones by the weave of the material.

Many of the best-dressed people are carrying large bags of rich material, each with lots of gold about it, slung from very long gold cords, reaching nearly to their boots.

Kilted skirts are promises for girls' wear again; also kilted flounces under one-piece loose frocks. Another idea is the "band" flounce trimming on girl's dresses of plain material.

Chiffon cloth in all colors, bordered on three or on all four sides with marabout, is the practical winter veil. Marabout matches or contrasts with the veil; either being attractive.

Automobile veils are of chiffon cloth, fine marquisette or grenadine with plain or printed borders, in ribbon effects. It is now the fad to use the kinds that are waterproof.

ENGLAND'S FIRST RAILROAD.
The travelling on the first railroad in England was not very comfortable undoubtedly. The coaches were at first only coupled with chains, as wagons are now; so that they jerked the unfortunate passengers nearly off their seats at starting and clasped violently against each other when the driver put on his brake. When fairly in motion, if the speed was any but the slowest, the very short wheel base produced a pitching action so trying that if the journey had not been a short one it would have seriously affected the popularity of the railway as a means of passenger transit.

Corkum Loading.

Thursday last Capt. Corkum, who is now in Fortune Bay with his schooner, the Coronation, had 300 barrels of herring shipped on her, the fish being secured at St. Jacques and English Harbor. The vessel is at Pool's Harbor and she will take 1,000 barrels of frozen fish. Capt. Corkum is buying the herring from the fishermen and will easily secure a load. It is not yet known if he will get a clearance from the authorities when the vessel's cargo is on board.

SAW YOUNG SEALS.—Captain Rumsey in speaking to the Telegram yesterday stated that when he met the Arctic floe 10 miles east of Cape Ballard, Saturday, several young seals could be seen on the ice quite near the vessel. Four were white coats and fine-plump little fellows they appeared to be, while the others seemed to him to be young hoods from their appearance. Old seals were seen in the distance. The crew were too busy working the ship through the ice to go after the young ones.

Peat Manufacture.

There is now before the Legislature an Agreement between the Government and The International Carbonizing Company, Limited.

The Government gives the Company entry for three years upon all ungranted peat lands in the Colony, which are not within half a mile of a settlement for the purpose of examining their value.

During the next three years the Government agrees to grant all or as much of the ungranted peat land of the Colony as the Company selects, provided that the Company will erect and complete within three years from the grant a factory, cost $125,000 and with an output of 20,000 tons per annum for every thousand acres of bog with at least 22 feet deep of workable peat.

In addition the Government agrees to give ten acres of land for each factory.

The Company agrees to pay a royalty of ten cents per ton on their output of Peat Coal Briquettes or other products of factory.

The Company obtains freedom from municipal and local taxation, and taxation on capital or securities, also free entry of construction material and machinery, water power, and rights of way to ports and railways.

The Manufacture of Explosives.

The Agreement about the Manufacture of Explosives in the Colony which is being submitted to the Legislature for ratification is substantially as follows:—

The parties to the Agreement are the Government and the British Canadian Explosives Company, Limited, of London, England. The latter are called The Lessees. The Lessees agree to erect factories during the present year capable of supplying the local demand for mining and other explosives.

The Government agrees to give them: (1) free sites; (2) free timber areas for lumber for boxes and packages of explosives made here, and to export in shucks for their factories abroad; (3) water power for operating and lighting works; (4) free entry of material for construction and equipment of works; and of raw material, not procurable here, to manufacture the explosives; (5) protection against the competition of foreign explosives. If the lessees ask for it, when they can supply local demand.

Old Seals Seen.

People up from Torbay to-day say that a heavy jam of sloop ice is packed close in on the shore with the heavy Arctic ice running up on the outside. Several old seals were seen off that place this morning but not close enough to the shore to impel people to go in quest of them. Seals could also be distinguished on the ice off this port but they were only few in number.

BLOCKED WITH ICE.—Lascie to-day reports strong N.W. winds, and a heavy jam of ice on the shore, with no water in sight. The thermometer registered 1 below zero.

The Typhus Outbreak.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—In the Plaindealer of last week an item appeared stating (1) that two typhus patients had recently walked to the Hospital in extremely cold weather; and (2) that Miss Ellis, one of the patients, asked for a carriage or sleigh and was refused, and had to walk the whole distance accompanied by a warden, as if she were a prisoner, the fever breaking out on her next day.

Upon my attention being drawn to the statements referred to, I at once communicated with the Medical Health Officer on the subject. I herewith enclose you a copy of his reply, and shall feel obliged if you will publish the same in the next issue of your paper.

Yours truly,
R. WATSON,
Colonial Secretary.

MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER TO COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Department of Public Health,
St. John's, Newfoundland,
February, 11th, 1911.

Sir,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of date the 9th instant with reference to an article which appeared in the Plaindealer of the same date, entitled "Walking to Hospital." I had not previously seen or heard of this article, and am glad to have an opportunity of contradicting it, but I regret that the Government should assume—as it would appear from your letter—that such statements as these are, or could be, correct. The statement that any patient suffering from any symptom or sign of typhus fever—or even under observation on account of any symptoms which might possibly prove to be those of typhus or other fever—has walked to the Hospital is absolutely false. It is merely one of many false and injurious statements, in connection with this typhus outbreak, which have been published in certain newspapers.

The following are the facts with regard to the case of Nurse Ellis, who is referred to in this article: Miss Ellis was in perfect health when, on the 17th January, she left the house of Wm. Fanning and went to the Hospital—not as a typhus patient, or even as a patient "under observation," but to do duty as a nurse. When Miss Ellis's services were no longer required at Mr. Fanning's, and she wished to leave the house—which was still under quarantine—I felt that, as she had been in very close contact with a highly infectious case for some weeks under somewhat unhygienic conditions, there was considerable danger that she might have become infected, and would in due course be attacked by the disease. It would therefore have been quite unsafe to allow her to resume her usual work among the public, and I offered her—as an alternative to remaining in the infected house or being quarantined at home with her family—an engagement of two weeks or more as a nurse at the Fever Hospital, where the services of an extra nurse were required. This offer she willingly accepted. The nurse remained in her usual health, and did full duty for six days after entering the Hospital, the first symptoms of illness appearing on the night of the 23rd. The statement that a sleigh or conveyance was asked for and refused is quite untrue. The nurse was anxious to leave the house as soon as possible, and I suggested that she should walk to the Hospital in preference to waiting for 24 hours longer, which delay would have been necessary for thorough disinfection of her clothing, etc. before she could have been allowed to use a cab or other public conveyance. It is moreover, very doubtful whether any cabman could have been induced—even after disinfection—to take an inmate of a house infected with typhus and still under quarantine. Miss Ellis did not make the least objection to walking to the Hospital. The weather was fine and one would think that a few minutes' walk would be quite enjoyable to a young woman in good health who had been kept closely indoors for three weeks; it would certainly be preferable to being removed like a typhus patient in the infectious ambulance. The nurse was not "accompanied by a warden," or, as far as I am aware, by any other person, as I felt that I could safely rely on her promise to go directly to the Hospital. The suggestion that the use of the ambulance has ever been refused to a patient—either on the ground of economy or for any other reason—is, of course, as false and malicious as the rest of the article.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) R. A. BREHM,
Medical Health Officer,
Hon. R. Watson, Colonial Secretary.

Among the many cough remedies now before the public, none better deserves the name than Matthew's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil. It combines the healing and antiseptic properties of Pine Tar with the heat producing and flesh forming qualities of Cod Liver Oil. During the winter when coughs and colds, many of them apparently trivial, but liable if not checked to become serious, a good cough remedy is a necessity. And many of our customers can testify to the value of Matthew's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil. Large bottle, price, 60c.

Some time ago I had a bad attack of Quinsy which laid me up for two weeks and cost a lot of money. Finding the lump again forming in my throat, I bathed freely with MINARD'S LINIMENT, and saturating a cloth with the liniment left it on all night. Next morning the swelling was gone and I attributed the warding off of an attack of Quinsy to the free use of MINARD'S LINIMENT.

In the Assembly.

Yesterday afternoon, petitions were presented by Hon. Mr. Blandford from Three Island Harbor, Westville, about a landing place; from Shoal Harbor, St. Brendan's, for a wharf; from Musgrave Town for a road, and from Salvage for a well; by Mr. Parsons, from Bay Roberts for a wharf; by Mr. Downey, from Codroy, for a ferry on Grand River; by Mr. Howley, from Dunville for a road and from Boat Harbor for a bridge; by Mr. Clift, from Long Island for a freight shed and wharf at Lush's Right; from Lush's Right Card's Harbor, Triton and Little Harbor about roads.

The Premier tabled correspondence about Cold Storage, and also a statement of payments made on account of the Hague Arbitration.

The Speaker read a communication from His Excellency in reference to the Address to His Majesty the King. The Speaker intimated that Notices of Questions should follow the presentation of petitions, and at the end of the sitting, when the House is about to adjourn.

Mr. Clift gave notice of questions—(1) To ask the Minister of Justice for a detailed statement of travelling expenses incurred by Magistrate Fitzgerald of Grand Falls and of all moneys paid him over and above his salary for extra work; (2) a detailed statement of the cost of erecting the lighthouse at Old Perlican, including the names of workers employed and wages paid.

At the request of Mr. Clift, on behalf of the Leader of the Opposition who was unable to reach town because of the delay of the trains, the Cold Storage Resolutions were deferred until next sitting.

PEAT AGREEMENT.

In introducing the Peat Resolutions in the House of Assembly yesterday, the Premier, Sir Edward Morris, said in part, that what the peat industry is capable of producing under proper development still remains in the region of doubt, and he possessed no information that would lead him to make any more than a mere guess as to what our vast and great peat areas might mean to Newfoundland. Up to the present, very little success has been attained in promoting this industry, and the Government does not claim for this agreement any more than an attempt or effort to work these areas to provide a substitute for coal. There is not a shadow of a doubt but there are very extensive areas spread all over the country; there is a big deposit near Westville, B. B. others in St. Mary's Bay and various places. Reports have been prepared, showing where these deposits are, and telling of the tracts that have already been made, and this whole information, which will be laid on the Table of the House before the Bill goes through, was brought to the notice of English capitalists interested in this matter, and the resolutions now before the House form the result of the negotiations which took place. The people who compose the company were recommended by financial authorities, and there is no doubt as to their standing. The item of fuel, said Sir Edward, is one of the greatest living troubles from which our people suffer. It is true there are many places throughout the country still sufficiently near the woods from which the people can secure their fuel but in many settlements the only fuel procurable is the coal imported from North Sydney. The demand brought about by increased consumption and the justifiable increase in wages paid the men have raised the price of coal to a very high figure, and the fact stands that to-day we are paying $6.50 and $7.00 per ton for that which only a few years ago we could secure for $1. It is necessary, therefore, to make some attempt to meet this condition, and if peat can be manufactured so as to make a good substitute then it will be to a large extent overcome.

In addition to the agreement now before the House it is hoped that the coming summer will witness the completion of arrangements with another company for the development of our peat areas. Indeed this company has already received concessions under the Peat Act, in that they have received permission to work some of our wild peat areas, and we are very hopeful that the work of developing will be undertaken.

Mr. Clift had much sympathy with the idea of converting our peat areas into commercial products. He had taken personal interest in the matter, and had been in correspondence with experts with a view to the examination of our peat areas in order to ascertain the value of turning them to account.

He had watched with interest the experiments which were being conducted in other countries with the object, if possible, of establishing industries to handle peat in a large commercial way. He had come to the conclusion that such efforts had not yet passed beyond the experimental stage, and that there were many problems yet to be solved before peat areas could be utilized in a large industrial way. Canadians were spending money on a lavish scale in investigating these possibilities, and it seemed to him the wiser course would be to wait and see what was done in order that this country might profit economically by their experience.

Canada has made large expenditures with a view to testing the possibilities of her peat areas, and a little while ago sent an expert to all parts of the world, to visit every peat manufacturing plant in operation, and he reported that while it was believed there were great possibilities in peat, no process had as yet been discovered whereby it might be converted into the desired commodity. He hoped that under the present agreement, the result would be such as to bring about the long desired and much needed substitute for coal. That we have large areas of peat, of course nobody will deny; and it is only a question of utilizing the proper plant and system of utilizing it.

The resolutions and the agreement covered were then read and the Committee rose and reported progress.

The resolutions and agreement relating to the manufacture of Explosives were introduced, read, reported and a bill covering them read a first time.

The Speaker informed the House that His Excellency the Governor would receive the Address in Reply at noon to-day.

The Premier gave notice of a bill to regulate the Manufacture and Sale of Explosives; and the Minister of Finance of Supply. The House adjourned until noon to-day.

Treatment prescribed had no effect—DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT made thorough cure. Mrs. Oscar Vancott, St. Antonio, Saca, writes: "I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for Eczema and other skin diseases. One son, while nursing, broke out with running watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many salves were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail and would not eat and we thought we would lose him. "Providentially we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by Dr. Chase's Ointment; and we hope more people will learn about it so that their little ones may be saved from suffering." Crescents Win by Two to One. The attendance at the Prince's Rink last night for the League Hockey Match was the largest for any similar occasion during the winter. The match was a lively one and resulted in a win of 2 to 1 for the Crescents.

The Crescents at the start besieged the Feldidians with determination, but the defence was so strong that they could do no scoring. After about a quarter of an hour even play Gus Herder, of the Crescents, got possession of the rubber and sent in No. 1 for his team amidst the cheers of the Crescents' supporters and friends. Shortly after Hubert Herder and R. Stick effected good combination and pushed the rubber down the ice when Herder made a brilliant shot and sent in No. 2 for his side. A minute afterwards the Feldidians got their one and only goal. Jeffrey ran the puck up the ice and on being passed into the control of Martin he did the useful in good style. White and Martin now played a hard game to make the figures equal without effect. The first half ended with the score 2 to 1 in favour of the Crescents.

SECOND HALF. When the second half opened the Crescents were quickly down on the enemy's camp, but Jeffrey was too wide awake to let anything like rubber pass him. Several similar attacks were made but Lily did his goal work too well to allow scoring. The Crescents had the best of the play and kept up a hard attack on the Feldidians' goal. Stick was sent off for fouling. Marshall made a promising run but was checked by Pinsent. H. Herder was sent to the gangway for three minutes for tripping. The Feldidians now put on a spurt and seemed determined to secure a goal. They had the best of the play for several minutes. Pinsent and Slime combined splendidly, but nothing resulted for the score book. They kept the Crescents' goal keeper close to his work for several minutes. Martin made a good attempt to score but failed. Marshall was sent off for tripping. The Feldidians played their best towards the close of the game, but did nothing. The score still stood Crescents, 2; Feldidians, 1, when the gong sounded. The game was a clean one from start to finish, and it attracted the largest crowd of spectators for the season.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion, I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden." Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, Duckworth Street and Theatre Hill. Small size, 25 cents; postage, 5c extra; large size, 50 cents; postage 10c extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—Oct 29, 11m

Picture Machine Exploded in Face of Operator

While taking flashlight pictures in the Simpson House last evening Mr. E. McIntosh, of Toronto, formerly of the Benson House, Lindsay, had his face and head badly burned by the machine exploding in his face. He was at once taken to the hospital, where he now lies suffering intense pain. Mr. McIntosh would have probably lost his eyesight, but for the fact that he was wearing glasses.

Photographed from "Lindsay Warrier" of Jan 13th last. Now read The Sequel

Mr. MacIntosh says:—"At the hospital I was kept masked night and day for five days. At the end of that time the burns were still very bad and the doctors would not hear of my returning to work. I knew if I could only get some Zam-Buk for the burns I would be back at work in quick time, because I had previously used the balm and knew what it would do. At last I left the hospital and went straight to a local store and bought some Zam-Buk. At the hotel I applied a Zam-Buk dressing and this cooled the burning pains and gave me quick relief. I kept on with the Zam-Buk treatment and returned to work. Within just one week after first commencing with the Zam-Buk treatment I might have defied anybody to detect where the burns had been, so splendidly did Zam-Buk heal the injury." Mr. MacIntosh resides at 48 Humbert St., Toronto.

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for eczema, ringworm, salt rheum, skin eruptions, ulcers, piles, abscesses, the dyspepsia, and all other skin and diseases. It is in form of ointment, balm, or a dust, and is in all drug stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, Ont. Send this coupon, a stamp, and name of this paper and we will send you a free trial box.

Trial by Jury. Using Pigeons

Whence comes the system of trial by jury? In the opinion of Bourguignon, a French jurist, "its origin loses itself in the night of time." Blackstone speaks of it as "a trial that hath been used time out of mind." Reeves thinks it was introduced into England by the Normans, who themselves obtained it from northern Europe. It is certain that the Scandinavians had an established jury system more than a thousand years ago. The Normans on their arrival in England found prevailing there the ordeal of hot irons, which enforced the carrying of a pound of heated metal by the accused for a given distance, and the ordeal of hot water, in which by way of variation a stone had to be withdrawn from a pitcher of boiling water. No attempt at reform in this direction was made by William the Conqueror.

CABLE SHIP OUTSIDE.—Yesterday afternoon a large steamer passed the Narrows going north and later was seen to change her course and run south. The pilots believed it to be the cable ship Minia, but others thought it to be the Heathcote, which had been dredging out Bell Island, and left the bay fearing she would be caught in the ice.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. George Hodder, of St. John's, is here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. A. Dwyer. We were glad to see our old friend looking so well.

Miss Wallace is still unable to attend to her school, but hopes to be able to do so on Wednesday. Miss Wallace is recuperating at the home of her friend, Mrs. R. S. Munn, Victoria Street.

A housekeeper was complaining last week that her hens were not doing their duty in supplying the family with eggs, when little Johnny thought to throw some light on the subject by saying, "I expects they got the grip."

Captain D. Connolly, who is spending a time with his sister at Carbonear, took a run up to-day to see his Harbor Grace friends.

Miss E. Maddock, of Carbonear, after spending a week with Mrs. W. H. Parmiter here, returned home on Thursday last.

Miss Alcock, who had been visiting friends at Carbonear, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Ellis, writing from Plymouth, England, says that her husband, Capt. Ellis, in his schooner of the West, arrived safely at Lisbon after a stormy passage of 34 days from Carbonear. The schooner was much damaged by the storms and was ordered on to another port for repairs. Mrs. Ellis is well and sends best wishes to all her old friends.

This being the jubilee year of that valuable institution, the Conception Bay British Society, it is intended to celebrate the affair in a fitting way on the 23rd inst. A special meeting of the Society takes place on Wednesday night to finalize matters.

The Standard added a new and up-to-date Chandler & Price job printing press to its plant last week. The press weighs something over 300 lbs., and is sure to give satisfaction. We wish the enterprising firm much success.

Mr. and Mrs. Noseworthy of the cable staff here have just removed into the house owned by Mrs. Wm. Butt, Water Street West. The house is so situated that it gives a beautiful view of the waters of the harbor. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. N. and wish them much happiness in their new home.

GRAND NEWS FROM NEW ONTARIO.

MR. G. W. TODD TELLS HOW HE GOT RID OF HIS RHEUMATISM. Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills brought him the long-looked-for relief. How Rheumatism is cured once and for all.

Wah-Tax-Beg, New Ontario, Feb. 13.—(Special).—Every person who suffers from Rheumatism wants quick relief and a sure cure. That's the reason they will all be interested in the statement of G. W. Todd of this place. Listen to it: "After suffering with Backache and Rheumatism for twelve months and trying several so-called remedies and getting no relief, I decided to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. Two boxes brought me the relief I had looked for so long."

Are you looking for relief from your Rheumatism? Are you also looking for a cure that will banish its aches and pains so that they will never return? You will find both in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. That uric acid is in the blood, simply because diseased kidneys are not doing their work. With healthy kidneys, all the uric acid will be strained out of the blood and there cannot possibly be any Rheumatism. Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to make the kidneys healthy. Ask your neighbors about them.

City Council Meeting.

At a special meeting of the City Council held last night, Councillor Mullan's motion to have the franchise in civic matters extended to all men of 21 years of age on payment of one dollar poll tax, was defeated. The public were excluded from the meeting—even the reporters—so that it is not known who voted with Councillor Mullan or who voted against him. He gave notice of motion that he would bring up the matter in an amended form. The Council then held a consultation with the Solicitor on the subject of proposed legislation in connection with the city. The meeting adjourned at 11 o'clock.

This schooner was about 90 tons. It was running west with a heavy sea, and it was blowing a storm. Apparently there were several men in the main rigging. The schooner was on her beam ends. CHANCES OF RECIPROcity BILL.

WASHINGTON, This Morning. The McCall bill, carrying into effect the Reciprocity Agreement reached through the House yesterday and probably to be passed by that body, is a test vote came soon after the House was called to order. McCall moved immediate consideration of the bill. So this objection was taken. When voting began it soon became apparent that lines were being tightly drawn between those favoring and those opposing the Canadian Agreement. The vote to take up the bill was 197 to 129. It is expected that the bill will be passed by an even larger majority. 101 Republicans voted against immediate consideration; 93 Republicans voted for it. It is apparent that both the regulars and insurgents are split.

Two Fires To-Day.

A fire broke out at 1:30 p.m. to-day at the house of Mr. Walter Dicks, head of Pleasant Street. An alarm sent in from box 37 called out the West End firemen. The fire was found in the dining room where some clothing hanging near the fire had caught. The firemen put it out by throwing a few buckets of water on it. Very little damage was done.

At 1 p.m. to-day a telephone message was received by the Central firemen notifying them of a fire at Mr. Thomas Godden's residence, King's Bridge Road. The men proceeded there with their apparatus and found that the place was filled with smoke. Mrs. Godden found the fire in the furnace room in the basement, and it ate its way up through the walls of the drawing room, parlor and other apartments to her bedroom. The firemen had to cut away parts of the walls to get at the blaze which they flooded out after a hard fight to get at it. The house and furniture were badly damaged, but are covered with insurance.

After the ceremony the happy couple went to Bonaventure, where they were met by Mr. Charles Butler, and then proceeded to the bride's home where supper was then waiting. After supper games were kept up till the "wedding hours" of the morning. The happy couple will be leaving the 20th of February for Canada, their future home. We wish them every happiness in the new sphere of life.

Schooner Checkers

Eventful Voyage.

FLOODS AND SEAS ALMOST SUBMERGE SHIP.

The schr. Checkers, Capt. Pieman Rumsey, arrived here from Oporto yesterday afternoon after a most eventful and very stormy voyage. Interviewed by the Telegram, Captain Rumsey said that the ship left Burin on September 1st, last, with laden for Oporto, and made the run across in the good time of 16 days. In about 19 days she was ready to leave for this port, and was at anchor in the stream when, owing to incessant rains and heavy storms the River Duoro became so swollen that heavy floods resembling those of the previous year when the Ceylon came to grief, were experienced, and the Harbor Master warned the crews of all steamers and vessels to leave them and go ashore for safety. Besides vessels there were in the port 25 steamers, some of which went ashore. The river overflowed its banks and much damage was wrought ashore as well as on the water. Daily houses could be seen floating down the river, broken boats and barges passed swiftly by, badly broken, and bodies of several who were drowned were also swept down in the flood. The current ran at a speed of 17 knots. The Newfoundland vessels lying at Oporto with the Checkers were the Annie Lauder, of Burgess; the Deputy Louise, St. John's; Minnie Pearl, Burin; and two English vessels—the Reliance, which was loaded by Crosbie & Co., and another. All these vessels sustained more or less damage. Capt. Rumsey and his men remained 7 days ashore in a hotel while the floods continued. The Checkers lost her starboard and stream anchors, ropes and gear, and the life boat was swept from her side. The tow boat Mars collided with her and carried away the bowsprit and topmast, and she had her funnel knocked out of her and was stove by the force of the collision. Repairs being affected the vessel left on the 2nd January in company with the Clementine, and had the weather until the Gulf Stream was reached, when on the 7th inst., she experienced a hurricane of wind from the N. N. W. which lasted for 7 days, and the vessel had to lay to for that period. A mountainous sea ran, and to help allay it in some measure oil bags had to be used and were thrown over the bows, and drags had to be put out to keep her head up to the sea which time and again threatened to swamp the ship. On the 2nd inst. one lumber boarded her and carried away the galley, life boat, foreboom, foremast and a portion of the starboard hullworks. The weather was intensely cold and the ship became badly lee-fied up, so that the crew suffered terrible hardships intensified from the fact that they could not cook their food, the galley being swept away. They eventually rigged up a stove in the cabin and cooked their grub until their arrival here.

Put an End to Stomach Misery.

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia vanish in five minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards. If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your Pharmacist for a 5-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal grumbling. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery at any drug store, waiting for you.

Chapter VII.—A Pathetic

The surroundings at Bruce St. present a very beautiful picture of the tower of Nature, and especially this case on a fine morning in June. The poet says: "God made the country and man the city."

Which therefore should be best. For health and vitality, and man's truer development, the city affords the better chance, crowded cities are contrary to well-being and constitution of and the problem which the cause of the city's devious offer can be solved without a change—a return back to Nature. When this is taken, and not till then, physical and wrong, both moral, physical and intellectual, be defeated.

But we must not begin to mope just here, as our notes are most tendered in an incidental way. Therefore we will resume our journey. Leaving Briggs we were soon on our way to the Junction. We found the express in waiting meant a short stay, and therefore much opportunity of glancing at the thing for our notes. But there one incident that moved us to our thought or two, and which moment awakened memories of generation ago. At our last stay Briggs we chanced to meet the of an accident, who was sent to his home in Western Bay

Holiday Notes for 1910.

I. C. MORRIS.
Chapter VII.—A Pathetic Incident at Brigus Junction.

The surroundings at Brigus Station present a very beautiful picture to the lover of Nature, and especially is this the case on a fine morning late in June. The poet Cowper says in one of his odes, "God made the country and man the city."

For health and vitality, and for man's truer development, the country affords the better chance. The crowded cities are contrary to the well-being and constitution of man, and the problem which the conditions of the city's denizens offer can never be solved without a change—a change back to Nature. When this step is taken, and not till then, will disease and wrong, both moral, physical and intellectual be defeated.

But we must not begin to moralize just here, as our notes are mostly intended in an incidental way, and therefore we will resume our journey. Leaving Brigus we were soon speeding our way to the Junction, where we found the express in waiting. This meant a short stay, and therefore a most opportune opportunity of gleaning anything for our notes. But there was one incident that moved us to a serious thought or two, and which for a moment awakened memories of a full generation ago. At our last stop at Brigus we chanced to meet the victim of an accident, who was being sent to his home in Western Bay. He deceased, of her manly husband, and the associations of Harbor Grace in its palmy days, all crowded upon us, as for a moment we stood by the side of our dead sister.

There is a pathos about the death of Mrs. Paterson that is well worth repeating, and which lifts the veil from the privacy of the home, and reveals it in one of its most beautiful aspects. Death came to her unexpectedly, but the time and place were both opportune. The duties of the day were over, and the hour for repose had come. Like all Christian people, she, with her household, had assembled for family worship. What the burdens of the day were we may not know, but whatever they were, they were sanctified by the evening prayer at the family altar. Just then and there, the accident which terminated fatally occurred. It was, as most of our readers are aware, caused by the upsetting and explosion of a lamp. A messenger of death it proved, and the one taken was Mrs. George Paterson. Within this metal covering her remains were lying and were being conveyed to her early home at Harbor Grace, there to rest by the side of her husband until the brighter dawn of a resurrection day. By accident they both met their death, and now after life's fitful dream, they lie reunited, side by side, in the common bed of Mother Earth.

The signal "All Aboard" soon left the Station clear, and at full speed our train dashed off. Nothing further worthy of these notes transpired, and therefore we must close our chapter and turn our thoughts in another direction. But in whatever direction our feet wandered we found abundance of facts, all of which are of interest to men and women in the battle of life. True they are but simple facts, but little things; and yet these same little things largely fill in the "common task," or "daily round," of the "simple annals of the poor," eye of the rich as well. The human heart is much the same the world over, and those who have found the secret of "touching hearts" have discovered the spring that opens its recesses. With the possession of this secret we have gained many an audience all round the shores of our Island Home, and it is in this spirit that we continue our tour which lies in a more southern direction.

Eczema's Tortures
All treatments failed for three long years—Cure complete with DR. CHASSE'S OINTMENT.
Mrs. Link, 12 Walker St., Halifax, N. S., writes: "After three years of miserable torture and sleepless nights with terrible eczema, and after trying over a dozen remedies without obtaining anything but slight temporary relief, I have been perfectly and entirely cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. After the third or fourth application of this grand ointment I obtained relief, and a few boxes were sufficient to make a thorough cure. It is six months since I was freed of this wretched skin disease, and as there has been no return of the trouble I consider the cure a permanent one."
Such cures are not brought about by imitations and substitutes for Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is therefore necessary for you to be certain that the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author, are on the box you buy, 60 cts. a box, at all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for a free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

Sensational Report.
Shortly after 8 o'clock last night the police received a report from the South Side stating that a young man, a resident of the place, had attempted suicide, having made several efforts to cut his throat during the afternoon. On receiving the report Supt. Grimes sent, Serg. Mackey and Const. Tobin to the scene. The man did not actually attempt suicide, the officers learned on their arrival at his home, but repeatedly threatened to do so, and was prevented from any rash action by the vigilance of his wife. The man was under the influence of liquor, and to avoid the possibility of anything serious occurring to him the officers were about to arrest him when the wife pleaded for him and he gave his assurance that he would behave himself, so that they left him at his home.

The Tobasco Here.
The S. S. Tobasco, Capt. Yoemans, arrived here from Halifax at 4.30 p.m. yesterday after a passage of 52 hours. She had fine weather until she made Cape Race when she had it very frosty and she met a large body of slob ice which she skirted until off Cape Spear, when she ran in through. She brought two passengers and about 400 tons cargo, and anchored in the stream until the Almeriana is discharged when she will berth at her pier.

SHELTERED AT TREPASSEY.
The bargn. Devonia, Capt. J. Snow, 41 days out from Pernambuco, put into Trepassey yesterday. The vessel must have experienced weather similar to the others from Brazil, and will arrive here with the first change of wind.

Sails To-Day.
The S. S. Almeriana which arrived here from Liverpool yesterday, made a summer run of it, and on arrival there was some difficulty in berthing her owing to ice. Her passengers were:—A. Knock, P. Gabrielsen, Johannes Christensen, Rev. F. G. Martin and Capt. Buckingham.

He Got His.
Looking up from his magazine one night he remarked to his wife, "Do you know what I'd have done if I had been Napoleon?"
"Yes," she answered. "You'd have settled down in Corsica and spent your life grumbling about bad luck and hard times."
