

Love in the Abbey

Lady Ethel's Rival

CHAPTER XIII
LADY ETHEL'S RIVAL.

KITTY gains her room unnoticed, thanks thus far to Mr. Sydney Cahthrop, for it is he who suggests that the carriage shall stop at the entrance to the housekeeper's room, and it is he who, as he assists Kitty to alight, whispers:

"Up the side staircase—you know the way?—and you will escape inconspicuously, Miss Trevelyan."

Kitty does go up the side staircase, two steps at a time, and does escape curiosity, which certainly would have been inconvenient; and now, as she sits upon her bed, panting with her upward flight, she is grateful to Mr. Sydney Cahthrop for his thoughtfulness. Later on, Kitty will find herself thinking and pondering over that same thoughtfulness, but at present her mind—not by any means a large one—is full of one person only, and that is Elliot Sterne. Elliot Sterne—only this morning she sat up in this same bed, and decided that she hated him—only this morning she planned to humiliate him—only this morning, a few hours since, she succeeded in doing rather more than mortify him—nearly killing him, in fact!

And now she sits, swinging her legs to and fro—sits in her cotton frock, with her eyes pensively fixed on the lace that decks the dainty looking-glass, recalling the look of his face as he turned his eyes upon her to thank her.

"Only yesterday, last night, she was full of scorn and high-minded contempt for the people who fell down and worshipped before the popular idol, and now here is she herself thinking of him, striving to recall every fleeting expression of the handsome, noble face.

How strong he was! How bravely he had borne the pain which she had caused him! He had sat there, and smiled and laughed, looking as serene as a god of Olympus, with all that agony gnawing at him; and then, at last, when he had given way, how noble, how grand he looked—so quiet and peaceful, as he lay there in her arms! At the recollection, Kitty starts, and blushing holds out her arms and looks downward at them. Yes, come what will, he lay there, peaceful as an infant—she has held him to her heart! With a blush that covers her very neck, that seems to make her tingle, Kitty stops short in her reverie; but the reflection remains, it cannot be dispelled: the look he has given her has burnt into her heart; the fact that he has been helpless in her arms cannot be disposed of; and Kitty—well, if the truth must be told,

"My dear Kitty! I—I should be afraid to go into the stable where he was."

"Should you now," demands Kitty, stopping in her operation of pulling down her hair, to stare with well-feigned surprise.

"Now, I think that is the best-tempered horse you've got."

"And that is why you took him, I suppose?" puts in Lady Ethel quietly.

"Yes, that's why I took him," assents Kitty, coloring, but hiding her embarrassment by brushing her long, thick hair between her face and Ethel's keen eyes.

"Yes, we had a good gallop, Reg and I—!" Then she stops, mad with herself for "splitting" on Reg.

"Oh," says Lady Ethel, with something like a sigh of relief. "Reg was with you, was he? What a bad boy that is."

"Oh, no, he is not, not at all bad," says Kitty. "Yes, we started together, and had a famous run, I think of the two perhaps Reg is the better on level—"

"And where?"—says Lady Ethel suddenly.

Lady Ethel rises, and as she passes the glass, pauses a moment to glance in it, womanlike.

She sees not only her own fair face but Kitty's, and suddenly, for the first time in her life, the beauty of this tomboy cousin of hers strikes upon her. Kitty, with her long, thick hair half uncoiled and sweeping her shapeless shoulders, with her expressive eyes full of a half-veiled wilfulness, is eloquent of a charm which impresses even Constable Ethel; but then she glances at herself and smiles complacently. "After all," she thinks, "who would hesitate between us!" And so, satisfied and unsuspecting, passes out.

Kitty continues her dressing, and waits with tolerable patience the appearance of the luncheon tray. Some time elapses, and Kitty, like a fashionable garrison, is almost resolved to make a sally in search of provisions, when there comes a tap at the door. With her usual impetuosity, she flies to open it, and her face falls, palpably, at the disappointment in store for her. It is not Lady Ethel's French maid with a temptingly spread tray, but old Lady Ellesford.

"Well, my dear," says the old lady, "whom did you expect, eh? That imp of mischief with some toffee? May I come in?"

"Come in," says Kitty. "Toffee! Toffee wouldn't satisfy me, Lady Ellesford; I'm starving!"

And she holds out her round arms with half-moek, half-serious pathos. The countess shows her teeth admiringly.

"Ah, Miss Kit," she exclaims, "starving, are you? You'd make a great actress—a queen of tragedy, with your arms outstretched!"

"Scenes, madam! I know not scenes," retorts Kitty, in the language of Hamlet. "I'm ferociously hungry; I've had no lunch, Lady Ellesford."

"I should have thought you'd had enough mischief," responds the countess, "to take away your appetite. What have you done with the zoological specimen—killed him quite? Is it true that you've done the world such an ill service?"

"What do they say?" asks Kitty, turning to the table to hide the slight blush.

"They say all manner of things," replies the countess. "First, that you stole the best horse in the stable; then tempted and coaxed Elliot Sterne into jumping the widest and most dangerous part of that ugly stream of the earls! Then they say that when he fell in, he—there was Irish blood in the countess, and at odd times her language gave signs of it—that you jumped in and swam three hundred yards, and saved him by the hair of his head."

"But I've come to talk serious like with ye. Why, the great fashion world has been set by the ears. Nearly killed Lord Sterne, didn't ye? And then rescued him. My, my! Your poor father! He ought to have had a daughter like your Cousin Ethel!"

"Thank you," says Kitty, dropping a curtsy.

"And ye left Lord Sterne at the abbey—to dry?" says the countess, ignoring the audacious retort.

"Lord Sterne dislocated his arm," says Kitty.

"Oh, oh! So ye just stopped short of killing him!" says the old lady shyly. "No wonder they are all in such a state of perturbation downstairs! It isn't often the world of fashion and politics is thwarted and thrown out of gear by a little, ugly egypt of a girl—eh, Kitty?"

Kitty laughs, then turns grave and serious.

Kitty is conscious within her heart of hearts that she is by no means anxious to dispose of them.

"After all," she says, however, twisting her arms about her head, "it amounts to this, that—that—the great man is not a bad sort of fellow after all, as Reg would say, and I'm sorry that he has hurt himself, or," making a wry face in the glass, "that I hurt him."

There is no time for further reflection, for no sooner is this wise, if rather deceptive, result attained, than there is a gentle, insinuating tap at the door, and a voice—a soft, insinuating voice—which makes Kitty jump off the bed and tear at the hooks and eyes of the Noah's-ark gown.

"Kitty, may I come in?"

"Eh? Is that you, Ethel? Yes—wait a moment," says Kitty, ripping off the gown and putting it under the bed with one hand, while she seizes and envelops herself in a morning wrap with the other. "Yes—one moment," then she opens the door, and Lady Ethel comes in.

Lady Ethel has a beautiful face, and a wonderful command over its expression, but Kitty, whose eyes are as sharp as a schoolboy's after a bird's nest, detects under the placid smile—which all the Roseales, excepting herself, are so facile at—can detect the hunger of genuine curiosity in the glance which the demure eyes send round the room.

"May I come in?" asks Lady Ethel.

"Yes, quite alone! How kind of you to give me this—such a beautiful flower, too! I shall wear it at dinner to-night; it will just go with my muslin!"

"Will it not, so nicely? But, Kitty, dear, I am dying to hear about this adventure of yours—do tell me? Did you get very wet? I do hope you won't catch cold! Where," looking round the room curiously, "where is your habit?"

"Oh, drying," says Kitty. "I sha'n't catch cold; besides, I didn't get wet anything to speak of!"

"Then you," with an accent on the pronoun, "you didn't fall into the Lombe?"

"Oh, no!" says Kitty, with a careless laugh. "Oh, no; I didn't fall into it."

Lady Ethel gives her a glance that is not pleasant to see, but Roseale placidity is, at least outwardly, maintained.

"It was only Lord Sterne, then, who fell in."

"Yes, he fell in," says Kitty, putting her head on one side to see the effect of the heavy coil of hair that she had bound round her sleek head. "Yes, he fell in, I say, Eth, have they eaten all the luncheon? I'm terribly hungry."

"Are you, dear? Yes, the luncheon is cleared, I know; but I will see that they send you some. But tell me about Lord Sterne; he has a dreadfully anxious; he has sent down to the abbey. Why has Lord Sterne stayed at the abbey? Why does he not come here?"

"Because," says Kitty, prevaricating, "because he prefers it, he says, and he always does what he prefers, doesn't he? And how is Lord Sterne?"

"You should know better than any of us," says Lady Ethel, with a heightened color. "In-deed," with significant emphasis; "there are some absurd stories about. The accident was—"

"All my fault, yes, I know; don't you contradict them, Eth. I've got broad shoulders, and can bear all that; and, besides, who knows, perhaps it was—oh, if you knew how hungry I am!"

Lady Ethel rises, and as she passes the glass, pauses a moment to glance in it, womanlike.

She sees not only her own fair face but Kitty's, and suddenly, for the first time in her life, the beauty of this tomboy cousin of hers strikes upon her. Kitty, with her long, thick hair half uncoiled and sweeping her shapeless shoulders, with her expressive eyes full of a half-veiled wilfulness, is eloquent of a charm which impresses even Constable Ethel; but then she glances at herself and smiles complacently. "After all," she thinks, "who would hesitate between us!" And so, satisfied and unsuspecting, passes out.

Kitty continues her dressing, and waits with tolerable patience the appearance of the luncheon tray. Some time elapses, and Kitty, like a fashionable garrison, is almost resolved to make a sally in search of provisions, when there comes a tap at the door. With her usual impetuosity, she flies to open it, and her face falls, palpably, at the disappointment in store for her. It is not Lady Ethel's French maid with a temptingly spread tray, but old Lady Ellesford.

"Well, my dear," says the old lady, "whom did you expect, eh? That imp of mischief with some toffee? May I come in?"

"Come in," says Kitty. "Toffee! Toffee wouldn't satisfy me, Lady Ellesford; I'm starving!"

And she holds out her round arms with half-moek, half-serious pathos. The countess shows her teeth admiringly.

"Ah, Miss Kit," she exclaims, "starving, are you? You'd make a great actress—a queen of tragedy, with your arms outstretched!"

"Scenes, madam! I know not scenes," retorts Kitty, in the language of Hamlet. "I'm ferociously hungry; I've had no lunch, Lady Ellesford."

"I should have thought you'd had enough mischief," responds the countess, "to take away your appetite. What have you done with the zoological specimen—killed him quite? Is it true that you've done the world such an ill service?"

"What do they say?" asks Kitty, turning to the table to hide the slight blush.

"They say all manner of things," replies the countess. "First, that you stole the best horse in the stable; then tempted and coaxed Elliot Sterne into jumping the widest and most dangerous part of that ugly stream of the earls! Then they say that when he fell in, he—there was Irish blood in the countess, and at odd times her language gave signs of it—that you jumped in and swam three hundred yards, and saved him by the hair of his head."

"But I've come to talk serious like with ye. Why, the great fashion world has been set by the ears. Nearly killed Lord Sterne, didn't ye? And then rescued him. My, my! Your poor father! He ought to have had a daughter like your Cousin Ethel!"

"Thank you," says Kitty, dropping a curtsy.

"And ye left Lord Sterne at the abbey—to dry?" says the countess, ignoring the audacious retort.

"Lord Sterne dislocated his arm," says Kitty.

"Oh, oh! So ye just stopped short of killing him!" says the old lady shyly. "No wonder they are all in such a state of perturbation downstairs! It isn't often the world of fashion and politics is thwarted and thrown out of gear by a little, ugly egypt of a girl—eh, Kitty?"

Kitty laughs, then turns grave and serious.

"What can you mean, Lady Ellesford? It was my fault, I know. I wish I could make you believe that I am sorry; but I can't, I know."

"That you can't," assents the countess, with charming candor.

"I am very, very sorry," asserts Kitty, her eyes flashing; "but, excepting that poor Lord Sterne has a great deal to complain of, I don't see how I have injured the rest of the people downstairs."

"Ah," says the old lady grimly. "They say that Elliot Sterne is so annoyed that he won't come near the house again, and Lady Ethel as well—"

"Ethel—Ethel lose him!" says Kitty, turning a pair of wide-open eyes upon the wrinkled face of the old gossip.

The countess eyes her with amused interest, and grins with enjoyment.

100 YEARS

and more, people with chest and throat troubles have tried to cure them by pouring cough syrups, lung tonics and the like into their stomachs. All a mistake! The Peps way is different.

Peps

Peps are tablets made up of Pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes, which is not eating. Try your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All druggists and stores or Peps Co., Toronto, will supply.

"Where? Let me see!" says Kitty.

"Where was it? Oh, by the Lombe—just below the bridge. What a beautiful azalea that is you have in your dress, Eth. I wonder if I could coax Wilcox into cutting a blossom for me. I do like azaleas, don't you; papa never will encourage our man to grow them—"

"You shall have the azalea, if you like, Kitty, dear. Was Lord Sterne alone—quite alone?" asks Lady Ethel.

"Yes, quite alone! How kind of you to give me this—such a beautiful flower, too! I shall wear it at dinner to-night; it will just go with my muslin!"

"Will it not, so nicely? But, Kitty, dear, I am dying to hear about this adventure of yours—do tell me? Did you get very wet? I do hope you won't catch cold! Where," looking round the room curiously, "where is your habit?"

"Oh, drying," says Kitty. "I sha'n't catch cold; besides, I didn't get wet anything to speak of!"

"Then you," with an accent on the pronoun, "you didn't fall into the Lombe?"

"Oh, no!" says Kitty, with a careless laugh. "Oh, no; I didn't fall into it."

Lady Ethel gives her a glance that is not pleasant to see, but Roseale placidity is, at least outwardly, maintained.

"It was only Lord Sterne, then, who fell in."

"Yes, he fell in," says Kitty, putting her head on one side to see the effect of the heavy coil of hair that she had bound round her sleek head. "Yes, he fell in, I say, Eth, have they eaten all the luncheon? I'm terribly hungry."

"Are you, dear? Yes, the luncheon is cleared, I know; but I will see that they send you some. But tell me about Lord Sterne; he has a dreadfully anxious; he has sent down to the abbey. Why has Lord Sterne stayed at the abbey? Why does he not come here?"

"Because," says Kitty, prevaricating, "because he prefers it, he says, and he always does what he prefers, doesn't he? And how is Lord Sterne?"

"You should know better than any of us," says Lady Ethel, with a heightened color. "In-deed," with significant emphasis; "there are some absurd stories about. The accident was—"

"All my fault, yes, I know; don't you contradict them, Eth. I've got broad shoulders, and can bear all that; and, besides, who knows, perhaps it was—oh, if you knew how hungry I am!"

Lady Ethel rises, and as she passes the glass, pauses a moment to glance in it, womanlike.

She sees not only her own fair face but Kitty's, and suddenly, for the first time in her life, the beauty of this tomboy cousin of hers strikes upon her. Kitty, with her long, thick hair half uncoiled and sweeping her shapeless shoulders, with her expressive eyes full of a half-veiled wilfulness, is eloquent of a charm which impresses even Constable Ethel; but then she glances at herself and smiles complacently. "After all," she thinks, "who would hesitate between us!" And so, satisfied and unsuspecting, passes out.

Kitty continues her dressing, and waits with tolerable patience the appearance of the luncheon tray. Some time elapses, and Kitty, like a fashionable garrison, is almost resolved to make a sally in search of provisions, when there comes a tap at the door. With her usual impetuosity, she flies to open it, and her face falls, palpably, at the disappointment in store for her. It is not Lady Ethel's French maid with a temptingly spread tray, but old Lady Ellesford.

"Well, my dear," says the old lady, "whom did you expect, eh? That imp of mischief with some toffee? May I come in?"

"Come in," says Kitty. "Toffee! Toffee wouldn't satisfy me, Lady Ellesford; I'm starving!"

And she holds out her round arms with half-moek, half-serious pathos. The countess shows her teeth admiringly.

"Ah, Miss Kit," she exclaims, "starving, are you? You'd make a great actress—a queen of tragedy, with your arms outstretched!"

"Scenes, madam! I know not scenes," retorts Kitty, in the language of Hamlet. "I'm ferociously hungry; I've had no lunch, Lady Ellesford."

"I should have thought you'd had enough mischief," responds the countess, "to take away your appetite. What have you done with the zoological specimen—killed him quite? Is it true that you've done the world such an ill service?"

"What do they say?" asks Kitty, turning to the table to hide the slight blush.

"They say all manner of things," replies the countess. "First, that you stole the best horse in the stable; then tempted and coaxed Elliot Sterne into jumping the widest and most dangerous part of that ugly stream of the earls! Then they say that when he fell in, he—there was Irish blood in the countess, and at odd times her language gave signs of it—that you jumped in and swam three hundred yards, and saved him by the hair of his head."

"But I've come to talk serious like with ye. Why, the great fashion world has been set by the ears. Nearly killed Lord Sterne, didn't ye? And then rescued him. My, my! Your poor father! He ought to have had a daughter like your Cousin Ethel!"

"Thank you," says Kitty, dropping a curtsy.

"And ye left Lord Sterne at the abbey—to dry?" says the countess, ignoring the audacious retort.

"Lord Sterne dislocated his arm," says Kitty.

"Oh, oh! So ye just stopped short of killing him!" says the old lady shyly. "No wonder they are all in such a state of perturbation downstairs! It isn't often the world of fashion and politics is thwarted and thrown out of gear by a little, ugly egypt of a girl—eh, Kitty?"

Kitty laughs, then turns grave and serious.

"What can you mean, Lady Ellesford? It was my fault, I know. I wish I could make you believe that I am sorry; but I can't, I know."

"That you can't," assents the countess, with charming candor.

Kitty is conscious within her heart of hearts that she is by no means anxious to dispose of them.

"After all," she says, however, twisting her arms about her head, "it amounts to this, that—that—the great man is not a bad sort of fellow after all, as Reg would say, and I'm sorry that he has hurt himself, or," making a wry face in the glass, "that I hurt him."

There is no time for further reflection, for no sooner is this wise, if rather deceptive, result attained, than there is a gentle, insinuating tap at the door, and a voice—a soft, insinuating voice—which makes Kitty jump off the bed and tear at the hooks and eyes of the Noah's-ark gown.

"Kitty, may I come in?"

"Eh? Is that you, Ethel? Yes—wait a moment," says Kitty, ripping off the gown and putting it under the bed with one hand, while she seizes and envelops herself in a morning wrap with the other. "Yes—one moment," then she opens the door, and Lady Ethel comes in.

Lady Ethel has a beautiful face, and a wonderful command over its expression, but Kitty, whose eyes are as sharp as a schoolboy's after a bird's nest, detects under the placid smile—which all the Roseales, excepting herself, are so facile at—can detect the hunger of genuine curiosity in the glance which the demure eyes send round the room.

"May I come in?" asks Lady Ethel.

"Yes, quite alone! How kind of you to give me this—such a beautiful flower, too! I shall wear it at dinner to-night; it will just go with my muslin!"

"Will it not, so nicely? But, Kitty, dear, I am dying to hear about this adventure of yours—do tell me? Did you get very wet? I do hope you won't catch cold! Where," looking round the room curiously, "where is your habit?"

"Oh, drying," says Kitty. "I sha'n't catch cold; besides, I didn't get wet anything to speak of!"

"Then you," with an accent on the pronoun, "you didn't fall into the Lombe?"

"Oh, no!" says Kitty, with a careless laugh. "Oh, no; I didn't fall into it."

Lady Ethel gives her a glance that is not pleasant to see, but Roseale placidity is, at least outwardly, maintained.

"It was only Lord Sterne, then, who fell in."

"Yes, he fell in," says Kitty, putting her head on one side to see the effect of the heavy coil of hair that she had bound round her sleek head. "Yes, he fell in, I say, Eth, have they eaten all the luncheon? I'm terribly hungry."

"Are you, dear? Yes, the luncheon is cleared, I know; but I will see that they send you some. But tell me about Lord Sterne; he has a dreadfully anxious; he has sent down to the abbey. Why has Lord Sterne stayed at the abbey? Why does he not come here?"

"Because," says Kitty, prevaricating, "because he prefers it, he says, and he always does what he prefers, doesn't he? And how is Lord Sterne?"

"You should know better than any of us," says Lady Ethel, with a heightened color. "In-deed," with significant emphasis; "there are some absurd stories about. The accident was—"

"All my fault, yes, I know; don't you contradict them, Eth. I've got broad shoulders, and can bear all that; and, besides, who knows, perhaps it was—oh, if you knew how hungry I am!"

Lady Ethel rises, and as she passes the glass, pauses a moment to glance in it, womanlike.

She sees not only her own fair face but Kitty's, and suddenly, for the first time in her life, the beauty of this tomboy cousin of hers strikes upon her. Kitty, with her long, thick hair half uncoiled and sweeping her shapeless shoulders, with her expressive eyes full of a half-veiled wilfulness, is eloquent of a charm which impresses even Constable Ethel; but then she glances at herself and smiles complacently. "After all," she thinks, "who would hesitate between us!" And so, satisfied and unsuspecting, passes out.

Kitty continues her dressing, and waits with tolerable patience the appearance of the luncheon tray. Some time elapses, and Kitty, like a fashionable garrison, is almost resolved to make a sally in search of provisions, when there comes a tap at the door. With her usual impetuosity, she flies to open it, and her face falls, palpably, at the disappointment in store for her. It is not Lady Ethel's French maid with a temptingly spread tray, but old Lady Ellesford.

"Well, my dear," says the old lady, "whom did you expect, eh? That imp of mischief with some toffee? May I come in?"

"Come in," says Kitty. "Toffee! Toffee wouldn't satisfy me, Lady Ellesford; I'm starving!"

And she holds out her round arms with half-moek, half-serious pathos. The countess shows her teeth admiringly.

"Ah, Miss Kit," she exclaims, "starving, are you? You'd make a great actress—a queen of tragedy, with your arms outstretched!"

"Scenes, madam! I know not scenes," retorts Kitty, in the language of Hamlet. "I'm ferociously hungry; I've had no lunch, Lady Ellesford."

"I should have thought you'd had enough mischief," responds the countess, "to take away your appetite. What have you done with the zoological specimen—killed him quite? Is it true that you've done the world such an ill service?"

"What do they say?" asks Kitty, turning to the table to hide the slight blush.

"They say all manner of things," replies the countess. "First, that you stole the best horse in the stable; then tempted and coaxed Elliot Sterne into jumping the widest and most dangerous part of that ugly stream of the earls! Then they say that when he fell in, he—there was Irish blood in the countess, and at odd times her language gave signs of it—that you jumped in and swam three hundred yards, and saved him by the hair of his head."

"But I've come to talk serious like with ye. Why, the great fashion world has been set by the ears. Nearly killed Lord Sterne, didn't ye? And then rescued him. My, my! Your poor father! He ought to have had a daughter like your Cousin Ethel!"

"Thank you," says Kitty, dropping a curtsy.

"And ye left Lord Sterne at the abbey—to dry?" says the countess, ignoring the audacious retort.

"Lord Sterne dislocated his arm," says Kitty.

"Oh, oh! So ye just stopped short of killing him!" says the old lady shyly. "No wonder they are all in such a state of perturbation downstairs! It isn't often the world of fashion and politics is thwarted and thrown out of gear by a little, ugly egypt of a girl—eh, Kitty?"

Kitty laughs, then turns grave and serious.

"What can you mean, Lady Ellesford? It was my fault, I know. I wish I could make you believe that I am sorry; but I can't, I know."

"That you can't," assents the countess, with charming candor.

Fashion Plates.

A PRETTY COSTUME.

Corsets!

To be in fashion you should wear a WARNER'S CORSET. A comfortable fitting Corset, a fashionable shaping Corset, and a Corset guaranteed to wear without rusting, breaking or tearing.

When you discard a WARNER'S it is because you wish a New WARNER'S.

Price: $2.30 pair up.

---

Ball Bros

for Newfoundland.

---

National Insurance Co.

North, Sir Walter Scott, the brilliant of the SCOTTISH UNION as to become 24. Faithful performances since have many is worthy to serve you with insurance.

Exceed $76,000,000.00.

FOR EXPORT CO., LTD.

---

Mauder,

Clothier, St. John's, N.F.

---

Prospective Buyers.

Engines

WARRAY & CO.,

LADIES!

Water

WEYLE'S HARDWARE

Axes.

50 doz. Axes, $22.00 a doz.

Asbestos Sad Irons.

received a shipment good quality Asbestos Sad Irons, hot iron cold.

Brushes.

are showing a good selection of brushes, $2.20, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 doz.

ENGLISH DANDER BRUSHES.

65c. each.

Back Chains and Chain Traces.

Rubber Cement.

Best Rubber Cement. Bottles, $2.50 doz.

Curry Combs.

15c, $2.10, $2.75, $2.80, $3.40, $3.80 doz.

Cutlery.

received, 50 doz. English Handle Knives, with Steel Handles, $4.50 doz.

Dessert Knives.

50 doz. English White Handle Tea Knives, $3.50 and $4.00 a doz.

Pocket Knives.

Handle Knives, $2.40 a doz. $4.00, $5.40, $6.00 and $6.60 doz. We have 100 doz. in stock.

Grinding Stones.

stock, 200 best quality Grinding Stones, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 inch.

Gimlets.

assorted Gimlets, $1.00 doz.

Horse Hames.

Wood Hames, $2.50 a pair. Iron Hames for woods work, $3.50 a pair. Wood Hames, with brass tops, $4.00, $6.00, $6.70 a pair.

Lanterns.

assorted, $1.00 doz. $1.50 doz. $1.90 doz. $2.10 each

Overalls.

Blue stripe; Blue Denim; Blue Stripes and Blue.

Oil Taps.

for kero and gasoline casks.

Razors.

20 doz. English Razors and 20 doz. English

Bengall Razors.

have a nice selection Razor Strops.

Leather Brushes.

assorted, $1.50 and $4.50 doz.

Snare Wire.

best quality.

Rabbit and Fox Snare Wire

90c. per lb.

Saws

good quality, $1.50 to $2.00; also 3 feet X Cut, Buck and Rip Saws.

Sweat Pads.

an extra good Sweat Pad work, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00

Wringers.

$4.00 and $6.00 each.

Wood Pegs.

1/2, 3/4, 1 inch. Shoe Rivets, 1/2 inch.

Whips.

received a shipment English Carriage Whips.

WARRAY'S HARDWARE,

WILLIAM SOFER, Manager.

Preparing Bills of Losses For Germany's Footing.

Extradition of Kaiser Will be Demanded---Another Crown Gone---No Change in Berlin Government.

SEEMS LIKE A JOB.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 2. Sir Frederick E. Smith, Attorney General, interviewed to-day, said that the British War Cabinet including the Colonial representatives, has unanimously decided to press Holland to extradite the former German Emperor.

A REQUEST.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. A number of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils in Germany have requested the German Government to have former Emperor William tried by a German tribunal, according to a News Agency telegraph from Berlin. The government, it is stated, will submit the question to the National Assembly.

BEIJING'S DAMAGE.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 2. The Central Industrial Committee of Belgium, after an investigation, estimates Belgium's damage through German military occupation and seizure of machinery and raw material at 6,000,800,000 francs.

AMERICA'S BILL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. American citizens were advised in a statement to-day by Secretary of State Lansing that they file at the State Department within 30 days from December 1st, information concerning losses sustained through German submarine warfare, either before or after the United States entered the war. Losses and details concerning them covering cargoes or personal property or effects should be submitted, whether the property was insured or only partly insured, and regardless of whether the property was carried in American or foreign vessels.

WILL LIKELY ACT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. A joint resolution introduced by Representative Rodenburg, of Illinois, Republican, proposes that Congress declare President Wilson's trip to Europe "Constitutes an inability to discharge the powers and duty of the office of President," and that so long as he is away from the country the Vice-President act as President. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

THE MEAT COMBINE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. The Federal Trade Commission in a supplementary report submitted to Congress today, charged the five big meat packing companies of the country with a combination in a restraint of trade and with controlling the sale of live stock and fresh meats.

KING NICHOLAS DEPOSED.

LONDON, Dec. 2. King Nicholas of Montenegro, has been deposed by the Skupshina, the Montenegrin National Assembly, according to a message received here from Prague to-day. The despatch was sent from Prague by the Czech-Slovak Press Bureau by way of Copenhagen. It says that the Skupshina voted the deposition on Friday last and declared for a union of Montenegro with Serbia under King Peter. The family of the King was included in the act of deposition.

NO DEMONSTRATIONS.

AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Dec. 1. (By the A.P.)—No demonstrations either friendly or hostile marked the entry of Major General Hickman's army into Germany to-day.

AMERICAN PRISONERS COMPLAIN.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 2. American prisoners of war from German prisons, complain of scanty food and bad housing conditions. General Pershing has informed the War Department.

ENTERS LIEGE.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 1. (British Wireless Service.)—King Albert and the Belgian royal family made their official entry into Liege Saturday at the head of the troops who conducted the heroic defence of the town in 1914, says an official statement. The king, queen and General Lemah, the defender of Liege, were cheered enthusiastically by the crowds. Almost at the same time, the statement adds, a Belgian cavalry brigade entered Aix la Chapelle, Germany, at the request of German authorities.

PARIS, Dec. 2.

Discussing the situation in Germany brought about by the former Emperor's renunciation, the National Zeitung of Hasle, according to a despatch to L'Information, says: "The impression is made that the Hohenzollerns were dismissed because they failed to conquer."

THE EMPEROR'S FLIGHT.

LONDON, Dec. 2. The flight of the former German Emperor from Germany is condemned in many quarters there and particularly by the soldiers, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Berlingske Tidende, of Copenhagen says a despatch received at the Danish capital. Dr. Strager, a Professor of Law, writes in the "Der Tag" of Berlin as follows: "No criticism would be too strong because the Emperor's action was unkingly, unsoldierly and unmanly, and served to give the death blow to the monarchical idea in Germany. A monarch cannot run away like a school boy. A man, who like this last of the Hohenzollerns, represents five centuries of history, commits by such conduct a crime against the dynasty and the people. If he thought himself capable of retaining his position, the battlefield offered him an opportunity of at least making a kingly and dignified exit, casting a fresh lustre on the monarchical idea and not because they violated all laws of humanity."

PARIS, Dec. 2.

The Reichstag will convene shortly, according to newspapers in South Germany, says a Zurich despatch.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.

LONDON, Dec. 2. An interesting incident is related in connection with the arrival of surrendered German U-boats. It was dark when they reached their moorings in the Stour River. Lieut. Commander Gaimes, who had piloted one of the submarines in, called his signal man below for a moment. On coming on deck he noticed that the British ensign which had been hoisted on the boat had disappeared. The British commander gave the German commander two minutes in which to produce it. Well within that time the ensign made its appearance from out of a bag belonging to the Germans.

Wife's Heroic Conduct.

From a correspondent we learn of the self-sacrificing heroism of an outport woman, Mrs. C. W. Tiller, Grand Lake, who nursed her husband through a thirty days' illness of Spanish influenza. During this time, the patient required constant attendance, and in addition to caring for six children, this aid was given. There are many such deeds that will never receive the publicity they merit. This courageous woman deserves a Red Cross medal or some other suitable recognition, for service entitles to remuneration.

WE WISH TO ANNOUNCE THAT OUR Souvenir Christmas Greetings and New Year Photo Mt. Calendars ARE NOW READY FOR SALE.

They sell at the following prices:

2 1/2 x 4 1/4...14c. each	1 5/8 x 2 1/2...11c. each
3 1/4 x 4 1/4...14c. each	2 1/4 x 3 1/4...12c. each
3 1/4 x 5 1/2...15c. each

These Calendars are especially suitable for Christmas or New Year Gifts. You only need to slip your Photo or Snapshot in these Mounts to have an artistic and attractive Souvenir. We have only a limited number. Call and see them. All Mail Orders must be covered by Remittances.

TOOTON'S,

The Kodak Store,
320 Water Street, St. John's.

Herring Plentiful

Herring were fairly plentiful yesterday and many of our local fishermen secured good catches in their nets. They sold same at 40 cents per dozen. West Coast fishermen have no difficulty in disposing of their herring. Many schooners from Gloucester and ports of Nova Scotia are at Bay of Islands and Bonne Bay taking cargoes and paying good prices for same.

When you want something in a hurry for tea, go to ELLIS'—Head Cheese, Or Tongue, Boiled Ham, Cooked Corned Beef, Bologna Sausage.

A GREAT INJUSTICE IS DONE

ORDER NOW

to yourself by not buying Christmas Goods early. It is unsatisfactory to the seller, as well as to the buyer, to be rushing for the things you need to carefully Select. Avoid all this trouble by beginning now to purchase all you need.

PRICES WON'T BE LESS, BUT SELECTION WILL BE MORE DIFFICULT BY DELAY!

Variety is not necessary to mention. It's all in the name.

AYRE & SONS, LTD.,

'Phone 11. Hardware and Grocery Depts. 'Phone 11.

Buy a Big Pound Bag of Quality Oat Flour

When you buy a Barrel of Flour. Oat Flour is Real Flour.

Get it from Ayre & Sons, Ltd., Bishop Sons & Co., Ltd., James Baird, Ltd., Monroe & Co., and Royal Stores, Ltd.

In 49 Pound Bags.

No weighing--No Trouble.

Colin Campbell, Ltd., Distributors.

Ticketing the Germans.

(From the New York Tribune.)

It is an admirable proposal by Senator Lodge that stores and dealers shall make public declarations of the fact when they are dealing in German goods. The tariff requires the branding of goods with the name of the country where it was manufactured. But there are some limitations on the enforcement of the rule in practice, we believe, and the law will doubtless require strengthening. In addition, it needs a supplemental act of the character of that introduced by Senator Lodge, giving the purchaser a general warning. What must be remembered in all this legislation is that the German is apt at dissimulation and possesses an organization and a propaganda system in this country, as in every other country, that will utilize

Painful Accident

Elizabeth Hutchins, an aged woman, inmate of the Poor Asylum, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon. While crossing New Governor Street she fell and broke her wrist. She was taken to Dr. McDonald's surgery, her wrist set, being afterwards sent to the Asylum in a cab.

When you want Steaks, Chops, Cutlets and Collops, try ELLIS'.

The Whole Text.

The printer is usually the hero or the victim of the humorous story that tells of a blunder in copying; but here is a mistake laid upon the stonecutter that could hardly be matched by any blunder perpetrated in a printing office. The story is credited to the St. Louis Reveille: The workman had been instructed to carve over the door of the new church this passage from the Bible: "My house shall be called the house of prayer." In order that he might get the words correctly, the stonecutter was referred to the verse in the Bible—Matthew xxi. 13. He proceeded to his work and cut the whole verse: "My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves!"

FREE—5 10-inch Double Records with every Sterling Phonograph. Xmas Special. RYAN SUPPLY CO.—nov30,18

Picture Palace To-Day... EDNA BARA in "The Rose of Blood" 7 Parts... BEAR FACTS--2 Parts... Violet Merserau, in "A... Friday--Tom Mix in "Shooter Andy."

454 LEFT! 1000 Industrial Shares, 454 for sale right now. We have a few reservations, a case of "first come, first served."

netts 15 per cent. profit. YOU want? WEY & CO., Limited. Investment Specialists, CITY CHAMBERS.

Principle of Modern Business is SERVICE and Clothing Co., Ltd. WM. WHITE, Manager

DIED. On Saturday, Nov. 30th, at George's Hospital, of smallpox, James Trahey, aged 19 years, leaving mother and a large circle of friends to mourn their sad loss.

CO. He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

stock He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

ES, He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

OD. He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

He has fought for King and Country like a valiant son and true. He has well done his duty. As he promised he would do.

DAY'S MESSAGES.

9.00 A.M.

THE POPE ON PEACE.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. In response to Cardinal Gasparri's request for Papal intervention to prevent the destruction of the Holy See, the Pope has declared that the Holy See is ready to mediate between the German people and the Allies. He has also expressed his hope that the peace negotiations will be conducted in a spirit of sincerity and good faith.

PUBLICITY.

PARIS, Dec. 2. It is reported that an agreement has been reached by the Allied Governments for the issue, daily, during the Congress, of an official communication regarding the deliberations of the Congress.

IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 2. In a joint session, to-day, the Senate and House of Representatives have passed a resolution authorizing the President to call upon the members of the Congress to attend the Peace Conference in person. The resolution also provides for the payment of expenses for the members of the Congress who attend the conference.

ANOTHER ONE.

LONDON, Dec. 2. In a dispatch to the Central News, Stockholm, says it is reported that negotiations, entered into with the German representatives, have resulted in the formation of an all-British committee, under the protection of the League of Nations, and supported by a voluntary fund.

THESE GO TO GERMANY!

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. The German Government has been informed, according to a Berlin dispatch, that England will permit the export of unrefined iron and steel to Sweden on condition that Sweden will permit the export of unrefined iron and steel to Germany.

GERMANS CROSS FRONTIER.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. The frontier to-day, and reaching the crossing of the American-Canadian occupation into Germany, was closed. The Third American Army, which is now in the process of crossing the frontier, is expected to reach the crossing of the American-Canadian occupation into Germany, within a few days.

DIABROTUS FIRE.

MANSET, Maine, Dec. 2. A fire in a fish packing industry on the coast here was wiped out to-day, which caused damage to the extent of $100,000. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the electric plant of John J. Stanley and his associates, who are packing fish at the general store of Leslie King, on the coast here.

A MURDER FUND.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. Simon, wealthy poultry dealer, who was arrested about a year ago on charges of murdering first degree, in connection with the shooting of a rival poultry dealer, has made a full confession, it is reported, to the Attorney General, implicating more than 20 persons as contributors to a "murder fund" with which gunners were connected. As the result of this confession it was said a special session of the Sixty-Sixth Congress will be called by the President.

WORK FOR CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 2. The Sixty-Fifth Congress began its third and final session to-day, with many important matters before it. These include solution of the railroad problem, the Army and Navy program, reconstruction legislation, retrenchment in Government expenditures, war revenue legislation, woman suffrage and the Columbian treaty. In view of President Wilson's statement in his annual address to Congress, to-day, that he does not expect conclusions of peace until spring, leaders to-night expressed doubt whether the present session, which expires by limitation next March 3, would be called upon to act on the peace treaty. It is such should prove the case, they expect a special session of the Sixty-Sixth Congress will be called by the President.

NOON.

IMPRISONMENT FOR MURDER.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. The Berlin Foreworder says, Bloomkin and Anderson, the assassins of Count Von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, who was killed in Moscow last June, have been sentenced to six years imprisonment and that Spiridonov and Macklin, each received a sentence of one year's imprisonment for implication in the crime.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 2. The LaPlata Observatory has registered a severe earthquake about 1800 miles distant. It is believed that the earthquake centre is in Peru. At a late hour no reports had been received from the affected districts.

which Simon will testify, and thus release the entire Baft case. He has been released from jail on his own recognizance after entering into an agreement with the Attorney General.

FOR HOME RULE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. President Wilson, and the other American representatives at the Peace Conference, were urged to insist that the right of self-determination be granted the people of Ireland, in two resolutions introduced to-day in the House, and appeals made by the Catholic University through its Rector, Bishop Shaheen, and by the National Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and Ladies Auxiliary. Patrick McClaren, as "Envoy of the Provisional Government of Ireland," presented to the President a request that Ireland be given representation at the Conference. The resolutions were referred to the Foreign Affairs Committee. The Catholic University asked the President to propose that the Irish people be permitted to determine through a plebiscite their form of Government.

THE GAME UP.

LORENZO MRQUES, South Africa, Dec. 2.—(via Reuters Ottawa Agency)—It is officially announced that Gen. Von Lettow Verbeck, the officer commanding the German troops who were driven out of German South East Africa, has surrendered with thirty officers, 125 Europeans, 1165 Askaris, 2000 carriers, thirteen native chiefs, 1100 male and female natives. The Germans will be sent back to Europe.

OUR SENTIMENTS EXACTLY.

LONDON, Dec. 2. (via Reuters Ottawa Agency)—In an interview with a Roter correspondent, Wm. Lloyd, Premier of Newfoundland said that Newfoundland was determined that what had been won on the field should not be lost in the Council chamber. The popular Governments of the world must ensure that no autocracy should again hold the power of the sword. The only safeguard was that this power should be in the hands of the people. Military power must be retained in order to enforce the programmes decided upon. The Ex-Kaiser must be kept under proper surveillance. He has been a danger and menace to the whole world, and must be regarded as a dangerous lunatic, and must be treated accordingly. Those responsible for the policy of frightfulness must be adequately punished. In the interests of national safety it was essential to keep a hold on our raw materials, in order to safeguard industries on which the safety of the Empire depended. Another thing of paramount importance was that no Peace Conference must jeopardize freedom and communication between the various parts of the Empire.

BOTH FOR CONFERENCE.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Dec. 2.—(via Reuters Ottawa Agency)—Premier Botha, in bidding au revoir to the people of South Africa, on the occasion of his leaving for the Peace Conference, appealed that nothing be done to prejudice the relations between the populations. He declared that many a difficulty had already vanished. He strongly desired that the present conditions might give birth to a spirit of cordial assistance and mutual trust. He would use the most strenuous endeavours to further the interests of South Africa, and to ensure its future. In the meanwhile he trusted that nothing would be done in South Africa that would weaken the position of the Unions representatives in Europe.

WORK FOR CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 2. The Sixty-Fifth Congress began its third and final session to-day, with many important matters before it. These include solution of the railroad problem, the Army and Navy program, reconstruction legislation, retrenchment in Government expenditures, war revenue legislation, woman suffrage and the Columbian treaty. In view of President Wilson's statement in his annual address to Congress, to-day, that he does not expect conclusions of peace until spring, leaders to-night expressed doubt whether the present session, which expires by limitation next March 3, would be called upon to act on the peace treaty. It is such should prove the case, they expect a special session of the Sixty-Sixth Congress will be called by the President.

NOON.

IMPRISONMENT FOR MURDER.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. The Berlin Foreworder says, Bloomkin and Anderson, the assassins of Count Von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, who was killed in Moscow last June, have been sentenced to six years imprisonment and that Spiridonov and Macklin, each received a sentence of one year's imprisonment for implication in the crime.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 2. The LaPlata Observatory has registered a severe earthquake about 1800 miles distant. It is believed that the earthquake centre is in Peru. At a late hour no reports had been received from the affected districts.

declaration made to the correspondent by Baron Aeskuehl of Estonia, who escaped from that country on Thursday in disguise. Baron Aeskuehl reports that German forces had begun to evacuate Narva, when they were attacked and defeated by Russian troops.

LATEST!

POLES WANT LEMBERG.

VIENNA, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—Travelers arriving from Lemberg state that Ukrainian troops are preparing to surround and starve out the city, of which the Polish forces are in control. The Ukrainians are said to have already cut the railroad, and are being reinforced by sufficient troops returning from the Italian front to make a fight against the Poles. The Ukrainians deny that they are Bolsheviks but say that when the Austrian Empire was broken up they felt they had a right to the capital city of Lemberg, the Poles having other capitals. Conditions in Galicia and Silesia are said to be worse than they were during the war.

KILLED IN COLLISION.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 2. It was stated here to-night that seven members of the crew of the steamer Kosnyk were killed as the result of the collision with the Cunard liner Orduna. The Orduna was only slightly damaged.

BRAZIL RECOGNIZES CZECHS.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 2. The Brazilian Government has accorded recognition to the Czechoslovakia. It is officially announced that a warship will carry the Brazilian peace delegates to France for the peace congress.

APPARENTLY DIFFICULT.

LONDON, Dec. 3. "The German Government is still undecided as to how to deal with the former Emperor and the Hohenzollerns," said Hugo Haase, Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the German Cabinet, to a correspondent of the Express on Sunday. "I think," he continued, "they may be sufficiently punished by the international odium they have incurred." Discussing the war, Haase said, "The guilt of starting the struggle lies with both German and Austrian militarism. The Government is now investigating the pre-war methods of the Foreign Office, particularly regarding the handling of secret funds. The result will be published as soon as the investigation is completed.

HIS REAL TITLE.

LONDON, Dec. 3. A demand for the surrender of Wm. Hohenzollern will be submitted to the Netherlands Government, in the name of all the Allied cabinets, according to the Express. The views of France and Italy have been fully communicated to the British Government, and President Wilson has made suggestions relative to procedure in the case. The opinion is held that Holland will not be disposed to put obstacles to delivery way. She will not be asked to deliver her Hohenzollern, under the ordinary extradition laws, but his status will be considered analogous to that of a pirate or slave trader, who is not regarded as fitted to sanctuary in any country.

BAVARIA UNDECIDED.

LONDON, Dec. 3. Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian Premier, is losing prestige, according to Munich advices received here by way of a Copenhagen despatch says that Eisner was hissed by his own partisans at Munich during a celebration in honor of returning soldiers. A Berne despatch to the Mail says it is believed that Bavaria is gradually reaching a conclusion to remain neutral, but official seemed expectant that Eisner would seek a separate peace. This message also reports evidence of growing hostility towards Eisner, adding that there are signs in Munich that a crisis is approaching and that action favoring some form of monarchy may be taken within three weeks.

MORE DELAY.

PARIS, Dec. 2. It appears the Germans will be unable to hand over all of the 5,000 locomotives, stipulated in the armistice agreement, by Dec. 17, according to the Matin, and it is possible that the Allies will grant more time to the enemy. This will have the effect of delaying peace negotiations, since they cannot begin until the armistice conditions have all been fulfilled. Discussions between the Allied delegations to the Peace Conference will probably begin on Dec. 20.

NAVY VISIT PARIS.

PARIS, Dec. 3. (Havas Agency)—King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Roumania may visit Paris in the near future, according to the Echo de Paris.

SEND THEM.

BERLIN, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—If a few British torpedo boats or light cruisers, with even a small landing force, could reach Revel this week, they could dam the Bolsheviks' food which has been murdering, burning and plundering Estonia and Latvia, according to a

NOON.

IMPRISONMENT FOR MURDER.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2. The Berlin Foreworder says, Bloomkin and Anderson, the assassins of Count Von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, who was killed in Moscow last June, have been sentenced to six years imprisonment and that Spiridonov and Macklin, each received a sentence of one year's imprisonment for implication in the crime.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 2. The LaPlata Observatory has registered a severe earthquake about 1800 miles distant. It is believed that the earthquake centre is in Peru. At a late hour no reports had been received from the affected districts.

declaration made to the correspondent by Baron Aeskuehl of Estonia, who escaped from that country on Thursday in disguise. Baron Aeskuehl reports that German forces had begun to evacuate Narva, when they were attacked and defeated by Russian troops.

LATEST!

POLES WANT LEMBERG.

VIENNA, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—Travelers arriving from Lemberg state that Ukrainian troops are preparing to surround and starve out the city, of which the Polish forces are in control. The Ukrainians are said to have already cut the railroad, and are being reinforced by sufficient troops returning from the Italian front to make a fight against the Poles. The Ukrainians deny that they are Bolsheviks but say that when the Austrian Empire was broken up they felt they had a right to the capital city of Lemberg, the Poles having other capitals. Conditions in Galicia and Silesia are said to be worse than they were during the war.

KILLED IN COLLISION.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 2. It was stated here to-night that seven members of the crew of the steamer Kosnyk were killed as the result of the collision with the Cunard liner Orduna. The Orduna was only slightly damaged.

BRAZIL RECOGNIZES CZECHS.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 2. The Brazilian Government has accorded recognition to the Czechoslovakia. It is officially announced that a warship will carry the Brazilian peace delegates to France for the peace congress.

APPARENTLY DIFFICULT.

LONDON, Dec. 3. "The German Government is still undecided as to how to deal with the former Emperor and the Hohenzollerns," said Hugo Haase, Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the German Cabinet, to a correspondent of the Express on Sunday. "I think," he continued, "they may be sufficiently punished by the international odium they have incurred." Discussing the war, Haase said, "The guilt of starting the struggle lies with both German and Austrian militarism. The Government is now investigating the pre-war methods of the Foreign Office, particularly regarding the handling of secret funds. The result will be published as soon as the investigation is completed.

HIS REAL TITLE.

LONDON, Dec. 3. A demand for the surrender of Wm. Hohenzollern will be submitted to the Netherlands Government, in the name of all the Allied cabinets, according to the Express. The views of France and Italy have been fully communicated to the British Government, and President Wilson has made suggestions relative to procedure in the case. The opinion is held that Holland will not be disposed to put obstacles to delivery way. She will not be asked to deliver her Hohenzollern, under the ordinary extradition laws, but his status will be considered analogous to that of a pirate or slave trader, who is not regarded as fitted to sanctuary in any country.

BAVARIA UNDECIDED.

LONDON, Dec. 3. Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian Premier, is losing prestige, according to Munich advices received here by way of a Copenhagen despatch says that Eisner was hissed by his own partisans at Munich during a celebration in honor of returning soldiers. A Berne despatch to the Mail says it is believed that Bavaria is gradually reaching a conclusion to remain neutral, but official seemed expectant that Eisner would seek a separate peace. This message also reports evidence of growing hostility towards Eisner, adding that there are signs in Munich that a crisis is approaching and that action favoring some form of monarchy may be taken within three weeks.

MORE DELAY.

PARIS, Dec. 2. It appears the Germans will be unable to hand over all of the 5,000 locomotives, stipulated in the armistice agreement, by Dec. 17, according to the Matin, and it is possible that the Allies will grant more time to the enemy. This will have the effect of delaying peace negotiations, since they cannot begin until the armistice conditions have all been fulfilled. Discussions between the Allied delegations to the Peace Conference will probably begin on Dec. 20.

NAVY VISIT PARIS.

PARIS, Dec. 3. (Havas Agency)—King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Roumania may visit Paris in the near future, according to the Echo de Paris.

SEND THEM.

BERLIN, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—If a few British torpedo boats or light cruisers, with even a small landing force, could reach Revel this week, they could dam the Bolsheviks' food which has been murdering, burning and plundering Estonia and Latvia, according to a declaration made to the correspondent by Baron Aeskuehl of Estonia, who escaped from that country on Thursday in disguise. Baron Aeskuehl reports that German forces had begun to evacuate Narva, when they were attacked and defeated by Russian troops.

LATEST!

POLES WANT LEMBERG.

VIENNA, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—Travelers arriving from Lemberg state that Ukrainian troops are preparing to surround and starve out the city, of which the Polish forces are in control. The Ukrainians are said to have already cut the railroad, and are being reinforced by sufficient troops returning from the Italian front to make a fight against the Poles. The Ukrainians deny that they are Bolsheviks but say that when the Austrian Empire was broken up they felt they had a right to the capital city of Lemberg, the Poles having other capitals. Conditions in Galicia and Silesia are said to be worse than they were during the war.

KILLED IN COLLISION.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 2. It was stated here to-night that seven members of the crew of the steamer Kosnyk were killed as the result of the collision with the Cunard liner Orduna. The Orduna was only slightly damaged.

BRAZIL RECOGNIZES CZECHS.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 2. The Brazilian Government has accorded recognition to the Czechoslovakia. It is officially announced that a warship will carry the Brazilian peace delegates to France for the peace congress.

APPARENTLY DIFFICULT.

LONDON, Dec. 3. "The German Government is still undecided as to how to deal with the former Emperor and the Hohenzollerns," said Hugo Haase, Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the German Cabinet, to a correspondent of the Express on Sunday. "I think," he continued, "they may be sufficiently punished by the international odium they have incurred." Discussing the war, Haase said, "The guilt of starting the struggle lies with both German and Austrian militarism. The Government is now investigating the pre-war methods of the Foreign Office, particularly regarding the handling of secret funds. The result will be published as soon as the investigation is completed.

HIS REAL TITLE.

LONDON, Dec. 3. A demand for the surrender of Wm. Hohenzollern will be submitted to the Netherlands Government, in the name of all the Allied cabinets, according to the Express. The views of France and Italy have been fully communicated to the British Government, and President Wilson has made suggestions relative to procedure in the case. The opinion is held that Holland will not be disposed to put obstacles to delivery way. She will not be asked to deliver her Hohenzollern, under the ordinary extradition laws, but his status will be considered analogous to that of a pirate or slave trader, who is not regarded as fitted to sanctuary in any country.

BAVARIA UNDECIDED.

LONDON, Dec. 3. Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian Premier, is losing prestige, according to Munich advices received here by way of a Copenhagen despatch says that Eisner was hissed by his own partisans at Munich during a celebration in honor of returning soldiers. A Berne despatch to the Mail says it is believed that Bavaria is gradually reaching a conclusion to remain neutral, but official seemed expectant that Eisner would seek a separate peace. This message also reports evidence of growing hostility towards Eisner, adding that there are signs in Munich that a crisis is approaching and that action favoring some form of monarchy may be taken within three weeks.

MORE DELAY.

PARIS, Dec. 2. It appears the Germans will be unable to hand over all of the 5,000 locomotives, stipulated in the armistice agreement, by Dec. 17, according to the Matin, and it is possible that the Allies will grant more time to the enemy. This will have the effect of delaying peace negotiations, since they cannot begin until the armistice conditions have all been fulfilled. Discussions between the Allied delegations to the Peace Conference will probably begin on Dec. 20.

NAVY VISIT PARIS.

PARIS, Dec. 3. (Havas Agency)—King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Roumania may visit Paris in the near future, according to the Echo de Paris.

SEND THEM.

BERLIN, Dec. 2. (By the A. P.)—If a few British torpedo boats or light cruisers, with even a small landing force, could reach Revel this week, they could dam the Bolsheviks' food which has been murdering, burning and plundering Estonia and Latvia, according to a Honesty Rewarded.

This morning a young lady, doing some Xmas shopping, dropped her purse, containing $50. A young lad who witnessed the incident picked it up and was in the act of getting away with it, when another young fellow slightly smaller, who had also been a spectator, followed the lad and after a short tussle seized the purse and restored it to the owner who had gone into a neighboring store. Not until its restoration did she learn of her loss. She felt very grateful to the young chap and gave him $5.00 as a reward for his honesty.

Railway Runoff.

The engine and tender attached to the Bonavista train went through an open switch into Hr. Pond, Bonavista, where the water is about four feet deep. Fortunately the driver escaped, but the brakeman was caught underneath the tender where he remained 6 hours. The train hands are at present building a dam around the engine, and with hard work it will be a day or two before it is gotten up on the rails again.

Alaskans Making Good.

Show Marked Inclination Toward Good Citizenship and Patriotism. What the Alaska natives are doing as proof of their fitness is impressed on all who come in contact with the natives and their numerous activities along lines of advanced citizenship and patriotism. The natives of Juneau through the press advocated the killing of dogs, that there might be more food for human consumption. They advised their native friends to protect the deer from their dogs that might kill deer during their helpless condition following this last winter's deep snow when many starved and all were weakened for lack of food. Down at Kake the natives have only about one-third to one-quarter the number of dogs that they had last year. One who went through the village last fall and again this spring remarked on the fact that there were almost no dogs in town. "Yes," said a representative citizen, "the natives became convinced that from a sanitary standpoint and an economical standpoint they were keeping entirely too many pets. As a result of this conviction they began reducing on dogs and improving on health and food supply." "We have no real need for dogs in this part of the country, where all the travelling is done by water, except a few that are trained to hunt bear."

Another point that impresses even a casual observer is that the natives all take local newspapers and read carefully—often very slowly—the events that are taking place locally and throughout the world. If a native is not a regular subscriber to a newspaper you may be sure it is because he cannot read one word of English or any other printed language. Even parents who cannot read will subscribe for a paper for their ten and twelve-year-old children who have possibly had the advantages of two or three years in school.

Only One "BROMO QUININE"

To get the genuine, call for full name LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. Look for signature of E. W. GROVE. Cures a Cold in One Day. 30c.—tues,if

THIS IS THE HOOK TO CATCH 'EM.

Fishermen, you see by the reports from Norway how they catch such enormous quantities of fish. Will, O. Mustad's Key Brand Hook is used exclusively in that country. See that you get the Key Brand. 1/2c. each.

THE GREATEST BARGAINS

In Our History.

Our Annual Fall Sale is Now On

We are offering Exceptional Values in

Ladies' Coats and Men's Suits and will mention the following reductions:

Ladies' Coats at Men's Suits at $ 9.50; now $ 8.00. $12.50; now $10.00.

16.50; now 13.90. 16.50; now 14.00.

21.00; now 18.00. 19.50; now 16.00.

29.50; now 26.00. 25.50; now 23.00.

35.00; now 30.00. 32.00; now 28.00.

40.00; now 34.00. 39.00; now 34.00.

These Ladies' Coats are of the very latest design and up-to-date in style and finish.

Made with Military Collar, Belted and Patch Pockets, and are extra good value at above figures.

The Gent's Suits are of the best material, well finished, and come in Pinch and Plain Backs and Kitchener Styles.

Our Ladies' Costumes are a clearing lot in Serge only, and at prices ranging from $12.00 to $25.00.

We are showing a full line of Ladies' and Gent's Boots and Shoes, Sweater Coats and Jerseys, Blouses and Skirts, Men's Shirts and Pants, all at specially marked down prices.

Make your purchases early, you will then have a much larger selection to choose from.

English & Am. Clothing Co.,

312 Water Street.

Bargain in COAL. A Small Quantity North Sydney Coal. Price: $15.50 cash, per ton, Sent Home. Geo. M. Barr

Unsightly pimples and blemishes on the face are sure signs that the skin and blood need the purifying and strengthening action of BEECHAM'S PILLS.

English & Am. Clothing Co., 312 Water Street.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. A Small Quantity North Sydney Coal. Price: $15.50 cash, per ton, Sent Home. Geo. M. Barr

Mother's Pet Needs a Cascaret

Baby is mad! Doesn't want the favorite dolly, or the horn, or the picture books—but don't scold! Look at the tongue! Then hurry! Give candy Cascarets to work the nasty bile, souring food and constipation poison from the little liver and bowels.

BUTHERS! Clean the clogged-up places. Do away with the bile, fermentations and constipation poison which is keeping your little one fretful and sick. Children love Cascarets, because to them it is nothing candy. Cascarets act better than castor oil, calomel or pills on the tender stomach, liver and bowels. Cascarets never gripe, never offend, do not disappoint the worried mother. Give harmless Cascarets to children one year old and upwards. Each ten cent box contains full directions.

Britain Has Refused

Lotteries. Strange Effect of Action.

There is now in the possession of the British Red Cross Society the most valuable collection of pearls ever got together, but the Red Cross is considerably embarrassed to do with the pearls. Of course, it wants to dispose of them in some way, for the pearls were not given by means of a being used as ornaments. The Red Cross directors for some time when they did work out a plan to answer the House of Commons in and vetoed it. The Red Cross scheme was to sell the pearls by means of a lottery which would be the greatest lottery in the world. It appeared, since the bill to legalize the lottery passed in the House of Commons, in spite of the opposition of the Lords, in spite of the fact that it would have plain sailing in the House, especially as it had the approval of the great masses of the people, but it came up before a slim attendance, and through the carelessness of its promoters as much as for any other reason was beaten.

The collection of some 3,300 pearls was gathered as the result of an appeal to wealthy and well-to-do people to contribute one pearl each. Some pearls of great price were sent in to the Red Cross, and it is calculated that the value now in hand ranges between £200,000 and £2,000,000. The former sum would be realized if the pearls were sold by auction, and the latter sum was expected as the result of a lottery. Naturally enough the Red Cross wanted to make as much money as possible out of the pearls and decided to hold a lottery. In coming to this decision it was supported by the fact that since the war began there have been thousands perhaps tens of thousands, of lotteries held in England in aid of various war charities, and that in some of them, Mrs. Lloyd George and the Lord Mayor of London have not hesitated to draw the winning numbers. Nevertheless, lotteries are against the law. These lotteries have had the backing of British public opinion, and on this account the police have main-

Items of Interest

GATHERED FROM EVERYWHERE.

Every Canadian soldier coming back from the front, will, after his discharge, be carried on the pay-list for three months. During the war the Admiralty transport service has conveyed twenty-two millions soldiers with a loss of 4,391; 120,000,000 tons of naval and military stores and two million animals. London's 22,000 policemen guard more than 4,000 miles of streets and roads, and at least 1,250,000 houses and shops. John Ward, a negro, of Goldsborough, North Carolina, has thirteen of his eighteen sons in the 9th and 10th United States Cavalry, while his seventeen daughters are engaged on war-work.

Messrs. Cadbury Bros. have given £10,000 to the relief of war victims connected with the works, £10,000 towards the provision of pensions and £10,000 for provision of supplementary pensions.

In the coming British elections, 6,000,000 women will vote for the first time and 2,000,000 men have been added to the last electoral list. The question is how will this new electorate vote?

There is a two-year accumulation of raw rubber in Brazil waiting for ships to deliver it to countries where there is a rubber shortage. The accumulation is the result of war-time shipping restrictions.

December 7 is to be celebrated in the United States as "Britain Day," and the New York Herald announces on that date there will be a nationwide tribute to the magnificent part played by Great Britain in the war, special emphasis to be laid on the work of the British navy.

The capture of Mons was the brightest jewel in the crown of British victory. After long years the blood of those gallant men of the first British Expeditionary Force, the old "Contemptibles," has been gloriously avenged.

Over 105,000 members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force have expressed the definite wish to take up farming in Canada after the war. This figure was obtained by interviewing 220,000 members of the forces overseas, and indicates that 42.5 per cent of these men wish to go on the land.

A memorial monument to Edith Cavell and the Canadian nurses who were killed by the Germans in raids on Canadian hospitals will be erected in Ottawa in Major Hill Park. The monument will be erected by public subscriptions and grants from the Dominion. The monument is being executed by Hamilton McCarthy, R.C.A., the well-known Canadian sculptor.

The Superman Again.

(The Wesleyan.)

Recently we published an article on "The Superman." Since then we have read Brash's striking little booklet on "Peace in Time of War." In one of the chapters we read: "We have the picture of the superman—strong, hard in body, and with steely heart—the one whose ethics are those of the blood-boots. There is, however, a painting of G. F. Watts, which shows to us the true superman. You see a big man raising a broken, battered man, and lifting him to his waiting ass; and, strange to say, what impresses you is not the greatness of his strength, but the greatness of the love of the Good Samaritan.

The superman have already taken their place in history; Paul, Francis of Assisi, Wesley, William Booth, Florence Nightingale, and the last soldier who gave water to a dying foe, the great lovers—both men and women—are the supermen. But once they stepped down into the arena of history. One who was born in a shed, who died on a cross, who is for all time the Superman. For He is the Son of Man, and the Son of God; the one who teaches that the last victory, full and complete, will be that of—Love."

Flash Disinfectant.

Recommended most highly by Doctors. Lay in a supply for the Spring. Will kill the germs and prevent you from getting Spanish Influenza. Use freely in the homes, offices, stores and aboard ships. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. We can supply the demand. J. B. OER CO., LTD., Importers.

On sale at the following Stores: Cannon's Drug Store, W. E. Bearns, T. J. Edens, Kavanaugh's Drug Store, T. McMurdo & Co., W. J. Murphy, M. J. O'Brien, H. Peddigray, Royal Stores, Ltd., Steer Bros. nov28, 61

Silver slippers can be worn with almost any evening gown.

Items of Interest

GATHERED FROM EVERYWHERE.

Every Canadian soldier coming back from the front, will, after his discharge, be carried on the pay-list for three months. During the war the Admiralty transport service has conveyed twenty-two millions soldiers with a loss of 4,391; 120,000,000 tons of naval and military stores and two million animals. London's 22,000 policemen guard more than 4,000 miles of streets and roads, and at least 1,250,000 houses and shops. John Ward, a negro, of Goldsborough, North Carolina, has thirteen of his eighteen sons in the 9th and 10th United States Cavalry, while his seventeen daughters are engaged on war-work.

Messrs. Cadbury Bros. have given £10,000 to the relief of war victims connected with the works, £10,000 towards the provision of pensions and £10,000 for provision of supplementary pensions.

In the coming British elections, 6,000,000 women will vote for the first time and 2,000,000 men have been added to the last electoral list. The question is how will this new electorate vote?

There is a two-year accumulation of raw rubber in Brazil waiting for ships to deliver it to countries where there is a rubber shortage. The accumulation is the result of war-time shipping restrictions.

December 7 is to be celebrated in the United States as "Britain Day," and the New York Herald announces on that date there will be a nationwide tribute to the magnificent part played by Great Britain in the war, special emphasis to be laid on the work of the British navy.

The capture of Mons was the brightest jewel in the crown of British victory. After long years the blood of those gallant men of the first British Expeditionary Force, the old "Contemptibles," has been gloriously avenged.

Over 105,000 members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force have expressed the definite wish to take up farming in Canada after the war. This figure was obtained by interviewing 220,000 members of the forces overseas, and indicates that 42.5 per cent of these men wish to go on the land.

A memorial monument to Edith Cavell and the Canadian nurses who were killed by the Germans in raids on Canadian hospitals will be erected in Ottawa in Major Hill Park. The monument will be erected by public subscriptions and grants from the Dominion. The monument is being executed by Hamilton McCarthy, R.C.A., the well-known Canadian sculptor.

Output readers, wire us 1/2 deposit on a Sterling Phonograph. Balance after 10 days' trial, or return Phonograph if not satisfactory. We pay all charges. Fair, isn't it? RYAN SUPPLY CO., 227 Theatre Hill, Sole Distributors.—nov30,tf

Children should always have some kind of fruit juice or standard fruit the first thing in the morning.

T. J. EDENS.
Fresh Frozen SALMON, COD TONGUES, CODFISH, CAPLIN, always on hand. This fish should be soaked in ice cold water for 6 to 8 hours before cooking.

Apples.
100 Barrels WAGNERS, 50 Barrels STARKS, GRAPES—Blue & Green, ORANGES, GRAPE FRUIT, LEMONS.

JUST IN:
10 Barrels N.Y. Corned Beef.

Fresh Eggs.
T. J. EDENS,
Duckworth St. and Rawlinson Cross.

MILLEY'S

SMART DRESSY HATS

FOR EVERY WEAR.

OUR FINAL SHIPMENT FOR THE WINTER SEASON OF A MOST DELIGHTFUL ASSORTMENT OF GIRLS' READY-TO-WEAR FELTS AT A PRICE THAT MAKE IT A PLEASURE TO BUY.

Get the Price:
$2.58.

Get a Hat.

HERE ARE STYLES SO QUAIN, SO CHARMING, AND SO PRACTICAL THAT ONE WONDERS IF IT WERE POSSIBLE TO PROVIDE SELECTIONS THAT MORE COMPLETELY MEET YOUR NEEDS.

$2.58.

NOTE HOW REASONABLY WE HAVE PRICED THESE HATS. COME AND EXAMINE THEIR EXQUISITE FASHIONING. NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY AND WE URGE THAT YOU LET US SHOW YOU HOW ECONOMICALLY WE CAN SERVE YOU.

See Our Coats now at REDUCED PRICES. They won't last long.
$12.95, $17.75, $19.50.

MILLEY'S

Post-War Conditions.

The following extract from the Monthly Commercial Letter (November) issued by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, applies directly to Newfoundland as well as Canada and we will do well to heed its admonitory counsel:

"The coming of peace will not justify any relaxation in our efforts to increase the thrift and economy of the nation in order to keep the public purse filled. Fighting may soon end, but our men will require to 'stand fast' for an indefinite period, until many difficult international problems have been settled, and in the meantime the war-racked and devastated countries of Europe must be supplied with many necessities. In providing these the burden of the financial aid required will fall upon those of the Allies who are able to supply the necessary funds from their own resources. The Government will be justified in using its credit on a diminishing scale for effecting the change. Employment for those of our people who have done good service in the manufacture of munitions may be provided by new foreign business, which, pending the determination of the important geographical and political questions arising out of the war, will be controlled largely by the allied Governments. Only if they are backed by a full public purse, can our representatives at the allied councils confidently assume the responsibility for a large share of the rehabilitation which is immediately necessary. If the country is to be saved from a period of serious industrial depression, it is of the utmost importance that our people should not relax their efforts to save, so that they may be enabled to give generous financial support to the Government whenever needed. To provide for the cost of demobilizing our expeditionary forces and for our share in restoring the war-devastated areas, additional Government loans will be necessary from time to time, though on a lesser scale than during the war.

"Those undertaking new enterprises should not be obliged to wait for the direction of the Government, but should be able to rely upon its encouragement and protection. While the peace plenipotentiaries are settling boundaries and indemnities, the springs of normal trade will commence to flow. New goods will have to be found for new markets, new problems of credit and transportation will have to be faced and those who handle them with skill and tact will secure the victories of peace."

Stafford's Essence of Ginger Wine at Stafford's Drug Stores for 20c. bottle. Postage 5 cts. extra.—nov25,tf

MEN'S WINTER OVERCOATS

At Right Prices.

HENRY BLAIR

Bath Robes!

Bath Robes, shades Pink, other fancy colors. Value $2.50.

Shawls & Scarf Sets.

Shawls. Value for 60c. Scarf Sets. Value for $1.00. Very warm and serviceable.

Foot Laces!

Black Boot Laces, about 50 per doz. Laces.

FURNITURE!

No need for us to go into description with regard to quantity of Furniture, it is already well known over the Island.

We announce the opening of our new Bed-rooms, Dressing-rooms, Dining-room, Drawing-room, Library, Living-room, Kitchen with everything to make your home absolute in every detail.

You want just what is newest in Furniture, remember below is that of the finest makers in Newfoundland.

Portrait & Photo Co.

St. Johns.

PALMER.

CHOICE BEEF MEATS

Just Arrived.

Choice Spare Ribs, Libby's Family Beef, Libby's Special Family.

D. NEAL

Where Power and Efficiency are of first Importance, there you will almost always find the PALMER.

Single and Double Cylinder Two Cycle Reversible Motors.

Make and Break. Jump Spark. Sizes: 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 1-2 H. P.

We have also in stock One 18 H.P. for immediate Delivery.

Catalogues Free.

FRANKLIN'S AGENCIES, LTD.

199 Water Street.

BATTERY'S

Wholesale Dry Goods

Autumn Goods:

- SHIRTS
- DRESS GOODS
- PLAID DRESS GOODS
- BLOUSES
- FLANNELLETTES
- OVERALLS

DAY GOODS ARRIVING.

Duckworth & George St.

in the Public The Evening Telegra

Klark-Urban Co.

The performance of the "Daughter of Mother Machree" by the above Company at the Casino last night, drew both laughter and tears from the packed audience in attendance. Miss Lillian Deane as Mother Machree very ably sustained a difficult role, the daughter "Sally" (Miss Maisie Cecil) being the life of the play. The part of the Earl of Belmore's niece represented by Miss Edythe Lee was well taken, and her final stand for the man of her choice brought down the house. Tom Cavanaugh "the Mysterious" was brilliantly acted by Mr. Eardon Klark. Mr. Thomas Brower, personating Merritt Luffkin the Attorney of the Earl of Belmore, was particularly good, while the irrepressible Billy Webb, as the nephew, kept the audience in roars. Mr. Frank Urban as the Earl of Belmore, gouty foot and all, was the unforgiving father, who eventually succumbed to the charms and wit of his granddaughter, Sally O'Brien, the daughter of Mother Machree, and said "Bless you my children" to that young lady and Tom Cavanaugh who has all the time been a peer incoq. Chas. Mills as the Dublin Agency man, played a minor part very engagingly. The C.C.C. orchestra rendered some very lively and entertaining musical selections during the evening. "The Daughter of Mother Machree" will be repeated to-night, to-morrow and Thursday "The Little Girl Whom God Forgots" will be staged.

The great improvement in Sterling Phonographs is the universal tone arm to play all records. RYAN SUPPLY CO. nov30.11.

Curlers' Annual.

Presided over by Mr. Peters, late President, the St. John's Curling Association held its annual meeting in the Board of Trade Rooms last evening. The following officers were elected: President, F. H. Steer; 1st Vice-Pres., W. J. Higgins; 2nd V.P., W. H. Duder; Secy.-Treas., A. H. Salter. These officers with the following will form the committee of management: Hy. Donnelly, F. W. Bradshaw, E. A. Hayward, W. A. Ellis, W. F. Joyce, H. E. Cowan, F. T. Brehm. Mr. F. H. Steer comes from the new school and is the first of that class to be honored by the curlers by election to the office of President. Good sport will probably be enjoyed this season.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The Hon. Secretary of the Church of England Orphanage desires gratefully to acknowledge the receipt of $100 from the estate of the late Lieut. Norman A. Outerbridge.

Thief Loses Boot.

On Sunday night a thief broke into the store of Mr. T. Swedlin, New Gowen Street. Mr. Swedlin had occasion to visit his store at 8.30 and as he switched on the light he saw a man dash from the counter towards a window in the rear of the store. Naturally the owner gave chase but the thief went through the window, which was too small for Mr. Swedlin to get through. As the thief was going through, however, Mr. Swedlin, who was close behind him, caught one of his feet and held on, but the thief thinking no doubt that freedom with one boot was better than imprisonment with two, left his boot in Mr. Swedlin's hand. This of course is a clue, and as Mr. Swedlin was able to give a good description of the man otherwise, the chances of his arrest are considered good. He got away with $8.00 cash and left behind a parcel of cigarettes and chocolates, valued at $20.00, tied up already for delivery, and one boot.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Wellington arrived in town yesterday from Heart's Content. Messrs. L. and A. Hutchins, of Greenspond, are at present in the city on business.

Mr. J. D. Lockyer is in the city on a visit from Trinity.

Mr. A. J. Butt, of Heart's Content, is registered at the Crosbie.

Among the guests at the Crosbie is Mr. L. Ash, of Carbonear, who arrived in the city yesterday.

The Premier, Hon. Dr. Lloyd, Secretary W. J. Carew, Nurses Macpherson, Morris and Goodridge and the other passengers who left here by the City of Marseilles, arrived in England on Sunday.

Miss Nellie Morris, of Long's Hill, who has been spending the last four months visiting friends in Sydney and Glace Bay, N.S., and places in this Dominion, arrived by the Portia on Saturday, after spending a very enjoyable time. Miss Morris's health is also greatly improved.

Mr. Harold Brown, of Nova Scotia, employed by the Commercial Cable Co., returns to his home on a month's visit by the S. S. Thelus.

Master James Parsons, of Golf Ays., who entered hospital for an appendix operation, was sent to his home yesterday and will soon be able to get around again.

GOOD WORK.—An outport woman dropped a purse containing $40.00 over the wharf of G. M. Barr, Esq., on Saturday afternoon. A short while afterwards Diver Whitmarsh went down and was instrumental in returning the purse to its owner.

St. Andrew's Installation.

The installation of the Right Worshipful Master elect and the other officers of Lodge St. Andrew, No. 1139 A. F. and A. M., took place in the Masonic Temple last night, the ceremony being performed by Right Worshipful Grandmaster of Scottish Freemasonry in Newfoundland, Bro. C. R. Duder, assisted by the Grand Secretary, Bro. H. E. Cowan, and the District Grand Master of the English constitution, Bro. J. A. Clift, K.C. There was a very large attendance of members and the collection subsequently taken on behalf of the Benevolent Fund was a substantial one. A Pastmaster's Jewel was presented to the retiring Master Bro. C. H. Emerson in appreciation of his work during the year. The officers installed were: R. W. M.—Bro. A. Montgomerie. I. P. M.—W. Bro. C. H. Emerson. Depute Master—W. Bro. D. M. Baird. Substitute Master—W. Bro. J. McKay. W. S. W.—Bro. H. C. Ayre. W. J. W.—Bro. W. J. Miller. Secretary—Bro. L. R. Curtis. Treasurer—Bro. R. Watson. Chaplain—Bro. Edgar Jones, Ph. D. S. D.—Bro. F. V. Chesman. J. D.—Bro. J. A. Winter. Organist—Bro. J. H. Campbell. D. of C.—Bro. F. R. Emerson. I. G.—Bro. A. G. Carter. Stewards—Bro. J. S. Ayre, J. Melvin, A. Goodridge. Tyler—Bro. W. C. Major.

The Epidemic.

Two patients were discharged from Grenfell Hall Hospital yesterday. But one or two cases have been reported in the city for the past few weeks. Dr. Fraser received the following messages from the outports yesterday: From Dr. Chisholm—At Norman's Cove, 6 new cases; at Chapel Arm, 1; Bay Bulls Arm, T.B., 20; Tack's Beach, P.B., 1.

From Dr. Lynch—Six cases and one death during the last week at Wabana East, and one case of smallpox.

From Dr. McLeod—Two more cases of smallpox at Shearstown.

From Dr. Boyle—Twenty-one cases at Carbonear the last 14 days, but nothing serious.

RENOVATION.—St. Joseph's Hall, Hoylesdown, will be renovated during the winter months. To-morrow night a card tournament will be held there to help defray repairing expenses.

A very practical and smart coat is of nigger-head brown velour with a large collar and cuffs of shaggy wolf dyed taupe.

How Peace Came

Not as of old within the market place. The herald stands amidst the populace To cry his news; a tenesness holds the air. A sea of upturned faces in the square. The roar of chariot wheels, the trumpets, etc. bare. And silence—and his message rare. But as the dawn! The ghostly hills are kissed With sudden sunshine, and the shadowy mist Is scattered into shimmering drops which mark The jewelled earth, while bursting through the dark Comes one pure note of joy as some lone lark Pipes its mate to meet in loving tryst. So came the news, the bell's one changing tone. Re-echoed down the silent street and smote On welcome ears; the pipes of Pan conceal No sweeter sound, nor woodland songs reveal. At once by some queer touch of wizardry The empty streets are filled with welled joy. And laughter gay and shouts of victory. But 'midst the babble of our joy we feel The glory of some deeper note and kneel. Our spirits tuck in gladitude to greet The men who had war's roar with bleeding feet. Lest we unworthy by Thy rich reward The deep outpourings of our hearts, Oh Lord, We are to Thee, and through the coming days Lead us along the pathway of Thy grace. —R. Curran, in The Orilla News-Letter.

Nfld. Historical Society.

About thirty literary gentlemen of the city will meet in the Court House this evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of reorganizing the Historical Society, which was disbanded about four years ago owing to the death of some of the leading members, viz.: His Grace the Archbishop Howley, Rev. Canon Pilot, Sir Jas. S. Winter, A. J. W. McNeely and others, also owing to the great war which took the attention of the whole of us. It is to be hoped the general public, and more especially the younger portion of our citizens, will assist the gentlemen in their patriotic efforts. We have hundreds of students who are attending our various colleges and schools who should take advantage of this great movement to become better acquainted with the history of our country. In nearly every town in Canada and the Provinces they have their Historical Society, and it is a source of annoyance to us in taking up the Canadian papers to see how interested the people are in preserving the records, events and traditions of their country and its people, while Newfoundland, Britain's Oldest Colony, with its glorious history behind it, is permitted to stand idly by, our people making no effort to collect and collaborate the achievements of our heroes both by land and sea, in the past, as well as in the present. Amongst the members who will take the matter up this evening are Rev. Canon Smith, Rev. Canon Bolt, J. W. Withers, H. F. Shortis, W. A. Munn, W. J. Carroll, Dugald Munn, I. C. Morris and others. The Telegram will always be pleased to assist our patriotic fellow-citizens by every means in its power.

St. Patrick's Sale.

His Grace Archbishop Roche will formally open the Sale of Work in aid of St. Patrick's Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The affair takes place in the C.C.C. Hall and remains open until Thursday evening. Big preparations have been made, and the goods on sale have been selected to suit the season. As St. Patrick's Church has been extensively repaired recently the sale ought to do much to pay the expenses thus incurred.

Wedding Bells.

On November 29th, at St. Thomas's Church by the Rev. Dr. Jones, Elizabeth May Wheeler, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wheeler, of this city, was united in holy matrimony to Pte. J. Abbott, M.M., of the Mounted Transport Infantry, Royal Newfoundland Regiment (blue puttee). The bride was neatly attired in a dress of white silk with hat to match. Miss Isabel Martin, niece of the bride, and Miss Eva Cornick acted as bridesmaids and both looked charming in dresses of blue and white silk with hats to match. The groom was assisted by Mr. Joseph Wheeler, brother of the bride and Mr. Jack Wheeler, also her brother, acted as father-giver. The groom's present to the bride was a gold locket and to the bridesmaids gold rings. Pte. and Mrs. Abbott will reside at 35 Power Ave., Signal Hill, the residence of the bride's parents.

From Cape Race.

CAPE RACE, To-day. Wind N. N. W., blowing strong, weather fine. The S. S. Thelus passed west at daylight. Bar. 30.31; ther. 28.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPHTHERIA.

Brain Power

IN the brain is consumed one-fifth of all the blood in the human system. This goes to feed the nerve cells and to create the all-essential nerve force, so whether you think or speak or move your hand, nerve force is consumed in that act. When an unusual demand is made on the brain, whether by excessive mental effort or as the result of mental worry and anxiety, still more blood and more nervous energy are used in the brain and other organs of the body are robbed of the nervous energy, necessary for their proper working. This is why the thinker—the man who works with his brain, and who does not in these trying days—is most subject to nervous indigestion, nervous headache, sleeplessness and weak functioning of the vital organs such as the heart, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. The human system is a bundle of nerves, and, whether we realize it or not, our health depends to a very great extent on the condition of the nerves. There is always a big demand on the nervous system, and when this is increased by shock, or sorrow or any great mental worry or anxiety there is danger of a breakdown. At such trying times, when so many are suffering from nervous troubles of one kind or another, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a most valuable blessing of untold value. This food cure is not like a stimulant, which merely excites the nerve cells, increasing their nervous energy and building up the system generally. When you feel tired out in mind and body, have brain fag and falling memory, and feel that you are losing your energy and vigor, it is time to turn to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of renewing mental and bodily vigor. If your experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is like that of the great majority of people who use it you will soon feel the benefits of increased capacity—both mental and physical. You will feel that you have the reserve force necessary to withstand the strain of life's work and to ward off disease. It is only by building up nerve force that you can hope to counteract the debilitating influence of mental worry and anxiety. DR. CHASE'S MEDICINES are sold by all Druggists and Dealers in St. John's and in the Outports. Wholesale quotations from GERALD S. DOYLE, Sole Agent, Water Street, St. John's.

GREASE
To enable you to see
Coats, Sweaters
Robe

North Sydney Murder.

Andrew Brothers Arrested.
Sydney, Nov. 26.—The adjutant general has requested to inquire into the death of the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, which was resumed Monday evening at the court house at 7.30, and was adjourned until this evening. The adjutant general is expected to arrive here on Monday evening. All the bodies of the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, a key had been locked in the house outside. Wetmore, and a couple of articles belonging to the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, Francis Wetmore, testimony of the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, had been in the hands of the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, as an evidence of the late Guy Edwin Wetmore, Officer Dunphy was not about 1 p.m.

The public is wise in its food selections. Recent demand for the well known ready-cooked food Grape-Nuts shows how the first use of a full-worth food is followed by continued repeat orders. Nothing made of wheat and barley has so much of attractive taste and stand-by nourishment as Grape-Nuts food. "There's a Reason" Canada Food Board License No. 2-026

A Big Shipment of BEDSTEADS, White Enamel, Single and Double. The C. L. March Co., Ltd., cor. Water & Springdale Sts. Bedsteads: $9.50, $11.50, $14.50, $15.50, All Good Values. MATRESSES. We make them from Bunk Size up. Prices from $2.00 to $18.50. The C. L. MARCH CO., Ltd., Corner Water and Springdale Streets. Don't Say Paper, Say The Evening Telegram

Your Sensitive Skin will love Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear. STANFIELD'S Underwear is made of soft Lamb's Wool and is absolutely free from all burrs and vegetable matter. It is made in all weights, styles and sizes and will give you genuine underwear. Our Stock is Complete. Men's Winter Weight Shirts and Socks at $2.25, $2.90, $3.75. (Special range of extra large sizes.) —Breast measurement up to 48 inches. —Waist measurement up to 48 inches. HENRY B.

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

To enable us to obtain room to show CHRISTMAS WARES we have marked down a lot of Seasonable Goods to NEAR COST. SEE OUR WINDOWS FOR PRICES.

Coats, Sweaters, Furs, Tapestries, Boots, Blankets, Ladies' Hats, Overcoats—Men's & Boys,....
And many other items.

The Reductions will Surprise You, All must go as we have not space to keep them any longer.

Robert Templeton, 333 Water St.

North Sydney Murder.

Anders Brothers Arrested.

North Sydney, Nov. 26.—The adjutant general inquired into the death of the late Guy Edwin Anders, who was shot on Monday evening at his home at 7.30, and was arrested until this evening. It is expected that the autopsy being performed by Dr. M. T. McLean, North Sydney, and Dr. Bruce, of Sydney, will be completed by Friday.

Prosecutor Carrol and A. J. Anders were present, and the witnesses, the testimony being practically the same. Anders stated that the bullet would not cause any subsequent events, but that what he drank in the establishment on Friday was the liquor supposed to be the fatal morning has been analyzed.

As an express team had been sent leaving Anders' premises Friday morning at 1 p.m. Anders explained that it had been loaned to his two cousins to haul a load of hay.

Reinstated.

(From the Hamilton Spectator.)
Albert, King of the Belgians, is scheduled to enter his capital, Brussels, to-morrow, at the head of his victorious army. Meantime the deposed Kaiser, whose criminal "necessity" knew no brutal legions like a plague of vermin, to devour the land, the Apollon of the twentieth century, lies sulking in a Dutch castle. Kings are at a discount these days but Albert is at least a king who knows his metier. Upright, fearless, chivalrous, his scornful rejection of the Kaiser's insolent request to permit the passage of German troops through his country for the purpose of crushing France, in violation of all neutrality pledges, stands out as one of the bravest and most momentous acts of history. By that courageous refusal, though it meant the crucifixion of his little country, mankind was saved. Dr. Muehlon, in his famous diary, has an entry under August 6th, 1914, to this effect:—"I respect the King of the Belgians because he refused to submit to degradation. He would have suffered an ignominious fate had he permitted to retain his kingdom by the favor of Prussia, and had the Kaiser tapped him on the shoulder in gracious mockery and given him boisterous assurance of his friendship."

Had Bad Fall.

About 2.30 yesterday afternoon, Mr. Ellis, of Gray & Goodland's, while coming down the lane adjoining the Telegram Office, slipped on the ice, and his feet shooting out from under him, he fell heavily to the ground, his head striking with great force. However, he was not much injured, and after a few minutes could get along very well.

Overtime.

A certain manufacturer told his employees he would pay them their regular day's wages if they went to church the following day, which was Easter Sunday. They were all there and the manufacturer swelled with joy and pride at the sight. But after the service a foreman approached him and said: "Boss, the fellows want me to ask you if you come to church again to-night, do we get overtime?"

The Ropewalk Trouble.

The trouble at the Ropewalk is now in a fair way of being adjusted. The girl who refused to join the N.I.W.A. has since paid her initiation fee. The ### Current Events Club.

Last Saturday afternoon was one of unique interest at the Current Events Club, when the members of the Reading Room—for the first time in the history of the club—were favoured by an address given by one of the opposite sex.

In a very gracious speech, Lady Horwood emphasized this fact in introducing J. S. Currie, Esq., Editor of the Daily News.

The subject chosen by Mr. Currie—"The Little White Crosses"—was a message of "service and sacrifice" to women from "Flanders' Fields"; and the beautiful literary style of the address—no less than the subject-matter of it—had its own share in impressing the message on all the women who heard it. Mr. Currie has seen those "Little White Crosses"—miles of them—and is a worthy exponent of those deep things of which they are suggestive.

At the conclusion of the paper a vote of thanks was passed on motion of Mrs. A. Macpherson, seconded by Mrs. John Harvey.

Mr. Currie, with a reply in which he paid tribute to woman's work during the war, very modestly backed out of the door, and disappeared.—Com.

Management, which naturally felt aggrieved that they did not receive notice, nor were given an opportunity to discuss matters before the walk-out, has since been assured by the Association officials that such will not occur again. If this assurance is confirmed by the Association, the Ropewalk will reopen in a day or two.

Things Worth Knowing.

A SHORT WAR.

Spain declared war against the United States April 24, 1898. The first American army of invasion of Cuba, under General Shafter, sailed from Tampa, Fla., June 14, and landed at Santiago, Cuba, June 23. The battle between the "Rough Riders" and the Spanish forces occurred on June 24, the battle of El Caney on July 1, and the surrender of Santiago on July 16.

VULCANIZED RUBBER.

Vulcanized rubber—and all rubber articles are now vulcanized—was first made at Woburn, Mass., by Charles Goodyear about 1844. He obtained his first patent in that year, after he had spent years in experimenting and had reduced his family to extreme poverty.

GUNS.

There is no known 75-centimetre gun. If there were its bore would be more than 29 inches. The famous French 75-millimetre gun has a bore a little less in size than the American 3-inch field gun, being approximately 2.85275 inches; the German 77-millimetre is a little larger than the American, being approximately 3.03149 inches. French and American shells could be used in the German 77-millimetre guns, probably with little or no change while German and American shells could not, probably, be used in the French 75's without remachining.

A FAMOUS "NON DE PLUME."

It is probably quite new to most people that the non-de plume "Gyp," of the well-known French novelist, was taken from a Dickens novel. Such is, however, the case. It is the little dog Jip of David Copperfield, with the J changed into a G, so that the initial letter might be the same as that of the Christian name of Countess Eybille Gabrielle Marie Antoinette de Martel de Janville, the lady who is so well known to the French reading world as "Gyp."

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM.

The richly colored chrysanthemum is now treasured by flower lovers because, to use the poet's words, it fills with joy the floral breach "twixt waning summer and welcome spring."

There is a common belief that the chrysanthemum originated in Japan, but, like many other good things, it was really borrowed from the Chinese. It is, however, the royal flower of Japan, appears on the seal of the Emperor, and on the postage stamps of the country, while it has been the principal feature of an annual fête for 900 years. Adopted though it was, the Japanese have done so much with the chrysanthemum that they feel they have a right to call it their own.

Women's sleeveless slip-on-sweater continue to be popular. Some bathrobes are made of white and black checked blankets.

Robs Her Own Property.

A humorous story emanates from the police. A west end woman called the police to her house Sunday afternoon, stating that a young woman who has been living with her, had left the house for good, and that at about the same time a box of silverware and a bank book, representing $1,500 had also left, presumably for the same length of absence. Detective Byrne, having investigated, found that the woman's story was true, except that the whole truth was omitted, and that in truth, the money and goods belonged to her father before he died. She was to have them when her 21st year had arrived, and having recently added a husband to her list of odds and ends, she considered that maybe the $1,500 would come in useful sometime. Hence the gnomynity of their disappearance. The injured guardian had to be satisfied, and "all's well that ends well."

Look At This!

Forebanded young Germans are apparently preparing for the time when the Allies will be dominant and are seeking to make friends with the mammon of unrighteousness, judging from a matrimonial advertisement in the Neue Zuercher Zeitung. The following is a translation: A doctor of philosophy, 26-years old, highly educated, dashing, impressive, masculine appearance, desires acquaintances, looking toward matrimony, with a wealthy daughter or childless widow, friendly to the Allies.

Essence of Ginger Wine can be obtained at Stafford's Drug Stores for 20c. bottle. Postage 5c. extra.—Nov 25, 18

GOES ACROSS.—The Labrador service being over for the season, the S. S. Seal will now take a cargo of fish to Gibraltar for Messrs. Baine Johnston & Co.

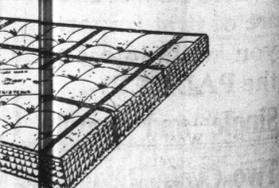

power
When so many are from nervous troubles of one
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food blessing of untold value.
cure is not like a stimulant,
in Nature's way by repleted nerve cells, increasing energy and building up the generally.
you feel tired out in mind and brain fog and failing memory, that you are losing your energy and vigor, it is time to turn to Dr. Chase's Food as a means of renewing men-and bodily vigor.
your experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is like that of the great majority of people who use it. You will soon feel the benefits in increased capacity—both mental and physical.
You will feel that you have the reserve force necessary to withstand the strain of life's work and to ward off disease. It is only by building up this reserve force that you can hope to counteract the debilitating influence of mental worry and anxiety.
DR. CHASE'S MEDICINES are sold by all Druggists and Dealers in St. John's and the Outposts. Wholesale quotations from GERALD S. DOYLE, Sole Agent,
Water Street, St. John's.

ment of
HEADS,
Single and Double.
for Water & Springdale Sts.

$11.50, $14.50,
Good Values.

ESSES.

Size up. Prices from $18.50.

ROH CO., Ltd.,
Springdale Streets.

The Evening Telegram

Your Sensitive Skin will Appreciate

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear.

STANFIELD'S Underwear is made from Lamb's Wool and is absolutely free from darns and vegetable matter. It is made in all weights, styles and sizes and is guaranteed to give you genuine underwear satisfaction.

Our Stock is Complete.

Winter Weight Shirts and Drawers at $2.25, $2.90, $3.70 and $4.15
(Special range of extra large sizes.)
Breast measurement up to 50 inches,
at $4.15
Waist measurement up to 48 ins.,
at $4.15

HENRY BLAIR

DULEY'S
—FOR—
Xmas Gift Suggestions.

Bracelet
Watches.

There could be no nicer gift than a Reliable and Beautiful Bracelet Watch. Correct time is necessary to everyone, and the Wristlet has come to stay. Our stock of Bracelet Watches is complete, every movement is guaranteed by us, so you can be always assured of satisfaction. Can we show you our line at prices from $12.00, $25.00 and up?
T. J. DULEY & CO.,
The Reliable Jewellers,
ST. JOHN'S, N.F.

Sugar is Scarce
AND HIGH IN PRICE.
Why not buy and use "good, honest" MOLASSES instead? *

We offer to-day at lowest prices a small shipment of

Choice Barbados Grocery Molasses,
in Tierces and Barrels.

Tierces average about 34 gallons each and Barrels average about 22 gallons each. Let us have your order for a Tierce or Barrel or more while this consignment remains unsold.

F. McNAMARA,
QUEEN STREET.

Reid-Newfoundland Co

FREIGHT NOTICE!

SOUTH COAST STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Unless otherwise advertised, mixed freight only for the above route will be accepted at the Freight Shed Friday, 6th inst., from 9 a.m. until sufficient cargo received.

PLACENTIA BAY STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Unless otherwise advertised, freight will be accepted at the Freight Shed Thursday, 5th inst., from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., for Merasheen Bay route.

HUMBERMOUTH-BATTLE HR. STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Unless otherwise advertised, freight for the above route will be accepted at the Freight Shed Thursday, 5th inst., from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

GREEN BAY STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Unless otherwise advertised, mixed freight only for the above route will be accepted at the Freight Shed Friday, 6th inst., from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

NOTRE DAME-BONAVISTA BAY STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Freight for S. S. "CLYDE" and S. S. "DUNDEE" via Port Union will be received on Tuesdays only up to 5 p.m. Freight for S. S. "CLYDE" and S. S. "DUNDEE" via Lewisporte will be received on Wednesdays only up to 5 p.m.

TRINITY BAY STEAMSHIP SERVICE.
Freight for S. S. "PETREL" (Monday's run) will be received on Wednesdays and Thursdays up to 5 p.m. Freight for S. S. "PETREL" (Friday's run) will be received on Mondays and Tuesdays up to 5 p.m.

REID-NEWFOUNDLAND Company

JULIETS!

The Woman without a pair of our Juliets is missing an ocean of foot comfort. The new comers this season are handsome as well as comfortable.

Not an Expensive Luxury,
$1.30, $1.50 to $2.50.

Then we have other sorts of comfortable Home Footwear. Felt Slippers, Bathroom Slippers, Turkish Slippers, Worsted Slippers, etc. We always have the good things in Footwear.

PARKER & MONROE, Limited,
THE SHOE MEN.
nov30 s.m.tu.th.f

CASINO THEATRE
THE KLARK-URBAN Company.

TO-NIGHT
AND TUESDAY NIGHT,
"The Daughter of Mother Macree."

Matinees
Wednesday & Saturday.

Matinee 20 and 30c.; Night, 20, 30, 50 and 75c. Seats on sale at Fred. V. Chesman's.

J. J. ST. JOHN.
All Ready for You,
Mr. Man!

3000 brls. FLOUR—
Best brands; some white while it lasts.
210 brls. HAM BUTT
PORK at $44.00 brl.
185 brls. BEST BONE
LESS BEEF — Very tender.
65 brls. SPARE RIBS.
130 puncheons and brls.
Very Best MOLASSES — Grocery and Fancy.
500 bags PURE WHITE CORN MEAL, Table.
350 bags YELLOW FEED MEAL.
2000 bags CATTLE FEED from $4.50 bag.
95 Half Chests TEA—Great value.
And a full line of GROCERIES at Bottom Prices.

J. J. ST. JOHN.
186 and 188 Duckworth St.

XMAS!
AT THE HOME OF GOOD SHOES.

Shoe Buckles.

We are now showing a splendid assortment of Ladies' High Grade Pumps suitable for evening wear, also a large variety of genuine Rhinestone Shoe Buckles, at our Ladies' Department.

F. Smallwood,
THE HOME OF GOOD SHOES.

Now in Stock
Winter Keeping APPLES
Burt & Lawrence, 14 New Gower St.

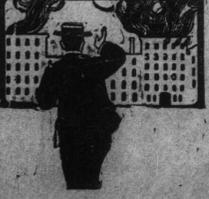

The Last Word in Gramophones
The "Uttona."

PLAYS ALL RECORDS.
NO NEEDLE TO CHANGE.
NO ATTACHMENTS.
NO EXTRAS—COSTS LESS.

All Phonographs in one. Come to our Gramophone Parlor, hear it and be convinced.

CHARLES HUTTON.

NO MATTER HOW THE FIRE IS CAUSED
if you're not insured, you're a loser. Take time to see about your policies. We give you the best companies and reasonable rates.

PERCIE JOHNSON
Insurance Agent.

Your Account Books
for 1919.

Our stock is now complete with every description, size and style.

Ledgers, Journals, Cash Books, Day Books, Column Books, Balance Books.

Letter, Minute, Bill, Time and Price Books.

Because of economic conditions our stocks are limited. We advise an early selection to avoid disappointment.

DICKS & CO., Ltd.
BOOKSELLERS and STATIONERS.

Arrived by S. S. Adolph To-Day,
"Pabst"
Millwaukee MEAD BEER.

Baird & Co.
Water St. East.
PHONE 498.

BYRNE'S BOOKSTORE.
THE NOVELS OF Roll Boldrewood.
Stories of Life and Adventure in the bush and in the goldfields of Australia.
Cloth bound—Price $1.75 each.
Robbery Under Arms.
The Miner's Right.
A Modern Buccaneer.
A Colonial Reformers.
Old Melbourne Memories.
In Bad Company, and other Stories.
My Run Home.
Nevermore.
A Sydney-Side Saxon.
The Squatter's Dream.
War to the Knife.
Babes in the Bush.

GARRETT BYRNE,
Bookseller & Stationer.

Just Arrived!
18,000 Brls. 'Ogilvie's 'STANDARD' FLOUR,
Best of the Kind.

1,200-50 lb. sacks OATMEAL,
600 half brls. ROLLED OATS,
350 brls. HEAVY MESS PORK,
450 brls. HAM BUTT PORK.

HARVEY & CO., Ltd.,
WHOLESALE ONLY.

Advertise in the Telegram

EIGHT PAGES TO-DAY. THE WEATHER FORECAST.
MONTREAL. Midnight. — Moderate fair during the day with light snow at night.
WATERBURY & THOMPSON. Noon.—Bar.
101; Ther. 34.

VOLUME XL.

Auction Sales!
FOR SALE
BY PUBLIC AUCTION.
On Thursday, the 5th day of December, instant, at 12 o'clock noon,
on the premises,
The 2 Dwelling Houses,
Nos. 43 and 45 Bannerman St.
The house No. 43 contains shop. The rent is unusually low, being only three dollars a year for each house. This property is centrally located and offers a splendid opportunity to a working man to acquire a home in one of the most desirable parts of the city. Further information made known on application to
FRED. J. ROIL & CO.,
Auctioneers.

AUCTION SALE.
On Thursday,
Dec. 5th, at 12 o'clock,
32 cases
Tinned Apricots.
M. A. BASTOW,
Auctioneer.

AUCTION.
Superior
Household Furniture
—at—
THE RECTORY, Southside, residence of REV. H. UPHILL,
Wednesday and Thursday,
4th and 5th December, 10.30 a.m.
Superior English "Crafter" Piano, perfect condition.
Handsome Oak Bookcase and China
Cabinet combined.
Chesterfield.
Green Damask Portiers.
High Cut Glass Fruit Dish.
Solid Brass Candlesticks (very old).
Mahogany Secretary.
Small Mahogany Table.
Engravings (Open and Close of War).
Solid Brass Fender.
Set Brass Fire Irons.
Lambton Carpet Square, 6 yds. x 4
Mahogany Mahogany Chairs.
Small Mahogany Chairs.
Tweedle Chairs.
Mission Oak Rocker.
High English Easy Chair.
Wicker Chair.
Wicker Rocker.
Mission Oak Butler's Table.
Deer Skin Rug.
Lace Curtains.
Fancy Curtains.
Heavy Curtains—Crimson.
Tea Service.
Green Rug.
Wardrobe Clock.
White Enamelled Curtain
Poles, 14 feet.
Electric Toaster.
Electric Boiler.
Power Epergne.
Quality of Cork Carpet.
China Tea Set.
Oak Hall Stand.
Oak Rattler.
Mahogany on Halls.
Dinner Set.
Tea Set.
Glassware, etc.
Kitchen Gas Stove.
Set E. P. Dish Covers.
Polishing Utensils.
Oak Roller Top Desk.
Cupboard, upholstered in Green Plush
Book Shelves.
Fire Guard.
Wine Office Chair.
Wickerette Easy Chair.
Oak Double Bedstead.
Oak Mattresses.
Wicker Bedroom Suite.
Mission Oak Rocker.
Wicker High Chair.
Wicker Sleigh.
Wicker Col.
Wicker Pushchair.
Wicker Slide.
Wicker W. E. & Brass Bedstead.
Oak Bureau.
Oak Washstand.
Wicker Bedstead.
Wicker Glass, 7 feet high.
Wicker Set.
Wicker Square.
Wicker Chairs.
Wicker Clock.
Wicker Ornaments & Plaques.
Wicker Brass & W. E. Bedstead.
Wicker W. E. Bedroom Suite.
Wicker Stretcher.
Wicker Bicycle.
Wicker Bicycle.
Wicker Bedstead.
Wicker Mattress.
Wicker Stand.
Wicker White E. Table.
Wicker, Etc., Etc.

R. K. HOLDEN,
Auctioneer.
HOLDEN'S LINIMENT CURES DAND-RUFF.
November
nov27,31