THE WATCH FACTORY AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Every sixth minute in the working day a finished watch movement is the average production of the above Factory. Yet, at this enormous rate of manufacture, the Company can but barely supply the demand. They have already produced almost

HALF A MILLION OF WATCHES, most of which are now in the pockets of the people, testifying to their superior merits as time-keepers. They are now almost exclusively used

ALL THE LEADING RAILWAYS.

Where they are found to run with perfect accuracy, in spite of the constant jar, which so much affects ordinary watches.

SHIP CAPTAINS

and other officers, who are frequently absent on long voyages, prefer this American Watch to any other, as they are not perceptibly affected by change of climate, and do not require frequent regulating. The story of the twenty-five dollar "Ellyer" watch that was carried five years by a soldier in the Army of the Potomac, and that varied one minute and a half in that time, without care or cleaning, could hardly be told of any other watch of the price that ever was made.

TO LUMBERMEN

these watches are of great value, not being liable to stop or get out of repair during their months of absence in the woods. They are admirably

ADAPTED FOR PRESENTATION, as the movements are not only reliable, but the cases in gold are rich and handsome and of guaranteed fineness. Thousands of these watches are now worn in Canada—every day they are becoming more popular. Very soon they will be the only watches sold in any quantity in the Dominion.

Buyers should always require the guarantee of the Company with each watch, to avoid being imposed upon by spurious Swiss imitations. These watches may be ordered through any Jeweller in the Dominion, or in districts where there are no watchmakers, we supply them to general merchants by the dozen. To the wearer they are the cheapest watches in the world!

Local and Miscellaneous

A young artist of Toronto, Mr. Forbes, was among the cabin passengers on the Hibernia.

A military funeral took place in the village of Ayr on Sunday last. Nearly 1000 people attended.

A lady living in Yorkville, near Toronto, gave birth to four children on Monday last. They are all living and thriving.

Scotland did well in the recent elections. Out of sixty representatives by it only three are Tories, and of the three one is Liberal in his tendencies.

A returned Californian found the baby he had left at home a young miss of five summers. One day he offended her, and she irefully exclaimed, 'I wish you had never married into the family.'

The Canadian News of the 19th ult., says: Sir George E. Cartier, Bart., and the Hon. Mr. McDougall, C.E. Canadian Ministers, now on an official visit to London, have been elected honorary members of the Reform Club in London.

A correspondent writes:—"The ladies of Ancaster village and vicinity gave a grand sleigh-drive and ball to their gentlemen friends—the ball was held in McPhee's Hall, Alexandria—on Thursday, Dec. 3. It was a perfect success. The ladies paid all expenses."

The County Council at present sitting in Hamilton, have resolved to memorialize the Executive for the unconditional pardon of Camp, whose death sentence has lately been commuted to imprisonment for life. The common opinion seems to be that the charge of rape was a trumped up one.

On Tuesday morning the examining warehouse in Montreal was fired by an incendiary. A million dollars' worth of goods, including fifty puncheons of high-wines, were stored in it. The progress of the fire was arrested before an explosion took place. The incendiary was arrested a short time after, and a rumble of gold watches which he had stolen from the building were found in his possession.

NEW STYLE OF VERDICT.—A despatch from Albany on the 7th inst. says: The jury in the Cole-Hiscock case came into court this morning, and stated that they found the prisoner to be sane at the moment before and the moment after the killing, but were in doubt as to his sanity at the instant of the homicide. The Judge said they must give the prisoner the benefit of the doubt, and thus instructed they endorsed a verdict of acquittal.

Mr. Wm. McCabe and Mr. John Grey went out hunting deer on Monday morning, near Newbury Creek, County of Middlesex, and had separated for about twenty minutes, when a deplorable accident occurred. McCabe imagined that he saw a deer hiding in a thicket of brushwood, and fired, when the shouts of a human being were heard. McCabe immediately ran to the spot, when to his dismay he saw his fellow-hunter bleeding, the shot having entered his abdomen. The recovery of the unfortunate man is not looked for. He is a farmer, with a wife and family.

It seems that nothing short of a Republic will satisfy Spain. Lately we have been reading almost daily of irruptions made by some of those who favour such a form of government into meetings of those inclined towards a monarchy.—It will be well if the Spaniards do not work out for themselves a worse despotism than that of Isabella, if worse be possible. But it is ever the way. Men long crushed by tyranny can apparently no more refrain from excesses on the removal of the yoke, than a dog from mad gambols when his chain has been loosed. It will be well if the history of Spain next year bear not a strong resemblance to that of Mexico a short time since.

THE DOMINION PIGEON MATCH.—This grand contest for the distinction of the champion shot of the Dominion was commenced at Leslieville, near Toronto, although the weather was anything but favourable to the affair. The prizes are: 1st, a silver cup and $50; 2nd, $40; 3rd, $30; 4th, $20. The following is the list of competitors:—H. Couzens, Windsor; W. Wilson, Markham; H. Miller, Markham; W. Stuart, Niagara; J. Glenn, London; W. Lake, Newcastle; J. Watt, Toronto; J. Taylor, Toronto; W. Burton, Markham; B. Dalton, Hamilton; B. Warren, Newcastle; W. Loane, Toronto; H. Vernon, J. F. Brown. Twenty-one birds were to be fired at, on Tuesday the competitors fired at fourteen of the number. At that stage of the contest Burton stood best, having missed only one bird. Dalton, of Hamilton, was second best, he having brought down twelve birds consecutively, but scored only eleven, one of the birds falling outside the limits. The match was resumed on Wednesday, when together with a silver cup and a purse of $50, was carried off by Mr. Wm. Burton, of the Township of Markham. The other prizes were won by the following gentlemen: Mr. Dalton, $40; Mr. Taylor, $30; and Mr. Loane, $20.

The Guelph Township Council.

The Council met on Monday, the 30th, pursuant to adjournment. Wm. White, Esq., Reeve in the Chair. Present—Messrs. Benham, Darby and Hobson.

Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

LONDON, Dec. 9th.—The Daily Telegraph says Mr. Gladstone's cabinet is ready to consider any proposals made by the United States in the Alabama claims. The Telegraph adds, the competence of Lord Clarendon to carry out negotiations is undoubted. The concessions which were made by Lord Stanley are an earnest of the spirit animating the English politicians in dealing with this question. All that can be honorably granted will be. The Americans can accept no less, and desire no more.

MADRID, Dec. 9.—The Gazette of this city says the report of the suppression of armed republican demonstrations at Cadiz a few days ago, was premature. At last accounts the insurgents were still in arms, and were attempting to make terms with the Government troops under a flag of truce.

VIENNA, Dec. 9.—The Emperor, Francis Joseph has issued a decree addressed to the army, in which he says:—"The country wants peace and we must maintain it. I am satisfied with the laws recently adopted for the reorganization of the army throughout the empire. Austria and Hungary are now equally interested in the grandeur and security of the empire. It is my wish that the army, navy and landwehr may ever remain truly united."

THURSDAY EV'NG, DEC. 10, 1868.

The President's Message.

The President's Message was read on Tuesday. That before published as an abstract of it is a complete fabrication.

The President opens by referring to the non-representation of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas in Congress. After a fair trial, he says the Reconstruction Acts have substantially failed, and proved pernicious in their results, and there seems no good reason why they should remain on the statute-books. The States to which the Government guarantees a Republican form of government have been reduced to military dependencies. He elaborates this fact and its consequences, and goes on to say briefly that experience has demanded the repeal of the civil tenure bill. He recommends that the Act of March 2nd, 1867, depriving the President of power to issue military orders, except through army headquarters, be repealed and all other obnoxious laws restricting executive powers. The message reviews Secretary McCulloch's report, and speaks at length on finances, and substantially in the same terms of the report. He pictures the evils of a depreciated currency, the necessity for a return to specie payments, and endorses the main provisions of the finance report.

The President then gives a resume of the annual reports, and calls attention to the recommendations therein. In speaking of foreign affairs, the President makes but slight reference to the negotiations for the settlement of the Alabama claims. In speaking of the Paraguayan difficulty the President details the late outrage on Americans there and Mr. Washburne's course, and says that the official correspondence between Lopez and Washburne has not been closed, and then adds that Mr. McMahon, the new Minister, having reached La Plata, has been instructed to proceed without delay to Assuncion, there to investigate the whole subject. The Rear Admiral commanding the United States squadron in the South Atlantic has been directed to attend the new Minister with proper naval force, to sustain such just demands as the occasion may require, and to vindicate the rights of the United States citizens referred to, and any others who may be exposed to danger in the theatre of war. The President goes on to say: Our relations during the past year with Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, Chili, &c., have become especially friendly and cordial. Spain and the Republics of Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador have expressed their willingness to accept the mediation of the United States for terminating the war upon the South Pacific coast although Chili has not declared on the subject.

A RATIONAL MOTION.

A member of the House has given notice that he will introduce the following resolution: "That with a view to attract immigration into this Province, it is expedient to provide, that on and after the first day of April, immediately subsequent to settlement on any lot, the regulations of the Government having been complied with, the locatee of a free grant lot shall have the right to cut and dispose of the timber on it, free of governmental charges." This is moving in the right direction. The settler will certainly find difficulties enough to contend with, without being prohibited from turning to account whatever timber of value he may find on his lot. The Act does not allow him to dispose of any except what he requires for building purposes, or what may stand in the way of his clearing, until after the issue of the patent, when it is well known he will have surmounted the worst part of his difficulties. If he can make a little money out of the timber to assist him in his progress towards comfort, in all conscience let him have it. Those who intend merely to rob and not to become actual settlers can easily be detected.

The South Huron Election.

After a protracted investigation in the alleged bribery and corrupt practices at this election, it has been decided by a majority of one of the committee that Mr. Carling had a majority of the votes, that he should take his seat for the South Riding of Huron, and that Mr. Gibbons should give place to him. The decision is a most unfair one, for all the irregular votes given for Mr. Gibbons were struck off, while those given for Mr. Carling were retained. This unjust decision was carried by the casting vote of the chairman, Mr. Clarke, who is an obsequious tool of the Ministry. Mr. Gow moved that the names of all the voters who had been proved before the committee to have received money for their votes, under the pretence of hire for teams and other services, be struck off the list of voters. This was voted down by Messrs. Craig, Grahame and Clarke, Mr. Gow and Mr. McDougall only voting for a motion which gave equal justice to both Gibbons and Carling. On the same division Carling was declared the properly elected member and Mr. Gibbons was sacrificed through the wrong doing of the coalition.

Lady Young has received an unpleasant impression of our Canadian climate in the shape of a bad cold.

County Court and Quarter Sessions.

WEDNESDAY, 9th.
In the case of Frederick Betz, charged with embezzlement the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Peterson, county attorney, prosecuted; Mr. McCurry was for the defence.

DANIELS, vs. PIKE.—An action for damages for assault brought by Hannah Daniels against George Pike. Some time in the summer she had been interfering with his children, and had taken the youngest one, against his will, to see a circus or something of that sort, when he followed her, and took the child from her, and was returning homewards with it. She in turn followed him, when he struck her. He was brought before the Police Magistrate for an aggravated assault and fined, but the present case was a claim for damages for loss sustained in consequence of the injuries, and by paying a doctor. Verdict for plaintiff, $8.

LEWIS, vs. STULL.—Undeveloped action on a promissory note and for a balance of account. Verdict for plaintiff, $234.00. Mr. Guthrie and Mr. Hall for plaintiff.

DAMMAN, vs. THOMPSON.—An appeal from magistrate's conviction. The conviction was for an assault and for malicious injury to property. Conviction quashed with costs. Mr. Cross for appellant.

LOWES, vs. CHAMBERS.—Action for rent which plaintiff said was paid by a tenant to defendant previous to transfer of property held by the latter to the plaintiff. Verdict for plaintiff, $100. Mr. McCurry and Mr. Cross for plaintiff. Mr. Drew for defendant.

FERGUSON, vs. STEVENSON, et al.—Action on a promissory note. Verdict for plaintiff $227. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff. Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Kennedy for defendants.

DAVIDSON, et al, vs. ARMSTRONG.—Action for $200, commission on $10,000 at 2 per cent. on the sale of a farm in the township of Guelph. This action was tried at the March sittings of this court, when the jury found a verdict for the defendant. A new trial was granted and the case entered for the present sittings. The record was subsequently withdrawn by the plaintiffs. Mr. Palmer for plaintiffs. Mr. Guthrie for defendants.

THE QUEEN vs. GEO. FLADD.—The prisoner, an innkeeper in Salem, was put on trial charged with stealing a silver from Joel Boyle, of Peel, in August last. The case has occupied the attention of the Court thus far and is still in progress.

SOME MORE PORK.—This (Thursday) morning Mr. John S. Armstrong, Ernaosa, brought to market 64 hogs of his own feeding, weighing over 18,000 lbs. He sold them to Mr. Brill, of the Wellington Packing House for $8 per cwt, realizing for the lot about $1,500. Pigs are not a bad institution when a man has a mill. We may here mention that Mr. Alex. Gow also sold two hogs, to day, to Mr. Creighton at $8.25 per cwt. Pork is looking up.

FAT CATTLE SHOW.—The fat cattle show was held to-day. A large number of first class cattle were brought in, which sold at good prices. The prize list &c. will appear to-morrow.

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

Meanwhile Tushielaw had given his troops the reward he had promised them, and bade the cellarer let wine and ale flow freely in honour of the bride who had just come home. On the same night he bade the kitchen folks serve the table with the best fare they could command on so brief a notice. Every man, woman, and child who owned him chief was to make merry that night. So there was bustle and wasail in every corner of the tower, and the beacon was kindled to add its glare to the festivities, and to intimate to friends and foes that an extraordinary celebration was being made. It was not long before the ordinary indications of high revel swelled upon the night. The loud laugh, the coarse jest, the angry oath, all rising in the fury of an unrestricted carouse, soon sent such sounds ringing through the tower as made the poor lady who was the unwilling occasion of it shudder in alarm and abhorrence.

The sound was considerably subdued when the men had taken their places in the hall at the supper board, and waited only the lady to begin the attack upon the substantial fare which was set before them. Tushielaw, with Barras—who, having concluded his arrangements for the decoying and despatching of Gilbert, delayed here to see the end of the sport with his sister—waited impatiently to receive the expected intimation that the lady was ready. The Borderer at length, with a muttered oath, proceeded to the chamber where Lady Spens remained, still keeping the girl in the room under various pretences. "Ha, Mistress, you have not hurried to grace our banquet," he growled, seizing her hand; "but beshrew you look well, though somewhat of the whitest colour; you are better as a woman than a man for as much as your limbs are worn in the tight-fitting wear. So, so, have some colour in our cheeks now! Come then for the wassail you and I would have you look your best."

He forced her along with him into the hall, where the rascal rose to receive her. He placed her on his right at the head of the board; Barras on his left. The supper was soon despatched, but Mistress Spens did not raise her head or cast a morsel, although perpetually pressed to do both by her would-be lord. When the trencher had been cleared away in the readiest fashion possible, Tushielaw filled a goblet to the brim, and raising it above his head shouted— "Drink lads drink, clean cup out, to the new Mistress of Tushielaw! I salute the happy close of your widowhood, fair sister," said Barras in his cool, mocking way, bending toward her. The men drank and shouted as if they were possessed with devils; and indeed they were, if the potations they indulged in owned anything of evil influence.

While the uproar was at its height, Tushielaw threw down his goblet and placed his arm around the lady's waist, and said to her— "This salute, Mistress, shall serve to bless your union in place of Mess John's gilt nut-crackers." Ere his lips had touched her she was as if stung by an adder, springing from her grasp and made for the door. Taken aback for an instant by the suddenness of her movement, he remained still. "A wassail on you for a minx," he cried furiously, bounding after her, "these cantrips will not serve you here."

He stretched forth his hand to clutch her, but the lady was swiftly drawn beyond his reach, and he found himself face to face with Kiraly Hyalop, who, with dishevelled hair, visage flushed, eyes bright as fire, and gaunt form erect, seemed like the fury with the evil eye she was supposed to be. Bold as the Borderer was, lightly as he esteemed the power of man or devil, he recoiled before this apparition, and a breathless silence fell upon the place which had been lately ringing with the din of the carouse. Her appearance was so unexpected and inexplicable—for the gates were secure and guarded—that these same men who had been lately hunting the woman like a wolf were much appalled at sight of her as if her very glance had stricken them helpless.

A METEOR.—A night or two since, the moon was partially obscured by a light, fleecy cloud, a meteor ball, very luminous, of a silvery hue, extremely brilliant, and to the eye somewhat larger in appearance than the moon itself. At first it appeared in the shape of a perfect globe, then gradually curled itself until it spread into one immense sheet of liquid fire, and formed letters reading nearly as follows: "If your feet are troubled with corns, bunions, calluses, &c., go immediately to the nearest drug store and get a box of Brigg's Curative. It will effect a certain cure, in incredible short time. For sale by E. Harvey & Co., druggists, and country merchants generally. C. H.
