Mrs. Harvey O'Higgins, wife of the well-known American novelist, spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. John Baker.

I am agent for the LeHigh Valley Coal Co., "shipped direct from the mines", lowest price.—Harry Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wanless, Ypsilanti, Mich., Guy and Walter Strangway, of Windsor, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Class.

A flashy society drama and a corking mystery yarn moulded into a "thrill-a-minute" picture. Don't miss "The Guilty One" featuring Agnes Ayres at the Lyceum next Thursday.

This Shoe Sale continues until everything is sold, but don't wait too long.—A. Rumford.

The Guide-Advocate acknowledges its appreciation of a fancy Eversharp pencil from the directors of the Canadian National Exhibition. It reminds us that the "Big Ex." is not two months away, the dates being August 23rd to Sept. 6th. After Watford Old Home Week (Aug. 17-20), the "Ex" may start in any day.

The attention of the traveling public is called to the recent change in timetable on the C.N.R.:—Train No. 17, going west, now leaves at 11.59 a.m. (one minute to noon) instead of 12.09 p.m. as formerly.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKecher left on a trip to the West on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. McKecher will visit her mother, Mrs. Jessie Johnston at Nokomis, Sask., while Mr. McKecher will go through to the coast and visit intermediate points. They will be away about a month.

W. S. Fuller, town clerk, was notified by the Provincial Government this week to have printed at once the necessary Voters' List for provincial elections. Thus, signs continue to bear out the forecast of a liquor plebiscite to be held this Fall. The list will be printed at this office immediately.

Everything goes at our Shoe Sale nothing held back.—A. Rumford.

The picture attraction at the Lyceum next Thursday will be "The Guilty One" a mixture of love and mystery with Agnes Ayres adapted from the famous stage play of that name.

At a representative gathering of the business men in the Library on Friday evening an address and presentation was made to Dr. W. G. Siddall and Mr. Charles V. Gail, prior to their departure from Watford. Dr. Siddall and family will spend the summer months at the lakeside before leaving for a specialist's course in New York City. Mr. Gail moved his family to Elderton this week where he was transferred last winter as C.N.R. station agent.

Mill end of pure linen towelling 6 yds. for $1.00.—Swifts Sale.

Complaints are being made by various citizens of wilful destruction and damage being made to their flower beds. On several evenings parties have been seen to step in on the lawn of certain residents, apparently to help themselves to flowers, etc. While no one could possibly refuse a request for a few flowers, no citizen can see his efforts to beautify wantonly destroyed with unconcern. If the practice is continued, public examples will be made of a few offenders.

Ladies dimity, mull and cotton steppes, assorted shades, 39-53 and 98 cents.—Swifts Sale.

The Fellowship Bible Class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Chambers Friday evening, June 27th, there were 23 members present. The president, Mr. Rumford, led the devotional exercises. Short talks were given by different members of the class on the work of the Sunday school. Instrumental duets by George and Robert Chambers and a reading by Mrs. Humphries, formed a pleasing program which was much enjoyed. A social hour followed in which the hostess served refreshments and the meeting was brought to a close by singing and prayer.

Home Over the Weekend

Gordon Luckham, Detroit;

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Leigh, Port Huron;

Rollie Dodds, Port Huron;

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Styles, Sarnia.

Balance Children's Hats, half price—A. Brown & Co.

The Guide-Advocate will be pleased to receive reports of the promotion examinations in all schools in East Lambton. Will teachers and secretaries of school boards kindly send them in at the earliest opportunity?

Its so much better to take advantage of our Shoe Sale now, than wish you had later on.—A. Rumford.

Mrs. J. P. Warner, Mrs. R. E. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dean of Inwood visited at the home of Miss Bertha Oakes, Sunday.

Mens cotton sox, black, brown, grey, 5 pair for $1.00.—Swifts Sale.

The members of the W. I., together with several friends, met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Rogers on Monday evening and spent a social time with Mrs. J. McCrea, prior to her leaving for her new home in Listowel. Mrs. McCrea was an esteemed and valued member of the W. I. and the ladies regret exceedingly her removal from town.

Strawberry crops this year have been exceptionally good, due to the frequent rains of two weeks ago. Very good prices have been realized, the choicest berries retailing from 10c to 12c per box. Extra large berries have been reported by various growers as quite ordinary this year.

Hugh McKenzie, second line, left a boxful on the editor's desk this week which looked more like the huge candy variety that Frank Lovell hands out to the kiddies at 1c each than the luscious fruit which tickles the palate either fresh under cream or brought up from the cellar preserves next winter.

Watford Council

Watford, July 7, 1924

Regular meeting of Council was held with Messrs. Connolly, Hollingsworth, McCormick, Doar and Brown present.

Minutes of Court of Revision and regular meeting were read and confirmed.

A deputation from the Cemetery Board composed of E. A. Brown, Mrs. T. G. Mitchell and Mrs. Fred Rogers were received and heard in respect to the erection of gates and other improvements at the cemetery.

Dr. W. G. Siddall tendered his resignation as M. O. H.

McCormick—Doar, that should the Cemetery Board proceed with the building of cemetery gates this council agrees to provide a grant to the extent of $200.—Carried.

Doar—Brown, that we grant the Utilities Commission the use of the building in the rear of belfry for storage purposes and a work shop.—Carried.

McCormick—Doar, that we collect one dollar a year rent from Mr. Brush for the ground on which his stable stands and that Mr. Elliot be authorized to collect this rent for three years.—Carried.

Brown—Doar, that this Council accept the resignation of Dr. W. G. Siddall as M.O.H.—Carried.

Connolly—Hollingsworth, that this Council express to Mr. Joshua Saunders their appreciation of his work in trimming trees and shrubs on the Public Library grounds.—Carried.

Hollingsworth—McCormick, that Mr. Doar be appointed to have the Fire Hall painted and the roof tarred.—Carried.

McCormick—Hollingsworth, that the petition of Dr. Sawers and others to construct a water main along the north side of Ontario street between McGregor and Wall streets be received and that we appoint J. D. Brown as engineer to measure the frontage of the lands on each side of said street, and figure up the approximate cost and the amount to be charged against each owner of the lands fronting said street, and report to the Council.—Carried.

J. R. McCormick moved giving notice of a bylaw to be considered at the next meeting of this Council respecting the construction of a water main on Ontario street between McGregor and Wall streets.

Finance committee examined accounts and recommend payment.

"Squibs by Dad"

It is suggested that a week in August be observed as "recuperation week" in honor of vacationists who have returned from their summer outing.

The street car strike in Atlantic City is not causing visitors any inconvenience. The wheel chairs are running on schedule time on the board walk.

It is estimated that half a million people visited Coney Island Sunday. Many convention delegates from the corn belt enjoyed their first dip in the briny.

The discovery of a tribe of white Indians is reported. Unless oil is discovered on their territory, interest in the event may be confined to scientists.

A dairy authority estimates the annual per capita consumption of milk at about 200 quarts. Many juveniles partake of their quota in the form of ice cream cones.

A recent aviation achievement makes it possible to have an early breakfast in New York and a late supper in San Francisco the same day. A short time but a long distance between meals.

Former King George of Greece purposes visiting Paris with a view of securing a position that would enable him to live in the style to which he is accustomed. There may be an opening for a headwaiter in one of the fashionable cafes.

Said to be the best paid postman in the aerial service, the aviator who carries the mail between Fairbanks and McGrath, Alaska, a distance of 350 miles, receives $2 a mile. He does not have to "beat the sun" to make a fair day's wage.

A Paris paper sharply reprimands Premier Herriot for entertaining members of his new cabinet at a sauerkraut supper after an organization session. Partaking of a popular German dish is regarded as giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

Having reached the mature age of 57 years, Miss Canada accepts with sedateness and reserve the paternal counsel of John Bull and the blandishments of her nearest neighbor, Uncle Sam.

Hollywood authorities are determined to check the shooting affrays that have given the silver screen city much notoriety of late. Persons found guilty of this offense in the future will be fined for discharging firearms inside the city limits.

An eminent geologist predicts that the world's supply of copper will be exhausted in twenty years. This may result in a marked decline in church collections and patronage of penny slot machines.

Too many chores take the joy out of the vacation of the small boy released from school. He wants to commune with nature equipped with a fishing rod, baseball bat and a no-piece bathing suit.

There is a movement in Ontario to establish community laundries in rural districts. Should Mrs. Smith's guest towels or Mrs. Jones' hand embroidered pillow slips be lost in the "wash" it would take more than soap suds to clean up the scene of the fray.

To protect cows against insect pests in the fly season and incidentally add to the safety and comfort of dairymaids, a dairy journal advocates spraying the cows previous to milking. A device that would anchor bossy's tail during the extraction operation would also contribute to making it a painless exercise.

Note and Comment

About the only time a man objects to being overrated is when he pays his taxes.

Cast your paragraphs upon the waters and they shall return to you after many days, credited to some other newspaper.

Medicine Hat reports a temperature of 104. Perhaps they will tell us that the heat is like the cold, they don't feel it.—London Advertiser.

Auto license markers for 1925 will be the reverse of 1924—yellow figures on a black ground, as announced by the Minister of Highways last week.

Mr. Newlywed—"Good gracious, dear, what a long pie! It is surely too big for two." Mrs. Newlywed—"I'm sorry, Cecil, but I couldn't get any shorter rhubarb anywhere."

Ontario's plebiscite on the liquor law will be held in October, is the latest forecast. It is reported that clerks of rural municipalities have been notified to prepare the third part of the voters' list and have it printed at once.

Glencoe high school teaching staff have been engaged for another term, with the exception of Mr. Thornicroft, who will teach in the continuation school at Alvinston. Mr. Thornicroft has done excellent work there, and it is regretted that he has planned to make a change.

No wonder girls learn to swim more easily than men. Who wants to teach a man to swim.—Petrolia Advertiser-Topic.—Don't know about that, Brother. We've noticed that most girls take an enormous lot of attention and then show no results in the swimming line.

A scarlet fever epidemic has broken out in Kincardine and all schools, picture shows, dance halls and other gatherings will be closed indefinitely. They have over 70 cases in the town. This shows to what an alarming extent this disease will go if not checked and the utmost precautions are not observed.

Every Monday Toronto dailies are filled with details of ghastly motor casualties and fatalities, and will continue to be as long as fools drive whose chief ambition seems to be to break the speed records. If they could but break their own necks without injury to their passengers it wouldn't be so bad.

The Canadian weekly newspaper editors now touring in the Old Country attended a garden party given by their majesties on Saturday last. On Monday they were the guests at luncheon of Col. Grant Morden, M. P., at his Buckinghamshire estate, at which Lord Birkenhead, Col. L. S. Amery, T. P. O'Connor and Sir Hamar Greenwood were also present. Subsequently the Canadians had tea with Lord Burnham, president of the Empire Press Union.

Petting parties in Westminster Township, Middlesex county, especially in the vicinity of Glendale, should be staged with discretion from now on, as the Westminster township council, in a special session Saturday afternoon, passed a bylaw making Stanley Lawson a full-fledged county constable. It is understood that Mr. Lawson will devote all spare evening hours to the pursuit and conviction of loving couples who hold hands in cars minus lights parked at the roadside.

The time has arrived when Jock and Janey Canuck take to the highways, the forests, the lakes and the rivers, the open season has come for the lunatic who rocks the boat, the boy who didn't know it was loaded, the fellow who takes a berry picker for a bear and the motorist who isn't happy until the speedometer registers 60. To this list may be added the fellow who is careless about fire in the forest and who may be responsible for the destruction of millions of dollars' worth of our national asset as well as for loss of human life.

Straying far from its haunts south of the Mason-Dixon line, a mockingbird visited one day last week on Peter McArthur's farm in Ekfrid. The bird was discovered by Mr. McArthur in the woods on the back portion of the farm, where it enjoyed itself for a whole day pouring out a variety of song in the evening it left and has not been seen since. To find a mockingbird so far north is a rare experience. Only once before, according to W. E. Saunders, noted naturalist, of London, has the bird been known to visit Ontario.

According to a story in a Toronto paper a woman in that city sent $25 to a United States concern advertising a sure flesh-reducing prescription. She received a number of capsules and after swallowing one made an examination of one of the others and found that it contained a tape-worm.

Fire completely destroyed the fine large residence of George Oke, south of Alvinston, at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning of last week. The fire was caused by a small blaze over which meat was being smoked in the back kitchen. A portion of the household effects was saved. There was some insurance on the building and contents.

As a result of recent amendments to the Motor Vehicles Act, the onus of proof is on the motorist, to prove that his brakes were in perfect working condition every time an accident occurs. The police have the right to stop every car, inspect the brakes, and if not functioning properly, order the driver to have them repaired immediately.

June brides may be interested in the account of a recent wedding in a small town in Roumania. Ten thousand people appeared as guests and brought presents that filled three large rooms. The ceremonies lasted a week, and the guests consumed thirty-two oxen, two hundred and ten sheep, one hundred and sixty calves, twenty-one hundred geese and three thousand chickens. The bride was the daughter of a famous rabbi.

John McVicar of Red Deer, Alberta, a former well-known school teacher in Middlesex and Lambton counties, was recently renewing old friendship in Caradoc and Strathroy after an absence of many years. During his visit to the old home community, former schoolmates and pupils, to the number of two hundred or more, gathered at the old school which he first attended as a boy and presented him with a purse of gold.

After October 1, the old size berry box will disappear, and it will be compulsory to use the full quart or pint size. The package that has been used was four-fifths of a quart. "It is probable that all strawberries will be packed in the quart boxes, and raspberries in the pint," states an official of the Dominion Fruit Branch. The same authority remarked that 6 and 12 quart fruit baskets have been reduced about ten per cent. in price this year, which cut will make a very appreciable difference in fruit handling costs.

Speaking before the National Association of Credit Men at Buffalo, last week, Dr. David Friday, Director of Research in the National Transportation Institute at Washington, predicted that before November wheat will sell in the United States at $1.25 a bushel, and before Christmas for $1.35. Reports on the United States and Canadian crop indicate a decline in production, Dr. Friday said. He predicted a general upward trend of prices for all farm products, and declared an increase in the price of wheat would lessen the discontent in the west. Agricultural content, he prophesied, would settle over the country next year. He also said that although the number of people on farms now is only 10 per cent. greater than twenty years ago, farm production has increased 40 per cent. "Forget the back-to-the-farm movement," he continued. "It is not the solution of the problem."

A few weeks ago the weather was drearily cold, the season was backward, the crop outlook was poor and the farmers were pessimistic and everyone was blue. Today we are having glorious summer weather, the country never appeared more beautiful, the grain is jumping ahead, the farmers are smiling and that old optimistic air is returning. Anyone who is in the dumps these days should have his stomach examined by a medical expert. Not only are the prospects good for fine crops all over Canada, but there are no sound grounds for anyone being pessimistic in regard to the Dominion. Canada has what the world needs and nothing can keep the Dominion back. We have the finest agricultural lands in the world, we have the largest undeveloped lumber resources, Canada's fisheries are the wealthiest on the globe, and Canada is rapidly proving to have the world's greatest mineral wealth. Where is there a country in the world where conditions are as good as in Canada and where is there any spot in as happy a situation as Western Ontario? Let us look ahead and up, not back and down.

The latest oil strike in the Ontario field is on the farm of Ed. Halton, 4th Concession, Dunwich, near Dutton. It was struck last Friday and is believed to be a gusher, flowing 80 barrels an hour. Officials of the Imperial Oil Company are reported to have already offered the owner $28,000 for his 50 acres. The oil was struck at 100 feet in the rock, and it is reported that two other wells will be started immediately. There has been more or less active search for oil in the section on which the well is located, for the past two years.

Briefer sessions would be the rule at Ottawa if the members displayed the speed used in "railroading" bills through the House the closing days.

Three 84-mile-an-hour Lincoln touring cars, equipped with radio receiving sets, are now being used by the Detroit Police Department as an effective means of chasing and capturing bandits. Each car is equipped with a loud speaker, and the sets are in constant tune with headquarters, so that action is immediate and swift. Shortly after the Lincoln police fliers had begun their patrol duty a drug store hold-up was reported. The broadcast message of warning was picked up by one of the fliers, and 13 minutes after the robbery had been committed the two bandits had been run down and captured, their car seized and stolen money recovered.

Small hamlets and villages throughout the country could do motorists and also themselves a service by placing the name of the hamlet or village either over the post office or general store or in some other prominent place where it would catch the eye of tourists and visitors as they pass. The name would be as good as a guide post to motorists and would satisfy their curiosity. Moreover, the hamlet would in this way become much more known throughout the country. And it would do away with necessity for the motorists stopping to ask someone by the roadside the name of the hamlet.—Simcoe Reformer.

New Gov't. Bond Issue

To Meet Victory Bonds Due This Fall

A good deal of interest is being displayed by Canadians in the issue of Victory Loan Bonds which matures next fall. To meet these bonds, the Government, of course, will float a new bond issue, just as was done last fall to meet the Victory Loan Bonds which matured on December 1st, 1923.

The principal point around which interest centres is whether the new issue of bonds will be offered to Canadian investors or whether the Government will sell the bonds in United States. Investment brokers in the latter country were eager to purchase the Refunding Loan Bonds last fall, and it is reported that they are equally eager to purchase the new issue which will be made some time during the present year.

The general impression in well-informed circles seems to be that the new Loan should be offered to Canadian investors. There will be $107,000,000 paid off this year to those who hold the maturing bonds, and unless the Government offers an immediate channel for sound reinvestment, it is highly probable that a good deal of this money will reach the hands of unscrupulous promoters of one sort and another and that we in Canada will experience an unprecedented area of speculation. Furthermore, unless money is quickly reinvested there is a natural tendency to spend it needlessly.

A second factor in the situation is the desirable element of national independence insofar as financial requirements are concerned. For many years, Canada relied largely upon capital from other countries. Principally Great Britain and United States, for the financing of her Governments, Municipalities and Corporations. The War Loan and Victory Loan campaigns, however taught us that we were well able to do the bulk of this financing ourselves, and it should be a source of national pride to know that Canada is no longer dependent upon a foreigner's purse for her financial needs.

As to the ability of Canadian investors and private investors to provide money to buy the new bonds which will probably be issued soon, it might be pointed out that Savings Deposits in the Chartered Banks have increased by about $33,000,000 since last September. This increase has taken place in spite of the fact that a Dominion Loan of $200,000,000 was sold in Canada last fall. Loans to United States by Canadian banks are also increasing each month and this seems to indicate that there are plenty of funds available for our own domestic requirements.

In this connection, it is also interesting to know that our balance of trade is heavily in favor of Canada. In other words, we export more goods than we import. In this way, we bring large sums of new money into Canada, for which of course we sell agricultural, mineral and manufactured products. It would be unfortunate if the profit from the sale of these goods had to be sent to another country in the form of interest upon Dominion Government bonds. If last year's Dominion Government Refunding Loan had been offered in United States, we would now be paying $10,000,000 each year in interest to United States investors, instead of paying it to investors in Canada. In addition we would have to pay the exchange premium upon American funds.

Regarding this question of keeping money at home, by borrowing from our own investors and buying Canadian goods, the following statement once made by Abraham Lincoln is very interesting:

"I don't know much about tariffs but I do know this. When we import goods, we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money to distribute in employment among his people as well as a profit for himself. If we make those goods here, we get the goods, we get our people employed and all the money and the profit stays in this country."

An apt paraphrase of this might be—"I don't know much about international finance, but I do know this: if Canada borrows abroad, the interest goes each year to foreigners and eventually the principal has to be paid back to them, but when we borrow from our own people all the interest stays here to be spent among our own people to maintain employments, and to contribute towards the prosperity of the nation as a whole."

Scolding the Country Papers

Toronto Saturday Night in its issue of June 21st, had a lengthy editorial on "Passyfooting" in the Rural Press," in which the weekly papers of the Dominion are virulently criticised because they are not giving more space to editorial comment on the political questions of the day. That they do so is a matter of regret in many quarters, but the editor of Saturday Night is evidently ignorant of the conditions which have brought about what he terms "a thoroughly neutralized and opinionless press." Owing to the increased cost of newspaper publication nearly all the weekly paper towns and villages have now only one paper, instead of two or three as formerly, and many of the cities have only one daily paper. In all places where only one paper is published, whether weekly or daily, all editorials of a partisan character have been eliminated, and the un-called for scolding by the Saturday Night editor will apply to all daily as well as to the weekly press. Saturday Night has never had a good word for anything outside the big cities, and has been especially unfair to the agricultural interests of the country our political affairs. If Saturday Night was taxed it would be singing a different tune, but too much must not be expected from that quarter.—Forest Free Press.

Think It Over

Customer walked into a hardware store and asked the price of a hammer. "One Dollar," said the hardware man. "I can order one by mail and get it for seventy-five cents," said Mr. Customer. "Sure you can," said Mr. Hardware, "and I'll sell you the hammer for the same cost, here it is, it's cheaper lighter hammer, but I'll sell it at the same price you can get it by mail." "Good enough," replies Mr. Customer, "just hand it over and put it on my account." "Nay, nay, brother," comes back Hardware, "this is a mail order transaction, and it's cash with the order." The customer dug up seventy-five cents and reached for the hammer, but was waved aside. "Not yet," said the grinning hardware prince, "keep on digging. If you sent by mail the money order costs you five cents, the stamp three cents, and the postage on the hammer would be ten cents, kindly lay eighteen cents more upon the counter." The customer saw the point and produced the required amount, but again the hammer was held away. "Excuse me," said the hardware man as he gathered up the coin, "but this is a mail order proposition, now you have just ordered the hammer and you wouldn't expect it for several days, come in some time next week and I'll hand it to you."

PARK YOUR CHILDREN LADIES!

Speaking of modern advertising, here's an ad. we spied this week in one of our exchanges which comes from a town not a hundred miles from Watford:—

Would you like to go to the city, to a picnic, the show, or on a visit, if only you had some one to take care of the children? Leave them with Mrs. Adolphus Shaw, on Brock st. Large yard, sand pile, swings, kiddie cars. Special care given to every child for a few hours or for a day up to 10 p. m. Consult her as to rates, etc. This is a grand opportunity for tired mothers.

Here's a case where one worthy mother grasps an opportunity to extend a kindly motherly service to her sister citizens at proper remuneration, and solves the problem of most mothers as to what to do with Tommy and Betty and Mary Jane while she goes in to the city for a day. Far too often it has been a case of dumping the children on some kind neighbor or shipping them off to Grandma's, which will no doubt be eliminated by this new form of service.

Asthma Cannot Last when the greatest of all asthma specifics is used. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy assuredly deserves this exalted title. It has to its credit thousands of cases which other preparations had failed to benefit. It brings help to even the most severe cases and brings the patient to a condition of blessed relief. Surely suffering from asthma is needless when a remedy like this is so easily secured.

The Last Word in Motor Car Value

The selling price of any automobile is based on the cost of material, production, distribution and overhead.

Large volume of sales greatly reduces all these costs.

Chevrolet now occupies first place in sales of fully equipped quality automobiles.

Therefore it has been possible for Chevrolet to establish the lowest price in the world for a quality automobile.

Also Chevrolet is the lowest of any car in cost of operation.

"THE DUNLOP TRAIL"

Gives Practical Information

The Guide-Advocate received this week an advance copy of "The Dunlop Trail," an entirely new form of road guide which is being issued by A. A. Briggs advertising manager of the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods. After more than two years work, the author has succeeded in compiling mileage information between every point in the Province of Ontario, but it also serves as a condensed guide to summer hotels, camp sites, etc.

Its chief object is to make a visit by motor to any one of Ontario's numerous summer resorts both easy and pleasant. Sixteen sections; each accompanied by its own specially drawn road map, are all inter-related, while at the same time each section is complete in itself.

Lambton County and Southwestern Ontario information and mileages are generously given and correct in every detail. A copy of "The Dunlop Trail" will be consulted for every new ramble or trip.

Snowballs in July!

Guelph, July 4.—Children in Campbellville engaged today in the unseasonable pastime of snowballing.

Last winter while workmen were engaged in getting out lime kilns near that village, the walls of the pit caved in, burying beneath tons of earth a quantity of snow which filled the excavation. Teamsters employed in taking out gravel reached the snow and were obliged to cart away several loads before they could continue work.

The snow was hauled to the village and dumped on the street, much to the delight of the youngsters, who engaged in a snowballing contest.

AN eye-headache some times accompanied by an earache and burning sensations of the eyes is caused by an over effort of the brain to understand a blurred image that has been thrown on the retina of the eye. In the eye-camera the foci are changed by the eye muscles that swell and reduce the shape of the crystalline lens. When these muscles become weakened an optometrist must prescribe the outer-man-made lenses to bring about this focus accommodation.

2 New Moons This Month

JULY 2nd and 31st

Interpreted by Some as a Sign of Evil

Two new moons grace the sky this month, the first was seen last Wednesday, July 2nd, and the second will appear the last day of July. To many people this unusual occurrence is taken as a sign of impending evil, probably from the records which show that not since 1814 have two new moons appeared in one month and during the summer snow fell in July. In that year the crops grew rapidly, but none of the grain matured.

WARWICK PHONE CO APPEAL DENIED

WARWICK ORGANIZATION DENIED RIGHT TO PARALLEL LINES

Chairman Gives Ruling At Conclusion of Evidence

(London Free Press)

Finding that there was not sufficient evidence presented by the officials of the Warwick Telephone Company to warrant the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board granting the application for permission to erect poles and wires along the same highways upon which Parkhill-Arkona Telephone Company's lines are erected, the chairman of the board dismissed the application. Furthermore he suggested that the conflicting parties get together and come to a satisfactory settlement in the near future.

The case occupied the attention of the board on Thursday last for more than five hours and a strenuous fight was waged by both parties at the county court-house, where the hearing was held.

While the chairman's decision was given verbally yesterday, he stated that he would hand out a written judgment within the next few days.

Many witnesses were called by the Warwick Telephone Company, the star of which was Joseph W. Parker, who resides near Watford. He described conditions of the Parkhill company as being "rotten." There was poor service and the equipment was just as poor, in the opinion of Mr. Parker.

"Off To Stay."

He admitted to Norman S. Newton, who conducted the case for the Arkona company, that he had been off the lines for a year and "off to stay." It was a worn-out system, witness thought. The increase in rates was only one of the troubles, witness declared.

Other witnesses called were also emphatic in their statements that the service was "rotten" and the whole system was bad. Numerous statements and figures showing the company's position were submitted along with the evidence of the witnesses.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Newton the witnesses admitted that they had been satisfied with the service until the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board granted the company permission to raise their rates over a year and a half ago. This the old subscribers of the line objected to, with the result that a great many went on strike.

Seeing that little headway was being made, the strikes decided to form a new company, which they did. It was brought during the evidence that the main bone of contention was the service into Watford, which was described as being deplorable. The Warwick company favored making Watford the central at the present time.

While no legal advice was engaged by either parties the Arkona company were content to allow the evidence to be submitted without offering little defense. At the conclusion of the hearing all evidence was carefully weighed and it was some time before the chairman rose to announce his decision.

This case brings to the front the many obstacles under which the rural telephone companies are carrying on business at the present time.

Speaking of the case last night to The Free Press, Mr. Newton stated that his company was anxious to have the case settled to the satisfaction of all concerned and that they would likely open up negotiations at once for such a settlement.

A. B. Ingram, vice-chairman of the railway board, and Francis Dagger, supervisor of telephones for Ontario, heard the hearing, while the case for the Warwick company was presented by R. Rey-craft, of Watford.

ASTHMA NEVER CAME BACK

Since Taking The Fruit Treatment in "Fruit-a-tives"

Read this letter from Mrs. J. M. Pennington of New Rockland, P.Q. "In 1919, I was taken with Bronchial Asthma and no one knows what I suffered during the winter. I began having choking spells and would just gasp for breath and could not speak. The doctor said he could do nothing for me. In the spring of 1920, I started taking "Fruit-a-tives" and soon the choking spells became easier and I have not had one since May 7th, 1920. It is such a relief to be able to go to bed and have no thought of having to get up in the night for an hour or more as I did all that winter, but never have to now, all because I take a "Fruit-a-tives" tablet every night. 25c. and 50c. a box—at all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Invited for the week-end

—by Long Distance

It was Thursday afternoon in the country. Hospitable Mrs. Martin seemed disappointed. The week had slipped away before she knew it. No one had been invited up for the week-end and there wasn't time in which to write.

And then she thought of the telephone — Long Distance! What an inspiration! In twenty minutes she knew the Smarts would come — delighted — and what train they would be on. Splendid! — and she had ordered some extra supplies from her grocer in town to be shipped by express that night!

What a pleasant week-end she will have — thanks to Long Distance!

CONDITIONS IN CHINA

As Told by Miss Margaret H. Brown, Missionary

At Hwai King Fu, Honan, in a Letter to her Home Folks. She Graphically Describes Some of the Chinese Ceremonies.

(Note:—The following letter will be of great interest to many of our readers as Miss Brown is well known to many in this vicinity, she having visited here while home on furlough some time ago.)

Dear Home People:— I wrote to you quite late last week, but there has been one big event since then. We got some rain. I do not think you can have the least idea just what it meant to us all. The wheat has headed out and what little was left would dry up unless the rain fell, and every soul in city and country had become restless. Flour was daily rising in price and everyone was worked up over it. I am going to enclose a copy of the story I have written about their attempt to get rain, so I shall not repeat. Rain came on Monday and even that morning I was not sure that it might all end in wind and dust. At noon it started gently and lasted on late into the evening without a bit of wind. Oh the joy to walk out and find no dust. We had not seen the mountains for more than two weeks though they are just seven miles away and often look as though you could put out your hand and touch them. They were lost in dust. Friends had been urging me not to walk to school as the dust was so bad and disease so prevalent. Oh the joy of getting just one breath of clean, pure air.

The sister of one of my pupils died on Sunday night. She has been sick for ever so long and they have tried every remedy, and Sunday came for the doctor. He went in the afternoon, only to find that she was nearly dying of pneumonia. She may have had typhoid as well, he could not tell, but she was in the last stages and was already unconscious. He said he had never seen a worse looking case. I heard him explaining some things to Clara, but not being a doctor I did not understand. Before she died I heard that they sent off fifty fire-crackers by her bed. I do not know whether that was to rouse her or to frighten away the evil spirits left behind by the foreign doctor. They told him that one of the things they had done to try to help her was to cut up a live chicken and put it on her chest. Poor things; and we are here with means to help them and they do not trust us but come as the very last resource.

I think I told you about Ma Tai Tai being so ill. It was only about Wednesday of last week that the doctor discovered that she had diabetes as well. Yesterday the Insulin that he sent for arrived. It seems terribly sad. We do mean to have had so many sad things. Since Doctor Chang left Dr. Reeds simply has not been able to overtake all the work. Some days he has as many as one hundred and fifty at the clinic and he has only two trained assistants or dressers, as they are called, to help him. Now on top of this, the most experienced of these two is very ill with relapsing fever. The doctor said last night that he was very ill and was not responding as readily to the medicine as he ought to, and besides the relapsing fever microbe, there was something else which he had not yet recognized. He is such a fine Christian fellow and has been here ever since I came, but he went to France. I think you can understand how, with all this on his hands, the doctor finds it pretty hard to make all possible tests on all the patients. I do hope that Dr. Maclure can come in to help a bit in the fall.

Breaking Through the South Gate of Heaven

This spring has been usually dry and dusty, even for a land where drought and dust are the order of the day. Strangely enough we have had an unusual amount of cloudy weather. Over and over again we thought that our hope of rain was about to be realized. Alas! We never got more than a few tantalizing drops. As the Chinese said, "Such lovely rain, but unwilling to come down." And more often instead of the few beautiful drops, we got nothing but a strong wind carrying a dust storm a little worse than the last time. Then there would be a scurrying around to close up every window and door, while tired missionaries prepared to endure the nerve-racking dust and wind as best they could. Long experience of just such night, with rattling windows and banging shutters had taught them that sleep could not easily be wooded in a room whose closed windows and shut doors could not keep out the penetrating dust. So they, too, longed for rain with a longing equal to that of the poor people whose very existence seemed to depend on whether or not the rain would come in time to save the wheat.

As the drought continued the people grew more uneasy. The wheat was in great danger. On the lighter soil it was already past help. Then they grew zealous in their worship of the gods and much incense was offered up without avail.

Last Wednesday a man was sent with a jar to bring back water from a spring in a cave a few miles distant. Thursday a rain procession was organized to parade the jar of water through the city and suburbs. It was covered with a piece of red cloth and securely fastened to a chair and was thus borne along by the anxious people. Crowds joined the procession. All wore willow wreaths which the rays of the sun had already caused to droop and wilt. The deafening noise of the gongs, brought everyone out to see, though it was primarily intended to call the attention of the rules of heaven to the fact that there was no occasion to be stingy with their rain. There really was plenty of water, in proof of which they were invited to look into the jar. The official personally offered a sacrifice. This had not been done here for a very long time. And to insure that the gods could have no possible cause for offence he commanded the slaughtering of all animals to cease. Still further to hoax the gods, everyone was ordered to throw plenty of water on the road in front of their home. This was, indeed, a great relief to those who daily walked these dusty city roads, but still no rain fell.

The situation was growing desperate, so they planned a big campaign that would certainly bring results. Three sections of the city were to organize parades for three successive days, commencing on Saturday. Early on that morning the god called Kwan Yu, was taken from his temple seclusion and carried in a palatial chair to the main street of the section forming the first day's parade. Kwan Yu was a man of the Han dynasty who, because of his many virtues, was at death created a god, by his Emperor. He is believed to have been assigned the task of assisting heaven to rule the earth, and incidentally to help send the rain. Followed by a very large crowd he was carried to

The simple, sure way to keep that schoolgirl complexion

Youthful complexions are becoming the rule—even in middle life and later years. For millions now follow a simple rule—a method you, too, may easily employ.

Do this at night

Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your complexion lovely, radiant, youthful. But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.

Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night before retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse — and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.

Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

The simple, correct way

You cannot find a more effective beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils—famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive.

All dealers carry Palmolive Soap. Try it for just one week. See how it does improve your skin. Note well the name and wrapper. Palmolive is never sold unwrapped.

Costs so little that you may enjoy it for the bath also.

Women's Handicaps

Headaches and Backaches Often Make Life Miserable.

A women's health handicaps her almost always. She has pains and disabilities which do not afflict men. Nature does not give her a fair chance. Her blood is more often thin and poor than a man's, and she often neglects the first beginnings of ill-health. Many women who seemed destined to a life of frequent suffering have been freed entirely from their suffering through the wonderful blood-making qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Many a woman toils all day with a pain in her back and side, a burning headache, and a sense of having no spine left.

What a pity women will not listen to their friends whom Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved from their misery. Whenever a woman suffers they will help her. In youth, middle age and afterlife. Mrs. John Mitchell, of Middleville, Ont., gives her experience for the benefit of other women sufferers. She says:—"Some years ago I was so badly run down I could hardly walk around the house. I tried to do a few chores but was able to do very little. My boys and husband had to do the rest. If I started up stairs I had to go very slow or I would fall, and I was just played out when I got to the top of the stairs. My head ached terribly, and my heart would beat violently. In this deplorable condition I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I had finished taking six boxes I felt much better. Then I got a further supply, and by the time I had taken these I could walk anywhere without being exhausted, the headaches had disappeared and I am now perfectly well. Any woman who is run down should not hesitate to begin Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once, as I am sure from my own experience they will build her up."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Giant Sturgeon Caught In Nets Near Crinnian's

O. Gallie Lands 6 Foot Monster Weighing 133 Pounds, and Worth Sixty Dollars

A sturgeon, six feet one inch in length and weighing 133 pounds was the prize which O. Gallie of the Lake Road, near Crinnian's Grove, found in his nets last Wednesday morning when he went out to lift the night's catch in Lake Huron.

As soon as the net was disturbed it was apparent that something unusual had occurred, but long experience in fishing gave Mr. Gallie the tip that a giant sturgeon was the cause of the extraordinary activity below the water. It was recognized that more than usual care had to be observed as a big sturgeon was too valuable to lose.

Safely Landed.

According to all the precautions known to the fisherman's art was brought into play. When the big fish was hauled near enough to the surface to be reached from the boat a blow from a mallet took the fight out of him and he was safely landed.

This is probably the largest sturgeon caught in Lake Huron for some years. Smaller fish of this species are frequently found in the nets, but Mr. Gallie says that it is five years since he has seen anything approaching the size of this one, the market value of which was about sixty dollars.

Red Hot July Days Hard On The Baby

July--The month of oppressive heat; red hot days and sweltering nights; is extremely hard on little ones. Diarrhoea, dysentery, colic and cholera infantum carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer. The mother must be constantly on her guard to prevent these troubles or if they come on suddenly to fight them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during the hot summer as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels and stomach, and an occasional dose given to the well child will prevent summer complaint, or if the trouble does come on suddenly will banish it. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ontario.

The Oil of Power.—It is not claimed for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it will remedy every ill, but its uses are so various that it may be looked upon as a general pain killer. It has achieved that greatness for itself and its excellence is known to all who have tested its virtues and learned by experience.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

LULU'S AWAKENING

In the replies to the Junior Red Cross questionnaire many school teachers suggested the need of short plays or dialogues suitable for small country schools. Here is a home-made one by Miss Lottie Crawford, Director of the Red, White and Blue Junior Red Cross, Miller Lake, Bruce County. Teachers will find much undeveloped talent in their schools (and in themselves!) capable of putting simple health lessons into dramatic form. And there is no question of the pupils interest in plays that are "their very own."

CHARACTERS:—A little girl of any age; Health Fairies—Good Food Fairy, Lots of Sleep Fairy, Fresh Air Fairy, A Little Sprite, LULU.—(In a big armchair) Oh dear! I am so sleepy and it is only ten o'clock in the morning. I'm afraid I'm not very well. I get so tired in school and feel dizzy and listless. I don't even feel like playing. Oh dear! (Enter fairies, two by two, holding hands and skipping along. They gather around Lulu.)

Lots of Sleep Fairy:—Why here is a little girl almost asleep in the forenoon! She can not get enough rest, I'm afraid.

Lulu:—Why, yes I do; I go to bed every night about half past ten and sleep till eight.

Lots of Sleep Fairy:—Half past ten until eight! Why little girls ought to be in bed by nine o'clock and up by seven. Sing your song my boy.

Sprite:—"Wee Willie Winkie, runs through the town, upstairs and downstairs, In his nightgown, peeps in the windows, cries through the lock, Children in their beds! For its nearly nine o'clock!"

Fresh Air Fairy:—Do you sleep with your window open, my dear?

Lulu: Oh no, mother says I would catch cold if I did.

Fresh Air Fairy:—Cold nothing fresh air will give no one a cold. Put a slanting board in the window to prevent draughts and you will be quite safe. Listen to this:

"Plenty of Coverlets up to your chin,

Mother's hand tenderly tucking you in;

Lots of fresh air to breathe while you sleep,

Healthy in body and mind you will keep."

Good Food Fairy:—Meat and potatoes! Gracious! Cake! Mercy child! no wonder you feel sick. Why porridge and milk should take the place of meat and potatoes which are not even good for a grown person's breakfast. You should drink milk instead of tea.

"A bowl of oatmeal porridge, Milk instead of tea, Will make a proper breakfast, For you and me."

We must go now but we will call again, and help you become healthy if you will obey us.

Lulu:—Thank you! I will remember and try to please you. (Health Fairies form a circle, dance around and sing to the tune of "Jesus Loves Me.")

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER! Fletcher's Castoria is a harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of

- Constipation
- Wind Colic
- Flatulency
- To Sweeten Stomach
- Diarrhea
- Regulate Bowels

Aids in the assimilation of Food, promoting Cheerfulness, Rest, and Natural Sleep without Opiates

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

"Healthy little folk are we. The reason you can plainly see, We eat good food, drink milk so white, Get lots of sleep and fresh air at night." (Fairies dance away in pairs.)

An Honest Juryman
 "Look here," said a young juryman after the jury had retired, "if I understand aright, the plaintiff doesn't ask damages for blighted affections or anything of that sort, but only wants his presents back."
 "That is so," agreed the foreman.
 "Well, then, I vote we don't give him a cent," said the young juryman hastily. "If all the fun he had with that girl didn't cover the amount the presents cost him, it was his own fault. Gentlemen, I courted that girl once myself!"

What Do You Call Yours?
 Pet names
 Should always mean something. If your sweetheart has a clinging disposition
 Call her Ivy.
 If she says you are the only man she ever loved
 Call her bluff.
 I call my sweetheart Gasoline.
 This reason I aver:
 There isn't a Jane
 In the whole domain
 Can hold a candle to her.
