GERMAN TROOPS REPULSED BY FRENCH IN FIRST BATTLE

Britain Makes Every Effort to Keep Out of War

London, Aug. 3.—The Daily Chronicle says that the British Cabinet has definitely decided not to send an expeditionary force abroad, but to make every honorable effort to prevent Great Britain from being drawn into the war.

An Egotist Who Defies the World

As The World has sought to point out, especially in our issues of Saturday and Sunday, the German navy is the real menace of England and her empire, and that the control of that navy and the immense army of Germany is absolutely in the hands of an irresponsible one-man form of government—the kaiser. There is no parliamentary control, no popular control, no consideration of world-wide public opinion. This is highly dangerous to free institutions such as we live under.

Britain, therefore, cannot afford to be at the mercy of such an enormous fighting machine in irresponsible, and for the time, powerful hands. We are bound in self-defence to fight for our liberties and freedom, for the liberties and freedom of France, for humanity at large when this mighty organization is turned against us and them.

Germany and the kaiser is the great aggressor. Associated with him is a second organization, also largely German, and welded into a fighting machine under the irresponsible control of the emperor of Austria, whose word is law over parliament, public opinion and the institutions of mankind.

The struggle is between modern freedom as against a mediaeval feudalism controlling a fighting machine equipped with all the latest discoveries of modern times.

Also all the advantages of modern governments have been pressed into the service of this irresponsible system: state ownership, land reform, social improvement, good administration of cities, etc.—yet under one man in time of war. All this aggravates, does not excuse, the situation. Because Germany is modern in many things, but autocratic in government she is the more dangerous to us and to human freedom.

This is the issue on which we must concentrate our thoughts and which should impel us to back up England to the end.

Now then, let us look at the kaiser's war machine and what he has planned to do and what he can do. But let us premise with this remark: that we believe that in his abnormal egotism he has built a great house of cards that may suddenly fall down upon his head and his country and that his ultra-organization will overreach itself.

But we will give him and his chief of staff credit for having outlined all kinds of campaigns that Germany might have to follow, and that each has been worked out in detail, tabulated and filed in drawers ready to open, and when opened to be followed.

The greatest of these would be the one carded: "Germany Against the World," and that is the cabinet that the kaiser has opened in this case.

This is a stupendous undertaking. It means fighting England and her navy, fighting Russia on one frontier and France on the other, the little south-eastern states (Serbia included) at a third. And it means certainly also the French navy, and in all likelihood Japan and her navy.

To do this he must seize and occupy Holland and Belgium, invade France, resist French invasion, resist Russian invasion, and fight at sea to keep the German mercantile marine in service and to get in food stuffs from outside wherever he may be able.

We do not believe he can succeed in it. His "systematic campaign" would be turned into the greatest hazard or gamble ever planned in the history of the world. We believe that he has already overreached himself.

If he wins all history is to be reversed, and we do not think that will happen.

ELEVEN THOUSAND CANADIANS HAVE VOLUNTEERED FOR WAR

Many Thousands More Expected to Rally When Official Summons is Sent Out — Government Prepared to Take Instant Steps for Mobilization.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—The men and officers who have volunteered to go to the front now number about eleven thousand, and if the call for volunteers is officially made it is confidently felt that this number would be multiplied several times.

At militia headquarters everything is ready for the word. If orders are given to mobilize, the necessary steps will be taken instantly to start the work of covering the country.

Youth and Age

A pathetic touch to the splendid spirit evinced by the big list of volunteers from all over the Dominion is shown in the receipt of two offers of service from that may be called the two extremes. One from Cadet William Starmour of the G.G.F.G. Cadets, Ottawa, a lad of 15, who begs to be taken because he says he is big and strong for his age, and the other from J. F. Wimbles of Morrisburg, Ont., a pensioner of the royal navy, who offers whatever he can do for the old flag.

BULLETS RIDDLED WAR FEVER IS HIGH IN RUSSIA

Others Seen on German Frontier — Attempt to Blow Up Railroad Failed.

Germany's Declaration Stirs St. Petersburg to Frenzy — Ardent Devotion to Czar is Shown.

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—A French aeroplane was brought down by German marksmen at Wesel on the frontier today.

Saturday night several other hostile air craft were seen in the Rhine provinces. One was observed flying from Keppich in the direction of Andernach, ten miles northwest of Koblenz. Others were sighted near Duere in the direction of Cologne.

Last night a hotel keeper in Kochem and his son tried to blow up the Prussian state railway tunnel at Kochem. The attempt failed and the men were shot and killed.

Wesel, where the aeroplane was shot down, is about 140 miles from the northeastern frontier of France.

While a train was crossing a bridge over a tributary of the Rhine, a passenger tried to throw a bomb from the window of a coach, probably with the hope of blowing the bridge. He was arrested.

Canadian Press Despatch. ST. PETERSBURG, August 2.—Germany's declaration of war against Russia has provoked in the Russian capital a wonderful demonstration of patriotic enthusiasm.

The German Ambassador, Count Von Pourtales, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, in the name of his government, sent to the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs official notice of the declaration of war, and two hours later an announcement to this effect was made to the people.

Tonight the capital presents a spectacle of extraordinary animation. The Nevsky Prospect and all the leading thoroughfares are filled with war-frenzied people, marching in processions, carrying portraits of the emperor, with flags waving and torches blazing. From time to time there is an outburst of cheering, followed by singing.

More than 200 persons were at the Union Station last night to witness the departure for Halifax of "P" Company of the Royal Canadian Regiment, which it was said is to be kept in readiness for a call in event the European situation demands it. "K" Company of the same regiment, from London, Ont., passed thru the city at 11 p.m. also en route to Halifax. Both companies traveled in private cars attached to G. T. R. trains.

Major J. H. Kaye was in command of the Toronto company, other local officers being Captain E. K. Eaton, Lieutenants Macculloch and V. W. S. Heron. The troops were in high spirits and looked a fine, servicable body of men. Many of them are ex-British soldiers who have seen active service.

WAR OF PIRACY IS UNDERTAKEN BY GERMANY

France, United and Eager, Stands Ready to Repel Invasion of "Powers of Brigandage," Says Le Temps — Measures to Protect Food Supply of Paris.

Canadian Press Despatch.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The deep indignation caused in France by Germany's methods in beginning the war is voiced by Le Temps, which says:

"Up to the last minute the French and Russian Governments had given Germany credit for acting in good faith; there is now no longer doubt that it is in ambush. Russians, Frenchmen and Englishmen must stand united against the powers of brigandage, who have just been unmasked."

"The British Government yesterday informed the German ambassador that England could not remain neutral."

War of Piracy.

"We did not desire this war, but since it was forced upon us with good heart, we will wage it. For forty years Germany has prowled around us, with the constant idea of striking a blow with minimum risk, but by prolonging the menace she has taught us our lesson. Germany attacks us now at an hour when all our material and moral forces stand in united array against her. The war thrust upon us is a war of piracy. The French people, with magnificent union, huris itself to the fray as a single man."

All Parties Wanted.

The lobby of the chamber of deputies was crowded today with members, many in uniform, and all eagerly discussing the crisis. All agreed, without distinction of party, to vote, without discussion, the measures the government will ask for the defence of the country in face of the aggressive attitude of Germany, which is now clearly manifested.

All the museums and galleries in Paris have been closed, the various staffs having gone to the war.

All possible measures have been taken to ensure that Paris will not lack for food. Special trains have been reserved for the transport of food-stuffs, particularly milk, in the event of the home supply becoming inadequate. A decree, suspending the prohibition of the importation of foreign fresh milk, will appear in the official Gazette tomorrow, thus assuring large supplies from Argentina and other parts of the world in the near future.

Severe regulations will be rigorously applied against persons attempting to profit in the present state of affairs by increasing the price of the necessities of life.

R. C. R. LEAVES FOR HALIFAX

Toronto and London Companies of Regular Infantry En Route to East Coast.

More than 200 persons were at the Union Station last night to witness the departure for Halifax of "P" Company of the Royal Canadian Regiment, which it was said is to be kept in readiness for a call in event the European situation demands it. "K" Company of the same regiment, from London, Ont., passed thru the city at 11 p.m. also en route to Halifax. Both companies traveled in private cars attached to G. T. R. trains.

NORTH SEA, WHERE FIRST CLASH MAY COME

Waters in which immense British fleet is cruising, and near which German warships, it is reported, are stopping all vessels to ascertain their nationality.

GERMAN FORCES CROSSED FRENCH BORDER AND WERE DRIVEN BACK WITH HEAVY LOSS NEAR CIREY

German Troops Enter Duchy of Luxembourg, Neutral Territory, and March on French Fortress of Longwy—Hostilities Open on Ominous Fortieth Anniversary of Franco-Prussian War.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The German invasion of France has begun, according to authentic information received in London today, without, so far as is known, a declaration of war having been made.

Two German forces are now converging from the east in the direction of the French capital.

German troops have crossed the French frontier at a point near the village of Cirey, between Nancy and Strassburg, and the German soldiers who last night invaded the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, neutral territory between Belgium and Germany—are today reported as marching on the French fortress of Longwy.

The German force which came into France near Cirey—which is forty miles from Nancy—is reported to have been repulsed with heavy losses, but this has not been confirmed.

Apparently, the German army is duplicating the first movement of the Franco-Prussian war. It was on August 2, 1870, forty-four years ago today, that the French and Germans clashed in the first battle of that war, at Saarbrücken, where the prince imperial, under the orders of the emperor, received his famous "baptism" of fire.

It would appear today that Germany is taking the fullest possible advantage of her supposed superiority in rapid mobilization over France. The plan of the German emperor, according to military observers here, is to vanquish, or attempt to vanquish France, in the interval before Russia will be able to create serious trouble on her northern frontier. It is supposed that Russian mobilization will take about three weeks.

All telegraphic and telephonic communication between Brussels and Luxembourg has been severed.

A trainfull of German soldiers arrived at the station at Luxembourg during the night. The troops seized the station and the bridges on the Treves and Trole Viertes line in order to insure the regular passage of military trains across the Grand Duchy.

After these seizures the soldiers proceeded to the barracks. The major of the Luxembourg volunteers protested against the violation of neutrality, but in reply the Germans asserted that the railway belongs to them and that they have the right to do what they like in Luxembourg.

According to an evening newspaper published at Liege, twenty thousand German troops crossed the French frontier this morning near Nancy. They encountered French forces and were repulsed with heavy losses. This news, however, lacks confirmation.

A telephone despatch from Brussels today said it was reported there that Germany had declared war on France and that the French ambassador, Jules Cambon, had left the German capital. This report could not be confirmed.

No War Declared. The French embassy today issued the following statement: "French territory has been invaded at Cirey, and German troops are marching on the fort at Cirey. This act has been committed without a declaration of war. The German ambassador is at present in Paris."

HEAVY FIRING IN NORTH SEA

German and French Fleets May Be in Action, Says Unconfirmed Rumor.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, August 2.—The News of the World says it has received a wireless communication to the effect that heavy firing is proceeding in the North Sea. The newspaper presumes that German and French fleets are engaged. No confirmation of this report was received this afternoon.

A despatch to the Central News says that the Germans have taken possession of the steamer Castro in the Kiel Canal, and ordered her to Hamburg. The Castro belongs to the Wilson Line, an English company.

According to another despatch to the Central News from King's Lynn, a seaport in Norfolk, England, the British steamer Saxon, which left King's Lynn late Thursday with a cargo of coal for Brunsbuttel, Prussia, has been overaken by the German navy and diverted to Cuxhaven.

GERMAN LABOR TO STAY IN HARBOR AT VANTCOUR

Liner Saxonia Due at Vancouver This Week—Frenchmen to Fight.

Canadian Press Despatch.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 2.—The only German liner in the vicinity of Vancouver is the Saxonia, which is now in Seattle harbor and due in Vancouver this week with a thousand tons of oriental cargo. It is expected that under the present circumstances she will remain in Seattle harbor.

The many Frenchmen residing in Vancouver and vicinity will leave here immediately for France via England was the statement made today by an officer of the French military reserve.

BRITAIN'S STAND TO BE KNOWN BY NOON

Asquith Will Make Formal Announcement in House of Commons Today — War Party Said to Be in Ascendancy, But Premier is Influenced by Those Wanting Peace.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Now the die is cast and Europe is to be plunged into a general war which has been the apprehension of European statesmen for generations past.

The first shots in the Russo-German war were exchanged between patrols yesterday afternoon near Proskent, 120 miles to the southeast of Konigsburg.

The only redeeming feature of the darkest prospect with which Europe has been faced for half a century is that Italy has declared her neutrality. But how long that neutrality can be maintained is an exceedingly debatable question.

Great Britain's position has already been defined by Premier Asquith in the British Parliament, namely, that she is under no formal obligation to go to the assistance of France in the event of an European war. The British Government, however, has made full preparations in both services for whatever may happen.

The present position, therefore, is that Russia, France and Serbia are arrayed on one side against Austria, Hungary and Germany on the other. How long the warfare will be confined to this plane, it is impossible to foresee, nor can it be foretold whether Belgium and Holland will be able to maintain their neutrality against their powerful neighbors, or whether Great Britain will and herself compelled to send an expeditionary force to attempt to preserve the neutrality.

London is Calm. London maintained her calm to the last moment tonight. A great crowd assembled around the government offices at Whitehall awaiting the decision of the cabinet as to whether Great Britain would take part in the war. But when it was found that no statement was to be made, the crowd melted away, only a few groups remaining to discuss whether the cabinet's decision put it "had decided to funk or fight."

No statement of the decision taken by the cabinet will be made tonight. Premier Asquith will be made tonight. Britain's position in the house of commons tomorrow. Prior to this announcement another cabinet meeting will be held.

War Party in Control. The general impression is that the war party in the cabinet is in the ascendency, but not a word was allowed to leak out of the cabinet chamber concerning today's proceedings. It was said that Viscount Morley, lord president of the council, and Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor, led the peace party, and that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the Admiralty, threatened to resign if the government did not stand by its unwritten agreement to support France against German attack.

It is known that the Lancashire Liberals are putting strong pressure on the government to keep out of the conflict at all costs, and it is said that Premier Asquith somewhat influenced by this. But the average Englishman is saying tonight that the government has no alternative, after the neutrality of Luxembourg has been disregarded by Germany and after Germany's refusal to say what her attitude would be with regard to Belgium.

Socialists Meet. The Socialists held a big meeting in Trafalgar Square tonight to protest against war. James Ketr Hardie, Independent Labor and Socialist, member of parliament, who was the chief speaker, declared that Italy, altho bound by treaty, remained neutral, and there was no reason why Great Britain should not do likewise. He announced the intention of calling a national strike against the war.

The railway stations are crowded with German, French and other reservists returning to their respective countries. The board of agriculture has issued a statement that there is sufficient wheat in the country to supply the whole population for four months, allowing for normal consumption, irrespective of imports.

DESCENT; FRENCH PLUNGED INTO GENERAL WAR

BRITAIN MAY NOT BE FORCED TO AID POWERS IN ALLIANCE GREEK MINISTER GIVES VIEWS

Conditions Under Which Triple Entente May Specify that France and Russia Must Be Placed in Defensive Attitude by Other Powers.

Special Copyrighted Cable. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—The treaty obligations involved in the pending European war are secret to the last degree and based on a vast and complicated system of contingencies known only to the highest executive and diplomatic officials of the countries concerned, according to a statement made here tonight by Agamemnon Schliemann, the new minister of Greece, who called on Secretary Bryan at the state department today to arrange an appointment, at which time he will present his credentials.

Minister Schliemann was seen at the Greek legation. In response to questions involving the formation, obligations and provisions of the triple entente, he declared there were, perhaps, not half-dozen diplomats in the world who could issue an authoritative statement on such a subject. "The European public and the world at large know but one fact concerning the triple entente, the triple alliance, the dual alliance or any other part of the gigantic European diplomatic fabric which surrounds European diplomacy," said Minister Schliemann. "The triple entente includes Russia, France and England, the triple alliance includes Germany, Austria and Italy and the dual alliance was an understanding between France and Russia."

Complex Treaties. "In the United States," he said, "you form treaties upon circumstances and contingencies which are reasonably constant, but treaties and alliances formed between European powers are treaties composed of a complex series of premises and conclusions, given under such conditions that the conditions and the absolute understanding of what action will be taken under a certain given set of circumstances. "France and Russia formed an understanding which was originally called the dual alliance. The prime ministers of Russia and France and the diplomats directly concerned knew the provisions of that alliance but no one else knew them. Then came the inclusion of Great Britain in the treaty which became known as the triple entente. It can be said more than an authority to speculate on the action of one country, basing such speculation upon the action of others and alliances, detailed and involved to the last degree, are not made known."

Britain's Obligations. "For instance, Great Britain may be a party to the triple entente and yet may not be obliged to fight if a given set of circumstances arises. The treaty may specify that Great Britain is obliged to ally herself with France and Russia only in case either country is attacked and has assumed a defensive attitude. Great Britain may also be obliged to fight only if France and Russia, or either, carries a war to a fourth power. "We will say as an example that Greece wishes to make an alliance with the triple entente and the latter is willing to form such a pact. If that alliance is made at Washington, I as Greek minister to the United States will be informed of the terms of the alliance. "The American secretary of state and myself will know the obligations of that treaty and my foreign office at home will know it, but the United States minister at Athens will not be informed of a single provision of that treaty. There is no need for him to know it, unless a breach of the treaty occurs. In that case, he might be informed of the details. "Italy's Neutrality. "Reports say that Italy will remain neutral in this matter. Perhaps so. There is nothing to show that Italy is forced to assist either Germany or Austria, with Germany and Austria assuming the position of aggressors in the matter. France may not be forced to fight with Russia, nor may England be forced to fight with either. "It is inferred by diplomats, and this is not a diplomatic secret, that the alliance between France and Russia is stronger than the alliance between France and Great Britain. This opinion among diplomats is simply the consequence of individual opinion, the only way in which it is possible to even draw an inference on such a subject is when the toasts to visiting monarchs are spoken. "Significance of Toasts. "The French toast to the Czar might be a toast to the continuation of the alliance between Russia and England, whereas the toast to the King of France, whereas the toast to the King of England might speak of the friendship which exists between these two countries. "No European treaty of any importance formed in the last hundred years has been made public as far as its obligations are concerned. Greece has a treaty with Serbia at the present time and although the Greek minister to the United States I do not know one of the provisions of that treaty. I do not know whether Greece is obliged to cast her lot with Russia in the event of certain happenings, or whether she is obliged to cast her lot with Serbia at all. "The report which is said to have issued from the Greek minister at Constantinople several days ago, that the Greek government would send an army of 100,000 men to Serbia's assistance without foundation except in the Greek mind, is the lightest means of the Greek minister to the United States, and I do not believe he ever serves such a statement."

CANADA TO SEND VERY LARGE FORCE

If Call Is Received from Britain, Quick Action Will Follow.

GOVERNMENT WAITING

No Definite Statement Will Be Issued for Few Hours.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Aug. 1.—Altho no declaration has been reached by the government as to the extent of the aid Canada will send to Britain in case of her being involved in the European struggle, it is certain that a very considerable force will be sent from the Canadian regulars and militia if the call is received. The government is waiting for definite information as to whether Britain is involved. Until Canada's aid is actually requested, no statement can be secured as to what the government will do. Four regiments have offered to go already, besides many individual offers from officers and men from the Atlantic to the Pacific. A contingent of 25,000 men at least would in all probability be sent within about a fortnight if the imperial authorities give the word, and thousands more would follow as soon as they could be equipped and other arrangements completed. The government, however, delays any definite statement as long as possible so as not to unnecessarily increase the war feeling.

WASHINGTON ADVISED OF WAR DECLARATION

Early Sunday Despatches Described the Situation as Unchanged.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, August 2.—Diplomatic despatches received here early today reported Germany's declaration of war on Russia, but made no mention of German hostilities toward France. The situation was described as unchanged since midnight.

LONDON'S READY FOR CATAclysm

Hope of Averting a General War Was Short Lived.

ALL 'BUSES' TAKEN OVER

Territorials Called Out for Duty to Protect Railroads.

Special Copyrighted Cable. LONDON, Aug. 1.—Saturday was another day of scares interspersed with occasional glimpses of hope. First came the news that Premier Asquith had an audience with the king at Buckingham Palace at 3 o'clock in the morning. This bodied in, as soon as the announcement was made of Germany's twelve-hour ultimatum to France and Russia. "This was taken as the sure portent of the European cataclysm. Hope of peace was cast aside; people gathered in gloomy groups wondering when the bolt would fall. Afternoon brought the momentous news that Italy had declared neutrality so long as her interests remained untouched. The cabinet council immediately summoned after the Italian ambassador had had an interview with Sir Edward Grey. The cabinet is said to have decided that Britain should also declare itself neutral on the same terms as Italy. On top of this came word from Paris that the German ambassador had handed their passports both in Paris and St. Petersburg. Hope dropped to zero again. Both in London and Paris it seemed Italy's action had not stayed the hands of Germany or Russia, while with pessimism that more rampant intelligence arrived that Germany's twelve-hour ultimatum had been extended to twenty-four hours. "More Despair. "It looked as if reason were beginning to assert itself and hope once more raised its stricken head. But its life was short-lived for quickly followed the official news from Paris and Berlin that both countries were mobilizing, and once more friends of peace were plunged into despair. "The sea was a desolation for travelers already half distraught over their plight that transatlantic sailings of all British lines had been suspended. What of the U. S. flag were included in this suspension. The utmost excitement was shown in the hotel lobbies, and Americans declared their government should organize transports to take them home or make some other arrangement for their return to enable them to reach their own country. How far this is practicable remains to be seen. "Supplies Concentrating. "While this subject was being discussed in frenzied fashion, word was brought that the German fleet was ready for sea. The announcement came from St. Petersburg at 7:30 this evening. This explained all the military alarms and excursions during the afternoon. Soon afterwards squads of Territorials were seen concentrating on the Thames embankment in London, and it became known that the omnibus service had been commandeered by the war office to convey them along with the London Chamber of Commerce line on railroad protection service. "Word of the declaration of war was received with a rejoiced shout by the Army and Navy Club tonight. Officers of both the military arms are usually stirred up and pleasurable to talk and to hear. Members of the Carnegie Peace foundation have been seen in the streets of London, and it is believed that the possibilities were suggested of details abroad to watch and report on the fighting. "Supplies Concentrating. "By let it be known that they would be sent to the front. "The good news of our coffee and pastry is worthy of special emphasis. Compliments are received daily. Music."

TRIPLE ENTENTE IS SURE TO TRIUMPH

U. S. Army and Navy Officers Believe Superiority Is Overwhelming.

APPALLING BLOODSHED

Feeling of Awe Inspired—U. S. May Detail Officers to Front.

Special Copyrighted Cable. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Victory both on land and sea for the triple entente is the prediction of officers of the U. S. army and navy. Admiring the great efficiency of the German army, military men of the capital cannot see how Germany and Austria-Hungary can hope to withstand the great forces which Russia and France are prepared to hurl at them. It is believed by them that as respects land engagements France alone can pretty nearly withstand the Kaiser's forces. "As respects marine power it is declared that Germany does not stand a show against the British fleet. "The numerical superiority of Russia and France looks ominous for the opponents of the triple entente. "U. S. A. Retired. That is as much as I am willing to say about the outcome, altho I never say more, it will be a frightful history may never have recorded anything like the loss of life which now seems likely to result. "Naval officers this evening pointed out that the fighting ships of England are ready for war, and that the British fleet of battleships of England have but recently finished manoeuvres, and it is asserted that they are ready, tactically and strategically as well as physically. Officers of the United States navy here have a higher regard for the efficiency of the British navy than that of Germany and point out also that the greater size of the British navy in number of dreadnoughts, super dreadnoughts and in armament is absolutely unquestioned. "Eager to See Fighting. "Word of the declaration of war was received with a rejoiced shout by the Army and Navy Club tonight. Officers of both the military arms are usually stirred up and pleasurable to talk and to hear. Members of the Carnegie Peace foundation have been seen in the streets of London, and it is believed that the possibilities were suggested of details abroad to watch and report on the fighting. "Supplies Concentrating. "By let it be known that they would be sent to the front. "The good news of our coffee and pastry is worthy of special emphasis. Compliments are received daily. Music."

AMERICAN MONEY REFUSED IN LONDON

Retired Judge Unable to Pay for Dinner, Tho Laden with Cash.

Special Copyrighted Cable. LONDON, Aug. 2.—A leading retired judge in the supreme court of New York walked the streets of Paris last night with $6000 in United States bills in his pockets, but he could not buy a dinner. It is a novel experience for many annual visitors to find that American gold certificates have no market value. "Altho there was a slight run on the Bank of England, it cashed its own checks with gold. Many thoughtful American women, when they could not change United States money today or get gold in any hotel, went shopping and paid their bills with five pound notes to get a few sovereigns. "Unable to Get Passage. "F. G. Woodward of Detroit, traveled from Berlin as fast as he could and laid siege at the Cunard office in Paris all day yesterday. He phoned to Liverpool at his own expense, but could not get a berth. He arrived here at midnight and received a half pound note at the Hotel Cecil. He wanted a boy to carry them to Euston Station when he left for the Mauretania. "A traveler who cashed his own checks cashed yesterday sent registered letters to friends here, asking them to get gold for them. "When American customers sought to cash Cook's bills today, they discovered that Cook wanted 25 cent discount on his own checks. Dealers are holding them. Cook also would not guarantee entry into Germany and other continental points today. "U. S. WILL BE NEUTRAL. WASHINGTON.—Preparation of a neutrality proclamation was begun today at the State Department. Officials said it probably would be issued tomorrow. "COMMUNICATION CUT OFF. BRUSSELS, August 2.—All telegraphic and telephonic communication between Brussels and Luxembourg was severed today.

FRENCH GUNS TO GUARD THE EIFFEL WIRELESS.

Steps Taken to Prevent an Enemy from Destroying the High Power Station.

Special Copyrighted Cable. LONDON, Aug. 2.—(By special courier from Paris, arriving at London 2:45 Sunday.)—At the Tuilleries Palace two batteries have taken their positions at Point du Carrousel. The guns are directed toward the wireless station of the Eiffel tower in order to prevent an enemy's dirigibles from destroying the wireless station. Antennae are in perpetual motion inside the tower. The explosion of sparrows for loud as to be mistaken for cannon. For three days soldiers have been going and coming at the wireless station. "The boulevards show extraordinary animation. Crowds of taxis laden with wireless apparatus are making their way toward the various terminals, mainly those providing transportation to the British Isles. "Special to The Toronto World. NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—With one of the first sea battles of the war imminent off the American coast, due to efforts of the British to bottle up the German protected cruisers at Dresden, Karlsruhe and Stralsund, the German Government is exhausting every expedient of modern science to place these warships in neutral ports. Wireless stations are being called upon for their most effective long range service to get word to the vessels in danger and the radiograms are being supplemented by messages sent by swift despatch. "The Dresden has been reported to be off St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, and also has been reported to be lying outside New York harbor ready to attempt the capture of British merchant vessels. "Of Unknown Missions. "Great Britain has sent out two of her most powerful cruisers on unknown missions, which probably are intended to spell disaster to the Dresden. The British cruisers Suffolk and Bristol left Vera Cruz Friday, via Washington, but their destinations are not being disclosed. In addition, the Essex and the Lancaster are at Tampico. The Berwick left Vera Cruz yesterday, ostensibly for Canada, but her real orders are not known. "The radio station at Cape Hatteras has been in close touch with the British warships and long messages in cipher have been sent to the German commanders. This is believed to indicate that the British vessels will seek for the Dresden and as they are superior in armament they would be able to overwhelm her in a battle which would be as brief as it would be decisive. "The German wireless station at Sayville Island, sent a code radiogram to the Dresden believed to contain full instructions for the course to be followed in the event these instructions are for the Dresden to seek an American port at all speed is most probable. "WALEFFE IN PRISONER IN JOURNAL OFFICE. French Government Orders Socialist's Detention, Fearing His Assassination if He Is Seen. "Special Copyrighted Cable. Government Also Considers Raising of Money in This Country.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—The problem of transporting Canadian troops to Britain is one of the things the cabinet has been seriously discussing, and there has been exchange between the Canadian and imperial authorities on the matter. MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 3.

IT LOOKS AS IF ENGLAND KNEW

All the indications point to the view that the emergency which has been present to the minds of British and other statesmen for some years has been acutely present to the authorities in Britain during the past few weeks.

The big naval review was only the first act in the program of preparations. The fleet was not disbanded after the review in the usual way, but remained a fleet in being, an effective fighting force.

The conference called by the King between the Irish leaders and the government and opposition had more behind it than merely home rule. It was clear that matters had to be settled and settled quick. Home rule and Ulster have not been urgent matters since. We believe the state of Europe, not the state of Ireland, was the chief topic.

The presence of Lord Kitchener in London, is not fortuitous. There is no mere chance about the empire's most active and experienced soldier being present at the council of war. He is the biggest general on active service in the world today, in the prime of life at sixty, and trained in actual warfare beyond any man in Europe. Lord Roberts, and other veterans now out of the ranks, are available for advice in council.

England is in the hands of the strongest government in her career, whether for domestic or foreign affairs. Sir Edward Grey dominates the diplomacy of Europe, and he, like most of his colleagues, is a comparatively young man. Energy, initiative, efficiency, prudence and foresight have characterized King George's ministers. He is himself a constitutional monarch by principle and practice.

The situation is in capable hands in Great Britain.

ROLE OF THE KIEL CANAL.

On June 24 the German Emperor formally opened the enlarged Kiel Canal, connecting the North Sea with the Baltic. Kiel, the principal naval station of the empire, is situated at the Baltic end of the canal, and is heavily fortified. Originally opened in 1895 and constructed for naval rather than for commercial purposes, it saves a journey of two hundred miles thru the straits that divide Denmark from Norway and Sweden. The straits can be made exceedingly dangerous to navigation, and it is unlikely should Britain be drawn into war that the fleet will expose itself to needless risks.

As enlarged, the Kaiser Wilhelm Canal permits of the largest war and merchant ships to pass from sea to sea, and this will form an important factor in the naval strategy. The new works necessitated the construction of new locks, of double the first dimensions and the deepening of the waterway. One of the locks exceeds the largest on the Panama Canal and the Kiel Canal is longer by ten miles than the waterway of its Central American rival.

THE HOUR OF DESTINY.

By declaring war the Kaiser has precipitated what will certainly be the greatest war that has yet happened in the cockpit of the world. Europe has before now witnessed the continent in arms. In the seven years' war where Frederick the Great ranked himself among the leading captains of history all the leading powers were engaged. Again during the Napoleonic era the whole continent was in flames. But the most numerous army ever commanded by Napoleon amounted to only a fraction of the hosts that are now called into being by each of the continental powers. In former days campaigns prolonged over years meant a continuous drain on the resources of a nation, on men as well as money. Today mobilization immediately brings out the whole manhood of a country.

Tremendous indeed is the responsibility resting on man or men who have plunged Europe into a conflict so stupendous and momentous. By far the largest share rests on Austria-Hungary whose government must have known and fully realized that they were by a long way the least prepared of which could see the end. Once before when the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina was changed to absolute incorporation within the empire the Atrrian Government dared the explosion that has now occurred, but on that occasion the dangerous game was successful. Russia was not ready and accordingly suffered a humiliation that left a ranking sting. When Austria refused the almost abject offer of Serbia and invaded the country that barred the way to the goal of her ambition—an outlet on the Aegean—it took the same chance but with a very different result.

On July 15 last the Crown Prince of Germany came, not for the first time, into the limelight by forwarding to Lieutenant-Colonel Frobenius, a retired officer of the army, a telegram commending a pamphlet he had issued on "The German Empire's Hour of Destiny" and trusting it would be most widely circulated among the German people. In the pamphlet the author described the seriousness of the international situation and presented his conclusions: "France's thirst for revenge on Germany which has been so ardently stimulated, and the hatred kindled in Russia against Austria-Hungary have driven the two countries to increase their preparedness for war to a point which can be maintained only for a short time. As a matter of fact this preparedness is already hardly distinguishable from readiness for war, and it will be so complete in the spring of 1915 that we must then be in daily expectation of such powerful armies marching into our country as have never before trodden German or other soil. Then the hour of destiny for the German Empire and its allies will strike."

This offers the German view that war would come unprovoked by Germany and its allies. War has come, not in that way but from the ambitions of Austria and Germany themselves. Germany wants to bestride the continent of Europe like a colossus, with Austria-Hungary as a supporting satellite. The conquest of the old provinces of Turkey in Europe, now parcelled among the nations that formed the Balkan alliance, opens the path of Germany to the Mediterranean. A second triumph over France will most likely end in the absorption of Belgium and Holland. Both countries will fight to the death for their independence and if need arises the Dutch will without doubt have no hesitation in putting their plan of inundation into actual operation. A century ago the Great Napoleon declared that the nation owning Antwerp held a pistol at the head of England, and Germany entrenched at the entrance to the English Channel will have gone a long way towards achieving the disruption of the British Empire. For our empire, even more than for Germany, is this the Hour of Destiny.

A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

A contemporary who has no respect for anyone who does not wear a silk hat or a gold chain, and has no other decorations to boast of itself, would fain persuade the public of its democratic tendencies. An attack by this silk-hatted authority upon the mayor recently, because of some misuse of the mayor's name in England, was based chiefly on the insinuation that his worship was in some way responsible for what he openly repudiated. Mr. W. F. Maclean was similarly charged. We are waiting to hear from England on the matter, but not having such intimacy with the firm that issued the prospectus in which the names appeared as our contemporary, our information is still incomplete. We observe that a prominent member of the firm concerned is in communication with our contemporary, and we append the item from Saturday's Evening Telegram:

One of the most wonderful sights which I have ever had the opportunity of seeing fell to my lot at Spithead on the 19th. We took a steamer out to review the British home fleet and passed thru forty miles of Dreadnoughts, super-Dreadnoughts, and other lesser ships of war, to the number of nearly two hundred and fifty. It was a sight to make a Canadian heart beat faster, and it made me feel that it was indeed a tremendous privilege to be a citizen of this great world empire.

So writes Mr. Norman McEachern, the Toronto business man who is now abroad. This fleet represents about half the strength of the British fighting force on the high seas and is now sailing under sealed orders. Mr. McEachern also had the privilege of going aboard Nelson's old flagship Victory, which is preserved in its original state at Spithead.

NECESSITY KNOWS NO LAW.
 If, as is reported, German troops have occupied Luxembourg, it seems to show that government's indifference to international obligations. Altho included, for commercial purposes in the German Zollverein the Grand Duchy was declared neutral territory by the Treaty of London in 1867, and was so treated during the Franco-German war. Altho less than a thousand square miles in area it is of great importance on account of its strategic value, and opens up another line of advance on the French capital. Should the exigencies of the war require it Germany will have no more compunction in utilizing Belgium, especially if Britain enters the field, for on Britain more than any other country do Belgium and Holland rely for assistance in maintaining their independence. The old rule applies—necessity knows no law.

BRITAIN'S ARMY RESERVE

Every available man in Europe in any way associated with the life of the nations now engaged in their life and death struggle will be called upon for service. In Great Britain similar conditions will govern, and there will be the most willing of responses. Great Britain has to be grateful for the absence of the conscription system. Its absence can only be justified by the alacrity with which Britons hasten to military service when it is necessary. The new territorial scheme set up by Lord Haldane will now undergo the severest of tests, and much will depend in the future of military regulation on how it succeeds. If the scheme works and gives the required results it means that a long step has been taken to free the rest of Europe from the intolerable burden of conscription.

By the regulations governing enlistment in Great Britain the men serve a period with the colors and then pass to the reserve, while the old militia force has been renovated and the volunteers are associated in linked battalions. Men with the reserve on mobilization join the colors. The comparatively huge force thus available may be judged from the dimensions of the Ulster volunteer body which is largely composed of reserve men, and of the Nationalist volunteers, which consists of the same reserve men in the south of Ireland.

Sir Edward Carson said he would be pleased to have the Ulster volunteers help the empire. This hardly lies with him. When they are called from the reserve to the colors there will be few Ulster volunteers or Nationalist volunteers left. They will all be fighting for the empire together.

AN INDICTMENT OF CIVILIZATION.

New York World, Aug. 1: In Vienna there is a doddering old man, the offspring of a tainted house, who sits on the throne of the dual empire. In St. Petersburg there is a weak, well-meaning neurotic who by the accident of birth happens to be the Czar of All the Russias. In Berlin there is a brilliant, talented, ambitious manipulator of politics who is German Emperor by grace of the genius of Bismarck, Molke and Roan. Of these three men, only the one in Berlin has more than mediocre abilities; yet the three are permitted to play with the lives of millions of men, with property worth thousands of millions of dollars, with the commerce and industry and prosperity and laws and institutions not merely of empires and kingdoms, but of continents. It is left to them to determine whether the world is to witness the most deadly and devastating war of all history.

The thing would be laughable, ridiculous, if it were not so ghastly. War of itself may be wise or unwise, just or unjust; but that the issue of a world-wide war should rest in the hands of three men—any three men—and that the hundreds of millions who will bear the burden and be affected in every relation of life by the outcome of such a war should passively leave the decision to these three men is an indictment of civilization itself.

Human progress is slow indeed when a whole continent is still ready to fight for anything except the right to life, liberty and self-government.

FOUR NEW WAR FEATURES.

Four great modern inventions are called into service in the war now on in Europe:
 1. Wireless telegraphy. We can now send messages almost anywhere across the world, over seas, over mountains, and without any disturbance.

2. Airships. We have mastered the air in recent years, and now we can send out air scouting airships, perhaps engines of destruction into the air and over our enemies. So can they on to destroy radiograph stations all over the coast and at inland points. A fleet, a dozen fleets, individual ships can be kept in momentary touch with headquarters. So with armies and portions of armies, with deposits and advance lines. Army and navy are in touch. Allied countries, every member with all the best. This is the greatest new servant of war. But all the warring countries may be more or less organized with this service. England, we believe, however, has the best and the widest equipment of this kind.

3. The submarine boat has also been perfected, and it may be expected to prove highly effective in this war. These boats can go under water, can deliver an attack and hardly be seen or traced. And few know what the efficiency of the submarine torpedo under control may prove to be.

4. The modern self-propelled vehicle things in the way of moving batties used for the overland transportation may be expected. Every motor bus is at instance a new school of strategy and the disposal of the British Government manoeuvring. Fighting detachments. These vehicles can move regular cover enormous areas in a few minutes after regiment all over the country. The present struggle will be in record time. This, of course, the first modern war over territory includes all necessary equipment and served by good roads. Some amazing complete commissariat outfit.

"War Is Hell!" Sherman.

By William Henry Taylor, author of "Canadian Seasons."

Muster to the Armageddon!
 Blacker swells the cyclone's womb;
 Soon the streams of life will redden
 Europe's horrid crater tomb.
 Statesmen scheming, Kaisers dreaming,
 Bankers playing cards and dice;
 Swords are gleaming, trumpets screaming,
 Priests bless Moloch's sacrifice.

Blood and thunder, bluster, blunder;
 Kings and Kaisers shake their fists;
 Driving peasantry, who wonder Why the Devil grinds such grists.
 Hell explodes with lyddite laughter;
 Sultan Satan views with scorn,
 That from floor to lofty rafter
 He will store ripe Europe's corn.

Hohenzollern! Hide and tremble!
 Nemesis now frowns on you;
 Hapsburg! Fate, your foes assembling; Romanoff! Your debt is due;
 France showed you her Revolution—
 It's too late for you to mend—
 By the laws of evolution
 You must meet the Bourbon's end.

British jingoes! Lords and ladies!
 Vanish, when the Lion springs;
 Do not steer our ship to Hades—
 Other Boers and wasps have stings.
 Never were in Britain's story
 Champions needed more than now,
 Such as shone like gems of glory
 In the crown on Freedom's brow.

Toronto World, August 3, 1914.

pick up the messages but they can't read them if the cypher system is well arranged. The enemy may cut cables and telegraph lines, but it will be hard to destroy radiograph stations all over the coast and at inland points. A fleet, a dozen fleets, individual ships can be kept in momentary touch with headquarters. So with armies and portions of armies, with deposits and advance lines. Army and navy are in touch. Allied countries, every member with all the best. This is the greatest new servant of war. But all the warring countries may be more or less organized with this service. England, we believe, however, has the best and the widest equipment of this kind.

CANADA PLEDGED TO GIVE SUPPORT

Governor-General Cables That Canadian People Will Rally
to Aid.

Canadian Press Despatch,
OTTAWA, August 2. — Canada's offer of aid to the imperial government in case it is needed in the present crisis was expressed in a message from the governor-general to Mr. Harcourt, colonial secretary, on Saturday.
It was a simply worded message, well tempered, but expressing the deliberate determination of the Canadian people to stand behind the mother country to the full extent of their power. It read as follows:
"My advisers, while expressing their most earnest hope that a peaceful solution of existing international difficulties may be achieved, and their strong desire to co-operate in every possible way for that purpose, wish to convey to his Majesty's Government the firm assurance that, if un-happily, war should ensue the Canadian people will be united in a common resolve to put forth every effort and to make every sacrifice necessary to ensure the integrity of the Canadian people and to maintain the honor of our empire and the maintenance of the honor of our empire and the maintenance of the honor of our empire."
The following was received from
Mr. Harcourt today:
"With reference to your telegram of August 1 his Majesty's Government gratefully welcomes the assurance of your government that in the present crisis they may rely on the whole-hearted co-operation of the people of Canada."

SWIMMER FALLS
VICTIM TO CRAMPS

David Crawford Drowned
Near Fisherman's Island.

Seized with cramps when he was bathing off Fisherman's Island at 7 o'clock on Saturday night, David Crawford, aged 23, an employe of Haron Bros. Construction Co., sank before help could reach him and was drowned.

The man had dived from a tug, and was heard to cry for help when he rose to the surface. He was a good swimmer, but it is believed that going in the water just after having eaten a heavy meal caused him to be overcome.

David Gallagher, the foreman in charge of the works, recovered the body within a minute after the man sank.
The crew of the life saving station worked over Crawford with a pumpmotor for two hours and twenty minutes.

HUGHES PREPARES FOR CANADIAN EMBARKATION

Troops Will Be Mobilized on Military Camp Site Near Quebec Before They Leave.

Canadian Press Despatch.
QUEBEC, Aug. 2.—In the event of Premier Borden's offer of an army division of 20,000 to 25,000 men being accepted, Quebec will be the point of embarkation.
Col. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, arrived here by special train yesterday and motored out to Valcarlos, about 20 miles away. This he says has been chosen as the mobilization base (and the probability is that thousands of troops may be pouring in here before the month is out).
According to what the minister told the Canadian Press correspondents, the base will be a large area, and will be some time ago and will have been a training ground for artillery. The camp area is about 10 square miles and Colonel Hughes estimates it will be an ideal spot for mobilization owing to its proximity to Quebec, the nature of the country and the fact that there is a plentiful supply of water.

Face Peeling Easy—
Blond or Brunette

"The blonde's complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Mrs. Lina Cavallari.
The Brunette's, as a rule, is the reverse.
The skin is thicker and has a tendency to an oily appearance.
For either the faded blonde's skin or the brunette's oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is an electrolytic wax. Used every night, this will give one an entirely new complexion within a week's time. The wax is made from peels of the worn-out surface skin, with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate under-skin in the least. The latter will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may really lose ten or fifteen years from her age, so far as appearance goes, by a course of this simple treatment. The wax, accurate as any drug store, is applied like cold cream.

HEAVY GUN FIRE
FROM NORTH SEA

Wireless Despatches Say German Flotilla and French Squadron Are Engaged.

LONDON, Aug. 2. — Wireless dispatches received here state that a naval engagement is in progress in the North Sea. Heavy firing started at an early hour in the morning, and continued throughout the day.

It is believed here that the German flotilla is now in action with the French squadron. The last definite word received from the German fleet was that it had been recalled to Kiel from Scandinavian waters.

The cabinet meeting, after a three-hour session, the longest ever held, adjourned at 1.54 this afternoon. After the meeting Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, and Lord
er. The two statements looked extremely grave.

The general impression in official circles today is that the outlook is exceedingly dark. It is generally feared that England may be involved in the great struggle. Another session of the full cabinet has been called for this evening.

Ever since Germany's declaration of war against Russia, the populace has been mad with the war spirit. Wild scenes are being enacted in the streets and cheering throngs crowd all the thoroughfares.

Armed troops and military wagons are marching thru the streets, and at sight of them the crowds become frenzied.

The German ambassador visited Premier Borden at the foreign office early today.

The French embassy has issued the following statement: "Germany declaring to war is unable to answer the question put by the British ambassador at Berlin as to whether she is prepared to respect the neutrality of Belgium."

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Germans have invaded the Duchy of Luxemburg and have seized the government offices and telephones.

The Duchy of Luxemburg, which is reported this morning to be invaded by German troops, is an independent state at the extreme southwest of Belgium. For a distance of about fifty miles the little independence is a barrier to German approach into France, lying, in fact, directly between the German states of Prussia and French territory to the southwest.

From 1815 to 1836 it was a partner in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg confederation, but in 1837 was declared neutral and independent territory by the treaty of London. It is governed by a reigning grand duke and the succession is hereditary in the male line. All executive powers are vested in the grand duke by a chamberlain, and the people are almost entirely Catholic. For commercial purposes it is included in the German Empire. Luxemburg is the chief town and capital.

Rumors Rife About Cancellation of Mauretania's Present Trip.

Special Copyrighted Cable.
LONDON, Aug. 1.—Ambassador
Thomas Nelson Page left the Ritz
Hotel today for Rome. Count Wengersky, London manager of the Hamburg-American line, left today for Germany, and considerable nervousness has developed amongst passengers regarding the Aquitania and Mauretania's sailings on August 15 and 22, as in the event of Britain going to war it is probable that the admiralty, which pays the annual subsidy, will claim them. Rumors were afloat all yesterday regarding the possible cancellation of the Mauretania's present trip. The White Star and allied lines will not disclose which boats are filed, as some reservations are being canceled even now, but The World was informed on good authority today that it is impossible now to book a berth on any trans-Atlantic steamer, including the Canadian lines, before August 25.
No Temporary Service.
Discussing the possibility of the Royal Mail line or other big steamship lines putting boats on the trans-Atlantic service temporarily, a shipping expert explained to The World that such a service would not pay, as the boats would be filled only one way and would carry no freight.
Many women traveling alone and not in touch with the latest developments did not know the steamship situation until they read the morning papers.

RUSSIA THICE REFUSED

Ultimatum on Czar to Cease Mobilization in Twelve Hours.

Canadian Press Despatch,
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—The rupture of diplomatic relations between Russia and Germany took place under dramatic circumstances. It was midnight Friday when Count Von Pourtalles, the German ambassador to Russia visited Foreign Minister Sazanoff, and asked for an urgent interview.
As soon as he was received he formally called upon Russia to cease her mobilization in 12 hours. The allotted period of time passed without an answer.
At seven o'clock Saturday evening
Count Von Pourtales again called upon
M. Sazanoff and again asked if Russia would cease mobilizing her forces.
Russia Formally Declines.
To this the Russian statesman replied:
"Inasmuch as the Russian Government has not answered within the time you specified, it follows that Russia has declined to agree with your demand."
Three times Count Von Pourtales repeated the German ultimatum, and each time the Russian foreign minister met his statement with the same firm negative. Finally Count Von Pourtalles rose from his chair, bowed to the foreign minister, and left the room without another word. He and the members of his staff at once departed from St. Petersburg by way of Finland.
Had Two Replies.
According to the Novoe Vremya
the typewritten texts of two replies from Germany. One was for presentation in the event of Russian acceptation of the German ultimatum and the other in case of its rejection. In his great agitation the German ambassador presented both replies to M.
Sazanoff at the same time.
The protection of Russians in countries at war with Russia has been entrusted to Spain.

Lacrosse Rosedales Win Shamrocks Lose

ROSEDALES SNOWED SHAMROCKS UNDER

Locals Had Everything Their Own Way—Green Shirts Failed to Beat Defence.

Rosedales ripped things up in grand style at Rosedale Saturday when they gave the Shamrocks a bad beating to the tune of 11 to 1. The locals demonstrated only too clearly that they were too strong for the visitors, and the game soon became a runaway. The visitors halted every time they hit the Rosedale defence and the toughness of the struggle failed to entice the fans to any extent. The Green Shirts are not the Shamrocks of the olden days by any means, and their helplessness spoiled any chances they might have had.

Outside of the fact that the locals have yet to lose a game the result did not change the teams in their standing. The visitors got their only tally during a moment of carelessness on the part of the Blue Shirts, but just to show that they could score at any time they slipped right in again and added a couple of others for good measure.

The lineup: Shamrocks (1)—Valliere, goal; McMillan, point; Doran, cover; Mahoney, 1st defence; Hughes, 2nd defence; Murphy, 3rd defence; Langrevin, centre; Leyden, 1st home; Eilard, 2nd home; Eagan, 3rd home; M. Leydon, inside home; Quinn, outside.

Rosedales (11)—Holmes, goal; Harshaw, point; Yeaman, cover; Powers, 1st defence; Braden, 2nd defence; T. Fitzgerald, 3rd defence; Gordon, centre; W. Fitzgerald, 1st home; Joe Green, 2nd home; Murray, 3rd home; Burns, inside home; Kalls, outside.

Referee—Hugh Lamb; Judge of play—Geo. Wheeler.

Irish-Canadians Win Show Reversal of Form

MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—Showing a marked reversal of form the Irish Canadians won their first game on the National grounds this season yesterday, when they defeated the Tecumsehs in a Big Four fixture by 7 to 4. Although 10 penalties were for a major foul, that being the first to be between Kane and Felker in the last period. But for that, the game was one of the cleanest exhibitions played in Montreal this season. The teams:

Irish Canadians (1)—Brennan, goal; White, point; Baker, cover; Ashell, Kane, defence; Munro, centre; F. Scott, H. Scott, home; Emsie, outside; Cummins, inside.

Tecumseh (4)—Torrey, goal; Whitehead, point; Graddon, cover; Mackenzie, Felker, defence; Collins, centre; Ripley, Carmichael, home; Durkin, outside; Querte, inside.

Referee—Ruddy; Finisher—Judge of play—Billy McIntyre.

Winged Wheelers

Wallop Cornwall

MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—Several changes made on the line-up of the M.A.A. lacrosse team resulted in the first decisive win of the season for the winged wheelers over the Cornwall Colts by the score of 7 to 1 Saturday. Owing to the fact that the lacrosse game was played before two ball games only time for three periods was available, but the outcome would hardly have been different even had the full time been played.

The teams:
Cornwall (3)—Goal, Carpenter; point, Thompson; cover, F. Degan; defence, De Degan, Degan, Moore; centre, G. Penny; home, Phelan; Slinister, J. Penny; outside, Harrington; inside, Deacon.

M.A.A. (7)—Goal, Eyon; point, Brady; cover, Currie; defence, Kenna, Blake, Rafferty; centre, Collins; home, McNamara, McIntyre, McDonald; outside, J. Walsh; inside, W. Barr.

SKETERS LAND LAST GAME WINNING ONE OUT OF FIVE

Wagner Wins His Own Battle With His Little Stick—Leafs Lose the Second, Which Was Only a Seven Innings Session.

Another double-header brought the local baseball week to a close on Saturday, and Jersey City, by winning the second game, a seven-innings affair, by 8 to 2, was able to go away with one victory out of the five.

The first game of the afternoon was won easily by the Leafs, 10 to 4, making it four in a row, but the skaters got the jump in the last and managed to hold the lead to the finish, though the Kellyettes were catching up, and on more than one occasion looked as though they would overcome the lead. There was not much singer shown, some of the skaters playing listlessly, as tallenders sometimes do as the season wears on.
