The New Western

(From The Winnipeg Free Press, Oct. 14.)
At last the merchandise rates framed by the express companies in accordance with the judgment of the Dominion Railway Commission of Dec. 24, 1910, have been announced and go into operation forthwith. They show a few reductions from the old rates, as, for instance, $1.75 per 100 lbs. from Winnipeg to Dauphin; instead of $2, as formerly; and $4.75 to Edmonton, instead of $5. They show a greater number of increases; the rate from Winnipeg to Neepawa, for instance, being now $1.50 instead of $1.25, as before, and the rate to Brandon $1.50 instead of $1.25. In many cases, such as the rates from Winnipeg to Virden, Regina and Prince Albert, there is no change. These few examples are all rates from Winnipeg; they serve as well as any others to indicate how the new rates compare with the old.

Such are the fruits of the railway commission's investigation of the express companies last year. A couple of months ago rates were announced for parcels of less than 50 lbs. weight, showing some reductions, which the express companies are now endeavoring to remove in large measure by means of alterations in their classification. As in the case of freight rates, the classification and the shipping regulations often play a highly important part in the levying of traffic charges by the railway companies, of which the express companies are simply tentacles. "The whole business of express would go on just as it does now," said Judge Mabey, the chairman of the railway commission, in delivering the judgment of Dec. 24 last, "without the existence of any express companies at all by simply substituting railway employees for express employees, and letting the railways take the whole toll in the first instance."

The figures set forth by Judge Mabey show that the Dominion Express Company, which is a side line of the C. P. R., has had a total of only $25,500 paid up on its $2,000,000 capital, and has paid the C. P. R. in the eight years covered by the enquiry made by the commission, no less than $13,469,240. The Canadian Express Company, with a total of $27,520 paid on its $500,000 capitalization; has paid the Grand Trunk an average of $933,989 per annum. The Canadian Northern Express Company, owned by Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann and their associates, with the magnificent sum of $5000 paid in real money on its capitalization of $1,000,000 (of which $300,000 has been issued by the aforesaid philanthropists to themselves in the form of paid-up stock) has paid the Canadian Northern $333,126 in the six years of its existence.

The railway commission's judgment of Dec. 24 last gave the express companies three months' time to frame new tariffs, and laid down as a basis for such new tariffs the principle that heavier charges are proper in Western Canada than in the east. The companies have taken their time about the new tariffs. But they lost no time in framing up a new classification, the result of which has been, in many cases, increased charges. Now we have the new tariffs in full, based on the principle laid down by the commission—or, as Judge Mabey has since explained, in a letter in reply to a protest from the Winnipeg Board of Trade, the suggestion rather than an actual order—that the rates in Western Canada should be two-thirds higher than the rates in the east.

There has been no shadow of attempt at justification of this outrageous doctrine that $5 is the just express charge in Western Canada for a service for which $3 is the just and proper charge in the east. There is no possible justification of it. It is difficult to understand by what reasoning such a doctrine can be regarded as right unless upon the assumption that the people of Western Canada should be more heavily taxed than the people in the east.

It cannot be justified by any difference in costs of operation. Take the road rates of service. Do the express companies pay their western employees 65 per cent. more than they do their employees in the east? Does this difference in wages apply on the C. P. R. and C. N. R. systems, which are, of course, the real owners of the express companies? Further, does the Dominion Government, which is in a sense responsible for the findings of the railway commission, make an additional allowance of two-thirds the original salary to compensate for the higher cost of living in the west?

A protest against this intolerable doctrine that the transportation companies are entitled to charge the people dwelling on the prairies 66-2-3 per cent. more than they charge the people in Eastern Canada for the same service was lodged with the railway commission some time ago by the board of trade of this city. The people of Western Canada and their representatives in parliament will have to declare themselves with such force as will compel the renunciation of that doctrine. Unless that doctrine is swept away, how can the gross injustice of western freight rates be remedied? For the people of Western Canada to submit submissively to the establishment of the precedent that express rates should be 66-2-3 per cent. higher than in the east would be for them to allow themselves to be permanently bound and shackled by the railway companies.

Parliament Called For November 15

Prorogation Will Be Sought by the End of January or the Beginning of February.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(Special)—The new parliament will be called for the despatch of business on Nov. 15. This date was fixed by the cabinet-in-council this afternoon and announced later by Premier Borden.

The session will not be unduly prolonged. After a brief adjournment at Christmas prorogation will be sought by the end of January or first week in February. These, it is learned, are the plans of the government. The ministers will set about the work of preparing their estimates for the fiscal year, which commences on April 1 next.

The length of the session naturally depends largely upon the activity of the opposition, but it is not expected that any stumbling block will be laid by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his supporters to the speedy transaction of the first term of the new parliament.

Had Dynamite Ready For Taft's Train

Nightwatchman at Bridge Had Revolver Battle With Two Men, Who Escaped.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 16.—A report received here to-day by officials of the Southern Pacific Railway from C. C. Brown, section foreman for the road at Naples, Cal., gave details of the discovery of thirty-six sticks of dynamite under the Calaveras viaduct, 20 miles north of Santa Barbara, several hours before President Taft's special train passed over the bridge en route to Los Angeles this morning.

The dynamite was found after the watchman engaged in a revolver battle with two men, who escaped. The dynamite was discovered at 2 o'clock this morning. The president's train passed over the bridge at 5:31. The nightwatchman saw two men on the bridge shortly before 2 o'clock. They were at the opposite end of the 100 foot span and ran when ordered to halt. The watchman hurried across the bridge, firing several shots, which were returned.

After the pair had escaped in the darkness, the watchman returned to the bridge and began an investigation. Near the centre of the span, lodged in one of the supports of the viaduct, he found the thirty-six sticks of dynamite with a ten-foot fuse attached to one of the sticks. He left the find untouched, going immediately to Santa Barbara and notifying the officials.

Sheriff Wines of Santa Barbara County went immediately to the bridge with several deputies and removed the dynamite. A general search is being made for the men.

CHICAGO EXPRESS CRASHED INTO FREIGHT CARS

Smash-up Near Dundas Street Bridges, in Which Passengers Were Shaken Up—Engine and Cars Wrecked—Chase Was an Exciting One

Three men were slightly hurt and four freight cars and an engine were wrecked 100 yards south of the Dundas-street bridges when C. P. R. engine No. 864, with the Chicago-Toronto express inbound at 4:08 o'clock yesterday afternoon crashed into the rear of a shunting train of nine freight cars at that point. The cause of the wreck is said to be that the engineer of the shunting train believed that the passenger train, which was twenty minutes late, had passed, and therefore ventured out on the main line.

Those injured were Engineer George Dowling of the passenger engine, who lives at London, Ont., whose right wrist was cut and sprained. He was also severely shaken up. His fireman, Henry Stevens, London, was also shaken up, while Pullman Conductor James Lynn, 22 Westminister-avenue, Toronto, was cut about the head, being thrown to the aisle of his car by the impact. None of the injuries are serious.

Couldn't Evade Pursuit.

It was broad daylight on a straight track when the accident happened. As the heavy passenger train bore down on the light freight, the engineer of the shunting engine and his fireman heard and then saw its approach. Full steam ahead was clapped on and the light train sprang forward, but it was too late. The passenger train with the momentum of a down grade overtook and crashed into the rear of the freight. The heavy engine and tender plowed into the empty freight cars. The first of these, an empty box car, was demolished. The next was an empty wooden coal car and the engine and tender dove under this ripping off the heavy trucks and casting the light body high into the air and to the south. The trucks were ripped from beneath the next, a box car, and the body cast to the side of the track at right angles to it, while the fourth, a box car, was slightly damaged. The engine front was reduced to scrap-iron and it was laid almost on its side.

The passenger coaches, with their badly scarp load of humanity, were uncoupled and hauled back to the bridges, where the passengers were let out; and put upon the street cars, while the coaches with the injured crew were drawn back to West Toronto. A wrecking crew was sent to the scene and worked far into the night clearing the line of the debris, which, fortunately did not catch fire.

Hon. Adam Beck was on the train on his way to attend a hydro-electric meeting. He was a little shaken, but not hurt.

A brakeman riding on the top of one of the forward cars of the freight train was caught when the collision occurred. He managed to cling to his brake bar and save himself from being thrown from the roof when the jolt came.

LEDGE RUNS INTO PRESTON

Outcropping of Rich Find on Brydges Property Discovered.

Editor World.—As many enquiries have been made at the office of the Preston East Dominion Company for authentic information regarding the position of the company's property in relation to the reported strike on the Brydges claim, which adjoins the Preston. I beg to state that the enclosed telegrams have been received from the company's engineer, referring to this matter.

D. F. Maguire, Secretary-treasurer, Porcupine, Oct. 15.

D. F. Maguire, Toronto: Have started test pit on Saturday with an air drill as directed. (Signed) S. M. Thorne, Porcupine, Oct. 15.

D. F. Maguire, Toronto: Brydges showings and outcrop right on east line of Preston. Vein dipping into Preston. Two hundred feet of crosscutting from our No. 2 shaft should pick up some ninety feet below surface on Preston side of line. (Signed) S. M. Thorne, Extremely Rich Vein.

At the office of Messrs. Warren, Gzowski & Co., a telegram was received from their representative in Porcupine. He reports that he went out to the Brydges claim and saw the vein where it was opened up. He states that the ore is extremely rich.

REVOLUTIONISTS HAVE POPULAR SYMPATHY

Chinese Commander Distrustful of His Soldiers—Government Rushing Troops to the Front—Situation Depends on Money—Revolutionists Well Armed.

PEKIN, Oct. 16.—Simultaneously with the acceptance to-day by Yuan Shi Kai of the post of viceroy of Hu-Peh and Hunan Provinces, to which he is directed to proceed and immediately re-establish the imperial authority, the government is showing remarkable activity, even in the face of a depleted treasury. The government seems to realize at least the necessity of crushing the rebellion promptly, and is now despatching the army to the scene of the revolt as hastily as preparations can be made. A few messages are beginning to arrive from the south, which several days previously was entirely cut off from telegraph communication. But the telegraph lines are open, few details of the situation in the affected provinces are filtering in. It is believed, however, that a certain measure of order is being maintained at Wu-Chang

Refuse Loan to China

PEKIN, Oct. 16.—The government appears to have sufficient ready money for a campaign of six weeks or two months, but anxious for a reserve fund in view of the possibility of a more extended conflict with the revolutionists, to-day applied formally for a loan of 5,000,000 taels, or about $3,000,000, to the international bankers who arranged the $50,000,000 currency reform loan. The group of financiers who represent four nations, the United States, Great Britain, Germany and France, were unable to agree to do this, and the loan was refused.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC WILL LODGE A PROTEST

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—(Special)—There is a big row coming over the attempt of Hon. William Pugsley to place the O'Connor-Harty interests in complete control of Victoria Island and of the power situation at the Chats Falls. Representatives of the City of Ottawa saw Hon. F. D. Monk to-day and enlisted his aid toward the preservation of public rights to this valuable water power.

Toronto Needs More Big Hotels

Some protest has been made by Toronto hotelmen against the article in last Saturday's World, headed "More Hotel Accommodation Needed." They claim that the large license fee, the uncertainty of keeping a license, once it is secured, and the extra bar tax, make it impossible for them to spend more money in serving the public. Objection is made to the interference of the Lord's Day Alliance. The great difficulty encountered in getting good "hotel help" is also put forward in explanation of the bad service.

It is stated that English and American interests, which have contemplated the erection of a hotel here, have been frightened away by existing conditions. The general opinion among Toronto hotel men is that another large hotel would not pay.

The World does not agree with this.

The point at issue remains unchanged—Toronto is lacking in proper hotel accommodation. If the existing conditions really prevent the operating of another good hotel on a paying basis, these conditions must be mitigated or removed. We believe that the Toronto hotel men are doing their best, but their best has not been enough. If the city is to keep on growing, the hotel problem is one of the first that must be solved. The World knows of one six-hundred-room house, modern in every way, now under consideration of capitalists. Two big new hotels will fill up the moment they are opened.

We say again: More hotel accommodation is needed.

HUMBER SCHEME GOES THRU COUNCIL

Opposition Was Directed Towards "Irritating Clauses," Some of Which Will Be Altered—Civic Improvement Committee Suggests Viaduct to Head of Parliament Street.

What the Council Did.
Passed the Humber Park Boulevard scheme, with amendments.
Heard the report of the civic improvement committee on the east end viaduct.
Ratified the salaries of dredge employees.
Passed money bylaws providing for purchase of Isolation Hospital site.
Referred back recommendations to chlorinate trunk sewer effluent.
Killed proposal to send deputations to United States cities to study works departments.
Decided to urge Ontario Government to appoint juvenile court commissioners.

With half a dozen amendments which will have to be agreed to by R. Home Smith's syndicate before the matter is settled, the Humber Park boulevard project was passed by the city council yesterday.

The request of Mr. Smith that a boulevard 100 feet in width be constructed and paved by the city, was changed to read that a pavement along the central part of a driveway, parkway and boulevard, 100 feet in width be constructed.

The clause whereby the city bound itself with R. Home Smith's support to obtain legislation and obtain sanctions necessary, was altered so as to give the city full liberty in making the applications, and providing that the syndicate pay half cost.

To the clause giving Mr. Smith permission to take alone from the bed of the Humber, the addition of the following was made: "provided that this does not affect the city's right to remove stones from the bed of the river for the purpose of development of the park and building of the roadway."

The council crossed out Home Smith's condition that no poles or wires be put up. As for the approval of bridges, the council added that the city engineer and the park commissioner be included with Home Smith. The clause as it originally stood provided that they had to be approved by Mr. Smith alone. The fence between the park areas and the property of Mr. Smith is to be merely a woven wire fence to be provided by the city engineer, the park commissioner and Mr. Smith.

For a time it looked as if a number of the members of the council were against the general scheme, but the clamor was found to be merely objections against minor points.

Ald. May moved that the matter be referred back for the report of the assessment commissioner on the vested rights, the report of the engineer on the cost of the bridges, and a 100 foot macadam roadway, and the report of the park commissioner on the cost of filling the low land so it would be above the high water mark of the river.

The motion was defeated by a vote of 10 to 7. Those for referring it back were: Ald. Graham, Mc'Brien, May, Sweeney, Chisholm, Dunn and McMurray.

A POSSIBLE SITE FOR A NEW HOTEL

Speaking of locations for a new big hotel, there should be no anxiety over that aspect of the situation. A half dozen available downtown sites occur to mind. There is a good one at the northeast corner of Front and York-streets. It is all ready to start building on. The corner property has 200 feet of frontage on York-street and about a hundred on Front street, and if the property next east were acquired, it would make an excellent site, being just opposite the new station that is to be, and there would also be light on four sides. This is not the only good site, there are plenty of others downtown, and any real estate man can offer a list of them. The reality side of the situation presents no difficulties.

A Most Elaborate Production

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

POLICE ADMIT THEY FELL DOWN ON ROBBERY CASE

Criticized for Holding Two Men for Two Weeks Without Evidence—Another Burglary.

HAMILTON, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—After holding two men in jail for two weeks in connection with the mysterious robbery of more than $9000 from the vault of the Canadian Express Co.'s office in this city, on the night of Sept. 29, the local police were forced to admit this morning that they had completely fallen down on the case.

George W. Kennough, the former night clerk in the express company's office, who was arrested on suspicion when the robbery was discovered, and his friend, John W. Hughes, a former employee of the company, arrested the same day on a nominal charge of vagrancy, both appeared in court this morning, but no evidence was introduced against them in the big theft case.

Hughes was discharged from custody, but Kennough, against whom another charge of theft has been laid, is still held, and will appear before Judge Monck in county court tomorrow morning. The express company alleges that he stole $15 which he collected from the Hamilton Gas Co.

The failure of the police to make any progress whatever towards solving the mystery of the theft of the $9000 has caused a great deal of talk, and the local youths have been severely criticized for keeping Hughes in jail two weeks without the slightest evidence against him. Deputy Chief of Police Whately has been in charge of the case from the beginning.

Another Mysterious Burglary. The local detectives were put to work on another mysterious burglary this morning, which is said to have taken place last Friday night, when the ancient vault in the Balfour, Syme warehouse was looted of some documents and about 100 in cash. Access to the vault was gained by the use of a key which is kept in the office. The members of the firm have been unable to furnish the detectives with any clue in the matter.

The site for the city's sub-station for its power and lighting systems has been selected on Hughson-street, north, alongside the central fire station. A building to cost about $13,000 will be erected there within a short time.

A Conservative candidate to contest the South Wentworth constituency in the forthcoming provincial elections, will be chosen at the Mountain View Hotel, Oct. 25, when a convention will be held for that purpose. This was the decision arrived at by the executive of the South Wentworth Conservative Association, which held a meeting on Saturday afternoon. Frank Hills, who has been frequently mentioned as a candidate, has stated that he will not allow his name to go before the convention. A number of other strong men are available, however, and it is expected that a number of names will be placed before the meeting.

Spread Disease at Sunday School. That children attend Sunday school before fully recovering from infectious diseases is a discovery just made by the medical officer, who has set out to stop the practice, which it is said has already been the means of spreading disease. Children suffering from infectious diseases, as well as those in families where such diseases exist, are debarred from the public schools, and are forbidden to associate with other children until they are cured. The health department has heretofore overlooked the Sunday school as a prolific field for scattering disease, and parents, who are said to know the law in the matter, have taken advantage of this oversight, and have sent their offspring out to mix freely with other children at Sunday school. In future the Sabbath schools will be as carefully watched as the public schools, and parents who disregard the law will be prosecuted.

MUST BURY OR ELEVATE IS MANDATE TO RAIL

Metropolitan Railway Cannot Deviate From Yonge St. and Create Level Crossing.

After a short half-hour session yesterday afternoon, the Ontario Railway Board gave its judgment on the proposed deviation from Yonge-street of the Metropolitan electric line, the deviation being about four blocks north of the terminal.

The decision was voiced by Chairman Leitch and in substance was that the railway could not leave Yonge-street unless its tracks were placed either overhead or underground.

Most of the session was occupied in listening to the appeals of property owners who have holdings along the proposed right of way, and who declared that their property would be much injured because of that fact.

The chairman stated that the members of the board are a unit, and there is no difference of opinion between us in declaring that this road, on its private right of way, should not cross streets on the level if by any means it can be avoided.

"As the railway company will not join in the tube scheme, and we cannot compel them to join with the board will have their own engineer, Mr. Wise, prepare plans and profiles, showing how it would be possible, if it is possible, to avoid level crossings, but the board is not expressing any opinion as to that. These plans will show either an overhead or an underground route.

"The engineer will have to give us careful estimates of cost; thus we will be able to judge what proportion of it, if any, should be borne by others than the railway company."

"I have carefully gone into our rights in this matter, and I have come to the conclusion that the board has the right to settle this matter. Anyone, of course, may take this decision to the court of appeal. I am delivering this judgment on a question of law."

City Solicitor Johnston placed the objection that, as a matter of law, the company had no right to deviate from Yonge-street. Mr. Wright, for the railway company, declared that the way decided to consider co-operating with the city in the tubes.

BURIED BY HIS COMRADES. A MacChesney Served Creditably in the Yukon and South Africa. The funeral of A. MacChesney, late of the Permanent Army Medical Corps, took place from the chapel of Bates & Dodds' undertaking establishment at a 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was attended by the friends and comrades of the deceased. The funeral was of a semi-military nature, and the remains were interred in the military cemetery at the foot of Strachan-avenue.

Mr. McChesney, who died suddenly on Oct. 11, in his 28th year, enlisted in the Royal Canadian Regiment in April, 1896. He served in the Yukon Field Force under the late Col. Evans, from May, 1898, till the end of the expedition. In 1901 he volunteered for service with the Canadian Mounted Rifles and fought thru the latter stages of the Boer war. He was a good soldier, and his sudden demise is mourned by all who knew him.

Mr. McChesney was in the hospital for six months up to the expiration of his fifteen years' service, and while still convalescent he was declared medically unfit for further service. A three-months' pension is pending, but so far the department has not made compensation for his past services. He was buried at the expense of his comrades in Stanley Barracks.

Mark Hambourg in Toronto. Mark Hambourg, the world-famous pianist, who is now making a coast-to-coast tour of Canada, spent the weekend in the city, going to Ottawa for a concert on Monday night. On Saturday he was entertained by the Arts and Letters Club, the members of which organization turned out in full force to welcome him, as a prominent member of the famous Savage Club of London, England. For the occasion, Mark graciously consented to play two numbers. He was heard first in an Arabesque of Schumann, and next in a Liszt Rhapsody. At the conclusion of the Liszt number, which is a tremendous undertaking, in tone power and technique, the entire gathering rose to its feet, cheering enthusiastically for several minutes. Mark Hambourg will be back in Toronto on Oct. 21, when he appears at Massey Hall. Throughout his entire tournee from coast to coast Mark Hambourg will, as on former occasions, use exclusively the grand piano of the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited.

Obliged to Quit Business. So Dreadful Was the Suffering From Itching Piles After Twenty Years of Pile Torture Relief and Cure Gained With Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You take no risk and you make no experiment when you use Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles. Many doctors still cling to the idea that nothing but an operation will effect a cure. But operation is a very expensive and dangerous one, often fall in their results. Some have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment after operations had failed.

Dr. Chase's Ointment truly has a wonderful record as a cure for piles and all itching skin diseases. Here is a case which was reported recently: Mr. John P. Marshall, 14 Barnwood-st., St. John's, Nfld., writes: "For upwards of twenty years I was troubled terribly with itching piles; at times so bad that I was obliged to lay up, unable to attend to business. I tried many treatments without benefit, until I accidentally read of Dr. Chase's Ointment and obtained at last a cure by using this ointment. I only used one box and part of a second one when I was completely cured, and have had no return of the piles. That was eighteen months ago, and needless to say, I attribute this cure to Dr. Chase's invaluable 'Ointment'."

Many sufferers from piles have tried so many courses of treatments that they cannot believe that cure is possible. In order to convince the skeptical we are always willing to send a sample box free to anyone who encloses a two-cent stamp to pay postage.

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Mission of the Press. An essay on "Place of the Religious Press in Modern Life," was read by Bishop L. J. Coppin, D.D., of All Saints Methodist Church, in the afternoon session was conspicuously small. Rev. E. J. Brailford, pastor Wesleyan Methodist Church of Somerset, Eng., presided.

Another resolution was passed expressing the earnest disapproval of the conference of hastily ill-considered marriages and of the rude and barbarous customs attending weddings and home comings which degraded the ceremony and marriage relations; and Methodist ministers who refused to marry divorced persons were commended for their action.

The first Sunday in February was the date set for the reading of the official message of the conference in all the Methodist pulpits of the world. According to another resolution passed both the proclamation and acceptance of this decree in the countries from when they came.

The conference is strongly of the opinion that a marriage ceremony performed by any person properly authorized to do so by the state should be valid irrespective of the religious affiliations of the parties concerned.

Marriage Degraded. Million-Dollar Suggestions

Distilled From Advertising Experience

To our every client our business advice is the most valuable service we render.

Many can point to some single idea which has proved itself worth more than all our commissions.

And a single suggestion, quite a number of times, has netted some client over one million dollars.

This business of ours, while called merely advertising, really involves the whole science of making money.

Our ability to warn, to suggest and accomplish, results from a rare experience.

For a good many years we have been selling advisers to leaders in a thousand lines.

With them we have met the countless problems of selling. We have seen them solved, both rightly and wrongly, in a good many different ways.

We have watched the outcome of every solution. Every mistake and success has been analyzed.

Where most men learn from one business experience we have learned from a thousand. And the lessons are all recorded.

For about every selling question that ever comes up, the very best answer men ever obtained is found in our Books of Experience.

There lies the value—the utter need—of efficient help in selling.

Mere advertising—mere force of attack—rarely wins out under modern conditions. It can never win out against Strategy.

Advertising must be aided by many clever maneuvers. It must be backed by right methods and policies.

WE TEMERE OUTRAGEOUS SO SAYS CONFERENCE

Resolution Pledged World-Wide Methodism to Resistance—How Church is Growing.

Several resolutions were passed at the morning session yesterday of the Methodist Ecumenical Conference, the most important of which was the following on the Ne Temere Decree, which was adopted by a standing vote:

"This conference assembled at Toronto in the month of September, 1911, in protest against the Ne Temere decree recently issued by the Church of Rome. While holding that the fullest religious liberty should be accorded to men of all creeds, the conference repudiates the idea that any church decree should have the power to override the civil law, and especially on such a subject as that of marriage, on which the state should be supreme, and therefore, calls upon the members of the various Methodist churches represented in this ecumenical conference to take every step to prevent both the proclamation and acceptance of this decree in the countries from when they came.

The conference is strongly of the opinion that a marriage ceremony performed by any person properly authorized to do so by the state should be valid irrespective of the religious affiliations of the parties concerned."

Marriage Degraded. Another resolution was passed expressing the earnest disapproval of the conference of hastily ill-considered marriages and of the rude and barbarous customs attending weddings and home comings which degraded the ceremony and marriage relations; and Methodist ministers who refused to marry divorced persons were commended for their action.

BAKER'S HOME RUN WINS SECOND FOR ATHLETICS

Plank is Steady Throat of the Game While Marquard Has Troubles The Only Allowing Four Hits.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—When Joe Franklin Baker, third baseman, poked a home run over the right-field wall of Shibe Park, inspiring Eddie Collins ahead of him to-day, he put the Philadelphia Athletics on an even footing with the New York Giants, and the two teams will now go to New York for the third game to-morrow in the world's championship series.

The big hit came in the sixth inning with two out, and when the Athletics had a lead of one run, Marquard of the National League champion team was the best in the game for Philadelphia, but it was enough. And just as important as Baker's home run was the steady pitching of Plank, the star pitcher of the Athletics, who never pitched a better game in his career. Only one of the Athletics' pitchers, Eddie Harzog, who pitched on a long hit to center field, which Oldring threw to first base, and in the last six innings New York went out in order. Marquard, on whom Manager McGraw had pinned his faith to make it a straight victory for New York, pitched a game that was almost the equal of that of Plank. He allowed only four hits, two in the first inning, in which the Quakers got their first run with the help of a wild pitch, and two in the sixth. Collins' double and Baker's hit of a home run, and McGraw changed pitchers, sending in Crandall, a right-hander.

Marquard Nervous. Marquard only once during the game showed any uneasiness and that was in the first inning. He appeared to be nervous, and for a time had trouble reading Meyer's signals. It looked as if he would blow up, and Manager McGraw no doubt thought so, too, for he immediately sent Crandall down the side lines to warm up. But Marquard, under the steady coaching of his catcher, Calton, soon settled down, and he had no more trouble until Baker broke up the game with a home run. Marquard, however, was not hurt by the score. He pitched five of the nine innings, and was captured by Lord and one by Oldring. Plank had eight strikeouts, Devore being struck by the fourth delivery of the Philadelphiaian four times. Marquard pitched twice, and Oldring pitched once. Six of the Athletics went out by the strike-out, they were Lord (2), Baker, Murphy and Plank (2). Marquard got four of them and Crandall two. Lord and Plank, in the closing innings.

Neither Plank nor Marquard gave a base on balls. This was the only error charged against the Athletics, and a man hit by a pitched ball by Plank. The Athletics went out in order in five innings. New York's only run was put across the plate by the last half of the batting order. It came in the second inning, when Herzog drove a fly to center field which Oldring failed to get, and the New Yorker poked in a run. Herzog then raced across the home plate when Meyer's throw was a little high.

The First Run. Philadelphia's first run came in the opening inning. Lord was on first base, and reached second on Marquard's pitch. He was sacrificed to first by Oldring, and then to second by the Franco-German. You will wonder New York Tribune.

Philadelphia pitched a steady game today, accepting his six chances with apparent ease. He had two of the four hits of Marquard, and the great pitching of both Marquard and Plank gave the fielders few chances for sensational work.

Neither team was given much opportunity to show their speed on the bases. Neither team had a stolen base. Merkle, who was on first in the seventh, made a fake attempt to go down and took too much of a lead off the bag. Plank turned instantly and by a lightning throw to Davis caught the New York first baseman by a yard.

Crowd Short But Joyful. The crowd that saw the first of the world's championship games here was the smallest of the attendance at the first game for the world's title played here since the game last year. It was a joyful throng, however, and cheered from the moment the teams came on the field until Collins tossed out Marquard in the ninth inning. The big double-deck grand stand was a solid jam of people, and there was no room in the bleachers. The outfield contained several thousand persons who were kept back by a four-foot fence, and the concrete fence surrounding the park set a solid line of fans who picked their necks to see the game. On the roofs of the houses encircling the park the thousands had made temporary householders tany prices for permission to take a seat on stands built upon the roofs of the dwellings. The grand stands were closed long before the game began, and the bleacher gates were shut during the progress of the game. The few spectators who chanced to get in by selling their comparatively few tickets that fell into their hands, said out their pastboards at good prices.

Like Amateurs. The Athletics showed their delight by running out to meet Baker as he crossed the plate. The hero took the demonstration modestly and took a drink of water.

The crowd was all smiles when he appeared in his office in the tower of Shibe Park after the game. He had played another card, but not the one McGraw had expected, and still has Combs, the "Iron Man," make up the gaps of battle on the Polo grounds to-morrow. The crowd fully expected the tall manager to trot out Combs, who won three world series games last year. Plank was not used in the series with Chicago in 1910, and there were some misgivings in the crowd as to the outcome of the game. But when it was seen how well the spirit was working they cheered him on.

The man on the New York team who received the heartiest welcome was Catcher Meyer. His superb work caught the crowd and he was given a hand each time he stepped to the plate. The game began a few minutes after 2 o'clock with New York at bat. The first ball pitched by Plank was a strike and the crowd cheered. The next was also a strike, and the third a ball. The fourth pitch sent the little left fielder, Devore, back to the bench. Capt. Doyle sent a fly to Lord, which the latter almost lost, slipping on the soft ground as he started after the ball. Snodgrass was stepped on the right arm by one of Plank's speedy linebacks and went to first base. Lord, there, as Murray fled to Collins.

and Baker, always dangerous, came up to the plate. It was here that Marquard showed signs of uneasiness. He either could not catch or did not understand Meyer's signals. Finally he got them right, and then Devore struck Baker. Murphy fled to Devore.

Merkle was easily disposed of in the second inning. Barry to Davis, to the delight of the crowd. But the joyful spirit of the fans was soon turned to demonstration that ensued when Baker hit a home run. Herzog and Collins and other noise-making instruments raised a din that lasted for several minutes.

The Athletics showed their delight by running out to meet Baker as he crossed the plate. The hero took the demonstration modestly and took a drink of water.

The World's Series
Won Lost To Pl.
New York Giants 1 1 5
Philadelphia Athletics 1 1 5

Yesterday's game—Athletics 2, Giants 1. The Athletics only allowed four hits, he was outplayed by Plank. Attendance, 23,281. Receipts, $2,500. Divided as follows: Players' share, $1,000; club, $1,500. National Commission, $1,250.

Davis. For the Athletics in the fourth inning, Baker was tossed out by Doyle. Murphy sent a high fly to Devore, and Davis sent up a high fly, which Meyer's got under.

The Indian catcher was first up on four pitched balls, and then Devore got the laugh from Plank as he struck out for the third time. Philadelphia's fifth inning was as quickly played. Barry dropped a punt in front of the plate, but Marquard made a neat pick-up and shot the ball to first ahead of him. Thomas sent a grounder to Fletcher, and Plank smiled as Marquard sent him back to the bench on three pitched balls.

Davis took Doyle's grounder unassisted in the sixth. Then Snodgrass sent a fast single down the left field foul line. Lord raced after the ball, and when Snodgrass got to second he found that Barry, far a great throw by Lord, had the ball, and was waiting for him. Murray struck out.

The Home Run. Lord had gone out on a fly to Snodgrass and Oldring on a long drive to Devore in the second half of the sixth.

when the break-up came. Collins drove a pretty two-base hit to left field, and the crowd called on Baker to bring him home. Baker allowed two balls to go by him, and then Marquard sent up one that just suited the best home-run-hitter on the Athletic team. The ball sailed high over the right-field wall, and Collins, who was off with the crack of the bat, looted home when he saw that Baker had put the ball out of the grounds. Marquard kept his nerve in the face of the 2-1 score, and struck out Murphy.

It now took two runs to tie the score, and the Athletic rooters began to sing. Merkle lushed them by sending a single to center on the first ball pitched. Herzog filed to Oldring, and Fletcher was an easy out to Baker. Merkle was caught napping, Plank to Davis.

In the Philadelphia seventh inning, Davis drove a liner to Doyle and Barry lined to Herzog. Thomas sent up a fly to Fletcher.

Meyer sent a terrific drive to Collins in the eighth inning, which the second-sacker held onto, and Crandall, who was sent in to bat for Marquard, went out. Collins to Davis. Devore struck out for the fourth time. Plank and Lord struck out in the eighth inning for the Americans, and Oldring the last man to come to bat for the home team. was out. Herzog to Merkle. New York made a desperate attempt to do something in the ninth, but it was futile. Herzog fouled to Thomas. Snodgrass grounded out, and Murray sent an easy grounder, that Collins snared and tossed to Davis.

Both teams returned to New York to-night, where they play the third game on Tuesday.

significant of danger, is nevertheless indicative of the seriousness of the situation even in Peking. Chinese respect for foreigners, which is often criticized, still continues to be the customary standard. This is due largely to the lesson of 1900, and it is not believed that the legation quarter will be subjected to more than inconvenience owing to the rise in the price of food-stuffs and possible disorders in the native city.

An indication of the activity being displayed by the government is given in the dispatch from Pao-Ting-Fu of twenty-four army trains in the last four days. Twelve trains will be dispatched from Peking, and the sixth division, which is now quartered at Pao-Ting-Fu, will leave as soon as conditions quiet down there. After the departure of a single passenger train tomorrow, the railway between Peking and Tientsin will be closed to all but troop traffic.

Does Not Trust His Troops.

General Yin Tsung, the minister of war, who will have chief command of the government troops, is a small, thin, quiet-looking Manchurian. The German and Austrian officers who told the general's greatest confidence, report that he has not entire faith in the Chinese troops. According to the Chinese and generally, the Manchus were tolerable when they protected the country, but are now worthless. The vast body of Chinese sympathizers with the revolutionists and a significant saying of the south is: "An ordinary rebellion would be all right, but we must now fight against our trained brothers."

The situation depends on money, and it is admitted that the ready funds of the Chinese government are low. Further loans by foreign bankers have been refused. If the pay of the troops is increased and is regularly forthcoming, and if the men are well fed, they may not desert or rebel. The feeling in Peking is not which army is the stronger, but which is the less feelingly disorganized.

Yuan Shi Kai to-day accepted the vice-presidency of Hunan and Hu-Peh provinces, and in other official circles, he is held in the highest esteem. Revolutionists and cause them to surrender.

Peasants' Prevalence.

Peasants, however, dominate among the general public and Chinese officials, as well as others are sending their families away from the capital. This morning's train to Pao-Ting-Fu was crowded.

An order issued to-day orders the distribution of rice among the poor, and the sending of the Peking granaries for the sale of grain at low prices.

Disabled Government Gunboats.

LAN FANG, October 16.—News of the first engagement between the Chinese revolutionists and the Imperial force was received in the Chinese Free Press, published here, gives an account of the disabling of three government gunboats by the revolutionists near Hankow yesterday.

Two other boats of the flotilla, one of which carried Sun Ching, victory of the Hui-Fu Province, secured. It is reported to-day at the local headquarters of the revolutionary government, that the 100 men under General Ching Hui, resulted and joined the revolutionists. From Hang Weng, it was reported that 10,000 troops came over to join Li Tsuen Hung, commander of the revolutionary army.

Presbyterian Mission Study.

The Presbyterian foreign mission committee met at an informal luncheon in Eaton's yesterday to consider the question of mission study classes. The proposal of the Laymen's Missionary Movement that 1000 men in Toronto be interested in missions was unanimously endorsed, and the committee decided that one or more classes for the study of John R. Motz's book, "The Decisive Hour in Christian Missions," should be opened in every Presbyterian church.

HUMBER SCHEME GOES AHEAD COUNCIL

rich, those against the mayor, "Controllers Ward, Church and Hocken, Ald. McCarthy, Maguire, Yeomans, Anderson, McCausland, Phelan, Heyd and O'Neill."

Controller Ward said he thought most of the council were in favor of the project as a whole, and he moved that it be taken up clause by clause, in order to make changes.

Ald. Dunn complained that there was a certain element in the council who were prepared to sacrifice the interests of the city no matter what the price was. Ald. Rowland, chairman of the committee of the whole, asked him to retract, and he did.

Reference Back Defeated.

After considerable talk it was decided to take it up clause by clause. Then each part of the agreement was discussed, objections were made and votes were taken. When the clause for objections had been considered, the amendments had been made, it was moved by Ald. May that the whole question be referred back for more information from the officials. It was defeated by a vote of 14 to 6.

Those in favor of sending it back were: Ald. Chisholm, McMurrich, May, Dunn and Sweeney; against, the mayor, Controller Ward, Church and Hocken, Ald. Maguire, McCarthy, Yeomans, Anderson, McCausland, Phelan, Heyd, O'Neill, Graham and McBrien.

Ald. May wanted estimates as to the probable cost of roadways and bridges secured. Ald. Chisholm seconded the motion.

"It has come up and gone down so often that it will soon have a beaten path," remarked Mayor Geary.

The whole proposition was called a "gold brick" by opponents, and the mayor was declared worthless because there was some low lying land at times partly submerged, in the valley.

Mayor's Stout Defense.

"I do not think that anybody thought it was all solid land," said the mayor. "What I fear is that my head is why it should be thrown aside because there are a few drawbacks. It may be that in time it will cost a great deal to put it into shape, but it will be worth it. It would be a great pity to let it get away from us now. If we take it as it is given to us, we incur no obligations beyond what have been outlined."

Ald. Maguire wanted to know whether anybody had made sure that Mr. Smith owned the land and could convey it to the city as he promised. "I agree with his worship the mayor that we should take the offer, but conditionally," he said. "I am in favor of the plan, but I am in favor of the park lands, and holding it for all time to come."

"Of course, Mr. Smith can't give us anything he does not own," said the mayor. "If he can't carry out his part of the agreement we are absolved from our promises."

Ald. Graham declared that the land was a valuable river, and as such belonged to the crown. The city should go to the government instead of to Mr. Smith, he said.

Insisting Conditions.

Ald. Anderson wanted to know why the city should not accept the offer. It would not cost a particle more to improve it if the city accepted his offer. He said that if the city bought it, the feature he did not like was that they had to go to Mr. Smith for every little thing, but that might be remedied as the agreement was not necessarily an ultimatum and changes would probably be allowed by Mr. Smith.

Ald. Yeomans declared he thought it should be accepted with some of the irritating conditions removed. "If the offer were accepted, Mr. Smith would be a member of the council, and he would be placed on the banks to discharge pollution into the river."

Report on Viaduct.

The report on the Don Valley viaduct of the civic improvement committee, of which Sir William Meredith is chairman, was read. The committee favored the Parliament-street route, and they reported against the straight viaduct to Bloor-street. The report said:

"The ultimate necessity for a connecting link between the northern portion of the city to the east of the Don and the main section lying to the west is self-evident. It forms an essential feature of any development study and is being included in the comprehensive plan now being prepared."

"Four schemes are proposed, all of which are identical in regard to the eastern section of the work, viz., the extension of Danforth-avenue by a straight viaduct across the Don ravine to Bloor-street, and a further diversion north to reach Bloor-street by the route thence are:

- "The continuation of the viaduct in a straight line across the Rosedale ravine to connect with Bloor-street, and the continuation of Parliament-street by viaduct from the Rosedale ravine to meet the main viaduct.
- "A diversion to the north to utilize Dale-avenue, then a short viaduct from near the western end of Dale-avenue to Bloor-street, or a further diversion north to reach Bloor-street by the Sherbourne-street bridge.
- "A diversion southwesterly across the Rosedale property and a viaduct across the Rosedale ravine at right angles, landing at the head of Parliament-street, which is also the junction of the main viaduct.
- "A diversion to the westward, thence by Howard and Sherbourne streets to Bloor-street, with possibly some easement or enlargement of the corners on Sherbourne-street."

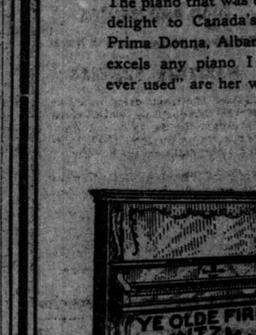

"For many years to come quite five-sixths of the traffic over the viaduct as a whole will be to and from downtown. From the point of view of transportation, which is the primary consideration in a well-directed city planning, the southwesterly outlet becomes a necessity."

Against Straight Route.

"In view of the grave objections to the continuation of the straight viaduct to Bloor-street, the excessive cost, the destruction of scenic beauty and the disturbing noise of traffic and of the further consideration that the Parliament-street route increases the distance to Bloor-street less than 200 feet your committee feel it their duty to strongly urge that the straight route be not adopted, and that instead the Parliament-street route be approved with one up and declared that he hoped Mr. Fleming would go away with the whole business of school tickets. "The health of the children would be greatly advanced if they had to walk—I would like you to know, Mr. Chairman, that I walk four miles every day," he concluded.

Chairman C. A. E. Brown will interview Mr. Fleming on the question, but with no regard to Trustees Noble's opinions.

The committee recommended the opening of a domestic science class in Wellesey School.

The Rev. J. E. Gibson, M.A., rector of the Church of the Ascension, and Mrs. Gibson returned from their honeymoon last evening and were accorded a very hearty reception by the young people of the church, which took the form of a miscellaneous shower.

It seemed as if yesterday was the doctor's day to protest, for when a person which school girl had been sent to accept school tickets from her father, she protested.

The recommendation of the board of control that the request of the fire chief for two more sub-stations be referred back to the committee on fire and light.

Ald. McCarthy moved that the council urge the provincial government to appoint a juvenile court commissioner. The motion carried.

The money being provided for the erection of the hospital for the lunatic asylum was passed.

In connection with that, a letter from Watson, Smoke, Chisholm & Co., acting for Robert B. Bond and others, who objected to the hospital site, was read. "The city has no right," says the letter, "to expend any money in the purchase of these lands, in view of the fact that the York Township council has refused permission for the city to build, if any by-law for such a purpose is passed, it is illegal and void, and if any money is paid for the purchase of lands, such payment is illegal."

The provincial police have been asked to assist in locating two Englishmen who have not been heard of by their friends for a considerable time, Harry Woods, formerly of Theydon, Bois Essex, Eng., was last heard of in 1909, while in Barrie. From Barrie he apparently went to Toronto, and afterwards to Owen Sound, where he tried to get a job as fireman on one of the lake boats. The whereabouts of William George Bellis of Liverpool is anxiously awaited by his mother. The young man was last heard of about two years ago. Any information sent to provincial police headquarters at the parliament buildings will be sent to the friends of the missing men.

Dr. Martell's Female Pills prescribed and recommended for women's ailments; a scientifically prepared remedy of proven worth. The result from their use is quick and permanent. For sale at all drug stores.

evening was spent. Warm-hearted wishes were expressed for the health and happiness of the newly-wedded couple, and the loyal co-operation and support of the young people was assured in their future work at the church.

An interesting meeting of St. Joseph's Academy alumnae was held in the auditorium of the institution on Sunday afternoon to commemorate the occasion of the diamond jubilee of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Toronto. The Right Rev. Monsignor McCann presided, and Rev. Father Frachon, C.S.B., chaplain of the house and association, was also present.

Miss Gertrude Lawler, M.A., president of the alumnae, welcomed all on behalf of the association, and an illuminated address congratulating the sisters on their jubilee was read by the secretary, Mrs. J. J. Cassidy.

A morose-bound copy of the Gaelic Encyclopedia was presented to the library of the academy by one of the alumnae.

Rev. F. Lutz Wiseman, president of the Western Conference, a delegate to the synodical conference, last night entertained a large audience in Trinity Methodist Church by an address on "Methodist Song in Olden Times" with musical interpretation.

He took the "Methodist Song" edited by Charles Wesley, B. and took the old hymn-tunes told of their origin. And of their old time use, and compared them in a musical voice with those of the present time, accompanying himself on the piano.

MACDONELL TO SUCCEED HON. MR. FOY IN CABINET?

It's Just a Rumor-Like the Rest
But Circumstances Give It
Real Color.

All kinds of political rumors as to resignations, shufflings, new appointments, etc., have been floating around the parliament buildings lately. The very atmosphere of Queen's Park seemed charged with these surmises. In Sir James Whitney one day last week put the "kibosh" on the whole outfit and labeled them "fabrications." The premier's action was well-timed. Everything in provincial politics has been quiet since, with nothing to speculate on except the exact date of the elections, or the probable strength of Hon. A. G. Macdonnell's minority.

But yesterday another surmise waited its way into the buildings, and started there.

What is a Claude Macdonnell doing up at the parliament buildings nearly every day? Was the query put to The World.

No enlightening answer was forthcoming, so the inquisitive party remarked that Hon. J. J. Foy might soon be appointed a minister.

This looked like another fabrication, but the word "soon" seemed elastic enough to make the remark worth listening to.

Then the full purport of the surmise was apparent. A Claude Macdonnell was to resign his work in the Dominion House and contest Hon. J. J. Foy's constituency in the legislature, thus securing the South Toronto member's better chances for cabinet rank than had been accorded him at Ottawa.

Such a shuffling would indeed be interesting. Besides, the vacancy in Toronto would provide a seat for one of the two members of the Borden cabinet who are not yet blessed with a constituency.

Mr. Macdonnell laughed heartily when The World related the story to him last night. He said he hadn't heard a thing about it, but wasn't at all averse to having it published.

FORGED NAMES OF FRIENDS TO CHECKS FOR $2000

Canning Met His Third Waterloo in Chatham—A Career of Pathetic Interest.

CHATHAM, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Richard P. Canning, convicted of uttering about $2000 worth of forged checks on the local branch of the Dominion Bank, was sentenced to seven years in Kingston Penitentiary by Magistrate Houston.

Canning's career is one of pathetic interest. An accountant and mathematician, with an interest in education, he was twice previously served long terms in Sing Sing Prison for forgery.

On both occasions he had his terms shortened for good behavior, and he established a system of bookkeeping in Sing Sing that is in existence in that institution to-day. It was while in Sing Sing that he conceived the idea of coming to Canada and making a clean start in life.

Walking the streets of Hamilton, Ont., without a dollar in his pockets the ex-convict got a mental job in one of the largest factories in the Ambitious City, where his ability was at once recognized, and he was promoted to one of the highest positions of trust in the factory office. Later he came to Chatham, where he acted as accountant for the Bent Goods Co.

It was here he met his third Waterloo. On the eve of accepting a high position with the biggest manufacturing institution in the western peninsula he ran short of funds and forged the name of a friend.

Canning blames the cards, fascinating women and the race-tracks for his downfall.

LIFE PLEASES SIR WILLIAM

Sir William Mackenzie returned to his trip yesterday morning from his first trip over the new Canadian Northern Toronto to Trenton line, and when seen by The World, stated that the line was worthy of all the good things said about it.

"I was quite satisfied with everything I saw," was Sir William's summary of the trip.

WEST YORK COUNTY

N. TORONTO WILL SOON GET A POSTAL DELIVERY

Despatch From Ottawa Gives This Gratifying News—York Township Council Meets.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—The postoffice department has decided on the recommendation of W. F. Maclean, M.P., to carry out the request of the mayor and council of the Town of North Toronto and give a full letter carrier delivery and letter box collection service to the city. The work is likely that North Toronto will be annexed to Toronto for postal purposes, and a sub-station located up Yonge street to facilitate the work.

In anticipation of some such action in the part of the postal authorities at Ottawa, the council of the Town of North Toronto has everything in readiness for the introduction and carrying out of the department's orders. The work of re-numbering the streets has been completed for some time, starting at Merton street, and all the leading thoroughfares prevailing on this side of the city are now being re-numbered with the same system as that of the townpeople in general.

The street numbering of the town follows on consecutively from that of the city, the first one being 181st and running up to the neighborhood of 30th.

By a curious coincidence, the street signs have not yet been completed, and under the orders of Engineer James the men were to have started re-numbering this morning. That no time will be lost under the gratifying news received in the respect to the member for South York is an assured fact.

In all fifty streets were re-named, and today there is in the Town of North Toronto not one single street or avenue which in any way conflicts with the city names.

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—The request into the death of the night in the Occidental Hotel was opened this morning at the city morgue. The coroner's inquest was held at 11 o'clock, and adjourned until Friday evening at 10 o'clock. The bodies, however, are still being kept in the morgue, and as a consequence two of the funerals which were to be postponed until the following day, that of George Williams will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Prospect Cemetery, and that of Simon Eadie on Wednesday afternoon at Prospect Cemetery. The funeral of William Downs and George H. Knowles have not yet been fixed, as relatives are expected.

At 2:30 this afternoon the firemen received a still alarm to Clara street, and on their arrival found a small fire of dry leaves and wooden sidewalk. This was soon extinguished, little damage being done.

The bodies, however, are still being kept in the morgue, and as a consequence two of the funerals which were to be postponed until the following day, that of George Williams will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Prospect Cemetery, and that of Simon Eadie on Wednesday afternoon at Prospect Cemetery. The funeral of William Downs and George H. Knowles have not yet been fixed, as relatives are expected.

At 2:30 this afternoon the firemen received a still alarm to Clara street, and on their arrival found a small fire of dry leaves and wooden sidewalk. This was soon extinguished, little damage being done.

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—The request into the death of the night in the Occidental Hotel was opened this morning at the city morgue. The coroner's inquest was held at 11 o'clock, and adjourned until Friday evening at 10 o'clock. EVERYBODY COME.
LEW WALLACE, Sec.

Remainder of Mount Dennis, Rev. Chas. E. Percival officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Ramadin will reside at Mount Dennis.

WOODBRIDGE.
Ontario's Big County Fair Opens To-Day.

WOODBRIDGE, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—The eve of the great and only Woodbridge Fair gives every evidence of one of the greatest shows ever held in rural Ontario. In poultry alone there are over 1000 entries, and in horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, a big list of entries from all over the county and province has been received.

To-morrow (Tuesday) will see one of the greatest athletic days this historic old town has ever known, but Wednesday will be the one big day of the fair. Given good weather for Wednesday and Thursday, almost certainly assured, there will easily be a record day here. The C.P.R. are running special trains going and returning, and ample accommodation is being made to feed the big throngs that are sure to come all being well. We predict this, about the last, chance to see a genuinely good, clean, well-conducted fair in Ontario. This will be the greatest ever. All aboard for Woodbridge!

PROPERTIES FOR SALE

Real Estate Sales Co.'s List.
THE REAL ESTATE SALES CO., Standard Exchange Building, Scott and Colborne, Main 2169.

11500—ROXBOROUGH never before occupied large brick house of 12 rooms, finished throughout, in hardwood, billiard room in basement, two bathrooms and extra lavatory, electric light and hot water heating, room for garage in rear.

RENT—This house may be rented for $75 per month.

KINGSTON ROAD—Within short distance of city on radial car line, 13 acres may be purchased. A residence, engine house, gas plant, 20 ft. board walk, with windmill and numerous outbuildings, are some of the improvements on this fine property. It is ideal for a country home, or, at the price, would be a good property for cutting up into building lots. We are exclusive agents and will be pleased to furnish any further information.

LOTS—Glen Grove lots are recognized as one of the best real estate investments available, with the lots listed at from $15 to $20 per foot.

GLENVALE AVE.—A lot of 67 feet frontage may be had for $25 per foot. This part of Glen Grove is already built up and the lot is surrounded by many expensive houses. A big chance to realize profit.

MOORE PARK—Two splendid 60-foot corner lots on St. Clair West, each of 3000 sq. ft. If both lots are taken, or $22 per foot if sold singly. Many expensive houses are cutting up this district. It is a sacrifice at this time. Lots in the immediate vicinity are selling for $25 per foot.

STORES—Yonge street, near Bloor—Two large stores, with business, new fronts and entirely remodeled, in splendid retail centre; one with heating, gas, water, and the other smaller frontage, with heating, $2000. Let us show you these.

FARMS—Several 20-acre farms within 10 miles of Toronto, may be had on payment of $20 down and $7 a month, with the total price, $225, in paid. These farms are ideal for fruit growing and poultry raising. Investigate this opportunity.

SHERBOURNE ST.—Near Bloor, a 35 ft. lot may be bought for $120 a foot. In view of the culling prices in the neighborhood, this is a good buy. A splendid site for club or centrally located flats.

ALBANY AVE.—10 roomed house, hot water heating and electric lighting, all modern conveniences. For quick sale, $2800.

GLENVIEW AVE.—A very choice 50-foot lot for $25 a foot. Get particulars, as it won't last at this price.

WANTED—On Kingston road, 2 to 5 acres at reasonable price.

EXCHANGE, rent or sell—We have three houses in Rosedale which will either rent at $75 monthly, sell at $1200, or trade for farm property near Toronto on radial line.

MALVERN—At this, the first station out of Toronto, on the C.N.R. line to Trenton, we have 65 acres, admirably adapted for site of automobile club, with perfect stream for stocking with trout. Fifty minutes from Toronto by automobile over Kingston and Markham roads.

100 ACRES—Having on it large six-roomed, pressed brick house, furnace, telephone, gas, water, and all conveniences of a city house; on the grounds are large barn and orchard of several five-odd trees, and three hundred yards of Malvern station. There is also a stream running through these grounds. For quick sale, $1800.

140 ACRES choice land within three miles of Toronto, with 1000 ft. of frontage and fifty acres of upland. Price two hundred and fifty dollars and up per acre. Buy direct from owner, Thos. Hanley, Downsview.

News of Bullish Character Gives Strong Tone to Market

Higher Prices for Wheat at Chicago—European Developments Affect Sentiment—Corns and Oats Higher

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Altho 10-day for the first time since 1903, the visible supply of wheat in the United States went beyond three million bushels, the price of the cereal made a net gain of 1-16 to 1-8. The chief reason for the advance was that world shipments for the week were much less than expected. Corn finished a shade to 1-16 higher. At but out at 1-16 to 1-8 decline. At the end of trading hog products varied from 5c off to 1-16 increase in cost.

Decrease in Wheat Shipments of Not more than 5,000,000 bushels under the total for the corresponding time a year ago, but the supplies abroad increased. Importing countries have received nearly 4,000,000 bushels in the last seven days, and were 12,000,000 bushels behind the aggregate in 1910. On the other hand, the effect of the huge pile-up of stocks in the United States had been largely discounted, and to a considerable extent was offset by a decidedly improved cash demand. Nevertheless, the remarkable size of the total amount of wheat immediately available in this country gave the market a temporary setback and caused an unsettled feeling. The close, however, was at near the top point of the day. Between the opening and the final settlement fluctuated from 5-16 to 9-16, and 5-16 to 9-16, with last sale 1-16 net higher at 9-16.

Rainy weather and fear of more brought about the upturn in corn. Lightness of world's shipments and of supplies on passage counted also in favor of the price. December closing steady 1-16 up at 64 3-8 to 64 1-2. Cash grades were only in fair demand. Liquidating sales by long carried down oats. There was long buying on the decline, with most of the purchasing done by the top of the day. High and low levels reached by the December option were 47 3-4 and 47 1-2. Cash grades were only in fair demand. Liquidating sales by long carried down oats. There was long buying on the decline, with most of the purchasing done by the top of the day. High and low levels reached by the December option were 47 3-4 and 47 1-2. Cash grades were only in fair demand.

Liberal experts helped to lift price. When the crowd had scattered from the pit pork was 10c to 15c dearer; lard, 5c to 2 1-2 to 5c up, and ribs at 2 1-2 to 1 1-2 advance.

Northwest Receipts Receipts of wheat in cars at primary centers were as follows: Week ending Oct. 15, 1911. Chicago 1,200,000, Duluth 1,200,000, Minneapolis 1,200,000, Winnipeg 1,200,000.

European Markets The Liverpool market closed today 1-16 to 1-8 higher than on Saturday, corn 1-16 to 1-8 lower, British, closed lower on the day. Best, 1-16 to 1-8 lower; Paris, unchanged to 1-16 lower.

Canadian Visible The visible supply of wheat in Canada shows an increase for the week of 1,400,000 bushels, or 1-16 to 1-8 higher than last week. The visible supply of wheat in Canada shows an increase for the week of 1,400,000 bushels, or 1-16 to 1-8 higher than last week.

World's Shipments The weekly world's shipments, with comparisons follows: Last wk. Last 7 days. Wheat, bushels, 3,450,000, 3,450,000, 3,450,000. Corn, bushels, 1,200,000, 1,200,000, 1,200,000.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET Receipts of farm produce were 10 loads of hay, which sold at 1-16 to 1-8 per ton. Grain: Wheat, fall, bushels, 90 to 95. Rye, bushels, 70 to 75. Barley, bushels, 80 to 85. Buckwheat, bushels, 40 to 45. Hay and straw, per ton, $10 to $12.

NORTHWEST MARKETS DEVELOP FIRM TONE

News in Wheat Pit at Chicago Bullish Foreign Developments Favorable to Holders

J. F. Bickell & Co., from Logan and Bryan: Wheat—This wheat market gave a good account of itself today and closed higher on Saturday for December, and 1-16 higher for May. Most of the new wheat arrivals and abroad was of a bullish character during the morning. Air day long the northwest markets showed firm tone. Cable news that supplies of wheat from Russia and the Danube will be light for some time. The trade will watch the Argentine harvest closely and first trial injury to that crop will be the signal for excited buying. For the present we have local news and that view is not advisable to limit buying orders to the reactions.

Flour Barrel Market: Wheat—Market slow, and closed firm at a moderate advance. Flour is in demand, and the most of it, 'World's' Foreign markets were firmer, due to increased demand for spots and continued heavy arrivals from Russia. Export clearing houses are active, and the continued purchases of wheat on spot.

Chicago Markets: Wheat—Close, Open, High, Low, Close. Dec. 95 1/2, 95 1/4, 95 3/4, 95 1/2, 95 1/2. May 95 1/4, 95 1/4, 95 1/4, 95 1/4, 95 1/4.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE: An advance of 1-16 to 1-8 was noted in the visible supply of wheat in Canada. The corresponding dates of the past two years is as follows: 1910, 1,011,000 bushels; 1911, 1,400,000 bushels.

THE WORLD'S CROPS: LONDON, Oct. 16.—According to returns furnished by the International Agricultural Institute, the preliminary statement for the production of cereals throughout the world is as follows: Wheat, 1,000,000,000 bushels; Corn, 1,000,000,000 bushels; Rice, 1,000,000,000 bushels.

MONTREAL GRAIN PRICES: MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—Business in all lines of grain and cereals quiet. The demand being limited and bids in some cases lower than Saturday, while our market demand for oats is fair at firm prices. A good business continues and outside demand for both for local and export account at firm prices.

TORONTO SUGAR MARKET: Sugars are quoted in Toronto, in bags per cwt., as follows: Extra granulated, 28. Lawrence, 28.50. No. 1, 27.50. No. 2, 27.00. No. 3, 26.50. No. 4, 26.00.

GOOD BREAK IN CATTLE PROSPECT NOT BRIGHT

Exporters and Butchers—25c to 30c Per Cwt. Lower—Lamb, Hogs and Calves Lower

Receipts of live stock at the Union yards were 123 carloads, consisting of 210 calves, 200 sheep and lambs and 67 calves. At Chicago there were 37,000 cattle, 31,000 hogs and 100 sheep and lambs to sale. At Buffalo there were 100 cars of cattle, 100 cars of hogs, 100 cars of sheep and lambs, and 100 cars of calves to sale. The quality of fat cattle was much the same as a week ago.

Trade was slow, and there were too many cattle on sale, and prices for both butchers and exporters declined fully 25c per cwt. and in some instances more. The big supplies of Chicago and Buffalo markets had a depressing effect on cattle, hogs and sheep, and which declined heavily in price on this market, and at the close were 25c to 30c lower reported unsold.

Exporters: Export receipts were at $3.75 to $4.25 per cwt. E. L. Woodward bought for Swift & Co. 400 exporters for London and Liverpool, 1200 to 1300 lbs. each, at $4.25 to $4.50. Rice & Whaley bought for the S. & S. Company 37 steers, 1200 lbs. each, at $4.25 to $4.50.

Butchers: Prime picked hogs sold at $3.50 to $3.75; hogs, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.25 to $3.50; corn, $4.10 to $4.25; corn, $4.25 to $4.50; hogs, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.25 to $3.50.

Sheep and Lambs: Sheep sold at $3.25 to $3.50; lambs, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.25 to $3.50; calves, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.25 to $3.50.

Wm. Harris quoted hogs on Saturday at $3.10 to $3.25; hogs, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.10 to $3.25; corn, $4.10 to $4.25; corn, $4.25 to $4.50.

Wm. Harris quoted hogs on Saturday at $3.10 to $3.25; hogs, 100 to 120 lbs., at $3.10 to $3.25; corn, $4.10 to $4.25; corn, $4.25 to $4.50.

Market Causes to Take Breath, and Natural Reaction Occurs

Market Runs Into Profit-Taking And Reactionary Move Follows

Porcupines Generally Sell Lower in a Natural Downward Swing—Marked Strength Shown by Some of the Specialties.

World Office Monday Evening, Oct. 16. The mining exchanges in so far as the Porcupine issues were concerned, ran into a reactionary movement during the first session of the new week and lower prices followed in general throughout the list.

Trading was decidedly active, nearly 250,000 shares changing hands on the Standard Exchange alone. A good deal of the selling represented profit-taking on the part of those who had gotten in prior to the advance last week and who are playing the market for quick turns.

Hollinger Below $12. Hollinger dropped below the $12 mark for the first time in over a week, the shares selling down to $11.70, after changing hands at $12.00 early in the day.

FREE GOLD IN CORE. A wire was received yesterday from Supt. Anderson that diamond drilling on the Apex had resulted in cutting an ore body at 150 feet. This core at this depth was freely sprinkled with visible gold, and was accepted as an indication that the property is proving up equal to expectations.

NEW FIND AT DRUMMOND. Well-Known Cobalt Property Gets Two New Veins. COBALT, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—The new Drummond find has been followed for a considerable distance underground and is holding the high values revealed on the surface.

FREE GOLD AT 35 FEET. PORCUPINE, Oct. 13.—(From Our Man Up North.)—Hudson Bay Porcupine, operating in Hudson, just south of the Whitney line, encountered in the core drill free gold at the 35-foot depth, but as the angle was too great for a speedy continuation of the work, the drill was re-set. Not for another week will the drill be down to a depth where the management can tell what values it below.

PIKE LAKE PROPERTY LOOKS LIKE GOOD ONE

Considerable Surface Work Done—Best Values Found in the Three Domes.

SWASTIKA, Oct. 16.—(From Our Man Up North.)—The Pike Lake Gold Mines property looks eminently better each day's work progresses. The four claims in the area east and west of the Swastika Mines property, the claim next to the Swastika is thoroughly prospected on the surface. Two main veins appear in the long ridge of Swastika. In these leads are three quartz domes outcropping, and it is in these domes that the richest quartz appear so far.

DRILLING IN SHAFT. Dome Extension Hard at It Again—New Buildings Up. PORCUPINE, Oct. 15.—(From Our Man Up North.)—Drills were started in the shaft at the Dome Extension this morning, the dewatering of the shaft taking several days. Work will be pushed with double crews.

PORCUPINE BUYERS

The surest evidence of the worth of ELDERADO shares is that orders for profit are coming in from Porcupine and from those who own the company's property. Work is steadily progressing on the main vein, in which free gold was found, and announcements of importance may be made any day.

Tobacco Trust Files Its Reorganization Plan in Courts

Market Loses Its Firm Tone and Realizing Brings Reaction

Wall Street Sentiment Drops, and Stock Market Fails to Hold Up Its Head—Toronto Exchange Comparatively Firm.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The demand for stocks fell materially today, and the market lost its firm tone, which was the chief characteristic last week. Short covering, which was the mainstay of the market on its recent advance, ceased, and there was a steady selling for stocks at the higher level. The market had also lost the effect of extensive realizing and there was a reaction which closed down recent gains from 1 to 3 points.

The American Tobacco Co.'s reorganization plan in court was the event of the day, with an especial bearing upon security values. The plan had been made known to the public by a marked improvement in sentiment, but the tobacco securities showed a sharp decline. An unusual reaction in the general heaviness of the market, and the effect of the filing of the plan, was felt whether it would be a discount or on account of the determined opposition to the plan, or that the company have others and further relief that may be proper and just in the premises.

Tobacco Trust Reorganization.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—In the plan of the American Tobacco Co. filed in U. S. court today, the tobacco trust is asked that the court extend until March 1, 1912, the time which they shall have to carry out the plan. Also the court is asked to order that the company have leave to apply to the court for such modification of the plan as may be necessary, that all persons be enjoined from in any way interfering in carrying out of plan and that the company have others and further relief that may be proper and just in the premises.

CONSOLS HIGHER
Cheerful Feeling in London Financial Circle—Americans Easy.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Money and discount rates were easy today. The Bank of England secured the bulk of the $2,500,000 South Africa gold offered in the open market. The price fell 1/2 to 17s 9d unchanged.

The stock market developed cheerfulness and strength under the lead of gilt-edged securities, which advanced on a broadening investment demand. Canada's gained seven-sixteenths and fresh speculation support hardened. Peruvian and copper shares and Mexican rails, but Chinese securities closed weak and lower.

The American securities opened steady and a fraction higher, and during the forenoon advanced under the lead of Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific. Later New York offerings brought about a general decline, and the market closed easy.

ON WALL STREET.
Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: Stocks were reactionary all day, except at the opening, and again shortly before the close, when an effort was made to bid up prices on the shorts. It was high, was used to lead, with revival of segregation talk. U. S. Steel, however, was heavy and advanced continued signs of strength. It is likely the support in the railroad list was partly intended to facilitate sales of Steel. The net result of the day's operations made it clear that while Wall Street has for a long time been looking forward to the American Tobacco plan as a help in the market, when it got to it did not find anything in it that could be used as a basis to stimulate buying. Meanwhile, we have the hearing of the Western E. T. before the reorganization court this week to try to block the order of the Interstate Commerce court to reduce Pacific freight rates. If certain railroad securities anything at all, probably stocks will be bid up a bit. If they lose, prices will doubtless go off again.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.
World Office.
Monday, Oct. 16.
The Toronto stock market opened the week with a generally firm undertone through the speculative list, and continued in a buoyant mood most of the day.

Advances were realized in a number of instances, these being especially prominent in the afternoon. The market was a declining tendency in the last week, and representing nothing but a continuation of the upward swing then in evidence.

On the afternoon board the demand declined down to small volume in the majority of instances, and this brought about an easing of prices, the only small extent.

Ignored Wall Street.
The domestic market continues to practically ignore the Wall Street exchange, a declining tendency in the market being again prominent. In Montreal it is stated that loans have been obtained at even lower rates, but no such borrowings have been reported here.

Upward Trend Continues.
Prices in the local market continued on the upward track, with the traction issues again prominent. The volume of the market was again prominent in the afternoon, the price reacting a point during the afternoon.

It is understood that there will be no increase in the dividend on Sao Paulo, and on this account the movement in the shares seems rather mysterious, unless something in the nature of an increase in the capital, with a stock bonus to the shareholders, is contemplated.

Other strong spots in the market were Russell's commodes and preferred, and the Burt's. Toronto Railway sold up half a point to 137 1/2, but closed lower, on offer at 137 1/2. Rio was off 1/2 to 114 1/2, and Winnipeg was weak at a loss of two points.

The market closed dull and below the high point of the day. Sentiment was generally favorable, the easier tone of the close being accepted as purely natural.

Revival in Bond Market.
The readily apparent improvement in the bond market may mean one of two things—the dulness of business, releasing funds which thus find safe investment, or the indication of some small return of confidence where

MONTREAL MARKET
Some Strong Features in an Active Session—C. P. R. Higher.

MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—Trading on the local stock market today continued fairly active with some strong features. The cement issues were the most active in the trading, Canadian Pacific had a further advance and there was also fair trading in Steel Corporation. Cement common, of which there was active buying, advanced to 29 1/2, and the preferred showed decided strength, selling up to 89 with 88 1/2 bid at the close. Canadian Pacific in the early trading advanced to 29 1/2, ending off to 29 1/2, with the last sale at 29 1/2 and 29 1/2 bid at the close. Steel Corporation, after selling at 80, eased off to 83 1/2, recovering to 85 1/2, ending at 85 1/2. Montreal Power advanced fractionally to 12 1/2. Detroit United in the early trading advanced to 7 1/2, ending off to 7 1/2.

RALLY IN COTTON
Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty)
The local cotton market experienced the first frost scare of the season today, prices advancing a dollar and a half in the market, when it got to it did not find anything in it that could be used as a basis to stimulate buying. Meanwhile, we have the hearing of the Western E. T. before the reorganization court this week to try to block the order of the Interstate Commerce court to reduce Pacific freight rates. If certain railroad securities anything at all, probably stocks will be bid up a bit. If they lose, prices will doubtless go off again.

SIMPSON

Founded on Fact

Mrs. A.—“Good-bye, dear, I won't be late on Wednesday.”

Mrs. B.—“No, don't. We will have to get there fairly early.”

Mrs. A.—“I hate getting up, but if I could get a dress like yours I would get up at six.”

Mrs. B.—“Well! Did you hear about Mrs. — at Peterboro? She caught the four o'clock train from there to be in time for the last dress sale at Simpson's.”

Mrs. A.—“Did she get a nice one?”

Mrs. B.—“She got three nice ones.”

That really did happen. Mrs. A. and Mrs. B. and the rest of the alphabet, and Miss A. to Miss Z., as well, will be here on Wednesday for

Our Completed Showing of FRENCH BLOUSES

After a long series of spasmodic deliveries, we've been almost swept off our feet this week by a regular avalanche of Paris Blouses. The beauties that we've been expecting for weeks now turn up all together, and give us a tremendous task to mark and arrange them all before Wednesday.

So when you come to the Third Floor Department to-morrow, you'll see a display of Paris Blouses that outclasses anything shown this season. All that is truly artistic and original in new blouses will be here for you to see. We are prepared to serve you better than ever. Our staff has been increased, and our stock is now, as we've pointed out, at its best. Come in the morning if possible. Third Floor.
