VETERAN'S ACT PREVENTS MAID'S SUICIDE

A. A. DODGE SAVES JENNIE LONG IN HARBOR WATERS

Woman Leaps From Ferry at West Side Dock

WROTE OF PLANS Note Is Found in Employer's Home and Detectives Are Notified

RISKING his life in the swirling waters underneath the ferry Ludlow, as the boat lay docked in the West Saint John Harbours this morning at 9 o'clock, Major Albert A. Dodge, 2nd City Line, a world war veteran, prevented a drowning fatality when he rescued Miss Jennie Long, a maid in a city residence, who had jumped into the water soon after the ferry had completed her trip from the city.

The tide was very low at the time and there was a powerful suction from the undercurrent in the slip that carried both the woman and her rescuer into the narrow space between the ship's hull and the piling and made the work of saving Miss Long difficult and arduous.

FULLED FROM WATER. Major Dodge managed, however, to fight his way out to the front of the boat, and there willing hands leaped over and grasped him and pulled them both on deck. Women passengers attended Miss Long on the trip over and she was quickly rushed to the General Public Hospital, while Major Dodge went back to his home to change his clothes. Miss Long, it is said, was suffering keenly from nervous trouble, but it is quite probable she will recover.

PLANNED SUICIDE. That Miss Long intended committing suicide is taken from the fact that she left a note for her employer, with whom she has been a maid for the last 18 years, giving directions as to disposal of the note, and the note was promptly notified to the police. She had reached the ferry by the time it arrived on the city side, bringing Miss Long back.

STAYED ON BOAT. After the Ludlow docked on the West Side, Miss Long did not leave the steamer, but remained in the cabin. She chose a moment to leap into the water when the city passengers were off and when others were slowly coming down the floats. Women passengers coming on board, including Mrs. F. E. Boss, housekeeper for the Admiral Beatty Hotel, Miss Janet Sinclair and Miss Orr, noticed a lady's hat and coat placed on the seat outside the cabin, and, fearing a tragedy, cried out that a woman was overboard. Captain Dodge and two other men promptly responded.

WITNESSED DEED. Miss Sinclair, accountant for H. P. Robertson, Britain street, was a passenger. She had just ascended herself in the ladies' cabin when Miss Orr of the Savings Bank staff called her attention to the form of a woman creeping along the outer-guard railing of the steamer next to the wharf piling. In a moment the form was seen to disappear and a splash heard.

HON. DR. FOSTER BRINGS TIDINGS FROM OTTAWA

He Believes Operations Will Start Here During Summer

TO REMOVE ROCK Contract Is Signed For Cleaning Up of Berth at Pettin-gill Wharf

HON. DR. W. E. FOSTER, M. L. A., who returned today from Ottawa, brought home the cheering belief that port development was going ahead here and that provision would be made in the supplementary estimates for a start on the work this coming summer. The importance of providing adequate terminal facilities for the Canadian National Railway at some port open in the winter time was realized at Ottawa, Dr. Foster said, and the Minister of Public Works and the Railway Department were closely co-operating to get these terminal works started.

He was also able to announce that tenders would be called for at once for the removal of the ledge of rock at Pettin-gill wharf and this would make this berth available to grain vessels, no matter what their draft.

While away Dr. Foster made a visit to Montreal, where he witnessed the launching of the first seaplane manufactured in Canada and of inspecting the Montreal harbor works.

"I am convinced that some provision will be made and an appropriation appear in the supplementary estimates for increased terminal facilities for the Canadian National Railway. There was an amount of $800,000.00 in the original estimates for improvements in St. John Harbor, part of which is now being used for the construction of the grain conveyor gallery 100 feet long for berth 18, and part of which will be used for the removal of the rock at Pettin-gill wharf. Tenders will be called at once for the removal of this rock."

"I was accorded an interview with Hon. A. B. Cope, Secretary of State, and Hon. Dr. H. King, Minister of Public Works, and feel sure that the Department of Public Works and the Department of Railways and Canals, the two departments that are interested in the matter of better provision and increased accommodation to handle the export business of the Canadian National Railway, are impressed with the need of such provision for the expansion of export business via the Canadian National Railway. Co-operation and economy in railway matters is the order of the day and I wonder, therefore, that suggestions for closer co-operation and use of our own terminals here was suggested."

DELEGATIONS REQUEST. "I am convinced, however, as stated, that the request made by the delegation which went to Ottawa some time ago was suggested."

With two other ladies, Miss Sinclair rushed to the outer deck and saw Miss Long struggling in the water with the current drawing her towards the float and under the overhanging of the boat. The woman in the water made no outcry. When Miss Orr shouted that a woman was overboard, Major Dodge jumped into the water.

When pulled aboard, Miss Sinclair says, the woman struggled to break away again and pleaded to be allowed to jump into the water. It required the efforts of several people to keep her in the cabin. One of the ferryboat's crew furnished a sweater to be thrown around the soaked woman and Mr. Powell, of West Saint John, sat by and kept her quiet until the ambulance arrived on the east side.

WOMAN IDENTIFIED

Miss Sinclair found the coat, hat and handbag of Miss Long lying on the bench at the eastern end of the boat and upon opening the handbag discovered a sales slip from Wiczel's shoe store, bearing her name and the address of her domicile. The woman would give no information about herself, her only utterance expressing a wild desire to drown herself.

The cool manner in which the rescue was effected by Major Dodge is arousing very favorable comment. As he raced to the end of the ferry where the woman had gone down, he directed himself of his topcoat and when he arrived at the side, he jumped in and made his way underneath. When the rescue finally had been successfully accomplished, he picked up his coat and walked back to his home to change his clothes and then left for his office in the city. He served in the Canadian forces throughout the war, rising from the ranks to his majority in the artillery, which he now holds. Previous to the outbreak of the war, he had served many years in the militia and recently he was granted the Meritorious Service Medal. He is unmarried and resides with his sister in City Line.

Distressed After Meals?

Indigestion, no matter how slight, is a nuisance. It can ruin the good nature of the most genial of us.

If you are troubled this way, you'll be glad to know a simple way to avoid it.

Just try eating a few pep-o-mint Life Savers after meals.

It's wonderful how these little mint circles relieve that heavy, lousy feeling after eating.

Probably that's why our grandfathers so often had their bulky little bags of peppermints handy in their pockets.

Life Savers are granddad's bag of peppermints up to date.

Six flavors displayed at all good stores so you may help yourself!

PREMIER MASSEY.
 One of the outstanding figures of the British Empire passes with the death of William Ferguson Massey, Premier of New Zealand. He was the only one of the Empire's Premiers who ruled throughout the war period and held on afterwards. Asquith and Lloyd George in Great Britain, Hughes in Australia, Borden in Canada, all went out of office after or during the war, but Mr. Massey remained as head of the New Zealand Government.
 This great Imperialist was an Irish emigrant. Born in the Londonderry district of Ireland, he went to New Zealand when he was a boy of fourteen, and found occupation there on a farm. It was as a farmer that he was elected to the New Zealand House of Commons in 1894. He became Premier in 1912. Mr. Massey was a man of sterling character, and in the public life of New Zealand he exerted for many years a very strong influence against all Socialist policies. He was a figure of note at several Imperial conferences, and while he insisted that New Zealand should enjoy the full measure of self-government, he was a strong but sane Imperialist and steadily supported all policies and measures designed to maintain the prestige of the Empire. He was an ardent and effective friend of Imperial defence measures. Mr. Massey was sixty-nine years old. For more than a quarter of a century he gave New Zealand and the Empire service of an admirable character.

SASKATCHEWAN ELECTIONS.
 Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan is going to the country on June 2. Three provinces are to have elections this year, but the dates for the contests in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia have not yet been fixed. Mr. Dunning leads the way, and the polling a few weeks hence will be observed with interest all over Canada in an effort to gain some light upon the federal struggle which is to come later. The Dunning administration is described as Liberal, but to a considerable extent its policies are the same as they would be if it were a farmer government.
 Hon. Mr. Dunning was Provincial Secretary in the Martin administration and succeeded Hon. W. M. Martin as Premier in 1922. Mr. Martin had been head of the Government from October, 1916. Of the sixty-three seats in the Saskatchewan Legislature the Dunning administration held more than forty. The Independents had fourteen, and Independent Conservatives, Conservatives, and Labor held one seat each.
 Hon. Mr. Dunning is Saskatchewan's third Premier. Hon. Walter Scott held that office from 1910 to 1916, Hon. W. M. Martin from 1916 to 1922, and Hon. Mr. Dunning from that time until the present. He was born in England in 1885, moved to Saskatchewan in 1902, taking up a farm at Beaverdale, and in 1910 he became director of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association. He afterwards organized the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company. He was appointed Provincial Treasurer in 1916 and was elected by acclamation. He was subsequently Minister of Railways, Minister of Telephones and Minister of Agriculture. Since he succeeded Hon. Mr. Martin as Premier he has served also as President of the Council, Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Railways.

REVENUE AND NATIONAL POLICIES.
 How to provide Canadian manufacturers with protection in the home market without enhancing the price of manufactured goods to the consumer is admittedly a difficult problem, but Mr. H. K. Patterson, a Westerner who writes on the subject, has at least tackled it courageously, and he deserves some consideration because his avowed object is to get something done that will reconcile eastern and western interests and make things pleasant for the consumer and the manufacturer alike.
 Mr. Patterson thinks the objections to the tariff can be removed and its benefits retained by a scheme of price control. He would give the manufacturer the home market, but would not allow him to increase his selling price in it. He would begin by shutting out from seventy-five to eighty per cent. of the manufactured products which we now import from other countries, in order to give the home manufacturer the benefit of Canada's consuming power, and he would rely upon the Government to see to it that the price of manufactured articles was not increased at home because of the tariff protection. He suggests that in this way the Canadian manufacturer, being sure of home consumption, could manufacture largely for export, installing more up-to-date machinery, producing on a greater scale, and so be able to meet on even terms or better the competition of American or other foreign manufacturers. He proposes that the

Odds and Ends

You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends—From Notes by a Waiter.

Such is Golf.
 (New York Herald-Tribune.)
 A young woman golfer, playing on a course near Boston was 2 up and 4 to play when from the skies a thunderbolt descended and prostrated her on the greensward. Had she been off her game and hopelessly down to her opponent she might have lain there until an ambulance arrived. But the golfer's hope of victory is such that no natural cataclysm short of an earthquake capable of destroying the links can shake it. This young woman arose, waved her brassie, Ajax-like, at the retreating tongue of flame, and proceeded calmly and methodically to drive, approach and putt till the match was won.

Here is the true golf temperament. A caddy swinging a club on the fairway ahead, a whispered conversation beside her while she was addressing the ball, any interruption whose source was human, might have snapped her nerves and utterly destroyed her self-possession. But a mere thunderclap was as nothing.

The Daughters of The Empire.
 (Calgary Herald.)
 The people of Canada have cause for being grateful to the Imperial Order of the Daughters of The Empire. In the years of its existence the Order has performed much work of value for Canada. Of what it did during the war it is unnecessary to speak, its splendid and highly productive efforts being so fresh in the public mind. It is enough to say that the record of the Order in that trying period is one of which it has every reason to be proud.

The Daughters of The Empire have since the end of the war busied themselves in meritorious enterprises. So much so, that the public hardly asks now the purpose of any of its efforts, being convinced that they are in all instances worthy.

It is pleasant to record that in one field of its effort the Order has been singularly successful; that is, in encouraging the children of Canadian soldiers who lost their lives at the front to continue their school and university studies. It is financially assisting these children by university scholarships. Surely this is a fine way of giving expression to the country's appreciation in January last faced five juries before a final and irrevocable verdict was reached, "though there was never any real doubt of the man's guilt." It may be thought that there must have been some doubt or the first jury would have sufficed.

It appears, nevertheless, from what the Province says, that the history of these matters in Vancouver has been somewhat extraordinary. A second Chinaman was given three trials on a charge of murder and was finally acquitted. A third murderer was placed on trial a few days ago, and after the proceedings had only well begun it was found necessary to dismiss the jury because of a mistake which the Province describes as "stupid and inexcusable." "The jury," says, "which was technically locked up, as all juries are supposed to be, when court adjourns during a trial, separated into two groups, and one group visited the scene of the murder for which the accused was being tried. Two errors were made. The jury split up, and the scene of the murder was visited in the absence of the accused. And so, a new trial has been ordered, all the work must be done over again, and the patient public must bear the expense."

The presiding judge says the jurymen should have known better, which is true enough, no doubt, but the Province naturally cannot refrain from saying that more responsibility must attach to those officials who were supposed to have the jury in their charge. The Province is evidently convinced that the course of justice in Vancouver is beset with many difficulties in relation to murder cases of a certain type. It says that technical errors of the sort referred to should, of course, be guarded against constantly, "but particular pains should be taken to avoid them in legal cases in which members of our Chinese colony are involved. It is difficult enough to secure the conviction of a Chinaman in a long case, for 'in ways that are dark' and through tricks that are vain, it seems possible to get any amount of evidence on the one side to counteract any amount on the other. Through the impossibility of securing conclusive evidence, the guilty, no doubt, frequently escape, and so the white man's law is brought into contempt. But when the white man, by his own stupidity and carelessness, helps add to the confusion, the situation is rendered much more serious. When trials are multiplied, the chances that a culprit will elude the just penalty of his deeds are increased just that much."

The states which have lost their forests by fire and the axe-by fire and by neglect chiefly—are making some attempt to restore their heritage. The spring work of reforestation in Massachusetts, now going on, includes the distribution of 4,000,000 small pine trees. In New Brunswick it still is possible to preserve a great portion of our forest wealth by protection against fire. Our watersheds must remain clothed with trees if we are to get power from our streams. The standing timber and the young growth coming along year after year represent our capital in bank. Unless we conserve it and are careful to use up no more than the annual interest we shall pay dearly for our folly here-can be thankful that we are part of an Empire that has contributed so much to the happiness of mankind. We can be proud that we belong to an Empire that has given a Shakespeare and a Burns, a Scott and a Dickens, a Nelson and a Wellington to the world. These but represent the long list of illustrious men, men of vision, action, and ability in many lines, that have added to the fame of the British Empire.

 It is good to find that the Imperial Order of the Daughters of The Empire is thriving in Alberta and that it is still inspired by the high ideals of its founders.

Unequaled economy united with finest fabric-spring construction
 Even if you could get, in any other bed spring, the features that give the Slumber King its lasting comfort, they would be very costly. Four rows of sensitive springs join the 26 steel strips in the Slumber King. They cost more than the stiff wire ties used in other springs. The stout frame and high risers are expensive. So is the special edge construction that prevents sagging. How then is the low Slumber King price possible? You get the savings of unequaled production. BAKING SODA GOOD FOR BURNS

DRY baking soda is an excellent remedy for slight burns where the skin is not broken. The soda should be spread on the part and then a clean bandage applied. When the flesh is broken some oily substance should be used. This substance should be thoroughly cleaned, and all air should be excluded from the wound. Clean olive oil, or vaseline, is good. Old linen should be soaked in one of these and gently wrapped around the part. If the burn is a very serious one, while the doctor is being sent for, bathe with a boracic solution. Boric is cooling and healing. Never wrap fingers together when burned. Wrap separately. If wrapped together they will stick and cause much pain. The same rule applies to toes also. Wrappings should be soaked in vaseline. Cotton should be placed

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. THE SNUFF BOX IS RETURNED.

"Ah!" said Mister Whiz as he looked at the cuckoo clock in the Clock Maker's shop. "I think I know something. That was no cuckoo that chirped just now. Mister Clock Maker, have you a step-ladder? I think I know where all those sneezes came from that spoiled your clocks. Or rather, where the snuff came from that caused the sneezes." "Yes, here is a step-ladder," said the Clock Maker obligingly. "I always keep one handy so I can fix grandfather clocks when they get out of order." Mister Whiz put the step-ladder against the wall where the cuckoo clock hung, and then went carefully up step by step. When he got to the top, he reached up and took the clock off the wall by which it was hanging, keeping his hand over the door so it couldn't be opened. "Now I've got him," he cried. "I've got the bad little goblin whom we have been chasing for days and days." "Who?" cried the Clock Maker in surprise. "Smooch, smooch," answered Mister Whiz. "He stole the magic snuff box that belongs to the Fairy Queen's uncle, and he's done more harm with it than 'Thank you for helping us,' said Mister Whiz to the Clock Maker. "I hope you will get your clocks together again in less than 70 years. I'll tell the Fairy Queen when I go back and perhaps she can send you some help. Come, children. We must hunt up our aeroplane and be off."

So the Twins and the little aviator got into the aeroplane and flew back to the very spot from which they had started. There was the big stone in the meadow with their own shoes hidden behind it, just as they had left them. "I'll let you out here and then I'll go on to the Fairy Queen's Palace," said Mister Whiz. "Why, hello! Here's a note on the big stone. It's for you. 'I'll let you out,' said Mister Whiz. 'If you give me the snuff box.' All right, said the young. 'I'll let you out,' said Mister Whiz. 'If you give me the snuff box.' 'Dear Twins: Come to my palace at once, as soon as you return. I have another adventure for you. My uncle says to tell you he's much obliged for getting the snuff box back. You have worked very hard. 'Yours lovingly, 'The Fairy Queen.' To Be Continued.

As the lady of the house opened the front door in answer to a ring, she found a quietly-dressed man standing on the step, who, politely raising his hat next, sticking out his head, without waiting for an answer, sprang to the counter, then to the floor, and before you could say "Jack Robin-son" he was gone. "Thank you for helping us," said Mis-

No Satisfactory Substitute for Knitted Summer Underwear

EACH season brings new underwear ideas and innovations, yet knitted underwear—Penmans Balbriggans—still leads in underwear value.

Penmans Balbriggans can be obtained in all styles including loose-fitting styles, so desirable for summer. These loose-fitting garments have all the advantages of flimsy summer underwear with twice the strength and three times the wear. They do not tear.

Made in bleached white and cream shades with no sleeves, half sleeves or full length sleeves, or in ankle and knee lengths.

"The best known numbers are 222 and 46. The number appears directly below the trade mark in the cloth label attached to every garment. Also made in lower priced lines, which, however, always bear the trade mark. If your dealer has no stock he can obtain it."

"To My Dearly Beloved—"
I Leave—Nothing!

Surrogate Court records show that only nine out of every hundred men who die leave an estate in excess of $5,000.

This shows how hard it is to realize the dreams of one's youth.

An Imperial Monthly Income policy is an ideal legacy. Panics cannot affect it—business depression has no influence upon it, and as an investment it surpasses most "gilt-edged" securities.

If you are improvident—if you do not care what happens to your wife and children after your death—if you are lacking in the pride of manhood that sees beyond to-day—this message is not for you.

But if you are a real man, take precaution now so that if you should die unexpectedly, your widow need not read through the blur of her tears: "To my dearly beloved wife I leave—nothing."

We'll mail you an interesting booklet about Imperial Monthly Income policies if you'll just write for it. There is no obligation involved.

Raising Strong Children

Physicians know the necessity for a clean, safe, easily digested and readily prepared Milk Food, when for any reason it becomes necessary to supplant breast milk either wholly or in part.

Nestlé's Milk Food has been the life-line that has pulled to safety hundreds of thousands of infants deprived of Nature's supply, giving them health and strength, flesh and bone, in the so vital first twelve months. Its safeness and wholesomeness are unquestioned.

When necessity demands a change from Mother's milk — change to Nestlé's. In clinical tests conducted with thousands of children Nestlé's was found to agree with 93% of them.

To the Mother of a 6 months old Baby About six months of age baby needs additional nourishment. That is why specialists add cereals to the infant's diet. Nestlé's Milk Food is the ideal blend of both milk and cereals. The use of Nestlé's not only prepares for weaning, but weaning itself can be postponed; for without the strain of continuous breast feeding, mother's own milk supply is conserved.

Workman Killed In South Nelson Mill

CHATHAM, N.B., May 10.—A sad fatality occurred in the Sulvan's Mill South Nelson, yesterday when Amde Henry of Chatham Head, was killed after being caught in a fly-wheel. The mill had just begun the season's operations on Saturday and Mr. Henry had been adjusting some machinery when his clothes became entangled in the wheel. The injuries that he received before he could be freed were so severe that death ensued.

Albert Jail-Breaker Is Taken After Tussle

MONCTON, May 10.—Wanted in Albert county on the charge of burglary and breaking jail, Whitefield Ricker, who has been at large three weeks, was arrested at home today in a house on the McLaughlin Road, two miles from Fredericton, by Provincial Constable G. W. Dryden, after a tussle in which Ricker gashed the officer's head with a gun.

Premier Massey of New Zealand Dead

Wellington, New Zealand, May 10.—William Ferguson Massey, Premier of New Zealand, died today. Mr. Massey was the last of the wartime premiers. He became head of the Dominion government in 1912, and despite war and post-war changes, which at one time threw the older leaders out of power, his position remained secure. The premier was born 69 years ago in the village of Limnagh, near Londonderry, Ireland, where, as he often proudly declared, his ancestors were of the soil for centuries. He emigrated to New Zealand when he was 14 years old and followed the occupation of a farmer. It was as a farmer that he was elected to the Dominion House of Commons in 1894.

Ascending Movement Prevails Today for Eighth Consecutive Session

WHOLE LIST DULL AT MONTREAL OPENING

Laurentide, Unchanged, and Frontenac Breweries, up 2, Only Active Spots.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Responding to the assurance of bankers and government officials that business conditions were fundamentally sound, stock prices started upward today for the eighth consecutive session. United States Realty closed 147, and Pierce Arrow common sold above 19, both at new high prices for the year, while initial gains of a point or more were recorded by Dodge Brothers preferred, Associated Dry Goods and Central Leather preferred.

MONTREAL, May 11.—The local list was very dull at the opening of today's stock market, only two leaders appearing in board lot transaction. These were Laurentide, unchanged at 78, and Frontenac Breweries, up two to 56. Dominion Canners, in a small lot sale, was also up two to 97. The balance of the list received practically no attention.

BASE BALL

When is the batsman automatically out on a third strike even though the catcher does not retain possession of the ball?

The batsman is always out on a third strike regardless of whether the ball is caught, when there is a runner on first base and there are less than two out.

Before this rule was put into the playing code, the baserunner was at the mercy of a smart catcher. He would purposely drop the ball, forcing the runner to advance, and usually make a double play.

The present rule, with a runner on first and less than two out, gives the baserunner proper protection, since the batsman is automatically out and no other play is possible unless the runner or runners seek to advance at their peril on the dropped third strike.

When two are out it is compulsory that the third strike be caught to retire the batsman.

ORPHANAGE HAD 168 UNDER CARE AT END OF APRIL

Annual Meeting of Protestant Board Hears Detailed Reports

28 LITTLE ONES ARE ADOPTED IN YEAR

Financial Statement Shows Excess of Maintenance Expenditures Over Receipts.

Reports submitted at the annual meeting of the Protestant Orphan's Home this afternoon showed 168 children under care on April 30, as compared with 151 on May 1, 1924. The new Manawagonish Home was total of $22,109 in the permanent home fund was shown, with overdue subscriptions enough to wipe this off. In maintenance account a deficit of $18,068 was reported. Following is the detailed statement of H. Usher Miller, secretary-treasurer.

SAINT JOHN, N. B.,
May 11, 1925.

To the Protestant People of New Brunswick:

Ladies and Gentlemen—Many people apparently have a wrong impression of the scope of this home, considering the number of applications made to have us care for mentally defective children, also considering the number of applications made to have us care for very young children, one or both of whose parents are mental defectives, and in the case of older children, those that are incorrigible. This is not a home for defectives or for those likely to develop defective tendencies; or is it a home of a reformatory nature. The need of a home for existing and probable defectives is constantly becoming more pressing.

168 CHILDREN

On May 1, 1924, we had 151 children in our care at the three buildings that then constituted the home. On April 30, 1925, we had 168 children in our care. These 168 children are divided in residence as follows:

Sixty-four children under four years old at Brittain street.

Fifty-seven boys between four and 14 years at Manawagonish road.

Forty-seven girls between four and 14 years old at Manawagonish road.

On September 1, 1924, we moved out to the Manawagonish road, with accommodation for 80 older children in the dormitory; that was 40 boys and 40 girls between four and 14 years old, with a dormitory used as a school. We closed West Saint John and Wright street branches at this time. Also at this time we placed 70 children under four years old at Brittain street, thus maintaining a capacity for 10 children until, on April 1, 1925, when we opened the new school building, with a capacity for 160 scholars, and the new swimming out at the Manawagonish road, making a total capacity today for 252 children, divided as follows:

Seventy children under four years old at Brittain street.

Eighty-eight boys between four and 14 years at Manawagonish road.

Ninety-four girls between four and 14 years at Manawagonish road.

84 VACANCIES

In considering the apparent large number of vacancies, it is well to remember that the increased accommodation has only been available one month. We have at present 84 vacancies divided as follows:

Six children under four years, with three approved to enter soon.

Thirty-one boys between four and fourteen years, with five approved to enter soon.

Forty-seven girls between four and fourteen years, with three approved to enter soon.

The 168 children now in our care come from the following countries, but it is necessary to remember that when trouble comes to people they naturally come to the largest centre of population in the province. Therefore many of those entered against Saint John county should be rightly chargeable to other counties.

The 168 children in our care come from the following denominations: Anglicans 72, Baptists 24, Presbyterians 25, Methodists 18, Christian Church 2,

SIXTON IS HONORED

Purse and Address to F. J. Trifts on Retirement from St. Paul's Post.

After 43 years of service as sexton of St. Paul's church, F. J. Trifts was honored by the congregation at the close of the morning service yesterday, when Ven. Archbishop Crowfoot presented to Mr. Trifts a well-filled purse and a handsomely illuminated address. In addition, Mr. Trifts' picture will be hung in the vestry. Mr. Trifts came to Canada from England 67 years ago, being first employed in the building of wooden ships. When this era passed he became sexton of St. Paul's.

GLANCE BACKWARDS

The correspondence in connection with the administration of and adoption of children has assumed large proportions. I have tried to be kind and patient, yet firm enough to protect the interests of the home and the subscribers. I know that I have failed in some instances, and thus been imposed upon, but such conditions have soon shown themselves and have speedily corrected. It is well to remember, again, that it is the children who are our care, and that, therefore, some cases unworthy from the parents' side we must care for, for the child's sake.

90 REMOVED

During the year 90 children were removed as follows: Thirty-seven children under four years, twenty-five boys between four and fourteen years, twenty-eight girls between four and fourteen years.

28 ADOPTED

Of these 90 children removed only five died, and they were all babies under two years old. Twenty-eight children were adopted into good homes, and all are doing well. The remaining 67 were nominal boarders, and were taken out by the surviving or responsible parent or guardian, whose citizenship had improved, and whose they became able to do so. All are doing well.

CHURCH COLLECTIONS

The churches held their annual collections in November, 1924, with the following results:

Baptists	$1,142.00
Anglicans	97.47
Presbyterians	638.91
Methodists	596.50
All others	280.08
Total	$2,694.96

Jan. 1, 1925—Gross receipts, $6,097.17; net, $2,873.20.

April 6, 1925—Gross receipts, $1,761.11; net, $1,262.96.

Total gross, $4,858.28; total net, $3,887.06.

Returns are still coming to hand slowly as a result of the last appeal. Over 12,000 circular letters were sent out each time.

I have collected the monthly payments towards maintenance from the responsible parents or guardians, and the amount at present in arrears is negligible.

As chairman of the standing committee, the duties have required my con-

GENERAL ACCOUNT

In general account receipts were $1,500, being bequests of $200 from the estate of Rev. E. Ramsay; $100 each from the estate of H. Deacon, J. Russell and Annie McMakin, and $1,000 from the estate of W. F. Hatheway. Loans from the Bank of Nova Scotia totalled $11,100, and there was on hand in cash and in the bank $2,943.15. In the disbursements under this heading was recorded the $14,845.22 deficit on maintenance. The loans on general account at April 30, 1925, stood at $16,400. A detailed statement of investment was also submitted.

Messrs. Belyea and McNiece, auditors, report the accounts correct.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In his annual address, D. C. Clark, president, commended Miss Annie Frost, superintendent; Miss Margaret Frost and Mrs. Phillippe, girls' matron, and Miss Bessie and Miss Cole's boys' matrons of the new home, and Miss Kluge of the Brittain street home.

A word was said for the new school and the efficient teachers.

The farm produced last year to December 31, 50 tons of hay; 100 bushels of oats; 200 barrels potatoes; 280 barrels of turnips; 20 barrels carrots; 20 barrels beets; 300 head cabbage; 50 head cauliflower; 8600 quarts milk; 450 dressed pork; onions, peas, beans, berries, rhubarb and eggs, all valued at $2,006. The cost of raising these was about $800. From January 1, 1925, nearly all the milk used at the home was from their own cows and the hens produced over 4,000 eggs. A large piece of land has been leased from the city to be used for pasture for the cows and to cut hay.

The children were all in good health and very happy.

Maintenance cost is $3,000 a month and must be assisted by contributions to operate the home. We are glad to have a credit to the province. The children must be fed and clothed and were going behind. He appealed for liberal giving.

Dr. C. L. Emerson and Dr. O. B. Evans were thanked for professional attendance and advice. We wish to commend our superintendent, Miss Frost of the permanent home, Miss Kluge of the Brittain street home, with their staff of matrons and nurses, for their faithful care over the children.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 11.—Mrs. Almeda Allread of Cleveland, whose alleged name is said to be June Travers, was married last week to an inmate of the Atlanta Federal prison, it became known today. The name of the bridegroom was given as E. F. Day of Cleveland, who was convicted a year ago under the name of J. C. Black on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Mrs. Allread was quoted as saying that she would gladly wait for her husband during the remaining three years of his "sation term. A prison chaplain performed the ceremony in the office of Warden John W. Snook.

GENERAL ACCOUNT

In general account receipts were $1,500, being bequests of $200 from the estate of Rev. E. Ramsay; $100 each from the estate of H. Deacon, J. Russell and Annie McMakin, and $1,000 from the estate of W. F. Hatheway. Loans from the Bank of Nova Scotia totalled $11,100, and there was on hand in cash and in the bank $2,943.15. In the disbursements under this heading was recorded the $14,845.22 deficit on maintenance. The loans on general account at April 30, 1925, stood at $16,400. A detailed statement of investment was also submitted.

Messrs. Belyea and McNiece, auditors, report the accounts correct.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In his annual address, D. C. Clark, president, commended Miss Annie Frost, superintendent; Miss Margaret Frost and Mrs. Phillippe, girls' matron, and Miss Bessie and Miss Cole's boys' matrons of the new home, and Miss Kluge of the Brittain street home.

A word was said for the new school and the efficient teachers.

The farm produced last year to December 31, 50 tons of hay; 100 bushels of oats; 200 barrels potatoes; 280 barrels of turnips; 20 barrels carrots; 20 barrels beets; 300 head cabbage; 50 head cauliflower; 8600 quarts milk; 450 dressed pork; onions, peas, beans, berries, rhubarb and eggs, all valued at $2,006. The cost of raising these was about $800. From January 1, 1925, nearly all the milk used at the home was from their own cows and the hens produced over 4,000 eggs. A large piece of land has been leased from the city to be used for pasture for the cows and to cut hay.

The children were all in good health and very happy.

Maintenance cost is $3,000 a month and must be assisted by contributions to operate the home. We are glad to have a credit to the province. The children must be fed and clothed and were going behind. He appealed for liberal giving.

Dr. C. L. Emerson and Dr. O. B. Evans were thanked for professional attendance and advice. We wish to commend our superintendent, Miss Frost of the permanent home, Miss Kluge of the Brittain street home, with their staff of matrons and nurses, for their faithful care over the children.

SUGGESTS BILL ALLOWING CITY TO BE SELLER

Mayor Speaks of Necessaries of Life and Matter of Prices.

PROSPECT POINT ROAD DISCUSSED

Mill May Close for Lack of Logs—Auto Camp for Tourists.

A suggestion that the city secure legislation to enable it to go into the business of selling the necessities of life when such were selling at prices regarded as exorbitant was made this morning by Mayor Potts at a meeting at City Hall. He said that he had in mind some of the things which people had to have and which were sometimes, he said, procured in a haphazard manner. He referred to the price of milk last year and success which had attended the efforts of the council to have the price reduced. No action was taken.

AVENUE MATTER.

J. Fraser Gregory was heard in connection with the offer of Murray and Gregory to deed to the city the street leading to Prospect Point. He said that he felt that in the near future the industry which was located there, a saw mill and planing mill, would have to cease business on account of the lack of logs in this part of the province and his firm wanted to develop the area for residential purposes. He was not asking that the city do any work in the street at the present time but the firm when they sold a lot, wanted to be in a position to sell the purchases it fronted on a street.

AUTO PARKING.

He also suggested that the city take over a part of the land and use it as a parking space for automobiles. He suggested a boulevard around the shore near the Falls. This could be made a big attraction for tourists at not much cost to the city.

Commissioner Bullock asked what had been done when Brunswick Place was taken over by the city and paved. Commissioner Frink said the land had been decided to the city and the property owners had paid one half of the cost of the pavement.

Mr. Gregory was asked if he would consider such a proposition and said he would be glad to when the time came to pave the street.

Mayor Potts said the matter would be taken under consideration and Commissioner Frink said he would carry on further negotiations with Mr. Gregory and report back to the council. The free camping space was a new scheme to him and he might be led to consider favorably.

PAVING.

Commissioner Bullock asked what about the paving of the western end of Douglas street. Commissioner Frink said he had been giving consideration to this matter and would probably bring in a recommendation to pave it with broken stone and tar binder for the present.

Mayor Potts said that before any permanent work was done, the water, sewer and gas services should all be carried to the general lots.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock it was decided to call for tenders for coal for the city departments.

N. E. PLAYGROUNDS.

Mayor Potts asked Commissioner Frink if he could arrange to do a little work on the North End playgrounds. The commissioner said he could. He said he had heard some complaints that no provision was made on these grounds for the smaller children.

His Worship announced that, as a meeting of the Municipal Council will be held tomorrow, the City Council meeting would be held on Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock and the committee meeting at 2.30.

THIEF AT WORK IN CITY GROCERY SHOP

Candy and Cigarettes Stolen From Shop at Orange and Sydney Streets.

A thief whom Sherlock Holmes would deduct to have a very sweet tooth, a distaste for cigars and a craving for cigarettes, stole several filled boxes of chocolate nut bars and two wholesale boxes or cartons of cigarettes from the Ferris grocery and confectionery store, corner Orange and Sydney streets, between 8 and 9 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The store door was barred with a stick and none too securely fastened at that. The nature of the fastenings could be seen from either window of the shop as the door is located directly in the corner. With this obvious information the thief made bold to rattle the doors or otherwise manipulate them into fairly easy opening.

Death Recalls Rescue At Falls

The death of Charles Hamm, in West Saint John, has recalled to some that he was the hero in a rescue at the Reversing Falls, several years ago. Fred Whalen and his brother Joseph, were out in a small boat. Their boat upset and Mr. Hamm saw their dilemma and, with his son, John C., went to the rescue. Joseph sank before they could reach him but Fred Whalen was saved.

Dock Street Charges Cost John E. Breen $420 in Fines

Fines totalling $420 were imposed on John E. Breen, who keeps a beer shop on Dock street, in the police court this morning by Magistrate Henderson when Breen pleaded guilty to three charges—selling liquor unlawfully, keeping liquor unlawfully and assaulting Charles H. Smythe, a seafaring man. The fines were paid. Three other men who were taken into custody last night when found in a drunken condition and cut up. They pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were fined $8 or two months each.

When Smythe left the building about 7.35 o'clock last evening, he complained to Policeman Ross that he had been attacked by Breen. Several policemen, headed by Inspector Caples, visited the shop and found three men there, all drunk and suffering from injuries. Breen was there and apparently uninjured although there was blood on his hands. The room was in a state of disorder with broken glass strewn about and furniture upset. Breen and the men were then placed under arrest.

The girls taking part in the pageant were Lily Flint, Laura Thorne, Fern Taylor, Rene Northrup, Hilda Thorne, Annie Wolfe, each representing in the order named, illy, defensible, pansy and violet.

R. E. ARMSTRONG INTERVIEW

A copy of the Liverpool Chronicle received this morning, contained an account of an interview given by R. E. Armstrong soon after his arrival in England. Mr. Armstrong spoke of the potato embargo and stated that by its imposition the United Kingdom had lost 200,000 bushels of good food and the people of Canada a good market. The Canadians were looking to the British government, he said, to raise this embargo.

TOURIST TRAVEL BENEFITS

A letter received this morning by the Board of Trade from the Dominion bureau of statistics throws some interesting light on the tourist travel by automobile. Taking the amount spent by automobile tourists as $20 a day it is estimated that $148,500,000 was spent in the Dominion last year. On this amount the Dominion spent by cars entering New Brunswick would be about $7,000,000 but part of this would be spent in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

ago, representing the City Council and the Port Committee, will be accorded to some extent, and an appropriation to start such work will appear in the supplementary estimate, and it will be decided later on as to the most advantageous way to utilize such amount.

"While in Montreal I was afforded the opportunity of seeing the wonderful development that has taken place in the Montreal Harbor through the kind hospitality of the chairman of the Montreal Harbor Commission. I was invited to witness the ceremony of the launching of the first all-Canadian sea plane at the works of the Canadian Vickers, Limited. Previous to this I was invited on board the Harbor Commission boat, Sir Hugh Allen, from which I was able to see Montreal Harbor with its 28 miles of grain conveyers, its splendid and substantial docks built mostly of concrete, together with the railway terminals electrically operated, all busy at this season of the year just after the opening of navigation. One cannot but be impressed with what has been accomplished by their system of unity and co-operation through harbor commission, and the result of joint control of all terminals.

SPEAKS FOR PORTS.

"After viewing the harbor came the launching ceremony. I was asked to say a few words and after congratulating Mr. Killam upon his successful completion of the first built all-Canadian sea plane spoke of the Montreal harbor development and pointed out that in order to carry out an all-Canadian transportation policy and the providing of ocean terminals to take care of it, it was equally important to keep the avenues of communication open during the winter when the St. Lawrence was frozen up, and which could only be done by the great works contemplated in order to carry out an all-Canadian transportation policy as the St. Lawrence was a terwards development, the Welland canal and the Hudson Bay railway could only be utilized during the summer season, and pointed out the importance of the necessity of the Atlantic Canadian ports being developed if such a policy were to function twelve months in the year.

"Mr. Killam, it will be remembered, was at one time manager of the Norton Griffiths Company in Saint John, and it was he who practically laid the foundation for the construction of the drydock, and to whom we owe very much for the completion of the work which was handled at that time."
