FORTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

OF THE

St. George's Society

OF THE

CITY OF TORONTO,

FOR THE YEAR 1881.

On the termination of the year for which the Committee were elected it affords them much pleasure to present to the Members this their Annual Report and Financial Statement, from which it will be gathered that the Society is still in a substantial, useful, and progressive position. The number of applicants for relief has not been as many as for the past few years, owing no doubt to the abundance of employment, but the amount given is a trifle in excess of last year, and this is to be accounted for from the fact that a large amount of sickness, especially of typhoid fever has prevailed; and many deaths from consumption having occurred, leaving destitute widows and families.

The funds of the Society continue to be well supported. The membership fees showing a considerable increase, while the donations to the charitable funds are largely in excess of previous years.

The balance in the hands of the Treasurer at the commencement of the year was $581.93, the receipts during the year have been $2,641.06, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $724.73.

RELIEF.

Thirteen hundred and nine applications have been met during the year, to the amount of $1,146.49, from the ordinary resources of the Society, which is two hundred and sixty-one applications less than last year.

The relief given has been according to previous years in bread, meat, money, meals, lodgings, fuel, assistance towards burials, &c., &c.

Nine orders have been given for interment in the lots of the Society in St. James's Cemetery.

Owing to the amount of sickness which has prevailed the visitations to those needing relief have been more frequent than in former years.

MEMBERSHIP.

There have been 13 life members, and 73 annual members elected during the year.

The collections for annual membership fees are in excess of previous years, but there are still many on the roll of membership who are in arrears.

Two honorary life members have died during the year, viz., Mr. W. B. Phipps, one of the most valuable members ever connected with the Society, having been President, and also for many years the Treasurer, and through whose instrumentality the Phipps fund was established. And the Rev. Wm. Morley Punshon, whose reputation as a gentleman of great intellectual power, and as an orator of the highest class was world wide.

Six other members have also died during the year, viz., Mr. W. Gooderham, senr., a very old member and highly respected citizen. Mr. F. W. Cumberland, a Past-President and Secretary of the Society, for many years the Managing Director of the Northern Railway, and a gentleman of the highest social position, and very much esteemed by the community at large.

Mr. M. Betley, a very old and respected member, and a generous contributor to the Society.

Mr. E. Harris, Mr. T. Davison, and Mr. G. Hall, all warm friends to the Society. The latter very sadly met his death in the London catastrophe.

The list of membership now stands as follows, viz: 14 Honorary Life members; 216 Life members, and 365 Annual members.

ANNUAL RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The Annual Religious Services were held in the St. James's Cathedral on Sunday afternoon, April 24th, and in the Bond Street Congregational Church on the 1st of May, and it is most gratifying to record the very courteous way that the use of these churches was granted.

The sermon in St. James's Cathedral was preached by the Rev. J. P. Lewis of Grace Church, and that in the Bond Street Church by the Rev. Jos. Wild, D.D., the Chaplains of the Society, and they were both very interesting and practical.

ANNUAL DINNER IN COMMEMORATION OF ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

The Annual Dinner was held in the Walker House on the 25th of April. It was very numerously attended and of a very enjoyable character. A balance from the proceeds of $27.84 has been paid to the credit of the Charitable Fund.

EXCURSION TO LORNE PARK.

An excursion to Lorne Park was held on the 27th of July. The boats left the city at various times during the day, but the weather was showery and unfavourable ; consequently it did not result in any pecuniary profit to the Society, although various articles connected with the usual amusements on such occasions, which were purchased, are available for further use.

LECTURE BY THE REV. E. A. TELFER.

On the 10th of November the Rev. E. A. Telfer delivered a lecture, the subject being "London the City of Contrasts," in Shaftesbury Hall on behalf of the Society. The pecuniary profit therefrom was $17.75.

CHRISTMAS DISTRIBUTION.

The long established custom of making a collection in December by the Committee and Stewards for a Christmas distribution to the English poor of beef, bread, tea, and sugar, has again been carried out. The amount collected was $780.82. There were over 6500 lbs. of beef, 4000 lbs. of bread, 160 lbs. of tea, and over 600 lbs. of sugar distributed, all of which was of good quality ; 600 families, representing about 2400 individuals, received the distribution. The distribution took place in the store No. 79 Yonge street, most kindly loaned for the occasion by Messrs. Aikenhead & Crombie.

THE TENT.

The tent has been rented on different occasions during the year, and has produced the sum of $61.

INVESTMENT.

The investments of the Society remain in the same position as last year.

J. .

In conclusion the Committee offer their most hearty congratulations to the members upon the high and useful position the Society has attained, and now holds in the city. Had it not been for the large amount of sickness which has prevailed for the past six months the calls upon the Society for assistance would not have been so numerous or heavy as they have been, but when there is sickness in a family, more especially when the head of the family is stricken down, the value of such a Society is felt and acknowledged.

NOTE.—The Members elected at the Annual Meeting are included in this List.

BY-LAWS.

I. The Society shall consist of such persons of English or Welsh birth or descent, in the male line, as shall be elected members thereof according to the regulations hereinafter made.

II. The objects of the Society are to unite Englishmen and Welshmen, and their descendants, in a social compact for the promotion of mutual and friendly intercourse, and for affording to persons of English or Welsh birth or descent who may be in distress, their advice and counsel, and if necessary, such pecuniary assistance as the funds of the Society will admit of.

III. In addition to the Officers named in the Act of Incorporation, six Stewards shall be elected, who shall co-operate with the Committee in all celebrations to be held by the Society; also a Marshall and Standard Bearers shall be appointed by the President.

IV. The Officers of the Society shall be elected as follows: any member may nominate a Candidate for each office, in succession; and in the event of more than one nomination for any one office the decision shall be by ballot.

V. The President and Vice-Presidents shall not be eligible for re-election to the offices respectively filled by them for the next succeeding year.

VI. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be holden on the third Friday in January, in each year. In each year there shall be holden four Quarterly General Meetings, viz.: 1st, the Annual General Meeting, and one each on the first Friday of the months of April, July, and October. Monthly Ordinary Meetings shall be held on the first Friday of each month throughout the year, excepting in January, April, July, and October, as otherwise provided.

VII. Any gentlemen desirous of joining the Society shall, at a General or Ordinary Meeting, be proposed and seconded by members, and may be elected by a majority of such meeting, on payment of first year's subscription.

VIII. The Annual Subscriptions of Members shall be Two Dollars. The subscription year shall be from 1st January to 31st December. Any new Member elected between the 1st of January and 30th of September, shall pay the full subscription for the current year; any elected on or after 1st October, may be admitted on paying for the current quarter only.

IX. A subscription of $10 shall be a life-subscription, and the same, together with all donations of $10 and upwards, unless such donations are made for a specific purpose, shall be invested by the Managing Committee, and form a portion of the permanent fund, the interest on which shall be applied to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenditure of the Society. No ordinary member shall be eligible to life membership until he has paid all arrears of subscription as such ordinary member.

X. The Annual Meeting shall order the investment of such proportion of the surplus fund as may appear desirable and in such manner as may be then determined, and the annual subscriptions, with the interest of investments shall constitute the ordinary funds applicable to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenses of the Society.

XI. The Treasurer shall be authorized to advance to a distressed individual a sum not exceeding two dollars, upon the written recommendation of the President or either of the Vice-Presidents, or of any member of the Managing Committee by them appointed to grant such relief; provided always, that such recommendation does not involve the payment of more than two dollars to any one person or family. In cases demanding more than the ordinary relief thus afforded, the same shall be referred for further enquiry and action to the Managing Committee, as hereinafter set forth.

XII. The Managing Committee shall meet weekly, and any five members thereof shall form a quorum. It shall be their business to direct the affairs of the Society generally, under this Constitution; to determine all matters referred to them by the Society, and to prepare for each Annual Meeting a report of the proceedings of the Society for the year, to be submitted previous to the election of Officers.

XIII. The Managing Committee may make loans (not exceeding twenty dollars to one person or family) from the ordinary funds of the Society, to persons in temporary distress or trouble, upon receiving such reasonable security as they may deem expedient, provided the period of such loans does not exceed six months. It shall have power to grant extended relief, in particular cases, at discretion, the orders upon the Treasurer being, in all such cases, signed by two or more of the Members of the Committee.

XIV. The Committee, assisted by the Stewards, shall arrange for the Annual Celebration of St. George's Day, and report such arrangements at the Monthly Meeting in March. No expense of any celebration or social entertainment whatever shall be charged against the funds of the Society.

XV. The President (or, in his absence, the Senior Vice-President), shall direct the Secretary to convene a Special General Meeting of the Society, upon requisition (stating the purpose thereof) from any five members, and the Secretary shall call a Special Meeting of the Managing Committee, either by direction of the President (or, in his absence, the Senior Vice-President), or upon the requisition of any two members of the Committee.

XVI. The chair shall be taken thirty minutes precisely after the hour appointed for meeting, and if there be not then a quorum of at least ten members present, the meeting shall be forthwith adjourned.

XVII. Any member in arrear of subscription for two years may be considered as having withdrawn from the Society; and his name shall be erased from the list of members, after due notice being given him. No member shall be entitled to vote at the annual election of Officers or at any subsequent meeting, neither shall he be eligible for election to any office of the Society, if he shall not have paid his previous year's subscription.

XVIII. The annual subscription shall be considered due and payable in advance, on or before the 22nd day of April in every year.

XIX. The duty of the President shall be, to preside and preserve order at all the meetings of the Society, and to protect and further its interest to the best of his ability. In his absence the Senior Vice-President present shall exercise the authority and duty of the President. In case of the absence of the first four Officers from any meeting, the members present shall be empowered to elect a Chairman out of their number.

XX. The Secretary shall have charge of the Seal, Banners, and other Insignia of the Society. He shall keep a fair register of all proceedings, orders, rules, and regulations, and manage the correspondence. He shall, when applied to, and on payment of such fees as may be determined on by the Committee, issue certificates of admission to each member (on his having signed the Constitution), to which he shall affix the Seal of the Society. He shall, when necessary, summon the Society to its various meetings, and shall sign such cards of Invitation to all Celebrations as may be required of him by the Committee and Stewards. He shall also, at all meetings of the Society and of the Managing Committee, enter into the respective Minute Books the names of the members present at such meetings.

XXI. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the funds. He shall countersign such certificates of admission as may be issued by the Secretary. His accounts shall be fairly kept, and exhibited to the President and the Managing Committee whenever called for, and shall also be laid before the Society at its January meeting. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to open and account with such one of the Chartered Banks in the City as may be approved of by the President and Managing Committee of the Society, and there deposit the securities of the Society in the joint names of the President and of himself; and, when directed by the Committee, all funds belonging to the Society, and paid to the Treasurer, shall be deposited in such Bank.

XXII. All vacancies in the offices of the Society, happening in the interim between two succeeding Annual Meetings, may be filled by election in the usual way at the Quarterly Meeting next after the same shall have occurred.

XXIII. To preserve order, and to expedite the business of the Society, any member who may have proposals to make, or observations to offer upon any propositions, shall rise and address the President; and no person shall interrupt another when speaking, if the speaker be in order.

XXIV. The introduction of political or religious subjects, or their discussion, shall never be allowed at any meeting of the Society.

XXV. The members of this Society shall faithfully observe and conform to all the rules and regulations that shall be made by the Society, and entered in the books thereof, on pain of being dismissed from it, and having their names erased from the list of members.

XXVI. If the majority of all the members present at any General Meeting shall vote for the expulsion of a member, his name shall be erased; and he shall never afterwards be admitted to any meeting of the Society, unless again elected by ballot as in the first instance: provided always, that no proposition for the expulsion of a member shall be in order unless one month's notice has been given of an intention to submit it at the then next ensuing Quarterly Meeting.

XXVII. The Banners and Flags of the Society shall not be used except on occasions when the Society as a body takes part in the proceedings, or where the Society is represented by its officers.

XXVIII. At any Quarterly or Annual Meeting the members present may, on one month's notice previously given, elect any one of its members an honorary life member, in consideration of services rendered the Society; and also may elect any distinguished person eligible to become a member, in like manner, for services rendered either to the Society or the country, and such honorary member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an ordinary member.

XXIX. An Obituary Record shall be kept by the Secretary of any member of this Society who may hereafter die, stating his birth and parentage, if known, date of admission as a member, his position, general character, and such other facts in regard to him as may be interesting to chronicle. Such record to be published with the Annual Reports.
