LONDON, Dec. 18.

A telegram from the East says the Greek steamer "Eros," pursued by a Turkish man-of-war, took refuge in the harbor of Syria, where she is now blockaded by the Admiral of a Turkish fleet in the Archipelago.

Statement is reported that the Ultimatum of the Sultan has been rejected by Greece, and that the Greek Envoy at Constantinople received his passport. All Greeks remaining in Turkey after a fortnight (women excepted) will be regarded as subjects of the Sultan's Porte.

A squadron has sailed for Constantinople to reinforce the Fleet of Admiral Fisher.

Russia officially states that the design of its operations in Central Asia is not with a view of extension of territory or conquest, but for the purpose of strengthening the treaty with the Emir of Bokhara and securing more permanent peace.

Shocks of earthquake are reported at Peshawar, Lahore and Jaldapoor, in India. Famine is again threatened in Central India, as food crops are deficient and prospects worse than before.

The Standard and Star both attribute the outbreak in the East to the obduracy of the European Powers in maintaining the "Status quo" of the Ottoman Empire.

The Marquis of Salisbury denies the truth of the report that the government has determined to recall Earl Mayo from India.

The Times in an article on the recent proceedings in American Congress, concerning the National debt, fears the ambiguity of purpose apparent in the resolution against repudiation, and argues that if the world was certain that the United States would surely pay the interest on the National debt in gold, as England and France do, the annual burden of the country might be reduced one half, for England pays no more interest in the aggregate than the United States, although her debt is twice as large.

London, Dec. 19.

It is officially announced that the Sultan has resolved to enforce his demands on Greece.

Late advices from Athens state that the Government has called out the military reserves of the country, and the mobilization of the national militia has been ordered.

It is said a command has been offered to Garibaldi.

The Greek Government has dispatched two men of war to Syria to demand of the Archipelago, would await orders from the Turkish Government before using coercion with the "Eros."

Three foreign war vessels are at Lyra, belonging respectively to the French, the British and the Russian Navies.

The latest despatch from Constantinople dated yesterday, mentions that Holand Pasha at the request of the French Admiral in the Archipelago, would await orders from the Turkish Government before using coercion with the "Eros."

The utter inability of the great powers of Europe to control the action of Greece in the pending troubles with Turkey, excites distrust in financial circles in London and there is a general falling off in all moneyed values. This distrust is only increased by the assurance of the French press, and even if Russia is not in earnest in her demonstration, it is the general opinion that she will not be able to give the Grecians material aid.

The press of London generally unite in urging the great powers to a final juncture with Greece to prevent the occurrence of war, and if that is rejected, to leave Greece to her fate.

London, Dec. 20.

The latest news from the East is more pacific.

The government at Athens which has hitherto been swept along by the popular anger, is now being forced to listen to the protests of the European Powers.

It is understood that the Western Powers sustain the Sultan's ultimatum to Greece, while Russia, in the interest of the Greeks, will seek to modify its terms.

A letter from Cuba dated Dec. 12th, says: "It is a fact that a gigantic insurrection exists in this island, that it is supported or abetted by the great mass of the native population, the exceptions being insignificant in point of numbers, that it has had many encounters with the Spanish troops, in which it inflicted quite as much if not more damage than it suffered, and that the best informed among the disinterested or unprejudiced are already beginning to calculate on the ultimate success which shall leave the Cubans free and independent." Gold 135 1/2.

ANOTHER LYNCHING AFFAIR.—A man named Carl Engleman, residing in the neighborhood of Macquinnville, Illinois, murdered his wife, last week, and was lodged in jail there. The Times of the 3d instant, published in the village, gives an account of the lynching of the murderer in broad daylight. About one o'clock in the afternoon about two hundred men, armed with pistols and implements, broke open the jail door, tied the jailer and assistants, and burst open the cell of the prisoner Engleman by force. The account says:

"Engleman was found standing up, ready for his fate, with his coat buttoned to the chin. He spoke not a word, and only by a sudden pale did he show any sign that he read the doom in the flushed faces which met his gaze at the cell door. A rope, which had previously prepared, was now brought forward and the noose placed over his neck, and he was hauled by a dozen strong hands rapidly to the door. The whole transaction did not occupy more than ten minutes, but during this time a crowd of perhaps more than two hundred had collected around the jail yard. As he was jerked out of the door by the halter around his neck a wild yell went up. They've got him! They've got him! No one, however, cared to face the demonic crowd who had him in hand, and they at once started at full speed down Broad street towards the south part of the city, dragging their victim after them, and followed by a wild crowd. After running about three blocks they espied a large locust tree standing in a back yard, which seemed suitable for their purpose."

Here they halted, and swinging the arms of their victim, one end of the rope was thrown over the limb, and he was hauled up. It was immediately discovered that the rope was not properly placed, the knot being directly under his chin. He was lowered down, the rope readjusted, and he was again swung up. His executioners stood by until his death struggle ceased, and the spirit of Carl Engleman had gone to meet that of his victim. When they separated for their homes, leaving him hanging on the limb. The culprit met his fate in sullen, dogged stoicism. From being guilty to end he spoke not a single word."

BANK TROUBLE IN BRUNSWICK, MAINE.—The Union National Bank of Brunswick appears to be in trouble. The Telegraph of that place says: "That the present officers of the bank find its cash short $6415.32."

Said have been instituted by the bank against the bondsmen of a former Cashier. If the security is good the bank of course will lose nothing. Two parties claim that they deposited bonds in the bank, one for $2000, the other $700, and these bonds cannot now be found. The party claiming to own the $700 bonds has commenced a suit against the bank to recover the amount thereof.

COMMERCIAL BANK.—At a meeting today, a number of speeches were made by Messrs. R. Bert Robertson, D. S. Kerr, Jas. Milligan, T. W. Anglin, W. H. Steves, A. L. Palmer, W. H. Tuck, H. C. Monagle and others, upon a motion of Mr. K. R. made at the suggestion of one of the Directors, that the Bank wind up its affairs. Some thought this motion unnecessary and impudent, as at the expiration of the sixty days grace allowed by the Charter, the charter itself does its business be not resumed. Mr. Kerr therefore consented to withdraw the motion. [Globe.]

The grading of the Central Pacific Railroad has been completed 110 miles west of that place, and the remaining 80 miles to the end of the track will be graded in three weeks. Our thanks are due to Mr. James Orr, for a handsome present of Frost Fish.

Frost Red River.—The "Nor' Wester" of the 7th inst., speaking of the distress in that country, and the aid subscribed by Canadians, makes the following suggestions:—A word of suggestion to our brother Canadians who are doing so much for us throughout the Dominion. Remember that your subscriptions cannot be summed up as so many dollars in provisions. The season is now so late that nearly two thirds of the amount sent to St. Paul will be swallowed in transporting the supplies to Abernethy, from whence our committee will have to see them brought in by sleds. So that for every thousand dollars subscribed we only receive four hundred dollars' worth of provisions at Minnesota prices. We merely wish to state this in order to obviate an error, as to abundance of supplies, which it would be easy to fall into in Canada. The trouble among many for the next few months will be to live at all; but in six months all of our farmers will want seed to sow, else we shall be in a worse predicament at next year than this. Many who have enough to pass through the winter, will not have one bushel of seed in the spring. We trust that this will prompt the charitable to let the contribution flow on. Don't tighten the purse strings just yet. What ever will be sent will pass through the hands of an efficient committee, who will endeavor to render a good account to our more fortunate brethren, as to the manner in which their benevolence has been expended among us.

A GOOD MOVE.—The New York "Times" says there is a rumor that some of the great capitalists of that city propose to erect, near their commercial establishments, perfect and complete houses for their clerks and workmen, supplied with every convenience, to be furnished at the smallest cost. There will be sleeping rooms, rooms for dressing, bathing, a good kitchen, a co-operative laundry, bath houses, &c. The Times hopes that this is true, and that the millionaires propose to use their money as well as to get it, and thus to mark the civilization of the New World by a beneficent use of wealth, and not by its vulgar display.

COLD WEATHER.—In the Western and Southern States the cold snap of last week was very severe. In Illinois the mercury was fourteen degrees below. In Kentucky, on Thursday, it was but three degrees above; in Nebraska eight degrees below, and in all directions the cold snap has been much more severe than with us. Snow has also fallen very heavily in Virginia, Georgia and North Carolina, and also in the Northwest generally.
