PROVINCIAL G. W. V. A. CONVENTION OPENED AT WINDSOR TODAY

HOLLAND'S GOVERNMENT DENIES RUMOR THAT IT HAS DECIDED TO SURRENDER FORMER KAISER

Question of Ex-German Emperor's Transfer Concerns Only the Entente Nations and Germany, Claim Representatives of the Dutch Government.

The Hague, May 14.—The Dutch Government denies that it has decided to surrender former Emperor William. The question at present, it contends, concerns only Germany and the Entente.

AUSTRIA WILL RECEIVE TERMS IN FEW DAYS

Fewer Powers Will Be Represented Than Those That Appeared at Versailles.

MEET AT ST. GERMAIN

Nations That Declared War or Severed Diplomatic Relations To Be Represented.

Paris, May 14.—Belief that the peace treaty with Austria would be handed to the delegates of that nation by the end of the present week was expressed today.

It develops that the Allied powers to be represented at St. Germain in the negotiations with the Austrians will be less numerous than those at Versailles. These powers will comprise the states which declared war upon or broke diplomatic relations with Austria-Hungary.

COMMISSION WILL DEAL WITH GERMAN DELEGATES' NOTES

Special Body Appointed by the Council of Four To Hear Objections and Proposals.

Paris, May 14.—The council of four of the peace conference appointed this afternoon a subcommission comprising one member from each of the five great powers (Great Britain, France, Italy, the United States and Japan) to deal with objections and proposals from the German peace plenipotentiaries.

BRITISH WANT SHIPS DISTRIBUTED ON BASIS OF TONNAGE LOSSES

Poland Submits Claim to Conference for Some of German Surrendered Vessels.

Paris, May 14.—Renewed efforts are being made by the British delegation to secure an agreement calling for the pooling of former German merchant vessels and their distribution on a basis of tonnage loss during the war instead of the plan of the United States retaining those ships interned in America prior to that country entering the war.

Poland is laying claim to some of the warships surrendered by Germany. She presented her claims to the council of foreign ministers this afternoon.

U. S. NAVY DIRIGIBLE STARTS 1,200 MILE FLIGHT ALONG COAST

American Balloon Starts From Montauk Point For St. John's, Newfoundland.

MAY CROSS THE ATLANTIC

Route To Be Taken by Airplanes To Azores Would Be Followed.

Montauk Point, N. Y., May 14.—The navy dirigible C-5 left here today on a flight to St. Johns, Nfld., which may be followed, if the coastal performance proves satisfactory, by an attempt to fly across the Atlantic.

The balloon took the air at 8 a.m. and promptly stepped into her maximum cruising speed of 50 miles an hour, which was expected to drive the big "bag" over the 1,200-mile course to Newfoundland in 24 hours.

In command of Lieut.-Commander Emery, W. Coil, the C-5 took a northeasterly course expected to carry her over the naval air station at Chatham, Mass., and then continue along the New England and Canadian coasts. At St. Johns "lighter than air" experts put ashore from the cruiser Chicago, with spare parts, tools and supplies of inflation gas and fuel, await the "Blimp," ready to assist in preparing her for a possible 2,000-mile, non-stop cruise to the British Isles.

May Go to Azores.

There was a possibility, also, naval officers said, that the route of the N-C heavier-than-air machines via the Azores might be followed, reducing the longest "jump" approximately 1,300 miles by making a stop at Punta Del Gado. Adoption of this route would give the dirigible the benefit of the warship patrol established for the seaplanes, the plan being to start the C-5 on her eastward passage after the N-C expedition has reached Europe, or at least completed the Newfoundland-to-Azores leg of its cruise.

NANSEN WILL MEET LENINE AND TRY TO ADJUST DIFFERENCES

Head of Special Commission To Confer With Bolshevik Premier.

Paris, May 14.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, head of the commission to feed Russia, has gone to that country to negotiate directly with Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik premier, on the question of food relief and the cessation of fighting.

MEN FROM CASSANDRA ARE ON WAY HOME

Toronto and Hamilton Soldiers Expect To Reach Destinations Tonight.

Montreal, May 13.—The Donaldson Liner Cassandra, with Toronto, Kingston, Hamilton and Ottawa and western troops on board, docked here this morning. The soldiers were dispatched to their homes on special trains, and it is hoped by military transport offices that Toronto and Hamilton men will reach their destinations by tonight.

Barring delays, the Toronto and Hamilton troops should arrive home between 8 and 9 o'clock tonight. The Cassandra carried 1,588 troops, mostly from the 3rd, 4th, 19th, 48th and 75th Battalions, and some from the Princess Pats.

ITALIAN TROOPS BEING SENT TO DALMATIA COAST

Ridges and Passes in Disputed Area Are Being Fortified.

OPPOSITE ANCONA

Soldiers Are Being Rapidly Moved To the East.

London, May 14.—The Italians are landing large military forces at Zara and Sebenico, on the coast of Dalmatia, according to a Reuter dispatch from Belgrade, the Serbian capital. The troops are being moved eastward and are fortifying the ridges and passes.

Zara and Sebenico are near the centre of the Dalmatian coast and are between Fiume and Spalato. They are opposite the Italian port of Ancona. The mountains to the east of the two ports are the Dinaric Alps.

Claims Prohibition Will Mean Increase in Drug Addicts

New York Justice Offers At Least Two "Antidotes."

New York, May 14.—Establishment of "drink dispensaries" and passage of a law providing for a liberal percentage of alcohol in patent medicines, were urged as "antidotes" to the prohibition law by Cornelius F. Collins, justice of the court of special sessions, in an address at the tenth annual conference of charities and corrections here last night.

The speaker asserted that if prohibition were strictly enforced it would bring a worse evil than alcoholism in the increased number of drug addicts.

"Fanatic interpretation of the law, which would allow no alcohol at all for beverage purpose," he said, "would lead to such dire results that we hope the extremists may not have their way."

COUNCIL OF FOUR HAS GERMAN NOTES UNDER CONSIDERATION

Problems Relative to Waterways and Ports Are Receiving Attention.

Paris, May 14.—The council of four held a meeting this morning, considering problems relative to ports and waterways and some details of the Austrian treaty. It is presumed that the German note which was reported to have been delivered last evening was also taken up by the council.

The three German notes delivered to the council of four, the Havas Agency says, deal with the following subjects:

The first, the effect of the peace terms upon German economic situation.

The second, with the manner in which President Wilson's points are applied, which is protested against, and the third, with the principles of the reparation demands which are protested, although it is declared that Germany is prepared to subscribe to them.

Another note under consideration is that presented by von Brockdorff Rantzau. Tuesday night asking authorization for the sending of German officers to greet the Austrian peace delegation on its arrival at St. Germain. Press opinion is that the request will be denied.

TWO FAMOUS BRITISH GENERALS

Left, to right—Brig.-Gen. A. C. Critchley, of the Canadian Army, and Brig.-Gen. Henry W. Thornton of the British Army, on their arrival in New York from France on the liner Aquitania. Brig.-Gen Critchley is only 27 years old, and is the youngest officer of that high rank in the British forces.

Brig.-Gen. Thornton was formerly general manager of the Long Island Railroad, and left that position to assume the office of general manager of the Great Eastern Railway of England in 1914.

BRITAIN'S TONNAGE LOSSES EXCEED MANY TIMES THAT OF OTHER ALLIES

London, May 14.—The ministry of shipping announces the number and tonnage of Allied merchantmen lost through enemy action, as follows:

Britain, 2,197; tonnage, 7,638,000. France, 238; tonnage, 697,000. Italy, 230; tonnage, 742,000. Japan, 29; tonnage, 120,000. United States, 80; tonnage, 341,000. In addition to the foregoing, 20 British vessels, tonnage 95,000, were lost on admiralty service.

BORDEN AND SIFTON START JOURNEY FOR HOME THIS MORNING

Canada's Peace Delegates Leave Paris For British Capital.

ABSENT SIX MONTHS

Sir George E. Foster and Hon. C. J. Doherty To Remain.

Paris, May 14.—Cable from Leon Trepanier.—In view of the fact that the principles have been settled upon which peace is to be established, Sir Robert Borden and the Hon. Arthur Sifton left Paris this morning for London, and will proceed to Canada by the first available boat.

They have been absent from Canada more than six months, far beyond the period anticipated when Mr. Lloyd George called them to London in November last.

Sir George Foster and Hon. C. J. Doherty will remain in Paris for the present, and it is possible that if negotiations should be of a prolonged nature they too will return to Canada before the signing of the treaty. In this event the Premier and Mr. Sifton will doubtless return to their duties in Paris at the end of the present session.

BOLSHEVIK FORCES AGAIN DEFEATED BY THE UKRAINIANS

Ukraine Mission Is Sent To Italy To Secure Release of Prisoners.

Vienna, Monday, May 12.—Russian Bolshevik forces have met with new defeats from the Ukrainians, led by Simon Petlura. Zeleney, another peasant leader, is leading fresh revolts throughout the governments of Kiev, Tchernigov and Poltava, and the Bolsheviki have been forced to reinforce the troops in those districts.

The government of West Ukraine has sent a mission to Italy to secure the release of prisoners held there who, it is planned, will be sent to reinforce the army fighting against the Bolsheviki.

BRUSSELS STREETS IN MOURNING AS BODY OF NURSE IS REMOVED

Remains of Edith Cavell On Way to England for Reinterment.

Brussels, May 13.—The remains of Miss Edith Cavell, the nurse who was executed by the Germans, which are being sent to England for interment in Norwich Cathedral, were removed from Brussels today. There was a most impressive ceremony, and the streets were draped in mourning. Dense crowds stood along the curbs, while military honors were rendered by British, American and Belgian troops.

Canadians Plead Not Guilty To Theft at Kinmel

Men Were Accused of Stealing in "Tin Town."

Liverpool, May 14.—At the Kinmel Park Camp riot court-martial, Pte. Geo. Harber of the Canadian Cavalry, pleaded not guilty to the theft. It was stated that after "tin town" had been wrecked by the rioters on March 4, the accused was found hiding in a store. A number of new articles were found in his possession.

In defence, Major Wayman submitted the prosecution had not proved the charge of mutiny. "Tin town" was outside the camp, and was composed of stores which were the property of civilians.

The court called for evidence of character and the accused was removed under escort.

Pte. William Taylor of the Canadian Artillery pleaded not guilty to taking part in a mutiny. The evidence was that the accused was found in another part of a wrecked store picking things off the floor. He was also removed under escort.

FULFILLMENT OF SECRET TREATY NO LONGER DEMANDED

Italian Delegates To Peace Conference Are Making Greater Concessions.

Paris, May 14.—Italian delegates to the peace conference are no longer insisting upon the fulfillment of the secret treaty of London, and this part of the controversy relative to territory on the eastern shore of the Adriatic is tending to an adjustment, according to those who have taken part in the recent conferences. The status of Fiume is still being discussed, as the plan to make it a free city similar to Danzig has not proved acceptable.

BRITISH AIRMEN STILL HELD BACK BY BAD WEATHER CONDITIONS

American Seaplanes May Start For Azores Tonight.

St. Johns Nfld., May 14.—The British airmen are unlikely to fly today the weather conditions continuing unfavorable, but all plans are made by the Americans for a flight starting at 6 o'clock this evening, unless the weather changes in the meantime, which is considered improbable.

FRENCH SELECT TWO MEMBERS OF LEAGUE

Paris, May 14.—Two French members of the League of Nations have been selected. Their names will be published shortly.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following were the highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 75; lowest, 34.

UKRAINIANS AND POLES AGREE TO QUIT FIGHTING

Opinion Prevails That Poles Will Help Ukraine Oppose the Bolsheviki.

Paris, May 14.—The Poles and the Ukrainians have reached an agreement to cease fighting. The Ukrainians have lost heavily in the fighting with the Poles, and have also suffered in their conflicts with the Bolsheviki.

The agreement for an armistice which has been reached seems to be the basis for a belief that the Poles will assist the Ukrainians in opposing the Bolsheviki, but the accord between the two parties is restricted merely to an engagement to stop fighting.

EBERT FEARS FOR FUTURE IF TERMS ARE NOT MODIFIED

German President Declares Treaty Means Total Paralysis of His People.

HYPNOTIZED BY WILSON

Offers Opinion That American Democracy Will Not Accept Terms.

Berlin, May 11.—Declaring that the terms of peace presented by the allied and associated governments to Germany "contemplate the physical, moral and intellectual paralysis of the German people"; that Germans were "hypnotized" by statements made by President Wilson, and that he himself is looking forward to the future "with gravest apprehensions," President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the treaty formed at the peace conference. He rejected with disdain the suggestion that the present German Government would resign rather than accept or reject the terms, saying that the government would "hold out to the end."

"When, in the course of two thousand years," he asked, "was ever a peace offered a defeated people which so completely encompassed its physical, moral and intellectual paralysis as do the terms enunciated at Versailles?

Recalls Wilson's Message.

"In his message to congress on December 4, 1917, President Wilson said: 'The frightful injustice committed in the course of this war must not be made good by wishing a similar injustice on Germany and her allies. The world would not tolerate the commission of a similar injustice a reprisal and realignment.'

"The German people," President Ebert continued, "is only beginning to awake from the hypnotism into which it has been lulled because of its solid faith in the sincerity and truthfulness of Mr. Wilson's program and its fourteen points. The awakening will be terrifying, and we all look forward to it with gravest apprehensions. In the face of the cold, naked realities, we consciously cling to the faith which found its epitome in the name of Wilson and the United States, and the conception of the democracy of the League of Nations.

"We cannot believe that this has all been an illusion, and that the confidence and hopes of a whole people have been duped in a manner unknown to history."

The president added that he and his party could not blame the Pan-Germans for the immodest haste with which they are now digging up their former speeches and editorials in which the Social Democrats and other liberals were ridiculed for their belief in President Wilson's program.

Appeals to Democracy.

"I and my colleagues," he said in conclusion, "upon whom rests the terrific burden of the forthcoming decisions, hope and pray the German people, who staked all on President Wilson and the United States, shall not find themselves deceived. If, however, the American democracy actually accepts the peace terms as its own, he becomes an accomplice and an abettor of political blackmailers, and trails the ideals of true democracy in the dust. Notwithstanding the night now covering it, I have abiding faith in the future of the German people and in the unconquerability of its soul. This people, which has given the world so much in science, learning and industry, must not go down to oblivion."

HEAD OF THE GERMAN DELEGATION TO MAKE COUNTER-PROPOSALS

Berlin, May 14.—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace mission, will today hand to the Entente representatives a note containing counter-proposals regarding the cessions of territory, according to the Versailles correspondent of the National Zeitung.

VANQUISHED MUST NOT EXPECT MUCH, SAYS AUSTRIAN

Vienna, May 12.—"You must remember that as a vanquished state we must not cherish too great hopes," said Chancellor Karl Renner, chief of the Austrian peace commission, on leaving this city tonight for Paris. He added that he would try to obtain the best terms possible. The train pulled out amid cries from the crowd: "We are determined Germans and shall remain Germans. We want union with the German Empire."

LIEUT.-COL. W. G. COLES TO BE RECOMMENDED FOR PRESIDENCY OF THE PROVINCIAL G. W. V. A.

Two Hundred Veterans Present At the Convention Which Opened in Windsor This Morning—Several Names Mentioned As Possible Aspirants For Head Office of Association To Be Held On Friday.

[Special to The Advertiser]

Windsor, May 14.—A contest for the presidency of Ontario G. W. V. A. is now a certainty and since the delegates have been arriving in considerable numbers at the convention now in session here it is apparent that at least seven candidates will be nominated for that office and that enough will remain in the field to make an election necessary. Capt. Rev. C. E. Jeakins of Brantford, the present president will seek re-election and has a considerable following. Comrade J. R. Bell of Parkdale branch, Toronto, and Lieut.-Col. W. G. Coles of London, both of whom are vice-presidents, will also be recommended for the office. Field Secretary H. A. Jarvis of Ottawa, Major O'Flynn of Belleville, Comrade Bruce Taylor of Kingston and Comrade R. Harrison, president of the Windsor G. W. V. A., are other names persistently mentioned in this connection and who will be nominated unless they decline the honor. It is possible that the contest will sift down to two candidates, President Jeakins and Major O'Flynn. In any event the re-election of Capt. Jeakins seems a probability although some opposition is being exerted from certain quarters where there is a feeling against having a clergyman at the head of the Ontario Association. Should H. A. Jarvis or R. Harrison decide to stand for office either or both would receive influential support although the former on account of his possition as field secretary has never consented to accept nomination or the office. As Comrade Bell of Toronto is absent from the convention owing to illness his written consent will be necessary before his nomination will be valid.

Like to be Re-Elected.

Although Provincial Secretary W. E. Turley is under fire on account of his recent utterances against the $2,000 gratuity there is no aspirant in sight for his office. The sentiment seems to be entirely in opposition to his views on this one question and from a canvass of the delegates who arrived yesterday and this morning it was ascertained that there will be no attack whatever upon his work as secretary, nor any effort to oust him from office. On the contrary he seems to hold the confidence of practically the whole number of representatives who have as yet arrived, in any event his position this year for first time is not elective one. After present convention he will be appointed by provincial executive committee although until end of convention he will hold office by virtue of a general vote of last year's convention. So at the most the convention could but ask the executive not to re-appoint him as secretary, but there seems to be no disposition whatever to do this on the part of the greater portion of the delegates. Bitter criticism of h addresses and interviews on the $2,00 gratuity question has already begu and is expected to reach white hea before convention closes.

The vice-presidency will almost cer tainly go to one of the defeated presi dential candidates.

Election on Friday.

The election of officers for the ensu ing year will be held on Friday, las day of the convention. It seems likel that next year's provincial conventio will meet at Peterboro. Niagara Falls Fort William and Belleville are oth three cities under consideration, but in dications at the present are that th convention will meet in the Electric Cit

"We are absolutely out of politics and I trust we will remain so," Provin cial G. W. V. A. Secretary W. E. Turle told the Border Cities Retail Mer chants' Association at a dinner give by them to the provincial command o the G. W. V. A.

When the credentials committee fi ished their work at 10:30 this morning nearly 200 delegates were on hand fo the opening session. Comrade R. Harri son, president, welcomed the represen tatives. The real influx of delegate began last Tuesday afternoon, with th arrival of the Ottawa and London re presentatives. The arrivals continued u till midnight last night, and began ear again this morning.

U. S. SEAPLANE NC-4 ARRIVES AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., May 14.—American seaplane NC-4 arrived here at 2:10 p.m.

WEATHER UNFAVORABLE YET.

Washington, D. C., May 14.—While weather conditions along the route from Trepassey Bay to the Azores were improved today, meteorological experts at Newfoundland held that they still were "unsatisfactory" for the start of the seaplanes NC-1 and NC-3 on their transatlantic flight, according to dispatches received at the navy department.

Lieut. Commander Read plans to stop the naval seaplane NC-4 at Halifax for only a few minutes during its flight from Chatham, Mass., to Newfoundland. He so advised the cruiser Baltimore at Halifax in a wireless message which was intercepted and relayed to the navy department a few minutes before 1 o'clock this afternoon

URGES THAT KING BE ASKED NOT TO CONFER ANY MORE TITLES

Parliamentary Sub-Committee Makes This Recommendation in Report.

FIELDING'S OPINION

Favors Abolition of Knighthoods, But Not So Favorable To Rest of Report.

Ottawa, May 14.—The committee of the Commons, which has been considering the matter of titles, at its final meeting this morning adopted a report which, drafted by a sub-committee, embodies the findings of the special committee at previous sittings in regard to titular distinctions. The sub-committee recommends that an address should be presented to the King asking him to refrain from conferring all titular distinctions upon British subjects resident in Canada save such appellations as are of a professional or vocational character. No objection was taken in the report to the title "right honorable" and "honorable," and it is recommended that the awarding medals for military service be not discontinued. There were thirteen members of the committee in attendance when the sub-committee, which consisted of Hon. W. S. Fielding, A. R. McMaster, W. F. Cockshutt and Dr. Whidden, made the report.

Mr. Fielding, while expressing himself as being in accord with the finding of the committee in regard to hereditary titles and to a considerable degree in favor of the obliteration of knighthoods, said he was not so strongly in favor of the remainder of the report, and would feel free to voice his opinions when the matter comes up in the House.

CANON TUCKER APPOINTED DEAN OF DIOCESE OF HURON; BISHOP MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Synod Gets Down to Business—Charge of Head of Diocese Marked Opening — Motion Introduced Opposing Legislation Facilitating the Securing of Divorces in Canada.

The sixty-second session of the Synod of the Diocese of Huron convened for business at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon in Cronyn Hall, his lordship the Bishop of Huron presiding. As always on the occasion of the first sitting, the outstanding feature was the charge of the bishop to the members of synod, embodying not only a report of episcopal activities, but also a comprehensive discussion of problems affecting the church, and world questions in their relation to the Christian church.

The first announcement of the afternoon was one of outstanding importance, and one at which the representatives rose to their feet and applauded in demonstration of approval. It was to the effect that Canon Norman L. Tucker, D.D., rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, had been made dean of the Diocese of Huron to succeed the late Very Dean Evans Davis. Thus, once more a rector of St. Paul's holds the high office, next to that of the bishopric.

Secretaries Appointed.

Rev. R. J. M. Perkins was re-elected honorary clerical secretary, and R. E. Davis, who has been filling the position pro tem., elected honorary lay secretary to succeed the late William Baird of Galt.

A notice of motion submitted by Rev. H. W. Snell, seconded by Rev. D. J. Cornish, caused a stir of interest. The motion asked that the synod place itself on record as opposing further legislation to facilitate the granting of divorces in the Dominion. This will be dealt with later.

The bishop read a communication from the registrar-general with regard to changes in the provincial marriage law, an amendment enacting that where both or one of the contracting parties is under the age of eighteen years, the marriage certificate presented to the clergyman asked to perform the ceremony must have attached to it the written consent of the parents. Unless such consent is attached, the bishop stated that the clergyman must refuse to perform the ceremony. In view of the importance of this regulation, it was unanimously decided to publish it in the synod journal.

Publish Charge.

It was decided, as usual, to publish in pamphlet form the bishop's charge, and the following committee was appointed to take action in regard to this:

Very Rev. Dean N. L. Tucker, Rev. Canon Arthur Carlisle, Revs. J. E. Fotheringham, W. H. Snellgrove, W. T. Cluff, Judge Ermatinger, E. G. Henderson, Charles Jenkins and G. H. Gabler.

Democracy Threatened.

The synod, in session last night, narrowly escaped being bowled over by a wave of democracy. Even the bishop in his interest in the situation which had arisen, evidently failed to recognize the peril until attention was called to it by a vigilant layman, E. G. Henderson, of Windsor.

Next year the synod of the diocese will depart from long-established custom and meet in Brantford instead of London. The last time such an "ecclesiastical departure" took place was in 1911, when the session was held in Stratford.

The tale of the near-bowling over is the tale of the acceptance of an invitation to Brantford.

Rising to gracefully and humorously present the invitation, Rev. J. B. Fotheringham, rector of Grace Church, referred to the fact that the bishop sets the time and place of meeting of synod, but that possibly the members of synod might express their feeling in regard to meeting in Brantford.

The invitation had actually been accepted with applause, Bishop Williams looking as pleased as anyone when the warning was given by Mr. Henderson.

Then the acceptance was all taken back and, being interpreted as a hearty expression of opinion, his lordship announced that the synod will meet in 1920 in Brantford, "The city of the seven churches."

Reports Considered.

Three reports were considered during the evening session; the report of the executive committee, submitted by Rev. W. J. Doherty, secretary-treasurer; the report of Huron College, submitted by Rev. Principal C. C. Waller, and the report of the Anglican Young People's Association given by the Rev. Canon C. R. Gunne.

According to the statement of the secretary-treasurer, the grand total of contributions for the diocese for the year ending December 31st, 1918, amounted to $55,145.46. Of this, the total amount paid through the synod office was $46,184, and through the Huron diocesan branch of the women's auxiliary, $6,961.33.

The synod now holds in trust for various purposes the sum of $348,090, an increase of $4,184 for the year. A renewal for five years of the synod's agreement with a trust company for the investment of funds was reported, and that a highly satisfactory increase in the rate of interest payable to the synod has been obtained.

In discussion of the report special attention was drawn to the diocesan budget scheme, and the recommendation made that said budget include the amounts required for all the general synod apportionments, and other extra parochial objects, except the synod assessments, which are already provided for by canon. Carried.

Will Share Pro Rata.

It was decided that undesignated funds be so allocated that each object of the budget receive its pro rata amount, so far as may appear desirable to the bishop or executive committee.

A recommendation approved was that a diocesan committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be throughout the year to further the objects of the diocesan budget scheme by all means in their power, and with the sanction of the bishop to advise and assist the synod board in each parish to raise its apportionment, and to report from time to time to the executive committee.

In conection with the report on Anglican young people's associations, Canon Gunne made a suggestion that was greeted with demonstration of favor, namely that the A. Y. P. A. shall be utilized in planning and carrying through the forward movement.

Want to Meet Girls.

In connection with reference to difficulties experienced in the past five years owing to war conditions, Capt. (Rev.) S. R. McKegney, M.C., of Clinton, recently returned from overseas, jumped to his feet to say that it was to be expected there would be a shortage of men members in the war years. It would be a shame if it were otherwise. People are saying now the men are back, they want clubs. The war veterans and such organizations supply these. What they really want is to meet young ladies of whose society they have been deprived while on active service.

"The A. Y. P. A. can serve an important purpose as a social institution," he declared, "but not if you conduct the A. Y. P. A. along the lines of mothers' meetings." (Laughter.)

He didn't blame young men for not going to that kind of meetings.

In the report of Huron College, reference was made to the recent recognition of the department of education of the honor degrees of the Western University, and to the part of Huron College council in the movement which resulted in the foundation of the university in London. He believed that through the recognition of the Western as the equal of any university in the province, students would be attracted in increasing numbers to both the Western and Huron College.

During the evening session, while members of the synod stood in silent tribute, the bishop read the names of clergymen who have died during the year, and also of one layman, William Baird, formerly honorary lay secretary. A committee consisting of Ven. Archdeacon Richardson, Canon Hill, Rev. C. Miles and A. H. Backus was appointed to prepare suitable memorials to these.

CHINAMEN WILL BE SENTENCED THURSDAY

Joe Soen Has Been Ill Continuously in Jail.

Dong Wai and Joe Soen, the two Chinamen, convicted of clothing thefts, will appear tomorrow before Judge Macbeth at the county court hearing for sentence, following their remand last week.

Soen, who has been continually ill since his arrival at the county jail, is still unwell. Dr. James D. Wilson, county jail medical officers, has examined the convicted men, and will make a report on him prior to his receiving sentence for the thefts, of which he has been found guilty. Wai, also found guilty, has had nothing to say and takes it all as a matter of course.

Word today is expected from the attorney-general concerning the case of Soen, who is suffering from hemorrhages.

Y. M. C. A. Finances Are $1,800 Ahead of Year Previous

Annual Meeting Was Held Last Night—Prizes Presented.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the rooms of that institution. The evening's program opened with a banquet at 6 o'clock to which the board of directors and managers sat down. Following an hour of sing-song, the reports for the year were read by the heads of the various departments. The financial statement showed that though the association was $1,800 ahead of last year, there was still a deficit of $2,000.

The junior basket ball team was presented with the O. B. A. championship, a gold cup, and each of the members received a pair of gold cuff links presented by W. E. Robinson. The hexathlon championship for Canada was presented to the senior team. The junior team presented A. T. Taylor with a gold signet ring, he having coached them in basket ball play.

Major C. M. R. Graham, the speaker of the evening, touched on the work done in Europe during the war. He said that there was no tribute too high to pay the Y. M. C. A. workers for the service rendered humanity during the four years of war. He also told some interesting little stories regarding his experiences overseas.

In the absence of the president, W. R. Yendall, who was out of town, E. E. Reid was the chairman of the evening.

STREET RAILWAY IS DISCUSSION SUBJECT FOR NO. 1 COMMITTEE

Sunday Cars in City and To Springbank Up.

Several important matters will come up at the meeting of No. 1 committee of the city council at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Very little time will be taken discussing the Egerton street crossing, as City Clerk S. Baker has not received a reply to a communication that he sent to the Grand Trunk.

Donald Wright, president of the trades and labor council, will tender his resignation as a member of the housing committee, in favor of another member of the trades council.

Three matters in connection with the street railways, those of service, Sunday cars in the city, and Sunday cars to Springbank, will be discussed. It is said that the service on the railway is being cut down, and also that the company is angling for a straight five-cent fare for Sundays.

An amendment to the bylaw controlling the procedure of the city council will be asked. The idea is to change the time of assembling from 7:45 p.m. to 6:45 p.m., and to have but one meeting each month.

Inventor of New Grenade Which Won Bonus in City

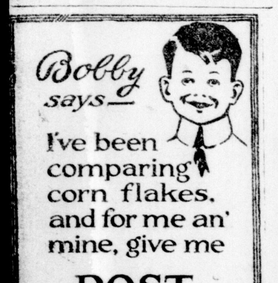

Col. Shaw of Toronto Says He Has Realized Good Profits.

London was visited on Tuesday by Col. Shaw of Toronto, who told a reporter that he was the inventor of the "Shaw" grenade, which won a large cash bonus from the British Government as the most efficient and cheapest hand grenade yet produced. He produced blue prints of this flat, disc-like missile and explained that it was not only more destructive than the "Mills" but could be thrown farther and with greater accuracy.

Col. Shaw said that the British Government, although praising it, would not buy the invention outright, as the war had ended, but he had sold certain rights to the American and Japanese governments for good round sums.

The retired officer remarked to the reporter that his son had fought in France, and he himself would have gone had his age permitted.

TWO VETERANS HOME.—Two soldiers and seven soldiers' wives arrived in the city via Grand Trunk at 9:03 o'clock last night. When the train arrived at Montreal there were twenty men on it who were en route for this district, but most of them stopped off at Toronto.

BISHOP'S CHARGE EXPLAINS FULLY FORWARD MOVE

Two and Half Millions To Be Raised For Extension Work of Church.

WAR TAUGHT UNITY

Head of Huron Diocese Delivers Annual Charge to Synod.

Recommendations of 1919, charge of Bishop of Huron:

Bishop's Recommendations.

1. (a) That the sum of $2,000 be added to the capital of the widows' and orphans' fund, to bring it up to $93,071.69.

(b) That the synod consider the advisability of including in the budget an annual sum to be added to the capital, which should at least be $200,000.

2. (a) That the synod refer the whole matter of increase of pensions to the executive committee for a complete report and recommendations to the next synod.

(b) That the grants to clergy in purely Indian missions be increased from $600 to $800, the balance of the stipend to be made up by Indian congregations, an addition of $400 a year.

3. That the synod through the executive committee apply to the augmentation of the commutation fund capital such an amount as may be deemed advisable from the 10 per cent held back according to statute, and afterwards by vote transferred to the mission fund.

4. (a) That a fund be created to cover traveling expenses of the executive committee, by levying a rate upon the parishes similar to the rate now levied for the equalization of railway fares to synod.

(b) That the rate be made sufficient to cover traveling expenses to regular meetings of the provincial synod and of the departmental boards of the general synod.

Reason for these recommendations: Increase in railway rates, which results in breakdown of representative system because delegates cannot afford to attend owing to expenses.

5. That the executive committee be reduced to 40 or 30 members, instead of 60; also that the representation of each diocese on the departmental boards of the general synod might be reduced from four to two representatives, travelling expenses having a bearing also upon this recommendation.

Gratitude to God for freedom from the uncertainty, stress and perils of war, and the triumph of right over might, was the keynote of the masterly charge of the Bishop of Huron, delivered Tuesday afternoon at the opening of the 62nd session of the synod of the Diocese of Huron. In gratitude to God for the cessation of hostilities and the signing of the armistice on November 11, the great "forward movement" of the Church of England in Canada had its origin. A large part of Bishop Williams' address was devoted to explanation in detail of the forward movement, which has as its present objective the raising of $2,000,000 for extension work at home and in other lands.

Throughout his charge was a looking forward to the new duties and responsibility by which the church—and particularly the section of the church represented by the Diocese of Huron—is faced as a result of new conditions, which have arisen because of the war.

Statesmanlike recommendations were made in regard to the creating of special funds to safeguard the future. Emphasis was laid upon the statement that even as the church fulfilled a vital function in the great war, because it adhered to its prophetic and inspirational function of keeping high and lifted up the moral ideals contended for in the war, so the church can best fulfill a vital function in the midst of reconstruction problems and industrial unrest by proclaiming the righteousness and the love of God, and by exhibiting these in its own life.

Lessons of Unity.

"We must guard now," he said, "against losing the prophetic and inspirational function, and becoming immersed in the championship of a class, or in any project or policy, merely because it promises quick returns and popularity."

With reference to lessons learned from the war, special attention was called to the lesson of what can be achieved through unity of effort and concentration of energy. Historic differences were sunk between nations, governments forced capital and labor to cease internecine strife to secure the maximum output of munitions; political parties united to secure the full man power of the country for the strife.

"Shall we deliberately go back to what we found a paralyzing party system of party politics?" was a question raised.

Other questions raised were: "If union between capital and labor was necessary to secure the utmost output from our factories during the war, shall we not endeavor to secure by good-will a union between these extremes of industry that will bring to them mutual confidence and peace?"

Capital and Labor.

Reference at this point was made to the industrial councils now being formed in the old land, following the famous Whitley report, with a view to making capital and labor partners instead of enemies.

"Let us hope," he said, "that a new era of friendship and co-operation is dawning upon the industrial world that will banish strikes and make Bolshevism impossible."

Passing to the subject of unity of the church, he said: "Obviously the lesson of unity would be wholly insufficiently learned if we stopped short with the politics and national ambitions of mankind, and failed to learn the greatest of all lessons, the lesson of religious unity.

"No great progress will ever be made in extending the sovereignty of Christ over the vast non-Christian populations of the world, or over the nations now nominally Christian, until the energies of the various branches of the Christian church are directed unitedly against the forces of heathenism and Anti-christ, rather than against each other."

Increase Not Marked.

While a favorable balance was reported in the synod funds, "Yet one does not feel quite satisfied," he said, "For, notwithstanding the vast increase of wealth and wages during the past four years, there has been no marked increase in our contributions either for diocesan purposes or for the M.S.C.C."

"With the cessation of patriotic calls, the adoption of a better system by means of the budget, let us hope that there will be an increased response to both apportionments."

Extended reference was made in this conection to one of the outstanding lessons of the war, the lesson that the power to give is proportionate to the urgency of the call, as evidenced in the way the needs of the Red Cross and various war relief funds had been supported.

A comprehensive resume was given of the business transacted at the meeting of the General Synod held in Toronto last fall and attention called to the following features:

1. The acceptance by the church in Canada of full responsibility for all missionary work within the Dominion.

2. The approaching completion of the revision of the prayer book to adapt it to meet conditions in Canada, while making no change in doctrine or principle from the prayer book as it has been known.

3. The step forward taken in the matter of securing a uniform system of pensions for the clergy throughout the Dominion.

4. The strong stand taken by the laymen in regard to the financial capabilities of the church, especially in their protest against making appeals in England to meet the missionary obligations of the church in Canada.

Forward Movement.

Concerning the forward movement, the following statements were made: When in November after the signing of the armistice, a joint meeting was held of the committee of laymen formed at the general synod, and the executive committee of the M. S. C. C. to take up the financial questions which confronted the church, we met under a deep sense of thanksgiving to Almighty God that at last after much tribulation we had arrived through His blessing at security and probable peace. We felt that His church would be lacking in gratitude if we failed to mark so great a blessing by some action that would be worthy of the occasion, and that that action must be one for the advancement of His kingdom, both in our own country and throughout the world. That was the atmosphere in which the general forward movement ofund its origin and took first shape.

After conference which extended over several months, we arrived at finality in our objectives, which, if achieved, will mark a new era in the life of every diocese and of the whole church in Canada.

These lines are:

1. The funds which we must have to meet immediate necessities in our Indian and Eskimo work.

2. The funds we must have if we are to fulfil our historic and God-given mission in the building up of this country.

3. The funds which we must have if the machinery of the church is to be made effective.

4. The funds which we must raise if we are to fulfil our part in the evangelization of the great non-Christian world.

For Canadian Missions.

For the missionary work in Canada alone, the bishop stated, a total of $590,000 is required.

The amount required to make the machinery of the church effective is $1,010,000, three-quarters of a million required for pensions alone, and the remainder for other purposes.

The following points in connection with the forward movement were emphasized in summarizing:

The grand objective of the Anglican forward movement, including the church's share in evangelization of the world is $2,500,000.

2. There is to be only one appeal, the appeal of the forward movement in connection with the General Synod.

3. There is to be one form of contribution only to be used by canvassers, the form supplied by the executive committee of the A. F. M.

"4—All contributions without exception are to be sent in to the treasurer of the A. F. M. appeal fund.

"5—The treasurer of the A. F. M. appeal fund will remit in due course to each diocesan treasurer the amount due to each diocese as its share in the total sum available for diocesan local needs."

Concerning the subject of reconstruction, his lordship dwelt upon the revelation of the war that the mechanical and so-called scientific theories of life and society which gained such vogue in the last half of the 19th century were more or less infidel and failed to justify the hopes entertained of them, while it has been proved that the Christian philosophy was right. The war has shown that science and knowledge have utterly failed to promote peace and good will among nations. It is now seen that the only hope of banishing war consists in the recognition of and establishment of the Christian ideal of human society.

"We now see clearly that the Christian ideal of human nature is right, its grandeur and its capacity for great things. Men will make sacrifices and respond to the appeal of noble ideals, provided the sacrifice be great and the ideal high. Never before, except perhaps in the crusades, have so many millions of men offered to die for an ideal, for the upholding of God's law as the law of nations.

The More Valuable.

"In the war, God has forced us to a revaluation of the fundamental things of life. We have learned that liberty, justice, loyalty to truth, to Christian civilization, loyalty to God are more valuable than life.

"In the past four years half a million of the finest specimens of our Canadian manhood have had a wonderful training in corporate thinking and acting. Half a million men have been trained to see that they cannot save themselves without saving others. Is all this training in unselfish thinking and unselfish action to be forgotten and lost?

"Shall we not rather consider it a providential accession of strength to be directed into other channels?"

In his review of episcopal acts and statistics, the Bishop of Huron stated that during the past year he held 118 confirmation services and confirmed 1,891, the largest number for many years. The largest class was in All Saints', Windsor, numbering 77. Extraordinary large classes, in proportion to the congregations, were presented in St. James', Brantford, Aughrim, Mitchell, Dundalk and Fordwich.

Two ordination services were held on May 26, 1918, and December 8, 1918. At the first, two were ordained to the prisethood, and five to the diaconate, and at the latter, three to the priesthood.

Eight clergy have left the diocese between the 1918 and 1919 synods, and seven have been received into the diocese. Five of the clergy are serving overseas; three are resident within the diocese without license.

Rev. Arthur Carlisle, B.A., rector of All Saints', Windsor, was appointed a canon during the year.

At the 1918 synod, 162 clergymen were in active service, and the same number this year. Mention was made of a number of new churches built, enlarged or renovated during the year. Touching reference was made to the prominent members of the synod who have died during the past year.

In conclusion, grateful reference was made to the devotion of the clergy and the loyalty of the people of the diocese, and thanks extended to the executive committee for their faithful and ungrudging services, and tribute paid to the sound judgment of the members.

Boys Cause Trouble Playing in School Yards in Evenings

Police Will Be Asked To "Chase 'Em."

Reports of rowdyism on the part of boys using the school playgrounds after 5:45 in the evening were received by No. 2 committee of the board of education at its meeting yesterday. One citizen reported that a ball thrown from the grounds of Victoria school had broken a window in his house next door, and passing through the glass, had narrowly missed one of the members of his family. The fact that older boys were on the playgrounds as late as 10 o'clock at night, and that their language was not always gentlemanly, was also stated to be a fact. Secretary McElheran was instructed to issue a warning through the press to the effect that the regulation requiring all children off the playgrounds by 5:45 would be rigidly enforced in the future, and that the police would be instructed to see to the carrying out of the regulation.

Applications were received from two juvenile baseball clubs for permission to use school grounds. The chairman, James Gray, was asked to interview the principals of the schools concerned on this subject.

Empress Avenue Mothers' Club asked that a heater be installed at the school As the committee had previously received a similar request from the caretaker, who reported that he had no facility for heating water for cleaning purposes, the superintendent of works was instructed to report on the cost of making the installation.

Inspector C. B. Edwards recommended that clocks be placed in all school rooms. This matter was referred back to him for the purpose of securing price quotations.

MILITIA WILL PAY $26,000 FOR USE OF QUEEN'S PARK

Council, Fair Board and Parks Will Get Share of Spoils.

WATERLOO ST. A STICKER

Will the Road Be Gravelled, and, if So, by Whom? Are Problems.

Expectations of "fireworks" at last evening's meeting of No. 2 committee of the city council were not fulfilled, but something approaching a pyrotechnic display did occur on two separate occasions, and in each case Ald. Sam. Manness and Ald. W. Wilson staged the exhibition. The first one occurred over the old and much-worked time mix-up. Several of the aldermen were not present at the appointed time and telephone calls had to be put in for them in order to secure a quorum. Ald. Wilson was among the late comers, as was also Ald. Manness. The former declared, directly he entered the room, that the meeting was not in order, and he directed at City Clerk Baker an accusation of having acted illegally in calling the meeting on daylight saving time. Ald. Manness backed him up, and for a time the discussion threatened to wax acrimonious, but the matter finally was dropped for more important business.

The second occasion when trouble loomed on the horizon occurred when a suggestion was made that a certain matter should be left over until the mayor's return. Ald. Wilson immediately took exception to this, declaring: "Does the mayor run the city council? I have as much say in it as he has. He had no right to go away without appointing someone to take his place."

The last part of the remark was taken to apply, not to the mayor, but to the acting mayor, who was out of the city for the day yesterday.

Gravel or What?

The question under discussion when Ald. Wilson indulged his criticism of the mayor was the petition for a gravel road on Waeloo street between Harvard and Grosvenor streets. The engineer's report, asked for in this connection, was to the effect that the work would cost in the neighborhood of $12,870, exclusive of oiling, of which about $3,788.40 would have to be paid by the city at large. The approximate frontage assessment for the work would be 50 cents a foot per annum for three years.

Ald. Wilson moved that the council be recommended to accede to the petition. This motion was carried. Ald. Manness then suggested that tenders be called for. He declared that according to the estimates of contractors in the city the work could be done for $3,000 less than the engineer's estimate. To this Engineer H. A. Brazier retorted that he would prefer that tenders should be invited, but he mentioned the fact, if the work were done by contract in the way suggested, the city would be unable to oil the road, because if it did so it would automatically relieve the contractors of responsibility under any guarantee given. It was pointed out until the bylaw was passed by the council nothing could be done in the way of deciding under what conditions the work should be carried on.

Cost About $90,000.

The engineer submitted a report on the subject of sanitary sewers for Knollwood Park. The report stated that, in order to do what is really necessary to provide proper drainage for that section of the city, an expenditure of between $85,000 and $95,000 would have to be shouldered. This would work out at about 45 cents or 50 cents a foot frontage a year for ten years for the propertyholders, while the city's proportion of the cost would be about 30 per cent of the total. The committee decided to have the necessary bylaw prepared for presentation to the council, and in the meantime the engineer was authorized to prepare detailed reports.

John Kirkpatrick, whose house is just south of the garage on the southwest corner of Dundas and Colborne streets, appeared as a deputation of one to support a request contained in a letter sent on behalf of a number of householders in the vicinity that something be done to compel the proprietors of the garage to discontinue the practice of dumping refuse out of the back door on to the adjoining lawn, sidewalk and boulevard, whence it ran in an evil-smelling stream down the street. The engineer was instructed to take up the matter with the city solicitor.

Will Purchase Lot.

The committee was advised by the city clerk that Mrs. Upchurch, whose property abutting on the river near the Ridout street bridge was gradually slipping away, had suggested that the city purchase her lot adjoining the one on which her dwelling is located, so that she could apply the proceeds to the construction of a breakwater to protect her property, while the city could do similar work on either side. It was decided to purchase the lot for $500, a figure which Mr. Baker said Mrs. Upchurch would accept.

When the question of opening Elias street came up no deputation was present, but Aldermen Seabrook, Manness and Wilson championed the property owners, who have asked that the grading of the road be done at the expense of the city. Ald. Seabrook declared that the assessment which it would be necessary to assess against the property to meet the cost of this work was so high that he would not take a lot there as a gift. Aldermen Manness and Wilson thought that the grading should be done out of the general tax rate, but the majority opinion was that this could not be done under existing regulations. The council will be recommended to go ahead with the work as a local improvement.

A request from the council that the committee would report on the opening of Eleanor street was left over, the committee deciding to put it up to the property owners in petition if they wanted the street opened.

Pay for Park Use.

The clerk reported that Lieut.-Col. Bishop, at that time commander of the engineer depot, had suggested an adjustment for putting Queen's Park into proper condition following its use for troop quarters and training grounds on the basis of payment to the city of $13,000, to the Western Fair board $9,500, and to the parks board of $3,500. The committee decided to recommend that this offer be accepted.

The committee recommended that the council pass a bylaw by two-thirds majority for a sidewalk on Gammage street from Oxford to Grosvenor. A petition was received asking that this work be done, and although it was insufficiently signed to the extent of one name, the fact that all the property owners were returned soldiers caused the committee to take the action it did.

A writ was received from the county solicitor claiming $5,000 for maintenance, $2,500 for construction, $35 costs, and 5 per cent interest, under the suburban roads regulation. This was referred to the city solicitor.

A request from the utilities commission for permission to erect a drinking fountain on Wellington street, south of Dundas, which had been asked for by the Humane Society, was granted.

Grant Wage Increases.

In spite of some opposition the committee approved a recommendation by the city engineer that a request for salary increases by members of his department. The increases asked for were as follows: H. McNab, instrument man, $1,400 to $1,700; J. R. Rostron, engineering assistant, $1,250 to $1,500; J. A. Moffatt, instrument man, $1,200 to $1,500; E. K. O'Connor, draftsman, $1,200 to $1,500.

Ald. Moorhead thought that in view of the fact that all of these men had been granted increases earlier in the year, a request for further increases now was not justified. To this the engineer replied that it was not a question of whether increases had been given earlier in the year, but of what the men were worth.

A request for a 5-cent increase by the construction work employees was partly met. The committee decided to raise the maximum to 45 cents an hour, being an increase of 5 cents, leaving to the discretion of the department the rate to be paid to individual men.

Fred. Landon Chosen President of Local Historical Society

Closing Meeting of Year Was Held Last Night—Other Other Officers.

At the closing meeting for the year of the London and Middlesex Historical Society, held last night in the Public Library, officers were elected for the coming year, as follows: Honorary president, Dr. Cl. T. Campbell; president, Fred Landon; first vice-president, Mrs Brickenden; second vice-president, Miss Evans; secretary, Harold Rennie; treasurer, J. Davis Barnett; auditors, T. J. Murphy and Henry Macklin; executive, J. Dearness, A. Stevenson, Miss S. Macklin and Miss Priddis. The treasurer's report showed a substantial balance, which will be used in part at once in printing another issue of the society's historical papers. A resolution of appreciation was passed to Dr. Campbell for his great services in the past to the society. The president was named as official delegate to the annual meeting of the Ontario Historical Society in Woodstock in June. After the business had been concluded Miss Priddis read some interesting extracts from the Proudfoot papers.

INSPIRATION NEEDED TO UNDERSTAND THE BIBLE, SAYS SPEAKER

Lecture on Christian Science by Miss Ewing.

Christian Science was the subject of a lecture by Miss M. G. Ewing, C. S. B., in the Masonic Hall last night, given to a large audience. Miss Ewing is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church in Boston and has been giving this address in many cities of the United States and Canada.

She said in part:

Chief Commandment.

"When the lawyer from among the group of Pharisees and Sadducees, harking back to the materialistic and mistaken sense of Judaism, asked Jesus, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? our Master replied, Thou shalt love the Lord they God with all they heart, and with all they soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. This is a profound and entirely metaphysical teaching; a setting forth in concise and direct fashion of the fact underlying all manifestation of life; a presentation of the truth about God and man, the absolutely necessary fundamental knowledge upon which, as Jesus says so tersely, hang all the law and the prophets.

Value of Bible.

"Now the Bible is valuable to us only in proportion to our recognition of the right idea of God. The Bible was written through inspiration, that same reflection of intelligence. The Bible is not only a history of ages of human experience, of a people, but it is a record and prophecy of the experience of each individual human consciousness in its putting off of the old man and its putting on of 'the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.' It is, indeed, in this aspect that it is most valuable to you and to me."

"Today, as in all the ages of history, the cry of men is for life, for love, for health, for freedom from the bondage to evil, for the coming of that day, which St. John so wonderfully describes, when 'God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying.' It is the sweet and simple demonstrable knowledge of God which brings to human consciousness the dawning light of this great day.

Grateful to Mrs. Eddy.

"We can never show too grateful a love, too humble an appreciation of the mighty spirit and the tender compassion which impelled Mrs. Eddy to seek and to gain this great gift of knowledge, and to pour it, a veritable balm, into the hearts of a waiting world. In the beginning she had to beg and beseech, with tears running down her cheeks, to be permitted to help the afflicted out of their sufferings, but today the warm and pulsating affection of tens of thousands of those resurrected from sin and disease bears witness to her magnificent achievement. We love and reverence her for her purity and devotion to good, for her self-abnegation and her generous and loving sacrifice for our welfare, for the keenness of her vision and her intuitive grasp of the deep things of mind. We pay her homage and acknowledge her absolutely unique place in the world's history of the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, and we heed both the spirit and the letter of her earnest admonition, 'Follow your leader only so far as she follows Christ.'"

ONTARIO VEGETATION 2 WEEKS BACKWARD, BUT VERY VIGOROUS

Likely To Come With Rush in Warmth.

SPRING SEEDING IS SLOW

Wet Weather Has Kept Many Farmers Off the Land.

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture on May 12:

Vegetation is considered to be about two weeks backward, but there is much vigor apparent in that which is showing, and growth is likely to rush forward with the warm weather.

Only a very small acreage of field crops was got in during the week, as it was impossible for some to get upon the soaked ground. While a few farmers on high or well-drained land have practically finished sowing their spring grains, others have very little in. Generally speaking, probably not more than half of the intended spring field work has as yet been done. There are scattered reports of mangels being sown, but roots generally will have to wait for the tardy grain sowing. The Elgin representative, however, says that some land intended for oats will be planted to corn. Tobacco beds in Essex are in good condition. Essex also reports that a considerable acreage of early potatoes has been planted.

Wheat Looks Well.

Fall wheat is still looking very promising, more especially on well-drained land.

Clover is much more uneven in appearance, as last year's seeding did not do very well, and some early spring heaving has left its mark.

Peach trees are in bloom in some counties and are making a good showing. Apples, cherries and small fruits generally also look very promising.

Cattle are on pasture in large numbers, in some cases rather too early. Shipments of beef animals are said to be light; prices range from 10 to 13½ cents a pound. Milk is in good flow, and dairy cows continue to be in strong demand. In Haldimand they bring $145.

Little Pigs Dear.

Hogs are not moving in such numbers as usual. Prices given range from $20 to $22.50 a cwt. Little pigs are treasured. In Wentworth they are valued at $20 a pair, and have sold in Brant at from $11 to $12 each. A farmer in Frontenac had an offer of $235 for a litter of twelve.

Horses are not in much demand generally. They are selling in Norfolk at from $100 to $275, the average for good farm chunks being $125.

Hay is scarce at from $25 to $30 a ton. Many farmers are also short of ensilage, which has been forcing them to put some cattle to grass a little too soon.

WILL ASK COUNCIL TO APPOINT PLUMBER AS CITY INSPECTOR

Board of Health Told Bylaw Is Being Violated.

MILKMEN PROTESTING

Object to Prosecutions, Saying That Standard of Milk Varies.

As the result of E. H. Russell bringing the matter before the board of health on Tuesday afternoon, that body will recommend to the city council that a plumbing inspector be appointed in this city. Mr. Russell declared that there was a bylaw that distinctly stated that a pipe or tile could not be carried under a building, and yet there were many violations of this bylaw in the city. He did not think that the board was to blame, and the building inspector, he remarked, had too much work to do.

John Nichol, R. R. No. 2, Wilton Grove, who appeared to represent the Milk Producers' Association, declared that that organization was of the opinion that some of the prosecutions for failure to have the milk supply up to the standard were outrageous. It was the aim of the association, he said, to co-operate with the board as much as possible. If a producer's milk supply was found to be below the standard through no fault of his own, he should be forced to keep it out of the city, but if he was found to be tampering with the milk, he should be punished to the full extent of the law. It had been found, he said, that the quality of the milk from a cow varied very much in a day, and that the weather affected the quality of the supply.

Houses in Bad Condition.

Frank McVean, 393 Grey street, declared that he had been prosecuted by the board of health. Every year, he said, he had been brought to police court for having certain houses that he owned in an insanitary condition. At last he had been forced to close them, and they had been vacant so long that the moss grew on the walls. Next to his residence at one time there had been a disorderly house, and it had been allowed to remain in operation. At the present time the outhouse belonging to the coalyard next to his premises was buried under 40 cords of wood. Recently a soldier and his wife had come to him looking for a house, and at a cost of $180 he had put one of his houses in a sanitary condition. Then the garbage man did not take the garbage, and so he had to bury much of it. When he asked another garbage man about it, he said that he had given the other man a tip.

Other citizens had been summoned to attend the meeting for reasons similar to the one that resulted in Mr. McVean's presence being requested.

A. E. Hall, who keeps the barns at the rear of the Walper House, came to find out if it was necessary that he secure an air-tight box in which to keep fertilizer. Men who had taken away the fertilizer at various times each week would not remove it if they had to take it out of a box.

Dr. C. S. Tamlin declared that Mr. Hall kept the barn and its surroundings clean, and that the fertilizer was plied on a cement floor in the yard, and was disinfected with lime.

Power to Summon.

On the motion of Mrs. (Dr.) W. S. Partridge, it was decided that the power of summoning persons who violated the health bylaws be given the sanitary inspector, J. B. Lutman.

Miss B. Friend, public health nurse, asked permission to attend a Health Association convention in Toronto on May 26, 27, 28, and also to attend the Child Welfare meetings in this city on June 3, 4 and 5. The board was willing.

LAD INJURED IN FALL FROM AUTO TRUCK IS DEAD

Clifford Willoughby Succumbs to Injuries in Victoria Hospital.

Crushed and suffering intense pain from internal injuries, 14-year-old Clifford Willoughby, run over by a motor truck on Dundas street, died in Victoria Hospital last night a few moments after he had said to his mother: "Run along, home, mother, and don't cry, for I'll be there with you in a few days."

The lad was playing on the Dundas street pavement when Hunt Bros., Limited, huge motor truck came along. Attempting to climb on the side of the truck he lost his balance, and fell beneath one of the rear wheels. His leg became tangled, and he was dragged a few feet. Dr. A. S. Duncan, 849 Dundas street, was summoned, and prior to the lad being taken to Victoria Hospital twelve stitches were sewed in the youth's badly lacerated leg. He was bright and quite cheery with the occupants of the motor police ambulance as he was being rushed to the hospital.

At the hospital a touching scene was enacted as the boy was being X-rayed on the stretcher. In order that his pain might be lessened he kept up a conversation with his mother, telling her to be brave, and that he would soon be home with her.

Internal injuries and shock are thought to have caused the lad's death, for until he passed into a state of coma it was thought that he would rally and recover. C. H. Willougby, 429 Elizabeth street, is the lad's father.

Coroner Robert Ferguson and his jury viewed the remains of Willoughby at Harrison's undertaking parlors at noon today and adjourned to resume the inquest Friday night at police headquarters.

The jurors are: Percy Ashton (foreman), J. B. Little, J. Loughlin, Walter Trick, John Flavelle, W. C. Maker, Jas. Dean and T. Thomas.

ALDERMEN IN FAVOR OF CITIZENS VOTING ON DAYLIGHT SAVING

G. B. Drake Says Referendum Is Probable.

Ald. G. B. Drake stated to The Advertiser today that all the aldermen are in favor of allowing the daylight saving problem to be solved by a vote of the people. They are, he said, of the opinion that if a vote of the electors is taken on the question of issuing the debentures that the school board is supporting, that a referendum on daylight should be taken at the same time.

Russian Not Guilty of Stealing Money and Coat

Magistrate Dismissed Case Against Serge Siderson of Windsor.

Serge Siderson, arrested on Monday in Windsor by Detective Harry Down on a charge of the theft of an overcoat and $70 from Mary Snazick, was discharged by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon at the Carling street court session today.

Siderson, a Russian with many months service in France, denied the theft of both money and the coat. He claimed drink was responsible for the case being brought into court. "She did a good whiskey business, and when I spent all my money one time I got drunk and we got a marriage license. Then, when I realized just what I had done, I took the license and left for Windsor." This was the defendant's story.

"We had taken out a license to be married, and he told me to go down town and make arrangements," said the woman. "When I returned, the license, money and coat were gone."

Siderson admitted taking the license, but swore positively that he knew absolutely nothing about the money.

SERVED IN U. S. NAVY, BUT FINED FOR FAILING TO REPORT IN CANADA

Andrew Lewis of St. Thomas Did Not Obey the Law of Dominion.

Following his being turned down as a recruit for the Canadian navy and later being discharged at his own request from the American navy, Andrew Lewis of St. Thomas was today found guilty of a breach of the military service act by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon and fined $250 and costs.

The military service act being in force, Lewis attempted to get into the Canadian navy. His application for this branch of His Majesty's service was turned down, but he was ordered to report for military service. A little later he journeyed over to United States and succeeded in joining Uncle Sam's navy. Time passed and he applied for his discharge on compassionate grounds. This was granted and Lewis returned to Canada.

He having failed to comply with the order to report for service in Canada, Chief Walter Duncan was assigned to the case, with the result that Lewis was taken into custody.

"Your actions regarding the military service act were seemingly most foolish," said his worship, "and I will have to pass judgment of guilty and fine you $250."

NEW BUTTER PRINT IS BLAMED FOR CAUSING SHORT WEIGHT BUTTER

S. Powell, a farmer, found guilty today by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon of selling light-weight butter was given a lecture by his worship and fined $10 and costs, after Inspector John W. McCallum had confiscated 82 pounds of butter that were found to be underweight.

Powell's excuse was that he had purchased a new print, and that he had no intention of beating or defrauding the public. His promise to pay back the money to the grocers who had paid him for butter that was later taken by the inspector saved him from a more severe fine.

"With the cost of butter so high, selling it underweight is a most serious offence," commented the magistrate. "Not one of the 82 pounds were overweight, and but for your willingness to pay back the money to those who purchased from you, I would believe that you did it intentionally and impose a more severe penalty."

BAIL NOT ARRANGED

To date, efforts to raise $10,000 bail for Capt. Asa R. Minard in order that he may secure his release until his trial on June 3, have been unsuccessful, and he remains a prisoner in the county jail.

Parties interested in the defence of the accused visited the crown attorney Tuesday, but they were unable at that time to secure sufficient bail and arrangements to allow the prisoner out are still incomplete.

Beyond people vitally interested in his case, Capt Minard has but few visitors to his cell in the county jail.

BUSINESS GALORE.—When it meets tonight, the housing commission will get down to real work as there are about 60 applications from citizens who wish to build under this scheme. It is expected that tenders will be called for the construction of a number of homes.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION.—Mrs. E. E. Rodgers, 656 Queen's avenue, left yesterday for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the triennial convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Mrs. Rodgers was also appointed to represent Victoria Lodge, No. 120.

FAVORS PLUMBING INSPECTOR.—Building Inspector A. M. Piper is decidedly in favor of the appointment of a plumbing inspector for this city. TO POSTPONE BREAKWATER.—In city hall circles, it is said that the Ridout street breakwater will not be built by the city this year. In order to raise the $16,000 necessary for the building of the breakwater, debentures would have to be issued. The other alternative is a city of London bill including this matter. Private citizens whose premises are in danger can go ahead with their work of protection as soon as they wish.

MINIMUM STIPENDS OF CLERGY IN DIOCESE INCREASED; NEW LIBRARY TO BE ESTABLISHED

Synod Session Has Three Outstanding Features Today — Discussion of Religious Education Takes Up Considerable Time.

Three outstanding features marked the forenoon session today of the Synod of the Diocese of Huron discussion: (1) Discussion of increase of the minimum stipend for both junior and senior clergy; (2) Discussion of Sunday school work, which hereafter will be known as a "department of the board of religious education," and a resolution introduced by Charles Jenkins of Petrolea for the establishment of a diocesan library.

After three readings, the notice of motion of the Bishop of Huron, presented by E. G. Henderson, re increase of stipends, was passed with a fine show of unanimity. Hereafter, the minimum stipend for junior clergy, otherwise those who have served less than ten years, will be $1,000 instead of $900; and the minimum stipend for senior clergy, those of ten years' experience or more, is advanced from $1,000 to $1,200.

In event of a mission being unable to make up the whole of the difference between the old and new standard of stipend, the synod will increase its present grant to an amount equal to one-half of the difference, so long as the mission makes up the other half, and that the total grant from the mission fund to any clergyman does not exceed $300 a year.

The scale of stipends adopted will go into effect in the case of each mission so soon as it has voluntarily increased its assessments up to the amount required to meet the difference as indicated, or has had its assessment fixed after canvass by a commissioner appointed by the bishop.

Given Preference.

The order of business was suspended to enable Mr. Jenkins to bring in his motion re the establishment of a diocesan library.

"We have been talking about insuring the material sustenance for the clergy," said Mr. Jenkins. "Now I have something to say about mental sustenance." Mr. Jenkins deplored ignorance even on the part of the clergy of the history and struggles of the Anglican church, as it had been brought to his attention at a meeting of the General Synod in New York some years ago.

His library idea would provide for properly-selected books for distribution among both clergy and laity of the diocese. He referred to the little Presbyterian parish in Scotland, in which he had been brought up, which each year managed to set aside £20 to keep the minister's library up to date.

Bishop Williams commented approvingly on the resolution, declaring there had never been a time when broad reading was so needed by the clergy.

The resolution carried with the provision that a committee be appointed to consider ways and means to report to next synod.

Rev. Principal Waller of Huron College drew attention to the J. D. Barnett library donated to the Western University, which is available for any accredited citizen in the province.

Gives Explanation.

Rev. R. A. Hiltz, general secretary of the Sunday school commission, lucidly explained why the commission is passing to give place to a board of religious education.

"The fundamental reason," he declared, "is the need of co-ordinating existing agencies in the work of education, not only in individual parishes, but throughout the church.

"The danger of the church today," he said, "has been of developing into a bundle of loosely-related or unrelated organizations, bulking more largely in the minds of the members than the church itself.

"The public school system is an example of the advantage of a unified system of education.

"Not until the educational work of one department in the church," he continued, "forms the foundation on which the next can build, and so on, will we be able to get the results that we desire. Religious education seeks to train the growing life."

Must Have Leadership.

Recalling the lesson from the war that any education which does not provide the moral and religious element is a menace. Mr. Hiltz declared that unless the Christian church prepares to take up the work of aggressive leadership in moral and religious education, it will see its leadership pass over to other organizations.

"We must get behind the board with all the energy we possess," he declared.

The question of teacher training and securing teachers for Sunday schools arose prominently from the report of the chairman of the Sunday school inspectors of the deaneries of the diocese, Rev. Canon C. R. Gunne.

Mr. Hiltz held that the chief difficulty has been that effort has lain in the direction of "getting" teachers, instead of "making" teachers, in failure to anticipate need.

Very Rev. Dean N. L. Tucker submitted the report of the committee on the bishop's charge.

Formal congratulations of the synod were extended to Dr. Tucker on his appointment as dean on motion of Rev. S. F. Robinson of Strathroy.

This evening, organization for the forward movement campaign in the diocese will take place, the bishop declaring that tonight's session will be one of the most practical and important ever held by the synod of the Diocese of Huron.

The Honorably Discharged Soldiers' Association at its meeting held in the Y. M. C. A., last night passed the following resolution:

TEXAS OIL

IS MAKING NEW MILLIONAIRES EVERY DAY! THE RICHNESS OF THIS WONDERFUL NEW OIL FIELD HAS HARDLY BEEN TOUCHED, SAY OIL EXPERTS.

The new Texas oil fields offer investors exceptional opportunities to get into companies before the great development forces up the price of their stock to the high level of great producers.

A few months ago Texas & Pacific Coal & Oil Co. stock was quoted at from 80 to 105 per share. Then came these great oil strikes and the stock of that company is today quoted at 1550 per $1.00 share. This is at the rate of over 1500 per cent. increase.

Hog Creek brought in a sensational well, and the $100 par value of this stock jumped to $5000 a share. These are only isolated cases. There are many other such cases where a $100 investment has become worth thousands when the drill struck the oil sands.

The Toronto-Texas Oil & Gas Co. have a group of valuable oil leases located in the newly-discovered field in Red River County, Texas. On the structure extending from the FAMOUS CADDO field in Louisiana to the well-known oil fields of Oklahoma (see map).

An examination of this map will convince you that the property is ideally situated, and the results will undoubtedly surpass even our own most sanguine expectations.

The showing for oil in the Avery petroleum well, which is only a short distance from Toronto-Texas holdings, has proved without a doubt that oil is to be found by drilling in this district.

Toronto-Texas Oil & Gas Co. stock can be purchased at $1.50 per share.

Purchasers of this stock have the same big opportunity that investors were offered when the stock of the above-mentioned companies were first put on the market.

The Toronto-Texas Company is capitalized for $100,000.00; a VERY CONSERVATIVE figure, considering that the company own leases on 2936 acres of oil lands situated right in the path of the real oil development.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF WILLIAM HOWIE.

William Howie, one of London's oldest and best-known citizens, died this morning at his residence, 455 Princess avenue, in his 79th year. He had been in failing health for some months, but on Monday evening he was taken violently ill, and gradually became worse until his death at an early hour this morning. The funeral will be held privately on Friday from the family residence, and will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Knox of the Frst Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Howie was a member for a great many years.

William Howie was born in Irvine, Ayrshire, Scotland, in December, 1840, and in his early years was engaged as a shipbuilder on the Clyde. Coming to Canada in 1868 with his wife, he proceeded straight to this city, where he has since resided. He was engaged for many years as a contractor and lumber merchant. He was identified with St. Andrew's Society of this city, and was most enthusiastic in matters pertaining to his oyn land, and also prominent in Masonic circles, being a charter member of the Royal Arch Chapter and a member of Kilwinning Lodge in Scotland.

Mr. Howie was pre-deceased by his wife seven years. He is survived by one son, five daughters and seven grandchildren.

The remains will be brought here for interment in St. Peter's Cemetery on Friday, on the arrival of the noon G. T. R. train.

FIRST AIRSHIP TRIP VICTORIA TO VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 13.—The first flight between Vancouver and Victoria was accomplished yesterday by Captain Alfred Eckley, pilot, and Captain Carl Aull of the aerial league of Canada. The flight was made in a Canadian JN-4 Curtiss airplane, and the time, including a stop-off in the island city, was 3 hours and 41 minutes. Leaving Vancouver at 4:23 o'clock in the afternoon, the airmen arrived at Victoria at 5:45 o'clock. Leaving Victoria at 7:12 o'clock last evening, they arrived here at 8:06 o'clock, making the return in 54 minutes. The flight from Vancouver was made at a height of 7,000 feet and against a 50-mile gale.

LAND SETTLEMENT PLAN NOT SATISFACTORY, SAY ST. THOMAS VETERANS

ST. THOMAS, May 13.—After discussing the land settlement scheme of the Government as applied to returned soldiers and hearing an address from W. W. Jones, representative of the soldiers' land settlement board, the local branch of the G. W. V. A. decided that some changes must be made before it can be made workable in Elgin County at least. There were a number of competent farmers present, some of whom have had many years of experience, and they declared, without exception, that the payments as outlined by the Government could not be made on a 50-acre farm.

One veteran declared that it looked to him very much like a "land shark's game." If a man failed the Government would have him working for them. He predicted that out of 250 taking up the scheme 245 would fail. The final decision was to refer the matter to the land settlements committee. They will forward a resolution to Mr. Jones and will in turn reach the Government.

TEESWATER HOLDING ARBOR WEEK; MANY TREES ARE PLANTED.

TEESWATER, May 13.—Mothers' day was observed by a big union service at Knox Church in the morning. Rev. C. R. Durrant was the preacher and the music was under the direction of Mrs. J. J. Hiscox. Mrs. Arkell presided at the organ and a choir of twenty mothers rendered suitable selections.

This week is arbor week in this town. Tree-planting is being carried on on an unusual scale. The Women's Institute received a special consignment of shrubs and flowering trees which they are planting about town. The Carnegie library especially is being beautified by three rows of shrubs. Miss Fairbairn and Mrs. E. Raymond are leaders in the movement.

PHONES, AUTOS AND NEIGHBORS STOPPED NAIRN HOUSE BLAZE

NAIRN, May 15.—About $50 damage was caused by fire which broke out from the chimney of the home of John Harris in East Williams about 10 o'clock this morning. Part of the roof was damaged, and the water also caused some loss. The telephone brought the neighbors and saved the building.

While rushing to the fire Charles McEwen had a fortunate escape from injury. Part of the harness broke, and he, being unable to turn out when he saw a large number of autos parked there ahead of him, went to the ditch with his rig on top of him. He was unhurt.

Leonard Barnes, who served with the signallers as a telegraph operator, has returned from France, as has also Daniel McKellar of the 18th Battalion. Mr. Barnes is the only one of the three native sons of Nairn who enlisted to return. The other two, George Rook and Allan Dewar, were killed in action.

Miss Winnifred Purvis of London has left for a rest after an attack of the "flue," and Alexander Rose of Beachwood is teaching in her place temporarily here.

A widespread epidemic of the "flue" is just beginning to recede here. Nearly every house in some sections was visited.

WHY LACK OF IRON IN THE BLOOD MAY BE COSTING YOU MONEY EVERY DAY

Many a Capable Man or Woman Falls Just Short of Winning Because They Don't Back Up Their Mentality With Physical Strength and Energy.

Get some of the money—don't let the other fellow have it all—just because you are too weak, nervous and run-down to go after it with the same vim that gets him what he wants. Make yourself a man of blood and iron—a woman of power and vitality.

"Many a capable man or woman falls just short of winning because they don't back up their mentality with the physical strength and energy which come from having plenty of iron in the blood," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina, and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. To help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron. It often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time."

Manufacturers' Note.—Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended by physicians, and which is now being used by over three million people annually, is not a secret remedy, but one which is well-known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by Cairncross & Lawrence, Standard Drug Co., Ltd., Taylor Drug Co., and all other druggists.

To Grow Hair On Bald Heads

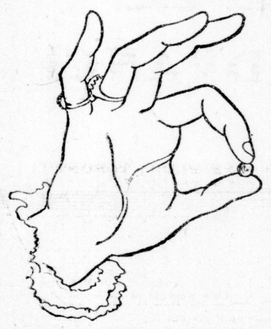

Specialist Gives Simple Recipe That Works Fine.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair-tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring grey hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavona de Composee, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol is frequently found in hair tonics. Ladies using this prescription should be careful not to get it on the face or where hair is not desired.—Advt.

Doesn't hurt a bit

A few cents buys a tiny bottle of the magic Freezone at any drug store. Apply a few drops of Freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly that troublesome corn or callus stops hurting, then shortly you lift it out, root and all, without any pain, soreness or irritation. These little bottles of Freezone contain just enough to rid the feet of every hard corn, soft corn, corn between the toes and the calluses on bottom of feet. So easy! So simple. Why wait? No humbug!

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Grey, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this oldtime recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the grey hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

BELL TELEPHONE GIVEN RIGHT TO INCREASE RATES

Wanted 20 Per Cent Boost, But Are Permitted 10 Per Cent.

EMERGENCY SITUATION

Million Dollars Needed To Put Company on a Sound Basis.

OTTAWA, May 13.—Finding that an emergency situation exists, the burden of which should be divided between the Bell Telephone Company and the public, the railway commission, in a judgment handed down today, grants in part the application of the company for an increase in rates. The company asked for twenty-per cent increase in exchange rates, but the commission finds a ten-per cent adequate to meet the situation. The long-distance rates as filed were not objected to, and the judgment states that they may be allowed. These rates, together with the ten-per cent increase in exchange rates will be sufficient to provide the sum of $1,100,000 required by the company to put it on a sound financial basis.

The Judgment.

The judgment states that the company since October, 1908, has been earning on its outstanding securities less than four per cent, while there is an admitted need of an expenditure of $7,000,000 for replacements and new construction. In regard to the reserves which were much criticized during the course of the hearing, the judgment states that these are invested in the plant, and that this is "admittedly good business practice and at the same time lessens the burden of necessary revenues."

The judgment which is very voluminous, was written by Commissioner McLean, and concurred in by Sir Henry Drayton, chief commissioner; Deputy Chief Commissioner Nantell and Commissioners Goodeve and Boyce. A summary of the judgment, emphasizing its principal features has been issued by the commission as follows:

An Important Matter.

The importance of the matter involved, the complex situation concerned, and the detailed analysis of accounting data which it has been necessary to make justify a summary of the situation and findings.

1—There has been during recent years a steady increase in material and labor costs in the operation of the Bell Telephone Company.

2—The company has carried these costs during these years.

3—Beginning, however, with October, 1918, there has been a very great increase in wage costs, which still continues, and which the company cannot properly carry with its present rates.

4—These wage costs, computed on a yearly basis represent a wage increase of over $1,500,000. While there has been an increase in gross revenue there has been a sharp decrease in net. The operating ratio since the increased wage costs came in October, 1918, is over ninety per cent.

The Scandinavian, which will dock at Quebec, has 40 officers, 3 cadets and 284 other ranks, of whom all but two cadets are for Quebec dispersal area. The classification of Ontario men on board the Saturnia is as follows:

WHY NOT VISIT ALGONQUIN PARK?

In the heart of the beautiful Algonquin Park—that unspoiled region of two million acres, starred with hundreds of lakes—the Grand Trunk Railway system owns and operates one of the most attractive of summer hotels, the "Highland Inn." Here throughout the vacation season one hundred and fifty happy people gather to enjoy the delights of fishing, canoeing and swimming, with long "hikes" through the fragrant bush where the Canadian fauna may be studied under the most favorable conditions. The park is never "crowded." You may launch out from the hotel and within half an hour be within a kingdom of your own. The pine-scented breezes which sweep over the park are a tonic for tired men and women. The park is easily accessible from all the principal centres of Eastern Canada. It is about two hundred miles north of Toronto and one hundred and seventy miles west of Ottawa. Illustrated booklet descriptive of the park, and containing information relative to the hotel, rates, etc., may be had for the asking on application to Grand Trunk agents, or C. E. Horning, D. P. HENRY FORD WILL TRY TO JUSTIFY HIS VIEWS ON PACIFISM

Suit For a Million Dollars Against Chicago Tribune Now Being Heard.

GREAT LEGAL BATTLE

Heading in Newspaper Is the Basis For Manufacturer's Complaint.

Mount Clemens, Mich., May 12.—With the reputation of the Chicago Tribune, one of the leading newspapers of the United States, at stake on one side, and the millions of Henry Ford, auto manufacturer, on the other, one of the biggest law suits of modern times, from the standpoint of financial disbursements, a suit for $1,000,000 was scheduled to open before Circuit Judge James G. Tucker here this morning. With most of the preliminary battles already fought and decided in Illinois and Detroit courts, it is anticipated the case will come to trial with little delay. The suit has already been in the courts two and a half years. The meat of the alleged libellous article was the headline of an editorial published by the Tribune June 23, 1916, as follows: "Ford is an anarchist."

The object of the auto man is to justify the pacifist views he held when he rewarded Rev. J. A. Macdonald of Toronto with a "flivver" for being a kindred spirit, and to show apparently that the peace trip he made with other pacifists to Europe a few years ago was not so misbegotten as many people believe.

Holler-Than-Thou Suit.

The suit grows out of alleged libels which Ford says the Tribune published about him in connection with his peace activities, the contention of the newspaper being that the auto man was disloyal in being opposed to national preparedness for war. Ford counter-charges that the Tribune was given to the expression of pro-German sentiments during the war, and lent itself to the German propagandists, who flaunted their literature throughout the United States.

Ford and the Tribune have retained the greatest libel law authorities in the country, and it is even said that each side tried to corner the market in legal brains in an effort to attain a favorable victory. Ford, moreover, has flooded the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan with booklets composed of reprints from the editorial and news columns of the Tribune of an alleged pro-German color, with a view apparently to winning public approval.

Not Pro-German.

"Public opinion," declares Mr. Ford in one of his booklets, "will, with the facts before it, enter an impartial and lasting judgment on the Tribune, and its contribution towards winning the war," and he goes on to say in other documents that economists, Socialists and writers will be called on his behalf to prove that he is thoroughly loyal, and that his peace doctrines should not be construed as pro-German sentiment.

"One witness may be Rev. J. A. Macdonald of Toronto, who will testify for Mr. Ford," declared a Detroit lawyer, who is familiar with the case. "There will be given to him every opportunity and a cordial reception."

Extracts From Tribune.

The names of the witnesses whom Ford will call have not yet, however, been made public, but one of his allegations against the Tribune is that it endeavored to disrupt the cordial relations between the United States and the British Government. To prove this, Ford quotes an editorial that appeared in the Tribune on February 2, 1917, and another one that was published on February 4 of the same year. The first quotation follows:

"The object of England is to starve the central powers into submission. The object of Germany is to starve England into submission. What is our interest in this collision?"

The second editorial reads:

"Our experience in the early days of this war make us doubt ourselves. There is no reason for expecting that we should unanimously name any nation as felon and set about to punish it."

Other extracts from the Tribune which Ford contends show that the newspaper was impressed with the German taint are given without the dates of publication. They are:

Bernstorff Serving U. S.

"Von Bernstorff has not only served Germany well, but he has been of great value to the United States."

"We are confident that when the charges against von Papen are sifted they will be found to be another batch of 'British lies.'"

"Perhaps Rheims Cathedral was so situated that it lay in the direct line of artillery fire."

"We have read the German note only once, but it seems to make one point clear: The Sussex was sunk by a British torpedo."

"It would be infamous if Americans were allowed to form the opinion that Germans had become Apaches."

Pleaded Cause of Huns.

Ford is spreading broadcast also facsimile reproductions of the stories the Tribune printed during 1915 and 1916 about the humane way the Germans treated the inhabitants of Namur, Antwerp, Brussels and other German towns, written by correspondents whose names are familiar to the readers of certain Toronto newspapers. Thus, for example, James O'Donnell Bennett writes on September 11, 1914, "That the German soldiers are kind to civilians and captured foes," while John T. McCutcheon on October 6 of the same year sees "the picturesque entry of the Germans to Louvain, the inhabitants of which city are well treated by the conquerors." McCutcheon goes on to testify that he knows from personal examination that the "Germans are innocent of atrocities in Belgium."

War Unnecessary.

On March 4, 1917, the Tribune, Ford alleges, said:

"War with Germany is unnecessary. A war is necessary when the honor of a nation is insulted and satisfaction refused or when its vital interests are threatened or damaged to such a degree that the situation becomes unbearable. Neither of these reasons is existent.

"But the war with Germany is not only unjust; it is unwise. War is business, and must have a business aim. 'Woe to the statesman,' Bismarck said, 'who cannot show a reason which holds good after the war is over.'"

Ford then in one of his circulars asks: "Can a leopard change its spots over night?" and he proceeds to inquire what the American people think of this sentiment from the Tribune of March 21, 1917:

Couldn't Send Yanks.

"Just at present—and for some time—no American boys could be sent to Europe. There are no American boys to send. All the American boys who have uniforms, weapons and training, complete or partial, must be kept in garrison, overseas or here, or be held at home to protect the southern frontier. If they were sent from this country Carranza would ask for no better chance to strike out for the Mexican lost provinces. He would not get them, but he would make mighty uncomfortable American states."

Ford gives books of such quotations, and their repetition here might become tiresome. He turns next to the treatment of Tribune employees drafted for the army. "When war with Mexico seemed likely in 1916," he says, "Tribune employees received their full salary while absent on the border. But during war with Germany in 1917 and 1918 the Tribune employees who fought for democracy received nothing from the Tribune."

Born in Germany.

One of the Tribune writers, Edward Goldbeck, receives this bouquet: "Born in Berlin, Germany; seven years in the German army; works with Gustav Jacobson in 1916 attending German meetings and making speeches; hired by Joseph M. Patterson of the Tribune in the spring of 1915 to write special articles for the Tribune until April, 1917, when United States declared war against Germany; then Mr. Patterson stops his articles in the Tribune, but writes Mr. Goldbeck that as soon as the war is over they would be glad to have him back." To prove these statements Ford quotes the testimony of Goldbeck himself on January 24, 1919, before Commissioners Roy E. Fuller of Chicago.

And then, to top it all off, Ford quotes from the testimony of Elinor Medill Patterson, one of the owners of the Tribune, who before Commissioner Fuller identified herself as the widow of the late Joseph Medill, who owned 1,050 shares of a total of 2,000 shares of Tribune stock.

Knew Bernstorff.

"Have you a home in Washington?" she was asked.

"Yes."

"Did you ever know Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador?"

"Why, yes,"

"Knew him very well, didn't you?"

"I should say very well."

"The British and French ambassadors did not call at your home as often as Count von Bernstorff."

Unfriendly With British.

"No. We were not on good terms with the British, but we were——"

"Pardon me, who was that ambassador?"

"His name was—

"Spring-Rice?"

"Spring-Rice."

"And did Count von Bernstorff at those times, when he was calling at your home, know that you were one of the owners of the Chicago Tribune?"

"Why, of course, he knew. Everybody knew I was a owner of the Chicago Tribune, everybody that knows me knows it."

A Frequent Visitor.

"It is a fact, isn't it, that Count von Bernstorff was more frequently at your home than any of the other principal ambassadors, was he not?"

"Yes, I am sure he was. We were on friendly terms with him."

"What would you say in answer to my question, whether it is not so that it was naturally distasteful to the ambassadors or members of the embassies of the countries at war with Germany to meet Count von Bernstorff, and, therefore, they did not make a practice of coming to your home?"

"They would not necessarily meet him at my house, but they might have a feeling that if we were on any terms with the Germans that we did not want to be on any terms with them."

Evidence Admissible.

All of this testimony came out in examinations which are a prelude to the big trial this month. So far the Tribune has made practically no comment on the Ford charges, and just what line the paper will follow at the trial is a matter of conjecture. The admissibility of much of the Ford evidence will no doubt, however, be questioned on technical grounds, and the only fear those in the bleachers have is that the show may be spoiled by the number of lawyers on hand to work up legal technicalities and quibbles.

One of the strongest and most convincing evidences of the remarkable results being accomplished by Tanlac throughout the South is the large number of letters that are now being received daily from scores of well-known men and women who have been benefited by its use.

Among the large number that have been received recently none are more interesting than the following letter from Dr. J. T. Edwards of Fayetteville, Ga. Dr. Edwards, it will be remembered recently gave Tanlac his unqualified indorsement in a public statement, and the testimonial published below was recently given him by one of his patients. His letter follows just as it was written:

Fayetteville, Ga.

Mr. G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:

Dear Sir,—I am inclosing you herewith statement I have just received from Mr. T. M. McGough. He has sold out here, and is moving to Turin, Ga. He was here this morning, and came in to tell me what Tanlac had done for him. He says too much cannot be said about Tanlac. It certainly has cured him. Respectfully,

J. T. EDWARDS, M.D.

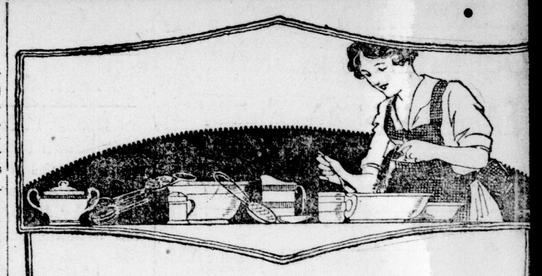

Mr. McGough's statement follows:

"I suffered from indigestion and could not eat anything but what would hurt me. Constipation gave me a great deal of trouble also. My symptoms were indigestion, heartburn, and gas on the stomach after eating. My appetite was irregular and my food failed to nourish me. This trouble caused me to get very poor—in fact, I got so thin and weak I was hardly able to go about.

"I bought three bottles of Tanlac on Dr. Edwards' recommendation, and I am now feeling all right again, and am able to attend to business. I gained seventeen pounds in weight and am doing fine. Tanlac did the work.

"I now recommend Tanlac to everyone who is sick like I was, and wishes to take something that will help them."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food, are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach, and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating, or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments, and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antiacid, such as bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, in either powder or tablet form, enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestants. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisurated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.—Advt.

...es, McCullough Probably ...s the Very 'Least of These'

The 25th chapter of St. Matthew contains the ...owing to his disciples by Jesus Christ:

For I was an hungred, and ye gave be meat: I ...was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, ...and ye took me in:

Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye ...visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

. . . . . .

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

The Toronto Star of Monday night contained ...following in the course of a news story con...ning Frank McCullough, a man awaiting ...tence of death in Toronto jail:

"Rev. Bertram Nelles, pastor of the church, and FORMER spiritual adviser of McCullough, told the Star that he had not heard of the visits. He also said he had not been asked yet to again become McCullough's spiritual adviser.

"'If you were asked to take this work, would you do it?'

"'I don't know. There are a lot of circumstances since he escaped that enter into the matter,' said Mr. Nelles.

The Toronto Telegram of Monday night had following to say regarding Frank McCul...gh:

"Frank McCullough is no longer the bright, clear-eyed youth who took his recapture with a smile. All his buoyancy has deserted him, and he now lies on his bed in the death cell without even speaking to the death-watch who guards him.

"McCullough eats but little, but smokes gratefully the cigarettes handed him through the kindness of Chief Turnkey Addy. He arises at times to exercise his limbs, and, lying down again, will sink into despondency.

"He has had no letters since his recapture, and he has not asked for paper for drawing. He has asked to see no one. He looks downcast, and even ill, and shows the strain under which he is living. The death-watch consists of two jail guards and one returned overseas sergeant."

We feel that an indulgence in newspaper ...perbole would be out of place.

...hall the Wreckers Be Left in Control?

Those newspapers which uphold public owner...p and point to the wrecks of two great national ...tems, creatures of mismanagement or exploita...n or misfortune, might well ponder the ques...n "Shall the wreckers be left in control?" The ...vernment has virtually taken over the lines; ...e country has public ownership in railways, with ...y one great system left to proclaim that private ...nership may be successful, and no system of ...vernment railways removed from the control of ...e unsuccessful private interests.

Even though the men in control of wrecked ...stems were honest in their efforts to make the ...lway succeed, what attitude will the public ...ke toward their control and their persistent ...bbying and contact with the affairs of the newly-...quired people's line? Will they trust these men ...trust the Government that places them in con...l, and permits that railway's bills to be drafted ...the experts who formerly controlled the line ...such a manner as to permit the affairs of the ...ilway to be conducted as by the officials of a ...se corporation? Will the people wonder just ...w far some mighty magnates might go in order ...discredit public ownership, and to send these ...es eventually to the auction block to be offered ...r anything or nothing to those who will assume ...e burden?

Politics is interwoven through every railway ...ansaction the country has known in recent years. ...hile they were in their development stage, these ...es were great national works, but when rated ...operating lines, they became machines for ...anipulation. The western provinces became ...riously involved with the old C. N. R., one ...ovince to the extent of $40,000,000 for instance. ...fter the formation of Union Government the C. ...R. was taken over and the western provinces ...lieved of the burden of debt that loomed before ...em in the event of foreclosure. How much this ...ase of the railway situation had to do with the ...efection of prominent Western Liberals so soon ...ter they had gathered and declared allegiance ...the Liberal chieftain may never be known. But ...has always been a theory with a number of ...bservers that the prospect of the C. N. R. fore...osure with the burden of millions thrown back ...n the western provinces was the whip that was ...id to a number of Liberal backs by the powers ...Ottawa. The price of the west, if the theory be ...asible, was many millions, and the crowd that ...eld the power of life and death with the C. N. ...has paid that price.

Such transactions (and if the one enumerated ...d not occur, there have been other "influences" ...Canadian politics at one time and another) ...ave their ramifications away beyond the know...dge of newspapers and the public. They leave ...heir influence, and the influence may not be cast ...ff without exposure. It is idle to believe that the ...orce of every fact and every innuendo is not ...rought to bear upon those who should be the ...asters, but are often the servants of those who ...anipulate great decisions by governments.

The public ownership railway system is to be ...aid for by Canada, win or lose. If we win, ac...ording to the railway bill, we may not know ...uch about how the profit is spent; if we lose the ...eople must pay the cost. The people have paid ...ntold millions for railway blunders in the past. ...hey find it difficult to trace the payment, but it ...ounts. It counts in taxes and the cost of living, ...nd in the unrest consequent upon abnormal times. ...aster blunders and vaster opportunities than ...ver for manipulation loom ahead of the engine which now covers the country's coat of arms on the boiler head, but with the same old reckless crew in the cab.

A Bob Rogers Reaction

Hon. F. B. Carvell, minister of public works, made known in the House of Commons Monday night that the cost of the new Parliament buildings at Ottawa would exceed the estimate of $5,000,000 by $3,000,000. He expressed dissatisfaction with the progress being made on the buildings.

The statement recalls the circumstances under which the reconstruction of the Parliament buildings was undertaken by Hon. Robert Rogers, former minister of public works. The word "reconstruction" is used advisedly, as may be seen by reading on. When the ruin left by the fire was inspected, it was decided to begin operations at once. Mr. Rogers took the matter in hand and soon had architects chosen, without going to the trouble of inviting competition from the profession as a whole. He also did a peculiar thing in regard to the contract. The law says that all new buildings undertaken by the Government at a cost above $5,000 must be constructed by public tender. But there is no provision for tenders for "reconstructed" buildings, and Mr. Rogers' architects decided this question by declaring there was a salvage of $2,000,000 in the old buildings. Therefore the contract was quickly let to Peter Lyall & Sons on a percentage basis. No other contractor was invited to bid. Soon after work commenced the architects reconsidered the salvage proposal, and it was determined that the walls would have to come down; so that the $2,000,000 counted on there was lost, at least in part, and the work went ahead on the old plan of following the style of the old buildings, with more room provided.

Criticism of the manner of "reconstructing" the building led to the resignation of Mr. Lemieux from the committee. What has happened since that time is slow progress on the buildings, and a considerable amount of criticism as to the architecture of the buildings. The cost has gone beyond estimates and apparently will go further. Mr. Rogers handled it in its early stages. It is a typical Rogers result.

McKenzie and the Tariff

Certain newspapers, both of free trade and protectionist leanings, have seized upon the statement of Mr. D. D. McKenzie, M.P., leader of the Liberal party in the House of Commons, that he believed protection was necessary to some lines of trade, although he was not a high protectionist, as indicating that he has declared himself against tariff reform.

The Advertiser believes that Mr. McKenzie expresses not a sectional view, as is claimed by one newspaper, even though the question under discussion related to an industry in his own part of the country, but the view of Liberals who adhere to the Laurier attitude on tariff. Liberalism is naturally the party of free trade, but it has never chosen to advocate radical policies that might disrupt the country. It might argue for the necessity of change, but rather than strike at the livelihood of many workmen even in theory, Liberalism went carefully about touching the tariff. Gradually it secured the opportunity for reciprocity in natural products with the United States, and presented this to the country. The country was deceived into believing that reciprocity meant closed factories and high living, and the predatory interests showed their tusks of selfishness. This moderate change of tariff did not go into effect, and today we have a country clamoring on both sides of the issue. High prices have sunk talons into the working people, reciprocity or no reciprocity. High tariffs are preached as revenue producers along with the doctrine of tariff for revenue. The income tax does not produce revenue from the farmers. A local manufacturer declares that if the tariff is changed radically every factory will be closed and homes emptied of their tenants. The same man said before the election of 1896 that Laurier's return would mean blue ruin. His propheecy did not come true. No extreme measure was passed during the period when the infant industries were getting a chance to grow. Now they have grown. Many of them could meet world competition, if they would, but at the same time, especially if manufacturing in Canada is backward, as compared with the United States, there is the danger that the business of Canadian industry would be seriously affected.

No one need say we are going to have radical tariff changes in this country, excepting perhaps for the basic industries like agriculture. The United States is talking of putting duties upon those of our foodstuffs which now enter the United States free or at low rates of duty, and that fact in itself, and all the pleadings of the high tariff people to maintain the wall, show the folly of having rejected the Liberal doctrine of 1911, which was fair and modest, and which would have opened broader markets for the farming class. We are more muddled than ever on the tariff issue, but Mr. McKenzie's caution does not label him a reactionary Liberal. He is for as much free trade as he believes we can stand. The course that lies between the two extremes as represented by Liberalism for many years may be the safe and sane course. The Government certainly cannot do less than it is doing at present, which is nothing at all. Parties may smash on the issue, even the Liberal party. But the extremists may do the country more harm than good.

"Well, of course, you'll do as you please, Kathleen. You always have, and far be it from me to try to argue you out of it." Miss Coniston sat back farther in the wing chair by the bay-window and spread her skirt carefully. "But I'm your mother's own cousin and I shouldn't rest easy in my grave if I didn't tell you what I thought at such a time."

"Why did he ever leave such an idiotic will?" Kathleen interrupted stormily. She sat by the old-fashioned, flat-topped desk in the middle of the library floor, both elbows planted on the melee of papers, while she cried plentifully in her handkerchief. It was half an hour since Graham, the family lawyer, had bowed his way out, leaving the only living relative of Mrs. Letitia Lovejoy to digest the will she had left. Everything, with the exception of two clocks, one colonial dropleaf table, one curate's delight and one silver tea service, went to Kathleen. These were reserved for "my dear cousin, Mary Coniston, in loving appreciation of her care and friendship these many years."

The last paragraph, however, had come like a thunderbolt to Kathleen. She had always known that at her mother's death the estate would revert to her by her father's will, but here was a proviso tacked on, of which she had known nothing.

"Providing that said Kathleen Lovejoy shall marry my beloved godson, Randall Lovejoy Phelps."

"You can't tell me, Cousin Mary, that Randy didn't know all about this long ago and he could have saved me by refusing to marry me, then what could she have done about it? I hate him, I'd rather give up everything, the house and all, rather than marry him. It's the lesser evil, and I shall write to Mr. Graham and tell him so." Kathleen wiped her eyes belligerently. "I'm not one bit afraid of work, and you know it. I can go back into the motor corps tomorrow if I want to. They're going to keep up all sorts of branches in reconstruction lines, and I shall write an application tomorrow to be restored to service now that I am free from the care of mother."

Just two days later Randall Phelps sat in Graham's new office up in the Crandall building on Main street and heard Kathleen's opinion frankly expressed by letter. She would not follow the terms of the will. She would never marry Mr. Phelps or anyone else under the terms of coercion, and she was leaving the house at once that there might be no further trouble.

"Where has she gone?" asked Randall, frowning at the portrait of Daniel Webster on the wall.

"Presumably back to the motor corps." Mr. Graham searched the letter again for verification. "Most unusual, but quite like Kathleen. Have you—er—have you had any serious quarrel?"

"Not recently. I haven't seen or heard from her since I got back. Two years ago, just before I enlisted, we—we—oh, the devil, Graham! I'm not going to have her do this. Give up her home and money for me. I don't want her to marry me on compulsion. What can I do legally?"

Nothing, Mr. Graham told him dryly, nothing at all. The terms of the will stood. Perhaps he might win her over by doing something in the same line as herself, first aid, as it were, in the new building-up work with soldiers.

Randall smiled as the plan dawned on him, and he gripped the old lawyer's hand fervently. It did not need any words of his to prove his own stand on the will.

And not a week later, at the little local headquarters in the town, Kathleen received orders to call at the railroad station for the first consignment of convalescent soldiers to be sent up to the Lovejoy place, under Mr. Phelps' arrangement.

Never did any soldier ordered over the top go with a stiffer upper lip than Kathleen. Sternly she faced front and drove along the familiar roads until the row of tall Norway pines came in view, and there was Randall himself to welcome his guests, with Cousin Mary beside him to act as hostess.

They both nodded to her pleasantly, and Kathleen felt flurt and cold as they all passed up the box-bordered walk together. She was to wait there for the two nurses who had brought the men up. But long before they put in an appearance, Randall came leisurely down to the car and lit a cigarette before he opened up a conversation.

"You're needed here more than you are running that car, Kathleen."

"A matter of personal opinion, isn't it?" said Kathleen coolly. "You seem to be very pleasantly situated."

"Nothing has been changed. It is still your property," he said gravely. "I am only acting in your interests in the way I think you would approve of. I'm going to do this all summer. I thought by September you would be tired of running the car, and we could be married about your birthday, the 17th, isn't it?"

"Did you tell Mr. Graham that we were engaged?" Kathleen tried her best to be scornful. It was hard when she saw the new D. S. C. on his breast. Her specialty these days was heroes, and it would be rather nice to have one in the family. Besides, his eyes were disconcerting.

"You gave me to understand we were—two years ago. If you insist, I shall turn the place over permanently as a home for disabled soldiers. I'm one myself, as it is; heart trouble."

She laughed. Down the path were the two nurses, walking slowly and chatting with some of the men. The time was short. He reached in an inner pocket and drew out a small flat billfold she remembered giving him long ago.

Silently he opened it for her scrutiny. Around it was coiled a long curling strand of blonde hair, making a frame. On the other side was a letter, the one she had written him that last day:

"I'm sorry I said no. I never dreamed you were really going. Never believe me when I say no, Randy. I'm still all yours until you return."

"Well, that only says 'until,'" she faltered. But she knew the fight was over as Randall swung around with a ready smile and broke the news to his guests in this way:

"You boys are all welcome—until after the wedding."

Comment, Cleverness and Mere Verbiage From "Educators of the Common People" in Canada and Other Lands.

THESE DEAR DAYS.

[Jefferson City Tribune.]

It has come to the point where a body has to earn twice as much as he is worth in order to get half enough to live on.

OH, DEAR, NO!

[Kingston Whig.]

A Hamilton man has been appointed to take charge of liquor dispensing in Ontario. Nothing political about the appointment, of course. Oh, no!

SATISFACTORY EITHER WAY.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

"The kaiser is to be punished, and Bolshevism buried," says Lloyd George. Perfectly satisfactory, or reverse the penalties, if you like.

A MISGUIDED EDITOR.

[Hamilton Times.]

One would think that every Canadian would look with a kindly eye on Dr. Beland after what he has come through. But the Toronto Telegram seems to make it a religious duty to persecute the gentleman.

DON'T FORGET CHEESE.

[Hamilton Spectator.]

While discussing the cost of butter, the high price of cheese should not be overlooked, the nutritive value of which is securely established. It costs fully twice as much to buy it now as it did ten years ago.

LIGHT READING.

[Ottawa Journal.]

Now that the world is about to settle down to its ordinary amusements, Dr. von Bernhardi should write another novel on the subject of how to conduct a war. Light reading will be in demand after the world gets through digesting the peace terms.

OUR PULPWOOD HERITAGE.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

Sir Lomer Gouin stressed an important phase of our industrial development in his Montreal address, when he declared that we export too much raw material to foreign countries that could be manufactured at home. It is a self-evident truth that Canada has a splendid heritage in her natural resources, and that she should employ these as the basis for holding up a strong indigenous industrial life which will defy competition in all the nations of the earth.

ENOUGH.

[Guelph Herald.]

Canadian manufacturers complain that the workingmen of the country have raised the rate of wages so high that the employers are no longer able to compete with rival firms in the United States, the manufacturers there flooding this country with their products.

If that is the case it is high time that the manufacturers of this country woke up. We are strong advocates of protection, believing that a moderately high tariff is necessary to secure the less organized manufacturers of Canada from being swamped by unfair competition, but there must be something radically wrong with the manufacturing methods of this country if a tariff of 35 per cent or thereabouts fails in giving the employers a chance to hold their own.

CANADA'S SHARE OF HUN REPARATION.

[Ottawa Journal.]

Under the terms of the peace treaty Germany must make within two years an initial payment of 20,000,000,000 marks, approximately $5,000,000,000 in gold. What share of this is Canada likely to receive? Britain's war expenditure was $45,000,000,000. Canada's was approximately, $2,000,000,000. Canada's expenditure, therefore, was one-twentieth of Britain's. If Britain receives one-fourth of what Germany pays she will receive $1,250,000,000. Canada's expenditure being one-twentieth of Britain's, she should receive, on a basis of proportional cost, one-twentieth of the British allotment. One-twentieth of $1,250,000,000 is $62,500,000. That, therefore, roughly speaking, is what Canada has reason to expect as a first installment.

FAIR WARNING.

[Guelph Mercury.]

No true Liberal, the Dominion over, will hesitate to admit that Mr. Fielding, former minister of finance in the Dominion Government, was absolutely right in his contention that the receipts and expenditures on account of the operation of the Canadian National Railway system should pass through the consolidated revenue fund, the accounting to be done by the department of finance, and all expenditures to be pre-audited by the auditor-general. From time immemorial this has been the British system of public finance, and if the present Dominion Government determines to lessen the control of public expenditure by Parliament, then just so much the worse for the Dominion Government. No ministry can afford to bluff the people of Canada on that point; if the present Government tries to do so, Sir Thomas White will soon find his mistake.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advt.

STRENGTH FOR YOUNG MOTHERS

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restores Health and Strength.

Lansing, Mich.—"After the birth of my child I was not able to stand on my feet. I was so weak I could not get up. I suffered such pains in my back I could not work or hardly take care of my baby. One of my neighbors recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I got better right away and was soon a new woman and could work hard, and I can recommend these remedies to other young mothers who are weak and ailing as I was."—Mrs. ORA O. BOWERS, 621 S. Hosmer Street, Lansing, Mich.

Women who are in Mrs. Bowers' condition should not continue to suffer from weakness and pain—but profit from her experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

Peak Loads

IN practically all public services there are what are known as peak load hours—hours during which the demands for service are greater than at other hours of the day. A striking example of this is seen in the case of the street railway rush in the period just preceding and following the business day.

The accompanying curve shows the distribution of Long Distance business over the various hours of the day. It is evident that to make use of the service at hours other than those in which the peak loads are being carried, means that you obtain a more prompt and satisfactory service.

We suggest that where possible, you place your Long Distance Calls so as to avoid the hours of peak loads.

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WINIFRED BLACK

Writes About "A Rubber Stamp Woman."

Copyright, 1919, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Winifred Black

I know a woman who goes around the world with a rubber stamp in each hand—no, I mean in her mind. One of the stamps says "approval" and the other says "disapproval," and whenever you speak or sing or yawn or sigh or sneeze or shiver or laugh or cry or smile or nod or shake your head or walk or sit down or stand up or turn around, or do anything on earth in that woman's presence, you can just see her making up her mind which stamp she's going to use on you.

Approved—that you must be, and everything that you say or do or think or wish or hope or dread or pray, either approved or disapproved you are, in that woman's mind.

Do you like pink? If you're dark and pink is becoming to you the Stamp Woman approves of your liking; if you happen to be blonde with a little red in your hair, she disapproves of it, and you might save her only child from death, nurse her through the fever, pay the mortgage on her grandmother's farm and go bail to get her twin brother out of jail, and she would never forget that she did not quite approve of you because you liked pink, and had no right to like it.

If you happen to think as she does about some perfectly insignificant thing, the Stamp Woman approves of you.

And though you murder a sleeping infant, put poison in your own mother's tea, run out at night and steal the clothes off the neighbor's clothes line, she still remembers that she once stamped you "approved," and she will have forever a little liking for you, no matter what you are or what you do or do not do.

She Weighs Everything.

Interest, a pleasant human curiosity, good-humored human tolerance, the broad view which takes a broad interest in humanity in general—these things the Stamp Woman does not know exist—and if she did know she would not "approve" of them.

She weighs everybody and everything on her funny little scales and measures everything and everybody in her own queer little pint cup, and she never even knows she's doing it.

She can't laugh and let the world go by.

She can't smile at the nonsense of some nonsensical friend, and thank goodness that somebody is light-hearted enough to laugh once in a while, even if she herself feels that the world is going to the demnition bowwows along with our mourned and much-missed friend, Mr. Mantilini.

My friend with the stamp doesn't approve of the woman across the way. The woman across the way has a son who isn't doing just as he should, and she knows it, and tries to pretend she doesn't, and the Stamp Woman thinks she ought to telephone about it, and ask us to sympathize with her, and when the woman across the way gave a little tea party the other day and had some flowers and tried to make herself believe she was having a good time, the Stamp Woman wouldn't go.

She stayed at home—and disapproved.

There's a pretty girl in our neighborhood who has more admirers than she can always manage discreetly.

Dear me, how the Stamp Woman does disapprove of her, and yet she's such a pretty, soft-eyed, smiling little thing—oh, yes, I know she hasn't the wisdom of Solomon or the dignity of Juno, but I can't help wanting to grab her and give her a good squeeze every time I see her.

The Stamp Woman does not approve of me feeling like that; she thinks I show a lack of principle.

The minister's wife is a musician, and sometimes she practises in the morning before the house is quite tidy.

Old and Careworn.

I love to hear her singing, bless her generous heart; she sings out of the fulness of her joy in living, but the Stamp Woman does not approve of her; she thinks the singing so early in the morning must be a great cross to the minister.

She hinted something like that to the minister the other day, and he didn't like it, and he showed that he didn't like it.

Since then the Stamp Woman has not approved of the minister.

I don't wonder the Stamp Woman looks old and careworn before her time.

I'd hate to feel so responsible for people all the time—wouldn't you?

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

Superfluous Hair.

W. J. F.—I'm sorry not to answer your various queries definitely, but upon consulting a dermatologist I am informed that it is almost impossible to give definite replies. Without doubt the electric treatments are the best method, and while painful enough at the time, there are no "after-effects." The length of time for each treatment depends considerably upon the nature of the growth and the disposition of the patient. It is quite probable that you could take the treatments for three consecutive days. The price ranges from fifty cents to one dollar per treatment. When you visit the city you should consult a dermatologist and ascertain the information at first hand.

Tory Is Grateful.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where Hayseed and S. E. S. have kindly sent me a copy of the song, "Footsteps on the Stairs." I have been trying for a long time to get this song, and could not get it. I will be so glad to get it, and thank those who have sent it me, very much indeed. I remain, TORY.

Thinks She's Lucky.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—I will be thinking opals are lucky. If Pussy Willow (2) has sent words and music of "Climbing up the Golden Stairs." This is an old song I have been wanting for ever so long. Miss Grey, you will find a stamped envelope for my poem.

Good luck to you all from OPAL.

Ans.—Lucky or not, the "pome" was here and has been sent you with pleasure.

Little Jane's Wants.

Dear Miss Grey,—Would you kindly give me a recipe for soft ginger cookies and also for a nice white cake. Also a good thing to keep dishes a good color.

A LITTLE COUNTRY JANE.

Ans.—Here are two cookie recipes, both from Pagelites, whose names, however were not preserved with the clippings:

Ginger Cookies.—Half cup of butter, three eggs, 1½ cups sugar, one cup raisins, half cup molasses, one teaspoon soda in a little hot water, ginger and salt, and flour enough to roll into cookies.

Ginger Cookies (no egg).—One cup of lard, two cups molasses, one dessertspoonful of soda; bring these to a boil; when cool add one dessertspoonful of ginger and flour to thicken. Roll out, and sprinkle with white sugar.

White Cake.—One cup granulated sugar, whites of two eggs, one-third cup butter, half cup sweet milk (some prefer water instead), two teaspoons baking powder, lemon flavoring, two level cups of flour. Cream butter, add sugar milk, flour, baking powder and flavoring; beat well, then fold in the egg whites whipped up to a froth. Bake in layer tins or flat pan. Make icing with one tablespoon butter, two tablespoons cream or milk, powdered sugar to make right consistency, and vanilla or almond essence as liked.

2. I scarcely know what you mean, Jane, by "good color for dishes." Do you mean that they get brownish streaks, especially in the tea cups? Use any good scouring powder to remove such marks, and add a little household ammonia to the water when washing dishes.

Tried the Pie.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—I have not written to you before and first thing I want is the stocking-foot pattern. Am inclosing a stamped addressed envelope.

We made "Just Neoma's" chocolate pie, it was certainly splendid.

Could anyone tell me how to make my hair any thicker? I have not had the "flu," but my hair never was very thick.

I would like to get the words of "On the Banks of the Wabash Far Away." Would exchange words of any song I have. Here's luck to C. G.'s column. LEONA.

Paste on Wallpaper.

Dear Miss Grey,—Please inform me through your column what will remove paste from wall-paper. Thanking you in advance. I remain, A READER.

Ans.—Nothing, so far as I am aware. Once the paste is on, it's there to stay, or at least such has been my experience.

The Eighth Anniversary.

Dear Miss Grey,—Kindly inform me through the medium of The Advertiser what kind of a wedding is celebrated when one has been married eight years. Yours truly, RUTH.

Ans.—According to three lists consulted, the eighth anniversary is marked by gifts of rubber. Doesn't sound very romantic, I'll admit, but as the presents could include anything from a fountain pen filler to an automobile tire, they might be decidedly valuable, eh?

She's a War Wife.

Dear Miss Grey,—Would you kindly mail us that wonderful stocking foot pattern? My mother would like very much to have it. We take The Advertiser and enjoy reading about the boats and the names of our boys. I guess it's because I have a husband "over there." I've been waiting for him ever since the war ended, but I'm still patiently waiting. Every letter he says he'll be home. I think it's a shame they have to wait so long, as the U. S. A. brings back more in a day than we do in a month or more. I don't want anyone to say to me again, "Vote for Borden to get the boys home." I think we very much need a change in our government. Prices are terribly high. My husband has been "over there" going on three years. Sincerely,

A WAR WIFE.

Ans.—I'm sure that the days do seem immeasurably long to you, little wife, and can only extend my best hopes for you that very soon you'll see the long-looked-for name among those returning.

Votes for the Receipt.

Dear Miss Grey,—I was much amused at the number of receipts for lemon pie sent to Clematis. Think if she tried them all, she must feel disgusted at the mere mention of lemon pie. I will venture to suggest a change, and by using the grated peel and juice of an orange instead of the lemon, using any good receipe for lemon pie, she will have a very nice pie for picnics, company, teas, etc. It also makes nice filling for tarts. By putting lemon, vanilla or other preferred extract in the meringue, a still further change can be made. I have been surprised to hear famous cooks say they never heard of orange pie, and hope this hint will be welcome by the Boxites. For my part I hope the receipes will not be shut out, for I consider them very fine, and though I have a number of good cook books, I find some of the rules more tasty than the usual recipes. The lemon foam pudding is particularly nice and though I have made, the same thing under the name of snow pudding, I find the Mail-Box recipe a great improvement on my old one. The same with the supper dish of potatoes, onions and rice. As I have a baby girl of six months, a boy twenty-two months old, and three others still older, I have a hunch that that stocking foot pattern is the thing I have been looking for for years, for though I make over stockings they are not very neat looking or comfortable either so if I send an cavelope, May I have the famous pattern? Will sign myself,

MOTHER OF FIVE.

Ans.—You surely deserve a chance to test the foot pattern, anyway, and one has gone on its way to you. I'm glad you find the recipes helpful, and think I shall be able to resume their publication very soon.

An Old Song.

Could you supply me with a copy of the old song of which the following are some of the lines:

Strolling round the town
Knocking people down;
Tasting every kind of wet.
Having a rare old time you bet.

W. R. J.

She Thanks M. O. S. B.

Dear Miss Grey,—Since last I wrote you I received the patterns from M. O. S. B. Your page was so crowded that I waited for a few weeks to see if it would not be less so. Thanks you, much, M. O. S. B.; they are just splendid and I will lend them to mothers here. I want them for a grandson that I expect a soldier son to bring from England soon. Inclosed find four coupons for boy's bicycle.

M. E. H.

Ans.—Re what you ask me privately as to Lonesome Reader, no, I can assure you that they are not mailed to the person you name, but are an entirely different part of Western Ontario.

Notes.

Old But Silent Reader.—You were not the least bother, I assure you. Since writing you will have received the foot pattern, and have noted the paint recipes in our column. The printing of these was delayed a few days because I couldn't find them myself. Now, readers, here is a hint which Old But Silent sends in: If coffee or Postum is used in the place of chocolate in pies it will be found just as good; one good cup of Postum or coffee in the place of chocolate.

The reader who sends 40 coupons toward the bicycle is sincerely thanked for same.

A. K.—Please also accept warm thanks for the 45 coupons received for the same purpose.

Just a Little Help.—Still a third word of thanks for your coupons. I'll have a fat package to send Lonesome Reader this week.

Kandy Kid.—I have a package here for you from Beanpole. Please send me a stamp and your address.

Kate Dairymple—You loaned a book of designs to Topaz, who now returns them. Where d'ye live, Katie, so I may send 'em back to you?

Jeff's Wife—Your letter is sent on to Ornament.

Daily Bible Question Club

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY, MAY 18, 1919.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION.

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

The Grace of God.—Genesis, vi., 8. Exodus, xxxiv., 6-7. II. Corinthians, xii., 9. Ephesians, ii., 4-10. Titus, ii., 11-14.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

7. Ex. 34:6, 7. Why is it impossible for God to extend mercy to the impenitent, guilty sinners?

8. How do you harmonize with God's gracious character the fact that children do suffer through the sins of their parents?

9. II. Cor. xii., 9. This verse is God's answer to a request made by Paul; what was the request?

10. Which is better, to be free from trouble and temptation, or to have both with the almighty grace of God in our hearts which many times outjoys our sorrow?

Golden Text: We shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus.—Acts xv., 11.

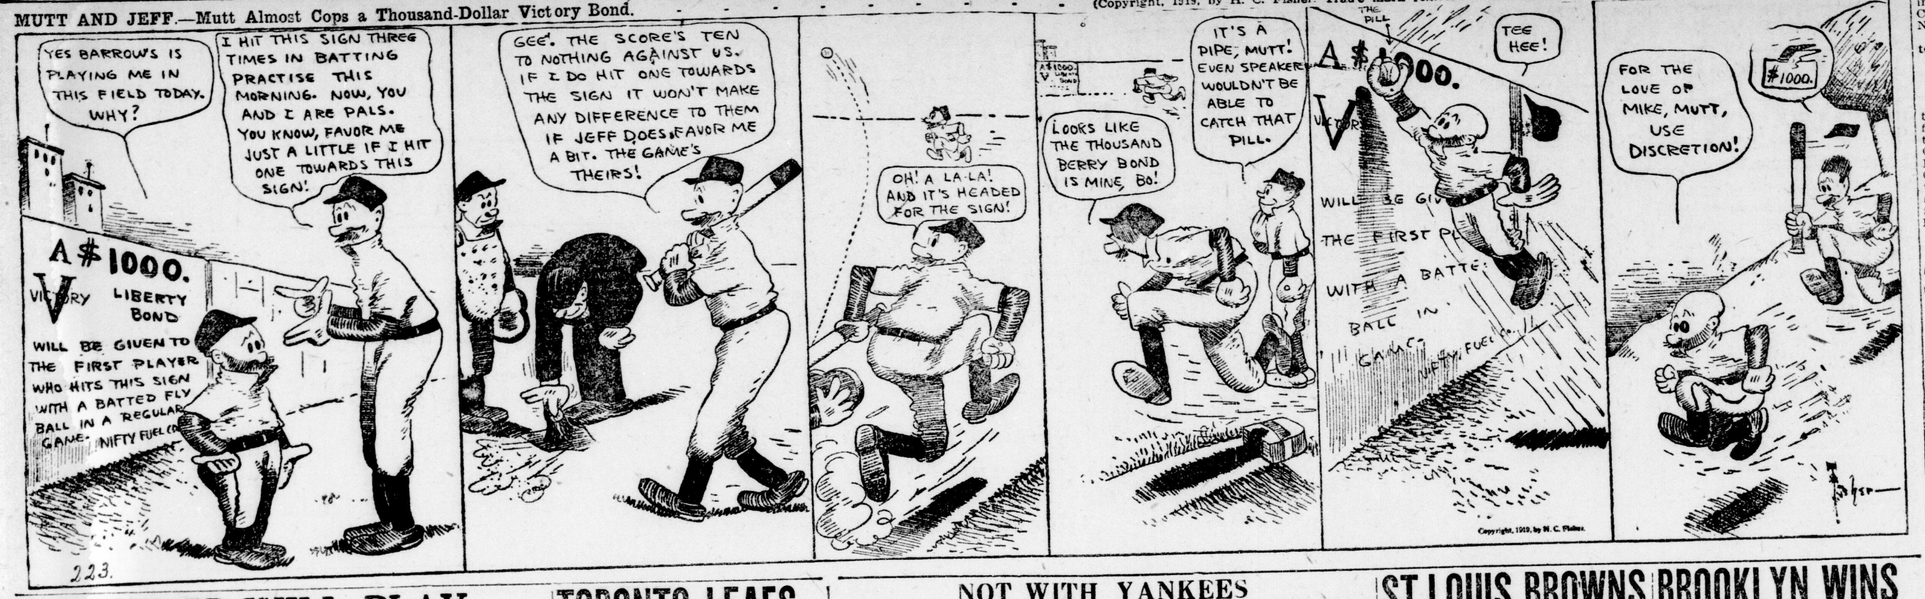

GOD PLANNED THE WAY TO SAVE SINNERS.

God has tried a great many experiments through the history of the ages by which to make men good, but all have been failures. Not that God's plans were not workable, but that men would not accept of them, and notwithstanding God's gracious influence and his expressed desire that the people should be good, and be loyal followers, they have willfully despised his offers. In the thickest of the darkness of the world's history God sent his only begotten Son to save the world. Jesus came offering in the name of God the olive branch of mercy, of peace and good-will. He demonstrated that he was God's messenger by curing their sick, stilling the tempest and raising the dead, but after hearing and seeing him the people went back to their sins.

KITCHENER WILL PLAY HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Manager Beatty's Nine and London Tecumsehs To Meet in Exhibition Game—Leishman To Pitch For Locals—Michigan-Ontario Season Opens Tomorrow.

Manager Beatty's Kitchener team will play an exhibition game with the London Tecumsehs at Tecumseh Park this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, daylight-saving time.

Arrangements were made for this game by the officials of the London club, and the visitors are expected to arrive in this city early this morning.

Manager Keenan and his players held a workout at the ball park yesterday afternoon, and the infield showed up well. Corcoran will play third base today, and this will be the first opportunity for the local fans to see this player in action. Jack Vermilly will play shortstop, and "Rabbit" Reed second base. Bob Donnelly will cover first sack. With this quartet of players, Manager Keenan thinks it will be difficult for the visitors to score.

Gadsby was not out at the workout yesterday, but may be on the line-up this afternoon. Bob Clark will be in right field, and Kelly in centre.

Leishman has been selected to pitch against the Beavers, and Tree will likely catch.

The Kitchener nine will play the opening game in Bay City tomorrow, and will leave here tonight. London Tecumsehs open the season at Battle Creek. The local team leaves tonight on the 10:05 C. P. R. train. Ben Gilbert will pitch the opening game in Michigan, and Tree will likely be used behind the bat.

Pitcher Quinn Reports.

Pitcher "Lefty" Quinn, who was released to London Tecumsehs by the Toronto Leafs, reported to Manager Keenan last evening, and will appear for the first time with the local team at Tecumseh Park this afternoon.

The new hurler comes from Bayonne, N. J., and is well recommended. He may possibly get a chance in the box today against the Kitchener Beavers.

The probable line-up:

Kitchener—Kyle, cf.; Nicholson, lf.; Beatty, 1b.; Wade, 2b.; Brant, rf.; Scanlon, 3b.; Bird, ss.; Harrison, c.; Sharpe, p.

London—Reid, 2b.; Kelly, cf.; Donnelly, 1b.; Corcoran, 3b.; Vermilly, ss.; Tree, c.; Gadsby, lf.; Clark, rf.; Leishman, p.

Umpire—J. Fitzmaurice, London.

KITCHENER TEAM IS READY FOR GAME

KITCHENER, May 13.—The Kitchener Michigan-Ontario baseball team will leave for Bay City tomorrow morning and will play the London Tecumsehs en route in the afternoon. The Beavers took advantage of the fine weather today and are in good shape, considering the training handicaps during the last two weeks. Manager Beatty has decided to make the trip with fourteen men, including himself and Business Manager Les. Seiler. The team will consist of Wilogal, Sharpe, Lodestro and George, pitchers; Harrison and Argus, catchers; Beatty, Wade, Bird and Scanlon, infielders; Nicholson, Kyle and Brand, outfielders. It is probable that either George or Sharpe will be selected for the initial game in Bay City. A number of local fans will accompany the team for the series in Bay City and Saginaw.

WESTERN "U" MEDS '22 DEFEATED '23 IN EXCITING GAME

Class '22 Western University Meds., with the capable assistance of Art Gillies of the Collegiate Institute, defeated Class '23 Meds. in an exciting baseball game staged at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon. The final score was 12 to 9. Leach was on the slab for the defeated Meds, and although he pitched excellent ball, he was relieved by Yorke in the fifth inning. Mace for the winners started to pitch, but blew up in the seventh inning, allowing Hunter to hit a home run, with the bases full, and two out, six runs being registered by Class '22 in this frame.

The game was scheduled to go nine innings, but Class '22, realizing that their reputation was in danger after the seventh inning decided to quit, and left the field. Features of the game were a home run by Hunter, a sensational catch of Leach's foul by Gillies off first base, a double play by McLeod and Beattie, and eccentric base running by Simpson. The team lined up as follows:

Class '22—Cline, catcher; Leach and Yorke, pitchers; Campbell, 1st base; McLeod, 2nd base; Callaghan, shortstop; Beattie, 3rd base; Hunter, right field; Yorke, centre field; Clarke, left field.

TORONTO LEAFS DEFEAT NEWARK BY SCORE 2 TO 1

Purtell Hit Sacrifice Fly in the Ninth Inning, Scoring Gonzales.

TORONTO, May 13.—For the second time in as many days the Queen City fans saw a game decided in the ninth inning, but today the Toronto Leafs maintained their position at the top of the league, when Purtell drove a sacrifice fly to short centre field with the bases full, and although Jacobs' throw to the plate was good, Gonzales slid in underneath the Newark catcher and scored the winning run of a 2 to 1 score.

Paul Jones, recently of the Giants, allowed the Bears but two hits, but awarded eight bases on balls, coupled with four errors behind him, so that the six hits the Leafs got off Shea was a very good showing for the visitor. He probably would have fared victorious, as his team-mates got their only run in the first inning, and it was not until the eighth that the local team tied it up. Anderson driving a hard smash to the right field bleacher fence for three bases and then scoring on Sandberg's sacrifice with the tieing run.

STOCKYARDS STRIKERS GO BACK ON THURSDAY

TORONTO, May 13.—The trouble between the Union Stockyards and seventy employees who went out on strike in sympathy with the striking packing house workers and were refused work on Monday morning when they applied for their former jobs, although the strike of the packing house workers had been settled, through the intervention of Hon. Gideon Robertson, minister of labor, was amicably disposed of today. It was agreed that the seventy men should return to work on Thursday morning, pending the consideration by the management of the stockyards and the union of a fresh schedule.

ST. LOUIS BROWNS BEAT WHITE SOX BY SCORE OF 2-1

Cleveland Indians Win From Detroit Tigers—Only Two Games Yesterday.

CHICAGO, May 13.—St. Louis batted Robertson, a Sox recruit, hard in the first two innings, and won the final game of the series, 2 to 1. Kerr succeeded Robertson and shut out the Browns the rest of the way. Chicago's lone run was awarded by the umpire on St. Louis' interference with Jackson after muffing a throw to stop a double steal. The score:

TIGERS LOSE ANOTHER

DETROIT, May 13.—Timely hitting by Cleveland batters and the unsteadiness of Detroit's pitchers gave the Indians their second victory in the postponed series here today, 8 to 5. With Cleveland in the lead by four runs in the sixth inning, Flagstead led a Detroit rally with a home run that fell only one short of tieing the score. The score:

BROOKLYN WINS FROM REDS IN OVERTIME GAME

Giants Defeat Chicago Cubs—St. Louis Cards Beat Boston Braves.

BROOKLYN, May 13. — Brooklyn played the second extra inning game in succession today, this time beating Cincinnati in the eleventh, 4 to 3. It was a pitching duel between Pfeffer and Fisher, both of whom had won four straight games. Both pitched great ball, and each helped to bat in a run. In the eleventh successive singles by Myers, Konetchy and Malone brought in the winning run. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati .....002 000 010 00—3	8	0
Brooklyn .....000 110 001 01—4	10	2

PHILLIES TAKE GAME

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—Philadelphia defeated Pittsburg today, 3 to 2, principally because of the effectiveness of Jacobs. Cutshaw's drive into the left field seats and a tally handed to the Pirates by Jacobs' lapse from form in the seventh was all their scoring. Great outfielding by Bighee and Meusel saved both pitchers. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg .....010 000 100—2	3	0
Philadelphia .....011 100 00x—3	8	0

GIANTS DEFEATED CUBS

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Giants defeated the Cubs here today in the first game of the series by a score of 3 to 2. The Giants batted Alexander hard, but were unable to bunch their hits until the sixth inning, when New York scored three runs on singles by Young, Doyle, Kauff and Fletcher. The latter's hit sent in two deciding runs.

Benton, the Giants' pitcher, settled down after the second inning, only three hits being made off him after this inning. The score:

SARNIA COMMERCE CHAMBER HAS OPTION ON SITE FOR HOME

SARNIA, May 13.—At the forum meeting of the chamber of commerce here tonight, following the luncheon, the selection of a permanent home for the chamber was the chief subject of discussion.

Judging by those who spoke, it was apparent that the majority present favored the community hall proposition, yet the proposal of the G. W. V. A., that a soldiers' home be erected by money subscribed by the people, has also many supporters.

It is understood that the chamber of commerce has an option on a local site that would be suitable to house that organization.

STREET CAR STRIKE IN BORDER CITIES COME TO AN END

Men and Company Agree To Make Concessions.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, May 13.—After a street car strike that has lasted continuously for ten days and has tied up almost completely local transportation facilities on the east as far as Tecumseh, eight miles distant, and on the west, Amherstburg, eighteen miles away, as well as all intermediate points, including the City of Windsor, an agreement was arrived at this evening by which both sides make substantial concessions, and tomorrow morning the cars will be running once more.

The Conditions.

The strikers return to work at the old rate of pay, pending the submission of a bylaw to the ratepayers of the municipalities concerned, allowing the Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Railway Company to charge a straight five-cent far, instead of the six tickets for a quarter as at present. One cent additional for transfers is also to be asked.

After the passage of this bylaw the employees' pay will be increased to a minimum of 40 cents an hour for the first six months and a maximum of 50 cents, the increase to date from May 15, 1919.

All strikers will be reinstated by the company. The terms of settlement make no provision, however, either for union recognition or for the dismissal of Superintendent Hayes, the strikers having agreed to waive these claims.

BAKERS GET MORE MONEY AND BREAD AT ONCE GOES UP

Brantford Workers Win—Massey-Harris Head Conciliatory.

BRANTFORD, May 13.—Brantford union bakers made a demand today for wage increases and shorter hours, the latter involving a six instead of a seven-day week, and after conferences of several hours a threatened strike was averted. The men were given their demands. The master bakers announced at the same time that an increase of half a cent a loaf in the price of bread would go into immediate effect as a result of the increases given the employees. All non-union as well as union men were given increases.

PRESIDENT CONCILIATORY.

President Findley of the Massey-Harris Company, Toronto, made a trip to this city today, and all work ceased at the Brantford plant to permit the president to address the entire working force on the present industrial situation and the threatened strike of the metal trades in Brantford. President Findley stated that the making of demands impossible of fulfillment would not accomplish the end desired by the operatives. The address was conciliatory and was listened to with respectful attention by 1,000 employees.

MATRON IS HOME.

Capt. Carolyn Powell, daughter of H. H. Powell of this city, has arrived home after long service as matron of the Massey-Harris Hospital at Dulurch, England. Capt. Powell was promoted to be matron of the hospital a year ago, and reports that it was an all-Canadian institution and one of the best equipped in England.

GRANT REFUSED.

The request of the Brantford Trades and Labor Council for a grant of $2,000 for labor propaganda and uplift in this city has been turned down. The grant was reported as an illegal one, and aldermen supporting such were liable to be proceeded against for recovery, according to legal opinion secured. The request was made following a recent one for $1,000 by the chamber of commerce for industrial bureau work.

WAS SET UPON.

J. Kaligian, charged with mortally wounding one Najarian in a recent brawl over cards in this city, was first struck and set upon by Najarian, after which a knife was drawn and the fatal injuies were inflicted, according to evidence given to the police court this morning. The case will be concluded Wednesday.

TRADE WITH CHINA.

F. N. Ross, who leaves for China in the course of a few weeks as Canada's trade commissioner in that country, today completed a canvas of 30 Brantford manufacturers in regard to the establishment of trade relations with various parts of the Celestial Empire. A special effort is being made in the matter of agricultural implements, in which trade there is said to be a wide field for development.

MARKET ON FRIDAY.

An effort made here to have the celebration of May 24 as a holiday laid over until the Monday following has failed. The city council has decided that market day will be observed on Friday, and the holiday on Saturday.

OFFICERS DEMANDED IRISH MINISTER BE BARRED FROM CANADA

Canadian Soldiers Claim Rev. Brother Thomas A. Rapilly Made Himself Obnoxious.

HE DENIES ACCUSATIONS

Declares 76 Per Cent of Ireland's People Are Sinn Feiners.

Halifax, May 14.—Heated arguments on Irish affairs on board the Royal George during her trip from Liverpool to this port caused a number of Canadian officers to demand tha Rev. Bro. Thomas A. Rapilly of Cork, Ireland, be not admitted to Canada. This morning, when the ship docked, officers protested against Bro. Rapilly's presence in Canada, and stated that he rendered himself generally obnoxious throughout the trip. On one occasion, they said, in the heat of an argument in the smoking salon, he announced that he was coming to Canada for the purpose of spreading Sinn Fein doctrines among the French-Canadian population. They also stated that he openly refused to respect the customs associated with the singing of the National Authem.

Not to Spread Ideas.

Bro. Rapilly told the Canadian Press that he was coming to Canada by way of the United States on educational and private business. He said that his business had nothing whatever to do with the spread of Sinn Fein ideas. Bro. Rapilly said he had founded schools in Montreal and elsewhere in Canada in 1911 at the earnest request of the French-Canadian population, who felt that there were not sufficient facilities in the country for the teaching of their children in the French language. He would visit these schools on his present trip, and if he felt that the situation warranted it would endeavor to extend their scope and usefulness.

Wants Irish Independence.

Bro. Rapilly stated that he had shown no disrespect during the singing of the National Anthem. He had stood with the others on one occasion, and on another had gleft the room before the opening bars. What he had stated in private conversation during the voyage was public property in Ireland. Asked concerning the general situation in Ireland, Bro. Rapilly stated that the Sinn Fein party, representing 76 per cent of the population, demanded the independence of Ireland, that was all. He thought that with every country in the world being given the opportunity to develop its own national existence, Ireland should not be left in the cold.

"Seventy-six per cent of the population of Ireland are enslaved," said Bro. Rapilly. "They have to walk between barriers of fixed bayonets when they wish to go anywhere. I would prefer not being a slave. As for the Sinn Fein party, it is nothing more than the old National party under a new name."

Chicago, May 14.—Opening: Corn—May, $1 70; July, $1 61¾. Oats—May, 67½c; July, 67c.

Winnipeg, May 14.—Oats opened ½c to ⅝c lower for July at 74¾@74⅞c; October opened ¾c lower at 68⅜.

Barley opened ⅜c higher for May at $1 12⅞; July opened ½c to ⅝c lower at $1 10¼@1 11⅛.

Flax not quoted.

Chicago, May 14.—Excelent weather for planting tended today to force the corn market sharply downward. Developments in the European diplomatic field were also given a bearish construction by many traders. Besides, gossip was current that measures would soon be taken to permit a renewal of before-the-war methods of dealing in wheat. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½c to 4⅝c lower, were followed by slight additional setbacks and then by a moderate rally.

Oats were off with corn. After opening ⅝c to 1¼c down, the market sagged a little further, and then recovered somewhat.

Winnipeg, May 13.—Oats opened 1c higher for May at 74¼c; July opened unchanged to ⅜c lower at 75⅝c to 75¼c. Barley opened ⅝c lower for May at $1.15, and July ⅝c higher at $1.14⅞. The flax market opened 6c higher for May at $3.95, and 3½c higher for July at $3.84.

Victories of Peace

If Canada is to share in the Victories of Peace she must translate into industrial activity the spiritual valor of her men. War developed untold possibilities in human energies.

They and we know the part that engineering played in war, but they and we know that its part will be infinitely greater when applied to the arts of peace.

Men who did big things are not going to let their energies lie fallow because the conflict is done. Already they are grasping industrial opportunities, and the driving force and the unconquerable spirit that kept them at the big task overseas will make them formidable competitors here.

Men contemplating new enterprises or the re-establishment of old industries are invited to visit us and draw upon our experience in all matters pertaining to Power Transmission Engineering.

We welcome them back into industrial life, and we offer them the best that we have to aid them in re-establishing their industrial footing.

We have made great strides in productive capacity in the past four years; and we are eager to match this capacity with the initiative and ability of new forces in the industrial world.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND
ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF
REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

The Way Madge's Partner Managed To Place the Evening's Peace in Danger.

I had no time to reflect upon the startling comment Alice Holcombe had made to me concerning Mrs. Stockbridge's sanity, for the doorbell pealed again, this time in reality heralding the arrival of "the Prices," with their friends, "the Bishops." Both were typical suburban couples, the husbands evidently prosperous businessmen, the wives slender, middle-aged women with a sort of preserved prettiness which they evidently spent much time in protecting.

Mrs. Stockbridge hastened forward to greet them, her husband reappeared from his self-imposed banishment, and all six went upstairs to the rooms where the wraps were laid. Alice Holcombe turned to me, a mocking little smile on her lips.

"There are only left to appear the cavaliers Milly has selected for Bess and me," she said. "They're worth a careful inspection. Bess draws the village medico, a bachelor, who somehow didn't get to the war, and who divides his time when with Bess between fearing and hoping that she will bedevil him. Mine, a widower of substance, is frankly afraid of my aging charms, and shies palpably whenever he sees me. But Milly has made up her mind that he would be a nice prop for my declining years, so she religiously pairs us off whenever she has a party."

Her voice, despite its mockery, held a tinge of bitterness, which I understood when later I was introduced to the pompous man whom Mrs. Stockbridge had impertinently assigned to Alice Holcombe, by far the cleverest woman in the room. His name, as I caught it, was Donkers, and I could not help the thought that if the twenty-fifth letter of the alphabet had been substituted for the last two of his name it would have suited him far better.

Madge Looks Around.

A more self-satisfied, assertive man I have seldom met, and I could see that beneath the mocking mask behind which Alice Holcombe hides all feeling, she was annoyed and humiliated at the patent fear of being inveigled into matrimony which the widower betrayed when he was with her. A dozen times during the evening I heard him refer to his "dear departed wife," as if he were invoking a protecting angel, and I also heard him make the assertion at least twice that "second marriages were most unwise."

Despite this sepulchral note the dinner really went off very well. Alice Holcombe is an unusually witty woman, Dicky and Bess Dean are both to be depended on to make a dinner conversation sprightly, while Kenneth Stockbridge—whose spirits seemed to rise with his wife's absorption in Dicky's nonsense—kept the management of the conversation unobtrusively but firmly in his own hands, throwing out little side remarks that managed to include the rest of us "listeners" and keep the affair a general discussion instead of a series of monologues and dialogues as so many dinner conversations are apt to be.

Bess Dean "Warned."

If the dinner could only have ended the evening! But unfortunately a large number of guests had been invited to the reception following, and, of course, Dicky, the lion of the evening, could not to be kept dancing attendance upon his hostess, palpable as was her attempt to keep him in just that position. Bess Dean, a flame of color in her gown of scarlet chiffon, with a single spicy carnation of the same shade stuck carelessly but most effectively in her wonderful brown hair, made a second determined effort to secure Dicky's exclusive attention, but Alice Holcombe unobtrusively summoned her to one side, and I saw by the younger girl's face that the older woman was laying down the law in militant fashion.

"What's the real answer?" Miss Dean drawled a bit unpleasantly. Her voice, though low, reached me distinctly, as I had a shrewd suspicion she meant it to do. "Friend Husband to be tagged 'Hands off'? Why didn't you warn me before?"

I found it hard to keep my facial muscles under control upon hearing the catty little speech, but I think the wary widower to whom I was talking had no suspicion of my emotion, instead, thought I was giving most flattering attention to the solemn philosophy of life which he was expounding to me. But I strained my ears for Alice Holcombe's answer.

"You know better, Bess Dean," was the low, indignant reply. "Now you come here and listen to me."

The two moved to an alcove and the rest of their conversation was inaudible. But Bess Dean kept away from Dicky's vicinity the rest of the evening.

Milly Stockbridge, however, waxed sulky when the demands upon Dicky's attention left her without his stimulating nonsense. I suspect also that Dicky had tired of the quasi-flirtatious investment which she had managed to give to their conversation, and was not unwilling to avoid her as much as he could consistently with the courtesy due his hostess. At any rate, both Alice Holcombe and I watched with rising anxiety the sombre light in Mrs. Stockbridge's black eyes, and the nervous, rapid manner of her speech. And then, of all times in the world, my pompous friend chose the moment to summon Mr. Stockbridge.

"Oh, Stockbridge!" he called, "Please come here and convince Mrs. Graham she is wrong on this."

HIS FRIENDS HELP.

And there sat poor Cousin Bruin, with that round basket on his head, down over his eyes, so that he couldn't see a wink, and he felt very low in his mind.

The Blue Jays, those blue-coated policemen of the Great Forest, flew all around and scolded every minute, and finally set off to find that wicked woman, the cause of all poor Cousin Bruin's trouble. "And a good thing, too, it is to have them gone," said Jimmy Coon, "for they make such a fuss. You can't make yourself think, even if they are the police of the woods; they always arrest the wrong people."

"Now," said Teddy Possum, who seemed to manage the whole thing, "this is the plan I have been thinking about. First of all, I will tie my long tail around that basket, and then when I begin to pull, Chatterbox, you and Jimmy Coon gnaw with your sharp teeth the splints of the basket. Work hard, and Cousin Bruin will pull hard. Now, all together, one, two, three, go." and Teddy Possum pulled so hard that he fell over backwards.

Chatterbox scolded and scolded, and he bit and chewed with his sharp little white teeth. Jimmy Coon worked like a Beaver; Cousin Bruin tugged and pulled with all his might, and he growled, too, for the sharp splints ran into his face, but at last, off came the basket, or what there was left of it, and all those poor animals fell on the ground just worn out. And Cousin Bruin's face was bleeding from the splints of the basket, and so Jimmy Coon ran and got a pawful of black mud and tied it right on that cut place on Cousin Bruin's face with a long piece of grass.

And old Jim Crow, sitting on the top rail of the fence, cried out: "Caw, Cow, what a lot of stupids you all are. I could have pulled Cousin Bruin out in half the time."

"Well, why in thunder didn't you say so before, and save us all that work and trouble?" snapped Jimmy Coon. "You always say that when the work is all done, and I have never heard that you did anything but say 'Caw, Caw,' and I am just sick of your boasting."

"Come, come," said Teddy Possum, "we've had enough trouble for one day. That woman we must catch and eat. She is the very one who has given us all this trouble. You watch us catch her."

"Now, all together, one, two, three."

"Caw, Caw," called old Jim Crow. "I'll watch all right, but you'll never catch her."

"Well, then, we'll catch you and eat you alive for dinner," snapped Jimmy.

Tomorrow—The Bathers Escape.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

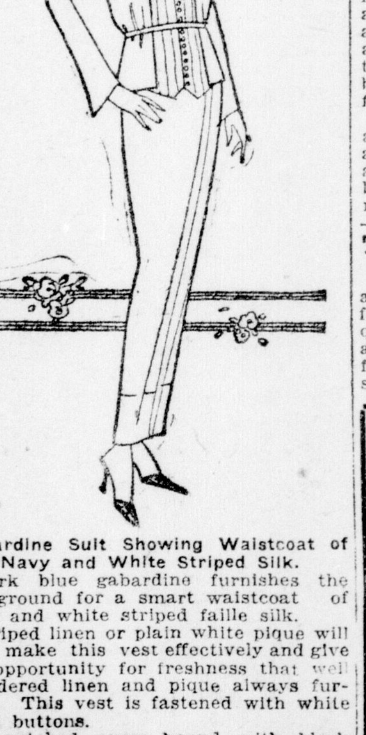

By Genevieve Kemble

THURSDAY, MAY 15.

The positions of the planets for this day call for careful handling of affairs, particularly for those in the employment of others. Any unwise or unconsidered move might put their positions in jeopardy. For others it would be advisable to defer the seeking of honors, preferment of favors until a more propitious time. This hazardous situation is enhanced by the Luna square to Uranus—warning against sudden change, removal or journeys. The position tends to make the conduct impulsive, eccentric or unconventional, all of which impulses leading to hazardous and unforeseen predicaments, awkward to explain and difficult to untangle. Jupiter in unfriendly position, but adds to the dilemma, promising no financial or other profit.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year demanding skill and deliberate as well as cautious manipulation to avoid complicated situations. A child born on this day will be proud, domineering, erratic and unsettled.

Today's Fashion
By MME. FRANCES

Gabardine Suit Showing Waistcoat of Navy and White Striped Silk.

Dark blue gabardine furnishes the background for a smart waistcoat of navy and white striped faille silk.

Striped linen or plain white pique will also make this vest effectively and give the opportunity for freshness that well laundered linen and pique always furnish. This vest is fastened with white pearl buttons.

A notched rever bound with black silk braid finishes the coat. The sleeves are also bound with braid around the wrist and on the three-inch slash of the cuffs.

The skirt of this smart costume is plain and narrow. A hat of red straw, which is trimmed with a feather fancy, and a band of red moire grosgrain ribbon, goes well with this suit.

The Death Warrant Delivered.

No defence can be offered when you apply Putnam's to a sore corn—the offender has to die. Nothing so certain to quickly cure corns as Putnam's Corn and Wart Extractor; try Putnam's, it's free from acids, and painless; 25c bottles sold by all dealers.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.

GEORGE WALSH AT THE PATRICIA TODAY IN "LUCK AND PLUCK"

Speedy Screen Star Does All Kinds of Athletic Stunts in His Newest Photoplay.

Just because some clever plotters thought they put one over on him they became reckless and exposed themselves. Whereupon they were beaten, pummeled, and put out of business forever. That's one of the big incidents in the latest George Walsh picture, "Luck and Pluck," which will be shown at the Patricia again today only.

George was known as "Velvet," a sort of crook; but he forgot all his past when he met a girl. She turned out to be the daughter of the chief of the U. S. Intelligence Bureau, and was being used by the chief plotter, to whom she was engaged, to foster his own interests.

Walsh goes through every conceivable athletic stunt in his chase to round up the agents, and he has a most amazing scene on a motorcycle when he crashes through the door of a house which is the headquarters of the plotters in their attempt to escape and abduct the girl. George comes out alive, rescues the girl and puts an end to the spies.

In addition to this feature, a Sunshine comedy, a Strand comedy and a vaudeville act are provided. The entire program is of a commendable nature.

An eye-headache sometimes accompanied by an earache and burning sensations of the eyes is caused by an overeffort of the brain to understand a blurred image that has been thrown on the retina of the eye. In the eye-camera the focl are changed by the eye muscles that swell and reduce the shape of the crystalline lens. When these muscles become weakened an optometrist must prescribe the outer-man-made lenses to bring about this focus accommodation.

COMEDY CYCLING ACT HEADS VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM AT GRAND

Joe Whitehead Provides One of Laughing Hits on Bill.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

Appears in "Cheating Cheaters," Her Latest Film Success.

"The World on Wheels," a most amusing and daring bicycle novelty will be presented by Sig. Franz and Company as the headline atraction on an excellent vaudeville bill to be presented at the Grand again today. This company, consisting of three comedians and a star, La Petite Violette, exhibit a series of remarkable cycling feats that keep an audience laughing one minute and thrilled the next.

Joe Whitehead, the well-known entertainer whom all vaudeville fans delight in seing again and again, will be another big atraction on this bill. Mr. Whitehead has a line of comedy that makes him the laughing hit of the performance.

Allen and Betty Leiber will offer a comedy playlet with a surprise entitled "Breaking it Gently." This amusing little sketch is well acted, and, as an entertaining number, it cannot be excelled.

Ella La Vail, a dainty little aerial artiste, offers many new and sensational stunts on the flying trapeze.

Bissett and Scott, vaudeville's premier dancers, have a terpsichorean novelty that wins immediate favor because of its extreme speed and the original steps introduced in the offering.

Clara Kimball Young in "Cheating Cheaters."

"Cheating Cheaters," a screen adaptation of the famous Broadway success of the same name will be presented at the Grand today with Clara Kimball Young as the star. Miss Young is seen as Nan Carey, a member of a famous band of crooks, who are posing under the family name of Brockton. They establish a home in a fashionable section of New York, and become acquainted with the wealthy Palmers. Finally a time comes when Ruth Brockton, alias Nan Carey, is invited to spend the night with the Palmers, but instead of making a haul of the famous Palmer jewels, she discovers that they are paste and that the Palmers are also crooks. At last the situation is straightened out, and the leaders of the two gangs plan to form a syndicate. During the thread of the story there is evidence of much fear from the operations of a renowned detective who is known as Ferris. It develops later, however, that Nan herself is the famous Ferris, and a most unusual romance takes root. The Grand topical review will complete the bill.

"HEART OF HUMANITY" DRAWS CROWDS TO MAJESTIC THEATRE

Stupendous Scenes in Super-Photodrama Showing Again Today and Thursday.

SHOWS ARE CONTINUOUS

Miss Cora Tracy, Opera Star, Provides Excellent Program of Songs.

"The Heart of Humanity," the superpicture based on a Canadian woman's sacrifice during the great war is attracting capacity audiences to the Majestic Theatre, where it will be shown again today and Thursday. The opening and closing scenes of this great photodrama are laid in the Canadian northwest. Dorothy Phillips has the leading role, which she portrays in an excellent manner. The producer had emphasized that his feature was not a "war picture"—that it was a love story, with war as a background—and the producer is justified in his contention for he has conceived and built an offering that makes hundreds sob and cheer almost in the same breath.

The story deals with the romance of Nanette, a little Canadian wife in whom a great mother-love is awakened by her husband's written description of the sufferings of French and Belgian children. She goes to France as a Red Cross nurse and is captured by the Germans in their advance in Flanders. She is rescued later, however, by her husband, who escapes from a German prison after a series of thrilling incidents, but not until she has plunged a knife into her bosom in an attempt to kill herself rather than suffer a worse fate at the hands of a Prussian officer. When she recovers in a hospital weeks later, she is decorated by the French Government for her valorous service as a Red Cross nurse.

Tribute To Womanhood.

"The Heart of Humanity" has been built round the theme of woman's sacrifice for the cause af humanity and it is a throbbing tribute that is inspiring as well as entertaining. Scenes heretofore considered impossible to stage before the movie camera have been worked out to an amazing degree of realism, and Director Holubar has achieved great results in relieving the thrill of military atmosphere with wholesome comedy without breaking the sequence of the story.

The picture is one of the best productions ever seen on the screen. The strong cast of capable performers, in support of which is Miss Phillips, includes William Stowell, Margaret Mann, Pat O'Malley, Robert Anderson, Gloria Joy, Walt Whitman and George Hackathorn.

As a special added attraction, Miss Cora Tracy, the operatic star, renders a program of high-class vocal selections.

WILLIAM DESMOND IN OUTLAW ROLE

Appearing At the Star Today in "The Prodigal Liar."

William Desmond, in "The Prodigal Liar," his latest picture, will be shown at the Star for the last time today. He wears chaps and six-shooters, posing as a real western desperado in order to furnish "romance and adventure" for a young girl from New England, who imagines the west as a country infested with dashing and picturesque bad-men.

The beautiful and unsophisticated maiden is hoaxed by the spurious outlaw, who enlists her sympathy by the lurid tales of his alleged wild career. He claims to be a victim of "aphasia," caused by a blow on the head, and says that he is not responsible for his lawless deeds.

The innocent Delilah "beaned" her hero with a rock, only to be captured by a real desperado and carried away by him in a wild flight on horseback, pursued by the sheriff's posse. Her "hero" proved a real hero by rescuing her from the outlaw's clutches, although he also proved to be "The Prodigal Liar," who lied himself blue in the face in order to furnish her with "romance and adventure."

TEXAS OIL STOCKS ATTAIN GREATER VALUE BECAUSE OF LOW CAPITALIZATION

New Canadian Organization in Feld of Development.

Scarcely a day passes that news to the effect that some operator in the Texas field has turned his holdings into a company financed by eastern connections is not forthcoming. Investigators who have been making a study of the situation for the eastern investors give several reasons for this. When the first Texas field was brought in, the men who organized to promote its development followed a wise course, they say. The syndicates then formed were moderately capitalized. Promotion expenses were held down to a reasonable level, and no attempt was made to cash in on blue sky. The result was that in most cases their acreage alone soon came to be worth more than the amount expressed by the figures which revealed the total of their capitalization, and when production was brought in it was an easy matter to pay big dividends.

As a rule the men responsible for early Texas development capitalized their properties on a basis much lower than is considered legitimate in any other oil field in the world. Expectations were not taken account of to anything like a justifiable extent. The least sensational Texas oil well is therefore worth five to six times more than it is capitalized for according to the standards by which eastern investors measure such properties.

The precedent set by the early Texas operators has been followed by the Toronto-Texas Oil and Gas Company. This company is capitalized for only $100,000, and owns oil and gas leases covering 2,936 acres right in the path of development in Red River County, Texas. So stockholders in this company appear to be in line for handsome profits; besides, the value of the company's leases has been approved by the secretary of state of the state of Texas.

Never before in the history of oil development has the blue sky peddler been so little in evidence as in the Texas oil field.

The reason for this is that it was necessary to rely on investigators who know the value of leases, and are able to accurately appraise the claims of promoters for the money needed to bring the field in. And the obstacles placed in the way of promoters of worthless schemes by the Texas statutes checked the floating of illegitimate enterprises. b

CLUBROOMS WILL BE OPENED BY LOCAL A. AND N. VETERANS

Rush of Applicants For Membership Experienced.

Members have so increased in the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada that it was decided at their meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building last night to open spacious club rooms at 64 Dundas street to enable them to properly look after their members.

Since its last meeting the Veterans' Society have been besieged with applications for membership. A large number have already been admitted, 50 being initiated last night, and entrance papers are now made out for 30 others. The London Unit No. 23 has a most bright outlook, and preparations are being made to make it second to none in Canada.

Chairman Fred Young occupied the chair.

"DIVINITY OF CHRIST" SUBJECT OF LECTURE BY PAULIST FATHER

Will Speak on Christian Science Tonight.

"The Divinity of Christ" was the subject of the Paulist Fathers' lecture in St. Peter's Cathedral last night. Father Gillis was the speaker, and, before proceeding with his subject, he answered a number of questions deposited in the question box.

"Thou art Christ, the son of the living God," was the speaker's text. He said:

"The Catholic Church, with her perfect understanding of the dogma of the incarnation, has always been the firm, uncompromising defender of the divinity of Jesus Christ. The Pharisee in the bitterness of his hatred might cry bah! to the sufferer on Calvary's hill, the Roman in the might of his power cast ridicule on the crucified Jewish slave, the Greek in the pride of his intellect sneer at the absurdity of the strange, new doctrine of the resurrection, the modern rationlist blurt out defiantly his denial—nevertheless from St. John, the beloved, in his sublime gospel of the Logos, to our present pope, the Catholic Church has ever proclaimed Jesus to be the Son of God and the Son of man in one divine personality.

Strong in Faith.

"Strong indeed is the faith of all true Christians—Protestant and Catholic—in this fundamental dogma. Stronger and firmer it grows with each succeeding age. As a gigantic cliff on the shores of the restless ocean drives back year after year the waves that beat fiercely against it in every storm, so the strongly entrenched truth of Christ's Godhead resists each century's denial. Ours is not the faith of the unreasoning fanatic, ours is not the credulity of the ignorant and superstitious barbarian—it is the acceptance of a truth that humanity instinctively longs for, it is the acknowledgment of a dogma guaranteed by evidence that should conquer the allegiance of any earnest and intelligent soul.

"Who was Jesus Christ? Let the Athanasian Creed give the answer.- He is 'God of the substance of the Father, born before all ages, and man of the substance of his mother, born in time. Perfect God and perfect man, subsisting of a rational soul and a human body. Equal to his Father, according to his divinity, less than his Father, according to his humanity. Who, although he is God and man, yet is he but one Christ. One, not by the cvanging of the divinity into flesh, but by the assumption of the humanity unto God. One, not by the confounding of substance, but by the unity of person. For as the rational soul anl the body is one man, so God and man is one Christ.'

Christ True Speaker.

"Jesus Christ, on the admission of even his bitterest enemies, was a true speaker—the noblest and best of men, in whom the centuries have been unable to discover the slightest imperfection. But he plainly asserted that he was God, equal in all things to the Jehovah, whom the Jews adored, and whom he always called his father. Besides, he allowed this claim to be maintained by his friends without denying it, and to be denounced by his enemies without correcting them. Unless Jesus was divine he could not have so spoken or acted.

"He claimed perfect equality with the Father in absolute oneness of essence. I and the Father are one;' in purity of working power: 'My Father worketh until now, and I work'; in eternal being: 'Before Abraham was made, I am'; in the equal right to the homage of all mankind: 'That all may honor the Son as they honor the Father.'

His Word Eternal.

"He always attributed to himself powers and prerogatives that belonged to God alone. As God, he pardons sin and delegates that power to his apostles; he puts himself on a par with the legislator of Sinai, he declares himself the way, the truth and the life; he promises eternal life as his own gift; he promises to judge all mankind; he declares his work eternal.

"Such claims are unintelligible unless Jesus be divine. All agree that He was sincere, humble, and unselfish. How can anyone reconcile such a character with a life of such tremendous self-assertion? Every honest teacher is bound to correct the mistakes of his audience. The Jews knew that Jesus claimed to be God. If He were mere man, would He not have at once repudiated their mistake and said like Paul and Barnabas at Lystra: 'We also are mortals, men like unto you.'"

The lecture tonight will be on Christian Science, by special request.

INGERSOLL BOARD OF TRADE APPROVES OF FACTORY LOAN

The proposed expenditure of another ten thousand dollars in the market building and the erection of a shelter for corporation machinery was also approved.

There was further discussion of the housing scheme in which much interest is being manifested.
