CHILDREN'S DAY AT ST. ANDREWS

Little Ones Supply Pleasing Service Of Sacred Song

Rev. Dr. J. R. Battisby Compliments Them On Success of Event

"And a little child shall lead them."

Sunday morning a large congregation of grownups witnessed with unfeigned pleasure a sacred song service given at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church by a choir of little ones, the oldest of whom could not have been more than twelve years. The occasion was Children's Day at St. Andrew's, when the church choir vacated their seats in favor of the Sunday school children.

The interior of the sacred edifice was beautifully and most tastefully decorated for the occasion. The pulpit and organ were banked with flowers and white ribbon, while potted flowers and palms were hung from the galleries at appropriate distances throughout the church.

Hymns, anthems and solos by the children's choir, formed the musical program. Too much credit cannot be given to the children, their teachers and their parents for the unique and pleasing success which the event proved to be. The splendid impression made by the children's choir is best described in the words of Rev. Dr. J. R. Battisby, the respected pastor of St. Andrew's, when he paused during the course of his address to the little ones to say:

"It has done my old soul good to hear these young voices lifted up in sacred praise. Their anthems and solos—sung so gently, so sweetly, without one particle of affectation—so naturally, I tell you, it is something which must be pleasing in the sight of God."

The solo, "Pretty Little Pansy," rendered by little Miss Laura Allen, and another solo rendered during the offertory by little Miss McConnell, added a distinct charm to the service. Both little girls did exceptionally well for vocalists of their tender years. They sang with grace and confidence, and yet childish modesty, which could not help but captivate even the most cynical.

Eight verses from the eighth chapter of Exodus, were read clearly, and with a very proper voice inflection, by Master Ray Judson.

It was on these verses that Rev. Dr. Battisby based his address to the children, whom he exhorted to a constant watchfulness that they deviate not from the straight and narrow path. The verses from which the text was taken, speak of the plague of frogs which was visited upon Egypt, and the reverend gentleman very aptly compared the building of human character to the development of the frog.

The sermon was an instructive and interesting one to grownups as well as children. As yesterday was Patriotic Day as well as Children's Day at St. Andrew's, the service was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

BASEBALL

THE HEELERS WIN.

At two o'clock Saturday afternoon the Tammany Heelers and the team from the Motor Car Works played a game of ball. The result was a victory for the Tammany Heelers with a score of 10 to 8. The game was a very good one up to the 8th innings, the Motor Car Works being ahead up to that time. During the 8th innings the Tammany Heelers woke up and got in seven runs. During the game there were seven bunts off the winners. Three men got bases on three successive bunts, when Depew went to bat and made a 3-base hit, thus letting them all home. Woods made a home run and played a good game throughout.

The line-up was as follows:
M. C. W.—C. Elliott; p. Minto; 1b. Richards; 2b. Smith; 3b. Tenney; 4b. Tickner; rf. Summers; cf. Daniels; ss. Depew.
T. H.—C. Head; p. Trotter; 1b. Pleasance; 2b. Wood; 3b. Gray; 4b. Weller; rf. Wallard; cf. Brady; rf. Waller; ss. Raynor.

WEST IS ALL TO THE GOOD

H. S. Clements M. P. Says Government Will Change This Time

The Feeling Against Public Graft Prevails All Over Canada

In a short interview with The Planet, Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P., who has just recently returned from a trip through the Northwest and British Columbia, expressed himself as very confident of the future of the west.

"The people in the west are a very broad-minded people," he said, "and there is no doubt that the west is destined to be a great country. I was particularly interested to note everywhere a growing feeling of dissatisfaction with the present Government at Ottawa. Everywhere you go, through the west, you find the strongest Liberals denouncing the disgraceful practices and graft which prevail at Ottawa. The graft sentiment is all over the country, and the action of the church workers and preachers in passing resolutions of condemnation has done much to create a feeling of unrest. There is a general feeling that it is time to put a stop to graft at Ottawa, and it is my firm belief that you will see a change of Government at the next election. I know now, after my trip, that the west will do its share in turning out the grafters."

"The money market is very stringent in the west. It is impossible to get money, and the public are feeling it. This is the case all the way to the coast."

"I met many Chatham people during my trip. Among those who are doing well in the far west are, Dan Cole, whom I met in British Columbia. He is working on a railway there. William Holden is in Regina, running a restaurant, and doing well indeed. Harry Judah, a nephew of Henry Weaver, is in the Melford district, getting along in good shape. Dr. Shadd, of course, is also doing well in the Melford district. He has a fine practice and is exceedingly well thought of by everyone."

"I met innumerable Chatham people, and this fact alone meant much to the enjoyment of the trip."

BRAKEMAN SCALDED

Was Pinned Between Locomotive and Tender in Wreck.

Ottawa, June 24.—William G. Douglass, a G.T.R. brakeman, died in the hospital here yesterday after hours of terrible suffering, from injuries he received in a wreck last Saturday night near Eastman Springs.

At the time of the accident he was on the locomotive and while the rest of the trainmen succeeded in jumping and saving themselves, he was pinned between the locomotive and tender and held there for hours with scalding water pouring over him.

With the aid of farmers the other trainmen finally released him, but he died shortly after reaching the hospital.

The collision was between a freight train out of Ottawa and a light engine running from Hawkesbury to Ottawa for repairs.

One of the locomotives and three cars were derailed, the other locomotive was badly damaged, and the track was torn up for 200 feet.

It was necessary to transfer passengers to and from Montreal yesterday morning while the wrecked cars were at work to repair the damage.

TRAGEDY IN A TRAIN.

Barber, Crazed With Drink, Shoots Three Passengers.

Denver, Col., June 24.—While crazed by drink John Belle, an Italian barber, shot and killed C. V. Topp, a tailor of St. Paul, Minn., as he slept, and wounded Mrs. Olsen, a bride, and Mrs. Harry Blakeley, sisters of Marshall, Minn., all passengers on a train westbound on the Rock Island road near Selden, Kansas, Saturday night. Belle and his companion, Patsy Longobardi were arrested and removed from the train at Goodland, Kansas. The wives and children of the Italians came to Denver and decided yesterday to return to Chicago. The two families had started from Boston for San Francisco. Belle had boarded the train at Chicago on Thursday night. He and his companion had been drinking and Belle imagined he had been robbed.

TAYLOR HAS HYPNOTIC EYE

Under His Blazing Optics Witness Becomes Confused And Stammers

Taylor-Wilson-Casey Jolification Is Aired In Court—Other Cases

A large crowd who gathered in Judge Houston's court this morning expecting to hear the spiny evidence in the Taylor-Wilson-Casey indecent conduct case, were doomed to be disappointed. Judge Houston ordered the court room cleared before the hearing came up, and no one was admitted with the exception of the officials, the witnesses and the reporters. However, those who had to stay out didn't miss much, outside of the details of a disgusting orge in which the unfortunate trio took part.

The prisoners were David Taylor, Mina Wilson and Hattie Casey. The two women sat in the pen with bowed heads, and a nervous chuckle now and then was the only sign of animation they gave expression to. Taylor, however, was constantly on the alert, and as each witness came up to give his or her testimony, Taylor transfixed them with his glittering eye. Taylor's eyes are his most prominent feature. They are dark and piercing. There is something penetrating and hypnotic in them. Under their magic spell, one witness suddenly seemed to lose his confidence in his version of the scenes on the west end near the C. P. R. tracks last week, and under Taylor's cross-examination, he commenced to contradict what a few moments before he was sure about.

Edward Hutchison and William Illingsworth testified to seeing Taylor with the two women on Friday last. Illingsworth claimed he saw them on two occasions, but when Taylor commenced to question him, he suddenly appeared to get rattled, and said he was not sure whether it was Taylor he saw or not. Evidence was also given by a number of ladies who witnessed the disgraceful scenes, but out of respect for them, their names are excluded from this report. According to the evidence, Taylor and the two women must have been having a rare old time. They admitted buying over two pints of good whiskey and getting on the outside of it, but Taylor contended that all the reports about indecent conduct were untrue. Every one in awhile when the evidence took a turn against him, he would hop up on his only leg and look daggers at the witness.

The evidence which went to convict Taylor, is excluded on account of its unsavory nature. A letter which Taylor wrote to Judge Houston, in which he promised to be good, and claimed that Mina Wilson was the cause of his downfall, and that she disgraced him, was read in Court.

When Mina Wilson heard it, she gave vent to a loud peal of laughter. "Me disgrace him? Hal! Hal! That's too good. Judge, I don't know whether he disgraced me or I disgraced him, but I guess we are about even in this disgraceful business," And Mina fairly doubled up with merriment.

Taylor was remanded till next Tuesday for sentence. Judge Houston intimated that he would probably get a year in Central in the meantime the authorities at the prison will be communicated with in order to ascertain whether they will take in a cripple or not.

Mina Wilson was sentenced to six months in Mercer Reformatory, and Hattie Casey was discharged, as the evidence relative to indecent conduct was not very strong against her.

If looks could kill, Judge Houston would have surely succumbed under the black and ugly grimace which Taylor favored him with as he left the court room for the cells.

Benjamin McCallister's fondness for red-eye cost him $1 and costs, $8 in all, at Police Court this morning. His recollection of what occurred during his spree was rather hazy.

Wm. Chippewa, the Indian, who was up last week, charged with being drunk, said this morning that he cannot remember who sold him the whiskey. He said that he has a wife and family, and he was anxious to get out. He was fined $1 and costs, $4.50 in all.

Green, the colored man, who was found guilty of selling liquor to Indians last week, was up again this morning, but said that he was unable to raise the wind to pay his $50 fine. He was sentenced to six months in Central.

"I'll just get out the day before Christmas," was the optimistic remark of the prisoner.

"This should be a lesson to you not to sell liquor to Indians again," said the Judge.

"All depends on m' mind, Judge," was the laconic reply.

As the reporters were passing the cells downstairs, Green whistled to them through the bars.

"Give me a cigarette," he pleaded. "I won't get a chance to smoke."

MASONS AT HOLY TRINITY

Parthenon Lodge Held Annual Church Parade Last Evening

Rev. Mr. Hodgins Gave Excellent Address—Music Was Very Fine

The members of Parthenon Lodge, No. 287, A. F. & A. M., celebrated the feast of St. John the Baptist by attending divine service at Holy Trinity Church last evening in a body. The members assembled in their lodge room at half-past six o'clock, and marched to church, headed by Henry Darr, Bro. G. W. Sulman was director of ceremonies, and had charge of the parade. Besides the members of Parthenon Lodge, there were many members of Wellington Lodge and Wellington Chapter in the parade.

The sermon was preached by R. W. Bro. J. W. Hodgins, rector of Holy Trinity Church. Mr. Hodgins gave a masterly address, and it was generally commented upon as one of the best Masonic sermons ever delivered in Chatham. It was thoroughly appreciated by every member of the Royal Craft whose good fortune it was to be present.

The music for the occasion was very appropriate and excellently rendered. The choir gave a number of splendid choral numbers, Mr. Rutley rendered a solo, and the solo part in the anthem was taken by J. D. McAlpine. Special mention should be made of the excellent manner in which the organists, Miss Rose Morrison conducted her part of the musical service. Miss Morrison is a very capable organist, and handles her instrument with great taste and ability.

After the service the brethren returned to their rooms, where votes of thanks were passed to Mr. Hodgins for his excellent sermon, and to those who contributed towards the musical part of the service.

A PULPIT EXCHANGE

Rev. A. H. MacGillivray, pastor of First Church, and Rev. F. E. Malott, pastor of Victoria avenue Methodist church, exchanged pulpits last evening. The exchange was a very pleasant one, especially in view of the happy relations which exist between these two churches. The congregations were large at both services, and very profitable and interesting sermons were delivered.

At First Church Mr. Malott gave an instructive and thoughtful discourse on the Secrets of God. The music by the choir was, as usual, of a high order. A splendid anthem was given in excellent style and a duet by Miss Peate and Mr. Wilson, and a selection by the First Church male quartet added much to the success of the service.

Mr. MacGillivray's sermon in Victoria avenue was especially earnest and convincing. Special music in that church also tended to increase the profit of the occasion.

TRANSIENT TRADERS

Lambton County Council will have to deal with a petition in regard to certain rural merchants who make a practice of sending a man out through the farm districts with a wagon and trading directly with the farmers. This method of doing business is hit hard by a by-law which was passed imposing a fee of $100. The merchants who operate wagon routes appeared in force to present their grievances, and were armed with petitions signed by the farmers with whom they do business. One of them stated that every farmer in the County Council will support their opposition to the $100 fee. The merchants in the towns contend that the fee is a proper protection against the influx of Syrians and other peddlers.

any more for six months."

Mrs. John Owens paid a fine of $1 and costs, $4.50 in all, into the city coffers this morning, for the privilege of referring to Mrs. John Dittmar as "old mother Dittmar," some time ago.

This impulsive and indiscreet remark on the part of Mrs. Owens was given expression to during a street corner conversation between Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Mary Lockman, Mrs. Jennie Smale and Adelia Webster. Mrs. Owens was alleged to have said to Mrs. Lockman:

"You're as bad as old mother Dittmar. There is no use talking to you. You have three or four fellows boarding at your place, and one of them took you to the circus."

Mrs. Dittmar overheard the remark and promptly had Mrs. Owens pulled. In fining Mrs. Owens, Judge Houston also handed a little sage advice down as he said:

"If you would obey the eleventh commandment, which is to say, 'Thou shalt mind thy own business,' Mrs. Owens, you wouldn't be coming up in our Court so often. My advice to you is to bridle your tongue, if you don't, you will probably get a sterner lesson next time."

LAWN WATER SERVICE.

Whither is the management of the Waterworks drifting? When by a public vote the water supply was put under the control of two Commissioners and the Mayor for the time being it was thought that these gentlemen would manage the new undertaking in the interest of the city at large, and no doubt in the past good service has been rendered and the wants of the citizens considered. The Commissioners acted as the servants of the people to operate the Works for the public good and without undue burdens, but they nevertheless looked forward to the reduction of water rates as the users increased and the service extended; and in fairness to the Commissioners of the past it must be said that the supply through meters reduced the cost of house service; and a reduction in the cost of lawn service with a flat rate according to the size of the lawn greatly encouraged the general public in beautifying the city and making it comfortable, because—subject to the limit upon the hours of service—the citizen paid the same whether he watered his lawn and street well or did not water them at all.

Are we now at the threshold of a new era of management? Are the Waterworks in future to be run for the citizens and the good of our city or are they to be run as if a private money-making concern, the property of the Mayor and the two elected Commissioners?

The Commissioners have been criticised for the recent proposal to put all water-takers to the cost of charging their service pipes so as to take and pay for the lawn supply at meter rates the same as the house supply. The meter for the house supply works well. Each family uses what they please for their selfish purpose in the kitchen or bath, or elsewhere, and they pay for what they use. This payment by meter rates instead of fixture rates was commended by the Waterworks Association recently in Toronto. The Planet has always favored it; but the Toronto discussion was based upon the installing of the meters at the cost of the individual. Whether the individual or the Waterworks bear the cost the meter rate instead of the fixture rate has been for years encouraged and enforced without objection here. That is not in issue. The criticism upon the Chatham Commissioners is not affected by what was said by the American Waterworks Association; and the Water Commissioners were in no sense sustained. Meters for lawns and streets were not under discussion, and no one attempted to justify the discouragement in beautifying our lawns or in laying the dust or in cooling the streets.

No one suggested that a householder should be charged meter rates for watering the boulevard or sprinkling the street which are both the property of the public; and the public desire to thank rather than to assess the householder for his service for the public comfort and benefit.

The change in policy seems even more serious than at first suspected. The Commissioners were criticised, and the criticism is answered by Mr. Weir, the secretary and paid official! Imagine a Minister of Public Works being criticised, and his secretary answering! Think of an attack upon the policy of the City Clerk! The Commissioners need no reminder that they are the elected representatives of the people, and it is for them to answer to their constituents. But have the Commissioners become imbued with the idea that they own the Waterworks and are the masters and not the servants of the people? Have they inspired Mr. Weir's answer, and will they accept responsibility for it? Mr. Weir says, "No merchant would for a stipulated sum allow a customer to take from his box of tea what he wished." The merchant owns the tea and makes the most he can out of his customer; and do the Commissioners think that they own the water and are justified in squeezing all they can out of the water-taker? Heretofore in our innocence we thought the citizens owned the water and that the Commissioners were elected to manage it for the citizens and in the public interest to improve and protect the city.

Again, Mr. Weir tells us that with few exceptions the parties were advised to put their whole water service on the meter, as the time would surely come when it would have to be made compulsory. Do the Commissioners take responsibility for this? Give us the names. Did Mr. Quinn or Dr. Holmes or Dr. Bray so advise them? If so, the records of their proceedings are directly contrary to their advice. Those Commissioners have shown in every act, in resolution, in by-laws, and through their licensed plumbers, their desire to encourage the liberal use of water for lawns on a flat rate without meter. Let Mr. Weir or the present Commissioners name a single man in authority in the past who gave the advice he mentions, or who supported or notified the public of the new policy now proposed by the Commission! How could the Commissioners of ten years ago foretell that their policy would be reversed by those of today?

We repeat that this change should not be made without a mandate from the people. The masters have never directed or sanctioned and the servants should not introduce so expensive and radical reversal in policy as is involved in forcing every water-taker, at his own cost, to alter his service pipes and instal meters and pay extra for watering the lawns and boulevards and street, or leave the lawns and boulevards parched with the sun and the streets in a cloud of dust. By all means, stop the waste, but the lawn meter by-law is not required to accomplish that. The waste has admittedly been going on to the knowledge of at least the engineer and secretary without any action being taken to stop it.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

(Contributed.)

The W. C. T. U. met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Wilson, with the president in the chair. Several departments of the work were discussed and plans made for the annual flower mission tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Hendershott, Emma street, the able superintendent of that department. The proceeds to be applied to the salaries of the two missionaries engaged by the Provincial Union for work in the lumber camps and mining camps of Northwestern Ontario. The Labrador mission work was also discussed. Much regret was expressed that temperance and hygiene is no longer an examination subject on the Public School curriculum. Instead, our children's minds are crammed with a lot of knowledge which will be practically useless in their future, while that of their moral welfare is neglected. It has been well said that the star of hope in the temperance reform is over the school house, for to the school house door come all the future citizens of our country.

On Friday evening of last week the members of the Union gathered at the home of the president, Mrs. Graham, to bid farewell to one of their number, Mrs. Margaret Cartier, who was leaving the city. After refreshments had been served Mrs. Cartier read an address referring to the faithful work done in the society by Mrs. Cartier in years gone by, and expressing the hope that wherever she might go she would still work to advance the white ribbon principles of total abstinence and purity, and in memory of their pleasant intercourse the Union wished her to accept a little token—a gold brooch with amethyst setting.

Though taken by surprise, Mrs. Cartier responded very feelingly, and after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the company dispersed.

BASEBALL

CHATHAM WON.

The Spartan baseball team, of Detroit, came up to this city on Saturday and were defeated by a picketed team from the local league. The game was a very good one, although several errors were made. For the first four or five innings Chatham played all around and over the visitors and in the fifth inning they made six runs. Several of the Tammany Heglers were in the field and did nice work. The Detroiters were all very good players. Their combination work was excellent and they are to be complimented upon their neat and aggressive playing. Their pitcher, however, was rather weak. For the last half of the game, when the players became used to the ground they played good, fast ball.

Chauncey Dopew, for Chatham, was there with the goods and did fine work. The Detroiters fooled him on second base, however, with their neat combination. Robert pitched a good game all through, and Taylor behind the bat was also in good form. The game resulted in a score of 6-12 in favor of the local team, although the neatest and best combination work was performed by the visitors.

ANTQUITY OF AN OLD TUNE.

When Napoleon's army was in Egypt in 1799 and the band struck up the tune which in England is set to the song "We Won't Go Home Till Morning" its effect on the Bedouins was electrical. They leaped and shouted and embraced one another deliriously. They averred that they were listening to the oldest and most popular tune of their people. It is thought that the tune was brought to Europe from the dark continent in the eleventh century by the Crusaders.—St. James' Gazette.

PERSIAN REVOLT CRUSHED

Shah's Rebellious Brother Seeks Asylum in British Consulate.

Teheran, Persia, June 22.—About Fath Mirza Salaned Dowlah, the rebel brother of the Shah, and third son of the predecessor, Muzaffer-Din, has taken refuge at the British Consulate at Kermanshah and asked security for himself and his family.

About Fath Mirza raised the standard of revolt immediately on his father's death. His claim is that Mohammed Ali Mirza, the present Shah, though his father's eldest son, is not the son of a princess of the Kadjar race and therefore is not qualified to become Shah. About asserts that he is the eldest son by a Kadjar mother. He was Governor of Luristan, a mountainous province in Western Persia, previous to his revolt, and he had a force of 10,000 local troops at the outset, with which he started to march to Teheran.

FIVE AUTOISTS KILLED.

Car Ran Into Rock and Was Demolished.

Naples, June 22.—A most appalling automobile accident occurred at Casinelle, about 100 miles distant from Naples, Thursday. Five men being killed. The motor car, which was going at high speed, ran into a rock and was demolished.

Among the killed was Prince Pescara, a member of the Italian nobility and related to the Spanish royal house, on account of whose death the aristocracy of the whole of lower Italy will be in mourning.

Word has been received in Rome that the automobile containing Marquis Ferraris, the Duke de la Regina, two guests, one of whom is believed to have been an American woman, and chauffeur, plunged into a ravine on the Naples road. All were killed.

INSOLVENT GROCER ARRESTED.

Milwaukee, June 20.—Ira B. Smith, member of the wholesale grocery firm of Smith, Thorndike & Brown, which recently went into involuntary bankruptcy, was arrested yesterday, charged with obtaining money under false representations of his firm's finances. He gave $6,000 bail. Smith is said to owe the firm about $100,000.

NEW LINE TO MUSKOKA.

Canada's Great railway, in building a line to connect Toronto with the main transcontinental track at Sudbury, has incidentally given us a new direct route to the Muskoka Lakes district, over which fast passenger trains will be running after Saturday, June 22nd. Bela, which is three and a half hours from Toronto, will be the Lakes terminus this summer, and there steamers of the Muskoka Navigation Co. will connect with trains, carrying travellers to all points on Lakes Muskoka, Joseph and Rosseau. The roadbed is heavily laid and well ballasted, train equipment is new and of the latest and excellent time is made. In addition to the local trains there will be two flyers to the Lakes, the Lakeland Limited and Sunniss Express, and two flyers south-bound, the Queen City Flyer and Twilight Limited. Through sleepers will run to and from Toronto, Buffalo, and New York, and, of course, a splendid equipment of parlor cars, dining cars, and luxurious day coaches. C. B. Foster, District Passenger Agent, C. P. R., at Toronto, will be glad to mail full particulars of trains and handsome illustrated Muskoka folder, or send mail to be obtained free from local C. P. R. agents.

Engineer Badly Scalded.

Ottawa, June 22.—Engineer Edward Reddick of Ottawa was severely scalded on the arms, legs, body and face in a collision Thursday night at Lachute, as a result of the steam escaping from a break. His head also was badly injured. He is in the hospital here critically ill.

Fireman Row was also badly bruised, but not so seriously. They were brought to Ottawa by special train this morning. Both trains were on the way to Montreal.

Edward Reddick, the Ottawa engineer so badly injured at Lachute Thursday night, through steam escaping in the cab he was in, died at the general hospital yesterday afternoon.

It is understood there will be a full enquiry as to how another train was standing at Lachute station. Coroner Bapiste opens an inquest this morning.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merit, and made them remedies of known composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the closest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. The book or book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral acids or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for women, nervous, over-worked, run-down, nervous and debilitated women, were employed long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their women. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapse, anteversion, anteversion, relieving, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

TROOPS HELP RIOTERS

French Battalion Deserts and Joins the Wine-Growers.

Raided Ammunition Stores—Marched Out of Barracks With Flying Flags—Premier Refuses to Parley With Them—Rumored Assassination of Prefect—Artillery Proceeds to Scene to Compel Surrender.

Paris, June 22.—A battalion of the 17th Infantry Regiment, stationed at Agde, in the Department of Herault, has deserted with its arms and ammunition and joined the insurgent wine-growers at Beziers, the headquarters of the regiment. The mutineers, who mostly were recruited from the wine-growers, number about 400 men. They marched into Beziers, which has about 50,000 inhabitants, with drums beating and colors flying, and are now camped in the principal square of that city, with stacked arms. The deserters tried to enlist the sympathies of the remainder of the regiment, stationed at Beziers, but, failing to do so, they promised to eject them from the barracks.

Premier's Curt Reply. Early yesterday afternoon the sub-prefect of Beziers notified Premier Clemenceau that the mutineers had offered to return to Agde on the condition that they were not punished. A little later they renewed their demand to be allowed to re-occupy their former barracks at Beziers. M. Clemenceau curtly replied that he refused to parley with deserters, or consider any proposal but unconditional surrender, adding that he was determined to utilize all the country's force, if necessary, in order to suppress the uprising.

General Bailloud, with artillery and other troops, is proceeding to Beziers in order to compel the unconditional surrender of the mutineers, who are now said to number 607 men.

The Cabinet held a lengthy session Thursday night, only breaking up at midnight. The crisis in the Midi was thoroughly discussed. At 2 a.m. it was announced that Premier Clemenceau had received a message from the Prefect at Narbonne stating that order had been restored.

Blood Incensed Mob. Narbonne, June 22.—A conflict in which the 139th fired volleys caused the worst possible impression. The shooting appears to have been due to the precipitancy of a non-commissioned officer; and it is stated that the commandant of the 139th was so horror-stricken at the unfortunate affair that he tore off his insignia of rank in front of his men, and later resigned his commission, but this is not confirmed. Crowds stood Thursday night mournfully gazing at the pools of blood where the dead and wounded fell. On the bloodstained paving stones is chalked the inscription: "Here fell the victims of the 139th. Death to Clemenceau and Picquart."

The funeral of the victims was fixed to take place yesterday, and the greatest disturbances were apprehended. A police commissary of Paris who was detached on special duty at Narbonne was caught by the mob and horribly beaten. It is feared he will not recover.

There are persistent rumors that the Prefect of the Department of the Aude has been assassinated at Narbonne.

Support Cabinet.

After six hours' debate the Chamber last night by 327 to 223 votes decided to support the Cabinet and give the Ministers a free hand to employ any measures they deem best to re-establish order.

The receipt of a despatch from Beziers later in the day announcing that the mutinous battalion had decided to return to the rest of the regiment caused decided satisfaction in official circles, as it was hoped that the action taken would head off any further open insubordination among the troops.

TEN YEARS FOR ARSON.

Admitted Sitting Fire to Restaurant Out of Revenge.

Toronto, June 22.—For setting fire to the kitchen of the Richelieu Restaurant, 84 West King street, a few days ago, Gordon Charles, who informed the insurance company of his action, was sentenced to ten years in Kingston Penitentiary by Magistrate Denison in the Police Court yesterday.

Charles Ward, on a grave charge, also got ten years. His wife and two daughters testified against him.

Thief Throws $100 Away.

London, June 22.—While returning to the city from Springbank, Abraham Slater, a member of the firm of Slater Bros., tailors, was relieved of $700 by a pickpocket, while riding on the rear end of a heavily loaded trolley car. The thief got away with the cash.

At midnight Slater came across his man at the Grand Trunk depot, and again gave chase, during which he saw the pickpocket throw something into a pile of old bricks. This he found to be $100. The thief escaped.

Strikers Win Out.

Montreal, June 22.—The strike of the Dominion Transport Co.'s teamsters, which started Wednesday, when 300 men employed by the company stopped work, was ended last night by the company agreeing to grant the increase demanded by the men, who will receive $1.15 a day and 200 an hour overtime. They were receiving $1.60 a day.

Will Not Declare Strike.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—A conference yesterday of delegates representing all the revolutionary groups, including the Polish socialists, union of railway employees, group of tail and peasants party, rejected the proposal to declare a general strike as a response to the dissolution of Parliament.

WANT TO DELAY TRIAL

Judge Landry May Refer Emmerson Suit to Supreme Court.

Case Adjourned to Monday—Commission to Examine Witnesses Is Refused—Mr. Emmerson Hints That Dice Are Loaded—Counsel Declares He Will Not Go on in That Court—Crocket Scores.

Fredericton, N. B., June 22.—Hon. Mr. Emmerson, in spite of all of Mr. Pugsley's cunningness, was backed up yesterday morning step by step until at last he declared that he would not go ahead with his case. The counsellor is quoted as saying: "I am not playing with loaded dice." Jas. H. Crockett, the defendant, has been receiving congratulations all day.

Court opened with an attempt by the prosecution to procure a postponement because two witnesses, by name Foster and O'Brien, were missing, one being in England and the other in the United States. So swore Hon. William Pugsley, by affidavit, to the best of his knowledge and belief. One of these men, it was believed, had been the porter who had assured Mr. Emmerson's lady friends that there was no need to leave the hotel. The affidavit concluded with the assertion that it was not made for the purpose of delay.

Mr. Pugsley followed up the filing of this document with a citation of decisions as to adjournments of criminal cases. As to the time of making the application, the contention was that the crown could not have moved before the plea of justification has been entered.

"In connection with this, I propose to ask your honor to refer to the Supreme Court, which meets on August 30, the question of law as to whether or not your honor should have overruled the demurrer.

A Ruling on Libel.

"It is a question affecting libel suits generally, because there is a section in the code which says that no man is guilty of publishing defamatory matter, which he on reasonable grounds believes to be true. If your honor's memory is correct, on any charge of this nature bearing upon private character, if the court holds that the publication is in the public interest, no matter whether the statement is true or not, all the defendant has to do is to enter the box, give the source of his information, and say that on reasonable ground he believes the statement to be true."

Judge Landry went over the code on this subject, and Mr. Pugsley proceeded to declare that under his honor's ruling there could be no successful prosecution for libel.

A discussion arose as to whether Judge Landry had actually held that The Gleaner publication was in the public interest.

"I said that I was not convinced that it was not," said the judge. "But I am ready to make the stronger declaration, and say I believe it to have been in the public interest."

Mr. Pugsley forthwith, with due deference, accused the judge of doing what no other judge had ever done. The defence should have known that if he filed a plea of justification the crown would ask for and be entitled to an adjournment.

"I ask for this commission as a matter of right."

Court Overrules Motion.

John Lloyd, the ex-night clerk, and Harry Dean, ex-night watchman, at the St. Lawrence Hall, were then placed on the stand. They were positive that neither O'Brien nor Foster, both ascribed as employees of that hotel, had been in the service of the hotel on June 10, or for a considerable time prior thereto.

The court overruled the motion for a commission to examine these witnesses.

Mr. Pugsley again implored the court not to bring on the trial, but to refer the legal questions contained in the demurrer to the full court.

This led Judge Landry to say: "I feel strongly on the question of a reference to the full court. While I am satisfied that my decision of yesterday was right, yet it would be a relief to me to have it upheld by the full court. I will give a decision on Monday, but I would suggest that witnesses be on hand."

"Then I may tell your honor frankly," interposed Mr. Pugsley, "that if your honor refuses to refer the case to the Supreme Court, in view of the strong feeling that I have and though there would be no great difficulty in getting an appeal to the Supreme Court, I would feel it my duty before going to trial to exhaust every resource that the law offers. I may tell my learned friend (Mr. Hazen) that he need not have his witnesses here on Monday, as I will not go on this mor at the court."

Judge Landry said that it was because of the difficulty in the way of an appeal that he was reserving judgment. He wanted to get information as to the sittings of the Supreme Court, to see if there could be a speedy argument.

Hazen: "Do I understand that my learned friend will not go on?"

Mr. Pugsley: "Not at this court."

"Do I understand that you will enter a nolle prosequi?"

"No, I have made my statement. I do not propose to add or to detract from it."

During the argument Mr. Pugsley remarked that it was not a private prosecution, but in every case there must be some one to lay the information.

A Safe Investment

What Marshall Field Once Said

Real Estate in a good locality and in a growing village, town or city is the safest investment a poor man or woman can make. It cannot run away, bust up or cheat. My advice to a young man or woman who can spare $5 or $10 per month from his or her earnings is to put it into a small piece of mother earth. Even if it is only a small vacant lot. My first start in life was doing just what I now advise others to-day.

The above was the advice given by Marshall Field in an address given to young men and women on How to Succeed in Life.

The Elms Sub-Division

At head of King Street opposite St. Joseph's Hospital, presents to you the opportunity of your life. Lots in first block east of our sub-division sells at from $18 to $20 per foot. Ours at only $11 per foot and some at $7 and $9 per foot, other lots at $160 and upwards.

Pay as You Like

You can own a lot in the Elms Sub. by paying $10 down, $5 per month, with only 5% interest, or you can pay whole, or any part just as you like. Perfect right, no mortgages or notes asked from purchasers, you get a land contract which you can bring into the Merchants Bank, Chatham and get credit thereon for whatever you want to pay or whenever you want to pay a little or more.

CUT THIS OUT

When you have an hour to spare, take a walk up the Elms Sub-Division of No. 1, there you can select your own lot. As every lot has a white stake in the center of the lot and 22 feet back from the front lot line, which is known as the building line. On this stake you will find a white card, giving the No. of the lot, size and price. All sold lots have a red card marked sold.

Drop me a card to Garner House and I will call on you with full particulars, or you will find my city salesman on the grounds every evening from 6.30 to 9 p.m. Don't miss this opportunity.

HOLDS UP STAGE COACHES.

Robber Was Cool and Secured $300 With Much Jewelry.

Raymond, Cal., June 24.—Two stage coaches, carrying 16 tourists bound for the Yosemite Valley, were held up and the passengers were robbed of $300 and much jewelry by a lone highwayman the other night about 40 miles from here.

The robber was very cool and business-like.

It was just at twilight that the first stage was stopped as it turned a corner of the road. The driver, there, was the first warning of trouble, and the driver found himself looking into the barrels of a shotgun before he had time to lay hands on the weapons that rested at his side.

The robber stood on rising ground at one side of the road. He wore a linen duster and a slouch hat. His features were covered with a black mask.

Some of the women started to scream, but the passengers were told no harm would come to them unless they refused to obey quickly and silently. The driver was soon standing, hands in air, by the roadside, and the passengers joined up with him.

When the masked man had filled the pockets of his duster with coin and jewelry he ordered the passengers back into the stage one by one.

At the first halting place a posse was organized to run down the outlaw.

The Biggest Kind of a Change that Ever Happened to Any Magazine Has Happened This Month to

THE SCRAP BOOK

THE SCRAP BOOK for July is issued in two sections—two complete magazines, each with its own cover and its own table of contents. One of these sections is an ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine; the other is an ALL-FICTION magazine. Each is a mammoth magazine in itself. The one presents an overwhelming array of human interest articles and illustrations; the other an enormous tonnage of fiction—160 pages of absorbing stories.

Ten years ago I created a new type of magazine—the ALL-FICTION magazine. Now I am creating another distinct type—the ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine. This is the age of specialization. The conventional magazine, with its smattering of illustrations and its smattering of fiction and its smattering of everything else, is no longer enough of any one thing to make it satisfying. The ALL-FICTION magazine and the ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine, joined together as a unit, strengthen each other, and make something really big and forceful and convincing.

The Only Way to Know a Thing is to Try It

The two-section magazine idea is brand-new to the world. It is not quite new with me, however, as I have given it, at odd times, four or five years of thought. It first came into my mind in response to a desire to couple, in some way, the strength of the all-fiction magazine with the illustrated features of the conventional magazine. It has been a difficult problem to work out. Now that the idea is perfected, I wish to see what there is in it. It looks to me to be very good, but the only way to know a thing is to try it.

Two Magazines for a Quarter—Easy Money

The price of this two-part magazine is twenty-five cents, which is equal to twelve and one-half cents a magazine. Most magazines which were selling at ten cents have been advanced to fifteen cents. THE SCRAP BOOK in two parts means two magazines for twenty-five cents against thirty cents for two fifteen cent magazines.

FIRES IN NORTH PUT OUT.

Many Lots Burned Over—Settlers

Had Hard Time.

Toronto, June 22.—Word has been received at the Parliament Buildings that a heavy rain is following along the line of the T. & N. O. Railway between New Liskeard and Moose

Lake, and all danger of further fires in that district is over for the present.

Deputy Minister of Lands Aubrey

White was informed from Webbwood that ten or twelve lots were burned over in the Township of Dunlop, and that Scott and Brown, jobbers, had five horses burned to death in Porter

Township.

Mr. Henderson, Government agent at Sudbury, wrote that Moore and Molthrop had $10,000 worth of supplies destroyed by a fire in the Township of Hurley.

At Chapleau the fire approached so close to the mill that it was with the greatest difficulty that the people saved their homes. The whole population had to turn out to fight the flames, and it was only after hours of hard work that the danger was averted.

Chief Fire Ranger Macdonald wired

the department yesterday that the fires in James Township were all out.

The damage in this district has been very heavy, but no detailed estimate is yet possible.

The chief ranger reports that five times of the crown revenue between Silver Lake and Beatty Creek have been burned over, but most of the timber destroyed was Jack pine and the pine was practically left untouched.

A corps of specials was sent north yesterday by Hon. Frank Cochrane to make an estimate of the damage done.

Their report, however, is not expected for a couple of weeks at the earliest.

The report that three people were burned in one of the fires has not been substantiated, and the department is not inclined to place much faith in the rumor.

GOVERNMENT 'PHONES SUIT.

Boards of Trade Approve Action of Alberta Government.

Prince Albert, June 22.—Associated boards of trade closed a very important convention here on Thursday, and it was decided to meet in Medicine Hat next year.

The business included a resolution approving the action of the Government of Alberta in taking steps to provide a Government telephone service and calling upon the Saskatchewan Government to take a similar action. This was unanimously passed.

The abolition of local improvement districts and substitution thereof of regularly organized municipalities was also urged. It was decided to ask the Dominion Government to name the point of redemption in case of the new provinces and nominate deputy receivers-general to reside at such points. More roadways through forests, increase in number of fire rangers and other steps to preserve timber were also demanded. Provincial Governments are to be asked to provide 50 per cent. of the cost of hospitals when the balance is provided by municipalities; this is in addition to ordinary Government grants for maintenance.

The Dominion Government will be asked to establish several customs outposts in Alberta and Saskatchewan, to facilitate handling customs

WIPED OUT THE FAMILY.

Man Killed Wife, Three Children and Himself.

Atlanta, Ga., June 22.—A special to the Journal, from Jasper, Fla., says W. W. Barton, a carpenter, shot and instantly killed his wife, three children and himself at his home there Wednesday night. One victim, a child five years old, survived long enough to tell that Barton did the killing. Barton left home Tuesday and did not return until late Wednesday evening, when he found the doors nailed against him. He battered them down and began his work of destruction.

THE ORIGIN OF GALL STONES.

They are simply dried bile, made up of crystalline constituents of that fluid. Very common in this disease among merchants, clerical men, shop-girls and those of sedentary habits. Prevention consists in maintaining correct action of the liver and bowels, which is best accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No person using this medicine need fear gallstones, nor will they ever be bilious. HEALTH FOR RUN-DOWN WOMEN.

From the experience of Mrs. John Pank, Saskatoon, nothing compares Ferrozone. "At times I was confined to my bed and couldn't do any work. I was run down, my flesh, lost strength, my appetite failed, my color was pallid. Weak and cast down, it seemed I couldn't catch up. Ferrozone started a new kind of life in my blood, built me up, vitalized and strengthened my nerves, and finally, Ferrozone is a realizer that has special virtue in female ailments. Not Hopeful.

"Tis a fine, elegant husband you have, ma'am," said Maggie. "Him and me was talkin' about Ireland this mornin'. He's traveled as far as many a gentleman. And there ain't many husbands as good to their wives, ma'am. Look how he brings you lettuce and things from the market. But dear, dear! That kind never lives long."

I will mail you free, to prove merit, sample of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Do not make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

Independent Criticism.

A little girl sat gazing fixedly at the new bonnet of one of her mother's visitors until the caller smilingly asked, "Do you like it, my dear?" The child innocently replied: "Yes, I do. Mamma and Aunt Mily said it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me a bit."

GOLD FINDS IN CANADA

STORY OF AN HISTORIC DISCOVERY UPON OISEAU ROCK.

Recalls Tragedy of Early Exploration In the Days of Champlain—Gallant Band Were Slaughtered by Indians—Natives Resented Insult to Their Deity—Wrecked Vengeance on the Gold Seekers.

The discovery of gold upon Oiseau Rock, the majestic perpendicular granite promontory of the Upper Ottawa recalls one of the great, but little known tragedies associated with early explorations in Canada. It was the finding of gold at the base of this great rock was the cause of the slaughter by Indians of a band of twelve gallant Frenchmen, says The Ottawa Free Press. Oiseau Rock will ever speak in silent, yet forceful language of the courage, perseverance and daring of the mighty, brilliant and chivalrous Champlain whose name perpetuates the name of France in the history of Canada.

As is well known, in the years 1615-35 Champlain was the central figure in the new France now known as Canada. From his memoirs we learn that he was a faithful historian, a most intelligent traveler, an acute mathematician and a skillful navigator. The flourishing cities and towns of Canada are erecting fine monuments to his foresight and sagacity, and as Hasbrouck said of him, "the waters of the beautiful lake that bears his name chant the most fitting requiem to his memory as they break in perpetual murmurings on their shores."

China Land of Promise.

In those early days China seemed to be a land of promise, and all explorers and navigators were seeking the shortest and safest route from Europe to the country of the Celestials. Champlain was satisfied that the Ottawa River and the St. Lawrence were the natural routes, and to prove his theory he and his bold navigators explored up through the locality of Oiseau Rock. One day while the party was resting, a number of them, so the Indian story goes, set out in a canoe to investigate the surroundings of the great Rock, which their red companions told them was inhabited by spirits. They also averred that the Great Spirit had placed in the bed of the creek some of the shining metal.

To those who are familiar with Indian tradition, they will remember that it is considered an insult to the Indian deity for any white man to remove gold from those places where the Great Spirit has placed the precious metal. And any of the tribes who disclosed where gold could be found was at once considered an agent of the Evil Spirit and tortured to death. After some tedious work the canoeists were rewarded by obtaining quantities of gold from the waters of the Ottawa. The excitement and enthusiasm they forgot about the Indians, and returning the next day to secure more of the yellow metal, a band of Indians seized and killed twelve of the party.

Seized by Indians.

It is said that a record of this episode is engraved upon the face of the rock near the water's edge, and through the ages the destroying elements have obliterated a portion of the picture, still one can see the outlines of the bow and stern of what is said to be the canoe belonging to the great Champlain. Some say you can recognize the form of the paddlers and the paddles.

Many years ago, there was found on the banks of the creek a clay mold or crucible which had evidently been used in connection with mining operations in the ages long gone. This earthen vessel was in the possession of the late Mr. James McQuestion of Ottawa for many years, and may yet be held by some members of his family now that attention has been brought to the Oiseau Rock.

Shoes of Whale Hide.

Newfoundland whalers, seized with a spirit of enterprising economy, are reported to be attempting to place white hide on the market for the manufacture of whale leather. It is not surprising that such an attempt should be made. It must vex the spirit of any whaler of well balanced mind to see, after all the hardship and danger of his calling, an enormous and altogether disproportionate bulk of his quarry cast away. From a large right whale of say 45 to 50 feet in length about 250 barrels of oil and one and three-quarter tons of baleen, or whalebone, may be obtained. The remainder of the gigantic carcass, which may be as much as fifty tons, has hitherto been considered useless. The average whale hide if laid out on the ground would cover a surface of nearly 1,500 square feet, at which rate one whale, if its hide could be made into boots and shoes, would well stock a west end boot shop.—London Express.

Lady Laurier's Unique Distinction.

Lady Laurier, wife of the Canadian Premier, possesses one distinction which should commend her to the Suffragette. She has actually addressed a British Legislature. Once, at a reception given at Ottawa by the Speaker, she was discovered standing at the foot of the throne, and there arose a demand for a speech, only half meant at first, but afterwards insisted on. Lady Laurier ascended the steps and made what the reporter described as a pretty oration, and this speech was the first and last which has ever been spoken by a woman in the Parliament House of Canada.—Tit-Bits.

The Fox Sparrow.

He is plump. He is decidedly fox. He has a reddish coat. He lives upon seeds and insects. He ranges from Alaska to the southern states. He is an inch longer than the English sparrow and belongs to the finch family. He may be looked up in ornithology as the Passerella ilica. One of his common names is the Fox Sparrow.

Condemned to Death.

Kiev, Russia, June 22.—The court-martial convened to try the mutinous sappers at the summer camp, at Banievka, is said to have acted with promptness and severity. It is reported that forty-eight mutineers have already been condemned and shot.

That the roots of many plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well known. Even the untutored child has learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked to work, so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible, that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was the great remedy for female weakness. Dr. Pierce uses the same root called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with numerous other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the varied weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unneeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

A Bit of Green.

People who have no skill with house plants or no time to attend to them may nevertheless have a refreshing bit of green with no trouble at all. English Ivy grows freely in water, and a few slips in bottles concealed behind pictures and mirrors will be a source of great pleasure through an entire winter. Fill the bottles with fresh water once in awhile and direct the course of the new growth by common pins stuck in the wall, and that is all the care required for a highly decorative frieze of graceful garlands.—Harper's Bazaar.

Four Men Burned to Death on Blazing Steamer.

Terrible Disaster On St John River—Spark From Funnel Causes Fire On "Crystal Stream"—Cargo of Hay Was Ignited—Many of Crew Injured—Caught Like Rats in Trap.

St. John, N. B., June 22.—Four men were burned to death and half a dozen other persons badly hurt in a disaster at Cole's Island early yesterday morning, when the steamer Crystal Stream was totally destroyed.

The Crystal Stream was an old New York sidewheeler, brought here five years ago to run on the St. John River and Washademoak Lake. D. J. Purdy, M.P.P. of St. John, is the principal owner.

The steamer, which makes two trips a week, was lying on the west wharf at Cole's Island, 50 miles from St. John, on her down trip to this city, heavily loaded with hay.

Shortly after 1 o'clock fire was discovered on the upper deck. It had evidently caught in the hay from a spark from the smokestack. With great rapidity it spread through the light freight, and before the members of the crew could be awakened the whole steamer was in flames.

Hemmed in Like Rats.

Most of the men were sleeping in the lower deck below the freight, and were hemmed in by the fire like rats in a trap. As soon as those on the upper decks were aroused they endeavored, but without success, to extinguish the flames, turning their attention also to those of their comrades who were below decks.

Strenuous efforts were put forth to rescue the men who were below, and it was not until the rescuers were unable to approach even the side of the steamer that the task was given up.

William Logan and Allan Logan, two brothers, belonging to Land's End, Fred Smith of Shannon, Queen's County, and a fourth man named Baxter, were burned to death, and yesterday morning their charred bodies were found in the ruins.

Engineer Wentworth Roberts and the stewardess, Mrs. Chase, both belonging to St. John, were quite seriously burned. While Captain Mabee and other members of the crew sustained painful injuries. Herbert McAlary, the mate, and H. P. Belyea, the purser, were also badly burned.

The steamer cost $22,500 and is insured for half her value.

For Round Shoulders.

To remedy round shoulders stand in the usual position and raise the arms sideways, palms up. Hold the head well back, chin in. With the arms thus stretched out on a level with the shoulders describe a circle with them about twelve inches in diameter at the finger tips. During this movement contract the muscles at the back of the neck and about the shoulder blades, holding the chest high and breathing deeply. This exercise, if practiced longer and longer each day, will straighten the back, raise the chest and tend to decrease the waist measure.

DROWNING FATALITIES

William Stuart Famous Hockey Player Dives to Death

London Boy Sinks While Bathing—Magistrate is Drowned

Belleville, June 24.—"Hod" Stuart, the famous hockey player, was accidentally killed here yesterday afternoon, while diving near the Grand Junction dock.

"Hod" had his swimming suit and set out for a swim to the lighthouse, about a quarter of a mile away, while his companions waited for him.

He reached the lighthouse all right, and climbed up on the platform which surrounds it, and which is about five feet above the water. There he rested a minute or two, and was then seen to dive into the water. The watchers waited for him to come up, but waited in vain.

After a few minutes they became alarmed, ran for a boat and rowed to the lighthouse, where the body of poor "Hod" was found, lying on the bottom in two feet of water. He had dived head first on a lot of jagged rocks.

There was a terrible gash in his head, and his neck was broken. The body was taken across to the Rathbun dock, and Coroner Yeomans was notified.

After viewing the body and hearing the stories of the men who had been in Stuart's company, he decided that an inquest was unnecessary.
