HINDY DEAD GAINS MADE EARLIER SAYS RUMOR IN WEEK CONSOLIDATED

Field Marshal Reported to Have Died After Quarrel With Kaiser

A STORMY INTERVIEW All Highest Did Not Agree With Army Chief's Tactics

Amsterdam, July 13.—(By The Associated Press)—Field Marshal von Hindenburg is dead, according to the news paper Les Nouvelles. His death is said to have occurred after a stormy interview with the German Emperor at great headquarters at Spa. The Emperor and the Field Marshal are reported to have had serious differences of opinion concerning the German offensive towards Paris. The Field Marshal died from congestion of the brain.

For the past six months there have been several rumors of the death of Field Marshal von Hindenburg and there have been many reports that he has been in poor health. A despatch received in London Friday from The Hague, quoted a Dutch traveller from Germany as declaring that a report that the Field Marshal was ill and unable to participate in the work at the front was unfounded. German newspapers were not permitted to mention the rumor. The traveller added that General Ludendorff, the first quartermaster-general, had taken over the Field Marshal's duties as chief of the general staff.

Keeping step with reports of the Field Marshal's health have been despatches from Germany indicating that the Field Marshal and the Emperor had had disagreements concerning the German offensive movement. The German offensive movement in the west. Late in May Field Marshal Hindenburg was reported ill with typhoid fever at Strassburg. The Field Marshal on June 18 was reported by The Tribune of Geneva to be suffering from an acute nervous disease. The newspaper declared it had learned from a reliable source that his mental faculties were much affected and that he was confined in a private sanitarium. It added that the Field Marshal had taken no responsible part in the offensive.

At the outbreak of the war Field Marshal von Hindenburg was a general in retirement. He was credited with evolving and carrying out the campaign against the Russians in East Prussia which resulted in the serious Russian defeat at Tannenberg, for which he was promoted to Field Marshal. He continued to command the German forces on the Russian front until August 30, 1916, when he was appointed chief of the general staff in succession to General von Falkenhayn. When he became chief of the general staff, General Ludendorff, who had acted as his chief of staff on the Russian front, came with him as his right hand man with the title of chief quartermaster-general. Von Hindenburg was 79 years (Continued on Page Four.)

British Also Carried Out Successful Minor Enterprises on the Flanders Front Last Night, Taking 96 Prisoners and Several Machine Guns

By Courier Leased Wire. PARIS, June 13.—(Bulletin)— In an operation carried out last night on the front between Montdidier and the Oise, the French pushed their advanced posts forward a distance of approximately 500 yards in the vicinity of the Porte Farm, the war office announced today. The Porte Farm is in the vicinity of Antheuil, northwest of Compeigne. This farm, together with the Loges Farm nearby, was captured by the French in a local operation on the evening of July 8. The text of the statement reads: "Between Montdidier and the Oise, the French in the course of the night advanced their forward posts 500 metres in the region of the Porte Farm. "Several raids were carried out by French troops north of the Avre (southeast of Amiens), in the region of the Oise, on the Marne, and in the Champagne, resulting in the taking of prisoners."

BRITISH OFFICIAL REPORT July 13.—Successful minor enterprises were carried out by the British last night on the Flanders front. Vieux Berquin and Merris, as a result of which 96 prisoners were taken and a few machine guns captured, the war office announced today.

A German raiding party which advanced upon the British lines in Flanders in the Materen sector was repulsed. The German artillery developed activity during the night on the Flanders front and opposite Beaumont Hamel.

FIFTH CASUALTIES. Bulletin: London, July 13.—British casualties reported in week ended to-day totaled 14,914 officers and men, compared with the aggregate of 17,356 in the previous week.

FRENCH GAINS. On the French front in France, Friday, July 12.—

SITUATION TO-DAY

Success has crowned the Allied smashes into the German lines between Ypres and Rheims. For more than two weeks the Allies have been jamming into the German defences here and there and the results now are just as favorable as at the beginning. For the first time since the attrition campaign was undertaken, the French have struck with force in the Picardy battlefield. Along the Avre River, northwest of Montdidier, the French advanced their lines more than a mile on a front of three miles and captured over 500 prisoners. This blow, like the recent ones by the British astride the Somme, has driven the enemy back on a sector vital to the defense of Amiens, the objective of the first German offensive began on March 21. Incapacitating Castel and strong fortified positions, the French have advanced almost to the western bank of the Avre. Further gains southward toward Mailly-Bellevue will endanger seriously the German positions west of the Avre to below Montdidier. In an advance toward Amiens the Germans would either follow the Somme or go up the valley of the Avre, which joins the Somme near Amiens.

BOYS WANTED Probably at no time in the country's history have boys and apprentices been so sought after in all kinds of businesses as has been the case since this country entered the war. And especially in this time now when so many men have been drafted and compelled to leave their regular trades and callings.

To the boys who are under draft age and just starting out to make their way in the world, this means a wonderful opportunity. Don't neglect it, boys. Study over the Want Ads, and grasp one of the splendid chances now being offered. Wise employers are calling to you through the Want Ads.

OH! THOSE FARMERETTE! Farmer: "Just hold that horse's head while I get down, will you, missus?" New Land Worker: "Which one?" Farmer: "Why, the off'n, to be sure." Land Worker: "I'm awfully sorry, but I don't know anything about horses so I can't tell which one of them is an orphan."—London Opinion.

SIBERIAN GOVERNMENT WILL SUPPORT ALLIES

Provisional Ruler Gives Assurance of Loyalty to Entente—Will Act in Accord With Allies, and Continue to Fight the Enemy.

By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, July 15.—British reinforcements have been dispatched to Siberia, according to official information received here today, to assist the Russians and allied forces from Bolshevik action reported to be advancing upon Vladivostok.

at Harbin, dated July 10, two days earlier than the message that the General had been proclaimed temporary ruler.

General Horvath, who has been vice-president and general manager of the Chinese eastern railway, is anti-German as well as anti-Bolshevik. At Grodekovo he announced he would repeal all Bolshevik decrees, restore fully all allied treaties, both political and commercial, re-establish a disciplined and non-political army and restore property. He also favors Siberian autonomy and religious freedom.

Want Intervention. London, July 12.—Commenting on developments in Russia where, it says, events are moving with great rapidity, the Times contends that the Russian ranks those who are fighting with the enemy. Announcement that General Horvath, at Grodekovo northeast of Vladivostok had proclaimed himself premier of a temporary Siberian Government is contained in a dispatch from The Mail correspondent

AINSMITH'S CASE WILL TEST THE REGULATION

Will Decide Whether Baseball Players Are Included Under the "Work or Fight" Order in U. S.

By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, July 13.—The decision as to the application as to the "work or fight" order to baseball players, probably will be decided upon the appeal of Eddie Ainsmith, catcher of the Washington American League club. A brief carrying the appeal of Ainsmith from his local board here, which Thursday ordered him to engage in a useful occupation or lose his deferred classification, reached Secretary of War Baker late yesterday. The brief which was presented by Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington club, avers that Ainsmith and

What Society is doing

Sweethearts of War.
Heroes in battle? Yes, I whisper low
That he, my dear boy lover, may
The grief I hide so valiantly beneath
His roses on my breast, that breathe of death!

Heroes in battle? Yes, and heroes here!
Elsie did we cling and hamper with our fear
That never dies but stabs and stabs ancient due!

ah, how Could we speak lightly, kiss and let them go
And then turn back to bear our hidden woe?

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

LESSON FOR JULY 14

READING GOD'S WORD.

LESSON TEXT—Psalms 19:1-11; Acts 9:24-30.

GOLDEN TEXT—Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

TEACHERS' MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Psalms 19:1-11; John 8:12-18; Romans 9:1-5.

DEVOTIONAL READING—Psalms 119:1-35, 97-106.

1. Characteristics of God's Word (Ps. 19:7-11).

The Psalmist here sets forth six descriptive titles of God's Word, six outstanding qualities, and six resultant effects.

THE PSALMIST HERE SETS FORTH SIX DESCRIPTIVE TITLES OF GOD'S WORD, SIX OUTSTANDING QUALITIES, AND SIX RESULTANT EFFECTS.

FIRST GROUP—

1. Title: "The Law of the Lord" (v. 7).

By this is meant the fundamental principles which God as a moral being reveals to the consciences of men as binding upon the soul.

2. Quality: "Perfect" (v. 7).

It is free from omissions and redundancies. It is perfect as a moral code, and it perfectly accomplishes man's salvation.

3. Effect: "Converting the Soul" (v. 7).

The practical effect of the law of God is to turn man to God, himself, righteousness and holiness.

SECOND GROUP—

1. Title: "The Testimony of the Lord" (v. 7).

It is the witness which God bears as to his attributes, and against man's sins.

2. Quality: "Sure" (v. 7).

It is plain and infallible. We can repose in it our interests for time and eternity.

3. Effect: "Making Wise the Simple" (v. 7).

The simple are those who have humble, open and teachable minds.

THIRD GROUP—

1. Title: "The Statutes of the Lord" (v. 8).

These are the principles or charges which the Lord gives to us all, to fit us to rightly perform the duties which the different relations of life make obligatory upon us.

2. Quality: "Right" (v. 8).

They are from the righteous God and are absolutely just and equitable.

3. Effect: "Rejoicing the Heart" (v. 8).

The true heart rejoices in justice and equity.

FOURTH GROUP—

1. Title: "The Commandment of the Lord" (v. 8).

This brings into view the personal God, who sends his law to enforce his demands—to require obedience to his precepts.

2. Quality: "Pure" (v. 8).

It is free from deceit and error.

3. Effect: "Enlightening the Eyes" (v. 8).

The effect of God's law is to give men ability, not only to understand his love and salvation, but to be wise as to the things about him.

FIFTH GROUP—

1. Title: "The Fear of the Lord" (v. 9).

Reading the Word of God produces reverential fear in the heart of the reader.

2. Quality: "Clean" (v. 9).

It is not only clean in itself, but sanctifies the heart of those who receive it.

3. Effect: "Enduring Forever" (v. 9).

Upon his law abide forever.

SIXTH GROUP—

1. Title: "The Judgments of the Lord" (v. 9).

By this is meant the sentences pronounced by God's Word.

2. Quality: "True and Righteous" (v. 9).

The penalties prescribed by God are true, conformable to the intuitive moral sense of man.

3. Effect: "Serves as Warnings and Brings Rewards" (v. 11).

If the warnings be heeded, shipwrecks upon life's sea will be prevented. Besides God pays a wage for obedience to his laws. Godliness is profitable unto all, having the promise of the life that now is, and that which is to come.

11. A Notable Example of Bible Study (Acts 9:20-30).

1. Who it Was (v. 27).

The Ethiopian eunuch, a man of great authority, he was the secretary of the treasury of the Ethiopian queen. The wisest and best men and women of the earth have been reverent students of the Bible and have testified to its beauty and power.

2. The Circumstances of (v. 28).

It was while traveling that this great man was studying the Bible. This is a most excellent way to improve moments while on a journey.

3. Doing Personal Work (vv. 29-37).

Philip was taken from his great evangelistic work in Samaria and directed to go to the desert. The Spirit directed Philip to join himself to the chariot in which the Ethiopian was traveling. Philip ran in obedience to the Spirit's command. One should be alert for the Spirit's direction as for the individual with whom to do personal work. The eunuch was inquiring after the way of life. But still he needed the help of a Spirit-taught man.

went into effect on Tuesday. Canning factories are now busy on peas, and reports from all sources indicate that under favorable conditions a good pack may be expected. The early pack is said to be excellent quality. Tomatoes are looking fine, and if weather proves good a splendid pack may be expected. Strawberries are scarce, and growers demanding very high prices. An advance of 6 cents per pound in mustard and higher prices on salt, baking powder, ammonia, cleanser and vinegar barrels and kegs have been named. Winnipeg—Prospects of a heavy crop of white beans, with indications that government requirements for the year have been largely met, point to a possibility of lower prices for this line. Japanese beans, new crop, have been offering at a decline of 5c per pound. Winnipeg jobbers generally are carrying fairly heavy stocks of high-priced beans. So a drop is not looked for until present stocks are largely cleaned up. Rice at primary points is high, and the trade is not looking for a decline when new crop is offering. Jobbers' stocks locally are in good condition and prices considerably below replacement value. Tapioca has shown a slight decline, while sago is said to be unobtainable at primary points. A decline of 2c. per pound has been recorded in shelled almonds, though orders are being taken subject to being able to get them through. Fairly good stocks of 1917 dried fruits are still on hand, and big orders of prunes and raisins, 1917 stock, for August shipment, have been placed, and will, it is hoped, come through. Business generally is fair.

SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1918

THE SITUATION.

The most important war news at present continues to come from the Balkan region. The Italian and Allied troops have made further advances and taken additional prisoners and as the outcome have perfected a single front from the Adriatic Sea to Salonica, British monitors and Italian destroyers are co-operating in the work. In the opinion of many military observers Austria is about to crumble away and it is said that Germany goes not find herself in a position to send troops—the business of the Western front and growing Russian restiveness are apparently too important to admit of that. Meanwhile it is said that almost everybody in Vienna is talking of revolution.

The French have made another brilliant advance in Picardy, where they attacked on a front of about three miles and advanced at the furthest point to the depth of one mile. Villages and strong German positions were taken, together with many prisoners. Still the Hun for some reason or the other, refrains from counter-attacks and his long-heralded monster drive is yet in the realm of hesitation. Marshal Joffre in a message to the American expeditionary force in France expresses the belief that "the moment approaches when the defeat of Germany will allow all free nations to celebrate at last the independence of the world." This is a cheering forecast on the part of a man well qualified to form an opinion.

President Wilson has vetoed the proposal of Congress to fix the price of wheat at $2.40 a bushel and in doing so he emphasizes the fact that such an advance would mean a corresponding raise in the cost of flour and also cause an increase of Canadian wheat rates.

WAR COSTS. At the present time the war is costing the four principal belligerents, England, France, the United States, and Germany—an aggregate sum estimated to be not less than $100,000,000,000 a year. This exclusive of the cost to Italy, Austria and the several lesser powers actively engaged in the conflict, and from whom no official figures have been forthcoming. When the struggle had reached the full volume of its extent an official statement presented to the Reichstag gave $25,000,000,000 a year as the war bill for Germany. At the same time the British war expenditures were estimated at $37,000,000,000 a year. The cost of the war to France, in the matter of actual expenditures, is somewhat less than that of Great Britain. The United States, during her first year in the world-wide set-to, paid out $13,800,000,000 with the probability that the second year will see this sum doubled. It is certain that the 1918 war bill for the four principal belligerents will average not less than $25,000,000,000, or a grand total of $100,000,000,000.

THE Y. M. C. A. STATEMENT.

Elsewhere in this issue the financial statement is presented of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. covering the entire service overseas and in Canada. The publication of such a report will be welcomed as a sufficient answer to many misleading stories which have been in circulation. That in the administration of such a large field of endeavor and in the expenditure of such vast sums, there should arise some causes for isolated criticism, was only to be expected, but the fact is thoroughly established of a noble work nobly and efficiently carried out. The Y. M. C. A. has without any question accomplished a glorious and uplifting task on behalf of the brave lads "over there," and done much to alleviate the sufferings associated with this unparalleled war, not only in the matter of temporal and spiritual comfort, but also with regard to healthy diversions and amusements. The statement is thoroughly reassuring, and abundantly demonstrates that in every essential, the confidence of the public has been fully warranted.

NEW FRENCH ACES.

Paris, July 13.—(Havas Agency).—The appearance of two new French aces, Second Lieuts. Bourgade and Nogues, is announced by the newspapers. Each aviator has gained ten victories. The thirty-eighth aerial victory of Lieut. Nungesser also is announced.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

There is no holding back those splendid French.

Whether Hindenburg is dead, or no his hopes must long since have been in that condition.

Troops are first above everything else is the determination in the United States and that also must be the position of affairs in Canada.

All that Germany is demanding of Russia is seven billion roubles. In normal times a rouble represents in value 77 cents so that this may be regarded as some touch.

After many years of most efficient service, Mr. J. F. MacKay has resigned as business manager of the Toronto Globe to become treasurer of the Russell Motor Company.

Mr. MacKay has countless friends in the newspaper world, who know his full worth and will wish for him continued success in his new career.

Your Problems Solved.

BY REV. T. S. LINSOTT, D. D. (All rights reserved)

Dr. Linscott in this column will help you solve your heart problems religious, marital, social, financial and every other anxious care that perplexes you. If a personal answer is required, enclose a five cent stamp. No names will be published; if you prefer, sign your initials only, or use a pseudonym.

A PUZZLED WOMAN.—The way I solve my problems is to ask direction from God and then look into all the facts. I generally wait until I get a clear conviction, which I then act upon in perfect confidence.

MISS I. L.—It is supposed to be bad form for a woman to propose to a man, but I have never heard any good reason why it should be. When the Queen of England, Victoria the Great, saw the young man whom she wanted for a husband, she made him an offer of marriage, which Prince Albert gladly accepted, and the hon. lady founded the order of the Madam Grundy medals. If the rule for crowned queens to select their husbands, I do not see why other unmarried women, all of whom are, or should be, uncrowned queens, should not have the same privilege.

The root of the present unequal usage, I think, must be in the fact that men have been looked upon as the lords of creation and women as inferior beings. But now that woman has proved herself to be man's equal, I see neither rhyme nor reason in the popular sentiment that it is bold or indelicate for a mature woman to make the man of her choice an offer of marriage.

One evening after a busy day in surveying operations from a chair of observation posts, the Emperor chatting with his entourage, spoke with glowing enthusiasm, says Rosner, of the time when the forces now let loose on destruction would again be placed in the service of peaceful pursuits. He sketched far-reaching advances in the technical domain, in physics, chemistry and scientific farming. The Emperor forecast that all of Germany's needs in nitrates would be covered by extracting nitrate from the air. The Emperor then described the marvelous possibilities of the new gas motors, and how purified waste waters from metal works would serve the fields, so that deserts shall blossom like roses and make arid regions self-supporting as regards food. When daring flights of fancy," continues Rosner, the Emperor predicted the harnessing of the rays of the sun and the recovery of the ocean's innumerable treasures. "This will all come to pass, the Emperor assured his hearers, once Germany secures the "strong peace" for which she is working.

To The Editor of The Courier

Brantford, July 12, 1918 To The Editor of The Courier: Dear Sir,—In reply to the statement made in the report of the T. and L. Council meeting on Wednesday night, I deny the statement that the commission should be put out and a new one put in which were more favorable to us. I also state that the Commissioners were in no way responsible, or had any influence over the men in the choice of the cloth for their uniforms. Signed, H. CLEMENHAOEN.

SUPREME COURT THURSDAY NEXT

Will Hear Argument on an Important Appeal With Reference to the Cancelling of Exemptions

Ottawa, Ont., July 12.—The important question of the validity of the order in Council of April 20, cancelling exemptions granted under the Military Service Act, reached the Supreme Court of Canada this morning in the form of an application for a writ of habeas corpus for Privately Edwin Grey, of Nipissing, who is under arrest because he refused to don a military uniform at Niagara Camp and also declined to be inducted. After hearing the application in Chambers, Mr. Justice Anglin consented to the issuance of an order referring the matter to the full Supreme Court, which will sit on Thursday next, July 18. This was done at the request of Mr. E. L. Newcombe, Deputy Minister of Justice, and no objection was raised by Mr. C. C. Robinson, who made the application on behalf of Grey, April 20, and this application will be the basis for the settlement by the courts of the highly important matter of the validity of the order in Council of April 20. There will be no appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Alberta, danger of the possibility of an objection to such an appeal being taken thereby being avoided.

Grey Appeal Explained.

In the course of the proceedings before Hon. Justice Anglin, Mr. Newcombe explained that Grey, a Chrysler, K.C., Ottawa, or Mr. C. C. Robinson, who made the application on behalf of Grey, April 20, and this application will be the basis for the settlement by the courts of the highly important matter of the validity of the order in Council of April 20. There will be no appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Alberta, danger of the possibility of an objection to such an appeal being taken thereby being avoided.

Alberta Judgment National

Mr. Newcombe said that the Crown raised no objection to the regularity of the motion, in any case, he said, where, if the invalidity of the order of April 20 could be established on behalf of the prisoner, he would be entitled to be discharged from custody. He referred to the importance and urgency of the matter, stating that the judgment of the Alberta court was having an effect all over the country. "It is," he said, "of the utmost public importance that the question should be set at rest."

Mr. Newcombe then suggested that the whole question of the validity of the order in Council as raised by this application should be referred to the whole Supreme Court. "You think that more expeditious than an appeal from the judgment of the Alberta Court?" queried Mr. Justice Anglin. Mr. Newcombe replied that this would be the more expeditious way of disposing of the matter if it would avoid the question of whether or not an appeal can be taken from the judgment of the Alberta Court.

Mr. Justice Anglin asked if it would be necessary to refer the matter to the whole Supreme Court. Mr. Newcombe replied that it would be necessary to refer the matter to the whole Supreme Court. "You think that more expeditious than an appeal from the judgment of the Alberta Court?" queried Mr. Justice Anglin. Mr. Newcombe replied that this would be the more expeditious way of disposing of the matter if it would avoid the question of whether or not an appeal can be taken from the judgment of the Alberta Court.

Quebec Officials Confer

Quebec City, July 13.—A secret meeting of all the principal officers of the military district Number 5, was held at noon yesterday at the Quebec drill hall, and although no official announcement is forthcoming, it is known the conflict between the civil and military officials over the habeas corpus proceedings was discussed with a view to settling it. As related yesterday, Justice Dorrington of the Supreme Court ruled that Colonel Rodgers and Major Paquet should be held for contempt of court on July 11, they have not yet proceeded Edward Durand, draftsman, who obtained a writ of habeas corpus from the Superior Court.

AIRMAN KILLED

That armed resistance would be offered by the local militia to officers of the civil law attempting to arrest Colonel Rodgers and Major Paquet, is not known at this time. It is believed the local militia will do as much as the Calgary barracks to mention the arrest of the above mentioned officers.

Another million men may be called under arms in the States during the next six months.

COBB LEADING IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

By Courier Leased Wire. Chicago, July 13.—"Ty" Cobb, batting champion of the American League, after getting away to a late start in clearing the trail for the 1918 batting supremacy. Averaging, including games of Wednesday released today give the Detroit star a mark of .371, as against .355 for George Sisler of St. Louis, the leader a week ago. Sisler, however, still leads the Georgian in base-stealing with 30 against 25.

The remarkable "batting streak" which sent him rushing to the top was started on June 17 and he pushed ahead until he was neck and neck with the leaders, almost before they realized it. In his last thirteen games he has cracked out eleven hits, stolen four bases and scored eight runs. He passed Harry Hooper of Boston for the leading scorer having counted 54 times against 50 for Hooper. Both of Boston remain in the lead in home runs with eleven. Shea, also of Boston, holds the honors in sacrifice hitting with a total of 22. New York is showing the way in team batting, with a total of 107. Leading batters for 25 or more games are: Cobb, Detroit, .371; Sisler, St. Louis, .355; Baker, New York, .341; Burns, Philadelphia, .338; Pipp, New York, .317; Miller, Washington, .314; Walker, Philadelphia, .311; Hooper, Boston, .309; Ruth, Boston, .307; Murphy, Chicago, .302.

WARM WEATHER HELPS

By Courier Leased Wire. Saskatoon, Sask., July 13.—Warm weather is having a splendid effect on the growing crops. On the Prince Albert branch of the Grand Trunk canal, Gutworth, Hoy, Demorey and Wakaw, the wheat is reported to be over 30 inches high, and evenly headed out. Thursday morning, southwest of Saskatoon, a heavy rain occurred, wetting the ground to a depth of four inches. In Saskatoon there was a heavy overnight rain. The result is that the late crops are making progress beyond all expectation. North, northeast and east of Saskatoon, the crop will be well up to last year.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. But cholera, typhoid, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer. In most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly, Baby's Own Tablets cure these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the new-born babe. They are especially good in summer, because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SITUATION TODAY

Berlin now reports that the sixth American airplane of the squadron, which was flying toward Coblenz was brought down Thursday. It was announced that another with their crews had fallen into German hands. Franco-Italian success in Albania has enabled the Allies to establish a connected battle line over a stretch of 200 miles from Salonika to the Adriatic. The Italians rapidly are clearing up the territory taken from the Austrians in western Albania and preparing for further attacks. Between Berat and Lake Ochrida the French have occupied all the territory between the Devoli and Tomorica Rivers, except near the confluence where the Austrians still hold out. Prisoners taken by the French in the Tomorica valley have increased to 400. Supporting the Allies, the new government set up in Siberia has proclaimed Lieutenant-General Horvath as provisional ruler. General Horvath, who for many years was Russian commander at Harbin, is General Manager of the Chinese Eastern Railway, the eastern link of the Trans-Siberian system, is anti-Bolshevik and anti-Bolshevik. He proposes to form an army and to actively aid the Allied cause.

BULLER BR OS.

By Courier Leased Wire. Armour Heights, Toronto, July 13.—Second Lieut. A. W. Hill, under training here as an instructor in the Royal Air Force, was killed this morning while flying solo. The accident was due, according to the official report, to an error in judgment in the matter of flying speed, while practicing a sharp turn. Hill's machine fell in flames from a height of 200 feet. Next of kin, Mrs. A. Hill, 250 Greenleaf street, Malton, Mass.

Margaret Garrett's Husband By JANE PHELPS

CHAPTER CV. Preparing for the Party. When Bob's door closed the first feeling I had was one of hot anger and indignation. I had been so horribly frightened, and he seemed not to care. Then came the thought, he didn't care how frightened I was, and—had come home on the milk train. Could it be possible that because I had asked no questions, or made any disagreeable remarks that he had come home? Was my changed attitude already beginning to show results? It was too soon, it couldn't be. I thought sadly, yet I soon fell quietly asleep, and slept soundly the remainder of the night in spite of my sear and the thought that I had finished his story, and I was alone about my fears, also about Donald. "He wasn't sick was he," Bob asked. "No, I dreamed a bad dream," Donald told him, then proceeded to repeat his dream of a bad man carrying "mover" away. "Will I have bad dreams to-night?" he asked as he finished his story. "No, son, you won't have any bad dreams to-night," and satisfied the child at his breakfast quietly while we talked. "It is the night of the party you must investigate the party you know, Margaret," Bob said. "Do you still think you will go?" "Of course I don't accept?" I answered as easily as I could. "Shall you come out after me or shall I come out after you?" "As it is a beefsteak and I don't have to dress, suppose you meet me in town." Then after a moment he said, "I hope you won't be too nervous. Margaret, the people whom you dislike will all be there." "If I am I shall try not to show it," and a bit of asperity crept into my voice. Was he giving me a chance to back out? "Then I'll meet you at the station. Be there on that train that gets in at a little before six." "Very well, I'll wait at the new-stand." I had a little plan of my own to carry out. I didn't intend to take him into my confidence. As such as he left I telephoned Elsie. "I'm coming right in," I told her, "will you meet me at Lincoln?" "Yes," she responded, "how is everything going?" "As well as can be expected, I guess." I answered. Then after making arrangements to meet for luncheon at a small tea room, I hung up. I had had a pretty afternoon dress fixed a little and it was very becoming. I would have my hair washed—and dressed, a facial massage and a manicure. I would look my best. So that my dress would be perfectly fresh I carried it in my suit case and checked it at the station. I would change just before time for the dinner. I wished it were a different kind of a party; one where full dress was permissible. I looked better in an evening gown. Then I blushed to think I was taking such an interest in my looks—and in the entertainment. First, I did a little shopping. I bought some dainty high heeled shoes to replace the plain low heeled ones I affected. Fresh gloves, and some few things for the house. This took my time until I met Elsie. "Over our luncheon, I told her of the fright I had had, of Bob coming home on the milk train—and lastly of his giving me the chance to back out from going to the beefsteak." "You see Margaret you have been so miserable whenever you have gone to such affairs, you have also made him so miserable that I don't wonder the poor fellow is afraid to have you go. It's up to you to have

Removal Sale

In business it frequently happens that when people are forced to go out of business or into larger quarters, a removal sale is held. At such times it is customary to offer goods at greatly reduced prices to Clean Up old stock.

We Are Going to Move--

But there will be no sale of old stock at reduced prices, because we have no old stock on hand. We believe our success has been due to two things—keeping only up-to-date stock in all frames, and mountings, newest forms and styles of lenses. The other reason for our success is our service. It has been our aim to give you the most careful, scientific examination of the eyes that is possible—never to overlook any detail in the designing, making, fitting, adjusting or repairing of glasses that makes for complete satisfaction. For these reasons we believe we have been successful. Our business has outgrown our present quarters. In our new offices we have added facilities and equipment that enable us to give even better service.

AN AVALANCHE

By Courier Leased Wire
Quebec, July 13.—To-day witnessed a veritable avalanche of applications of habeas corpus on behalf of men recently drafted into the service of the Military Service Act. The total for the week is 23, and in addition to these there were a few outstanding from last week.
In each case, the court, as a matter of course, ordered the writs to issue, and called upon various commanding officers, in whose charge the divers applicants were, to bring the young men to court, so that their cases might be investigated.
The allegations in support of the various writs differ but slightly. In the main, it is claimed that the applicants are men who have been exempted in the ordinary operation of the law, which established exemption tribunals. It is argued that having been regularly and legally exempted under the law they are not amenable to be drafted against their will for military purposes.

SWISS OPPOSED.

By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, July 12.—Germany's plan to establish on the Rhine between Basel and Strassburg a series of dams for factories which would interfere with the free waterway between Switzerland and the sea is causing much adverse comment among the Swiss. ### RAIN GENERAL

By Courier Leased Wire.
Winnipeg, July 13.—Rain was general in Manitoba yesterday, according to information reaching here last night from the various centres throughout the province. Great benefit will be derived from the rainfall, which started yesterday afternoon and continued early this morning as practically all crops were in need of moisture, though the conditions by no means are alarming. Rain is reported as far west as Mooseomin, Sask.
Alberta's Superior Court has decided that the courts of that province can grant divorces.

COLD AND SNOW IN BRAZIL.

By Courier Leased Wire
Rio de Janeiro, July 12.—Unusual cold and heavy snow is reported from all parts of Southern Brazil and the coffee plantations in the State of Sao Paulo have been damaged seriously. Early reports place the loss at 800,000 contos. The coffee crop in Sao Paulo in 1918, in 1919 and 1920, probably will be curtailed as thousands of plants have been destroyed in many sections.
Of 889,766 apartments in the city of New York, only 7,264 are empty. Two forty thousand ton battleships are to be built at the Brooklyn navy yard.

FRENCH HOLIDAY IN N.Y.
By Courier Leased Wire
New York, July 12.—The French holiday in New York city to-morrow will be marked by what is expected to be one of the most elaborate flight demonstrations ever staged in the sky over an American city under the direction of the French aviator, Captain C. J. Polytrone. Airplanes of several nations allied in the war will fly over the city in squadron formation, hovering over each point at which exercises are being held. In churches throughout the city the day will be observed by special prayers and religious societies have notified the local committee of their plans for special services. Telegrams received by Owen Johnson, chairman of the national committee, tell of the whole country from Maine and California preparing to observe the day.

MORE THAN A THOUSAND.
By Courier Leased Wire
Chicago, July 12.—More than 1,100 men of draft age spent last night at police stations owing to inability to show registration or classification cards. Approximately 10,000 men were brought into police stations and the federal building in the round-up of alleged slackers during the last two days, but most of them were released on producing their credentials. Major Tolman, supervisor of the selective draft work here, said the canvass for slackers was successful and that Chicago shows a low percentage of draft evaders.

SEMI PROS BEAT HAMILTON EASILY

Stellar Twirling of Downes Was Big Factor in the Local's Victory

FAST GAME PLAYED

Wet grounds detracted but little from the interest of last night's ball game, and a fairly large crowd saw the semi-professionals take Hamilton into camp and administer a 6-1 defeat in as clean and snappy an encounter as has been staged behind the dyke since the palmy days of the Canadian league. The game was fast throughout, the hitting being fairly even, and the fielding as clean as could be expected in view of the condition of the diamond after recent rains. Play was more even than the score would indicate, and it was owing to the sensational twirling of Downes, in the box for the locals, that their lead was not reduced.

ST. BASIL'S CHURCH TO BE REOPENED

Has Been Decorated by Noted Italian Artists in the Past Three Months

When the doors of St. Basil's are formally re-opened to-morrow morning, the congregation will look upon a church which since Easter has undergone a complete transformation under the artists' brush. The Panzironi Brothers, of New York, the foremost Italian artists in North America, have been working almost night and day during the past three months, and have wrought wonders in the renovation of the interior of the church. The Panzironi brothers, under the able leadership of Mr. Ilario Panzironi, have decorated many of the best known churches in America, but at St. Basil's this week, there was unfolded to the eye of the art admirer the chef-d'oeuvre, or best work of this gifted family. The citizens of Brantford, both Catholic and non-Catholic alike, will be indebted to the artists for this leaving in Brantford such a monument of their art.

The Designs.
The walls within the sanctuary of the church have been completely covered with aluminum leaf, gold and elaborate stencils work in Gothic arches on the wall in keeping with the general architecture of the church, which is of the purest Gothic. All the arches and pillar capitals have been beautifully decorated with gold leaf, while the walls are done in olive green to blend with the ceiling, which is of a lighter shade. Some twenty-five paintings, done on canvass and placed upon the walls, are masterpieces of the highest Italian art. Part of the main altar, as seen in picture portraying the adoration of the Blessed sacrament, with groups of adoring angels on either side. Four other large paintings, each some fifteen feet in diameter, adorn the transepts of the church, two on either side. On the gospel side (the west) are seen the resurrection and the ascension of Christ, and on the epistle (the east) side, the Holy Family and the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Both of these scenes were after the Spanish Master Murillo.

CONSCRIPTION IN CUBA.

By Courier Leased Wire
Havana, July 12.—The bill to establish compulsory military service in Cuba, following four days of bitter debate, was approved by the Senate last night by a vote of 15 to 2. By previous agreement a committee consisting of three Conservatives and an equal number of Liberals was then appointed to revise the provisions of the bill and is expected to complete it on Monday when the debate will be continued.

As the bill now stands it would make eligible to draft all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of 20 and 30 and would be perpetual in its operation.

In the few months that they have been in Bagdad, the British have changed the sanitary condition of that city to an extent that recalls the American clean-up at Havana. They have installed an electric lighting system, valued every house in the city, and put down rents to a reasonable basis, built a railroad to the Persian Gulf at Basra, employing thousands of natives at good wages in the task. Perhaps most important of all, they have taken possession of the Turkish crown lands, and reduced the rents to

That which increases the busy man's accomplishments in the day, is no luxury. That which widens your field of business endeavor is a necessity. That which lengthens the life of every member of your family can well be afforded. Owing to that which saves health, time and money is true economy. All these things are embodied in the possession of an automobile. Don't wonder how your neighbor can "afford" a car, but use your sound judgment and ask yourself today "Can I afford to be without one?" The Turks worked for centuries to destroy Mesopotamia, the British have worked for a year to rebuild it, and that brief gleam of civilization already has done much to banish the effect of the long night of barbarism. Mesopotamia must be ruled by some outside power. It is clearly too weak to rule itself. The question is whether it should be managed by a civilized state for the prime benefit of its own people, or be tyrannized over by a gang of Turkish robbers who think

SIMCOE ENTRANCE CLASS MAKES RECORD

Every Candidate Passed, Only 8 Failed to Get Honours

Simcoe, July 13.—Principal McPherson and his students, may feel justly proud of the brilliant record of the 1918 entrance examination.

One pupil among the brightest in the class, was prevented from writing having contracted measles. Her certificate will be issued in accordance with regulation in that behalf.

Of the 34 who wrote and passed, 26 took honours.

Some thirteen years ago, 36 passed from one class, but in the interim, and especially since the outbreak of the war, entrance candidates have decreased considerably in number. Locally the development of the factories took many from school before they had finished the public school course.

Some thirteen years ago, 36 passed from one class, but in the interim, and especially since the outbreak of the war, entrance candidates have decreased considerably in number. Locally the development of the factories took many from school before they had finished the public school course.

Port Rowan, Delhi, St. Williams, Courtland and Doan's school, Woodhouse, sent up not a single unsuccessful candidate, and Port Dover made a big gain on last year's results.

Taken altogether, the report should be received with general satisfaction.

Outlook for September Opening

The number of successful candidates who will proceed to the high schools is very problematic. Doubtless most of those who can do so from home will go up, perhaps 75 per cent. of them any way. But farmers, who of their own families are independent of paid labor, and are becoming so cheaply as they did years ago, have not yet become reconciled to the increase cost of board in town, though they enjoy the higher price of produce, and this feature may cause some to drop away from studies.

And moreover, if help is so scarce on the farm, the boys may be required at home.

FARMING SECOND, TROOPS ARE FIRST

Hon. Martin Burrell Says Programme Cannot Be Modified

Ottawa, July 12.—The following statement has been handed to the press by the Hon. Martin Burrell, acting minister of militia and defence:

"It has been stated to the government that the labor situation is such that there is danger of the crops not being entirely harvested unless soldiers can be given leave of absence for this purpose. Already a large number of men have been granted exemption and leave of absence. The grave situation at the front since the initiation of the German offensive last spring necessitated the most vigorous and rapid reinforcement of our troops. Accordingly, arrangements were made for the sending overseas of the largest possible number of troops, especially during June and July."

"There can be no doubt as to the necessity for such arrangements being carried out. The whole situation has been laid before General Meunier and the other senior commanders in England, and they were asked whether conditions at the front would warrant a departure from the programme laid down. A reply was received last night stating the situation made it essential that the reinforcements arranged for should reach England at the earliest possible moment, and that there should be no departure from the programme."

Misses Send Men Overseas.

"The government appreciates the many and serious difficulties which in these days of warfare the Canadian people encounter in the carrying on of their work, notably in agriculture, so important to the conduct of the war itself. Nevertheless, we cannot shut our eyes to the tremendous gravity of the issues now at stake in France. Nor can we forget the sacrifices which are being daily and hourly made by our countrymen on the field of battle in order that our country, in common with those of our allies may be saved from the evil fate which would befall them should Germany triumph."

"With a full realization of all that is involved, the government recognizes it as a high and imperative duty to see that the reinforcements now arranged for, be sent across seas without falter and without delay. The nation has clearly expressed its feelings on this great matter, and we believe the Canadian people who have committed themselves to an sacred cause are determined to suffer such inconveniences and sacrifices as are necessary to the end they have in view."

Realizing, however, the great necessity of harvesting the crop, and with earnest desire to meet the situation in every way possible, the government is carrying out the programme already laid down in regard to the forwarding of reinforcements overseas. The department of militia will continue its efforts to arrange for the release of all men where they can be possibly spared.

Marburg has four candidates: Port Rowan and Cultus, seven; and Simcoe, 25 approved students, who on completion of the necessary term at farm work, will be given certificates. In each case a certificate from the farmer is required.

TRAIN BACKS INTO AUTO.

Simcoe, July 13.—Geo Smith and Martin Cartwright, while progressing at a very moderate rate up West St. yesterday afternoon in Smith's Ford car were struck by a box car being backed down the G. T. R. track towards the south ward yard and the car half capsized was pushed down the track about 100 feet with the men pinned in it and every moment threatening to over turn which it finally did as the train stopped.

Miraculously neither was hurt.

Another Anto Mishap.

Simcoe, July 13.—Mortie Day, mechanic at the Ford garage, and Miss Ward, G.N.W. operator, received severe injuries last night down towards Wiggins' school, when the Ford touring car in which they were riding turned turtle over a bank, and pinned them underneath. Screams for help attracted farmers near by, and the injured couple were brought to town badly used up.

Day was called out to make repairs on a wheel of car and took Miss Ward for the trip. The young lady was at the wheel when the accident occurred, presumably learning to drive the car.

The young man's father came in from Windham Centre last night at a late hour, and learned from Dr. Toll that his son, though badly bruised, had no fractured limbs and unless internally injured, would no doubt, pull through.

Miss Ward, we were informed, was more seriously injured.

Consolidated Financial Statement of the National Council, Y.M.C.A. of Canada (CANADA - ENGLAND - FRANCE)

The National Council of the Y.M.C.A. herewith presents a complete statement of its finances for the year 1917, covering its entire service Overseas and in Canada.

The Executive Committee of the Council arranged last November to have a complete statement for the year 1917 ready for publication before the recent Red Triangle Fund Campaign, but owing to conditions arising out of Military operations in France, this has been unavoidably delayed. It is presented now at the earliest date that existing conditions have permitted.

The portion of the following statement which concerns England and France has already been submitted to the Overseas Military authorities. Audited statements of the funds handled have been submitted to the Militia Department of Ottawa and for the past two years regular accounting has been made as well to the authorities in England and in France. In addition to the regular audit in France, the canteen business is checked every month by the Military Field cashiers, to determine the amount which is paid to Military units as indicated in the Expenditure. Printed copies of the audited statements are posted up in the huts for the information of the soldiers.

The General Operation Account shows on the one hand the entire receipts of the National Council; first, from the gross sales of its Military canteens in Canada, England and France, and second, from subscriptions received during the year. On the other hand, there is shown the entire expenditures for the year, including, first, the cost of the goods sold in the canteens and, second, the expenses connected with the entire service which is carried on under the direction of the National Council.

The Balance represents the excess of receipts over expenditures. Of this sum of $118,351.43 was the balance at the National Headquarters at Toronto, and the remainder was Overseas. This balance at the end of the calendar year represents the amount available to carry on operations until the time of the campaign in 1918. While the financial statement is drawn up on the basis of the calendar year the receipts from the campaign of one year have to serve until the campaign of the next year. The above balance at the National Headquarters was by April 30th, just before the new campaign, not only used up but changed to a deficit of $237,930.13. This deficit was, however, offset by the balance overseas, which has to be maintained there as a working balance to carry on operations.

The item of $240,524.86 is a special amount which had to be expended for the purchase of canteen and other supplies in Canada for shipment to France. Beginning with June, 1917, on account of the scarcity of supplies in Great Britain, much of the purchasing formerly done there had to be transferred to Canada. The long period of time required for the shipment of these supplies to France involved the continuous employment of a large sum. The amount expended for this purpose, as at December 31st, has had to be treated as an expenditure and placed in a Reserve Account against the merchandise in hand. It is, however, a possible asset and will, when realized upon, be devoted to other forms of service to the soldiers, when it is no longer required to maintain the canteen service in France.

It was possible to provide for this expenditure only because the amount asked by the National Council in 1917 was oversubscribed by more than the amount required just at that time. Purchasing had to be undertaken. But for this it would have been necessary either to borrow this large amount or greatly curtail the service in France.

It is to be remembered that the goods at the front in France, where the greater part of the stock is carried, are subject to enormous risks. The English Y.M.C.A. in the German offensive of March and April suffered losses in huts and canteen supplies of nearly one Million Dollars. In the more recent offensive the American Y.M.C.A. has suffered losses nearly as large, and the National Executive have deemed it a matter of prudence to be prepared to meet a similar loss if it should fall on the Canadian Y.M.C.A.

The National Council has from the first declared the policy of devoting to the service of the soldiers whatever balance remains in the Military Fund at the close of the war. This policy has been made known to and accepted by the Overseas Military authorities. The need for the Y.M.C.A. service will continue all through the period of demobilization and the plan of the National Council is to use whatever balance then exists to keep up the efficiency of the service to the soldiers during that important period.

The National Council of the Y.M.C.A., under which the Military Work is conducted, is a representative body of the various Y.M.C.A.'s throughout Canada, but it has no authority over or financial responsibility for any local branch. The funds which it handles have no connection with those of any local branch of the regular Y.M.C.A. It wishes to make clear, therefore, that the funds which are acquired in or subscribed for the Y.M.C.A. Military Work have not been and will not be used in connection with the regular work of any of these branches, but will, according to the policy already announced, be kept in the Military Work and devoted exclusively to the service of soldiers.

The service represented in the expenditures of the accompanying statement covered at the opening of the present year, 96 per cent of operation in France and 4 per cent in England, including all regular camps, units, base camps, convalescent camps, hospitals, railway troops, cavalry, London and Paris, and forestry units from the north of Scotland to the South of France.

There were on the Overseas staff 133 Secretaries carrying honorary commissions, 50 of whom were at the expense of the Y.M.C.A. for pay and allowances and the remainder at the expense of the Government. There are also a considerable number of other ranks, non-commissioned officers and men, detailed to the Y.M.C.A. staff by the Military authorities. A number of these, who are given non-commissioned rank because of special responsibility, are at the expense of the Y.M.C.A. for the extra pay over that of their regular rank. Civilian help is also employed where required and where circumstances permit.

In Canada the soldiers are served in 38 centres, including camps, barracks, Red Triangle Clubs, hospitals, convalescent camps and troop trains. This has required approximately 100 Secretaries, who work on a civilian basis and are entirely at Y.M.C.A. expense. There is also required a considerable staff of employed helpers, exclusive of the committees of ladies who render their service free.

The scope and variety of the entire service, in so far as expenditures can reveal them, are indicated in the following statement.

Signed on behalf of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A.

G. H. WOOD, Chairman,
F. L. RYCKLEFF, Chairman of Finance Committee,
CHAS. W. BISHOP, General Secretary.

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have audited the books, vouchers and accounts of the National Council Headquarters at Toronto, and of the Central Territorial Division, for the year ended 31st December, 1917, and have been furnished with the audited statements of the Maritime and Western Divisions of the National Council for the same period. We have also been furnished with the Annual Statement for England for 1917, duly audited, and the Annual Statement for France for 1917 with the auditor's Certified Statement for the six months to June 30th. Owing, we understand, to Military restriction on civilian travel between England and France, it was impossible for the auditor to go to France and complete his audit to 31st December, 1917. We have agreed the Canadian and Overseas statements with the above General Statement, which combines them, and, according to the books and statements furnished, the above statement is in our opinion, correctly sets forth the operations of the National Council at home and overseas.

Lowers Selling Cost

Some new facts and figures throw a flood of light on this subject

The rising cost of living is the great universal hardship of the present day. So great and so many have these rises been that few people stop to realize that there have been a few exceptions to the general rule. But the fact is that there have been numerous exceptions and all of these exceptions belong to the same great class—that of nationally advertised goods.

The present agitation on the high cost of living has led to some investigations which have brought out a lot of facts hitherto unknown to the public. Some of the most important work in this line is being done by the Association of National Advertisers, an organization of 260 of the leading advertisers of the country. Mr. Sullivan, the secretary-treasurer of the association, has given out some vitally important facts concerning the relation of advertising to selling costs.

"The old idea," said Mr. Sullivan, "that the cost of advertising raises prices, dies hard. But the business man knows better. He knows that selling goods is costly business—no matter what the goods or what the selling methods. And he knows that anything which creates demand on a large scale, and thus makes selling easier, is bound to reduce selling costs and thus helps to reduce prices.

"But the evidence is better than argument; facts are better than theories, and we have been at great pains to collect the facts. We have secured an immense amount of data from our members which proves that advertising does reduce selling costs and thus tends to reduce the selling price of advertised goods. Let me quote a few examples:

"The makers of a famous photographic camera, when they began advertising twenty-eight years ago, made one camera which took a 2 1/2 inch picture, and which sold at $25. Today they make a far better camera which sells for $10. Another, which took a 4x5 picture, sold for $60. Today they sell a far better one for $20. And so on through the line.

"A prominent hat manufacturer has, by means of advertising, reduced his selling cost seven cents per hat. Result—the buyer gets a hat of better quality at no increase in price; this despite increased cost of raw material and workmanship.

"When the manufacturer of a famous breakfast food specialty began advertising, his goods sold at 15 cents a package. Today the package is fifty per cent. larger and the price has been reduced to 10 cents. Again advertising did it, the same causes producing the same results.

"The producer of another well known food specialty is selling his goods at 25 per cent. less to the wholesale grocery trade than four years ago.

"Twenty years ago a nationally advertised shaving stick was sold in a cheap metal leatherette covered box. Today a stick containing 20 per cent. more soap is sold in a handsome nickel box at the same price.

"Then take the most conspicuous example of them all—the automobile business; and compare the $5,000, or $10,000 cars of ten years ago with the equally good cars of today, selling for a fraction of the money.

"And so on through a long list. In every case, the manufacturer either has been able to lower the price or improve the quality at no increase in price."

How has he done it? By means of advertising, which has created demand on a larger scale, and thus permitted production and distribution on a large scale. Result—improved manufacturing efficiency and reduced costs. And all of this in the face of a steady increase in the cost of labor and raw materials which, with advertising eliminated, might in many cases have doubled the price of the goods.

"A triumph of economical marketing" is the only possible verdict for advertising in the face of these facts.

CROSSED CHANNEL IN AN AIRPLANE

King and Queen of Belgium Set Novel Precedent For Royalty

Associated Press.
London, July 10.—A Royal escort of three Belgian seaplanes guarded King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium on their flight over the Channel from Belgium to England Saturday morning, a trip which marked the first time in history that any ruler has ever made a flight from one country to another.

The royal couple travelled in separate seaplanes, each operated by a Belgian army aviator. On the British side of the Channel the King landed first near a British warship off Dover. The Queen descended soon afterwards, her seaplane also landing near a warship. They started from the Belgian coast and made the trip to England in about 50 minutes. The purpose of their visit to England was to attend the silver anniversary of King George and Queen Mary on Saturday.

This is the first time since the war began that King Albert has visited London, and virtually the first time since August, 1914, that he has been outside his native land. The only time that King Albert has been outside of Belgium has been during one or two informal trips into France.

Queen Enthusiastic.
Queen Elizabeth was most enthusiastic about the voyage, telling about it wherever she went, and whenever anyone asked the details of the trip. Despite the fact that the Queen has ridden in airplanes before, she had never been over the sea.

The King, who has for a long time taken much interest in airplanes, has made many flights, so that among friends in London he did not seem to appear to think there was anything particularly novel about his flight. The first few days after he arrived he said he would rather not have the newspapers tell of his trip.

Both the King and the Queen wore aviation costumes which they had previously used. This is the first in history that any Royal personage has crossed the Channel by airplane. The Queen's maid of honor and the King's entourage came by boat and rail. The Royal couple returned the same way.

RESPIRE FOR AMIENS.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, July 12.—German guns and bombing airplanes have not harassed the city of Amiens, one of the objectives in the German drive of March 21, since June 25. Previous to that and during the fighting along the Somme the bombardment of the city had been so heavy that the civilian population had been removed.

U. S. PLANES MISSING.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, July 12.—Five American airplanes, which went on a bombing expedition without return, General Pershing's communique reported yesterday. Berlin reported five American airplanes in German hands yesterday.

WOULD AFFECT ENTIRE WORLD

President Wilson Refuses to Allow Wheat Price to be Fixed at $2.40

Washington, July 13.—In vetoing the $25,000,000 annual Agricultural Appropriation Bill because of its amendment fixing the Government guaranteed minimum wheat price at $2.40 a bushel, the President informed Congress to-day that he did not believe the farmers of America "depend upon a stimulation of prices to do their utmost to serve the nation and the world at this time of crisis."

The President said the patriotic spirit of the farmers had been "worthy of all praise and has shown them playing a most admirable and gratifying part in the full mobilization of the resources of the country."

He added that the bumper crops they have raised this year have relieved "the anxiety of the nations arrayed against Germany with regard to their food supplies."

A fixed minimum price of $2.40 a bushel the President said, would increase the price of flour from $10.50 to $12.50 a barrel, and would put an additional burden of $387,000,000 this year on the consumers. Such an increase in price, he said would force a similar increase in Canada, thus enlarging the whole scale of financial operations in this country by the allied Governments, and affecting practically the entire world.

The House is expected to pass the bill to-morrow with the price-fixing amendment eliminated, leaving the guaranteed prices at $2.20 a bushel. Some Senators from wheat-growing States were disposed to-night to urge the Senate to pass the bill over the President's veto, while others suggested that the wheat price amendment might be added to the $11,000,000 Emergency Agricultural Bill, to which is attached the prohibition amendment.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, July 13.—After a fight near Vaudeville, Que., over the administration of the military service act, Joseph Chevrier committed suicide following an assault by him on James O'Neill Farrell, a federal policeman, whom he injured seriously with a rifle.

The military authorities here gave out the information about the shooting. They stated that Farrell was engaged in making an arrest when he was assaulted by Joseph Chevrier who resides at St. Lazare, near Vaudeville.

Farrell was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital in this city. There he was found to be suffering from concussion of the brain, and had apparently been hit over the head by Chevrier with the butt end of his rifle. An operation was performed, and afterwards it was announced that Farrell was in a very dangerous state.

An official military investigation into the affair has been ordered.

FOREIGNERS PRODUCED.
By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, July 12.—The militia authorities this morning produced in court the four foreigners on whose behalf writs of habeas corpus had been secured by Percy Ryan, K.C. The case was adjourned until July 22 in order to give the Minister of Justice an opportunity of preparing his case on the constitutionality of the M.S.A., which has been challenged here insofar as it affects the habeas corpus law.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, July 12.—A fairly complete list of the holders of German Government bonds in the United States is among the assets of secret men fighting German propaganda, it was said to-day by officials discussing the disclosure of large holdings of the Busch family made yesterday by Alfred L. Becker, New York assistant attorney-general.

Names of nearly 20,000 individuals are on the list. The securities were issued in denominations as small as $50. Approximately six different issues of the bonds were made in the United States in order to evade the English blockade and to make the bonds valueless if seized, a provision was incorporated on the face of most of them that they should be considered invalid unless countersigned by Count von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States.

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

"SAY, YOUNG FELLOW."
 Douglas Fairbanks' new photoplay, "Say, Young Fellow," is described as being, perhaps, the most novel in which he ever has appeared. The story was written by Joseph Henabery, who also directed the picture. An admirable cast of players appears in support of the popular Aircraft star.

In this photoplay Mr. Fairbanks portrays the role of a wide-awake, optimistic reporter employed in a small city, who wins distinction by interviewing a millionaire who not only has never been interviewed before, but who announced that he never would admit to reporterial inquisition. How Mr. Fairbanks, known as "the young fellow," gets to the millionaire and obtains the story he is after, is said to be a highly interesting development new to modern motion pictures.

His success with this assignment prompts his appreciative city editor to give him another and more difficult one. He sends his "young fellow" to a neighboring town where he is to expose a fraudulent scheme in connection with a big factory. Then enters in quick succession "the villain," portrayed by Frank Campau, said by Mr. Fairbanks to be perhaps the best portrayal of villain roles in the country. The reporter and this arch "villain" have several encounters which prove interesting to the audience as well as to those taking part therein in the picture.

When everything is at sixes and sevens, and the efforts of the young reporter to expose the fraud he finds rampant in the vicinity are nearly frustrated, "the girl" appears and by her aid all is set right and the reporter wins his fight. There are many thrilling situations in all of which the Fairbanksian methods are continually in evidence.

so that all admirers of this athletic star have a treat in store for them. It will be shown at the Brant Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Aside from Mr. Campau, Marjorie Daw, Edythe Chapman, James Neill and other capable screen artists appear in Mr. Fairbanks' support. The play was excellently produced and the photography, by Hugh McClung, is exceptionally fine.

The Three American Beauties present an exceptionally pleasing vaudeville offering.

"THE SERVICE STAR."
 "The Service Star" sounds pretty good for the title to a picture—doesn't it? And when the management of the Brant Theatre tells you that the delightful Madge Kennedy is cast in the featured role, your interest in such a production should be heightened to the maximum percentage.

"The Service Star" is a Goldwyn production and the latest picture in which Madge Kennedy has been seen. And it's worth all the praise that I or the American public can give it. The story in brief, is that of a slacker who builds his own prison—the story of a man who lived as a hero and is branded a coward after death. Miss Kennedy has the role of Marilyn March, a girl reared in homely surroundings, of plain appearance who is kept in the background by her relatives who are fond of the humdrum life. Marilyn is anxious to do her bit in war work and can think of no better start than to marry one of the brave boys who had gone to the front. Her friends are surprised when she announces that she is to marry a man whose name is on everyone's lips, for he had been cited for distinguished bravery in the trenches. But this is all deception, which fact is de-

Music in the Home

CONVERSATION AND MUSIC.
 Music is emotion born of solitude or at least, remembered in tranquility. Conversation is the sacrifice of tranquillity on the altar of agreeable proximity; nothing spoils it so much as genuine emotion. Conversation owes indeed, much of its charm to the power of generating a sort of commotion which we prize rightly under the name of sympathy. The pure musical passion the lyric love is the treat of human kindness, the passion for lending our thoughts out to others, which is the conversational impulse, is the milk and only when the cream is left in the milk is the cheese of the best quality.

The happiest and best man is that kind which finds room for both speech and song.

Into a huge vat afoam with the new milk of a hundred cows. For the dailyman injects a tiny phial of rhenet; and the sweet, ephemeral milk is curdled by magic—and very quickly made to the cream of the enduring substance of the cheese. The gall or rhenet symbolizes of talk more sympathetic rubbing of ideas for mutual's sake. And the impulse of song or musical self-expression—the rubbing in of ideas dropped as hints of eternity into our limited and faltering consciousness. What is wanted is a glorious common sense which enables a man to make the best of the situation. True-her not to break his heart by marrying Cecil. Conscience then brings to Ruth picture of the lying, deceitful acts she has been guilty of. Ruth goes through a series of deceptions, avarice, ambition, lust, revenge and untruthfulness. During all these acts Dr. Norton had been beside her, urging her on and grinning at the misery she is bringing on others. Finally Ned appears at the wedding ceremony is being performed. Ruth scorns him. He goes into another room and kills himself. Cecil then leaves Ruth and Ruth drops on her knees and begs for forgiveness. At this the devil departs.

VIVETTE.
 Vivette (Vivian Martin) is an impulsive English girl whose charms attract men to her at the first sight. When Dick Ware, a primitive Englishman, strong and unmastered declares his love for her, she consents with him and then repents. She is later to Lord Basset, who she loves, but she is later to Dick Ware, who she loves more. She is later to Dick Ware, who she loves more. She is later to Dick Ware, who she loves more.

reason why music should be allowed a three months' vacation. It is just as impossible to say we shall have no music from June to September as it is to bid the summer rain to stop for three months. The music in one form and it breaks out in another. Musical expression being necessary to the human nature it knows no seasons.

The music editor of a New York newspaper is, on behalf of the people, calling for the continuance of the symphony orchestra concerts right through the summer. He says the argument "there always has been a summer lull" is both illogical and silly. It may be difficult to say just what forms of musical concerts should be kept going through the summer months, but certainly the absence of the concerts and the visiting artists stimulates more music in the homes of the people.

Many a family, not caring to risk moving their good piano to the summer home, purchase a used instrument for their cottage. Just as soon as the vacation season commences there is an active demand for the "table type" phonograph for use in the camp and the canoe. While the music teachers are forced to ease off during the school holidays, there are more "sings" around the piano in the home, at the summer resort, and band concerts in the parks and other forms of summer music that show clearly music knows no season.

"CONSCIENCE."
 William Fox's latest photoplay "Conscience" brings to the Rex theatre Gladys Brockwell and a great Fox cast in a stirring drama next Monday for a three days' run.

Miss Brockwell, who has been called "The girl of a thousand expressions," has in "Conscience," a vehicle that gives her full opportunity to show her versatility. Supporting her are Marjorie Daw, Eve Southern, Eugene Forde, Douglas Gerrard, Edward Cecil, Harry Lonsdale, Colin Glass and Bertram Grassby.

The story shows Ruth Soiers, the shoe-maker's daughter, who is reborn as a fallen spirit, on earth. She had appeared at the gate of Heaven with Lucifer but the Archangel Michael had told her to go back to earth and work out her redemption. The Devil in the person of Dr. Norton (Bertram Grassby) goes with her. Finally Ruth falls in love with Cecil Brooks (Douglas Gerrard) and the wedding day arrives when Ruth gets a message from Ned Langley (Colin Chase) asking her not to break his heart by marrying Cecil. Conscience then brings to Ruth picture of the lying, deceitful acts she has been guilty of. Ruth goes through a series of deceptions, avarice, ambition, lust, revenge and untruthfulness. During all these acts Dr. Norton had been beside her, urging her on and grinning at the misery she is bringing on others. Finally Ned appears at the wedding ceremony is being performed. Ruth scorns him. He goes into another room and kills himself. Cecil then leaves Ruth and Ruth drops on her knees and begs for forgiveness. At this the devil departs.

King Alfonso of Spain
 May be Known to History
 As the Angel of Europe

THE King of Spain has many names and many titles. He has also so many attributive qualities that one might be puzzled to know whether he is greater, for instance, as a sportsman than as a constitutional monarch. It is to his credit that he plays all his varied roles well. He is not a little famous as his own chauffeur, or as a polo player, and the army idolizes him as a soldier; but the role in which it is likely he will be best known to posterity is that of the "Angel of Europe." Let it not be scored up against the popular, impulsive Alfonso XIII. that he is proud of the fact that he is an Austrian archduke. He has not taken any sides in the war, except in a purely humanitarian capacity as head of his own wonderful Prisoners of War Bureau; and this notwithstanding that he is Austrian by descent and that his mother was a princess of the House of Hapsburg. His grateful "subjects" are to be counted by the thousands in every country whose sons have been engaged upon the far-flung battle fronts. Stacks of their letters, many bearing the simple superscription "To the King of Spain," are to be found in his palace. None too humble or too illiterate to be able to find an attentive monarch to see to their particular

HOW IS YOUR APPETITE?

Loss of appetite during the summer months is a common trouble, and indicates that the digestive system is out of order. Lacking healthy appetite many people—especially women—go too long without food, or eat sparingly, because food seems to distress them, and it is no wonder that they complain that they are constantly tired and unable to stand the hot weather. This simply means that the digestive system is not doing its proper work, and that the nutriment that should come from the food is not being distributed to the various organs of the body in other words the blood is growing thin and watery.

You need a summer tonic, and in all the main lines of medicine there is no tonic so equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Take a short treatment with these pills now and notice how promptly your appetite returns and your blood is cleared and improved. Your food will then do you good, your strength will return and you will no longer complain that the hot weather frets you out.

The best time to begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the moment you feel the least bit out of sorts. The sooner you do the sooner you will regain your old time energy. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

 needs, or to merit an immediate reply; no language too "foreign" for his bureau to decipher; no demand too exacting or complicated for the King or his secretaries.

In celebrating his birthday in 1917, the people of Spain deliberated as to which among its numerous historical should send him, until a humble alcalde, or mayor, from the Biscayan Mountains, cried: "Let us offer our King the Grand Cross of Benevolence." The entire nation acclaimed the suggestion. The monarch was not far to seek. The humanitarian work conceived and carried out by him, of searching for the missing on the battlefield, of relief for prisoners of war, of promoting charity and justice among the victims in foreign lands, merited not only the admiration and attachment of the people of Spain but of all the nations at war. Thousands of examples could be given of his beneficent efforts in finding the missing, in conveying the happy news of restoration or deliverance. The altruistic work is carried on in a suite of apartments of the royal palace. Every letter sent to the King receives an immediate reply, and the petition is then referred to the Spanish Ambassador accredited to the country where the desired information is likely to be obtained. The reply to the petitioner, if favorable, is indicated on pink paper in a few words. Unfavorable news, on the contrary, takes greater space, as if the King were loath to impart the tidings which held out no hope. But it is in the power he has created of establishing satisfactory connections with regions invaded that the King has scored one of his greatest triumphs. At his present time the royal bureau is bound to be busy with requests from French people in Picardy for information as to the safety of the whereabouts of those surrounded by the enemy and imprisoned in their own country by the German drive. In order to meet such a contingency, the King hit upon the idea of a system of special cards whereby relatives and friends could communicate with each other in a brief but dependable fashion.

Spaniards are fond of describing Alfonso XIII. as "my Spanish" and English people as "very English." And both are not far out in their description of a king who, while he speaks perfect English and has a penchant for many outdoor sports and its concomitants, the soft collar and "bannels," is always the polite and courteous Castilian with whom punctifiveness is a code of daily life. Mr. Gerard, the former United States Ambassador to Germany, has put it on record that he is "a Spaniard of the best type, a Spaniard possessing industry and ambition and bravery, a Spaniard in fact of the days when Spain was supreme in the world." There could be no better or more apposite praise for a man who, only a few days ago, is said to have given his Ministers the proverbial ten minutes to form a coalition Ministry or accept the alternative of a king enforcing law and order at the head of a faithful army.

PAYMASTER SENTENCED

By Courier Leased Wire St. Catharines, Ont., July 12.—Three years imprisonment was the sentence imposed by Magistrate Campbell this morning on J. E. Lawrence, former paymaster of the Welland canal, on a charge of stealing about $16,000 from the Department of Railways and Canals.

M. J. McCarron, counsel for the prisoner, pointed to his client's long years of service and previously good record and asked for leniency. The magistrate in passing sentence said that the thefts had been systematic and that it was out of consideration of the man's age that the sentence was made as light as possible.

RECORD WOOL CLIP FOR WESTERN CANADA

EARLIER estimates of this year's wool clip of Western Canada seem to have been much too conservative. It now looks as if the increase over last year's clip will be as high as fifty per cent. This is the estimate of the clip of the Southern Alberta Wool Growers' Association—the largest association of sheepmen in Western Canada. Last year the members of this association had 158,000 sheep sheared; this year the number sheared is about 235,000, or 70,000 more than last year. It is expected that the Southern Alberta Association will have about 1,675,000 pounds of wool for sale, and that the members will realize a total amount of more than a million dollars on the clip.

Most of the wool of Alberta sheep is marketed through the various growers' associations in different parts of the province. The Pincher Creek Association—also in Southern Alberta—will have about 85,000 pounds of wool for disposal, which represents a fairly substantial increase over the quantity marketed by this association last year. Increases of from twenty-five to fifty per cent over last year's clips are also looked for at Calgary, Brooks, Lacombe and Edmonton.

In Saskatchewan the grading and selling of the wool is undertaken by the Co-operative Branch of the Department of Agriculture. A large quantity is also handled independently. Last year the Co-operative Branch marketed for Saskatchewan farmers 233,000 pounds of wool; this year it expects to handle at least 400,000 pounds, or almost double the quantity. These figures are evidence of the growing interest in sheep by the farmers of the wheat province. Manitoba also has a co-operative scheme for the handling of wool, which is taken advantage of by the majority of farmers there. The wool is sent to a central point for grading and sorting, and the farmers receive an advance of between twenty and thirty cents a pound on their wool, which is sold at the best opportunity. Present indications are that at least 250,000 pounds will be handled by the Department of Agriculture in this manner this year. This quantity is about twenty-five per cent more than was sold last year.

Shearers are busy throughout the Prairie Provinces and large quantities of wool have begun to arrive at the collecting stations at Calgary, Lethbridge and Edmonton, Alberta, Regina, Saskatchewan, Winnipeg, Manitoba, and other places. In Alberta there are several large shearing camps, at one of which two thousand sheep are now being sheared daily. Most of the smaller flocks, however, are being sheared on the home farms. At the sorting warehouses good progress is being made, and large arrays of bags of wool, already sorted and graded ready for the sale, are to be seen there. When all the wool has been sorted and graded it will be consigned to the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Association at Toronto, Ontario. This is an association formed by sheep breeders from all parts of the Dominion for the purpose of marketing the wool of its members and others, and looking after the interests of sheep owners in every way.

THE ROYAL AND ANCIENT

The very successful patriotic golf fete held by the Mississauga Golf and Country Club the other day when some $1,200 was raised for the Navy League of Canada and Prisoners of War Fund reminds one of the fact that the site of the charming club, house and sporting links through which the River Credit runs over its pebbly bed, was formerly the site of an important village of the Mississauga Indians, after which the club is very appropriately named. When the Toronto golf enthusiasts first took over the property it was not at all an uncommon thing to kick up an Indian skull, as near the 15th green was formerly the burying place of the braves. Arrow heads, too, were often picked up in the search for the elusive golf ball.

From the happy hunting ground of the Red Man to the playground of the devotees of the Royal and Ancient is certainly in the vernacular "some change."

And here is another rather extraordinary incident to chronicle. What golfer a decade or so ago could have believed that he would live to see the day when a golfer would land on the first tee from a flying machine and proceed to play the game? But yet this is not an uncommon experience on the Hamilton golf course. At the nearby aviation camp at Beamsville there are a number of flying men who are good golfers and they think nothing of jumping into their machines and cutting across country and landing on the links. After a round back they fly over hill and dale and look upon the stunt as quite a commonplace one. Tempora mutantur!

On the city links at Saskatoon they are spending some $4,000 this season in laying water onto the greens. Reports from Saskatoon on the nearby aviation country club in addition to the City Club, which is on municipal property, are to the effect that never in the history of the game have the links been so crowded. The same story is reported from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The vogue of golf these war times is simply extraordinary. That daylight saving has had a great deal to do with this does not admit of an argument. Busy men find that they can leave their tasks at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and get in a full round of 18 holes either before or after the evening meal. They find, too, that three or four hours spent on the links is time well spent, both from a mental and physical standpoint, not to mention the companionable and enjoyable side of the outing. Reports, too, from professionals from all parts of the country testify in no uncertain manner to this phenomenal golf growth. "There is not a pro, who is not booked up for lessons from early morning till dusk every day of the week. They are having the most successful season ever recorded in Canada. Never was there such a demand for instruction as there is now, there is such a demand for golf goods, that the pro. of a big golf club these days

It certainly looks as though making holes in one is going to be a very popular pastime this season. In addition to the two "Ones" reported from Vancouver, three more players the past two weeks have accomplished the well nigh impossible on Canadian courses, viz., Mr. R. A. Mackie, the 14th hole at Lakewood, Toronto; Mr. George French, the 5th at Sarnia, and Mr. C. H. Leaman, the general manager of the Northern Elevator Company, Winnipeg, the 7th, at the Winnipeg Golf Club course. Five one-shot holes hardly yet into its stride would seem to indicate that the total of 12, which was chronicled in 1917, will be easily surpassed. A hole in one is, of course, more or less luck and there are tens of thousands of veteran golfers who have never felt the thrill of seeing their ball trickle into the cup from the tee. Yet Mr. Leaman, the Winnipegger, who turned the trick, only started to play

The Wonderful Medicine, Made From Fruit Juices and Valuable Tonics.

MADAME ROSINA FOIZIS

"I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives', this medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well. You have my permission to publish this letter, as I hope it will persuade other sufferers from Dyspepsia to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and get well."

golf last year. But then the unexpected in golf is one of its most potent charms of the game. That 5th hole in Sarnia seems to especially favor the shot from the tee. Last year two ones were recorded there.

It will interest golfers to know that among the party of representative Canadian newspapermen who have left for England as guests of the British Government to make an extended survey of the Old Country under war conditions and also a tour of the Western front, are several well-known devotees of the Royal and Ancient. Senator White of the Montreal Gazette is a member of the Royal Montreal; Mr. Norman Smith, of the Ottawa Journal, plays at Riverdale; Mr. E. H. Smith, of the News, Toronto, is a member of the Toronto Golf Club; Mr. W. J. Southam, of the Spectator, Hamilton, has for many years been identified with the Hamilton Club; Mr. D. H. Macklin, president of the Free Press, Winnipeg, is a prominent member of the St. Charles Club; Mr. W. A. Buchanan, M.P., of the Lethbridge Herald, is an enthusiastic golfer. So, too, is Mr. J. H. Woods, of the Calgary Herald, whilst Mr. M. R. Jennings, of the Edmonton Journal, is a member of the Country Club of that city. It is a pretty safe wager that those leading members of the Fourth Estate whilst en route will find time for a game of golf or two on some of the famous courses of Great Britain.

By the way, the British Government apparently appreciates the work done for the war by the golf clubs in the Old Country, and by way of encouragement to further effort they have, through the Ministry of Pensions, intimated that they are anxious to enlist the assistance of clubs in providing facilities for the training and employment of disabled men in some form of outdoor work. It is desired that the employment shall be suitable for those suffering from neurasthenia, shell-shock, epilepsy and disorders of recovery from which in many cases may be assisted by an outdoor life. Here is an idea that might well be taken up by the Canadian authorities.

In acknowledging a gift of $1,000 sent to the Professional Golf Association of Great Britain by the kindred two-year-old organization of America to provide smokes for professionals in the field, J. H. Taylor, five times open champion of Great Britain, writes: "The vast majority of our pros joined up at the outbreak of hostilities and for over three years have been doing great and glorious work. A large number have made the supreme sacrifice, but in the manner and nobility of their death they have worthily maintained the honor of professional golf. When this terrible business is over," he adds, "I hope that the relations between the professionals in America, and those in Britain, will grow in cordiality and make for the splendor of the game that we all love."

HINDENBURG ILL.
By Courier Lensed Wire.
London, July 12.—A Dutch traveller from Germany, says a despatch from The Hague to the Exchange Telegraph Company, declares the rumor has spread all over Germany that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is ill and is unable to participate in the work at the army headquarters. The military duties there have been taken over entirely by First Quartermaster-General Lidendorff. German newspapers, the traveller says, are not permitted to mention the rumor.

Maxim Goriky Stands Out

As Very Unusual Figure

Among the Strange Slaves

It is said that Russia's changes of the last decades and during the war have been Goriky's changes. But, if report be true, he has anticipated Russia's next transition. A Socialist and an ardent Bolshevik, he has shaken the Bolshevik dust from his feet while the leaders of the Russian proletariat are still in power, and has denounced their policy in the language of a man to whom disillusionment has come like a revelation. To-day we are face to face with the Goriky evolved by the revolution, a man bearing little or no resemblance to the writer who used to shock us with his revolting characters from out of Russia's underground life.

Goriky, or "the Bitter" is merely a pseudonym. He was born in a boy's humble home, at Nizhni-Novgorod, as Alexei Maximovich Pezhkov, and was brought up as an orphan by his maternal grandfather, a religious miser. He became a tramp and helped to a cook on a Volga boat. He baked bread in a noxious cellar. He wandered with the vagabonds whose chronicle he was to become. He trudged through the Caucasus, labored in railway yards, and herded with the fierce, half-tamed gypsies and Tartars of his stories. He became so much at home with these wastrels of civilization that he felt uneasy and estranged among "intelligent people." Yet he secretly longed for goodness and beauty. He had not yet, however, reached the point where he could look the heart of the social enemy and say: "I have you nailed down. You shall no longer blind me to the truth!" After he began the delivery of his message he had still to learn how to analyze aright, to discover causes and separate them from effects.

In these days, Russia's watchword was "The People." The Russian desired to free not only himself, but the people as a mass. The young men of the better class went forth to live with the peasantry, to organize them into secret revolutionary groups known as "The Will of the People." But Siberia swallowed hundreds of the young reformers, and the doors of the prisons of Schlusselburg and SS. Peter and Paul were flung wide open to admit hundreds more. Goriky, himself of the people, helped Russia, as time went on, to see the faces of the masses filled with courage and glowing with strength. With true views and the power of self-expression called to his aid, he changed as conditions changed. He joined the Social Democratic Party in a valiant effort to remedy the social order, but his reforming zeal brought him to the Russian reformer's usual fate, the prison. In 1903 he appeared in America to collect money for the revolutionary cause. Returning to Europe, he lived on the island of Capri in virtual exile until 1916, when he returned to Russia.

The people are always foremost in his thoughts. They are the background of Russia. He sees the coming of a new order, when the people will have won their rights and shaken themselves free from social disabilities. His later work is perhaps too doctrinaire even for Russians. A philosopher and an artist, his art has suffered through his Socialism. Russians there are who would rather exchange his newer gospel for his bizarre characters of the underworld, and the gross scoundrel of Russian civilization, peculiarly his own, with which they were not familiar until he introduced them. But the submerged folk have nothing in common with the mission of the Goriky of the hour.

LADY'S SEMI-FITTED SLEEVELESS COAT.

Paris style notes tell us that sleeveless jackets will be worn a great deal during the coming warm months and one of the very latest ones which is being shown is copied in pattern No. 8758. The front is semi-fitted, with a seam extending from shoulder to hem at each side. The front is cut in a very graceful shape and the fastening consists of one large button and a bound buttonhole. The back of the coat fits the figure rather closely, and it is joined at the waistline to a circular peplum. There are no sleeves in this coat. To wear over summer dresses it may be made of satin, taffeta or jersey. The lady's semi-fitted sleeveless coat No. 8758 is cut in five sizes—34 to 42 inches bust measure. As on the figure, the 36 inch size requires 2 1/4 yards 36 inch, 1 1/2 yards 44 inch or 1 1/2 yards 54 inch material.

To obtain this pattern send 15 cents to The Courier office, or two for 25 cents.
