THREE GLARINGLY WEAK SPOTS IN HARBOR BOARD'S PROPOSALS CONCERNING RAILWAY PROBLEM

What Was Intended for a Bombshell Turned Out to Be Only a Squib—Mayor Hocken Astonished at Action of Harbor Commission—A Poor Substitute for the Mayor's Plan to Clean Up All the Toronto Franchises.

What was intended for a bombshell, but was only a squib, went off in the board of control yesterday. Controller Church sneaked the squib on the table, right under Mayor Hocken's nose, and gleefully waited for an explosion that would send Mayor Hocken sky high. When the infernal thing went off Mayor Hocken was certainly surprised, but not a bit alarmed. The squib was a proposition from the harbor commission (it was not signed, but Controller Church vouched for it as coming from the commission) to bring a provincial hydro radial system into the business centre by a line along the waterfront and a tube down Yonge street, and to make civic car lines of standard gauge and operate them in close connection with the hydro radial system.

Probably the weakest spot is the recommendation to change the civic car lines to standard gauge, so that they could be operated with provincial hydro radial lines of standard gauge. This recommendation, if carried out, would force the city in a little over seven years from now to change the gauge of all the tracks of the Toronto Railway Company's system. In no other way could the civic car lines and provincial hydro radials be operated on the Toronto Railway Company's lines when the franchise expires in 1921. The city would have to face an enormous additional expenditure for change of gauge when the time would come to take over the Toronto Railway Company's system at the termination of the franchise. Just how much that would be an influence for an extension of the franchise is readily understood.

Had the harbor commission not been secretly and hurriedly preparing a bombshell to hoist Mayor Hocken, it is just possible that a little more consideration would have been given to the fact that the only reason for radials being of standard gauge is when they interchange haulage of freight cars with steam railroads. None of the present radials entering Toronto except the Metropolitan out Yonge street, is standard gauge. All except the Yonge street line are the same gauge as the street railway. Toronto is so well served with freight service by the steam railroads that there is no necessity for the radials being of standard gauge. Furthermore, the gauge of the Metropolitan could be made to conform with that of the street railway by simply drawing spikes and shifting the rails on one side, and by changing the axles on the cars. The expense of that would be a mere bagatelle compared with the cost of changing the gauge of the street railway.

Another weak spot in the harbor commission proposition is that a unified street railway service on a one-fare basis is not only not provided for, but consideration of so essential a factor in the transportation problem is actually ignored. Certainly the harbor commission was in a big hurry to prepare a bombshell to blow up Mayor Hocken. Or is the game to be the extension of the franchise in 1921?

Another weak spot in the harbor commission proposition is that it is a very poor substitute for Mayor Hocken's plan for the solution of the transportation problem. It would commit the city to an expenditure of $15,000,000 for simply an extension of the present civic car lines, which are now run at a heavy loss of money. It would also incidentally give the Humber valley subdivisions a monopoly in the real estate market.

The veneer on the harbor commission proposition was so thin it fell off the moment Mayor Hocken and Controller McCarthy had it before them for inspection. Had it offered a better solution of the transportation problem than Mayor Hocken's plan, its presentation to the board of control would have been justified. It was, however, so palpably a poor substitute for Mayor Hocken's plan that it became a piece of inexcusable officiousness.

It fell flat. Ald. McBride, Ald. Burgess and Ald. McBride, the three members of the city council most active in supporting Controller Church and Controller Foster in an opposition to Mayor Hocken's plan, were much in evidence among those who assembled to see the bombshell exploded. They slipped away when the bombshell proved to be a squib.

A special edition of The Telegram, giving the harbor commission proposition, was sent, hot from the press to the board of control room a few minutes after the proposition was sneaked under Mayor Hocken's nose.

MEANS TWO FARES FOR MAJORITY OF PEOPLE

Harbor Board's Street Railway Scheme, as Analyzed by Controller McCarthy, Would Benefit Only a Few Property Owners and Would Mean Litigation.

That the proposals of the harbor commission to obviate Toronto's transportation difficulties by the establishment of civic lines over the harbor commission's right of way possessed several weak points, and that the city must take over the railway company, were statements made by Controller McCarthy at a meeting in the North Toronto town hall last night. The controller went thoroughly into the street railway problem and directed the attention of the audience to the obstacles in the way of the commission's suggestions and the feasibility of the railway purchase.

Controller McCarthy dealt with the whole railway situation. The first good reason for the city taking over the line, he said, was because they were getting value for their money. The second reason was that the railway could and would be efficiently managed by a commission.

The third reason was that the deal included all franchises, lines and business owned or operated by the Toronto Street Railway; and it was a complete system.

Will Show a Surplus. The harbor commission, said Controller McCarthy, was that the railway would pay for itself and all extensions and then leave a fine surplus in the days to come. Controller McCarthy next dealt with the charges that in the Arnold report the value of the revenue to be collected in the years to come had been overestimated. He quoted statistics to show that in the cities of Boston, Chicago and San Francisco the gross revenue of the railroads had increased with the population.

Proposals Analyzed. After showing the various features in favor of the railway purchase Controller McCarthy analyzed the harbor commission's proposals and soon had the scheme disintegrated. Before the plan could be put into operation the city would have to beat the railway in the courts. It was extremely doubtful if the city could secure the power to run the new lines and even if they could it would take years to get the matter settled by tribunals.

Once the city started to use the new lines, declared Controller McCarthy, it would mean two fares for many of the citizens. The scheme would also discriminate against other properties which were not situated near the civic line. Citizens who were fortunate enough to own property or live near the waterfront would have to pay two fares if their work lay near the southern portion of the city, while those who owned the property would get single fares and the value of their lands would be increased tremendously.

Before closing Controller McCarthy pointed out to the meeting that there was only one way to rid the citizens of the street railway abuse and that was by taking the system over completely.

C.P.R.'S BIG REVENUE IN WEST DUE TO EXTORTIONATE CHARGES VIGOROUS SLASHING REQUIRED

Should Cut Western Rates

OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—That the railroads of Canada are charging higher rates in western Canada than operating expenses warrant is the contention of J. P. Muller, United States expert. Taking the C.P.R. as a standard, the rates suggested on a 50 per cent. gross profit basis showed decreases in the present rates of from 27 to 44 per cent., and on a 35-2-3 gross profit basis of from 19 to 37 per cent.

That the operating cost of the Canadian Northern is abnormal was his contention, and he held that the C.P.R. should be adopted as the normal and standard road for rate-making purposes.

MINE STRIKERS EXPLODED BOMB

Attempt Apparently Made to Destroy Lives of Guards of Michigan Copper Mine.

CALUMET, Mich., Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—The Michigan copper mine strike took a serious turn again tonight when an attempt was made to blow up the compressor house at the Ahmeek mine. A heavy charge of dynamite was exploded by a time fuse, but the force of the explosion was spent outside the building, and the most serious damage consisted of shattered windows in the compressor house and at No. 1 and No. 2 shafts one hundred feet distant.

Both shafts resumed operations this week. It is believed that the compressor machinery was unharmed. Within two hundred feet of the explosion is a bunk house occupied by mine guards. Officers think that those who planned the dynamiting expected the explosion would destroy the bunk house as well as the compressor.

The explosion occurred about the time of changing shifts of underground men. As the Ahmeek compressor house is almost on the boundary line of Houghton and Keweenaw counties, the sheriff's forces of both counties are investigating. Application was made tonight by the sheriff to Governor Peris for martial law at Ahmeek township, Keweenaw county, as there has been considerable shooting thru the district.

SIR JAMES TAKES A HOLIDAY

For some time past Sir James P. Whitney, prime minister of Ontario, has been ill and during the past few days has absented himself from his office. Last night the following statement was given out by Sir James: "I have not been well and I have taken recreation and a holiday and I feel that I have benefited considerably by them. So much so that it is my intention to take some more without any particular notice being given. With regard to the nature of my proposed recreation, I would not care to say anything."

CANADA'S NEED, SAYS BOURASSA IS LAND, NOT NAVAL DEFENCE

Absurd to Contend That Example of Maritime Country Like New Zealand Should Be Followed by Continental Country—Bilingualism Safeguard Against "Penetration of Yankee Ideals."

SMITH'S FALLS, Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—Henri Bourassa, the Nationalist leader, addressed a large attendance of the local Canadian Club here this evening on the subject of Nationalism.

After defining his idea of Nationalism as opposed to imperialism, which he said, tends to make Canada a nation in the true sense of the word, he touched on the defence problems.

"In matters of defence," he said, "each self-governing colony should take the most effective means of protecting its own territory in maritime countries, like New Zealand or the Straits, national defence is primarily naval. In continental countries, such as Canada or India, the first object should be land or coast defence. It is absurd to pretend that any given policy of defence should be adopted in Canada, because it has been accepted in New Zealand, or vice versa. As to the general defence of the empire on the high seas, its burden should continue to rest on the people of the British Islands so long as they insist on exercising absolute and exclusive control of the naval and military forces and foreign affairs of the empire, and on regulating the sea-carried trade of all British possessions. Bilingualism Only Right. Touching on the language question Mr. Bourassa said that no government

REBEL TRIUMPH WAS COMPLETE

Villa's Troops Returned to Juarez Laden With Spoils and Held Parade in Celebration.

EL PASO, Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—Villa's army, returning from its battle at Mesa, began arriving in Juarez shortly before noon, the men in good spirits and well supplied with ammunition which they had captured from the federals.

Fifteen captured federal field pieces and 15 machine guns were brought to Juarez at about the same time the rebel army commenced coming in. A troop review, which was in the nature of a triumphal parade, was at once started and was reviewed by Gen. Villa from an automobile.

Four trainloads of federal prisoners numbering more than 400, it was said, were brought to Juarez at 11 o'clock, Gen. Villa accompanying them in a special car. It was stated that all former rebels who were found among the captives were executed on the field of battle. It is claimed most of the cars used in transporting the prisoners to Juarez were captured from the federals. There were no volunteers or irregulars among the prisoners. No executions took place in Juarez this morning.

With a new and firmer grasp on the opposition battle-ax, and amid the swelling chorus of the rank and file, the party chieftains are sounding the bugle calls for progress and consolidation. This was the temper of the Liberal Club Federation banquet held here tonight in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and N. W. Rowell, K.C.

ELECTRIC IRON CAUSE OF FIRE

Ten Thousand Dollars' Damage Result From Blaze Last Night in the Maitland Apartments.

Fire caused by an overheated electric iron left standing on a table in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Barbour in the southwest wing of the top floor of the Maitland Apartments, 42 Maitland street, did approximately $10,000 damage to the building and contents at 8.30 yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Barbour had been ironing on the table during the latter part of the afternoon. She went out to a nearby store, forgetting to turn off the electric current from the iron. The heat first ignited the wooden table, then caught the curtains and soon the whole room was in flames, which eventually worked up thru the roof of the building.

The fire was first discovered when another roomer on the same floor smelled smoke. Upon investigation it was found that the flames had gained good headway in the southwest corner of the building. Half of the damage is to the building, which is owned by Robert H. Dunlop, contractor, of 75 Wilton avenue. Mr. Dunlop last night estimated his loss at $9,000. The contents of the Barbour apartments are a total loss, while practically all the rest of the fittings and furniture on the top flat are damaged by smoke and water. The loss to the building is wholly covered by insurance.

REBELS MAY TRY EXPLOSION OF OIL TANKS

Federal Commander at Tampico Told That Gunboat Must Be Removed or Widespread Disaster Will Follow—Garrison Able to Hold City Against Armed Assault.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—"Remove the gunboat Bravo or we will fire on the oil tanks in the City of Tampico and along the banks of the river above." This threat, according to private information received here today, was sent by the rebels to the commander of the federals at Tampico yesterday. So long as the garrison at Tampico is aided by the guns of the Bravo, which is anchored in the river just off Fiscal Pier, there appears to be little chance for the rebels to capture and hold the city. But they might easily devastate the entire region by carrying out this threat to shoot up the tanks and fire the oil, estimated at 100,000 barrels. Should the oil in the tanks up river be fired the floating flame would be carried into the heart of the city, most effectively removing the menace offered by the gunboat, destroying all shipping and probably a fair part of the town.

That the rebels will carry out their threat is regarded by some of the officials here as by no means improbable, altho foreigners owning property in the neighborhood of Tampico are depending upon the promise of the rebels not to molest the well-oiled tanks. Directed Against Tampico. Advances from Tuxpan and Tampico are meagre because the lines of communication are cut.

DON'T BE ALARMED SAYS U.S. ADMIRAL

Situation in Mexico Oil Region Not Threatening, He Tells Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—The rout of the Mexican federalist forces and a wireless report from Rear-Admiral Fletcher indicating that conditions in the oil regions near Tuxpan were not as threatening as previously had been reported held the interest of official Washington today in the Mexican situation.

The wireless message to the navy department from Admiral Fletcher, who left Vera Cruz on the battleship Rhode Island late Monday night with John Lind, the special American envoy, to investigate alleged threatening conditions in the oil districts of Tuxpan and Tampico, brought evident relief to officials here. The admiral's report regarding the Tuxpan field, where British and American interests are situated, gave indications that no immediate aggressive action on the part of the United States to furnish protection would be necessary.

The no official report has yet come with relation to the Tampico district, the belief here is that the situation there will be found similarly controlled.

Guarding Border.

The border situation, as a result of the vigorous operations near Juarez and the possibility of another siege of the border city aroused the war department to action to afford ample protection for El Paso and the neighboring border territory, and late today orders were issued for the movement from Fort Douglas, Utah, to El Paso of the Twentieth U. S. Infantry, which will be used to preserve order within the city limits.

The war department upon the request of the American Red Cross, issued orders which permit the bringing of wounded Mexican soldiers across the border into El Paso, the permission applying to federal and constitutionalist soldiers alike. The wounded soldiers will be the wounded constitutionalists, as they have already been brought into Juarez in considerable numbers. The federal soldiers, the numbers of whom are reported to be in a pitiable condition further south, will receive equal treatment, if any agency is devised to bring them into the territory.

Care of Wounded.

The Red Cross authorities find it easier to care for the wounded Mexican in American territory than to enter into the international negotiations which would be necessary in order to cross the boundary, and it is known that facilities for the care of the wounded in Juarez are entirely inadequate. The Mexican Red and White Cross organizations are disorganized and those whom are reported to be in a pitiable condition further south, will receive equal treatment, if any agency is devised to bring them into the territory.

Uncle Sam's Big Coal Production

Last Year's Output Five Times That of Three Decades Ago.

The production of coal in 1912 reached the great total of $34,468,580 short tons, valued at the mines at $695,606,071, according to a statement by Edward W. Parker, coal statistician, just issued by the United States geological survey.

This year the report on the coal industry of the United States begins the fourth decade in which coal statistics have been published annually by the geological survey. In 1882, the first year of this period, the total production of the United States had reached what was then considered about high-water mark—108,551,189 short tons. In 1912 the production of bituminous coal alone in the State of Pennsylvania exceeded that figure by nearly sixty per cent, and the combined production of bituminous coal and anthracite in Pennsylvania in 1912 was two and one quarter times the total production of the United States in 1882.

The total coal production of the United States in 1912 was more than five times that of 1882. In 1882 the United States was a poor second among the coal producing countries of the world, Great Britain having an output exceeding that of the U. S. by nearly seventy per cent. The United States supplanted Great Britain as the premier coal producing country in 1895, and in 1912 it was as far ahead of Great Britain as that country was ahead of the United States in 1882.

The production of bituminous coal in 1912 was 86,907,628 short tons, with an increase of 1,612,469 short tons was due entirely to the production of bituminous coal in the United States. There has been only one year when prices generally were higher than in 1912, and that was 1903, the year of the fuel famine.

The steel industry in 1912 over 1911 was 28,995,454 short tons and the increase in value was $69,040,880. The production of bituminous coal in 1912 increased from 405,907,059 short tons to 509,049,822 tons, a gain of 44,142,763 tons, with an increase of $66,097,628 in value. The decreased production of anthracite, amounting to 6,102,469 short tons was due entirely to the production of bituminous coal in the United States. There has been only one year when prices generally were higher than in 1912, and that was 1903, the year of the fuel famine.

The steel industry in 1912 over 1911 was 28,995,454 short tons and the increase in value was $69,040,880. The production of bituminous coal in 1912 increased from 405,907,059 short tons to 509,049,822 tons, a gain of 44,142,763 tons, with an increase of $66,097,628 in value. The decreased production of anthracite, amounting to 6,102,469 short tons was due entirely to the production of bituminous coal in the United States. COMANCHE'S BONES WILL BE HONORED

Dust of Only Survivor of Custer Massacre to Lie Near Monument.

It has been decided to have the bones of old Comanche, the only survivor of the Custer massacre, at Little Big Horn Wyo. in 1876, receive military burial near the Custer monument, where they were buried the heroes of that memorable slaughter.

Comanche, it will be remembered, was a war horse. He was ridden into the battle by Private Miles Keogh. Two days later, when relief came, he was standing on the battlefield, head down, wounded in six places—and every one a desperate wound. Around him were dead men and horses and his feet were his dead men's hands.

Old Comanche was carried almost bodily down to the Little Big Horn River and there he was thought to be necessary to shoot him, but he gave permission that they might make an effort to save his life.

The horse was taken in charge by other troops of the Seventh Cavalry, and nursed back to health. General Sturgis then issued an order that Comanche should not be ridden again. Furthermore, at regimental formations Comanche was ordered draped in mourning and led by one of the men of the Seventh Cavalry. Whoever the regiment went to Comanche was to go. The Seventh was the Custer regiment.

Sixteen years after the Custer battle and when Troop I of the Seventh Cavalry was at Fort Lincoln, Comanche died. He was buried with full military honors and a volley was fired over his grave. Today Comanche is simply a tradition in Troop I. All his old friends have been retired or pensioned or have died.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS IN "AULD SCOTIA"

Strange Notions Prevail in Some of the Country's Hostels.

In parts of Scotland some curious old customs still prevail. For instance, in Edinburgh there is a hotel, the bar counter of which contains a slot in which each visitor who is heard to swear must drop a penny, and a notice to that effect is displayed. These pennies are collected at intervals and added to the funds of some of the local charitable institutions.

A curfew tolls at a hotel at Dumfries. In one of the public rooms, London T. B. Bits is an arm chair which is often occupied by Robert Burns, the Scottish poet. Any one who enters the room and seats himself in this chair is expected to "stand true" all present in the memory of the bard is drunk.

At Aberdeen, in a temperance hotel, each visitor, on signing his name to the hotel book, is desired also to affix his signature to a card testifying that he is a teetotaler and will not bring any intoxicants into the hotel.

In a Glasgow hotel it is the custom weekly, on Sundays, to go round the various rooms and take a subscription on behalf of one of the city charities. In another Glasgow hotel the proprietors, religiously inclined, holds divine service each Sunday at noon, to which all the boarders are invited.

At several of the large hotels in the north of Scotland the guests are beguiled from their slumbers each day by the playing of the bagpipes, while in a hotel in Inverness a posthorn is employed for this same purpose.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Roxton Ratepayers' Association, held on Nov. 28, in the Dawson street school, Controller J. O. McCarthy will give an address on the "Roxton Problem" with facts and figures of interest to every taxpayer.

C.P.R.'S BIG REV- ENUE IN WEST

holder's standpoint with the profits of railways of the United States, also in the west, operating, he maintains, under similar conditions and handling similar commodities. The interstate commerce commission found that these American roads were charging too high rates, and that they should be lowered. If the C.P.R. is making good profits, then this company likewise must be charging too high rates, it is maintained.

Operating Ratio Misleads.
 The cross-examination of Mr. Chrysler was directed to prove differently an answer to his question Mr. Muller said that the operating ratio alone meant very little. "I would not like to invest in a railroad without knowing the knowledge of its operating ratio," he said. The reason is that there is so many other things outside the cost of operation. Some of the poorest railway companies show a comparatively good operating ratio because they are too poor to warrant incurring the cost of a large expenditure. They may let the equipment, road, bed, etc., go down. However, in the case of the C.P.R. the other facts are known.

Figures Sometimes Lie.
 The figures which were presented in connection with the cost of operation, revenue, etc., were those furnished by the company to Mr. Muller. While the figures are accurate, they do not tell the whole story. A satisfactory means of determining revenues and expenditures between the district for practical purposes. It is not an absolutely fair division because it makes a district which does little in the way of originating trade simply having the expense of doing so. It shows big profits because it gets the ratio going thru it and at the same time does not show the expense of terminals, etc., placed up against it. Thus the central divisions show big profits and the coast divisions show very small profits or one at an account of their heavy terminal charges. So there they stopped to start again this morning.

ANTS DESTRUCTION TO WOODEN POLES
 In the telephone system of the canal zone steel rails are used as poles on account of ants. It is said that they will cut into a wooden pole in a very short time, leaving nothing but the shell. Creosoted cross-arms are being used as a protection against these pests, according to a correspondent of The Telephone Review.

REJECTS MOTION AIMED AT C. P. R.
 Austrian Reichsrath Votes Down a Resolution on Emigration.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—(C. A. P.—The Times correspondent of The Times says: The budget committee of the Reichsrath has rejected a large majority resolution aimed directly against the Canadian Pacific Railway. This resolution, which was proposed by the Christian societies, was to the effect that the Pacific, which is not only a shipping but principally a foreign land speculation company, should be placed under the control of the government to make Austrian shipping more independent of the Austro-Hungarian empire. The resolution was adopted by a large majority.

NATIONALITY AS SHOWN IN HEADS
 Among many interesting facts that are revealed by a study of heads is the one that the left side of the head is almost always larger than the right. This is supposed to be the universal practice of writing in the right hand. Another curious fact pointed out by the writer in The Strand is that nationality is considerably shown in the shape of the head. It would surely be an interesting subject for a study of the shape of the head.

"HONORARIUM" IS FOOD FOR DEBATE
 Hon. Mackenzie King's Friends Seek, However, to Prevent Discussion.

QUESTION OF ETHICS
 Ex-Cabinet Minister's Fight to Hold Office is Determined One.

At the Ontario Reform Association meeting tomorrow an effort will be made to start a discussion of the "honorarium" received by the president, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, on the ground that the money is not really his association. However, as Mr. King made a point of his position in the Reform Association to secure the money, it is thought that the Ontario Reform Association of great value to whom are in the City of Toronto or in the Province of Ontario.

REBELS MAY TRY TO EXPLODE OIL

communication are interrupted. Practically the only method of communication is by wireless from ships to Vera Cruz, from which the information is relayed to the capital. There is a growing belief here that the campaign against the rebels against Tampico is directed against the former port more than against the latter. The rebels have sought to attract attention to their cause by dynamiting Tampico.

REBELS MOBILIZING.
 The central point of concentration of the rebel forces is at Tamalipas, a town at the head of the lake, about half way between the two ports. Rebels are now moving southward in the neighborhood of Victoria in the State of Tamaulipas towards Tampico. At Tampico there are said to be about 800 federalists, supported by the gunboat Bravo.

FREE TRADE ONE WAY.
 The cause of the recent reduction in American tariff, sheep, duties, and milk and other products. There was a rush of wool to the border and the finished product could not come back to Canada. There would be a growing scarcity here and an increase in price. Sir Wilfrid would not speak of reciprocity but he would not speak of reciprocity but he would not speak of reciprocity.

CONTINUOUS CROP OF FIGS.
 BELLOTT, Ala.—That figs bear the second year round has been demonstrated by John F. Manuel, who has a tree at his home, No. 1018 Holly st., which is now full of large figs just beginning to ripen. Mr. Manuel says this tree has borne figs for 40 years, and that the fruit has been in all stages of development from the size of figs just setting to the ripened fruit.

ROWE AS A JOINT GUEST.
 Rowell as he, a joint guest, acknowledged his pleasure in the honor of the Liberal federation was great. He defined in different phrases the principles of Liberalism. Pure Conservatism is a change, the maintenance of King and church, Toryism and village life. It means that they conserve the rights and interests of the privileged classes. The best way for the west to prosper is to have a healthy and wholesome rich and middle class. The cursed wild slave traffic must be abolished. But why not throttle the traffic that was destroying all but a few of the people and was a menace to their good intentions.

BURST OF CHEERS.
 The meeting closed with a tremendous burst of cheering for Canada and the Liberal leaders.

The game last night was the final one between the two teams tied for first place, namely the Athletics, captained by H. Cook, and the Rump. Extra start to finish the teams knew that they had to play for all they were worth to come out on top, and they mean a great deal. After the final whistle the Athletics won by three points.

Last night the senior team had a great workout for their game with the fast London Y.M.C.A. team on Saturday night. Every player for West End were on the job. The first game will be well worth seeing.

EVERS WOULD LIKE TO HAVE J. TINKER BACK

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—John Evers, manager of the Chicago Nationals, will try to have Joe Tinker, dropped leader of the Cincinnati baseball team, brought back here to play his old position at shortstop. "Everybody knows we didn't get along well together, but I'm sure things would be different now," said Evers today. "I certainly would be glad to get Joe back. Evers did not say what sort of an offer he would make the Cincinnati team for Tinker. A hard hitting shortstop would be appreciated by the west side team, according to the critics."

HOCKEY GOSSIP

Jimmy Murphy received the signed contract of Steve Vair yesterday.

The Bank of Toronto Hockey Club, runners-up in the Bank League last year, held a large and enthusiastic meeting last night at their head office, when the following officers were elected: Hon. president, D. Coulson; Hon. vice-president, J. Henderson; T. A. Bird, J. S. Skeaff; president, A. B. Barber; vice-president, D. G. Grant; C. H. Taylor, B. F. Vanstone; secretary, W. Miller; treasurer, J. Stewart; manager, Jack Brown; coach, R. W. Gray; trainers, Fred Dyson, Chas. Frame; executive committee, W. Kay, J. McKee, T. P. Doyle, W. Hunter, L. S. Barr.

That Art Ross, as well as Newey Leland, may be out of hockey this winter, is a strong probability, so it was admitted by the big Wanderer cover-point himself, and the management of the team. Ross said that he is going to think over whether he has had no time to play, and President Lichtenstein of the Wanderers says he would not be surprised if Ross did not go on the ice this year.

The chances are that the Ottawas will secure Wilson, who is now the property of the New Glasgow Club. Manager Lonsdale received word from the Maritime League the other night, and they appear willing to let the Pembroke man go to Ottawa, providing they can arrange to also after another defence man from the Cobalt League. His name is Windsor, and he is touted as the best of the defence players around the silver country. If he signs up, Hut and Westlake will not be required.

The Methodist Book Room held a hockey meeting last night and elected Dr. Wm. Briggs, president, Wm. Cooper, first vice-president, Mr. Kettlewell, secretary, R. Handy, treasurer, Chas. Wil-

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

M. Y. M. A. LEAGUE IN THREE SECTIONS

Senior, Intermediate and Junior—Pitre in the Limelight—Gossip.

The Methodist Young Men's Association has organized for the season and will have senior, intermediate and junior leagues.

Clubs wishing to enter a team must have their entry in the hands of the secretary, Mr. J. Turner, 151 Clinton street, on or before Dec. 1st next.

Hours of play and name of rink should accompany entry.

A Montreal despatch says: Pitre, the well-known hockey player, who scoring entered action against The Montreal Stars, claiming $5000 for alleged libel committed.

Pitre bases his claim on an article which is alleged to have said that his transfer to the Pacific Coast Hockey League would not be beneficial to him, as he was not, it was implied, leading a life conducive to the best physical condition.

At an enthusiastic meeting last night the Dundas Tire & Rubber Goods Co. Ltd., hockey club organized for the year. A strong seven will be put on the ice, and a successful season is looked forward to.

The following executive was elected: Honorary president, J. Watson; president, R. R. Riggs; vice-president, J. J. Brown; secretary, James Rankin; coach, Hugh Jack; secretary-treasurer, J. C. Patton.

Harry Westwick will likely be Ottawa's nomination as permanent referee, with Ernie Butterworth as the second man to be named. The Ottawa club also put up Eddie Phillips' name at the meeting. Wanderer nominated Harvey Purford.

Skene Romat, the much-traded hockey player, who has been a holdout, came to terms last evening with Ottawa. Broderick has also signed, and the only remaining holdouts are Shore and Daragh. Merrill accepts terms some time ago.

The well-known trainer, "Bill" Green, has severed his connection with T.R. and A.A., and will train the Toronto Rowing Club senior O.H.A. team this winter. The players of the latter team are working out in the club on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

Ottawa is trying to get, for trials, Granney of London; Nelson of the Maritime; Pappin, an Indian; G. Cobell; Stoddart of North Bay; Davis of Fort Coulonge, and Gregg and George of New Edinburgh.

There are already four more applicants for practice hours at the arena than last year. The list does not close until Dec. 1, but it is practically completed now. The teams asking for hours are: Junior O, Toronto; Upper Canada College, St. Andrew's College, St. Michael's, Methodist Toronto Canoe, Senior O.H.A.—Argonauts, A. St. Michael, Osgoode Hall and Varsity.

There are besides Varsity Inter-collegiate teams, senior, intermediate and Junior, and Varsity Junior, but they are working with the O.H.A. Varsity team. McMaster University has also applied. They play intermediate intercollegiate.

Alf Skinner, the good junior of last year's Parkdale Canoe Club, has decided to turn out with the Wanderers. He will make a bid for a place on the team.

The employees of the Dominion Express Company held a meeting last evening to elect a hockey team for the coming season. The following players and officers were elected: Hon. patrons, W. S. Brown, W. H. Barr, W. W. Webb, J. P. Fraser, J. J. Murray, H. P. Sharpe, J. P. Keeler, O. E. Foote, D. Baron, C. A. Fraser, E. C. McBride, H. H. Wheeler, F. H. Hall; hon. president, J. P. Fraser; president, J. McMillan; vice-president, Leon J. Walsh; manager, E. Murphy; sec-treas., J. Halloran.

It was decided to enter the team in one of the city leagues. The secretary, W. J. Halloran, 51 St. George, phone Junction 429, will be pleased to hear from the interested city leagues who have vacancies.

The local hockey season will probably open here on December 20, when an exhibition game between the senior O.H.A. teams and a team from either Ottawa or Montreal will be the attraction.

Kinston, Midland and Stratford will be the three outside teams in the senior O.H.A.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

It is figured out that half a dozen new faces will be seen on the Ottawa Canadian League champions next year. Out from Tom Kane, the Senators will have a completely new pitching staff.

Frank Chance will be seen in New York early in December—but not in person. He is a graduate of Queen's University, and is in the "movies," taking a leading part in a baseball comedy. The Faith Freres Company is putting out the film.

Ted Sullivan, managing director of the world's baseball tour, is said to be disgusted with Steve Evans and Germany because they lack the spirit and are not taking the trip seriously enough. Ted's goat is the pet of the party.

The Federals in Baltimore have sold $50,000 worth of stock to fans who want to see the league play in the city who keeps. That shows a lively interest that means much for the success of the out-law team, if rightly handled.

They say Raleigh Atkinson is ready to forget that small sum of money and play ball for the Dodgers next season. A real ball player will play for little to get into the big show.

NATIONAL YACHT CLUB.

Tomorrow will be one big night at the National Yacht Club, when the presentation of prizes will be made to the winners of last season's races. In addition to this there will be a progressive euchre and oyster supper, with some good talent. The feature of the night will be the contest between Ed. Mundy and R. Hummer in the battle known as "Are you there?" Both men will be blindfolded and played on a dummy horse for the event. Members missing the affair will regret it, as the committee in charge claim it is the head event of the season.

BOXING NOTES.

Chairman A. J. Pettie of the new Boxers' Association asks all boxers to meet at 7:30 p.m. at the union meeting, Club, 153 Queen street west.

The Beavers boxers meet at the St. Andrew's rink at 7:30 tonight and will go from there to the union meeting.

The Polish trained boxers meet in their club rooms, Ossington and College, at 7:30 tonight.

Scotty MacRae, champion of the mid-western classes of the city tournament, called at the office last night and stated that he thinks undue sympathy is being extended to Johnny Nansen, who had to meet three foot boxers on the Grand States champion, McDonald. Gallagher and James will exactly one in each class, drawn for the box, which will be held at the draw on Monday night.

HUNDRED THOUSAND IS FOUND ON FOYE

J. W. Gates' Former Secretary Had This Sum When Arrested by New York Police.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—While holding him as a fugitive from justice, the police today unearthed evidence which they expect will show James Edward Foy as one of the cleverest bank swindlers ever captured in the east. Foy, who is said to have been secretary to John W. Gates, and later to have stepped from a train here from Philadelphia. He had $100,000 on his person at the time, and the police believe he has at least $200,000 more "planned."

Detectives are of opinion that he intended to sail with his loot today for Europe.

YELLOW FEVER PANAMA PERIL

Nations to Devise Measures in Preparation for Opening of Canal.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 26.—(Can. Press.)—The minister of foreign affairs informed the second chamber today that the premature convocation of the third peace conference would seriously hinder the preparation of the program. He added that the Netherlands government was considering the conclusion of a convention with the United States in the spirit of Secretary of State Bryan's peace plan.

Recently the government submitted to the Washington government a proposal looking to the convocation of an international commission to devise measures to avert the danger of the spread of yellow fever thru the opening of the Panama Canal. Washington received this favorably and the governments at Berlin, London, Paris and Lisbon have been communicated with relative to this subject.

The minister concluded by saying that the Netherlands government was not able to support the protest against the treatment of political prisoners by Russia because it considered this matter outside its purview.
