Altho drastic action has been looked for momentarily, Italians of all classes have been electrified by the swiftly-moving events. Early this morning great crowds gathered around the quinal to await the ministers, who called on the king for the purpose of discussing the situation and signing decrees.

LONDON, May 23.—Having defeated a strong German attack north of La Basse on Saturday night the British troops began an offensive movement from their new positions east of Festubert to the northward, where the Germans began their assault, and had made considerable considerable progress by nightfall today.

LONDON, May 23.—(11.17 p.m.)—A joint official statement by Great Britain, France and Russia, issued tonight, says:
"For the past month, Kurds and the Turkish population of Armenia have been engaged in massacring Armenians, with the connivance and help of the Ottoman authorities. Such massacres took place about the middle of April at Erzerum, Derhian, Moush, Zeitun, and in all Cilicia. The inhabitants of about 100 villages near Van were all assassinated. In the town itself the Armenian quarter at Constantinople is raging against the ineffective Armenian population."
"In the face of these fresh crimes committed by Turkey, the allied governments announce publicly to the sublime Porte that they will hold all members of the government, as well as such of their agents as are implicated, personally responsible for such massacres."

OTTAWA, Ont., May 23.—What is to be done regarding the immense number of Italian reservists on this continent from the Yukon to Mexico is exercising the minds of the authorities here. In the absence of General Hughes, nothing definite could be ascertained tonight as to whether any steps to cope with the new situation had been taken by the militia department. However, the expectation of officials here is that mobilization will take place in Canada.

FEAR 158 LIVES WERE LOST

IN BRITISH RAILWAY WRECK

All Except Six of Killed Were Soldiers of Royal Scots Regiment—Train Disaster Greatest in History of Britain.

When Premier Salandra and Signor Sonnino, the foreign minister, left the palace, the people cheered them enthusiastically. The troops changing guards at the royal palace were the object of a stirring manifestation amid "Viva" for the army and for war. Gen. Zupelli, minister of war, and Vice-Admiral Viale, minister of marine, remained with the king for a considerable time after the others left, and later they had a conference with Lt.-Gen. Cadorna, chief of staff, and Vice-Admiral Phaon di Devel, chief of the naval staff.

After defeating a series of German attacks delivered in the sector of the front between Arras and the sea, the French troops this morning resumed their victorious offensive in the region north of Arras and gained decisive advantages. The attempts of the enemy to resume the initiative were costly in men and ammunition, the French war officer reporting the failure of German bombardments and the repulse of German attacks everywhere "severe". The first of the other attacks were aimed at the Lorette plateau, one being launched to the northeast and the other to the south-east, but the French fire was so intense that the enemy could not reach the French lines and push his offensive home. Heavier German attacks were directed against the newly won positions at Neuville St. Vaast, the cluster of buildings there, the cemetery and the "Labyrinth". The enemy succeeded in gaining a momentary footing in one of the advanced trenches, but the French troops, rallying, drove the hostile forces back and captured many Germans. An earlier German attack north of Neuville St. Vaast was repulsed.

GERMANY DECIDES

TO AID AUSTRIA

Ambassador Instructed by Berlin to Leave Rome at Once.

Official announcement was made tonight that 158 persons were killed or are missing as a result of the triple collision which occurred yesterday morning on the Caleonian Railway, north of Carlisle. All except six of the killed were soldiers belonging to the Royal Scots Regiment, 500 of whom were traveling in a troop train. At least 200 persons, mostly soldiers, were injured.

When the first blow will be struck cannot be foretold, but after months of preparation, the army, which has been greatly strengthened, and the navy, are ready for whatever task may be set them. Exceedingly strong forces are in position all along the Austro-Italian frontier, on the Austrian side of which feverish preparations have been going on the last few days to make the fortifications as impregnable as possible, and to clear the way for effective artillery action.

"Our Ally Has Deserted to the Enemies' Camp," Say Huns.

The census of 1911 showed 45,411 Italians in Canada, and it is estimated that about 5000 are reservists. These will all join the colors, and the expectation is that there will be 4000 volunteers in addition, so that the Canadian Italian contingent should be about 9000 fighting men.

At the time of reporting for Sunday night's communique, the French had gained a considerable measure of success in their renewed offensive north of Arras, and fighting was being continued in other points on the sector with extreme violence. North-east of the chapel of Notre Dame de Lorette, the French infantry made steady if slow progress, to the extent of several hundred yards, some prisoners being taken.

LONDON, May 23.—The British "eye-witness" describes how a party of sixty Germans, "dressed in khaki taken from the dead," advanced toward the British trenches, one of their number calling out in excellent English, "Don't shoot. We are Grenadier Guards." When an officer walked towards them, the "eye-witness" says, he was fired upon, and thereupon his men opened fire and charged with the bayonet. Some of the Germans stood and fought to the last, but most of them turned and tried to escape but all of them were killed.

LONDON, May 23.—A Berlin official despatch, received by Reuters' Telegram Co. by way of Amsterdam, and dated May 23, says:
"The Italian Government today caused to be declared thru the ambassador to the Austro-Hungarian Government, the Duke of Avarna, that Italy considers herself in a state of war with Austria-Hungary."
"The Italian Government, by this inexcusable attack against the dual monarchy, has also broken, without right or without ground, her alliance with Germany."
"The loyal relationship existing conformably with the treaty between Austria-Hungary and the German Empire, and still more firmly welded by the comradeship of arms, has remained unimpaired by the defection of the third ally, and his desertion to the enemies' camp. The German ambassador, therefore, has received instructions to leave Rome conjointly with the Austro-Hungarian ambassador."

KITCHENER HONORED

BY BELGIUM'S KING

LONDON, May 23, 8.35 p.m.—King Albert of the Belgians, according to an official announcement made today, has conferred upon Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the British secretary for war, the grand cordon of the order of Leopold.

From Germany come reports that considerable resentment is felt in official quarters there against what is alleged to be the obstinacy of the Austrian diplomacy responsible for the failure of the negotiations with Italy, initiated by Prince von Buolow, the German ambassador. The suggestion had even been made that Austria should be left alone to fight Italy, but pledges taken by the German general staff and by the German Emperor personally with Emperor Francis Joseph

TORONTO ITALIANS ANXIOUS TO RETURN HOME AND FIGHT

The Cheering and Great Enthusiasm When News Was Heard, Was Followed by Serious Conversations, After Which Many Left Meeting To Prepare for Journey.

"Long live Italy! Death to her enemies! Italy shall be avenged!" These and many other outbursts of patriotic feeling made the walls of the Italian National Club, 68 D'Arce street, shake when a reporter for The World announced last night to the members of that club that Italy had declared war. All had been peace and quietness until this news was brought in. After the cheering and initial outburst had subsided, little groups of members gathered in the different parts of the building and began to discuss the situation, and many of them hurried home to consult with their families about leaving to serve the colors.

A Fusconi, president of the Italian National Club, said: "We have about 170 members and all of them have shown a kindly feeling to the allies and a marked hatred to our old enemy, Austria. Already 50 members have gone to Italy during the past few weeks, and now I guess there will be a great many more. We are only a social club, but there are four benefit clubs in the city who are going to hold a parade in Toronto. This was going to be held to show their faith in the allies, but now I am sure it will be held on a far greater scale."

Never Better Able. C. Franco, the secretary of the Italian National Club, in speaking of the war that his country has just entered, remarked that Italy was never in better condition to wage war than at the present time, as there are 8,000,000 men to go into the field at the present time. These men are between the ages of 20 and 35 and there are 2,000,000 more available between the ages of 35 and 40.

Italy can never forget the help of Great Britain, and as she has put her navy after that of Great Britain it will prove itself a big factor.

M. Basso, the Italian interpreter at the local court, said that he expected that 90 per cent. of the Italians in Toronto would leave for home within the next month, as there was nothing for them to do here, and if they remained it would mean starvation.

No Official Word. The Italian Consul, P. Nardello, was not able to give any official statement, as he had not had any confirmation of the declaration of war between his country and Austria. There are over 12,000 Italians in Toronto, he said. Of these about 3000 are reservists. A number of Italians have left Toronto during the winter, but most of them left on account of not being able to get work, also some of them who went home have probably joined the army. He does not expect that a great many will leave, immediately, as Italy can go on for some time with the forces already gathered.

Dr. Harley Smith, who until two months ago was the Italian consul at Toronto, stated that he was not in a position to state what the Italians would do who resided in Toronto. "The Italian colony here has taken the matter very quietly," he said, but he thought that a number of them would leave for the front as soon as possible, especially the young men.

RUSH FOR UNION JACKS

Opening Day of Flag Distribution Marked by Clamoring Crowds. There is no doubt that The World's plea of distributing flags to its readers has struck a responsive chord in the minds of every man, woman and child in the city, as evidenced by the crowds which besieged the office from early until late, carrying away the flag of our country.

They were pleased crowds, too. Many opened and inspected their flag outfits right in the office, and they wanted an additional one, for never has there been an exceptionally fine flag been offered for convenience of storage, and is complete with a ball at one end and having two eyelets for threading the halcyons and a stout metal socket for holding it to the window. Two strong strappings are inserted in the heavy canvas foot of the flag for attaching the halcyon. The whole outfit is carefully boxed in small compass.

Especially important is the fact that the colors of this flag are dyed into the material, fast and brilliant, rendering it an emblem of long, lasting qualities.

Also the value of the outfit is $4.00, for its readers at a small expense, which just about represents the cost of assembling the outfit and printing it. There are no difficult terms to comply with, merely clip the coupon which appears on the coupon page of this paper and present it at 15 East Main street, Toronto, or 15 East Richmond street, Hamilton, together with the coupon, which amount mentioned in the coupon, which appears in another part of this paper.

SECOND COMPANY STUDENTS ENLIST

Toronto Expected to Furnish Two Platoons and Twenty Men Sign.

TO GET COMMISSIONS

Some Officers Expect Post in England, But Others Go as Privates.

Recruiting in the second university company for overseas service is progressing favorably, according to Capt. G. M. Smith, who is in charge of the Toronto headquarters of the company. There are 107 university men on the parade state in Montreal, Toronto is expected to furnish two double platoons. Already twenty men have been signed up, and about 60 more are expected to be sworn in next week.

Barrie, Kingston, will be the scene of the three months' training which the unit will undergo prior to being sent to England. While men are enlisting for whatever service it may be advisable to use them on, the officers of the company are assured that a large percentage of the students will be given commissions in England. Many students who have passed their certificate "A" examination have enlisted as privates.

VETERANS WILL HONOR MEN WHO HAVE FALLEN

Honor will be paid to the memories of veterans of former campaigns and also to the Canadians who, during the present conflict, have so gallantly fought and given up their lives, at a ceremony to be held in the veterans' memorial service and decoration of monuments at Queen's Park this morning at 10:30.

The 12th York Rangers' Band and a choir of 50 voices will render patriotic selections. Addresses will be given by Lieutenant-Governor Colonel J. S. Hendrie, Major-General Sir William Otter, Ven. Archbishop Cody and Mayor Church. A parade to the meeting place will be held by the veterans of 1866, of 1870, of 1885 and of South Africa. Detachments from the city regiments will also take part.

HEARTY SEND-OFF TO NEW BATTALION

Thirty-Fifth, Seventy-Five Per Cent. Canadians, Goes to Niagara.

ALL IN SPLENDID FORM

Fine Appearance of Men Due to Excellent Training Received.

Patriotism and pathos were combined in the send-off given the 35th Battalion when it left for the Niagara Camp yesterday morning. Thousands of relatives and friends were at the armories to bid them good-bye. The scene will be memorable in the history of the Toronto garrison.

Shortly after ten o'clock the battalion left for the wharf to take the steamer Corona. Most of the eight hundred men who went were from Toronto homes, and had many relatives and friends to see them off. Lieutenant-Col. F. C. McCordick's command is notable for the large proportion of native-born Canadians it contains. The percentage is given as over 75 per cent, so many being residents of Toronto that it is called the "Toronto" Battalion.

Among the Toronto officers of the 35th are Major Reginald Pellatt and Adjutant Reginald Gears. The fact that Major Pellatt is the son of Sir Henry Pellatt, for so long colonel of the Queen's Own, and that the adjutant is an ex-Mayor of Toronto, adds to the local interest taken in the regiment.

Efficiency High. The 35th Battalion has reached a high state of efficiency, but was cramped at the armories for field training opportunities, and it is stated that at Niagara considerable tactical exercises and attack and defence movements will be engaged in.

Did It Quickly. When the 35th Battalion set out from the armories yesterday morning they were headed by the brass band of the 109th Regiment, which played stirring patriotic marches. Under the direction of their company officers the troops were expeditious in getting aboard. As the steamer Corona pulled out at ten minutes to eleven the throng of friends on the wharves and the battalion members exchanged enthusiastic cheers.

Twenty-five officers from No. 1 and 2 divisions will attend the Royal School of Cavalry, which starts at Stanley Barracks on Wednesday. Ten universities are represented in the double company of Princess Pals' reinforcements, which is now in training at the Niagara Camp. The universities represented are Aberdeen, McGill, Vancouver, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario Agricultural, Queen's, McGill, Montreal, MacDermid, Prince Albert, P.E.I. Thirty members of the company are graduates of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

In England When War Broke Out, Sixty Promptly Enlisted. Special to The Toronto World. GALT, May 22.—Mrs. J. Lowthorpe and Mrs. Darrington of this town have six brothers, all former Galtians, serving in the British army. Pte. J. W. Brown of the Fifth Yorkshires has been wounded in action. He left here last summer with his wife and family to visit at his home in Beverley, Eng., after nine years' residence here. War broke out and he enlisted, as did his five brothers, Galtians, who were also home on holidays.

H. Wilkins, King street, was today notified by the militia department that his son, Pte. Albert E. Wilkins, some time ago reported seriously ill at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Netley, is suffering from gunshot wounds in the chest and arms.

Escaped the Law

Henry Brown, charged in the police court with failing to support his wife and two children and who was remanded until today for sentence, died last evening in the Emergency Hospital.

There is a moral to the above story, and it is this: If you don't support your family while living, the law will compel you to do it, or send you to jail. If you die and leave them without proper financial support, you escape the law. But what of your moral obligation? How would your wife and children be fixed if you should die tomorrow? Face the situation squarely. Then, if you haven't as much life insurance as you should have, write to us about it, and we'll tell you all about the best Imperial Life Policy to meet your particular need.

TRIBUTE TO VALOR OF FORMER HEROES

His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans' Association celebrated the 30th anniversary of the battle of Batoche yesterday morning by a church parade from the armories, and a military service at the Church of Ascension. Among the prominent members of the Veterans' Association in attendance were: Capt. Fahey, Q.O.R., '66; W. N. Nurse, '66 and '85; Col. Leslie, Major Curran, Capt. Vennell and J. D. Lewis, 90th Winnipeg of '86. Rev. J. E. Gibson preached the Batoche anniversary sermon. The preacher paid an eloquent tribute to the valor and traditions of both branches of the British forces. He pointed out that the traditions of the past were a potent inspiration to his majesty's soldiers now bearing the heat of battle at the front. Men who had passed through such momentous experiences as the members of the Veterans' Association must on the recurrence of the anniversary of the battles in which they took part, in memory live over again the stirring events. Their deeds should endure in the grateful memory of the empire.

BRITISH SAW SAXONS SHOT BY PROSSSIANS

Remains of Battalion, Seeking to Surrender, Slain by Comrades.

GAINS CONSOLIDATED

Enemy Hold Only Few Supporting Points Behind Trenches Lost.

LONDON, May 23, 16:15 p.m.—The British army eye-witness at the army headquarters in France explains in a descriptive account dated May 21 that the British action during the first part of the week consisted almost entirely in consolidating and expanding the ground gained in the attack of Sunday last to the north of La Bassée. In this they were successful.

In the attack on May 17, he says, the Germans, who had held on to the ground between the salients won by the British to the south of Richebourg Faveux and north of Festubert, pressed on three sides and subjected to cross-fire and continuous bombing, reached the limit of their endurance and more than 800 surrendered.

The British, having thus joined hands pressed the Germans still further to the eastward, forcing them out of one position after the other. Entire groups gave themselves up. The British official describes the scene mentioned in the official report at the time of the German artillery fire being directed on their own men who were offering to surrender near Ferme Four de la Boue.

Prussians Slaughtering Saxons. "Desperate fighting," says the narrative, "was going on in front of this farm when the remains of a battalion of Saxons which it appears, had been hastily brought down from farther north, was thrown into the fight. Having decided to surrender en bloc, they advanced toward our line, not knowing what movement this mass of men implied, our infantry poured a hail of bullets into them, whereupon the survivors, some hundreds strong, halted, threw down their rifles and held up their hands. One of their number waved a white rag tied to a stick.

"Our guns continued to fire from the rear, and whether our infantry who by this time had some experience in the treachery of the enemy, would have paid any attention to these signals is uncertain; but the matter was as the Prussian infantry on the north of this point realized what their Saxons comrades were trying to do, they opened a rapid fire from the flank, ending the fleeing men.

Strange Spectacle. "It appears also that the news of what was happening must have been telephoned to the German artillery further east, which also was Prussian, since its guns suddenly opened on the Saxon infantry and this combined fire most of the latter were soon accounted for.

"Among the many scenes of the war there probably has been no more strange spectacle than the masses of gray-coated soldiers, standing out in the open with hands raised, and amidst the dead and dying being butchered by their own comrades before the eyes of British infantry.

"The fact that the victims of this slaughter were Saxons was also a source of regret to us since Saxons always have proved more chivalrous and less brutal than either Prussians or Bavarians. In fact they are cleaner fighters in every way.

Desperate Fighting. "While we were pressing forward on the section between our two original points of penetration, our troops on the right in front of Festubert were making good progress southward along the German trenches. The Germans were soon cleared out of this quarter, where they made a strong resistance and checked our further progress.

The fighting here was desperate, and since the Germans were at many points outflanked and encircled their losses were very heavy. For the narrow trenches there often was no room for escape, and the only alternatives were death or surrender.

In some places the trenches presented a horrible sight, being heaped with German corpses, many of whom had been blown to pieces by our bombs.

At nightfall the situation roughly was as follows: British Position. "We hold a continuous line, embracing the whole German original front trenches, from south of Festubert to Richebourg Faveux, and in many places possession of the whole line, with the exception of a few supporting points and machine gun posts in the rear of the zone in advance of our new front line. Also we were in occupation of various points from which the enemy had been dislodged.

Thus the second day of the action ended in the attainment of very substantial results by us. Not only had our new front been to a great extent straightened out and our two forces connected up, but the gain of ground extended laterally further to the south.

RUSSIANS START TO WIN FIGHT FOR POSSESSION OF GALICIA

Big Russian Force Crosses Confluence of San and Vistula To Cut Off Enemy's Line of Retreat, and Offensive Begin Strong, Offensive at Other Points, Making Good Progress.

Late Walter D. Beardmore

LONDON, May 23.—Russia has commenced her counter-offensive against the Austro-Germans, before whom her third and Carpathian armies fell back to their bases on the San and Dniester Rivers.

The Russians have crossed the confluence of the San with the Vistula, and are advancing southward to outflank the Germans, who crossed the San in the vicinity of Jaroslau. They are also striking hard at the Austrians in Bukowina, but have reported no further headway with their offensive in the Opatow region. The latter offensive was a movement to "recover the German flank in Galicia, which it partly succeeded in doing.

German Drive Weakens. As early as last Thursday and Friday the great German drive in Galicia showed signs of weakening, and the enemy adopted a defensive attitude in some sectors of the front. His artillery also began to hoist ammunition, letting up on his previous prodigious expenditure of explosives. This exhaustion was seized as an opportunity for the opening of formidable Russian attacks in several sections.

On the west bank of the San, below Peremyel, the Russian third army, under General Demestrief, carried by assault the villages of Kravce, Bierza, Praszow and Kameral, and repulsed the enemy in counter-attacks in the direction of Nisko. On the right bank of the San River, where the enemy had driven a wedge with the object of attacking Peremyel, the Russians commenced an offensive which gained them Ignace Village, on the Luboczowka River. East of Sussakow, in the region of Peremyel, the enemy continued his fierce attacks, and secured a lodging in some trenches held by one of their line regiments. The Russians delivered a counter-attack and captured 1000 Germans.

Enemy Nears Exhaustion. On the rest of the Galician front the enemy is showing signs of almost complete exhaustion from the terrible losses inflicted on him by the Russians, and his attacks have become isolated in character. On the front between the Asymienka and the Stry Rivers, the main Austrian attacks were launched without success, and several hundred prisoners were taken by the Russians in the Sion-skow region. Two companies of Austrians surrendered near Zowadow Village.

The first reference to the use of poisonous gas by the Germans on the Russian front is made in the following casual way in the Russian official report: "On the Kiarow front, in Poland, the enemy delivered partial counter-attacks, the object of which apparently was to accustom the troops to the use of poisonous gas."

Germans Silent. The German official statement has nothing to report concerning the fighting on the Galician front, and the Austrian official report announces the repulse of Russian attacks on the upper Dniester and on Jaroslau with "great losses," and says that the Russians failed in a new attempt to cross the Pruth River near Bolans and east of Czarnowitz. The Austrians claim that they have captured 1800 Russians in the hill country in the Kielce region.

Viena has nothing to say about the fighting at important points in Galicia, where the campaign is being decided, so far as the Teutons are concerned.

REIGN OF TERROR IS REPORTED AT TRIESTE

Houses Abandoned and Buildings Sacked — Italian Flag Raised.

UDINE, Italy, May 23, via Paris, May 23.—Terror reigns among the inhabitants of the Austrian seaport of Trieste, according to reports received here. Houses have been abandoned by the people, and some buildings have been sacked. Police and soldiers are said to be in control everywhere in the city.

An unknown person during the night succeeded in climbing the dome of the Basilica of San Giusto, and planted the Italian tri-color at the top. Austrian gendarmes were engaged for several hours this morning removing the flag. Fugitives from Austria continue to arrive at Udine by hundreds.

CHURCHILL SAYS GOOD-BYE TO HEADS OF ADMIRALTY

LONDON, May 23.—The formation of the coalition cabinet has taken definite shape, but no announcement will be made until after the Whitsun holidays, Premier Asquith, several of his late colleagues and the Unionists who are to assume office, having gone to the country after a series of conferences.

Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, bade farewell yesterday to the heads of the various departments at the admiralty, and, altho he had been mentioned for various offices in the new administration, it is said there is a possibility that he will not accept a place, and that for the duration of the war, he will content himself with a seat among the private members of the house of commons.

Other surprises are expected and many surprises of the last few days will probably be found to be incorrect. It is almost certain, however, that David Lloyd George will remain chancellor of the exchequer and that Reginald McKenna, the Marquis of Crewe, A. J. Balfour, Andrew Bonar Law, J. Austen Chamberlain and the Marquis of Lansdowne, will be included in the new ministry.

All those mentioned had a conference with the prime minister today before Mr. Asquith went to the palace to report progress to the king. It is said that a privy council will be held Tuesday when the outgoing ministers will hand over the seats of office to their successors.

The new ministers will immediately have to resign and submit themselves for re-election, but no contests are contemplated.

WOODBINE GOSSIP

Mrs. Lily A. Livingston, the breeder of Fair Montague and Tartarum, was an absentee Saturday. It is not generally known that the former fair owner had an ambition to win the King's Plate at the Woodbine and three weeks ago the O.J.C. "board" was divided into two camps as to whether a candidate owned by one not a British subject, but otherwise qualified, should be accepted as an entry.

Charlie Miller kept together in the background on Saturday at Woodbine Park. Some of his friends say he watched the race standing on the top of Tartarum's stable, while the automobile enclosure. Many of his friends led the winner into the paddock, but the modest winner was noted by his absence.

Edmund Haines, the well-known horse-buyer, was a visitor, having just returned this week from England, where racing is taking a back seat this year, but where the people are supremely confident of the struggle they are engaged in.

A feature reappeared Saturday at Woodbine after several years' absence, viz. the telegraph operators. The instruments were right in the stand for the convenience of the newspapers, but no information was allowed direct to the poolrooms, if there is such a menace to be found these times anywhere on the continent.

Leafs Take Doubleheader From Providence Grays - Two With Newark Today

Our fine ball team won two games all in a cluster on Saturday from the strong Providence Grays at the Island, raising the total to 6, or an advance of 21.3 per cent in a single day. And there may be similar joy in store for the Leafs as Newark play morning and afternoon today with the fast-going Clymers. There was a good crowd in attendance on Saturday.

Herbert was in great form from the start, keeping the hits well scattered while our sluggers attended to Messrs. Schultz and Bentley. The second was somewhat different, the Leafs just lasting to win by one run.

HARVARD VARSITY DEFEAT CORNELL

First Defeat in Ithaca Waters - A. R. A. Regatta Results.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Cornell no longer reigns supreme on Lake Cayuga. At Ithaca yesterday, Harvard's varsity eight edged over the finish line a half-length ahead of Courtney's men, and by so doing administered the first defeat a Cornell varsity crew has ever suffered on its home waters. In addition, it is the first time in seven years that a Cornell crew has suffered defeat at the hands of a Cambridge eight.

Harvard's time for the two-mile course was 10:42.5. No time was taken on the second crew.

The Cornell freshmen defeated the Harvard youngsters with a half-length of open water. The time was 10:52. This race was the more exciting as Harvard was leading at the half-mile by a boat length, but Cornell spurred and led by nearly a half-length at the mile.

At Philadelphia yesterday, the University of Pennsylvania's eight-oared shell crew won two of the feature races of the annual regatta of the American Rowing Association on the Schuylkill River here.

A heavy rain fell most of the time. The Pennsylvanians beat the Union Boat Club of Boston one and a half lengths, Union crossing the line three feet ahead of the Harvard University sophomore crew, the Crimson interclass champions, in the first eight-oared shell race.

An hour later the same Pennsylvania crew won from Harvard and Princeton in the junior collegiate eight race, covering the Philadelphia mile 560 yards—in the same time in each race—4:12.5.

John B. Kelly of the Vesper Boat Club, Boston, won from James B. Ayer of the Union Boat Club, Boston, in the first single sculls, by a half-dozen lengths. Kelly established a new record for the course—1:52.5. He was favored by a strong current and wind.

(4) The Carlton, $5.00 - A medium crown panama slightly tapering, with flat pencil brim, bow at side; the other side of band caught in a sort of skeleton bow, giving a very smart effect.

(5) The Comet, $9.00 - A very fine quality panama of even weave with high tapering crown and rolling brim; trimmed with bow on quarter; black band finished close to brim, with narrow white ribbon.

(6) The Bertie, $5.00 - A fairly low crown panama with hollow crown and pencil brim. A nice, even weave and should be a favorite with the young man of small features.

LENA MISA WINS JUVENILE STAKES

Beats Strong Field of Classy Two-Year-Olds in Feature at Belmont Park.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Lena Misa, a chestnut colt by King James—Golden Rule, won the Juvenile Stakes at Belmont Park yesterday in an easy manner. While in training at his home track, Saratoga, last year Lena Misa ran the fastest trial ever run by a yearling at the Spa. Yet there were so many highly tried and well bred youngsters in the juvenile that the liberal odds of 15 to 1 could be obtained against the Beverwyck Stable, which had Henry, Jr., coupled with the winner. The actual favorite was R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Ormeade, by Ormeade—Mademoiselle and a half-brother to Montezoro. The baby youngster could not do as well as his older brother, for he ran second, while old Montezoro galloped home in front in the race following.

FIRST RACE—Selling, two-year-olds, 4 1/2 furlongs, straight course: 1. Lena Misa, 108 (H. Buxton), 5 to 1, 4 to 5 and 2 to 5. 2. Broom Vale, 107 (J. P. Ryan), 20 to 1, 7 to 1 and 3 to 1. 3. Sungod, 105 (J. P. Ryan), 20 to 1, 7 to 1 and 3 to 1. 4. Lady Atkin, Celtic, Rabbit and Blue Rock also ran.

Byrne), 6 to 1, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1. 4. Plaintiff, Handoff, Indian Chant, High Horse, Henry, Jr., Paddy Whack and Tackey also ran.

ACTION OF ITALY BULLISH FACTOR

New York Stocks Showed Strength in Trading on Saturday.

STEEL BUSINESS GOOD

Big Corporation's Plant Working at Seventy-Five Per Cent. Capacity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Judging from the course of today's stock market, Wall street, or at least the speculative majority, is proceeding on the theory that Italy's participation in the war is calculated to shorten the conflict. This theory is hardly to be reconciled, however, with the fact that the most striking news of the brief session was again the complaint of backward settlements. War orders are one thing, but the fact that the most striking news of the brief session was again the complaint of backward settlements, and financial difficulties, are another matter.

The entire last week part in the rise was most active in the first 30 minutes, after which trading dwindled with some effect on values. In numerous instances higher prices were made the second hour, but general reactions from the best rated at the close, Bethlehem Steel yielding all its advance. Reports of an anti-meridian demonstration at Berlin caused some late selling.

London was observing a holiday, so the local market was without guidance from that quarter. Private cables from London and other international centers threw no new light upon the international situation, but in local circles the belief prevailed that German replies to this government regarding the Lusitania incident would pave the way for a better understanding between Washington and Berlin.

The statement of the president of the United States Steel Corporation that the output of the company's plants has increased to 75 per cent against the 40 per cent of last January, was another factor for the strength of steel shares. Mercantile agencies also reported more favorable conditions in general for the strength of steel shares. Mercantile agencies also reported more favorable conditions in general for the strength of steel shares.

A moderate loan contraction and a small increase of reserves were the chief features of the bank statement, which failed to disclose an expected gain of cash.

Bonds were steady, with total sales (par value), aggregating $1,069,000.

PETERSON LAKE SHOWS EXCELLENT RESULTS

Under Less Favorable Conditions, Company Has Made a Good Showing—Slight Falling Off.

Following upon the somewhat disappointing report of the Peterson Lake Silver Cobalt Mining Company is able to show excellent results for the year ending April 30. The gross profit was $1,151,155.83, but a moderate falling off. This result is all the more striking when it is recalled that the company placed all its silver mining property in a severe handicap. In fact, many mines were compelled to close down entirely for a while, while normal operations ceased their output to a minimum during the late months of 1914 because of the difficulty of disposing of their output and obtaining a fair price. The decrease of about five cents per ounce in the price of silver was naturally a factor in the result.

BUSINESS WAS HOT DURING THE PAST WEEK

Shortage of Certain Supplies is to Blame, Says Bradstreet's Report—Lusitania a Factor.

MONTREAL WAS FAIR

Port Has Been Active—Since Opening of Navigation—Wholesalers Not Optimistic.

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's say that business conditions have been the quiet side during the week that has passed. Some blame this on the shortage of supplies of the raw lines of goods, others to lack of buying power among wage earners, and still others mention the loss of the Lusitania as a factor. All three factors have been operating, the latter certainly being a new unsettling influence. May collections and remittances have been backward, and this fact was emphasized latterly. A good many wholesalers are doing as well and some better than they expected in the volume of business, but the complaint of backward settlements. War orders are one thing, but the fact that the most striking news of the brief session was again the complaint of backward settlements, and financial difficulties, are another matter.

While some millinery houses had a busy week, complaints have come in of restricted business, and financial difficulties. Groceries are moving in fair volume, almost normal. Some boot and shoe manufacturers, while their ordinary trade is far under normal, are busy with war orders. Leather firms are working to capacity. Building continues dull, and there are plenty of vacant houses, offices and stores in all sections of the city. Cheese advanced half a cent to one cent per pound, but butter and eggs advanced slightly. Some winter flour went for export. Stock markets are almost at a standstill, investors and speculators watching political events.

Was Just Fair. Montreal reports to Bradstreet's say that business conditions in the port city are just fair. The port has been active receiving and shipping merchandise since the opening of navigation, but wholesalers are not in all cases in optimism. With some $154,000 worth of war orders in the hands of Montreal exporters, and with the prospect of splendid crops, east as well as west, more might be expected in the way of orders. Travelers report that ordinary trade is better than they anticipated. The fact is the trade is unsatisfied. The loss of the Lusitania is waiting conditions. What is wanted is a few substantial victories to renew confidence. The grocery trade has been a little quiet, the volume of business being under last year. Reasonable lines are moving fairly well from hardware shelves, except in building materials. Boot and shoe firms have been quiet, but those who have war orders are large Russian order for boots and shoes is expected in this country.

Hamilton reports to Bradstreet's say that trade conditions have changed little from the last report. On the whole business has been quiet up to date, but wholesalers are making ready for an active early summer trade, which will be largely of a sort of nature that has been active already. There has already begun to stimulate confidence among the country merchants, as shown in orders coming to drygoods houses, but this has not yet grown a great deal. Woollens and cottons are scarce. Lace and other more costly goods are not so plain goods being in request. Men's furnishings have been going more freely. Boots and shoes are moving rather briskly. The grocery trade is fairly active. Evaporated apples have advanced slightly. The hardware trade is fair in certain spring lines.

Vancouver Improves. Vancouver reports to Bradstreet's say that business conditions, while still quiet, have improved in wholesale houses. The retail trade is buying from hand to mouth, but increased activity of goods from wholesale industries has brought orders in fair volume for coarser drygoods, staple groceries, boots and hardware. Prices have held about steady. Large shipments of the classes of commodities named above have been made up country.

SPeyer's Native City LAIDS HIS ATTITUDE

Frankfurter Zeitung Makes Cautious Reference to Other German-English Financiers.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. FRANKFURT, ON-THE-MAINE, May 23, via London.—Sir Edgar Speyer's native city is apparently well satisfied with his action in emulating the Kaiser's example in investing himself in all his British honors. In a paragraph headed "Edgar Speyer," the Frankfurter Zeitung of May 17, says: "His voluntary return to untitled citizenship embodies Herr Speyer more than any other of his countrymen of the title. His conduct is in accordance with the attitude of a few recently mentioned German-English financial people of a not always untarnished past, people who in part made British money and acquired the title of Baron, and who were engaged in the exportation of inferior London securities."

SIMPSON'S EMPIRE DAY SALE, TUESDAY, MAY 25

49 CENTS EACH

Store Hours During May Including Saturday, 8.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m.

The Strength of the British Empire

CENTS EACH

Is shown in its ability during this world-shaking war to carry on "business as usual." This we are doing every day, but as an extra whoop of Empire, the slogan might well be changed here on Tuesday to "more business than usual"--for there actually is not a "usual" price to be found in these items for Tuesday.

This 49-cent Sale will add to the reputation of our one-price days. You will appreciate the preparations and the pains taken if you come to see these values.
