

COAST-GUARDSMAN BORDEN TO THE RESCUE

CANADIAN NAVY IS BEST, SAYS ROWELL

Liberal Leader Urges Canada to Undertake Responsibility of Maintaining Ships.

HIS SPEECH AT GALT

Burden Should Be Lifted From Shoulders of British Tax-payers by Canadians.

GALT, Dec. 6.—(Special)—N. W. Rowell, K.C., leader of the Ontario Liberals, delivered an address to the Canadian Club here tonight on "Canadian Navy and Imperial Unity."

One of the most important phases of this subject is the question of naval defence, he said. "I had prepared this address before I knew what the government proposals would be, and I am sure you will afford me the opportunity of saying what I had intended to say before we knew what the government's proposals were."

Mr. Rowell then reviewed the history of the question of naval defence from the year 1857, when the Government of Great Britain first requested Canada to share the burden of naval defence, which Canada then refused to do.

The memorandum prepared by the British Admiralty and submitted to the house of commons yesterday by Mr. Borden, as well as the address delivered by Mr. Borden in introducing his proposals, simply confirmed and strengthened the views I had already expressed. I had already expressed our national status, as well as our own self-respect, would not permit us to allow Great Britain to longer bear, unaided by us, the whole burden of naval defence, not only of Great Britain and her commerce, but of our shores and our commerce as well, and that the time had come when Canada must in justice to herself as well as to Great Britain, take definite and effective action.

"I have already pointed out the strength which has come to the empire by the recognition of the autonomy and national status of the self-governing dominions. Sir Herbert Samuel, speaking in this house before the British Association for the advancement of science, pointed out that of the two great discoveries in the sphere of government which have been made by the British people, discoveries which he stated 'had moulded the shape of the modern world' one is that of 'colonial self-government, which, alone has enabled autonomy to be reconciled with unity.' Those who are greatly concerned not only in the progress and development of Canada, but in the security and stability of the empire, and who believe that that security and stability can only be preserved and maintained by following the principles of our national development, which has produced such large and beneficial results in the past, may be permitted to express their gratification that Mr. Borden in introducing his proposals yesterday, stated very clearly that he recognized the full importance of maintaining our Canadian autonomy, and that we must proceed in our development along the lines of co-operation, consistent with this autonomy. I shall not discuss here the question of whether the actual proposals submitted are in harmony with this principle or not and the recognition of the principle is a cause for gratification.

Alarming Growth. "The remarkable and alarming growth of naval armaments in recent years is a fact with which all statesmen of imperial affairs have been familiar, and the British House of Commons and the general public have been kept informed from time to time of the various stages of this growth. The situation thus created is a serious one, and I am sure we must all be greatly gratified to see by the memorandum as well as the speech of the prime minister that Great Britain does not confront at the present time any new, unexpected or unforeseen difficulty, but that she is simply facing today, with great patience, courage and resource, the problem which she has been facing and grappling with for some years, a problem which it is our bounden duty to help her solve.

"If I understand the address of the prime minister aright, the ships to be built are to be and to remain the property of Canada, but to be manned and maintained by Great Britain. In view of the great burden Great Britain is now carrying in naval defence, a burden involving the gift of her sons to man her ships, as well as of her money to maintain them, in view of the great demands upon the British exchequer for moneys to carry out important schemes of social reform, I cannot but confess my own personal regret that Canada is not manning and maintaining, as well as giving these ships to us.

Should Man Ships. "Why should we impose upon the British people and the British exchequer the obligation of manning and maintaining ships, when Canada is well able to do so herself? In view of the statement that Great Britain has been compelled to withdraw her naval forces from the outposts of empire, in order to strengthen the forces at the centre, and that she is not able to maintain naval forces either in the North Atlantic or in the North Pacific, where admittedly such forces are needed, I cannot but express my personal regret that Canada is not undertaking to carry out the naval agreement of 1911 between Great Britain, Canada and Australia, whereby Canada assumed the responsibility for providing the forces necessary, both in ships and in men, to protect these naval bases; to fly the white ensign on these seas to protect the trade routes as well as the honor and integrity of the empire, just as Australia is now doing in Australian waters.

"For over 25 years Great Britain has been asking us to take part in the naval defence of the empire. Surely the people of Canada have had time enough to make up their minds as to what our naval policy should be. Surely it is not necessary to defer longer a statement of this policy. The whole of the address of the prime minister was a most cogent argument against further delay, and as a Canadian citizen, may I express the earnest hope that the government will see its way clear before the present bill goes thru the house, to undertake the manning and maintaining of the ships which it is proposed to build, and definitely to assuming the responsibility on behalf of Canada of protecting the naval base of the North Atlantic and North Pacific as provided in the terms of the naval agreement of 1911.

No Cause for War. "I am sure we must all appreciate the temperate and moderate and serious way in which the prime minister presented the proposal to the house, and I am sure we all hope that in the discussion in the house, nothing may be said which will tend to embitter the relations between the empire and the other countries of the world. We have no good cause for war with any other nation. No other nation has any good cause for war with us.

"I am sure," Mr. Rowell concluded, "that it must have been a great gratification to all to read the statement made a few days ago by the German Chancellor to the effect that at the present time the relations between Germany and Great Britain were steadily improving. May they continue to improve. A good understanding between Germany and Great Britain would be one of the best possible guarantees for the peace of the world. We in Canada, particularly you in this County of Waterloo, where so many of our German fellow citizens reside, know how we appreciate the great qualities of the German race. They spring from the same original stock as we do, and valuing them as we do here in Canada, may we not express the hope that Canada in some way be the means not of dividing these two great races, but of drawing them closely together in friendly co-operation to promise the highest ideals of our common civilization and to preserve the peace of the world."

YELLOW PERIL IS GROWING MENACE
 H. H. Stevens, M.P., of Vancouver, Declares Capitalists Would Sacrifice National Life.

BERLIN, Dec. 6.—(Special).—The Waterloo County Canadian Club held their second banquet of the season to-night and were addressed by H. H. Stevens, M.P., of Vancouver, who spoke on "Immigration."

He said the greatest peril of the age was the awakening of the Oriental and the lethargy of the Occident.

"Shall we sacrifice our national life to benefit capitalists and railroad corporations who are crying for cheap labor and allow immigrants to come into the country from hotbeds of vice and crime to continue underground methods in our fair country?" he asked.

Mr. Smithers of the G. T. R. was complaining that the reason why construction work in British Columbia was slow was on account of scarcity of labor, but said the speaker, the conditions under which the men on construction work had to live were simply scandalous and such as no white self-respecting man would stand for.

The sanitary conditions were frightful and as for medical treatment there was only one student doctor for four thousand men.

The All-Toronto team held a fine practice last evening at the Granite Rink under the direction of Captain Pete Campbell and Manager Bill Hewitt. Twenty-three players were out and to all appearances they have mastered the signals and should have everything like clockwork when they take the field today. The rink provides ample space for a lively work-out and for over an hour the players threw the ball around and footed off lines of ginger. Three or four of the regulars were unable to attend because of business, but will be Johnny on the spot when the whistle blows. Peterman was called out of town and will not be able to play, but from latest reports he will be the only absentee. Every one connected with the team expresses perfect confidence in his ability to down the Hamilton enemy and expects to see the team win at least one consolation game this evening. Considerable interest is being displayed over the game and the advance sale was easily up to $3,000. Toronto fans will see a good chance to express their appreciation of the services of the Hamilton team in the final four games.

Hamilton Confident Of Another Victory

Line-Up Is Selected and Players Are Reported in Fine Condition For the Game.

HAMILTON, Dec. 6.—Twenty-one players will be taken to Toronto, and it is likely that all will be used at some time or other during the contest, tho the team will step on the field as picked below. The team will be composed of eight Tiger and six Alert players, and it looks like the strongest aggregation that has stepped on a Canadian gridiron in many years. While there is some sterling football material in the Queen City, the manager of their all-star team will have to do some fine selecting to get together a team that will be able to provide even useful exercise for the Hamilton bunch. The Hamilton line will be wonderfully strong, and if Wilson and Craig do not fear that Toronto defence to pieces it will be a wonder. On the other hand, the plunger with comparative ease. The Hamilton team will step on the field with the confidence of a team that has practiced together, and it is not likely that they will give much of an exhibition to the Toronto team. However, the players are all in good condition, and the only difficulty will be with the signals. As the majority of the players are Tigers, the Tiger signals will be used. While the Hamilton back division is superior to that which the Toronto team will use, the local line will be about a team which Toronto can put on the field. If Toronto beats this team luck will have to play a remarkable part in the game. The line-up: Backs—Becker or Carr, Manson, McKelvie. Quarter—Arvey (captain). Scrimmage—Spence, McCarthy, Neville. Inside wings—Wilson, Craig. Middle wings—Beakley, Ishler. Outside wings—Tansley, Glasgow. Flying wing—Gatenby. Fullback—Priffin, Fickley, Burton, Sturges, Fisher, Thompson and Fitzgibbon. HOCKEY TROUBLE LOOMS UP AGAIN

Rink People Will Force the Club's Hand—May Divide Players With N. H. A.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—(Special).—There may be some sensational developments in hockey before the season opens. The Ottawa Hockey Club have still to make arrangements for ice with the arena. Manager Ted Dea has insisted upon a 40 per cent. division, while the Ottawas will give what they did last season, 30 and 70, the club, of course, taking the long end.

The Ottawas now declare that they will not operate their franchise this season if they cannot come to terms with the rink people, but will send their players to Toronto and play for the winter. This would give the teams at the two cities mentioned excellent material for this winter, and the five-club league would be a very strong one. It would also help considerably in boosting the pro game in Toronto, for they would see the majority of the good men.

As the N. H. A. is an incorporated stock company, the Ottawa could re-assert their franchise, altho it remains in their franchise, altho it remains party or parties would be allowed to operate the team in Ottawa. It is freely suggested that the boost in the rink rates was made in the object of making the Ottawa franchise valuable, the expenses running higher than the gates, so that other clubs would be able to buy the club at a low price. The Ottawas are clear that if they take the stand suggested they will build a rink of their own next winter.

MONTREAL, Dec. 6.—The annual meeting of the Quebec Rugby Football Union for 1913 will be held tomorrow night, when the officers for 1913 will be elected and the annual reports discussed and adopted. The majority of the clubs in the Quebec Union favor this reduction, and on it as beneficial to the playing of the game. If the idea is adopted sent on to the meeting of the Canadian Union, where the playing rules of the game are dealt with.

Hockey Gossip

All O.H.A. clubs are again reminded that today is the last day on which entries will be received by Secretary Heston for this season. All fees must be paid or clubs will not be grouped at the meeting of the executive on Monday night.

The opening game at the coast will be played on Tuesday, when Vancouver and Westminster meet. An enormous crowd is expected to turn out to see the calibre of hockey talent the Pacific brothers have secured. Ernie Johnson arrived yesterday and went out to practice.

Sammy Lichtenhelm, the N.H.A. mogul, and president of the Wanderers, is reported seriously ill. Here's hoping he is well soon, as he is needed to straighten things out for the coming season.

Jack Marks of the Quebec team is still in Toronto. He will report to Quebec about the 21st.

Allan Davidson is back from Kingston, and, with Ken Randall, formerly of Lindsey, is also in Toronto, waiting for the ice. They will play with Toronto pros.

Roy McGiffin, who came here from California to play professional hockey with the Toronto Club, left last night for Cleveland, where he is going to practice until the arena is ready in Toronto for hockey. McGiffin has not yet signed a contract, and may play a few games in Cleveland.

George Roehon of Swift Current, Sask., wired yesterday that he may not be able to join the Toronto team this season, owing to his business connections in the west. Roehon is a defence player.

Briker, the net guardian of the champion Eaton team, has retired, and will not be seen on the ice this winter.

ARENA TO BE READY FOR HOCKEY MONDAY

Flooding in Progress Again and Good Sheet of Ice Will Be the Order—Hockey Gossip.

Hockey fans looked brighter yesterday when the welcome news that ice would be ready at the arena on Monday night was flashed around town. The New York expert had all the pipes at each end lowered about two inches, and, as that seemed to be the only trouble he could find, it looks as if there will be no further trouble until spring. Flooding was commenced again last night, and the pipes are nearly all covered with a thin coating of ice. It took four days last time to flood the rink, but with the new method the directors are very sanguine, and expect that on Monday night it will be ready for use.

Owing to the lack of ice, only four clubs have entered the intermediate series of the Ottawa City League.

The Interprovincial Union will name a board of referees next week.

Ottawa amateur clubs are doing indoor work while waiting for ice.

The Allan Cup trustees have notified the Winnipeg Vics that they will not be called on to defend the cup this month.

Vancouver fans like the work of Taylor and Kendall, and are satisfied with the "Patricks' little raid."

The Maritime Pro. League will meet next Thursday, and Sydney's request for admission will be taken up.

Galt Bankers have organized a hockey team and have elected the following officers: Hon. president, F. S. Jarvis; hon. vice-presidents, W. Phillips, C. E. A. Dowler and G. E. Easton; president, H. H. Howson; vice-president, D. McLennan; secretary, C. Dennis; treasurer, G. McNaughton; manager, C. D. B. Palmer; executive, J. Hay (chairman), H. Clarke, D. J. Hamilton, J. Easton, and C. McKenzie.

This comes from Montreal: Managing Director Kennedy of the Canadian says that the "Patricks" do not know what they are talking about when they speak about Lalonde particularly, and as to the charges that he double-crossed them, says they know very well that they broke the understanding first by trying to get Lalonde away from him, and therefore announces with pleasure that he signed Lalonde with moving picture accompaniment. He has an understanding with Lalonde by which the latter is to manage the Canadian on a salary and a royalty or percentage.

The O.K. hockey hockey team will hold a special meeting at the Kirby House, corner Queen and William streets, on Monday, Dec. 2, at eight o'clock, and all members are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted, and hockey players who are not members will also be welcomed.

Cully Wilson, the Winnipeg star, that the Torontos have signed for right wing, is at last coming this way, and Cully loves the Ambitious City, not because of its mountain or its bay, but he is interested in a certain young fellow who often visits there, by the name of Cully.

Poor old Quebec! Notwithstanding the already big hole the "Patricks" have made in their line-up by their raids, are not satisfied yet, and are hot after Fitz and to substantiate it a rumor is afloat that the elusive Frenchman will jump to the coast instead of playing with Quebec.

George Kennedy is trying to land Fred Povey, last year with Moncton.

Elimvalve have remedied their hockey rink, and expect a busy season.

Andy Kyle, the Toronto boy, who made a bit with Parkdale playing amateur hockey, and who is a real ball player, will get a trial with Toronto pros.

A dispatch from Hubbell, Mich., says a amateur hockey in the copper country of Michigan has developed at least some players whose ability with stick and puck has been heralded throughout the Canadian district. Delore (Club) Chaput, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Chaput of Hubbell, has received a very flattering offer from the Edmonton team. In the Alberta district, to go there and join other fast players, who have been signed by the Edmonton team, but he has not yet decided, but expects to within the next couple of days. THE GREATEST EVENT IN CLOTHES HISTORY

You can save from $10 to $20 in whatever you select and you may choose among more than five hundred fabric designs. Greater, newer, more complete showing than all Toronto can offer—even at regular full prices. No finer tailored clothes than those of British American make are possible of production at top prices, the fabrics set the world's highest standard for fineness, exclusiveness and beauty of pattern and shade.

This is once in a "generation" opportunity—possibly even rarer. The warm month of September delayed the demand for winter clothing hence our stock is larger than we figured to have on hand at the end of the rush season so we resolved to let the Toronto people in on a big reduction.

It would be wanton extravagance for any man to overlook the great British American sale. The extent of your saving depends entirely upon the price you pay, but always will it average one half.

CARS ON TROOP TRAIN TOO LIGHT

extra No. 687, that at Streetsville Junction this train collided with No. 622, known as the "Detroit Flyer," which the car in which deceased was riding, was partly destroyed in this collision, and that John Sinnatyne was crushed in the wreckage of this car, and that his death was plainly due to this cause and no other.

The evidence shows that "Passenger Extra No. 687," the train deceased was in, was composed of an engine, baggage car, eleven colonist cars, two ordinary passenger cars and a caboose, and that when the collision took place, the baggage car teleported the first colonist car, and it was in this first colonist car that the deceased was riding.

This baggage car, which was 20 years old, was being towed by Bell, the conductor of the train, was about 10 tons lighter than the ordinary baggage cars, as it was what was known as a "fruit car." After the baggage car came eleven colonist cars, each of which weighed, we are told, about twenty-eight tons, or six tons lighter than the ordinary first-class passenger coach; then came two ordinary passenger cars, weighing about 34 tons each, and behind, a caboose.

"Now, I want you particularly to note the make-up of this train. First a heavy freight engine and tender, then a light baggage car, with very little in it, then eleven colonist coaches, and behind them, two ordinary passenger cars and a caboose. This, I think, may explain why it was close behind the engine that the wreck occurred, this being the weakest spot in the train was unable to bear the pressure.

It will be for you to say, gentlemen, whether you think that this train was properly constructed, or whether its construction was defective and dangerous to the passengers that it contained.

Compare this train with No. 633, with a conductor and engine driver.

MOTOR AMBULANCE SERVICE

who had been many years at the work in the way of train men.

As to the further equipment of this troop train, the conductor, Mr. Bell, told me that he was not a passenger on that train, but that he was a freight conductor, and had only acted as conductor on a passenger train five or six times before the last time being "a year ago last summer." Brakesman Hazelwood was a freight train conductor, breaking freight trains for four or five times in that time.

Brakesman Mulhall was a freight train conductor, breaking freight trains for fourteen months, in which time he had been four or five times on a passenger train.

George Spencer, the fireman, has always been fireman on the engine of a freight train.

The engineer, Wesley Hart, thought he had always driven a freight engine, but on cross-examination, he said that in the last four years he had been an engine driver on a passenger train possibly six times a year. You heard this man's evidence at our last session and the one before. I do not know how he impressed you, but it seemed to me that if this is the style of engineering that is entrusted with the running of passenger extras, it may throw some light on the fact that excursion trains seem so often to come to grief.

But his evidence is of value, as I think he spoke the truth. His story was that he had driven an engine on this part of the road for six years, that he examined his engine and tested the brakes before leaving Toronto. He

Resolution of Gratitude

LONDON, Dec. 6.—(C. A. P.)—The C. A. P. is informed tonight that Premier Asquith will make himself responsible for a resolution in common, the coming week, expressing the gratitude of the British people for the magnificent contribution to the naval needs of the empire.

down that grade at that rate to within one and a half miles of Streetsville. He made a running test one and a half miles from Streetsville Junction, and his brakes worked well. He slowed down to twenty miles an hour by the time he reached the semaphore. He saw the signal to stop, but says he could not. He says he then made three attempts to stop his train and did lessen the speed considerably, and just east of the switch he placed his handle on the emergency position.

Now he says that one and a half miles west of Streetsville—that would be half a mile west of the mile-post—he made a "running test" that, he put the brakes on and found them in good order he released them and passed the mile-board at 20 miles an hour, which, he told you, would be a proper rate at this point, but after he passed the mile-board he says he picked up speed till he ran 25 or 30 miles an hour at some point between the mile-board and the semaphore, and even at this rate he says that according to his judgment, if he had put on the emergency brake he could have stopped before he reached the semaphore. He then told you that he should have begun to brake his train 20 car-lengths or 1800 feet west of the semaphore to be able to stop there, but on being pressed as to the distance that he was west of the semaphore when he began to put on the brakes he said "2 poles," meaning 150 feet, which Mr. Brown told us would be sufficient in which to have stopped the train.

If this is true there any wonder that he was unable to stop at the semaphore or even at the switch? There is some suggestion in this man's evidence that the brakes were defective, but you will remember that Conductor Bell told us that after the collision he examined the brakes and "they were working."

Mr. Brown told us that the brakes were practically perfect when he examined them three days after the collision—and further that he could see no reason why if the brakes were properly applied that train should not have been stopped before it went over the switch.

It is an hour at some point between the mile-board and the semaphore, and even at this rate he says that according to his judgment, if he had put on the emergency brake he could have stopped before he reached the semaphore. He then told you that he should have begun to brake his train 20 car-lengths or 1800 feet west of the semaphore to be able to stop there, but on being pressed as to the distance that he was west of the semaphore when he began to put on the brakes he said "2 poles," meaning 150 feet, which Mr. Brown told us would be sufficient in which to have stopped the train.

Toronto, Dec. 7, 1912.

Dear Madam:

Doubtless you have read that little poem beginning

"Hang up the baby's stocking. Be sure you don't forget. For the dear little dimpled darling Never saw a Christmas yet." Etc., etc.

In the provision made by us for making other folks happy at Christmas, we have taken good care not to forget even the stocking of "the dear little dimpled darling," and we are really surprised ourselves to find how many articles there are in our keeping for "baby's" use—some of them for immediate use—others again which will not give their fullest satisfaction until he is a little older.

As you have not indicated the sex of the said baby, rather than fall into that unpardonable error in mother's eyes, of addressing it as "it," whether correctly or incorrectly, we are speaking of "it" as "him." The following list, however, contains suggestions suitable for either or both sexes:

Sterling Silver Cups. Sterling Silver Rattles—some of them with ivory trimmings. Porringers, in both Sterling Silver and China. Napkin Rings. Knife, Fork and Spoon Sets. Food Pushers. Bib Holders. Tiny Gold Necklets, with and without Pendants and Lockets. Silver Thimbles. Gold Dress Buttons. Gold Dress Pins. Bib Pins. Tiny Gold Bracelets. Hair Brushes, Sterling Silver, Ivory, etc. These are just enough to convince you that without any extravagant outlay we can furnish you with no end of really choice "little gifts" for the little ones, which will be associated with grandmother's kindness long after toys would have disappeared from the scene.

Yours very truly,

HARBOR BOARD OPPOSES C. P. R. BRIDGES PLAN

The opposition of the Toronto Harbor Commissioners to proposed bridge plan put forward by the Canadian Pacific Railway in its fight against building the viaduct, is to take concrete form. At a meeting of the harbor commissioners held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to have Toronto Harbor Engineer Cousins prepare a statement showing how the bridge plan would affect the harbor plans, which it is declared, were prepared with the full understanding that the Toronto viaduct was to be built.

Secretary Lewis, of the harbor board, said to The World last night, that this statement would be ready for presentation at a special meeting of the commissioners to be held on Tuesday, when it will be decided what action is to be taken in the matter. It is expected that the commissioners will decide to go to Ottawa with the viaduct deputation. Since it became known about three weeks ago that the railways were to appeal against the railway board's viaduct decision, Engineer Cousins has been collecting data to be used in the Harbor board's statement now being prepared.

MOTHER OF BABY IS NOT LOCATED

Young Woman Who Claims to Be Married Taken into Custody With Milton McCullough.

The mystery of the abandonment in Toronto two months ago of an unknown baby was cleared up yesterday by the detective department when Milton McCullough, 40 years old, and Myrtle Garrow, 18 years old, were arrested a mile and a half north of Newmarket, where they were living together as man and wife.

The man and girl were arrested yesterday afternoon and brought down to the Young street police station, where the girl made a statement to the police in which she claims that McCullough married her about a year ago. Six months ago the child was born, but the girl says that before her wedding she promised McCullough that he would not have to support the child. For four months Mrs. Garrow of Lloydton, mother of the girl, kept the child, but then turned it back to McCullough and her daughter.

McCullough, however, would have nothing to do with the child and threatened to leave the girl unless she abandoned it. The girl then brought the baby to Toronto, where she says a business man advised her to leave the child at the Black Horse Hotel. The girl took the man's advice, and when the nameless baby was found it was taken to one of the infants' homes in city.

McCullough tells a slightly different story. He says that about a year ago he was scolded into marrying the girl by Mrs. Garrow and an Aurora policeman, and didn't know his mistake until afterwards. According to his statement they were married in Aurora by the Presbyterian minister, before the arrest he says that he and his wife were living happily.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS PUSH THINGS.

The Men of the Road Are Taking a Lively Interest in the Sale of Christmas Stamps—And the Boys on the Trains Are Running Up Large Sales. Energetic in any work they take in hand the members of the Commercial Travelers' Association have always shown a keen interest in the affairs of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives and the allied institutions on the banks of the Humber.

These hospitals have taken care of not a few men of the road who have fallen by the way through the dread white plague and been privileged to see them back in ranks again working with old-time energy.

The commercial travelers is not the man to forget this kind of thing and from the first time the Christmas stamp was introduced to the Canadian public he has stood in the front as an important factor in adding to its success.

"Selling Christmas stamps for the Consumptive Hospital—that's your business today," said a traveler on a C.F.R. train to a newsboy the other day. "Yes, and they're good sellers. Have sold over four dollars' worth so far today." A year ago sales through the boys on the trains totaled over $1800.

Buy a quarter's worth and lend a helping hand in this good work. School children, department stores, news-sellers—a whole army of people are selling stamps this year.

FINE ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATRES

"Kindling" and "The Spring Maid." With Margaret Illington and Christie Macdonald as Stars.

DR. HERMANN AT SHEA'S

"Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford," the Cohen Comedy, Comes to the Grand—Good Burlesques.

"Kindling," a three-act play by Charles Kenyon, in which Margaret Illington will make her appearance in Toronto next week, at the Alexandra Theatre, is one of the dramas that will be talked about before the curtain. The story of the play is this: Heine Schultz, an honest hard-working stevedore, and his wife Maggie, who has a few months, live in a couple of rooms in the crowded tenement district. Heine and his wife have been told that it is a crime to bring children into the world in the environment in which they are living. The warning comes too late to Maggie, who is afraid to tell her husband on account that he has already expressed his opinion regarding these conditions. Uneducated, but intelligent and guided only by her woman's instinct, Maggie Schultz determines that she will have a baby, and that by hook or crook it shall have some of the comforts to which it is entitled. Schultz is out on a strike, and Maggie is given employment in a wealthy home of Fifth avenue by a friend of hers. Maggie goes to work, but she is inveigled into a plot to rob the house by Steve Bates, a crook, who has her one hundred dollars "easy money" and she will just give him the layout of the home. The house is robbed, and only by a lucky turn of fortune's wheel that comes once in a million times, she is saved from going to prison. The working out of the story is magnificently handled, and, also there are some grim keynotes in every act, there is also much humor to relieve the serious situations. Miss Illington is ably supported by the following players: Byron Beasley, Frank Camp, Ma Lewis, Florence Robinson, Sydney Martiney, Malcolm Duncan, Robert Tabor, and Thomas Evans. "Kindling" will be the attraction at the Alexandra Theatre for one week, commencing next Monday evening.

The Spring Maid. Under the management of Werba & Luescher, Christie Macdonald, most charming of all the younger prima donnas, and an especial favorite with Toronto theatregoers, will play a farewell engagement at the Princess Theatre beginning next Monday, in the joyous burlesque opera, "The Spring Maid," in which she is enjoying the second season on tour, and playing to audiences whose size and enthusiasm

ENJOYING THE BEST OF HEALTH

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured His Rheumatism.

PROF. J. F. DAVIS, 568 Church St., Toronto. I want to say to the people of Toronto and elsewhere that "Fruit-a-tives" is my only medicine and has been for the last four years. Much troubled with Rheumatism and Kidney Disease, and had taken many remedies, as well as employing hot applications of salt bags, etc., without getting satisfactory results. Noticing the advertisement of "Fruit-a-tives," I adopted this treatment altogether, and, as everybody knows, since taking "Fruit-a-tives," I have been enjoying the very best health and this a pleasure to follow my vocation of Dancing and Department Instruction.

Prof. Davis, the celebrated teacher of dancing and deportment in Toronto, is quite frank in stating that "Fruit-a-tives" cured him of distressing Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble.

50c a box, $ for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

have frequently exceeded that of its first season. This will be its second engagement in Toronto. The lilting melodies of this fascinating musical romance are known everywhere, but time does not diminish their charm. Evers of music are familiar with its seductive waltz song "Day Dreams," its charming duet "The Fountain Fay," and "How I Love a Fairy Face." Everywhere the orchestra are featuring them in their progress, but like flattery—the more one hears of them, the more one wants. In the support of the company will be the splendid cast of stage favorites, headed by Tom McNaughton, Miss Eliza, Miss Grace Gordon, Edwin A. Clark, Miss Grace Conkey, Charles W. Meyers, Miss Josephine Knapp, Charles Hart.

Also the opening of the "Kismet" engagement at the Princess Theatre is still a week off, the work of preparation for the performance in this city will begin in earnest tomorrow.

One of the assistant stage managers of the company will then organize and begin rehearsing the body of musical numeraries to be obtained here for the pageants and bazaar scenes. Traveling with the company are a number of "people" who appear as wizards, soldiers, dragons, merchants, slaves and donkeys, more men and women are needed for the crowd, and so complicated is the action of the play that a week's rehearsal is necessary for the local people before they begin rehearsing with the traveling corps.

"His Skinner, in the role of Hajj, the chief of the caravan, is now enjoying success in his career. Others in the large cast of principals who are familiar to the public are Evelyn Revelle, Fred Eric, Owen Neesh, Eleanor Gordon and Georgia Woodthorpe. The leading actress of the company, Rita Jolivet, played actively in France and England until her engagement in "Kismet" brought her to America last year. She writes there, "I have had a most successful appearance here next Monday night."

Get Rich Quick Wallingford. A man can always save money by wearing a beard, but can seldom earn it. In this city next week, when Geo. M. Cohen's famous comedy, "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," comes to the Grand Opera House. After the end of the first act the natives of Battlesburg, Ia., serenade the great J. Rufus Wallingford, who in spite of his fact that he has less than a hundred dollars in the world, convinces them that he is going to make their town a middle-west metropolis. Altho the company carries the village band the enthusiastic citizens are secured in every city. For that reason the property man of the Grand Opera House has been instructed to provide twenty-five men with beards, who will be paid real money for their services like the rest of the actors. Poor men, who are out of a job and do not indulge in the safety razor habit are pretty sure of work for one night at least, and for those who can also show a bald head there is no doubt about it.

Dr. Hermann at Shea's. Manager Shea offers at Shea's Theatre next week one of the biggest bills ever seen in his vaudeville house. As the headline attraction Dr. Carl Hermann will be seen for the first time in this country, presenting the latest and greatest European mystery, "The Window of the Haunted House," a most sensational act. The offering comes here direct from London. Dr. Hermann is a man of many talents and has been seen presenting his electrical surprises on different occasions, but his offering this week is along an entirely new line.

The announcement of the special attraction on the bill is sure to be received with the greatest pleasure, as Willis Holt Wakefield is one of the favorites at Shea's. A season would not be complete without the appearance of this charming woman in her dainty and clever pianolo, Miss Wakefield is attractive, and her story songs at the piano are always enjoyed.

Another favorite who is a feature next week's bill is Bert Levy, who furnishes to the audience an opportunity to watch the artist at work, and observes every line that is drawn. The marks used in his own invention. By an arrangement of lights and lenses the marks drawn on a small disc are enlarged many times and thrown on a white sheet like a stereopticon

"Ensignette"

Just imagine a perfect little Camera, so compact that it fits in a vest pocket—and yet it makes postcard pictures. The Ensignette can be carried on every outing—on every trip—tucked away in a spare pocket, but ready for instant use. Coughs and Colds From Improper Dressing

Exposing the neck and chest to the cold blasts of winter— Wearing thin hosiery and low shoes in damp, cold weather— Such are the customs which lead to the sacrifice of many promising young lives. No parts of the body are more sensitive to the influence of cold and dampness, and the result of exposure is coughs, colds, bronchitis and pneumonia.

Like the healing vapors from the turpentine groves, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brings relief and cure to the sufferer from affections of the throat, the bronchial tubes and lungs. Used at the critical time when a cold is settling on the throat and chest, this great medicine brings relief in a wonderfully short time, and positively prevents serious developments. It kills the germs, soothes the irritation which causes coughing, and protects with a coating the delicate mucous lining of the throat and bronchial tubes. As a cure for bronchitis, chest colds, sore throat and hacking coughs Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine stands alone. It has a thorough and far-reaching effect, which cannot be obtained from ordinary cough mixtures. There are so many imitations that it becomes necessary to warn you to look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the bottle you buy. 25 cents a bottle; family size, 60 cents. All dealers, or Edmansons, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Uttley Held Celebration at Doon.

DOON, Ont., Dec. 5.—(Special).—An event of more than ordinary interest was celebrated here today, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Uttley, who were married in Paisley, Bock, near Guelph, on Dec. 5, 1862, by the Rev. Mr. Bail of Guelph.

In honor of the event they were surrounded by their children, grandchildren and friends, about two score in all.

The bride of fifty years was born in Quebec, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Taylor, on Nov. 1, 1835, while the groom was born in Whitaker, Norfolkshire, England, Dec. 23, 1837.

The union was blessed with eight children, two of whom died while young. The children living are: Aid. W. V. Uttley of Berlin, John H. at Stettler, Alta.; Annie A., trained nurse, Berlin; Mrs. Harry A. Parr, Pasco, B.C.; Jas. T., Berlin, and Miss Edith, at home. There are sixteen grandchildren. Their married life has been spent in Elmira and Doon. The aged couple were the recipients of several presents of gold coin.

Back Home on Cowcatcher.

Perched upon the cowcatcher of a G.T.R. engine about to start for Detroit Ross Yeomans was arrested at the Union Station on Thursday night. Yeomans was homesick, but had no money when he thought of beating his way. Yesterday he appeared in the police court, where he was sentenced to three days in jail as a trespasser.

S. Morley Wickett, a business man of far higher calibre than the average aldermanic candidate, announced last night he would run in ward two.

Mr. Wickett is a big man in C.M.A. affairs and quite an authority on technical education. With Aid Yeomans and O'Neill of the second ward both in the board of control race, although tentatively, there seems to be a good opening for a business man.

THE CIVIC CAMPAIGN

The total vote in the City of Toronto, exclusive of those voters who will be added or by appeals and by North Toronto's and Moore Park's annexations, is 186,727, and is in ward as follows: Ward 1, 21,929; ward 15, 642; ward 3, 28,981; ward 4, 19,971; ward 5, 21,514; ward 6, 27,718; ward 7, 6275; total, 138,727.

Ward two is the easy ward for the aldermanic aspirant. There but half the canvassing and half the expenses that are entailed in an entry in ward six have to be met. Last election the total vote cast was about sixty-five thousand in 303 polling booths. New Year's Day will see Toronto's ballot boxes increased to 344.

BRITAIN IS ABLE TO BEAR BURDEN

More Full of Ability to Maintain Her Place Than Ever Before, Says Glasgow Herald.

DOMINIONS MUST A KEN

Talk of Exhausted Motherland is Entirely Inaccurate, Says Paper—British Taxpayers Must Pay More.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(C.A.P.)—The Glasgow Herald says: "The dominions are not speaking correctly when they say they are coming to the assistance of a tired, exhausted motherland. The motherland is not tired and is very far from being exhausted. Great Britain, as every statesman from the overseas dominions admits, is more full of energy, enthusiasm, industrial life and ability to maintain her place in the world than she has ever been. Her people are as willing and able as ever to bear the burdens necessary to keep her supreme at sea. There should be no mistake about the meaning of a contribution by the dominions. No contribution from any dominion whether in the form originated by New Zealand and now adopted by the Malay States, can relieve the mother country from the responsibility of maintaining an all-powerful navy. Far from relieving the burdens of the British taxpayer, the paper declares that in one sense a contribution by the dominion will impose on Great Britain fresh burdens. "It is one thing to build ships and quite another thing to man them. Dreadnoughts can be constructed in less than two years, but British bluejackets' training extends over seven years, during which period the whole expense will have to be borne by British taxpayers."

Greatest in History.

The Scotman, commenting on the naval contribution, says: "The mother country may well feel proud beyond measure. This freewill offering is the most magnificent in the history of our own or any other nation. The magnitude and value of the gift, great as these are, form but a secondary source of pride and gratitude. With the proof that has been rendered that we have behind us in all dangers and difficulties the hearts and hands of the people of Canada and other self-governing dominions overseas, the dangers and difficulties themselves begin to melt away."

"The epoch-making character of Canada's last general election, by which she repudiated reciprocity with the States and chose to cast her destinies permanently with the British Empire has had no more significant proof than the prompt conversion of Premier Asquith to the view that the appeal of the Dominion to be heard in the determination of policy and direction of affairs of the empire was an obviously reasonable one."

MUCH REMAINS FOR ALLIANCE TO DO

Annual Meeting of the Toronto Branch Held and Officers Elected.

According to the Lord's Day Alliance, which yesterday held its annual meeting, their work is receiving growing appreciation from the public in Toronto. Much yet remains to be done, they admit, and to this the Toronto branch is directing earnest attention. The Sunday slides case is considered closed.

The speaker in the west part of the city, in the "Ward" among foreign immigrants, in different sections, and in the suburbs, in relation to the preservation of the Sabbath, were considered, and the review showed marked and encouraging progress. Prof. J. H. Thomson, LL.D., was elected president; Rev. Robt. Sims, secretary, and Robt. Davidson, treasurer.

CALEDONIAN SOCIETY.

The regular monthly meeting of the society will be held at St. George's Hall, Elm street, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at 8 o'clock.

The principal business will be nomination of officers and general committee for 1913.

After the business has been disposed of, Rev. D. Wallace Christy will address the meeting, and his subject will be "Sunday and His Friends." Mr. Christy's humor is always healthy and sparkling, and a genuine treat is assured. The customary musical program has also been arranged for.

Fire in St. George's Hall.

Damage amounting to $300 was done to the ground floor of St. George's Hall at 3 a.m. yesterday when fire broke out as the result of a lighted cigarette stub being thrown thru the ventilator by a person smoking in the building.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—(Can. Press.)—Assistant Chief Commissioner Darcy Scott of the Dominion Railway Board issued an order on the application of Sanitair, Limited, of Amperior, White & Co., Toronto, and the Board of Trade of Hamilton and others for an order requiring railway companies during the cold weather to furnish heated refrigerator cars for the carrying of perishable freight in less than carload quantities.

The order, which grants partially the application, is as follows: "It is ordered that, until further ordered by the board, upon receipt of reasonable notice from the shipper or shippers, that such cars are required, railway companies subject to the jurisdiction of the board, operating in Eastern Canada, which own refrigerator cars, and according to their respective powers, furnish to any shipper or comb nation of shippers, a heated refrigerator car, or cars, for the carriage, during cold weather, of fruit, vegetables, and eggs, in less than carload quantities, the same to be

TORONTO MAN LOST IN POULTRY DEAL

Max Abel Gave $150 to Sarnia Man to Invest and Latter Disappeared.

SARNIA, Dec. 6.—(Special.)—Max Abel, whose home is in Toronto, is mourning the loss of $150 that he gave to a Sarnia man to invest in poultry. The couple, it appears, met on a Toronto-Sarnia train, and after becoming acquainted, Goldstein, the Sarnia man, secured the money and was to make the profit for the Toronto man. Abel also placed $1500 in the local bank to show Goldstein that he meant business. Goldstein invested the money and as no profits showed up Abel made a trip here to see what was doing. Goldstein stated, so Abel says, that he would fix it up on Wednesday, but when that day arrived, he said he had shipped the poultry to Toronto, and gone there himself.

Abel's first communication with the Toronto police, and it is expected that the man will soon be apprehended.

SPECULATORS TOOK PROFITS ON AN UNWILLING MARKET

Sharp Declines in Cobalt Issues When Liquidation Came Into Play—Adverse Rumors Going the Rounds Again.

The Cobalt mining stocks turned weak yesterday for the first time in some weeks, the incoming of a line of profit-taking on an unwilling market proving too much for the list to withstand, speculation was not at all active, but the volume of selling was...

A good deal of comment was heard on the fact that the article situation in the Forcupine camp showed no signs of betterment. It was stated that after the violence of the last few days the men were more determined than ever in their stand, and traders who were at all inclined to be pessimistic, did not have to go far until they could see the federation ordering a sympathetic strike in Cobalt. The miners here are more determined than ever in their stand, and traders who were at all inclined to be pessimistic, did not have to go far until they could see the federation ordering a sympathetic strike in Cobalt.

Runners of this calibre were quite sufficient to engender a bearish feeling in the market, and the stock list was not long in reflecting this fact. Some of the Cobalts which have come in for criticism of late were offered down rapidly, with lower prices for Beaver, Cobalt Lake and Peterson Lake, in all of which the declines ran into material volume. Cobalt Lake was particularly vulnerable in view of the remarkable advance of Thursday. The shares yesterday dropped back to 49, a net loss of 5 points, and closed off at 50. Beaver was off 3 at 41-1/2, for no apparent reason other than that the sons of the brokers were prepared to take any stock offering. Peterson Lake lost a further fraction at 15-1/4.

EXPECT THAT CROWN CHARTERED STOCK WILL BE TAKEN UP. It was announced yesterday by officials of the Crown Chartered Mining Co. that subscriptions for the new stock issue which it is anticipated will be authorized by the shareholders at their meeting on Dec. 13 are coming in at a fair rate, and that every one point to the fact that the stock will be all taken up. The proceeds must reach the sum of $50,000 required to meet the payment due on the day's operations in January, and provide for development or other claims which will revert to their former owners. The company will offer $50,000 shares after the reorganization at 25c a share.

SENTIMENT TURNED BEARISH. Runners of this calibre were quite sufficient to engender a bearish feeling in the market, and the stock list was not long in reflecting this fact. Some of the Cobalts which have come in for criticism of late were offered down rapidly, with lower prices for Beaver, Cobalt Lake and Peterson Lake, in all of which the declines ran into material volume. Beaver was off 3 at 41-1/2, for no apparent reason other than that the sons of the brokers were prepared to take any stock offering. Peterson Lake lost a further fraction at 15-1/4.

STRENGTH DEMONSTRATED. Semi-demoralization on Wall Street has failed to make a ripple on the Toronto Mining Market. Absence was partially responsible for the steadiness in mining securities. The larger markets are undergoing their periodical troubles, and when these are cleared up it will furnish further substance to announce a splendid investment in the listed mining shares in a few days.

There is a Popular Demand FOR THIS... Newest of New Lighting Fixtures. THE increased public interest in illumination has resulted in overturning many of the time-worn prejudices which have heretofore hampered the installation of modern methods of illumination. The public are beginning to appreciate the fact that brilliant light sources really indicate, in most cases, extremely poor illumination, and more attention is being paid to the diffusion of light from large sources of low brilliancy. The "Semi-Indirect" system of illumination is at once the ideal for residential use. The object of this method is to prevent the glare and dazzling effect which result from the ordinary use of lights; it produces the same soft, diffused light that is characteristic of good daylight. The "Semi-Indirect" fixture here illustrated is a design selected at random from our large assortment to show you what is being brought out in the way of Modern Gas Lighting Fixtures. These fixtures consist of beautiful leaded art glass bowls, supported by brass chains. They come in varied widths and lengths to suit conditions, and the prices are very low in comparison to regular lines of general lighting fixtures. Come in and see them. Open evenings.
