BUCCANEERS. The mist runs up the moors again. The grey mist from the sea. The winds blow up, blow up for rain. Over the hollow leas.

Do you remember, friend, my friend, How winds that sweep the plain, Langorous dreams that had no end 'Till sunset came again?

Do you remember red lips kissed And a drenched tent above, When you forgot the moorland mist And your pale Northern love?

There's a woman in a desert land Who stirs men's hearts to fight; There's a ship in harbor undermanned— Dusk folds the moor to-night.

Her hold was never filled by day, Her captain speaks no word, But she shall fly by dawn away Like a white-winged, silent bird.

Your sword be sharpened for its end, And tempered fine by fire— And we'll sail together, friend, my friend, For the land of heart's desire.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 5, 1912. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the local Stock Companies Act.

ST. JOHN'S GROWTH The past week developed much news of great interest to the citizens of St. John. The record of real estate transactions showed increasing activity not only in East St. John, but in the districts north and west, and in the city proper.

Occasionally one hears the view expressed that values will go too high, but it must be remembered that up to this time values have been extremely low, not only in the outside but in the city itself. Moreover, it should not be forgotten that St. John is a crowded city. Not only must any expansion take place in these outlying districts, but it would make for the general health and comfort of the people if some of those now crowded into poor tenements could be removed to good tenements in a new suburb, east or west.

But there is no doubt about a steady and healthy growth in all directions. Great public works will be constructed. Railway and steamship traffic in winter and summer will grow. New industries will be established. The development of the province as a whole, which is now assured will benefit St. John. Outside capital will come in in increasing quantity for investment and local capital will regard home investment with greater favor than ever before.

Mr. Lloyd-George replies to critics of the British government by asserting that there was never a time in the history of the country when Britain was better prepared to meet any emergency. He adds, however, that a better understanding between Britain, France, Germany, and Russia would put an end to the mad race for greater armaments.

NOT A WORN-OUT COUNTRY So much of the news that comes from England to Canada is received through Conservative channels that the average reader might be pardoned for getting the impression that the mother country was in a bad way. It is therefore worth while to present in a late issue of the Midland Mail, that journal goes into an analysis of the overseas trade of the United Kingdom, which shows that trade continues steadily to increase.

IMPORTED IN 1911. Food, drink, and tobacco... 2,286,334,176 Raw materials... 248,182,717 Articles wholly or mainly manufactured... 185,578,750 Miscellaneous and unclassified... 2,483,408 of France, Germany and the United States combined. "During the year we received £2,087,500 in gold and silver bullion and coin, and sent away £37,024,077, leaving us £5,083,423 to the good. Of diamonds we received about 8 millions worth from South Africa. Thus we had 6 millions worth of gold and silver, 8 millions worth of diamonds to add to the excess of merchandise imported over the amount exported.

EXPORTED IN 1911. Food, drink, and tobacco... 43,342,803 Raw materials... 118,635,465 Articles wholly or mainly manufactured... 390,746,180 Miscellaneous and unclassified... 9,278,811

The greater the prospects for expansion in St. John, the greater the need for a wise city government. It is about time another board of trade joined the commercial and industrial leagues. There are now six in the league.

The city council and board of trade should take a hand in that matter of street railway extension. The spring is not far distant, when work should be begun.

King George and Queen Mary were welcomed today from India. Their visit to that great dependency has vastly increased British prestige among the Hindus, as well as their devotion to the crown and all it represents.

The village tailor received only occasional orders from the vicar for such articles as hats, collars or handkerchiefs. "You see," remarked the vicar, "when I want a suit I go to London. They make them there. Calling again a few days later, the vicar remarked that he had not seen the tailor at church lately.

THE WARDENS OF THE WALL ("And I came to a place upon the great caravan highway, where there was a fortress that had held hundreds of men; and there were ten old, old men in charge of it.")—Narrative of a traveler through Tibet.

With ropes of pearl, with sandal wood. With cedar, salamus, and myrrh. The camels through the solitude Rode to the Queen of Nineveh.

And on the fortress in the sands Now all day long the vultures sit, And ten old men with shaking hands Are all the wardens left of it.

And seldom to the fortress gate Between the vultures and the snow, Comes one to hear the wardens prate Of the lost thousands, long ago.

And how the armored warriors came, With brodered silk like changing flame, Over the moors to Ninaveh. —Richard T. Talbot, in Harper's Weekly.

Sackville Asked About the Back to New Brunswick Project - A. B. Copp's Health Improved

Sackville, N. B., Feb. 4.—At a meeting of the council of the Sackville Board of Trade last Thursday night, the following standing committees were appointed for the year: Merchants—J. E. Hickey, C. W. Cahill, L. Dixon, George E. Ford, H. Miller, Geo. Ross, C. C. Campbell, Dr. J. O. Allen, J. M. Oulton, Capt. R. R. Anderson, W. Turner. New industries—Dr. J. H. Secord, H. I. Wood, C. A. Ward, C. W. Fawcett, George A. Fawcett. Publicity—C. A. Ward, A. H. McCready, W. W. Fawcett, F. A. Dixon, F. G. Laine. Railway and shipping—Charles Pickard, B. Copp, Fred Ryan, A. E. Wry, W. Simpson. Parks and civic improvements—Henry J. Read, C. W. Fawcett, F. T. Tingley, V. R. Rodd, Fred Turner. Farming and forestry—Ashley George, Joseph E. Lund, Bliss M. Fawcett, William B. Fawcett, F. A. Dixon. Education—Dr. B. C. Borden, Dr. E. R. Hart, E. Critchley, Dr. E. M. Copp, Rev. W. Dalbarra. A letter from the St. John Board of Trade inquired what the Sackville board thought of organizing a "Back to New Brunswick" campaign for next summer. The secretary was instructed to write to the St. John board asking for more information about the proposed idea. It was decided to invite W. T. Bish, a former government sheep expert, to come here and to deliver his lecture on sheep industry. The secretary was instructed to communicate with Mr. Ritchie if it successful to arrange for the lecture to be held in the hall in Middle Street. The death of Mrs. Dixon of Oxford, N.S., occurred last Wednesday in Port Elgin at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Read. Pneumonia was the cause of death. The body was taken to Oxford Thursday for burial. Hazen Copp, an aged resident of Port

Elgin, who has been critically ill with pneumonia for some weeks, is reported somewhat improved. Much interest is being taken at Mount Allison University in a mock parliament which is soon to be opened. The Liberals and Conservatives have issued their platforms and the election to decide which party is to be in power will take place at an early date. Percy Fitzpatrick, Port Elgin, is leader of the Liberals, while Walter T. Hughes of Bear River, N.S., is leader of the Conservatives. It is understood that the university students are about equally divided between the two parties. George S. Wry has bought out the stock, tools and repair business belonging to the estate of the late Arthur W. Zinkinson, and will take possession tomorrow. J. M. Duchemin, optician and jeweller of Glouce Bay, N.S., intends opening a jewelry store here during the coming week. He will probably occupy a store in the Fridman block. A. B. Copp, M.P.P., leader of the provincial opposition, who has been ill, is now able to be around again. The death of Kenneth, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whiston took place on Thursday after an illness of a week with Bright's disease. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. Interment was at Midglo. AN EXTENSION OF CREDIT. A young country merchant who had something of a reputation for close figuring was especially attentive to the village schoolmaster. The young woman had a sweet tooth and was not at all reticent about making the fact known. According to her, she liked to see a man that a box of chocolates would be greatly appreciated on the occasion of his next visit. Later the suggestion was repeated and again duly heeded. The third time the subject was broached, however, the dispenser of sweets turned a deaf ear to the entreaty. "I don't know about takin' that girl any more candy," he confided to a companion next day. "She's own me any cents for chocolates already."

OUR WORLD. "This world's a stage," said the ready-made philosopher. "Mebbe so," replied Farmer Corntotter. "But it ain't any minstrel show. Business ain't arranged so that the middleman always gets the joke put on him while the men at both ends of the line do the laughin'. Np, yet."—Washington Star.

NO SHORT CUTS FOR MUSICIAN

Hard Work and Intelligence Needed to Win Way To the Top

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL Thousands Striving for What Comparatively Few Will Reach—What is Going on in the World of Music

(Times' Special Correspondence) New York, Feb. 3.—Thousands of young men and women of this land are striving for success in the profession of music. Comparatively few will reach it, but that will not deter the majority from struggling to seize that which is most elusive. Nor will it cause the increasing number of enthusiasts to turn from the desire to become Caruso, Hoffmann or Yeape. The attractions of a musical career seem to be more appealing to a greater number of the musically-inclined every year. In turning toward musical success, however, the candidates do well to keep in mind two salient factors—work and intelligence. Without both of these elements the singer, pianist or violinist is bound to fail in a profession that is becoming more exacting each season, and in which competition grows fiercer as years roll on. Bluff no longer carries one even to temporary success. In its place have come merit, hard work and intelligence. Unfortunately, too many students who expect eventually to earn their livelihoods in the field of musical art are not scrupulous in investigating the possibilities or in scrutinizing their own abilities and the apparent chances for success. Pianists who gaze longingly in the direction of a brilliant public career cannot palpably canally to more carefully investigate the possibilities or in scrutinizing their own abilities and the apparent chances for success. Pianists who gaze longingly in the direction of a brilliant public career cannot palpably canally to more carefully investigate the possibilities or in scrutinizing their own abilities and the apparent chances for success.

THE ENGLISH MINERS VOTING ON STRIKE QUESTION

Miners of the Lancashire coal mines in England, casting their ballots on the strike question, as they came out of the pits last week. Three hundred thousand are affected and they voted by an overwhelming majority to strike in March. The situation is serious, and has been referred to Sir George Asquith—the strike settler.

A TALK ON DICKENS

Editor of the Chicago New World Addresses Empire Club of Toronto

The centenary of the birth of Charles Dickens was honored by the Empire Club of Toronto recently, when Thomas O'Hagan was the guest at the weekly luncheon, and paid a glowing tribute to the work of the English novelist. Dr. O'Hagan is the editor of The New World of Chicago. In opening his address on Dickens, he said it was necessary to consider the background of Dickens' early life, for while time and place did not create genius, he moulded it. The novelist's youth was spent amid the stirring times that immediately preceded an era of many reforms, and for sheer goodness the nation longed for a man who had reached a past hard to imagine. This condition things helped play a part in producing the novelist, who acquired his strong, clear English by reading the classics of his day. Referring to Dickens' early marriage, Doctor O'Hagan disputed the general belief that his wife was the original of Dora. It had recently been clearly shown that Dickens drew Dora from a young lady with whom he was madly in love, though she rejected his suit. In making the inevitable comparison between Dickens and Thackeray, the speaker said that the difference in their philosophy was that the former was an idealist and the latter more of a realist. They both dealt with London, Dickens picturing the lower and Thackeray the upper classes; both dealt with conventional emotions, and both were stronger in their characterization than as makers of plots. While Dickens was a moral reformer and worked as such, he never became so preoccupied with his message as to greatly injure his work as an artist. Doctor O'Hagan agreed with those who thought that Dickens was greater in his humor than in his pathos, but he opposed the opinion of those critics who described his pathos as maudlin. Andrew Lang had said that no child ever existed like Paul Dombey, but Doctor O'Hagan contended that the quality of Dickens' pathos in dealing with this child was indicated by the number of times that readers had paid the tribute of tears. Above all, Dickens was supreme in his purity, and was not turning all the time to sex problems like many modern writers. That was one reason why he should be especially beloved by Canadians, who showed a healthy lack of interest in the microbes of affluence. "I say that," declared the speaker, "because after extensive traveling, I believe that the sweetest and most wholesome home life in the whole world is found in this country."

PRESIDENT TAFT HAS ONE DAY OF REAL REST OUT OF 365

Before starting on his Ohio trip President Taft had, at the home of his brother, Henry W. Taft, in New York, the only complete day of rest he has had for more than a year. He slept until ten o'clock and saw only one visitor all day. On a short walk up Fifth Avenue with his brother the President was kept busy raising his hat to persons who recognized him. Two secret service men accompanied the distinguished visitor wherever he went.

Constance Carney, 17 Golding street; third prize. There was a large attendance both of skaters and spectators and many favorable comments were heard on the costumes worn. The prize winners were: Girl's first prize, M. Northrup, 7 Dorchester street, representing Mother Goose; second, Bettie Crunkbank, representing a valentine; boy's first prize, Ronald Ritchie, Douglas avenue. The children's carnival in the Queen's rink Saturday afternoon was most successful. The door prizes were won by Bertie Aldous, 8 Cottensay street; second prize,

BELIEVED IN SIGNS

She was a sentimental young girl, and had devoted much time and tender thought to the home decorations for Christmas. Her surprise may be imagined when she came down stairs one morning and found the decorations moved around. The mistletoe boughs, that had been half hidden in secluded places, had been substituted for the holly wreaths and were now hung in the front windows in plain view of passersby. "Say, sister," exclaimed the little brother, "you have had that mistletoe hanging up for nearly a week and you haven't had a single customer. You're not up to date. What you want to do is to advertise."—Judge.

R. B. BENNETT TO IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT?

London Correspondent of the Evening Times Says He is Talked of

BONAR LAW WANTS HIM

Like Unionist Chief, He is a New Brunswick - Has Been Receiving Attention in London - Admits He Has Considered Entering Politics in England

(Times Special Correspondence) London, Jan. 28.—Among the Canadians who were dining at the Carlton Hotel the other evening I noticed R. B. Bennett, K.C., M.P. of Calgary, who was dining with Arthur Chamberlain, and Captain Steel McMillan, the Unionist politician, the latter of whom since his appointment has infused much energy into all ranks of the party.

Since his arrival in London, the western politician has received much social and political attention. He has been a guest of Bonar Law at his London residence, and Lord Strathcona has also extended hospitality to him. He was one of those invited by the lord mayor to the banquet at which the freedom of the city was conferred on Earl Grey.

A rather unusual situation was said to exist the other day in the "Law Office" when he was visited by Mr. Chamberlain, president of the divorce and admiralty division of the high court, and a seat beside him on the bench. He afterwards lunched with the judge in his private room.

Mr. Bennett's movements in political circles have been remarked upon, and in the Anglo-Canadian world it is rumored that he has been invited by Bonar Law to enter English political life. He will return to Canada this week. When I asked him if he would confirm the subject, although he admitted that he had considered the question.

Richard Craig, British Trade Agent in Canada is in London this week and will return soon to Montreal.

John Bonar Law, the Unionist leader, R. B. Bennett is a New Brunswick, a native of Albert county.

MORNING LOCALS

Word has been received here of the marriage in Lynn (Mass.) of Sterling Ferry and Miss Georgia Pratt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lena Melvin, D. D., at the residence of the bride's parents, 481 Eastern avenue, on Wednesday last. Both bride and groom are well known here, having lived in St. John.

A temperance meeting was held in the hall of the Lyceum on Saturday night. Rev. W. Gaetz delivered an interesting address to the sailors which was greatly appreciated. Solo songs were rendered by the Misses Hamilton, and Mr. Coddington played the organ solo. The singing was led by Mr. McMillan.

Members attended the weekly appearance of the meeting of Alexander Section, A. G. H. in Temple Building, 101 St. John street, yesterday afternoon, giving an interesting address.

Howard Logan, of Chesley street, was said to be on Long Wharf on Saturday evening. He was taken to McMillan's drug store, where Doctor Pratt attended him. He was in a serious condition and further exposure might have resulted in his death. Logan is said to be a minor, and the case may lead to an investigation as to where he secured liquor.

The Emory farm near Mooreshead, containing eighty acres, has been sold for $5,000. John Connor has secured an option on the Barnaby property at the Ferry Bay Shore. An offer has been made to H. E. Crighton for his farm at Silver Falls.

Mr. Deane of Nantes France, manager of one of the largest fishing companies in the country arrived in St. John yesterday to make arrangements for opening up a new firm in New Brunswick in lobster, which his firm imports largely.

OBEDY AT ALL COSTS The greatest financiers in the world of the olden times exact the strictest obedience from their employees. They once had an agent in New Orleans to whom they telegraphed at a certain hour. He was late. He was sure the price would go up higher. Therefore he did not telegraph for several days, and so netted an extra profit of $40,000 for his firm.

When he sent the Rothschilds the money, and announced proudly and joyfully that he had done, they returned the $40,000 with a cold note that ran: "The $40,000 you made by disobeying my instructions is not yours, it is mine. Mr. Blank, your successor says 'New Orleans today'."

It is said that a coarsening effect upon the skin would be well to use it but once a week, using a good cold cream to remove a dust and dirt from the face. Follow a massage with tepid water and then dry the face with the skin.

CHARLES S. WHITMAN, ATTORNEY GENERAL

No matter how Governor Dix of New York may decide on the application of Foulke Engelbrecht Brand, Whitman's valet, who was sentenced five years ago to thirty years' imprisonment for executive clemency, it is almost certain now that the public will never know all of the truth in the case, nor why Mr. Schiff obtained such eminent clemency as Alton R. Parker, Paul D. Cavanaugh and Howard C. Goss in an effort to keep the man who was his valet in Clinton Prison for twenty-five years.

TRAP SHOOTING ON THE LOCAL CLUB GROUNDS

The new club house of the St. John Gun Club, on their grounds on the Sandy Point Road, was opened to their members on Saturday and one of the most successful shoots yet held took place. About twenty-five members were out and took part in the shooting, which was considered good for this season of the year, and from the enthusiasm shown these Saturday events are expected to be very popular.

IN THE CHURCHES

Vote Against Union is Result of St. Stephen's Ballot

Opponents of church union on the basis laid down by the joint committee of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches in Canada will find cause for gratification in the result of the balloting in St. Stephen's church which ended last night with an overwhelming majority against union, 122 for union, 77 against.

Principal McKinnon, of Pine Hill College, Halifax, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church at both services yesterday and the members of the congregation were greatly impressed by his remarks.

The church was well filled, both morning and evening, a large number of young men being present at the evening service. Principal McKinnon, in the evening, took up the life of Gideon and compared his experiences with present day happenings.

He made an earnest appeal to the young men to take an active part in religious work. Principal McKinnon is to preach in St. Andrew's at both services next Sunday.

Rev. John Lenox of Notown was the preacher on Sunday in Carlton Presbyterian church. In his morning sermon, while preaching about the origin of Christianity, he said: "What wonderful privileges Christianity has in the propagation of its cause. It has the patronage of royalty and the state; thousands of preachers and ministers to teach its doctrine, and an immeasurable number of periodicals and the daily press to advertise the cause."

Mr. Lenox in reply to this said Mr. Blatchford had overlooked the fact that the Christian religion dawned upon the world, royalty and the state were opposed to it and the only advertisement it had was the voice of John the Baptist in the wilderness declaring the kingdom of heaven was at hand, and latterly Jesus called a few poor men who went throughout the Roman world and declared the gospel of God. The result of their labors today was that there are millions of people worshipping at the shrine of Jesus the Christ.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN: WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

HELL AND ITS TORMENTS. The famous Divina Comedia the great monument in the World's Catholic literature has been reproduced through the cinematograph and for the first time in this country will be shown at the Opera House, beginning on Wednesday and continuing for the balance of the week. A matinee will also be given each day. A special musical programme, the creation of an Italian composer of note, will accompany the showing of the films. There will also be an explanatory and complete lecture. The presentation of the Inferno in five acts with music and lecture will occupy more than an hour. In view of its educational, literary and religious value, it is said to be the greatest production of modern times.

Nearly every married man thinks he properly is his wife—but did he?

RESIDENCE OF MORTIMER L. SCHIFF, 16-52 HURON AVENUE

There is no Mystery About Our Premium Plan. We manufacture about 400 lines of our own and they are the goods that we are forcing the sale of. To sell these goods by the usual plan is to send out travelers and carry on expensive advertising, etc. which will cost over 40 per cent. We have decided to have in our stores sufficient lines of steady consumption to enable a family to secure necessities as cheaply as possible, to enable them to get many articles of value in a short time free. So you see we really solve the cost of high living and still give you a living margin.

THE BRIGHT OUTLOOK

Industrial activity along many different lines is promised as one of the results of the great forward movement in New Brunswick. Large cement works, headed by English capital, are likely to be established in Albert county, and at Greenhead and Katepee, in St. John county, and an authoritative announcement regarding the personnel of the companies interested is daily expected.

It is also reported that one concern interested in the iron mines of the province may establish ironing works in St. John, encouraged by the renewal of the federal bounties on iron and steel.

The prospect of having electric power developed in the Queens county coal areas is also receiving attention and Col. H. H. McLean, M. P., said yesterday that there would be a ready sale for all the power which could be generated. He said the whole scheme was quite practicable, but that the cost had not yet been figured out.

The plan would be to build coke ovens in which the slack coal could be made into coke, the railroads taking all the coke available, and the gas which is a by-product of the coke ovens, used to drive the dynamo, thus generating electricity much cheaper than can be done by the hydraulic method.

With cheap power supplied and the establishment here of large iron smelting works drawing the raw material from the mines in the province, the prospect of a big steel shipbuilding plant coming here is bright.

Another big industry assured is the new pulp mill in Lunenburg to be run by a company with $5,000,000 capital, headed by McLean and J. C. Doherty, of St. John. The mill is to be practically settled that the franchise will be granted to the company in York county last night, March 15. It is said to be practically settled that the franchise will be granted to the company in York county last night, March 15. It is said to be practically settled that the franchise will be granted to the company in York county last night, March 15.

The death occurred at her residence, 92 Elliott Row, yesterday afternoon, after a short illness of Eliza, widow of Thomas T. Humbert, at the age of 78 years. Many friends will hear the news with deep regret. Mrs. Humbert was a daughter of the late John B. Gussow, well known in the old shipping days in this city. Her husband was a member of the old firm of Fleming & Humbert, so well known as locomotive builders. He died about seven or eight years ago. Mrs. Humbert leaves one son, Charles S. Humbert, and two daughters, Mrs. Walter A. Lordly and Mrs. A. R. Lordly, and one brother, James Gwynn, of this city. Mrs. Humbert's father laid the corner stone of the present Queen square Methodist church in this city while her husband's grandfather, Stephen Humbert, was instrumental in bringing the first Methodist minister to St. John. Stephen Humbert and his son, John, were both members of the provincial legislature at the same time, the former for Kings county and the latter for St. John.

A. R. PIXLEY SPEAKER AT EVERY DAY CLUB

A large audience at the Every Day Club last evening listened with deep interest to an address by A. R. Pixley, of the Y. M. C. A. staff, on the subject of The Boy. Mr. Pixley considered three stages of development, infancy, boyhood and adolescence, and set out in simple phrase the tendencies and influences which shape the character of the future man. The state of the boy's mind in the three stages of growth was clearly analyzed, with emphasis upon the duty of parents to give good guidance and watchful care. Mr. Pixley then came to the question, What are you and I doing for the boys of St. John? Good work is being done, he said, and gave instances to prove the statement; but other instances were given which showed the other side of the shield, and revealed neglect of duty on the part of the people. A strong plea was made for sympathetic interest in the boys and their welfare, that they may so develop physically, mentally and spiritually as to have right views concerning their duty to themselves, to their fellows, and to God. It was the address of a student of boy nature, who also has had practical experience.

The musical programme included a solo by Miss Ring, a lute duet by Mr. Stokes and Miss R. Keitwood, and selections by the orchestra.

Col. E. S. Weeden, who owns a large tract of land southwest of Orville, Cal., has decided to cut the driftwood which flood waters have carried onto his lands in past high water seasons. He estimates that there is enough driftwood to make a pile 4 feet wide, 4 feet high and 8 miles long, and he expects to realize a large profit from the sale of it.

RECENT DEATHS

After an illness of only a few hours, Mrs. David Mitchell passed away very suddenly at her late residence, 27 Castle street, yesterday afternoon. Although in the 74th year of her age, Mrs. Mitchell enjoyed good health and up to a few hours of her death she was able to attend to her household duties. Saturday evening she took a walk, very suddenly and in the middle of the afternoon she was taken ill suddenly and despite medical assistance, passed away yesterday afternoon. Heart failure was given as the cause. Mrs. Mitchell survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters. The sons are: George, of Woodstock; James, employed with the Leam Hill Co., Ltd., and John, at home. The daughters are: Mrs. Bradford Turner, Elizabeth, both of this city. Mrs. Mitchell was a life long member of St. John's Presbyterian church.

Many friends in the city and Fairville will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Catherine Lynch, which took place very suddenly Saturday night. Mrs. Lynch had apparently been in good health. She had been about the house as usual until about 8 o'clock, when she was suddenly stricken and died before medical aid could be summoned. She is survived by one son, William, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Mary and Annie, all at home.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 8:40 o'clock from her late residence, Main street, Fairville, to St. John's church for requiem high mass at 9.

The death occurred at her residence, 92 Elliott Row, yesterday afternoon, after a short illness of Eliza, widow of Thomas T. Humbert, at the age of 78 years. Many friends will hear the news with deep regret. Mrs. Humbert was a daughter of the late John B. Gussow, well known in the old shipping days in this city. Her husband was a member of the old firm of Fleming & Humbert, so well known as locomotive builders. He died about seven or eight years ago. Mrs. Humbert leaves one son, Charles S. Humbert, and two daughters, Mrs. Walter A. Lordly and Mrs. A. R. Lordly, and one brother, James Gwynn, of this city. Mrs. Humbert's father laid the corner stone of the present Queen square Methodist church in this city while her husband's grandfather, Stephen Humbert, was instrumental in bringing the first Methodist minister to St. John. Stephen Humbert and his son, John, were both members of the provincial legislature at the same time, the former for Kings county and the latter for St. John.

The Asepto Plan of Doing Business is the only plan of its kind in Canada.

It works itself out in this way: If you spend five cents you get a check worth one cent. If you spend twenty-five cents you get one worth five cents. If you spend $1.00 you get one worth twenty cents. If your purchases amount to $5.00 you get one worth $1.00 and so on. These goods we sell to you at the same price that you would pay for them at any other store in the city. Instead of giving you a small cash discount we give you a check worth 20 cents for every $1.00 you spend. We make a profit on the goods you purchase and pay for, while the goods you purchase afterwards with our checks are given you at the whole sale price. To get you to make the first purchase costs us something, while the second purchase, using our checks, we are bound to make from you. There is no selling expense attached to the latter.

THE MIXED-UP NAVAL BUSINESS

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Following Mr. Bonar Law's emphatic demand in the House on Friday for an immediate repeal of the late government's naval law, there appears in the Canada Gazette a promise of an order-in-council dealing with the naval service, which, in view of all the circumstances, has a humorous ring.

The cabinet council last week, significantly passed an order providing that when an act of the Canadian navy is killed by duty, or dies from wounds or disease contracted when on duty, whether in naval action or otherwise, the government shall "may extend the payment of a gratuity to his widow and family according to the amount of the case, but not exceeding a total of one year's pay and allowances such as the man was receiving at the time he was killed."

This is the "wink tempered to the wives and children in Quebec whom Nationalist orators have taught to dread the loss of husbands and sons ruthlessly torn from them to fight the battles of England on foreign seas.

A further anomaly of the present situation is an advertisement in the Gazette announcing that the civil service commission will receive applications from candidates for the position of accountant for the navy yard at Halifax, an indication that the present naval staff is being increased rather than abolished.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic May Cause Destructive Complaints

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics, and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They sometimes cause grunting, nausea, and distressing after-effects, and may actually injure the health, thus establishing a life-lasting annoyance.

I personally recommend and guarantee Recall Ordinaries as a safe and dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. I have such faith in the virtues of the remedy that I sell it on my guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and I urge all in need of such medicine to try it at my risk.

Recall Ordinaries are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night, do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Recall Ordinaries not only relieve constipation, but help to remove the cause of this ailment. They also frequently overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really, in my opinion, no similar medicine so good as Recall Ordinaries for the purpose to which it is directed, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets, 10c., 24 tablets, 25c., and 30 tablets, 35c. Remember, you can obtain Recall Remedies in this country only at my store—The Recall Store, Chas. R. Wasson, 100 King street.

Man, Woman and Boy go To Death When Ice Bridge Breaks—Their Struggle for Life

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The great ice bridge that has choked the river between the cataract and the upper steel arch bridge below the falls, for the last three weeks, broke for its anchorage just at noon today and sent down the river, taking with it to their death a man and woman, said to be Mr. and Mrs. Heacock, of Toronto, and their three-year-old boy.

There were several people on the bridge when it tore free, and five of them succeeded in escaping. The others were swept down the gorge. Firemen took stations along the shore, and on the bridge and lowered ropes. Young Heacock caught a rope thrown to him by policeman Patrick Kelley and fell back when sixty feet above the water.

Heacock saw the ropes dangling from the bridge and made ready to catch on. Very coolly he took off his overcoat and peered through the opening. In his course there dangled one rope, and a second was moved toward him. He caught it and held it fast. The rope was that of the Ontario police force, and a company of about twenty railroad men.

The sag of the ropes, that great drop, 200 feet, led him into the chilly water up to his waist and before he was clear of it he was tightly fastened by the rope. The ice and the force of the water drove him down.

Nation Prepared For Any Emergency Says Lloyd-George in London Speech

London, Feb. 3.—The Right Hon. David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, delivered today at the City of London Liberal Club an important speech upon financial and foreign affairs.

He strongly defended the government's financial policy. He emphasized the fact that all government securities in Europe had fallen, which was a matter for grave consideration. The reasons for the decline in consols were non-political and needed judicial and impartial examination.

To say that British credits had gone was not only unjustified but utterly untrue. Speaking clearly and emphatically in regard to the foreign affairs, Mr. Lloyd-George asserted that there was never a time in the history of the country when it was better prepared to face any emergency. (Cheers.)

If they wanted to effect economies in finance they must arrest the growth of armaments. But until international justice, jealousy and fears were removed the growth of armaments would never be arrested. This was the indispensable element to consider the subject.

He believed that it was in the interests of Europe to have a better understanding between the nations. (Loud cheers.) He believed that with candor, frankness and boldness it was attainable. (Cheers.) The world would be better and richer for the peace that would be achieved.

LEAP YEAR PROPOSAL WINS HER HUSBAND AND PRIZES OF $400

Boston, Jan. 2.—Miss Morris Potter, aged twenty-three, of Pittsfield, has set the pace for leap year proposals among the young women of that city by proposing to Robert Reese, of that city and being immediately accepted. She not only proposed and was accepted, but the couple are now about $400 richer as a consequence. They are to be married in a week.

"Bob and I have been going together for the last five years and I thought it was about time we were getting serious," said Miss Potter. "This being leap year, I made up my mind to pop the question, so, I said, 'Will you be my husband?' and he said, 'Yes!'"

"Bob is a dandy fellow but he has been apt to propose—back of me, I suppose—so I did it for him."

Robert Reese, this groom-to-be, simply admitted the fact. He said: "She proposed sure enough and I accepted. I first met Morris in Housack Falls about five years ago and we have been friends ever since. She is a fine girl, and we are both in love with each other."

Miss Potter in her proposal to Reese has complied with every condition named in a Pittsfield newspaper's leap year prize contest, and she is the winner of prizes aggregating sixty-three in number, netting a lump sum of $400.

She was surprised when Dr. Morse's Indian Pills cured her chronic liver complaint.

Mrs. R. Smith, of Winnipeg, Man., is an interesting story of relief from chronic liver complaint.

"I can hardly tell you how great my feelings have been. Chronic liver complaint accompanied by biliousness ever daily source of trial to me. Every day I was tormented by the most distressing ailments. I longed for some medicine that should permanently drive them away."

Hearing of Dr. Morse's Indian Pills, I thought they were worthy of a trial. My surprise was indeed great. Continuing with them I found my troubles were slowly but surely leaving me, and before long I once more knew what it was to be free from the harassing effects of the ailments that had long sickened and weakened me. So great is my faith in Dr. Morse's Indian Pills that I shall never on any account be without them."

WANTS AEROPLANE SERVICE TO PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND (Charlottetown Patriot)

The question of an aeroplane service for carrying P. E. Island mails is again brought into prominence. Only a few days ago, our despatches brought the news that an aeroplane with five passengers weighing altogether 948 remained in the air for an hour and six minutes, beating all previous records. As these machines can attain a speed of forty miles an hour, the passage across the Capes could be made in about fifteen minutes. Here is a means of communication that has not been taken seriously in this part of the country but which is making rapid strides all the same in other parts of the world and is destined in a short time to revolutionize travel. By carrying nearly half a ton of mails at one trip, it would not take many trips to handle the day's mail to and from the island.

BURIED ON SUNDAY

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Olive Downing took place yesterday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock from her late residence, 215 Prince street, to St. Peter's church. Rev. Father O'Leary read the burial service and interment took place in Sand Cove cemetery. There were many beautiful floral offerings and the funeral was very large.

The funeral of William McDade took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, Brussels street, to the cathedral, where Father Meahan read the burial service. Interment took place in the new Catholic cemetery.

MAKING PROGRESS WITH NAVY FOR AUSTRALIA

Five War Vessels Ready by End of Year—Officers and Men From England

London, Feb. 3.—It is understood that, as a result of negotiations between the Australian government and the admiralty, a batch of from fifty to sixty seamen and other ratings for the royal Australian navy will leave England on March 1 next.

A second batch of 100 men, including seventeen officers, will follow, and regular drafts will be despatched every fortnight numbering from ten to twenty men. Already some half dozen officers are on their way out to Australia.

Mr. Duffell, it is stated, is being considered in getting officers on men, who in every case are going voluntarily. Many of the reservists and pensioners are taking out their wives and families, whose passages are being paid by the commonwealth government.

Meanwhile good progress is being made with the shipbuilding programme in this country, and it is expected that by the end of the year the battleship, the second-class cruiser, Melbourne and Sydney and two submarines will be ready to sail for Australia.

The second-class cruiser Brisbane, which is to be built at Sydney, should also be completed by the spring of next year, which time the commonwealth government would be able formally to take over the Australian navy.

"Another survey was held Wednesday on the bark Calbar, at Port Wade from Annapolis for Buenos Ayres. It was decided to have some of her boats caulked which were leaking, and some other repairs made at that port, after which she will be seaworthy. Her deck load has been discharged."

SUDDEN CHANGES MANY COLDS

And Colds Are the Starting Point of Serious Trouble

You Can Make Short Work of a Cold by Using DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

Sudden changes of temperature are fatal in results. The shock to the human system is more than most people can stand, and everywhere you hear sneezing and coughing.

You may be sure that some of these colds will develop into pneumonia or consumption. Others will settle on the kidney, and result in serious disease or bring on rheumatic or bodily pains.

The danger is in letting colds run on. By beginning promptly with Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine and talking small doses frequently you can keep the cough loose, check the inflammation, and soon rid the system entirely of the cold, and all the many possibilities for evil which it possesses.

Don't think that anything is good enough for a cold. There are lots of cough mixtures. But if you want a standard medicine of proven merit, something that you can depend on in time of sickness, you will be satisfied with Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Children like it. Being composed of simple ingredients, it is particularly suited to their needs. Its enormous sales prove its effectiveness. 25c a bottle, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

STORIES OF LABOUCHERE

Like One of Dickens' Characters—Horace Voules the Man Who Made Truth Famous

London. Truth week contains a fresh series of stories about the late Henry Labouchere. Considerable criticism of the character and achievements of the former editor, has been heard, and it is rather unusual step was the necessity of the present directorate feels of calling attention to the continued existence of "Truth" which, in the mind of the general public, was inseparably connected with "Labby," and might have been supposed to have passed away with him.

Extraordinary recollections, showing an entirely new light on the life and character of Henry Labouchere, were published in the last issue of Truth.

When Mr. Labouchere started Truth, he was a Horace Voules, who made Truth as he has been known to the public for the last twenty-five years. Mr. Labouchere's part in all the troubles and libel actions that Truth fought, in the days when Mr. Voules was editor, was to come and sit beside George Lewis in court when we got to trial, and to receive the congratulations and compliments of the press and public after the victory. The net result of it all was that Horace Voules made one of the greatest successes in the records of journalism, and that so far as the public is concerned the whole credit of the day for many years was his.

It was Mr. Labouchere's habit to drop in at the office of Truth on Monday or Tuesday morning and order lunch. The meal usually consisted of a chop, fried warmed through, and he ate it without bread, salt, pepper, or drink of any kind. I have seen him with a chop in one hand and a cigarette in the other, passing to crack some jokes with Mr. Voules, who had to sit on the other side of the table while Mr. Labouchere was refreshing himself, and used to be hoarsely upset by the performance.

"As soon as Mr. Labouchere felt the slightest inconvenience from his teeth, he had them out and set to work on them with the first implement that came handy. I have seen him probing them about with the office scissors, or biting them with a ruler.

"Have you got a hammer in the office, Voules?" he inquired one day, and the caretaker having produced one, he destroyed about £20 worth of dentists' work in a few minutes.

"People tell you some of Dickens' characters are overdrawn and impossible. There is no character in all Dickens' collection so full of apparently impossible comic extravagance as was Henry Labouchere in real life. In the nineties and onwards he used to go about London looking like a dilapidated beggar.

"It's a bit worse for wear," he once remarked half apologetically, when I was helping him into his overcoat. "My wife won't let me go out in it, but I'm rather fond of it and I hide it from her. Ho, ho, ho, he, and then came a Mephistophelean chuckle.

"He used to come to the office in an old jacket which excited much interest and mirth among the juniors of the staff, one of whom declared he could smell it in a more presentable garment and complained bitterly that Mrs. Labouchere had surreptitiously captured his old jacket. A week later, to the general horror, he appeared in it, babbling over with glee.

"I have done her," he said, to Mr. Voules, "I found it."

"He never said where, but I suspect he recovered it from the dust bin."

ANOTHER CAPTURE

DUE TO SAGACITY OF DETECTIVE DOG

Spitz Has Tracing of Eight Murderers to His Credit—Finds Slayer of Aged Couple

Odessa, Feb. 2.—The detective dog Spitz continues to add to his laurels. Three already stood to his credit the traces and capture of seven murderers, and a few days ago a telegram from Bakumst requested the dog's services in a murder case in which the local police researchers had failed.

An elderly couple named Kottman, in the small township of Kozdnesk, on the Bessarabian border, had been murdered and robbed of a life's savings. Spitz was accompanied by an officer, arrived on the scene of the crime. After this customary and rapid investigation, Spitz, still in leash, led his guardian and a couple of Bakumst detectives by a circuitous cross-country route to a village twenty miles distant to which the unerring Spitz had led.

"There the dog was unleashed, and he immediately made for a cottage on the outskirts of the village. When the door was opened, in response to the summons of the police, Spitz rushed into an inner apartment and tore down from their pegs several blood-stained garments. He then turned on one of the two inmates a Semtex dog named Nikolai Bychhoff, in Spitz's leg he planted his teeth.

Bychhoff and his companion, Vasil Kormann, then confessed to the double murder of the Kottmans, and a further charge, assisted by Spitz, revealed the place where the stolen money and some old trinkets. It had not occurred to the ruffians to extend their search to a distant village to which the unerring Spitz had led.

Spitz has been only eighteen months in the detective service. He is not yet three years old. When he has run down his quarry and the arrest has been made, the dog is in a great hurry to get back to headquarters, where he is regaled with an extra dinner as a reward for his distinguished service.

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FROM DYSPEPSIA

FOR FIVE YEARS

FROM DYSPEPSIA

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony after every meal, for nearly everything that enters weak dyspeptic stomach acts as a irritant.

The long train of distressing symptoms which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Wm. J. Boyer, Leppent, N.S. writes:—"I thought I would write an testimonial for the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am.

"For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different tonics and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. One day a friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I would give it a trial. To-day completely cured, and I will always recommend it."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on market for about thirty-five years and manufactured only by The T. Mills Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THEY WANT SUNDAY SLIDES

One of the features of the agitation in Toronto, to prevent the city council closing up the city toboggan and tob-sleigh slides on Sunday. The picture shows leaders of a "sanctified parade" in King and Yonge streets on the way to a mass meeting in Massey Hall, where a motion against the proposed "close them up" by-law was unanimously carried.

generated into a mere house affair, instead of the great event of the London athletic season.

The Rag. Conlon Defends His Title. Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—Johnnie Conlon, of Chicago, successfully defended his title as bantamweight champion tonight by winning from Frankie Conley, of Kenosha (Wis.), at the end of twenty rounds of fierce fighting in the Vernon arena. Conlon landed five blows to Conley's one, but did not seem to possess the strength of his opponent. Conley was a sight at the close of the fight, his face being cut in half a dozen places and both eyes nearly closed.

The Turf. Change in King's Plate. Toronto, Feb. 4.—The Ontario Jockey Club directors have changed the conditions of the King's Plate. Beginning with 1913 the King's Plate will be for three-year-olds and upwards (the property of a "British subject, resident in Ontario), foaled, raised and trained in the province of Ontario, that have never won a race either on the flat or across country, other than a race exclusively for two-year-olds; that have never left Canada, and have never been for a period of more than one month out of this province; winners to carry five pounds extra. Heretofore winners of even two-year-old events have been barred from the plate.

Billiards. High Scores in England. A London states—"George Gray has won H. W. Stevenson's £200 as a result of vanquishing the Englishman in the first and second of their level matches of 18,000 up. The young Australian was 1,000 points behind at one stage of the second match, but when he entered on the final day's play with a lead of 800, he looked fairly certain of victory. He got a fright at the last session, however, as Stevenson cut down his rival's lead to a matter of 310 points. Another big break from the Englishman might have altered matters, but Gray managed to strike his form with breaks of 120 and 317 (unfinished). In addition to the stake money, Gray won the cheque given by the makers of the table for the best break, his effort of 839 entitling him to this. The rivals will play the third match, and to give it further interest, Stevenson came along with an offer to take £200 to £100 about his chance. Gray's father thinks the odds too liberal, but is willing to allow £300 to £200 against Stevenson.

Regatta Date Chosen. New York, Feb. 3.—The board of stewards of the American Rowing Association in session today selected Philadelphia, Pa., as the site for the next annual regatta. It will be held over the association course on the Schuylkill, and the events will be the same as last year.

FOUR DAYS IN BLIZZARD, IS BADLY FROZEN

Wm. Campbell, Formerly of St. John, Has Come Through Hard Experience in Montana

William Campbell, son of G. Wilford Campbell, of this city, and a former member of the news staff of the Star has had a most painful and dangerous experience in the west. He has lately been engaged in ranching near Helena, Montana, and with several companions was caught in a blizzard which commenced on December 21. For four days they were exposed to the storm without shelter or food and during that time they suffered intensely from the bitter cold.

When they finally succeeded in getting back to civilization, Mr. Campbell's hands and feet were badly frozen, and he had to be taken to the hospital for treatment. For a time it was feared that it would be necessary to amputate one of his feet, but the doctors now hope that this will be unnecessary. Mr. Campbell may return to St. John to recuperate as soon as he is able to travel.

THE TUG LILLIE

After it had been said that it would be practically impossible to raise the tug Lillie from its sunken position at Indianton, Dyer Doyle has managed to make encouraging progress in this direction, and expects to have the tug above water in a few days, although it was a difficult task. The diver went down this morning and managed to place one wire sling beneath the boat, but it will be necessary, Contractor Roberts said today, to have two under each end. MORE REAL ESTATE ON MOVE TODAY

Two Examples of Good Profits on Local Transactions—Several Sales Reported

There are several interesting real estate deals which are expected to culminate this week. The Saturday Times announcement of six local men headed by Thomas Nagle, the purchase of the McLachlan farm helped materially to strengthen the confidence in the reality of the new values which have been put forward by recent transfers and it is expected that some of the announcements which are due soon will deepen this impression.

The transfer of the Magnus farm on the Marsh Road, beyond Ferrhill, offers another example of a public transfer at a large profit. The option of the property was given by John Maguire to a syndicate of six local men headed by Thomas Nagle. The property was placed with Armstrong & Bruce for sale and was turned over by them to E. G. Spencer at a substantial advance on the original price.

SIXTEEN ON BENCH IN THE POLICE COURT

Magistrate Again Urges Reports on Liquor Law Violations—Peterson Says Not Guilty

Sixteen prisoners were on the bench in the police court this morning. Drunkenness was the chief source of offence, there being twelve fined $3 on that charge, and four on other counts. The latter was arrested on Sunday. The others had been taken in charge on Saturday. His Honor spoke quite strongly to the men, warning some of them that they could be sent to jail under the dominant act for three months without a fine, for being habitual offenders. The police, he said, should endeavor in every case to do their duty in ferreting out where the unfortunates had been supplied with liquor, and if there was any illegality in the sale, the dealers should be reported to the police.
