DEATH LIST IN THE NEW YORK FIRE REACHES TOTAL OF 141

Cigarette Believed Cause of Fearful Disaster in Shirt Waist Factory—Investigation is Begun—Fearful Scene as Fire-Trapped Girls Seek to Escape

(Canadian Press) New York, March 27.—Eighty-six bodies of the one hundred and forty-one victims of a fire in a ten-story building in Washington Place on Saturday night were identified. Only sixteen of the bodies were those of men. There are twelve injured in the hospital.

District Attorney Whitman started an official investigation today to fix the responsibility for the horror in which several hundred shirt-waist makers, mostly Jewish and Italian women and girls were entrapped by fire on three top floors of a factory. Most of them were employed by the Triangle Waist Company. Some sought escape from the flames by leaping to the street because iron doors that led to the floor below and to safety were said to have been locked.

Minutes to 5 were started by the whizz of something rushing through the air before them; there was a horrible thud on the pavement, and a body flattened on the flags. Waylacers on the opposite side of the street shaded their eyes against the setting sun and saw the windows of the three upper floors of the building black with girls crowding to the sills. The only fire escape was in a small court yard of the building.

"Don't jump! Don't jump!" yelled the crowd. But the girls had no choice. The pressure of the maddened hundreds behind them and the urging of their own fears were too strong. They began to leap on the sidewalk like peas from a hot shell.

A thirteen year old girl hung for three minutes by her finger tips to the sill of a tenth floor window. A tongue of flame licked at her fingers and she dropped into a net held by firemen. Two women fell into the net almost at the same moment. The strands parted and the two were added to the death list. A girl three feet high, then her hat, then her feet from a tenth floor window. A moment later her body came whirling after them to the street.

At a ninth floor window a man and a woman appeared. The man embraced the woman and kissed her. Then he hurled her to the street and jumped. Both were killed. Five girls smashed a pane of glass, dropped in a struggling tangle and were crushed into a shapeless mass.

A girl on the eighth floor leaped for a fireman's ladder which reached only to the sixth floor. She missed, struck the edge of a life net and was picked up with her back broken. From one window a girl of about 13 years, a woman, a man and two women with their arms about one another threw themselves to the ground in rapid succession. The little girl was whirled to the New York hospital. She screamed as she fell and a policeman lifted her into the hallway. A surgeon came out, took look at her face and touched his hand to her forehead. "She is dead," he said.

One girl jumped into a brick blanketed by firemen and policemen. The blanket ripped like cheese cloth and her body was mangled almost beyond recognition. Another dropped in a tarpaulin held by three men. Her weight tore it from their grasp and she struck the street, breaking almost every bone in her body. Almost at the same moment a man somersaulted down upon the shoulder of a policeman holding the tarpaulin. He glanced off, struck the sidewalk and was picked up dead.

"CRIPPEN SHIP" AT THE POINT

Montreal and Lake Manitoba Arrive Today Almost Together MORE THAN 2,000 ABOARD

Noted British Swimmer One of Today's New Arrivals—Many Changes in the List of Officers on the Montrose—Considerable Ice Was Sighted

Both from Liverpool and with 2122 passengers in all, two C. P. R. liners—the Lake Manitoba, Captain G. C. Evans, and the Montrose, Captain Macrop—arrived within half an hour of each other at Sand Point this morning. They docked at Nos. 2 and 3 berths and the former landed her passengers this morning but it was expected that it would be some time this afternoon before those of the Montrose would come ashore.

The Montrose is known as the "Crippen ship" of the fleet, since it was on board her that the murderer of Dr. Hawley C. Crippen was captured. In fact there were the former actress Belle Elmore. There have, however, been many changes among the officers and ship's company since that occasion. Captain Macrop, who was one of those to detect the much wanted doctor, is still on duty.

St. John Railway Company Men Give Evidence on Charge Against J. G. Sperdaks

The preliminary hearing in the case against J. G. Sperdaks, proprietor of a fruit and confectionery store in Charlotte street, on a warrant issued at the instance of the St. John Railway Company, gave evidence that on Friday last he was in the morning and found about a dozen lights in the ice cream parlour burning, but the meter was not running. The wire connecting the meter with the lights had been cut and a disconnection ensued. He gave evidence by using some fine wires of the method employed in making the disconnection by which the electricity used in the meter had been made in the parlour had been cut and hooked so that it could be readily connected or disconnected.

THE STEAMER BRUCE, WRECKED ON THE CAPE BRETON COAST

Two of them drowned. The hair of one of the men in the water froze so stiff that it came off at the scalp before he was pulled aboard. There were 100 passengers and all suffered from the intense cold. Fires were built upon the beach and around the shipwrecked people to Sydney.

The latest word from the Bruce is that she is lying on the rocks, her port rail submerged, her head to the northwest and heavy seas washing her decks. A few bags of mail were secured on Saturday, but little else of value could be found.

Miss Huntbach Was 75 Years Old and Eccentric; Suspicious Death of Toronto Woman

(Canadian Press) Ingersoll, Ont.—A woman hunting muskrats found the body of Miss Johanna Huntbach in a stream a short distance from the outskirts of the town on Saturday evening. The body apparently had been in the water since Monday last, which was the last time, so far as known, that she was seen alive. GRAND WORK OF SHEFFIELD CHOIR

Such Chorus Singing Never Before in St. John

A Revelation of the Way to Sing The National Anthem—The Reception By the Canadian Clubs

The Sheffield Choir's tour of the Empire has well begun. Though some rearrangement of plans was made necessary because of the delay to the steamer with the choir at Halifax, and the matinee performance here had to be cancelled, there was yet the evening concert. To say that it was a musical triumph is putting it very mildly and to add that nowhere in the tour of the all red route of empire will they receive any more hearty welcome is not making too great a prediction.

The project of a Sunday programme to make up for the disappointment of those who planned to attend the matinee had to be abandoned, as Dr. Harris could not be guaranteed arrival in Montreal in time for a rehearsal which was set for noon Monday, and which was looked on as absolutely essential. So those who had bought matinee tickets received their money back and meanwhile the sale for the Saturday concert went on until everything was taken.

The Victorian, with the choir on board, arrived at Sand Point at 7:30 o'clock and the singers were taken by a special train to the Union depot, and hurried to the Opera House, but it was 9:30 before the patient audience, filling every space in the house, saw the curtain rise.

A St. John Welcome

It disclosed a pretty picture and one calling for warm applause. Ten tiers deep, twenty in a row, sat the choir with Dr. Henry Coward as director. Each wore a pretty red rose, the gift of His Worship Mayor Prince. Then was shown the visitors what a St. John welcome is. The applause which greeted the singers continued for some moments, grew more hearty and still became louder until the heartiness of it found response from the warm greeting arose and cheered for St. John, and there were answering cheers and continued applause in the audience, a smile was on every face on the stage and in the great assembly of citizens, and as moments passed and the resounding welcome continued the scene was one worth remembering.

Dr. Coward thanked the people and made apology for the delay, which he said was to be blamed entirely upon Father Neptune. In explanation, however, they would sing for the St. John people as long as they would listen.

As Never Before

God Save the King was then sung by the choir, and sung as it has never been before in this city. Breathing love, devotion and loyalty to and a heartfelt prayer for the sovereign the melody filled the house, now low, then swelling into a grand appeal to the King of Kings. It was a revelation, and showed at once what

CARVILL SCORES OVER FLEMMING

Latter Makes Fatal Admissions About Valley Railway

In Joint Debate at Meduqic Opposition Speaker Has All the Honors—Government Fighting in the Last Ditch in York

Meduqic, N. B., March 26.—The joint debate held at Meduqic tonight proved a decided victory for the opposition. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and Mr. Carvill in a masterly speech of one and a half hours clearly showed the electors the course to pursue if they want a standard road built down the St. John River valley. He proved by parliamentary documents, and by reading all correspondence between Mr. Pugsley, Mr. Hazen and the St. John Valley Railway Company that the Hazen's administration have blocked the Valley road from the beginning, and showed conclusively who was to blame for the delay. The joint chairman of the meeting were Hurd Edwards and Geo. P. Olla. The speakers were F. B. Carvill, M. P., J. K. Fleming, M. P., and the opposition candidate, George Burden.

Mr. Burden was the first speaker and received a great ovation as he arose to address the electors.

Mr. Burden said he had been chosen by the largest convention ever held in Fredericton. He was for a standard road down the valley first, last and all the time. He made an excellent speech and was given a fine reception.

F. B. Carvill wasted no time in preliminaries but held the audience for one and a half hours with his presentation of the Valley railway scheme. It was not a purely local affair but interested the people all along the valley from Grand Falls to St. John. He was working in the interests of the people who wanted the road and he proposed giving the people the facts of the case. He had been accused by the Conservative papers of "blocking" the project but he proposed to show who the "blockers" were.

He then told of the delegation of citizens to Fredericton and the pilgrimage to Ottawa and of the federal government having brought down legislation accepting the Hazen government proposition in full, if the plans were up to the standard of the N. T. R. in New Brunswick. This would give a 1 per cent grade. The legislation had been passed in spite of opposition from Mr. Crockett of York.

Mr. Malcolm had made a boni fide offer to construct the road but the Hazen administration had entered it a bluff, yet they refused to call the bluff. They knew if they accepted Mr. Malcolm's offer the road would be built but that they did not want.

Mr. Carvill's remarks were frequently applauded and he was cheered lustily as he sat down.

Mr. Fleming evaded the main issue and gave considerable attention to the Malcolm letter. He wanted the electors to know that the Hazen government was not going to be forced to sign bonds to build the valley road. The standard, he claimed, was too high and the government simply would not build it. He believed that in

In Dread of Something

You Can Scarcely Tell What—It May Be Hysteria, Insanity, Nervous Collapse

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

When the nervous system breaks down you live in constant dread of something terrible about to happen. Physical suffering cannot be compared to the mental agonies of the nervous wreck who fears that his mind may give way or that his body may be paralyzed. In this condition you must suffer alone for friends cannot understand or sympathize with you. They tell you to cheer up or that it is only imagination. You can only throw off this depression when the nerve cells are restored to health by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Your digestive system has failed to support proper nourishment to the supply and you are compelled to seek aid from other sources.

It will take the patient and persistent treatment, and there is no way by which you can secure better health and vigor than by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The best way to restore the nervous system is to take such a critical condition is reached, such symptoms as sleeplessness, headache, nervous indigestion, muscular weakness, loss of energy, failure of memory and power of concentration, irritability and discouragement, and a failure of the nervous system and warn you of the approach of serious trouble.

five years the road would be under construction in all the river counties. He switched off for a time on reciprocity and declared that if the resolution passed Canada would be gobbled up by the United States.

Mr. Carvill closed the debate in a fifteen minute speech and the gathering dispersed with cheers for Mr. Burden, the opposition candidate.

TONIGHT'S MEETING

If there had been no demand from the people for civic reform, and no agitation for the adoption of the elective commission plan, would the city council have asked for a royal commission to frame a new charter and reform the system of city government?

Every citizen knows that such a course would never have been suggested. The gentlemen who are clamoring for a royal commission are perfectly satisfied with the present system. It is only because a change is proposed, with force enough behind the movement to make it formidable, that the royal commission scheme is brought forward. Its promoters evidently believe that by this method they may prevent the people from bringing about the needed reforms, and save the interests of the city at heart they would be working with the Citizens' Committee. The latter have no aim other than to give the city better government, and they find certain aldermen and officials putting obstacles in their way. These opponents, however, have gone one step too far. They have proposed to take away from the citizens the right to say how they shall be governed. If we cannot frame a system of local self-government without the intervention of the provincial authorities we may as well invite some one of these aldermen or officials to assume the role of dictator, and to govern the city to suit himself.

Tonight's indignation meeting at Keith's Assembly rooms should be of such a character as will convince the eight aldermen and the members of the legislature who must pass upon the bill that these aldermen had no mandate from the people to implore outside help in a purely local affair.

ONTARIO TAX REFORM

Sir James Whitney has dashed the hopes of tax reformers in Ontario by opposing a measure calling for a lower tax upon improvements than upon land. Sir James declared there was practically no demand for it. To this the Ottawa Citizen, Conservative, replies:—

"The provincial premier must surely be aware that there has been a quite general demand for the amendments proposed by Ottawa's Conservative member in the provincial house. And the demand has come from the very backbone of the community, from the wage earners and workmen of the province. Regarding the fact that 170 newspapers throughout the country have joined in the advancement of the movement for tax reform, and that some 250 municipalities have asked for the privilege of adopting the measure should the rate-payers ask for it, the further significant fact remains that over 200 labor unions have passed resolutions favoring such legislation. The most important trade association in Canada, the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, at its last convention at Port Arthur endorsed the reform and sent a petition along these lines to the premier himself. The Citizen points out that there has been an agitation for tax reform in this direction since 1891, when petitions were presented to the legislature asking that vacant lands held for speculation be taxed to the full value. It says further:— "It is unfortunate that Premier Whitney has not seen fit to meet the wishes of a large number of rate-payers in the province in this matter. The advocates of tax reform, however, are not discouraged and, convinced of the ultimate triumph of the system proposed, will keep up the work of educating the people to demand an obvious measure of justice."

THE COMMISSION PLAN

Mr. Joseph W. Folk, ex-governor of Missouri, wrote an article last year on "The Hope of the City." Discussing city government, he said:— "The best plan that has been devised thus far is the commission form of government. Under this plan a certain number of commissioners—say five—are elected and the entire control of the city is in their hands. They constitute the law-making body, appoint the other officials and have direction of the law-enforcing power. The commission plan of city government is a simplified form of government, and the simpler government can be made the more government for the people there will be. The more complicated government can be made the less government for the people there will be and the more government for

THE MYSTIC CALL

"For lo, the winter is past,"—The Song of Solomon, ch. II. Ho, the voice of spring is calling. Where the dreary fields are sleeping. And a whisper, softly falling. Sets the buried life to creeping; It is calling: "Waken! Waken!" Till the barren trees are shaken. And the buds that cling in drowsing. Swell with leaves that they are housing.

And the voice of Springtime forces All the sap until it rushes Through the hidden ways and courses. That it left in Wintry bushes; And the call speeds on, and passes All the roots of all the grasses. With its word of warning flowers. For the world of sleeping flowers.

And the dream-held bees will chuckle In their sleep, and scent the bursting Of the rose and hyacinth leading. With the nectar for their thirsting; Through the orchard goes a thrilling Of the blossoms intent for spring. To the breezes in their playing. With the shine and shadow straying.

Ho, the voice of Spring is speeding. Over across the hills and hollows. All the roses and the grasses. In a song that swiftly follows. Till the birds star have heard it. On the wings that shall come after. And their wings are thrumming, thrumming. For they're coming, coming, coming.

Bud and blossom, bough and berry, And the rose and hyacinth leading. Sense the calling, sweet and merry. With its olden promise leading. And we rise with hearts enraptured Of the song that we have captured. Of the song that lifts with laughter, Of the days that shall come after. —Wilbur D. Nesbit, in Philadelphia Ledger.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Those who have kept themselves posted in the general trend of events know that it is only part of a general movement, spreading over the civilized world. It is a struggle for growing intelligence and greater nobility of sentiment to be faithfully represented by those to whom they have intrusted the management of the city, state or nation. A long time ago, and wrote many allegorical fables. At the end of one of them he summed up with the moral:— "If you want your business done, go, if you don't send." Sundry philosophers knew this centuries ago, but the body of the people are only beginning to find it out now. They have become sick, sore and disgusted by the way they have been manipulated by men of low ideals to whom they have been compelled to delegate the power of government. They have learned at tremendous cost that it is not safe to delegate the power over their welfare for even a brief period of time and that in order to be faithfully represented they must keep the reins of government in their own hands. This is called "popular government" and it is an example of how for petty spite the men to whom the city has delegated governmental powers for but the brief period of one year are ready to play the part of Judas and betray the people that they are supposed to represent. Not delegated government is not safe, never was or never will be. When the intelligence and self-respect of any city, province, state or nation reaches a certain level, they reach for the reins of government in their own hands, and a personal interest. The commission form of government is merely the executive officers directed by the citizens at large and subject like other employees, in private concerns, to instant correction or dismissal for incompetency or dishonesty. Let us take one step in the march for the commission form of government. JAMES E. FRASER.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S VAST NEW PARK

A governmental measure was passed at the request of the British Columbia Legislature regarding 368,000 acres on Vancouver Island, in the vicinity of Buttle lake, for the purpose of a national public park from which prospectors and miners, as well as settlers are to be excluded.

The government sent an expedition party to this district last summer in charge of the present reserve has been made.

Some parts of the new park had never, as far as known, been visited by white men, and the grandeur of the scenery has been described by Mr. Ellison as equal to anything in the Rocky mountains, or in Switzerland.

Buttle lake, a body of water eighteen miles long with an average width of 1.4 miles, is said to be without question one of the most beautiful mountain-set sheets of water in the world, while the waterfalls which come into it from every side, would, it is said, develop sufficient power for all the requirements of the province. It is the intention of the government to open up a road so that motor cars may run through to Buttle lake, while other avenues of communication will be provided, then the park itself will be developed as rapidly as the government is in a position to do so.

Considerable interest has already been manifested in the new park, and its special attractions for mountain climbers. It is stated that the Alpine Club of Canada intends establishing one of its summer camps at the lake.

It is believed that eventually a large revenue will accrue to the province through the attraction of tourists to Strathcona park.

WELL RECOMMENDED.

Two negro men came up to the outskirts of a crowd where Senator Bailey was making a campaign speech. After listening to the speech for about ten minutes, one of them turned to his companion and asked:

"Who am dat man, Sambo?"

"Ah don know what his name is, Sambo replied, 'but he certainly do recommend 'hissself' nobly.'"—Success.

In going down the stream of life the average man tries to make a noise like a motor boat.

IS THINNESS EMBARRASSING?

Undoubtedly it is to many a Maiden and Youth—While Even Those Well Along in Years Prefer Well Rounded Figures

Prescription Increases Weight

A scrawny, gauging youth or maiden is almost invariably slighted, overlooked and ridiculed in any social gathering. There is something about a plump or well proportioned figure which attracts not only the attention of the opposite sex, but also the admiration of the friends and acquaintances.

People with a proper amount of flesh are favored in all walks of life, while those who are unadorned, undeveloped and frequently miserable for life. The difference lies in the power of the digestive functions and the ability of the blood and nerves to absorb and distribute over the body the nutrition exacted from the food.

This thin person is abnormally weak and lacks the power to absorb and distribute the nutrition exacted from the food. The stomach and intestines are unable to act or separate from all kinds of food and drink.

A recent accident has proven that nature can do more than we think. A certain other day, a girl of three pounds of flesh during treatment, while the general health and strength also improved wonderfully.

Get in a half pint daily three ounces of essence of peppermint, which adds one ounce of essential essence; shake and let stand two hours; then add one ounce of inductive cod-liver oil (not cod-liver). Shake well and take a teaspoonful before and after meals, drinking plenty of water between meals and when retiring.

Most artistic study. Accompanying her are an expert electrician and full equipment of electrical paraphernalia. This attraction is claimed by the management to be the biggest novelty the Lyric has offered since opening its doors to the public. The pictures will embrace four varied subjects.

THE STAR

No matter how good the shows may be that other houses are giving the Lyric Star in Union Hall, and managers of the Lyric are in the front rank as well. Tonight's bill is announced as a three-reel program featuring a Biograph drama entitled "Simple Fishers," a strong Selig was drama "The Spy," and a comedy "The American Count." Three Biograph reels of film and three pictures of the Lyric are also featured. Miss Yvonne will return for a final week in the Lyric, the operatic comedy "Madame Sherwood" and "Every Little Movement."

THE ARRANGEMENT OF MILITARY DISTRICTS

From orders received on Saturday by Col. W. M. Humphrey, D. O. C., military district No. 8, will cease to be known as such after May 1, and will in future be styled district No. 6, taking orders from Halifax, which will be the headquarters for the maritime provinces. Brig-Gen. Brury will command the division, issuing his orders to Halifax. Col. Humphrey will be chief of the administrative staff. Capt. E. J. Dowers, signalling officer of the division, and Vet. Lieut. H. S. MacFarlane, of the 7th Regt. C. A., veterinary officer, succeeding Capt. W. H. Simon, Military district No. 8, 9, and 12 will disappear after May 1 and the offices in Charlottetown and St. John will be closed.

The annual training of the 2nd Fusiliers will commence in the drill shed to-day. The members of the regiment are expected to assemble in the drill shed on the issue of clothing.

An innovation on the Allan liner Violette, which arrived on Saturday is a portable shower. The plan has been adopted by the company. The shower is being run by the Victoria was a member of the Liverpool police department.

About the Time it Takes For a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Work on the Food and Bring Relief

There is no long wait between the time you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and the feeling which will bring to you an overloaded stomach. It gets busy in a jiffy and quickly sets things to rights in that tired and disordered stomach. It goes right at the work of digesting the food it finds lodged there and in no time at all has the breath sweetened, the coating on the tongue disappeared and you are under conditions that you even have a stomach.

This is one of the chief recommendations for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—that they don't take forever to accomplish the purpose for which you take them. You need not wait for such or two to work when you take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get relief in a few minutes. You can get relief in a few minutes. You can get relief in a few minutes.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists everywhere. Price, 50 cents per box. A trial package will be sent if you will write Dr. A. Stuart Co., 129 Stuart Bldg., Montreal, Mich.

DUTY OF CHURCH TO BATTLE LIQUOR EVIL

George Keirstead Heard in Strong Address Before the Every Day Club

An audience that crowded the Every Day Club beyond its seating capacity last evening listened to and at times applauded on the relation of the church to the cause of temperance. He defined first the purpose for which the church stands, and pointed out that it must oppose whatever reasons. The first is economic. Drink lessens a man's efficiency. The great corporations demand sober men. Another reason is moral. Drink makes a man mean. He is not fit to be a citizen. He is not fit to be a citizen. He is not fit to be a citizen.

Society may not say to a man that he may not take a drink, but it has a right to deal with the drink traffic. The church must oppose the drink traffic. The church must oppose the drink traffic. The church must oppose the drink traffic.

The first duty of the church is to arouse public sentiment. There are enough passive people in St. John who, if they were aroused to join the active workers, would sweep the saloons from the city. The church, the temperance societies and other agencies for the advancement of human welfare should cooperate and co-operate in this work. The church should be in full sympathy with the Every Day Club in its work.

Mr. Keirstead dealt ably and forcibly with each point raised in his eloquent address, and was several times interrupted by applause. He concluded by reciting with the expression a short poem of deep human interest by Sam Walter Foss.

The president of the club stated that in its first two weeks an exclusively total abstinence club it had gained 80 members. He expressed his desire to join and aid the club in taking up some aggressive temperance work. New members may join any evening, as the club opens every evening. Its weekly business meeting will be held tonight, several new members cannot be persuaded the next evening's meeting. Active temperance workers are taking a new interest in the club as it is now reorganized.

Doctor Told Her She Did Not Have a Pint of Good Blood in Her Body.

Mrs. Dorothea P. Cormier, Middle Sackville, N.B., says:
"In the spring of 1897 I was all run down, and the doctor told me I had not a pint of good blood in my body. I took different remedies from my doctor, but they did not seem to do me any good. After having taken a lot of different kinds of medicine, and did not seem to benefit me, I was almost in despair and did not know what to do until my husband met a lady and told her about my sickness and she told him to try Burdock Blood Bitters as she had used it and the greatest benefit from using it. My husband went and bought me a bottle, and after having taken it I felt better, so I kept on taking the bottle after another until I had finished it in a month then I was strong and well. I am positive that my being cured is due to the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. I have since then I have not felt very well and had a lot of work to do. I thought I could not get another bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and after I had taken two more bottles to do a lot of work in the summer, and I never felt better in my life. In the winter of 1908 I had Pneumonia, and it left me with a severe pain in the left side. Every morning when I would get out of bed I had to sit down for a while it was so painful. After I had used Burdock Blood Bitters the pain disappeared completely. It has also cured me of bleeding piles. I have received no such benefit from any other medicine. If you can publish this as it may help others as it has me."

WAS TERRIBLY AFFLICTED WITH LAME BACK.

Could Not Sweep Floor.
Three Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble it causes. But they can't help it. If more work is laid upon them than they can stand and it is not to be wondered they get out of order.

A lame back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid any further suffering from kidney trouble.

Mrs. N. Larmour, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you that I have cured my back. About a year ago I had a lame back and was unable to do any work. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I only used three boxes and I am as well as ever. My back is now as good as new. I am glad to hear that you are curing so many lame backs and kidney troubles."

Doan's Kidney Pills, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25. All druggists or mailed direct on receipt of post by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE ONLY WAY

The number of deaths resulting from tuberculosis, typhoid fever, scarlet fever and many other diseases are carefully recorded and tabulated by the authorities. But of the number of deaths directly traceable to worry no such account is kept, yet all physicians know that these are by no means small.

One constant source of worry and anxiety for the wage-earner or man of small means is how he may make provision for old age when his earnings are but little more than sufficient to provide for daily needs. To such a one the Canadian Government Annuities scheme is indeed a blessing. In no other way can he get such wonderfully good returns for his "little more" he may have to invest, for it will, when his annuity begins, enable him to spend the principle as well as the interest therein without his income becoming smaller no matter how long he may live.

Further particulars on the subject may be obtained on application to your postmaster, or to the Superintendent of Government Annuities, Ottawa, to whom all letters should be posted.

A Richibucto School Teacher

Once a Dyspeptic—Now Well,
Thanks to Father Morrey's No. 11.
Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 17th 1909.
Father Morrey Med. Co., Ltd.,
I have been teaching school for upwards of thirty years, during the last twenty-five of which I have suffered seriously with stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia.

I have tried many remedies, and while I would get temporary relief from some of them, yet the old trouble would return, and with it the suffering only known to the chronic dyspeptic.

Last year I had made up my mind to abandon my profession, feeling that in my condition I could neither do justice to myself or to the many pupils under my charge. A friend suggested to me that I try Father Morrey's No. 11 Stomach Tablets. I did so, and have continued to use them with the result that my stomach is now cured—my indigestion and dyspepsia gone and I feel as well as ever.

I have been able to continue in my profession, and feel that I am once more enjoying my work and am able to give justice to the fifty-four pupils under my care.

Yours Gratefully,
MRS. MARY CHRYSTAL

Are you one of the many thousands who, like Miss Chrystal, are prevented from doing the best work, or really enjoying life, by stomach trouble? If you are you cannot do better than get a did-take Father Morrey's No. 11 Tablets. Each No. 11 Tablet, when dissolved in the stomach, will digest 1/4 pounds of food—a good, hearty meal—so that no matter how weak your stomach may be, No. 11 Tablets will enable you to get the nourishment out of your food and build up your strength, while the stomach, thus relieved, recovers its vigor. Get a box at your dealer's or from the Father Morrey's Medicine Co., Ltd., Montreal, Que.

SCHOONER TAY WAS ON LEDGES

St. John Lumber Carrier Towed Into Rockland Badly Damaged—Had Cargo for Boston From Here

A despatch from Rockland, Me., to the Times says: "The United States Revenue Cutter Andromeda today brought in the British lumber schooner 'Tay' bound from St. John, N. B., for Boston which the cutter rescued yesterday from the ledge of Isle au Haut at the lower entrance of Penobscot Bay. The schooner, after seven hours pounding on the rocks yesterday, was badly damaged. Her rudder and steering gear are gone, she is leaking badly and her decks are awash and she has lost part of her deckload. Capt. T. W. Scott, her master, said that the buoy that marks the ledge had sunk and that, while he was hugging the shore closely for smooth water, he had no knowledge of any danger. The vessel is owned by Peter McIntyre, of St. John, N. B."

PRESENTATION IN THE ALLAN LINE OFFICES

J. B. Wallace Receives Pipe and Pouch—Has Been Promoted to Post in Philadelphia

There was a pleasing ceremony this morning in the Allan line offices, when J. B. Wallace, manager of the company's business here, acting on behalf of the staff, presented to J. B. Wallace a pipe and tobacco pouch. Mr. Wallace, who is a member of the staff here, has been promoted to be assistant manager in the company's Philadelphia office and will leave tonight for Montreal to receive instructions before taking up his new duties in the Quarter city.

In making the presentation this morning, Mr. Wallace referred to Mr. Wallace's splendid record while in the employ of the company and wished him success in his new field of labor. Mr. Wallace, though taken by surprise, made an appropriate reply thanking the donors for their gift and good wishes.

Mr. Wallace is a native of Arr, Scotland, and has been in Canada only about two years, so that it speaks well for his abilities that he has so soon earned such a fine promotion.

BOY OF 15 IN TROUBLE

Arthur Connelly or Ryan Charged With Theft and Other Offences—Three Stores Broken Into

A fifteen year old prisoner, Arthur Connelly, alias Ryan, pleaded an emphatic denial this morning before Judge Ritchie in the police court to a lengthy list of charges against him, and was remanded until tomorrow at 10 o'clock. He said his parents were dead, and he named no persons as guarantors, saying that he generally slept at night in the Salvation Army Home, having no place else to go.

He was found yesterday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock by Policeman Wittman in German street, and as he could not satisfactorily account for his presence there at that time, he was locked up. The following charges have been made against him: Theft of a revolver from the store of John E. Wilson, into whose premises it is thought he forced entrance, carrying a loaded revolver, breaking and entering the stores of O'Neil Bros., North Market street, and T. Collins & Co., North Market street, and stealing from both of these places.

The cash drawer in the store of J. E. Wilson was pried into by some one, but there was little money in it at the time. Only ninety-eight cents in change was found on Connelly, but other articles as follows were found on his person: One new cloth cap, one new necktie, thirteen keys, a padlock and staple, some packages of matches, a box of shoe polish, and two cases of chocolate. The revolver which he was charged with carrying was identified this morning as having been in the store of J. E. Wilson.
