CANADIANS WREST 1500 YDS. OF GROUND FROM GERMANS

Men from Dominion in "Gallant and Successful Assault" Southeast of Zillebeke, Recapture British Position, Driving Back the Enemy Along a Front of More Than Fifteen Hundred Yards.

Heavy Losses Inflicted on Germans When Canadians Charged—Make Prisoners of Three Officers and Over Hundred Men—British Carry Out Successful Raids Near Ypres—Australians Figure in Brilliant Dash.

HOLD GROUND WON DESPITE HOURS OF SEVERE SHELLING

London, June 14.—Canadian troops, in what the British official statement describes as "a gallant and successful assault" southeast of Zillebeke, recaptured a former British position over a front of more than 1500 yards. Notwithstanding a severe shelling, the Canadians retained the ground gained, which is being consolidated.

The text of the statement reads: "At 1.30 in the morning the Canadian troops made a gallant and successful assault southeast of Zillebeke. Their objective was our old position in that neighborhood, all of which was captured on the front attacked, extending from the southern portion of Sanctuary Wood to a point about 1,000 yards north of Hill 60, total front of over 1,500 yards.

"In the course of the assault heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy and three officers and 123 men were taken prisoner.

"Our troops were subjected to a severe shelling for several hours after gaining the position, but were well supported by our artillery, and retain the ground gained, which is being consolidated. Heavy bombardments by the enemy have continued during the day to which our artillery replied effectively."

"Attempts of the hostile forces to counter-attack were frustrated by our artillery fire.

"Last night our troops carried out successful raids northeast of Ypres and south of the Bois Grenier. At the latter place a party of Australian troops entered the enemy's trenches, causing him a known loss of twelve killed, and probably others, and capturing six prisoners. Two trench mortars were destroyed. The raiding party returned safely, the only casualty being one officer and one man, both slightly wounded.

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing of importance to report.

"The enemy put 300 shells into Mariocourt during the day. Our artillery bombarded hostile positions about La Bolestelle.

"There was less shelling than usual around Souchez and the Lees salient."

Line of Austrian Trenches Taken by Italians.

Rome, June 13, via London, (7.17 p. m.)—After a preliminary artillery bombardment, Italian troops made an attack in Lagarina Valley and captured a strong Austrian line, the war office announced today. Austrian troops attempted to advance in several sectors, but met with checks.

Along the Posina-Astico front there was a very heavy bombardment on both sides. Infantry of the enemy penetrated Molino, but was driven out by our accurate fire.

"On the Asiago Plateau the situation is unchanged.

"In the Sugana Valley on the night of June 12 and on the following morning detachments of the enemy attempted to advance east of Maso Torrent, but were repulsed with considerable losses.

"On the Carnia front and along the Isonzo there were artillery encounters and minor engagements. An attempt of the enemy to make an attack in the Montebelluna zone was frustrated by our fire.

"Between the Adige and Brenia there is heavy artillery fighting. We are making progress in the face of stubborn opposition by the enemy.

"In the Lagarina Valley we made effective artillery preparation. We took by assault the strong line from Parmesen Height to the east of Alu and Amisano mountains and along the whole Rio Romina. The enemy immediately launched counter-attacks on our new positions, all of which were repulsed."

Turkish Statement.
Constantinople, June 13, via London (3.55 p. m.)—The Turkish war office today issued the following communication:

"In the course of fighting on the right wings in the Caucasus, we captured a number of prisoners and a great quantity of field stretchers and trench implements.

"The battle referred to in yesterday's announcement, which resulted in the annihilation of a Russian cavalry force of 1,000 men, occurred near the river, south of Tchemtsurek and east of the village of Amaschen.

"Five hostile aeroplanes dropped about fifty bombs on Smyrna yesterday. Some men, women and children

KING VICTOR ASKS BOSELLI TO FORM NEW MINISTRY

Veteran Italian Parliamentarian Will Draw from Most Eminent Men of All Parties

Paris, June 13.—Signor Paolo Boselli, veteran Italian parliamentarian and former minister of public instruction, who has been requested by King Victor Emmanuel to form a ministry, in succession to that headed by Premier Antonio Salandra, probably will take the presidency of the council without portfolio, says a Havas despatch from Milan today.

Signor Boselli is expected to surround himself with eminent men of all parties in forming the new ministry, the despatch adds.

MAILS FROM CANADA VIA NEW YORK

New Arrangements Made by Hon. Mr. Casgrain for Mails to Great Britain.

London, June 13.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—Hon. T. C. Casgrain, postmaster-general, will leave for Paris on Thursday, where he will cooperate with the trade commission there and in the provinces, staying several weeks in France, from where he will visit the Canadian lines. During the past week he has visited the Canadian hospitals, including Bushy Park, which his brother, Col. H. R. Casgrain, commands. He also visited the Duchess of Connaught's hospital at Cliveden, which he highly praised.

The Hon. Mr. Casgrain was taken over the general post office, London, by Mr. Pease, postmaster-general, where he acknowledged having obtained a few ideas which he may carry back. He informs our correspondent that he has now arranged for all Canadian mails, with the exception of newspapers in bulk and parcels, to be carried via New York, if quicker. This will offer some relief to bankers and merchants who have experienced delay with bulky documents.

OFFICERS' CASUALTIES IN BRITISH ARMY FOR MONTH OF APRIL 1,271

London, Thursday, May 31, (Correspondence)—Officers' casualty lists show that during the month of April the British army lost 316 officers killed, 908 wounded and 49 missing, a total of 1,271, which brings the total losses since the beginning of the war to 36,304, of which 8,108 have been killed or died of wounds, 18,344 wounded and 1,852 missing.

Although the gross total shows an average of two wounded to one killed for April is rather lower at three wounded to one killed. During the month the Indian contingent lost 47 killed, 72 wounded; Canadians, 18 killed, 96 wounded; Lancashire, 20 killed, 49 wounded; 12 missing; Field artillery, 15 killed, 43 wounded; Royal Fusiliers, 11 killed, 19 wounded; Yorkshire, 10 killed, 29 wounded; Flying Corps, 3 killed, 16 wounded, 3 missing.

Major General Kemball is reported wounded, and seven lieutenant-colonels are killed.

MAJ. C. H. M'LEAN IS TRANSFERRED

RELAX LORD'S DAY ACT FOR SOME INDUSTRIES

Hamilton, Ont., June 13.—The question of grappling with the increased shortage of labor by suspension of the Lord's Day Act in the case of certain industries, as proposed by the executive committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which opened its annual meeting here today, and the report of the legislation committee, advocating the same measure and chronicling an application to the Dominion government, which Mr. J. H. Shaw, introducer of the report, stated had been successful, led to a sharp discussion this afternoon. After several members had registered a protest, and others had pointed out that in the present crisis it would not do to have too close to the line, the proposal was eventually endorsed.

The legislation committee reported satisfactory working of the Workmen's Compensation Act. Regarding the application to the government for a relaxation of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act in favor of certain industries, the weight of argument was unanswerable. "The Lord's Day cannot be a day of rest for our naval and military reserves," said the report, "and it should not be a compulsory day of rest for our producing forces."

The report of the membership committee showed that, for the first time in the history of the association, there had been a decrease in membership, who had fallen off in one year from 2,061 to 2,468.

FEWER CAPTIVES OWING TO HASTE OF TEUTON RETREAT

ENEMY NOT KEEN TO MEET RUSSIAN ONSLAUGHT, RETIRES WITH ONLY SEMBLANCE OF DEFENCE AT SEVERAL POINTS—PRISONERS TAKEN NOW NUMBER 115,700.

Petrograd, June 13, via London.—The war office announcement of today says that the retreat of the Austro-Hungarian and German troops along the Galician and Volhynian fronts is proceeding so rapidly that only a small number of prisoners have been captured, in addition to those previously reported. The total is given as about 115,700, as compared with approximately 114,700 announced yesterday. The statement says:

"On account of the fact that in many places the Austro-Hungarian and Austro-German troops withdrew rapidly before the blows of our southern army, the number of prisoners has increased only very little. The total now amounts to about 1,700 officers and 114,000 men.

"The enemy left enormous quantities of military booty everywhere in the territory evacuated.

754 Officers Captured by General Letchitzky.

General Letchitzky's command since the opening of the campaign has taken three commanders of regiments, 754 officers, 37,532 men, 49 guns, 120 machine guns, 21 bomb throwers and 11 mine throwers.

"Northwest of Rejtsche, after dislodging the Germans, we approached the river Stokhod. West of Lutsk we occupied Terehin, and continued to press the enemy back.

"On the Strips front, north of the village of Bobulintze, an obstinate struggle continues. We have taken the village of Zarvanitz, after a desperate defence. In many sectors we discovered defences hastily constructed with the object of strengthening previously prepared positions.

"On the Dnieper sector and further south, our troops having crossed the river, after fighting, captured many fortified positions, and also the town of Zales Siczky (northwest of Czernewitz) and continue to advance. The village of Horodenska, northwest of Zales Siczky, is also in our hands."

"On the Pruth sector, between Doyan and Niehokolout, our troops approached the left bank of the river. Near the bridgehead of Czernewitz hot fighting continues. In the evacuated territory the enemy left an enormous quantity of military booty.

"On the Dubno-Kosin railroad he abandoned a network of wires, a great quantity of cartridges, bomb throwers and automobiles, a narrow gauge railway, with a great quantity of cars, and a storehouse full of provisions.

Near the village of Malymitasa he left intact a monument commemorating Austrian victories, in the shape of a high column surmounted by an Austrian eagle.

"At the village of Sadagora, north of Czernewitz we seized a great storehouse of engineering material, and an overhead railway. An order of the day found on a dead German officer, indicating the position of the enemy troops, contains the following expression 'and other defeated Austrians.'

ARE SHIPPING WHOLE OF THEIR OUTPUT TO OTTAWA

Production of Porcupine Gold Fields and Rand Mines in S. Africa to Account of British Gov't.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, June 13.—It is understood that the whole production of the Porcupine Gold Fields and that of the Rand Mines of South Africa is being sent to Ottawa either to the account of the Bank of England or as a direct deposit of the British Government.

The Rand has been producing about $4,000,000 a week for months now and the receipts of this would explain the possibility of such heavy bullion shipments to New York as have occurred lately. The South African consignments are understood to have come via Japan.

NOMINATIONS IN NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax, June 13.—There were no acclamations on either side in the nominations for the Provincial Legislature which took place in Nova Scotia today. Straight tickets were nominated in each of the shires and in Pictou and Cumberland one labor candidate in each place was also nominated. In Pictou the labor candidate has hitherto been a Liberal, and it is probable that party will feel his candidature most. In Cumberland the independent candidate himself the workingman's candidate but his previous party affiliations are not stated.

There is no doubt the Conservatives are in this campaign with more confidence of success than for several elections past. Since the general elections of 1911 four bye-election contests have been won by the Conservatives who captured Liberal ridings. One of these was Victoria County, where Pre-

OPTIMISTIC AS TO THE OUTCOME OF CASEMENT TRIAL

Philadelphia Attorney Who is to Aid Prisoner Hops to be Grant'd Solicitor's Privilege in London Court.

London, June 13.—After a long consultation today with Sir Roger Casement in the Tower of London, Michael Francis Doyle, of Philadelphia, who has been retained to assist the baronet at his coming trial on the charge of high treason, declared this afternoon that he was highly pleased at the nature of the evidence for the baronet's defence, and was optimistic as to the result of the trial.

Although local opinion is virtually unanimous that Attorney Doyle will have no legal status before the court, and will be allowed only to consult with counsel outside, the lawyer is hopeful, in view of the courtesies that already have been extended him, that he may have a solicitor's privilege within the court.

Before the beginning of the trial, on June 25, Attorney Doyle is going to Ireland to study the case from the start.

Attorney Doyle had been returned for twenty years, his colleague having been defeated by Phillip McLeod two years ago. In the constituency in this election Premier Murray is being opposed by Col. Hayes, who previously was the Conservative organizer for Nova Scotia and who knows the county well.

Five more members than the previous house contained are to be elected now by virtue of an act passed two years ago which increased the representation of Halifax county from three to five members, increased Cape Breton from two to four, and Cumberland from two to three. The votes of the military in camp at Aldershot and elsewhere are to be taken, the Government providing that transportation shall be given to the men in order that they may poll their vote in the section on which their name appears.

THE FREE PRESS APPROVES STAND SIR SAM TOOK

Minister of Militia Suggested Abandonment of Part of Ypres Salient.

HEAVY LOSSES WOULD HAVE BEEN AVERTED. Free Press Condemns Montreal Mail and Other Papers for Attitude Towards Sir Sam in Connection with the Affair.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Ont., June 13.—The Ottawa Free Press today condemns the Montreal Daily Mail and other papers for their attitude towards General Sir Sam Hughes in connection with the Ypres salient affair. The Free Press in support of the Minister's conduct, and in reply to the criticism that he should have followed up his interview with Kitchener by writing him a letter as Kitchener suggested, publishes a letter from General Hughes to Kitchener at that time, urging consideration of the necessity for maintaining the Ypres salient. It may be stated that the representatives of the Press were told of this letter privately by the Minister last week, but were asked to make no reference to it at the time.

CHIEF JUSTICE M'LEOD'S PORTRAIT UNVEILED IN SUPREME COURT

Gift of Barristers' Society— Accepted on Behalf of the Bench by Mr. Justice White.

Fredericton, June 13.—A life sized portrait in oils, of Hon. Ezekiel McLeod, Chief Justice of New Brunswick, was unveiled at the Supreme Court this morning with fitting ceremonies. Mr. A. R. Slipp, K.C., presented the gift from the Barristers' Society, in an appropriate speech. Mr. Justice White, next in seniority, expressed the pleasure it gave the members of the Bench to accept the portrait. Chief Justice McLeod made a suitable acknowledgment, thanking the members from the bottom of his heart.

This painting from the hand of Mr. Robert Harris, C.M.G.E.R.C.A., is one of the most successful in any gallery of portraits in Canada today. The following were the common motions today: J. J. F. Winslow for Eastern Electric Development Co., applied for time until the next term to apply for a writ of certiorari for the purpose of appealing from the decision of the Commissioners on Public Utilities in the case of the Town of Seakville vs. the Eastern Electric Development Co., and read affidavits of Raleigh Triton, barrister. The court held that they had no power to extend the time for making application, but the company could apply for writ at a later day in this term.

SIR SAM

Seaside Park Scene of G. Presented to Band Minister of Militia Fine Showing—Fore

SIR SAM HUGHES' PRONOUNCE TO OFFICERS OF... "So long as I am Minister of Militia I will charge of human lives unless he is efficient in battle. I would sooner send an American troop than an officer who is not capable of taking charge of his men. For I value the soldier as highly as I do that of any other."

Yesterday's military celebration and carnival will be recorded in the annals of the history of St. John as an epoch making event.

Never before did Seaside Park see such a throng of people. Thousands and thousands assembled to witness the most elaborate military display ever conducted in New Brunswick.

Long before 1 o'clock people were flocking to the Park for the purpose of obtaining an elevated position near the field wherein the ceremonies were to be held. Obeying the injunction to "come early and avoid the rush" several hundreds took their lunch baskets with them and picnicked under the shade of the overhanging boughs. Hundreds arrived in autos; thousands were conveyed by the special service street cars. Every car was packed, people clinging to the sides with only one foot on the running boards, all bound for the seaside resort—the Mecca of the day.

While awaiting the arrival of the Minister of Militia the people made merry enjoying the different forms of amusement to be found on the grounds. The booths and stalls were kept busy during the entire day, clusters of people here and there were partaking of ice cream and cake, or sipping coffee in the intervals of conversation.

Sir Sam Hughes and his staff, including Major General Benson, Colonel Winter, Major Jones, were guests at the Cliff Club for luncheon. The other guests present were: Lieut-Governor Wood, Mayor Hayes, Brigadier General McLean, Lieut-Col. Powell, Lieut-Col. G. W. Fowler, 194th Col. Beer 140th, Lieut-Col. Bullock 237th, Lieut-Col. Sturdee, Major Stetnam, Major Jones, Captain Wetmore, Captain Coyne, Capt. Losan, Capt. Tiley, Senator Thorne, Justice McKeown, Judge Armstrong, and Messrs. Foster, F. B. Taylor, W. H. McKay, James F. Robertson, S. A. Ambrose and J. W. McEllen. After luncheon the party proceeded to Seaside by means of autos.

The 140th Arrives. Before the arrival of the party the 140th Battalion, under Col. Beer, marched into the field adjoining Seaside Park. The 140th never looked better than they did yesterday. Every man with that quick manly stride which has made the Canadian soldier wherever seen the subject for enthusiastic applause.

The band seemed to pour out tones of admiration for the heroic enterprise into which the men have entered. To hear such inspiring music no time could have been more opportune, no place better fitted. The breezes seem-

GEN. GWATKIN ON STAND AT DAVIDSON COMMISSION INQUIRY

Matter of Sale of Defective Ammunition Did Not Come Before Militia Council, He Says.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, June 13.—The sitting this afternoon of the Davidson Commission which is inquiring into the sale of three million rounds of defective small arms ammunition to the Admiralty, was not spectacular. General Gwatkin, chief of the general staff, stated that in his opinion Canada was not justified in destroying even defective ammunition. He knew nothing about the Allison transaction until three million rounds had been sold and two millions were being negotiated for. The question was never before the militia council nor was any order-in-council submitted for approval. His own opinion was that no ammunition should have been sold outside the Dominion. He knew of no regulations which permitted the sale of ammunition outside of Canada without an order-in-council. There was nothing to compel the Minister of Militia to take the advice of the militia council.

Mr. Dewar—Can you see any reason why, of the Admiralty wanted ammunition from Canada it should not have been secured direct from the militia council?
Gen. Gwatkin—That is the normal course.
Col. Holmer, director of musketry and training, under examination, said $20 per thousand was the price for clubs to Canadian organizations and was fixed by regulations.
Mr. Dewar stated that all he now had to do was to cross-examine the director of contracts, the quartermaster general and the Minister of Militia and that would conclude the case.
Sir Charles Davidson—"It may be that will need Col. Allison."
Mr. Dewar—"If he comes I hope he will revivify his memory."
Mr. Hutchison—"I thought that Col. Allison swore as hard as a man could swear these items."
The case was adjourned until the end of the week.

Twice a Day for Half the Year

SOMEONE has to attend to the furnace; most people look on it as an irritating, dusty job. It need not be. It is not, if you have a Sunshine Furnace.

Shaking down the Sunshine Furnace does not raise a dust. The fine ashes are drawn up the chimney; there is never that fine sprinkling of dust that lights on everything in the basement, and even floats up through the house. No. That is one thing the owner of a Sunshine Furnace never has to contend with. The Sunshine is as clean as a piece of furniture.

There are extra sturdy grates that turn with a long handle to crush with ease the hardest clinkers. A slight rocking that hardly requires stooping, cleans down the ashes. The ashes fall as the grates are shaken, for the sides of the fire-pot are straight. This saves bother—and heat; because if ashes bank up around the fire-pot they stop the radiation of heat. The ashes come out in a big ash-pan. There is no shovelling or spilling ashes about.

And the door is large, as it should be for convenience in firing up. Or if need be, a large chunk of wood will go through this door. The dampers can be operated from the rooms above. This saves you the nuisance of running up and down stairs to shut off the drafts and open up the check damper.

SIR SAM HUGHES CENTRAL FIGURE AT THE BIG MILITARY DEMONSTRATION YESTERDAY

Seaside Park Scene of Greatest "Khaki" Display Ever Known in St. John — Instruments Presented to Band of 140th and Presentation of Regimental Colors to 115th — Minister of Militia Addresses Officers and Men Expressing His Satisfaction at Their Fine Showing—Forecasts Well Merited Promotion for "Brigadier Gen." H.H. McLean

NO UNIT IN DOMINION MORE FIT, SIR SAM TELLS THE 104th AFTER SEEING THEIR WORK

SIR SAM HUGHES' PRONOUNCEMENT TO OFFICERS OF 115th AND 140th.

"So long as I am Minister of Militia no officer will ever be put in charge of human lives unless he is efficient and capable of leading the men in battle. I would sooner see an empty sack at the head of Canadian troops than an officer who is not capable in every respect to take charge of his men. For I value the life of the most important soldier as highly as I do that of any officer."—Sir Sam Hughes to Brigadier-General McLean, officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the 115th and 140th Battalions at Seaside Park yesterday afternoon.

Yesterday's military celebration and carnival will be recorded in the annals of the history of St. John as an epoch-making event.

Never before did Seaside Park see such a throng of people. Thousands and thousands assembled to witness the most elaborate military display ever conducted in New Brunswick.

Long before 1 o'clock people were flocking to the Park for the purpose of obtaining an elevated position near the field wherein the ceremonies were to be held. Obeying the injunction to "come early and avoid the crowd," the officers and men of the 115th and 140th Battalions, accompanied by their staffs, were seen in the distance.

The "present arms" was a grand sight. The men moved like clock work. Each man seemed to be out to do his best, and from the spectator's view they succeeded. The band played a fitting selection for the present arms. The Minister of Militia gave the general salute.

The 115th. At the command "quick march" the 115th Battalion marched into the field headed by Col. Wedderburn.

The 115th Battalion took up a position to the left of the 140th Battalion, and coming to attention, received the general salute from the Minister of Militia.

Sir Sam then, accompanied by his staff of officers, made an inspection of the battalion, and stopped occasionally to pass some eulogistic remarks to the men.

The inspection of the 115th being concluded the 140th came to attention and were likewise inspected by the Major General.

The 115th then took up a position at the north side of the field in order to allow the 140th to form up for the purpose of viewing the presentation of instruments, which was made by the Minister of Militia on behalf of the Daughters of the Empire. Mrs. Travers then read the address which accompanied the presentation in which she made reference to the pleasure and honor it gave the I. O. D. E. to make such a gift to the 140th Battalion. Mrs. Travers made reference to the gentlemanly way the men of the 140th had conducted themselves while in St. John, closing with the following words: "May God bless you, and I sincerely hope that you will return playing upon these instruments the march of victory."

Sir Sam Hughes. Major General Sir Sam Hughes in making the presentation said in part: "It gives me great pleasure to present these instruments to Col. Beer for the battalion band. I selected a deep interest in the work, and realize the advantage of having music at the front, and knowing my experience I can assure you that such a gift is very much appreciated. I wish to thank all those who so generously contributed to the fund for the purpose of purchasing these splendid instruments and particularly the St. John Standard which took so much interest in the work, and kindly gave for the publication of donations."

The 140th then marched up past the inspection stand in company column returning in close column, the officers saluting when going up past the Minister and only the O. C. saluting coming down.

The battalion then marched up on the south side in fours and repeating the performance took up a position at the rear of the 115th.

Presentation of Colors. The 115th then formed in three sides of a square.

The ceremony was particularly impressive. The drums of the bugle band were placed in pyramid in the center of the square. Leaning on either side were the two standards bearing on the King's colors, the other regimental colors. Directly behind the drums stood Lieut. March and Lieut. Steves waiting to receive the battalion standards.

The Consecration. Rev. F. Coulthurst, formerly curate of Trinity church, consecrated the colors, while the officers and men bowed in deep respect for Him who begetteth all things. Laying his hand upon the colors the reverend gentleman said: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, we do dedicate and set apart these colors that they may be a sign of our duty towards our King and country in the sight of God. Amen."

Lieut-Governor Wood then read the address of presentation, while Sir Sam Hughes presented the King's colors to Lieut-Col. Wedderburn, Lieut. March receiving the standard on behalf of the regiment.

The regiment after inspection formed a square and General Hughes addressed the officers and men, speaking from his motor car. He expressed the great pleasure which he felt at being present at the first reunion of the regiment. Many of the men before him had come to St. John in the previous evening in a downpour of rain, had pitched their tents in a storm, had passed a very wet and uncomfortable night, and yet had come on parade at an early morning hour, looking and evidently feeling, as he said, as mustards. This was the staff, said he, of which true Canadians were made. Col. Fowler had told him, said the General, that in the 104th Regiment there were several lineal descendants of the old 104th, but in spirit every man standing in the ranks today was the grand showing of troops in this good old province."

The Minister of Militia suggested three cheers for His Majesty the King. Such cheers! It is doubtful if the people of St. John ever heard such loud and enthusiastic cheering.

Col. Fowler's Battalion Won High Praise from Minister of Militia—Promises He Will Use Every Effort to Have 104th Go to the Firing Line as a Unit.

The inspection of the 104th Regiment at Sussex yesterday morning was in every respect entirely satisfactory to those most closely concerned, and the regiment showed up so well that men and officers came in for rather exceptional praise from General Hughes.

The outside companies reached Sussex by train on Monday evening in a drizzling rain, and all were in parade at five o'clock yesterday morning as the exact hour for the minister's arrival was not certain. Sir Sam and his staff accompanied by General Benson and staff, reached Sussex soon after six o'clock, the morning being grey and misty. The party were driven to the camp grounds where, by reason of the early hour and the dull weather, the number of visitors was not large. There the regiment, under Lieut-Col. Fowler, was drawn up to receive the General, and inspection was at once begun. The marching was faultless; the company drill and bayonet exercise put on by special request of General Hughes, won the heartiest commendation, and the appearance of the men was in every way soldierly.

High Praise for Officers and Men. The regiment after inspection formed a square and General Hughes addressed the officers and men, speaking from his motor car. Many of the men before him had come to St. John in the previous evening in a downpour of rain, had pitched their tents in a storm, had passed a very wet and uncomfortable night, and yet had come on parade at an early morning hour, looking and evidently feeling, as he said, as mustards. This was the staff, said he, of which true Canadians were made. Col. Fowler had told him, said the General, that in the 104th Regiment there were several lineal descendants of the old 104th, but in spirit every man standing in the ranks today was on the transport service. A striking sentence in General Hughes' address, and one which impressed all officers and men, is "In my opinion, no corps in any Canadian division, and no regiment of the time, can surpass the 104th in appearance, in precision of drill, and in all that goes to make for soldierly efficiency."

Cheers were given for the King and for General Hughes and staff, the party leaving shortly afterwards for St. John. Lieut-Col. Fowler, Mrs. Fowler and Miss Fowler accompanied General Hughes to the city and were present at the inspection at Seaside Park.

Overseas Soon. It is anticipated that the 104th will be sent overseas toward the latter part of June, but this depends wholly ing fame upon the battlefields of Europe they will give a good account of themselves when called upon.

Pleased with Quarters. Sir Sam inspected the barracks and military quarters before leaving the city last night, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the accommodations for the quartering of troops in St. John. He said that there was not the slightest doubt but what St. John would have troops stationed here while the new battalions were recruiting.

Americans Protected. Washington, June 13.—President Wilson sent to the senate today a report of Secretary of State Lansing saying American citizens and their property in Ireland were being protected under international law, that the Irish disturbances were ceasing and that it was hoped there would be few, if any, further arrests and detentions of Americans. The report was in response to a senate resolution, passed soon after the Dublin uprising, asking what steps had been taken to protect Americans there.

The Chignecto in Port. The R. M. S. P. Chignecto arrived in port yesterday afternoon, bringing a fairly large cargo for St. John, and a large number of passengers. Among the passengers were Mrs. E. H. S. Flood and family, who will spend the summer here, and Mr. and Mrs. Brand and family, who spent the winter in Bermuda. She brought about 1,300 puncheons of molasses, and 20,500 bags of sugar for this port, besides a large general cargo.

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDERING OFFICER

Dublin, June 13.—Sergeant Robert Flood, of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers, was found not guilty of the murder of Lieut. A. Lucas, of King Edward's Horse, and William J. Rice, brewer's employe, by the court martial today. He was released.

Sergeant Flood was on guard duty at a brewery during the recent rebellion, and did not recognize Lieut. Lucas, who approached him in the darkness. The lieutenant opened a window, which was contrary to instructions. It was testified before the court martial that the sergeant ordered the arrest of the lieutenant, and later his execution, as well as that of Lieut. A. Lucas was a native of Montreal.

Nerves Were So Upset Could Not Endure Noise Neuralgic Headaches and Extreme Nervousness Caused Keenest Suffering—Lasting Cure by Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Once the nervous system gets run down everything seems to tend to make it worse. You worry over your condition, are unable to get the required rest and sleep, nerves excite and irritate you and the future is most discouraging.

The nervous system does not get the proper nourishment from the food you eat, so you must have something also to fit you out of the run-down condition. You may find that your experience coincides with the writer of this letter and be encouraged to put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test.

You will make no mistake in employing this food cure, for, acting as it does hand in hand with Nature, it is bound to do you good.

Mrs. J. J. Jensen, Gwynedd, Ala., writes: "About ten years ago I was troubled with severe attacks of neuralgia and nervousness, and was for several months so bad that I could not get a night's rest. I used several medicines recommended by the druggist. My doctor also prescribed, but nothing gave me brought any relief. Instead I got worse and worse until I could scarcely do anything or bear the least bit of noise. My nerves were all upset."

"My husband read about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and got me some. Although I had no faith in it, I began its use, and after a few doses began to sleep well and the neuralgia left me entirely. I used six more boxes and have never had any troubles from neuralgia or the nerves since."

"This is to certify that I know Mrs. Jensen and believe this statement to be true and correct. Fred Freeman, J. P."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $3.00, all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE NOVA SCOTIA ELECTIONS.

Yesterday was nomination day in the provincial elections in Nova Scotia polling in which takes place on Tuesday next. Indications plainly point to the defeat of the Liberal Murray government, and the installation in Halifax of an aggressive Conservative administration led by Hon. C. E. Tanner.

Those in opposition to the present government contend that all over the province there has been manifested a feeling that the time for a change has arrived, that the Murray administration has outlived its usefulness and that Nova Scotia would be the better for a new deal.

The returns for the general election of 1911 show that a change of less than 500 votes in certain constituencies would have swept the Murray government out of power at that time. Since 1911 there have been four bye-elections all of which have shown a tremendous turning of the tide of popular opinion. These contests were in Digby in the west, Lunenburg on the south coast, Antigonish in the east and Victoria in Cape Breton. In Digby, a Grit majority of 256 was converted into a Conservative majority of nearly 500. In Lunenburg, where Hon. A. K. McLean had a majority of 457 the bye-election returned a majority of 191 for the Conservative candidate. In Antigonish, the Conservative majority was substantially increased, while in Victoria, Premier Murray's "personal preserve," the Grit majority of 428 was converted into a Conservative majority of 41.

Thus it will be seen that tests in the four quarters of the province indicate a very general dissatisfaction with the present government and with that knowledge the opposition was confident of success when they placed their candidates in nomination yesterday. Strong tickets have been selected in every riding and during the week the campaign will be fast and furious. It will be in no way a surprise if it should result in turning the Murray government out of power.

KITCHENER AND THE EMPIRE.

An American writer takes the view that while the tragic death of Earl Kitchener robbed the British Empire of a great organizer and an outstanding military figure, yet his loss is not irreparable. "Kitchener means no more to Britain than Lincoln did to America, and yet, with Lincoln gone, the American nation continues to develop and progress." Is the way the writer referred to, puts the case, and who will say that his summing up is not correct?

Kitchener is dead, but another will be selected to do his work, and will do it just as well, if not by the same method. That the hero of Khartoum and the organizer of Britain's greatest fighting force should be mourned all over the world is eminently fitting, but in the period of mourning the people of the Empire should not lose sight of the fact that the tragic fate of the War Minister will not benefit the enemy one jot in the final settlement. Britain is in this war to win, and to ensure that victory is the paramount duty of every man in the Empire. The fate of Earl Kitchener has aroused the grief of the nation, but it should also inspire the young men of the nation with the determination to avenge him. And he can be best avenged by making certain the success of the cause to which he consecrated himself and for which he went to his death. Kitchener is dead but it remains in the power of the British people to erect for him a memorial of military achievement that will compel the admiration and respect of nations yet unborn.

TODAY AT ST. LOUIS.

There is not likely to be the slightest note of discord at the convention of the Democratic party which opens today at St. Louis, and at which President Woodrow Wilson will be nominated as the party's choice in the presidential election to take place in November next.

Unlike its great political rival, the Democratic party has been completely harmonious during President Wilson's term. There have been minor suggestions that, in dealings with foreign nations, notably Germany, a more ag-

An eminent Chicago eye specialist says that in 2,000 cases he found only one perfect eye. Most eyes are constantly subjected to a useless injurious strain because of sheer carelessness. People are too indifferent about the blessing of sight to give the eyes ordinary, common sense care until forced to do so. Shake off your indifference. Come into Sharpe's and find out positively the condition of your eyes. You may not need glasses, but you ought to know whether you do or not.

Toronto, June 13.—Senator Curry, the president of the Canadian War and Foundry Company, Limited, says that this concern is making much better progress with the execution of its contracts for Russian shells. Would Wake Up With Smothering Spells. There is nothing that brings with it such a fear of impending death as to wake up in the night with that awful sense of smothering. The terrible smothering, choking up and sinking feeling is caused by the heart and nerves being in a deranged condition, and calls for prompt relief. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in all cases of such severity. They strengthen and invigorate the heart, tone up the nervous system, and the trouble which is the cause of so much fear and anxiety becomes a thing of the past. Mrs. Wm. McEwain, Temperance Vale, N. B., writes: "I am not much of a believer in medicines, but I must say Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are all right. Some years ago I was troubled with smothering spells. In the night I would be sound asleep, but would wake up with my breath all gone, and think I would never get it back again. I was telling a friend of my trouble, and he advised me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. He also gave me a box which I tried, and I had only taken a few of them when I could sleep all night without any trouble. I did not finish the box until some years later, when I felt my trouble coming back. I took the rest and he advised me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 60c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, and dealers or mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE MAPLES DEFEATED THE THISTLES LAST NIGHT

Game Went Nine Innings With the Score Nine to Five—Mahoney Was the Star Batsman.

There was a fair attendance at the St. Peter's League game last night when the Maples defeated the Thistles by a score of 9 to 5. Each team managed to make five errors and some of them were very costly ones.
 The Thistles gained three runs in the first inning and two of these scores were made on an error by Dever. Both teams were blanked in the second inning, and each scored one run in the third.
 In the fourth inning the Thistles failed to get a man across the plate while the Maples made three runs and tied the score.
 In the fifth inning the Thistles blanked the Maples and made one run, putting them in the lead, score 5 to 4. This was the last scoring for the Thistles as they failed to get a man past third in the last four innings.
 The Maples scored two in the seventh, one in the eighth, and two in the last inning, winning the game by a score of 9 to 5.
 There was some excitement in the eighth, when with two men out Calaghan, the Thistles third baseman, smashed the ball out for two bags. There was hopes in the Thistle camp that some runs would be batted in, but O'Connor settled down, pulled out of the rut and the Thistles failed to score.
 Mahoney was the star for the winners in the batting line. He had four bingles, one of them for three bases. He, however, had two boots at short, which were almost excusable. The rest of his playing was perfect. The following is the box score:

 Bleacher Dope.
 Mahoney was a real man with the stick.
 J. Dever is certainly coming back to his old form.
 Napoleon's blunder in opening inning nearly cost the game for his team.
 Nobody home when Okay made the bump.
 Too bad Stakes is going to leave the Maples.
 Lenihan was a close second to Mahoney with the stick, pounding the pill for three safe ones.
 That was a great catch of McGuire's in the third.
 Bollard was a shining star on third. O'Connor was a steady pitcher when caught in a tight place.

MARKET LACKED A STRONG LEADER

Price Changes of Light Order But List Strong In Spots.

SOME OF LEADERS OFF A FRACTION

General Electric, Steamships Lyall and Shawinigan Most Active Stocks of the Session

Special to The Standard.
 Montreal, June 13.—Prices in the stock market were limp more from inertia than anything else apparently, during the forenoon session. The pleasure afforded to Wall Street by the political turn of events over the week end lasted for one period only in a market sense and there was an absence of leadership of the right sort from that market to stimulate anything here. Price changes were of a light order, and the list was not altogether lacking in strong spots, foremost of which were General Electric, Canada's Steamship Lines, Lyall and Shawinigan. Some leaders were off a fraction while others held at about yesterday's closing level.
 The activity in General Electric was maintained but all throughout the issue at the even price of 120, compared with yesterday's high of 120½ and closing yesterday at 119½.
 The Street apparently thinks the company has so much money that it must "come across" with a bonus as a matter of common financial decency. Buying appears to be along that line of argument, and the Street hopes to see higher prices in the same connection.

Price changes were of a light order, and the list was not altogether lacking in strong spots, foremost of which were General Electric, Canada Steamship Issues, Lyall and Shawinigan. Some leaders were off a fraction while others held at about yesterday's closing level.

A Column Which is Supposed To Be Of Interest To Women

Herein are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

Woman is the eternal companion to which she has been given. The Red Cross also acknowledges with thanks the sum of $50.00.

It was voted that the profit from the High School Histories will be given to the Red Cross for Serbian Relief. This amount is $37.00. Plans were then discussed for the reception which is annually given the High School graduates, and it was decided to call Dr. Catherine Travis to present the Life Membership Prize.

High School Alumnae.
A meeting of the Executive of the High School Alumnae was held Monday evening at Miss Lawson's school room. Acknowledgments were read from W. Ambrose of the Bank of Montreal for the receipt of $25.00 for the Military Fund of the Y. M. C. A. The secretary of the Soldiers' Comfort Association, Mrs. Lelaheuer thanked the Society for $50.00 which had been given.

Train the Daughters of the Nation!
From the numbers of letters received by us in connection with this column, says the Daily Express, dealing mainly with women of the middle classes, the following points with regard to women's employment generally are most noticeable.

Activity in the world of women's work has never been greater, and efficient workers are enormous, yet we find there are still numberless women who lag lamentably behind on account of their lack of training. It is chiefly such women as these who have suffered financial loss through the war, and obviously it is they who are least able to combat their difficulties.

Parents are happily beginning to realize the necessity for establishing the independence of their daughters, and the girl-child of today will be equipped to meet future emergencies. The war has brought about many changes in the social life of the country, and those already in motion point to the fact that the majority of women of all classes will be workers, and whether obliged to earn or not, will be taking their share of responsibility in the world's work.

If parents therefore wish their daughters to take their place in the new social status, they must give their girls every reasonable opportunity by means of a good and prolonged education and a thorough business or professional training. The companion or "path-of-least-resistance" type of education is not sufficient, for a woman's life is not a life of ease, it is almost invariably desired by women whose parents have had no foresight in regard to their daughters' future.

Perils of Nutton.
Slice cold nutton, lay in slices in a shallow dish, sprinkle with chopped onion and parsley, season with salt and pepper, cover with cold gravy, dust with cracked crumbs, brown in oven and serve at once.

Potatoes Baked With Cheese.
Choose large, sound potatoes; bake them in the oven and cut them in halves. Scoop out the insides and mash them with salt, butter, pepper and cream, and add the well-beaten white of an egg. Fill the skins with this mixture, sprinkle with grated cheese, and return to oven to brown.

Potatoes Au Gratin.
Cut cold boiled potatoes into cubes and put in butter baking dish. Cover with a white sauce, sprinkle with bread or cracker crumbs and grated cheese, and bake until a golden brown.

How to Use Embroidery.
If you are up against the problem which usually confronts many women, when they discover some yards of embroidered founcing in the lower bureau drawer, you will be glad to hear of some suggestions of getting em-broidery to the best advantage in a new frock. Don't fall back in disgust to the plain surplice waist and two or three tiered skirt. True, this season of ruffles should help you out, but there are more ways than one of applying ruffles.

For one thing, if you have a wide skirt, founcing you may turn it up-side down, finishing the plain edge with a hem topped with a frill of plain material. This will bring the edge around the hips, probably, and bring the emphasis there also. If your founcing is not wide enough it may be hem-stitched to plain material and panniers made of the straight piece on the hips. Another skirt uses embroidery successfully. Front and back plain panels are edged with it, but over the tips the embroidery forms a bouffant ruffle, with a plain ruffle underneath to bring it to skirt length.

The fischu can always be made from embroidered founcing. So can the shoulder cape, the small capes for sleeves and the Russian blouse. The straight shoulder-to-shoulder line suggests turning the embroidery across the blouse in that manner. One frock in plain white uses the embroidery for pockets, with the ends of the sash, collar and cuffs finished in the same way.

What is his own man endures.
With patience and without regret.
A dog's a nuisance, if he's yours.
But if he's mine, he is a pet.

Women in Wage Slavery.
With women invading every department of both public and private activity, a number of far-sighted men and leaders of thought have come forward to declare that what is a necessity at present, owing to the war, must under no consideration become the rule after the war.

Briefs of the Academie Française, is very out spoken. "I have already declared, and I now repeat," he says, "that a time will come when humanity will be as much ashamed at having ever allowed women to work as to have tolerated slavery years ago."

But, while agreeing that a woman's place is at home, he points out that it is in fact essential to provide a home for her. — Pall Mall Gazette.

It is to be a polka-dot Summer, so prophesy the fashion authorities. The whole polka dot frock, however, is apt to prove a tiresome garment, so one

Letters Received by Uncle Dick From His Boys and Girls

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.
Johnny had cut his upper lip badly and consequently the Doctor had to put in some stitches.
His mother meanwhile was bemoaning the fact that it would leave a scar when little Johnny's voice piped up:
"It's all right mamma, I can grow a moustache and hide it!"

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS.
Uncle Dick wishes many happy returns to the following kiddies whose birthdays take place today:
Lena Fowler, Young's Cove Rd. Daisy Grass, Moncton.

Next day, Merry walked slowly over to her friend's home. Popsy, very little friend that she was, never said a word about what had happened the day before.

"Shall I bring kitty," she asked, as they went out to play.
Merry stopped suddenly, but answered, "Oh, yes. She's so dear."

So when the two walked down the garden path, Popsy was holding Snowball, as the kitten was called on account of its white fur, and Merry was gazing her white head and wishing she could hold her a few minutes.

Popsy was greatly relieved.
"Mother," she said at tea-time, "I was so afraid Merry cried cause I had a kitten and she didn't, but today she played with her and loved her just as much as I did. So that can't be the reason."

"I'm glad you are friends again," Mother said, as she looked at Popsy's smiling face. "Perhaps Merry will get a kitten some day."
And she did. This is how it happened.

One day Merry was walking along the street on her way home from grandma's, when she spied the prettiest little kitten sitting on a doorstep. It was black and all spotted with mud.

Merry looked at it for a few minutes then knelt down beside it.
"Why it's shivering," she said to herself. "I wonder where it belongs. Have you any home, kitty?"

The kitten lifted its little eyes with a pleading look in them. Merry smothered it up and held it close to her.
"Oh I'm going to keep you. I'll never let you go," she cried in delight. "I love you, kitty."

The kitten seemed well pleased with its present surroundings, for it went to sleep in Merry's arms.
But as she reached home, Merry began to grow uneasy.
"I can't take it into the house," she determined. Then a thought struck her.
"Why, if I could get it up to the attic, I could keep it there and Ethel would never know."
(To be continued tomorrow.)

I do not go to school now, I am helping my father farm, the two of us have put in seven barrels of potatoes and eighteen bushels of oats; we have got a calf, it will be one year old the first of July, if it sees me doing anything it will run and kick at me.
I am twelve years old, I guess I will close for this time.
Yours truly,
Willie J. Burke.

Trying Again.

Beckett-Machum.
Jerusalem, June 12.—A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Friday, June 9th, at four o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride when Rev. D. Patterson united in marriage Mildred E. Machum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Machum, of Peterville, N. B., and Edwin J. Beckett, of Jerusalem, N. B., in the presence of about sixty invited guests.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white brocaded silk voile, with lace, satin and pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink and white ranunculus. They were the recipients of numerous presents testifying to their esteem. The groom's present to the bride was a neck chain and pendant. After the ceremony a bounteous repast was enjoyed. The happy couple left by Saturday evening's train for a short honeymoon trip to Boston. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Beckett will reside at New Jerusalem, N. B.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage --- Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

James Kirkwood of the American.
James Kirkwood, one of the ablest of photoplay directors, has signed a long term contract with the American Film Company, Inc. He leaves this week for the American studios at Santa Barbara, Cal., where he will be in the direction of a series of feature photoplays, starring Mary Miles Minter. The contract negotiations were conducted by John R. Freuler, president of the Mutual Film Corporation.

Mr. Kirkwood's experience includes the production of some of the most notable features in the history of photoplay manufacture in America. He began directing pictures seven years ago, after a long and successful career on the speaking stage.

Kirkwood went on the stage in his early youth. He appeared in many notable productions, among them with Henry Miller in "The Great Divide," with Blanche Bates in "The Girl of the Golden West," and for his last appearance on Broadway, six years ago, in "The Turning Point," at the Hackett Theatre.

Mr. Kirkwood was kidnapped into the pictures by David Wark Griffith and Harry Solter, when they were working at the old Biograph studios in Fourteenth street, New York City. Mr. Kirkwood recalled the incident the other day.

"They were making a stupendous one-reel feature," remarked Mr. Kirkwood. "It was entitled 'The Lonely Villa.' The cast included Mary Pickford, Owen Moore, David Miles and Arthur Johnson. I happened into the studio to see a friend working there when Solter spied me and insisted on using me in one scene. He handed me a crowbar and said:

"Here! Break into this room and rescue the imperiled heroine."
"I broke through a flock of doors and carried the limp and languishing form of Mary Pickford to safety, with all of the due gallantry of the motion picture hero. That was my introduction to pictures. I didn't give much thought to the incident at the time, but it resulted in my being called as a director by the Biograph Company. Shortly thereafter I was connected with some of the first of the so-called feature pictures done in America."

As a director for the Biograph, Mr. Kirkwood put out the picture versions of a number of the Klaw and Erlanger productions, principal among them "Classmates," in which Blanche Sweet, Dorothy Gish, Henry Walthall, Lionel Barrymore and Gertrude Robinson appeared. Mr. Kirkwood also directed "Strongheart," in which Blanche Sweet and Henry Walthall were starred.

Mr. Kirkwood directed ten pictures for the Famous Players, featuring Mary Pickford, and playing important roles in these productions, among them "The Eagle's Mate," "Behind the Scenes," "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," and "Rags." He also directed "The Gauntlets of New York," a highly successful feature production, made at the Reliance studios and released by the Mutual Film Corporation. As a director for the Reliance, Mr. Kirkwood for one year made two one-reel pictures a week, which is something of a record in high pressure direction.

Mr. Kirkwood, as a director, places great emphasis on the importance of the scenario, and he expresses it as his conviction that while the public is tired of stunts, it never will tire of the motion picture's interpretation of real human experience.

DRAMA.
Edith Wynne Matthison, who has concluded her engagement with Sir Herbert Tree as Katherine of Aragon in Henry VIII, will give a series of Shakespearean readings in colleges. She will be heard at Princeton and Vassar the latter part of May.

Florence Rittenhouse, who was leading woman with the Temple Stock company during the summer season of 1915, is at present with the Poll Players in Baltimore. Already she has ed a new series of pictures for the Pathe program. Miss Florence Rose, the fashion expert, former editor of L'Art de la Mode, has been secured to put out a special reel of fashions twice a month, and a noteworthy list of prominent newspapers has been signed to run a fashion article six days a week. These articles are to be written by Mrs. Radnor-Lewis, former managing editor of Harper's Bazaar, and are based upon the costumes shown in the films.

Miss Rose has had an interesting career. She came from Cleveland, Ohio, to New York some six or seven years ago. Brought up in affluence there had come a time when it was necessary for her to earn her own living, and in what way she did not know. She had not been trained for a career and her education had not been of a sort to fit her to cope with the world. She looked for a forty-dollar-a-week position, but after tramping the soles of her shoes looking for one she was ready to take a job at eight dollars per week, and she did. She worked with a manufacturing modiste from 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m. A few months of this so wore upon her strength that she had to go to a hospital. Her next attempt to get along was on the stage. She toured with a barn-storming company until it went on the rocks. When she got back to New York a theatrical manager told her the stage was not her forte; and she took to drawing fashions.

The new venture proved successful. She studied nights to improve her technique and her drawings sold. Before long she was taken by the New York Evening Mail as fashion writer and later by the Globe. The reputation she acquired on these papers was responsible for her being offered the editorship of L'Art de la Mode.

The Florence Rose newspapers service consists of a drawing by Winifred I. Messer, a clever fashion artist, and an article on the practical current fashions. The costumes shown, complete from head to foot, reflect the accepted styles as worn by New York's best dressed women.

SNEEZING COLDS, BAD COUGHS, IRRITABLE THROAT ALL CURED

Just think of it, a cold cured in ten minutes—that's what happens when you use "Catarrhose." You inhale its soothing balsams and out goes the cold—coughs are cured—headache is cured—symptoms of Catarrh and grippe disappear at once. It's the healing pine essences and powerful antiseptics in Catarrhose that enable it to act so quickly. In disease of the nose, for irritable throat, bronchitis, coughs and catarrh, it's a marvel. Safe even for children. Beware of dangerous substitutes offered under misleading names and meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhose, which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months' treatment, costs $1.00; small size 50c; trial size 25c.

Want "Extras" Who Can Swim.
Not only may the ability to swim be the means of saving one's life, but it may also be the means of increasing one's earning capacity. This was discovered by the extra people who worked in the sea scene in Geumont "Armada." In this photoplay the passengers and crew of the doomed vessel leaped from it into the sea to escape the flames. The extras who ran up and down the deck wringing their hands received four dollars. Those who jumped from the ship, swam to a raft, and climbed out wringing their clothes, received five dollars. Miss Gertrude McCoy, the star, and Earl O. Schenck, her leading man and rescuer, did not receive extra compensation for their baths, since their contracts called for the performance of such feats.
