PARLIAMENT RETURNED TO DEBATE ON ADDRESS YESTERDAY

Question of Gratuities Will Come up Today — 500,000 Copies Showing Comparisons With Gratuities and Pensions Paid in Other Countries to be Printed and Distributed—Literature on Royal Train Questioned.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Parliament resumed its debate on the address today. Colonel John A. Currie was disposed to move the adjournment in accordance with his notice of Thursday last, but desisted when it was explained that Major General McEwen was unavoidably absent. The discussion of this matter is almost certain to come on Tuesday.

The debate dragged, but there being a disposition to get it over with as soon as possible, the house adjourned in the evening. In the corridors members discussed the possibility of the session lasting longer than the five or six weeks originally planned. They said that a number of bills left over from last session are liable to be taken up. The probabilities are that some of the conclusions to be reached at the industrial relations conference will be crystallized into parliamentary enactments before the house rises and that what went the session will be lengthened.

Mr. Edmund Prentiss in resuming the debate today complained of the high cost of living and argued that the government should remove the duty on bacon. A. T. Leger, of Kent, N. B., made accusations against officers who are rounding up defaulters in New Brunswick. His favorite theme of nationalization of railways, had a tilt with Dr. Couva of Regina.

At the evening meeting of Quebec, accused the government of wasteful expenditures in that city in connection with N. T. R. terminus. James McLaughlin, P. E. I., and H. A. Fortier continued the debate which was adjourned by J. Archambault at 10.30. House adjourned.

Before the house introduced his bill for carrying on the work of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment. He explained that the bill in council passed under the War Measures Act and that the substance of these would have to be embodied in a bill.

The new bill among other things deals with the scale of allowances paid to soldiers who were being sent through the departments. It also defines the classes which returned men belonged to. He expressed the hope that it would be given second reading to a special committee. It was given first reading.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 15.—President Harry Flynn, of the Ontario Soldiers' Gratitude League, declared before a gathering of between 7,000 and 8,000 returned men in Queen's Park tonight that notwithstanding the state of the world, he would begin with the most important, namely, the high cost of living. He went on to say that the Board of Commerce had discovered that American bacon was being sold in Winnipeg for four and a half cents lower than the Canadian product. He thought this showed that the government would have been wise to remove the duty on foodstuffs at the last session.

Work At Raising The German Fleet

C., Sept. 15.—Acting Secretary of State Phillips today received a despatch from London stating as to the efforts to raise the German vessels scuttled at Scapa Flow, the battleship Thetis, the cruisers Frankfurt, Nuremberg and Emden, and fifteen destroyers have been floated, and three other destroyers probably will be raised.

PRESIDENT'S PARTY MEMBERS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Ben Fallen of Cleveland and James Patterson of Portland, Oregon, Lost Lives, Two Other Newspaper Men Injured Yesterday—Spectator's Car Crossed Ahead and Machine Was Overturned on Columbia Highway.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 15.—Ben Fallen of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, member of President Wilson's party, and Jas. Patterson of Portland, Oregon, were killed and two other newspaper men, Robert T. Snow, President Leger, and Stanley Reynolds, Baltimore Sun, injured in an automobile collision on the Columbia highway this afternoon when the president's party was returning to Portland from a tour over the highway. Patterson was driving the automobile. He had volunteered his services to assist in taking care of the president's party today. The others were occupants of the Patterson machine. It was said Patterson was trying to regain the position his automobile had lost in line.

It was the automobile seventeenth from the automobile bearing President and Mrs. Wilson. While Patterson was attempting to regain his position to the spectators automobile he said to have crossed ahead of him and to try to avoid this car his machine struck another and over the hood volunteered his services to

THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE HELD SESSIONS IN THE CAPITAL YESTERDAY

Peace Conference Circles Giving Much Attention

Testimony of William C. Bullitt as Published Here Aroused Much Interest—Philip Kerr, Secretary to Premier Lloyd George, Says Article is Tissue of Lies.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Peace conference circles are giving much attention to the published account here of the testimony of William C. Bullitt, formerly attached to the American peace delegation, before the American Senate committee on foreign relations. The statement accredited to Mr. Bullitt that has aroused the most interest is to the effect that Philip Kerr, secretary to Premier Lloyd George, had apologized to Mr. Bullitt for the premier's denial in the House of Commons that approaches had been made by the British government to the Germans. Mr. Kerr has authorized the statement that "the account of private conversations between himself (Mr. Bullitt), Mr. Lloyd George and Philip Kerr as reported in a New York telegram to a Paris newspaper is a tissue of lies."

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Italian delegation to the peace conference is anxious that the occupation of Fiume by forces under command of Gabriele D'Annunzio be considered as an internal affair of Italy. It is understood that it is to be concurred in by the other members of the peace conference.

The opinion of the chief officials is that Italy be permitted to handle the Fiume question alone, as only Italians are involved.

London, Sept. 15.—When the Italian sailors under Gabriele D'Annunzio entered the harbor of Fiume, the British and French flags were pulled down and the British and French troops confined in their barracks. The British and French representatives of two of the Great Powers, however, urged the necessity of settling the Fiume question with the least possible delay in order to prevent similar incidents.

As the American Peace Delegation was reported to be without precise instructions from Washington, no final decision was reached this afternoon by the Supreme Council as regards a settlement.

Railway And S. S. Officials Are In Halifax

R. B. Teakle, Manager of Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Says Four of Largest Ships Under Contract in Halifax.

Halifax, Sept. 15.—C. A. Hays, vice president in charge of traffic, Canadian National Railway, and R. B. Teakle, manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Limited, were here today with representatives of the International Union of Locomotive Engineers, and one of the outstanding personalities in the labor world, made an impressive plea for unity and good will.

The real work of the conference will be begun tomorrow. There are upwards of two hundred delegates in attendance, all branches of labor and industry being represented, and, in addition, there are representatives from most of the provincial governments.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORKERS' SESSION

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 15.—The Dominion Convention of Social Service Workers for 1919 will be held in Sydney on October 15th. Its session will continue for two days. The speakers at the convention will include many of the prominent leaders in social service work throughout Canada.

Remarkable and Momentous Gathering at Ottawa—Summation to Deal With Recommendations of the Mathers Commission Which Investigated the Feasibility of Joint Control by Capital and Labor—All Parties to Industry, Capital, Labor, Management and the Community Represented—Characterized as "Canadian Peace Conference"—The Prime Minister's Message—Real Work Will Begin Today.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—As I my brother's hope, I am in a gathering here of the spirit of the National Industrial Conference which met in Ottawa today. It is a remarkable and momentous gathering, summoned to deal with recommendations of the Mathers Commission, which investigated the feasibility of joint control of industry by capital and labor. It aims to draw up a constitution for Canadian industry, to start, so to speak, a code of conduct for labor and capital in Canada, based in the words of Sir John Borlase, a speaker in the three cardinal principles of justice, confidence and co-operation.

In purpose, and in character of representation, this gathering has never before been held on the North American continent. All parties to industry—capital, labor, management and the community—are represented together. The Winnipeg revolutionary Socialist, who speaks with Sir John Wilson, the laborer (individual), Captains of industry all sides with leaders of labor, the leader of the opposition is introduced and authorized to the assembly by a member of the government. The whole constituting a truly remarkable congress of conflicting schools of social, political and economic thought, brought together in a unique effort to achieve industry as well as political democracy in Canada.

In a striking phrase Hon. N. W. Rowell characterized the gathering as "an industrial peace conference," and unquestionably, the spirit of all present is one-making for understanding and sympathy and peace. Hearty congratulations were extended to the employers, a manufacturer from Windsor, Ontario, when he declared that those for whom he spoke entered this conference in a spirit of good will and a desire to give and receive as well as political democracy in Canada.

The day's proceedings were largely devoted to creating the proper atmosphere for sympathetic and understanding deliberation. The Prime Minister's message (owing to illness he was unable to be present in person); the opening addresses of the minister of labor, the minister of public works and the president of the council, and a notable and eloquent speech by Hon. Mackenzie King, all made strong appeals for unity. The leader of the opposition, a speaker in labor problems in connection with winter traffic on rail and steamers. Mr. Teakle says the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Limited, the company that operates for the government has eleven steamships now in service, and by the middle of next summer will have thirty-six more, making a fleet of forty-seven all told. The ships are being launched from various yards in Canada at the rate of more than one a month, and range in tonnage from 5,500 to 16,000. Four of the largest ships are under contract in Halifax. The ships now in commission, Mr. Teakle says, have ample cargo to keep them busy, and most of them are operating from Montreal. The bulk of their business in the winter will be from Halifax and St. John and from Pacific coast ports.

It is a striking fact that the gathering is not only a gathering of the spirit of the National Industrial Conference which met in Ottawa today. It is a remarkable and momentous gathering, summoned to deal with recommendations of the Mathers Commission, which investigated the feasibility of joint control of industry by capital and labor. It aims to draw up a constitution for Canadian industry, to start, so to speak, a code of conduct for labor and capital in Canada, based in the words of Sir John Borlase, a speaker in the three cardinal principles of justice, confidence and co-operation.

SEVERAL PRINCIPAL UNIONS YET TO DECLARE THEMSELVES

Some Voted to Take Sympathetic Action With Boston Policemen, While Others Frowned Upon It—More Cautious Unions Postponed Action—State Guardians on Patrol Reduced—Rifles Displaced by Riot Sticks.

Boston, Sept. 15.—A definite campaign to remain for the striking policemen the places now officially declared to have been lost because of desertion of duty was expected to be inaugurated today. The action was expected to depend upon the result of a conference between union labor leaders and Police Commissioner Curtis. The commissioner at the request of the union headquarters' heads consented to a meeting on an unofficial basis, but the labor men said they hoped to obtain from it an exchange of views which might be made the basis of negotiations.

Those included in the proposal to meet with the commissioner were Frank H. McCarthy, New England organizer of the American Federation of Labor; President John F. Melnis, of the Policemen's Union, and President O'Donnell, of the Central Labor Union. Mr. McCarthy, who came from a conference in New York with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was expected to advance several suggestions from the national leader.

The extent to which the American Federation of Labor would support the fight for reinstatement and recognition of the policeman's union, however, was not known. It is known that some of them voted to take sympathetic action, but others frowned upon it, and that more cautious unions postponed action until they see how sentiment lays.

The fact that the Central Labor Union adjourned last night, without calling a meeting in advance of its regular session next Sunday was accepted as an indication that anti-leaders looked upon the fight as a long one, in which they would take action only after mature consideration. The consideration, it is understood, will include the advice of President Gompers and other officers of the federation who regard the fight in this city as centering on the national question of police unions, which were approved by the American Federation of Labor at its last convention.

Restoration of the city to orderly conditions has been followed by removal of many of the barricades placed over store fronts and other property as a result of the looting in the early days of the strike. The number of state guardians on patrol were held in the city, concentrated at centers for availability as emergency reserves. On the streets in some sections rifles with bayonets were displaced by riot sticks to reduce the possibilities of serious consequences in minor collisions between citizens and guardians.

Preparations of the federal authorities to send regular army and navy troops into the city stood as an emergency precaution, but it was said that unless there was a general strike there was no likelihood of their being called upon. The state troops, however, are likely to be on duty for some time, as Commissioner Curtis said he could not hope to build up a new police force in a day, and any letting down of preventive measures would invite a recurrence of lawlessness.

Frank H. McCarthy, New England organizer of the American Federation of Labor, who returned last night from a conference with Samuel Gompers in New York today, issued a statement reiterating his claim that the policeman were justified in strike in attacking the attitude of Police Commissioner Curtis.

Four Day Session Opened in London

London, Sept. 15.—The International Brotherhood Congress today opened a four-day session in the city temple, Dr. Clifford presiding. Messages were read from Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada; General Jan Christian Smuts; Cardinal Mercier and John W. Davis, American Ambassador. The main purpose of the Congress is to attempt to draw together the classes of the various nations and generally to support the League of Nations.

Tomorrow Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor party, will open discussion on "Brotherhood and social unrest." The Rev. Samuel Zane Burton, general secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood Federation of the United States, and Sir Harry Hamilton Johnston, president of the African Society, also will speak.

Lord Robert Cecil and Prof. Gilbert Murray are to talk on the League of Nations.

The Situation Is Not So Critical

Minister of Interior, M. Pelelauff, Addressing Assembly of Zemstvo Representatives at Omsk, Makes An Appeal.

Omsk, Sept. 15.—(Russian Telegram Agency.)—The minister of interior, M. Pelelauff, addressing an Assembly of Zemstvo representatives said:

"The situation at the front is not as critical as before, but it still remains serious. Our reverses are due to the fact that our army has not had sufficient support. We had no reserves and our front was too remote from the base. At this time the Bolsheviks are in the same condition, while we have reorganized our forces and are preparing for a new offensive."

"I appeal to the organs of self-government, to the municipalities and Zemstvos, to support our gallant army."

CHANGES ARE RUMORED IN DOMINION COAL COMPANY

H. J. McAnn, Assistant to President Workman, Supt. of Coal and Steel Plant, and A. J. Tonge, Supt. of Coal Company, in Montreal With Executive of Dual Corporation—Rumored That Tonge Will Retire.

Sydney, N. S., Sept. 15.—Changes are rumored to be impending in the management of the Dominion Coal Company. This week H. J. McAnn, assistant to President Workman, superintendent of the Dominion Coal and Steel plant here, and A. J. Tonge, superintendent of the Dominion Coal Company, are in Montreal conferring with the executive of the dual corporation. The rumor that has gained considerable credence among the miners is to the effect that A. J. Tonge will retire as superintendent of the Dominion Coal Company. There are two names prominently mentioned as successors to Mr. Tonge if he finally decides to retire. One is Alexander S. McNeil, now superintendent of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, and the other is Malcolm Blue, of Springfield. Mr. McNeil was for many years assistant superintendent of the Dominion Coal Company mines. Within the next week some important announcements regarding the Dominion Coal Company officials are anticipated at the Montreal conference. Moncton Council Considered The Milk Question

Decided Last Night to File Complaint to Board of Commerce — Dealers Are Charging from 13 to 15 Cents Per Quart.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 15.—Moncton Council in committee of the whole this evening had under consideration the milk question as brought about by the recent action of the milk dealers increasing the price of milk to the consumer from 13 to 15 cents per quart. At a previous meeting the milk dealers were consulted with and their views obtained. A motion to file a complaint to the board of commerce at Ottawa was finally passed by the meeting, the council being of the opinion that if the matter was placed in its proper light before the board prompt and effective action will be taken. The council will cite the fact that St. John City Council has acted with the same question and that an increase was postponed until at least October 1st. They will also furnish the board with retail milk prices at Sussex, Salisbury and other points, all tending to increase here was unjustifiable. At the same time a committee of the whole council was appointed to take up with the city grocers of the various wards the proposition that they handle the milk business of the city at least during the fall and winter months. But that time the city would have prepared a scheme whereby the milk business of the city would be handled by the city itself.

The National Industrial Conference Held Sessions In The Capital Yesterday

Continued from page 1. a part of its platform the labor (nature of the peace treaty, etc.) emphasized the desirability of a voice insofar as possible the danger of class dissension in the realm of industry. Mr. King predicted that no class group formed with the purpose of controlling government could permanently succeed and asserted that any man who refuses to negotiate with other men should be regarded as a public menace. In closing, he said there were four classes to industry, labor, capital, management and the community. Each of these four was entitled to a voice in the shaping of industrial policies and there must be consideration of the rights of the community without which industry could not progress.

At the afternoon sitting E. M. Henderson said the delegates wished to express their regrets at the absence of Premier Borden. Those present at the conference had wished for his attendance at the conference it was hoped, would have such important effects. Speaking as a member of the employers' group Mr. Henderson said they had come together in the hope that great good would result. He concluded with a resolution of thanks to those who had addressed the conference.

President Tom Moore, of the Trades Congress, in seconding Mr. Henderson's motion, said he hoped the conclusion of the conference would be the best for the country as a whole. The conference had been called, he said, for the purpose of bridging ideas into realities. For years the workers had been attempting to reach a position where they could discuss their problems openly and all cards on the table. If the employers came in a similar spirit, he felt that the objects of the conference could be reached. Another important matter was that any necessary legislation decided upon should be enacted by the government without delay. He asked that there should be an assurance that action would be taken by the governments—Federal

British And French Troops Have Left Fiume

Paris, Sept. 15.—(By the Associated Press).—Twenty-six thousand Italian troops are now in Fiume, according to the latest advices to the Italian peace delegation here. The British and French troops have left the city, lowering their flags at D'Annunzio's request. The Italians are being reinforced constantly by deserters from the regular organization. It is feared in Rome that the situation is becoming more serious. Signor Tittoni, Minister of Foreign Affairs, is returning to Italy tomorrow. The Supreme Council decided today to let Italy deal with the situation created at Fiume by D'Annunzio's occupation of the city, deeming it purely an internal matter.

Extraordinary Success Which "Fruit-tives" Has Achieved

One reason why "Fruit-tives" is so extraordinarily successful in giving relief to those suffering with Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Chronic Headaches, Neuralgia, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Eczema and other skin affections, is because it is the only medicine in the world made from fruit juices.

Provincial—where such was needed. The resolution expressing regret at the illness of Sir Robert Borden was then put and carried with loud applause. Senator Robertson spoke of the importance of transportation to industry and called upon Mr. W. S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in the United States. Mr. Stone said that the problems on the other side of the line were the same as here. The social unrest was only slumbering under the crest and could be easily made into flames.

The war was over, but the present period was even more critical, said Mr. Stone, and in the next few months the clock of progress must either be moved ahead or retarded. The pay envelope does not solve the cost of living, said Mr. Stone, and there lies the whole problem at the present time. The peace period must end and war profiteering, and the cost of living must come down. Wages only mean what you can buy for them. A 20 per cent increase in wages, and a 40 per cent increase in living costs will never bring peace, said Mr. Stone. The question must be settled "man fashion," face to face, across the table. The solution of the question between capital and labor is the human touch. Labor is always looked upon as a producer. It is also your biggest consumer.

NUXATED IRON MASTER STRENGTH BUILDER OF THE BLOOD

The Power Behind the Strong Study Men and Healthy Beautiful Women of Today. "To make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron!" says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Orology Dept.), New York and the Westchester County Hospital. Nuxated Iron by enriching the blood and creating new blood cells strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed energy and endurance into the whole system. It often increases the strength of weak, delicate people in two weeks' time. It is estimated that over 3,000,000 people use Nuxated Iron annually as a tonic and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF And Find Out Where Your Blood Stands

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron recommended and prescribed by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older, inferior iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results in every case, or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this way by Wesson's Drug Store and all other druggists.

"Ratings" To Have Committees

New Concessions Given to Men in the British Navy.

Legal "recognition" of the right of the men of the Navy to combine for certain specified purposes is conveyed in an Admiralty order circulated yesterday.

The King's Regulations have hitherto forbidden all committees and associations of the lower deck except those created for benevolent purposes. The Admiralty, however, has instituted a Welfare Committee, and has invited the lower deck benevolent associations to nominate advisory representatives on the committee, so the regulations obviously had to be amended.

The Commanders-in-Chief at Portsmouth, Devonport and Chatham have been instructed by the Admiralty to arrange for an inter-port conference of fifty-four representatives of the various branches of the Navy, to be held shortly at Portsmouth, to draw up a schedule of representations to be laid before the Welfare Committee in October.

The conduct of the meetings is to be left entirely to the men, and officers are to take no part in them unless the men express a desire for co-operation, or unless later the Admiralty find it necessary to restrict this particular regulation.

GUM TENDERNESS — A TOOTH-MENACE

It is true that four out of five people over forty suffer from gum-shrinkage, or Pyorrhoea (Riggs' Disease). But many people even under thirty have Pyorrhoea. Women, particularly after the baby comes, are peculiarly subject to Pyorrhoea. At such time they cannot be too careful about their teeth.

Pyorrhoea commences with tender gums, or with gum-bleeding, at tooth-brush time. Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame and then shrink. The teeth become exposed to decay at the base and tiny openings in the gums become the breeding places of disease germs which infect the joints—or tonsils—or cause other ailments.

Beware of that first gum tenderness! Try Forhan's for the gums. It positively prevents Pyorrhoea, if used in time and used consistently. No ordinary tooth paste will do this.

And Forhan's cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35 and 60c tubes. All druggists. FORHAN'S LTD., Montreal.

Use More Corn Syrup For Preserving

Real home-made preserves, and the woman who puts them up—how they're both appreciated. Preserving is not difficult to-day. The LILY WHITE way has removed the uncertainty. Most of your preserving troubles have come from using sugar alone. Even the beginner can count on success if she will use half LILY WHITE and half sugar. LILY WHITE blends the sugar with the fruit and makes preserves that will never crystallize.

LILY WHITE and CROWN BRAND are both Dandy for Candy. Your grocer sells Crown Brand and Lily White Corn Syrup in 2, 5, 10 and 20 pounds tins.

INFLUENZA.

Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon-General of the United States Public Health Service, has issued an authoritative statement based on nation-wide information secured and tabulated by the United States Public Health Service, which should be secured and studied with the greatest attention by health authorities everywhere. In this statement Dr. Blue condenses in a few words what is known at the present time as well as what may be anticipated with respect to influenza. This summary of the situation is as follows: "Probably, but by no means certainly, there will be a recurrence of the influenza epidemic this year.

"Indications are that, should it occur, it will not be as severe as the pandemic of the previous year. "City officials, state and city boards of health should be prepared in the event of a recurrence.

"The fact that a previous attack brings immunity in a certain percentage of cases should allay fear on the part of those afflicted in the previous epidemic.

"Influenza is spread by direct and indirect contact. "It is not yet certain that the germ has been isolated, or discovered, and as a consequence there is yet no positive preventive, except the enforcement of rigid rules of sanitation and the avoidance of personal contact.

"A close relation between the influenza pandemic and the constantly increasing pneumonia mortality rate prior to the Fall of 1918 is recognized. "It is now believed that the disease was pretty widely disseminated throughout the country before it was recognized in its epidemic state. This failure to recognize the early cases appears to have largely been due to the fact that every interest was then centered on the war.

Attention is drawn to the fact that no mention has as yet been made of a cure for influenza or a specific which can be guaranteed to produce beneficial results in all cases. No such remedy has been discovered and those forms of treatment which have given most encouragement are even now in their experimental stages. Nor is it at all certain that any serum will prove immunity. This feature, too, is as yet an experiment. But, while evidence is not conclusive, there is reason to believe that an attack during the earlier stages of the epidemic confers a considerable but not absolute immunity in later outbreaks. In view of the lack of knowledge which the medical world faces and of the uncertainty of treatments now in use, the greatest attention should be devoted to the task of preventing the spread of the disease. It is, of course, apparent that influenza is communicable, that climate has little effect on the spread or development of the disease, that the germ, whatever its nature may be, is carried not only by those who are ill with influenza, but by persons who may be entirely well, and that from the standpoint of community interest, the most effective weapon against a recurrence of the epidemic is preparedness. The disease may be transmitted by many paths. The use of face masks, a method adopted by certain communities last winter, is effective only in preventing communication of the disease through inhalation, but it is recognized that the protection this affords very often leads to carelessness along other lines. Soiled hands, drinking cups, dishes, restaurant tables, soda fountains, roller towels, infected foods and in fact everything with which persons are brought in touch may be germ-carriers, and too great care cannot be exercised in their use. The history of epidemics in the past would indicate that influenza has not yet run its full course, yet, as influenza has already shown three distinct phases, one especially severe, there is in the minds of medical men some hope that should it re-appear during the coming winter, it will prove less serious than in 1918. However, this may be, the best opinion is that there will be at least local recurrences, with an increased death rate from pneumonia for perhaps several years. But whatever the future may bring there should be no repetition of the extensive suffering and distress which accompanied last year's epidemic. Municipalities, boards of health everywhere, should have their plans completed for dealing with any recurrence, and prompt recognition and early isolation should mark the handling of the first cases reported. Summer colds, such as have prevailed here during the past month or so, have been found in various centres to be in reality a mild type of influenza and the medical profession recognizes that from these mild types much more severe visitations may spread.

THE CITY ASSESSMENT.

The consensus of opinion seems to be that the present system of assessment will not do, that it will result in very great hardship to a considerable number of people, that it must eventually drive scores or perhaps hundreds out of the city, and that only comparatively few who are highly favored under the application of this new law will remain content with it. There has been more complaint in six weeks over this year's assessment, than against the application of the old system during the past ten years. And the striking feature is that the old plan, with which people were comparatively content, was a better revenue producer than the new one, for this reason, that today we are exempting not less than $7,000,000.00 of personal property, much of which should in all fairness be subject to taxation, and have had to very greatly increase our rate in order to secure a couple of hundred thousand dollars additional revenue.

The list of the heaviest taxpayers published in The Globe last week was an eye-opener. Years ago, and only a few years ago at that, The Globe printed annually, usually in one page of newspaper space, a complete list of those who contributed $50.00 or more to the City treasury. This year practically the same amount of space was required to carry the names of those whose taxes amount to more than $300.00. And what a revelation the list contains. In some cases men whose wealth has not increased during the year have found their taxes more than doubled, by reason of the application of the super-tax on incomes. In other instances men much more wealthy have been reduced in their assessment by fifty, sixty or seventy per cent. Glaring instances of unfairness are apparent among these wealthier residents, for whom, naturally, there is less popular sympathy than for those more moderately placed. Persons depending on salary alone, who last year found their incomes small enough to meet ordinary living expenses and who this year are scraping along on a much more economical scale than ever before, have been advanced fifteen, twenty or twenty-five per cent. in taxation, while others, enjoying the possession of hundreds of thousands of invested fortunes, have had their assessments reduced from perhaps $2,200 to less than $1,000, a cut of sixty per cent. when their incomes are no less, when they are in no less favorable position to pay generously, but because, better holders of personal property, they are now very generously exempted.

The man who in the past year has cashed in his securities and purchased a home for himself finds that he is comparatively much worse off, that it would have paid him a great deal better to rent such a home, even at the high rates now prevailing in St. John. Business men, whose work is carried on in an office only, are beginning to realize that they can just as readily move out of St. John, conduct business from some suburban point, go away and spend the winter in the south or elsewhere, and save enough money on their investment to pay their expenses of travel. The estates, which have not been sold and which have not disappeared, have shrunk in value by the exemption clauses of the Assessment Act so that they are now paying in some cases not much more than five per cent. of last year's levy. Persons whose business is conducted elsewhere, who come to St. John to spend the winter, are assessed to the fullest extent on their incomes with the natural result that they and their families will be driven away from the city and the resulting expenditure from these families which our merchants should enjoy will be lost to them. Others who were here for a few months only, who have removed long since, now appear on the list as heavy taxpayers, but from them not one cent of revenue will be secured, as they are no longer residents. The general trend of the whole list, as published in The Globe, seems to indicate that our wealthiest men, those who can afford to tie up their money in invested securities, rather than in business stocks, and who are naturally in the very best position to contribute generously to civic finances, today enjoy the most liberal exemption, while the unfortunate holder of real estate, the clerk or artisan in receipt of barely sufficient income to pay his weekly bills, is taxed to the limit on his real estate or on his income. The exemption of personal property to the extent of fifty per cent, applied as a general condition, is not working out as anticipated. In short the new Assessment Act is impossible.

BOSTON'S EXPERIENCE.

The people of Boston have been experiencing a slight taste of the conditions which they have been endeavoring for many years to force upon Ireland. The support which Boston, more than any other United States city, has given the Sinn Fein movement has been to a very large measure responsible for the disorders throughout Ireland. And the revolt against constituted government, through which Boston is now inconvenienced, resembles in some respects the disturbances in Dublin and other Irish cities. Possibly after last week's turmoil the people of Boston may not be so anxious to fall over themselves in welcoming men like deValera, and in contributing so lavishly as they have heretofore done towards the bands of those who oppose British rule.

GREAT BRITAIN'S FLAG.

Where the guns like fiends are raving
There a grand old flag is waving
Singing Britain's might,
There he folds repeat the story
Of each field of battle gory,
In its cross we see the glory,
Of a holy light.

Through long years that banner
floats,
Swept the seas while U-boats glowering
Over our waters,
Cried that liberty had perished,
Said that holy thing we cherish'd,
Died by hellish fire.

In all lands that flag was flying,
In all climes her dead are lying,
Fighting where they fell;
We hear guns like great drums beat
See her sons each charge repeating,
And the beaten foe retreating,
From that field of hell.

We see states and empires falling,
Hear the old flag proudly calling
Sea and mountain cross;
"Anglo-Saxon souls have striven,
British hearts the lifeblood given—
High floats Britain's flag."

Mighty flag! new wars come creeping
Like wild beasts on sleeping
Faithful watch them keep;
Freedom guard till time grows hoary,
Let the ages tell the story,
Holding high the flag of glory,
While deep calls to deep.

A BIT OF FUN

Silent men never have occasion to eat their words.

A: "What is the best business to get into?"
B: "Your own."

"Don't you think that young man is afflicted with a swelled head?"
"No," answered Miss Cayenne; "he's not afflicted with it, he enjoys it."

She: "Have you ever loved another?"
He: "Yes, of course. Did you think I'd practice on a nice girl like you?"

Gibson: "I see you are wearing that extraordinary necktie your wife gave you for your birthday."
Meekes: "Of course I am. The reason she bought it for me was to show her authority."

"I should like to be a man. One dress suit lasts for years and years, and a woman must have a new frock for every day."
"That's what one dress suit has to last a man for years and years."

A Difficult Case.
"You cannot go to any ball tonight."
"Doctor, I must go."
"Well, you'll have to put a porous plaster on your back."
"But, doctor, there I can't wear an evening gown."
—Kansas City Journal.

A Large Order.
"Over five thousand elephants a year go to make piano keys," observed a boarder, who was always full of such thrilling bits of information.
"You don't say so?" murmured the landlady absently. "Ain't it wonderful what animals can be trained to do nowadays?"

A Poser for Counselor.
The case looked black against the defendant. It was a breach of promise suit, and out of the mouths of various witnesses it had been proved that he had on no fewer than 1,357 times kissed the fair lady.

Now the defendant himself was in the box and very skilfully the counsel put the question to him. Had the witness spoken the truth regarding his osculatory performances?
"You see, I had to do it," he admitted.
"Had to do it?" belittled the counsel.
"How sir? What do you mean? Will you kindly explain to the jury?"
"Well, you see, the young man answered, not in the least embarrassed: "I either had to keep on kissing her, or else let her sing, and—er—well, what would you have done?"
The counsel sat down.

What Thousands Have Found Gives Relief From This Painful Trouble.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, manifesting itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and stiff limbs, cannot be cured by local medicine or external applications. It must have constitutional treatment.

Take a course of the great blood-purifying and tonic medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acid condition of the blood on which rheumatism depends, and gives permanent relief. The medicine combines, what is generally conceded to be the most effective agent in the treatment of this disease.

If cathartic or laxative is needed take Hood's Pill. Purely vegetable.

Expedition For Northern Canada
Scientists at Banff, Alberta, Ready to Start on Great Scientific Exploration.

An expedition to study the wood bison in its native lair in unexplored regions of the Canadian Rockies, headed by L. W. Hutchins, left New York, Thursday by railroad for Banff, Alberta. The trip will last more than six weeks, forty days of which time will be spent in blazing a trail through the mountain country which is said to have never been before traversed by white man.

The wood bison is a rare type of which specie there is no specimen in the United States. The Canadian government prohibits the killing or capture of the animals even for scientific purposes. The expedition will turn over the result of its studies to the library on animal subjects in the American Museum of Natural History.

Among those composing the expedition are John Broder, a mineralogist, who will prospect for rich veins in the mining possibilities of the territory; Captain Nathan Pearl, a big game hunter, who will have charge of the expedition while on the trail; J. O. Colt, a hunter, and Warren Keates, a motion picture camera man, Cornelius Vanderbill, Jr., will accompany the ex-

Another Alpine Murder Mystery

Headless Body of a Man Found on Summit of the Salene Mountain.

Another Alpine murder mystery, following closely on the discovery of the headless body of a man on the summit of the Salene Mountain a few days ago, is reported from Duchs.

The scene this time is the snow-clad summit of the Brenner Pass, on the Austrian side of the frontier, and the victim a handsome and elegantly dressed woman, found shot dead, with rings worth several hundred pounds on her fingers, and the word "spy" pinned to her breast.

Ever since the armistice the main passes and roads of the Austrian Tyrol, close to the frontier have been patrolled by the Italian Military Police.

One patrol yesterday, after examining the famous Brenner Pass and its railway line, climbed to the summit of the slope, and there found the dead body of a young woman lying in the snow.

Revolver Found.
A Browning revolver was picked up a few yards away from the body, but the position of the wounds does not indicate suicide, and it is also

THE 36TH ANNUAL SESSION OF SOVEREIGN GRAND PRIORY

Many Knight Templars from Canada and United States in the City—Auto Trip and Tea Yesterday—Council Meeting and Reception in Shrine Quarters of Masonic Temple Last Evening—Sessions Today.

The first business meeting of the 36th annual session of the Sovereign Grand Priory of Canada was held last night in the Masonic Building when the Sovereign Grand Council met in executive session, and continued its deliberations until a late hour this morning.

The St. John's De Molay Precinctory, No. 3, A. K. T., are the hosts.

A largely attended reception was held in the Shrine quarters last night when a varied programme was carried out, consisting of solos by A. C. Smith, Mrs. Blake G. Ferris and DeWitt Cairns, recitations by Steve Matthews, and a lecture by Past Grand Master R. W. Thomas Walker on the great Masonic peace celebration in London recently. The lecture was probably illustrated with views of the Royal Family and photographs of orphans for children of Masons, by M. W. Daniel G. Clark, grand master.

After the lecture there was a formal dance, followed by dainty refreshments, which were served by the ladies' committee.

Mrs. Alex. Rowan received the guests. She wore a handsome gown of black net over satin, with bodice of oriental embroidery. Others on the reception committee were Mrs. Harry A. Marvin, Mrs. R. S. Ritchie, Mrs. Struan Robertson, Mrs. S. Sawaya, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. LeBaron Wilson, Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, Mrs. F. H. Day, Miss Johnston, Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, Mrs. Horace Porter, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. H. Colby Smith, Mrs. A. E. Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Crockett, Mrs. Arthur Smith.

In the afternoon a party of forty-eight Knights, their wives and St. John ladies on the Entertainment Committee were invited to the city, over to the West Side and out some of the country roads. The day was clear and sunny, but a cool breeze was blowing on the mountains and the warm welcome awaiting the guests at the Manor House, Glen Falls, included a bribe of strawberries. After a number of introductions had been made and an informal chat enjoyed, a delicious afternoon tea was served.

Mrs. Alex. Rowan and Mrs. Horace Porter presided at the tea table, which was prettily decorated with nasturtiums. Receiving the guests were Mrs. Rowan, Mrs. E. Edmund Ray, Mrs. Horace Porter, Mrs. W. H. Colby Smith, Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Crockett, Mrs. Walter Hall, Miss Johnston. Assisting with the refreshments were Miss M. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Allan, Miss Olivia Gregory, Miss Smith.

The visiting ladies include Mrs. Abraham Smay of Kingston, Ont.; Mrs. Charles H. Collins, Toronto; Mrs. Edward A. Blackall, Toronto; Mrs. Arthur E. Rankine, Hamilton, Ont.; Mrs. Sparkhall, Uxbridge, Ont.; Mrs. Edwin J. Cameron, New York; Mrs. J. McCauley, Moose Jaw, Sask.; Miss Edna Cameron, New York; Miss Marion Cameron, New York; Mrs. W. S. Ormiston, Uxbridge, Ont.; Mrs. J. Jackson, St. Thomas, Ont.; Mrs. J. Sole, Brantford, Ont.; Mrs. Fawcetts, Galt, Ont.; Mrs. T. F. Campbell, Galt, Ont.; Mrs. McPhail, Guelph, Ont.

St. John ladies present were Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory, Mrs. G. M. Irvine, Mrs. Blake Ferris, Mrs. G. O. Cosman, Mrs. W. C. R. Allan.

Several of the visiting ladies from Upper Canada spoke of the Eastern Star, which is a form of Freemasonry for ladies. There are 14 lodges in Toronto, 2 in London, Ont., several in Hamilton, and one in both Kitchener and Belleville. It is felt that now war work is over more lodges will be formed.

It is estimated that there are over 250 delegates attending the convention and over thirty ladies have registered since yesterday morning. Almost all the important cities in Canada, from Sydney to Vancouver, is represented, and there are delegates from Boston, New York and other American cities.

She Believes It Saved Her Life

Winnipeg Woman's Recovery by Taking Tanlac Surprised All Her Friends.

"My wonderful recovery has been a surprise to all who knew of my dreadful condition," said Mrs. Amelia Hooley, of 363 Fleet avenue, Fort Rouge, Winnipeg, Canada, recently, in one of the most interesting and remarkable statements yet published in connection with Tanlac.

"My system has been badly run down for several years," continued Mrs. Hooley, "and although everything was done for me that could be done for a person, I got worse instead of better. I had begun to think Tanlac was going to fail me, too, as I could not see much improvement if any, until I started on my third bottle. At one time I thought of giving it up, but if I had it would have been the mistake of my life, for, really and truly, it has made a new person of me. My stomach was in the worst kind of fix and my appetite left me entirely. Nothing tasted good and even the most delicate and tempting foods did not appeal to me. What little I did eat soured on my stomach and the gas from it would blot me up and make me miserable. Then I contracted rheumatism in my left leg, which finally affected my whole side, and it was as much as I could do to get around. In fact, I was right down in bed for six weeks, hardly able to move. This leg would pain me so, especially at night, that I couldn't lie still. There was also a terrible pain that started in my right shoulder and went up the back of my neck clean to the top of my head. This pain was so severe at times I thought I would go distracted, and I have used mustard and the strongest kind of liniments until I actually burned the skin off trying to get relief. I would lie awake night after night just feeling agonized, never getting a wink of sleep, until I would get up mornings feeling like a wreck, unable to sew or do my housework, and would get so weak I would almost faint and feel like I was dying. I would have dizzy spells when I could hardly stand up, and these left me so weak and faint that I feared my heart was going to stop beating.

"Last year all arrangements were made to put my children in a convent, as I had been given up to die. My nerves were in such a shattered condition that I couldn't stand the slightest noise. I had fallen off in weight until I was scarcely more than a frame of skin and bones. At the time I began taking Tanlac I only weighed ninety-three pounds and my condition was really alarming. My husband told me to stick to Tanlac until I had given it a fair trial, and while I was taking my third bottle I commenced to get relief. I have used five bottles now and my improvement has been nothing less than wonderful. In a few days ago I went to visit a friend and she had so much to say about how well I looked that I asked her if I had really been very sick, and she said she never had any idea I would live. I have not only gotten relief from all my suffering, but I have actually gained twelve pounds in weight, and I am just so happy and grateful over my recovery that I want to tell everybody about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Common Council Met In Committee

Decided to Hear City Employees Regarding Wage Increase on Thursday—Other Business Transacted.

The Common Council in session yesterday morning decided to hear the city employees in regard to an increase in pay on Thursday.

The application of the Corona Carriage Co. Ltd. in regard to assessment will be considered today.

The council gave authority for the purchase of 10,000 feet of granite curbing. There was some discussion as to the relative values of granite and concrete for curbing and granite won out.

Engineer Hare explained to the council that the water pipe was under one street car track while the sewer pipe was under the other in Douglas Avenue and this was the reason for the tracks being out of alignment.

The case of an employee of the ferry department who was injured last November was considered. The superintendent recommended that he be given full pay for twelve months, but some of the commissioners thought half pay for a longer period would be better. The matter will be referred to the collector.

Commissioner Bullock was given authority to make Rodney wharf fit for traffic.

An application for having freight sheds at West St. John painted was lost.

The commissioner of public safety said that steps were being taken to have the building laws of the city revised and brought up to date.

Clara Kimball Young and Jack Holt Play

In Imperial's Feature Picture "The Road Through the Dark"—A Very Fine Bill.

Select Pictures offers "The Road Through the Dark" with Clara Kimball Young and her own company, at the Imperial Theatre this opening of the week.

The story deals with Gabrielle Jardee (Clara Kimball Young) in the role of a French girl who becomes the wife of a German prince and a spy for France. Gabrielle has fallen in love with John Morgan, an American. Her father wishes her to marry a Frenchman, and, with her brother and sister, sends her away from Paris to break up the affair. They go to visit their aunt, Madame Le Coulier, in a little village on the Meuse.

The war comes. Gabrielle's brother, sister and aunt are shot by the drunken soldiers. She is offered shelter in the personal quarters of the Kommandant, Prince Karl of Strelitz. Prince Karl tells her that if she will give herself to him he will punish the rioters and save the town. To save the people of the town, Gabrielle becomes the French wife of the German prince, scorned by all the villagers, for whom she has killed her soul to save.

In time Karl is transferred to the Intelligence Department in Berlin. He takes Gabrielle with him, at her request. One night he gives a formal banquet. Gabrielle excuses herself, searches his room, and confiscates some strategic papers. Karl learns of her duplicity and in the ensuing struggle she kills him. She escapes to France, where she gives valuable information to the council of Allied Intelligence who are meeting in Paris.

She again meets John, who tells her he still loves her.

The whole programme at the Imperial was especially enjoyable. Not only was the Clara Kimball Young and Jack Holt feature of that superior class that sends patrons away satisfied, but the British Weekly, the wit-ticisms contained in the Literary Digest's "Topics of the Day" and Mutt and Jeff animated cartoon all were splendid. The Imperial's orchestra supplied the musical cues and popular selections with their usual excellence.

STANDARD'S SPORTING SECTION

Fredericton Next In Line

Everything is Now Ready for a Great Exhibition of Speed at Capital.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 15.—The Fredericton 1919 Exhibition races are to start tomorrow afternoon at the Trotting Park, adjoining the Exhibition Grounds, and during the next four days the harness horses will compete in eleven stakes and class events for $4,400 in purses.

The opening day's programme for tomorrow has what appear to be three good races. While Toss has been winning so consistently that she should be a top-heavy favorite in the 2:30 stake and on form ought to clear up that event without any more trouble than she had here in July, both the 2:14 stake and the 2:16 stake will doubtless furnish a lot of racing.

Royal McKinley will be started in the 2:14 class, if the owners of the other horses are agreeable, and the race will bring Roy Volo and Baron A. together again to settle their differences, while both Mack showed at Woodstock that the time has come when he has to be figured on, too.

The Exposer, Tommy Cotter, Jennie Penn, Lacopia and Cowin Hal make up a well-matched field for the 2:16 stake, and it may be that the big trotter will go to the wire as the favorite.

The recent rains, followed by the past couple of days of fine weather, have made the track faster than it was in July, although the turns are still somewhat heavy.

The free-for-all on Wednesday is expected to be as good as the race for the last record pacers proved here in July, when there was more money in the pool box than ever before in the east. Fern Hal, 2:05 1/2, will be back fighting it out with the Maritime Circuit free-for-all this week, after a whirl at the Aroostook circuit, where she was eligible to start in the 2:12 classes. John A. Hal's win at St. Stephen with a third heat in 2:10 has added a lot of uncertainty to the meeting of the fast record pacers here on Wednesday, while White Sox, 2:03 1/4, has given evidence of returning to the fire form she showed last fall. Archie Johnson, it is said, will drive Peter Farrer, 2:07, the St. John pacer, in Wednesday's race here, and also in his future races throughout the season.

STAR ATHLETES TO COMPETE IN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Fast performances in track and field competitions bear a striking similarity to the turf, for to get a line on possible champions the dope is the most handy guide to follow. Recent combination display of speed and wonderful vaulting, broad jumping and hurdling in the Middle West, as compared with the best achievements in the East, makes it appear as if the visitors will clean up in both the junior and senior national championships when they invade Franklin Field, Philadelphia, where the pair of A.A.U. fixtures will be contested on Friday and Saturday, September 12 and 13.

The weight throwers may score more of the points for the Eastern team. The local "whales" Pat H. Loomis, Pat Ryan and Max McGrath, should score fifteen pounds among them in the shot, fifty-six pound weight and hammer. Not since the beginning of the world's war has a greater meet been scheduled that the coming one, what with the return of the inter-laked winners and the general rehabilitation of the pastime. The championships were held last year at the Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago, but they were not a success competitively speaking, because most of the stars were in No Man's Land chasing the Hun. In the picture are shown some of the stars who will compete.

Thames Provided Another Mystery

Dog Sole Survivor of Crew of Barge Which Sank After Collision.

The Thames has provided London with a mystery which deserves to rank with the stories of missing ships and crews in the pages of romance.

The barge Atalanta was proceeding up the river in ballast. Her destination was Poplar. The crew consisted of Harry Obee, the skipper, a woman, the mate, possibly a fourth hand, and a dog.

When off Woolwich the vessel sank suddenly after a slight collision. The dog was the only survivor. River police began a search for the bodies of the crew, but their efforts were unsuccessful. The theory was that the

LITTLE BITS OF SPORT CHATTER

Reports from Shekville indicate that Mount Allison will have a strong Rugby team this fall. Many returned men, who were formerly stars on the maritime gridiron, will be back at the University and everything points to a great aggregation of football material. Many of the men, who were overseas kept in trim and had much valuable experience in the English game. Brundage will have charge of the coaching.

They are still rowing over in Halifax. Last Saturday they had a Monmouth Harbor regatta and next Halifax the harbor single sculls Championship race will be held.

Joe Beckett has discovered a new blow called "the mutton chop." We have had "the occipital punch," "the ulnar blow," "the Mary Ann," "the solar plexus" and a host of other freak blows, but this sure is a new one in fistiana.

A boxing club on the plan of the National Sporting Club of London will do an immense good in elevating the game. It comes at the very best time never had such general recognition for its value, but if it is to keep up its popularity, it must have a potential influence that will keep it clean.

Alfred Shrubb, the world's record holder at many running distances, did not make an impressive showing in his five-mile race against a trotter at Horsham, England, the middle of August. He was beaten a lap and three-quarters, the pony doing 26m. 1s. to Shrubb's 35m. 8 1/2s. The old champion will have to show improved pace to take any of the good men on the other side.

R. D. Sears, the first American lawn tennis champion, was the youngest man to win the title, when he took his first championship. He and Bob Wrenn were the only champions to win in their teens. Sears' age was 19 years and 10 months, and Wrenn's, 19 years and 11 months. In doubles Vincent Richards holds the record as the youngest of all champions.

Heine Zimmerman has the courage to come out and acknowledge that he ought to have had more sense than draw a suspension from John McGraw. He differs from McGraw only on the degree of his punishment.

McDonald is pretty well peeved that Kloby Corcoran of Lawrence should overlook Dave Powers of Malden. He claims he had been promised a bout by Billy Bell and would have taken it, but Kloby Morgan was in town on Saturday arranging for the teams for the Fitz-Kloby bout next Saturday at Lawrence, he put up $3,000 to $2,000 that Fitzsimmons would win, and then offered Bell $1,000 to $2,000 that Fitz would win on a K. O. Bell closed on the former proposition, but declared he would have to consider the K. O. argument. It looks a tough scrap, whichever man wins, and another big bout for Lawrence.

Mrs. E. A. Sturdee's Glencho Connemara" won second prize in Limit Class, second in open class, Reserve Winners, and the beautiful bronze medal for the best dog bred by exhibitor, given by the Irish Setter Club of America. In the classes were five dogs, making the largest class of Irish Setters there has been in any show outside of New York.

The Dog Show was held at Syracuse, N. Y., where a very large number of dogs were entered. Mrs. Sturdee has been appointed by the Irish Setter Club of America, an official judge for dog shows to be held in Boston and other cities.

Dog experts and others who love dogs should enjoy the show here this week. It is announced that the best dogs available will be on view here.

BREAK THROUGH THE BOLSHEVİK LINES

London, Sept. 15.—A Russian communique received by the War office says an airplane reconnoitring says that General Kamotouev, commander of the Anti-Bolshevik Cossacks, who about the middle of August broke through the Bolshevik lines, is still operating behind the Bolshevik one hundred miles west of Spokov. He has cut the railway, seriously interfering with Bolshevik ammunition and supplies.

Ill-fated people on board would be found in the cabin, which was half-filled with water.

The Atalanta was raised yesterday and the mystery deepened. The salvage operations revealed the fact that twenty feet of the fore part of the vessel had been cut away.

When the vessel was raised there was no sign of any bodies in the cabin. What became of them? Is it possible that the crew had time to escape in a small boat? Were they washed off the vessel and carried out to sea? The authorities are trying to solve the riddle of the river.—London Press.

Famous Engineer Died in London

Charles M. Jacobs Built Hudson Tube and Other Great Works Both in Europe and America.

Word was received here yesterday of the death, Sunday in London of Mr. Charles M. Jacobs, civil engineer, who built the Hudson tubes, the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnels under the Hudson and East rivers and made plans for many other tunnels and bridges in and about this city.

At the time of his death he was working under orders of the French government on plans for a tunnel under the Seine River from Rouen to Havre.

Mr. Jacobs was an Englishman, born June 8, 1850, in Hull. Graduated from Cambridge University, he became an apprentice in an engineering and shipbuilding firm in Hull. Later he opened an office of his own and in 1886 moved to London.

In 1889 he came to this country, summoned by the late Auesta Corbin, president of the Long Island Railroad, to become general adviser in engineering matters. He began work on a rapid transit system to connect Manhattan, Brooklyn and New Jersey.

Mr. Jacobs superintended many borings for a line to run from Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, to Coney Island street, Manhattan, and hence across the Hudson River to a junction with the Pennsylvania Railroad in Jersey City.

Then in 1901 Mr. Jacobs began plans and made borings for the East River tunnel under the Hudson River. This work was completed in 1904, after Mr. Jacobs had taken direct charge of the contracting end of the venture.

Mr. Jacobs also began plans for the New York and Long Island bridge of the Long Island Railroad across the East River and Blackwell's Island, but the project was suspended upon Mr. Corbin's death.

After working on the project of a passenger tunnel under the Hudson River in 1909, Mr. Jacobs became the designer and practical constructor of the company formed in 1902 to build the McArdoo tubes. In his work on the four Hudson tubes and the Pennsylvania Railroad tubes beneath the Hudson and East rivers he was senior member of the firm of Jacobs and Davis, from which he later retired.

Mr. Jacobs prided himself on the security of the workmen employed in his projects. During the six years required to build the McArdoo tubes there was not one death from the effects of the compressed air. Many of the safety devices were invented by the engineer himself.

Mr. Jacobs was a member of the Engineers' and Railroad Clubs, of New York and of London, and of the Royal Society and the Royal Automobile Club, of London, as well as of many engineering societies in this country and in England.

PRES. WILSON IS POUNDING AGAINST A STONE WALL

Chicago, Sept. 8.—In a statement issued here today Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, declared that President Wilson was pounding against a stone wall in attempting to have the peace treaty ratified without reservations.

Chairman Hays' statement follows: "I agree with President Wilson that the treaty will be ratified but the ratification will be accompanied by reservations absolutely safeguarding the full independence and freedom of action of this republic. That is the simple fact which the President may as well recognize first and last. At present he is only pounding against a stone wall of partyism which has already become impregnable and is daily increasing in width, strength and height.

"The committee reservations constitute the irreducible minimum of requirements of a substantial majority of Senators who cannot be coerced or cajoled into violating their oaths of office to hold America first. There is no partnership in their position. True, every American Senator stands with the committee, but because he is an American—not because he is a Republican.

"I sincerely believe that an actual majority of the Democratic Senators feel the same way and evidence is multiplying daily that when the time comes a considerable number will vote the same way.

"It is for the President to determine when the test shall be made. The treaty will be reported out this week, and a vote can be had as soon as it can be reached under the rules, unless it is delayed by Senators acting under the direction of the President himself. It is simply now up to the administration to decide whether it will or will not accept at once these essential guarantees of American independence, which will unquestionably be promptly accepted by the other nations. It is imperative that this matter be settled right. It ought, by all means, to be settled promptly. The full responsibility for any delay will rest on the President and him alone."

WOMAN'S REALM

IN THE HOME AND OUTSIDE

LET'S TALK IT OVER

ON HAVING THE BLUES.

Perhaps this is not a good subject to dwell upon for it is certainly a condition which thinking about does not improve unless the thought is directed in the right way, or supervised, so to speak.

However, let us talk about it for a little while because I think I know something about it and maybe you do too.

I wonder does the feeling of down-in-the-dumps effect you as it does a friend of mine. She always buys something which she has wanted for some time, but knew she could not afford to have. She argues that, while depressed, she is sure that nobody loves her and nobody is nice to her, so she might as well be good to herself and make herself a handsome present. She says it helps quite a lot and points to a beautiful string of pearls the result of the last period of down-heartedness.

People, who are acquainted with this little trait of her character, remark that it would be cheaper in the long run for her husband to keep her in a good humor, for she sends the bills for her presents to him and if he does not pay them another bit of the blues ensues.

Some persons advise a good book, a box of chocolates and time to "drive dull care away," while Rudyard Kipling writes, in direct contradiction to this:

"The cure for this ill is not to sit still Or frown with a book o'er the face, But to take a large hoe and a shovel also And dig till you gently perspire."

This advice you see holds good both summer and winter, for, lacking the garden in December you can still tackle the snowdrifts and thus work off the "Hump that is black and blue," which Mr. Kipling seems to know so well.

Truly, I believe that the surest remedy is the forgetfulness of self in the service of others. The minute you begin to count your troubles they pile up higher than Mount Everest, but if it is possible to be of use to somebody else, then it is brought home to you that you are still valuable, even though you may have been feeling worthless and mean.

Perhaps your feelings have been hurt and that has caused the blues. Well, if people have been horrid, comfort can be obtained by the consciousness of your own superiority and the fact that you would never do anything like that. It is well to be sure of this latter statement, for, on digging into the past, incidents not to one's own credit may be discovered and this also has a salutary effect for then you can smile at the thought of your own conduct, and once you have smiled, the blues take flight rapidly.

They can be chased away if your health is good and they can be conured away by change of scene or even of thought, so there is always a cure somewhere. One thing is certain they must never be encouraged for they grow rapidly into a paramount instead of a passing mood and then people in authority have to look up the victim of melancholia.

So try any or all of these methods if you are a sufferer and one or the other will change your outlook in life from azure to a normal rosy hue. It's a pretty good world after all.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT IT? MARGUERITE.

WHAT THE WAR DID.

It has been hard to get a laundress in Alexandria. War-time conditions have enabled many who earned their living at the tub to turn to less arduous pursuits, with the result that there is a scarcity of "wash ladies." The condition is one paralleled in many other cities.

"Aunt Lucy," said one Alexandrian woman, addressing a colored woman whom she had known for many years, "don't you know some one who can do my washing?"

"Aunt Lucy smiled. "No, mamam, I don't know no one," she said.

"The woman made a last attempt. "Don't you do it for me, Aunt Lucy?" she asked, with a winning smile.

"Deed, chile," said Aunt Lucy. "I don't have to do no washing no more."

"Why?" asked the woman.

"Well, honey, hit is jes like this," explained Aunt Lucy with nice distinction. "De Civil War made us free, and de World War has made us independent."—Washington Star.

LAUNDRY BY AIR.

"I am going to send my washing to Paris next week," said an enterprising housewife to a Daily Express representative, when told that the Aircraft Manufacturing Company are starting a service to the French capital on Monday and will take small parcels of laundry there for 3s. 6d.

Hundreds of housewives are now thinking out various schemes to combat the laundry profiteers who in addition to charging extortionate prices are exacting a high percentage of the total of the bill, demand a guaranteed weekly amount before they will call for the "washing."

"Laundry work today is absolutely ruinous to clothes and collars," remarked another woman, who also said she intended to give the French laundries a trial.

Beyond the Lap Age. He was probably the smallest "midny" in the navy, and one evening he was invited to attend a party in the saloon. He was such a little chap that the ladies had no idea that he was a midshipman at all, but took him for somebody's "dear little boy" in a royal navy all-wool serge. At least one of them, on whose lap he had been sitting and who had just kissed him, asked: "And how old are you, little dear?"

"Twenty-two," he said in a voice like a fog horn. Then the lady swooned.

Women formed the majority of the eight Nationalists and three Unionists who appeared at Londonberry yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct at the recent Nationalist demonstration when the soldiers were called out to help the police.

It was stated that the trouble was started by the Nationalists rushing up and attacking a Unionist crowd in another street. The Nationalists waved Sinn Fein flags, and advanced to the attack with shouts of "Up Dublin!" "Up Rebels!" "Down with Carson!"

The Unionists replied by waving Union Jacks and crimson flags, and by shouting "Up Carson!" and singing "Derry Walls."

One Unionist in his shirt and trousers put a crimson sash on a Unionist woman and encouraged her in her cries of "Up Carson!" and "No surrender." A demobilized Nationalist approached a soldier in a military coron and threatened to take his rifle from him. The soldier presented his bayonet and the Nationalist uncovered his breast and invited the soldier to pierce it "with the sword."

Stones were thrown and during the day there was great risk of a serious riot. All the persons charged were bound over.

It was stated that during the rioting a number of shops were looted, and one boot-maker said that £260 worth of boots were stolen from his premises.—London Express.

FRANCE ISSUES LOTTERY LOAN

Paris, Sept. 14.—M. Lefevre, in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, introduced a Bill authorizing the issue of a lottery loan of £2,400,000,000 without interest.

The lottery would take the form of an issue of 120,000,000 bonds of £24 each reimbursable at par by half-yearly drawings over a period of twenty years.

There would also be prize drawings. Thus, every day for two years a number would be drawn which would win £50,000, and every week two numbers winning £20,000 and ten winning £4,000.

The most decorated woman of the war is probably Mrs. Hilda Wynne, of the British Red Cross Society, who was awarded no fewer than seven medals, crosses and other distinguished honors for her fearless efforts on behalf of the wounded fighters in Italy, France, Belgium and Russia.

The woman's stockade at the United States prison barracks, Fort Oglethorpe, has been closed. Mrs. Henry H. Morgan, executive officer of the barracks, will return to her home in Madison, Wis., where she will organize the newly-established state bureau of child hygiene.

Miss Zella de Milhau, of Southampton, L. I., has received the gold Medaille de la Reconnaissance from the French Government. This makes the fourth medal Miss de Milhau has received for her bravery and devotion to duty during the war. She donated an ambulance and drove it herself nearly two years.

Well Trained. "I tried my best to find out if that new man was married, and I don't know yet," said the spinster lady at the boarding house.

"I found out before ten minutes had passed," said the wise widow. "He is married."

"How did you know?" "He listened to everybody who started to talk without once interrupting."

None of His Business Anyway. Out in California, one year, instead of changing the license numbers on the automobiles, the bear insignia which each plate carried was changed to a poppy. One young lady, entirely ignorant of any such regulations, was driving her absent-minded father's car downtown one day and was held up by a policeman.

"I beg your pardon, miss, but where is your poppy?" asked the policeman.

"Oh," she replied, "he's home with mommy."

SUGGESTIONS FOR NEW MILITIA
Reorganization Discussed at Important Gathering of Officers Yesterday.
Montreal, Sept. 10.—Preliminary steps which are expected to lead to the long hoped for reorganization of the Canadian active militia, cavalry, artillery and infantry, were taken yesterday at one of the most important meetings of overseas and home service officers ever held in Montreal, possibly in Canada. On the results of this meeting it is thought likely that the whole programme for the re-birth of the Canadian militia, following the disorganization during five years of war, will be put into effect. The progress was achieved, especially with regard to tentative suggestions for the reorganization of the city regiments throughout Canada, in the larger centres, and the absorption and perpetuation of the overseas units. While any plans presented were merely in the nature of suggestions, to be acted upon or not later on, the general idea was that the identity of the historic Canadian regiments must be preserved, while at the same time the identity and records of the overseas daughter battalions must not be allowed to drop. A suggestion agreed upon was that the city regiments should be continued as at present with their names, records, numerals and other traditions intact. At the same time it was considered best that their daughter battalions, which had served so gloriously overseas, must preserve their identity equally. The suggestion was that these overseas battalions should become absorbed into the strength of the mother regiments, still preserving their overseas identity and numerals, as battalions forming part of the original regiments from which they had been organized. It is probable that this plan will be adopted in other military divisions throughout Canada, and become the basis on which the reorganization of the Canadian active militia, with the absorption of the overseas battalions, will be built up.

The meeting comprised commanding officers of all the overseas and home units of the Military Division. It had been called by Major-General Sir William Oter, accompanied by Major-General W. Gwatkin, Major-General Sir Edward Morrison and Brig-General A. McNaughton. These four staff officers comprise a committee which at the Montreal meeting started to inquire into conditions with regard to the reorganization of the Canadian militia, and the assimilation of the overseas units with the battalions of the original regiments from which they had been organized. It is probable that this plan will be adopted in other military divisions throughout Canada, and become the basis on which the reorganization of the Canadian active militia, with the absorption of the overseas battalions, will be built up.

NON-PARTISAN CRY FOR QUICK RETURN OF A. E. F. IN RUSSIA
House Members of Both Parties Back Mason Asking Troops Withdrawal.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—A marked non-partisan demonstration favoring action by Congress ordering the immediate return of American military forces now in Russia took place in the House today. It occurred during a speech by Representative Mason, Republican, of Illinois, asking for the passage of a resolution he has introduced directing the immediate return home of American soldiers in all Russian territory.
President Wilson and Newton Baker, Secretary of War, were sharply criticized by Mr. Mason for alleged violation of American precedents, laws, and traditions in maintaining an armed force in a country with which we are not technically at war. He charged that President Wilson was "trying to make himself King instead of President of the United States," and declared that Congress had power to bring our soldiers out of Russia, and that it should be done at once.
Representative Wingo, Democrat, of Arkansas, suggested that Mr. Mason bring the question to the vote in the House at once, and gave assurances that the Republicans as the majority party would make it possible, the Democrats would join in voting in favor of the resolution.
Spontaneous applause from practically every member in the House greeted Mr. Wingo's suggestion and if there were any undue delay on the part of the Military Affairs committee in reporting the resolution he would ask the discharge of the committee from consideration of his resolution and ask for an immediate Non-Partisan vote. This proposal also was greeted with tremendous applause, in which a majority of both political parties joined.
A long list of precedents was cited by Mr. Mason, to prove that Congress had the right to order the return of our soldiers from foreign shores, and he demanded that Congress brook no delay on the part of the chief executive and the Secretary of War, but take matters into its own hands and pass legislation ordering the soldiers to be returned.
"President Wilson is trying to make himself King instead of President of the United States," shouted Mr. Mason, "and Congress should not permit it. These American soldiers in Russia, have no right to be kept there, never intended to serve any such purpose, and ought to be brought back at once."
Mr. Mason, charged further that Japan was keeping a larger force of soldiers in Russia, than she had agreed to, for the purpose of acquiring territory in Russia. He severely criticized the Secretary of War for not ordering American soldiers out of Russia at once.

NON-PARTISAN CRY FOR QUICK RETURN OF A. E. F. IN RUSSIA
House Members of Both Parties Back Mason Asking Troops Withdrawal.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—A marked non-partisan demonstration favoring action by Congress ordering the immediate return of American military forces now in Russia took place in the House today. It occurred during a speech by Representative Mason, Republican, of Illinois, asking for the passage of a resolution he has introduced directing the immediate return home of American soldiers in all Russian territory.
President Wilson and Newton Baker, Secretary of War, were sharply criticized by Mr. Mason for alleged violation of American precedents, laws, and traditions in maintaining an armed force in a country with which we are not technically at war. He charged that President Wilson was "trying to make himself King instead of President of the United States," and declared that Congress had power to bring our soldiers out of Russia, and that it should be done at once.
Representative Wingo, Democrat, of Arkansas, suggested that Mr. Mason bring the question to the vote in the House at once, and gave assurances that the Republicans as the majority party would make it possible, the Democrats would join in voting in favor of the resolution.
Spontaneous applause from practically every member in the House greeted Mr. Wingo's suggestion and if there were any undue delay on the part of the Military Affairs committee in reporting the resolution he would ask the discharge of the committee from consideration of his resolution and ask for an immediate Non-Partisan vote. This proposal also was greeted with tremendous applause, in which a majority of both political parties joined.
A long list of precedents was cited by Mr. Mason, to prove that Congress had the right to order the return of our soldiers from foreign shores, and he demanded that Congress brook no delay on the part of the chief executive and the Secretary of War, but take matters into its own hands and pass legislation ordering the soldiers to be returned.
"President Wilson is trying to make himself King instead of President of the United States," shouted Mr. Mason, "and Congress should not permit it. These American soldiers in Russia, have no right to be kept there, never intended to serve any such purpose, and ought to be brought back at once."
Mr. Mason, charged further that Japan was keeping a larger force of soldiers in Russia, than she had agreed to, for the purpose of acquiring territory in Russia. He severely criticized the Secretary of War for not ordering American soldiers out of Russia at once.

Provincial Jobs For The Local Men

Local War Veterans Will Ask Government to Consider Matter of Appointments in Province.

The local branch of the G. W. V. A. met in monthly session last evening with the president, N. P. McLeod, in the chair. The matter of men from outside New Brunswick taking positions in this province was discussed and a resolution calling upon the government to give New Brunswick jobs to New Brunswickers was passed. A telegram from the Dominion secretary asking for information regarding the re-establishment of returned men was read.

More than fifty new members were added to the association last evening. The committee having charge of the recent fair reported that the net proceeds were somewhat over $7,500. The Veterans' Band was taken under the wing of the association and will become the official band of the local branch of the G. W. V. A.

The resolution regarding the employment of New Brunswickers in New Brunswick positions was passed as follows:

Whereas it has been for many years and is at the present time the practice of the Dominion government to make appointments both civil and military in the Province of New Brunswick of non-residents of said province, and

Whereas this practice of the present government as well as of past governments is an unfair and improper discrimination against residents of this province, and

Whereas New Brunswick has been represented on the battlefield of Europe by a large proportion of its citizens and is consequently entitled to the same consideration in the matter of appointments as the other provinces, and

Whereas there are at present in this province men, who have seen service in the great war capable of filling the positions held by those who were not residents of New Brunswick previous to the war but now holding positions in New Brunswick in the gift of the several departments of the government, and

Whereas it is considered that men with a thorough knowledge of local conditions can assure a more satisfactory and economical handling of public affairs,

Therefore resolved, that this branch of the Great War Veterans' Association registers an emphatic protest against the ignoring of the legitimate claims of the returned soldiers of New Brunswick to these positions and demand that all holding such appointments be either transferred to their own provinces or that the positions be declared vacant and New Brunswickers appointed to fill such vacancies;

And further resolved that a delegation be appointed to go to Ottawa and lay the claim of New Brunswick before the Dominion cabinet and endeavor to secure redress from them and

And further resolved that copies of these resolutions be sent to each branch of the G. W. V. A. in New Brunswick and that they be asked to endorse this resolution and be asked to appoint a delegate to accompany the delegate from this branch.

And further resolved that copies of these resolutions be sent to members of the cabinet and to all the members of parliament for New Brunswick and also to the senator from New Brunswick.

The Y. W. P. A. entertainment committee announced that a dance under the joint auspices of this association and the G. W. V. A. would be held on the night of September 26.

Lemon Extract Drinkers Made By Poor Cooking

Statement Made at Women's Institute Meeting Last Evening - Announcement Made That Bread is to be Wrapped.

Arrangements for the Convention to be held in October and for the cooking and sewing classes to begin shortly took up much of the attention of the members of the Women's Institute at their meeting last evening. Mrs. J. V. W. Lawlor presided.

It is expected that some 125 delegates will come to St. John for the convention and the following committees were appointed: Entertainment, Mrs. A. D. C. Wilson; Drives or trips, Mrs. A. J. Mulcahy; Mrs. H. Doody; Mrs. Max Marcus; Housing, Mrs. Walter Golding; Decoration, Mrs. T. N. Vincent; Publicity, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor.

It is expected that the speakers will be Mrs. Murphree, Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Rose Henderson.

It was decided to hold a rummage sale in conjunction with the Free Kindergarten.

The president spoke on women's work, pointing out the necessity for educating people in domestic science, and saying that one half the lemon extract drinkers came from homes where food was not properly cooked.

Girls should be taught to cook and sew, and until the vocational school building was an actual fact it was left for such organizations as the Women's Institute to undertake the work.

Miss Roach then explained the proposed programme for the sewing and cooking classes and it was decided to hold these next week. The sewing classes will be divided into instruction for beginners, re-modelling and the making of new garments. At the cooking classes great attention will be paid to invalid cookery. Letters are to be sent to the various organizations of young women in the city asking for names of those who will take advantage of these classes.

Mrs. Lawlor announced that she had absolute assurance from Hon. Dr. Roberts that the bread would be wrapped in the Dominion's first province in the Dominion to carry out this measure.

A King Square Crap Game Held - A Dozen Players Took Part in the Performance - Bevy of Damsels With Painted Faces and Stockings Were Also in Evidence.

A crap game was in full swing on King Square Sunday afternoon, about a bevy of damsels pronounced the game was marked by a great deal of noisy enthusiasm and language somewhat colorful. So far as could be learned there was no police interference. The game went on for hours without a policeman heaving in sight to investigate the racket.

While the crap game was in progress a bevy of damsels pronounced the square, attracting as much attention as a parade of polymorphians. The damsels were the last players in proportion. They had cropped hair, very short skirts, low necks and painted legs. The moving pictures were somewhat striking. Never was there so much interest in an art exhibition among the rubber necks of the city. A gentleman who was stopping at a hotel on King Square looked out of his window and then called the proprietor on the telephone.

"Say, isn't this city getting a little up-to-date for a Sunday afternoon?" he asked.

"What is the matter now?" "Well, I guess the Brewery has got nothing on St. John, or even Boston in a police strike."

And across the street the excited crap players went on boisterously with their game to the amusement of the scandalized passersby, and the ladies with the cropped hair and painted legs passed in their promenade to demurely survey the scene.

Meeting of The Y. W. C. A. Directors

Reports Last Evening Showed Increase in Number of Boarders - Travellers' Aid Reported - Arrangements for Dominion Session.

A meeting of the directors of the Y. W. C. A. was held last evening in the Association building. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. F. Robertson was in the chair. Miss Brock, of Redway, conducted the opening devotional exercises. The house committee's report showed that there had been considerable increase in the number of boarders at the home, the number being now 35. There has also been an increase in the number of transactions accommodated.

The travellers' aid committee reported that they had met 264 trains and 24 boats, and had brought to the home 139 women. The work of this committee is increasing, and it is important to have more generally realized the support of the public would be stronger. Among the interesting travellers during the month was a boy of nine years who accompanied the Association in about a dozen cities, and from here was sent on to Sydney, Cape Breton. The boy had travelled thousands of miles under the auspices of the Association, which relayed him from city to city.

Arrangements were discussed for the Dominion Y. W. C. A. which meets here in October 5 and 6, when matters of national interest will be discussed, and when the public will be welcomed to the meetings.

You know it's hard to judge distances in the dim light; one foot may look like three.
