2. Any animal or article not deemed worthy of a prize, where there is no competition, shall not be entitled to it.

6. Exhibitors of Agricultural Implements, articles of Mechanical Manufacture and Ladies' Work, must be the manufacturer of each article, or his or her authorized agent.

The onus of proof shall rest with the protested party. The Board of Directors, however, earnestly hope that exhibitors will not enter protests without the strongest grounds for so doing, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is often occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature.

11. That tickets issued by the Secretary be attached to the different animals or articles within stated time and while the judges are inspecting the same every one not necessary will be required to withdraw from that part of the ground.

12. Membership will be retained for the next year ensuing from the parties obtaining prizes at this exhibition.

17. Persons taking prizes must apply to the Secretary on or before November 30th, ensuing, or forfeit such prizes.

18. Any person may become a member of this Society by paying $1 to the Secretary or any of the Directors. A member of this Society shall be entitled to two admission tickets.
