LORD ROBERTS

Says He Hopes To Be About in a Few Days.

Boers Defeated at Vanderspan—The Lancers Do Effective Work-Kruger in France Talks Fight.

London, Nov. 22.-The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Johannesburg.

"My horse fell with me Sunday and bruised me somewhat. Am doing well. Hope to be about in a few days."

Bloemfontein, Nov. 22.-The Boers under Brand were defeated Nov. 19, at Vaderspan, with heavy losses, the lancers charging through the flying line and doing deadly damage, as a number of riderless horses demonstrated. Brand himself was wounded. The British casualties were not serious. Cape Town, Nov. 22.-The health officer certifies that the disease prevailing at Izeli, near King Williamstown, is the bubonic plague. Another case was reported today.

KRUGER'S BLUSTER. Marseilles, Nov. 22.—Mr. Kruger is doubtless elated at the warmth of his reception by the people of Marseilles today. The fighting declaration he made at the landing-stage dispelled any impression that he might intend to accept a compromise from the British Government. His announcement was greeted with a roar of cheers and cries of "Vive Kruger," "Vive les Boers," "Vive la liberte." Mr. Kruger repeated the sentiment from the hotel balcony where, replying to the ac-clamations of the people, he said the reception given him today would do much to soothe the wounds in his heart. "The Boers," said he, "would never sacrifice their freedom. would rather be exterminated to a man.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of Sir Arthur Sullivan, Who Composed the Music of "Pinafore," "Patience" and Other Popular Operas.

London, Nov. 22 .- Sir Arthur Sullivan, the musical composer, is dead, the result of heart failure. Sir Arthur Sullivan's death was very unexpected. It occurred at 9 o'clock this morning. While he was laughing and talking to a friend he fell back and died within a few minutes of heart failure. He had been ailing for some time, but it was not believed his heart was affected. Recently he had been in better health than for some weeks past. Sir Arthur Sullivan had been ailing since he returned from Switzerland, in the middle of September. He caught a chill there and his chest and lungs became affected. He took to his bed a fortnight ago, but was convalescing and sitting up in his bed just before he expired. The afternoon newspapers print long eulogies.

Arthur Seymour Sullivan was born in London, May 13, 1842. He received musical instruction at the Chapel Social, St. James, and at the Conservatorium, Leipzig. His operas, cantatas, etc., are too well known to need more than reference. He was a member of a large number of foreign learned and musical societies. The honorary de-gree of Doctor of Music he received from both Cambridge and Oxford. He was a Chevalier of the Legion Honor, a Knight of the Order of the House of Coburg, and had received from the Sultan of Turkey the Order of the Medjidieh. He was knighted by the Queen at Windsor in 1883.

MR. KRUGER AT MARSEILLES

Ex-President of the Transvaal Breathes Out Defiance of the British.

Marseilles, Nov. 22.-Ex-President Kruger of the Transvaal landed here at 10:45 this morning from the steamer Gelderland. The weather was beautiful and the Boer leader received a magnificent demonstration. The whole route from the landing place to his hotel was crowded with people. He appeared to be in good health, and repeatedly took off his high hat in acknowledging the acclamations of the people. Replying to the address of welcome, Mr. Kruger spoke in Dutch, and in a low voice: but he accompanied his words with energetic movements of his hat which he held in his right hand. After thanking the committees for the warmth of the reception accorded him, and expressing gratitude for the sympathy he had received from the French government, he spoke of the war as being terrible, and barbar-ously conducted by the British. He

"I have fought with savages, but the present war is even worse. We will never surrender. We are determined to fight to the last extremity, and if the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State lose their independence it will be because they have lost every man, woman and child."

During the past ten years the population of Toronto has increased on an average of 4,700 for each year. In Hamilton the births have decreas ed 156 below the returns of 1898. Dr. Bryce says that the decrease in the birth rate is largely due to care-lessness in registration. A Toronto gentleman called on Dr. Bryce yesterday and informed him that he had just ascertained that the births of none of his five children had been registered. The gentleman explained that he had left that duty to the family doctor, who had failed to make the registra-

PROVINCE GETS $15,000.

Toronto, Nov. 22.-A compromise has been arrived at between the Ontario Government and the executors of the late James Austin, president of the Dominion Bank, by which the government receives $15,000 instead. $1,800 succession duties. The estate was probated at $72,000, but the government entered suit to recover duties on $648,000 transferred five years before Mr. Austin's death. Similar actions are pending in the estate of Wm. Duffield, late president of the London Gas Company, and the estate of the late John Breben, of Kingston. Mr. Duffield is alleged to have transferred nearly $500,000 worth of property, and Mr. Breben $30,000, which would bring the Breben estate below the $200,000 mark, thereby escaping the 5 per cent tax. Up to $200,000 the tax is 21/2 per cent.

POLITICAL POINTS

Mr. Klock's Little Game—The Sifton Banquet-Returns Recounted.

MR. BELCOURT ELECTED.

The result of the recount in Ottawa is to have Mr. Belcourt elected by 17 over Ald. Champagne. In one poll the deputy returning officer put the number on each ballot, instead of on the counterfoil. This poll was thrown out, by which Mr. Belcourt lost eight votes more than his opponent.

LAYING PIPES FOR A SQUEAL. On behalf of J. B. Klock, W. D. McPherson has prepared a petition to the high court of justice, claiming the seat in the commons for Nipissing on the ground that notices were issued and a writ was published calling for nominations on Oct. 31. Mr. Klock attended on the day and at the hour named, prepared to be nominated, but the returning officer failed to attend. The case, it is believed, is the first of the sort on record, the returning officer, on instructions from Ottawa, having canceled the date of election.

WILL KEMP RESIGN? It is stated that arrangements are on foot to get Mr. Kemp, of East Toronto, to resign his seat for Hon. George E. Foster, so that the latter may be appointed leader of the party. Friends of Mr. Foster say that he is not very anxious for the job. THE SIFTON BANQUET.

It is intended that the Sifton banquet, which will be on Dec. 11, and at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be among the guests, shall not merely be a Toronto affair. Liberals from all over Ontario will be welcomed at the banquet, which is intended as a recognition by this province of the splendid services of the minister of the interior in settling the west. In cases where parties from out-of-town points desire to have accommodation by themselves, an endeavor will be made to provide tables for them. Already arrangements have been made by a number of parties from places in Western Ontario to attend the banquet. WELLAND BYE-ELECTION. The election of W. M. German, former member for the Ontario House, to the House of Commons, left Welland county without representation in the local house, and the Liberals assembled in the Welland court house on Wednesday to select a candidate. The attendance was large, and Mr. J. F. Gross, barrister, Welland, was chosen. Mr. Gross thanked the delegates and accepted the nomination, predicting a victory. He spoke upon the assessment law, and the Niagara Falls power question, both of which he hoped to have improved upon. Mr. Harcourt, in a short address, referred to what the government had done for the dairy and agricultural interests.

DEMONSTRATORS DISAPPOINTED. Marseilles, Nov. 22-A blunder in the calculations of the time the Geiderland would require between Port Said and Marseilles resulted in the fizzing out yesterday of the intended demonstration to Mr. Kruger. The Boer delegates (victims of the organizing committee) waited expectantly at hotel from early morning until the afternoon the arrival of the cruiser. For several hours the carriage intended for Mr. Kruger remained at the en-trance of the hotel, the horses, which were decorated with rosettes of Boer colors, pawing the ground until the equipage was dismissed. Various dele-gations and societies that had assembled at the landing stage remained there through heavy showers until they realized in the non-signaling of the Gelderland that their presence was futile. Then they disbanded.

MISHAP TO THE FRIESLAND. Southampton, Nov. 21.-The Red Star Southampton, Nov. 21.—The Red Star Line steamer Friesland (Capt. Nickols), which sailed from New York Nov. 7, for this port and Antwerp, passed Hurst Castle at 9:35 this morning in tow of the steamer Cluden. The Friesland's rudder was disabled. She had been taken in tow by the Cluden in the vicinity of the Scilly Islands.

Inquiries made after the steamer's arrival here show that the Friesland's rudder stock is broken off. The weather was stormy, and she lay helpless in the trough of the sea for several hours until the Cluden took her in tow and brought her to within a few miles of the Needles where she was taken in hand by two Southampton tugs. As the Cluden steamed off, her great services were recognized by loud cheers from the passengers. Congressman Irving P. Wagner, of Norristown, Pa., Thomas Reid, of New York, and other passengers on the Friesland who were interviewed, highly praise the conduct

SOCIALISTS FOR SIPIDO.

Brussels, Nov. 22.-In the Chamber of Deputies the socialists made an attack on the government for the extra-dition from France of Sipido, the youth assassinate the Prince of Wales in this city some months ago. M. Vandervelde, the socialist leader in the house, declared that Sipido's extradition was illegal, and that it had been made by the in-tervention of King Leopold, who was prompted thereto by a desire to propitiate Great Britain.

M. Vanderheuvelt, minister of justice, defending the government's action in the case, declared that Sipido had been surrendered to the Belgian authorities by France in virtue of the Franco-Belgian convention of 1898, which provided that each nation should surrender to the other refugee minors who acted without discretion.

St. Louis, Nov. 22.-News was received here last night of the holding up of the Iron Mountain Cannonball passenger train, north-bound at Gif-ford, Ark., a few miles this side of Malvern Junction. The hold-up occurred at 7:30 o'clock, and was brought about

SURPRISING RESULTS

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably sur-prised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full-sized treatment, is the most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates. These cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children, by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing, is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause, but by deadening the nerves of feeling, the irritation is not felt, although it is still there, and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach, because they are composed of read as follows: "The czar passed a wholesome antiseptics like Eucalyptol, satisfactory day yesterday. I have known of many cases of long standing ca-tarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray, and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing, was en-tirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy Dr. Wainwright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness, because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen more remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them, because we should seize upon the cure wherever found.' Stuart's Caparrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children, because they are pleasant to the taste, and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

A TEMPORARY STANDSTILL

In Negotiations of Foreign Envoys in China.

Uncle Sam May Quit the European Concert in China --- Why Foreigners Are Unpopular in China.

London, Nov. 22.-A Pekin dispatch of the 19th says: The meeting of the foreign envoys today unexpectedly developed a point of difference which brought the negotiations to a temporary standstill. The matter will be referred to the home governments. The They frequently treat the customs, tradiconference adjourned without fixing a tions and institutions of the country with date for reassembling. It is said that contempt, and in this way excite the illthe difference is such that will cause considerable delay. ALARMED, Shanghai, Nov. 21.—The action of the Germans yesterday in marching a large body of troops outside the for-eign limits, close to the arsenal, alarmed the Chinese. The gates were barricaded. The Taotai met the officers, who were allowed to enter, the troops remaining outside.

PUNISHMENT TOO LIGHT. WILL UNCLE SAM QUIT? New York, Nov. 21 .- According to the highest official authority, says a Herald special from Washington, events are hurrying the United States to a point where, in the interests of humanity and a satisfactory solution of the Chinese question, it must withdraw from the concert of the nations. Such a course would undoubtedly be followed by Russia and France, but the action of Great Britain, Germany and Japan is problematic, because of their agreement. The pessimistic view of the situation which exists in official circles followed the receipt of information by the state department as to the attitude of Germany and Great Britain in connection with the punishment of the Boxer leaders.

THE GUILT OF TUAN AND CHWANG.

During the siege of the legations at Pekin have been burned and the forposted the following order:
"Whereas, the missionary chapels in Pekin have een hurned eigners have no longer a place where they can hide, they have necessarily absconded from sight; therefore, this proclamation is issued to inform scholars, soldiers, the brave Boxers and commoners, that if foreigners are caught hiding they will certainly suffer death by decapitation. If brought to us alive a reward of 50 taels will be paid for a man, 40 tacks for a wo-man, and 30 tacks for a child. They must be alive when turned over to us, and when this is verified the reward will be immediately paid. Let all fear and none disregard this special proclamation."

There is no question that Tuan and Chwang issued this preclamation, and hence it is argued that the demand for the death punishment in their case is reasonable.

UNPOPULARITY OF FOREIGNERS. Philadelphia, Nov. 21.-Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister from Washington, delivered an address tonight before the American Academy of Political and Social Science. Mr. Wu's subject was: "The causes of the un-popularity of foreigners in China." He said, in part: "It has been commonly supposed that missionaries are the sole cause of the anti-foreign feeling in China. This charge is unfair. Missionaries have done a great deal of good in China. They have translated useful works into the Chinese language, published scientific and educational journals and established schools all over the country. Medical missionaries especially have been remarkably successful in their philanthropic work. On the other hand, we must not be blind to the fact that some of their brethren, in their excessive zeal to convert the Chinese to their faith, have been indiscreet in their conduct. Instances are not wanting of missionaries interfering in the administration of justice in Chinese courts. By treaty missionaries have a right to reside in any part of China. Other foreigners are allowed to reside only in the treaty

"In the interior a missionary cannot but excite a great deal of curiosity, especially when he retains his native dress When he moreover condemns the cherished traditions of China, proclaims the worship of

can be easily understood.

"Missionaries are placed in a very delicate situation, and not all of them are cautious and discreet. The general attitude of foreigners toward Chinese has had a great deal to do with their unpopularity. All foreigners in China carry with them the laws of their representation countries. The local authorities respective countries. The local authorities have no jurisdiction over them; consequently they form a sort of privileged class, and consider themselves more as lords of the country than as strangers in a strange land feeling of the natives.

GUOD ADVICE.

"Now the question arises: "What are the remedies for this unsatisfactory state of things? First of all, foreigners should show more consideration for the feeling of the natives. Chinese customs and manners are not necessarily bad; foreign ways are not always the best. Foreigners should be more sparing in their condemnation of things Chinese. In the next place, foreigners, in their daily intercourse with educated Chinese, should remember that true politeness is the same in Chinn as elsewhere. In the third place, the foreign press in China should assume a more conciliatory tone toward the government and people of China. Many Chinese can read

STUDY FOOD VALUE

Housewives Should Know What Foods Are Best From the Standpoints of Health and Economy.

The subject of food values is one that should be thoroughly understood by every housewife and mother, as it is one involving not only the question of economical living, but of the family health as well. Science has done much for humanity in investigating this subject and perfecting food materials. When the housewife is informed that there are foods containing three to six times the nutriment found in ordinary articles of food, such as meats, wheat breads, etc., it is a duty she owes to herself and her household to examine into the truth of the statement. Science has produced perfect foods in Granose and Granola, containing as they do the highest amount of, nutriment and the best quantity of waste material possible. They build up and strengthen the body, enabling it to resist the attacks of disease, and they are a certain cure for all stomach and bowel troubles. With them should be used Caramel Cereal, a beverage absolutely free from the deleterious properties of tea and coffee. The manufacturers, the Battle Creek Sanitarium Health Food Company, 651 Colborne street, will gladly forward circulars and samples on application. b

HOW IT WAS DONE

How the Conservative Managers Manufactured Stories to Stir Up Race and Religious Antipathy in

[Montreal Herald.]

We called attention a couple of days ago to an inflammatory article published in L'Avenir, a French Sunday paper, and copied into the Gaziette on Monday. In this article it was claimed that the vote of Nov. 7 was "a vote for Laurier, the personification of the French-Canadian race," and it was

"We, who have faith in the destinies of the French-Canadian race on the banks of the St. Lawrence, and who suffer from the yoke, gilded though it may be, we hall with joy the result of the appeal of Wednesday last.' The whole intention of this statement was to deceive. The paragraph was naturally seized upon and telegraphed to Ontario, and for a day the scheme worked well, how well may be inferred from the treatment of the subject by the Hamilton Herald, an independent paper that would not knowingly mislead its readers. After quoting Mr. T. C. Casgrain's statement, that Quebec voted for a French-Canadian premier, the Herald says:

"But it may be objected, this is Tory testimony, and therefore untrust-worthy. Well, there is similar testi-mony that is Liberad enough. L'Avenir, of Montreal, a strong supporter of the Laurier Government, makes this frank declaration" (quoting the objectionable paragraph).

And the mischief did not end there. In the same number L'Avenir printed an effusion from a visiting man, now gone home, to the following

There is no doubt that the political

THE BOERS

In the Southern Part of Orange River Colony.

Lord Roberts Meets With an Accident But Is Not Seriously Hurt.

His Return to England Delayed by the Illness of His Daughter-An Address from Bloemfontein Irishmen.

London, Nov. 22.-Lord Roberts states that the Boers are very active in the southern part of the Orange River Colony, and have repeatedly broken the railway and telegraph lines near Edenburg. He says the occupation of Klerksdorp by Gen. Barton is important, as it greatly hampers the burghers in their operations. The commander-in-chief also reports that the Boers have ambushed a wagon load of supplies and thirteen men at Utrecht, Natal. They afterwards released the men, four of whom were slightly wounded.

Lord Roberts cables the war office the Boers attacked a British outpost at Thebanchu, in the rich grain district east of Bloemfontein, in the Orange River Colony, on Nov. 16, and killed a British officer and three men. They allowed a prisoner to return to the British garrison with a request for an ambulance.

ACCIDENT TO LORD ROBERTS. London, Nov. 21.—The Evening Standard, in a special edition this even-ing, says: "Just as we are going to press the news has reached London that Lord Roberts was thrown from his horse and received severe injuries. Later-Lord Roberts' accident occurred on Sunday iast while he was riding. His horse fell with him, and he was shaken and bruised, but no limbs were broken. As he has since sent dispatches to the war office, he is still performing his usual duties, especially as he has not mentioned the accident.

NO ILL-EFFECTS. A dispatch to the Standard says: "Lord Roberts' guard removed him to Government House, Johannesburg. He was badly shaken and bruised, but it is expected he will be able to take the field again in the course of a few days." The Daily Telegraph learns that Lord Roberts has telegraphed privately to the secretary of state for war, Mr. William St. John Brodrick, that he felt no ill-effects whatever." LORD ROBERTS' RETURN DELAY-

ED. Cape Town, Nov. 22. - The transport Canada is being fitted up preparatory to taking Lord Roberts home. The commander-in-chief's departure has been delayed owing to the illness of his daughter. Lord Roberts telegraphed the Cape Town municipality that he was still unable to name the date on which he would partake of their hospitality. The council has tendered a reception and banquet to the field marshal before he leaves for England. THEY LOVE "BOBS."

London, Nov. 21.-The Irishmen resident in Bloemfontein recently forand France and England, those two old enternies, are bound to meet again warded to Lord Roberts an address to himself and Lady Roberts, tendering in battle shortly. From such a battle their good wishes and incidentally stating: "Your clemency and invari-France would come out victorious. Then the Canadians will again see the able kindness to the Dutch people have French arms ascend the St. Lawrence, endeared you to the hearts of all South and soon the tri-color flag hoisted at Africans. To your correct and most Quebec and Montreal, will cover with Christian character some cynics and fits victorious folds the reconquered French territory. For a long time France has dreamt of reconquering adverse critics have taken exception. Angels in heaven and honest hearts all the world over will, however, praise you and bless you for this same loveinspiring mercy. If harsher measures — which God forbid—should be deemed main English, to become French, or to become independent, but in reality be annexed by the Yankees. To me it necessary in this sorely oppressed country, it is meet and fit that they seems there is nothing for it, but to should be executed by other hands let the Canadian people keep careful than yours, thou most worthy and ilwatch and to let thent turn at the first lustrious son of St. Patrick's Isle. * Great Britain is rightly proud of And the Hamilton Herald, in its inyou; the army simply loves you; and we Irishmen humbly and gratefully thank God for the honor of claiming "Of course, it would be unjust in the extreme to charge that such sentiyou as our fellow-countryman." ments as these are generally popular

LORD ROBERTS' REPLY. Lord Roberts replied from the army headquarters, Pretoria, on Oct. 6 last, as follows: "Dear Gentlemen,—It is with feelings of peculiar gratification that I have received from you, my countrymen at Bloemfontein, such a hearty 'God-speed' for Lady Roberts, my daughters, and myself, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for this expression of your goodwill. Truly Irish as your letter is in its affectionate kindness, it will always be preserved in my family as a treasured possession, and as a proof that Irishmen lose none of their national generous and warm-hearted characteristics by being transplanted to a foreign soil; and as a proof also that Irishmen in South Africa are animaited by the same devotion to Ireland as their countrymen at home, and by the same loyalty which has been lately so conspicuously displayed in our dear little Emerald Isle on the occasion of our beloved sovereign's visit. I value especially the appreciative manner in which you have alluded to my services in South Africa during war, and it will always be source of pride and pleasure to me that I have earned the approval of my countrymen in Bloemfontein. Begging that you will accept from Lady Roberts, my daughters, and myself, our heartfelt thanks, I am, dear gentlemen, yours sincerely and gratfully, Roberts."

CANADIAN CASUALTIES. London, Nov. 21 .- The war office has been advised of the following casualties among the Canadian troops on active service in South Africa: Pte. E. V. Chancellor, of C Squadron, Strathcona Horse, died of enteric fe-ver, at Elandsfontein, on the 13th inst.; Pte. A. W. Stewart, of A Squadron, Scrathcona Horse, slightly wounded at Muzareb, on the 11th inst; Gunner W. R. Hare, of D Battery, at Leemofontein, on the 6th inst. [It is just possible that this last name may be Pite. G. L. Hall, of Calgary, who went out as one of the reinforcements to Strathcona's Horse. From the number given, however, it is almost certain that the man is Gunner W. R. Hare, of Elgin county, Ont. Pte. Chancellor is a native of Atkin, B. C., and joined Strathcona Horse in Winnipeg. Ptc. W. A. Stew-art comes from Sandy Point, Ont.]

GRITTY GIRL

ARE ACTIVE Had a serrible Ride on a Car Step in THE DISEASED

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 21.-Miss Cornelia Wetherton, of Greencastle, reached the depot at this place just as the vestibuled train on the Big Four was leaving the station. She caught hold of the guard rail of one of the platforms and got on the steps. night was dark and a heavy rain was fulling, but when she tried to open the door to reach the platform of the car she found it locked against her.

The train quickly gained in speed and soon was rushing over the rails at 20 miles an hour. The speed increased, and as the train gained momentum Miss Wetherton's peril increased. The rain was driven like needles against her face, and ringers with which she clung to the hand rail were numb with the cold. She rapped on the window of the door, but the noise of the train drowned her feeble attempts to attract attention. The wind tore her hair down, blew her skirts about her and seemed striving with fury to break her grasp and hurl her from the crain. The Knickerbocker did not stop between Greencastle and Indianapolis. It covers the distance, about 35 miles, in almost as many minutes, and for something over 40 minutes Miss Wetherton was compelled to remain in her perilous posi-

When the express reached the union station Miss Wetherton sank to the platform exhausted. She recovered when she was led to the warmth of the depot lobby. In a few minutes she had sufficiently recovered to take her place in the train and leave the station on the same coach on the steps of which she had experienced her terrible ride.

BOERS LEAVING THE TRANS-VAAL

[New York Sun.] Early in the Transaal war it was said that if the British flag ever floated over the republic many hundreds of Boer families would load their ox wagons and trek hundreds of miles across the dry plains to make new homes for themselves in German Southwest Africa. The prediction is being fulfilled, and several hundreds of families have already crossed the frontier. They are following the example of several hundred of their com patriots, who left the Transvaal with their herds and household belongings before the war began.

At the end of last year, according to the statistics of the Deutschen Kolonfalblatt, 637 Transvaal Boers, including women and children, had arrived in German Southwest Africa. They had lost all hope that the growing troubles with the Outlanders could have a peaceful solution, and before the storm broke they abandoned their farms and started westward to the broad region near the Atlantic, which the Germans are just beginning to develop. Most of them are now settled in the northern part of Great Nama Land, which, German explorers say, includes a large area that may be converted into a great cattle region. The Boers already form nearly a quarter of the white population of this German colony.

South Africa is beginning to witness a repetition of the scenes in the third decade of this century when thousands of Boers trekked far into the wilderness to get out of sight of the British flag. The irreconcilables will leave the Transvaal, though, no doubt, those who choose to remain will enjoy good gov-

The True Gause of Many Ills

Is Constipation, an Irregularity Which Is Corrected and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Kid ney-Liver Pills.

Ask any reputable physician what is the cause of the most bodily derangements and the greatest suffering and he will undoubtedly tell you constipation or inactivity of the bowels He will also add that this need not be the case if people would pay proper attention to this most important func-

Through ignorance, neglect, or a sense of false modesty, people allow the bowels to get into a state of chronic constipation, and there follow kidney disorders, torpid liver, indigestion, and a complete upsetting of the digestive, filtering and excretory

Appendicitis, inflammation of the bowels, Bright's disease, and all the dreadfully painful and fatal complications of these diseases are usually set up as a direct result of neglecting to keep the bowels healthy and regular. Many people imagine that they can prescribe for constipation, and so dose themselves with salts and other strong, harmful, and weakening drugs, which effect an action of the bowels, but if taken repeatedly deaden and paralyze the system so that it is rendered unable to act for itself, and will not respond to the influence of curative

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act naturally and pleasantly on the bowels and through their toning and invigorating effects thoroughly and perman ently cure constipation.

No one who realizes the great importance of keeping the bowels perfectly healthy and regular can afford to lose sight of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as the greatest regulators of the filtering and excretory systems -the liver, kidneys and bowels.

As a family medicine to prevent and cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, inactive liver and kidneys and the very many ills arising from these derangements Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills easily stand first, having by far the largest sale of any preparation in America. Sarsaparillian Resolvent.

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the blood, sweat, urine and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life; for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, consumption, syphilis, uncured and badly treated venereal in its many forms (send 10 cents for illustrated book, "Radway on Venereal"), glandular diseases, ulcers in the throat, mouth, tumors, nodes in the glands and other parts of the system, sore eyes, strumous discharges from the ears, and the worst forms of skin diseases, eruptions, fever sores, scald head, ring worm, salt rheum, erysipelas, acne, black spots in the flesh, tumors, cancerous growths, female complaints and all weakening and painful discharges, night sweats, nocturnal losses and all wastes of the life principle are within the curative range of this Wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daily becoming reduced by wastes and decompositions, that are continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will and does secure, a cure is certain, for when once this remody commences its work of purification and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and of purification and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and the flesh and weight increasing

SCROFULA FROM BIRTH.

Dr. Radway—Dear Sir: It is with pleasure that I take my pen in hand to inform you of the great cure effected by your medicine called Sarsaparillian Resolvent. I have a girl 3 years old last September, who has sunered with scrofula ever since she was two years old. In fact the doctor told us she was born with it. We had our best local doctors with her and it. fact the doctor told us she was born with it. We had our best local doctors with her, and it seemed like all hope was gone, for they told us if the disease settled on her lungs she could not be cured. This frightful disease seated or seized upon her lungs severely. I began to think that our little girl could not live very long; our physician's medicines doing no good. In the meantime I received a copy of your medical publication called "False and True," which you sent me. After seeing the accounts of so many cures effected by your treatments I at once resorted to them, and by the time she had used one bottle she was well. The ulcers that were making their appearance on her body are entirely gone, her lungs almost healed, or, at least, she has quit coughits. She has or, at least, she has quit coughling. She has begun on the second bottle, and I believe by the time she uses all of it she will be well. She had a very bad cough. I am yours with respect, SAMUEL S. BARKER.

"LIFE A BURDEN,"

Dr. Radway—Dear Sir: For a long time past I have been suffering in a most distressing manner from a long train of symptoms which have baffled the skill of all the medical men down here, and which, I fear, if not arrested in their progress, would terminate in the total prostration of my strength. Loss of appetite and desire of stimulating and artificial means of sustenance at irregular times, want of healthy sleep and consequent depression on arising in the morning, rendered life quite a burden to me, until a friend induced me to try your medicine. So I got a bottle of Radway's Sarsaparillian and a box of Radway's Pills, and took them according to directions. I soon found relief. I got three boxes and three bottles more, and I am better in health than ever before. I remain your humble servant.

It Is a Long Lane That Has No Turning.

What the Opposition hoped to do in last election was to capture the country, by way of gerrymandered Ontario, and then gerrymander the Liberals worse than ever after the census to be taken next year. They have failed, despite their appeals to race and creed. and the gerrymander most now go, and that speedily. It was an infamous expedient to secure a majority of the seats by a minority of the votes cast, and its authors, though no doubt heartily ashamed of it, have always cleaved to it as if it were the very rock of their political salvation, as indeed in contest after contest it was.

But for the gerrymander, in the recent contest, the Liberals would have carried at least 50 out of the 92 seats in this province, or from 15 to 26 more than was possible under the system that hived them in such constituencies as West Bruce, South Middlesex, the two Oxfords, South Huron, North Brant and West Ontario.

It is a long lane that has no turning, and so when next election day comes about, the gerrymander will be undone, the people will have free choice, and Ontario will give the Liberal Government a good majority.

London Imperial Volunteers.

There has been great rejoicing in England over the return of the City of London Imperial Volunteers. The great metropolis was moved to do honor to the citizen-soldiers. Their return was looked forward to with eager expectation and enabusiasm from the moment that Lord Roberts gave the word for them to leave South Africa, and it was felt that a worthy welcome should be given to "the returning hero." We in Canada who have welcomed back our own "citizen-soldiers" can understand and sympathize with these feelings. For many years England has been able to this time, a crisis arose which called for an unusual display of British resources, and when there was volunteering all around the world, the city of London, the heart of the Empire, could not be left behind, and being a great and wealthy city, she could send forth her citizens with great ceremony and eclat, and now she receives them back with similar ceremonies.

For those that return, there is boisterous welcome, with shout and song and rich bouquets to make them forget the privations of the past year. For those that are left behind, there is the memorial tablet artistically designed and bearing in classic language the time-honored statement that it is a noble thing to die for one's country. At the same time, the illustrated papers give portraits of those who died from wounds, and of the still greater number who went down before the terrible "enteric."

Thus again we have two sides to the picture one that intoxicates, the other that solbers. It is to be hoped that the populace will thus learn the double meaning of war. It must certainly be a matter for rejoicing to Britishers at any rate to know that Englishmen engaged in the bustle of city life have not lost their old courage and skill. but that going forth against the foe in a distant land they proved themselves worthy of their country and their sires. This gives to Britain a feeling of confidence in facing the world; but on the other hand we trust that this enormous expenditure of blood and treasure, so far to so little purpose, will prevent us from being intoxicated by the fiery wine of jingoism, and that it may be made more than ever clear that our motto is "Detense, Not Defiance."

A Cheap Victory.

Several of our contemporaries have remarked on the good luck of Mr. Jabel Robinson, who was returned for West Elgin, though his expenditure was only a little over seven dollars. Mr. Robinson owes his election to Mr. Casey, the late member for the riding. He withdrew his candidature, and retired from the riding, and Mr. McGugan was nominated by the Liberal convention, and Mr. Retainson by the "independents," while the Conservative party did not put up a candidate. Three days before nomination day, Mr. Casey appeared on the scene and announced his candidature. Then Mr. Robinson saw his opportunity. Mr. Casey's candidature gave to him that chance for which he had been long waiting. He slipped in between Mr. McGugan and and everyone who had any knowledge of the circumstances knew that such victory. The experience is not one that in a hurry to again court.

Our Municipal Policy-1.

"That the city should possess a perfect sewerage system, and what-ever is necessary to obtain that should

As we stated, it was our intention to discuss the various matters, which in our opinion are desirable and in the best interests of the city

The first thing to ascertain is whether we possess a perfect or adequate sewerage system at the present time. We think it will be admitted by everyone that we do not. That the sewerage is very defective must be apparent to any one who has occasion to pass the convent on Dundas street, or Which Swept Sections of Tennesup Colborne street, or on King street, or even in the business center of the city. On this point, however, the highest evidence obtainable is that of the city engineer, who most emphatically asserts that the sewers of the city are in a deplorable condition. If it will on this be admitted that we do not possess an adequate sewerage system, we take it for granted that the evils which may result from that lack, and which were very plainly pointed out by the late Dr. Brown at the time of the construction of the waterworks, should be sufficient reasons to cause our municipal authorities to remedy the defect and construct such sewers as may be ne-

Dr. Brown, at the meeting to which we refer, pointed out and argued that sewers were an absolute necessity to the health of the city in connection with the construction of the waterworks. We think time has proven how correct his conclusions were. Last month there were many typhoid and diphtheria cases in the city. Possibly the typhoid was not due to our sewers, as that disease was general over the Province. But so long as our sewers are in the condition in which they are, so long will there be the danger of sickness and death resulting from it; and it does not matter to those whose constitutions may be in that condition to contract disease from these causes where the fault lies. We are not seeking to tay blame anywhere. We do not think the city engineer to blame-in fact, we believe he will be very much pleased to have such steps taken as will remedy the evil. Let there, then, be the most done in the incoming year that can be done to perfect the sewerage system of London and save the health and lives of the citizens.

A Great Domestic Question.

Great Britain is now considering & question that has much interest for us in Canada. They have formed a Poultry Organization Society, and are engaged in a vigorous campaign manage all her wars by means of pro- against the enormous importation of fessional soldiers, but last year, about foreign eggs, reaching last year to the number of 1,940,000,000. The society is seeking to convince the farmer that he can supplant much of this importation. It further arranges for the rapid collection of eggs from farms, and after a test stamps them with a registered mark. Then it places them in the retailers' hands, within two or three days of laying. This agitation ought to be noted by our Canadian egg exporters, and should move them to take good care to export only the choicest products of the barnvard. That it pays the British Poultry Association to gather and stamp their egg supply when fresh should move Canadian producers to do the same. There are far too many stale eggs sold as "fresh." and eggs that are really fresh will always fetch top

> The Duke of Argyle highly praises the attitude of Canada in regard to the war in Africa, and says the loyalty of the Dominion is a loyalty to liberty, and her attachment to Great Britain becomes stronger as years roll by. Our former governor-general rightly gauges the position of Canada.

> Lord Tennyson, the Poet Laureate, was distinctly averse to taking a title, but Mr. Gladstone urged that he ought to accept it, if not for himself, because it was an honor to literature, and because the Queen herself was anxious he should take it. So that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not alone in his being averse to accepting a title, yet accepting it because it was the wish of his sovereign that he should do so. There is nothing dishonorable or discreditable in such an attitude. It

Those sturdy Russian Quakers, the Doukhobors, are most appreciated where they are best known. The Winnipeg Free Press informs us that Mr. Thomas Meredith, general merchant, of Yorkton, N. W. T., who has been in that city for a few days, informs it that "a good share of the present prosperity of that town is due to the large settlements of Doukholbors in the adjacent country. A most convincing proof of the thrift and honesty of these people is given in the following fact. Last year Mr. Meredith sold seven thousand dollars' worth of goods on time to Doukhobors, for which he took their notes, and every dollar of this amount was paid when due, a record of integrity which perhaps few English-speaking communities can equal. Mr. Meredith further states that the Doukhobors have gathered over $13,000 worth of Seneca root in the vicinity of Yorkton during the past season. Mr. Casey, with a majority of forty, Part of the men go out and work for wages, while part stay at home, and in this way the people have a supply of would be the case. IN THE PATH OF THE STORM

Over 70 Persons Perished in Tuesday's Tornado

see and Mississippi.

The Destruction of Property Was Very Heavy-Names of Some of the Victims.

Nashville, Nov. 21.-Tennessee was swept last night by the most destructive storm ever known in the state. More than 50 persons were killed and a hundred more injured, while the damage to house, timber and other property will reach large figures. The storm entered the state from Northern Mississippi, and swept across in a northeasterly direction. Great damage is reported from the counties bordering on Mississippi, and further on Columbia, in Maury county, is the heaviest sufferer. Lavergne, Nolansville and Galatin also felt the wind's force, the storm finally losing its force against the Cumberlain Mountain range.

Columbia's casualties number 25 dead and 50 injured. The list so far as known is as follows: Dead-Misses Florence and Evelyn Farrell, Capt. and Mrs. A. F. Aydelott, Faul Aydelott, James Cherry, Mass Lizzie Forsythe, Mrs. Tom Carroli, Miss M. J. Vites (all white); Winfield, wine and child, Tom Hackey, Joe Scott, G. Brown, Peter Adams, F. Ry-known negroes in the emergency hos-The injured: Clayton Tucker, Josie Reed, Belle Cooper, Mrs. Jones, Maggie Reed, Minnie Reed, Lulu Bostick; Mrs. Sarah Russell, Sus.e Loved (all white), Will Hickhan, Bob Sewell, Jim Johnson, Dan Sewell, Will Brown, John Fryer, Lucius Walk, Philipson, Bill

Hickman (all colored).

A NARROW PATH. The path of the storm is about 50 yards wide, and was through the northwestern suburbs of the nown. In its path everything is completely wreck-Not even the iron and stone fence of the arsenal grounds are standing. The houses of Capt. Aydelobt, the Farreals, and other large residences were demolished. With the exception of those four houses the storm's path was through a section of the town populated by negroes, and the poorer classes. and the nouses were mere hovels. It is estimated that a great number were totally destroyed, and a large number damaged. The suffering of the people rendered homeless and bereft of friends

MANY HOMES WRECKED. The number of houses destroyed in the Nolansville neighborhood is sixteen. There were two fatallicies-Miss Annie Hampton, aged 25, and Mrs. Fanny Brannett, aged 65. Those injured are: J. K. Hampton, aged 70; Miss Luella Hampton, aged 23; Mrs. Melinda Jenett, aged 70; Aubrey Hampton, Thomas Hampton, Emma Hampton, Mrs. P. G. Verier, Ernest Stephens, Leslie Stephens, Allen Fly, Mrs. J. W. Fly, Miss Fly. The baby of Jim Christian, colored, reported lost, was found 300 yards from a house, lying near a branch, uninjured. One of the family dogs was lying at its side. SHORT BUT SEVERE.

At Lavergne, 16 miles south of here. on the Nusaville, Chautanooga and St. Louis road, the velocity of the wind was marvelous, and from the best reports lasted only about 20 seconds. In this short time about 35 dwellings were turned into kindling wood. The loss of life is small compared with the miraculous escapes made. The wind made a swaith about 200 yards wide through the middle of the town. The Lavergne high school and the depot, the two largest buildings, were laid flat on the ground. The loss of these two buildings placed at $7,000. The railroad lost four section houses, each valued at

MORE VICTIMS

The victims of the tornado are: Geo. Robertson and his six-months-old child Mr. Robertson's house, which was a very strong log structure, was in the middle of the path of the storm and was laid flat on the ground. At the time, Mr. Robertson and his child had retired, and his wife was sitting near the bed reading, and before the latter could even warn her, death had claimed them. Mrs. Robertson's escape was marvelous. When found, the unfortunate man was pinned across the back by a large timber, and a great scar was on the back of his neck. No mark could be found on the child. Both are thought to have met instant death. In almost every home there were several injured

In Williamson county great damage was done, but the town of Franklin escaped with comparatively small loss. Houses and timber in Summer county also suffered considerably, but first reports sent out from Gallatin were exaggerated. The rise in the Cumberland River at Nashville is the most rapid known in 26 years, the water having climbed 20 feet on the gauge since yesterday morning. MORE DETAILS.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 21.-By telephone by Columbia, Tenn., the following details of the storm were obtain-The loss of life in the vicinity of olumbia is estimated at from 35 to 40. Most of these were negroes, about 12 or 14 only being white. The storm did not strike the town of Columbia proper, but swept over the district northwest of the place. Immense damage was done to farms, and hundreds of head of live stock were killed. Considerable damage resulted at Martin's Mill and at Indian Creek. Two houses at Dallas, Ala., near Huntsville, were demolished. Near Franklin the resi-dence of Abel Little was destroyed. Mr. Little and Mrs. M. Hughes were badly hurt. At Boxley's a storehouse was destroyed and three negroes were

19 KILLED.

Kansas City, Nov. 21 .- A telegram reeived at the general offices of the City, Fort Scott and Mem Railway here confirms the report that 19 lives were lost at and near La Grange, Tenn. Property damage in La Grange amounted to nearly $40,000. The storm, according to the railway officials, circled around Memphis, beginning

Toronto, Nov. 20 .- Hides-The re-

The case for the plaintiffs in the Taylor-Davis will case at the non-jury assizes having been concluded when the court rose for luncheon yesterday, the defense was proceeded with immediately upon Mr. Justice Meredith's resuming the bench.

Mr. M. H. Howland, manager of the Canadian Savings and Loan Company; Mr. John S. Moore, accountant of the Huron and Erie, and Mr. C. W. Woodburne, teller of the London Loan, gave evidence relating to the visits paid by NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Butter steay; creamery, 19c to 26c; factory, 12c to 16c; June creamery, 18c to 231/2c; Mrs. Burkholder to transact business matters, and each witness said he noticed nothing in her actions to inimitation creamery, 16c to 19c; state dairy, 16c to 24c. Cheese quiet; large, Sept. fancy, 10%c; small, Sept. fancy, 11c; targe, Oct. fancy, 10%c; small, dicate a weakness in her mental facul-

Four medical men were next called to testify as to Mrs. Burkholder's mental condition. Dr. George Wilson and Dr. Eccles had both attended the deceased. Dr. Eccles was her medical adviser from 1891 to 1896, treating her for stomach trouble. Mrs. Burkholder complained once or twice of dimness of vision and dizziness. Dr. Eccles found her a very intelligent woman and a little close. Mr. Meredith asked Dr. Eccles his opinion about Mrs. Burk-holder losing her way. The witness said that persons fix points to enable them to find their way home, and if Mrs. Burkholder failed to fix the points she might lose her way.
"Was there anything in her actions to indicate that Mrs. Burkholder was having delusions?' "Nothing that I noticed while I was attending her." "Or anything you heard in court?" "Except one witness, who said Mrs. Burkholder expressed a fear that she was going to be robbed or murdered. That would be a delusion."

"I attribute that to failing memory."

"Would that have any effect upon choice, $4 50 to $4 75; common to fair, $4 to $4 50. Sheep—Mixed, $3 25 to $3 50; wetners, $3 75 to $4; ewes, $3 50 her other mental faculties?'

"Not necessarily." The evidence of Dr. J. M. Piper, of South London, was distinctly favorable to the plaintiffs. Dr. Piper attended Mrs. Burkholder several times between April 1 and Aug. 30, 1899—the date of her death. She was suffering from stomach and liver trouble. The witness saw her on May 3, the day the last will was drawn up, and he noticed nothing which would lead him to believe she was not possessed of her mental faculties. Death was due to hemorrhage of the brain. On June 22 Dr. Piper asked Mrs. Burkholder why she was looking so worried, and she replied that her daughter and husband had died within a few months, whereas they had been dead some years. Mrs. Burkholder would go to bed for a short time in the evening, and get up and dress, thinking it was morning. Dr. Piper was of the opinion that the old lady was insane. In July and August she did not seem to understand anything that was said to her. There was no question in his mind but that she was insane and incapable of transacting any business.

James Murray, who purchased some property from Mrs. Burkholder in 1892, told of the close bargain driven by the old lady. Archdeacon Davis, the principal defendant, next took the stand. He made changed at 11c to 12½c per lb (dressed weight); sheep, 12c to 12¾c per lb; a sweeping denial of all charges of undue influence made against him by refrigerator beef is quoted at 91/2c to the plaintiffs. Mr. Davis became ac quainted with Mrs. Burkholder in 1880, when she first moved to South London. A RECOGNIZED REGULATOR .-With the exception of the time she resided on Oueen's avenue, she was a regular attendant at St. James' Church. He never transacted any of her busifering from stomachic irregularities, and for this purpose they can preness affairs, except with reference to the placing of the memorial window in the church. It was only after some scribe nothing better than Parmelee's Vegetable Fills, which will be found hesitation that she agreed to have the window placed in the edifice. The witness denied ever having received any in bringing the refractory organs into subjection and restoring them to nor- payment for mamaging her estate. 'It is said you wanted her to give $2.000 to two of your children."

"It is positively false." "It is said you told her it would be just the same as mission work. 'I never said so."

"Did you ever suggest to her that she should give any of her money to yourself or members of your family?"

"Nor that she should not provide for her relatives? "Never. On the contrary, I urged her to get some of her relatives to come and live with her, as it would have been a great relief to me. The witness said he never attempted to prevent Mrs. Burkholder from doing as she pleased in all matters. It was untrue that he told her that she would not have any money left if she gave away what she desired to. The only suggestion he made to her was that in making her will she should make provision for her own proper care and nursing. He never attempted to induce her to change her intentions regarding the disposition of her

Archdeacon Davis denied having called on Mrs. Burkholder more than twice while she was living with Mr. and Miss Smith. He had made no distinction whatever between Mrs. Burkholder and other members of the congregation with regard to the frequency of his visits. In 1809, the year Mrs. Burkholder, eleven times-twice in May and June, and once in every other month up to September. He had nothing to do with the sale of the Elmwood avenue property in 1892; neither did he know the contents of the will of May 3, 1899, by which the estate was left to his four children, until a week after Mrs. Burkholder's death. He understood the deceased had some relatives, but he did not kmow the mames or addresses of any of them until he was making arrangements for the funeral. Mr. Smith promised to give him the names of the relatives in order that he could notify them of the funeral, but failed to do so. Witness did not look after the graves of Mr. and Miss Burkholder. The statement that he told Mrs. Burkholder not to keep money about her because she might be robbed. was up-true. He went to Mr. Fisher, by di-rection of Mrs. Burkholder, and told him he was wanted to draw up her will. Mrs. Burkholder repeatedly dewiff. Mrs. Burkholder repeatedly desired to leave her money to Mr. Davis, to which the latter objected. Witness told Mr. Fisher that he objected to any such action on the part of the deceased, and he also declined to take Mrs. Burkholder to Mr. Fisher, because of her desire to leave the property to him.

Mr. Aylesworth's cross-examination of Mr. Davis was a lengthy and severe one, but the witness evidence was unshaken. He said he considered Mrs. Burkholder a very devout woman, and he knew she was not in need. He believed she had made a will in 1896, but he was not aware that he was named as an executor. He con-sidered that for a year and a half be-fore her death, Mrs. Burkholder was able to go to Mr. Fisher's office un-aided, and he declined to take her because she had been talking of leaving her estate to him.

"You were quite content that she should leave it to your children?" continued Mr. Aylesworth.

"I was." "Was her leaving it to them the outcome of your refusal to accept it per-sonally?"

"At first I made no objection to the property being left to the children, except that I urged her to make provision for herself in her old age.'

Mrs. Burkholder and Mr. Fisher were not told the names of the four children by the witness. They were Llewellyn, Llanarth William, Gwendoline and Evans G. The witness said he expected the church, Miss Robinson and his four children would benefit under the will. He never heard Mrs. Burkholder say she was afraid her nephew, Dr. Payne, would poison her. He heard her say some of her relatives had either wronged or robbed her.

To Mr. Cronyn, the witness said Mrs Burkholder refused to act on his suggestion to have some relatives come and live with her, as they had wronged or robbed her. He did not notice any signs of insanity on the part of the deceased either before or after the There was nothing will was made. more than a weakness of memory. Rev. Canon Richardson, the next witness, having been rector of the Memorial Church while she attended the services there, said he saw nothing to lead him to believe that she was not mentally sound. In March, 1892, Mr. Richardson heard her speak of having made a will. Fred Pope, who lived at Mrs. Rob-inson's while Mrs. Burkholder board-ed there, testified that he never noticed anything strange in the actions of the deceased.

Sarah E. Keffer, of Toronto, a niece of Mrs. Burkholder, produced correspondence to show that she was on good terms with her aunt. In one letter written in 1895, the old lady asked list. Mrs. Keffer if she would accept her household effects in the event of her death, as well as some money. At 6 o'clock the court adjourned until Saturday, when the case will be resumed. Mr. Justice Meredith goes to Chatham to take a court there today.

Saunby vs. the Water Commissioners and the City of London, was laid over to be heard at a date to be arranged between Mr. Justice Meredith and the parties conhear the case this week, nor could he name any time that would not conflict with other engagements. In view of this, and the fact that each side was under heavy expenses in the matter of expert witnesses an arrangement has been made whereby each party is to appoint an engineer, the two to such control of the waterworks dam and the plaintiff's mill as may be necessary for the making of experiments to ascertain to what extent, if any, the plaintiff's property is affected by back water from the dam and splash boards. The engineers are to report the result of their experiments to the court, and determine whether the plaintiff's mill-race is affected by the back water or from any other cause. The question of the extent of the damage, if any, suffered by the plaintiff by reason of the dam and boards, is to be reported upon by the engineers. In the event of their being unable to agree, Mr. Justice Meredith is to name a third engineer. If necessary the experiments will be made a second time. No expert evidence other than that of the two or three engineers, as the case may be, is to be adduced at the trial. but evidence as to fact may be given. SNOW SEVEN FEET IN DEPTH

Northern California Experiences a Severe Storm-Three Days of It in Denver.

SNOWPLOWS IN DEMAND.

San Francisco, Nov. 22. - A severe storm prevails over Northern Califor-nia. The Southern Paoific Company has ordered out its snowplows. This is the first time in ten years that a November storm had made such an order. Snow is falling from Colfax to Reno, and at the summit it is seven feet in depth and still falling heavily. So far traffic has not been interrupted. THREE DAYS IN DENVER.

Denver, Nov. 21.-A heavy snowstorm, accompanied by a high wind, has been in progress on the western slope in Colorado for the past three days. The warm weather melted the snow very fast and slides have occurred, doing considerable damage. Railroad traffic is being interrupted and work in the mines in certain sections has stopped because of the inability to transport supplies. North of Glenwood Springs very cold weather is reported, which is gradually extending southward. SNOW AT MACKINAW. Mackinaw City, Mich., Nov. 21. Death of Jonn Crombie.

Mr. John Crombie died at the Old People's Home last night. He was in his 89th year. The late Mr. Crombie was born in Scotland, and after coming to Canada he engaged in the tailoring business for many years. For a long time he was an active worker in the First Presbyterian Church during Dr. Proudfoot's pastorate, and was also a teacher in the Sunday school of that church. About 30 years ago he became a colporteur for the Bible Society, and until 1892 was a faithful worker in their behalf, traveling along the concessions, and side roads of Western Ontario, selling and giving away Bibles. His reports of that time show that he walked an average of nearly 1,500 miles a year, during the time he was engaged by the society. Owing to feeble health he retired from active work some eight years ago. Since then he had boarded at the home. His death was due to old age. Mr. Crombie was a man of much vigor of body and mind, whose Christian life won the esteem and regard of many friends.

WAS IT FORGED?

Gerald Sifton's Lawyers Collecting Evidence.

Will Attempt to Prove Butter--The Cannon Stove Company has assigned to Mr. Lawrence Nichols, of Paper Will a Substitute.

> Photographic Enlargements of Three Signatures Procured.

> By Comparing Them Sifton's Solicitors Hope to Prove That Edgar Morden Drew It and Not Joseph Sifton.

New phases are being continually added to the complex Sifton case. Its gradual unfolding is being waltched with increahing interest, especially among those of the legal fraternity. This interest is now centered in the butter-paper will that Edgar Morden alleges he drew and Joseph Sifton signed on the night before the latter's death. Is it a forgery? This is the momentous question that is now agitating the legal mind. Did Joseph Sifton really sign the will or did some-one else? If the former, then Gerald this evening in the Southern Congregational Church by Corp. Blyth, lately Farlane is the legatee who gains most by the old man's death. When the case is being tried Sifton's solicitors will bring forward evidence in an atdents of the Model School yesterday afternoon on "The early recognition of acute infectious disease in children."

The lecture was a helpful and valube nelped materially able one, and was greatly appreciated The inference they would draw would be that if the forgery were committed, as they hope to prove it was, the evidence of Edgar Morden, who was one of the crown's most important witnesses, will be discredited to a certain extent. As has been said, Sifton's lawyers are sanguine as to the result of the investigations. It will be remem-bered that the will that was supposed to have been made by Joseph Sifton on the night before his death read, "I, Joseph Siften," etc., and ends with Joseph Sifton's signature. Edgar Morden acknowledges that he wrote the name the first time, and claims that the aged man signed it himself. Within a day or two before, the deceased procured a kicense to marry Mary Mol'arlane, and his signature of that time was obtained. The three signatures, those of the will and certificate, have been photographed and enlarged on the same scale. It is stated by those who have seen the photographs that the two will signatures are similar, while that of the certificate differs from it noticeably. These photographs will be produced when the case comes up, and startling developments are anticipated.

PROPHETIC

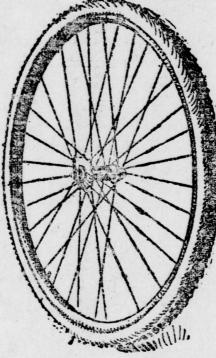

Clergyman From Holland Foretold the Present Struggle.

The Cape Times says: De Patriot has reprinted a remarkable sermon delivered by the Rev. Mr. Epoelstra at Pretoria, on June 13, 1897. The reverend gentleman came out as assistant to the Rev. Mr. Goddefroy, but soon tired of the "cunning, deceit and corruption" he saw around, and, speaking his mind too freely, was requested to return to Holland. In his farewell sermon (on the sins of the nation) he used these prophetic words: "I hear in the spirit the sound of marching of the hosts of great armies, who come up from all sides to this land. I hear the clash of swords and the rattle of musketry, also the roar of cannon. A hopeless strife follows, a life and death struggle. It is decided. The inheritance of the fathers falls into the hands of the enemy. For the God of the fathers hath been deserted by the children, and he executeth judgment against a faithless and apostate peo-

CHAPTER XXX

English life and scenery were quite new experience for Gertrude. The sea-washed shores, the id white cliffs, the clover meadows and green lanes, the woods, streams and valleys had a nameless charm for her. She even went so far as to declare that she loved the gray mists and fogs, the cold winds and keen frost. The fair scen-ery and coloring of fertile Italy were nothing to her beside these beauties of her own home. Her poetical, emotional nature was awakened, and there were times when Lady Fielden was afraid that the girl's intense feeling would endanger her health. But it did The brave young heart was roused to its work.

Gertrude took one day to rest, and on the next Lord and Lady Fielden drove her to Scarsdale. It was touching to see the girl's face as she roam ed over the old house. Now and again faint gleams of memory came over her, and she would stand quite still, struggling with her tears. It was then that Harry had some difficulty to restrain himself from taking her in his arms and comforting her Pickering, the old housekeeper, Gertrude's eyes opened wide at the sound of her name; but Lady Fielden made a gesture for silence. One or two of the old servant who had been there at the time of Si Karl's disappearance were equally a lighted to see their master's daughter. Gertrude would have taken up her residence at Searchele, for the langed to be alone. Scarsdale, for she longed to be alone, but Lady Fielden would not hear of such a thing. Fielden Manor House was a fine old mansion, the gray walls of which were covered with clustering ivy. It had large windows, wide hearths, carved mantel-pieces of priceless value, wide staircases and corridors. There was a large entrance hall, with richly stained windows, which was, in its way, a museum of art. The costly pictures and statues which adorned it had been the collection of many generations.

THE CENTRAL ASSOCIATION. Paris, Ont., Nov. 21. - The annual meeting of the Central Ontario Hockey Association will be held on the aftermoon of Friday, Dec. 7, at Paris. Indications point to another successful season. All the old clubs will be on deck, and applications for membership are expected from several new places. There is not the slightest foundation for the rumor that Brantford and Wodstock are going to drop out. H. J. Powell, of Woodstock, is the secretary of the central association.

WHEEL. THEY CALL THIS SPORT.

New York, Nov. 21.-The women's six-day bicycle race, at the Clermont avenue rink in Brooklyn, has resolved itself into a duel between Miss Marguerite Gast and Miss Lottie Brandon, of Canada. All through the afternoon and evening sessions yesterday each woman tried to leave the other behind, but every attempt was unsuc-cessful. Miss Brandon on Monday lost two laps through a mishap, which she will doubtless be unable to make up. Mrs. Jane Lindsay and Miss Marie Davis are hanging on doggedly. Mrs. Bayne, at the end of the afternoon session, swooned on the track, and lost a great deal of time. The final scores for the day are: Miss Gast, 165 miles 8 laps; Miss Brandon, 165 miles 6 laps; Mrs. Lindsay, 162 miles 1 lap; Miss Davis, 160 miles 8 laps; Mrs. Bayne, 158 Of Lord Rhysworth, who was still unmarried, Gertrude had made a complete conquest. THE TURF. AT BENNINGS.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.-There were two big surprises at Benning's today. In the second race, Robert Waddell, a 5 to 1 shot, won out by the narrow margin of half a length from McAide, the favorite, and in the fourth Charles Estes, against whom the bookmakers offered odds of 25 to 1, came under the wire first, Buffoon, a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 8, finishing third. The favorite's finish caused a good deal of surprise and comment, as the horse had held a good position until the race was well advanced. In the first the Rhymer, the favorite, finished fast, Sadie S., who was almost as equally well played, winning by five lengths. Favorites won in the hurdle race and in the last two events. Sum-

LOSS TO HOME RULE CURES WEAK MEN FREE

ment From Political Life.

His Zeal in the Prometion of the Rights of Irishmen Made Him a Power in Parliament-Books He Has Written.

The retirement of Justin McCarthy from political and parliamentary activity, just announced, on account of failing health, takes out of British public life one of its ablest and worthiest men, and is a distinct loss to the Irish home rule cause.

Mr. McCarthy was born in Cork Nov. 22, 1830. From 1846 to 1853 he was on the staff of The Cork Examiner, and then joined the staff of The Northern Times of Liverpool. In 1880 he became reporter in the House of Commons for The London Star, of which he was afterwards foreign editor, and then chief editor in 1864. Mr. McCarthy resigned this post in 1868 and went to the United States. He traveled for nearly three years, visiting 35 states. He then lived in New York for some time. In 1879 Mr. McCarthy entered political lile, being elected member of Parliament for Longford, Ireland. He was re-elected when the dissolution took place in 1880, in both instances without a contest. At the general election in 1885 he contested Derry, and was defeated by a majority of 29, but was immediately elected for Lourford by an mmense majority. In 1886 he contested Derry again, and was defeated by a majority of three, while at the same time he was returned for Longford unopposed. He claimed the Derry seat, and obtained it on petition, and then elected to sit for Derry

Mr. McCarthy's activity in Parliament has been chiefly known by his zeal for the home rule cause. He was vice-president of the Irish parliamentary party in the House before the rejection of Parnell by the majority, when Mr. McCarthy was elected president, and has since been the head of the faction known by his He several times revisited America, chiefly in the interest of the home rule cause, for which he delivered many lectures.

Mr. McCarthy's literary work has been important. He is the author of several novels, including "The Water-dale Neighbors," 1867; "My Enemy's Daughter," 1869; "Lady Judith," 1871; "A Fair Saxon," 1873; "Linley Rochford," 1874; "Dear Lady Disdain," 1875; "Miss Misanthrope," 1877; "Donna Quixote," 1879; Comet of a Season," 1881; "Maid of Athens," 1883; "Camiola," 1885; "The Dictator," 1893; "Red Diamonds," 1893; also, in collaboration with Mrs. Campbell-Praed, "The Right Honorable," 1886; "The Rebel Rose," 1887, and "The Ladies' Gallery," 1888. He has also written "Con Amore," a volume of critical essays, and "Prohibitory Legislation in the United States." His most important work, however, is "A History of Our Own Times," 1878-80, extending from the accession of Queen Victoria to the general election of 1880. Other historical studies by Mr. McCarthy are "A History of the Four Georges," "The Epoch of Reform" and a life of Sir Robert Peel. Mr. McCarthy has been in recent years a political writer on one of the London daily papers.
