

LET the young men and the young women of our country resolve upon reading and studying such things as will benefit them in every way mentally and morally. Let them read good books, standard books on history and natural science, general literature, religion, etc., and be sure they will find their account in it in the saving of time, in the strengthening the intellect, in the cultivation of the moral perceptions, in the fitting them for useful and happy lives, while it shall please God to spare them to their country and friends, and in enabling them to prepare for an unending existence of peace and joy in the world to come.—Dr. J. A. SPENCER.

THESE RARE AND INTERESTING OLD VOLUMES contain The Jewel of Joye; A Treatyse of Easying; The Solace of the Soul; The Fortress of the Faithful; A Dialogue; Against Adultery; The Flower of Godly Prayers; The Sick Man's Slave; Displaying of the Popish Masse; The Reliques of Rome; Benedictions and Consecrations; The Reports of Certain Men of the Pope's Proude Primacie and Arrogant Authoritie; The Popishe Masse; The Christmas Basket; The Nosegay; David's Harpe; A New Year's Gift; The Booke of Matrimony, and others on other subjects. This is the FIRST COLLECTED EDITION of 1560, it is not quite perfect. Nearly every line is printed in fine old English black letter and is excessively rare, nearly all of which have fine old engraved titles. It was JOHN DAYE, the printer of these volumes, who perfected the Greek types, and who first printed with Saxon characters in England. It was by means of his editions of the Bible and other works printed with the above black letter type that the Reformation was promoted.

THE WHOLE WORKS of W. TYNDALL, JOHN FRITH and DOCT. BARNES, three worthy Martyrs and Principal teachers of this Church of England, collected and compiled in One Tome together, beyng before scattered, and now in print here exhibited to the Church, to the Prayse of God, and all Profite of all good Christian Readers, 3 vols in 1, has a fine old title to each author, that of Tyndall being mounted, that of Barnes having a large wood cut setting forth THE DEATH AND BURNING of the MOST CONSTANT MARTYRS, ETC, IN CHRIST IN SMITHFIELD, 1741, the last index being slightly imperfect, the whole being printed with early English Black Letter, stout folio, calf, A RARE AND NICE OLD VOLUME, 10.50, John Daye at his shop under Aidersgate an. 1573. 953

Books printed in English Black Letter are becoming of more importance and of greater rarity as time goes by. The numerous old wood engravings, as the ORDER and MANNER of the BURNING of ANNE ASKEW, JOHN LASCELS and others, etc., are of special interest to the Antiquary or the Historian, and WILL BE FOUND VERY CHEAP.
