The Honorable the Chief Justice informed the House that he was in possession of His Excellency's Speech, which was read pro forma by the Clerk, and is as follows:

Speaker delivers a copy of His Excellency's Speech.

*Honorable Gentlemen,
and Gentlemen,*

The Speech.

I have assembled you at this early period to enable you to devote sufficient time to the public business, without injury to your private pursuits.

Our situation is, happily, one of tranquillity; and therefore your deliberations, unoccupied by matters of a temporary nature, may be directed to such as shall conduce to the permanent advantage of the Colony.

The Road Bill, passed in your second Session of the last parliamentary year, though excellent in principle and in much of its detail, nevertheless seems in some degree to fail in its intention, from want of a more efficient and concentrated superintendance. You will determine whether any alteration can be beneficially made in that particular.

Another object of moment is the improvement of the Judicature; and this, for various reasons, becomes daily of greater importance.

It will behove you also, to consider what enactments may be requisite in consequence of the Fishery Act having expired.

Under more prosperous financial circumstances I should have been induced to draw your attention to the support of general Education, which, as highly essential to the best interests of society, well merits your protection; especially as it might be fostered here in a spirit of perfect liberality, unfettered by invidious distinctions of any description.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

My predecessor, when closing the last Session, expressed a hope that he should be able to defray the public charges without having recourse to the Issue of Treasury Notes, until he could meet you again in this place; but I found the remaining funds totally inadequate to the existing claims, and was consequently compelled, almost immediately after assuming the Government, to avail myself of that resource. You will, I am confident, feel, with me, that the sooner these Notes can be called in the better, and that no subject so imperiously requires your present application as the establishment of a sound and wholesome system of finance.

We may be said to have reached a crisis, but a crisis in which we are cheered by many encouraging considerations connected with the Fishery, Agricultural produce, and general state of trade. I trust that the difficulties in your way will only operate as incentives to exertion, and that you will fix the Revenue on a scale proportioned to all such demands as shall consist with a strict but rational economy.

I have directed an estimate for the ensuing financial year, and various other documents, to be prepared for your information; and you may rest assured that I shall always be anxious to prevent unnecessary expenditure, and to enforce every due provision for that purpose.

*Honorable Gentlemen,
and Gentlemen,*

This being the first time of my addressing you, I gladly embrace the opportunity of expressing the great satisfaction I feel in having been appointed to administer the Government of this Island, at a time when its Independent Legislature is fully established. The prosperity of Newfoundland is the wish nearest to my heart; and my most ardent desire is, that by your united endeavours you may realize the fondest expectations of those who petitioned for the present constitution, and fulfil the paternal hopes of the beneficent Monarch who granted the boon.

Be convinced of my cordial concurrence on every occasion, and of my constant readiness to promote all public measures, and to listen to all private suggestions which shall have for their object the well-being of this community.

HENRY PRESCOTT, Esquire, C. B., Governor.

The Honorable the Chief Justice announced to the House that the Governor had transmitted to him a despatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated the 21st of October last, which he read to the Council.

The Chief Justice reads a despatch from the Secretary of State.

No. 6.

DOWNING STREET, 21st October, 1834.

SIR,

I have received Sir T. Cochrane's despatch of the 22d ult., No. 47, respecting the pretensions advanced by the Council of Newfoundland acting in their Legislative capacity. As the communications which took place between himself and that body were not designed to surmount any practical difficulty which had actually arisen in the administration of the Government, but rather to obviate certain latent and unavowed claims which it was supposed that the Council were about to advance, I am not convinced that the whole discussion might not, with more prudence, have been avoided; but when I advert to the Address to Sir Thomas Cochrane, of the 18th of September last, signed by Mr. Boulton, the Chief Justice of the Colony, on behalf of the Council at large, I do not think that it would be possible, with propriety or safety, to pass unnoticed the principles which that Address either asserts or intimates.

The Council decline to answer the enquiries proposed to them by the Governor, on the ground that the freedom from all interrogatories as to the motives of their proceedings, is amongst "the necessary privileges incident to this House as a co-ordinate branch of the Legislature." The Address bears the following subscription:—"H. J. BOULTON, Speaker."

It might, perhaps, seem frivolous to bestow much or any notice upon the designations which the Board of Council thus assume for themselves, and for their President, were it not that those expressions are evidently employed in reference to the enquiries which they decline to answer, and as an indirect assertion of the rights of which they refuse, at the Governor's instance, to enter into any explanation. The context thus gives a significancy to the terms they have employed, which might otherwise be altogether wanting.

In the adoption of this language, as connected with the previous messages, may, I presume, be discerned the purpose of claiming for the Council, in their relations with the Governor of the Colony, the privileges which belong to the Upper House of Parliament, in the relation borne by their Lordships to His Majesty. Such an analogy, if not urged beyond those limits within which alone it can properly be maintained, may perhaps be admitted. If carried further, the pretension refutes itself by the consequences it involves.

It may not improbably be conjectured that the constant residence of Mr. Boulton in the Province of Upper Canada until his transfer to the Bench of Newfoundland, may have induced that Gentleman to form, and that his authority may have led others to adopt, views respecting the constitution of the Council, which, however accurate in reference to the Canadian Constitution, are inapplicable to the form of Civil Government which, for nearly two Centuries, has subsisted in the other Transatlantic Possessions of the British Crown. The distinctions between the office of the Legislative Councils of the Canadas and that of the Councils of other Colonies, possessing General Assemblies, are, however, of too much importance to be overlooked.

The Canadian Legislative Councils derive their origin from the Constitutional Act of 1791. They were Bodies formed in avowed imitation of the House of Peers. Their functions were to be exclusively legislative; and as the seats were to be holden at least for the life of the Members, so also provision was made for rendering those seats hereditary, and for connecting them with hereditary titles of honor. On the other hand, the Councils, as they now exist in Jamaica and the other British West India Islands, originated in Royal Commissions of which that of the Government of Newfoundland is a literal transcript. These Councils were originally designed to fulfil no other function than that of advising the Governor as to the acceptance of Laws passed by the House of Assembly, or upon any other question, on which, in his administration of the government, he might have occasion to consult them. The Governor himself was accustomed, until a period of no remote antiquity, to preside at all their deliberations, those connected with the enactment of Laws not excepted. The modern, though well established practice, is, to observe the distinction between the meetings holden for deliberation on legislative acts, and those which are holden to advise the Governor when acting in his executive capacity. Still it is one and the same body, performing two distinct duties, and not two distinct bodies, each charged with a separate function. The title of "Legislative Council," assumed by the Council of Newfoundland, is a designation to which they have no legitimate claim. They are simply the Board of Council, and, except by His Majesty's sanction, the Governor cannot recognize them under any other appellation.

The practical importance of the distinctions to which I have been adverting, is very considerable. The Canadian Legislative Councils enjoy, as incident to their peculiar character, the right of regulating by their own votes, whatever relates to their internal economy and proceedings. But at the Council Board at Newfoundland, as with the corresponding bodies in other Colonies, there are certain internal regulations which it belongs to His Majesty to establish and to vary at his pleasure. Thus, the King, by his Commission and Instructions to the Governor, has invariably determined what shall be the number of Members—how many shall constitute a Quorum—by what means seats shall be vacated—and on what Member the precedence shall, on every different contingency, devolve.

The claim to the title of "Speaker," which Mr. Boulton advances, is altogether inadmissible. By virtue of his office, he is, under the King's Commission and Instructions, President of the Council, and nothing more. If it be really true, that he claims to act as Speaker, under any form of election, such a pretension is not only unfounded, but wholly at variance with the parliamentary analogy urged in its support. There is no instance of an elected Speaker of the House of Peers. Again, if it be true that the Council have disregarded His Majesty's instructions respecting the number requisite to form a quorum, and have established a new regulation for their own government in that respect, such a claim is plainly subversive of their own authority, as contradictory to the instrument on which alone that authority rests.

Should it appear desirable to the Council of Newfoundland that any variation should be made in the Royal Instructions which regulate either the proceedings of the Board, or the number of Members constituting a quorum—an Address to His Majesty, praying that the necessary alterations may be made, is the legitimate mode of proceeding. This course you will not fail to recommend to them, and I shall be prepared to lay it at the foot of the Throne, humbly tendering to His Majesty the advice which circumstances may seem to require.

Amongst the duties of the Council, the punctual transmission of their Journals, through the Governor, to His Majesty, is one of the most indisputable. You will, therefore, on the receipt of this despatch, convene a meeting of the Board of Council, and lay before them this Communication, and you will intimate to them that His Majesty will expect a due observance of the Instructions to which I have last adverted. You will further convey to them the expression of His Majesty's confident hope, that those Journals, when transmitted, will show that they have steadily adhered to the limits of their constitutional authority; and that the designations assumed in the Address of the 18th of September, both for the Council itself, and for their President Mr. Boulton, were not intended as an affirmation of those claims which Sir Thomas Cochrane attributed to them—claims which it would be the duty of His Majesty to discountenance and oppose, if unfortunately they should, at any time, be advanced by that body, without their having first obtained His Majesty's express sanction to such changes in the Constitution of the Colony.

I have, &amp;c.

T. SPRING RICE.

FIFTH SESSION FIRST COLONIAL PARLIAMENT, 5th WILLIAM IV.

Address.

To His Excellency HENRY PRESCOTT, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Newfoundland, and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Council of Newfoundland, in Parliament assembled, having taken into our consideration the Dispatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, dated the 21st October last, No. 6, which was laid before the Council by your Excellency, deem it a duty which we owe no less to His Majesty than to ourselves, as a branch of the Legislature of the Island, to lay before your Excellency, for the information of His Majesty's Government, the following observations thereon.

The Secretary of State, in his Dispatch, points out four several instances in which he states that we have departed from the Royal Instructions, and have exceeded the just limits of our constitutional authority, viz:

In assuming the title of "Legislative" when acting concurrently with the Assembly in legislating for the Colony.

In the application of the term "Speaker," instead of that of "President," to our presiding member.

In changing the number of Members required to form a quorum, from three to five; and—

In the refusal to answer, on the requisition of Sir Thomas Cochrane, certain interrogatories as to the motives of our proceedings in some particular instances.

The title "Legislative" was used by the Council in their Journals from the first opening of the Legislature, and so far from being objected to by the Governor it was applied by Sir Thomas Cochrane in his first Message transmitted to the Council after the opening of the Legislature; and the same style was generally used by him in his subsequent Messages, during his Administration of this Government.

If, therefore, in the assumption of the title "Legislative," the Royal Instructions have been departed from and the limits of the Council's constitutional authority have been exceeded, we must observe that it was an error into which not only the Council, but the Governor also, naturally fell, from the character of the functions we were called upon to discharge.

In the substitution of the term "Speaker" for "President," the Council was influenced by the circumstance of the former appellation being more parliamentary in its signification than the latter; and, certainly, by no expectation that the change of title would bring with it rights not before enjoyed—or that the person appointed to preside over their deliberations, under whatever title, could derive his authority from any other source than His Majesty; and we beg leave expressly to disclaim all idea of an election having ever been contemplated by us.

The Council further desire to remark, that as the Councillor who would Administer the Government in the event of the death or absence of the Governor, would do so under the title of "President," the change of term alluded to, might, in such case, avoid confusion.

Without a wish or intention to interfere with the Royal Instructions, the Council, in nominating five as a quorum, followed implicitly the spirit of these Instructions; for while the Council consisted of six members, His Majesty declares that three shall be a quorum: when, therefore, four new Members were added to their number, the Council, seeing also that the Governor's Commission requires that all Laws are to be enacted by the Governor, with the consent of the "major part" of the Council and Assembly, did not consider that they were acting in opposition to His Majesty's directions (as gathered from the Commission and Instructions collectively) when they increased the quorum to five, being one half of the Members now composing the Council.

In speaking of the motives which induced the refusal to reply to the interrogatories put to the Council by Sir Thomas Cochrane, we trust that the character of the Individuals composing the Council, as well as their general conduct as connected with the Government, will shield them from the least imputation of having acted with any desire to embarrass His Majesty's Representative; and we beg to assure your Excellency that we were solely and entirely influenced by a wish to maintain those privileges which we conceive to be essential to our character as an independent branch of the Legislature, and which is so indispensably necessary to ensure to us the "public respect," and without which the King's service must

In a conference with the Assembly, the Council asserted the same right of freedom from interrogation, which they afterwards claimed from His Excellency the Governor.

If it be true, in the words of Lord Goderich's Despatch (copy of which was laid before the Council by Sir Thomas Cochrane) "that the Council does not assume in the Colony a position, or an influence, analogous to that of the House of Peers, because entirely destitute of that hold on public opinion, which the property and independence of its members, as well as the antiquity of the institution itself, confers on the Peerage"—then it is equally certain, that to maintain that hold on the public opinion, which it is essential the Council should possess, they must be free and unshackled in their deliberations, whether these have for their end the government of their own body, as a co-ordinate and independent branch of the Legislature, or the providing for the exigencies of the public service and the internal improvement of the Colony.

In thus "claiming for the Council, in their relation with the Governor of the Colony, the privileges which belong to the Upper House of Parliament in the relation borne by their Lordships to His Majesty," we trust we have not "urged the analogy beyond those limits within which alone it can properly be maintained"—and while we are most anxious to offer every possible respect to the Representative of His Majesty, we look with confidence to His Majesty's Government to support this branch of the Legislature in those constitutional privileges which will not be denied to the Assembly.

In Lord Goderich's Dispatch alluded to in the Governor's Message of the 9th of January, 1833, and sent to the "Legislative Council" for its consideration, His Lordship observes—"For your own guidance it may be right to observe, that Colonial Assemblies, as they derive their general form from the model of the British House of Commons, so they have drawn their rules and system of procedure from the same source. The distinctions are, of course, both numerous and important, and grow out of the dissimilarity of the circumstances of the Representative Bodies of a small Colony, and of an extensive Kingdom; but, in general, the analogy is maintained, and therefore the laws and rules of Parliament, as modified by the exigencies of the case, may be taken as the safest guide for the conduct of the Council and Assembly, and for your own proceedings towards them. In accordance with the uniform course of precedents your Commission constitutes a Council, which will participate with the Assembly in the enactment of Laws."

"The acrimony engendered by such disputes has sometimes given occasion to an eager assertion of extreme rights on the part of the Council, and to a no less determined denial of their necessary and constitutional privileges, on the part of the Assembly. The effect of the institution, therefore, is too often to induce a collision between the different branches of the Legislature."

From these expressions it is evident that Lord Goderich did not consider the Council a mere Board for advising the Governor, but, in its Legislative capacity, a co-ordinate branch of the Legislature, equally responsible to the Government and to the Colony, for the passing of just and salutary Laws; and vested with constitutional privileges, and with a Legislative Authority to enforce due order and regularity while discharging their public duties.

In taking the "Laws and Rules of Parliament," for their guidance, the Council have followed the suggestions of Lord Goderich, and they now respectfully beg leave to submit for His Majesty's inspection a copy of the Rules which they have adopted for the regulation of their proceedings; humbly soliciting His Most Gracious Majesty to recognize the right of the Council to make Rules for the Government of their Legislative proceedings, in the same manner as the Assembly has ever done.

Unless the Council be considered a co-ordinate branch of the Legislature, invested with powers similar to those exercised by the Assembly, and necessary for the support of their constitutional authority;—unless they be protected in the free and independent expression of their opinions—they would soon become obnoxious to the Colony, and be indeed what Lord Goderich describes—"Instruments for relieving Governors from the responsibility they ought to have borne for their rejection of measures which have been proposed by the other branch of the Legislature."

H. J. BOULTON.

MR. SPEAKER,

The Commons House of Assembly request a Conference with the Legislative Council on the subject-matter of the Amendments made to the Bill entitled “An Act for the establishment of a Light House on Harbour Grace Island.”

The Honorable the Attorney General, from the Conferees appointed to meet the Managers from the Commons House of Assembly on the subject-matter of the Amendments to the Bill entitled “An Act for the establishment of a Light House on Harbour Grace Island,” reported, that they had met the said Managers, who had delivered the instructions of the House of Assembly in the following words:---

Report of Conferees on Harbour Grace Island Light House Bill.

The Commons House of Assembly have requested this Conference with the Legislative Council for the purpose of acquainting them that they cannot concur in the Amendments made in the Sixth Section of the said Bill, entitled “An Act for the establishment of a Light House on Harbour Grace Island,” whereby it is intended that other persons should be appointed for the collection of the Light Duties to be levied under the said Act than those named therein, viz:---the Collector and Sub-Collectors of His Majesty’s Customs.

The Assembly are of opinion, that if any other persons were appointed to collect the Duties in question, not only would the expense of collection exceed what would be consistent with the amount to be raised, but from the nature of their Offices, the Sub-Collectors of His Majesty’s Customs are, of all others, the best adapted for the efficient collection of the said Duties.

13th &amp; 14th April, 1835.

FIFTH SESSION FIRST COLONIAL PARLIAMENT, 5th WILLIAM IV.

The Assembly beg to call the attention of the Council to the Act passed in the Second Session of the Legislature, entitled "An Act for the establishment of Light Houses," whereby it is directed, that the Duties to be raised by that Act shall be collected by the Collectors and Sub-Collectors of His Majesty's Customs, and the Assembly cannot discover any good reasons for making so material a difference in the collection of the Duties to be raised by this Act. The Assembly, however, have no objection, if the Council think fit to recede from the above Amendments, to insert a clause in the Bill to compensate the Collectors and Sub-Collectors of His Majesty's Customs, by granting them a Commission of five per cent. on the amount of the duties to be collected by them.

THOMAS BENNETT,

Resolved,—That a Conference be requested with the Assembly upon the subject of the last Conference, and that the Managers appointed by this House be instructed to acquaint the Assembly, that while they fully concur in the opinion expressed by the Assembly that the Sub-Collectors of His Majesty's Customs are, from the nature of their Offices, the best adapted for the efficient collection of the said Duties, yet they are at a loss to perceive upon what principle of justice any public Officer can be called upon to discharge other duties than those which his office imposes, without receiving a reasonable compensation for any additional responsibility or labour which may thus be cast upon him, and the Council are happy to per-

Select Committee appointed to draft Instructions to Conferees on Revenue Bill—

The Honorable the Collector, from the Select Committee appointed to draft Instructions to the Conferees on the Bill entitled "An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into this Colony," reported a draft thereof, which is in the following words:—

reported draft.

Instructions to Conferees.

The Legislative Council have requested this Conference with the Commons House of Assembly, on the subject of the above named Bill, for the purpose of acquainting the Assembly that they do not concur in that part of the first Section of the Bill, which is intended to impose additional labour, risk and responsibility, on the Collector of the Customs and his Deputies, without any compensation for such Service; neither do they approve of the Colonial Revenues being placed in the hands of the Customs without requiring from them any security for the safe custody and due appropriation thereof.

When Goods are subject to an Imperial as well as a Colonial duty, it must be obvious that it would be more convenient that one valuation only should be made with regard to the same article for both duties, as it tends to facilitate the collection of such duties, and to promote an uniform system in keeping the public Accounts. The Council have, therefore, prepared a Proviso, to be added to the 8th Section to accomplish that object.

The Legislative Council do not concur in that part of the 9th Section which authorizes the Officers of the Customs to take Goods for the use of the Crown, on paying the entered value, with ten per centum thereon, unless a power of restoration be granted to the Governor and Council in all cases where in their opinion an improper resort shall have been had to such a peremptory authority, or where it shall be made to appear that no fraudulent entry was attempted by the importer of such Goods.

The Council cannot concur in the Proviso at the end of the 10th Section, because it is calculated to increase the number of Bonds to be taken by the Collectors of the Duties, without any beneficial result to the Importer; for the Imperial Act allows 20 days to the Importer to make his final entry, during which time he can always raise a sufficient sum out of the Sale of such Import as will pay the Colonial Duties. The Council are of opinion that the appointment of a Board of Audit, for Auditing the Public Accounts, will be of advantage, and trust the Assembly will concur with them in the propriety of providing for that object in this Bill.

There are some other amendments of minor importance which have been recommended in a Committee of the whole Council, which they are also desirous of seeing adopted; and they trust that the amendments proposed will appear to the Assembly to be so reasonable in themselves, and so necessary for the protection of the public interests, that the Assembly will readily concur in their expediency, and more especially as the Council, feeling an equal responsibility with the other Branches of the Legislature when giving their assent to every Bill which comes before them, do nevertheless disclaim any desire to interfere with the acknowledged Privileges of the House of Assembly.

enactments relate to and mention the Officers of His Majesty's Customs, with a view to impose the collection of the said Duties on those Officers, are opposed to the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament, entitled "An Act for the management of the Customs," viz., 3 & 4, Wm. 4, cap. 51, sec. 12.--"And be it further enacted, that no Commissioner of Customs, nor any Officer of Customs, or Person employed in the collection or management of or accounting for the Revenue of Customs, or any part thereof, nor any Clerk or other Person acting under them, shall, during the time of his acting as such Commissioner, or as such Officer, or of his being so employed as aforesaid, or of his acting as such Clerk or other Person as aforesaid, as the case may be, be compelled to serve as a Mayor or Sheriff, or in any corporate or parochial or other public office or employment, or to serve on any Jury or Inquest, or in the Militia; any Law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

“An Act for the relief of sick and disabled Seamen, Fishermen, and other Persons” —which were severally read a first time, and—

Ordered, to be read a second time to-morrow.

The Honorable Mr. Thomas, from the Conferrees appointed to meet the managers from the Commons House of Assembly, on the subject of the Amendments made in the Bill entitled “An Act for the protection of the breeding of Hares and Wild Fowl,” reported that they had met the said Managers, who had delivered to them the Instructions of the House of Assembly, in the following words:—

The Commons House of Assembly have requested this Conference with the Legislative Council for the purpose of acquainting them that the House of Assembly do not concur in the Amendments made by the Council in the Bill entitled “An Act for the protection of the breeding of Hares and Wild Fowl,” whereby it is proposed to expunge the words “Black Ducks and Wild Geese,” and to alter the time within which persons are prohibited from killing Hares and Partridges.

The House of Assembly were induced to extend the protection of the Law to the breeding of Wild Geese and Ducks by prohibiting the killing of them from the Twentieth of April to the Tenth of July, as the Assembly apprehend that unless some such provision were made, these species of Wild Fowl, which, some few years ago, abounded in vast numbers in all parts of the Island, would, from the destroying of them at all seasons of the year, in a short time entirely disappear, as of late years they have disappeared from the Eastern part of the Island, between Cape Race and Conception Bay---more particularly as the House are fully of opinion that the Black Duck and the Wild Goose both breed in this Island and remain here during the whole of the year, excepting about four months of the winter season, when the latter Bird seeks a warmer climate.

The Assembly do not concur in the amendment by which it is proposed to alter the period within which persons are prohibited from killing Hares and Partridges, as the Assembly are of opinion that both Hares and Partridges pair quite as early as the Twenty-fifth of March, and as the object of the Bill would be thereby in a great measure defeated.

The House of Assembly concur in the amendment expunging the words “or found dead in his or her possession.”

The Minutes of yesterday were read.

The Honorable Mr. Bland enters.

The Honorable Mr. Crowdy, from the Committee appointed to draft Instructions to the Conferees, on the subject matter of the Bill entitled “An Act for granting to His Majesty certain supplies for the support of His Majesty’s Government in this Island, for the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five,” reported a draft thereof, which was read, and is in the following words:— Committee appointed to draft Instructions to Conferees on Appropriation Bill—report a draft.

The Legislative Council have requested this Conference upon the Bill sent up by the Assembly, entitled “An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Supplies for the support of His Majesty’s Government in this Island, for the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five,” for the purpose of expressing to the Assembly the reasons which have prevented the Legislative Council from concurring in many of the appropriations thereby sought to be made, in the manner in which this Bill brings them under their consideration. Instructions to Conferees.

While in some instances the amount granted is inadequate, in the opinion of the Council, to defray the charges incident to the service to which it is devoted; other sums are sought to be appropriated towards the payment of charges not connected with the ordinary expenses of the government, and therefore should become the subject of a separate grant.

While the Legislative Council have every disposition to respect the privileges claimed by the Assembly in relation to matters of supply, yet a due regard to the principles of our Constitution, render it imperative upon them not to permit those privileges to be urged to such an extent as to infringe upon the unquestionable right of the Council to reject any measure in which they cannot acquiesce without a sacrifice of their opinions and a surrender of their judgment, which would be the practical result of establishing the principle that all grants of public money, no matter for what service, might properly be embraced in one general Bill of Supply, which, as they cannot amend it without infringing upon the privileges claimed by the Assembly, must either be assented to by the Council, although they may not concur in any of the occasional grants thereby attempted to be made, or else they must be put to the unpleasant necessity of rejecting the whole Bill, thereby depriving those Servants of the Government of their usual emoluments, in the propriety and justice of defraying which, all branches of the Legislature concur.

The practice of tacking to Bills of Supply, matters which are not connected with that particular object, have at all times been strenuously resisted by the Upper House of Parliament, as being calculated to deprive them of their legitimate right of freely discussing every subject that might come before them. The Legislative Council are therefore of opinion, that nothing beyond the usual annual supply, for the support of the Civil Government, should be embraced in the Bill, and that all occasional Grants should be provided for in as many separate Bills as there may be distinct objects to which they may be intended to be devoted.

FIFTH SESSION FIRST COLONIAL PARLIAMENT, 5th WILLIAM IV.

Upon these principles the Legislative Council cannot concur in the following proposed Grants being made in this Bill, viz:—Towards remitting to James Brine Wood certain Colonial Duties paid by him on the importation of a quantity of Madeira Wine, agreeably to the prayer of his petition, £37 2s.

One pound per diem each for every day's attendance in the House of Assembly of such of the Members of the said House representing Out-Ports, as do not reside in Saint John's, provided the same shall not exceed the number of Forty-two days in the whole.

Towards compensating James Blaikie, Esq., late Clerk of the Central Circuit Court, for past services, £100.

Towards defraying the expense of providing Law Books for the use of the following Out-Ports, viz:—Harbor-Grace, Trinity, Bonavista, Twillingate, Ferryland, Placentia, Saint Mary's, Burin and Harbour Briton, £100.

And the several sums devoted to the improvement of Roads.

The Legislative Council also object to the Contingencies of the Legislature forming a part of the annual Supply Bill: these contingencies are incurred for the personal convenience and current expenses of the Legislature while in Session, and should therefore be provided for in a separate Bill, unincumbered with any other subject which could create a difference of opinion, and thereby put in jeopardy the payment of individuals they had themselves employed. Upon the present occasion, moreover, sums are attempted to be granted for the Officers, Servants and Contingencies of the Legislative Council, without the previous sanction of the Council, and without any intimation having been made to the Assembly of the sums which the Council had voted for those services—the Assembly thereby assuming to regulate the expenses of the Council, which is an interference with their privileges which they are bound to resist.

The grant of £100 to purchase Books for the use of both Houses, the Legislative Council are ready to concur in, although they cannot but regret that it should not have originated in Resolutions adopted by one House and sent to the other for concurrence, expressing the joint opinion of both Houses of the propriety of the grant intended for their mutual convenience, and also expressing the mode by which the intention of the Legislature should be attained.

With regard to the reduction made in the Salary of the Clerk of the Southern Circuit Court to the extent of one half the sum heretofore paid to that Officer, the Legislative Council cannot perceive any principle by which such change can be justified. From the nature of his Office he is debarred from entering into any other regular employment; for although he is not actively employed all the year round, yet he must hold himself in readiness to attend his duty in any part of his District when called upon—besides which, the duty itself requiring the Officer to pass by sea to the ports he is ordered to visit, is necessarily hazardous, and the Council are the more struck with this reduction, when comparing the condition in which this Officer would thus be left with that of others provided for in the same Bill—this Officer is to receive but £100 for the year, while a grant of the like sum is made to James Blaikie, Esq., for past services, although he has at all times heretofore received the full amount of salary at which he took upon him his employments.

The Council are likewise of opinion that the sum of £230 proposed for the expense of conveying the Judges on their Circuits will be found totally inadequate to that end, and they very much fear, that without a further appropriation, one of the Circuits at least must, for the present year, be discontinued.

The third Clause of the Bill the Council cannot concur in, as it carries with it a distrust, not only in the Treasurer, but in the Executive Government, and tends directly to place the Treasurer in a condition to judge of the propriety of the Governor's Warrants, which it is not to be presumed will be issued in violation of any of the various Acts appropriating the public Revenue.

There are some matters of minor importance to which the Council desire to draw the attention of the Assembly, although they are not of such a nature as would be insisted upon should the Assembly view them in a different light.

There are three separate grants to Magistrates for Saint John's, Harbor-Grace and Carbonear, and in each case the style of the Officer is different from that used in either of the others.

29th April, 1835.

HENRY PRESCOTT, Esquire, C. B., Governor.

The Magistrates in Saint John's are properly enough, as the Council conceive, called Police Magistrates—in Harbor-Grace the Officer is called the Chief Magistrate, which is not a correct designation of any ordinary Justice of the Peace; and in Carbonear the term Stipendiary is applied. The Council would prefer the one style of Police Magistrate, or the term Magistrate alone, without any other designation. The using a variety of expression in any law has a tendency to produce embarrassment in the construction of it, and leads to conflicting opinions where a difference was never intended in principle.

There is a sum of £250 appropriated to the repair of Government Buildings, and another sum to the repair of Gaols, which are also Government Buildings. The Council, believing the Government House to be meant as the object of the former grant, have expunged the word "Buildings," and inserted "House" in lieu thereof.

There is a service named for which no provision has been made, and which the Council presume has arisen from accident—it is for defraying the expense of employing three persons to lay out Roads to Holyrood and several other places.

The sum of £1590 is granted towards opening, making and repairing Roads and Bridges in the several Districts of this Island—but the amount in detail exceeds that sum by £50.

The Legislative Council extremely regret that a Bill of so much importance should have been left to so late a period of the Session that there would not be time to pass it through its different stages before the day named for the prorogation, consistently with those prudential rules which all Legislative Bodies adopt, as well to prevent surprise as to ensure a deliberate and careful examination of every subject brought under discussion, did the Council concur in all its provisions, and therefore they have been reluctantly compelled to dispense with their usual method of proceeding in the passage of Bills, in order that the public service might not be subjected to the greater inconvenience of being left without any supply, or of rendering it necessary to prolong an otherwise protracted Session.

Ordered, that the Report be received, and that it be concurred in.

A deputation from the Commons House of Assembly brought up a Message in the following words:—

Mr. SPEAKER,

The Commons House of Assembly agree to the Conference as requested by the Legislative Council on the subject matter of the Act for granting to His Majesty certain Supplies for the support of His Majesty's Government in this Island, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and have appointed Conferees on the part of this House to meet the Conferees on the part of the Legislative Council at the time and place appointed.

The Minutes of yesterday were read.

With reference to the Bill ordered yesterday to be read on that day six months, entitled "An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Monies for the service of the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five."

Protest of the Honorable the Attorney General, with reference to the Appropriation Bill.

The Honorable the Attorney General entered the following protest:—

DISSENTIENT---

Because, although the Bill in its present state be in several important particulars objectionable, no less in relation to the principles of some of its provisions than as regards the privileges of the Council in relation to them, still those objections might possibly have been obviated on further reference by Message to the House of Assembly, requiring a Conference with them; but which medium of remedy the absolute and immediate rejection of the Bill utterly precludes.

And, because the rejection of the Bill by the Council, within the space of a few minutes after its being brought up from the House of Assembly, is not calculated to sustain the deliberative character of the Council; but rather bears the features of hasty resentment, susceptible of being imputed to an over sensitive feeling in relation to their own privileges; while at the same time it appears, upon reference to the Council's Message to the House of Assembly on the subject matter of this Bill, it is not quite clear that the Council themselves are perfectly free from the imputation of interference with the privileges of the House of Assembly.

And, because no necessity exists to require the instant rejection of this Bill, and no good end is promoted by such a procedure.

And, because no practical evil or inconvenience could have arisen from the retention of the Bill before the Council for the space of Twenty-four hours; after which if it were found that the House of Assembly would not concur with the Council in the adoption of means requisite for its amendment, the reasons now subsisting in the minds of the Council to induce its rejection, if valid, would not become weakened in their force after receiving the sanction of deliberation and reflection.

And, because it is most desirable and important to the public interests that all collision between the Council and House of Assembly upon such an important subject as that to which this Bill relates, should be most sedulously avoided.

JAMES SIMMS.

SIR—

I have the honor, by command of the Governor, to acquaint you that it is His Excellency's pleasure that the Legislature be prorogued to Saturday the 31st day of October next.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient humble Servant,

JAMES CROWDY.

The Honorable
The CHIEF JUSTICE.

Governor comes to the House and assents to Bills, viz—

At 2 of the Clock, p. m., His Excellency the Governor having come to the Legislative Council Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was ordered to direct the immediate attendance of the House of Assembly at the Bar of this House, and they being come thereto, His Excellency was pleased to assent to the following Bills:—

Governor's Speech.

After which, His Excellency was pleased to address the two Houses of the Legislature in the following words:—

*Honorable Gentlemen,
and Gentlemen,*

I have great satisfaction in relieving you from the labours of a Session protracted far beyond my original expectation.

The Acts to which I have given my assent will, I trust, be beneficial to the Island.

I observe, with particular pleasure, the mode adopted for enforcing the removal of obstructions and impurities from the Streets of Saint John's. It is to be desired that the present regulation may be followed by the construction of common Sewers, and by other measures conducive to cleanliness, health and comfort.

8th May, 1835.

HENRY PRESCOTT, Esquire, C. B., Governor.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

I thank you for the Supplies; in the application of which I shall observe all due economy. Some alteration must, of necessity, take place in the arrangement of the Circuit Courts, in consequence of the reduction you have made in the Estimate for that branch of the service. I will endeavor to render the administration of Justice in the Out Ports as effective as the present limited means will permit.

*Honorable Gentlemen,
and Gentlemen;*

The probability of an improving Revenue from pre-existing sources, induces me to believe that the additional duties now imposed will be found sufficient to effect a gradual extinction of the Treasury Notes.

The light tax laid upon Imports will prove, I feel assured, in no degree oppressive; and I entertain sanguine hopes that in succeeding Sessions, after providing for all departments of the public service, you may find a surplus to be devoted to further internal improvements.

In taking leave of you under the idea of not meeting you again in your collective capacity for several months, I cannot recommend any thing more earnestly to your attention than the promotion of concord and friendly feeling throughout the Colony; nor can I too strongly express my opinion that the influence which you naturally derive from your position as Members of the Legislature will be best and most laudably exerted in allaying party spirit wherever it may unhappily exist.

The Honorable the Chief Justice then said, it is His Excellency the Governor's will and pleasure that this Colonial Parliament be prorogued to Saturday the thirty-first day of October next. to be then and here holden; and this Colonial Parliament stands prorogued accordingly.

Parliament prorogued.
