VOL. XLII—No. 22

BRANTFORD, CANADA, MONDAY, MARCH 31, 1913

TWELVE PAGES

ONE WAS "PUT OVER" ON THE BRANT GRIT EXECUTIVE

Screaming Announcement, "Get Ready for General Election" Was a Joke, Pure and Simple, and The Expositor Went Right to It.

On Thursday, March 13th, 1913, under a special double-column heading, the Brantford Expositor featured the following announcement, front page, top of column, and all the rest of it: "Indications are that a general election for the House of Commons in the immediate future is a certainty. The Expositor is advised that local Conservatives received word from Ottawa yesterday to prepare for an election about May 20th." The above announcement was the result of that gentle and succulent art known as "putting one over."

Little Effect on Stock Market Caused by
Death of Big King

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, March 31.—News of the death of J. Pierpont Morgan, the financier, came an hour before the opening of the Stock Market and gave them ample time to take measures for the protection of the market. The first intimation of the probable effect was contained in London's quotations for American stocks before the opening here. The cables showed general declines of heavy pressure. Wall street was astir early and before the gong on the floor marked the opening of business, every precaution had been taken to guard against a severe slump. In the so-called Morgan stocks, especially supporting orders were given. United States Steel, which heads the list of the Morgan stocks, registered the effect of the financier's death most firmly. The first transaction amounted to 4,500 shares at a loss of a point. The other Morgan stocks, which include Erie, Southern Railway, International Harvester, and New Haven, showed only fractional losses.

Fatal Accident NORTH BAY, March 31.—Geo. Arnot, twenty-four years of age, from Renfrew, bookkeeper for Austin and Nicholson lumbermen, at Chapleau, was killed at Biscotasing, C.P.R. station Sunday morning. Arnot was returning to Chapleau on the express and had stepped off the train at Biscotasing. The train was in motion when he tried to get on again and in some way he was thrown beneath the wheels and almost immediately killed.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE
BRANTFORD

Five Nights, Commencing Monday—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, with special matinees Wednesday and Saturday—Ernie Marks and his big company of vaudeville and dramatic stars, in new and high-class repertoire, Monday—"Tempest and Sunshine," Tuesday—"A Hero of the Hills," Wednesday (Matinee)—"For Love and Honor"; Night, to be announced later. Friday (Matinee)—"The Elopement." This is the first visit of Mr. Ernie Marks and Miss Kitty Marks to Brantford in years, so don't think you have seen this attraction before, for you haven't. Prices: 10, 20, 30c; Matinee, 10, 20c. Seats Saturday. See the high-class specialties between the acts. Thursday, April 3.—Verba and Liescher present a gala musical event, "THE ROSE MAID," the opera which enjoyed two seasons at the Globe Theatre, New York, through its captivating music, delicious comedy, tasteful settings and gorgeous gowns, and was proclaimed by all who witnessed this operetta of fun and fashion as prettier than its sister opera, "The Spring Maid." Company of 75, with special orchestra. Two carloads scenery. The Kute Kiddies and the Rosebud Garden of Girls. Each girl a fashion plate. Prices: 14 rows, $1.50; 8 rows, $1; balcony, 75c; balcony, $1 and 75c; gallery, 50c and 25c. Seats Tuesday.

Square Deal, That is What The Courier Offers

Every Person Who Assists the Journal Will Receive Liberal Compensation for Efforts Given.

There isn't any hocus-pocus about the Courier's "SQUARE DEAL" campaign. In the ordinary course of events, when a newspaper intends to increase its circulation, outside experts, who specialize in that regard, are either brought in, or else there is a contest for a trip to the Yellow Sea, or the Sarawak Islands, or something like that. You know what such things mean. Contestants wear themselves to a frazzle, only in most cases, to find that a FEW OTHERS are on top, and that, as far as their efforts are concerned, they have been toiling for nothing. The one really happy man in such schemes is the publisher, who finds that HIS BANK ACCOUNT has been boosted a few hundred simoleons. The Courier proposal is not that kind of a project, by any manner of means. This paper believes that anybody who hustles for it is entitled to RECEIVE GOOD PAY, even if the effort only produces one new subscriber. The consequence is that in this fight you CANNOT LOSE. Participants will receive remuneration, on a very liberal basis, for all that they do and on top of that they have the chance of securing one of the $350 worth of SPECIAL PRIZES. The situation is perfectly clear. This paper desires to add to the number issued each day and what's more, proposes to do it, with your help. That result will not be achieved at anybody's expense, but to the direct CASH ADVANTAGE of all who participate. A perfectly clear and above board proposition isn't it? Moreover, the Courier has recently been enlarged; so increased in plant and in the numerical strength of its editorial, news, society, reportorial, business and operative departments, that it is right now, properly recognized in this community as "SUPREME IN EVERYTHING." That position it not only proposes to maintain, but to make even more secure. Get in, and GET IN EARLY, on the "Square Deal" campaign. And even if you should be a little late in starting, you will be paid in cash for everything you accomplish. BUT DO IT NOW.

Thrown Out SOME SESSION
IS PROMISED

City Council Has Considerable Business to Transact at To-Nights Session.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, March 31.—Suffragists created a scene to-day at the resumption of proceedings of the Parliamentary committee inquiring into the wireless contracts of the British Government when David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, took the stand to undergo further examination. The Chancellor used the word "principle," and a male suffragist immediately rose and shouted an angry protest. He exclaimed: "I object to that man using the word 'principle.' He is a traitor. He has betrayed the women." The interrupter was promptly ejected, but another soon interposed. Mr. Lloyd-George had remarked that he was not a speculator and had never bought to gain, when a suffragette cried out: "You sold the women alright." Evidently there were many sympathizers in the audience. Shouts of "Hear! Hear!" resounded through the room. Both the interrupter and her sympathizers were thrown out.

PICTURE OF DAYTON WHICH RECEIVED SUCH DAMAGE

FINANCIAL POWER OF THE WORLD
DIED TO-DAY---J. PIERPONT MORGAN

Man Who Had Illustrious Career-- Was the "Sphinx" of Wall Street-- One of the Richest Men in the World is Stricken by the Leveller of All Men-- Had Sought for Better Health in Egypt, and Died in Rome, Italy.

[Canadian Press Despatch] ROME, Mar. 31.—J. Pierpont Morgan, the financier, died at five minutes past twelve o'clock noon to-day. When his death was seen to be approaching rapidly, Prof. Bastianelli and Dr. George A. Dixon, son-in-law and daughter and Miss Helen Hamilton Morgan, who had been in constant attendance, to leave the room. Mr. Morgan towards the end showed that he was suffering internally only by a movement of his right hand. Otherwise he displayed no sign of vitality, except by continuous heavy breathing. Frequent bulletins were issued during the morning hours when his condition was gradually becoming worse and by 11 o'clock the physicians had given up all hope. Mr. Morgan was unable to assimilate the artificial nourishment administered during the morning and his physical weakness was extreme. Heart tonics were injected but these had no effect and for several hours before his death he was in a state of coma, unable to respond to any questions or to recognize any of those at his bedside. One of his relatives, Mrs. Fitzsimon, wife of the Rev. William Fitzsimon arrived from Cannes and was shown into the death chamber, but her presence remained unknown to the dying man. Besides the four trained nurses in attendance, Miss Helen Hamilton

Great Excitement Prevails in Russia Over the Balkan Victory

[Canadian Press Despatch] ST. PETERSBURG, March 31.—"Don't think this is Vienna," cried a crowd of people gathered in front of the Russian legation to-day to listen to a speech from the Serbian Minister to Russia. The people's protest was raised in this way against the action of the Russian police who ruthlessly led them down slashing right and left with their sabres. The Russian Government apparently had foreseen the dimensions which would be assumed by the popular demonstrations over the victories gained by the armies of the Balkan allies in Turkey and had issued stringent orders to suppress any outbursts of feeling which exceeded the limits of official sympathy. A most dramatic scene occurred outside the Serbian legation, when the Serbian minister attempted to make his speech, but was forced to withdraw into the building when the police charged. A Russian general who was in the crowd remonstrated with the policemen, who explained that they were only obeying superior orders. Many of the demonstrators were injured. Anti-Austrian feeling was very keen among the demonstrators who attempted to reach the Austro-Hungarian embassy. Great crowds of them marched in that direction shouting, "Down with Austria," but the police, who were in great strength, were drawn up across the approaches and drove back the mob using their whips freely. General Dimitrieff, a Bulgarian, was carried shoulder high and the Bulgarian minister to Russia in a short speech aroused wild enthusiasm by declaring that the Bulgarian success was a victory for the whole Slav race.

WIDOW GETS A SETTLEMENT

Sum of $5,000 Will be Paid to Mrs. Hector Sullivan by Electric Company.

The widow of the late Hector Sullivan who was killed here a year ago on Alfred street while fixing an electric light will receive $5,000 from the Western Counties Electric Company and the case will not be heard at the Spring Assizes here as scheduled. A settlement out of court was effected on Saturday. Messrs. Gibson, O'Reilly and Co. of Hamilton acted for the company and Mr. W. S. Brewster for the relatives of the deceased.

Editor III. ST. CATHARINES, Ont., March 31.—Ald William B. Burdette, editor and owner of the Standard, was taken suddenly ill last night and rushed to the hospital. He is troubled again by an old physical trouble and his condition is critical. He recently conducted a strenuous campaign in connection with the viaduct scheme, and it is thought the strain proved too much for him.

One Minute
Interviews

J. D. Kelly, manager American Radiator Co.—"Our fire protection tank is a credit to the Gould, Shapley & Muir firm, which put it up. It stood the most severe test of Good Friday's hurricane in great shape, and it was without its regular ballast of 200 tons at the time."

A LETTER WHICH TALKS

THE following extracts are from a letter sent to Mr. John Fisher, M.P., by a prominent Liberal who lives in the North Riding: "I see by to-day's paper you are all having a strenuous old time at Ottawa. I am absolutely disgusted with the stand Sir W. Laurier and most of the Opposition have taken on the vital question, and I can only tell you that if the Government are forced to the country on the bill I shall vote on the Conservative side."

THE PROBS

TORONTO, March 31.—A disturbance now north of the Ottawa Valley is being accompanied by gales in the lake region, said weather prevails throughout Canada. FORECASTS. Westerly and northwesterly winds and gales, mild and partly fair, but some showers. Tuesday—Fair, with decreasing winds.

Wild Duck.
A well known citizen walking home late last night found a wild duck, red head, with a broken wing, on the walk in front of Zion Church. He was evidently a member of an early morning flight over the city and had struck the spire. He is a beautiful specimen, weighing five pounds. The wing has been placed in a splinter and it is hoped to keep him alive.

Little Effect.
Mr. W. H. Bennett of the Brantford Stock Brokerage office, reported today that Pierpont Morgan's death as follows:
"The death of Mr. J. P. Morgan this morning had very little effect on prices of stocks with railroads or industrials. U. S. Steel, common, is only one point lower, selling at 61, and the preferred, five points. The wing has been placed in a splinter and it is hoped to keep him alive."

FIREMEN ASK FOR INCREASE

Men Want Similar Raise in Pay to That Granted to Police.

As announced in The Courier some time ago the members of the Brantford Fire Departments decided to apply for an increase in their wage schedule just as soon as the application of the police for a raise in pay was favorably met.

The firemen to-day presented their application, asking for a schedule as follows: First year men, $2.00 per day; second year, $2.20; third year, $2.40; lieutenants, $2.65; Captains, $2.90.

The petition of the men is a plain statement of facts. It is pointed out that the maximum pay for firemen in Toronto is $2.75; London, $2.60 and Hamilton $2.40, considerably higher than in Brantford. The men point out that they are up against the high cost of living, and also the fact that many other lines of employment mean higher salaries and shorter hours of work. The firemen for six days work 24 hours per day, while better salaries are given for ten hours a day.

The application is signed by all the men as follows: G. E. Kingswell, H. Codd, A. Crooker, J. Kelly, R. Woodley, E. Ostrander, F. Howarth, J. Townsend, S. Rock, S. A. Garnham, E. Wilde, J. R. Coulbeck, R. Mayles, E. Ribby, D. O'Hanley, A. Howarth, A. Jones, H. Rock, J. T. Townsend.

Chief Lewis is not applying for an increase himself, but he is supporting the men enthusiastically.

It is pointed out that the firemen work 144 hours per week while the police work only 60 hours and have liberties and outside emoluments.

Chief Lewis writes Brantford, March 31, 1913. To His Worship the Mayor and members of the City Council of the city of Brantford:

Gentlemen,—The members of the Brantford fire department have petitioned your honorable body for a slight increase in their pay. If you could possibly see your way clear to grant them their request, I believe it would be a good thing for all concerned: as with higher wages paid in other lines of work and hours worked much shorter, and in very hard time to time, with the present rate of wages paid on our department. It has many times occurred to me that the general public gives very little thought to the manifold qualities exhibited by first-class firemen. To be a successful fireman a man must be strong, hard active, fearless, and wholly intelligent for his duties. Quick thought and action are indispensable, and upon his grasp of opportunities sometimes depends the life of himself and comrades. There is no room for a coward or for ignorance on the fire department.

Did you ever consider the many dangers a fireman is exposed to? Fire-fighting at all times is a very serious proposition, but much more so in cold weather. The streets are difficult to travel on, ice soon burdens every piece of fire-fighting machinery on which water can splash, and buildings soon become coated with ice. The element of personal danger in fighting fire in very cold weather is great. A fireman has to run constant risk of loss of life, or at least serious illness because of extraordinary exposure. Again his work is not confined to any particular hours, but he is subject to calls at any hour of the day or night, and while the citizens are enjoying the comforts of peaceful rest during the night, he may be aroused from equal comfort to go forth perhaps in extreme cold, and engage in the strenuous work of fighting fire for hours. And while their work is received as a matter of course, a trifling mistake calls forth a shower of criticism from unthinking persons, who under no circumstances could be induced to take their places.

These men have a higher rate of insurance to pay owing to the fact that their positions are considered hazardous. Nor do we have any superannuation fund here, the same as they have in larger cities, which enables a man to retire on a pension after he has served a municipality faithfully for a certain number of years. Now to secure the class of men that should be on the fire department, and to hold them, I would strongly recommend that your honorable body grant these men the small increase they have asked for. It will go a long way towards maintaining the efficiency of the department, and it will enable the men to lay a little something by for the time when they either become incapacitated by injury, or age ends their usefulness. I wish you would give the matter your most careful consideration, view it from all points, try and place yourselves in their positions, and I feel sure that you will agree with me that these firemen should have the increase asked for.

Yours truly,
D. J. LEWIS,
Chief B. F. D.

MANY PEOPLE ARE HOMELESS

Ohio River Drives Thousands From Their Homes to Safety.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, March 31.—Floods in the Ohio River from its mouth to Marietta, Ohio, due to the great volume of water poured into it during the last week by its tributaries, have caused thousands of people to leave the lowlands and seek refuge on higher land. Early to-day the water is still rising and at every city along the river, heavy damage to property is reported. Railroad traffic has been impeded and many miles of track washed out.

In Illinois, Gov. Dunne has ordered 1,000 state troops to proceed by special trains to Cairo and Shawneetown for the purpose of patrolling the levees.

Handreds of laborers also have been sent to pile sacks of sand on the levees.

Reports early to-day from Henderson, Owensborough, Louisville, Newport and Covington, Ky., Evansville, Ind., Cincinnati, Portsmouth, Marietta, Ohio, Huntington and Parkersburg, W. Va., show that stock of goods in buildings near the river have suffered heavily and that the damage will run into the millions.

There has been no loss of life at any of these points.

A telephone message from Cairo, Ill., early to-day shows that the levees were still holding and that the

THE TOLL OF LIFE.

Industrial accidents occurring to 485 individual workpeople in Canada during the month of February, 1913, were recorded by the Department of Labor. Of these 85 were fatal and 400 resulted in serious injuries.

In the preceding month there were 100 fatal and 391 non-fatal accidents recorded, a total of 491, and in February, 1912, there were 66 fatal and 325 non-fatal accidents recorded, a total of 391. The number of fatal accidents recorded in February was therefore fifteen less than in January and nineteen more than in February, 1912. The number of non-fatal accidents recorded in February was nine more than in January and 75 more than in February, 1912. Altogether there were six fewer industrial accidents recorded in February than in January and 94 more than in February, 1912.

In connection with agriculture there were seven fatal and four non-fatal mishaps. Of the fatal accidents, two each were caused by falling trees and by bulls and one each by flying material, machinery and a runaway.

In lumbering there were eleven fatal and twenty non-fatal accidents recorded. Five lumber yard employees were killed while loading lumber as the result of a train running into cars being loaded; three bushmen were killed by falling trees, and one each by livestock, machinery and a runaway.

In mining there were twelve fatal and twelve non-fatal accidents. Five of the fatal accidents were caused by falling material and two each were due to falls, explosion of dynamite, machinery and one by drowning in flume of mine.

In railway construction there were eight fatal and seven non-fatal accidents recorded. Five men were killed by the explosion of dynamite, three by being buried under falling earth. The seven non-fatal accidents were caused by premature explosions of dynamite.

In the building trades there were five fatal and twenty-four non-fatal accidents. Four of the fatal accidents were due to falls and one to electrocution.

In the metal trades there were nine fatal and one hundred and forty non-fatal accidents. Three each of the fatal accidents were caused by electrocution and falls, two by falling material and one by being crushed by machinery.

In the woodworking trades there was one fatality caused by an elevator.

The Printing, Clothing and Textile trades did not furnish any fatalities.

SOMETHING TO PONDER

The members of the new federation of Grit clubs of Ontario have propounded the question, "Why am I a Liberal?"

Why indeed? There are many fine Liberals in Canada, lots of them. Count your friends and see how many of them belong to that belief, which is, of course, their own business. Good citizens, good men, and all the rest of it, but as a party what has Liberalism ever done for Canada?

That side fought against protection introduced by the Conservatives in 1878 and with regard to the necessity of which Hon. Mr. Paterson told his own side in the House (Hansard report, page 186, 1876):

"At my last election, when my opponent told them (conservatives) that they need not expect any protection from the Reform Government, I had to assure them that whenever this subject came up in the House I would raise my voice in their behalf."

That side fought against the Pacific Railway, which opened the great North West, and with reference to which the late Hon. Edward Blake, then a Liberal leader, solemnly declared that the enterprise would never earn enough to pay for the grease on the wheels.

That side fought for commercial union with the States, that dodge of Wiman's, whereby we were to become hewers of wood and drawers of water for our good neighbors and in objection to which Sir John Macdonald made the historic statement, "A British subject I was born; a British subject I will die."

That side fought for Reciprocity, the scheme which President Taft in a letter to ex-President Roosevelt, declared was to make Canada an adjunct of the United States.

That side (or at least a portion of them represented by such men as Editor Macdonald of the Toronto Globe) are now fighting against a direct contribution to the British navy.

The list might be extended, but enough has been said.

Is there one great and national measure in Canada with regard to which the Liberal party, has ever taken the initiative?

Anything the leaders have proposed has been either to belittle Canadian resources, or else to take a step towards Washington, and that much further step from the Old Land.

By all means, let the faithful ask themselves, "Why am I Liberal?"

Yes, why, indeed?

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Remember the four Brants, and pitch in for all you're worth.

Don't make any mistake about it. The Conservative members at Ottawa are united in the determination to put through the three-Dreadnought program.

The German military estimates have staggered the people of that country, and, of course, will prove fine to the Grit wind-jammers, who claim there is no emergency.

They say that Mr. John Fisher, M.P., is perfecting a device whereby the next time he is called out of bed at 2 o'clock in the morning to record a vote he will simply push a button and have all his clothes drop on, after the manner of a fire hose.

Hon. Mr. Fielding is on his way back to Canada from the Old Land. He went there in order to boost the Laurier attitude on navy matters, and sent voluminous articles to the papers. His success was just about as dazzling as his attempt to fasten Reciprocity around the neck of one Johnny Canuck.

Police Are Happy-- Men Get Increase

It Was a Short Session on Saturday When the Salary Business Was Settled.

Twelve hearts beat as one on Saturday afternoon when at a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners held in the judge's chambers at the Court House it was decided to give the Constables an increase of twenty cents per day. To say that a dozen of the guardians of the peace are highly delighted is a true statement, as is assured by the happy smile on the constabular countenance to-day.

The Meeting. The Commissioners were in a happy mood and the session only lasted eighteen minutes, but in that short space of time they made the constables happy by granting them their much looked and desired raise in wages.

The Motion. Police Court Clerk J. P. Brown read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved and adopted.

It was moved by His Worship, Mayor Hartman, seconded by His Honor Judge Hardy that the twelve constables on the police force be granted an increase in wages to the extent of twenty cents per day, the same to date from the first day of February last.

The Magistrate. Magistrate W. C. Livingstone stated that "he wanted to put himself on record that he was agreeable to the advance in wages for the constables and further he was of the opinion that the Sergeants, the Truant Officer, the detective, the police court clerk and Chief Slemm should also be granted an advance in wages the same as the rest."

There was a "lull", "a deadly silence" in the meeting which was broken by the Judge rubbing his chin and uttering his familiar "Ah!" The Magistrate seeing that he was in the minority and that the Judge and the Mayor were solid for "The Constables only, asked to be excused from the meeting as he had other important business he wished to transact. A few seconds later the Judge looked at the Mayor and smiled, nodded at His Worship taking it for granted that a "nod" was as good as a "wink" returned the salutation with a "Same as you my dear Gaston" smile and that put the seal on the motion and the constables were no richer to the extent of 20 cents per day.

The resignation of P. C. Humphreys was read and accepted and a new appointment will be made to the force in the near future.

John Ryan was awarded the contract for printing the Chief's annual report of 1912. A few accounts were passed and ordered to be paid and the meeting then adjourned.

The scale of wages paid to the constables will now be: First year constables—$2.05 per day. Second year Constables—$2.15 per day. Fourth and Fifth year Constables—$2.40 per day.

Thomas Holly appeared in the Police Court but was allowed to go as also was William Wright, Mark Wonnacott on the same charge failed to appear.

Heavy Fine. Almid Hassan, a foreigner, appeared, charged with breach of the liquor law. Hassan, who is a Turk, keeps a open house on Dalring St. in which he reads and writes letters for other Turks. The police found a quantity of liquor on the premises, and this morning he appeared. His Worship was of the opinion he had more than enough for his immediate use and he was fined $100 and costs.

Jos. Marcin, another foreigner, had a quantity of liquor confiscated and this morning his case was aired. It cost him $100 and costs for knowing his boarders had it on the premises. The foreigners are certainly in the debt for their refreshments these days.

A Louringin attacked Aymer Coleby, cutting the latter open, necessitating medical attention. The former was fined $20 and costs.

Chas. Spittal, Malcom Smith, Harry Kirby, Robt. Howling, John Howling, Roy Collins and Clarence Buckett were the members of an Octette, which sang out guilty to charge of riding on the sidewalk. The echo was $2 a piece and a warning.

STATE FUNERAL FOR WOLSELEY

Statesman and Soldier Laid At Rest in St. Paul's Crypt.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, March 31.—A full state funeral was accorded to the late Field Marshal Viscount Wolseley to-day when his body was interred in the crypt of St. Paul's Cathedral alongside those of Nelson and Wellington.

A dense pall of yellow fog enveloped the city throughout the morning, even the powerful electric lights on the streets with difficulty penetrating the darkness sufficiently to enable the funeral procession safely to traverse the long route from the War Office to the great cathedral.

The effect was most weird. The strains of the "Dead March" played by the military bands and the roll of muffled drums could be heard approaching by tens of thousands of those who lined the streets to pay their last tribute to the popular war veteran. They could, however, see but little of the ghost-like forms of the great procession of soldiers, with a gun-carriage in their midst bearing the coffin covered with the Union Jack, as it passed immediately before them.

The Duke of Connaught represented King George, and a dozen of the most distinguished field marshals, admirals and generals acted as pallbearers.

AT ST. LUKE'S. Good attendances marked both services at St. Luke's yesterday. Mr. Kingerly conducted the evening service. The annual vestry meeting will be held on Tuesday evening. Confirmation classes are also being held, a visit from the Bishop being expected in May.

ECHO PLACE MISSION. Last night's services were especially bright and hearty. It was conducted by Alfred Hunt, assisted by Treacherous Prisoner. NORTH BAY, Ont., March 31.—Frank Jones, a colored prisoner in North Bay jail, assaulted Turnkey Robert McDonald by throwing him over the railing of the stairway in the upper corridor. How McDonald escaped with his life and without serious injury seems miraculous, as the drop is a considerable distance. Jones was committed from Goshalt for three months on a charge of disorderly vagrancy. His term had one day to run, but he thought it was completed and refused to return to his cell when ordered to do so. The turnkey was assaulted in trying to force him back. Jones was brought before Magistrate Weegar and sentenced to one year in Central prison.

Bogus Checks. QUEBEC, March 31.—Presentation of bogus cheques is becoming a craze in Quebec. On Saturday last a sergeant named Dufour bought one dollar's worth of goods in the Paquet department store and presented a cheque for $100, asking change. The bank was telephoned to and it was learned that the cheque was bogus. The girl was arrested, but as she did not succeed in cashing the cheque she was discharged from the police court this morning with a caution.

Mr. Emurian, the Armenian singer, gave a very interesting talk to the young ladies of the Trust Club on Saturday evening. Mr. Emurian spoke on the customs of the Armenians. He also sang two or three numbers in a very pleasing manner. The club members were delighted with his talk and songs.

Gus Hogan Here

One of the members of the Ernie Marks company who looks forward to the engagement of this company in Brantford is Mr. Gus Hogan, a boy of this city, who lately has gained quite a reputation as an actor and dancer. While there is an old saying claiming "that you can't be a prophet in your own community," Mr. Hogan is not afraid to contradict this old-time proverb in his case, and the flattering comments given him by both press and public this season will be doubly justified with his appearance in his home town.

Hydro-Electric

Ald. Broadbent who, in company with Ald. McFarland, has been interviewing the property holders, to secure their endorsement of a petition to secure Hydro-Electric light clusters, similar to those on the main streets of Hamilton and Toronto, placed on Colborne street, when seen this morning regarding the petition said the property holders were almost all in favor of the lights. "Many of the owners are not residents, however," said the Alderman "and it will be necessary to secure their approval, as it will necessitate a two-thirds of the property owners' signatures before we can put it through."

Spring Medicine There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength. The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today. Sold by all druggists everywhere. 100 Doses 11.

Pierpont Morgan

Prof. Giuseppe Bastianelli, the best known medical specialist in Italy, was summoned from Rome to his bedside. Meantime the financier's son-in-law, Herbert L. Satterlee, left his New York office for Cairo and joined Mr. Morgan's party there on February 25. It was reported that Mr. Morgan had sustained a slight stroke of apoplexy, but it was denied. Prof. Bastianelli issued a bulletin upon his arrival at Cairo saying that Mr. Morgan's condition was good and for several days the patient seemed to improve. On February 26, Mr. Morgan drove out to the Temple of Karnak at Luxor. He wanted to drive round, but a guard refused him permission and when the financier remonstrated the guard pointed to a line of invalid chairs for hire. Mr. Morgan declined to get into an invalid's chair.

His Importance. "If Mr. Morgan were carried round Karnak," explained his secretary, "the news would be cabled to America. It would be said that he was too ill to use his legs; and there would be a great financial crisis."

Mr. Morgan may have been able to use his legs to get around, but he didn't. Instead, he drove back, disappointed, to Cairo.

Prof. Bastianelli remained with Mr. Morgan till he sailed back to Rome on March 10. Mr. Morgan landed at Naples on March 13 and went direct to Rome, where he received no visitors.

The sun of Rome, the diet and the doctors seemed to have started him back to health when he attended the Easter services at the American Protestant Episcopal Church at Rome. He appeared to walk with difficulty, however, and left the church before the services ended. He grew rapidly worse, and for several days lay in a practically comatose state.

He Quit Business. Coincident with Mr. Morgan's death it became known that he had sustained a serious attack before his departure for Europe, but had rallied so rapidly that it was not considered a forerunner to fatal illness, and was known only to his most intimate friends.

For many years Mr. Morgan spent a considerable portion of his time abroad, but on this trip, for the first time, he severed all connection with business affairs, and permitted his partners to shoulder all responsibility for their conduct. It was the first instance of his taking such a complete rest since he entered the banking business in this city before the Civil War.

Prominent bankers in this city said this morning that they did not predict any decided unfavorable effect on the stock market by reason of Mr. Morgan's death. The reason of this, they explained, was that the recent rumors of his serious illness had prepared the market for any possibility and enabled those engaged in market operations to prepare for just such a situation.

An Illustrious Career. John Pierpont Morgan started his business career half a century ago on the board of directors of a large marine insurance company. He secured the position through the influence of his wealthy father. For a year young Morgan attended the directors' meetings, but never opened his mouth except to vote. The president of the company told the elder Morgan that nothing could be done with his son, who seemed to take little interest. John Pierpont, however, all the time was laying his plans for his first railroad scheme, which when accomplished established his standing in Wall street as the only man who got the better of Jay Gould.

Was a Sphinx. The president of the insurance company had mistaken taciturnity for indolence. The sobriquet of "Sphinx of Wall Street" later was the appellation applied to the man who at first was believed to have been without business acumen, but later became the supreme head of the finances of the American continent. Mr. Morgan's control over money was the dominant keynote of his life. Others, perhaps, were wealthier than Morgan, but he commanded his wealth and that of others. At the height of his power he is said to have controlled $9,000,000.

In addition to finance, art, literature, philanthropy and sport all came under his influence. His prestige was not confined to his own country—kings, emperors, and even the Pope went to call him into consultation.

Old Puritan Stock. Mr. Morgan came from an old Puritan New England family, which dates back in this country to 1636.

He was born in wealth. His father Junius Spencer Morgan, left him $100,000, and also young Morgan inherited important banking connections. J. S. Morgan had accumulated his fortune in the dry goods business with Levi D. Morton, and later as an associate of George Peabody, merchant, banker and philanthropist.

John Pierpont Morgan was born April 17, 1838, in a modest red brick cottage in Hartford, Conn. As a youngster his tendency to write poetry gave him the nickname of "Pip." When he was 14 Morgan was sent to Boston to the English high school. He showed a particular bent for mathematics, but had no gifts indicative of unusual mental power.

Dame Mayer Tells How She Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Suffered for Three Years from Rheumatism, Headache, Palpitation and Bright's Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Kidneys and Made Her Well.

HUBERDEAU, Argenteuil, Co. Que., March 31.—(Special)—"I am always glad to tell of my cure because I sympathize with others who may be suffering as I did." So says Dame Joseph Mayer, well known and highly respected here. "For three years I was a very sick woman. Rheumatism, headache, palpitation of the heart and Bright's disease were my succession of troubles, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them all. I used twenty-four boxes to complete my cure, but they certainly made me well."

"I will never be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house." Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Dame Mayer's ills because they are all caused by diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys and will cure kidneys straining the seeds of disease out of the blood, the rheumatism, Bright's disease, headache and palpitation of the heart are bound to disappear. You never heard of a case of kidney disease that Dodd's Kidney Pills would not cure.

Horse Notes

A fine new stable of 28 stalls has been completed at the Woodbine. It is located on the southwest side of the track.

The track is now in very bad shape and will require at least ten days of favorable weather to round it into condition for training purposes.

Steeplechase Jockey "Herb" McAfee left for Burnings, Washington, on Thursday to be in condition for riding this season.

"Bob" Forbes, the well-known "Smithy" at the Woodbine, spent Thursday at Cedar Grove Farm, Oakville, training the horses of Harry Gidding.

Chas. Crew, yearling, chf. Martinmas-Gannic Maid, has been on the ailing list with distemper but is now recovering.

J. Collings has turned his King's Plater, Miss Harvey, c.f. (3) Martimas-Sampan, over to Trainer "Wiry" Hagan to be "peppered" for the big race.

Word was received here this week from J. S. Flynn at Prescott stating that his three-year-old Auster is very high in flesh and it is doubtful whether or not she can be fitted in time for the King's Plate.

As Thompson of Hamilton, owner of Cohort, is interested in the two-year-olds which Wm. Fitch recently purchased from J. E. Madden at Lexington, Ky. In all probability they will be campaigned in the Thompson colors.

When Wm. Walker lost his old, reliable mudder, Servience, via the selling rate route in the East last fall he made what he considered a very satisfactory cash sale.

At Proctor and "Billy" Fitch, the noted auctioneer and pool seller, both speak very highly of the treatment they received on their visit to J. E. Maddens Hamburg Place Stock Farm at Lexington, Ky. recently.

"I clashed in many an argument relative to the horse," said Fitch, while conversing with a party of local horsemen the other night.

"I found him pretty well posted too, and he certainly out-talked me on one memorable occasion," remarked "Billy."

"Well he is the first one that ever did," put in Jimmy Noble, the well-known reinsman.

It will not be from lack of condition if Chas. Phair's plate candidate, Holly Brook, does not give a good account of herself in the race for the guineas in May.

Phair has also in training the two-year-old Tom Flanagan, Br. g. Pershore, and Havana-Venocious. He is a candidate for the Breeders' Stakes of 1914, also the Coronation Stakes this spring.

The youngster, was bred at the Waterloo stud. of Jos. E. Seagram, but his capabilities as yet are unknown.

"What is there in a name? By Tom Flanagan we will know shortly. The genial Thomas should also bear in mind the honor is rather an expensive one and calls for the presentation of a new blanket after his first victory.

John E-Madden attributes much of the success of his harness horses to the style of shoes used on them. They are shod in plates practically the same as his runners.

The plates of course are only suitable for a dry track, as they are without corks. A device substituted for a toe cork is used in wet weather.

A Calgary despatch says: The trotter, Dr. Wilkes, 2:11 1-4, that Truman Lowes of this city, recently bought from R. J. McVine, Brantford, Ont., and that arrived here along with ten other horses by express from Toronto, last week, has developed pneumonia and is a very sick horse.

The other horses in the shipment, including Grand Opera, Billy Sims, the Saxon and Lon McDonald, owned by Smith and Proctor of Toronto, are all in good health. The weather here is now fine and the track dry.

Pitcher Fred Blanding of the Naps will be out of the game for a couple of weeks yet as a result of an injured foot. A small bone was fractured when the foot was hit by a pitched ball, and he is on crutches.

Ralph Copron, turned back to Pittsburg by St. Paul, has been turned over to the Phillies. Copron showed well in the American Association last year, but objected to returning because of the salary offered.

Over in The Expositor they say Archer, Rube Marquard and the others are checked in.

Del Orcutt will bring the Red Sox recruits to Brantford this year, Manager Kane having been ordered to report some days ahead.

It's an ill wind that blows nobody some good and the terrific windstorm a few days ago whipped out that big tree in front of the grand stand at Agricultural Park as clean as a whistle.

The English language is not ornate or expressive enough for some of the American yellow journals. Here is the puzzle the Cleveland Leader gives its readers in the way of baseball comments.

McDowell looks like a stickler for the position of the Lajoie auxiliary. Larry's back is likely to slip a cog almost any time. It is necessary to have some willing youngster to step into the boots of the great Gaul, McDowell, down with the Yans, has shown that as a fielder he doesn't have to tip his bonnet to any of them.

1898—Jack Johnson, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, born at Galveston, Texas.

1899— Ike Weir, Irish-American, and Frank Murphy, English, fought 80-round draw for world's featherweight championship in Indiana.

1903—Young Corbett, featherweight champion, knocked out Terry McGovern, ex-champion, in 11th round at San Francisco.

1902—Abe Attell, featherweight champion, and Battling Nelson, lightweight champion, fought 15 round draw at San Francisco.

1909—Eddie McGoorty, knocked out Kid Flinders in 3rd round at Ashland, Wis.

1911—Abe Attell bested Frankie Burns in ten rounds at New York.

This limits the amount of available infield material to a pair, which isn't very ornate when one comes to ponder on the troupe which the other shet-sockers tote around this land of U. Samuel. This leaves room in the bungalow of the elect for several more roomers.

According to the wires that have been clicking the merry tidings northward a Hibernian discovery named Clancy looks very much to the sweet peas. It might be a good scheme for Birmy to allow this relative of the F. I. P's to stick around awhile until he learns whether or not he is available timber to be carried around as a regular piece of furniture.

In the outfield there are a couple of peacherines all ready to get into active hustling as soon as they hear the call of the managerial warble. Leibold and Beall are both able to smite the ball with considerable whackadodis. The former is touted as highly as if he were a pocket edition of Cobb, Speaker, and Jackson all abridged and ready for vest pocket use.

If he succeeds in living up to one-tenth of the speciferous tales that have been burnished for him he'll make the hair of rival outfielders stand on their beam ends before the summer is sinking into the sere and yellow.

It's a cinch that when the ben-ny's in the moth balls they will be naming streets for Leibold if nemo only hugs fast to his rep. made in the sunny south. Beall won his spurs with a gonfalon gatherer. Denver folk say that Johnny is very much twenty-four karat, and that any afternoon he is likely to make the fans dizzy watching him cavort in the suburbs. Which sounds well. If it proves to be the real stuff then Birmingham has copped a grand prize in the lottery.

Harry Donovan and Matty Leonard are still holding out on President Nelson. These players must feel they are out in the cold after Jimmie

Clyde 1, Raith Rovers 1 in the Scottish Cup Semi-finals.

(By Tom Robertson)

The English cup semi-finalists must all have served up an excellent brand of football Aston Villa just managed to squeeze out a one to nothing victory from Oldham Athletic, while the other game at Sheffield between Sunderland and Burnley resulted in a goal-less draw.

The latter game must now be replayed at Birmingham. Out of the four who reached the semi final the only one who has ever before reached the final stage. On the occasion of their first experience in the final in the season 1886-87 they defeated West Bromwich Albion 2-0. Then again in 1891-2 West Bromwich Albion got their own back by defeating Aston Villa 3-0.

These two clubs again met in the final in 1904-5 when the Villans just captured the trophy by a 1-0 victory. In 1896-7 and in 1904-5 Aston met and defeated Everton and Newcastle United by 3-2 and 2-0 respectively.

International—England vs. Scotland.

After Saturday's excitement has been subsided all thought in soccer circles will be turned towards the big English match which this year will be played on English soil.

This is the top notch event in the association football world and the game will be played next Saturday at Chelsea. Weather permitting it may be expected that a vast crowd will be in attendance, but it is hardly likely that the record of last year will be broken.

At the game held in New Hampden Park, Glasgow, on 23rd March, 1912, there were 127,307 spectators present. The total amount of gate and grandstand ticket receipts was $35,000.

This game will complete the international series for this season. Should the result be a draw then the championship goes to Scotland, while on the other hand England will top the list should they beat their opponents.

The two countries have met in annual combat 41 times.

Local Footballers in Great Fettle for Season

Breezy Notes on What's Doin' Among Brantford Players And Clubs.

One of the best and most exciting games of indoor football seen for some time, resulting in a hair-raising finish, was played at the armories on Saturday night, when the Dufferin Rifles team, by a superhuman effort in the closing stages of the game, kicked a goal which beat their opponents, the Holmedale Tigers, by the narrowest possible margin of 1 to 0.

The Tigers were fœmen worthy of their steel, for they held the "soldiers of the King" scoreless for the greater part of the game, and it was in the last stage of the contest when, by a magnificent piece of combination, coupled with one terrific rush, a pass, a true and deadly shot, which by a hairsbreadth beat the Tigers' capital goal-tender, that the soldiers achieved one glorious and magnificent victory, not because they played any better football, but simply because Dame Fortune smiled on the militia.

The Holmedale Tigers deserve great credit, for they held the Duff's almost scoreless, and as it turned out, were only down one point. "To the victors belong the spoils," and we must doff our hats and say to His Majesty's corps, "Good boys!"

Although the Tigers were defeated, never in their lives did the Dufferin Rifles fight so hard for victory.

The Tigers have a team that will make them all sit up and take notice, and ere the season is over the teams will learn that the boys from the river side are to be reckoned with. Dutton, the goal-keeper of the Duff's, played a great game and was the star of the contest.

Duff's Hold Meeting. After the game on Saturday night the members of the Dufferin Rifles team held a meeting at the club house to discuss the coming year.

ways' smiling, takes his medicine like a man, and is as "slippery as an eel." Hutchinson, at outside left, hails from Glasgow, and is not only a jewel at the game, but "a four crown."

Dave Cook, at right wing, will not be found wanting when the "green grass grows all round."

The Dufferin Rifles team will have for their colors scarlet and green. Blues requests every player to be present for a heart-to-heart conference.

Holmedale Tigers. Judging from the good showing the Holmedale Tigers made against the Dufferin Rifles team on Saturday night, there is one team that will have to be reckoned with this summer, provided they can keep up the pace and can play as good football on the grass as they do on the boards. 11 days gone by Holmedale was always able to make a good showing at football, and a revival of the game in that section of the city will be hailed with delight by many of the old-time enthusiasts. The Tigers will likely practice on the new playground set aside for that purpose. If the boys keep well up in the running they will wake up the old spurs down by the "old mill stream."

by the narrow margin of one goal to nothing.

Hearts have always shown good cup to the fighting ability, but the Bairns have proven that they are strong contenders for the highest honors in Scottish football.

Raith Rovers and Clyde must again clash to settle the draw which took place to-day in Edinburgh by one goal each.

Hearts are the only team among this year's semi-finals to have ever won the coveted trophy.

They won the Scottish cup in the seasons 1890-1, 1895-6, 1900-1, and 1905-6.

In Big Leagues

Charley Mott of Milwaukee finally captured Cincinnati's runaway pitcher, Dan Brouthers, and took him to Mobile bound for the White Sox.

Brown reported to Tinker the same day, also somewhat leg-lord.

A Chicago newspaper man with the White Sox in California, after seeing the Sacramento team beat the White Sox remarked that Harry Wolverton appears to have a better team this year than he did in New York last year.

Captain Bill Sweeney of the Boston Braves has done a little forecasting. The interesting part of it is the statement that he says the Boston Braves will fight it out for fifth place while Brooklyn and St. Louis will make the fight for tail-end honors.

The real long and short of it among major league pitchers rests with the New York Americans. Geo. McConnell, on the tail end, towers five feet six inches into space, while Jack Warhop, at the other end, is the tiniest of all the big league twirlers.

The Boston National League Club Stalling has renewed his efforts to get Vin Campbell to reconsider his retirement stunt.

Mobile gets either pitcher Kirby or Pletcher Bader from the New York Yankees. Bader has not been able to show McGraw what he has because of illness, and Kirby's backwardness is due to a lame shoulder. New York paid a high price for Kirby last fall and he looked good in the games in which he was used.

Baltimore Acosta, the 16-year-old Cuban outfielder recruit of the Washington Americans thinks it's great to be a ball player. Already he has received two dainty perfumed notes that refer to him as "Little Cutie" and his fellow players have to restrain him from sleuthing around to find the fair writer.

have different ways. Treasurer Hi Mason of the Browns in Texas complains because he gets nothing, but on the silver, while out in California Louis Comiskey, who carries the receipts for the White Sox, complains because he gets nothing but gold. In the East and North money has to be weighed down to keep it from blowing away and little of the hard stuff is seen except as change.

The hotel keeper at Jacksonville, Fla., where the Cubs stopped on their way North from Tampa had an odd notion of what constituted a major league ball team in training. He was asked to prepare for the team and when it arrived Secretary Williams discovered that he had laid out accommodation for exactly nine men.

"I was astonished to learn that a 'base ball team' in this case constituted an even 90 persons."

The Chicago White Sox played a game with the Portland Coast League team at Bakersfield, Cal. one day last week and the local papers advertised Ed. Walsh to pitch. That was not Manager Callahan's intention and Walsh was not sent to the field. In the final stages of the game the sheriff of the county walked out on the diamond with a big gun strapped on his hip and ordered that Walsh get up so Ed to save arrest, had to twist an inning or two.

Manager Hugh Jennings declares he will book not over five exhibition games on the road home from the training camp next year, but will keep his men in camp until a few days before the season opens, playing games with the New Orleans and Mobile teams, which will be close to Gulpert.

Malcolm Douglas, the University of Virginia star for whom several clubs were said to be angling, has agreed to play with the New York Giants if he enters professional ball. One story has it that Connie Mack offered him $3,000 to sign but he turned down the offer.

It is said that Jimmy Archer's contract with Chicago, called for $6,000 per year, for four years.

The Jersey City team sailed for New York last night from Bermuda. Tom Hughes and Roland Barrows, have reported at the Rochester camp.

Bickers and Morley, two Washington recruits, will likely be secured by Montreal. A pitcher named Sullivan may also be secured.

The boys who robbed the Baltimore clubs dressing room at Fayetteville, N.C., got a year in jail. They took everything in sight.

New York Americans beat Jersey City yesterday, 10 to 1, at Hamilton, Bermuda. Chase played second base, and got a pair of lusty singles out of four chances at bat. McHale and Schenke appeared on the mound for the Sketers while Caldwell and Schultz twirled for the Yankees.

A despatch from Charleston, states that Tom Brown, an outfielder, has been making such a good showing in the Charleston ball games, that Tom Brown is being considered for the Boston Red Sox, presumably Eddie Holly.

The Giants had a close squeak winning yesterday's game from the New Orleans Pelicans, the score being 6 to 5. At one time the Giants had a fat dead end six runs but good pitching and loose fielding, jeopardized their safety, and the Pelicans were only one run short, with two men on bases, when the last man went out.

The two New York pitchers—Tesserau and Goulet—were both wild.

Rochester expects to get Priest, Stump, and Derrick with New York, claiming under the working agreement with the Highlanders Rochester turned admit.

The Red Sox will not carry all of the extra infielders. Of these there are Janvrin, Ball, Carlestrom, and Engle. The latter is a useful man, he can play the outfield or any infield round substitute. Janvrin is a superb ball is a veteran and a super ground-coverer and Carlestrom has more than met all expectations.

Philadelphia Telegraph: "Most of the players with the Regulars are very much disturbed by a report that Connie Mack has decided to turn over his catchers over to the Baltimore club. If such is really the case, Connie has another problem on his hands. Thomas and App are, of course, sure of their jobs, while it would seem strange if Connie parted with Egan after Ben had made such rapid strides in one season. Yet what is to become of Schang, whose form has surpassed that of any young catcher the writer has ever seen? Connie admits that Schang is a wonder and gets like a man of long experience in the fast set. When the season opens and when he closes, Connie will probably still have four catchers, in Smith, Egan and Schang to take the places of Thomas and Lapp when this pair show signs of showing up, which however seems far ahead.

Teacher—Very good, James. The first class in "inside base ball" will stand up and stretch.

Shortly after Joe Jackson combed out a lousy average and finished the season of 1910 as leader of American League batters. George Mullin declared that Joe had a glaring weakness, and that the South Carolina genius was only an ordinary batsman.

George has had ample reason for regretting that statement since then. If the figures were available it probably would be discovered that Jackson's batting average against Mullin in 1911 and 1912 was about .700.

Fred Blanding thought he had discovered last season while Birmingham was in charge of the Cleveland Club.

"I can fool that fellow on a curve," said Fred to Joe, referring to Ty Cobb.

"Never mind trying to fool him, Fred," answered Joe. "Just shove one over the plate and pray. That's the best way. Put it on the outside and make him hit to left field."

Fred did it. Twice Tyrus tried to left field. On Ty's third try Fred decided to take a chance. He decided to try that curve on the inside, which he thought would fool the Georgian. Ty was fooled—fooled so badly, in fact, that he only secured a triple instead of a home run. The ball landed high on the right field screen at League Park.

"You certainly did fool him," said the manager after the innings was over.

TWO-TITLE BOUTS FOR COAST FANS

July 4 Will Probably See Champions in Action.

WELSH VS. RICHIE

Coffroth Trying for That Combination; Willard May Meet McCarty.

CHICAGO, March 31.—It looks very much as if there would be two corking good championship fights on the Pacific Coast July 4.

Coffroth probably will arrange for a meeting between Willie Ritchie, the light weight champion, and Freddie Welsh of England, for the real title at 133 pounds if Welsh will agree to it.

Down Los Angeles way, it certainly looks as if Tom McCarty is planning to put over another heavy weight for the white title. Luther McCarty naturally will be one of the contestants in this scrap for he carries the reputation of being the best fighter in the world.

Al Kaufman, Jim Flynn and Al Papp.

Luther's opponent originally was to have been Bombardier Wells because no one foresaw what was going to happen when Gunboat Smith got the haymaker of his into action. Now it looks as if either Smith or Jess Willard will oppose McCarty on the big national holiday.

Willard Probable Opponent for McCarty.

It certainly looks at this angle as if Jess Willard would be the man chosen to go against McCarty. All of the different angles point to that probable fact. It is entirely an announcement will be made that Willard has signed up a prominent man on the Pacific coast as his manager, that man doubtless being Thomas Gunboat Smith, we are told, is not much of a card on the Pacific coast. Some of his battles out there were not at all impressive and while he has achieved an international reputation by his quick and decisive defeat of the Bombardier, the coast fans will always remember him because of his showing out there. This sentiment may make it hard for Jim Buckley, his manager, to break in on the really "big stuff" out there. Jess Willard, it is true, is little known on the Pacific coast but they have something to work on because of that ten round battle in New York with McCarty, which affair Jess always claims he won.

Gunboat Upset all of the Dope.

The Gunboat surely upset forty different kinds of dope and put an everlasting crimp into McCarty's plans when he sloughed the Bombardier into oblivion on that New York fight. What a corking international affair McCarty and Wells would have made, and what a gigantic house would have been drawn out there. Wells only put Smith away! Which merely goes to show that mere man as a proposer is a wonder but that he knows very little about peering into the future.

It may be that McCarty would prefer this stage of the proceedings to cut out the heavy weights altogether and go after a light weight championship fight that would include Ritchie and Joe Rivers but that also is a matter of doubt. After all a good heavy weight bout for a title that the fans want in spite of the fact that the Rivers-Ritchie fight doubtless would be one of the big

Lady Marjorie's Love

"Well, I can straighten them into working order a bit to-morrow probably. I must run up by the evening train, though—the governor is sending me North." He hesitated, with another pleasantly shrewd and twinkling upward look. "Is it allowable to put a question?" he asked. "Fire away!" said Barrington, easily.

"Thanks! I should like to know, then, by your leave, if the leases and so on—the business part of the affair—is the only part that has gone wrong?" "Eh? What's that?" He was quick in the sharp stop and turn that he made, and both face and voice altered as quickly. Then he laughed again. "Ah, so the governor broke faith, did he?" he asked coolly. "No, I can't go as far as that. But I may own that I got a hint. No objection, I trust?"

"Objection? Not I; you are welcome to know all about it for me. What were you asking?" "I said I hoped it had not gone wrong. Does it promise well? I'll put it in that way."

"It does—very well, I think in fact and between ourselves—in confidence you know, old boy—about as well as I want it to promise."

"That's good hearing," George's face brightened with kindly pleasure. "You won't mind my saying that, all the circumstances considered, I was rather dubious about it?"

"So? Now I wasn't," he laughed. "Don't put me down as too much of a prig, George?"

"Not likely!" George pondered. "So it's all going smoothly and without a hitch, is it?" he said in a satisfied tone.

"Without a hitch? No, I can't say that. In fact there's another fellow."

"When? That's awkward! An engagement, do you mean? Who is he?"

"Cousin—confound cousins! A fellow named Bligh. Yes, it's an engagement, merely a guessing machine?"

"That's awkward," George commented again, and still with a lengthened face. "What is he like? Have you seen him?"

"Never set eyes on him. Liked Well a bit of an idiot, for he doesn't care for her, a bit of a sneak, for he was after her, for he'd get out of it he could hit on a way and in the meantime he neglects her. That's about all I know of him."

"Does she care for him?" George asked.

"Care?" Barrington laughed again. "Pooh!" he said lightly. "You may double the circumstances and the disadvantages if you like. George, my friend, and I'll beat him with one hand tied behind his back."

"George, she's a beauty," he said, his hand on his friend's shoulder.

"I hope she said, 'that I may expect the honour of an introduction to Lady Marjorie Wynne?'"

"Lady Marjorie, getting tired of the

Stomach Misery JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness after Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch and eructate, sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually disappear, but what's the matter? Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite, but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

LIVE STOCK During the past few months the live stock branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has been in receipt of numerous enquiries as to where it might be possible to purchase either Angora or Milch goats.

It would appear that in many parts of the Dominion the demand for these useful and profitable animals is rapidly developing, and that those who have at present any surplus stock can find a ready sale for them if a channel of communication between supply and demand is established.

Accordingly, as a means of starting a conversational directory of Canadian breeders of Angora goats and milch goats, the Live Stock Commissioner will be pleased to receive from such breeders information regarding their respective flocks covering the following points—

1.—Kind and number of goats kept.

2.—Usual number for sale each year.

3.—Approximately the price asked.

4.—If possible a brief statement regarding expenses found necessary and the returns which may be expected by one engaged in raising this class of stock.

Communications supplying the above information should be addressed to the Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa, Ont. Such letters do not require postage.

STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness after Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch and eructate, sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually disappear, but what's the matter? Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite, but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

LIVE STOCK During the past few months the live stock branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has been in receipt of numerous enquiries as to where it might be possible to purchase either Angora or Milch goats.

It would appear that in many parts of the Dominion the demand for these useful and profitable animals is rapidly developing, and that those who have at present any surplus stock can find a ready sale for them if a channel of communication between supply and demand is established.

Accordingly, as a means of starting a conversational directory of Canadian breeders of Angora goats and milch goats, the Live Stock Commissioner will be pleased to receive from such breeders information regarding their respective flocks covering the following points—

1.—Kind and number of goats kept.

2.—Usual number for sale each year.

3.—Approximately the price asked.

4.—If possible a brief statement regarding expenses found necessary and the returns which may be expected by one engaged in raising this class of stock.

Communications supplying the above information should be addressed to the Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa, Ont. Such letters do not require postage.
