HIGHLAND BRIGADE ARRIVED SAFELY

It is Officially Announced That the 85th, 185th, 193rd and 219th Battalions Are Now in England.

Ottawa, Oct. 20—It is officially announced, through the Chief Press Censor's Office that the following troops have arrived safely in England:

The 188th Saskatchewan Battalion; half 166th Toronto Battalion; the 85th, 185th, 193rd, and 219th Nova Scotia Battalions, Drafts-Dental Corps; Royal Flying Corps. Total number of troops: Officers, 276; men, 5,529.

In the grey twilight of a late autumn afternoon the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade left for England. It was Friday, October 13th. There was no public send off no demonstration. Few saw the trooper laden with its priceless gift to the cause of Empire as she made out to sea. Glimpses of her were caught by people on the cross streets in view of the harbor, those whose duties called them to the wharves saw her pass, and a few lonely watchers stood on the citadel heights and watched until mists, the shadows, night and distance had engulfed her.

That was all—but no single ship ever sailed hence freighted with so much that was Nova Scotian. Five thousand Highland Laddies crowded her deck—men who with high resolve had chosen the good part. Half a million fellow-countrymen wished them God speed, and the wake of the great ship was as a constant trail of love from shore to shore. They were gone—the break had been made—and the love of thousands followed them—many a man and woman was wont to say—"for where my treasure is, there is my heart."

The sailing of the Highland Brigade was the conclusion of three days such as even military Halifax had never before witnessed. The whole thing was like a great recession which reechoed through the Province. Although military exigencies did not permit of any announcement of the sailing of the Highland Brigade it was known by all interested that the troops would embark on Wednesday and Thursday, October 11th and 12th. People from Cape North to Cape Sable came to Halifax to see their relatives and friends. The liner was docked at Pier Two early on Wednesday morning and the first to arrive from Aldershot was the 85th Battalion. They route marched thru the principal streets and went aboard the liner immediately. Ten thousand people bearing gifts of all sorts and description awaited the arrival of the 85th at the Common here it had been announced, at the instance of the military authorities, the Battalion would be paraded and permitted to receive their friends. Owing to an unfortunate blunder the arrangements at commons did not materialize. The 85th had been paraded directly aboard ship. Although the great crowd surged down to the pier they did not gain admittance, and until late that night men and women kept a weary vigil endeavoring to communicate with their loved ones on the ship to send parcels to them.

Late that night the 185th Battalion arrived from Aldershot, and were immediately put aboard. To remedy the blunder of Wednesday the military authorities announced that the arrangements originally planned for the 85th would be carried out for the 219th the following Thursday morning. This Battalion arrived by troop train about 9 o'clock, and marched to the Commons by way of Barrington Street, Spring Garden Road, and North Park Street. Brilliant autumn sunlight made the morning radiant. Thousands of people lined the streets and massed on the Commons. Flags and bunting were displayed everywhere and a general air of genuine welcome pervaded the City as if endeavoring to crowd out the more sombre undercurrent of farewell.

Just what men and women felt that day only the individual knows within him. But that indomitable thing that has come into Canadians these days was there. It glinted in the eye—it kept the voice from quivering—and after all—it was the new spirit of the old spirit.

The military spirit ETAOIN. The military authorities arranged that the 85th and 185th were to be "at home" to their friends at the Pier the same afternoon—Thursday. Fully 3000 people visited the boys. It was like some enormous donation party—fruit, cake, candy, socks, books, prayer books, Bible—and every sort of gift that the gallant men could take with them. While these battalions were receiving their friends, the 219th, whose reception had taken place in the morning, crowded the decks of the liner and sang many of the now old and familiar Brigade songs. Late in the evening the 193rd, the last of the Brigade to leave Aldershot, arrived and were immediately put aboard ship. The trooper remained at the dock until early morning when she withdrew to the harbor from which she sailed late that day.—Morning Chronicle.

CREW OF CANADIAN SCHOONER PICKED UP AFTER 4 DAYS AT SEA

Boston, Oct. 14—Four men, rescued from an open dory after they had abandoned the Canadian schooner Helen Hasbrouck, dismasted in a gale 50 miles south of Seal Island (Me), on Sunday, were brought into this port today aboard the British steamer Saxon Monarch, from Glasgow. Captain Charles W. Publicover and the crew of the Hasbrouck had drifted 40 hours in a heavy sea before they were picked up by the steamer. Leader Publicover, of La Have, N. S., father of the Hasbrouck's captain, was one of the crew. He said he had sailed the seas for 50 years and this was his first experience in a marine disaster.

The Hasbrouck was purchased by Captain Publicover in New York. He was sailing her to La Have to take on her first cargo.

PIERCED BATTLES RAGING ON ROUMANIAN FRONT

Petrograd, Oct. 20, via London—Announcement of the inauguration of an offensive movement in Eastern Roumania by the army of Field Marshal Von Mackensen is made by the War Office. It is said the Germans and Bulgarians have suffered great losses. The battle continues.

In the region of Mount Robulie assaults were made costing the Teutonic forces heavy losses. The Roumanians recaptured Mount Surul near Rothen-thurm Pass.

On the Northern and north-western front the enemy has attacked Gosoasa in the Trotus us Valley and has been repulsed. In the Uzul Valley there have been violent artillery actions, and enemy infantry has been dispersed. Our troops have taken the offensive in the Olutz Valley and has been repulsed enemy to the frontier where fighting continues.

The situation is unchanged on the remainder of the front as far as Bran defile where we repulsed an enemy attack directed against our left flank. We took 45 prisoners and captured some materials. We have recaptured Mount Surul. On the left bank of the Alt we have repulsed five enemy attacks in the region of Mount Robul, where the enemy suffered heavy losses. There were more than 300 corpses in front of our trenches, and we captured two machine guns from the enemy.

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD HAVE A GOOD RANGE

A woman cannot be sweet tempered, smiling, and make her family happy when she is tired to death. Her work as housewife is as hard as any man's job, and her hours are much longer.

She spends most of her time in the kitchen; here she does her hardest work, and here she should have every labor-saving device invented to lift as much as possible the burden of fatigue that even the shortest day is bound to bring.

The kitchen is her workshop and she is entitled to have it equipped as efficiently as the farm or factory. It ought to be the best equipped room in the house, to make her work as light as possible, so that when she joins the rest of the family at meal time, she is not too tired to enjoy the good food she has worked so hard to prepare.

Her health and happiness, therefore, and the happiness of the household depend upon this.

If meal times are to be happy times, as they ought, the kitchen must be rightly equipped.

The biggest item of kitchen equipment is a FAWCETT RANGE and it is believed here by the military experts that the tide has turned in our favor.

Mrs. Cunningham—The doctor has ordered me to the mountains, Henry.

Mr. Cunningham—Why, you are not run down or tired out, are you?

Mrs. C.—No, but I shall be by the time I get my gowns all made and my trunks packed.

WEDDING BELLS

(Yarmouth Post)

A quiet but pretty home wedding took place this morning at the residence of Rev. Dr. Crowell when his second daughter, Miss Jessie E., became the bride of Dr. Willard J. Fulmore, of Advocate Harbor. The ceremony, which took place under a pretty arch of autumn leaves and flowers was performed by the father of the bride. She wore a travelling suit of dark brown serge with hat to match and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and smilax. The couple were unattended. The members of the Saturday Night Club of which the bride was a member, gave her a great send-off. Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore left on the morning train for points in the Valley before taking up their residence in Advocate Harbor.

Death of Rev. Irl R. Hicks

This world wide known weather forecaster died at his home in St. Louis on Thursday night. Mr. Hicks was probably the most voluminous writer of the weather and earthquake phenomena of any person in the world, and thousands have been guided by his prophecies and warnings, whose numbers were rapidly on the increase. His school had over 500 scholars and would have been much larger had he the time and strength to permit of the increase. He was a most pious and kind hearted veteran and in his 1916 almanac he concludes thus:

Let the closing of this volume be a solemn reiteration of our one purpose to labor until death for the welfare of the souls and bodies of our fellowmen.

This for forty years has been the best and most important part of our message to mankind. That the Word and Works of God are in such plain and practical accord that men may not only comprehend, but greatly profit withal, shall be the keynote of our life while we live, and we have already graven it in the granite which is to stand sentinel above our grave and prolong our message to generations unborn. To us, God is so very present and wise and good in all these material things, that the pure in heart do not have to die in order to see and realize and love Him.

"Enlightened by God's Word, Convinced by His Works, Confirmed by His Spirit, I live realizing that Unfaith is blind Unreason."

APPLE GROWING IN NOVA SCOTIA

THERE is no part of Canada where apple production is more successfully carried on than in the Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia. The principal reason for this, apart from the fact that soil and climatic conditions are favourable, is that practically all of the large commercial orchards are situated in a continuous and closely connected chain. "The Valley" is approximately 80 miles in length, with an average width of 9 miles. There are about 40 shipping stations in that area, all being on the main line of the Dominion Atlantic Railway with its terminus at Halifax. Consequently the facilities for shipping and for export are perfect.

There is one other reason for the success with which fruit growing is carried on in Nova Scotia, and that is the systematic manner in which the fruit is marketed. Over one-half of the entire apple crop is packed and marketed co-operatively. Each particular section of the Annapolis Valley has its own co-operative association, and all these subsidiary companies are responsible to one main selling association, the United Fruit Company, Limited. The details concerning the operating methods of the United Fruit Company (too lengthy to be outlined here) are well worth careful study. Their headquarters are at Berwick, which is the principal apple shipping station.

By far the greater portion of Nova Scotian apples is exported to Great Britain, the principal market being London. In the year 1911, which was a record season, almost 2,000,000 barrels of apples were marketed. At that time Nova Scotian fruit was introduced in the Prairie Provinces. There is every indication that shipments to those markets will be increased, inasmuch as the Gravenstein apple, for which Nova Scotia is famous, matures at a time when apples are in great demand in the Canadian West. A growing trade is also being developed with South America and South Africa, corresponding geographically to the trade in apples between British Columbia and Australia.

It is rather interesting to note that the apple barrel used in Nova Scotia contains only 96 quarts, as compared with the 112 quart barrel of Ontario. The Canadian Government regulations call for a minimum size of 95 quarts and Nova Scotia has adopted that minimum. The difference in the size of the two barrels must therefore be always taken into consideration when comparing the prices of Ontario and Nova Scotia apples in any particular market.

It is impossible to single out any variety of apple which is most successfully grown in Nova Scotia. Several varieties succeed equally well. Undoubtedly the province is most famous for the Gravenstein, because that variety is grown more extensively in the Annapolis Valley than in any other part of Canada. About 15 per cent of the apples marketed in Nova Scotia are Gravensteins. It is a tender, early fall apple, usually harvested between September 10th and 25th, and should be consumed under ordinary conditions by the end of October. If stored in a suitable cellar it will keep in prime condition until Christmas.

The demand for the Gravenstein apple is increasing. Unfortunately very few new Gravenstein orchards are being planted to replace the old ones which are rapidly dying out. No movement could be undertaken which would be worthy of wider encouragement than the extension and development of Gravenstein orchards.

The apple crop in Nova Scotia this year will be small. Probably not more than 600,000 barrels will be marketed. The short crop is due to unfavorable weather and to a very heavy June "drop." The quality is expected to be excellent.

AN EXCELLENT MOVE

"During the war no man of military age may be appointed to either the inside or the outside civil service unless a badge has been issued to him" is the significant statement in an order in council which was issued this week. The possession of such a badge means, that the possessor has offered to enlist and has been exempted from military service. About a year ago the government instructed the heads of the various departments that preference was to be given in appointments to men who had been on service overseas. A further order has been passed to ensure effective operation of the policy and to prevent the man eligible for military service to government positions except when necessary. The new order says that in all appointments to either the inside or the outside civil service, preference must be given to men of overseas who have been honorably discharged and more especially those who through disability are unable to resume their former occupations.

SEFFERVILLE NEWS

There have been gay old times at Sefferville lately, grand teas and card parties beginning with Geo. E. Armstrong and wife's candy pull at Mrs. James Seffern's and other places to welcome Mrs. Seffern's guest.

Messrs Joseph Seffern, Harry Naugler and Warden Seyboyer caught a fine moose on the 17th. The meat was good as we had a chance to sample it.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS IS SPREADING IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 20.—Three more death and three new cases of infantile paralysis were reported by authorities here today. There have been six deaths from the disease during the last three days and there are now 15 positive cases of the dread malady and one suspicious case. Up to the present time the outbreak has been confined to the western portion of the city and district. A notice was sent out today from the office of the patriotic fund warning the ten thousand soldiers' families on their list to keep children away from schools, public gatherings and entertainments. The schools in the central portion of Montreal have not yet been closed.

REDUCED THE SIZE

The scarcity of print paper and the consequent high prices are playing havoc with many of the papers in the Province. Several times lately the Kentville Advertiser has only printed half size and last Saturday the Wolfville Acadian was only half size. Some months ago the Middleton Outlook reduced from eight columns to seven columns to a page and yesterday the Bridgetown Monitor—the largest paper in the Valley—came out reduced almost fifty per cent and announces that that size has been adopted until conditions improve.—Yarmouth Post.

NEW ROSS

Something in the region of three thousand bushels of grain have been thrashed in New Ross this season.

Our town is overrun with khaki clad men and ten different units beside the numbers of wagons moving travellers, Restholme, Lakeside, Mrs. Lohnes and Murphy's have been well supplied with guests tourists, travellers, commercial men and others have eat, drank and slept within sight of Lake Lawson. The woods surrounding it being in all their autumnal beauty.

John Murphy shot a moose on the 2nd instant and his neighbors fare well when John is successful. He is a very generous neighbor and fine citizen.

Two accidents happened with small boys, Arnold, youngest son of Edmund M. Boylan fell from a wagon and got one of his legs twisted in the wheel.

The other John, son of the late W. W. Skerry, fell from an ox wagon cutting his head badly. The Disciple of Aesculapian had to use the needle and thread both are doing as well as can be expected.

Green as Grass

He happened to be the twenty-fifth passenger. The conductor took his nickel and pulled the cord of the fare register a moment and then nudged the man next him.

Did you see what he did?
 No; what?
 "O! gave him a nickel an' he rung up twenty-five cent."

EDITORIAL GLEANINGS

The outlook of the war is continuing favorably for the Allies. On all fronts successes have been recorded even in Roumania when it looked as if the German warriors would overrun that country as they did Serbia that had been held in check. Russian reinforcements and pressure on other parts will no doubt save nearly all of Roumania from invasion.

The arrival of our gallant Nova Scotia Highland Brigade safely in England was joyous news to thousands of Nova Scotians at home. They have already gone into camp and ere long will complete their training and then be ready for any dangerous position to which they may be assigned. All that Great Britain and France asks of these men is that they prove their mettle as have the other Canadians who have been tried in the furnace of this war. In our hearts we know they will prove to be the finest class of fighters that Canada or any other country could produce.

There are troublous times in Austria. The Premier has been assassinated and grave riots have broken out in Vienna which for a time the police were powerless to quell.

On a front of five thousand yards the British troops have advanced their line from 300 to 500 yards and captured about one thousand prisoners. The British casualties are reported as slight and the enemy seemed so desperate that they made no attempt to retake the captured ground.

Affairs in Greece are still unsettled but some Greek soldiers and Greek warships are going over to the side of the Allies. King Constantine still hesitates, and the Allies have demanded that the Greek army now in Macedonia, in the rear of Allied troops be transferred to Morea. If this is done, the allied army now at and near Saloniki will be ready to advance into Bulgaria.

FRUIT REPORT

Until recently the weather has been ideal for the gathering of fruit crop in the Valley. A heavy blow last week and recent wet weather injured some of the crop. There yet remains considerable fruit to be gathered and most of the crop is well colored and of good quality.

While many orchards are very short of a crop, in others the fruit has turned out fully double that was anticipated early in the season. There seems no doubt but that the quantity for export sale in local markets will be far in excess of the half a million barrel mark. The total crop raised will reach well up to the million barrel mark. Unfortunately much of this will be placed in evaporators and used and fed out at home on account of the poor quality in some districts.

Growers should make plans for thorough spraying next season, and not be discouraged by a partial failure this year on account of wet weather in the spraying season. We have in the Valley, notwithstanding the bad season for spraying, the best fruit found anywhere in Canada. Prices are ruling high and will likely continue, if fruit shipments are properly regulated.

Shipments are being made each week via Digby and St. John to the Western markets.

Sugar prices have gone up 50 cents per hundred pounds the last week.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM THE FIRING LINE

LIEUT. A. H. CHUTE

Among the young men from Kings County who enlisted for service at the very commencement of the war was Lieut. Arthur H. Chute, son of Dr. A. C. Chute of Wolfville. He has well contributed his part in the cause of the Empire. Mr. Chute is well known all over Kings County as he delivered eloquent addresses in the political campaign of 1911, making such a record that many look upon him as a candidate for political honors in this County. Through some blunder and unknown to Mr. Chute some Canadian dailies announced at the last election that he had obtained leave of absence to contest Kings Co. The following letter describes some of his incidents at the front.

In the Field, Sept. 14, '16
Today I have been watching the faces of innumerable squads of men marching up to the trenches. The major sent me down the line after ammunition, and all the way I met those chaps who, before another day, will have done their part and paid their price for another British advance. Tonight I am up in the front line. Besides me is a battalion of fine young Canadians. The dawn tomorrow will bring death to many, perhaps to most of them.

I went into a dug out wherein were gathered a group of subalterns, two of whom were old friends of mine at home. As I stood at the door of the dug-out I felt like one about to enter the death-cell to encounter those condemned to die. They had done no wrong, but ere another day their life would be extinct; this was their last watch. I almost entered there on tip-toe, with reverend silence, but the place was full of talk and laughter which soon put me at my ease. 'Forget the sentiment,' is outwardly the soldier's maxim. But within each of these men was fighting with fears and perplexities and apprehensions. When I left, the 'gayest bird' of the bunch shook my hand and said, 'Well, good bye old man. We've all got to peg out some day and if it's a bit earlier what's the odds?'

Later—We have fought one of our most successful battles, and I thank God I am safe and sound. At the dawn this morning I was in a valley that looked as much like hell as anything that imagination could frame. The hills on both sides were a continuous mass of leaping fire where hundreds of our guns were pouring death upon the Hunns like floods of rain. The awfulness of the spectacle, accompanied by the crack and roar of Artillery, formed a fit tableau of Dante's 'Inferno.' I tuned in last night at midnight and slept till 2 a. m. During those short two hours' sleep I was awakened three successive times by the arrival of orderlies with messages from the Battery. At 2 a. m. they were crying for ammunition and I had to get out and find it. Between 2 a. m. and breakfast time I made two trips between the divisional ammunition column and the Battery. Just after arriving from my second trip things began to happen and we began to advance. It is the most thrilling part of soldiering to advance with the guns. After two years stationary fighting our moving campaign has commenced and the Canadians have had their first taste of a battle worth while. After what has occurred since last night I am more firmly than ever convinced that Germany has entered upon the 'Last Phase.' I am also assured that it is the answer to your prayers that has kept me whole on fields where death is as common as daisies in a June meadow.

OBITUARY

Gordon Manning

Another Nova Scotian, well known to some people in Kentville has given his life for the Empire. On Wednesday last Mrs. Roop wife of Mr. M. L. Roop, received the sad intelligence that her brother, Gordon Manning, had been killed in action.

Early in the war he responded to the call for volunteers and enlisted in the 26th Battalion and has been in the trenches almost continuously for a year. Previous to the war he was a locomotive fireman on the C. G. Ry. at St. John. He was a son of William Manning and brother of Albert Manning, both engineers of the D.A.R. at Halifax.

M. Starr Eaton

Canning was shocked to hear of the very sudden death on Sunday morning last of Mr. M. Starr Eaton. He had been ill of late but no serious turn was anticipated. On Saturday he had a bad turn but seemed to rally and slept well that night. On Sunday morning he was reading in bed for a while and laid his book down and life passed out without any further warning.

Mr. Eaton was a man well known in the community. He had been engaged in a fruit, confectionery and grocery business for many years and was a district representative of the North America Life Insurance Co. In all his dealings with the public he was genial, honorable and exact, and leaves a wide circle of relatives and business and social friends.

Mr. Eaton married Miss Sawyer, sister of late James J. Sawyer, who was buried on Saturday last. Besides his wife who survives him he leaves the following sons: Lewis, at home; William P., a naval officer of the United States at Virginia and Major Fred now with the army in France.

The funeral service will be held from the residence on Tuesday (today) at 2.30 p.m., burial at Hillaton. He was 56 years of age.

Another young and useful life has been sacrificed on the altar of devotion to duty and country. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ellis of Sheffield Mills, received the very sad intelligence last week of the death at the front of their son, Glen. The death of such a promising young man will be a sad loss in the home and community where he was much beloved. He was about 20 years of age. He had been engaged in doing guard work. Further particulars will be received later.

John James Sawyer

The funeral of John James Sawyer took place at Steam Mill on Saturday, Oct. 21st, at two o'clock. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, there was a large number of friends and sympathizers present—several from Kentville. The Rev. T. C. Mellor, rector of Kentville, conducted the service and was assisted by the Rev. J. D. Hull rector Cornwallis. The hymns sung were: "Nearer, My God To Thee," "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me" and "Abide With Me," while a quartette from Kentville sang very feelingly "The Day of Grace."

The interment took place in St. John's Churchyard, Church Street, conducted by the Rev. J. D. Hull.

When at last I near the shore
And the fearful breakers roar
Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then while leaning on Thy breast

May I hear Thee say to me,
"Fear not!" I will pilot thee.

THE CONDITION OF OUR JAIL

The recent escape of prisoners Charles E. Elderkin and another offender against the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, from our County Jail at Kentville has aroused much comment. Frequent are the uncomplimentary remarks made about our former Councillors who had the management of the construction of the building and also the late councillors who had notice of unsafe condition. Some who pretend to know, claim that the money it cost to erect the building has been wasted and it cannot be made a proper one for the safe confine of prisoners. His Honor Judge Ritchie was particularly severe and sarcastic in some of his references to the confining of prisoners there, that persons sentenced to a term longer than they wished.

An examination of other public buildings throughout the province shows that in convenience, permanency and efficiency we have in this County in our Jail, Court House and Post Office, sadly failed to give the public anything like the value of the large amount of money expended.

Britain Buys Australia's Wheat Output

Washington, Oct. 16—A despatch from Consul-General Skinner at London to the Department of State announces that the British Government has taken the decisive step of safeguarding the supply of wheat for the British army and for the people at home.

The entire Australian crop has been purchased and a Royal Commission appointed to take charge of buying supplies.

The Australian Government has agreed to furnish Government-owned steamships for transportation, and the commission has decided to control all shipments, providing requisitioned tonnage for the purpose at fixed rates by the Government authorities.

European countries that are not self-sustaining in bread supplies are encountering more than usual difficulty in obtaining enough wheat this fall for the ordinary home consumption.

This is due to the shortage in the Canadian crop and the increasing demand in every direction for the American crop. Despatches to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce Department state that during July Spain bought 554,000 bushels of wheat from the United States. In that month Spain also bought large quantities of corn from Argentina.

ARMED TURKISH TRANSPORT CAPTURED

Petrograd, Oct. 15—The Russian submarine Tulen on Oct. 12 after an engagement near the Bosphorus, captured the Turkish 6,000 ton armed transport Roditsto, says today's Russian official statement. The transport, which was commanded by German officers, was taken to Sepastopol. The statement reads:

"Black Sea—On Oct. 12 our submarine Tulen, under command of Lieut.-Commander Kitzzin, captured near the Bosphorus after an hour's unequal artillery engagement the Turkish armed war transport Roditsto, of 6,000 tons displacement. The transport was under command of German officers, and despite the damage which it sustained during the engagement, was safely escorted to Sebastopol."

HEAVY LOSSES FOR THE ENEMY

Petrograd, Oct. 20—Announcement of the inauguration of an offensive movement in Eastern Roumania by the army of Field Marshal Von Mackensen is made by the war office. It is said the Germans and Bulgarians have suffered great losses. The battle continues. Official statement follows: "In Dobudja, at seven o'clock o'clock, the enemy opened a fierce fire and assumed the offensive. The enemy attacks were repelled with great losses to him. The battle still continues. In the Black Sea one of our submarines sank two Turkish steamers in the region of the Bosphorus.

PRaise FOR THE 112TH BLUENOSE BATTALION

The boys of Lieut.-Colonel Tremain's 112th Bluenose battalion are much elated over the praise showered upon them by Brigadier-General Meighen, commanding the 7th Canadian brigade, with headquarters at Bramshott. The 112th made a fine appearance at the general inspection by Lieut.-General Hughes when the minister visited their Bramshott camp and compared more than favorably with other battalions. The appreciation of General Meighen—one of the keenest and most thorough of Canada's overseas generals—was expressed in the following letter, incorporated in orders of the day.

Headquarters
7th Canadian Training Brigade
Bramshott, 27th Sept., '16.
The brigadier commanding 7th Canadian Training Brigade desires to express his keen appreciation of the general turnout of the 112th Battalion on the occasion of the visit of the minister of militia and defence on Monday last.

The careful attention to detail which was evident shows the battalion in the light of one of the most improved battalions in training.

These remarks will be published in your next battalion orders.

(Signed) A. O'DONAHOE,
Brigade Major
7th Canadian Training Brigade.

To the officer commanding, 112th Battalion.

Lieutenant General Hughes was also very complimentary to Colonel Tremain, his officers and men; and expressed his pleasurable surprise at the marked progress made and the excellence of their showing. If a fifth Canadian Division is organized—and that is understood to be a probability—the 112th will be taken to the front by the popular Colonel Tremain. Meanwhile a draft has already been made on the 112th to supply much needed reinforcements on the firing line. The whole battalion wanted to get to the front, but, of course only a couple of hundred men could be taken for the draft at this time. The popular M. P. for Hants County deserves great credit for his persistence and success in organizing preliminary training taking overseas, and now the final training of such a splendid body of Nova Scotians. The fact that the M. P. had no previous military experience is all the more to his credit; and in striking contrast with the little coterie of his stay-at-home white livered critics, whose sole object in life appears to be to "play politics" and belittle the MEN who go to the front and take their lives in their hands for Canada—and to save the skins of the fellows who stay at home and "knock" and revile them!—Herald.

A VACATION TRIP

"Let us suppose a railway to have been built between the earth and Centaurus," said the lecturer.

"By a consideration of this railway workings we can get some idea of the enormous distance that intervenes between Centaurus and us.

"Suppose that I should decide to take a trip on this new aerial line to the fixed star. I ask the ticket-agent what the fare is, and he answers: "The fare is very low, sir. It is only a cent each hundred miles. "And what, at that rate, will through ticket one way cost?" I ask.

"It will cost just $2,750,000, he answers. "I pay for my ticket, and board the train. We set off at a tremendous rate.

"Howfast, I ask the brakeman, "are we going?"

"Sixty miles an hour, sir, says he, "and it's a through train. There are no stoppages."

"We'll soon be there, then, won't we?" I resume.

"We'll make good time, sir," says the brakeman.

"And when will we arrive?"

"In just 48,663,000 years."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WHAT YOU CAN DO FOR THE RETURNED SOLDIERS

(By A. R. Doble, President of the Khaki League, Montreal)
The Military Hospitals Commission and many official and private organizations are spending much time and energy in behalf of the returned soldiers, but every Canadian citizen should and can take an interest in the national heroes.

Many have neither time nor opportunity to join an organization for that purpose, but much is to be done by individual and independent effort, intelligently directed. Here are a few suggestions which may help you to do your part.

Give Them a Welcome

When you see in the papers that any of the boys are returning to your neighborhood, get together with a few of your neighbors and give them a hearty reception.

Don't treat them to alcoholic refreshments. Man of the men are not in normal state, owing to what they have been through. While, under ordinary circumstances, a drink might do them no harm, under present conditions it might be a very bad thing for them. You will not wish to do an injury to those who have endured so much for you.

EMPLOYMENT

Find out what jobs are vacant in your community. Make it a matter of pride for employers to give the first chance to a returned soldier.

Encourage the men to get to work. Loafing is bad for them, as it is for any of us.

If you are an employer, give the returned soldiers a fair show. It may take a little time for them to get their bearings. Have patience with them, and encourage them, they have suffered so much for you.

ADVICE

Some of the places where information and assistance can be obtained follow:

The Military Hospitals Commission of the Dominion Government has its chief at 22 Victoria Street, Ottawa. Branch offices in all the Provinces.

Some of the Provincial Organizations have local committees in many towns, and more of these local committees are being formed.

Then there is a Khaki League which maintains Khaki Clubs including the cities of St. John and Halifax.

In conclusion, TAKE A PERSONAL INTEREST in the returned soldiers. They don't treat, nor codding, nor need charity, but they need human sympathy and kindness as well as justice.

Canada owes her soldiers a debt which money can never pay. Will you DO YOUR BIT towards paying it as above suggested?

The war expenditure in Canada to date totals about $320,000,000. In the last six months it amounted to $104,538,000. It is now about a million dollars a day.

MINISTER OF FINANCE AT HALIFAX

SIR THOMS WHITE

Sir Thoms White, the Minister of Finance, arrived at Halifax from Ottawa Friday night on the Ocean Limited.

Sir Thoms refused to be interviewed when asked for a statement of the Government's policy with reference to conscription. He will shortly go to England on financial business, where he will remain five or six weeks, coming back in time for the session of Parliament in January. He was a guest at the Halifax Hotel.

Notice to Subscribers in Arrears

Claims for unpaid accounts are pressing us and it is necessary to raise a large sum of money at once. To pay our accounts promptly and save legal expenses, we must collect all our outstanding subscription and printing accounts.

All subscription accounts over two years in arrears will be handed over immediately to a magistrate for collection at the rate of $1.50 per year and his costs. As several bills have been sent out and no notice taken of them by many who are in arrears we cannot add further and added cost remittances due for over two years should be mailed us this week, or a letter or card forwarded to us stating that postage to those accounts. To some further time is required and when account can be paid in full. We will listen to any reasonable request for time where a distinct time for payment is promised.

The cost of producing our paper has about doubled the past two years and we cannot longer allow subscribers to remain in arrears.

NEWS PUBLISHERS IN SESSION IN TRURO

(Truro News)
A meeting of the Printers and Newspaper Publishers of New Brunswick, P. E. Island, and Nova Scotia was held at the Council Chamber, Civic Building Truro, October 19th.

The objects of the meeting were to discuss and take action on the enormous prices of paper and printed supplies most paper being from double to treble price.

A strong resolution was carried supporting the Canadian Press Association in their efforts, through government enquiry to secure relief from the paper situations.

It was also deemed necessary for Maritime Weekly Newspapers to adopt the standard subscription rate of $1.50 per year instead of the former charge of $1.00 a year.

Some 200 weekly newspapers in Canada have already made their rate $1.50 while some charge $2.00 a year.

Even this advance will not cover the mills proposed new price for newsprint.

Mr. J. G. Elliott, of Kingston, Canada, President of the Canadian Press Association and E. Roy Taylor of the weekly section were in attendance.

A. R. Coffin of the News, Truro, was elected chairman and John D. McDonald of the Advocate, Pictou, Secretary of the meeting.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT ARRIVED IN LONDON

London, Oct. 20—The Duke of Connaught, former Governor General of Canada, the Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia reached London today.

The second armed merchant steamer to reach Boston this year arrived there on Sunday of last week. She is the Leyland liner Cambrian with a four inch gun mounted on her after-deck.

The Colchester Sun says:—There is a report current that Hon. G. H. Murray will create two new cabinet positions, minister of education and minister of agriculture. It is said Mr. R. E. Finn, one of the members for Halifax will get one of the new offices and Hon. R. M. McGregor now a member of the government will get the other.

It looks like high prices for feed this winter, but one thing seems certain, prices for live stock will be still higher. If at all possible, keep the stock.

The growing casualty lists are a reminder of the big problem that must be faced in providing a living for the returned soldier. The problem is one to which every citizen must give thought and such assistance as business or other circumstances make possible.
