WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 17, 1872

The Writs. Up to the hour of going to press we have not heard that the writs have been arrived for any of the Ridings in this County.

Town and County News. REMEMBER the Wesleyan Pic-nic in Mr. Peterson's grove this afternoon. A good time may be fully expected.

BASE BALL MATCH. — A match for the Championship and silver ball will come off here on the 25th inst., between the Red Stockings of Listowel, and the first nine of the Guelph Club.

NOT YET ARRESTED. — Kemp, who committed the rape at Eden Mills, has not yet been arrested. A person was arrested in Brantford on suspicion that he was the man, but Chief Constable Kelly visited that town on Monday, and found that they had got hold of the wrong party.

THE REV. P. S. MAHEU, for many years R. C. Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Mount Forest, and late Pastor of St. Joseph's, Mackon, County of Wellington, died in New York, on the 14th ult., while on his way to France for the benefit of his health. He was highly esteemed by all who had the benefit of his acquaintance.

MORE SHOOTING IN ARTHUR. — We understand that on Sunday last Peter Cosgrove, of Arthur, went to the house of Charles Brandon, sr., and without the slightest provocation fired a pistol at him. Brandon ran into the house, when Cosgrove fired four or five shots after him. A warrant has been issued for Cosgrove's arrest.

A MAN TERRIBLY BEATEN. — We learn that Wm. Macaulay, of Arthur, father of the young woman concerned in the Carson abduction case, tried at last Assizes, was brutally beaten at Mount Forest on Friday night last. He was found lying on the road next day, and taken home. It is probable he will recover from his injuries.

OSTRANDER COMMITTED. — Mr. George Moore brought down to jail on Tuesday Ostrander, committed by the Magistrate in Arthur to stand his trial for alleged complicity in causing the death of Letitia Church. Mr. Moore had in charge 20 dollars before he was sent down. It is very probable that he will soon be let out on bail.

PETTY THEFT. — One day lately Mr. J. C. Chadwick, sen., discovered one of his ploughs missing, from his premises at the back of the Catholic Hill, and after making due enquiry found the handles hid away behind a pile of wood, and the metal sold to Messrs. Thain, Elliott & Co. Unfortunately, these gentlemen cannot identify the thiefish rascals, and so their petty theft is likely to go unwhipped by justice.

DR. MCGAGGART will be at the Royal Hotel, Guelph, on the 30th July, where he can be consulted by the sick. He has been a successful practitioner for years for the treatment of the lungs and all lingering chronic diseases. He has had a large experience and an extensive practice, and has had the honor of being connected with one of the best institutions in the western part of the province for the treatment of all kinds of ailments. Dr. McTaggart has visited Guelph before, and attended a large number of cases.

THE EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS. — In order that a candidate may obtain a second-class certificate, the sum of his marks must amount, for grade A, to at least two-thirds, and for grade B to one-half of the aggregate value of all the papers; in both cases great importance should be attached to accurate spelling. The candidates must also obtain from grade A two-thirds, and from B one-half of the marks assigned to the subjects of Arithmetic and Grammar. In order to obtain a third-class certificate, the marks must be not less than one-half of the aggregate value of all the papers for certificates of that rank. A candidate for a second-class certificate, who fails to obtain it, may be awarded a third-class certificate, provided such candidate obtains what would be equivalent to fully one-half of the aggregate value of all the papers for a third-class certificate.

POLICE COURT. Before the Mayor and W. S. G. Knowles, Esq. July 17. Wm. Wilson, for keeping a loose and disorderly house, was fined $10 and 85 cents, and given a week to pay the same. Janet Leith — a common prostitute for frequenting Wilson's house, was sent to jail for two months. John Logan, for frequenting the same house, had to pay $4.

MURDER NEAR OTTAWA. — From the Ottawa Times we glean the following particulars of a murder by the Ottawa river: "On or about the 6th inst., a Dutch woman, over 60 years of age, named Luckovich, was brutally murdered at her residence in the Township of Sherwood, on the Opeongo Road, by two or three shanty men, supposed to have been drunk at the time. The unfortunate woman could have given them no cause whatever for their savage conduct, and hence the inference that they were intoxicated at the time. It appears that they mutilated her body in a fearful manner. One of the supposed murderers was arrested at Pembroke, and a man named Joseph Osce was arrested in Ottawa and taken up to Pembroke on Saturday.

MURDER AT QUEBEC. — A dreadful case of killing occurred on Lower Town market on Monday. The Captain of a brig had just landed, his steward a negro lad, when the latter was accosted by one Jas. Wilson, who made overtures to the boy to leave the vessel. Captain Pellier interfered, and, as alleged, was struck by the "crimp," when the Captain seized a butcher's knife within reach, burying it in the body of Dillong. The man lived only long enough to receive the rites of the church. Captain Pellier gave himself up to the police, and is now at the station house.

The cutting of wheat and barley is now general in that part of the Province west of London.

North and South Wellington.

The Mail says that Mr. Drew is holding meetings in the North Riding, and at every such meeting he has proved equal to the occasion. The Mail is very bad authority in the way of news, and for further guidance we beg to inform it that Mr. Drew was so badly beaten and so coldly received at his meetings last week that he has cancelled all the others announced, and is now frantically rushing through the Riding trying to effect an individual canvass. It is wise of Mr. Drew not to hold any more meetings. He cannot defend his course in Parliament. He can scarcely even make a speech worthy the name, but blunders on, getting himself into deeper difficulties at every sentence. Mr. Drew is more at home among his Orange friends, whose gathering he attended at Clifford on the 12th, though he had not the manliness to show his colors openly, but held them concealed, and only to be shown to the faithful. Mr. Higinbotham on the other hand has made the most favourable impression on the electors wherever he has spoken. His canvass is being pushed on with the greatest success, and he is gaining fresh supporters every day. He held a meeting at Mount Forest on Tuesday, where he received a large accession to his strength.

In the Centre Riding Dr. Oram is making a great splutter, but very little headway. He is racing through the Riding, trying to suit his politics to everybody, but the sterling yeomanry see through the thin disguise, and have no confidence in the specious promises of this fiery politician. Mr. Ross and his friends are quietly but industriously working, and are quite confident that they will whip the wike doctor by a handsome majority.

The Base Ball Match Yesterday. ECKFORDS, LONDON, vs. UNIONS, GUELPH. The first of a series of matches between the Union Club, of this town, and the Eckfords, of London, junior champions of Ontario, was played on the Maple Leaf grounds yesterday afternoon in the presence of a goodly number of spectators. The afternoon was fine and cool, with the exception of a passing shower falling about the 4th or 5th innings, which inconvenienced them a little, but soon passed away. The game was called about half-past 2 with the Eckfords at the bat, who immediately retired with a cipher. Up to the end of the 4th innings the Unions were considerably ahead, and promised large odds in their favor, but the Eckfords on coming to the bat at the 5th innings brought up the score to only 2 runs behind, and now began some very fine play on both sides (not forgetting to note a brilliant catch made by Steele, of the Unions, on the left field, he having to run a long distance to secure his ball), the Eckfords steadily gaining ground up to the end of the 7th innings, when the score stood 2 runs in their favor. Some good batting was made by Ryan on the 8th innings, and the Eckfords were again whitewashed, Ryan putting the side out himself, for which he was deservedly applauded. The 9th innings being also a whitewash for the Eckfords, the Unions went to the bat with a will, adding 4 more to their score, making the totals—Unions 23, Eckfords 16, this ending one of the most interesting games of the season. The only home run in the match was made on the 9th innings by Fenwick, the ball being sent clean to the left corner of the field. We doubt if ever a finer hit has been made on the ground in any match. Mr. Wm. Sunley was chosen as Umpire, and we hear that both sides were well satisfied with the impartial manner in which his decisions were given. At the conclusion of the game, the Eckfords took supper at the Queen's Hotel, and immediately after left for home by the Grand Trunk, well-pleased with their reception in Guelph, and promising to give their Union friends a good game in London, where they play for the junior championship next season.

We may add here that we hope the Unions will give themselves plenty of practice, and be in a position to give Guelph the honor of possessing the material that compose the junior as well as the senior, champions of this celebrated game. We append the score:—

ECKFORDS. Outs. Runs. Chisholm, c. 5 1 Gillian, p. 3 1 Hunter, 2nd b. 5 1 Brown, s. 2 3 Sreaton, r. f. 2 3 Woods, 3rd b. 4 1 Stone, l. f. 4 1 McFee, 1st b. 3 1 Emslie, c. f. 1 1 Totals 27 16

UNIONS. Outs. Runs. Fenwick, 1st b. 3 4 Cross, 3rd b. 6 1 Emery, 2nd b. 3 2 Steele, l. f. 1 1 Schofield, r. f. 5 1 Hood, c. f. 3 3 Ryan, c. 3 3 Barrill, p. 1 4 Harding, s. s. 2 4 Totals 27 23

RUNS EACH INNINGS. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Unions — 3 3 4 1 2 2 0 4 4 — 23 Eckfords — 1 3 0 6 3 2 0 0 16 Time of game 2 hours and 30 minutes.

The Arthur Shooting Case. Special to the Mercury per Montreal Line. ARTHUR, July 17. The jury empanelled by Dr. Eroyod, of Mount Forest, coroner, to investigate the homicide at the Railway Hotel, in this place, on Friday evening last, returned a verdict yesterday afternoon implicating James Moore and Wm. Laidlaw, two residents of the neighborhood, who have been committed for trial at the Fall Assizes.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

The Geneva Arbitration.

The German Band Concert.

Terrible Waterspout.

Two Persons Drowned.

Longfellow Disabled.

London, July 17, 5 a.m.

An influential meeting of Roman Catholics was held in this city last night, the Duke of Norfolk presiding. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the action of the Italian Government toward the Papal authorities, and condemning the recent law passed by the German Parliament proscribing the Jesuits.

Lord Francis Napier, who succeeded the late Earl Mayo as Governor-General of India, has been created a peer of the United Kingdom under the title of Baron Etrick.

Geneva, July 17th. The Board of Arbitration met to-day. A large quantity of printed matter was submitted to the Board, and exchanged by the agents of Great Britain and the United States. No other business was done. The Court adjourned after a session of less than thirty minutes duration. No reason to anticipate further delay in the proceedings nor is any lengthy controversy expected.

Baltimore, July 17th. Fully 20,000 persons attended the concert of the German Imperial Band last night. The grounds were beautifully illuminated. The Band will give a farewell concert to-night.

Denver, Colorado, July 16. A remarkable water-spout occurred on the Central City Stage Road, four miles above Golden City, on Sunday afternoon. The torrent of water struck a carriage containing J. Kerden and wife, her sister, and a girl named Blood, who resided five or six miles from the Canon, and were returning home. The two latter were drowned. The body of Miss Kerden was found some three miles from the scene of the disaster, covered with sand and debris. The road was badly washed.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 16. It is the opinion of racing men that Longfellow will never run a race again, although he will be most valuable in the stud. During his running to-day for the cup, one of his plates twisted round and cut his other foot and leg badly. The plate was broken in two, and leg disabled and yet Longfellow gallantly ran the race out to the wonder of all racing men.

New York, July 17. The Sun says, editorially: We learn that the Managers of the Erie Railway will at once proceed to change the gauge of the road. This they will do by laying down the third rail at a gauge of 4ft 8 1/2 in leaving the broad gauge until the present rolling stock of the Company is worn out, but all new cars and locomotives that are procured will be of the narrow gauge.

ELECTION NEWS.

Sir Francis Hincks. Mail says, will not run for North Renfrew. At a meeting of the Conservatives, held in Hamilton on Tuesday. Mr. R. Whitton was nominated for the Commons.

Some are inclined to think that Sheriff McKinsey will not run for Halton. Friends of Dr. Landerkin believe they can elect their candidate for South Grey, but expect a very close contest.

A Liberal candidate of ability and note is about to be brought out by the Reformers of Algoma for the House of Commons. Mr. Wm. McDougall is making strenuous efforts to bring out a candidate against Mr. Metcalfe in East York.

The requisition asking Mr. Robert Wilkes to stand as the Reform candidate for Central Toronto is being largely and generally signed. At a meeting of Tories held in Dundas on Monday, Mr. Robert McKechnie, of that town, was nominated to oppose Mr. Baine in the North Riding of Wentworth at the approaching election. There is not a man in the county known better than McKechnie who that he stands no chance opposed to Mr. Baine.

In a few days it is expected that Mr. Hugh Macmahon, Barrister, will be brought out in the Reform interest against Mr. Carling. Mr. Macmahon bears the highest character personally and professionally. Being a Roman Catholic, it is expected that he will run "honest John" pretty close.

THE MURDERER OF MRS. PATRICK BURNS. — In January last we gave the particulars of a brutal murder committed near Smithport, Pennsylvania, in the latter end of December, by Patrick Burns on his wife and child while under the influence of liquor. Additional interest was attached to the crime from the fact that the murdered woman was a daughter of Mr. Andrew Farrell, who lives on the Waterloo Road. Burns was tried at the Smithport County Court, on the 12th June, and was sentenced to 12 years solitary confinement in States prison.

PIC-NIC AT MONTROSE. — A grand picnic was held at Montrose on Monday. Over 600 children and 1,500 visitors were present. The day was a splendid one for the occasion. Mr. D. McDougall, Registrar of the county of Waterloo, was in the chair. I. E. Bowman, M. P., and several other influential gentlemen addressed the assemblage. The whole affair is conceded to have been a grand success.

THE LONDON ARRESTOR CASE. — The trial of Corwall for the abduction of Dr. Bratton was closed on Tuesday, before Judge Elliot. The prisoner was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. There is great public indignation against the culprit, and all agree that the sentence was more than justified. A new Sewing Machine Company, named the Canada Company, are about to start a factory on a large scale in Hamilton.

There are at present only five cases of small-pox in the Toronto Small-Pox Hospital, all of which are considered convalescent. It is now stated that the manager of the Mail has received instructions to curtail the expense of that paper, and that the staff will be somewhat reduced in consequence.

The Press Excursion.

Notes of a Trip to Muskoka.

The road for the most part is well graded, with here and there patches of corduroy, but it is for the most part plank. Little of note took place on the journey except a salute given in honor of the party from the ramparts of a fort, reared on the top of a rock which from its peculiar shape has been christened by the staunch old Highlander who lives beside it "Gibraltar." This old veteran, who is a pensioner, has built a comfortable cottage in the wilderness, and now, in his declining years, I doubt not fights his battles over against the old warrior.

Gravenhurst was reached at sundown, and as the waning light of day giving place to the glare of the bush fires on the margin of the Lake, the party got on board Mr. A. P. Cookburn's handsome and well equipped steamer, the Nipissing, which he had with the greatest kindness placed at the disposal of the Association for a two days cruise on the lakes. Gravenhurst is a young tough thriving village at the southern point of Lake Muskoka. It has already two large hotels, two good stores, a post office, and telegraph office, and when the Muskoka Railway is extended from Waahago to this point, it will grow to be a place of some importance. The trip across Lake Muskoka, to Bracebridge, some sixteen miles distant, was made in good time, but the darkness prevented us from enjoying the fine scenery through which we were passing. At the north end of the Lake the boat turned into Muskoka River which is navigable to Bracebridge. This river though very deep is the most tortuous imaginable, and as we steamed up its winding channel in the darkness the danger of running ashore or into some thicket of trees was greatly magnified. But the staunch little boat answered her helm admirably. Under the direction of her experienced captain she swept round the innumerable curves at the end of, and at—near eleven—after a long and toilsome journey—landed us safe on the wharf at Bracebridge. The inhabitants of this thriving place accorded the excursionists a most hearty welcome, and after arrangements had been made at the hotels, the party—late though it was—were conducted to the new Agricultural Hall, where a splendid collation was laid out. Although at such a late hour, and after a long day's travel, the company were unable to do full justice to the hospitality of their entertainers, they did their best to show their appreciation of it. An address of welcome was presented from the Council of the Township of Macanville, the toast in honor of the "Canadian Press Association" was responded to with all the fervor which good lungs and hearty cheers could give to it, and some excellent speeches were made by the President, Mr. James Somerville, and other gentlemen. The demonstration was kept up till near two o'clock, when the tired excursionists who were fortunate enough to get a bed gladly betook themselves to it, and soon were perfectly oblivious of Muskoka and everything else.

On Wednesday morning the party made themselves acquainted with Bracebridge, which is built on a rocky ridge overlooking the Muskoka River. The village has grown rapidly, and now boasts of several good hotels, stores, and two newspapers. It is at the head of the navigation on the river, the "falls" a little above the steambot landing, forming an insurmountable barrier to further progress. They can scarcely be called falls, for the water merely rushes through a narrow gorge formed in the rock and descends into the placid basin below. Still, the scene was a striking one and was greatly admired by all the visitors. The falls on the south branch of the river, some miles distant from the village, are far more imposing, and would have well repaid a visit had time permitted. Advantage has been taken of the water power at the first mentioned falls, where a saw mill is in operation, and further up the gorge a woollen factory has been built, and will soon be in operation. The land about Bracebridge is rough and rocky, but farther back is greatly improved, and considerable clearings have already been made. Indeed, it seems to be a feature in this district that along the travelled routes the country presents its dreariest and roughest aspect, and that as you go farther into the interior it presents a much better and less rugged appearance.

Business has not been so good this season in Bracebridge as last year, from the fact that but very few immigrants have come in or settlers arrived for the purpose of taking up land. The people attribute this to the very wrong and short sighted policy of the late Government of Sandfield Macdonald in selling the timber in two or three of the best Townships lying contiguous to the village. If a settler takes up land in any of these Townships he is deprived of the timber on it, which for the first few years is about the only source of income or profit that he has. The land is, therefore, allowed to lie waste, and the timber remains on it till it suits the convenience of the lumbermen or speculators who purchase these timber limits from the Government to us it. A more suicidal policy, or one more calculated to retard the progress and settlement of this District, cannot be imagined. Farmers now prefer to go to Manikoba, or to the States, and Muskoka must suffer from the effects of the bad legislation of our late Local Government for many a day.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 17, 1872

Mr. Drew's Votes in Parliament

We commence to-day to publish a series of motions and amendments taken from the journals of Parliament. We do this in order that the electors of the North Riding may be enabled to judge intelligently of the course pursued by their late member, Mr. Drew, who is now seeking re-election at their hands. We speak confidentially when we say that the votes given by him were an almost exception in-jurious to the best interests of the people of North Wellington, as well as to the general interests of the country, and afford the electors there good ground for rejecting at the poll a man like him, who has so wantonly violated his former promises, and in so doing has acted falsely towards his constituents.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY ROUTE.

On the 18th of December, 1867, it was moved by Hon. Mr. Dorion, seconded by Mr. Mackenzie: "That it be an instruction to the Committee to amend the Bill (Intercolonial Railway) so as to provide that the location of the line of the Intercolonial Railway shall not be finally adopted without the assent of Parliament."

This was lost by Yeas 35, Nays 83. Mr. Drew voted against this motion, the result being that the longer and more expensive route was selected, costing the country some eight millions of dollars more than the central route, and being constructed through a miserably barren and unproductive country which will never pay the necessary working expenses of the road.

ECONOMY FRUSTRATED.

On the 5th of May, 1868, the order of the day for going into Committee of Supply having been read, Hon. Mr. Holt, in amendment, moved, seconded by Mr. Mackenzie:

"That the recent constitutional changes have rendered necessary a complete re-organization of all branches of the Public Service throughout the Dominion; that in this re-organization the strictest economy should be observed; that all unnecessary Executive Departments and all superfluous offices should be abolished; and excessive salaries should be diminished, and all unnecessary or inefficient officers removed; that the salaries of all officers of the Dominion Government of similar grades in the several Provinces should be equalized; and that payments to salaried officers for special services should be forbidden by law."

This amendment was lost by Yeas 36, Nays 94. Amongst the nays was Mr. Drew, thereby becoming a party to the immense increase in the expenditure which has taken place during the past five years. The gross expenditure was thirteen million in 1867, it is now about twenty millions.

BLIND VOTING.

On the 7th May, upon the motion to go into Committee to consider resolutions to provide a sum not exceeding £1,100,000 sterling to defray the expense of constructing works of fortification for the defence of Montreal and other cities, Mr. Mackenzie moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Geoffroy:

"That the question of the erection of permanent works of defence should form a subject of inquiry by a Special Commission or Select Committee; first as to the necessity for such works, and the relative share of the burden thereof to be borne by the Colonial and Imperial authorities respectively; secondly, the system of defence deemed necessary, the character of the works, their extent, locality and cost; and that pending such inquiry and report to Parliament, it is not expedient to vote any sum of money for fortifications, of the nature, extent, utility and cost of which this House is un-informed."

This was lost by Yeas 51, Nays 102. Amongst the latter was Mr. Drew. To prove the utter folly of voting such a large sum for this purpose—without any information whatever—we have only to state that although four years have passed since the vote was made, no steps have yet been taken for the construction of the works.

On the 15th May, 1868, in amendment to a Bill establishing a Department of Agriculture, Mr. Mackenzie moved, seconded by Hon. Mr. Dorion:

"That in the opinion of this House, it is inexpedient to establish a department of Agriculture, as it is the evident intention of the British North American Act to place matters relating to Agriculture under the control of the Local Governments; and the few duties relating to Agriculture that can fairly belong to such Department, can be less expensively performed by being assigned to some other Department of the Government."

This was defeated by Yeas 45, Nays 91; and amongst the nays was Mr. Drew. When we inform the intelligent farmers of the North Riding that all the duties belonging to the Agricultural Act, such as providing for the organization of Agricultural Societies, Exhibitions and other matters connected with the advancement of agriculture are performed by the Local Government at Toronto, they will wonder why their member should vote against such a fair proposition as the above amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY CONTROL OVER PUBLIC WORKS.

On the 15th of May, in amendment to the third reading of the Fortifications Bill, Mr. Mackenzie moved, seconded by Hon. Mr. Holt:

"That the Bill be re-committed to a Committee of the Whole House, with instructions to provide that no sums shall be expended on such works until a separate estimate for each work to be constructed shall be submitted to Parliament, and that the amount to be expended in each year shall be voted from time to time."

This was defeated by Yeas 49, Nays 90; and amongst the latter was Mr. Drew. The very same principle is involved in this vote as that on which the late Ontario elections turned, that of voting money en bloc, or giving the entire control of money to the Government of the day. This obnoxious principle was condemned by the return of Mr. McKim as one of its opponents, and we have no fear but the men of the North will vote down Mr. Drew as holding opposite views.

INDEPENDENCE OF PARLIAMENT.

On the 19th of May, 1868, on the order of the day for the second reading of the Independence of Parliament Bill, Mr. Blake moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Holt:

"That the Bill be re-committed to a Committee of the Whole House with instructions to amend the same so as to render ineligible for the House of Commons, Sheriffs, Registrars, Prothonotaries, and all other persons holding any employment of profit under the Crown in Canada, or any of the Provinces, other than the members of the Government of Canada."

This was lost by Yeas 30, Nays 66; and amongst the nays was Mr. Drew. It was the same Bill which enabled Col. Gray to hire out to the Government by the month at the rate of $3,600 per annum, while all the time professing to be an independent member of Parliament. Only think of a Sheriff canvassing a county with his pocket full of writs. Of course Mr. Drew thought such a state of things would be all right and quite in keeping with his own mode of procedure.

MR. DREW IN FAVOUR OF TAKING THE FARMERS' SALT.

On the 29th of April, 1870, when the Tariff resolutions were before the House Mr. McConkey moved "That the said Resolutions be not now concurred in, but that they be referred back to a Committee of the Whole with instructions to strike out the proposed duty on salt." This motion was voted down, Mr. Drew voting against it, the consequence being that every barrel of salt consumed in North Wellington for the next twelve months was taxed twenty-five cents. It is true that this obnoxious tax was removed in 1871, but Mr. Drew did not vote for its removal.

INCREASED AND INCREASING EXPENDITURE.

On the 10th of March, 1871, Sir A. T. Galt moved, seconded Mr. Cartwright:

"That this House regards the continued and rapid increase in the ordinary expenses of Government, as excessive and uncalled for, and believes that unless more strict economy be observed in the general outlay of the country, grave evils will speedily arise."

This was defeated by Yeas 35, Nays 91; and amongst the nays was Mr. Drew, thereby declaring that the ordinary expenditure should increase fifty per cent in four years, and refused to enter his protest in favour of economy.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A sad calamity occurred at Slaver on the 12th, which resulted in the death of a promising girl, and probable death of a boy, through the explosion of coal oil while lighting a fire. On the match being applied the coal oil can exploded in the hand of the little girl. She was burnt over almost the entire surface of the body, and died about twelve hours after. The boy was so injured that his death was looked for hourly. In attempting to extinguish the flames of the clothing of their children, the mother also sustained injuries.

Surplus, 1871, 1,700,000
New Business, sum assured 1871, $11,501,027.00

The Largest of any Company in the World.

This Society has led the van in the Insurance world for many years; it has introduced most improvements and given greater impetus to the business than any Life Company in the United States, and is deserving in this respect of the praise and gratitude of the community.

There are many reasons for selecting the Equitable Life Assurance Society.
1st—No company has such large annual transactions, thereby insuring into its business a constant accession of fresh and selected lives, which is one of the greatest elements of strength.
2nd—Liberalty in dealing with all claims: observing at the same time, a due regard to the interests of its present large body of policy-holders by a firm resistance to any attempt at imposition.
3rd—Perfect organization in every department, which renders official information easily attainable and secure, and the administration of its affairs.
4th—Being one of the most progressive institutions of its kind in the world, it is ever prepared to seize at once upon all the improvements in the business that science can suggest.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society issues every recognized form of policy, and especially the FRONTIER SAVINGS FUND INSURANCE which the Company introduced. This new plan has become very popular, as equalizing among all who are insured under it the advantages which arise from the profits of the business, without in any respect infringing upon the normal results for which Life Insurance was first instituted.

The EQUITABLE feels that it has the strongest claims upon public confidence. Under the management that distinguishes it and the principles by which it is guided, perfect security is given for the future, than which no greater inducement can be held out to all who wish to insure their lives.

Further information regarding different kinds of Policies issued by the Society can readily be obtained at

CHAPTER VIII.

AN UNEXPECTED ARRIVAL FROM JAMAICA—THE CONSTERNATION OF STEPHEN AND MALCOLM.

"Who the deuce can this be coming to visit us on such a miserable day?" said Stephen, testily. "We want to be alone to decide on our course, and here is an ill-fated interruption. Who can it be?"

"Hav'n't the slightest idea," responded Malcolm; but whoever it is they mean to make their quarters good for a while. Only see what an amount of luggage is strapped on the roof."

"Confound it, can it be any of the fellows of my mess?" growled Stephen. Doig could not come at Christmas, you know, and he promised us a visit some other time; but to come now is decidedly inopportune."

"Doig would never bring all those piled-up boxes with him," suggested Malcolm. "By Jove, it's extraordinary. Shall we have to meet them in the hall?"

"Certainly not. Whoever it may be, they are coming without being expected, and we shall stay till they are announced."

By this time the vehicle was sweeping across the spacious lawn, and at length it drew up at the grand entrance, full in sight of the brothers as they gazed from the window.

As the windows were closed and the blinds drawn, the inmates of the chaise could not be seen. Nor did they become visible till the driver descended from the box seat and opened the door, when there stepped forth a broadly built, dark-complexioned man, clad in an immense furred great-coat, with a skin travelling cap, who immediately turned about and handed out a lady, also enveloped in many happings, bearing in her arms a lot of furs which seemed to enclose a child.

"By Jove! a regular family party," exclaimed Malcolm, in the height of his astonishment.

"But who is it?" added Stephen, "I don't recognize the man."

"Nor I. They seem Russians who have missed their way to Siberia. 'Pon my life we had better meet them in the hall, and show them they made a mistake. See, they are unloading the roof of that immense pile of luggage, and, as I live they are directing it to be carried in. Come, and let us intercept him."

"We are too late now," remarked the other. "They are in the hall already, and the servants are out."

"Egad, yes," added Malcolm; "and he is giving his orders like an emperor. Ah, here comes Thomas with a card; and, as I live, he looks as white as if a ghost had scared him. Well, Thomas, who are these arrivals?"

This question was addressed to an elderly serving man, who appeared holding a card in his hand, his countenance expressing total bewilderment and consternation. Unable to utter a word in answer to Malcolm's question, he advanced to Stephen and gave him the card.

The latter looked at it, and mechanically read the name aloud.

"Mr. Nathan Garret."

"Good heavens! the Jamaica manager!" exclaimed Malcolm.

"Yes, sir," faltered Thomas, "and he says the lady with him is—"

"Never mind. I will explain who she is," interrupted a loud voice, and Mr. Nathan Garret stepped into the room, his sudden appearance striking Thomas dumb, and causing all three to look at him in speechless amazement.

"You can go," added the new comer, addressing Thomas, and pointing to the door, "and see that the lady is attended to as I have directed."

In the extremity of his bewilderment Thomas obeyed the stranger's order, and quitted the room leaving the brothers still speechless with surprise.

A fact worth remembering—have cents worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Food, given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain, and the horse will be fatter, sleeker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.
