The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Social Sciences Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ADDRESS TO ENGLISHMEN.

The Society of the Sons of England was formed in the year 1874, and was established for the purpose of uniting Englishmen and their descendants together for their mutual benefit and support. Other nationalities had united themselves together and formed kindred associations, and had by their advice and more substantial means aided and assisted their members.

An Englishman's heart is as warm and true to his countrymen as are the hearts of those claiming a different nationality. History proves this fact; and whilst we honour our friends of other nationalities for their good work, we claim the same privilege in uniting Englishmen together for their moral, mental and social advancement, for assisting each other in times of sickness, need and death, for rendering pecuniary and beneficial aid to the widows and orphans of deceased members, and for other good, noble and patriotic purposes. There is a noble society formed here and elsewhere that is doing a great work amongst Englishmen, namely, the St George's Society; but are we, as Englishmen, if visited by sickness or distress of any kind to be compelled to solicit charity? no man of fine feeling and high principle can receive charity without feeling humiliated. Why should we not as Englishmen, loving our country and countrymen, have a society from which we can, when in sickness or distress, claim aid as our right, and not as a charity—a society from which we can receive assistance without feeling under any obligation to each other. Providence has not given to any man an indemnity from affliction, and it is a duty we owe ourselves and our families to provide against the distress which inevitably attends its visitation.

No class in society are exempt, but the more humble are particularly exposed to misfortune and sickness, as disastrous in their consequences as they are difficult to avert. It is a good and noble principle in men to try, by frugality and prudence, to lay up a store for old age and to meet calamities. We have therefore formed a society in which we can meet as brother Englishmen, and from which we can demand relief, not as a charity, nor as a gift, but as a right to which we are justly entitled, from having, when in health and prosperity, provided against adversity. There is a charge—and to some extent a truthful one—that Englishmen will not unite for their mutual good. Men claiming a different nationality from ours have been greatly benefitted by uniting. It is thus certain that we united, shall derive mutual benefits, and increase in strength, prosperity and usefulness. Where is the Englishman, when afar from his native home, whose heart does not warm when he meets one of his countrymen? Let us, then, continue together, one and all, as a Band of Brothers, in reality, and not merely in name, and meet in a Society where we shall greet only our own kindred and lovers of our dear Old Land, the wonder and admiration of the world. "England! with all thy faults I love thee still."

The founders of this society excluded Roman Catholics from membership because all members were required to be Protestants.

In conclusion, let us assure all worthy Englishmen who can comply with our Constitution, of a most hearty and cordial welcome into our ranks. Our motto is Fidelity—faithful to ourselves, faithful to each other, and faithful to our country—and, if carried out in its integrity, no society has a more noble one.

SUPREME GRAND LODGE.

Constitution and Powers.

5. This Lodge shall be known and styled as "The Supreme Grand Lodge of the Sons of England Benevolent Society" and shall consist of The Supreme Grand Lodge Officers, Supreme Past Grand Presidents, and delegates duly elected from the various Lodges of the Order. The original founders of the Order to be members of the Grand Lodge so long as they remain in good standing in the Society, who shall represent and act on behalf of the same. Lodges shall have the right to send two delegates only to the Supreme Grand Lodge. No person shall attend the Supreme Grand Lodge as a delegate unless he has filled some executive office in a Lodge for a period of not less than one month and is a member of the White Rose degree. Each representative shall bring credentials, signed by the President and Secretary of his Lodge, bearing the Lodge Seal, and present the same personally to the Supreme Grand Secretary at the time and place appointed, or be liable to be fined one dollar. No member of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall be entitled to a seat therein unless he is clear of all dues and other charges in his Sub-lodge, on the quarterly night in December in each and every year. No Lodge shall be entitled to send delegates to the Supreme Grand Lodge unless the capitation tax, funeral dues, and all accounts owing Grand Lodge are paid.

6. The Supreme Grand Lodge shall have power to make laws for the government of the Order; to alter, amend and recind those already made; hear and determine all appeals from the Lodges and members thereof; redress all grievances arising therefrom; have the right and power of granting, suspending or annulling charters for proper cause; of electing its own officers; appointing its respective committees; of regulating the means of its own support; and shall decide and determine upon all matters connected with the Order.

7. The Supreme Grand Lodge shall assemble annually on the second week in March, and open in the First Degree and adjourn its sittings from day to day until its business is completed, and decide where the next annual meeting shall be held. No delegate shall be allowed to leave the Supreme Grand Lodge previous to the conclusion of its sittings, unless he has first procured the sanction of the meeting. Fifty members of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall constitute a quorum.

8. Provided that no quorum assemble at the time appointed, the Supreme Grand President or presiding officer shall have power to adjourn the meeting, naming the time of next meeting.

9. The following shall be the titles of the Supreme Grand Lodge officers, to whom shall attach the precedents and privileges always appertaining to their respective offices, and who shall be held responsible to the Supreme Grand Lodge for the proper discharge of their several duties : Supreme Grand President, Supreme Grand Vice-President, Supreme Grand Secretary, Supreme Grand Treasurer, Immediate Past Supreme Grand President, who shall constitute the Executive Council of the Supreme Grand Lodge. The Right Worthy Deputy Grand President, Supreme Grand Chaplain, Supreme Grand Auditors, Supreme Grand Trustees, and all Committees shall be elected by the Supreme Grand Lodge when in session.

10. In the event of a vacancy taking place in the Executive Council for the time being, by the death, resignation, suspension or expulsion of the Supreme Grand President, the Supreme Grand Vice-President shall at once take his place. Should a vacancy occur from any of the aforesaid causes among the other executive officers, the executive of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall cause to be filled pro tem the said vacancy.

Executive Council of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

11. The Executive Council of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall enforce the laws of the Order, shall have authority to suspend any Lodge, officer, or other member thereof who shall wilfully violate or refuse compliance with such laws ; shall have power to grant charters for the opening of new Lodges, and dispensation for the higher degrees : appoint District Deputy officers ; shall consider and decide all disputes, appeals and points of law raised by Lodges or members thereof, which decision shall be final, subject to the usual right of appeal to the Supreme Grand Lodge ; issue members' certificates (to Sub-lodges), Lodge seals, rituals, books of the Constitution, and other artic'es necessary in the Order, and record and report the business of the Supreme Grand Lodge ; issue a semi-annual report of the financial standing of the Order ; and keep a clear and correct account of the receipts and expenditures of the Supreme Grand Lodge funds : shall have power to amalgamate any two or more Lodges—always provided that the majority of members in each Lodge are willing to be so amalgamated—and shall examine and approve of all Lodge by-laws before becoming law ; shall watch over and protect the interests of the Order ; and faithfully discharge their respective duties, and on leaving office shall hand over to their successors all moneys, books, papers, documents, vouchers, seals and all matters and things relating, pertaining or belonging to their respective offices or in connection with or pertaining to the Order, in their or either of their custody, possession or power. They shall have power at any time to examine and audit the books and accounts of any Lodge. The Executive will hold monthly meetings at the call of the Supreme Grand President.

Business of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

12. That all business to be brought before the Supreme Grand Lodge shall be entered and arranged on paper by the Executive Council—propositions by themselves—and be taken in the order entered. No subject shall be entertained of which notice has not been forwarded to the Executive Council and entered on the list above referred to, except the usual routine business. All notices of motions and proposed alterations and amendments to the Constitution shall be sent to the Executive Council on or before the first day of November, that the same may be printed and forwarded to the respective Lodges for their consideration prior to the Supreme Grand Lodge meeting. The exact wording of amendments, alterations and additions only shall be printed in the sessional papers. Direct repetitions shall be omitted.

Revenue of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

13. The revenue of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall be derived from capitation tax, dispensations, Lodge seals, members' certificates, books of the Constitution, regalia, and all articles necessary for use in the Order, at a profit of not more than ten per cent. White Rose dispensations $1.00.

Election of Supreme Grand Lodge Officers.

14. Supreme Grand Lodge officers shall be elected annually at the annual meeting—and shall be eligible for re-election. Said election shall be the first order of business on the second day of the session. All officers shall be elected by ballot excepting the Supreme Grand Chaplin, who shall be appointed annually by the Supreme Grand President. The majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to a choice. In case of a tie the voting shall continue until a choice is made. The name of the brother receiving the lowest number of votes at each balloting shall be withdrawn.

15. All nominations shall be made by the Supreme Grand Lodge from members present.

16. All delegates to the Supreme Grand Lodge are eligible for the office of Supreme Grand President. With the exception of the Supreme Grand President and Supreme Grand Secretary, all other Supreme Grand Lodge officers may hold office in subordinate Lodges.

Supreme Grand Lodge ; shall keep a record of all suspended members, signifying those who are suspended for nonpayment of dues, and attend to all other business not herein enumerated, and coming properly within his duty ; shall have his books properly balanced and closed by the first day of February in each year, and shall receive for his services such salary as may be agreed upon at each annual session ; shall give a bond to the Supreme Grand Lodge in the sum of $1,000, with two sureties for the faithful discharge of his duties ; shall insert in the Annual Report of the Supreme Grand Lodge the name, age, birthplace, date of death, cause of death, and Lodge, of all members who shall have died during the previous year.

Supreme Grand Treasurer.

20. The Supreme Grand Treasurer shall receive and give a receipt for all moneys received from the Supreme Grand Lodge, and deposit the same in a separate banking account in some chartered banking institution (within one week at furthest after receipt thereof), to be named by the Executive, unless otherwise directed by the Supreme Grand Lodge ; shall pay all orders drawn on him by the Supreme Grand Secretary, and countersigned by Supreme Grand President under the Supreme Grand Lodge Seal and none other ; shall keep his accounts in a fair, clear, and legible manner, showing all receipts and particulars of all disbursements, with the amount of both ; shall have his accounts closed and properly balanced by the first of February in each year, and submit the same, with all vouchers and other documents, with a report to annual session of the Supreme Grand Lodge, and shall give a bond to the Supreme Grand Lodge, with two sureties, in the sum of $1,000 for the due and faithful performance of his duties. No money nor papers shall be placed in his hands until such bonds are properly executed and delivered to the Supreme Grand President; shall place all books, vouchers and papers pertaining to his office at the disposal of the Supreme Grand Lodge or the Executive when required by the Supreme Grand President.

Supreme Grand Chaplain.

21. The Supreme Grand Chaplain shall assist in the opening, closing and installation ceremonies.

22. Supreme Grand Inner Guard shall have charge of the inner entrance to the Grand Lodge room and permit none to enter or depart without permission from the Supreme Grand Vice-President. Supreme Grand Outer Guard shall attend the outside door of the Grand Lodge Room, report the names of all comers, and if they have the current password, to the Grand Inner Guard.

23. Supreme Grand Auditors shall carefully audit the accounts of the Supreme Grand Lodge and report the same in writing.

24. Supreme Grand Trustees shall take charge of all securities, and invest all moneys entrusted to their care for the benefit of the Order, under the direction of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

Deputy Grand President.

25. The Right Worthy Deputy Grand President for the District of South Africa shall be appointed by the Supreme Grand Lodge of Canada. He shall have power to institute, form, and open new Lodges in the Red and White Rose Degree, within his said jurisdiction to initiate new members, and install the officers of the said new Lodges, and to invest them with full power and authority belonging to their respective offices and shall deliver to them a provisional charter until a proper charter can be obtained from the said Supreme Grand Lodge. All matters and things in dispute in the said district shall be referred to him, and his decision thereon shall be final in relation thereto, until the same shall have been referred to the said Supreme Grand Lodge, and a decision under the seal of the Supreme Grand Lodge of Canada shall have been received. Lodges under this jurisdiction shall send all correspondence, returns and drafts for remittance on the Supreme Grand Secretary, in duplicate to the said Right Worthy Deputy Grand President, who shall transmit the same forthwith to the Supreme Grand Secretary. District Deputies who may be appointed for the South African districts shall act under the jurisdiction of the Right Worthy Deputy Grand President, who shall have power to suspend said District Deputies for any sufficient cause, such suspension to remain in force until the decision of the said Supreme Grand Lodge shall have been obtained thereon.

Duties of District Deputy Grand Lodge Officers.

26. The District Deputy, as a representative of the Supreme Grand President, shall assist at the opening of all new lodges in his district, taking the place of the Supreme Grand President or members of the Grand Executive in the absence of those officers; shall officially visit each lodge in his district at least once in each year; shall on such official visit examine all books, papers and properties of the lodge, making a full report to the Supreme Grand Secretary of the position and working of the lodge. He shall endorse all applications from subordinate lodges for leave to change their place of meeting, endorse all petitions for charters for new lodges, except when it may appear to him that it is not for the good of the order, in which case he must at once forward the petition to the Supreme Grand Secretary, stating full reasons why the Supreme Grand Executive Council should not grant the same. He shall have power to reply to such questions of law and order as may be sent him by the lodges in his district; provided they are governed by the constitution and laws as issued by the Supreme Grand Lodge, referring to the Supreme Executive Council on all matters of doubt or difficulty, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Supreme Executive Council.

The legal expenses incurred in special visits when such visit is requested by the Lodge must be borne by the Lodges visited. Official visits to be paid by the Grand Lodge.

Should the office of District Deputy become vacant from any cause, prior to the annual meeting of the Supreme Grand Lodge, the Supreme Executive Council may appoint a duly qualified brother in the district for the balance of the term.

The District Deputies shall be nominated at Grand Lodge by Grand Lodge delegates from the various districts in which such District Deputy presides, said nomination to be confirmed by the Supreme Grand President, but in all cases nominees for the position of District Deputy must have held an executive office in his sub-lodge for at least six months prior to his nomination.

Committee of General Purposes.

26 (a). A Committee of General Purposes consisting of the Executive Council and twenty members shall be elected annually by the Supreme Grand Lodge. They shall meet one day prior to Grand Lodge and perform the duties of Grand Lodge Committees.

General Laws of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

27. Any officer or delegate refusing to abide by the decision of the Supreme Grand President, shall be fined fifty cents for the first offence, and for the second one dollar; for the third offence he shall not be allowed to sit in the Supreme Grand Lodge during that session, and shall be reported to the subordinate Lodge.

28. All delegates to the Supreme Grand Lodge shall be White Rose Degree members, and have filled some executive office in a subordinate Lodge for not less than one month prior to election.

29. The Supreme Grand Lodge shall have power, should it appear to them advisable, from the returns and information in their possession, to amalgamate any two Lodges; always provided, that the majority of members in each Lodge are willing to be so amalgamated.

30. The financial year of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall close on the first day of February in each year.

31. The Supreme Grand President shall, on receipt of a requisition from a majority of the subordinate Lodges, signed by the President and Secretary of each Lodge under the seals of the said Lodges, call a meeting of the Supreme Grand Lodge in accordance with such requisition.

32. Executive Supreme Grand Lodge officers and delegates shall be allowed $2 per day and their actual travelling expenses whilst in attendance at Supreme Grand Lodge.

33. Executive Supreme Grand Lodge officers shall be paid by the Supreme Grand Lodge, and delegates by their respective Subordinate Lodges.

34. Supreme Grand Lodge officers appointed to open new Lodges shall receive $2.50 per day and actual travelling expenses, to be paid by the Supreme Grand Lodge.

35. The Supreme Grand President shall from time to time visit Subordinate Lodges ; his actual travelling expenses and $2 per day shall be paid by the Supreme Grand Lodge. Should he deem it necessary, other Supreme Grand Lodge officers may accompany him, whose actual travelling expenses only shall be paid by the Supreme Grand Lodge.

36. In case any Subordinate Lodge shall request the official attendance of any Supreme Grand Lodge officers, then the expenses of such visit shall be paid by such Subordinate Lodge, at the above rates.

37. When practicable, official visits shall be made not less than once a year, and not necessarily more than once a year, unless in case of emergency ; but this restriction only refers to Lodges where expenses would be incurred.

38. The Supreme Grand Lodge shall guarantee the bonds of officers of Subordinate Lodges ; said officers shall not be installed till the legal bonds are properly executed. Each Sub-lodge shall be charged one-quarter per cent. per annum on the amount of the guarantee, payable with the usual quarterly return in December of each year.

39. The Supreme Grand Lodge Executive shall have power to re-arrange the districts and appoint a sufficient number of District Deputies to extend the Order in such places as they deem advisable.

40. The Supreme Grand Lodge Executive shall have power to decide on all matters and disputed points arising, not laid down in, or provided for in the Constitution, subject to the usual right of Appeal.

Lodges in and west of Port Arthur, and east of Montreal City, shall have the right to be represented at Grand Lodge by proxy; such proxy to be elected on regular night of election. No member of the Supreme Grand Lodge shall have more than one vote on any subject.

SUBORDINATE LODGES.

Constitution and Powers.

41. That each Subordinate Lodge shall be held by virtue of a charter granted by the Supreme Grand Lodge or the Supreme Grand Executive, and shall be constituted of duly initiated members of the Order ; shall elect its own officers, whose titles shall be—Worthy President, Worthy Past President, Worthy Vice-President, Worthy Secretary, Worthy Treasurer, Worthy Chaplain, Managing Committee, Inner Guard and Outer Guard, who shall constitute the executive officers ; and Surgeons, Auditors, Trustees and Grand Lodge Delegates. They shall watch over and protect the interests of the Lodge, and faithfully discharge their respective duties ; and on leaving office, shall hand over to their successors all moneys, books, papers, documents, vouchers, seals and all matters and things relating, pertaining, or belonging to their respective offices, or in connection with or pertaining to the Lodge or Order in their or either of their custody, possession or power.

42. Each Lodge shall have power to make rules for its own government ; provided such rules are in accordance with the general laws of the Order, and have been sanctioned by the Executive of the Supreme Grand Lodge ; shall have power to control its own funds in accordance with the Constitution ; shall contribute to the support of the Supreme Grand Lodge as hereinafter provided, and shall become incorporated as soon as practicable after formation ; shall have its own seal with name and number thereon.

Formation of Subordinate Lodges.

43. Should any body of Englishmen, consisting of twelve or more persons desire to constitute themselves members of this Order, and be desirous of founding a new Lodge, they shall communicate with the Supreme Grand Secretary of their intention, and shall procure a certificate of good health from a duly qualified surgeon to fill out the usual application form for membership as to character, etc. ; and on receipt of the same, with the proposition money of fifty cents, each person, the Supreme Grand Secretary, shall apprise the Supreme Grand President thereof, who shall appoint a time for completing the formation and opening of a new lodge, when they shall be initiated by some Supreme Grand Lodge executive officer appointed for that purpose, who shall deliver the charter. Said charter shall designate the locality in which such lodge shall be held, and upon the change of such locality the Supreme Executive shall be notified and consent thereto. The White Rose Degree may be conferred upon the executive officers on the night of opening of new lodge. All charter members shall be received into the Order upon the scale of payments as laid down in clause 85, providing they have not previously belonged to the Order. New members shall be received upon the scale of charter members, provided they join within one month from date of opening of Lodge.

44. Eight members in good standing in any subordinate Lodge who desire to constitute a new Lodge may apply for a charter to the Supreme Grand Lodge Executive after having received authority from the Subordinate Lodge to which they belong to do so; Subordinate Lodges shall not refuse their sanction to such application without showing just cause to the Supreme Grand Lodge or Executive, who shall determine the matter. All moneys received at the formation of Lodges shall be credited to the Lodge.

Forfeiture of Charter.

45. Any Subordinate Lodge violating any part of this Constitution, or the orders of the Supreme Grand Lodge, or failing to make the returns or pay the dues required by this Constitution for twelve months, shall become liable to the forfeiture of its Charter, which may thereupon be recalled by the Supreme Executive Council or by vote of the Supreme Grand Lodge in session.

46. Any Subordinate Lodge failing to meet for six consecutive months, shall thereby become extinct, and it shall be the duty of the officers last installed to transmit to the Supreme Grand Lodge or Executive, the Charter, books, funds and other property of said Lodge.

47. The funds and property of Subordinate Lodges are, by the provisions of their Charters and the laws of the Order, held only in trust, for the purposes laid down in the Constitution, and must be applied solely for such purposes. Donating them for other than such purposes, or in any manner dividing them among the members individually, is a violation of such trust and the law, and the penalty for which is expulsion ; and if a Subordinate Lodge shall fail from any cause to work, all moneys and properties, together with the Charter, shall be surrendered to the Supreme Grand Lodge, to be held in trust and applied as hereinafter provided. The Supreme Grand Lodge shall take the members of the defunct Lodge under their protection with the same privileges as previously held by them, until such time as they can join some other Lodge of the Order.

48. Upon the suspension or expulsion of a Lodge, or surrender or forfeiture of its Charter, it shall be the duty of the last installed officers and members having the custody of the Charter, books, papers, properties and funds of the Lodge, to assign, transfer and deliver the same on demand, to the Supreme Executive Council. Any officer or member having such properties in custody, refusing such demand, shall be forever excluded from membership in this Order, notwithstanding such Lodge should afterwards be restored to good standing.

49. All effects or funds received by the Supreme Grand Lodge from any Subordinate or Degree Lodge under the preceding clauses, shall be kept separate and apart from the property and funds of the Supreme Grand Lodge ; and such funds shall not be estimated as part of the assets of the Supreme Grand Lodge, but shall be held in trust for the benefit of the members of the Lodge until disposed of.

First in the case of suspended Lodges—if the Charter is not restored at the time of the expiration of their suspension, the Supreme Grand President shall order an equal distribution of the Lodge funds and property to every member who was in good standing in the books at the time of their suspension, after deducting any claims that the Supreme Grand Lodge may be justly entitled to.

Secondly, in the case of forfeiture of expelled Lodges—the Supreme Grand President shall at once order an equal distribution of the Lodge funds and property to every member who was good on the books at the time of their forfeiture or expulsion, after deducting any claims that the Supreme Grand Lodge may be justly entitled to.

50. Members of extinct Lodges, clear on the books at the time of its dissolution, and who have paid to the Supreme Grand Secretary all arrears then due, may, upon application to the Supreme Grand Secretary, receive a clearance card under the seal of the Supreme Grand Lodge, which shall have all the force of a withdrawal card regularly granted, provided always that the Supreme Grand President and Supreme Grand Secretary shall be satisfied that the applicant was not implicated in the breaking up of the Lodge, or in the illegal distribution or use of the funds of the same.

51. Upon the application to the Supreme Grand Lodge of eight or more members of a defunct Lodge, for the restoration of such Lodge, such applicants as the Supreme Grand Lodge may approve, may be restored to membership, in said Lodge, together with the Charter, funds and effects belonging to said Lodge at time of extinction, unless such effects shall have been disposed of as hereinbefore provided for.

Membership.

52. Subordinate Lodges shall consist of not less than eight members, and shall hold stated meetings at least twice in each month; not less than seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; if only seven financial members be present no appropriation of money shall be made unless by unanimous consent.

53. Should any member of this Order knowingly make false statements for the purpose of getting candidates initiated or rejected, he shall be liable to fine, suspension or expulsion as the Arbitration Committee may determine.

54. Every Lodge of this Order shall keep a Black Book, in which the names of all rejected candidates and expelled members shall be entered.

55. No candidate who has been rejected by any Lodge shall again be proposed for membership until the expiration of Six months after such rejection. No person who has been expelled from the Order shall be eligible for reelection without the consent in writing of the Supreme Grand President.

56. Any Lodge knowingly admitting any rejected candidate or expelled member, except as aforesaid, shall be liable to have its Charter withdrawn by the Supreme Executive Council.

57. Any person who has previously belonged to the Order, or rejected applicant applying for admission into any Lodge, it shall be the duty of such Lodge to communicate with the Lodge of which he was a member or applicant, and procure such information as the Lodge is able to give. Members suspended for non-payment of dues shall be eligible for re-admission provided they are of good character and have complied with the Constitution.

58. No member shall on any consideration be a financial member of more than one Subordinate Lodge. They may be honorary members, not receiving any benefits. Where practicable Lodge Surgeons should be members of the Order. They may be honorary members.

59. Every proposition for membership must be submitted in writing on a printed form, accompanied with a proposition fee of fifty cents by a member of the Lodge, supported by a reference to at least one other member of the Order, and shall state the name, occupation, residence, religion, wife's religion, I also declare my wife to be in good health, nationality of father or grandfather, and place of birth of proposed candidate, and if he has ever been a member of this Order, or was ever proposed or rejected, and if so, where, and shall be signed by the proposed candidate and certified by him to be true. The proposition so made shall be read to the Lodge by the Secretary, and having been accepted by the Lodge shall then be referred to the Managing Committee, one or more shall report to the next meeting of the Lodge; the result of such investigation shall be endorsed on the proposition paper, when a vote by ballot shall be taken on the proposition after the presentation of the medical report. If three or more black balls be found the candidate shall be rejected; when two or more candidates have to be balloted for, it shall be optional with the President to take the ballot for all at the same time; but in case the necessary number of black balls for rejection of a candidate appear, then the ballot shall be taken singly for each candidate.

60. Every candidate before being balloted for as a financial member shall produce a certificate of good health from the Surgeon of the Lodge he wishes to join.

61. Any member desiring to resign his membership in this Order shall notify the Secretary in writing to that effect, and after paying all dues, shall receive a certificate of resignation to the effect that he was in good standing in his Lodge at the date of issue. For such certificate he shall pay the sum of fifty cents. Any member so resigning, and afterwards being desirous of rejoining the Order, must be re-proposed, undergo medical examination, balloted for, and serve the usual probation, but shall be exempt from paying the initiation fee, provided he has paid not less than one year's subscription into the Lodge from which he drew his resignation, the subscriptions of said member shall be according to the age at which he rejoins. He shall pay the Surgeon for medical examination at regular rates.

62. Should any member desire to draw his clearance from one Lodge for the purpose of joining another he shall notify the Secretary, in writing, to that effect, who shall bring the application before the Lodge, and if granted, the Secretary shall, free of charge, make out such clearance. No member shall be entitled to such clearance until he has been a member of the lodge six months, or pays six months' dues from the date of his joining the Lodge from which he desires to withdraw his clearance. A member having to pay dues for the purpose of obtaining his clearance shall not be relieved from payment of his regular weekly dues in the Lodge in which he deposits the said clearance, and such dues shall commence from date certified to on said clearance. The said member must produce such clearance within two months from date of issue, together with a certificate of good health from the Surgeon of the Lodge he wishes to join, and pay the sum of fifty cents on deposit of the same, together with all dues and contributions that may have accrued from the date of his clearance. Such clearance to be accepted by ballot as in the case of new members, and shall apply to the Red and White Rose Degree.

63. Should a clearance be refused to a member, the Supreme Executive of the Grand Lodge shall have power to grant such clearance, on the application of a Lodge willing to admit the member, provided the Lodge to which the member belongs, fails in producing satisfactory reasons why the clearance is refused. Any Lodge neglecting to forward their reasons for refusing a clearance within one month from the same being applied for by the Executive of the Grand Lodge shall be fined two dollars.

64. Should any Lodge refuse to accept the clearance of a member, he shall be allowed the space of one month from the time of such refusal to return the same to his own Lodge, which Lodge shall be bound to receive the same, and shall charge the member with all contributions and fees that may be due from the date of clearance, together with the sum of fifty cents on the return of the said clearance. And said Lodge shall be responsible to said member for all benefits due to him until he joins another Lodge or returns his clearance to his own Lodge; but under no circumstances shall the times above stated be exceeded. All certificates of resignation and clearance shall be signed by the President and Secretary of the Lodge, and stamped with the Lodge Seal, or they shall not be legal. Should a member, after withdrawing his clearance and depositing the same in another Lodge, require, and be eligible, according to this Constitution to receive benefits, the Lodge he has joined shall pay the same. His former Lodge shall be responsible for, and pay to his new Lodge, half such benefits until the expiration of six months from the date of his clearence. The Secretary of new Lodge shall notify the Secretary of former Lodge when the brother has declared on the sick fund.

65. All Lodges shall have power to admit honorary members, and such members shall be entitled to vote on all matters except financial business. Said honorary members shall be subject to suspension and expulsion for non-payment of dues as in the case of financial members. Honorary members desiring to become financial members may do so on production of the Lodge Surgeon's certificate of good health, and by paying the Initiation fee which would be paid by a candidate joining the Society, of the same age as the said honorary member at the time of his making application for the change, less the amount paid by him on first joining the Order. Any member who shall take up his residence in any foreign country outside Her Majesty's Dominions shall after a space of twelve months notify his Lodge from time to time that he continues a British subject and intends continuing as such and has not taken any oath of allegiance to any foreign power, or intends to do so. The moment he takes an oath of allegiance to a foreign power he shall become an expelled member.

66. Any financial member desiring to become an honorary member may do so on payment in full of all dues to date of application, and of fee for honorary membership.

Election of Subordinate Lodge Officers.

67. All executive officers shall be elected for twelve months, and should any office become vacant, the nomination and election of a member to fill the vacant office may be made same night, for the remaining portion of the term. All executive officers shall be elected by ballot. The majority of all ballots cast shall be necessary to a choice. In case of a tie the voting shall continue until a choice is made. The name of the brother receiving the lowest number of votes at such balloting shall be withdrawn. This clause shall apply to the Order generally, except the Managing Committee, then those receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. Officers of subordinate Lodges and delegates to the Supreme Grand Lodge may be nominated and elected on the first regular meeting in December, but the nomination and election must be held in December, and on the same night; this shall also be quarterly night for December. All elections for executive officers and delegates shall be by ballot. All other officers may be elected by show of hands. The installation of officers shall take place the first meeting night in the new year.

68. No member shall be eligible to hold any executive office in a Subordinate Lodge unless he has taken the White Rose Degree. Members may be nominated and elected to office previous to having taken the White Rose degree, but shall not be installed until they are members thereof; but such members shall take the White Rose degree within three months after being elected to office, or the office shall be declared vacant ; but no member shall be nominated for President or Secretary unless he has the White Rose Degree, and has filled some executive office in the Lodge. Subordinate Lodges, when first formed, can elect their executive officers for the first term, irrespective of their having attained the second degree.

69. Members not wishing to hold office must decline to do so when nominated, and no member shall be nominated unless he is present, unless he shall have previously notified in writing the President or Secretary of his intention to serve if elected. Members allowing themselves to be elected to office and then declining to serve shall be fined fifty cents. Absence from the Lodge room at the election shall not be any plea for remitting the fine. No member shall hold office who owes more than three months' dues.

69 (a). Ballot papers used at each and every election shall, immediately after the declaration of the result of the ballot, be sealed in an envelope, endorsed for what election the name was cast, and deposited with the Lodge Secretary, who shall keep the same in tact for thirty days, when, if in the meantime there be no protest entered in writing against the result of any election, the same shall be destroyed without being opened.

70. All honorary members shall be eligible for the office of Chaplain, and for the higher degree.

72. Members may be nominated for more than one office ; but shall not be eligible to hold more than one executive office. Executive officers of Lodges shall not hold non-executive office except those of Surgeon and Supreme Grand Lodge delegate.

Duties of Subordinate Lodge Officers.

73. WORTHY PRESIDENT.—The President shall preside in the Lodge, enforce a due observance of the Society's Constitution and By-Laws, and a proper respect for the Supreme Grand Lodge ; see that the Lodge officers and members of committees perform their respective duties ; cause to be summoned special meetings when he may deem it necessary or required by a vote of the Lodge, or by a requisition signed by at least one-third of the members of the Lodge ; but a week's notice must be given by the Worthy President, stating the object for which the special meeting is called, and only such business as therein specified shall be transacted at such meeting ; to declare the results of all ballots for the initiation of candidates ; sign all orders for the payment of moneys ; open and close the Lodge at the appointed time ; he shall be an ex-officio member of all committees ; he shall have no vote by ballot or otherwise, unless there be a tie ; then he shall have the casting vote ; he shall neither move nor second a resolution, but shall put the same (if not in conflict with the Constitution or By-Laws,) to the meeting ; he shall be personally responsible for the rituals, and for the proper execution of the bonds required to be given by officers of the Lodge, and for all moneys received by them, until such bonds are duly signed and in his possession. If any error or mistake be discovered in the ballot, he shall have the right to call for fresh ballot at the time. And in the absence of the W. Pres. and W. V.-Pres., the senior P. Pres. of the Lodge, if present, shall take the chair.

74. WORTHY PAST PRESIDENT.—The Worthy Past President shall assist in the Ritualistic Work of the Lodge, and perform such other services as may be delegated to him by the Worthy President.

75. WORTHY VICE-PRESIDENT.—The Vice-President shall assist the President in maintaining order ; examine the ballot-box, and declare the result to the President ; assist in the initiation of candidates, and in opening and closing the Lodge ; receive the name of any person wishing admittance and instruct the Inner Guard accordingly ; see that proper respect is paid to the Society's officers, and shall visit, in conjunction with the Managing Committee, all members six months or more in arrears ; shall in the absence of the President preside over the Lodge, and perform such other duties as are hereinafter set forth in General Laws.

78. WORTHY CHAPLAIN.—He shall assist the President in opening and closing the Lodge, in initiating candidates, and at the burial of any deceased member.

79. MANAGING COMMITTEE.—Each Lodge shall have six or more managing Committee-men who shall enquire into the character of the proposed candidates, and ascertain if they have ever been members of this Order, or ever were proposed in a Lodge, and report at the next meeting of the Lodge ; look after the welfare of the sick and of those receiving benefits ; receive from the Treasurer the sick benefits, and give a receipt for the same ; hand them over to those for whom they are granted, and return to the Treasurer the receipts of the recipients ; report on every meeting night the condition of those receiving sick benefits, and be responsible for the proper visitation of sick members, either by themselves or qualified members of the Lodge, whom they are hereby empowered to call on for assistance. In cases of infectious diseases, they shall, with the consent of the President, be empowered to engage the services of a nurse to attend to the same, and such engagement shall be binding on the Lodge ; shall conduct all candidates for initiation into the Lodge room, assist at the opening and closing ceremonies, and be responsible for the safe keeping of the Lodge regalia.

and shall assist the Vice-President in visiting members in arrears ; in Lodges having a large membership, they may receive such remuneration for their services as shall be decided on by the Lodge, subject to fines for neglect of duties and absence from meetings of the Lodge.

80. INNER GUARD.—The Inner Guard shall attend the door on the inside, report the names of all comers to the Vice-President, and carry out his instructions.

81. OUTER GUARD.—The Outer Guard shall attend the door on the outside, receive the name and password from all comers, prevent the intrusion of all improper or disorderly characters, and under no pretence whatever, be on duty without wearing his regalia.

82. SURGEON.—The Surgeon shall be elected annually at the annual election of officers, and continue in office during the pleasure of the Lodge ; shall examine all candidates for full membership, sign their certificates of health, and forward same to the Lodge Secretary ; shall attend all sick members eligible for his services, and provide them with proper medicine ; shall attend all members within a distance of three miles from the Lodge room, at the regular allowance, and be allowed mileage, as agreed upon by the Lodge, to within the distance of five miles ; members beyond that distance shall have no claim on his attendance ; shall send in his book to the Secretary after every quarterly meeting to be revised, and for his services shall receive, annually, such sum as the

83. LODGE TRUSTEES.—Each Lodge shall have two or more Trustees, who shall draw out all moneys from the bank, when ordered to do so by the Lodge, and on receipt of an order, signed by the President and Secretary, and stamped with the Lodge seal; and hand such moneys to the Treasurer, and take his receipt for the same, and attend the Auditors when required. Each Trustee shall give a bond to the Lodge, in a sum to be agreed upon by each Lodge, for the faithful performance of his duty.

84. AUDITORS.—There shall be three Auditors—two to form a quorum—who shall carefully audit the Lodge books within ten days after each quarterly meeting and sign the same if correct; they shall be furnished by the Lodge officers with all books, documents and papers pertaining to the Lodge. They shall report to the Lodge the first meeting after quarterly night; where practicable the audit shall be held at the Lodge room. They shall certify to the number of members entitled to the services of the Lodge Surgeon.

Fees and Contributions.

85. The Initiation Fees into this Order shall be paid in every case before the candidate is initiated, less fifty cents paid on application. All candidates shall pay according to the under-mentioned graduated scale (Charter members excepted), should they desire to join as full members.

18 to 30 years	$ 3 00
30 to 45 "	4 00
45 to 50 "	7 00
50 to 55 "	10 00
55 to 60 "	15 00

Charter members' initiation fees shall be three dollars, (should they join within one month of opening new Lodge). Weekly subscriptions the same as in clause 86 for full members.

86. The subscription of full members shall be according to the following scale:—

18 to 30 years.....	per week 10c.
30 to 45 "	" 13c.
45 to 50 "	" 15c.
50 to 55 "	" 20c.
55 to 60 "	" 25c.

The above rates apply to the ages of candidates at their initiation.

87. Members on taking second degree, shall pay a sum of $2.00.

88. The initiation fee for honorary members shall be $5.00; annual fees $2.00, payable in advance. Honorary members paying $15.00 at their initiation, shall be life members, and no further fee shall be demanded from them.

89. Honorary members, paying an admission fee of $5.00 and $1.00 per quarter, shall be entitled to vote on all matters, receive Doctor's attendance and medicine, but shall not be entitled to sick pay nor funeral allowance, but shall be entitled to hold any office, except President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Supreme Grand Lodge Delegate.

90. At the expiration of twelve months from the date of their initiation, members shall be entitled to $3.00 per week, sick allowance from date of Doctor's certificate, for a space of thirteen weeks, and a sum of $1.50 per week for the next twenty-six weeks; $30.00 on the decease of his wife; $7.00 on the death of any of his children between the ages of five and fifteen years; $100 on the death of a member; less any sum or sums he may be owing his Sub-Lodge or the Supreme Grand Lodge. Members in good standing shall be entitled, in case of death, to half the above-named sums (or balance thereof) after the expiration of six months from their initiation, which shall be paid to the nominee or executors. Also half sick benefits at the expiration of six months, which shall be part of the full term allowed for sick benefits.

90 a. Members remarrying after having joined the Order shall pay the sum of $1.00 registration fee to the G. L. F. F., or forfeit the member's wife funeral benefit.

91. All sick benefits shall be paid by the Subordinate Lodges.

92. Members shall not be entitled to receive benefits from the Order who owe more than six months' dues, nor for the space of one month after all such dues have been paid. Providing a brother falls sick after he is owing six months' dues he shall not be entitled to any sick or death benefits resulting from the said sickness; all dues shall be deducted from his sick benefits.

93. Members falling sick shall, within one week from date of commencement of such sickness, report to the Secretary of their Lodge.

94. Members shall be entitled to sick pay from the date of the Doctor's certificate; but in no case shall any member be allowed sick dues for more than one week previous to such notification to the Secretary, unless by vote of the Lodge. No member shall be entitled to sick dues whose sickness arises from improper conduct. No member, whilst receiving sick pay, shall be allowed to do any work nor be out of doors after 9 o'clock p. m. during the months of May, June, July, August and September, and 6 p. m. during the months of October, November, December, January, February, March, and April, unless authorized by the Lodge Surgeon; any member doing so shall forfeit his sick dues for that week.

95. Members declaring off the funds must produce to the Secretary within one week the Lodge Surgeon's certificate.

96. Any member who has received either full or half sick pay and declares off the Lodge funds, shall not be entitled to recommence the receipt of full pay until he has been able to resume and has continued his business or occupation for six months, but if he falls sick within the said six months he shall be placed in the same position as when he ceased to receive sick pay and shall be paid the same allowance which he was then receiving. Every member shall be entitled to medical attendance and medicine immediately on joining the Order. No member shall be entitled to any benefits for less than one week excepting after the first week.

97. Any member remaining sick after receiving the full amount of sick pay allowed by the Constitution may be superannuated and may then receive $1.00 per week as long as he remains sick, and shall be exempt from all dues while receiving such benefit. If a superannuated member should recover, he shall after six months (provided he produces the Lodge Surgeon's certificate of good health, be entitled to full benefit, but if he fall sick within the said six months he shall again be placed on the superannuated list.

98. Members residing at a distance from their own Lodge may apply to the nearest Lodge to them for their sick dues, and desiring to be placed on the Doctor's List, shall, after passing examination and paying the usual Lodge Surgeon's fees, be entitled to medical attendance and medicine; provided also that the said member shall immediately upon such examination register with the said Lodge Secretary, who shall thereupon place said member on the Surgeon's list. Providing the Lodge to which they apply is satisfied that their medical certificate is correct, they shall pay the sick dues to the Brother, and at once refer the matter to the President of the sick brother's Lodge, who shall refund to the Lodge so paying the amount of such sick dues within three months.

99. Provided a member shall be out of the jurisdiction of the Surgeon of his own Lodge, and not near a Lodge of the Order, and falls sick, he shall procure the certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner, and forward the same to his Lodge Secretary, who shall get it countersigned by the Lodge Surgeon before he shall be entitled to sick dues. It shall be optional for members residing out of the jurisdiction of the Lodge Surgeon to pay Lodge Doctor's fees.

100. Members residing at a distance from their Lodge can remit their subscriptions to the Secretary of the Lodge by post. When a member goes to reside in a place where a Lodge is held, he shall be allowed to pay his contributions into said Lodge, which shall be forwarded to the Secretary of his Lodge quarterly.

101. Funeral benefits shall be paid by the Supreme Grand Lodge to the Sub-lodge secretary who shall witness the payment of the same to the proper parties. "Provided always the members were in good standing upon the books of the Supreme Grand Lodge."

102. All claims on the Supreme Grand Lodge Funeral Fund shall be accompanied with a certificate of death, said certificate shall be signed by the President and Secretary, and stamped with the Lodge seal, certifying to the deceased member's financial standing.

103. One dollar per year shall be paid by the respective Lodges for each member returned as in good financial standing on the quarterly report to the Supreme Grand Lodge. The said sum shall be paid in quarterly instalments in advance. A registration fee of fifty cents shall be paid by the respective Lodges for each new member returned to the Supreme Grand Lodge—which sum shall be applied to the funeral fund. New Lodges shall be exempt from paying the Registration fee of fifty cents for Charter members, but shall pay the usual assessment fees with the quarterly returns.

104. Lodges neglecting to pay the usual Funeral Levies within one month after Quarter'y Night shall forfeit their claims to the Funeral Benefit Fund, but shall be reinstated from date of receipt by the Supreme Grand Secretary of the amount in full.

105. If a deceased brother leaves no nominee or executors, the Lodge to which he belonged shall undertake his funeral.

106. Should any member in good standing die, leaving children, and such children be without any competent relatives willing and able to provide for them, it shall be the bounden duty of the deceased member's Lodge to interest itself in their behalf, and to bring their case before the Suprême Grand Lodge with a view to have such children properly cared for.

107. Whenever it shall become known that any member of this Order has been reduced to a state of pecuniary hardship by any sudden and unlooked for dispensation, his case shall be referred to the President of the Lodge, whose duty it shall be to examine into the same and report to the Lodge, who shall take immediate action in the matter. All financial members over the age of sixty-five years, who shall have become incapacitated, and shall continue incapacitated for work, and unable to earn a livelihood, and who have paid into their present Lodge for ten years, shall be relieved of all further contributions for the remainder of their lives.

108. Should a member become in arrears for dues, assessment, or fines, accruing during the space of thirteen weeks, the Lodge Secretary, shall continue to send his regular quarterly notice until he is fifty-two weeks dues.

109. The deposit of a notice in the post-office, directed to such member, at such place as he is registered on the Lodge Books as residing, shall be deemed and taken as sufficient notice ; and if such member shall allow his dues, etc., to remain unpaid so that he become in arrears for 52 weeks. " He shall stand suspended, the lodge, may, however, keep his name on the lodge books for a farther period of twelve months, and if all arrears, dues and fines are not paid, within said further period of twelve months, then he shall stand expelled and his name shall be struck off the lodge roll ; but should such arrears and dues be paid within twelve months from the date of suspension and he produces the Doctor's certificate of good health, and his character is reported as satisfactory, the ballot shall be taken, and if satisfactory he shall be reinstated, and after a probation of one month be entitled to benefits.

110. Members so excluded from the Order must pay to the Lodge from which they were excluded the arrears of dues, capitation tax, and fines for the six months during which the said Lodge carried them in good standing on its books, and be re-proposed, and serve another probation of twelve months, should they desire to re-join but need not be re-initiated. Members failing to pay their dues on quarterly nights shall be fined ten cents.

Capitation Tax.

111. Subordinate Lodges shall pay capitation tax to the Supreme Grand Lodge at the rate of ten cents per member per quarter for all members not more than 26 weeks in arrears. Members joining during the quarter shall be exempt from capitation tax for the current quarter. Lodges may levy members for the capitation tax.

General Laws.

112. Lodge Secretaries shall make quarterly returns to the Supreme Grand Secretary upon a form supplied for that purpose of such information as may be required for the purposes of the Order ; such returns, with the capitation tax, and the amount of all Lodge accounts due to Supreme Grand Lodge, shall be forwarded within one month after each quarterly night. Lodges may appoint an assistant secretary if necessary.

113. Should any Lodge fail to make its returns or pay the dues promptly to the Supreme Grand Lodge, as required by this Constitution the Supreme Grand Secretary shall, immediately upon the receipt of such return, enter to the debit of such Lodge a fine of one dollar per month for the time which shall have elapsed since such return should be made.

114. All moneys due from Subordinate Lodges to the Supreme Grand Lodge shall be paid only to the Supreme Grand Secretary by marked cheque or post office order.

115. In the absence of the President of a Subordinate Lodge, the Vice-President or Past President shall preside, and if both be absent the Lodge shall elect a chairman under clause 76.

116. No member shall be entitled to receive the password except from the President of his Lodge and if he be three months in arrears not at all, excepting when a brother is residing at some distance (not less than five miles) from his own lodge, then on production of proof, that he is in good standing and produces a requisition from his own Lodge bearing the Lodge seal, he may receive it from the presiding officer of the Lodge he is visiting. This clause shall not apply to candidates at their initiation.

117. Any Brother visiting Lodges shall give his name, the name of his Lodge, and the current password, which shall introduce him to the same. He shall not be entitled to vote, but he may address the Lodge by permission of the President. No member shall be admitted without the password, unless vouched for by two members that he is in good standing, or for the purpose of paying his Lodge dues. The President shall not give the password to any but members of his own Lodge, unless authorized to do so, under an order signed by the Secretary and President of a member's lodge desiring the same, and under no circumstances, unless the order is stamped with the Lodge seal.

118. All Past Officers shall be entitled to wear regalia according to their past rank, but members wearing regalia to which they are not entitled shall be fined fifty cents.

119. No member shall be entitled to hold office in a Subordinate Lodge who is over three months in arrears.

120. Each Lodge shall have but one general fund which shall be composed of proposition and initiation fees, weekly contributions, and interest on investments, and shall only be applied for sick dues, funeral benefit fund and general management expenses, to be known as the general benefit fund. Lodges may provide a special fund or funds which shall be composed of moneys raised by entertainment, concerts, picnics, fines, special levies, etc., for any of the benevolent purposes contemplated by the Order, provided always that in the case of every such special fund or funds, the receipts and disbursements on account thereof, shall be kept altogether distinct from the general benefit fund.

121. All Subordinate Lodges shall adhere strictly to the Constitution and rules of Order issued by the Supreme Grand Lodge, also to the By-laws framed by the Lodge in accordance therewith and sanctioned by the Supreme Grand Lodge or Executive, and shall in all cases yield implicit obedience to the regulations that may from time to time be promulgated by the Supreme Grand Lodge.

122. No Subordinate Lodge or member thereof shall enter into any controversy or publish any matter relating to, or affecting the Order, either privately or through the public prints, without the express permission of the Supreme Grand President; neither shall it be legal for members to collect subscriptions for any purpose in connection with the Order, unless sanctioned by the Lodge they belong to, and also have the written authority signed by the Lodge President and Secretary, and bearing the Lodge Seal.

123. Every Lodge shall display its Charter in some conspicuous part of the Lodge Room, and it shall not be taken therefrom without authority from the Supreme Grand Lodge or Supreme Executive.

124. Every Subordinate Lodge shall keep a registry book, in accordance with form prescribed by the Supreme Grand Lodge, which shall be signed by all members at the time of their initiation. All candidates for membership must be initiated within three months after being proposed, or their proposition money shall be forfeited, and they must be re-proposed. And under no circumstances can candidates be proposed and initiated the same night without a special dispensation from the Supreme Executive.

125. The general benefit fund of Subordinate Lodges shall not be used for any purpose other than those expressly set forth in the Constitution and the legitimate working expenses of the Lodge; and all claims thereon shall be made in writing to the Lodge Secretary.

126. No meeting of any Lodge of this Order shall be held in any tavern nor in any building wherein intoxicating liquors are sold, nor shall intoxicating liquor be brought into the Lodge room during the session of the Lodge. Smoking shall be strictly prohibited during lodge business.

127 No Lodge document shall be legal unless stamped with the Lodge seal.

128. Seventy-five per cent. of the funds of a Subordinate Lodge may, by resolution, passed at a special meeting thereof, and carried by a two-thirds majority, be invested for its benefit in the names of two trustees, in the Capital Stock or Debentures of the Sons of England Hall Company of Ontario, (Limited), or debentures or other legal securities.

129. Subordinate Lodges shall furnish each member at his initiation with a contribution card. Members may obtain copies of the Constitution at a cost of ten cents per copy.

130. All new laws and amendments to the Constitution shall come into force immediately after the close of each session of the Supreme Grand Lodge unless otherwise provided for, also on receipt of a copy and notice by each lodge, from the Supreme Grand Secretary.

130 (a). It shall not be legal for any member while in active membership with this Order to institute, or cause to be instituted, any Society branch or department (male or female) whereby the name or any similarity to the name of the Sons of England Benevolent Society is used or can be construed.

130 (b). The Supreme Grand Secretary shall notify the subordinate lodges of the attendance of their delegates at the Grand Lodge sessions.

Arbitration and Appeals.

131. Every Lodge shall appoint an Arbitration Committee of twelve who must be members of the White Rose Degree. Five shall form a quorum, to whom all charges that cannot be amicably settled shall be referred.

132. Any member of this Order having any just cause of complaint against another member, and desiring investigation by the Lodge, shall in every case put the same in writing, and lay before the President of the Lodge in which the brother charged is a member; whose duty it shall be to use all reasonable means to secure a settlement of the difficulty; and should he deem it necessary, or the member demand it, he shall bring the case before the Arbitration Committee, who, after fully investigating the matter, shall report their decision in writing to the president.

133. Members of one Lodge shall have the right to bring charges against members of another lodge, but all charges must be investigated by an Arbitration Committee composed of six members each from plaintiffs and defendants lodges.

134. The President of the Lodge shall preside at the investigation of all charges, act as judge, and award the punishment, according to the Society's Constitution and Lodge By-Laws. Provided the President cannot attend, he shall notify the Vice-President to act in his stead; if neither be present, the Arbitration Committee shall elect one of their members to preside, who shall have full power to act in the premises. He shall have power to fine, suspend or expel, as the case may require. The plaintiff and defendant shall each have the right to challenge any two members of the Arbitration Committee. Such members shall not then act as arbitrators. No brother shall be allowed to act as witness and member of the Arbitration Committee at the same time.

135. Members requiring the services of the Arbitration Committee must deposit the sum of one dollar at the time of handing the charge to the President, which sum will be forfeited if they fail to prove their case, and be returned if they substantiate it.

136. Should any member of the Order be required as a witness before the Arbitration Committee, and refuse to attend, after being properly notified, his President shall order his attendance under the seal of the Lodge, and in default the member shall be fined by his Lodge in a sum not less than $2, nor more than $5.

137. The President shall see that all charges brought before the Arbitration Committee are conducted in the following manner:—He shall appoint some brother to attend the door, and permit members to be admitted in the usual way. Strangers who may be required as witnesses shall be vouched for. The President shall at any time if necessary, have power to exclude all witnesses and others from the room. He shall ask, "Are any members of the Arbitration Committee challenged?" He shall afterward read the charge, and the defendant shall plead guilty or not guilty. The plaintiff and his witnesses shall then be examined, after which the defendant and his witnesses shall be examined. The President and Arbitration Committee shall have power to call for the production of all documents, and examine other witnesses if necessary. The plaintiff and defendant shall have the right to cross-examine said witnesses. The evidence shall be taken down in writing, read over to and signed by the respective parties giving the same. No hearsay evidence will be admitted. The plaintiff first, and the defendant next, shall be at liberty to address the Arbitration Committee confining themselves to the case in hand. The President shall then address the Arbitration Committee, who shall afterwards retire to consider their verdict.

138. The President on receiving the verdict shall award the punishment if any.

139. None but parties concerned shall be permitted to make any remarks. If the accused neglects or refuses to appear for trial, after having been duly notified, without presenting a sufficient and acceptable excuse for such neglect or failure to appear, he shall be deemed guilty of contempt and shall be dealt with as the Lodge may direct.

140. A Lodge which may become cognizant of any violation of the principles or Constitution of the Order by any brother, may institute preliminary inquiries through a committee of three, who shall report to the Lodge, and upon sufficient cause shall present charges in due form against such offending brother, and act during a subsequent trial as plaintiff on behalf of the Lodge.

141. Should any Lodge President become chargeable under the Constitution, his case shall be referred to the Executive Council of the Supreme Grand Lodge, who shall have power to appoint a suitable committee of three (if convenient, his peers.) who shall constitute the Arbitration Committee, and investigate any charges and report the result in writing to the Executive Council of the Supreme Grand Lodge, whose decision and penalty imposed by it shall be final, except as provided in clause 144. The procedure and regulations hereinbefore laid down for other trials shall be observed in this case.

142. Members feeling aggrieved at the result of the trial shall have the right to appeal to the Executive of the Supreme Grand Lodge, with all papers and evidence that may have been offered for or against, that the Arbitration Committee may have rejected ; but such appeal must be made in writing, or notice given of their intention to appeal, within ten days after the decision, and addressed to the Supreme Grand Secretary. Members appealing shall submit to the decision pending the appeal. Members shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Grand Lodge when in session, providing ten days' notice is given in writing to the Supreme Grand Secretary.

not a sufficient Arbitration Committee or whose Arbitration Committee failed from any cause to settle, or in any case where the desire of such Lodge is expressed by vote, such Lodge shall have power to solicit the services of second degree members of other Lodges to act in the capacity of arbitrators, and their decisions shall have the same authority in the settlement of disputes as the Constitutional Arbitration Committees of Lodges.

144. Any Lodge or member thereof shall have the right of appeal from the ruling of the Supreme Executive to the next Supreme Grand Lodge, but the decision of the Supreme Executive shall be binding until reversed or altered by the Supreme Grand Lodge.

Penalties.

145. Every member violating any of the obligations, established principles, laws, rules or regulations of the Order, disclosing the secret transactions of the Lodge, divulging the name of a member who has reported unfavorably of an application, or opposing his becoming a member, feigning himself sick or disabled, practising, aiding or abetting any other misrepresentation, false pretense or fraud, be guilty of habitual drunkenness, embezzling Lodge funds, wilfully damaging or destroying Lodge property, defrauding a brother, domestic unkindness, immoral or criminal conduct of any kind, entering the Lodge in a state of intoxication, using profane or other improper language, wilfully persisting in disturbing the harmonious and peaceful working of the Lodge, or refusing to obey the Presiding Officer, after being twice called to order, maligning the Society, the brethren, or objects thereof, shall be fined, suspended or expelled from the Lodge, as may be determined, in accordance with the laws, rules, and regulations.

146. No member shall be expelled from any Lodge except through the action of the Arbitration Committee, or as otherwise provided.

147. Every member is bound faithfully and punctually to attend when summoned by the Lodge. Supreme Grand Lodge, or any of their committees or officers, and every member evading the receipt of a notice, neglecting to attend at the time and place specified or to continue his attendance until released, shall be reported to his Lodge, and (unless a valid excuse is given) be fined or suspended for contempt, in accordance with the laws, rules and regulations.

148. Loss of good standing, suspension, or expulsion from membership in a subordinate lodge shall at once similarly affect the member's standing in the Beneficiary Department and Second Degree, and re-instatement in subordinate lodge shall affect re-instatement providing all dues are paid in those departments.

149. Members not paying their dues on quarterly night, which is the last regular meeting of the Lodge in March, June and September, or the first meeting in December of each year, shall be fined 10 cents.

150. Members refusing to abide by the decision of the President shall be fined twenty-five cents in each case ; for using improper language or offensive personalities, twenty-five cents ; appearing at any meeting intoxicated, one dollar, and for third offense to be expelled from the Order. Officers guilty of these offences shall be fined double the foregoing amounts. Lodges not producing their Rituals to the Installing Officer on the first meeting night in January of each year, shall be fined five dollars.

151. Every member on being initiated shall be furnished with a printed copy of the Constitution of the Order. Ignorance of the law shall be no plea for the non-observance of the same, or remission of fines.

152. No member receiving sick benefits from the Society shall be allowed to do any kind of work whatever, nor shall frequent taverns or public houses ; and should any member know of an infraction of this law without reporting the same to his Lodge, he shall be fined fifty cents in each case.

153. Members conspiring together for the purpose of preventing a candidate from being admitted into the Order, or degrees thereof, shall, on proof being given, be liable to suspension or expulsion, as the case may require.

Constitution for the Formation and Government of Degree Lodges.

154. Whenever it may appear to the brethren of any Lodge or Lodges in any city, town or district, that it would be desirable and advance the interests of the Order to establish a Degree Lodge in such place, the Supreme Grand Lodge Executive shall, on receiving a written application to that effect under the seal of the Lodge, issue a dispensation authorizing the institution of the same. All degree Lodges shall be composed of members in good standing in the Order, and shall be governed by the officers of the first Degree. Except in the case where Lodges amalgamate for degree purposes, when they shall elect their own officers. The expenses of instituting degree Lodges shall be paid out of the initiation fees of said Lodge.

155. No member shall take the degree unless he has been three months in the Order and produces a certificate properly signed by his lodge President and Secretary, and stamped with the Lodge seal, stating that he has paid all his Lodge dues in full up to date, and is recommended as a fit and proper person to take the degree.

156. Members belonging to Sub-lodges not three months in existence shall be allowed to take the degree in less than the stipulated time, under the following circumstances:—To hold executive office in a Sub-lodge, the opening of a new Lodge, or any other justifiable cause, provided he shall produce a dispensation from the Executive of the Supreme Grand Lodge. All Degree Lodges shall have power to confer the second Degree, providing the candidate is duly balloted for by the members of his own Lodge, and produces a certificate signed by the President and Secretary of his Lodge, with the Lodge Seal attached.

157. Degree meetings shall be held once a quarter or oftener if desirable. Any Degree Lodge not holding a meeting once in three months shall pay a fine of $5 to the General Fund of the Supreme Grand Lodge; the Secretary to report all degree meetings to the Supreme Grand Secretary on his quarterly report. Officers of Degree Lodges shall be governed by the same rules and regulations as set forth in the Constitution for the government of officers of Sub-lodges of the Red Rose Degree. Members of New Lodges desiring to receive the second degree from any duly chartered Lodge, shall first procure a dispensation from the Executive of the Supreme Grand Lodge for such admission. No Lodge shall have the power to confer the degree on members of other Lodges without the authority from the Supreme Executive.

158. When two or more White Rose Degree Lodges desire to amalgamate for the purpose of forming one strong Degree Lodge, the Lodges so amalgamating shall surrender their charters and shall apply to the Supreme Grand Lodge or Executive for a new charter for the White Rose Degree Lodge thus formed. All candidates wishing to join such White Rose Degree Lodge must be proposed, balloted for and elected in said Lodge, but must present certificates as to character and financial standing in their Red Rose Degree Lodge, signed by the proper officers and bearing the Lodge Seal.

159. Candidates shall be admitted into membership in this Degree by ballot—three black balls shall disqualify; any candidate rejected may renew his application for admission after three months from the date of his rejection.

160. Degree Lodges shall control their own funds and make their own by-laws, subject to the approval of the Supreme Executive.

161. Property belonging to Degree Lodges shall, under no pretense, be taken from the Lodge room unless in charge of proper officers.

CONSTITUTION OF BENEFICIARY DEPARTMENT.

Objects.

162. The objects of this Department shall be to provide financial aid for the widows, orphans, heirs, devisees or nominees of deceased brethren who were in good standing in their respective Lodges and in this department at the time of their death, and for members who may become totally and permanently disabled.

163. Brethren over 18 and under 50 years of age, who are in good standing in their respective lodges shall be eligible to join this Department. Honorary members shall be eligible to join this Department.

164. Should a member of this Department be in arrears, suspended or expelled from this Lodge for any cause, or withdraw from membership in it, he shall cease to be a member of this department; and in case of his death, his representative shall not be entitled to any benefits from the funds of this department.

Revenue.

165. The revenue of this Department shall be derived from the proposition fees of candidates for admission, and from assessments upon its members. The proposition fee shall be three dollars, $1.00 for medical examination, $1.75 to be sent to the Finance Board, and twenty-five cents to the Sub-Lodge Secretary.

Benefits.

166. Upon satisfactory proof of the death of a member who is entitled to benefits from the funds of this Department, his representatives or assigns, who shall be the only parties who shall receive the money, unless by power of attorney, shall receive within sixty days from the proof of his death, a sum not to exceed one thousand or five hundred dollars, as the case may be, and when a member has become totally and permanently disabled, who is entitled to benefits from this Department, he shall receive within sixty days from the time of proof of such disability, a sum not to exceed one-half the above named amounts, and the balance to which he may become entitled at the time of his death shall be paid to his representatives or assigns on satisfactory proof as aforesaid, provided that he continues in good standing in the Order and in this Department.

167. The sum to be paid to a disabled member, or to the representatives of a deceased member, shall be levied by an assessment on all members of this department ac-

169. If the sums of $1,000 or $500, as the case may be, are not realized by an assessment made as provided for in the foregoing clause, then the representatives of the deceased shall only be entitled to receive the sum realized by the levy of assessment made upon all the members in good standing in this Department at that time. And in the case of total disability, providing the assessment does not realize $1,000 or $500, as the case may be, then the amount to be paid to the member disabled shall be one-half the foregoing assessment made or obtained.

170. Members shall have the option of paying into the benefit fund as per rule 167, and shall be intitled to the benefits to be paid on the terms and conditions as set forth in rule 166 and 169 of this constitution. Any member who may have taken out a certificate for $500, and wishing to increase that amount shall be permitted to do so, provided the first and second certificate shall not amount together to more than $1,000, and provided further, that he is not over the 50 year limit. The applicant shall be required to pass a second medical examination, and be charged for such increased amount, according to his age at the time of making second application, and that a fee of $1.00 be charged to cover the expense of the second application.

170 a. The members of the Beneficiary Department desirous of increasing their certificates to $2,000 shall do so and enter what will be entitled Class B. Members not desiring to raise the amount of their certificates shall remain in what shall be called Class A. All members passing into Class B. shall pay the same rate as they are at present rated, and in the event of a member in Class B. dying, the assessment shall be double the amount as paid in Class A. member in Class A., the assessment shall be a single assessment. The members of Class B. will accept and shall not be entitled to any amount further than what the assessment will realize, until such assessment in Class B. will realize $1,000. The members shall be subject to a medical examination. The members now in the Beneficiary shall have the option of joining Class B., provided they do so before the expiration of six months from the passing of the same by the Grand Lodge.

171. Members shall nominate and designate in writing on their application the person or persons to whom they wish the amount of their certificate paid, and shall have the right at any time to change the same. Such nomination and designation to be witnessed by two persons who shall be members of the Order, with the Lodge seal attached, which will be forwarded by the Lodge Secretary to the Finance Committee, who shall cause the same to be entered in a book provided for that purpose and the original placed on file, and a new certificate issued, for which he shall pay the sum of fifty cents. In case the assessment shall exceed the sum required, the surplus of said assessment, with others, shall form a fund, which when sufficient to pay a death or accident benefit shall be used for that purpose.

Officers.

172. The officers of this Department shall consist of President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Supreme Grand President of the Sons of England Benevolent Society shall be President, the Supreme Grand Secretary shall be Secretary, and the Supreme Grand Treasurer shall be Treasurer of this Department during their respective terms of office.

173. There shall be a Finance Committee to be composed of not less than seven members appointed at the annual meeting of the Supreme Grand Lodge, "but not necessarily delegates to the Supreme Grand Lodge," but none are eligible except policy-holders.

Duties of Officers.

174. The Supreme Grand President or his appointee shall preside at all meetings of the Finance Committee; he shall sign the certificates of membership and orders drawn on the Treasurer; he shall have no vote, except when votes are equal, in which case he shall have a casting vote; he shall have power to call emergency meetings of the committee whenever he may deem it necessary; he shall be personally responsible for the proper execution of the bonds required to be given by the Secretary, Treasurer and Trustees, and for all moneys received by them until such bonds are duly signed and in his possession, he shall see that the laws and regulations of the Department are faithfully and properly executed; in the absence of the Supreme Grand President or appointee the Finance Committee shall appoint some member to preside.

175. The Supreme Grand Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Finance Committee and of the Department's business transactions; keep the books of accounts, and conduct correspondence, collect and receive all moneys from the Sub-Lodge Secretaries due to the Department, giving his receipt for the same, and pay over all moneys so received, as soon as the sum amounts to fifty dollars, to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor; call all meetings of the Finance Committee when ordered to do so by the Supreme Grand President or four members of the Finance Board (by circular); prepare the certificates of membership and notices of all deaths or assessments, and all communications called for and required by the officers; keep a record of the names of deceased or disabled members and of the amounts paid to them or to their representatives; keep a record in the books of the Department of the names of the members who have paid, and of those who have failed to pay the assessments made upon them, and also of those whose applications have been rejected; send notices of assessments to Sub-lodge Secretaries and see that they acknowledge the receipt of same within eight days, and see that the list of such assessment be duly returned in the time prescribed (in default of which the Sub-Lodge is held responsible for the amounts paid in within the prescribed time): make semi-annually a full report in writing of the transactions and condition of the Department; take charge of the Seal of the Department, and affix the same, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Supreme Grand President or Finance Committee ; he shall give a bond to the Supreme President and his successors in office in the sum of $300 for the faithful performance of his duties and for the proper care and accounting for of all moneys or other property of the Department that may come into his possession, and hand over the same to his successors in office.

176. The Supreme Grand Treasurer shall receive all moneys from the Secretary, giving his receipt therefor, deposit the same in a legally chartered bank (to be named by the Finance Committee) in the name of the Department's trustees ; pay all orders when signed by the President and Secretary, and stamped with the Supreme Grand Lodge Seal ; receive from the Trustees all moneys when withdrawn from the bank ; shall attend and produce his books and vouchers when required by the auditors ; he shall give a bond to the President and his successors in office, from a guarantee company to be named by the Supreme Grand President, in the sum of $500 for the faithful performance of the duties of his office ; no moneys or papers shall be placed in his hands until such bonds are properly executed and in the President's possession ; shall place all books, papers and vouchers pertaining to his office at the disposal of the Finance Committee when ordered to do so by the Supreme Grand President.

177. The Finance Committee shall approve of all Medical Officers, and in case of necessity shall have the right to submit any application for further medical examination, to any of the medical staff they may decide upon, the cost of such examination shall be paid from the General Fund, the same not to exceed one dollar ; they shall consider all applications for membership and accept or reject the same ; consider the re-instatement of members in arrears ; shall see that the endowment and permanent funds are properly invested, and shall sanction the payment of all moneys drawn on the Treasurer ; shall decide when the permanent fund is sufficiently large to pay endowments from the same ; shall appoint two auditors ; shall certify to all cases of death or disability, and render such aid and assistance to the President and Officers as may be required for the proper management of the affairs of the Department. Upon the request of four or more members the Supreme Grand Secretary shall call a special meeting for the transaction of such business as may be required.

178. Two auditors shall be appointed who shall audit the books and accounts of this Department, and make a semi-annual report thereon in July and January of each year.

179. Sub-lodge Secretaries shall, upon receipt of notices of assessments from the Supreme Grand Secretary, send a copy of the same to each member in good standing of their respective Lodges who are members of this Department ; collect and transmit all assessments to the Supreme Grand Secretary within thirty days from date of said notices, taking his receipt for same; they shall furnish the Supreme Grand Secretary with a list of all members and their standing in the Lodge, and those who have failed to pay their assessments within the prescribed time; they shall keep a full and correct account between the Department and their Lodge members, and perform such other duties as may be required of them. And for their services shall retain 25 cents of the applicant's fee for defraying expenses as agents of the department.

Application for Membership.

180. All applications for membership must be made in open Lodge verbally or by letter, and upon the form supplied by the Department; they shall be countersigned by the President and Secretary of the Lodge to which the applicant belongs, and stamped with the Lodge seal. They shall be forwarded by the Lodge Secretary to the Surgeon for medical examination; the Lodge Secretary shall forward the fee of $1.75 to the Supreme Grand Secretary, who shall after receiving the application paper from the medical examiner submit the same to the Finance Committee, and if approved, they shall instruct the Supreme Grand Secretary to issue a certificate of membership to the applicant. The age of candidates shall be fixed from the date of receipt of application by the Supreme Grand Secretary.

181. Should a candidate be rejected by the Finance Committee, or by the Supreme Grand Medical Examiner, the sum of two dollars shall be returned within thirty days.

182. Upon satisfactory proof of the death of a member, the Finance Committee shall forthwith order the Supreme Grand Secretary to make an assessment on the scale provided for in rule 167, which assessment shall be made in the following manner:—On the first day of every month the Supreme Grand Secretary shall notify each Lodge Secretary, whose duty it shall be to issue printed notices to each member of his Lodge, who is a member of this department, of the death or cases of total disability which have taken place during the preceding month, giving the name of each deceased or disabled member and the Lodge to which he belonged or belongs, and the assessments due for the month; he shall collect and forward to the Supreme Grand Secretary the assessments called for. Notices so sent or posted to the last given address of members shall be deemed and taken to be a lawful and sufficient demand for the payment of the assessments so called for and required. Money may be sent by post office order or registered letter addressed to the Secretary of his Lodge. Members failing to pay their assessments within thirty days from the date of the notice furnished by the Supreme Grand Lodge Secretary shall be fined 50 cents, and the Secretary of each Lodge shall notify the Supreme Grand Secretary within three days of the members in arrears, who shall forthwith send notice, by registered letter, that unless paid within ten days from the date of such notice he shall forfeit his membership in this department and all benefits therefrom. The Supreme Grand Secretary shall on receipt of notice from subordinate lodge Secretary of any Beneficiary member owing six months dues to his subordinate lodge, notify him by registered letter that unless such dues are paid within seven days from date of notice that he will be suspended.

183. Any member having forfeited his membership by failing to pay his assessments may make application to his Lodge Secretary within three months after such default was first made, presenting a certificate from the regular appointed medical examiner to show that he is in good health, for which he shall pay, and may upon the payment of all arrears, be reinstated to membership in this department if approved of by the Finance Committee. Should any member be suspended from the Order, and desire to rejoin, he must pay all arrears standing against him at the time of such suspension.

Permanent Fund.

184. A permanent fund shall be set apart in the manner following, to wit :—Firstly, from arrears of assessments. Secondly, from that portion of the assessments not expended in the payment of endowments, and, Thirdly, from interest on investments ; which fund shall be securely invested by the Finance Committee, and shall be used for the following purposes :—First, that endowments may be paid before the assessments are collected from the survivors, Second, to insure stability and prosperity, and to provide for contingencies that may arise.

Management Fund.

185. A management fund shall be set apart in the following manner, to wit :—From all admission fees and new policies, and shall be used for the following purposes :—Printing assessment notices, Supreme Medical Examiners' fees, postage, stationery, account book, printing forms and all necessary expenses of management. Entrance fees shall not be used in lieu of assessments.

186. Whenever the Finance Committee shall decide that the permanent fund is larger than is absolutely required for the stability of this Department they may suspend the collection of one or more assessments altogether, and pay endowments out of the permanent fund.

Seal.

187. The Supreme Grand Secretary shall attach the Seal of the Supreme Grand Lodge to all certificates of membership and other official documents, save and except the notices of assessments.

Medical Officers.

188. Each Lodge shall appoint a duly qualified medical practitioner subject to the approval of the Finance Committee. He must, if possible, be a member of the Order. Candidates may apply to any medical officer of this Department for examination.

189. The medical officer shall carefully examine all candidates, and shall make a full report upon the forms provided by the Department, and forward the same to the Supreme Grand Secretary. The applicant shall pay the sum of one dollars as provided in clause 165, page 70.

Certificates.

190. The Supreme Grand Secretary shall furnish each member of the Department with a certificate of membership signed by the Supreme Grand President and Supreme Grand Secretary, bearing the Seal of the Supreme Grand Lodge. The certificate shall contain the terms and conditions on which the certificate of membership is issued. On payment of the endowment stipulated, it shall be surrendered to the Supreme Grand Secretary by the heirs, devisees, or nominees of the deceased member, on which shall be endorsed a receipt in full of all demands.

191. A Committee of two shall be appointed in each Lodge to be called the Beneficiary Committee, to work for this particular Department.

192. No amendments or alterations shall be made to the rules of this Department unless agreed upon by a two-third majority of those present at a meeting of the Supreme Grand Lodge of the Sons of England Benevolent Society, and of which two months' notice shall have been given to the Lodges.

194. The recognized regalia of this Order shall be as follows :—

The badge approved and adopted by the Supreme Grand Lodge at Galt, 1885.

The official emblem of the Order, for members' use shall be the "Union Jack."

Second Degree—Blue silk collar, with roses embroidered thereon ; silver fringe all around.

Executive Officers' regalia shall be Blue Silk with roses embroidered thereon, silver fringe all round. Presidents' and Past-Presidents' with gold fringe, Subordinate Lodge Presidents shall wear the Royal Coat of Arms, with crossed gavels in gold suspended in front of collar on the left breast.

Vice-President—Royal Coat of Arms, with crossed gavels in silver.

Treasurer—Royal Coat of Arms, with crossed keys in silver.

Secretary—Royal Coat of Arms, with crossed pens in silver.

Chaplain—College cap and black gown.

Executive Grand Lodge Officers' collars and cuffs shall be embroidered with roses in gold.

Supreme Grand Lodge President, in addition, shall wear a five starred gold jewel, with Union Jack in centre.

Lodge Surgeon's regalia shall be a sash made of white silk trimmed with blue, fastened with gold star with epaulet and ends trimmed with gold fringe.

Past Supreme Grand President's regalia shall be a neck ribbon of blue watered silk three inches wide, with jewel suspended from end of same. Senior and Junior Guards may be provided with swords.

District Deputies' badge shall be a star surmounted with the Royal Arms.

The funeral regalia of the Order shall be a black silk rosette, with purple ribbon, six inches long, two inches wide, with gold fringe, with emblem and S. O. E. B. S. stamped in gold, and white gloves. No regalia to be worn, except Marshall who shall have the roses on his collar draped, and his staff trimmed with black and blue ribbon.

The order of procession to be observed at funerals shall be that officers and members walk in front of the hearse, officers walking last. On arriving at the cemetery, the procession shall open, permitting the funeral cortege to pass through their ranks, then the officers first and members follow to the grave.

Order of Business.

195. 1. Opening of Lodge.

2. Roll call of officers.

3. Reading minutes of previous meeting, which, if correct, shall be adopted and signed by the presiding officer.

4. The receiving and consideration of any reports from the Managing Committee in regard to sick members.

5. The receiving and consideration of reports of the Managing Committee in regard to character.

6. Balloting for candidates.

7. Initiation of candidates for membership.

8. The consideration of applications for beneficiary policies.

9. Proposition of candidates.

10. Nomination of officers and election thereof, on the nights set apart for that purpose.

11. Installation of officers on the proper night.

12. Receiving and consideration of any reports of officers or special committees.

13. The reading and consideration of accounts and other communications in the hand of the Secretary.

14. Deferred business.

15. General business.

16. Report of receipts.

17. Worthy Treasurer, have you received that amount, if not, please do so before the lodge is closed.

18. Closing of the lodge.

Rules of Order.

196. 1. Lodges shall open punctually at the time appointed.

2. Any member offering a motion must do so in writing, on a request to that effect by the Secretary, the presiding officer, or the Lodge.

3. No question shall be put by the presiding officer unless regularly moved and seconded, nor be opened for consideration until so put, and when put, no other motion shall be receivable unless it be a motion.

(1) To adjourn.

(2) To lay on the table.

(3) To put the previous question.

(4) To postpone.

(5) To refer; or,

(6) to amend.

These several motions, if made, shall have precedence in the order above stated, and the first three thereof shall be decided without debate.

4. The previous question shall be put from the chair, only after it shall have been ascertained that the call thereof is sustained by a majority of the members of the Lodge present, and then shall always be put in the words following:—"Shall the question be now put?" which words shall be understood to have reference to whatever question may be pending immediately before such call for the previous question may have been so made.

5. Any two members having voted in the majority may, at the same or next regular meeting, move for a reconsideration thereof, but no discussion on the main question shall be allowed upon such motion.

6. Every member shall have the privilege of speaking twice on any question, but not oftener, unless by permission of the presiding officer.

7. The presiding officer, or any member, may call a Brother to order while speaking, and in such case the debate shall forthwith be suspended, and the brother so called to order shall not proceed until the point of order thus raised shall have been decided, nor speak upon such point of order unless it be to make necessary explanation or appeal from the decision of the Chair.

8. In all cases where a member may appeal from any decision of the Chair he shall use the following words and none other, unless it be for necessary explanations:—"Worthy President:—I respectfully appeal from the decision of the Chair to the Lodge." and the Lodge shall, after such explanation from the presiding officer as he may deem necessary, proceed forthwith to consider the vote upon the question; "Will the Lodge sustain the decision of the Chair?"

9. The presiding officer or the Lodge may at any time require all members present to vote upon any question, or may excuse any member or members from so doing.

10. Brothers not members of the Lodge may address the meeting on receiving permission to that effect from the presiding officer.

11. A motion to suspend the order of proceedings for the time being, may at any time be carried by a majority vote; but no part of these rules shall be altered or amended, unless by a two-thirds vote, at a special meeting convened for that purpose.

12. In the event of disputes arising whereby none of the foregoing decide the case, recourse shall be made to "Cushing's Manual of Parliamentary Usage."

Amendments.

197. This Constitution, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended, suspended, or annulled, unless by a two-thirds vote of the Supreme Grand Lodge in session.

W. R. STROUD,
Supreme Grand President.

JOHN W. CARTER,
