The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont le couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaître sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The persons specified herein may become members of this Lodge upon proper application.

1. All persons who have received the Degree of Rebekah.

2. All Odd Fellows in good standing and their wives, daughters, sisters, and mothers, also the daughters, sisters and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of our Order in good standing.

3. All unmarried white women who have attained the age of eighteen years.

All the foregoing must be free white persons, of good moral character, and believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe. Provided, that the applicant is a resident of the Province of British Columbia. The name of any person qualified as above offered for membership, with his or her age, residence and occupation, must be proposed by a member in writing, signed by the applicant, with the names of two persons as references attached, and entered upon the record. If the applicant be an Odd Fellow, or the relative of an Odd Fellow, the application must be accompanied by a certificate of such Odd Fellow's good standing in his Subordinate Lodge, under its seal, and signed by its Secretary. Such proposition shall be referred to a committee of three members for investigation, who shall report at the next regular meeting (unless further time be granted), when the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if no more than two black balls shall appear, the candidate shall be declared elected; but if more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be deemed rejected. Should black balls appear, the Lodge may, by a majority vote, immediately retake the ballot, in order to verify the fact that black balls were, or were not, cast in error, but the Noble Grand nor Vice Grand shall not be required to state the number of black balls cast. Should the candidate be elected, he or she shall become a member on signing the Constitution and By-laws, in a proper membership book, kept for the purpose, and paying the dues provided by the By-laws. Applicants for membership by deposit of card (such card having been issued by a regularly constituted Rebekah Lodge), may be admitted in the same manner as provided for the admission of other members. Provided that no certificate from a Subordinate Lodge, for a sister applying for membership by deposit of card is necessary.

Sec. 2. No reconsideration of an unfavorable ballot can be had, unless all the brothers and sisters who may have cast black balls against an applicant for membership voluntarily make a motion for a reconsideration of the ballot; provided such reconsideration be had within four regular meeting nights next succeeding such rejection; and in such case the vote on the reconsideration shall be taken by ball ballot, and if all the balls cast be in favor of it, the reconsideration shall be had; whereupon the application shall lie over until the succeeding meeting, when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots, and if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant, he or she shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot, the applicant shall be rejected; and in no case shall a reconsideration be had, except upon a voluntary motion of all those who cast black balls; and never more than one motion for a reconsideration in the same case shall be allowed. A favorable balloting can be reconsidered at any meeting prior to the admission of the candidate, provided, a majority of the members present agree thereto.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall confer the Degree of Rebekah only on such persons who apply for and are duly elected to membership therein.

Sec. 4. Candidates rejected in this Lodge may renew their application for membership therein at the expiration of six months after such rejection.

Sec. 6. Members of the Order, who shall change their residence from the territorial jurisdiction of their Rebekah Lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of another Rebekah Lodge, or who may be transferred from the territorial jurisdiction of one Rebekah Lodge to another by a change of territorial jurisdiction in which they shall reside, and who shall be in possession of an official certificate or visiting card showing their dues paid not less than four weeks in advance of the date of the application for membership, and who shall desire to unite with the Rebekah Lodge at the place of their new residence, may do so by making application in regular form, accompanied by their official certificate or visiting card and a fee of 25 cents. If elected to membership, the Secretary of the Rebekah Lodge shall immediately send notice of such election together with the fee of 25 cents to the Rebekah Lodge issuing the official certificate or visiting card and request such lodge to issue a transfer certificate for the member. The Rebekah Lodge upon receiving such request and fee, shall, unless charges be pending against such member, issue such transfer certificate without ballot and send at once to the Secretary of the Rebekah Lodge making such request.

Upon the receipt of such transfer certificate the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of the new Rebekah Lodge without the payment of any additional admission fee, and the Rebekah Lodge issuing such transfer certificate shall, upon receiving notice from the new Lodge of the date of signing the Constitution of such Lodge, refund to such member all dues paid in advance of such date. The fee of 25 cents must be paid by the applicant.

The law applies to members who shall change their residence from one city to another as well as from one state to another. But it does not apply where there are two or more Lodges in the same city (territorial jurisdiction) and the member does not change his residence.

ARTICLE IV.

Powers and Privileges

Sec. 1. This Lodge shall possess the powers and enjoy the privileges following:

Clause —To confer the degree of Rebekah on properly qualified applicants as hereinbefore specified.

Clause 2.—To elect and appoint its own officers in the manner prescribed by this

CONSTITUTION

Constitution and the By-laws of the Lodge.

Clause 3—To hold regular and special meetings as provided by the By-Laws.

Clause 4—To fix and establish Initiation Fees, providing they be not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) for Sisters and Brothers, and Dues to be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, as the By-laws may provide; and to provide by By-Laws, when those in arrears for dues for one year may be suspended for non-payment thereof.

Clause 5—To pay and disburse from the funds of the Lodge, from time to time, as a majority of the members present shall by vote determine, for any of the declared purposes of this Degree as set forth in Article II.

Clause 6.—To establish such By-laws and Rules of Order, not inconsistent herewith, or with the rules, usages and general regulations of the Order, as it may deem proper; subject, however, to the approval of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia.

Clause 7.—To grant Withdrawal Cards to members who are clear of the books, and on receipt of the price of the card. Members may apply in person, or by letter, for such cards. Should objection be offered for cause the Lodge may suspend issue of the card until an investigation is held. Visiting Cards shall be granted upon application in open Lodge, or they may be issued by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary as members in good standing upon application in writing, but in either case the dues of the applicant must be paid up to the end of the time for which the card is granted, which time shall not exceed one year from the date of the card. A member suspended from membership for non-payment of dues shall be granted on application a Dismissal Certificate on the payment of one dollar without first applying for reinstatement. No ballot is required in granting a Dismissal Certificate.

Clause 8—To try charges preferred against members for the violation of the Constitution and By-laws of the Lodge, or the general rules, regulations and usages of the order, as provided in the following sections:

Sec. 2. Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against the Constitution, By-laws or Rules of Order of this Lodge, or the penal laws of the land, shall be fined, reprimanded, suspended, or expelled, as the By-laws may direct, or the Lodge determine.

Sec. 3. All members shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving reprimand, suspension or expulsion. Members shall not be put upon trial, unless charges duly specifying the offence, so as to fully apprise them of the nature thereof, and to enable them to prepare for their defence, shall be submitted to the Lodge, in writing, and signed by a member of the Order, and a copy thereof, under seal of the Lodge, be served upon them.

Sec. 4. Such charges shall be referred to a committee of five members, who shall, without unnecessary delay, summon the parties and try the case. They shall keep full minutes of the evidence and of their proceedings, and report the same to the Lodge, with their verdict. A witness, if a member of the Order, shall give evidence on the honor of an Odd Fellow; if not a member of the Order, then on oath or affirmation, and the proceedings must state that such obligation or oath was administered. No testimony shall be taken without notice, or opportunity for cross-examination by the opposing party. Upon the report being made, notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the Secretary to the party against whom the verdict is rendered, and he or she shall have two weeks in which to file exceptions. If no exceptions are filed within two weeks, the Lodge shall proceed to pronounce judgment upon the verdict and affix the penalty. An appeal from the judgment of the Lodge may be taken at any time within two weeks thereafter, to the District Deputy President, and from that officer to the President of the Assembly, and therefrom to the Grand Lodge; and if no such appeal is taken, the judgment of the Lodge shall be final. When a bill of exception to the report of the committee is filed, the Lodge may determine upon its merits, and either sustain the report of the committee, or refer the same back to the same or another committee, or grant a new trial. If the Lodge deems the exceptions not well taken, it shall proceed to pronounce its judgment and affix the penalty.

Sec. 5. If the accused refuse or neglect to stand trial, when duly summoned, the committee shall report him or her guilty of contempt of the Lodge, which report shall be conclusive, and the punishment shall be expulsion.

Sec. 6. If a specific penalty for an offence be provided in the Constitution or By-Laws, the Noble Grand shall enforce it. If none be so provided, the Lodge shall decide, by paper ballot whether the penalty shall be expulsion, suspension, or reprimand and fine. During the ballot, the accused shall withdraw from the Lodge-room. The ballot shall be first taken on expulsion, and if it shall appear that two-thirds of the ballots are cast for expulsion such will be the penalty. If two-thirds of the ballots are not cast for expulsion, then the Lodge shall proceed to ballot for suspension, and if two-thirds of the ballots are cast for suspension, suspension shall be the penalty, and the Lodge shall proceed to fix the duration of such suspension, which shall not exceed one year. If neither expulsion nor suspension is determined as the penalty as above provided, then the penalty shall be reprimand, fine, or both, to be determined by a majority ballot; if fine is determined upon, then the Lodge shall fix the amount, not exceeding ten dollars; if reprimand is decided upon, then the accused shall be reprimanded in open Lodge by the acting Noble Grand.

No ballot held under this section shall be re-considered. All fines imposed under this section shall be charged to the member's account, and considered, in determining his or her standing in the Lodge, as dues; and when the fine thus imposed, added to the dues, brings him or her under the penalty provided in the By-laws, he or she shall be notified, and allowed the usual time to make payment. In all cases, as above, if membership ceases the member, prior to reinstatement, shall pay the whole amount of such fine and dues.

Sec. 7. When a member shall be subject to the penalty of reprimand, he or she shall be summoned to attend at some regular meeting, to be fixed by the Noble Grand, to be reprimanded from the chair of the Noble Grand; and until he or she so attend and be reprimanded, shall be suspended from all benefits and privileges of membership.

Sec. 8. An expelled member can be reinstated only after a proposition, reference, and election by ballot, as in the case of a newly proposed member, permission having first been obtained from the Grand Master. A member suspended for any cause may be reinstated on the removal of the cause or the expiration of the term for which he or she was suspended, without action of the Lodge, and the Noble Grand shall declare in open Lodge his or her being reinstated.

Sec. 9. Any member suspended from membership for non-payment of dues may be reinstated in the Lodge from which he or she was suspended by paying the amount of one year's dues or the fee of an initiate, as prescribed by the By-laws of the Lodge; whichever the By-laws of the Lodge may provide. Applications for reinstatement must be in writing, and shall be dealt with in the same manner as that prescribed for applications for initiation.

Sec. 10. Any member intending to appeal from the action of the Lodge, either on a decision of law, or where charges have been preferred, shall file with the Secretary a notice of appeal and the grounds thereof; upon which the Secretary shall forthwith send the notice or a true copy of the same, together with a certified copy of all charges, reports, evidence, and proceedings of the Lodge relating to the case to the officers or body to which the appeal is taken.
