National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

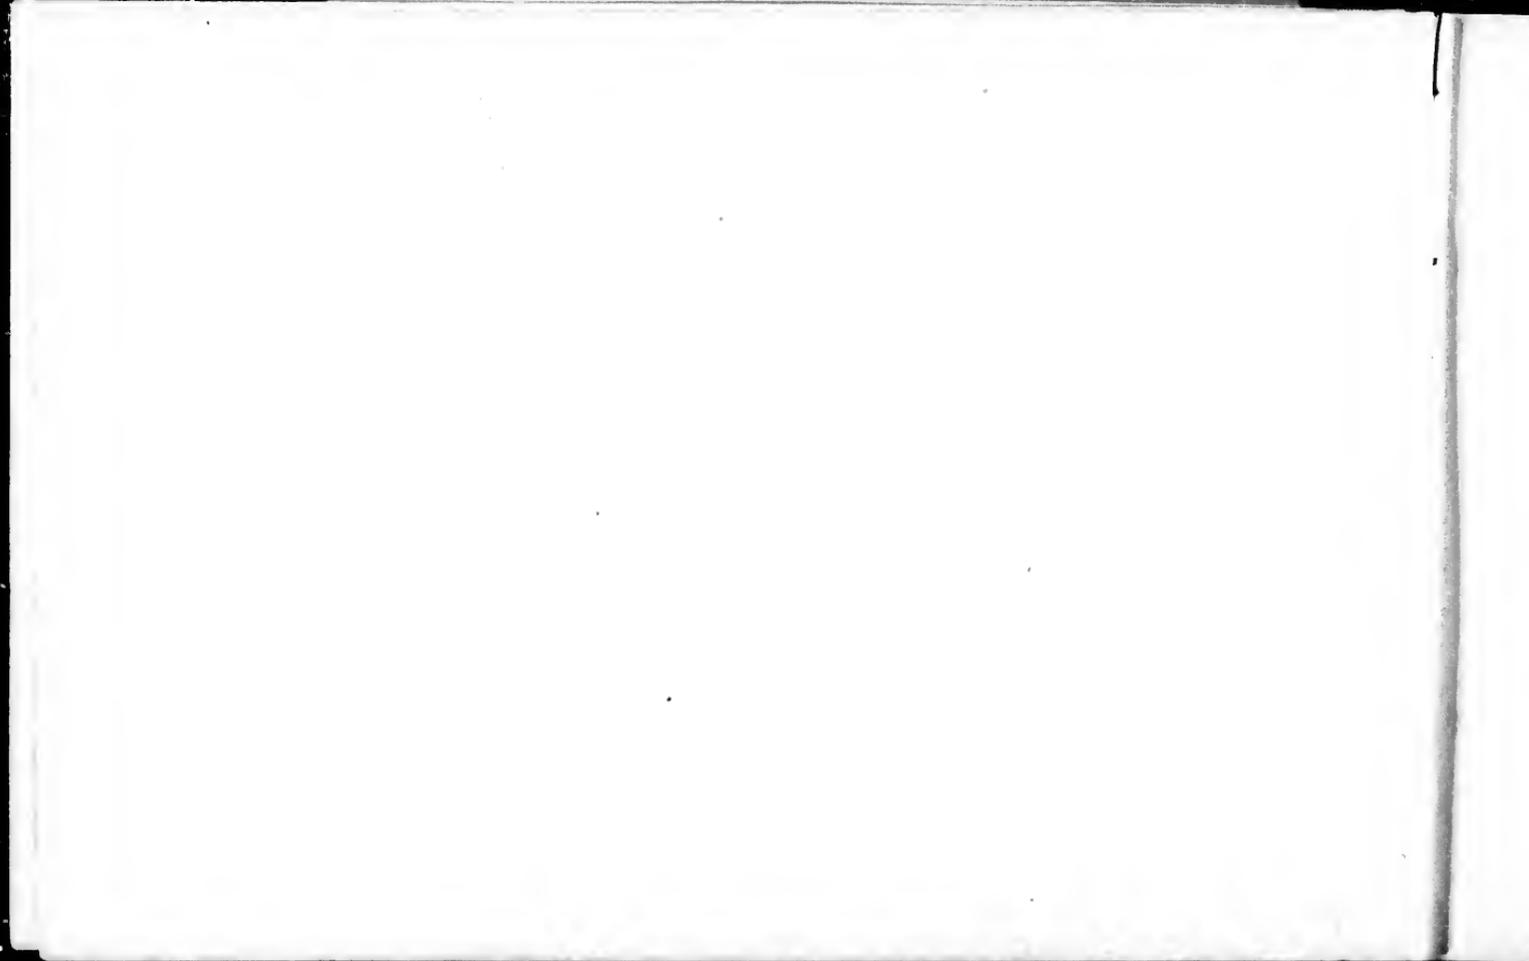

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. THE

Marked favour with which our former publications—the Sunday School Harp, the Sunday School Organ and the Sunday School Harmonium—have been received has induced us to publish THE

WAVE

OF SUNDAY SCHOOL SONG. It is admitted that the catalogue of music-books for Sunday schools is already very lengthy, yet a want has been felt, and a desire expressed, for a book that shall contain more than the proverbial half-dozen good tunes. Such a book we present, confident that as a Collection

OF SUNDAY SCHOOL SONG,

it has never been surpassed. It contains the newest and best productions of the principal writers of Sunday School Song on the Continent, selected by the Rev. J. A. WILLIAMS, D.D., whose experience in this department of work is well known. Neither time nor labour has been spared to render the WAVE worthy of public consideration and popular favour. The pieces are fresh, pure, attractive, and devotional, and will be found to meet the present wants of the Sunday schools of Canada.

Special attention is directed to the following pages: 2, 5, 10, 16, 20, 27, 28, 36, 44, 46, 48, 52, 54, 64, 66, 68, 70, 72, 80, 86, 95, 98, 102, 106, 111-118, 122, 124, 131, 133, 136, 144, 146, 150, 152, 164, 166-172, 177-180, 183, 186, 188, 191, 196-203.

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

THE NOTES.

How many different kinds of notes are there in general use?
Six, viz., the whole note, half note, quarter note, eighth note, sixteenth note, and thirty-second note.

What is the form of a Whole Note?

It is a round, open, or white note,

What is the form of a Half Note?

It is a round, open note, with a stem,

What is the form of a Quarter Note?

It is a black note, with a stem,

What is the form of an Eighth Note?

It is a black note, with a stem and hook,

What is the form of a Sixteenth Note?

It is a black note, with stem and two hooks,

What is the form of a Thirty-second Note?

A black note, with stem and three hooks,

NOTE BY THE AUTHOR.—It is thought unnecessary to occupy much space with Scales and Exercises, as those are usually written on the black board by the teacher, and each one can best adapt his examples to his own classes.

Repeat the table of the relative value of notes.

Whole note  = 2 = 4 = 8 = 16 = 32.

Half note  = 2 = 4 = 8 = 16.

Quarter note  = 2 = 4 = 8.

Eighth note  = 2 = 4.

Sixteenth note  = 2.

Thirty-second note

EXPLANATION.—One whole note equals two halves, four quarters, eight eighths, &c. One half note equals two quarters, four eighths, eight sixteenths, &c.

LETTERS, STAFF, CLEFS, &c.

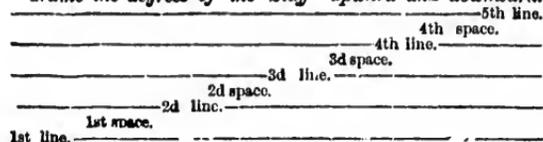

What letters are used in Music?

The first seven letters of the Alphabet, viz., A, B, C, D, E, F, G. The eighth, or octave, is a repetition of the first.

What is a Staff?

A Staff consists of five lines and four spaces, on which the notes are placed, and named regularly by degrees.

Name the degrees of the Staff—upward and downward.

How are the letters applied to the Staff?

By a Clef or Key, placed at the beginning.

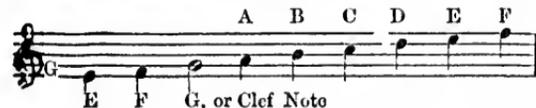

What Clefs are in general use?

The Treble, or G Clef, and the Bass, or F Clef.

On what line is the Treble Clef placed?

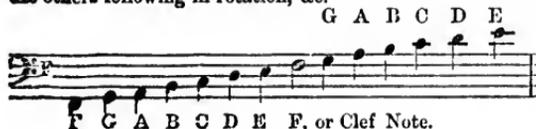

On the 2d line, thus giving the letter G to that line, the others following in rotation above and below.

Name the letters on the Staff, commencing with the Clef note.

On what line is the Bass Clef placed?

On the fourth line, thus giving the letter F to that line, the others following in rotation, &c.

Where are higher or lower notes written?

On added lines, and in the spaces between them, placed above and below the Staff.

Name the degrees thus produced above the Staff.

Name the degrees thus produced below the Staff.

These Scales should be thoroughly committed to memory, so that they can be repeated with equal facility, ascending, or descending, taking care always to name the line or space before naming the letter.

RESTS DOTS, &c.

What are Rests?

Marks indicating silence, corresponding with the different notes.

Describe them.

Whole rest	Half rest	Quarter rest.	Eighth rest.	Sixteenth rest.	Thirty-second rest.

Below the line.	Above the line.	Turned to the right.	Turned to the left.	With two heads.	With three heads.

What is the use of a Dot after a note or rest?

It adds one half to the length of it, consequently a whole note with a dot is equal to three halves, and a dotted half will be equal to three quarters, &c.

Repeat the table of dotted notes.

A dotted whole note,		• equals
A dotted half note,		• equals
A dotted quarter,		• equals
A dotted eighth,		• equals
A dotted sixteenth,		• equals

What is a Triplet?

Three notes sung in the time usually given to two of the same denomination.

How is it marked?

With a curved line and a figure 3 over the notes.

Ex.

What is the meaning of a figure 6 placed over six notes?
It signifies that the six are to be sung in the time of four notes of the same denomination.

TIME.

What are Bars?

Short lines drawn across the Staff to divide the music into equal parts. The music between two of these is also called a bar, or measure.

How many sorts of Time are there?

Two—Common time, and Triple time.

How are they distinguished?

If there is an even number of parts in a bar, it is common time—if an odd number, it is triple time.

Where is the time marked?

At the beginning of every piece of music.

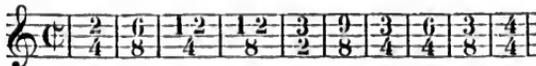

In what manner?

By figures placed in the form of a fraction, which refer to the whole note.

How do the figures refer to the whole note?

As a fraction refers to a whole number, viz., the lower figure, or denominator, shows into how many parts the whole note is divided, and the upper figure, or numerator, shows how many of those parts shall be in a measure.

Explain the following marks of time, showing which are common and which triple.

REMARK.—The C, at the commencement of the above example, signifies common time; expressing the value of a whole note, or four quarters in a bar.

Is it necessary to count the time exactly as marked by the figures?

No. Two quarters may be counted as four eighths—four quarters as eight eighths.

INTERVALS, SHARPS, FLATS, &c

What is an Interval?

The difference, or distance, between two sounds,

What is the smallest Interval?

A semitone, or half tone.

What is the use of the Sharp?

A sharp, placed before a note, raises it one semitone.

What is the use of a Flat?

A flat placed before a note, lowers it one semitone.

What is the use of a Natural? (♮)

It restores a note that has been raised by a sharp, or lowered by a flat, to its former position again.

What is the meaning of flats and sharps at the beginning of a piece of music?

They affect all notes of corresponding letters throughout the piece.

This sharp, being placed on the fifth line, signifies that all the F's are to be sung sharp. And these flats, being on the third line, and fourth space, signifies that all the B's and E's are to be sung flat.

What are accidental sharps, flats, or naturals?

Those occurring in the piece, but not marked at the beginning.

How long does the influence of an accidental last?

It affects all notes of the same letter in the measure.

Does an accidental ever affect notes in the next measure?

Yes. If the last note of one measure, which has been made sharp, begins the next, that also is sharp. The same is to be observed of flats and naturals.

SIGNATURE.

How do you determine what is the Key Note of a piece of music?

Principally by the Signature, or number of sharps, or flats, at the beginning.

What method have you of discovering the key note?

Every key note is a fifth higher for every additional sharp, and a fifth lower for every additional flat, commencing always with the key of C, which has neither sharp nor flat at the signature.

Name the order of keys with sharps.

The key of C has no sharp, G has one, D has two, A has three, E has four, B has five, F sharp has six, and C sharp has seven.

Name the order of keys with flats.

The key of C has no flat, F has one, B flat has two, E flat has three, A flat has four, D flat has five, G flat has six, and C flat has seven.

What letter is sharped in the key of G?

F.

What letters are sharped in the key of D?

F and C.

In the key of A?

F, C, and G.

In the key of E?

F, C, G, and D.

In the key of B?

F, C, G, D, and A.

In the key of F sharp?

F, C, G, D, A, and E.

In the key of C sharp?

F, C, G, D, A, E, and B.

What letter is flat in the key of F?

B.

What letters are flat in the key of B flat?

B and E.

In the key of E flat?

B, E, and A.

In the key of A flat?

B, E, A, and D.

In the key of D flat?

B, E, A, D, and G.

In the key of G flat?

B, E, A, D, G and C.

In the key of C flat?

B, E, A, D, G, C, and F.

MUSICAL SIGNS.

What is the use of double Bars?

They are placed in the middle, or at the end, of a piece of music, to show that a part, or the whole, is finished.

What is the use of Dots at a bar, or double bar?

They show that the part of music which is on the same side as the dots, is to be repeated.

What is the use of this sign? (♯)

It is used to designate the place from which the performer is to repeat. The second time it occurs, it is usually accompanied by the words, "Dal Segno," meaning "from the sign." The performer then returns to the first sign and repeats.

What is the meaning of Da Capo?

From the beginning.

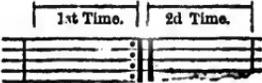

What is the meaning of Da Capo Al Segno?

From the beginning at the sign

Why are the words first and second time sometimes placed at the double bar in the middle of a movement?

Ex.

1st Time.	2d Time.
-----------	----------

The dots at the double bar show that the part is to be repeated, and the figures denote that the performer, in singing it through the second time, is to omit the bar marked one, and sing that marked two instead.

What are Tied Notes?

When two notes on the same line, or space, are joined by a curved line, over or under them, the first only is sung, and allowed the full time of both.

What is the use of a Double Sharp?

A double sharp (x) raises a note two semitones.

What is the use of Double Flat?

A double flat (bb) lowers a note two semitones.

How is a single sharp or flat replaced, after a double one?

By a natural and sharp, or a natural and flat.

What is singing Legato?

Singing smoothly, and blending one note with the next; it is indicated by a curved line under or over the notes.

What is singing Staccato?

Separating the notes, and singing the notes short and distinct from each other; it is indicated by dots, or pointed specks, placed over the notes.

What is the use of a Pause? (∩)

A pause over a note, or rest, indicates that the performer may hold, or pause, as long as he thinks proper.

Why is a pause sometimes placed over a double bar?

A pause, or the word Fine, signifies that the piece is to end there, after a Da Capo.

What is the meaning of the word Bis?

Twice—that is—the passage over which it is placed, is to be repeated.

As one dot after a note increases its length one half, what is the effect of a second dot?

The second dot is equal to half the first; consequently, a quarter note with two dots, is equal to a quarter, eighth, and sixteenth.

In what manner is a WHOLE BAR REST marked?

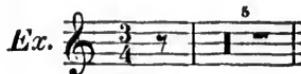

The same as a WHOLE NOTE REST, be the value of the bar what it may.

How are Rests for more than one bar marked?

For two bars rest, it is made from one line to the next; for four bars, one line to the next but one. Sometimes a figure expressing the number of bars is placed over the sign of the rest, and when the number of bars rest is large, figures only are used.

How do you count several bars Rest?

By naming the number, instead of the word ONE, at the first of each bar.

These five bars rest should be counted

| 1, 2, 3, | 2, 2, 3, | 3, 2, 3, | 4, 2, 3, | 5, 2, 3, |
instead of always one, two, three.

Explain the difference between Melody and Harmony.

Melody is a succession of sounds. Harmony is a combination of sounds.

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

INTERVALS.

What is a Tone?

Two semitones—thus, the interval from G to G sharp is a semitone, and from G sharp to A is a semitone—consequently, the interval from G to A is a whole tone.

What is a Minor, or lesser third?

It consists of three semitones from the note named.

What is a Major, or greater third?

It consists of four semitones from the note named.

How many semitones has a fourth?

Five semitones from the note named.

How many semitones has a perfect fifth?

Seven.

It will be observed that all intervals are reckoned upwards from the note named, unless the contrary is expressed.

DIATONIC SCALE.

*Pronounce the a as in ear.

CHROMATIC SCALE.

EXPLANATION.—When naming the chromatic intervals by numerals, say—sharp one, sharp two, flat six, flat seven, &c. ; but, when naming them by letters, C sharp, B flat &c.

NOTE.—The author thinks the European system of not changing the vowel sounds in the chromatic scale, preferable to the practice so much in vogue, as many bad habits arise that require much after-practice and instruction to eradicate. Those who choose, however, can still use the old plan by simply changing the vowel sound of the syllable in ascending to E, whenever a sharp occurs—and to A in descending, whenever a flat is used.

We will give the welcome hand ;
Come with us, our Prince is calling,
Come and join our happy band ;
We have Jesus for our Captain,
He will keep us from all harm,
Where He leads us we will follow,
Trusting in His saving arm.

3 He will give us peace and pardon ;
He will name us as His own ;
He will crown us with His glory ;
He will guide us to the throne ;
Never let us faint or falter,
Never weary, never wait ;
Onward, onward, God is with us,
Onward to the golden gate.

JESUS ONCE A LITTLE CHILD. (Primary Class.)

1 My Saviour, Thou who once on earth Did'st live a little child like me, Oh, watch Thou over all my life, And ever guard me tenderly.
 2 Keep Thou my feet from paths of sin, Thro' all the day beside me be, And thro the shadows of the night—For thou wert once a child like me

3 Forgive, O Lord, when I forget,
 And may my love for Thee endure,

 My life what Thou would'st have it be,
 My Saviour, Thou who once on earth
 Wert just a little child like me.

3 Oh, matchless hope that buoys me up,
Through life's dark, gloomy halls
Whose footsteps have yon river crossed,
Where mortal never falls;
Of golden sands the unseen shore
On which ye waiting stand,
And beckon me forever more,
With gentle waving hand.

4 Our vision may not pierce the gloom,
That darkens o'er the tide,
And hides from view the roses' bloom,
Upon the shining side;
But there's a bliss we often catch,
In fragrance from the gale,
Which seems its sweetness to have caught
From flowers beyond the veil.

5 We mourn not for the long by-gones,
That died in mortal strife,
But rather rend these dusty bands,
Which chain the crystal life;
While hope beams brighter on the strand,
And shadows lengthen fast,
As nearer to her waving hand,
Each day our anchor cast.

QUIET AS A PEACEFUL RIVER.

31

WILLIAM W. BENTLEY.

With feeling.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of staves. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line.

1 Qui-et as a peace-ful riv-er, Qui-et as the wind-hush'd sea; In Je-ho-vah trust-ing ev-er, We are kept in per-fect peace. We'll not ask Thee what Thou do-eth, What-so-
 -e'er it be 'tis right; Thou, the friend of friends the trust, Will sus-tain midst storm and night.

2 Deep beneath the waving ocean,
 Deep beneath the howling flood,
 All unmoved by the commotion,
 Lie the promises of God.
 We are anchored firmly to them,
 Though in tatters hang our shroud;
 Calmly we look up and thro' them,
 View the thunder-riven cloud.

3 This our constant hearts consoleth,
 And we will not be afraid,
 'Tis our heavenly Father ruleth,
 And on Him our trust is stayed.
 Quiet as a peaceful river,
 Quiet as the wind-hushed sea;
 In Jehovah trusting ever,
 We are kept in perfect peace.

BLESS US CHILDREN NOW.

(ANNIVERSARY HYMN.)

WM. W. BENTLEY

Duet.

1 Dear Saviour, from Thy throne above, Where countless children bow, Oh, let Thy lov-ing eye behold And bless us chil-dren now.

Chorus.

Our hearts in tune-ful numbers wake, Our tongues with rapture sing, All glo-ry, honour, praise to Thee, Redeemer, Lord and King!

2 Thy mercy led us through the year
That sweetly passed away,
And through Thy grace we gather now
To hail our festive day.

3 Oh, may we learn in early youth
Thy holy Word to prize,
The lamp that guides our feet to heaven,
Our home beyond the skies.

4 Oh, happy thought, if faithful here,
We work and watch and pray,
We'll spend with Thee in heaven at last
An endless happy day.

Chorus.

Gen-tiles to His era-die bring. Blest star of hope, with beams so bright, Oh, come and fill our souls with light;

And shed on us the heal-ing ray That takes our ev-'ry stain a-way.

2 Behold the long-predicted sign,
The star of Jacob's anoint' line:
The Eastern sages hail its rays,
And raptured stand in anxious gaze.

3 Without, the star informs their sight:
Within, there shines faith's brighter light,
Which gently summons them to rise,
And trust the guidance of the skies.

4 When God commands, the wise obey;
Love sees no danger in the way:
House, neighbours, friends, their steps recall;
The voice of God outweighs them all.

5 Oh, while the star of heavenly grace
Invites us, Lord, to seek Thy face,
Let not our hearts from sloth refuse
The guidance of that light to use.

WE SHALL KNOW EACH OTHER THERE. (Concluded.)

2 When we meet the loved and lost ones,
Those we parted from in tears,
When we meet where life glides onward
Undisturbed by hopes and fears,
Where the songs of joy are never
Hushed by hours of pain and care,
Where friends meet no more to sever,
We shall know each other there.

3 Where love, like a mighty river,
Fills each soul with pure delight,
Where no flower shall droop and wither
In the gloom of death's dark night;
When for us life's days are ended,
Clothed in forms supremely fair,
We shall meet and rest forever,
And shall know each other there.

REMEMBER ME.

Devotional.

D. C. for Chorus. Fine.

I Oh, wondrous story of the Lord, It thrills our hearts with love, That Jesus came to rescue man, And left His throne above.

D. C.—Then help me, Saviour, Thee to own, And ever faithful be, And when Thou sittest on Thy throne, Dear Lord re-member me.

2 The angels sang and men rejoiced
In hope of endless bliss,
And hailed the star of righteousness,
The pledge of love and peace,

3 It shines to-day to guide us on Through earthly storms to Him,
The pole star of the sinners' bark,
Whose light is never dim.

I WILL GO AND BE FORGIVEN.

W. H. DOANE.

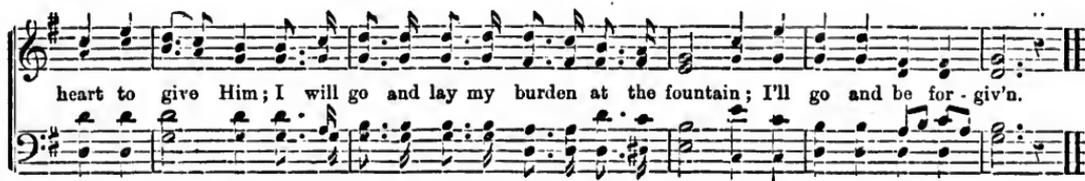

I I will go and tell my Savionr How I long His child to be; At the cross I'll seek and find Him!

Chorus.

He's waiting there for me. I will carry all my sins to Je - sus, Tho' I've nothing but my heart to give Him; I will go and lay my burden at the fountain; I'll go and be for - giv'n.

2 I will tell Him I have wandered
From the path that leads to heaven;
With a contrite, broken spirit,
I'll go and be forgiven.

3 If my heart is truly humble,
He will not reject my prayer;
On the cross He died for sinners;
I'll lay my burden there.

4 I will tell Him all my story,
With His mercy all my plea
At the cross I'll seek and find Him;
He's waiting there for me.

I LONG TO CROSS OVER.

W. H. DOANE.

1 Oh, have you not heard of that realm of delight, To which our blest Saviour doth each one in-vite;
 2 'Tis a land of rare beauty—a realm of delight, O'er-flowing with gladness, re-ful-geant with light;

'Tis prepar'd for the good and the pure and the blest, 'Tis o-ver the riv-er where the wea-ry find rest.
 Its ver-dure ne'er withers, its flowers ne'er die, Oh, I long to cross o-ver with Je-sus on high.

3 There the weary may rest, and the wicked ne'er come ;
 There the saints are all safe in their heavenly home.
 With their harps and their crowns they forever are seen,
 Away o'er the river where the valleys are green.

4 'Tis Jesus invites me this glory to see,
 To reign with Him ever, all happy and free ;
 I'll join with the ransomed and with them abide,
 I'll cross the dark river—bright angels will guide.

2 The Gospel bells invite us
To a feast prepar'd for all;
Do not slight the invitation,
Nor reject the gracious call.
"I am the bread of life;
Eat of me, thou hungry soul,
Though your sins be red as crimson.
They shall be as white as wool.

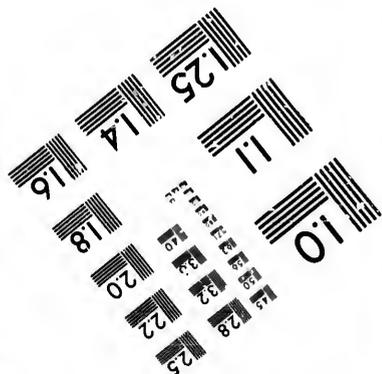

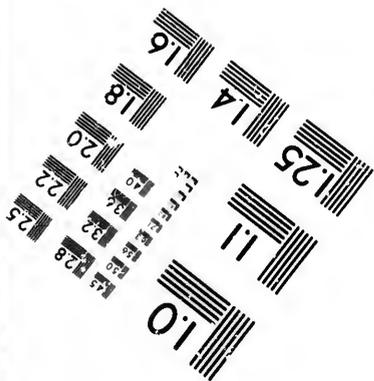

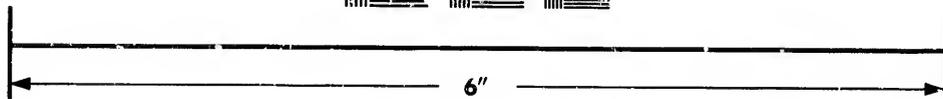

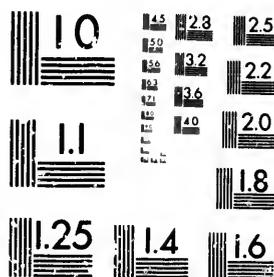

3 The Gospel bells give warning,
As they sound from day to day,
Of the fate which doth await them
Who forever will delay.
"Escape ye, for thy life:
Tarry not in all the plain,
Nor behind thee look, oh, never,
Lest thou be consumed in pain."

4 The Gospel bells are joyful,
As they echo far and wide,
Bearing notes of perfect pardon,
Thro' a Saviour crucified.
"Good tidings of great joy
To all people do I bring,
Unto you is born a Saviour,
Which is Christ the Lord" and King.

All the angels sing—Hallelujah!
And the glory shines around;
To every creature you may now proclaim
A free salvation in the Saviour's name.

DON'T BE IDLE.

C. T. DONDORE.

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are as follows:

1 Don't be i - dle, don't be i - dle, There is something all can do ; All should have some oc - cu - pa - tion, All come ear - nest work to do. Don't be i - dle, don't be i - dle, In this world of sin and woe, Where we find so much of e - vil, Ev - erywhere we're call'd to go.

2 Don't be idle, I can't be idle,
 When a brother needs thy care ;
 Labour hard, Oh, work in earnest,
 Save him from a fatal snare.
 Don't be idle, don't be idle,
 Work, the cheated soul to win,
 From the downward road to ruin,
 From the thorny path of sin.

3 Don't be idle, don't be idle,
 When you hear the orphan's cry ;
 Cheer the lonely one in sadness,
 Deeds of kindness never die.
 Don't be idle, don't be idle,
 Use each talent God has given,
 To help each other on the way
 To the pearly gates of heaven.

4 Don't be idle, Jesus calls you,
 In His vineyard work to-day ;
 Life is given us for labour,
 Rest we'll gain in endless day.
 Don't be idle, life is fleeting,
 Soon our day on earth is o'er,
 May we hear the Saviour's "well done,"
 Over on the other shore.

Moderato.

Chorus.

glad-ly meet us here, In our cheer-ful Sab-bath home. We will sing to-geth-er, for our arts are gay.

As the bird when soaring on its wings a-war; Little lambs of Jesus, happy we will be. In our cheerful Sabbath home.

2 Jesus watches o'er us, with a Shepherd's care,
In our cheerful Sabbath home;
He will kindly listen to our simple prayer,
In our cheerful Sabbath home.

Here Thy tender mercy, Oh, 'tis sweet to tell,
In our cheerful Sabbath home.

J. W. B.

1 My Fa-ther, I would be Thy child; I know I'm sin-ful, wayward, wild; To Thee I would be reconcil-ed; Oh, make me Thine.

Chorus.

The nar-row way I fain would tread, And by Thy gen-tle hand be led, With heav'nly manna dai-ly fed — Oh, make me Thine.

2 With patience I the race would run,
Not looking back when once begun,
Seeking salvation thro' Thy Son;
Oh, make me Thine.

3 Make me to love Thee more and more,
Thy Holy Spirit on me pour,
Grant me of grace a plenteous store;
Oh, make me Thine.

4 When death's cold hand on me is laid,
My God, let me not feel afraid;
Be with me, for I've often prayed,
Let me be Thine.

 My light, my joy, my everything;
 Let saints and men His praise resound.

STORM THE FORT.

111

J. H. F.

One of our returned missionaries thinks that the soldiers of Christ should be employed in storming instead of holding the Fort, and sends the following as a substitute for "HOLD THE FORT." He says, "If I read Jesus' signals aright, there are no times for lurking behind stone-walls, but for storming them. The fort is not ours to hold, but the Devil's (John 14. 30; 12. 31; 16. 11). Holding fort is his work."—Watchman, Boston.

Boldly.

1 Ho! my com-rades, see the sig-nal Je-sus wa-res on high! Sa-tan's bat-tlements are reel-ing,
2 See! the lof-ty walls are frowning, Held by Satan's pow'r; Sin enshrowds the world in darkness,

Chorus.

Hear our Captain's cry; Storm the fort! for I am lead-ing, I have shown you how;
Now's the storming hour.

3 See! the prophets now are showing
How the fort must fall;
There is no such thing as failing,
Shout, my comrades, all!
Shout the an-swer back to hea-ven—We are rea-dy—now!
4 Fierce and long the siege has lasted,
But the end is near;
Onward leads our great Commander,
Cheer! my comrades, cheer!

ETERNITY !

113

1 Oh, the clanging bells of Time ! Night and day they never cease ; We are wearied with their chime, For they do not bring us peace ;

And we hush our breath to hear, And we strain our eyes to see, If thy shores are drawing near, — E - ter - ni - ty ! E - ter - ni - ty !

2 Oh, the clanging bells of Time !
How their changes rise and fall ;
But in undertone sublime,
Sounding clearly thro' them all,
Is a voice that must be heard,
As our moments onward flee ;
And it speaketh aye one word,
Eternity ! Eternity !

3 Oh, the clanging bells of Time !
To their voices, loud and low,
In a long, unresting line
We are marching to and fro ;

And we yearn for sight or sound,
Of the life that is to be,
For thy breath doth wrap us round,
Eternity ! Eternity !

4 Oh, the clanging bells of Time !
Soon their notes will all be dumb,
And in joy and peace sublime
We shall feel the silence come !
And our souls their thirst will slake,
And our eyes the King will see,
When thy glorious morn shall break, —
Eternity ! Eternity !

Never from your purpose bend;

Whether earthly gain or loss,

Let us rally day by day;
While we fight, both watch and pray;

 Bids Satan and his host depart;

Keeping watch with sleepless brow,
From the battle, long and fearful,
Watching brave, what seest thou?
Sounds of war, with horrid clatter,
Drums are beating loud and clear;
O'er the battle's din the bugle
Of our army plain I hear.

3 Watchman on the walls of Zion,
Keeping watch with sleepless brow,
What report now of the battle,
To our longing, givest thou?
Victory has crowned our army,
See the foe retreating fast;
Yes our army is victorious,
Victory is gained at last,

Chorus.

Hear us, lov-ing Saviour, Hear us now, we pray, Let Thy Ho - ly Spi - rit Dwell with us to - day.

The chorus is written in the same key and time signature as the first part. It features a similar melodic style with a simple accompaniment in the bass staff.

2 Though Thou art so holy,
Heav'n's almighty King,
Thou wilt stoop to listen,
When Thy praise we sing.

Weak, and often stray,
Saviour, guide and keep us

2 Of the good and chosen men of God
In this blest book we read,—
All those who truly served the Lord
In every word and deed;
They are bright examples for us here—
Those saints in heaven above;
Their perfect faith, their reverent fear,
And humble, fervent love.

3 There is comfort for the mourner here,
In words of love and peace;
And songs of praise the heart to cheer,
When pain and sorrow cease;
But the sweetest story, and the best,
That in this book is given,
Is where we learn of Jesus Christ,
Our hope on earth and heaven.

The grave where hopes lie buried
Lies screened from listless eye.

His resurrection power
Shall morning give for night.

Then join we in praise to our Maker, And prayerful-ly ask of Him: May the wreaths they have won never wither,
A world offers homage to thee. Thy mandates make heroes assemble, When liberty's form stands in view.

Waiting, waiting; wait-ing, on - ly waiting; wait-ing, waiting: Till the au-gel's call.

2 Only waiting till the reapers
Have the last sheaf gathered home;
For the summer time is faded,
And the Autumn winds have come:
Quickly, reapers, quickly gather
The last ripe hours of my heat;
Nor the bloom of life is withered,
And I hasten to depart.

3 Only waiting till the angels
Open wide the mystic gate,
At whose feet I long have lingered,
Weary, poor, and desolate:
Even now I hear the footsteps,
And their voices far away;
If they call me I am waiting;—
Only waiting to obey.

D. S. for Chorus.

One more hymn of grateful praise; While our purest thoughts and feelings Mingle with the notes we raise.

2 Be the measure sweetly tender;
Sing of mercy pure and free;
Sing of Jesus, precious Saviour—
Him who died for you and me;
Sing how great His loving kindness
To His children day by day,—
How with gentle hand He leads them
All along the shining way.

3 Let us look by faith to Jesus,
Lowly bending at His feet:
Humbly ask His love to guide us,
When we leave this dear retreat;
Father, grant us now Thy blessing;
Saviour, make us ever Thine;
Holy Spirit, be our comfort:
Fill our hearts with love divine.

PORTUGUESE. (CLOSING HYMN.)

1 We thank Thee, our Father, for all we have heard, For ev - 'ry sweet promise contain'd in Thy Word ;

And Oh, with Thy Spi - rit to com - fort and cheer, How oft we have felt "It is good to be here," How oft we have felt "It is good to be here!"

2 Dismiss us, Oh Lord, with Thy bless - ing, we pray ;
 From thoughts that are sinful, Oh
 keep us this day ;
 Now cover us all with the shade of
 Thy wing,
 ¶ While still in Thy presence this chorus we sing. ‡
