QUEEN'S DOWNED

Montreal, Nov. 22.—The Montreal football team yesterday afternoon on the M.A.A.A. grounds defeated the well-known Queen's College, Kingston, aggregation of rugby football players by a score of 8 points to 1. Saturday was a day for the team as the grounds were an inch deep with snow, so that accurate passing or really good football was out of the question. Nevertheless, the match was a most interesting one, and some really good football was seen. The Montreal back division did not attempt to play any real game, and was merely every man for himself. Savage was half the time in scrimmage, and McDougall evidently did not wish to meet Molson, for he never passed or worked with him, but combined with Hamilton. Queen's combination was slightly stronger than Montreal's, but of the forwards there was little to choose between either side. George, James and Eddie O'Brien, however, were well worthy of special mention for their settling the play particularly James. He has never played such a game as this in his life as he did Saturday. Queen has a star full-back in Wilson. He missed nothing that came in his way, and was always cool and collected. Dalton, the veteran quarter-back, was in fine fettle, picking the ball out of scrimmage and the side several free kicks. Scott and Elliott, on Queen's half-back division, played faultlessly. On account of the nature of the day, and the match only being an exhibition one to three or four hours without taking time for the touches, there was in order, there were about 70 people on the stand when the teams lined up as follows:

RAINFALL IN INDIA.
The disastrous drought has been broken in some districts.

London, Nov. 21.—The Earl of Elgin, Viceroy of India, telegraphs from Calcutta that a fair rain has fallen along the coast of the Madras presidency up to Manipal, which is located at about the centre of the coast of the Bombay presidency as far south as Bhatnagar, which is 100 miles from Bombay. The despatch adds that the price of grain is still rising, and that the people are employed on the relief works that have been started by the Government. The despatch also states that the price of grain in the Deccan, which is the greatest territory lying between the Madras and Bombay presidencies, has been checked by a good fall of rain, which has caused a rapid decline in the price of grain in that district, information to which effect was contained in a despatch from Bombay received this morning.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF YORK

Woodbridge Makes an Unsuccessful Effort to Obtain a High School Grant—Adjourned Till Friday.

At the County Council on Saturday a matter came up which has been discussed throughout the Province in reference to higher education. The question arose in connection with the amendment of a grant to the Woodbridge Public School. Under a clause introduced at the last session of the Legislature, into the Public School Act, it is provided that where no High School exists within the limits of a municipality, what is known as a "continuation class" may be formed for pupils who have completed the Public school course, and the Public School Board must provide the necessary accommodation and engage a teacher, with at least the qualifications of a High School assistant, and the course of study will be the same as that of the High School. The grant from the Legislature is $2000 per annum, and the continuation class the pupils paid, fees of $20 a year, and Woodbridge contributes with other municipalities in the county.

MEN AND THINGS.

The window in the library of the Education Department recently put in place is well worthy of examination, and is interesting to students of heraldry. It is composed of three circular spaces, one above the other, each containing appropriate devices. The ground-work of the window, which is of a light shade, is studded with fleur-de-lis, while the conventional rose of England appears between each of the large divisions of the window. The upper space contains the arms of the Province of Ontario, the shield executed with the ornamental diaper work so often seen upon retained glass in the medium used to represent the arms of heraldry. The arms of the province are surrounded by a wreath of laurel, and from the shield flows a ribbon designating the Department of Education.

The central space contains a very spirited reproduction of the royal arms, with supporters, garter, and motto. In the circle below this, and surrounded by a wreath of palm, are the arms used by the department prior to Confederation, and, indeed, up to 1871. It was an adaptation of the device stamped upon the old copper coins of the Bank of Upper Canada. This represents the two cornucopias of plenty, above which are an ax and anchor, bonded together by the cables, surmounted by the Imperial crown. Above the shield is the Canadian beaver standing upon a mural crown. In the centre of the whole, like a shield of protection, is the first Union or the Jack of the Union, which bears the national ensign in 1803.

The reason this is used is that the first Parliament of Upper Canada met under the act of 1791, so that the first Union Jack here represented was the one which was then known and used. It differs from the second, or present, Union, in not having the red saltire of St. Patrick. The first flag signified the union of England and Scotland, and showed the red cross of St. George, with white border, and the silver saltire of St. Andrew upon the blue ground. It did not until 1801 that the Union Jack as we know it came into existence, the alteration being made when Ireland entered the Union.

The whole window is surrounded by a wide border of turned maple leaves, and their beautiful early autumn tints, and above all is the lamp of learning, with significant motto, "Doceo Disceamus." The work was done by McCauland & Sons, Toronto.

Mr. St. John Gaffney, who is now indignantly denying that he met Mr. Jones at the Chicago railway station, is one of the Irishmen, caught by the net which has grown up with an unreasoning and usually biased phrenic rancor against England. He was compelled when crossing the Atlantic last summer under the British flag to apologize in the smoking room of an ocean liner for insulting the Englishmen on board. His fate is a just one, and he is not to be pardoned when America lost to England.

The proposal to have an insolvency law temporarily passed in meeting with support in Toronto. Messrs. Ouler and Clarke are both business men, and know how beneficial its operation would be. Will not one or other of them come out in favor of it publicly, and help its passage in Ottawa?

Some years ago a vessel of the American navy fell foul of a coal barge near Nantucket and sank of second best. The Texas has just sunk at her dock, and the rush of water proved that her bulkheads were so weak that she was badly injured. Recently, too, the Indiana was at sea, and undertook to fire some shot at a target. The result was that she hit her own deck and bulkheads and came into port, victorious, it is true, but somewhat injured near her figurehead.

Mr. Tarte is discovering that the French-Canadian is being swamped in the Northwest. It is not only there, but even in the Court of Queen's Bench in Montreal, that some of the Frenchmen will be submerged next term.

The Anglican Church in the Diocese of Toronto contemplates at an early day a new Bishop of Peterboro'. The present diocese is very large, and it is impossible for any one man to give it efficient episcopal supervision. The best and oldest parishes, as well as the most important of the diocese, are in the west.

On Saturday C. Russell Fitch, the Stouffville barrister, was tried before Judge McLaughlin on a charge of perjury, alleged to have been committed, as already reported, on an examination for discovery in an action brought by him against the proprietor of the Stouffville Tribune. Mr. Fitch had been examined in reference to a number of Division Court judgments recorded against him, which it was alleged were untrue, and some of his answers constituted the alleged perjury. Mr. H. Dewar, the County Crown Attorney, conducted the prosecution, and Mr. A. Moore Grier defended. A large number of witnesses attended from Paris, Woodstock, etc. The judgments in question were rendered about 1880. Several of the parties concerned had since died. Some had no personal knowledge of the recovery of judgment, others believed their claims had been settled. In the case of George Simpson Co. the claim being as to about $800 on a note endorsed by Fitch, and as to the balance for a grocery account. Fitch had provided bill heads to the amount of $20 or $25 for him, but except as to this amount judgment had not been satisfied. Owing to the absence of witnesses, the trial was adjourned until Dec. 1.

How many days

(working days, Union labor days,) do you suppose it would take a woman to count the packages of Pearl-line (the wash) soap yearly. Here it is, all figured out for you. 1,388 8/9 days, about four poor plodding women who are trying to get along with the old-fashioned ways of washing, stop and think what all that Pearl-line (the wash) soap means. Don't you suppose most of these millions of women who use it are just as careful and particular as you are? And if Pearl-line were not what we say it is, or if anything could be urged against it, would women be using it in any such way? Peddlers and some unscrupulous persons will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearl-line. FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearl-line, honest—send it back.

How Five Elephants Embarked on the Steamer at Chicago—The Gangway Was Too Narrow.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A group of comely elephants made up the cargo which was shipped for Milwaukee yesterday morning on the steamer City of Frontenac of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence route. It is seldom that such a consignment of freight ships on the lake boats, and the stevedores do not handle to the poetry such a shipment as this. The elephants were on the life on the rolling wave to tackle the crew of the boat. One of the elephants was killed on the deck. The captain of the steamer was inclined to be lenient to the animals, but the stevedores were not so easily disposed. The elephants were not to be taken on the boat. How a Pittsburgh Bargain's Elite Into a Panshop, Pie Cost Him His Liberty.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 21.—About 2 o'clock last Sunday morning Police Surgeon Dr. R. L. Taylor of No. 1209 Wylie-avenue was awakened by a colored man peering into his room from behind the door. He sprang from his bed and saw the colored man, who was holding a pistol. The man was caught by his teeth. The man was caught by his teeth. The man was caught by his teeth.

The following letter to the Kincaidina refers to the young woman named in the charge of stealing from Fred Mosquito. She was engaged to my brother, late Angus Matheson, in absolutely false. There is nothing of truth in it. She later was more to him than any other girl, and when the story was published she was grieved to him; she has no knowledge of the matter, and her misfortune are not the result of his death. I had no part in it, and I have no shadow of attention, but as it has been reported in the press, I am sorry to hear of it. "Ripley, Nov. 22, 1896."

The School Question. From The Quebec Mercury. The Toronto world being an honorarium in Quebec, but the fall in asserting that the school question was not settled by the school board. Some of them are in custody over the idea that Archbishop Langevin and the Quebec bishops may raise a holy war against the terms, others of them consistently and persistently misrepresent Mr. Laurier's attitude in Quebec, but the fall in asserting that Mr. Sturton sold himself to the school board. That such charges should be made is a degradation to Canadian politics, and it should be made manifest to all that it is a degradation to those who make the charge.

JUMPED THE FERRY GATE

A Toronto Man Named Gleason Had a Thrilling Ride Behind a Horse.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 21.—A runaway, which came nearly being attended with fatal results, occurred on Ouellette-avenue yesterday afternoon. A man named Gleason from Toronto secured a horse and rig from Ferris' livery. He had a lady with him, and the two started to drive south on Ouellette-avenue. A liberal application of the whip on some other cause frightened the horse, and it began running away. The driver succeeded in getting the animal under control, and when near Hotel Dieu turned around, the lady and Gleason were riding on the horse. The horse began running, and the lady and Gleason were riding on the horse. The horse began running, and the lady and Gleason were riding on the horse.

Fifty Years Ago.

President Polk in the White House chair, while Lowell was Doctor Ayer; Both were busy for human weal. One to govern and one to heal. And, as a president's power of writ sometimes depends on a liver-pill, Mr. Polk took Ayer's Pills for his liver, 50 years ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

were designed to supply a model purgative to people who had so long injured themselves with griping medicines. Being carefully prepared and their ingredients adjusted to the exact necessities of the bowels and liver, their popularity was instantaneous. That this popularity has been maintained is well marked in the medal awarded these pills at the World's Fair 1893. 50 Years of Cures.
