CONCENTRATE ON MAINTENANCE MEN

Shopmen Have Not Seriously Affected Railroads

Reports That Some of the Strikers Have Already Returned to Their Work—Gompers Denounces Board for Outlawing Shopmen.

(Canadian Press.)

Chicago, July 4.—Striking railway shopmen called "scabs" by the U. S. railroad labor board, whose summons to a mediatory conference was defied by shopmen's officials on last Friday, today entered upon the fourth day of their walkout in protest against wage reductions and decisions by the board with the actual number of men who responded to the strike call still in doubt and no reports of serious effect on transportation.

As a result of their walkout the shopmen are beyond the pale of the labor board, whose members announced that the strikers would receive no official recognition of the government agency as arbiters of railway controversies.

Having washed its hands of the shopmen's strike and left the blame on B. M. Jewell, shopkeepers' executive, as chairman Hoover asserted, the labor board today centred its energies on a conference with officials of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees in an effort to avert a walkout of railway maintenance men, whose leaders consented to mediation before following the shopmen out.

The labor board declared that men taking the place of strikers would be considered officially as the employees of the roads in all future matters before the board.

Strikers Return.

Reports from various rail centres said strikers were returning to work. Boston and Maine Railway officials reported that 200 strikers had returned, and that others had applied for their old jobs. Union officials denied the statements.

Governor Allen of Kansas cautioned authorities to protect men who desired to work in railroad shops. Informed by Sheriff of Harvey county that only peaceful picketing was being done, Governor Allen remarked: "There is no such thing as peaceful picketing in Kansas."

Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L., denounced the railroad labor board for "outlawing" the striking shopmen, and Wm. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, declared that the board's action would in no way affect the position of the unions.

More to Strike.

New York, July 4.—Union officials insisted today that hundreds of other industrial workers employed by railroads would join in the strike against wage reductions handed down by the railroad labor board. They declared that many others, clerks, freight handlers and general workmen had joined the strikers' ranks.

Railroad officials, denying that the walkout had hampered the operation of trains, declared the ranks of the strikers were being rapidly filled by experienced men who had been laid off during the depression. They said the strikers were said to be reporting for work.

There was little trouble reported, the union officials instructing their followers to avoid violence.

Some Stone Throwing.

In New Jersey, a squad of twenty-five men who had reported striking railroad workers were stoned by a crowd, and five of the men refused to continue working.

Members of the railroad clerks' union in New York were instructed by their national officers to continue on their "routine jobs" and not be stampeded into a sympathetic strike until the result of the strike balloting, now taking place, was ascertained.

Both sides of the controversy were preparing today for a drive expected to show the strength of both unions and railroads, which will begin tomorrow when the holiday is over.

Cleveland, July 4.—A strike to trackmen on the Mahoning division of the Erie Railroad was threatened today by Charles Murray, grand lodge representative of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and railway shop laborers, unless the railroad reinstated an employee who was discharged yesterday. Murray said the man lost his job because he refused to put out fires and coal locomotives, work formerly done by men on strike. It was said that between 300 and 400 men are employed on the division, which extends from here to Newcastle, Pa.

Big Four officials denied reports of union officials that maintenance of way employees had gone on strike at that railroad between Cleveland and Galion.

Counsel For Paris Seeks Postponement of Trial Two Months

G. H. VERNON SAYS RECENT DEVELOPMENTS MAY BE IN THE INTEREST OF PRISONER

Was to Present Affidavits This Afternoon—Judge Comments on Absence of More Than Half of Jury Panel—Commencement of Fourth Trial.

(Canadian Press.)

He said that he had received many letters and had been considerably bothered by interviews within the last few weeks, during which he had been asked to excuse men summoned for jury service. He said it was not within his power to excuse anybody and there was no use appealing to him, unless the appeal was presented in court and supported by an affidavit and sworn testimony.

Mr. Vernon here advised the judge that he intended to apply for a postponement of two months, as within the last few days something had turned up which might be in the interests of the prisoner.

His Honor remarked that in two months he would not be here and he had been granted leave of absence dating from the end of August. "I might get another judge to sit," he said, "but perhaps this would be as difficult as getting a jury."

The attorney general said that the additional jurors could not be summoned before Friday morning and the judge therefore allowed those jurors who had attended to go until 10 a. m. on that day. Should Mr. Vernon's application for a postponement be granted, they would then not be required until the date set.

At the request of Mr. Vernon, Judge Chandler then adjourned the court until this afternoon at 3 o'clock and remanded the prisoner until that hour, warning the sheriff to have Paris present for the hearing of the application for postponement.

Giving notice of his intention to ask for a postponement of two months, G. H. Vernon, counsel for John Paris who was today placed on trial for the fourth time, charged with the murder of Stanley McAuley, nearly a year ago, said that circumstances had arisen within the last few days which might materially affect his client's case. The hearing was therefore adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon to permit Mr. Vernon to present affidavits in support of his application.

Many Absentees.

Mr. Justice Chandler, who presided, commented on the long list of absentees among the men who had been summoned for the petit jury which will try the case. Of sixty-one names on the panel, only twenty-seven were present; one man, the sheriff announced, could not be found, and there were thirty-three other absentees. Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney-general, and Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., appeared on behalf of the crown.

Although the interest in the case had flagged somewhat since the last trial there was a large crowd of people outside the court when the prisoner arrived, as he hepped from the patrol he presented much the same appearance as at the last hearing. He was dressed in a neat suit of dark purple tie and wore a felt hat. As he took his place in the dock he smiled and, as formerly, took a keen interest in all that was going on in the court room.

When the names of the panel were called and thirty-four absentees noted, Judge Chandler remarked that this was a large list for a case of this nature. He remarked the law regarding jury service, pointing out that absentees were liable to a fine of $10 for each default, unless they were able to satisfy him that they had a good reason for absence, but not more than $300 at any court session.

FOG CURTAIN LIFTS; LOST FISHERMEN IN DORY RESCUED

Montreal, July 4.—When the fog which had enveloped her for hours suddenly lifted off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland last Thursday, the steamer Chitona, an oil tanker bound from London to Montreal, found herself within a few feet of a little dory, in which were two men in the last stages of exhaustion. They were Portuguese fishermen from the schooner Laura, which had set out from Lisbon to fish on the banks. Four days previous they, with another dory, had left their schooner in the fog, and had got out of touch with it in the fog. The third man either fell overboard or jumped into the sea in a delirium of exhaustion. The men had been restored one of them fell on the deck and kissed the feet of the captain of the tanker.

BLIND MAN FIRST TO GIVE FIRE ALARM

Mitchell, Ont., July 4.—A blind man was the first to give warning of a fire which occurred here this morning and destroyed an ice-house and barn, the property of Mrs. Richard Babb.

While his neighbors were sound asleep, the super-sensitive of the blind man, Norman MacDonald, detected the scent of smoke. He stumbled along to the door to give the alarm. He was unsuccessful in this, so he climbed upon the porch and attracted attention at one of the upper windows.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter of Mr. Hiram Hornebeam, in man who came in from the Settlement yesterday said there had been so much wet weather that the hens were developing web-feet. In the interests of science, I would like to have your testimony on this question. If the story is true, it is a remarkable adaptation to environment and a proof of the accuracy of the evolution theory.

"Well," said Hiram, "I guess you don't need to send no professors out here on that job this summer. We got some lovely lars in the Settlement. One of 'em told a man from town the other day that he'd swallered about a half pint of p'tetator bugs. Of course a fish story he's to be true—but I wouldn't write no story for the scientific papers about them web-feet if I was you—no, sir."

THE PRESBYTERY DEALS WITH CALLS

Two Before Church Court This Morning.

Interesting Report on Old Records of the Church and Good Word for John Willett—Congratulations Also to Hon. J. G. Forbes.

(Canadian Press.)

The quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of St. John was commenced this morning at ten o'clock in St. Andrew's church, with Rev. A. V. Morash of Sussex in the chair, and Rev. Frank Baird of Chipman as secretary.

The call to Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., B. D., of Campbellton by St. David's church was ordered sanctioned by the presbytery as soon as signed by as many as possible of the congregation. A call to Rev. A. W. Wood of Prince Edward Island to the church at Nashwaak and Stanley was sanctioned.

A very interesting item was the displaying of records of the Presbyterian Church from the year 1833 and the passing of a motion to have sent to the records of Pine Hill Seminary at Halifax for safe keeping.

An invitation by the ladies of St. Andrew's church to a luncheon in the school room was unanimously accepted. It was given a hearty vote of thanks for their thoughtfulnes.

Rev. A. V. Morash, moderator, spoke of his appreciation of the honor of presiding at a session of the St. John Presbytery, where he had labored for nearly five years. He expressed his regret at the removal of Rev. J. A. MacKegan. He hoped that Mr. MacKegan's departure would not have a serious effect on the foreign mission situation. The fact that Mr. MacKegan was ill was also spoken of with regret. A motion for the deletion of a sentence from the minutes in regard to foreign missions suffering a unanimous vote.

MacKegan from the presbytery, was passed. The minutes of special sessions were read by the secretary, Rev. Frank Baird, and the report of the committee on the resignation of Mr. M. Townsend asked for a place on the session docket for a call from St. David's church.

Rev. D. F. Marshall was welcomed into the presbytery and signed the register.

The name of Hon. J. G. Forbes was handed in as elder for St. Andrew's church, Canada, and presbytery. It was moved that a brief, congratulatory address be handed to him at the luncheon and the motion was unanimously and heartily passed.

The clerk was given permission to receive commissions for the appointment of elders.

Several presbytery records from the date of 1833, when the church in New Brunswick was founded, up to the church in 1875 as the Presbyterian Church of Canada, and the records of the clerk. Since then, he said, there had been a complete record kept of the minutes of the Presbytery of St. John in book form. The value of the records was great, he said. He moved that the work of John Willett, who kept these in some lambskin books, be recognized and that the records be placed in the care of the presbytery.

St. Matthew's.

Rev. W. H. Spencer, of St. Matthew's church, presented a plea for accommodations on behalf of his church. He presented two applications, one for a loan of $3,000 from a church fund, and another for another church fund give a grant of $3,000. The needs, he said, were for a basement, a porch and moving the church back about ten feet from Douglas avenue.

Austen Galbraith and Commissioner Thornton also spoke of the needs of St. Matthew's church. Col. MacLaren said he would prefer a church hall to a basement, and that the church be put over until the afternoon session.

Rev. Mr. Townsend spoke of a call from St. David's church to Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., B. D., of Campbellton, signed by all those present last night. A guarantee of $3,600 annually with one month vacation each year and a moving allowance of $200 was given.

S. R. Jack, clerk of sessions, spoke in support of the call and said that although they felt the loss of Rev. Mr. MacLaren, they thought the work of the church would be well carried on by Mr. Miller. John Willett, J. T. McGowan, T. H. Somerville and Robert Reid also spoke in support of the call.

A motion to send the call around for a fuller collection of signatures and then to sustain it was passed.

The session adjourned at about one o'clock to luncheon served by the ladies of St. Andrew's church.

MIGHT HAVE GOT TO EVEREST PEAK

Natives Say Expedition was Given Up a Few Days Too Soon.

London, July 4.—The Daily Mail correspondent in Bombay writes that a controversy is under way there regarding the recent unsuccessful attempt to scale Mount Everest, which it is widely believed failed through overheat.

While the members of the climbing party declared the early monsoon prevented success, native bearers say the monsoon does not reach the higher Himalayas, and that the rains which the climbers believed to be the monsoon were merely a passing storm. They assert that if the expedition had waited at a height of about 20,000 feet it would have found several calm, sunshiny days on which the summit could have been reached.

MIGHT APPLY HERE.

Commenting on the fact that the Quebec harbor commission had reduced its top wharfage rates to bring them into harmony with those of Montreal, Commissioner Bullock said that some such move should be adopted in St. John. He said that in some cases the rates on government wharves were lower than those charged at city docks, and he thought that the government should adjust its charges to a level with some of the city, so that there would be even satisfaction for shippers using either property.

(Canadian Press.)

New York, July 4.—The big bats of Bab Ruth and Bob Meusel, combined with a brace by the pitching staff, have put the Yankees back into the American League race, close to the heels of the flying St. Louis Browns, only two games separating the rivals today. The Babe kept up his slashing attack yesterday and slugged out his thirteenth homer, while the rest of "Murderers Row" were helping to crush the Athletics for the fifth straight time, 12 to 1. Bob Meusel was the real swatting hero, with the unusual record of a single, double, triple and homer in five times.

RICH IN VITAMINES

MAKE PERFECT BREAD. The government forces in the Sackville street area is complete, and the final defeat of the rebels is in sight, says a communication issued from general headquarters in the Beggar's Bush Barracks at three o'clock this morning.

The insurgents have been driven out of their positions in Earl street, so that their comrades in the Greenham Hotel and adjoining buildings in Sackville street are entirely surrounded.

Thirty-two rebels were captured when the national troops rushed the Earl street positions and the Catholic Club, opposite the Greenham Hotel. The Y. M. C. A. building in Sackville street, which had been occupied by insurgents, was burnt during the night following an attack by the Free Staters.

Monday's casualties consisted of three killed and twenty-seven wounded. The government forces now hold all the positions dominating the buildings in Sackville street occupied by the rebels.

Barriades at the Lifey Bridges and the centre of the city were being reinforced from escaping or reinforcements from reaching them.

FREE STATERS MAKE MORE GAINS

Steadily Near Completion of Defeat of Insurgents. Reported and Denied That Ulsterites Joined Irregulars on Border in Attack on the Regulars.

Dublin, July 4.—The enveloping movement of the Free State forces in the Sackville street area is complete, and the final defeat of the rebels is in sight, says a communication issued from general headquarters in the Beggar's Bush Barracks at three o'clock this morning.

The insurgents have been driven out of their positions in Earl street, so that their comrades in the Greenham Hotel and adjoining buildings in Sackville street are entirely surrounded.

Thirty-two rebels were captured when the national troops rushed the Earl street positions and the Catholic Club, opposite the Greenham Hotel. The Y. M. C. A. building in Sackville street, which had been occupied by insurgents, was burnt during the night following an attack by the Free Staters.

POLICE COURT

Two residents of St. Patrick street carried their difference to the police court this morning when the merits and demerits of the case were thoroughly gone into.

Asked if he had any witnesses the defendant called his wife, Mrs. Hattie Moore, who was quite positive that the plaintiff was drunk when he was playing ball in the yard but she was sure they had not broken any windows.

The magistrate said that he could do nothing other than to adjourn the case until the next day.

Mr. Moore, on being sworn, said "I didn't hit him; I shoved him out and that was the eleven o'clock and I was partly ready for bed. I put my hand somewhere about his face. He shoved my hand away but it went into his eye."

BEEN MISSING SINCE MONDAY

Some Fears That Nicholas Osborne Has Been Drowned in Miramichi River.

(Special to The Times.) Newcastle, July 4.—Search is being carried on for Nicholas Osborne, conductor of the Fredericton freight, who was last seen on Monday morning at two o'clock by two brakemen on the ferry wharf here. He then wore a blue suit with light cap.

Osborne is forty-five years of age and has a wife and two children in Marysville. The Miramichi river will be dragged, as there is a fear that he has fallen in and been drowned.

Winnipeg, July 4.—(Canadian Press)—With the close of what a political writer calls a "badly failed campaign," only two weeks away, the 221,374 persons whose names are on the Manitoba voters lists are displaying no lively interest in the provincial election.

On July 18 and two others will be chosen for deferred elections in The Pas and Rupert's Land, the date is not yet fixed.

Hon. Edward Brown, provincial treasurer, represented The Pas in the last house and probably will be a candidate once more.

There are now close to 150 candidates in the field, and this list will be enlarged before the official nominations on next Saturday. There will be more than forty candidates in Winnipeg where ten members are to be elected by proportional representation, fairly evenly divided among Liberals, Conservatives, Progressives (allied with the United Farmers) and Labor, with few independent candidates. The chosen ten are likely to include representatives of all the parties.

DE VALERA IN THE WAY OF PEACE

Father Baker, Just Across from Ireland, Speaks of the Situation There.

Among passengers on the Empress of France to Quebec was Rev. B. Baker, who travelled in the third-class accommodation by choice. Father Baker, an Irishman by birth, has lived in India all his life, with his church headquarters at Simla. He said he came to this country for a three months' visit, and before leaving England paid a visit to his native country, Ireland. Speaking of the Irish question, he said it was lamentable and due to the perverse, impossible character of De Valera. The people of Ireland, or rather ninety-five per cent. of them, were with Collins and Griffiths, and if De Valera had been eliminated with the peace treaty pact, Ireland today would be in an ideal condition, with its population working together for the progress and prosperity of the country and happiness of its people.

the people of Ireland to accept a hand of friendship that had been tendered to them by the government of England. He had been told, and Father Baker specially mentioned a priest named Father Collins, that the blood of the Irish men and women now being sacrificed to his agitating whims would rest on his conscience. Father Baker, discussing the Indian question, said that it had no analogy to the Irish. The latter were a civilized race and close neighbors to England seeking the right of self-government, while in India conditions were altogether different. To begin with, there were twenty different nations, having different viewpoints on nationality and religion, in India, and the greater part of the immense population in that country were pagans and their strata of the lowest. The agitation in India would not end until the two great races, the Hindus and the Mohammedans, hated each other, and the hatred on the part of the Hindus towards the other was the enforced conversion of the Hindus by the Mohammedans. Speaking of missionary work, Father Baker said the civilization and Christianization of Indians made a complex problem. It was easy to make Christians of the lower strata so long as you remained with them, feed them and gave them money, but when you left them and they received no further assistance they went back to paganism. There was no such a thing as conversion of the high class of Indians. They lived for the luxury of this life and all its seductive propensities, and in this manner of living they were happy and content with the pleasure of good living and harem, and so long as they are not disturbed they would be a powerful friend of England, English Business. G. W. Dyson, manufacturer of dress goods at Shipley, Eng., on a visit to Canada, was interviewed in regard to conditions on the economic situation in the United Kingdom. He said that England had turned the corner and was slowly plowing her way to normal conditions. Other than this he did not care to speak until he had met his Canadian selling agent. His purpose in coming to Canada was to take observations of the economic situation in this country.

Mr. Doherty, who had been a resident of Bombay for several years, was attacked by 400 natives while superintending the construction plant. Two men were sentenced to death for his murder.

SING SING SO ECONOMICAL IT ENDS YEAR WITH SURPLUS

Ossining, July 4—Although prisoners have been going to Sing Sing in larger numbers than ever in the last few months, when the prison's fiscal year ended on July 1, Warden Lewis E. Lawes announced that there was a surplus of about $3,000 in the prison's funds.

For months the prison officials have exercised sharp economy to prevent having a deficit. So many new prisoners had to be fitted with wearing apparel that prison attendants had a difficult task to keep within the appropriation. The state appropriated about $400,000 to run Sing Sing during the fiscal year just closed.

The crime wave in the southern part of New York State was one factor in increasing expenditures.

CUTICURA HEALS SCALES ON HEAD

Also Eruptions on Face. Very Disfiguring.

"My trouble began with small patches of scales upon my scalp which spread and covered the top of my head. My hair became dry and soon fell out. Soon the trouble appeared in circles on my face. The eruptions on my face were very disfiguring. A friend advised Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I sent for a free sample which helped me, so I bought more, and after using one box of Ointment, together with the Soap, I was healed." (Signed) George Breen, Jr., Pullman, Wash.

GETTING THE POWER

In order that they might learn more fully what progress is being made in the matter of hydro, and to be able to answer all questions regarding it, the executive of the United Organizations held a meeting last evening and listened to addresses by Mayor McLellan, Mr. C. H. Peters, Mr. Herbert Phillips and Mr. Gordon Kribs, the Ontario hydro engineer, who is chief electrical engineer for the New Brunswick Electric Commission.

LIQUOR IN THE WEST.

A Regina letter in the Winnipeg Tribune reveals amazing conditions existing under the liquor law of Saskatchewan, which permits the export of liquor. We quote: "Some idea of the profits being made by the export liquor houses in these provinces was given the public last week when the manager of one of the houses sued for a share in the profits. William Denton was the plaintiff in the court action, and, although he failed at law, he gave evidence to show that reports of fabulous sums being made in liquor trading are not myths. Denton said he had an agreement to manage an export liquor warehouse in the southern part of the province at a salary of $300 a month plus a one-sixth share in the profits. These, he told the court, totalled $80,000 from this one branch in three months."

Commenting on this state of affairs the Toronto Globe says: "About a year ago there were 87 export liquor warehouses in Saskatchewan, but high taxes have reduced the number to about half a dozen. Petitions and resolutions from both wets and dries have been presented to the legislature. Some of them ask for another referendum, while the Methodist Conference and the Baptist Convention want Premier Dunnington to pass an order-in-council asking the Dominion government to stop the export liquor trade."

Until both import and export of liquor from any part of Canada are prohibited the full benefits of prohibition cannot be realized. The trend of popular sentiment is unmistakably in that direction, and any and all experiments short of complete prohibition are certain to be discarded in the end.

Hon. W. E. Foster is not only premier of the province but the head of a large business establishment in St. John. The property interests of himself and his firm as taxpayers are affected by any civic programme. Mr. Foster counsels his fellow-citizens to have faith and go forward in the matter of hydro, and secure the benefits of lower rates and the industrial expansion these will bring. The city has the opportunity to give power at cost. It will proceed to do so, and whoever opposed that policy, however sincere, would be in reality an enemy of the public welfare. We have the example of Ontario and the lesson is too plain to be misunderstood.

Mr. Kribs told the United Organizations last night that in his home in Ontario he has an electric cooking range, an electric grate, an electric heater for water in his bathroom in summer, a portable electric heater for any room, besides electric washer, vacuum cleaner and other household conveniences, and his bill for all of these averages only about five dollars per month. That is too much to expect in St. John in the immediate future, but we can pay a lot more and still have an enormous advantage over present conditions.

According to some people British Columbia has an ideal liquor law, but observe this testimony from Attorney-General Manson: "I find some of our most respectable citizens—with a question mark—patronizing bootleggers, and yet they sit in front pews in our churches."

It is not pleasant to know that there are in this city youths who would find pleasure in breaking doors and windows and doing other damage on a playground designed for the benefit of children. There was no possible benefit to be derived. It was wanton destruction.

An appeal in behalf of Russian children which comes to Archdeacon Crowfoot is printed in today's Times. It paints a very distressing picture of conditions, and cannot but appeal to the hearts of the people.

Mr. Kribs says St. John can get a hydro distribution system for $600,000. This is much less than the estimate of Mr. Phillips, who was jerked at by opponents of hydro when it was submitted.

The Imperial Institute advisory committee recommends the timber from our forests for construction work hitherto using European timber. That should in due time bring much benefit to Canadian lumbermen.

This is July 4, and the U. S. A. celebrates. Prohibition being the law, good citizens desiring to toast the day may not unadvisedly turn to the teacup in which to pledge each other.

The cost of development of Musquash power compares favorably with similar development in Ontario. It means cheap light and power to the consumer.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 43. SPARK DISCHARGE

A spark discharge in the closed oscillatory circuit of a spark transmitter sets up radio-frequency oscillations of decreasing amplitude. This may be further explained by use of the following diagram of a closed oscillatory circuit containing a condenser (C), an inductance (L), and a spark gap (G).

Closed Oscillation Circuit

It has previously been explained that in actual practice the condenser receives a charge from the secondary of the power transformer and that this charge is stored up in the form of an electrostatic field. By proper adjustment of the spark gap a discharge of the condenser will take place at each alternation of the charging current and for each discharge a group of radio frequency oscillations will flow through the circuit. When the electrostatic field in the condenser (C) collapses and a spark jumps the gap (G), a current flows as shown by the solid arrows through the inductance (L) and establishes a magnetic field about the coils. Due to the conversion of the electrostatic field of the condenser into current, the magnetic field of the inductance contracts and in so doing induces a current which flows in the opposite direction shown by dotted arrows and recharges the condenser to the opposite polarity.

The condenser now discharges in a direction opposite to the first instance and builds up a magnetic field of opposite polarity in the inductance which in turn contracts and recharges the condenser to its original polarity. At each turn contracts and recharges the condenser to its original polarity. The result cycle, however, a certain amount of energy has been dissipated, resulting in a group of damped oscillations, the amount of damping depending on how gradually the energy has been extracted from the oscillations.

In order to prevent interference among radio stations, the U. S. government prescribes a certain definite ratio between the successive amplitudes of the oscillations. The rate at which these amplitudes decrease is known as the "logarithmic decrement" and in order to conform to the U. S. regulations, must not be greater than 0.2 for each complete cycle which is equivalent to a minimum number of 25 complete oscillations for a single spark discharge.

Can Build Civic System for $600,000

Gordon Kribs, Hydro Expert, Reduces Estimated Cost of Distribution Plant

Outlines Plan to Give Citizens Musquash Current at Average Cost of 4.5 Cents Per Kilowatt Hour and Stimulate Industrial Expansion—Mayor McLellan Tells of Discussions Between Himself, Messrs. Bodell and Sanderson, Phillips and Kribs.

The city can construct a distribution system for $600,000, instead of the $800,000 originally estimated, according to a statement made by Gordon Kribs, Ontario hydro expert, last evening at a meeting of the executive of the United Organizations in the Y. M. C. A., addressed by Mayor McLellan, Herbert Phillips, M.E.L., and Mr. Kribs, M.E.L., who was chairman.

This was an estimate, Mr. Kribs explained, and it had been computed conservatively, and he figured the sub-station and building site would approximate $15,000; second, the equipment would be $450,000; third, the distribution in the $40,000; fourth, the cost of the electric lines would amount to $55,000. His address struck a wonderfully high note of optimism as to the great future of the city, and he said that following the plan of the city would follow cheap power. "Cheap power," he declared, "is not cheap light alone. It is the power that brings great things."

Mr. McLellan's address was confined largely to a resume of what had been accomplished in regard to fulfilling the wishes of the electorate as expressed in the last civic election. The mayor in opening said he thought he had made wonderful headway with the project. Ten days after assuming the reins of office, he succeeded in having several resolutions passed at the Common Council meeting that shaped the civic policy in regard to hydro.

Mr. Kribs, who was invited to the meeting by Mayor McLellan, said that he had made wonderful headway with the project. Ten days after assuming the reins of office, he succeeded in having several resolutions passed at the Common Council meeting that shaped the civic policy in regard to hydro.

He then read several other communications with the commission regarding the matter, finishing with the letter of May 15 in which the commission stated they would proceed to prepare an estimate of the cost of civic construction and operation of a distribution system. "It is this very information that we are waiting for," he said. It had been spread around that he was getting "take-away" as to the civic distribution plan. This was absolutely untrue. He stood on the same platform that elected him, and would continue to do so. "Municipal ownership, in so far as it is concerned, was municipal ownership of power and distribution system," he explained was the attitude in the matter.

He declared he would speak frankly about the matter of the Power company representatives approaching him. He understood that a new management by Mr. Bodell, representing the Power company, had come to his office and asked that he be allowed to present the company's position at the present time. He declined to do so, as Mr. Phillips be present. The citizens need not feel the least bit fearful, for so far as he was concerned, distribution would lie in the hands of the people of St. John.

Herbert Phillips. As to any approaches that had been made by the Power company officials, Mr. Phillips, the next speaker, desired to say that they had been made on both sides without prejudice, and as such, neither party expected that the subject matter would be used for the purposes of influencing public opinion. The negotiations were wholly unofficial, he said, and were in the nature of tentative skirmishing. Later, if anything definite came of this skirmishing, the public would first be entitled to a full statement so far as he was concerned in these negotiations, he declared he was for municipal ownership. He thought it was no harm for the Power company to state its case.

Speaking about Mr. Kribs, he said that he was even more optimistic than he had been regarding the Musquash development. He believed that when the citizens heard what Mr. Kribs thought of the great possibilities at Musquash, there would be a re-awakening of that enthusiasm for hydro that was so apparent at the last civic election.

Our "outfit" was certainly "tuned" to catch everything that was going during the week-end, if by the volume of "vibrations" we received was any indication. Thousands of people "listened in" on our week-end programme and were well satisfied with the "shocks" they received.

Growing girls' patent ankle strap pumps, low heels, 2 1/2 to 7, at $2.35. Boys' black and brown canvas pumps, with rubber soles and heels at $1.00. The Ontario engineer was greeted with applause when he rose. It was the first time he had ever been east of Quebec, and he assured his hearers he was more than delighted. He had thought that St. John was somewhat of a backwoods proposition, but he had found every cause to change his opinion during his short stay. He was impressed very deeply, he declared, with the possibilities of the Musquash development. "Courageous leadership," he said, "is what is needed to secure those benefits for the citizens here and make the most of the splendid opportunity."

expense of upkeep by $88,970. Revenue would be obtained as follows: domestic and commercial lighting, $51,075; power, $52,080; street lighting, $15,000. Costs would be power, $120,000; operation, $97,125; interest charges, $20,000. All these figures were for a half year's operation. For the second year, his figures were: domestic and commercial lighting, $124,740; power, $125,240; street lighting, $30,000; total, $280,000. Costs were: $222,250 for power and operation. This left a surplus of $88,750 and, deducting from this the loss of the first year, there would be a net surplus for the second year of $25,750. For the third year, he estimated that revenue as follows: domestic and commercial lighting, $143,330; power, $208,320; street lighting, $30,000; total, $381,650. Expenses for the year would amount to $282,250, leaving a surplus amounting to $99,400. The accumulated surplus amounted to $129,150 and after paying depreciation and sinking fund charges, there would be $129,150 at present. His figures showed that the city would be on the credit side to the extent of $47,989. The average cost of the k.w.h. would be 4.5 cents, with a rate of 88 per cent per k.w.h. from the Power company. He figured the total consumption for the three years to be: first year, 1,135,000; second, 2,700,000; third, 3,185,000. The Power company were distributing about 2,000,000 at present. He concluded by affirming his belief in the great future before St. John if the city would embrace the present opportunity and characterized it as little short of a miracle that Halifax had allowed a private corporation to obtain control of hydro distribution.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1922

FENIMORE COOPER'S
"LAST OF MOHICANS"

Story of Indian Allies of Wolfe and Montcalm—Imperial Giving People a Real Treat.

Slowly perhaps but surely indeed the prospect is becoming the clearest that the Imperial has claimed it would be and performers loudly demand it shall be. In the Leather Stocking Tale "The Last of the Mohicans" at the Imperial this change one sees in real life and action that spellbinding historic fiction of James Fenimore Cooper, a book that doubtless is found in every household library and community storehouse of favorite reading matter. In its pictorial form it is just what Cooper intended it should be, a narrative of the troublous times when the French under Montcalm and the British under General Wolfe were struggling for the mastery on this continent. Each side enlisted the sympathies of the various tribes of Indians and it is around a chain of episodes in this Indian warfare that the wonderfully interesting story entwines.

The First National production made by that renowned actor, Maurice Tourneur, is an actually built facsimile of the stockades, blockhouses and other early embattlements of Fort William Henry in New York state where the British were located and it is inspiring to see our troops and our national flag at their head going into the strife. To be sure most of the soldiers were hired Hanoverians but still and all it gives one a thrill to witness the struggles that helped win for us this wonderful Canada. One really forgets it is a picture that is reliving the story and feels transported back a few hundred years to the time when romance rode and Indians were in their hey-day. Picturesquely "The Last of the Mohicans" is an artistic delight, rugged, grand and dignified. The players are of the big-star type and chosen for the leading parts because of their physical as well as artistic merits. For instance imagine big thick-lipped, leering Wallace Beery as the unfaithful Indian guide and Joseph Singleton as the spiritual Indian, Uncas, not to mention George Hackathorne (the "Little Minister") as the weakling British officer and traitor. Tourneur examined many actors, until he found Albert Roscoe, who is an eighth Osage Indian, and a well known leading man. He shaved his hair, bared his body and made up for the part.

The colonel's two daughters, Cora and Alice, played by Barbara Bedford and Lillian Hall, respectively, are pretty pictures on the screen. It is unjust to call any actor in "The Last of the Mohicans" a supporting player, for each is a star. Henry Woodward, playing Major Hayward, is Tourneur's regular leading man, and does some fine work in this picture.

The Imperial enjoyed liberal patronage last night, many of the patrons being attracted no doubt by the literary quality of the well-known story, others by something of the Montcalm-Wolfe sagas. The same picture is being repeated today only. Tomorrow Ethel Layton appears in a new York society story "Her Own Money" with Charlie Chaplin in a two-reel brand new release entitled "Pay Day," one of the best things the English pantomimist has ever done. It is not a reissued picture but original and new.

Greenwich Village Revue Proved Popular With the Audience on Its First Appearance Last Evening.

"The Greenwich Village Revue" started a frolic of musical comedy at the Queen Square Theatre last evening. The Boat Bill opening started the fun, followed by the "Guard Bill" with Ruben, Carlton Hollis and Messrs. Guinnett, Melvin and Rubin. Then came Arthur Brooks singing "Wonder Blues" in his usual peppy style. The "Seltzer Water" with George Rubin, Arthur Brooks, Bucky Carlton and Mrs. Haviland called forth enthusiastic applause. Lily Rubin sang "Broadway" in her winsome way. Next came Kitty Gullmette with "Kiss Me Again" in her clear soprano. The "prohibition bit" with Hollis, Rubin, Carlton and Miss Melvin was a little out of the ordinary.

Arthur Brooks and Marion Brian offered a pleasing specialty that deserved the applause it received. The "Pick Out Numbers" led by George Rubin and chorus was one of the hits of the bill. The "Mary Mac Bit" with Rubin, Brooks, the Messrs. Melvin, Rubin and Haviland, also produced much laughter. The "Oriental Moon" number with Kitty Gullmette deserved everything it received. original song. Bucky Carlton offered a snappy monologue. Alice Melvin sang "Don't Leave Me, Mamma," with Hollis. The "pantomime dance" with Hollis, Carlton, Miss Brian, Rubin and Brooks, showed variety of dancing. The finale, led by Tommy Anderson and Alice Melvin, followed by Arthur Brooks, Lily Rubin and Kitty Gullmette and Harry Hollis and entire company closed a show that was thoroughly appreciated by an audience that filled the theatre.

George Rubin, as a Hebrew comedian, has proved popular as a dispenser of clean comedy. Bucky Carlton ably supported him and makes a wonderful foil. Arthur Brooks, the juvenile and dancer, also is popular. Harry Hollis does an original "book" comical character that is out of the ordinary. Tommy Anderson, the manager, who also is the producer, besides working all through the show, deserves much of the credit for the success of the organization.

WARM WELCOME FOR FAVORITES

Jere McAuliffe and Eugene Emmett, With Sprightly Company, in Good Entertainment at Opera House.

That veteran entertainer, Jere McAuliffe, received a rousing welcome at the Opera House last night and it must have made his pulse beat a bit more rapidly as the hearty applause which greeted his first appearance was sustained as he stood bowing his acknowledgments. No question about the friends' numbers in St. John. He was in capital form and held all intense attention in a serious recitation and roared the house with laughter in his comic songs. So, too, the large audiences had a ringing welcome for Eugene Emmett, a sweet-toned singer and capable actor who lives in the kindly memory of Opera House patrons. They are supported by a strikingly good company of singers and dancers and present a show full of vim and merit and decidedly refreshing. It promises to be a big drawing attraction. "The Golden Wedding" is supposed to be laid in the land of the MacGregors, who are celebrating that event and two of the parts are taken by Mr. McAuliffe and Miss Carr. The actual celebration begins not on the stage, but in the rear of the auditorium, where the powerful bass voice of the piper thrills the audience as he gradually makes his way before the footlights. Then comes a bevy of pretty Scotch lassies sweetly singing. The huge piper is none other than Jim Daly. The heavy male work in the Scottish songs is done superbly by Messrs. Emmett and Daly. One of the other enjoyable features of the production is the song "Hello Mr. Gallagher, Hello Mr. Shean," by Messrs. McAuliffe and Jerry Lynch, during which the audience loudly showed its appreciation of several facetious local references.

The entertainment is full of action and color, topical music—some new, some old, but which will always live in the hearts of the Irish and the Scottish people. The yodling of Mr. Emmett, the dancing by the Dwyer sisters, Miss Marr, the Messrs. Russell, Nyles and Harding, the whistling by Miss Sheldon, the sword dance by Miss Nester and the comedy song and monologue by Tom Lynch were all splendidly received. The work of Miss Carr, in the mother's part, also was good. There were other popular features.

SPLendid SHOW AT THE UNIQUE

"The Golden Gallows," Eddie Polo and a Sunshine Comedy.

Universal filmed a story well suited to Miss du Pont's abilities as a star when they made "The Golden Gallows," which opened last night at the Unique Theatre. "The Golden Gallows" is the story of a girl who inherited vast wealth from a man who had been no relation to her, only a casual friend. The unique angle in the inheritance caught the fancy of the gossiping public and it made the most of the opportunity. But a chorus queen can live through gossip easily.

The dramatic possibilities in the situation are great. The cast supporting Miss du Pont is well balanced and every member of it has quite a name for capable performances. Included in the list of players is Jack Mower, who shows a commendable spirit as the sweetheart. Eddie Polo in one of the series of Cyclone Smith called "Yellow Streak" proved just lightning action from start to finish. "Try and Get It," a Sunshine comedy, kept the audience in round of laughter. It was a real fun maker.

Soap Granules absolutely different

RINSO is the most wonderful cleanser for the family wash that you ever took into your home. It will wash clothes perfectly clean week after week just by soaking overnight and rinsing in the morning—but Rinso is absolutely different from all other soaps or washing powders, therefore it is necessary to use it according to directions. Do not put the Rinso right from the package into the tub, but make the famous Rinso solution first. It's very easy and the results are simply wonderful.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE. Soak your clothes in the Rinso suds as usual; in the morning add more Rinso solution and work the machine. Then rinse and dry—you will have a clean sweet snow white wash.

HINTS FOR MOTHERS FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS
The coming of the warm weather brings many problems for the mothers of babies, particularly in regard to baby's food and health. The average baby for whom Nature's food is available does not escape all of the minor summer troubles of infants, while the little one dependent on artificial food requires the greatest of care. Three very interesting booklets have been issued by The Borden Co. Ltd., Montreal, which are sent free on request to any mother. They give all sorts of invaluable information, such as feeding schedules for infants from three days of age to twelve months, diet for children from twelve months of age to two years, suggestions for treatment of common ailments, such as constipation, colic, diarrhea, and recipes for making suitable foods for the little ones.

Annual Summer School of
N. B. Vocational Board in Moncton.

The fourth annual summer school of the New Brunswick Vocational Education Board will this year meet in the Edith Cavell school, Moncton, from July 5 to August 4. Hon. Fred Magee, M. P., of Fort Elgin, chairman of the vocational board, in his forward to the programme booklet, says, in part—

"Opportunities such as the vocational board of the province offers cannot lightly be set aside and should be accepted by those interested in supplementing the education they now enjoy with the training this school can furnish. We need assistance in our endeavors to have a trained community, in our attempts to fit all possible for their various vocations, and to place industry in New Brunswick on a competitive basis, and in industry we include that of the home, the land, the forest, the mine and the sea."

"Education moves slowly. It is difficult to supplement a system that has functioned for years in the one groove, a system, however, with which we have no quarrel. Our ambition is to add to this system, not to detract from it. We desire to fit the youth of the country for their life's work, and especially those not taking full advantage of the present type of instruction offered in our public schools."

Aims of School.

1. To disseminate a knowledge of the need, function and scope of vocational education in New Brunswick.
2. To train a body of men and women to act as local vocational directors. Principals and others with a knowledge of school administration are particularly concerned in this.
3. To train women and home economics teachers for service in the evening vocational schools of the province.

4. To train teachers in commercial work for both day and evening classes, and outline the needed courses in this field.
5. To give a group of grade teachers a start in technical training and enable them at once to carry on elementary phases of the work in rural schools.
6. To have a typical educational survey made of the city of Moncton and to construct the vocational courses suited to meet the needs as shown by such survey.

A large and efficient staff has been secured for the Moncton summer school. It will consist of—

Executive: Fletcher Peacock, director; Marguerite L. Taylor, secretary; Sarah M. Barnett, supervisor, women's work; Emma J. Read, dietitian.

The instructors are—

L. H. Dennis, director of vocational education for the State of Pennsylvania, president of the National Association of State Directors of Vocational Education in the United States.

M. A. Sorsoleil, B. A., expert in commercial education with the Ontario Department of Education.

Ask the Way to prettier teeth—you are welcome to it

A new-day method is bringing millions whiter, cleaner, safer teeth.

It is used by your friends, your neighbors. It is advised by dentists, urged by modern authorities. Glistening teeth seen everywhere now show the benefits it brings.

This is to offer a ten-day test to reveal its results to you.

It combats the film

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not effectively combat it. So much is left. It is also the basis of tartar.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look cloudy or discolored. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. That is why so few escape tooth troubles, despite the daily brushing. They fail to end the film.

New methods found

Dental science has now found two ways to fight that film. Able authorities have proved their efficiency. Now careful people employ them nearly all the world over, largely by dental advice.

A new-type tooth paste has been created, to comply with modern requirements. The name is Pepsodent. Those two film combatants are embodied in it for daily application.

Two other essentials

Two other effects are essential, as proved by modern research.

The saliva contains two great tooth-protecting agents. One is a starch digestant, one is alkalis. One is to digest the starch deposits which cling to teeth and gum them. Often they ferment and form acids. The alkalis are to neutralize mouth acids—the cause of tooth decay.

Pepsodent stimulates those factors. It multiplies the starch digestant, multiplies the alkalis. Thus every use gives those natural powers a manifold effect.

Watch the film go

Note how clean the teeth feel after using Pepsodent. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. The after-effects are refreshing, and the mouth is left in alkaline condition.

These are facts you should know at once. Write us today for the 10-Day Tube. Cut out the coupon now.

THE RUSSIAN CHILDREN.

To the Editor of The Times:
Sir,—I have received the following letter from my old friend, the Reverend F. F. Komlosy. It contains matter which will interest everyone, and I would be glad if you would kindly give it the publicity of your columns. Mr. Komlosy writes from Constantinople, as follows:

"For over two years I have been engaged in an endeavor to save completely mentally, morally and spiritually, as well as physically, elder Russian children from the terrible debacle which has overtaken their country, for the sake of its future. It breaks one's heart to see people responding to lurid famine appeals, when, appalling as are the straits to which millions of Russians are reduced, the mental and moral chaos is worse and more terrifying. If people would think a little, they would soon realize that it is much more important to save a hundred souls completely, than to prolong life in ten thousand to live under conditions little removed from bestiality.

"We have over six hundred children in our British-run school home here in Constantinople, many of whom I myself brought back from Russia, where untold numbers are perishing. We are ready for Russia when Russia needs us. It costs $125 for each child per annum, and in spite of the glittering array of names which forms the committee of this organization, we are very hard put to find the money we need. Will you help us?"

"Colonel John Ward, M. P., at 4 Eccleston Place, London, S. W., would gladly furnish fuller information if needed. I had the privilege of starting this organization and this work which has grown wonderfully. Do help me to carry on and to get some real support from New Brunswick. We are not proselytizing, but we are using orthodox priests to produce a greater spiritual robustness than formerly.

"With kind regards, and no excuses whatever for troubling you in this matter.

"Sincerely yours,
"F. F. KOMLOSY."

I shall be glad to acknowledge any contributions that may be sent to me at the above address, or they may be sent to Mr. A. C. Shelton, manager of the Bank of Montreal, who has kindly undertaken to receive any such contributions.

Yours faithfully,
A. H. CROWFOOT,

New York, July 4.—Saturday was sisters' day in Special Sessions, New York. Four pairs of sisters were arraigned with other shoplifters and fined sums ranging from $25 to $50. The detectives said that the women were arrested when they were detected leaving the stores with wearing apparel. As each pair was arraigned for sentence Justice Salmon warned them that they would be sent to prison if convicted of a similar crime again. The defendants said they were Rose Sems, twenty-two, and her sister, Emily, nineteen, of 1,902 Morris avenue, the Bronx, who were fined $25 each; Sophia Furman, twenty-four, and her sister, Ida, seventeen, of 23 East 100th street, fined $50 each, and Jennie Flanagan, twenty-eight, and her sister, Marion, twenty-seven, of 207 West 162nd street, fined $25 each, and Sophia Siegel, twenty-four, and her sister, Fannie, nineteen, of 54 East 117th street, fined $25 each.

ship, while the old method requires from one to two hours to stop and take soundings. LLOYD GEORGE IS LEADING HOUSE Gives Him Chance to Get in Closer Touch—Chamberlain is Sick.

London, July 4.—The indisposition of Right Hon. Austen Chamberlain, the government leader, which kept him away from the House last week, seems to be more serious than at first supposed. He will not be allowed to leave his room this week. In his absence Premier Lloyd George is leading the House and is in regular attendance each day. In view of some ministerialists, this is taken to be an advantage, for it is suggested that, as a result of his frequent absence, he is losing touch with affairs in the commons and also with his supporters. The leader of the House is supposed to be within the precincts of the building, regardless of the length of the sitting, and the premier was present at the all night sessions last week.

EXPORT AND IMPORT PRICES.

(Bank of Commerce Circular.)

Our combined number for the wholesale prices of exports and imports has risen from 181.18 in mid-May to 183.13 in mid-June, our export and import numbers, respectively, moving in opposite directions. Export prices have fallen from 157.63 to 162.56, or approximately to the April figures; import prices have risen from 144.74 to 184.02, or nearly as high as the figures of thirteen months ago. A certain amount of this apparently violent fluctuation is due to seasonal changes, downwards in the case of dairy products among the exports, and upwards in that of sugar and tea among the imports. As far as our exports are concerned, the change is due in part to price adjustment between grains and animal products; wheat, flour and oatmeal have fallen, while cattle, beef, hogs and bacon have risen. Wool, hides and copra also show higher prices, but the fall in cereals has more than offset these, and the result is that the export number has fallen. Among our imports, the only item which shows a recession in price; the remainder have either risen or, as in the case of iron and steel, risen sharply. The continuation of the coal strike has of course been one factor in this, but another is the slow but sure revival of industrial activity in the United States, and it should not be long before the influence of this movement is felt in Canada.

WILLIAMS REVEALS
SECRET OF HITTING

The Eye, the Swing and the Kind of Ball are Cardinal Points, Says Slugger.

New York, July 4.—Kenneth Roy Williams—that is what the record calls the slugging left-fielder of the St. Louis Browns—says that there are three qualifications which a baseball player must have in order to be a home-run clouter—the eye, the swing and the right kind of pitched ball. This robust batter who temporarily at least threatens to usurp the crown of Babe Ruth as a home-run hitter, is fully capable of revealing the traits which make a batsman a great long-distance swatter.

In the first weeks of the present season this fellow leftfielder of Ruth's, who bats lefthanded and throws right-handed, excelled the best previous record of Ruth in circuit-driving. Williams rapped out eleven homers before Ruth got started following the lifting on May 20 of the suspension which Commissioner Landis had imposed for violation of the barnstorming rule. And, besides, Kenneth has done something which the Babe never has—hit three home runs in one game, against the White Sox, which equaled the big league record of Jake Beckley of Cincinnati in 1907. Williams' minor league record was even better than this, for while with the Portland team in the Pacific Coast League in 1917 he hit a double in addition to a trio of homers.

Occupying such a pinnacle in the realm of swatdom, it would seem that this redoubtable hitter who is expected by St. Louis fans to add materially to the bringing of the American League pennant to that city, has every right to explain how to smash the ball with such effect as to attract wide attention. "Hitting in itself is merely a matter of training the eye to watch the ball and commanding the arms to swing at the proper time," says Williams. "Knocking home runs, however, is something different. As proof of this let me cite the fact that there were fifty-five batsmen in the American League last season who hit 300 or better. How many of these were considered fence-busters? Probably not more than half a dozen. This alone will serve to uphold my theory that there is a big difference between hitting and slugging. That George Hellmann and Ty Cobb beat Ruth's batting average of .378 last season does not prove that they were better hitters, because of 118 men's 204 hits 119 were for extra bases. Hellmann made thirty-three more hits than Ruth, but of this total of 237 only seventy-six were for extra bases.

"The eye, the swing, the kind of ball hit at—these are the ingredients of successful home-run hitting. Every good batsman in the major leagues must have strong eyes. He must glue his vision upon the ball from the moment it leaves the pitcher's hand. When I say a keen eye is needed I mean it must be sharper than the average optic. It must be able to command the swing at precisely the right moment. A flash too soon and a long foul is the result. A flash too late either a long foul or a strike is the outcome.

"As to the ball best suited for the circuit smash, I would say that it should come within the specified strike zone seventeen inches in width and between the knee and waistline in height. I have seen Ruth, however, clout homers off the shoulders, his waist and almost off his knees. Hence, it may be supposed that no particular kind of delivery is best suited to his swing.

"Out in the Coast League when I hit twenty-five homers most of them were on balls served between the waist and shoulders. When I came into the American League I heard it noised around that the pitchers were going to serve me nothing but low balls. This I found, after being at bat a few times, was true. I realized that if I wanted to continue to hit home runs I'd have to change my style. So, at each batting practice session I asked the pitchers to shoot me nothing but balls below the waist line. I had to train my eye to work differently and it also was necessary for me to lower my swing. But perseverance in such practice has enabled me to master the new style of batting."

Although June, as pointed out in the Philadelphia Reserve Bank's monthly bulletin of July 1, as normally a month of declining industrial activity, "it has not proved to be such this year, and the betterment in general conditions first noted late in April has continued. It is true the gains made during the last month have been smaller than those of May, but the improvement has been marked.

"Several of the industries that heretofore had not been affected by the general upward movement have recently reported considerably heavier sales, and this, coming at a time when a decline was to be expected, is especially significant as indicative of the underlying trend of business.

We'll Let the Opera House Staff Tell You About It!

Some Show! Our old friend Jere McAuliff has lost none of his old pep. The Selection of Songs and Music was better than the last time here. The Show was clean, and free from all vulgarity. Good enough for anybody. The Costumes and Dresses worn by the ladies are beautiful. Emmett sings like a nightingale. He's a show himself. The best Voices that ever played the Opera House. Seems like everybody in the show can do something, and do it well.

MAURICE TOURNEUR presents
THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS
WHEN WOLFE WAS FIGHTING MONTCALM for the possession of this New World Indian tribes played an important part in the fortunes of war. This tale deals with startling incidents in the career of the daughters of an English general who was trapped by a false Indian guide. A friendly young chieftain, however, protects the girls in a weird sort of love. The narrative abounds in tender scenes commingled with the din of strife and subtleties of the savages.
It is a stupendous picture and highly artistic, not of the usual modern Indian story type at all. It throws much light upon the inside phases of North American life when our nation was infantile.

SOMERVILLE TEAM
NEXT SATURDAY
Boston Globe Says They're Swift Aggregation—Will Play St. Peter's—Other Games of Week.

The balance of this week offers good baseball possibilities. On Wednesday evening the St. Peter's will play the St. Johns; on Thursday the St. Johns will play the fast Milltown team, both games on St. Peter's Park. The St. Peter's boys will be in St. Stephen Thursday to play that team. Saturday will see the fast Somerville, Mass., team on St. Peter's Park for two games with St. Peter's. The Boston Globe gave a lot of space to a write up of this team, with pictures of three of the principal players. The team has won thirty-five games, lost eight and tied three this season.
There are two Grahams on the team. For years they have done excellent work and have repeatedly turned down offers to play with other clubs. For the last 18 years Arthur Graham, pitcher, has been identified with semiprofessional baseball and his record has been one worthy of consideration. He has turned down offers galore to play with minor league clubs. F. F. Graham, his brother, is captain of the nine and is playing a crackjack game at third base. Both players are widely known in semiprofessional ball and they stand very high as players and sportsmen.
On the receiving end of the battery is Pierce, a Somerville High athlete, whose work, the Boston Globe says, has been nothing short of high-grade. He is a sure thrower and has an arm like iron. His hitting has been a strong factor in winning many games for Somerville B. C.
Located at first base is Rogers, who has played the best game of his career there this summer. Pickett on second base is an exceptional infielder and a heavy hitter. Gaddis, another ex-Somerville High athlete, is holding down the shortstop position, and his work has been of classy order.
Capt. F. F. Graham on third, ranks with the best semiprofessional infielders around Boston. In every game played he has accepted practically all his chances and seldom makes slipsups.
The outfield comprises a veritable trio of players, Carroll, Sweeney and Smith. Not only do they cover a vast amount of ground, but they are timely hitters. Simpson, formerly of Somerville High also is a member of the club, and whenever he has pitched he has done most effective work. Smith, right fielder, also is a pitcher, has been used in several games and has performed finely.

Thompson, and one daughter, Miss Edith M. Thompson. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock from Chamberlain's undertaking rooms. Many friends will be sorry to learn of her death and will sympathize with those bereaved.

FUNERALS

Morris, 206 St. John street, west, to the Church of the Assumption for a large mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramage. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery. Relatives were pallbearers. A large number of spiritual and floral offerings were received and the funeral was attended by many friends.

BIGGEST DAY YET IN THE TRAVEL RUSH

The tourist rush into the maritime provinces this year has far exceeded the fondest dreams of those in charge of the transportation arrangements, and today records were broken in all branches of transportation systems. The Boston and Montreal trains arrived filled to capacity, the former carrying nearly 200 passengers. The steamer Governor Dingley arrived from Boston this morning with 400 passengers, by far the largest number to arrive here this year. Canadian National officials here thought they had made ample arrangements to handle the rush on the combined Halifax and Prince Edward Island train this afternoon, but they were forced to change their minds at the last moment, and still more extra cars were tacked onto the train. There were five first class cars, but the Times man was unable to pass through the isles before the train left, so numerous were those seeking seats. An extra second class coach was also put on, and an extra baggage car. When the train finally pulled out there were thirteen cars altogether. Traffic officials here are of the opinion that the rush will keep up all through July, and more rolling stock will have to be put on this division to cope with the traffic.

IN HONOR OF A BRIDE-TO-BE

An enjoyable time was spent last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Gordon, Main street, when a ballroom dance and shower was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Sarah Gordon, whose marriage to Leon Schechter will take place in the near future. More than fifty young folks were present and on behalf of the gathering Dr. F. Boyaner presented a handsome silver tea and coffee service together with a fine address to the prospective bride. A delightful programme of dance was carried out, including three specialties. The home was prettily decorated with balloons and ribbons in the national colors. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. J. Levine, Mrs. D. Gordon and Miss Helen Levine. Miss Anna Gilbert presided over the punch bowl. The arrangements for the affair were superintended by Miss Helen Levine. As the party dispersed the national anthem was sung and all present extended best wishes to Miss Gordon for her future happiness.

THE STORY OF OUR RECENT AIR VISITOR

Bangor Report on Aeroplane With Cargo of 200 Quarts of Liquor.

(Bangor Commercial)
The little town of Jonesport was the scene of a sensational liquor seizure Friday night, 200 quarts of whiskey being found in a seaplane which had alighted in Jonesport harbor. The liquor was discovered by Deputy Collector of Customs E. B. Sawyer, of Jonesport and he seized both liquor and plane. E. K. Jaquith of Atlantic City, N. J., and W. L. Strout of Bangor, whom it is claimed, were in the plane when it alighted at Jonesport, were uptown at the time of the seizure and were placed under arrest Saturday morning by Deputy Sheriff Farnsworth and Deputy Collector Sawyer after United States Marshal Woodman had been notified of the seizure and the prisoners were taken to the jail at Machias to await the arrival of a war-rigged Monday morning and the prisoners were expected to be given a hearing in this city Monday afternoon before United States Commissioner Reid.

It is said the Jaquith claims the ownership of the seized plane and that he has told the officials he was on his way from Canada to his home in Atlantic City with the liquor. Strout, who is the son of Loren A. Strout of this city, denies any interest in the enterprise, stating that he was merely a passenger. The liquor, consisting of 200 bottles of Haig and Haig and Johnny Walker whiskey, was in bags and had apparently been packed in the cockpit of the plane for a trip of considerable length. It is understood that the plane, which was apparently one of the larger of the army type, was forced to alight at Jonesport for fueling.

Officials are investigating to learn whether the plane captured at Jonesport is one of a fleet of aircraft which may be used in smuggling the notorious Florida-Bimbal traffic between the Maine resorts or points further south and a possible source of supply across the Maine-Canadian border. This is the first time that a seaplane has been captured while carrying liquor in Maine or along the Maine coast but the officials are not prepared to state the first time this by any means. It is the first time that this mode of transportation has been attempted.

Expected at Portland.
Portland, July 2.—The seaplane, which was forced to land at Jonesport, resulting in the arrest of E. K. Jaquith of Atlantic City, its pilot, and W. L. Strout of Bangor, who claimed to be only a passenger, was to have delivered its cargo of 200 quarts of whiskey to a motorboat at Half-Way Rock, fifteen miles east of the entrance to Portland harbor, Sheriff King F. Graham announced today after his deputies had arrested Roy Savage of this city.

With the capture of Savage, who was taken early in the morning near the beach at Underwood Springs, the deputy sheriffs seized an automobile and ten quarts of whiskey found in it. They chased a companion of Savage across a field but were unable to catch him. Sheriff Graham did not reveal the source of his information prior to the arraignment of Savage which was expected to take place during the day but he has known that his deputies had been keeping a close watch for several nights on the shore at Underwood Spring, at Falmouth Foreside, presumably as a result of information received.
