Public Notice.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 15. JOE BOGAN-IN MEMORIAM. It was a darksome windy night, And rain and sleet came tearing down, When from the outskirts of the town, Joe Bogan came home *stiff and tight. A shocking hat smiled on his head, And several tears lay on his cheek; In vain he, mutt'ring, tried to speak, But speech from him long since had fled. His coat lay mildly on his back; His boots were f-owhides rudely made; The men who found him gently laid Him on a spike, then called a hack.

They waitzed him up a flight of stairs, Then hastened to the Pharmacy. And there they purchased & enna-tes. And left him to his own affairs. The morning dawned, and with the sun Joe Bogan tried in vain to rise; His wife prepared a sweet surprise. And shot him with a wooden gun. She banged him on the head and nose, Until a stream of claret flowed; And with a broom his hair she mowed, And put a corn between his toes. With grief poor Bogan that night died:
He drinks no more pale brandy cold,
Nor takes delight in whiskey old,
But in a shearse he took a ride.

MORAL. Pray do not heed this warning late;
I ask thee, lend to it an ear:
Give drinking up, renounce thy beer,
Else on a bier will be thy fate.

NOTES. *He was drunk.
