A National Defence Council.

St. Petersburg, May 22.—The first step towards the institution of the long-contemplated council of national defence, to co-ordinate the activities of the military and naval administrations, has been taken in an Imperial manifesto creating a special preliminary commission under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholatevitch. The formation of the council and the assumption by it of control of the war is expected to ensue shortly, as the main details have already been worked out. The despatch of Grand missions dealing with vital questions of the war.

The step is an extremely important one, for which the events of the way in the Far East have shown the necessity, the two departments failing to work together to the best advantage even when actuated by the most harmonious feelings, and friction has been often manifested.

The council is created, not for the present war, but as a permanent organism of the state, subordinating the War and Navy Departments and even overshadowing the other ministers. It is understood the formation of the new council means the definite abandonment of the plan of sending Grand Duke Nikoholas Nicholalevitch to the Far East to assume supreme abandonment of the plan of semana Grand Duke Nicholas Nichelatevites to the Far East to assume supreme command on land and sea. Gen Linevitch and Vice-Admiral Birlieff will be left unhampered except as to the grand duke's outlines-of strategy.

Champagne in Russian Army.

St. Petersburg, May 22.—Despatches from Eastern report a carnival of drunkenness and dissipation among the hangers on of the rear army. Champagne at 35 a bettle is said to be flowing like rivers, dives are abundant, and a mulitude of sharpers and gamblers are reaping a rich harvest. The Emperor, at Gen Linevitch's request, has appointed a new provost marshalgeneral, and the commander-in-chief intends to restore order and institute more satisfactory conditions in the rear.

Port Arthur investigation.
St. Petersburg, May 22.—The commission investigating the surrender of Port Arthur has finished the first half of its labors. The investigation of documentary evidence presented by Gen. Stoessel in his own defence tended to show that the fortress at the outbreak of war was nearly defence-less, without supplies or cash.

Called Cut.

Chicago, May 22.—Sunday brought no change in the attitude of either side to the labor controversy now in progress in Chicago, and everything last night points to an extension of the teamsters' strike during the coming week. Officers of the seven express companies, whose refusal to reinstate any of their former employes, caused the collapse of the settlement of the trouble Saimday night, still adhere to their determination not to re-employ any of their former employes, and the other firms involved in the difficulty last night declared that they would stane by the express companies in the fight. The Tamsters' Union has taken just as him a stand as the employers' and it was said by President Shea last night that the union would not call off the strike said the express companies came to Lerus.

Spread Begins To-Day.

The first spread of the strike is expected to come this morning, when the Lumbermen's Association, which has an organization of 2,400 teamsters, issued an order to their men to make deliveries to all business houses, regardless of theither they are involved in the strike, is anticipation of such an order, the teamsters met yesterday afternoon in youted to ge on strike should any immigrar be discharged for refusing the over the order of the Lumbersen's Association.

13-Year-Old Josie Carr Abducts and Murders the Baby.

Hurled Baby of Mrs. Murray Down Railway Bank and Later Hid Body In a Culvert — Concocts Story to Throw Suspicion on the Mother— Father of the Murdered Baby Full of Pity for the Little Criminal-The Law on the Subject.

Toronto, May 22.—Through her ewn Toronto, May 22.—Through her ewn confession, Josie Carr, aged 13, is under arrest at police headquarters, facing the charge of having murdered the inne-month-old heavy of Mrs. William Murray of 43 Wellington avenue, the disappearance of which with its go-cart from Eaten's store was reported on Saturday. That such a mere child should be guilty of such a crime seems almost beyond comprehension, yet she has told in detail the story of the murder after a most amazing and inhas told in detail the story of the murder after a most amazing and in-gentous attempt to fasten suspicion en a mythical woman. From the first the various developments have been ex-traordinary. That a child should be kidnapped from the busiest of the shopping districts and no motive to be ascribed was most strange. Then the alleged finding of the body of the the alleged finding of the body of the baby within a few hours in a lone-some, desolate spot, faully murdered, and with little or no clue to the perpetrators of the deed, but increased the mystery tenfold, and that the murderess should practically accuse the mother of her yictim as the one to blame and should then be brought face to face without seawly makes life. blame and should then be brought face to face without results makes little wonder that public sentiment was aroused to such at pitch on Saturday night as it rarely has been in recent years. The mystery and its sensational clearing up by Detective Forrest Feceived more discussion yesterday then any other matter of public impacts of pub received more discussion yesterday than any other matter of public im-

Neelved more discussion yesterday than any other matter of public importance.

An Amazing Stery.

The infant was taken away from in front of the T. Eaton store on Queen street, where the mother left it in a go-cart for a few minutes. On Saturday morning the police were notified of the finding of the body in a railway sulvert near Greenwood avenue, naked and with its skull crushed. Detective Forrest, who had been detailed to the Woodbine race track, was sent for and at 4 o'clock saw the little body in the morgue. Then he listened to Josic Carr's wonderfully explicit statements concerning the appearance in the easters locality on Friday morning and again on Friday afternoon of a woman with the child in a go-cart and of how see and her 16 year-old sister Mand, funnting wild flowers, found the body. Having seen the mother. Forrest at night took the Carr girls to see if they could identify her as the mysterious woman. Josic said it was not Mrs. Murray. Within three hours she had confessed her own guilt, and with it has come the revelation that such a child—such an attractive, bright, sharp-witted child, too—is depraved in instinct and in conduct to an extent amazing even to the police.

Whe She Is.

Josic Carr is the daughter of a teamster in the employ of the Logan brick works. He and his family live at 422 Greenwood avenue. The child's story is that she was down town Friday afternoon with Annie Mitchell of 94 Lombard street, a girl of her own age. They walked around for a time and wheeled it away with the baby in it. Up to this time her intention was to steal the go-cart, for she had stolen baby carriages before this, and had no definite plans of how she would dispose of the baby.

She boarder a Parliament street car and rode to Gerrard and Pape avenue, the end of the car line. Going along Jones avenue she came to the railway Hopkins and John Brennan, were fined $50 each or 60 days in jail. Baby's option was 90 days' seclusion. A check for the amount was immediately turned over to Crown Attorney Drayton.

Magistrate Ellis in sentencing the party said that they deserved to be treated leniently because they had pleaded guilty. He hoped that the business would be permanently closed. The closing of the business was of more importance than inaposition of fines or imprisonment.

May Have Been Drowned.

Brantford, May 22.—Word has just been received by the friends of Huron Nelles, causing them much anxiety for his safety. He left the Twin Lakes about April 5 to join a surveying party. When about thirty miles from the camp he was met by two of the packers from the camp, who strongly advised him not to proceed, as there were signs of the ice in the river breaking up. However, Nelles went on and it is feared he has been drowned.

In the meantime Josie had concocted a story, which she told to the police when they questioned her. It was to the effect that she had seen a woman with a baby and a go-cart wandering around the scene of the murder on Friday morning at 11 o'clock and again at 4 o'clock, when she claims to have been coming from school. Josie's description of the woman whom she saw on Friday morning and afternoon was told with a wealth of detail.

ance, however. Mr. Murray, when seen at his home, 43 Wellington avenue, last night, had not been told the dircumstances that had brought about the death of the infant, beyond that little Josephine Carr had admitted having taken the child away from where it had been left by its mother. When, in reply te a question, the manner of the baby's end as confessed to by the juvenile abductor, was made known to him, he was silent for a time. Then he said, simply, "Poor little girl," and in his after references he showed ne other spirit than one of pity for the misguided little Carr sirl, whose mind, he declared himself convinced, was not wholly sound.

Mr. Murray declared himself unable to understand how the little Carr girl to understand how the little Carr girl was able to describe the dress of his wife so accurately as she did in her picture of the mythical woman, unless the girl had seen Mrs. Murray as she entered the store. The details tailied

"The shock of being under suspicion was very trying to her." said Mr. Murray, in speaking of the steps that had been taken in an attempt to clear up the mystery. The cause of the infant's death will not be told the mother until she has rallied from the extreme shock and is stronger.

What the Crown Must Prove.

"What punishment can be meted ant to that child?"

What the Crown Must Prove,
"What punishment can be meted out to that child?"

T. C. Robinette, K. C., who has been retained by Mr. Carr, said:
"When the accused is between the ages of 7 and 14 years it is on the Crown to prove that the child appreciated the nature and the consequences of the act—that the child knew it was a wrong thing to do. If the accused is over 14 the law presumes the perpetrater knews the consequences of the crime. This child is 13. There is a section in the act which makes child stealing an effence at the age of 7 years, but this girl will likely be charged with the murder. If it is proven that she knew the consequences of what she was doing she could be sentenced to death, but there are ne cases of capital punishment meted out to child criminals in Canada. There have been cases in the old country atvery young ages."

The child will appear in the pelice court this morning and will be remanded.

We Offer $1,000

For a Disease Germ That Liquozone Can't Kill.

on every bottle of Liquozone we of ser $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. We do this to assure you that Liquozone does kill germs.

And it is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken in ternally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact which gives Liquozone its worth to humanity: a worth so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights. And we haw spent over one million along the word would try it.

Corm Diseases.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquozone is not made by com-pounding drugs, nor is there any alco-noi in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the confor more than 20 years, been the con-stant subject of scientific and chemical stant subject of scientine and commensurescarch.

The result is a liquid that does what saygan does. It is a nerve food and shoot food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhibiterating, vitalizing, purifying. Wet it is an absolutely certain germicide. The reason is that germs are vegetables;

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature evercome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

50c. Bottle Free.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and we will pay the druggist curselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you, to show you what Liquozone is, and what it can do. In justice to yourself, please, accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligation whatever. WOMEN AND BANKING

ODD NOTIONS OF SOME OF THE FAIR SEX ABOUT FINANCE.

ous Line of Sample Cases That Came Under His Observation In the "Business women of course," said a veteran banker, "understand the routine of banking from the customer" side of it about as well as men, but the queer ideas the average woman not in business has about a bank would make a totem pole laugh.

"I lost an awful good account once because I couldn't convince a woman that a note put in the bank for collec-tion is not money. She came in one day, made out a deposit slip and tried to deposit a note just due. The teller told her that he would forward it for collection. That seemed to strike her as all right, and she kept on writing checks against her account.

"She overdrew in a day or two and we sent her notice. She came down in a towering rage and asked me what my bank meant by insulting her. Over-drawn? Ridiculous! Why, she had deposited $5,000 only a few days ago. What had we done with that money? "I tried to explain to her that the 'deposit' she referred to was only a note sent out for collection; that it had not been paid and might be returned unpaid. She flew into a passion. What did she care about $7. She had given it into the bank, and she meant to have the money on it.

"What were banks for? I caution "What were banks for? I cautioned her against checking against the amount of the note until it had been paid, but she went away in a huff and kept right on making checks until we had to stop her. We refused her checks, marking them 'No funds,' and then she withdrew her account. It turned out to be a dandy afterward, here with fee I understand she can't but to this day, I understand, she can't see any difference between notes, checks, drafts and currency.

"Strange as it may seem, the number of women—honest, absolutely guileless omen-who write other persons' sigwomen—who write other persons sig-natures to checks is large. Only to-day, for instance, the daughter of one of our best customers came into the bank with a check for $500 made payable to herself.

"Her father's name was signed to it, and he had plenty of money in the bank, but his daughter had signed his name herself. We explained to her that we couldn't pay out money on such an order or request.

"But, said she, we haven't a cent of money in the house. Papa is on the train somewhere between here and New York, and I—you don't suppose he'd hesitate to give us $500, do you?

"That young woman did not and could not understand why she didn't have as much right to use her father's credit at the bank as she had to use tredit at the bank as she had to use it at the dry goods stores and the butcher shops. I wanted to tell her that she had really committed forgery, but I didn't. I advanced the money on my personal account, and she went away a bit miffel and fancying that we were a fuser myreaganable of money gatherers.

"Things like that are always coming up in every bank. We had one depositor, an inexperienced young widow. She had over $30,000 in the bank. One She had over $30,000 in the bank. One day she came in and wrote a check for the full balance, payable to herself. The teller stared and asked how she'd have it. Any way would suit her, she said, only she wanted the cash.

"He sent word to me and began to count out the money in $100 and $500

notes. After counting them over she wrapped the whole sum up in a newspaper and went out. We were all puzzled, and we were afraid she might be robbed, so I sent two of the ner robbed, so I sent two drive cleas after her to see what she did with the money as well as to protect her. She walked through the crowded streets about six blocks to another bank and deposited the whole $30,000 to the credit of a poor young lawyer to whom, we afterward learned, she was engaged to be married.

"I don't think he was then aware of her intention to transfer her mo his account or transfer her money to his account or he would have advised her to get a certified or cashier's check instead of jugging her fortune through the downtown streets of a city like

"The woman depositor who can't understand why other persons' checks de-posited by herself are deducted from her account when they are no good is a familiar character in nearly every bank. "When such a check comes back and they are asked to take it up they will look unutterable scorn at the teller or look inutterable scorn at the relief of collector and say, 'I put it back? Well, I guess not. Why should I pay it? I didn't make it out. Mr. So-and-so gave it to me, and if it isn't good that's his lookout. Go after him. The idea! Surely you don't expect me to pay out my own good money for Mr. So-and-so!"

o!" "By drawing several diagrams, exert-"By drawing several diagrams, exerting much patience and diplomacy, you may convince such a woman that she has to cover the bad checks she deposits, but very often she refuses or fails to be convinced. She will probably insist on realizing on every cent the teller gives her credit for in her hank book, and if she doesn't get it look out. She'll take her account the some other bank and resume her determination to have 'her rights.' Oh, the inexperienced woman is almost as annoying and far more numerous than dishonest women, so 'ar as banks are concerned?"

ONE BOX OF DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

CURED DROPSY.

Dropsy is not a disease in itself, a any people believe, but is an evidence of very severe kidney trouble. Dropsy is caused by watery particles cozing through the walls of the arteries when they are distended by unusual pressure, which can enly be caused by obstructions in the kidneys. The symptoms of Dropsy are puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, urine changed in character and appearance, smothering feeling from exertion or excitement. The only rational method of treating this disease is to reach the kidneys and restor them to a healthy condition. The most successful remedy for this purpose is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read what Miss Agnes Creelman, Upper Smithville, N.S., says of them :- "I caught a cold, which settled in my kidneys, and turned to dropsy. My face, limbs, and feet became bloated, and if I pressed my finger on them it would make a white impression that would last fully a minute before the fiesh regained its natural color I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and found by their use that I was cured in a very short time. I have never had any trouble with it since.

such was evidently the thought borne in upon the tailor who, rising to state his case and having declined the services of a lawyer for reasons best known to himself, looked over the jurymen and then turned to the judge.

"It's no use for me to tell you about this case, your honor," he said dejectedly, "not unless you dismiss that jury and get in a new lot. There isn't a man among 'em but owes me something for clothes."

Marriage License Issuer to be Re-ported - Minister Neglects to Register-Judge Houston's Comment

"This is one of the saddest cases I have ever come in contact with. said Judge Houston at noon to-day said Judge Houston at noon to-day when he gave judgment dismissing the lad Will McCarthy, and finding the charge against his sister for concealing the birth of her child and neglecting it to its death proven. "I confess I find it difficult to say what must be done. I am thinking more of your welfare than the duty we all owe the community."

more of your welfare than the duty we all owe the community.

"You, my lad," the Judge continued, addressing the boy, "may go, and if you will allow me to give you advice, get a different home. You cannot live in a swamp all your life and not get the ague. If the Christian people of this community would secure you a home where you could earn your, own livelihood they would be doing a worthy service. I wish I could do something for you myself and I hope the county officials will in some way assist you to honest employment and education."

to honest employment and education."

To the girl the Judge said he must remand her till Monday to consider her case. Dr. Bray, who had officially investigated the case for the Goverament, had given evidence that she was very ignorant with a native cunning and hardly thought she was morally responsible, not knowing right from wrong, and the Judge must consider her case further. There were several startling facts disclosed in the trial by Crown Attorney Smith this morning. The girl claimed to have married Wm. Scott, a colored man and the father of the dead babe, in December last, and Scott corroborated, stating he get his license from Mr. Jordan and was married by Elder Selvey. Major Coogan twice visited Mr. Jordan's and reported he could not get any satisfaction.

"Bon't go again," said the Crown Atterney "This issuer of marriage and reported he could not get any satisfaction.

"Don't go again," said the Crown Attorney. "This issued of marriage licenses has apparently issued one for the marriage of a young white girl to a colored man and then refuses information to the authorities. This is the second time the Crown has been refused information from this source. I believe the license should be taken away from him and shall report to the Government on the matter at once,"

Investigation through City Clerk

matter at once."

Investigation through City Clerk Merritt also showed that if Elder Selvey had married the couple he never registered it and an investigation will follow.

The evidence of Dr. J. P. Rutherford Mrs. McCarthy, the mother, and her husband, Dr. Bray, Magistrate W. R. Hickey and Wm. Scott, the colored husband of the accused, was taken. Much of it was of a shocking character and revealed a deplorable state of affairs. The mother admitted the existence of the fence corner burying ground where she had admitted the existence of the fence corner burying ground where she had secretly buriued two of her ownbabies, five and three years age.

W. Frank Smith defended the accused and was complimented by the Court on his upbill work and his evident desire to do only what was really best for the accused.

Coroner Dr. J. L. Brây, LL. D., investigated the matter for the Government, but believed it was too late to examine the child's body. It was shown in evidence that it lived at least some six hours.

MR. JORDAN EXPLAINS.

Mr. Jordan this afternoon explained that the difficulty which had arisen over his license records was only the result of a misunderstanding. These he always considered of a confidential character and when Major Coogan required them without a subpoena or some authority, Mr. Jordan naturally questioned the course. The later subpoens was not course. The later subpoens was not served till after Mr. Jordan had left for luncheon and at 2.19 this afternoon on his return he fyled the records at the Crown Attorney's of

BOWYER STOOD BY PROMISE

Important Position in Peo-ple's Interests Taken by the Member for East Kent

With him Were Hugh Clark and Jos Downey-No More Subsidies to Railroad Corporations.

The declaration of Premier Whitney in the Provincial Legislature to the effect that it was not the intention of the Government to grant any railway bonuses and subsidies except in very special cases is a notable announcement in as much as it shows that the new Government is prepared to govern on lines entirely different from those followed by any previous Provincial Government.

In this connection it will be remembered that Phil. H. Bowyer, M. P. P. for East Kemt, at the great Whitney meeting held here previous to the last election, publicly told Mr. Whitney meeting held here previous to the last election, publicly told Mr. Whitney that he was opposed to the granting of any further subsidies and would oppose the same if any were brought down. Mr. Whitney took occasion to say in response that such was the kind of men wanted in the House and said he would hold him to his promise.

As a matter of fact, the policy of the Government in this matter has been largely influenced by Mr. Bowyer and some of his colleagues. It is well-known in parliamentary circles at Toronto that Mr. Bowyer with Hugh Clark, of Centre Bruce, and Jos. P. Downey, of Wellington, along with other newspaper representatives there were opposed to legislation of this kind and their influence resulted in the policy of the Government being declared as it has sentatives there were opposed to legislation of this kind and their influence resulted in the policy of the Government being declared as it has. The importance of the Government's declaration can scarcely be estimated, when the course of the past is considered, when thousands of acres of public lands have been handed over to these corporations, to say nothing of the thousands of dollars, per mile given in bonuses.

The Government's decision reflects great credit on men of the independent stamp of Phil Bowyer, and the people of Kent can rely on it that, as he goes on in the carnest effort to fulfil his ante-election pledges as he has been doing, their interests are safe and they were never better represented.

DEAR CAT

Mr. Beniteau Pays for a Dead Cat but Will Now be Able to Raise Chiek-

Probably the highest price ever paid for a cat in Chatham was paid by Mr. Beniteau at the Police Court this morning—for a dead cat at that, As was announced in Friday's Planet, Mrs. Jenkins laid the charge against Mr. Beniteau for killing her oat. The case was tried this morn-cat. The case was tried this morning, and Beniteau was fined $1 and costs, $3 in all.

The man who did the shooting was Frank Gagnier, but he acted as an agent for Beniteau. The latter claimed that the cat was killing his snozens and that was the reason he wanted to get rid of it.

Judge Houston held that morally Beniteau was not liable, but he was legally responsible. He made the fine as light as he could, under the statute. It Beniteau had shot the cat while in the act of killing the chickend he would have been safe, but he cannot kill a cat on any other person's premises according to statute,

24th Regiment Visits Christ Church and Hear Excellent Address of Their Chaplain

Splendid Music Rendered-Colone Rankin Extends Appreciation and Compliments Soldiers.

The inaugural church parade of the 24th Regiment was held yesterday, when the soldiers in a body attended divine service in Christ Church and listened to an earnest and eloquent discourse from their chaplain, Rey, Rural Dean McOosh. The members of the Regiment marched from their temporary quarters in the curling rink headed by the Regimental Band, under Bandmaster W. H. Walker, playing inspiring eacred music. All were out in force and the streets were lined with interested and enthusiastic spectators.

with interested and enthusiastic spectators.

Arrived at the church they were heartily welcomed by Rev. Mr. Mc-Cosh, who paid high tribute to the splendid military organization of which the citizens were so justly proud. He was glad to know that never before had the Regiment been in such a splendid condition and trusted it would continue to grow and prosper.

in such a splendid condition and trusted it would continue to grow and prosper.

The choir, under the direction of J. W. Wilson, contributed excellent music throughout and Miss Helen Thomas exquisitely rendered a beautiful soprane solo.

Rev. Mr. McCosh spoke from the words, "The Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw?" and spoke earnestly of the many great battles of life.

On returning to the drill hall Col. Rankin briefly addressed the Regiment, congratulating the men on their appearance and conduct and paying eulogistic tribute to the splendid service they had had the privilege of attending.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Commissioner Coombs Welcomed to the Maple City and Delivers an Ad-

Commissioner Coombs, of Toronto, paid his official visit to Chatham on Saturday and addressed a large erowd in the Sarvation Army Barfacks Saturday evening.

Mayor Cowan was to have delivered an address of welcoome, but appointed Ald. Bell to act in his stead. Ald. Hell also was unable to appear at the meeting, so the honor fell to Judge Houston. Rev. A. H. MacGillivray, Dr. Thornton, Judge Houston and Commissioner Coombs were the speakers. Judge Houston acted as chairman. He gave Mr. Coombs and General Booth.

Rev. Mr. MacGillivray made an excellent address, saying he was there to show his good will to the Salvation Army, as a representative of the clerrymen and also on his own behalf.

Dr. Thoraton, who represented the Methodists of the city, welcomed the head of the Salvation Army in Canada.

The speeches were interspersions singing.

The Commissioner was loud in his maises of Chatham. It is 16 years since he has been here, and he has noticed quite an improvement in the city in the line of good roads and residence. He says he would not readgnize Chatham as the same place. Commissioner Coombs left last evening for Windsor.

Dublin, May 22.—Chief Secretary Ireland Long gave a banquet to Irish Unionist members of the House of Commons Saturday night. He de-nounced the revolution proposals of Lord Dunraven, who, he said, was go-ing down the road which was traversed by others who had surrendered their forces in disorder. Certain reforms in the Irish administration were desirable, he added, but the country would not prosper unless the law was enforced and liberty was secured for all.

Paris, May 22.—The Temps Saturday publishes a despatch from Tangler, Morocco, announcing that a small British vessel, cruising on the Moorish coast, was attacked recently by pirates, who fired on the crew and riddled the British flag with bullets. GALLANT BOY

Clarence Barfoot Stops a Runaway and Saves Two Girls From a Dang-

Clarence Barfoot, son of Post-master S. Barfoot, was the hero of

Clarence Barfoot, son of Postmaster S. Barfoot, was the hero of the city Saturday evening about nine o'clock when he saved a couple of Raleigh girls from what might otherwise have been a very serious runaway accident.

The two girls were alone in a rig which was standing on King street when the horse became frightened and made a dash for liberty. This action on the part of the animal came quite unexpectedly to the two girls who were, as a result, unprepared. The horse turned the corner at the post office with the reins trailing along on the pavement.

Mr. Barf by was standing in front of St. Joseph's church when he saw the runaway approaching and he prepared to stop the horse. He was sucessful in the attempt but he received serious injuries in so doing. He caught the trailing lines and was dragged some distance along the pavement.

When the horse was finally stop-ped it was found that Mr. Barfoot had sustained severe bruises on his right arm and a local surgeon pronounced it temporarily paralized. Clarence is walking around to-day with his arm in a sling, but he is a gallant fellow, and the fact that the girls escaped uninjured helps him to endure the pain in his arm.

BIOYOLE ACCIDENT

Last evening about 9 o'clock a bioycle came to grief nearly in front of Briscos. King St. The boy on the bicycle was doing a "star" turn, viz., peddling with one foot and the other was the circus foot. The drive of the rig pulled into the curbing to awoid an accident, but the boy on the wheel, instead of taking the center of the pavement, ran into the rig. Result, a demolished hind wheel and congested otherwise. Moral: Boys, when on your wheel, see that you use both peddles and the handle bars. The boy was not hurt beyond a good shaking up, and it will serve as an excellent lesson to him in future. The driver of the rig, as soon as the boy was struck, pulled up to see if he was hurt.

THAT DECISION.

Chancellor Boyd's decision that boat is not a conveyance under the election law is of a highly technical character. The law forbids the elecbor to hire a "horse, cab, cart, wagon, sleigh, carriage, or other conveyance for a candidate, or for an agent of a candidate, or provide or furnish or pay for the railway conveyance or transportation of voters." The clear intention was to provide for every kind of transportation. There is no difference in substance between paying fare on a railway and paying Tare on a boat. The effect of such judgments is to impair the confidence of the people in the courts. It is impossible in drafting a statute to cover every possible case, and the omissions should be supplied by a sensible and liberal construction. Toronto News,

BIG FISH

Fisherman Stewart made a novel catch last week when lifting his mets, in the shape of a huge sturgeon. This fish measured six feet six inches from tip to tip, was one foot across the back and three feet in circumference. Its total weight was 150 pounds and would sell for about $11.00. The monster contained four gallons and a half of oil, which is used in the drug business, and is sometimes mixed with crude eaglobic acid to make a concoction for keeping flies off animals. Mr. Stewart informs us that fish of this tribe are caught larger than this one but not in these waters. In landing the piscis it was necessary to use an axe to stun the monster. A moderate catch of fish was taken in addition to this specie of the fiany tribe. Thus far this season the catch of fish has not been good.—Meflin Mirror.

THE TEACHERS OF EAST KENT

Splendid Convention Held in Ridgetown Was Largely Attended by All

Excellent Addresses Delivered Officers Elected and Other Business Transacted.

The following is a report of the proceedings of the East Kent Teach-

The annual convention of the East Kent Teachers' Institute was held Thursday and Friday last in the assembly room of the Collegate Institute. The meeting was called to order at ten o'clock Thursday with Vice-President Miss F. Smith occupying the chair, Mr. T. E. Caldwell, the regular President, being absent in the west. In spite of the inclement weather the Association is very largely attended, more than one hundred teachers being present. Routine business being disposed of several topics of interest were taken up and discussed. Mr. E. S. Stephenson, of Guilds, delivered an interesting and instructive address on "Anthmetic Limits for, 3rd, 4th and 5th classes." He illustrated his remarks with examples on the blackboard, thereby explaining many devices by means of which pupils may greatly shorten their work. Mr. Stephenson strongly advocated short solutions of problems which he claimed ensured greater accuracy and rapidity on the part of the pupil, while at the same time they trained his power of reasoning as much as do long solutions. A sharp discussion took place on the relative value of long and short solutions, but the Association showed it was keeping abreast of modern times by declaring in no unmistakable terms that the short way of working arithmetic is the best. The chief feature of the afternoon's proceedings was the appointment of committee of five to report to the convention next day on the advisability of passing a resolution teclaring for higher saluries. Several very interesting papers were read and discussed. The first, entitled "Looking Forward," was very ably managed by Mr. McCôrdic. The means by which the teaching profession could be elevated were clearily brought before the minds of those present and much credit is due Mr. McCordic. FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. At the morning session the first business to receive attention was the election of officers for the coming year, which resulted as follows:— President, Mr. D. Johnson, Mor-neth

Vice-President, Miss Causgrove, Ses-Treas, Mr. Colles, I. P. S.
Executive Com.—Mr. Black, Miss
Smith, Mr. Stevenson, Miss Waterworth, Mr. Cameron,

Executive Com.—Mr. Black, Miss Smith, Mr. Stevenson, Miss Water-worth, Mr. Cameron.

Auditors — Mr. Wilson and Mr. Wilkinson.

On motion of Miss Smith, the retiring Vice-President was, appointed delegate to the Ontario Educational Association.

The first paper was the report of last year's delegate to the On E. A. Mr. Kelly, B. A., of Bothwell. Mr. Kelly's review was listened to with a great deal of pleasure. His comments on the resolutions showed that he paid very close attention to the proceedings at Toronto. A hearity vote of thanks, was accorded Mr. Kelly for his admirable report.

The next item was "Nature Study," by Mr. Silcox, Ph. D., of St. Thomas, No better choice could passibly have been selected. To teachers just introducing Nature Study in their schools, Mr. Silcox' remarks were very opportune. He mentioned the importance, methods of teaching and advantages of this subject. "God and Nature; Man and Art": went together, and the study of nature is the only way by which you can understand revelation. Mr. Silcox also outlined the work to be taught in the separate forms, mentioning what fruits, flowers and vegetables could be studied to best advantage. Also, he explained the mounting and preserving of animal specimens. At the conclusion of Mr. Silcox' address, the convention adjourned till 1.30 p. m. In the afternoon session, Mr. Johnson's paper, "Teaching History," was first on the program.

Mr. Johnson emphasized the fact that a teacher mustknow history before he can teach it. He took a broad view of his subject, claiming a teacher sould not confine his pupils to the text book, but should encourage them to read outside in the papers or more especially in the school library, which engendered a love of history. While in reality one of the most important subjects it was perhaps the most poorty taught. This was the fault of the teacher. If the pupils do not like history it is because it is not presented to them in good shape. They are left to study with regard to history, Mr. Johnson showed his ideas were modern and correct.

Mr. Black, as chairman of the spectrum.

Mr. Black, as chairman of the special committee reported as follows:—
The committee met at 8.a. m. this morning and, after considerable discussion, it was resolved to submit the following resolution to the convention,—Resolved that we, the teachers of East Kent, assembled in convention, are heartly in sympathy with the resolution passed at the Convention of the Ontario Teacher's Association at its last meeting, concerning the re-organization of teachers for the purpose of securing increase of remuneration and thereby raising the status of the teacher and his profession.

ers for the purpose of securing increase of remuneration and thereby raising the status of the teacher and his profession.

Very spirited discussion took place before the resolution was accepted, not a few teachers maintaining that the matter of salaries should be controlled by the Legislature.

It was decided to send a special delegate to the O. E. A. to put forward as vigorously as possible the spirit embodied in the resolution. To Mr. Johnston has fallen this honor, the convention recognizing in him a stalwart champion of the rights and aspiration of the profession.

A second paper by Mr. Selcox, entitled "Education as a preparation for practical life," was next on the program, Most interest is taken by the pupils, said Mr. Silcox, in what they make or do themselves. Three aims should be kept in mind, viz., Do your own work, do it well, and do it for a purpose. To enable pupils to understand arithmetic it is necessary to make it more practical to do more measuring. Mr. Silcox demonstrated the arm, forearm and finger movements in writing. The sooner the methods used in the Business Colleges are adopted in the Publis schools, the sooner will out boys and girls become good writers. In drawing the first requirement is to locate points, and in joining them with a line to watch the point instead of the hand. Hapid work should be practised, including drawbest results it is best to have the best results it is best to have the best results it is best to have the best results.

stead of the hand. Hapid work should be practised, including drawbest results it is best to have the best results it is best to have the best results it is best to have the best results it is best to have the pupil memorize certain forms of common objects. Clay modelling adapted to geography was also referred to as a good device as it enabled the pupil to grasp in their minds the rivers, mountains and other physical features of a continent. On resuming his seat Mr. Silcox was heartily applauded for his interesting and instructive address.

The last paper on the program by Mr. Stevenson was entitled "The teachers study of himself." Not "How much is learned but how much is understood" is the standard to come up to. Education should aim at giving power rather than information. It brings activities into play and must be based on the pupils' experiences. We must not lose sight of the co-relation of the subjects of study. All knowledge is based on experience, and schools must supply that experience. Don't stick to the text book, but get information from a score of outside sources.

But Bomb Exploded Killing Bearer and Two Detectives.

Warsaw, May 20.—A workman who was trying to avoid the observation of two detectives on Miodows street at noon yesterday stumbled on the curb of the sidewalk, and a bomb which he was carrying in his pocket exploded, killing the workman and both the detectives, and wounding some persons who were passing by.

It is believed that the bomb was intended for Governor-General Maximovitch, who was expected to pass the spot on his way to the cathedral to attend the service in honor of the Csar's birthday.

The bodies of the victims were literally blown to pieces. A cafe near the scene of the axplosion was entirely demolished, all the windows in the neighborhood was smashed, and a lamppost was torn out of the ground. The explosion occurred only a minute before the people commenced to pour out of the cathedral. Three minutes later the Governor-General would have passed the spot. THE HUMAN BRAIN. Our Most Highly Specialised and Vitalised Organ.

Seven

The story of the brain as scientists have gradually unfolded its peculiar construction is of marvelous interest. This pulpy and apparently homogeneous mass is rev-aled to us as the most highly specialized and distributed. geneous mass is restaled to us as the most highly specialized and vitalized organ in the human body. It consists of 'hundreds of millions of separate and independent organisms, once known as nerve cells, but now called "neurones." These units of the brain are independent bodies and consist of a cell body its aris and its branches. a cell body, its axis and its branches The cell body contains within its cov ering membrane elements which gen erate the nerve force or energy. The axis is the nerve or medium which conveys that force, and the branches are the means of communication of the neurones with each other and with the organs and tissues to which the nerve is distributed. The life history of these microscopical bodies is the cells of other organs and tissues. They are implanted before birth and may remain dormant for a lifetime. If stimulated to activity they cularge through more abundant nutri-tion, but waste and atrophy when the stimulant is removed. They are under-going constant changes through the process of nutrition and from the in-numerable impressions made upon them by objects within and without the body. Stephen Castiti

OLD TIME COSMETICS. Dames of Antiquity.

A most repulsive cosmetic, but one which some Roman dames of antiquity which some Roman dames of antiquity esteemed as most precious, was the blood of the young hare.

During the sixteenth century the water in which beans had been boiled was used as a complexion wash, and this farinaceous water is entitled to all the fame it possesses. The ancient Gauls, whose beautiful color was a subject of so much envy to the patrician Romans, washed their faces in the foam of beer; also in a liquid made from dissolving chalk in vinegar.

also in a liquid made from dissolving chalk in vinegar.

An old Italian recipe for obliterating the injurious effects of sait air and sunshine is to bathe the face with the white of an egg well beaten. Let it dry on the skin and riuse it off after after after minutes. This treatment must be repeated three or four times and always at night before retiring.

Rome under the empire and Greece during the time of Pericles were selzed with a mania for golden hair. Many a dame dampened her raven tresses in the strongest of muriatic acid and sat in the sun to bleach her hair to the coveted yellow. Others used lye and afterward anointed their heads with ell made from goat fat, ashes of the beech tree and certain yellow flowers.

The finger of suspicion has few good points.

PORTIERES UP TO DATE.

The "Passing of the Portiere" Is Only From Inappropriate Use. There are rumors of the passing of the portiere. In fact, in many homes

I have lately observed a marked tendency on the part of people of artistic tastes, coupled with financial ability, to a gradual disuse of the much abused to a gradual disuse of the much abused portiere. Wishing to know the truth of this from the standpoint of trade, I interviewed a leading decorator and received a most emphatic and decided refutal of such rumors.

Wide archways cannot be effectively treated without curtains. Whether these shall be so arranged as to fullness that they can be drawn and completely close the aperture or simply a line of drapery in graceful folds drawn to either side and serving merely to soften the rigid outlines of the door frame or arch depends upon individual tast arch depends upon individual taste and necessities.

The abuse of the portiere consists in its awkward and unnecessary use over doors instead of in arches or doorways where doors have been removed and in hanging too many of them in a single small room, thus imparting stuffness rather than coziness. Badly chosen ma-terial, too, may be considered as an abuse, for, whereas the portiere should lend elegance, in the case of inappropriate fabrics it simply adds tawdriness.

New Goods.

A somewhat new material, extremely handsome and suitable for use with plain walls, is the "foliage tapestry," which lends itself to most color which lends itself to most color schemes, coming, as it does, in every shade to which every variety of foliage is subject, from the first tender shoot of the apple or willow to the hoar and yellow leaf of autumn. While not reyellow leaf of autumn. While not re-versible, the wrong side is of such a weave that no lining is necessary if the adjoining reom is not in tones which make it impossible on this account. Silk velours holds a first place where richness and elegance are required. Combined with quiet, tasteful, but not costly furniture, it is not unsuitable in the cottage home if plainly hemmed and not adorned with applique of any sort. Both this and the tapestry spoken of above are simply finished by having the selvage removed and the cut edge slightly rolled and hemmed by hand. The richest treatment of this material is a straplike or foliage effect of leather or cloth appliqued.

Descending many grades in price, there are plain reps and armures and brocades of cottons, either mercerized or not, which sell from $1 to $2 per yard, and jute, plain and printed, which may be embellished by a band down the front and across the bottom of tapestry which comes for the pur

When, however, it comes to the miniwhen, however, it comes to the mini-mum of cest there is absolutely noth-ing so well worth while as denim or canvas. Burlap has an undesirable stiffness since the mission of the por-tiere is to soften, although as so tone and coloring it is often effective.

Colonial cottons, an inexpensive ma-terial, double width, come in small, two tones scarcely discernible checks.

Mew to Hang Portieres.

The question is often asked, "Shall I hang my portiere with rings or by throwing over the poles?"

If doorways are low, not more than six feet six inches or seven feet, sew them to rings.

If the archway is high, awkwardly so, and you do not wish to lower it with the also everworked "grill," throw the curtain over the pole and throw the curtain over the pole and let it break the long straight line on the side of the most important room by a fall of two or more feet.

Curtains made from a number of whole skins roughly laced together, with slashed edges, are very handsome for dens or smoking or billiard rooms.

And then when you get quite desperate and long for the taste of green growing things make a few delicate sandwiches from potted or home pounded meats rubbed smooth with mayonnaise, and before putting on the upper slice lay on thinly sliced cucumbers or minced celery dipped in French dressing, or, failing these, minced olives, capers or pickled nasturtiums.—Table Talk.

As Easter Week Luncheon.

At a bridesmaids' funcheon included in the scheme of festivities for an Easter bride, as described by an exchange, a pretty feature was the souvenir, resting beside the tumbler, for each guest. These souvenirs consisted of small heart shaped boxes covered with pieces of the bride's wedding dress and decorated with sprays of degwood done in water colors. The boxes were filled with sugared rice and a thy candy four leafed clover for good luck.

Bell Weather.

On the fifth bell of the Tadcaster peal is cast the inscription, in raised letters, It is remarkable that these bells were moulded in the great frost, 1783."
(This frost began in 1783, and lasted three months.)

Impeding the Traffic.

In 1569 an order was issued to the residents of the City of London that they were not to stretch clothes lines across the streets to dry their linen on,

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Frolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they sak is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I used four bottles of your "Favorite Prescription" and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery." writes Mrs Elmer D, Shearer, of Mounthope, Lancastereded disease, utering trouble, Am in better health than ever before. Current Press paragraphs advertise that a certain Norfolk rector whips up that a certain Norfolk rector whips up a Sunday morning congregation by calling on his laggard parishioners and rousing them with a hand-bell to a sense of duty; but there is nothing novel about that method of filling a church. In the middle ages, and down to pretty late in the last century, it was the custom to many (particularly in the northern) parts of the country for the churchwardens to sally forth affor the churchwardens to sally forth af for the churchwardens to sally forth ar-ter the Litany, armed with serviceable canes, and, literally "whip up" a con-gregation from the lotterers in high-ways, byways, and taverns, whom they drove to church before them, as they would drive cattle to market, Down In a Diving Bell.

The writer of a most interesting article on the building of Dover Harbor, in the Pall Mall Magazine, describes his experiences in a diving bell.

"Putting on a pair of stockings, leggings, and heavy boots," he says, "I jumped on to the seat when the huge bell—it weighed 40 tons and was as large as a good-sized room—was swung up by the powerful crane over the staging, and gradually we were lowered into the sea. The sensation at first was very strange. As we entered the water, which was driven but of the bell by compressed air, there was a distinct buzzing sound in the ears and head. I was told to hold my nose and blow through it, and, needless to say, I did so, Slowly we descended, and at last reached the bottem, some 50 feet below the surface.

"The bell in questien was seventeen feet long and ten feet wide. There were six of us in it. It was lighted by electricity, and was almost as bright as day. We first landed on a bed which the divers had previously levelled. The moment the bell touched the ground there was, perhaps, about two feet of water in it. This was quickly driven out by the compressed air, when we walked on comparatively dry ground with the sea all around us. The man in charge is able to move his bell, where he wishes by sending signals up to the man in charge of the great crane to which the bell is attached.

"After inspecting the smooth bed on which the bottom blocks are laid, we An Historic Bell, The "vestry bell" of Tottenham Church has a rather interesting history. Church has a rather interesting history. When the French held Quebec it was the alarm bell of the garrison there, whence it was taken and brought to England by some British sailors who were engaged in the fight of 1759, which gained us the Province and lost us Gen. Woife. On its arrival here it was bought for £20 by a Tottenham resident—one Mr. Jackson—who gave it to the parish church in 1801. It is inscribed "Sit nomen Domine benedictum," and is remarkable for its clear tone, which is attributed to an exceptionally large proportion of silver in its composition.

Drinking and Eating.

It used to be the practice in some parts of Lancashire to spend the fines which had been inflicted during the week upon parishioners, for drunkenness in loxves of bread; which after church service on Sunday morning, were carried into the churchyard by the sexton, and there distributed among such of the poor folk of the parish as had attended the service.

"After inspecting the smooth bed on which the bottom blocks are laid, we went out to see, and, landing on the bettom again, obtained some idea of the difficulties of digging a foundation on the floor of the ocean. It was ragged and rocky. Four men work in a bell under a presure of twenty-seven pounds to the square inch for three hours at a time, digging up the ground until it is perfectly smooth and level. The material is thrown into a large wooden box, awang in the centre of the bell. the late Robert Gibbs, F. S. A. The condemned woman was allowed to leave the prison to do a day's washing. Unexpectedly the warrant arrived during her absence from gaol. A turnkey was sent after her with the unwelcome intelligence that it had been received, and he addressed her:—"Guyner says you be to come home and be hung." "What must be must," was the philosorphical remark of the condemned, as she wiped her hands on her apron. Novelist Saw Ghosts.
Rider Haggard, the author of "She," who is now visiting Canada in the role, apparently, of a scientist, has had some curious experiences with the spirit world. He was visited one night last summer by the ghost of his favorite dog, who had, unknown to him, just been run over and killed on a railroad trestle. He was awakened by his wife because of his groaning, and carefully noted the hour, 2 a. m. Subsequent in quiry disclosed the fact that the dog had been run over about it p. m. of ise night in question, but lived for several hours afterward, and that probably just at the moment of its death, 2 a. m., the ghost appeared in the bedfoom of Mr. Haggard, several miles sway.

A Prince's Version. A Prince's Version.

It is pretty hard to keep certain historical facts bearing upon royalty from the children howadays. Eleven-year-old Prince Edward of Wales, in reply to King Edward's question, said that he had been reading about Perkin Warbeck. Asked who Warbeck was, the prince replied: "He pretended he was the son of the King, but he was it, he was the son of respectable parents." Minard's Liniment Relieves Neu-

THE CHANGE OF LIFE INTELLIGENTWOMEN PREPARE

Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the suxiety felt by women as this time draws near women as this time draws near is not without is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition; or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite; weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period, and may be relied upon to overcome all distress-ing symptoms and carry them safely through to a healthy and happy old age. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other-medicine can.

Madame Louis Belleau, of 17 Ramsay St., Quebec, Que., writes:

St., Quebec, Que., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound assisted me to pass the change of life with but very little sickness and pain, and I am pleased to give it my endorsement, for I feel that it is the medicine which every woman should take. I am the mother of three children, and when I reached the age of fifty naturally my health was none too good, and I feel sure that if I had not taken your Vegetable Compound I should not have passed the climax safely. I took it off and on for two years and now find that I am in splendid health and strength and feel younger and hetter than I did the years ago. Much praise to your medicine, and may all suffering women learn of its value."

THE CENTO.

What the Word Strictly Reans and What It Heans In Poetry.

A cento is strictly a coat made of patches. In poetry it is a piece wholly composed of verses or passages taken from different authors and so placed ingether as to ferm a new poem with a fresh meaning of its own.

According to the rules laid down by

According to the races and cown by Ausonius, author of the famous "Nup-tial Cento," the pieces may be taken from one poet or from several. The Empress Endorsk wrote a life of Christ in Centos taken from Homer, and Alexander Ross used Virgil for the same purpose.

The following are modern instances:

I only knew she came and went (Lowell)
Like troutlets in a pool (Hood).
She was a phantom of delight (Werdsworth), And I was like a fool (Eastman).

"One kiss, dear maid," I said and sighed

She shook her ringlets round her head (Stoddard) And laughed in merry scorn (Tennyson).

Just a Hint.
"John," she said softly, "have you been saying anything about me to mother lately?"

"No," replied John. "Why do you ask?"

"Because she said this morning that she believed you were on the eve of proposing to me. Now, I do not wish you to speak to mother when you have me, and I'll manage the business with mother."

And John said he would.

Not an Episcopalian. When Bishop Codman was appointed When Bishop Codman was appointed to the Episcopal diocese of Maine he made a tour of his diocese and happened to stroll into a woodman's cottage. Asking the woman of the house if there were many Episcopalians around there, she replied: "Well, I don't know. They caught seme wild thing out here in the woods a couple of weeks ago, if that's what you mean, but I think my husband said it was a woodchuck."

GOOD WORK

Mr. Groves Keeps the Crowd Back on Saturday and has a Suggestion for the Football Club

"It was a pleasure to stand on the Park on Saturday and witness the football game between Chatham and Darrell," said a man who saw the contest. "There was a big crowd there and everyone could see every play that was made, and the credit for this is all due Police Officer Tom Groves, who had the job of keeping the crowd back off the field. Mr. Groves makes an excellent man forthis special work and he certainly did his duty on Saturday."

Mr. Groves is indeed to be commended for his work on Saturday, and the two teams are greatly indebted to him. It was about the first time that the spectators were kept from crowding on the field, and the effect was quite noticeable in the game.

Mr. Groves, however, has a suggestion to make which, if carried out,

The two young men from Niagara Falls, who were arrested a week ago for breaking into a sealed Wabash car and stealing a ride, were dismissed at the Police Court this morning and ordered to pay the costs of the case, which amounted to $17.50. The charge was reduced to one of stealing a ride, and this being the boys' first offense they were dismissed. Detective Williams, of the Wabash, did not push the case, and Mr. Simpson, of Niagara Falls, appeared on behalf of the boys, representing the Chief of Police of Niagara Falls. O. L. Lewis appeared as counsel for the boys. Messrs. Harrington and A. B. McCoig also put in a good word for the youthful offenders.

kept from crowding on the field, and the effect was quite noticeable in the game.

Mr. Groves, however, has a suggestion to make which, if carried out, would help him wonderfully in his work, and that is the wearing of badges of authority by goal referese and linemen, and all officials.

"There are many spectators," said Mr. Groves, "who see the linemen standing outside the flags at the side, and they think that if one man is allowed to crowd out they should have the privilege of going out, too, Many of them do not know that these men are officials and entitled to go out, but if these men wore badges of authority, this trouble would be done away with and would savesthe police officer untold trouble. "I like to see a good game of football and I like others to see it, but the spectators should remember that if they do not keep back the policeman has instructions to stop the game altogether. I would not like to go so far as that, but while I am there the crowd will simply have to keep back, and that is all there is to it," concluded the officer; and svery man who knows Mr. Groves knows that he talks conscientiously and means what he says.

Mr. Groves suggestion re the badges is a good one and should be considered by the football club.

A game of football was played Sat arday evening in North Chatham beween the East and West end, teams captained by Willie R. Galbraith and Jimmie Moffatt, Georgie Robinson captained by Willie R, Galbraith and Jimmie Moffatt. Georgie Robinson acted as referee. The goals scored were 3 to 3. A beturn match will be played to-morrow evening.

A very fast game of football was played on the Park Satunday afternoon between Darrell and Chatham. He came were evenly matched and the score resulted in a tie of 1.—1. Abraham scoring for Darrell and Anderson for Chatham. The Chatham forward line played good combination but had a hard defence to go against. Percy Parrott, Asher, Fraser, and Hicks did some fast work. The game was the best played here this year and was witnessed by a very large crowd of spectators. The Darrell team came in with full strength and were in excellent condition. The Chatham team was the same that played the week before with the exception of Martin, who played in place of Love, who is laid up with an injury. The Chatham boys were not in as good shape for the game owing to the fact that they have been unable to practice for a week.

It was generally remarked that the man who saved the day for Chatham was Joe Robert, who covered the space between the goal posts. Mr. Robert is one of the best goal tenders who ever played for Chatham and he made some brilliant stops—some that looked almost impossible to stop. The goal is a difficult place to play. An error in the field may be overlooked in the play de well and made some good stops, while Langford and Fisher, were towers of strength in the field. The next game will be played on the 24th of May at four c'clock in the afternoon.

curate Account of the Destruction of Life in Pain Court by This Dreaded Disease in 1861

Vital Gendrean, the champion fisherman, is one of the most faithful and constant readers of The Planet. Mr. Goudreau has a strong love for the truth and accurateness as feaders of The Planet are no doubt aware of from the accounts of Vitars fishing, experiences as recorded from time to time. Just at present, however, he is not interested in fishing, but he is interested in the items which appear in The Planet and he takes exception to one which appeared in the Auld Lang Syne column, on Saturday. The item was filled to a mail-pox, prevails to a considerable extent in Pain Court settlement, Dover East, several deaths having already occurred there. Out of one family no less than three children have, been stanck down by this fell destroyer, and on Tuesday last, the lather, Joseph Poquet, died of the same disease. People had better be cautious." Now Vital was in Pain Court in in 1861 and he remembers the incident well as a boy.

"There was small-pox in Pain Court at that time," said Mr. Goodreau, "but that item is not altogether cor. "but that itme," said Mr. Goudreau, "but that item is not altogether correct. The oldest boy of the family was laken down with small-pox and everyone left the house but Mrs. Poquet, The eldest son died and his brother went back to the house his looss at him. He looked through a broken pane of glass in the window and he caught the disease and died too. Mrs. Poquet nursed both sons and did not catch it at all and was never vaccinated, The lather did not catch it and lived for many years afterwards, in fact he only died a few years ago."
