Expect Commons To Give Lloyd George Strong Endorsement

Extreme Unionists' Challenge on Irish Negotiations Again Talk of New Party and Bonar Law Named as Possible Chief.

FIFTEEN YEARS IN PRIZE RING

Leach Cross Has Bout for Anniversary

An International Bout Tonight—Baseball Men in Pro Basketball Team—Late News of Sporting Events.

New York, Oct. 28.—Leach Cross, veteran lightweight, will observe the fifteenth anniversary of his professional ring career on November 4, by engaging Frank Maxwell in a decision bout.

Cross has won two decision bouts since he essayed a come-back several months ago.

New York, Oct. 28.—Eric Rice of England, holder of the world lightweight emblematic of the English lightweight boxing championship, will meet Sailor Friedman of Chicago in a fifteen-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight. Should Rice be victorious, he will call himself champion, knocking the wind out of the Unionists who were sponsors of the voting of censure to the government, whose votes were read in the House on Wednesday.

It was remarked by the Times and some other journals, however, that the main purpose of the censure was to force the government to make a statement in parliament, and assertion was made that for this reason Unionist abstentions from the voting of next Monday would be almost as significant as a defeat.

The Times will emphasize this fact, placed emphasis upon the declaration that Eamon De Valera's repudiation of the loyalty to the king had so stirred Unionists throughout the country, that party members belonging to that party were favorable to the continuation of the Irish conference were being pressed to dissociate themselves from the government's policy.

Unionist ministers were dreading that they would be given great embarrassment by this situation, and the Times asserted that party members belonging to that party were favorable to the continuation of the Irish conference were being pressed to dissociate themselves from the government's policy.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 28.—"Rabbit" Maraville, Pittsburgh shortstop, has taken up his usual active life by organizing a professional baseball team.

The team includes Hank Gowdy of the Braves, Frank Brugy of the Philadelphia Nationals, and Charles Keating, former Hall of Fame shortstop.

New York, Oct. 28.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, former heavyweight wrestling champion, in his first step to regain the title from Stanislaus Zbyszko, will meet Joe Polk, undefeated, in a next Thursday. It will be the first bout in New York under the new rules, which were adopted one day.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—The fight for the national pocket billiards championship has narrowed today to two men, Sailor Friedman of Chicago and Artie Woods of Minneapolis, with the former holding the advantage.

Greenleaf has won seven matches and lost none, while Woods has six victories to his eight.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—The 1922 tournament of the American Bowmen Congress will be held in the terminal auditoriums of the Canadian Pacific Feb. 27 and continuing through March 26. Entries will close February 1.

New York, Oct. 28.—Mr. G. M. Clegg, president of the championships of Great Britain, France and Canada, had a double task today that drew a large gathering to the Pelham Country Club. She was out today doing duty on behalf of the British, who became champions in the morning, and James Barnes, Pelham professional and open champion of the U. S. in the afternoon.

GUNS LAY IDLE IN N.Y. POST OFFICE

Never Taken Out of Packing Case, Though Sent for Protection in Handling Rich Mails.

New York, Oct. 28.—A consignment of fire arms that lay in a packing case in the New York post office when auto劫匪 held up the building a lone, unarmed mail truck driver of $1,454.12 last Monday night, were out today doing duty on behalf of guards who accompanied similar treasure trucks through the city's streets.

One of the first things posted by General Hayes, director of the post office, he arrived here yesterday was that a large shipment of guns sent to arm New York City police employees after a series of mail robberies in other cities, still were in the shipping cases. He also then unapcked and took to work. He also ordered an investigation to determine who was responsible for their non-delivery.

NAVAL POLICY

Lloyd George Speaks of Modernizing Bases, Including Pacific.

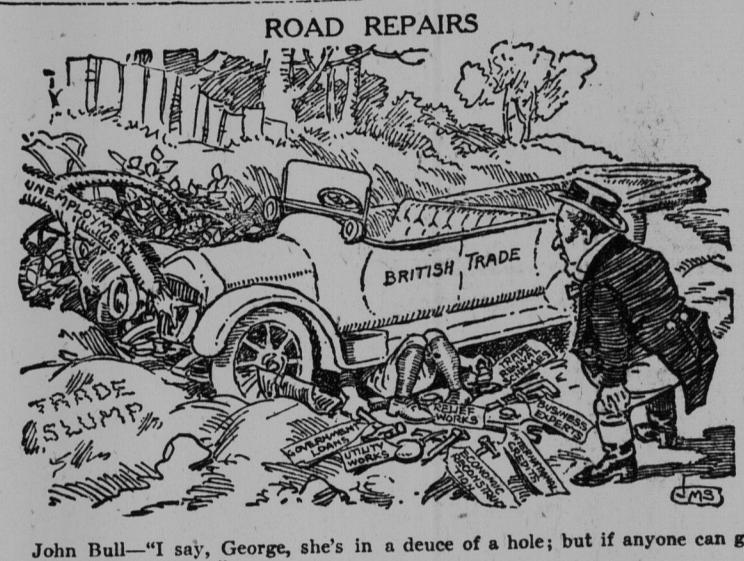

London, Oct. 28.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons yesterday, the premier announced that the imperial conference, which opened with the policy adopted previously by the admiralty that, for the better security of Great Britain's existing possessions, certain bases had to be had in the Pacific, needed modernizing and in special cases extending.

It was not intended, however, to ask parliament to vote any additional money this year because of the adoption of this policy.

London, Oct. 28.—Premier Lloyd George will confront the House of Commons on Friday, Nov. 1, and ask for a mandate relating to the continuation of the negotiations between delegates of the government and the Dail Eireann, the representative of the present government brought to a head the seemingly serious situation which has developed during the last fortnight by the alleged defection of Unionist leaders and contestants from support of the coalition government.

It was expressed by newspapers here today that the government's recent popularity in support of the policy it had followed relative to Ireland, and that the ministry's hands would be strengthened in dealing with the Sinn Fein representatives.

John Bull—"I say, George, she's in a deuce of a hole; but if anyone can get her out of it, you can," said Lloyd George. "I'll do my best, sir."

Irish Negotiations Are Off Until Next Week

Will Not be Resumed Until After Commons Discusses Government's Policy—DeValera Again Chosen.

London, Oct. 28.—The Irish conference was suspended until after next Monday, the day set for a discussion in the House of Commons of the government's policy in dealing with representatives of the Dail Eireann. Executive members of the committee representing the government and Sinn Fein delegations have been summoned to attend the meeting.

It was remarked by the Times and some other journals, however, that the main purpose of the censure was to force the government to make a statement in parliament, and assertion was made that for this reason Unionist abstentions from the voting of next Monday would be almost as significant as a defeat.

According to information obtained at Sinn Fein headquarters today, however, Premier Lloyd George and Lord Chancellor Birkenhead may meet Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins, the Irish members of the committee, on Monday.

Some of the members of the Dail delegation, anticipating a blank weekend, had arranged to return to Ireland tonight, but Mr. Griffith asked that they remain in London until the return of the delegation.

Moreover, he desired that the delegation should review together the whole situation, especially to Monday's meeting of the Conference.

Since far circuses were not apprehensive of the action of the Dail delegation, they intended that the conference might be broken off.

The Times will emphasize this fact, placed emphasis upon the declaration that Eamon De Valera's repudiation of the loyalty to the king had so stirred Unionists throughout the country, that party members belonging to that party were favorable to the continuation of the Irish conference were being pressed to dissociate themselves from the government's policy.

FATHER VAUGHN'S REPLY. Accused of Favoring a Secular Sunday.

London, Sept. 26.—(By Mail)—Father Bernard Vaughn has answered the critics who accuse him of favoring a secularized Sunday, in a sermon quoted by the Daily Express.

"God wants man to be happy and natural and happy on all days of the week. What He hates is cant, hubris and hypocrisy. That's" said Father Vaughn, preaching in Glasgow.

"Is what I reply when I am plagued for heresy by some ministers of the Gospel."

"There has been much said of late about Sunday observance and want of observance, but the fact is we are experiencing the swing of the pendulum from a strict Sunday to one lax enough to empty church and churchgoers' souls, and to be marked off from the rest of the week as a day to recreate the body even more than the soul.

At one time religion had a look in every day of the week. God was worshipped at the time, and people were every day, and on Sundays, after the people had 'given the soul her food' they had a good time in the afternoon.

"I am contented that it was felt you were in the measure in which you were sad and sorry. That is a libel on the character of Christ and a caricature of His holy religion."

LAVING OF BRICKS

BECOMING LOST ART

Technical School May Establish Classes for Suitable Instruction.

A class for teaching bricklaying may be started at the Central Technical School, Toronto, says the Globe, of that city. At a meeting of the Advisory Industrial Committee of the Board of Education, a representative of the Bricklayers' Association said that the laying of bricks was an art that was very much in demand, and that the demand was becoming more and more difficult to secure trained bricklayers. It was suggested that a class might be started for boys over fourteen years of age, at which they might learn the art.

The committee agreed to be favorable to the proposal, and asked Principal McKay to report on its possibilities.

Which?

Should quality or low price guide a man in the selection of a Suit of Clothes or an Overcoat?

His first consideration should be quality, because price is not the only factor in determining QUALITY. Men who buy low-priced clothing without regarding quality are beaten by those who do.

Gilmour clothes are quality clothes throughout, and inexpensive to outfit. All Wool fabrics are the best workmanship and a combination which assures quality and guarantees service and satisfaction.

MATTERS POLITICAL

Having failed to get a Liberal Unionist to consent to become a candidate along with Hon. Mr. Baxter, the Conservatives in convention last night selected Dr. Murray MacLaren, and at the same time gave a severe jolt to the ambitions of Mr. F. L. Potts. The latter revealed the fact that he had got wind of the proposal to link up with a Liberal if one could be found willing to face defeat in that company, and his disapproval had brought him into the field. However, he announced that he would support Dr. MacLaren. The convention was not without its element of humor. Hon. Mr. Wigmore was there and nominated Mr. Baxter. So far as we may gather from the Standard report, Mr. Wigmore was not received with thunders of applause, but he is believed to have the assurance of a more substantial reward. On the whole the convention was more harmonious than was expected, in view of the Standard's references yesterday to "differences between sections of the government party." No doubt the fact that Mr. Dr. Pugsley had declined the Liberal nomination brought some degree of hope in the dark hour of the Baxter-Smith-Jones party. At all events, the party has been able to get candidates in the field with some outward show of unity.

The Conservative convention in Northumberland county seems to have been less happy. While Mr. E. A. McCurdy, brother of the minister of public works, was nominated, the Standard reports:

"It is understood that protests were made as to the regularity of the convention, and it may prove necessary to call another one."

The nomination of Col. S. Boyd Anderson by the Conservatives of Westmorland, and the endorsement of Mr. A. E. Trites, the farmer candidate, by the independent labor party of Moncton, ensures a lively campaign in that county, with Mr. A. B. Copp easily the favorite.

The selection of Dr. McAlister, ex-M. P. as the Liberal candidate in Royalton is a guarantee that there will be a vigorous fight in the constituency. As it is a three-cornered fight the people will all be in it, and Dr. McAlister may be counted on to make a thorough canvass of the two counties. Sir George Foster is now addressing audiences in Prince Edward Island, and the Toronto Telegram says he will also speak in New Brunswick. Perhaps, with his senatorial honors still fresh upon him, he may feel like saying a word for Mr. Jones in Royal, and incidentally showing his appreciation of the Baxter-Smith-Jones brand of politics.

The political pot in New Brunswick is beginning to boil. There are to be three-cornered fights in several constituencies, and everywhere there is a growing interest in the issues of the campaign.

WHAT—MORE FARMERS?

Without any desire to embarrass Premier Meighen it seems necessary in the public interest to call attention to a danger that threatens. We already know (on the authority of Conservative leaders) how great a menace to this country the farmers are, and especially those farmers who come as immigrants and are successful in agriculture. If they are a menace now, what will they be if more of them are encouraged to come? Yet here is a contributor to the Montreal Gazette, a pronounced Conservative journal, who actually comments on their life as follows:

"An immediate increase of the number therefore, is to make timely arrangements in advance for pumping in the right kind of settlers for the land. Not only this! Care must be taken to see that the newcomers are placed on the land under favorable conditions and that they stay on the land and make good there. Thirty million acres of fertile prairie soil lying close to existing railway lines cry out for the taking. The older provinces of confederation have the land and the resources to support many times their present populations. So has British Columbia. The thing to do is to get busy. Let everybody help—the federal and provincial governments, the railways, the press, the Western Canada colonization association, and every other immigration organization capable of effective mobilization."

This misguided individual declares that our own the way there could never be from two to three millions more people in Canada than the census returns indicate, and that "the time has arrived to begin preparations for diverting our share of immigrants this way now for carrying out effective immigration."

You have done your share in helping the orphans? The fair has still two nights to run.

OCTOBER.

(Blanche Mary Kelly in America) Amid what pomp the year awaits his death, In regal state, majestic and serene. Baring her breast to winter's pond'ring keen, His sleeping gasping till his latest breath.

He has put on bright robes of festal, Scarlet, and purple and resplendent Wrapping him close against the mounting cold, And on his brow his crown imperial.

Now in full court the festival board is spread, With the spoil of orchard, field and vine, With sturdy hand he drains of ruddy wine One brimming beaker — and the King is dead.

A robin from the maple's topmost spray, Belated minister, tells his roundelay.

Eloquence Plus. "I don't believe the negro race is naturally eloquent," remarked the northern visitor.

"Sir," replied the old-fashioned southern gentleman, "you probably never heard a colored wretched addressing a few appropriate remarks to a pair of dice."

Careless Grandma. "Grandma, Perseverance! What's the matter, little boy? Are you lost?" Little Boy—"Yes, I am. I thought I was home better to come out with Grandmama. She'd always losh somethin'."

"I know just what he is saying," M. Jussauder opined. "He is saying: 'My soul is in Heaven and my clothes are in the National Museum.'"

The president of the Canadian Agricultural Trust Society was visited by the secretary, Mrs. Nimblicking, who was to deliver the address at today's meeting, cannot be present," said the former.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Rev. Fr. Louis Nonorogue was killed near Eagle Lake, south of Madawaska, Me., last night, while driving along the road. Soon an automobile came at a fast rate of speed and fearing a disastrous collision, Father Nonorogue jumped from the carriage and struck his head on the road. Convinced that the driver would have passed away clean hands after the accident, there was no damage to either vehicle. Rev. Fr. Nonorogue was a native of France and it was forty-five years ago that he came to Ontario. Clerk Arthur Bragdon was thrown about twenty-five feet to the ground when a staging on the Presbyterians mated at Woodstock collapsed.

O.H. McALISTER NAMED IN ROYAL

Hon. C. W. Robinson Addresses Sussex Convention—Agrarian Leader in Kings County—Nominations.

Dr. D. H. McAlister, former M. P. was nominated as the Liberal candidate for the constituency of Royal at the convention held at Sussex yesterday. There were seventy-six delegates present, and the Opera House was well filled with supporters of the party. Hon. Dr. J. E. Herderington and Sterling L. Keith of Havlock were also nominated. Dr. Herderington declined, on account of his position in the provincial government, and the delegates decided in favor of Dr. McAlister. Dr. Herderington delivered an enthusiastic speech in which he urged the party to hold the man nominated and elect him. While the speakers were addressing the meeting, Hon. C. W. Robinson addressed the meeting. He said that Mr. McAlister's policies were wrong, and that it need a Liberal government to rule the maritime provinces. He directed some remarks to the merchant marine, and spoke of the rights of the maritime provinces.

Farmers' Leaders.

Hon. T. A. Crearer, leader of the National Progressive party, spoke at Sussex yesterday, and first of all denied the statements that he and the King had been nominated. He came to the defense of H. W. Wood, leader of the United Farmers of Alberta. He maintained that Mr. Wood was a Conservative. He said that the "Progressives" plan to have a seat on unimproved land. He said that the McLean campaign was a miserable one. G. H. Perkins, Progressive candidate, said that the first question before the people was that of the fisheries. T. W. Caldwell also gave a short address.

Other Nominations.

At the National Liberal convention held in Newcastle last evening E. A. McCurdy was nominated to represent the party in the coming federal election.

C. G. Bowes Anderson was named candidate of the National Liberal-Conservative party in Westmorland at the convention held in Moncton yesterday.

EDISON TEST FOR COLLEGE.

Aldershot Examination May Supplant Northwestern Grade System.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—A high school diploma, a "passing" grade in the other usual formula for fitting college students, will be obsolete in Northwestern University, so President Walter D. Scott announced.

He said that tests similar to the Edison test and mental alertness examination used in the army probably would supplant the present system. By means of these examinations, President Scott said, students would be classified according to proficiency and those who ranked highest given special work. The same system might also be used in selecting instructors, he said.

RETURNING FROM PRAGUE.

Frederick Glaisher—Letters received here today announced the arrival in Paris lately of Miss Besyle Kelly, who is returning from Prague, Czechoslovakia, where she was studying. Miss Kelly has had an experience which few Canadian girls could share. She was through the war, a nurse and after the war, going to Prague. On the way to Prague she visited Constantinople, Budapest, Sofia, and almost every part of Europe. She expects to sail soon for New York and will remain some time there before returning to Fredericksburg to spend her vacation with her sisters, Mrs. John Rowan, Lincoln, and Mrs. Wm. Rutledge, of this city, and her brother, William Kelly, of the Victoria Hospital staff.

You remember the story of the Pitcher—

It made a good many trips to the well and it came back in good order.

"I can take care of myself," it said—"they don't need to talk about risks—it knew."

After that it was only part of a pitcher, and they didn't need to talk to it about risks—it knew.

A lot of people won't believe tea or coffee can harm them until it does harm them.

"Nonsense!" they say, "it never disturbs me."

When it does disturb them, then they know.

Often the disturbance which they then recognize is the result of irritations to nerves and digestion which have been going on for a long time.

If you have to lie awake at night and count the clock ticks, after an evening cup of tea or coffee, then you know that it's better to be safe than sorry.

The risk of tea or coffee's harm is gone when the meal-time drink is Postum.

Here's a delightful and satisfying table beverage, with charm for the taste and without harm for nerves or digestion. You know you're on the right road with Postum; there's never the possibility that you'll go once too often.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in cups) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk), for those who prefer to make the drink while the cereal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

BURNING INCENSE TO DRAW TRAFFIC

Pacific Shipping Companies Offer Inducements to Chinese Patrons.

Vancouver, Oct. 28.—In order to stimulate passenger traffic from Vancouver to Hong Kong and the Orient, Chinese promotional posters are now adorning the billboards in Chinatown, advising that in the event of a passenger being so unfortunate as to die while on his way to his destination, he will be taken to China for interment instead of being buried at sea. Should a passenger fall overboard and drown, the ship's officers will do their best to save him, and if he dies, the Celestial gods by burning plenty of incense, Partly as a result of these imaginative concessions, steerage traffic to the Orient has increased 50 per cent in the past two weeks.

The time limit for re-entry without paying the $500 head tax has been extended to 18 months.

DEATH OF TIMOTHY LYNCH.

Many friends were sorry to learn of the death of Timothy Lynch. He had been a long resident in Fredericton where he was well thought of by all who knew him. Mr. Lynch was born in County Cork, Ireland, and came to Fredericton in 1880. He was a man of quiet manner, kindly disposition and sympathetic nature. Mr. Lynch is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Hillen, of St. John, and a son, Gerald, in New York. Many friends will sympathize with them in their bereavement. TRAFFIC CASE.

A. E. Everett charged with driving his car, No. 5731, along the wrong side of the Westmorland road, pleaded not guilty. Policeman Bettie testified that he had been driving on the wrong side of the Westmorland road for about six weeks, and could not tell when he began to do so. The law said it must be a half mile. He also said that there were several other cars on the wrong side but that it was not safe to charge them all. In reply to a question as to whether the left side of the road was passable, Mr. Everett gave evidence that he might have been on the right side at times to avoid having to stop. He said it was almost impossible especially after a rain storm, because of lack of visibility. He said that the law was ridiculous, and that it would not allow a tax-payer to drive on the wrong side of the road to save his car. The magistrate advised him to see the city council and have the by-law changed. A fine of $10 was struck.

REPORTS AT MEETING OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE TO DAY.

Mrs. W. P. Bonnell gave a report from the buying committee of the hospital.

Mrs. E. R. Dody said that four men from the St. John hospital had been taken for automobile rides this month. It was decided that the drives would be continued on the first days in November.

Mrs. W. D. Forster, for the follow up committee, reported two cases for which assistance was given.

It was voted to give a special

Christmas treat to patients at River Glade, Lancaster and St. John.

Plans for Two New Forest
Towers in Northern New Brunswick — A Smallpox
Case.

(Special to Times.) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 28.—The Department of Lands and Forests is examining its policy of erection of lookout towers in various places in the province for protection against fire. Towers now contemplated are to be in the eastern and western Northumbrian. The detailed survey of the dominion will pay off the cost and use the towers next summer. One tower is to be built at Trout Brook, Northumbrian, about eighteen miles west of Newcastle; this will be eighty feet in height. From the northeastern part of New Brunswick and the part of Gloucester will be visible. Telephone connection will be provided. Other towers will be visible from at Trout Brook. A ninety foot tower will be erected at the Pines, Pinelocator, between the line of the C. R. and the Bathurst road. Telephone connection will be provided, but about five miles from the town as Gloucester east of Quebec will be visible and the entire northern slope of Gloucester county will be under observation.

Another case of small pox has been reported from St. Stephen. Dr. J. A. Wade will there tonight to take the usual precautions.

ASSES WORLD CHURCHES TO PRAY FOR ARMED PARLEY

Archbishop of Canterbury Sends Letter to National Councils in Twenty-five Countries.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, as president of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship Through the Churches, has addressed a letter to the presidents of the national councils appealing to all Christian churches to set apart November 6 as a day of prayer for Divine blessing on the Washington conference. There are twenty-five councils in Great Britain, the United States, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Finland, Poland, Hungary, Eastland, Lettland, Greece, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Serb-Croat-Slovene State, Bulgaria, Japan, Turkey, Spain, and India.

The letter is as follows:

"It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the present international which attaches to the summoning a few weeks hence of the conference at Washington on the problems of disarmament."

To the president of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship Through the Churches, he appears to the national councils of his alliance that it must be emphasized that the meeting of the respective countries, directing their attention to the general desire which has been expressed that the meeting of the conference should be made the occasion in all countries of special prayer that the blessing and guidance of Almighty God may be vouchsafed to the conference and the high responsibility of thus taking counsel for the furtherance of peace on earth and good will among the peoples of the world, I am thankful to be able to report you that the general wish has found expression in a resolution of the committee of our alliance in its session in London.

The proposal that November 6 be the Sunday which precedes the meeting of the Washington conference, should be generally used for inviting Divine blessing upon the proceedings of the conference.

"Whether the arrangement suggested can be conveniently made in all the different countries will depend upon national or local conditions. It is my duty and privilege to let you know that wherever it may be followed, the wellbeing of the conference will be effected by the deliberations of the conference. I am justified, therefore, in inviting the prayers not only of the widest interest and the most thoughtful care on the part of all those who have care for these vast interests at heart."

VICTORIA TO HAVE ONE-MAN CARS

B. C. Electric Railway to Put Rolling Stock in Operation.

Vancouver, Oct. 28.—Between twenty and thirty one-man cars are to be operated by the B. C. Electric Railway Company in Vancouver and other coast cities within the next few weeks. The new equipment, which has cost over $150,000, has arrived, and will be in use as soon as the men have been trained. Eventually it is probable that all cars will be operated by one employee, instead of a motorman and a conductor as at present.

The first cars of the new type are to be run in Victoria, New Westminster, North Vancouver, and some of the outlying districts of Vancouver, where traffic is unusually light. Street cars pass in Victoria and in New Westminster have been protesting against the change. Victoria on general principle, and Vancouver, on the ground that the men will be置于 danger if the men have been trained. Eventually it is probable that all cars will be operated by one employee, instead of a motorman and a conductor as at present.

The chamber of commerce made by the B. C. Electric Company because of the ever-increasing revenue. In New Westminster and North Vancouver the fares will be raised from 25 cents to 30 cents, and the fare for both operating expenses for many years while making the outlaying roads, new roads are also run on a non-paying basis.

The amount which the street car employees will take on the changes, which must necessarily reduce the number of men at work, has not been officially declared, but indications are that the men will be cut down. There are many unemployed in Vancouver today that it would be an easy matter to find a strike especially when men have to be paid for the time lost. It would not be more difficult for the company to instruct outsiders than their own employees—a circumstance which is quite likely to have some bearing on the final decision of the motormen and conductors.

According to officials of the company, there are about one thousand cars in operation on this continent, including 70 in Seattle. The claim is made that the one-man car does not show up service.

"Don't be Afraid of Your Hearts," Says Noted London Surgeon.

London, Oct. 28.—Sir James Cantlie, London surgeon and physical culture authority, is not a believer in the so-called Oster theory. According to James, the heart ought to last as long as the body, and he has never heard of the case of a man whose heart has been operating for many years while making the outlaying roads, new roads are also run on a non-paying basis.

PONZI AUCTION ATTRACTS MANY

Crowd Too Big to be Allowed in House—Eager Bidding for Every Article—Prices Fair.

London, Oct. 28.—The effects of Charles Ponzi's household in Shubenacadie were sold at auction. So great was the eager crowd that gathered to obtain articles that it was necessary for the auctioneer to call for intervals and order the auctioneers to leave the inside of the dwelling to the laws.

The auction started shortly before noon and at 12 o'clock it was well known that more than 2,000 persons were present. Nearly 400 automobiles with Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, and Massachusetts registrations were lined up outside, and the bidding was "financial wizard's" wonderful mansion.

Frederick M. McCarthy of the Louis J. Ross Company had the house up for sale, and nothing but success followed the expansive and beautiful household belongings of Ponzi, he had the buyers inside him, and the crowd grew so rapidly that the sheriff, Warden, local business leaders, and spectators, ordered them outside, fearing that the building might sag with the large gathering.

Many articles were sold at a price which was expected to bring in $2,000,000.

Sir James is seventy and as supple as an athlete. He has a physical culture class for men nearly eighty, and a class for elderly women. Some exercises he does which are the same as those used by the Chinese 5,000 years ago, he says.

LIFE OF 300 YEARS POSSIBLE FOR MAN?

Insurance Actuary Says Man in Switzerland Lived 383 Years.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—George Bernard Shaw was not all wrong when, in his book, "Back to Methuselah," he prophecied a life of 300 years for man, according to an insurance actuary addressing the convention of National Association of Life Underwriters.

"The law is at propositio[n]," he said. "The human race has added ten years to the length of life of the average man in the last fifty years. When I was a boy we laughed at the thought of a man living; it is a fact. Let's not laugh at the old."

Records show that a man in Switzerland lived 383 years, he said.

"We have a record of a man who died just a few years ago at the age of 165," he said. "Back to Methuselah? why not?"

INSTRUCTION ADDS TO PUPILS' WEIGHT

Experiment in Akron School Shows Value in Lessons on Food and Nutriment—Better Health Results.

An experiment in teaching graded lessons on food, and nutrition to ascertain whether improvement in the physical condition of children could be produced through the medium of instruction alone has been carried on in a school in Akron, Ohio, and the large percentage of gain above normal made in some cases indicate that instruction did result in better health and improved living conditions. The only extra food given to the children was one-half pint of milk and this was given only to the children 10 per cent. or more under weight.

of the second month it was found that 67 per cent. of the whole underweight group had made some gain, varying from one-half pound to seventeen pounds. With the smaller children the food and dietetic facts taught were simple and entirely within the comprehension of the child. Foods were classified according to their use in the body and the names of all foods coming in each class were learned through games, stories and colored food pictures cut from magazines. After they had learned to classify foods the students were taught to build up simple, well-balanced meals on the classification learned. Other children were instructed through other interesting devices. After learning to plan meals with regard to food nutrients they were taught to check up their menus for caloric quantities.

The parents were all called together after a two months' period and the details of the plan were explained to them by the dietitian. The results so far attained have been told and with groups of the health campaign. "We never sit down at the table without having the question arise as to whether we are having the right thing to eat or not," one enthusiastic mother wrote to Miss Parker.

Six open air centres have now been organized and exceptionally well equipped by the Akron Board of Education. In most cases an entire floor is given over to the open window children, including space for class rooms, a play porch, sleeping rooms, kitchen and dining room.

Sixty children are accommodated in each of these open air schools and the services of two teachers, a nurse, a dietitian and a cook are required. Admission to these schools is by doctor's certificate. In many cases children are ready to return to regular class rooms at the end of the year. Anemic, undernourished, and predisposed tubercular cases are taken although no active cases of tuberculosis are allowed to enter.

tained were told and with groups of children demonstrations of methods of instruction were given. The sixty children having the largest underweight percentages and who had not shown satisfactory gains were then examined in the presence of their parents. The parents were then told what the average weight for height and age should be, and received a health card to record the health habits of the child for a week. A complete diet list, number of hours' sleep, deep breathing, tooth brushing and other minor habits were to be recorded to these cards.

In this way Miss Amy Parker, house demonstration agent in Akron, wrote in a report to the School Life Department of the Department of the Interior, almost every mother took an interest in Schedule in Open-Air School.

The schedule for the day in an Akron open-air school includes a breakfast of cereal and cream, an afternoon lunch of milk or hot chocolates and wafers, and a hot meal at noon, which is prepared by the school domestic science department under the direction of the dietitian. As soon as the children come in the morning they put on their heavy coats, hoods, and, if the weather is very cold, woolen boots; and they are ready then to study and recite with wide-open windows.

After the noon meal of creamed potatoes, stuffed eggs, bread and butter, milk and dessert comes a toothbrush drill, which the children regard as an entertaining innovation. Then every youngster wraps himself in his own sleeping bag, and climbs upon his army cot for an hour's relaxation and sleep. They sleep soundly, too, sometimes so deeply to wake them up for afternoon classes. All of the fundamental subjects are taught, with the sixty children divided into two groups, with a teacher for each. Four grade sections are handled by each teacher.

Monthly weighing is an important part of the open-air school program, and the children are eager to read their weighing tags and carry them home most proudly when they register an increase. One youngster said: "I eat lots of things here that I never would eat at home, but I'm gaining nearly two pounds a month." "Seconds" are popular at dinner, after half an hour on the big play porch and a morning in the open air.

In addition to the regular weighing the pulse and respiration of each child are taken weekly by the resident nurse, and each open-air school has the attention of a doctor at frequent intervals. The fact that practically every child shows a steady gain in weight is evidence of the value of the right food and Athletic Charts Are Kept.

An effort is being made in Akron to correlate the health work not only with the classroom instruction in dietetics but also with the outdoor work in physical education. An athletic chart of each child's ability to run, jump, put the shot and climb the rope is kept in each room, and tests are made at the beginning and close of each semester. Definite physical efficiency standards similar to those of the American Playground Association are used, so that the child knows exactly what his physical ability is. For example, a fourth-grade boy is marked "E" if he makes a standing broad jump of 4 feet 6 inches; "G" if he jumps 4 feet 2 inches, and "F" if his record is only 3 feet 8 inches. A girl of the same grade is expected to make a jump of 3 feet 10 inches to get an "E" ranking. Like standards have been adopted for the basketball throw and the 40 and 60-yard dashes; so that it is easy to compare a child's actual accomplishment with what he ought to be able to do.

At the same time a record is kept of each pupil's physical condition through the co-operation of the nurses and the Department of Health, so that the physical education mark on the child's report card measures both his physical

IUSE The Want

"I am coming, more and more, to measure the charm of cities, at all events their desirability for living in, by the standard of their parks, public gardens, and free spaces where one can be pleasantly unoccupied in the open air," declares Arthur Symons in "Cities and Sea-coasts and Islands." "I want the town, not the country, but I want the town to give me the illusion of the country, as well as its own characteristic qualities. Rome itself, without its villas, even Rome, would not be Rome; and Seville, which is so vividly a town, and with so many a town's good qualities, has the most felicitous parks, gardens, and promenades (with the one great exception) that I have ever found in a city. Gardens follow the riverside, park after park, and every afternoon Seville walks and drives and sits along that broad road leading so straight into the open country. ^{near} From the Puerta de las Delicias, a road

ST. JOHN-ALBERT GOVT CANDIDATES

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter and Dr. Murray MacLaren last evening were nominated as the government candidates in the constituency of St. John-Albert at the convention of the Conservative party in the Seamen's Institute. The nomination of Mr. MacLaren was made with ballot box too, placing the names of Dr. MacLaren and F. L. Potts. Speeches of acceptance were made by both candidates.

After the election had been decided, the motion was made to nominate R. W. Wigmore in a special speech, nominated Hon. J. B. M. Baxter. He also moved that the nomination of Mr. MacLaren be declared unanimous.

On the motion being put Hon. Mr. Baxter was declared unanimously elected a candidate.

The name of Dr. Murray MacLaren was then placed in nomination by James G. Harrison, seconded by Miles E. Agar. Dr. S. C. Murray, of Albert county, also seconded.

L. P. Tilley was nominated by G. M. Gagey, but Mr. Tilley, for business reasons, declined to have his name go before the convention.

W. H. Martin of Albert county, said that his county ought to have a candidate. The suitable man to run was Lewis Smith, but they wanted to keep him in the house. He said that Albert delegates were satisfied with Hon. Mr. Baxter and Dr. MacLaren came.

J. P. Clayton nominated F. L. Potts, seconded by David Hipwell. J. K. Paisley, at this stage, said that he had not intended to nominate anyone.

Mr. Potts had been named he would nominate Lewis Smith, M. P. P. Mr. Smith refused to have his name go before the convention.

While the ballots were being counted Mr. Baxter was called to the platform and notified of his nomination. He made a speech of acceptance, thanking the delegates.

At the conclusion of Mr. Baxter's speech it was announced that the nomination would go to support Dr. MacLaren.

He said that he would not have permitted his name to go before the convention only because he thought that a Unionist-Albert candidate was needed and he was in favor of a straight party fight.

RAILWAYS KILL ONE
PASSENGER IN MILLION

Few Fatalities on Steam Lines in Canada in 1919.

One passenger was killed on Canadian steam railways during the year 1919 to every 1,492,000 carried, while the number injured to every 1,187,700 carried. There was a slight increase in the casualties over the previous years; the number being thirty-five killed in 1912 and forty-four in 1913; twenty-two and twenty-one respectively. During the year 1919 there were 162 employes killed and 1,094 injured in accidents on the railroads. Of these, thirty-five employes, one passenger and five others were killed, whilst 4,468 employes, twenty passengers and twenty-seven others were injured.

The figures are from the Railway Statistics for the year ended Dec. 31, 1919," just issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics from sworn figures furnished by the several railway companies.

On the various electric railways only four passengers were killed out of the 749,632,380 carried; 1,717 were injured. There were two employes, one passenger and fifty-eight other persons killed, and 951 employes and 1,060 other persons injured.

KARL WAS RELUCTANT.

Ex-Empress Persuaded Him to Make Attempt.

(Special Cable to the N. Y. Times and Montreal Gazette.)

Berne, Oct. 24.—Fate's unscrupulous agent, I mean that ex-Empress Charles did not wish to leave Switzerland, but that ex-Empress Zita insisted on his doing so, and was aided in her efforts by a high churchman.

When the ex-emperors reached the Dubendorf air station she was dressed as a man, and the ex-emperor is reported to have said to her, "Now you wear the breeches literally and metaphorically."

The ex-emperor's eight children are still at Hertenstein Castle, near Lucerne, and a letter has been sent to the Swiss government by asking to look after them.

Switzerland has been Charles' Elba and now the Swiss newspapers are remarking that the only safe place for him is the United States, although there is nothing Napoleonic about this "weak-willed neurotic pervert." The Swiss press and public are evidently in the government's hands and faith in a Hapsburg's word of honor. The Gazette de Lausanne says:

"What does the Hapsburgs do except to pile a Pelion of perjuries upon the continents of their rule except to pile a Pelion of perjuries upon an Ossa of prevarications? They swore not to annex Bosnia and Herzegovina, yet were not to be bound by the oaths of Bohemia; what didn't they swear?"

Lately Charles has had four so-called police detectives round Hertenstein Castle whom he paid himself, the reason being that he stated his life had been threatened. These four detectives were only to prevent newspaper stories from approaching Hertenstein. The Swiss government had only one private detective at Hertenstein, who on the morning of Karl's departure, was shopping in Lucerne.

WED NOT LOVING, SHE SAYS.

Wife Asserts She Married Soldier to Save Him From Disgrace.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Phyllis Flaherty of Mt. Vernon has brought suit in the Supreme Court at White Plains against her mother to John T. Flaherty, because the alleged Flaherty married him on the eve of his departure for overseas with the Army of Occupation to save him from prosecution by the government for making a false statement.

The couple were married on Aug. 21, 1919, at Manhattan, L. I. Mrs. Flaherty in her complaint says she married him to save him from disgrace in army circles. She says that on Aug. 21, 1918, Flaherty came to her home in Jacksonville and told her that he had been ordered overseas. Mrs. Flaherty says he told her that when he was inducted into the army he falsely swore that he was married and that he had been married for right away he might get twenty years in a government prison for perjury. She says he told her if she would go through with the ceremony they need never live together, and she finally agreed.

NEW BOXING CLUB TO RIVAL GARDEN

Jim Coffroth and Billy Gibson Said to be Backers—
Buckley Matchmaker.

(New York Times)

New York soon will have another imitation of Madison Square Garden. Jim Buckley, manager of boxers and bouts, will be matchmaker and one of the managers of the new organization. It is reported that Jim Coffroth, San Francisco boxing promoter, will have a hand in the club.

Billy Gibson, manager of Benny Leonard's world's lightweight champion, is said to be the third manager of the triangle. Buckley plans to operate in opposition to Tex Rickard in the promotion of important ring bouts.

The opening show of the new club is slated for Nov. 28. The date, however, is subject to change, though it is evident Buckley is confident the club will be able to conduct its initial show on "the Monday following Thanksgiving Day," as he has promised.

A dispensation which has been arranged, in which it is understood, Benny Leonard, lightweight titholder, will seek to wrest the world's featherweight championship from Jack Britton, Chicago veteran. Efforts to obtain positive information on this were unsuccessful. Buckley would admit that two bouts are arranged.

In action on the opening card, but refused to divulge the identity of the titleholders under consideration. It was learned from the manager that Leonard-Britton bout is under consideration as the opening attraction.

It is possible, also, that Buckley will seek to arrange a match in which Johnny Wilson will defend his middle-weight title. Wilson is now in New York, and will, in consequence, find Buckley yesterday afternoon to discuss prospects of a match. Buckley plans to confer further with Marty Kileen, Wilson's manager. In order to decide a bout in which Wilson is a participant, however, it will be necessary for the State Athletic Commission to declare the champion ineligible to compete in this State. After the fall Wilson-Britton battle in Cleveland, the result of which was not known, it was announced that Wilson and Downey first would be compelled to engage in a bout elsewhere, due to a classifiers' decision, before either could be permitted to box in this State. To date this edict has not been rescinded.

The exact location of the new club is in deep, dark mystery. Buckley guards his plan in this direction with greater care than the miser guards his gold. The very idea of a new club, however, that persons of Eddie Mendes' generous measurements could walk to the club from Times Square without becoming tired. And, Mendes weighs the neighborhood of 300 pounds.

But that is as much information as Buckley will impart as to the location of his new club.

It is generally believed, however, that the new organization will operate either in a discarded armory, which it is said the State is ready to sell, or in the barracks located at Sixth and Avenue and Fifteenth and Fifteenth Streets. Buckley denied emphatically that either rumor had any foundation in fact, but nevertheless the report persists.

Buckley said that the club when opened will be capable of a capacity of 20,000, and that the present building occupies of Madison Square Garden by about 8,000. Work on preparing the site under consideration will begin shortly, just as soon as possession of the building is obtained.

Buckley said that he has a corps of 300 mechanics and laborers ready to begin the work.

BLAMES DRUGS FOR INSANITY

A British Columbia Alienist Urges Establishment of a Home for Addicts.

Vancouver, Oct. 28.—An attempt to cure drug addicts by a three months' course at the mental hospital in New Westminster, the largest and best equipped in western Canada, has not been a success, according to a report just made public by Dr. H. C. Steeves, superintendent of the institution.

"Permanent results can only be obtained by placing the patient in a special treatment for at least three years," declares Dr. Steeves. "It will take at least that time, in severe cases, to restore the victim of the habit to real self-control, for new nerves, new tissues and new muscles must be formed before the craving is entirely eradicated, and the process of re-creation is necessarily slow."

Experts agree that a community farm, in some spot remote from the temptations of city life, would be the best spot for a home for drug fiends. To ensure success it would be advisable to declare the district "out of bounds" for all Orientals, particularly Chinese, who are responsible for the peddling of the dope among the white men.

Of the 460 patients in the New Westminster mental hospital, 50 per cent are actually liable to the use of drugs, while indulgence in cocaine, heroin, opium and morphine is a contributory cause in a large number of cases.

The victims need not all be men or women, few Orientals losing their reason, though they may take much more dope than the whites. Their power of resistance is smaller, and the effects greater than those of the whites.

The Commercial League fixture between Brock & Paterson and Ford Motor Works resulted in a split, each taking two points. The former team totaled 1,229 and the latter 1,220.

Although not a week passes in Vancouver, the city is still a great race track for centuries.

KENTUCKY BEAUTY DIES FROM FALL

Miss Rainey Plunges from Window of Hotel in Presence of Friend—Jury Says Accident.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 28.—That Miss Dorothy Rainey of Newport, Ky., who was killed in a fall from a five-story window of the Lafayette Hotel, accidentally fell out of the window, according to a jury.

This was also the statement made by Carl Wiedemann, who was standing at the door of the young woman's room at the time of her death.

Reports were to the effect that she leaped from the window because of dependency over remedies she had taken.

Miss Rainey was about 30 years old, a daughter of Dr. Lee Rainey, a prominent physician, and mother for a charitable work, which beauty won her the title of "the prettiest girl in Newport."

Miss Rainey and Wiedemann, president of George Wiedemann Brewing Company, came to Lexington Sunday to attend the races.

Both had rooms at the Lafayette Hotel.

The dead woman's head and body were badly mangled when the fall, and she was apparently killed instantly.

She made no outcry, but was lying motionless in a pool of blood on the sidewalk between the entrance and the women's entrance to the hotel when friends reached her. The body partially collapsed as she lay on the sidewalk, only partly clothed.

According to the story told police who investigated the case, Miss Rainey, Wiedemann, and Richardson intended to go to the hotel to attend the races.
