DEEPER SIGNIFICANCE OF ROYAL VISIT TO BERLIN

Indication of Completion of Anglo-German Expected

DECLARATION EXPECTED

May Settle Bagdad Railway and Persian Gulf Questions—Reason For Vicount Merley's Presence

(Canadian Press) New York, May 20—A cable to the Tribune, from London says: The Kaiser's graceful and unexpected act of clemency in pardoning three Englishmen now undergoing sentences for espionage in Germany, is the first outward indication of the approaching completion of an Anglo-German entente.

Amnesty, however, means far more than a personal act of courtesy from one sovereign to another. It helps confirm the report that King George's visit to Berlin, which is in one sense a purely family affair, will have far-reaching significance, and will probably be followed by the public declaration that an Anglo-German understanding has been arrived at.

DEATH OF PROMINENT ST. JOHN MERCHANT

J. W. Montgomery, Formerly in Business on King St., Passed Away in St. Stephen

In the death of J. W. Montgomery, in Calais yesterday there passed away one who had been for many years a respected and valued citizen of St. John. Back in the early sixties Mr. Montgomery came here from Philadelphia and began business in the auction of books; other branches of trade also were engaged in and success attended upon his industry and business acumen.

Early in the eighties or thereabouts, Mr. Montgomery moved to St. John, where he had since been in business. He had been ill for only a week and on Saturday was joined by his nephew, Arthur Cassidy, merchant, of Dock street on his leaving Mr. Montgomery's illness becoming serious.

Mr. Montgomery was about seventy-eight years of age. He had traveled widely and had crossed the Atlantic more than 150 times. His travels and his reading gave him a wide knowledge of places and men of affairs and he was an interesting conversationalist.

THE BRICK MARKET

Dealers Promise Ample Supply—Explanation of Prices Quoted

The price of brick in this city was quoted at $12 to $15 per thousand as compared with $8 the price reported by the Bangor Commercial to be current in that city. Speaking with the Times today, one of the local brick manufacturers said that although his firm had no bricks for sale at present, their plant was now in operation and he expected to meet with the demands of the builders this season.

A Serious Charge

Winnipeg, Man., May 20—Mary Jane Casmore, 28, who is engaged at the King Edward tubercular hospital, as a domestic servant, was arrested by Inspector Stark and Detective Curran, Bishop of the city police, last night on the charge of the murder of her newly born child.

The mills further down on the line of the B. & N. B. R. will receive benefit from the bridge. The hearing in relation to the bridge closed Friday morning, but the commission was in session Saturday morning with other matters. All the members of the board for both the United States and the Dominion governments, Hon. O. F. Fellows of this city is the counsel for the United States before the commission.

The commission announced no decision Saturday after a full morning in executive session but it is understood that a finding will be made public at the next meeting which has been called at Fredericton, N. B. for Wednesday next.

The improvement in the market, he would be due to the competition made possible through opening this territory in which he is interested to the B. & N. B. A. territory. He spoke of the general magnitude and importance of this lumber business to the province of New Brunswick.

There were no formal witnesses on the American side. The commissioners looked over the site of the bridge and the section came into the New England section through which their line runs and were strongly in favor of the proposed bridge.

Hon. Charles E. Oak of this city, manager of the New Brunswick R. R. timberlands, told of the additional market such a connection would afford to the lands of the N. B. R. R. and also to the government lands in the region of the International R. R. He contended that additional market meant advanced prices for the section, and a market for the fir and spruce. The fir and hardwood market is something that this section does not enjoy to a great extent at present.

TELLS STORY OF TRAGIC DEATHS

Fresh Details of Sufferings of Dr. Mawson's Antarctic Expedition

London, May 20—John K. Davis, commander of Dr. Mawson's Antarctic expedition, has arrived in London and gives in an interview, fresh details of the sufferings of Mawson and his companions during the expedition. Dr. Mawson, the doctor of the expedition, Dr. Xavier Mertz, the Swiss scientist and ski runner.

"We were not more than half a mile from Mawson when he returned," said Davis, "but could not relieve him and his party. Mawson had gone out with Nimmo and Mertz. Twenty-five days after the little party started, Nimmo fell into an unfathomable crevasse, with a sledful of provisions, and his body was not recovered. For thirty-four days after this catastrophe, Mawson and Mertz struggled across the plateau on the verge of starvation until on January 17, Mertz, too, succumbed as the result of exposure and want of food."

"For twenty-two terrible days Mawson struggled on alone with a few starving dogs as his sole companions. He did not go mad under such conditions as is sometimes said, and the account of his journey, when he tells it, will prove one of the greatest stories of Antarctic heroism."

JAPAN MUST TAKE THE NEXT STEP

United States Awaits Action Following Reply to Protest Against Anti-Allen Law

Washington, May 20—With the answer of the United States to its protest in hand, it is now up to the Japanese foreign office to take the next step in the negotiations over the California land act. It is expected that the forthcoming reply to Secretary Bryan will be strongly argued and will be calculated to result in the conduct of the future negotiations on a strictly legal basis.

As it is understood, the state department is looking to the Japanese government or some Japanese citizens to test the new law of recourse to the United States courts. It may be significant of the drawing of another issue that the Japanese are believed to be reluctant to begin such a movement. In his protest of May 9 to the state department, the Japanese ambassador is understood to have made it perfectly clear that Japan, finding it impossible to deal directly with the state of California, was relying entirely upon the Federal government to insure what he believed to be fair treatment for its subjects.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS OF STRIKE BREAKERS

Paterson, N. J., May 20—Fifty-seven arrests were made this morning in the vicinity of the Prier Silk mill, to which the hands returned yesterday in the face of protests from Industrial Workers of the World leaders conducting the strike. Twelve hundred or more strikers and others gathered in the streets near the mill today to see the returning workers. There was no actual violence and those arrested were taken in because they refused to "move on." Three of the prisoners taken were women, one with a baby in her arms. She was immediately paroled.

Referring to the increase of capital of the Maritime Nail Co. from $250,000 to $2,250,000, a Fort William despatch says:— "The issuing of such a large increase of capital would denote that the Maritime Nail Company, which it is believed here is closely allied with the Dominion Steel Corporation, now contemplates even greater undertakings at Fort William than had originally been intended."

GREEK GOVERNMENT AND THE EMIGRANTS

Athens, May 20—The government has introduced into the chamber of deputies a measure placing restrictions upon the exodus of minors and others subject to military service, decreeing various penalties against those agents who induce such people to emigrate, and establishing a rigid control over the naval emigration agencies.

It is proposed to protect the emigrants during the voyage and during their sojourn in a foreign country by means of a fund which will be raised by a tax on the tickets of the emigrants.

NOVELTY SHOWER

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Steele, 22 Spring street, last evening, a pleasant surprise was given to Miss Jessie Godfrey, when a novelty shower was given in her honor by her associates in the employ of Frank Skinner, King street. She was the recipient of many valuable and useful remembrances which will be the more appreciated after the social event soon to take place in which she will be a principal. VOLUNTEER ARMY GUARDS ST. ANDREW'S GOLF LINKS

SEE ADVENT OF NEW CHAMPION

As Result of Tonight's Twenty Round Bout

THE POLO PLAYERS

(Canadian Press) New Orleans, May 20—Charlie White of Chicago won from Joe Thomas of this city in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout last night. Thomas was knocked down three times in the first round, the bell saving him the last time. After about one minute of the second, the referee raised White's hand and motioned Thomas to his corner.

The two are the logical contenders for the title which is now claimed by Lathrop and McCarthy. It is probable that the winner of tonight's fight will be matched with McCarthy to determine finally who shall have the crown.

Probably by reason of his introduction to the prize ring on the Pacific coast, and also because of achievements in the East, the "Gunner" for the past several days, has been the favorite of the English and light critics say he will go in to the ring tonight with odds on him calling up to 10 to 7 or better. William's big advantage is said to be his weight and size. He will have fifty pounds over the "gunner."

New York, May 20—The way the English polo players galloped through their first practice game in this country on the field of the Piping Rock Country Club on Long Island yesterday, defeated a make-shift quartet of American players showed that both the Englishmen and their ponies are in fine fettle despite the long journey from England.

The score of the practice match was goals to nothing, the entire score being made by the English four in the last five periods.

Such a showing upon first appearance, and without observation of the regular formation, convinced the critical spectators that Harry Payne Whitney, a most aggressive group of challengers to meet in the International cup matches next month.

The American mounts yesterday were distanced in every long gallop despite the fact that only eighteen of the string of forty-two ponies brought across the water were used on the English side.

TO TAKE REFERENDUM

San Francisco, Cal., May 20—Strike ballots will be provided and a referendum vote will be taken by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to determine what action shall follow the refusal of managers of railroads operating on the Ohio River to consider a fifteen percent raise in pay for conductors and brakemen. This was the substance of a statement given out last night by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood, which opened a three weeks' convention in this city yesterday.

STRIKE AVERTED

London, May 20—The threatened strike on the Great Northern Railway was averted yesterday by the unconditional reinstatement of the engine driver, Chappel, who was suspended several days ago for failure to report for duty on time. The prospect of a strike considerably ruffled the stock exchange, railroad shares showing a tendency to drop.

Little Town is Now Almost in State of Siege

FEAR THE MILITANTS

Threats Made to Destroy Putting Greens and Thus Prevent Playing in World's Amateur Golf Championships

St. Andrew's Scotland, May 20—This little town is almost in a state of siege as the result of threats uttered by the militant suffragettes that they will destroy the putting greens, and thus render play impossible in the world's amateur golf championship which is to be completed for next week.

The general anxiety becomes keener every day as it is thought that the militant suffragettes may refrain from delivering their attack until the last moment, when it will use vitriol to destroy the greens, all the sentries stationed there, have provided themselves with large umbrellas to prevent the corrosive fluid being thrown into their faces.

The River Tay routes by which the links are reached from Dundee, which is a hot-bed of suffragism, are closely guarded and to make assurance doubly sure, a powerful searchlight has been mounted on the railroad bridge the light from which sweeps the links, the roads, and the river nightly.

John Ball, the holder of the amateur golf championship, who was injured in a motorcycle accident while on his way here to play for the title, will be prevented from participation.

WHEN THE CONQUERING MONTENEGRINS TOOK THE TURKS "ROCKBOUND" STRONGHOLD

The first photograph of the fall of Scutari to reach America. It was taken at the thrilling moment when the first of the Montenegrin soldiers crossed the bridge into Scutari. The Turks kissed their guns as they banded them over to their conquerors, and in turn received food—their starvation. Scutari, which has been since abandoned by the order of the great powers, cost the brave Montenegrins six months of fighting and thousands of lives.

SOCIETIES UNITE TO HONOR CITY'S LOYALIST FOUNDERS

Addresses Worthy of Occasion by Prominent Citizens — Memorial Proposed—Those who Assisted

The 130th anniversary of the landing of the Loyalists at the mouth of the St. John river, and the founding of St. John, was celebrated last evening by members of the New Brunswick Loyalists' Society, the Men's Canadian Club, the Women's Canadian Club, and the Loyalist Chapter Daughters of the Empire, at a joint meeting in Keith's assembly rooms. His Worship Mayor Frank, Vice-mayor Archdeacon Raymond, and D. R. Jack were the speakers of the evening. Their speeches were of a patriotic character.

MRS. G. McA. BLIZARD, President of Loyalist Chapter, Daughters of the Empire.

Canada was in the position of a young girl who had received the addresses of an older man but believed that she should grow older before giving herself over to his care. He was sure that the people of Canada could look to something better than the life of the people of the United States, where divorce and Mormonism were so common.

"The union of the two countries may come but it will come on broader lines than at present supposed," continued the speaker. "It should not be done too hastily. I am opposed to the very last drop of blood in my body to annexation. Whenever such a suggestion is mentioned the old Loyalist spirit springs up."

Dr. Raymond believed that the Loyalist spirit was very necessary in view of the many foreign people coming into Canada in order to have these new customs properly assimilated.

D. J. SEELY, President of the Loyalists' Society.

Mr. Jack, as honorary secretary of the joint committee, which had charge of the arrangements for the celebration, spoke of the pleasure of again meeting on this St. John's natal day to do honor to the memory of the Loyalist founders of the city. He welcomed the guests on behalf of the different societies and expressed the thanks of the committee to those who had helped to provide the entertainment. He spoke particularly of the orchestra of boys, which provided the music, and thought the members deserved great credit for their good work. Mr. Jack also spoke of the work that was being accomplished in copying some of the old Loyalist records in the audit office, London, and of the good results following the appointment of maritime province representatives to the manuscript commission.

In conclusion, Mr. Jack referred to the serious illness of Mrs. MacVicar, which had prevented Rev. Dr. MacVicar from being present and giving an address. Mayor Frink said he thought that a picture of George III, in whose reign

A Memorial.

He hoped that St. John people would unite on some definite idea for a memorial to these founders of the city and have it erected soon. He thought that the people of St. John could do no better than take the motto of the Loyalists which was "Faithful to God and King alike."

The meeting was opened by the orchestra playing God Save the King, while those present stood. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, representing the Women's Canadian Club; Rev. G. A. Kuhring, for the Men's Canadian Club; D. J. Seely, for the Loyalists' Society; and Miss McMillan, for Loyalist Chapter, Daughters of the Empire. Mrs. G. McA. Blizard, who was president of the chapter, was unable to be present. After speeches and musical numbers which included selections by the orchestra, a trio by the Misses Knight and Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett and a solo by David B. Edgemon, refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in.

Mrs. John McAvity and Mrs. George F. Smith presided at the tables and poured. The refreshments were provided by the members of the Women's Canadian Club and the arrangements were made by the committee in charge of Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. D. Chisholm and Mrs. G. A. Kuhring. Dr. Arnold Fox was accompanist for Mr. Edgemon.

During the evening Walter H. Golding, of the Nickel Theatre, showed some very fine views of old scenes in St. John. Many of the pictures were taken before the big fire of 1877 and showed many of the famous old buildings and scenes along the harbor front. He also threw on the screen several pictures of St. John at present and some of the developments work that is going on at this port.

TOO LITERAL.

In Sir Robert Anderson's interesting book of reminiscences entitled, "The Lighter Side of My Official Life," there is a story of a judge who was trying to get the very words of a reported conversation from a person somewhat scantily equipped with humor. The story is good enough to quote. "Witness," asked the judge, "did the prisoner say: 'I stole the horses?'" "Oh, no, my lord," the witness replied in a deprecatory tone, "your lordship's name was never mentioned."

Not a single passenger was killed on any of the twenty-seven railroads in Colorado last year. The 318 persons in the country met their deaths while traveling by railroad were distributed among the other forty-seven states.

BABY BABLY SCALDED
Zam-Buk Brought Quick Relief
Mr. Alex. A. Cameron, of Fairmount, Antigonish Co., N. S., writes: "My little brother (three years old) had his face scalded by boiling tallow, and we thought if he ever got better he would be frightfully scarred. I never saw any person in such a shocking state as he was after the accident. The doctor who attended him gave me some lotion with which to bathe the scalds, and we followed this treatment for some time, but the little one did not get any ease. In fact, sometimes the preparations given seemed to make his pain all the worse. We at last stopped the medical treatment, and tried Zam-Buk, and after the first few applications the child seemed much easier. Zam-Buk seemed to draw the fire out of the scalds. In a few days the wounds ceased to cause him pain, and healing then commenced. In a few weeks he was quite well again. Not only so, but Zam-Buk healed the scalds in such a way that no scar or trace of the terrible injury has remained. A person, looking upon the child today would never know that he had had such a terrible experience."
Zam-Buk is just as good for cuts, bruises, ulcers, piles, blood poison, festering sores, abscesses, pimples, eruptions, and all skin injuries and diseases.
All druggists and stores 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

OLD FRIENDS VISIT ST. JOHN
Mr. A. Mutt and Montgomery Jeffries, better known to their intimate friends as "Mutt" and "Jeff," will appear at the Opera House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Besides these two well-known fun-makers there will be a company of fifty people and two cars of scenery in the production.
In certain instances players were secured from other companies and brought across the continent in order that the right principals might be had. The plot of the play is rather well defined, which is unusual in a musical comedy of this type, but at the same time there is not too much story to interfere with side-splitting by-gags indulged in by the clowns "Mutt" and the abbreviated "Jeff."
A special matinee will be given on Friday at 3 p.m., with a 25c. price for children. The holiday matinee will begin at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday.

BUILDING AT SACKVILLE.
(Sackville Tribune.)
Despite the unfavorable weather of the last few weeks, building operations are going on steadily. The walls have already begun to rise on the Fawcett-Cahill block, where a dozen or more men are working. This is a brick and stone building. At the rear is the laundry of J. C. Carey. This is of concrete and the second story is now being added to this. The laundry is sixty feet long. Over on Bridge street the frame of Mrs. Calhoun's house was going up yesterday, and on Main street Mr. Miller has teams at work on the cellar of the new building which he intends erecting.
C. E. Lund was yesterday measuring off the lot upon which the new post office will be placed. The lot is 55 feet wide and it is understood the new building will be placed several feet nearer the Methodist church than the present office. This is to provide for the widening of York street.

BOYS AND OLDER FOLKS. The amazing story comes from Moncton that a group of boys had organized a club and were carrying on thieving operations, while at the same time by a display of religious literature they conveyed the impression that they were meeting for a good purpose. New members of the club were sworn on the Bible to maintain secrecy.

Perhaps we ought not to be too much surprised at happenings of this sort. Too many parents do not trouble themselves very much about what their boys are doing in their leisure time, and few communities have concerted work for the purpose of directing the activity of the boys into healthful channels. If a short history of the career of each member of this boys' club were written, it would probably surprise the people, especially if it told of the influences effecting them concerning which their parents had no knowledge.

All over this continent there is a gradual awakening to the importance of such community effort as will tend to bring out what is best and to discourage what is worst in boy nature. The good and evil tendencies are in every boy, and great deal depends upon his environment. There is great need of what is termed community work in every city and town. Religious differences are too marked, and stand in the way of the most effective kind of work to reach all the boys.

There is need of a co-ordination of forces, and a recognition of the right of every boy to a fair chance. A careful examination of any group of boys playing on the street will discover ability which only needs to be rightly developed to produce a splendid manhood, but which too often is directed into wrong channels. There is something wrong with somebody besides the boy who swears and smokes cigarettes on the playground, or who becomes a member of a club such as that which has been found in Moncton.

It ought to be possible to interest many people in work for the good of the boys. It should be possible in the city of St. John to get from the various religious organizations a strong group of workers who would be willing to unite and devote a little time to the playgrounds on which the boys meet in the summer evenings. Unfortunately so few are found willing to do this kind of work that the burden is greater than they can bear in justice to themselves or to the boys. Every man and woman who has devoted thought and time to work that would encourage and stimulate boys to do their best, and obey the higher impulses of their nature, wonders why the workers are so few. There was a deal of force in the biting remark of that Hindu who said to a Christian—"You are not as good as your book."

HELPING THE FARMERS. How farmers, merchants and bankers may work together to bring prosperity to a community is illustrated by the town of Ashland, Wisconsin. The story is told in the last issue of Canadian Finance, as an illustration of what might be done in Western Canada. It might also be done as successfully in Eastern Canada.

Twenty-five years ago Ashland was a saw mill town and lumber shipping port on the lake. No farming was done. Even vegetables and flour were imported. But the lumber industry went down gradually, and it was realized that unless agriculture could be developed on the cut-over lands of the locality the town must cease to exist. It was easy to raise heavy crops of clover and grass, and so a specialty was made of dairying. The Commercial Club of the town gave every encouragement to the development of agriculture, and last year an invitation was extended to the Wisconsin Dairymen's Association to hold its annual convention at Ashland. The result was a determination to make Ashland a dairy centre. The manner in which the plan is being carried out under the auspices of the Commercial Club is thus described:—

"First, a dairy census or survey is being taken, which will locate every little centre around Ashland and determine its preference as to dairy breeds. A credit plan has been formulated in which the business men, banks and farmers unite to buy good grade cows and registered sires for farmers who will join the movement for better live stock. If the farmer will pledge himself to stick to his community breed, using only a registered sire, he can borrow money on long time, at a fair rate of interest, without mortgaging his land. He can pay for his cows from half of his milk checks. The local banks will furnish the money, and the business men of Ashland will guarantee the banks against loss. No merchant or corporation puts up a dollar. They simply lend their credit to their friends, the farmers. Should there be a small loss, it will be distributed among many and each guarantor's proportion will be small. This is co-operation by the banks, the farmers and the merchants."

Canadian Finance rightly observes that: "In principle, if not in details, the plan is one well worth consideration for Canada, east as well as west."

ANGLO-SAXON UNITY. At the Loyalist celebration last evening Mayor Frink and Archdeacon Raymond referred to a possible union of the English speaking countries on this continent on broad lines as something which might come about in the natural course of events, when Canada has reached a state of development bringing her on more nearly even terms with her neighbor. Such a suggestion at a Loyalist celebration fifty years ago would have been regarded as rank heresy, but the thoughts of men are widened with the process of the suns, and a union of some sort of all the English speaking peoples is not now regarded as impossible of accomplishment at some time in the future. Dr. Raymond was careful to say that any suggestion of what is commonly known as annexation would not be entertained for a moment. His thought was that conditions would so change in the course of time that what would not now be considered for a moment might come to be regarded as in the interests of North America and of the world. Even those who do not believe that a reunion of the English speaking nations will come to pass agree that in the interest of all of them and of the world the most friendly relations should be cultivated, and the celebration of the one hundred years of peace is therefore welcomed as an opportunity to strengthen the ties of friendship and good neighborhood.

Before going out each morning on their rounds the board of health inspectors should read what Dr. Melvin said about the relation of filth to infant mortality. A heavy responsibility rests upon these inspectors.

The Standard, which for a considerable time has laid all the blame upon Hon. William Pugsley for the course pursued by the Liberals in parliament, has a new discovery. This morning its readers are informed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the guilty party, and that he is responsible for all that has happened. This discovery is very effectively of the Standard's own contention that Dr. Pugsley was trying to elbow Sir Wilfrid out of the leadership. When the Standard is given time enough it always answers itself.

Secretary Redfield has caused a sensation among American manufacturers by announcing that the department of commerce will investigate all industries in which wages have been cut since the Underwood tariff bill was introduced. The Democratic government evidently means business, and does not propose to be held up by the trusts. Secretary Redfield declares that when the efficiency of American mills has been raised to the highest possible standard, the manufacturers need not fear that they will be worsted in competition with the world.

Premier Borden spoke in Toronto last night, and of course the Union Jack was everywhere in evidence. It is a part of the political paraphernalia of the Tory party and used for purely political purposes. We are told that the premier drove his points home—"with clinched fists and squared shoulders." There is a suggestion of unfinishing courage in this phrase, but it will not be taken seriously until Mr. Borden takes his clinched fists and squared shoulders to the country on the naval issue.

Premier Borden at Toronto last night did something which was not worthy of the prime minister of Canada. He asserted that the naval proposals of Sir Wilfrid Laurier were "undisguisably of a separatist tendency." This is a reflection upon the Liberal leader which will be resented by the people of Canada. The attempt of Mr. Borden to belittle Sir Wilfrid Laurier is in striking contrast to a recent reference by Mr. Winston Churchill, who described Sir Wilfrid as "that great Imperial statesman." Mr. Winston Churchill is right, and Mr. Borden knows it, but it pleases Mr. Borden in Tory Toronto to attempt to create prejudice against a statesman whose imperialism does not ally itself with the Nationalists for purely partisan purposes.

Mr. Chisholm showed in parliament yesterday that at the time of the by-election in Antigonish there went out from the office of the department of public works a letter detailing the large amount of money to be placed in the supplementary estimates to be spent in Antigonish. This was clearly an inducement held out to the electors to vote for the Conservative candidate. To give out such information before the estimates were brought down was a clear violation of the duty of the minister of public works. When Mr. Chisholm had placed the facts clearly before the house the Hon. Robert Rogers treated the whole affair lightly, as one which was not worthy of attention. Mr. Rogers has been practicing political methods of this sort so long that it has become second nature. The Rogers methods are shameful, but they suit Mr. Borden and his colleagues in the government.

He was taken to the broom, brush and whisk makers met last evening in the Unique theatre and formed a union as a branch of the international organization of the Messrs. Stevens and Ellsmore and J. W. Sugnie directed the ceremonies. Addresses were delivered by Mr. Sugnie, president, and F. Hyatt, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council. The members of the new union expect a prosperous future.

The officers chosen last evening were as follows: President, J. King; vice-president, Benjamin Sheppard; financial secretary, H. J. Connell; treasurer, B. Knowles; guard, F. Fern; guardian, G. Moore; trustees, Benjamin Sheppard, J. Dwyer and J. Kennedy.

The St. John Motor Cycle Club met last evening in the office of the Good Year Tire Company and made plans for the run to Loch Lomond on May 24. It is hoped that a large number will take part in the trip. Several applications for membership were received and the prospects for a successful summer are very bright.

The High School graduating class had had a very enjoyable outing yesterday at Brookville at the home of one of the class, Miss Emma Colwell. There were about seventy-five in the party.

No. 1 Battery of the 8th Regiment, New Brunswick Canadian Garrison Artillery held their annual dinner in Bond's restaurant last evening. Major Harrison presiding. After dinner was enjoyed a programme was carried out. The following took part: Ray Nobles, Dowing Sandall, T. Slack, B. Bond, Mr. Kirby, Mr. Cromwell, Sergt-Major Cox and F. Irvine.

A. L. Law, who is about to sever his connection with Macanby Bros. & Co. to take a position in the inland revenue department, was given a gold handled ebony walking stick by the employees of the firm last evening. The gift was accompanied by an address signed by every employe of the company.

Letters patent have been issued to the Maritime Nail Co. Ltd., increasing their capital stock from $250,000 to $3,000,000. James Carleton of A. C. Smith Company and Walter McLeod, treasurer for the firm, had a narrow escape from serious injury last night when a horse which they were driving bolted through a fence in front of Sinn's factory in Fairville and jumped over a thirty foot embankment. The horse was owned by Mr. Carleton. The two men were driving along the roadway when the horse shied at something and smashed the shaft. A piece of the wood pierced his side and he jumped across the road, broke through the fence and dashed over the embankment. Both men were cut and bruised but their injuries are not serious. The horse was quite badly injured and was taken to A. C. Smith's barn in a slown.

An interesting lecture, "Life on the Labrador," was delivered by Rev. Wilfred Gaetz in Portland Methodist church last evening and was greatly enjoyed by the large number present.

F. A. Dykeman and W. C. Cross on behalf of the property owners of Alexandra Heights in the vicinity of Strait Shore walked on the city commissioners yesterday afternoon and asked that certain improvements be made to fit up their property for building lots be made. It was proposed that a concrete bridge should be built across the railway track as an extension of Alexandra street. The approval of the C. P. R. will have to be secured before the bridge can be built. The city will pay half the expense of the bridge up to $15,000. Water and sewerage extensions are also to be made provided the property owners guarantee 10 per cent. The matter will come up again at the next meeting of the commissioners for approval.

C. H. Kahan, K. C., of Montreal, who arrived in the city yesterday said last night that the senate would either throw out the naval bill or would require the endorsement of the people upon it before its enactment. This was the prevalent opinion in Montreal political circles, he said. The people of Canada want a vote and voice in matters of imperial interest and concern, and if there is no hope for this, there is no alternative for them but to endorse the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the establishment of a navy. Mr. Cahan with T. D. Cahan of Boston left today for Yarmouth where his mother is seriously ill.

CLAIMS REWARD FOR ARREST OF THE FIREBUG

F. C. Gates Application Not Approved by City Commissioners—Weekly Meeting of Council

The first claim for the reward offered by the city commissioners for the apprehension and conviction of the person responsible for the epidemic of fires, which was prevalent in the North End of the city several months ago was made to the commissioners at the meeting yesterday afternoon by F. C. Gates. In his letter Mr. Gates pointed out that on information supplied by him the supposed firebug was arrested and he thought because he had been placed in the home for the treatment of nervous diseases was no reason why the reward should not be paid over.

Commissioner McLellan said that the notice offering the reward clearly stated that it would be paid for information causing the arrest and conviction of the guilty party. A man had been arrested but he had been placed temporarily in the asylum until it could be known if he was really insane. The communication was referred to the commissioner of public safety.

Lillian J. M. Deinhardt, secretary of the Girls' Association, sent in a letter requesting aid from the city for carrying on the work of the association and especially for the establishment of an employment bureau. The letter told of the work done by the association during the last two years, and especially the fact that a decession had been secured to meet all incoming trains and direct girls to suitable boarding houses and places of employment. It is now proposed to open an employment bureau and communicate with girls in all parts of the maritime provinces who wish to come here to work. Five hundred dollars would be necessary for this work and it was hoped that the commissioners would help with a special grant. The expenses of the club now amount to nearly $1,000 a year and it is proposed to broaden the work. The letter was referred to Mayor Frink and it will likely be discussed by the commissioners in committee. Other matters of a routine nature were dealt with.

The petition of ratepayers asking that the by-law limiting the erection of wooden buildings to two stories be repealed was read.

The common clerk was asked to check off the names in order to determine whether or not there were the required number of signatures to call for the referendum on the by-law. If the number of names is sufficient a vote will likely be taken. The commissioner of finance and public affairs was instructed to secure the necessary aid for the common clerk in checking over the names.

Mayor Frink said that the city intended doing much advertising there should have been an appropriation for the same. A request from the officers of Country Life that the city take space in a special Maritime Province number was referred to him.

S. J. C. Knowles applied on behalf of Miss Anna Sullivan, his client, for a renewal of a lease of lot 452 Queen Street. It was referred to the commissioner of public lands.

Residents of Ashburn Road asked that it be extended between Riverside and Coldbrook so as to meet Rothery avenue. The commissioners were not just in a mood to extend the road, and the matter was referred to the commissioner of public safety.

Commissioner Whelan reported that the arrangements for the Marble Cove sewer had not yet been completed. He was to have a conference with some of the property owners concerned on Tuesday and it was likely that he could report definitely at the next meeting.

WELL ORGANIZED DEMONSTRATION FOR PREMIER BORDEN

Still Talks of Emergency—Threatens Existence of Senate Unless Naval Bill is Passed

Toronto, May 19—Prime Minister Borden received an enthusiastic welcome in Toronto tonight and 10,000 people packed the Arena. He was accompanied by Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries; Hon. L. F. Pelletier, postmaster-general representing Quebec province, and Sir James P. Whitney, premier of Ontario.

The presence of a force of Liberals was witnessed as Sir James Whitney mentioned the name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Cheers broke out in one part of the Arena but were drowned in counter cheers for Borden.

Premier Borden traced the history of the Conservative party's attitude toward the participation of Canada in naval defence, and said that it was the manifest duty of the government to render immediate and effective aid toward the motherland. Ministers had gone to London and conferred with the admiralty. They had asked the admiralty for a plain statement as to the needs of the empire and in a published memorandum it was stated by Hon. Mr. Churchill that any action on the part of Canada to widen the margin of our common safety would be significant of the united strength of the empire.

The premier in dealing with Sir Wilfrid's attitude contended that the latter had not met the government's proposals by any desire of aiding in settling a question of urgent interest. Sir Wilfrid's naval proposals were undisguisedly of a separatist tendency. The opposition was boasting that the naval bill would meet short shrift in the senate, but he deprecated the assertion. The opposition would not be pulled about when Sir Wilfrid desired it. They were able, intelligent men for the most part, and statements of high character, and were they unworthily controlled as had been suggested, he would be prepared to declare that the Canadian Senate had outlived its usefulness.

MAINE DRIVES HUNG UP.

A Van Buren despatch to the Bangor Commercial says:—Word has been received in Van Buren that the entire log drive on the upper St. John waters is hung up in the vicinity of Seven Islands for the lack of water in the river. There are about 80,000,000 feet of logs in this drive. The men on the drive have been discharged and sent home, the logs being abandoned for the present.

SNEERS AT THE GRAVE CHARGES

Hon. Robt. Rogers, Accused of Debauching Constituency, Calls it Trivial

Ottawa, May 19—Charges that the minister of public works, the minister of railways, the prime minister and Conservative election workers participated in "a scheme calculated to debase and mislead the electors of Antigonish county (N. S.) during the provincial election of Jan. 14 to a vacancy in the department, Mr. Chisholm, minister of the senate," were made in the house of commons this afternoon by Mr. Chisholm, of Antigonish.

Mr. Chisholm noted that one week before the election there appeared in the local paper a copy of a letter from Geo. Buskirk, secretary of the minister of public works, to Senator Girroir giving in detail the huge amount of money to be placed in the supplementary estimates to be spent in Antigonish. In permitting the letter to go out from the department, Mr. Chisholm maintained the minister had violated his duty as a minister of the crown and a privy councillor.

"It will not lie in the minister's mouth to say, 'I did not write the letter and the secretary did it without authority,'" said the Antigonish member. "If this is so how is it that the secretary was not dismissed the very fact that he is retained gives the minister's sanction to the transaction. We have had the experience of the Prince Albert homestead case, where the minister sought to escape responsibility because the letters produced were signed by G. B., his secretary."

Mr. Chisholm showed that the estimates cited in the local paper amounted to $169,000, or 81 for every vote polled on the by-election.

In connection with the same election, Mr. Chisholm charged that the people in that constituency had been given to understand that the government intended to allow hay to be transported free over the Intercolonial Railway. A hay famine was on in the district at the time. A self-appointed committee of Conservative heeled had published notices to this effect in the local paper. Mr. Borden and Hon. Mr. Cochrane had both been asked in the house repeatedly prior to the election if the government intended to transport hay free, as per these notices. Both the prime minister and the minister of railways had evaded a reply until after the election and then the freight charges were not lifted.

Hon. "Bob" Rogers with characteristic cynical frankness, simply contended the charge was trivial. He accused Mr. Chisholm of having cast the reflection upon the good citizens of Antigonish as being susceptible to "being bought."

Mr. Chisholm's motion of censure on the minister of public works was declared "lost on division" and the house then went into supply on the estimates for agriculture.

SILK MAGNET'S TRIAL OPENED

Boston, May 19—The Commonwealth, through District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, today laid the foundation of a case against President William Wood, of the American Woolen Company; Frederick Atteaux and Dennis J. Collins, who are charged with conspiracy to "plant" dynamite at Lawrence, during the great textile strike of last year.

While no evidence bearing directly on the alleged conspiracy was presented at the opening session of the trial, three witnesses testified to the finding of the dynamite in the house occupied by strikers.

The proceedings moved swiftly under the guidance of Judge John C. Crosby. The jury was selected in about an hour. The district attorney's address occupied less than half an hour, and the testimony of five of the twenty-four witnesses for the state was heard before adjournment.

The district attorney said that the evidence indicated that the three defendants conspired with John J. Breen, an undertaker of Lawrence, and Ernest I. Pittman, a builder of Andover, to "plant" the dynamite for the purpose of prejudicing public opinion against striking textile workers. It would be shown, he said, that Atteaux and Wood were in conference at Boston previous to the hiding of the explosive, and that they went from Boston to Andover near Lawrence on the night that Breen and Collins hid the dynamite at their hiding.

He declared that the evidence would show that in consideration of services rendered during the strike, wood paid Atteaux $500 in March 1912, and $2,100 three months later. He promised to introduce other evidence indicating that Breen gave money to Breen and that Breen in turn paid Collins.

GOOD EFFECT OF THE ROYAL VISIT

German Plans Indicate Desire To Cement Friendship With Britain

Berlin, May 19—The preparations for the wedding on Saturday next of Princess Victoria Luise, only daughter of the German emperor, and Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, give striking prominence to the emperor's apparent desire to make the occasion lead to a betterment of the relations between Great Britain and the German empire.

According to the programme, two squadrons of cuirassiers and dragons will compose the escort of King George on his arrival in Berlin on Wednesday, while only one squadron is assigned to escort Emperor Nicholas on his arrival the following day.

The German newspapers are giving much attention to the political importance which the wedding may have in bringing about a manifestation of friendship between Germany and Great Britain, but they have little to say concerning a similar manifestation towards Russia.

Emperor William will spend a busk forenoon on May 22. He will make three journeys to the station in the short two hours and a half in which he will receive successively the Grand Duchess Louise of Baden, the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland, and the Russian emperor.

The visitors will make state entries into the city, each through two and a half miles of streets lined with the crack guard troops, and their welcome by the emperor will necessitate three changes of uniform on his part.

Six German sovereigns and the representatives of several other German reigns in ghouses also will arrive in the course of the day, making necessary more or less formal receptions. A number of high British and Russian police officers arrived in Berlin today to supervise arrangements for the safety of King

George and Emperor Nicholas. The English precautions are attracting perhaps more attention than the elaborate installation of a system to insure the security of the Russian emperor.

King George and Queen Mary left London yesterday for Berlin to attend the wedding of Princess Victoria Luise, daughter of the Emperor William. When they get midway across the North Sea, their yacht will be met by a flotilla of German torpedo boat destroyers which will escort the yacht to the coast.

LOOK TO THE FLIES.

(Bangor Commercial)

This is the time of year to look after the fly and individual effort will go far in reducing the danger of the fly as a common carrier of disease. Science has long pointed out that the fly is a very dangerous and constant disease breeder. The germs of fever are continually carried by the fly from the refuse heap and by another indictment added by Dr. E. W. Sanders of St. Louis, who states that he has positive proof that the fly is directly responsible for the spread of infantile paralysis.

Swat the fly is a good slogan but much more effective is a clean-up campaign. Destroy the breeding places and much will have been accomplished. Our city is now cleaning up under the initiative of the federated women's clubs and this is a step in the right direction and a long step for such work not only makes the city more attractive but also, what is of even more importance, more sanitary and more free from disease. The health committee is supplementing this work by the distribution of circulars telling of the danger of the fly pest and urging general co-operation. This should be given heartily. It may seem a good deal of a proposition to attempt to eradicate the fly but in cities where there has been a determined effort results have been achieved in the reduction of disease.

St. Paul's London, has been the burial place of many of the greatest soldiers, including the Duke of Wellington, Lord Napier of Magdala was buried in 1860 in the Crypt and the Cathedral also contains memorials to soldiers of such renown as General Gordon, Sir Henry Lawrence and Sir John Moore.

A BARN-RAISING.

There are still kindly, old fashioned people in Maine, according to the belief of Alfred Smith of West Corina. Last spring Mr. Smith lost his barn through a fire which was started by the accidental overturning of a lantern. His neighbors sympathized with him in the loss and a subscription paper was started. When the last man had signed it, it was found that $300 had been raised.

On Saturday about fifty of the neighbors drove into the farm house yard. All the lumber for the new barn was piled there and his visitors set to work raising it with a will. An old fashioned dinner was served at noon and when night came, the frame of the barn was all up. His friends had helped him to cut the lumber and haul it and they will finish the structure before stopping work.

PICTURES IN SCHOOLS.

The use of moving pictures in the schools is spreading rapidly in Europe. Recently a professor in a Brussels school excited great interest by presenting a series of pictures illustrating the progress of aviation from the earliest days to the present. In Prussia the minister of public instruction has approved the use of the cinematograph in all the higher schools of the country and the official programmes give lists of films for geography, history and science. The expense of this material is met by appropriations from the government and municipalities and by private subscriptions.

Prisoners condemned to death in Greece have to wait two years before the death penalty is carried out.

Neuralgic Condition of the Nerves

In this age of nervous disorders neuralgia is fearfully common. The first thought is of neuralgia in the head or splitting headache, but neuralgia may affect any part of the body in which there are sensitive nerves.

The teeth are often bled and excited in error, when the cause of the trouble is in the impoverished condition of the blood and the starved nervous system.

While neuralgic pains are usually sharp and shooting, and consequently difficult to locate, the seat of trouble is usually sore and tender under pressure.

Neuralgia is pain, and as such is the symptom of a disease—nervous exhaustion. The nerves must be restored before cure can possibly be effected.

In many cases neuralgia is easily curable by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The patient is thin and bloodless and needs tonic treatment to form new, rich blood.

The application of cloths rung from hot water will afford relief from the suffering, and the regular use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for a few weeks will completely overcome the neuralgic condition.

Powerful drugs are to be avoided, because of their injurious effect in further weakening the nervous system. The Nerve Food cures by building up the feeble, wasted nerve cells, and for this reason is of lasting benefit.

AUTHORS OF ENGLAND

H. G. Wells and Bernard Shaw Neighbors But Not Friends—Winifred James Marries Panama Fruit Grower Whom She Went to Interview

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, May 7—It was a common remark last week that the ideal guide for the king and queen on their visit to the "Five Towns" of Staffordshire would have been Arnold Bennett, acknowledged as literary prophet of this region.

At luncheon one day in a little restaurant just off the Boulevard des Capucines, he demanded of the friend who tells the story: "If you didn't know, would you take me for an Englishman?" "Of course!" replied his companion, eyeing him maliciously over his wine-glass. "More than that, I could name any young man in your county—Staffordshire."

"What in the world makes you say that?" inquired the mortified novelist. "Deduction, my dear Watson, deduction," crowed my friend. "Every time the waiter brings you a plate, automatically you lift it and turn it over to see the 'hot mark'—the maker's imprint."

"Good Lord!" said Bennett. "I must have been doing it all my life; we all do it in the potteries." But his friend smiled at the gesture with which he hid it was quite Parisian.

Hamstead formerly the literary quarter of London, which is so long, is becoming the literary London of the future. It is now the headquarters of the "happy" suburb, for several years, but the quiet little village which has lived at 17 Church Row, in the proverbially picturesque Embankment, and was first chosen as a place of residence by George Bernard Shaw, who, in defiance of superstition, still occupies No. 18 Adelphi Terrace.

A few doors away from the Irishman is J. M. Barrie, while Martin Secker, who publishes "Carnival" is at No. 5, John street, and close by in Buckingham street are Joseph and Mrs. Penhall in the typically old-fashioned London mansion above which the latter wrote in "Our House."

Wells and Shaw, formerly great pals do not speak now as they pass by, so they are not likely to exchange calls when the former settles down in his new home. Before doing so, by the way, the author of "Maurice" is going on a visit to Italy, where he expects to stay for a month or two.

Her many readers may be interested to hear that Winifred James, who wrote "Blossom Betty" and "The Letters of a Spinster," is now neither bachelor nor spinster, having just been married. By the time you read this, her new book, "The Mulberry Tree," to get material for which she visited Panama and the West Indies—probably will be out, so it may be mentioned that it was while on her recent travels that the authoress met her husband, Henry de Jan. Every body goes to see de Jan at Almerston, where he is chief of the Fruit Growing Company, and when Miss James was in Panama, working up her book, she went to interview him. He told her a good deal about Panama, and, later on, something about himself, and now they are going back to Panama together.

Miss James, you may remember turned out to be the anonymous author of the widely discussed, "Letters to My Son." Judging by the London reviewers' lavish praise of "The Mulberry Tree," she has hit the bullseye once more, as indeed, she seldom—if ever—has failed to do since first she came to London from Australia, settled down in "digs" in Chelsea with a china elephant as mascot, and began writing pot-boilers.

At this time, a little letter which had reached Constable Suckley, who wrote "Service" as its presiding genius, and of which the present writer was a humble member, saw Miss James frequently and the memory of one experience which we shared is not likely to fade from my remembrance. A big evening reception at the Lyceum Club in Piccadilly, had reached its end, and, at the request of my hostess, I offered myself to Miss James as escort on the return journey to her lodgings in the Fulham Road. To our dismay, however, when we emerged from the club one of the thickest fogs which it ever has been my misfortune to meet in the course of a lengthy residence here, was in possession of the "West End." Our hansom driver, (this was before the era of taxis) managed well enough so long as he had the lights of Hyde Park Corner to guide him, but once he had left Knightsbridge behind, and unrelieved fog enveloped him on every hand, he was obliged to leave his accustomed perch, and himself with one of the cab's lamps and, taking his horse by the bits, trudged along on foot through the gloom as rapidly as a cabby has done before in London and will do again.

It had been well past midnight when we quitted the Lyceum at the end of an hour, at our rate of progress, we had covered, I suppose a mile. Suddenly Winifred James, gasping: "I'm afraid to tell you what I've done" she observed: "What have you done?" said I, all unsuspecting. "I've left my bag at the club," faltered she, "and my latch-key in it, and I can't get in."

Back we crawled through the fog. When, eventually, I reached home, it was long past three. I have never forgotten Winifred James.

BASEBALL

Warning to Small Boys.—Pittsfield, Mass., May 17.—Lee C. Cummings, catcher on a schoolboy baseball team was using a golf ball in place of a baseball, missed a foul tip yesterday and the ball went through an opening in his mask. The lad's skull was fractured and he lived only a short time.

Has Shaffer Quit?—Los Angeles, Cal. May 17.—Relatives of Arthur Shaffer, of the New York National League team, learned that he was missing yesterday and was probably on his way home to Los Angeles.

Mullin to Washington.—All of his recent letters, they said, contained references to an early departure for Los Angeles and a resumption of his activities as an automobile salesman.

Detroit, Mich., May 17.—Pitcher George Mullin, in point of service the oldest member of the Detroit Baseball Club, was sold last night to the Washington Americans for $2,500. Mullin joined the Tigers in 1902, and three times helped to pitch Detroit into the American League championship. His showing this spring has not been satisfactory to Manager Jennings. Mullin said he was glad to have a change of scene and declared he still could pitch as good ball as he ever did.

When Matty's Days Are Done.—Boston, May 17.—When Mathewson's days of usefulness as a pitcher for the New York Giants have ended, Manager McGraw is to tender him a three-year contract without reduction in salary.

Wrestling.—New York, May 19.—Stanislaus Zyzanski, the Polish champion wrestler defeated Raymond Casaux, the Italian champion, in two straight falls in a catch-as-catch-can at Madison Square Garden tonight. The winner, it was announced, will be matched to meet Frank Gotch, champion of the world, some time before September, probably in New York.

Turf.—Oklahoma City, May 19.—Betting on horse racing in Oklahoma was stopped when Governor Crane vetoed a bill which would go into effect 90 days hence, providing a fine of from $200 to $5,000 and imprisonment of not less than thirty days for those convicted of conducting places where betting is being done. One fourth of the fine collected will go to the informer.

Aquatic.—The official opening of the 1913 season of the H. K. Y. C. clubhouse at Millidgeville will take place on Victoria day, and at noon the gun will be fired and the Blue Ensign hoisted.

Short addresses will be given by Comptroller J. Fraser Gregory and the flag officers, and the formal opening will conclude with a luncheon. June 3, the king's birthday, has been named members day and a band will furnish music at the clubhouse during the afternoon and evening.

Yacht and motor boat races will be held on the afternoon of members' day, and one of the features of the meet will be the arbitrary handicap race for Commodore Gregory's cup, when practically all the sailing yachts of the club will compete.

More than twenty yachts have been entered in this event and the race promises to be a memorable one. The time allowance will be given at the start. Several other races will be held, including events for the dingy class, open motor boats, speed motor boats and cabin cruisers. The evening of members' day has been set aside for dancing.

BANGOR'S PLANS FOR OPENING OF BASEBALL SEASON

Their First Game in Maine and New Brunswick League Tomorrow—The Players

(Bangor Commercial) Two days more and Bangor becomes a full-fledged ball town with a snappy hustling team of young players all striving to pull down the pennant in the Maine-New Brunswick league, of which the old Queen City is now an important factor. The Fredericton club comes up here on that day, and there will be a grand reunion of all of Bangor's baseball fans at Maplewood park, where the game will be called at three o'clock.

When the mayor tosses the ball out and the umpire says "play ball" there ought to be a bunch of loyal supporters of the game on hand large enough to insure the complete success of the local clubs for the season. Barring rain the prospects are that there will be one grand little turnout.

Player Manager Magoon has his team practically selected and six of the men are already here, working out at the University of Maine athletic field, Monday morning. Six more were expected during the day, and Tuesday they will be busy about town selecting their boarding places and getting located for the season.

Wednesday morning Magoon will have the whole crowd out to Maplewood for a short session in the morning and in the afternoon the game will be on.

Of course there may be some changes in the present personnel of the team. Probably will, for Magoon is going to give Bangor the best aggregation that he can get for the money, but it will take some little time to work the men out. There are to be twelve or fourteen men signed on at first, and later the number will be cut to about eleven, in order to keep in the salary limits.

For catchers Magoon has taken on Frank Teed of Randolph and R. E. LeBrack of Waterville. LeBrack has played around here a whole lot in the past few seasons and is a good man. David Surette of Exeter, N. H., is signed as an outfielder and one of the pitchers. Surette pitched for Portsmouth in the Sunnet league last season, and Manager Magoon, who saw him work at the time, was most favorably impressed. D. F. Mahoney of Waterville is also down as pitcher. Eddie Blackbird of Somersworth, N. H., another pitcher, who will have a tryout at this position.

For infielders there are B. G. Priestly of Somersworth, N. H., Elmer Foote of Boston, Edward Tewbery of Lewiston, John Dolan of Roxbury, Mass., Edward Talotte of Auburn.

Elmer Foote is the former Eastern infielder. He is already in town and is feeling in great shape. It is probable that he will be tried out at his old position at second base.

For outfielders there are Eddie Hammond of Lewiston and Mahoney of Lewiston. Magoon himself will probably play in the outfield, although he plays either in the outfield or infield equally well, and his plan is to play where it will give the most strength to the team.

It is a case of make good or leave with all these men and the fans can be assured that they will do their level best to stick.

Everything is to be run according to organized baseball rules. Fines will go in this league and there will be a regular league umpire to keep the players in line.

The field at Maplewood offers a splendid opportunity for automobilists to park their machines and watch the games without leaving their cars.

Now that Bangor business men have subscribed enough money to put Bangor on the baseball map once again, it is up to the rest of the people to give the local club the support that it deserves and to keep it going. It has been a long time since Bangor has had any real baseball and everything indicates the success of the present project.

Fredericton is an unknown quantity but as the town won the championship last year, it is safe to say that they will send up a lively outfit. Manager Leonard's St. John team took a game from the strong semi-professional team, the Sears' Convincers, at Springdale, Saturday, the Convincers having Hobbs, the old Bowdoin pitcher in the box. Manager Doyle's team, Stephen Sears' team, shut out a strong picked team of Saco players at Saco Saturday.

INDECISION. (Galveston News) The wallpaper man is a martyr; he opens up rolls of his wares and spreads out his ceilings and borders on tables and over the chairs. So all in the household may view them, and when 60 rolls are unfurled, Decide it's all perfectly awful, and never would do in the world.

He patiently gets out some others, and everyone puts in a word—Aunt Jane likes the pale blue with grapevines, and Mamma the one with the bird, And Susie insists on an "oatmeal" and Carrie on something more gay, And, sighing, the wallpaper dealer lays all the rejected away.

Then Grandma must see the pale brown one—the one with the figures, you know? 'Twas rolled up and put in the discard, 24 hours and hours ago; And so the poor man tries to find it in hopes of some marvelous stroke. Since he has rolled it there by the hundred and all look exactly alike.

And when they have settled the matter, and all's running smoothly and nice, Somebody—perhaps it is father—inquires as to what is the price. And then the war once more commences the paper won't do, that's to say; They'll have to look through the samples for something much cheaper than that.

McGraw's Review of the Big Leagues

By JOHN J. MCGRAW, Manager of the Champion Giants

There has been a marked improvement in the playing of two clubs, the falling down of one, which was rated as a pennant contender, the sustained success of two more, and practically no change in the remaining teams during last week in the race in the National League.

The Giants played more substantial ball last week than they have at any other time this year, and together with Brooklyn, practically stopped the Cubs. The Boston team looked better last week than it has previously, and the steady improvement, which is usually apparent in a club under the management of Stallings, is asserting itself.

The feat of beating the Pirates four straight games is one that makes baseball history in Boston. I do not recall any Boston team doing it in recent years. The Pittsburgh team was considered to be the strongest rival of the Giants for the pennant.

Bad Week for the Cubs The Cubs fell down badly on the week, losing three games out of four to the Brooklyn team, and three out of four to the Giants. Brooklyn and Philadelphia have boomed along at the unexpected pace at which they started during the day, and Tuesday they were the St. Louis team has made the best showing of the westerners in the east, and the Pirates and Reds are going very badly—as bad as they have all seasons. We first consider the rise and fall of the Cubs, because they were early sport, they looked like strong bidders for the championship, for a few minutes.

The Chicago club is a good one, but it does not appear to have the resources to stand the close fight for the pennant which is liable to develop this season. The games against the Pirates made it evident that the weakest department of the Cubs is in the pitching staff. Only one man, twisted a big league game against my club, and that was Cheney, who has been the mainstay of Evers' team in the past season. The rest of the starters were easy for the Indians, even Ritchie, who has had the Indian sign on my batters for some seasons, falling before the onslaught. Evers started Cheney a second time in the series, and he was not there, but he was taken out, and it struck me that he was showing signs of over-work. If Cheney had not been taken out, he would have been the rest of the staff looks very bad, with little hope for improvement. Evers' team is a sensation in a row. When they lost last season, looked very bad in the portion of the game that he worked against the Giants, he looked confident and walked batters and hit them until he was also removed.

In the way of pitchers there does not seem to be a sensation in a row. When they lost last season, looked very bad in the portion of the game that he worked against the Giants, he looked confident and walked batters and hit them until he was also removed.

It is perfectly safe. You see, when the machine is standing on the air, the steering rudder becomes the elevating rudder and the elevating rudder takes the place of the steering rudder. In other words, during the whirl, the rudder that usually steers me right and left is used to steer me up and down instead. Of course, I've had this rudder made extra strong and the trick can't be done in a machine with an ordinary rudder, for if the rudder breaks—

George Hughes, of London, Eng., says that his company are willing to erect a plant at Sydney, C. B., capable of building ships up to 10,000 tons in a free site with water frontage is provided and the interest guaranteed on $2,000,000 six per cent. preference shares. Mr. Hughes represents the Anglo-Canadian Trust Co.

There is still no change in the Halifax street carmen's strike. Not a wheel turned yesterday. The city has requested the company to agree to settle the matter by arbitration, but so far no reply to the letter has been given. Rev. Edmund Hallstone, curate of Christ church Cathedral, Fredericton, has been appointed rector at Hoyt Station. He will be succeeded by Rev. Mr. Haig, of Calgary.

The contract for the construction of the new annex to the Provincial Normal school was awarded yesterday to J. Fred Ryan, of Fredericton. The price is said to be in the vicinity of $46,000. Cedine Richard, who has been living with his son, Simon, at St. Anne, N. B., left that place about four weeks ago with the intention of visiting friends in

What will be a near championship battle will be staged at the baseball park in Indianapolis on the night of May 29, when Jack Dillon, Hoosier champion middle weight, will battle Frank Klaus, Pittsburgh bearcat, over the ten-round route, the weight being 160 pounds at three o'clock.

Let the winner of this match, if there is one, meet either Jimmy Clabby or Eddie McGoorty over the marathon distance and you will have a real contest for the American middleweight title, for Clabby and McGoorty have as much right to be classed as real contenders as any 158 pounders in the country, if not more so. It might be better, if McGoorty and Clabby met again where they could have a decision and then let the winner meet the Klaus-Dillon match.

The one drawback to the Indianapolis affair is the weight, which is the European scale, and in doing so he can not lay claim to the American championship even if he should defeat Dillon. From the fact that Klaus weighed the 160 pound mark, it is evident that he can not make the American weight of 158 rindside.

On the other hand the Indianapolis fighter has demonstrated that he is in line for his title. His defeat of Bob Moha placed him among the top-notchers; in fact Dillon has defeated any number of good middle weights in the last six months and his record is brighter than that of any of the others. He can also make the weight, for he fought under 158 pounds when he was in Milwaukee for the Moha fight. The affair with Klaus should prove a big magnet to get the fight fans from the middle west together and the chances are there will be a monster crowd on hand to see the two men fight it out.

It seems that many of the present day middle weights like the 160-pound scale, excepting Jimmy Clabby and Mike Gibbons (and it would really be a good thing for the game if they could agree on an international poundage, even if it is 160 pounds). There are four countries now which hold the 160-pound scale, weighing at three o'clock, while the United States alone holds to 158 pounds-side. That only demonstrates again the need of a ruling body in the United States to take the lead in such matters.

Red Sox Away Off The one sensation in the American League is the showing of the Red Sox, sensational on account of the lack of showing. It does not look as if the Red Sox will be able to repeat now, with the class shown in the league by the Athletics and Washington, particularly the Athletics, who are again they did in 1910 and 1911. The absence of the playing and inspiration of Stahl from the infield has hurt the club some, but it has displayed a general tendency to fall down after its effort of last season, which has almost put it out of the running.

The Red Sox had one of the strongest pitching staffs in the country last year. This spring Wood has not shown anything like the form he was accustomed to put on exhibition in the past season, and the rest of the twirlers have fallen down. Stahl does not seem to be able to get the team on a winning track, and it is not one of those clubs which has the latent strength such as the Athletics possess. It did not look like a particularly strong team in the world's series, although it beat my club, and I will admit that you cannot go out of the running.

But the Red Sox lived through one of the best seasons of the American League in the history of the league, and the representations of President Wilson, and his personal envoy, Secretary of State Bryan, Governor Johnson signed the bill and ninety days after the adjustment of the legislature, or on August 1, the act becomes operative.

Banghai, Tripoli, May 19.—The Italian losses in the recent engagement with Arabs at Sidr Garba numbered 79 killed and 259 wounded. The Italians captured an entrenched camp of the Arabs after a hard fight.

A young woman failed to pass her examination for appointment as teacher in the public school of a small town. Her mother was terribly disappointed and decided to interview one of the examiners.

"I am sorry, madam," the man said, "that your daughter did not pass her examinations, but there is nothing I can do about it. You must know that no one is to blame but herself."

"She to blame?" exclaimed the woman, wrathfully. "Well, she perked up her questions about lots of things that happened years ago before she was born."—Harper's Bazar.

Dillon and Klaus Will Have a Near Championship Battle

By TOM ANDREWS

What will be a near championship battle will be staged at the baseball park in Indianapolis on the night of May 29, when Jack Dillon, Hoosier champion middle weight, will battle Frank Klaus, Pittsburgh bearcat, over the ten-round route, the weight being 160 pounds at three o'clock.

Let the winner of this match, if there is one, meet either Jimmy Clabby or Eddie McGoorty over the marathon distance and you will have a real contest for the American middleweight title, for Clabby and McGoorty have as much right to be classed as real contenders as any 158 pounders in the country, if not more so. It might be better, if McGoorty and Clabby met again where they could have a decision and then let the winner meet the Klaus-Dillon match.

The one drawback to the Indianapolis affair is the weight, which is the European scale, and in doing so he can not lay claim to the American championship even if he should defeat Dillon. From the fact that Klaus weighed the 160 pound mark, it is evident that he can not make the American weight of 158 rindside.

On the other hand the Indianapolis fighter has demonstrated that he is in line for his title. His defeat of Bob Moha placed him among the top-notchers; in fact Dillon has defeated any number of good middle weights in the last six months and his record is brighter than that of any of the others. He can also make the weight, for he fought under 158 pounds when he was in Milwaukee for the Moha fight. The affair with Klaus should prove a big magnet to get the fight fans from the middle west together and the chances are there will be a monster crowd on hand to see the two men fight it out.

It seems that many of the present day middle weights like the 160-pound scale, excepting Jimmy Clabby and Mike Gibbons (and it would really be a good thing for the game if they could agree on an international poundage, even if it is 160 pounds). There are four countries now which hold the 160-pound scale, weighing at three o'clock, while the United States alone holds to 158 pounds-side. That only demonstrates again the need of a ruling body in the United States to take the lead in such matters.

of the best seasons last summer ever enjoyed by a ball club, a lucky one. All American Leaguers will tell you the same thing. There was not an injury to a regular which made any material difference, and the boys certainly got all the breaks in the games. The luck adhered throughout the big series. If Stahl cannot get his pitchers straightened around his chances of repeating are as good as those of a chorus girl trying to break into small town society.

Mack's Boys. The Athletics look like the class in the American League so far, and they are liable to continue to look like it. All that "Connie" Mack needed was some substantial pitching, and he is getting the same this season. Bender looks good and two or three of the youngsters have worked out in fine shape, whereas Plink is striding along at the same merry clip he used last season.

The only competition in the league for the Athletics was expected from the Washington team, and Griffith has already bumped into considerable hard luck. Gandil was absent from the game for a time, and Foster, the hustling young third baseman, will be out for a long period with typhoid fever. This loss has slowed up the Washington infield to a great extent, and the speed and ginger of the infield was one of the big assets of the club. As long as Griffith retains Johnson in form he is bound to make it interesting for any club he meets, but his chances of beating out the Athletics has been greatly reduced within the last week.

The Yankees are the surprise of the western invasion. When they went away from New York they looked like the worst club in the world, yet Frank Chance has instilled some of his spirit into them, and the team is fighting as the old Cubs used to fight. It is a start for the team, and one which Chance was bound to make. They tell me that the players are kicking on decisions now, players who, until a few weeks ago, had always been regarded by the umpires as being deaf and dumb. It is this snarling, fighting, "crabbing" aggressive spirit that wins the ball games.

Chance is also teaching the club baseball, as is evidenced by the fact that, although the boys went away from home with their heads hanging after a long string of defeats, he put the fight into them. They beat Cleveland out of the series, and Cleveland was mentioned as the class in the western part of the American League circuit. Chance is not liable to finish very high, but I would like to lay a little wager right now that the club will not be last. He might even nose it out of the second division, but the likes are speed and fight. They are new talent to meet his notions of what a ball player should be. Two qualities he likes are speed and fight. They are necessary to any successful big leaguer. There is no space on either circuit for the weak hearted.

The Cleveland club has been slowed up by injuries. Lajoie is out of the game, and his disappearance has the same effect on the Cleveland team that the absence of Wagner has on Pittsburgh. Cleveland is also short of good pitchers. It should finish near the first division, but not among the first three. (Copyright, 1913, by John J. McGraw.)

STONES AND BOTTLES GREET NEWARK UMPIRE

Sunday Ball Game Ends in Free Fight Because of Unpopular Decision in Third Inning

A decision by Umpire Hayes of the International League that a ball knocked over the right field fence was a home run, at Newark, N. J., led to a player being taken from the field by the police Sunday and later on the millions of the law being forced to escort the umpire to his dressing room amid a hail of bottles, stones, cushions and other missiles and afterwards to a train, which would take him out of town. During the melee, a spectator was struck on the head with a stone and stung.

The trouble started in the third inning of a game between Newark and Rochester. The visitors were leading 2 to 0, and had two men out and one man on base. Zinn connected with a fast one and the ball sailed over the right field fence. Swain, the Newark first baseman, declared it a foul and protested no signers when Hayes permitted the two runs to tally that he was ordered from the field. He refused to obey the order and the umpire and Hayes called on the police to put him off. They did, the spectators meanwhile hissing and hooting the umpire of the game.

Play was resumed after a short delay and the Rochester seven, another run in this inning and another in the fifth, while Newark went scoreless throughout. When the game ended, the crowd surged out on the diamond and tried to get at Hayes. Bottles, cushions and stones filled the air. The police formed a hollow square about the umpire and let him to the club house. Three staves were hurled through the windows and some of the crowd tried to rush the door. Police reserves finally had to be called to drive the excited fans from the vicinity of the ball park. When they had done so, the police took the umpire to the depot and he left the city.

PLANNING CALL FOR TENDERS ON NEW WHARF

In writing to the Board of Trade, the Department of Public Works advises that they will go into figures for the three methods of constructing the new wharf to the south of the present Commercial wharf, and if these figures are not prohibitive they will consider inviting alternative tenders for construction—First, birch or hemlock; second, concrete; third, southern pine.

CHALLENGE LOCAL DISTANCE RUNNER

Fast Men From Massachusetts Would Compete Here—Maritime Meet May Be Arranged

A challenge has been received from Home, the long distance runner of Everett, Mass., who put up such a good race against Cameron during the Old Home Week celebration at Amherst two years ago, and Parritt, the crack deaf and dumb long distance runner of Boston, to race Stirling here some time in June. Arrangements are now being made to bring these speedy ones here and those who have the matter in hand say that an effort will be put forth to have a number of other runners from different provinces take part in the contest. The distance proposed is ten miles and if the plans that are now under consideration can be carried out the race will no doubt prove interesting to the sport fans of the city.

MANY STRIKES FOR INCREASED WAGES

Chief Features of Dominion Labor Report For April — Prompt Settlement in Most Cases

Ottawa, Ont., May 20.—While the actual number of trade disputes in existence during April was greater than in the preceding month and exceeded by twelve, that of the corresponding month of last year, the number of working days lost to the employes thereby was not as great as during April 1912. The industries most affected by disputes in April according to the Labor Gazette, were mining, building, and the clothing trades. The disputes of coal and metalliferous miners in British Columbia, previously begun, continued, as did also the strike of gold miners at Porcupine. The most serious disputes in the building trades involved painters at Winnipeg and miscellaneous employes at Nelson, B. C. In the clothing trades more than 2,000 garment workers at Hamilton were thrown out of work by a dispute which lasted two weeks. Business conditions were considerably affected in Montreal and Toronto by short strikes of teamsters. Although more than twenty new disputes occurred during April, a satisfactory feature was the fact that in nearly every case a settlement was soon reached, a majority of the disputes being strikes called to enforce demands for increased wages.

CARUSO A UNIQUE SINGING MACHINE

"His Very Bones Are Musical" Says Doctor—Tells of Rare Equipment For Singing

London, May 20.—"Caruso's very bones are musical," said Dr. Wm. Lloyds of the Royal Society of Medicine, who treated the tenor after he abandoned his engagements two years ago, telling the results of his most recent examination of the singer's throat. "If you tap one of his knuckles," he said, "it gives out a higher pitched and more resonant tone than those of the average person." He explained the physical arrangements which made Caruso a unique singing machine. "Among other things I have observed," he said, "is the abnormal length of the vocal tube. The distance from the front teeth to the vocal chords is half an inch longer than in any tenor I have ever seen, accounting to a great extent for the extraordinary compass, pitch and volume of his voice. Another point is that the vocal chords are fully an eighth of an inch longer than those of any other singer I have examined. They are also extraordinarily vibratile. When he sings a C sharp, they vibrate 550 times a second, which is phenomenal for a man, although in a soprano the vibration is much higher."

REPORTS MURDER OF TURKISH GENERAL

Essad Pasha, Commander of Scutari Said to Have Been Assassinated

Vienna, Austria, May 20.—Reports of the murder of Essad Pasha who commanded the fleet at Scutari throughout the siege, have reached the Albanians at Trieste, according to a despatch to the Reichspost from that city. The assassination is said to have taken place at Tiana, where Essad Pasha marched with many thousands of Turkish soldiers, after the evacuation of Scutari and formed a provisional Albanian government. It is thought the murder may be the result of a blood vendetta and was carried out by relatives of General Hassan Riza Pasha, who preceded Essad as commander of Scutari and whose death there was laid to the account of Essad Pasha.

Striking An Average Between the Boy and His Clothes

Healthy vigorous out-of-door boys can't be expected to think first of their clothes—they just don't.

So the clothing must be made to resist to the greatest degree whatever hard treatment the boy gives it. Nor must style be neglected in its make-up—for when the boy does think of his clothes, it should be with the realization that they are dressy and up-to-date: else "the fellers" will notice it and his self-respect is hurt.
