

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, March 31.—C. E. Bishop, a young man of 21, of the village, was killed by a horse on Friday, March 29, while riding on a horse named "Fruit-a-lives". The horse was started by the mill whistle and started to run away. Running to catch the horse, the young man fell over his head, breaking both bones below the knee. Dr. Carr, who attended to the injury, said that the horse was quite a bad runaway and that the young man was a good rider. The horse was taken to the mill and was kept there for a few days. It was then sold to a man named "Fruit-a-lives".

MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., April 1.—Yesterday afternoon Roy Hopper, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hopper of Rhediac Road, near this city, was fatally shot in the left side by a companion with a loaded revolver at the residence of his uncle, Day Hopper, at Little River, near Salisbury. The boy was at once hurried to Salisbury, where medical aid was given, but he died in the hospital to remove the bullet.

HOPEWELL HILL

There was quite a bad runaway at Hopewell Hill on Saturday, the horse belonging to Mr. O'Connor, of the King George Hotel, got frightened at a dog and with carriage attached with no occupant, made a dash through the village. Narrowly escaping collision with the stone posts in front of the Bank of Nova Scotia the animal ran over the embankment of the Shepody Hotel, horse and carriage being piled up in heap. Fortunately the horse escaped injury, but the carriage was smashed.

HOPEWELL HILL

The section was without mail on both days of the Albert festival, and the mail arrived on Sunday morning, being driven down from Moncton, where the train stopped on the down trip Saturday. The trip was made on Friday on account of washouts by the storm of the previous night, but these were repaired so that the train made the run up to Salisbury at eight on Saturday. On the return trip, however, there was a landslide near Moncton about eight miles from Albert, about 6 o'clock, and after waiting nearly all night, mail was finally driven down to the city this morning. Some of the passengers walked some distance and got driven down. The engine was replaced this morning, but the cars were still on today.

HOPEWELL HILL

Edgar Wilson, of the village, returned yesterday from a trip to St. John. Donald MacChesney, who had been away all winter, returned home last week. A special meeting of the rate payers of the Hill school district, in called to elect a trustee to fill the place of C. L. Pack, who has removed from the village.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, March 31.—The Scranton Wash Boring Company of Scranton, Pa., who have been doing the test boring at the Baltimore shale works during the past year, have finished work and are shipping their boring rods to the works. They have done 12,000 feet of work. The boring rods are being shipped to the works for use in the test boring.

HOPEWELL HILL

Howard Stevens and bride returned tonight from their wedding trip to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Thad. Stevens of the village, Albert county, are the guests of relatives here this week. Mr. Stevens leaves for a few days for Springfield, Kings county, on an undertaking.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, April 1.—The destruction caused by the recent rain and freshets, reported to have been very heavy in the river and in the surrounding country, has in many places, are practically ruined. A gentleman from Alma said today that it would take $1,000 to make good the damage in Alma alone. In one place, a quarter of a mile in length, the highway was completely torn to pieces.

HOPEWELL HILL

A foot-bridge in one section, was carried out by the freshets, and cross-ways and lane bridges, and a large amount of logs going out to sea, and damage to mill plant by the freshets, the latter alone amounting to $1,000, it is estimated. It cannot be told just how many logs went adrift, as they went out during the night, but the amount is estimated at between 200,000 and a million feet.

HOPEWELL HILL

The death is reported at Dawson Settlement, of Leah Jones, an old resident of that place. His death occurred last night. He had been ill with cancer for over a year.

HOPEWELL HILL

Miss Annie McWilliams is spending a few weeks at Sibleyville (N. B.).

HOPEWELL HILL

Mrs. James Whiston and daughter, of Petticoat, are visiting friends here this week.

HOPEWELL HILL

Amos Workman, who was taken seriously ill on Saturday evening in recovering from a walk with relatives and friends.

HOPEWELL HILL

Rev. E. E. Thomas of St. John are here today conferring with President McLaughlin of the Methodist conference on missionary work.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hon. John Morrisey, chief commissioner of public works, who is in the city today, said tonight that steps will be taken as soon as the ice run slackens, which will be a matter of a few days, to put in temporary structure of piling.

HOPEWELL HILL

The ice-run stopped at about 5 o'clock, the jam forming below at Lincoln and another jam forming above at the city at Springfield.

HOPEWELL HILL

The remarkable feature of the ice run so far has been the rapid rise and fall of water. It rose four feet in three hours and then fell and fell an equal distance in two hours.

HOPEWELL HILL

Federator, N. B., April 2.—The annual meeting of the Tobique River Log Driving Club was held at the Queen Hotel this afternoon and directors were elected as follows: Donald Fraser, Frederator; Donald Fraser, Jr., Plaster Rock; F. C. Beattie, St. John; J. D. McLaughlin, Red Rapids; George Miller, Chas. Miller was re-elected president and Arthur J. Hardy, of Woodstock, secretary-treasurer.

HOPEWELL HILL

The out on the Tobique is estimated at 31,000,000 feet. It is divided as follows: 10,000,000 feet, the middle section, by C. Miller, 21,000,000; Donald Fraser & Sons, 16,000,000; Charles Miller, 4,000,000.

HOPEWELL HILL

The annual meeting of the St. John River Log Driving Company was held at the Queen Hotel this morning, and was fairly well attended. From reports submitted, it was estimated that the quantity of lumber to come through the boom this year is not in the city, which is one of the smallest quantities on record. The following directors were elected: J. Fraser, Gregory, Chas. Miller, A. H. F. Rauld, J. D. Beattie, and John A. Morrisey. The directors met this afternoon to consider the driving contract.

HOPEWELL HILL

Allen Drow, who has the contract for two years, but it is possible that the company will be held in a few days at which the driving contract again will be discussed. The general expectation is that the Drow contract will be cancelled and the company do the driving itself.

HOPEWELL HILL

Rev. Dr. J. H. MacDonald, who recently visited the parishes of the Brunswick county, has declined the offer of engagement by Mrs. MacDonald for Ottawa, where he will assume the pastorate of McPhail Memorial church. A large number of friends bade them farewell at the station.

HOPEWELL HILL

The ice jam which formed below the city yesterday afternoon, broke at 8 o'clock in the evening and ran out. The water level fell less than two hours. The channel is now clear of ice, but the water is quite a blockade along the St. Mary's shore. The railway bridge suffered no damage from the ice, but some damage was done to warehouses along the river and several barns belonging to Bett, Alberton, were wrecked. An immense quantity of broken ice piled on the banks at Springfield, but reports from that section are that there has been no serious damage. The weather turned quite cold last night and it is believed now that so long as this section is concerned, the worst is over.

HOPEWELL HILL

The inconvenience caused by the loss of the draw span of the highway bridge is being already felt. St. Mary's residents have been caught by the Frederator side with teams standing in the water, and the draw span of St. Mary's and Nashuabensia traveled to the city by train this morning. Until the bridge is repaired passengers for the Frederator branch will arrive two weeks going over the nineteenth century battery equipment.

HOPEWELL HILL

The divorce court met this morning, but owing to Judge McKown being otherwise engaged, adjournment was made until April 29.

A GREAT BELIEVER "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

Well Known Ontario Merchant Has Faith Because "Fruit-a-lives" Cured Him

Mr. James Dobson
Brome, Ont., March 1st, 1912.
"Fruit-a-lives" has made a complete cure in my case of Rheumatism, that had at least five years standing before I commenced the treatment. The trouble was principally in my right hip and shoulder, and it was almost unendurable. Not being able to sleep on that side, if I changed to turn on my right side while asleep, the pain would immediately awaken me. This kept up until I started taking "Fruit-a-lives". I started by taking one or two tablets with a large glass of water, in the morning before breakfast and experienced pronounced relief very shortly. After a continued treatment for about six months, I was cured and am now in the best of health. This I attribute to my persistent use of "Fruit-a-lives" and I heartily recommend your remedy to any Rheumatic sufferer.

MR. JAMES DOBSON

WILSON'S SUGAR BILL

Sugar Growers Want Duties Retained

Free Wool Seems Likely Although There is Objection to It—Big Cut Decided in Agricultural Products—President Busy Seeing Those Who Want to "Tax the Other Fellow."

Washington, April 3—President Wilson was tonight face to face with the most serious phase of tariff revision.

The president leans strongly to revision of a single bill. He thinks the income tax question can only be decided after agreement has been made upon tariff matters.

The president has been hearing arguments that people in Louisiana could receive their business to meet the new conditions imposed by the tariff on sugar.

Following upon his conference last night with Mr. Underwood, the president today did today to send for Col. W. H. Clegg.

NEW "CURE" FOR TUBERCULOSIS MORE THAN 75 MEN ON SEA

North Carolina Doctor reported to lay a Marvellous Remedy

Will be Tested Federal Health Officials to Give it a Trial—Excellent as a Preventive, It is Assured—Experiments Made on More Than 700 Subjects.

Washington, March 31—Dr. Friedman's tuberculous cure has a rival in the Von Ruck method of preventive vaccination, which the United States government is arranging to investigate...

The fall and winter of 1912-1913 was a disastrous one for navigation in the North Atlantic. During that period more than seventy-five sailors were drowned in shipwreck and fifty-six vessels met disaster off the coasts of New England and British North America...

The most tragic disaster occurred near St. Johns, Newfoundland, Dec. 19, when the Puritan steamship Florence, Halifax for St. John's (Nfld.), was wrecked, 22 men losing their lives. Captain Barr, of the steamer, and all his men reached shore after the vessel struck on the ledge, but the lofty, inaccessible cliffs prevented their escape.

The big tide and heavy gale made it necessary for the men to return to the vessel. Later Second Mate J. Healey and three men got away from the wreck on a more favorable landing place. After finding a break in the cliffs, Healey succeeded in running his craft high up on a rock.

Wind and sea increased and when darkness fell the men sought shelter in an abandoned fisherman's hut. The following day Healey found that the steamer had sunk in the night with the loss of 22 men on board.

Nearly 1,000 persons were on board when the mail steamer Royal George grounded on the rocks in the St. Lawrence river, one mile east of Point St. Lawrence, Nov. 6. The passengers were taken off without mishap and reached their destinations by special trains. All hope of reaching the liner was at first abandoned, but she was later floated and taken to England.

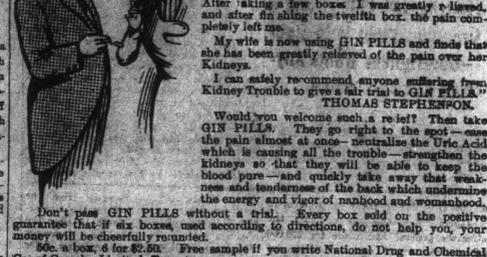

Sudden gales washed Captain Larkin and his men overboard and left the ship a helpless hulk. Soon afterwards the wrecked liner was raised and taken to the factory that since that time he has undertaken to vaccinate his children. In all 230 children of the Royal George were vaccinated, and the results were most gratifying.

Dr. Julian is so deeply impressed with the efficacy of the treatment that he has prepared a lengthy paper which he will present at the meeting of the American Medical Association at St. John's, N. B., in the near future. The doctor has made reports in the journal of the American Medical Association and one or two other medical publications in a brief, crisp, and to the point manner.

So Says Thomas Stephenson after Taking GIN PILLS

O those who have suffered, year in and year out, from the dragging misery of Kidney Disease, anything that will relieve the pain is a blessing indeed.

"I was troubled for many years with Kidney Disease, and a friend told me to take GIN PILLS. After taking a few boxes I was greatly relieved, and finally the twelfth box, the pain completely left me."

My wife is now using GIN PILLS and finds that she has been greatly relieved of the pain over her kidneys.

I can safely recommend anyone suffering from Kidney Trouble to give a fair trial to GIN PILLS.

Don't pass GIN PILLS without a trial. Every box sold on the positive guarantee that if six boxes used according to directions, do not help you, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

THE LATE DR. JOHN BRITTON

Macdonald College, March 29—On Monday, March 27, after an illness of over four months, Dr. John Britton, professor of the school of agriculture, died at his home in St. John's.

Dr. Britton was born on a farm near Sussex (N. B.), November 2, 1849. Unlike most other boys of the same age he did not have the privilege of attending school, but he was a very successful farmer as soon as he was able.

THE SANITARIUM AT RIVER GLADE

A Well-Equipped Hospital for the Treatment of Incipient Tuberculosis—Description of Mrs. Jordan's Fine Gift to the Province—Now Receiving Patients.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, JORDAN MEMORIAL SANITARIUM. THE PAVILIONS ARE NEARBY.

Thursday, April 3. Dr. Townsend, superintendent of the Jordan Memorial Sanitarium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis, at River Glade, who arrived in the city last night to examine patients who have applied for admission, told The Telegraph that there were several patients already in the institution and he expected that more would be admitted within the next few days. The buildings and equipment at River Glade are said to be up to date in every particular and no expense has been spared in fitting up each building and grounds. At present, a straight road to the River Glade station is being laid out. Engineers are surveying for it, and the new roadway will be more level and about one-quarter of a mile shorter than at present. The pavilions have been fully fitted up and equipped, and are now ready for occupation. They are three in number, single story buildings, numbered for convenience A, B, C. Each pavilion contains one large ward with four beds and six single rooms, so that each will accommodate ten patients, or a total of thirty. Each pavilion has been admirably equipped with bath, shower bath, lavatories and wash rooms. There is a dresser and locker for each patient, and large doors open on the covered piazzas, which are on three sides of each pavilion. The beds being rolled out on the piazzas for open air sleeping. The beds are fitted with rubber tired castors, making them easy to move. Indeed, nothing has been omitted to provide the comfort of patients. The pavilions are separate and some distance from the main building. They are heated with hot water, and large windows command a fine view of the hills. The main building is a three-story structure, and was the former summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan. No patients will be cared for in this building, but they will have the use of a large room for the reception of visiting friends, and also for recreation and reading. The dining room for the patients is also in the main building. Both the reception and dining rooms have large open fireplaces, and are lighted by large windows which give a view of the surrounding country. The remainder of the main building will be occupied by the superintendent, Dr. Townsend, and his clerical staff, and the nurses' quarters. Dr. Townsend will have his office and examining room on the main floor of this building. Work is now progressing on an sidewalk connecting the main building with the pavilions. The sidewalk has been laid for some distance, and it is expected that it will be completed within the next few days. his death. Mr. Wentworth was a native of Letete, Charlotte county, and about two years ago removed from Ansonia to Letete where he purchased a home, but owing to the frail health of his wife he returned to Ansonia, near Bell. He was a man of exemplary character, a devoted husband, and popular with everybody and won a host of friends both in the city where he lived and in his former home. His help will be greatly missed in the Bay. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fred Minop, of New York city; three brothers, Thomas and Nelson, of Ansonia, and Wilson, of Letete, Charlotte county. His funeral services were conducted at his city home by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Gates.

Miss Leah Dickinson in Charge of District Nursery Maintained by the Women's Club.

Houlton, Me., April 3.—Miss Leah Dickinson, the Woodstock (N. B.) young woman who came here a month ago to take charge of the district nursing work maintained by the Houlton Women's Club, is fulfilling all expectations, and is making good in every sense of the word. She has been district nurse for four weeks, and her splendid equipment, both mental and physical, has made itself apparent. She has made a great many friends because of her affable personality and is receiving the commendations of both the professional men of medicine and laity. The Women's Club of this town has maintained a district nurse for a number of years, a franchise which has drawn attention to those who financial circumstances would otherwise prevent them from having the necessary care and attention. This work has been ably carried out in the past, but no more so than it is at present.

Miss Dickinson succeeded another Woodstock girl, Miss Cavan, in the position, who was district nurse for a number of years. She is a native of Woodstock, N. B., and is a member of the Houlton Women's Club. Hon. Mr. Morrissy Says Work is to Start on Approaches at Once—The Flood Damages Heavy, He Says.

Thursday, April 3. Hon. John Morrissy, provincial commissioner of public works, who was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the repair of the Fredericton highway bridge which was taken out by the ice several days ago, Mr. Morrissy said last night that he expected to have the contract for the work signed on Friday. He estimated the damage by the flood at $150,000. One winter had been hard on the roads and the sudden arrival of spring with the heavy freshets had been the cause of many washouts. Speaking of the flood of yesterday, Mr. Morrissy said the ice was at least two feet thick in places, and was more dangerous than he had ever before known it to be. The ice was piled up in places, and the sudden arrival of spring with the heavy freshets had been the cause of many washouts. SEPARATED FOR 29 YEARS; MET HERE WEDNESDAY

Thursday, April 3. After being separated for twenty-nine years, two brothers, John M. McDonald and John M. McDonald, met here Wednesday. The brothers were separated in 1884 when John M. McDonald emigrated to the West. He was in the employ of the Dominion Coal Company when he met his brother here. The brothers were both born in Cape Breton and lived there until about thirty years ago, when they started out for western Canada. They soon separated and neither heard of the other until several days ago when a son of Donald notified the name of the uncle in the St. John directory. He soon located him and then communicated with his father in Fredericton, where he learned that the two brothers had met here. After spending several years in the west, Donald came back to New Brunswick and settled in Kent county. He made several efforts to locate his brother but failed during the last few years he had given up the search. John had remained in the west until about two years ago when he came to St. John. He is now in the employ of the Dominion Coal Company.

They soon separated and neither heard of the other until several days ago when a son of Donald notified the name of the uncle in the St. John directory. He soon located him and then communicated with his father in Fredericton, where he learned that the two brothers had met here. After spending several years in the west, Donald came back to New Brunswick and settled in Kent county. He made several efforts to locate his brother but failed during the last few years he had given up the search. John had remained in the west until about two years ago when he came to St. John. He is now in the employ of the Dominion Coal Company.

SEPARATED FOR 29 YEARS; MET HERE WEDNESDAY

Thursday, April 3. After being separated for twenty-nine years, two brothers, John M. McDonald and John M. McDonald, met here Wednesday. The brothers were separated in 1884 when John M. McDonald emigrated to the West. He was in the employ of the Dominion Coal Company when he met his brother here. The brothers were both born in Cape Breton and lived there until about thirty years ago, when they started out for western Canada. They soon separated and neither heard of the other until several days ago when a son of Donald notified the name of the uncle in the St. John directory. He soon located him and then communicated with his father in Fredericton, where he learned that the two brothers had met here. After spending several years in the west, Donald came back to New Brunswick and settled in Kent county. WOODSTOCK NURSE DOING GOOD WORK IN HOULTON, MAINE

Houlton, Me., April 3.—Miss Leah Dickinson, the Woodstock (N. B.) young woman who came here a month ago to take charge of the district nursing work maintained by the Houlton Women's Club, is fulfilling all expectations, and is making good in every sense of the word. She has been district nurse for four weeks, and her splendid equipment, both mental and physical, has made itself apparent. She has made a great many friends because of her affable personality and is receiving the commendations of both the professional men of medicine and laity. The Women's Club of this town has maintained a district nurse for a number of years, a franchise which has drawn attention to those who financial circumstances would otherwise prevent them from having the necessary care and attention. This work has been ably carried out in the past, but no more so than it is at present.
