A singular circumstance occurred during the funeral service of Jacob Elicker, in the Rossville (Penn.) Lutheran Church. Suddenly, a crashing noise was heard; the edifice was greatly shaken; the snow, collected in large drifts on the top of the roof, was seen through the windows dashing down into the grave waiting for its occupant, which it so packed with lee and ments?

But there are "peculiarities" in our gallery, as well as in the House. We have one man who, at any stage of his work, is always "Dunn." The Cardiff Shipping Masters and the Board of Trade.—The Board of Trade has introduced a new system of shipping chase tickets. Previous to the raffie all provides considered Mr. Nesh as the process of the state of the specific state o introduced a new system of shipping sailors at Cardiff. Hitherto it has been the practice to license certain parties as Shipping Masters, who received a fee of 10s. per man, deducted from the seaman's Advance Note, for each sailor shipped; but the practice has been discontinued, and all licenses were cancelled at the close of last year. The Mercantile Marine police force has been increased, and all shipping of men is now done at the Shipping office by the Board of Trade Officers, and the police have special duties to find the men before the vessel sails and get them on board. The system, it was thought, would be a check to desertion, as the officer had power to apprehend the sailor who refused to join the vessel. Practically, it is said that the reverse is the case, owing to the part of the last of the dark of the part of the last of shipping of the part of the part of the last of shipping of the part of the part of the part of the last of shipping of the last of shipping of the last of shipping of the part of the part of the last of shipping of the last of the sailor who refused to join the vessel. Practically, it is said that the last of shipping of the last of the vessel. Practically, it is said that the reverse is the case, owing to the want of tact or energy on the part of the police. Desertions at Cardiff are considerably on the increase. The old Shipping Masters are now agitating for a return to the old system, and a petition has been prepared and signed by a large number of shipowners in Cardiff, Liverpool, London, Sunderland, and other places whose vessels trade with the port, for presentation to the Board of Trade, asking for a renewal of the old Shipping Masters' licenses, alleging that as it was the interest of the Shipping Master to see his men on board when paid by fees, there must of necessity be less descrition under the old than under the new system. The petition, which was very numerously be shipping that the reverse is the case, owing to the want of the said that only a gentleman at Indiantown won a horse for him he had no trouble in getting him; he should do by others as he was done by. The mills of the gods are said to grind slowly but surely and when such conduct as this shall be generally known those wise, discreet, high-minded raffle-mongers, outside of whom no one can be clever, will feel the necessity of abandoning a practice as abominable as it is foolish, and men in easy circumstances will feel that their reputation and their interests are by no means enhanced by lending themselves to men who could act so meanly.

The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is ade quale, on which the public may rely for full protection. By carring Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the carly and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, Churary Pectoral is invaluable; for, by its finely use, multitudes are restated from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. And for my-self, I had a cough for four years, and constant rait in my breast; I was also troubled with hemorrhage for upwards of nire months, I tried almost everything, but no cure was effected, antil I used your Fills, which I have been taking for three months, and I have neither pain nor your, and enjoy as good health as ever I did, and allow me with due respect to remain.

CANTO I.
The coffin-maker bent low at his work,
And, coughist, cast his eves upon his bench,
A spasm came, which gave his fame a jerk;
And shook his head about with fearful wrench:
The blood skipped from his ears and sought the ground:
The Undertaker deemed his lungs unsound. CANTO II.

It was a dull and dismal afternoon,
The ice had melted in the Skating Rink,
And lovers sighed to walk beneath the moon,
And topers paused at Bars to get a drink:
The cofin maker hummed an air, then stood,
And drove a nail deep in the coffin-wood.

CANTO III.

Another spasm came, then down he fell.

And sought the pitch pine floor, quite ill at ease.

And listened to the knell of deep-mouthed bell.

His gold hair fluttering madly in the breeze;

But Hum's Invigorator cured the pain.

And Ayer's Vigor brought in the hair again. CANTO IV.
