Farmers' Big Convention at Woodstock

Following is the continuation of the report of the U. F. of N. B. Convention:

The outstanding feature of the afternoon session of the conference was the message delivered to the convention by J. S. Wallace from the Independent Labor party at Halifax.

Mr. Wallace said that he came to extend fraternal greetings from the workers to the farmers, the aims of both being similar. He outlined the platform of the organization he represented, the principal planks of which were public ownership of public utilities and banks, fire and life insurance companies; equal opportunities in industry for men and women; abolition of election deposits and property requirements for candidates; the privatisation of recall of members; reduction of tariff; no standing army for Canada; the abolition of the Canadian Senate and an amendment to the British North America act that would provide that the highest court of appeal would be in Canada, thus doing away with the need for taking cases to England. He said that both parties stood for a democratic government and that there would be no conflict of principles between the two.

F. W. Bishop and F. W. Foster were present as representatives of the Nova Scotia Farmers' organization and both spoke of the plans for a farmers' political organization in Nova Scotia in the near future.

The secretary-treasurer, C. Gordon Sharpe, reported that there was a balance of nearly $2,000 to the credit of the association; and that there were one hundred 500 shares in the province with 7,000 members; a year ago there were forty-nine branches with 2,800 members. He reported that copies of the resolutions adopted at the last annual meeting had been sent to the members of the local and Dominion houses, and the St. John Board of Trade, but that only two replies had been received, one from the Board of Trade and the other from a St. John member of the legislature.

C. B. Steward, of Fredericton, president of the N. B. Farmers' and Dairy-men's Association, addressed the convention. He said that the Farmers' and Dairy-men's Association were working toward the same ends as the United Farmers, and he thought it was high time for the farmers to forsake their antiquated ideas and assert their rights. While looking out for their own interests as producers, they must not forget the party to the other end of the transaction, the consumer. He urged that attention be given to the establishment of an abattoir in New Brunswick in order to cut down the cost of beef in this province. The abattoir was much needed and the location was of little consequence.

B. McKenzie, of Winnipeg, Vice-President of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, representing the organized farmers of the prairie provinces, also spoke. Within the last two years, he said, the farmers' organization in the West had enjoyed greater prosperity than during the whole previous decade. He quoted the membership of 60,000 in Ontario and 80,000 in the middle western provinces as evidence of the strength of their movement.

J. Frank Kelly, who organized the movement in Westmorland and Albert counties, led a discussion on the subject, "Is organization worth while?"

John M. Pratt, of Winnipeg, a representative of the Grain Growers' Guide, spoke of the farmers' political movement in Western Canada, telling of the organization of the Grain Growers' Association in 1901 and its history since then. He referred to the war times election act and the formation of the Union Government, with which, he said, the men of the west now were disgusted. He declared that agriculture in Canada was showing an annual deficit of $110,000,000, while manufacturers were showing profits of $250,000,000. He added that the policies of government in the past had driven many farmers from the land and many of them across the border. Under the new national policy of the United Farmers he predicted a remedy to these conditions. He forecasted the return of sixteen federal members from Saskatchewan, ten from Alberta and eleven from Manitoba.

Mrs. G. A. King, secretary-treasurer of the United Farmers' Co-operative, delivered an interesting and witty address on women's place in organized agriculture. Judson Corey, of Red Rapids, appealed for support for the organization and G. LeBlanc, of College Bridge, spoke in both English and French on the aims of the organization.

The president's address will be given in the morning. The committees appointed today were as follows: Reception, Mrs. C. A. King, Woodstock; credentials, Miss Wiley, Woodstock; resolutions, Rennie Tracey, N. F. Phillips, A. A. H. Marston, Carleton county; Frank Riley, Westmorland county; Judson Corey, Victoria county; L. M. Anderson, Sackville; J. C. Cook, Restigouche county; press, G. G. Archibald, Moncton, and C. Gordon Sharpe; whips, Rennie Tracey, Tully Parker and C. G. Sharpe, Carleton county, and J. F. Riley, Westmorland county.

Woodstock, Feb. 4.—Problems related to the high cost of living engaged the attention of the United Farmers of New Brunswick on the second day of their third annual convention, now in session here. Remedies suggested by speakers, who addressed the convention, included the reduction of the tariff and the extension of the co-operative system of merchandizing. The exchange situation also received attention and increased imports from Great Britain and heavier exports to the United States were urged to improve the situation.

The extension of their organization to the French-speaking districts of the province was discussed and it was announced that the counties in which the Acadians are in the majority were ready for organization. Immediate action was left to the executive.

As T. W. Caldwell, M. P., who was re-elected president, had been called away by the illness of his wife, the secretary was instructed to notify him of his choice as leader for another year.

Roderick MacKenzie, of Winnipeg, a representative of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, in addressing the conference of the United Farmers here tonight, spoke on some of the features of the new national policy, dwelling particularly on the proposed tariff reduction. He pointed out the extent to which the present high tariff was responsible for the high cost of living and the low rate of exchange on the Canadian dollar in the United States. Mr. MacKenzie explained the formation of the council and the new national policy of the United Farmers' platform.

Among other things he said that the council was formed to co-ordinate the work of the agricultural associations in Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Ontario, and it was through this unit that the new national policy was outlined.

Discussing the matter of the tariff, he said that by the present policy of protection, small manufacturers as well as farmers and artisans suffered while the big manufacturers reaped the harvest. He said in the case of textile manufacturers raw material was admitted free, while their finished product was protected by duties ranging as high as thirty-five per cent, and this percentage was invariably included in prices of home manufactured clothing.

Referring to the present exchange rates, Mr. MacKenzie said that as long as the pound was low in the United States, the value of the dollar would remain low. He suggested as a remedy

Valentine Social.

The valentine social held in the Armory Friday evening was a grand success, when taken into consideration the short notice given, and the small amount of refreshments to be sold.

This is the first social that has been held to raise money to be appropriated to erecting a Memorial Hall in the town of Hartland. Some of the interesting features of the entertainment were fortune telling, comic photography, untangling cobwebs, and a fish-pool. When refreshments were ready to be served, the old familiar "cook-house" call was sounded on the bugle.

After all had been served with refreshments, a number of whole cakes were auctioned off which sold for good prices. One cake went for $7. The G. W. V. A. wish to take this opportunity of thanking all who so liberally responded to the appeal for appetizing dainties which brought in the splendid sum of $83 clear of all expenses.

It is the intentions of the G. W. V. A. to continue holding entertainments to raise money for the Memorial Hall and they are getting many helpful suggestions from the public. A building committee will be selected shortly and also plans of the hall will be submitted for approval. H. A. Sippelle 1st Vice Pres. G. W. V. A.

No Epidemic at Hartland

All cases of diphtheria in Hartland and vicinity have fully recovered and the threatened epidemic is altogether a thing of the past. Contrary to reports that went broadcast there were in all less than half a dozen cases, all of mild type with one exception. There has been no influenza here this year, but at Somerville there have been two cases, the first having been contracted at New England.

At Carleton, nine miles from Hartland there are several cases of flu, in the families of Fred. Fowler and Willard Craig. Mr. Fowler had double pneumonia following the disease, but is making a good recovery.

Progress of Church Forward Movement

Collectors for the Church Forward Movement are meeting with continued good success. Both the United Baptist and Methodist congregations have gone well over the top, while the Anglican mission of Brighton Aberdeen has doubled its objective with a total of $392.

Full returns are not yet in hand but will be published later.

Town Notice

Complaints have been made to me by residents and non-residents of the town, that there are still men, who are residents of the town, driving their horse or horses without bells. If attention is not given at once to By-Law 52, the fine for breaking said law will be enforced.

BEST INVESTMENT GILBERT EVER MADE

Tanlac Restored Dartmouth Man
To Health 10 Years Ago—
Still Feels Fine

"Yes, sir I can recommend Tanlac for it set me right two years ago, while I was living in Hamilton, Ontario, and I have been in good shape ever since," said Jeffrey Gilbert while in Kinley's Drug store in Halifax, recently. Mr. Gilbert resides at 35 Ochterlonny street, Dartmouth, and is employed as boiler maker at the shipyards.

"Never in all my life," he continued, "have I had a medicine to do me so much good as Tanlac. My stomach had been giving me trouble for sometime. It just seemed like I could not eat anything but what would give me indigestion the worst kind. I would bloat all up with sour gas and feel miserable for hours after every meal. There was a feeling like a lump of lead in the pit of my stomach. I would almost double up with cramping pains and could hardly draw a deep breath. My appetite was so poor that I never relished anything to eat and I just suffered constantly with that indigestion. I was continually losing weight, felt weak and sluggish all the time and had no energy."

"I had tried all kinds of medicines, but kept getting worse, and after Tanlac came to Hamilton and so many people there got to praising it I bought a bottle and I declare that was the best investment I ever made in my life. Before I had finished the first bottle I felt a considerable improvement. Then I bought another, and another, and when I had finished my fourth bottle my stomach was in fine condition and I have not been troubled with indigestion since that time. The gas and pain all disappeared and I am still eating just anything I want without the least trouble from it. It was not only my own experience with Tanlac that convinced me it is a wonderful medicine, but I personally know many others who took it with just as fine results as I did. You can't beat it and if I should get to where I need medicine again I wouldn't think of anything else."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., in Bristol by Dr. G. W. Somerville, in Centreville by Stevens Bros., in Woodstock by E. W. Mair, in Benton by W. E. Porter, in River de Chute by Daniel B. Baird, and in Florenceville by A. B. Lovely and in Bath by Bath Drug Co. H. M. Foster, Mount Pleasant, John McIntosh, Glassville, Chas. L. Bent, Plaster Rock.

The Late Dr. J. C. SHARP.

SHARP'S BALSAM

gave relief to those suffering with colds, etc., seventy years ago—long before most of the "cold cures" now on the market were even thought of.

Sharp's Balsam was the old standby—the reliable family remedy—of our grandfathers, and it is equally effective to-day.

MR. CAMPBELL'S EXPERIENCE
J. G. Campbell, a prominent barrister of St. John in 1882, writes:

"One of my children suffered for years with a severe cough. The usual remedies were applied without effect. I obtained some Sharp's Balsam, and after the use of about eight ounces of this extraordinary remedy the cough stopped completely."

Farmers' Big Convention

edy the increase of imports from Great Britain and the increase of exports to the United States. With regard to the proposal to raise revenue by taxation, he said that in 1917 eighty-nine per cent. of the revenue of Canada was raised through consumption and even per cent. from property and income, hence the great burden was on the poor consumer.

He said that the Grain Growers' Association last year bought farm machinery in the United States and sold it in Canada cheaper than the Canadian manufacturers were selling.

In the afternoon session S. H. Hagerman, general manager of the United Farmers' Co-operative Co., of New Brunswick, Limited, gave a discourse on the working of the co-operative company. During his speech he attributed the present high cost of living to the fact that there were too many men business in proportion to the amount of business done, with the result that business had become "top heavy." In the course of his remarks, he said the company now had fifteen branches in the provinces and that the paid up capital of the company, $14,000, was turned over three times every month. He made an appeal for the sale of more stock, saying that the limit for individual holding had been removed. Fred Smith was introduced by the chairman as the candidate selected by the United Farmers of Carleton county for candidate in the next provincial election.

Mr. Smith spoke for a few minutes on the provincial platform. He spoke particularly of the improvement of roads. He was given a good reception. T. W. Caldwell, M. P. for Carleton, Victoria, was unanimously re-elected president of the United Farmers of New Brunswick at this morning's session of the annual convention of the association. It was decided to have the bye-laws, constitution and other literature printed in French as well as in English. Col. J. H. Frazer, a member of the Canadian Wheat Board, is on his way here and will address the convention.

Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, J. F. Reilly, of Melrose; second vice-president, John Inch, of Keswick; auditor, R. K. Tracey, of Florenceville; organizing directors: Carleton, C. Gordon Sharpe, Pembroke; Westmorland, J. Frank Reilly, Melrose; Restigouche, J. G. Cook, River Charles; York, Alexander Brewer, Burd's Corner; Victoria, Henry son Gorey, Red Rapids; Queens, J. G. McRae, Shannon; Kings, Kenneth Raymond, Norton; Charlotte, Chauncey Paulard, Tower Hill; Sunbury, Walter Hardgrove, Lakeville; Albert, Henry H. Tingley, Albert; St. John, F. M. Bamford, Haldenwood; Northumberland, G. E. Dunphy, Upper Blackville.

The third annual convention of the United Farmers of New Brunswick was closed after a three days' session, with an eloquent speech by Colonel Fraser, of Toronto, and a musical programme.

Rev. Frank Baird, of Woodstock, spoke on Rural Education. He thought the solution of the problem was resident teachers, who would have plots of ground to work during their spare time.

Prof. Maxwell, principal of the Woodstock Vocational School, told of the advantages of vocational training. J. M. Pratt, of the Grain Growers' Guide, Winnipeg, and G. G. Archibald, editor of the proposed United Farmer, to be published in Moncton, spoke of the necessity of the farmers supporting their own newspapers. About 200 subscribers were received that afternoon for the United Farmer.

The officers and organizing directors selected the following directors at large to complete the organization, which choice was ratified by the evening meeting: Mrs. J. R. Taylor, Little Shemogue; Mrs. Wm. Reid, Mouth Kewick; Mrs. Hezra Lutz, Berry's Mill; Ashley George, Ernest Stairs, N. F. Phillips, I. W. Carpenter, Fred Stewart.

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

HARTLAND, N. B., FEB. 19, 1920

Cranfield Taylor

Suddenly and most unexpected the community of Beechwood was shocked by the death of Cranfield Taylor which occurred on the morning of Feb. 4. Though Mr. Taylor had not enjoyed robust health for some years he was going about his usual work about the home when he was overtaken by heart failure and passed away in a few minutes, leaving to mourn him a sorrowing wife and five daughters, Alma (Mrs. William Shaw), Dora, Celia, Edith and Vella, and three brothers, two which reside in Pennsylvania and Wesley in Saskatchewan.

Mr. Taylor was sixty years of age, and had lived in Beechwood over thirty years. He was a man of most unselfish and kindly character which served to make for him a very large circle of friends.

The funeral services which took place the 6th were conducted by Burdus Kearney. After a brief service at the home, where Mrs. Joseph Crain played the organ and the local choir sang appropriate hymns, the remains were taken to the United Baptist meeting house, Beechwood, where Rev. C. O. Howlett, B.A., B.D., preached an impressive sermon from Heb. 1: 1. Considering the state of the roads and general weather conditions there was a large gathering and here many evidences of sympathy for the grief-stricken family and friends.

Returned Soldier's Candidate

The nomination and election of a returned soldier to the Legislature to fill the vacancy in Carleton county is being held up by the desire of the returned men to keep from stirring up a political whirlwind in the county but they have a live committee working to get a peaceful entry in the house but unexpected opposition is developing in the party least expected to oppose a returned man. Two parties are very willing to allow a returned man to go in by a show of hands but the other party stands fairly in the middle of the road and seemingly does not intend to stand aside for anyone, not even a representative of the boys who went overseas to protect their country.

People, think of it! Here is a province with 46 members in the Legislature, not one a returned man and one vacancy with returned men not allowed to elect a man without opposition to represent us in the House? How long will patience be a virtue?

The sum of $48 was raised for the R. C. church at the whist party in McLaren's Hall on Monday night.

Mrs. P. C. Martin is quite ill at her home here.

Miss Clara White celebrated her 10th birthday by giving a number of her little friends a most delightful party on Saturday afternoon. Among those present were Ruth and Margaret McLaren; Dora Burgess, Madeline Smith and sister, Nora Whelpley, Roberta Glenn, Grace Kirkpatrick, Marion McLeod, Marion and Connie White, Emily Tuck, Gladys Michaud, Shirley Britton, Ethel Read, also Don White and Herman MacMillan. Needless to say the youngsters all enjoyed themselves immensely and wished Clara many more birthdays as happy.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. R. B. ZIMMERMAN, 302 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

MRS. JAMES CLARK, 1820-1920

The oldest person in the county, probably the oldest in the province, and possibly the oldest in the Dominion, passed peacefully to her eternal reward on the evening of the 7th, in the person of Mrs. James Clark of Carletonville, N. B. Mrs. Clark had been in her usual good health, receiving her friends in her customary good spirits until the Thursday preceding her demise, when she fell into a coma, from which she never regained consciousness. In this gentle manner the messenger came and bore silently away the happy spirit that had animated a frail earthly frame for nearly a century, for had the good lady lived until September she would have reached the great age of one hundred years. Her relatives and many friends have a great many times voiced the hope that she might be spared until her birthday, so that fitting notice might be taken in celebrating the birthday of one so rich in years. She had the unique experience of having lived during the reigns of six British sovereigns, and one can only grasp the appalling sense of her real length of days when he considers the amazing array of changes and improvements since, on a pleasant autumn morn in September, 1820, Lucy Burt was born in Jacksonville, the first female child to be born in that vicinity. Here her girlhood days were spent, until in the early '40's she was married to James Clark of Keswick. Their early married life was spent in Woodstock, later moving to Florenceville, where they lived five years, and still later to Carletonville in 1868, where they had since resided. After over 70 years of married life Mr. Clark pre-deceased her in 1916, at the age of 96, they having been both born in the same year. All their declining years were spent with their son, Ludlow B. Clark, who through all this long period, liberally, pleasantly and painstakingly administered kindly to all the frailties and whimsicalities that flesh, and especially old age, is heir to. He alone is left of a family of ten children, seven of whom grew up to man's estate. A brother, David Burt, died last summer, well over 90 years of age. The venerable lady will be much missed, both in the immediate family circle and by her large following of friends, most of whom were young while she was already old. Despite the weight of years no marked evidences of senility were there. Only last summer she was able to go about in a motor car, and looking at the old places she knew so well when life was young.

The funeral services were held from the home of her son, Ludlow, on Tuesday afternoon, and at the United Baptist Church, in which she had spent a lifetime of consistent membership. Rev. Samuel Johnson conducted the services, speaking from Numbers 10:28, and was assisted by Rev. Milton Addison. The earthly house, tenanted so long by this valiant spirit, was then laid tenderly and respectfully away in the family lot in the adjacent cemetery.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The promoters and collectors of the Inter-church Forward movement fund for the various denominations were rewarded last week in their efforts by a response liberal enough to take them well "over the top" in their several allotments. Fitting reference and appreciation for this was made on Sunday by the pastors of the different churches to their congregations.

Canon Smithers of Fredericton spent Sunday in town for the purpose of ministering to the several Anglican churches in this parish, but owing to adverse weather conditions the reverend gentleman was unable to fulfil these appointments. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy T. Lee at whose home he held service Sunday morning.

Rev. Milton Addison of Fredericton closed on Sunday a very successful evangelistic campaign in conjunction with Rev. S. Johnson, in the United Baptist church here. Well attended and enthusiastic services have been held for a month and their labors have been rewarded by a very evident renewal of spiritual ardor. The sermons on Sunday morning and evening were most lucid expositions of the texts chosen. After the morning service six candidates were baptised by the pastor of the church and received into the church body after the evening service.

S. G. Barter of Hartland was in town on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. On the evening of the 11th inst., through his efforts a representative number of heroes of the late war met in Sherwood's Opera House and were organized as a branch of the Great War Veterans' Association. The branch was auspiciously opened with a charter membership of 21. The following officers were elected:

President Donald Simonds

We are glad to know that the two or three cases of typhoid fever in town have been kept isolated and are getting well along toward recovery.

Rev. Milton Addison left for his home in Fredericton on Monday morning.

Ernest Powell of St. John spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. West.

J. H. Stairs of Woodstock spent Friday here looking after some insurance business.

Robert Bell of Lindsay spent Thursday in town.

Miss Vera West returned last week from Jacksonville where she had been the guest of Mrs. Byron Gibson.

The Leap-Year Ball on Wednesday was a very successful one. The young ladies financed the affair and really came out with a surplus. They may have a chance to try again as this is an extra long year.

The Masonic fraternity have decided to hold their At Home on the evening of Tuesday, March 2. Extensive arrangements are being made to make this affair a unique and successful one of which due notice will be given to all the craft.

J. C. Stevens and Bert Perry drove to Woodstock the morning of the fire in two hours flat. Pretty fast, I'll say! We'll have to start either the boys or the horses in the next Hartland meet.

Lorne Boyer of East Florenceville spent Sunday at the Centreville Hotel.

W. S. Wiggins and two granddaughters, the Misses Mona and Thelma Scott, left on Thursday for a visit in Andover.

Concerning

McLaughlin and Cadillac Motor Cars

When making out 1920 contracts we thought we were making amply provision to take care of the demand for McLaughlin cars this season. But we had no idea then that the farmers in this section of the province would realize the high prices for their produce now prevailing. Neither did we figure on the recent steel and coal strikes which have caused the factory to cut down our allotment just about half. Although the McLaughlin factory will produce more cars this year than ever, on account of the increasing demand which is universal in every Province, County, City and Parish in Canada, we will not be able to obtain more than 25 per cent of the McLaughlin cars we could sell. If you have decided to buy a new car this year, we will be pleased to demonstrate the new models, and take your order, which will be filled in rotation. But do not delay placing your order if you wish to get a McLaughlin car during the spring or early summer months.

The next meeting of the branch was held on Wednesday evening to complete organization and to formulate progressive tactics for the ensuing year.

A large gathering of interested listeners met in the Farmers' Hall on Friday evening and were addressed by R. McKenzie, secretary of the Canadian Council of Agriculture of Winnipeg, on a very patent and potent topic of the day, "The High Cost of Living" and its ever attendant sequel, "A suggested remedy." Everyone is most fluently conversant with the first, while no one has ever brewed a fitting panacea for the second.

A good bit of excitement prevailed on Friday morning when early reports came in of the disastrous blaze that Woodstock had suffered the preceding night. The fire, though localized, proved a real calamity, as towns of Woodstock's proportions can ill afford to lose their best and most modern business block. We can only hope that the enterprising owners will but build bigger and better.

Devotees of good photo plays would do well to notice without fail the large ad in another part of the paper of a coming treat which is promised for Saturday evening in the Opera House here. G. A. Nelson will put
