Lament of the Irish Emigrant.

BY LADY DUFFERIN. I'm sittin' on the stile, Mary, Where we sat side by side On a bright May mornin' long ago, When first you were my bride ; The corn was springin' fresh and green,

And the lark sang loud and high-And the red was on your lip. Mary, And the love light in your eye.

The place is little changed, Mary, The day as bright as then ; The lark's loud song is in my ear, And the corn is green again ; But I miss the soft clasp of your hand, And your breath warm on my cheek, And I still keep list'nin' for the words You never more will speak.

Tis' but a step down yonder lane, And the little church stands near, The church where we were wed, Mary, I see the spire from here.

But the grave-yard lies between, Mary, And my step might break your rest For I've laid you, darling ! down to sleep, With your baby on your breast.
