Sir Wilfrid Laurier At Toronto

Immense Demonstration in Honor of the Premier.

Massey Hall Filled and Two Other Great Gatherings Addressed by Members of the Government—Torchlight Procession of 4,000 Men—Half a Dozen Cabinet Ministers and Two Score Members of Parliament in Attendance.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—The demonstration in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier last night probably exceeded anything of this kind that Toronto had ever previously seen, if, indeed, it did not surpass anything in Canadian history.

The features of the jubilation were a vast torchlight procession, with four thousands men in line, and three huge meetings each addressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and several of his colleagues.

Massey Music Hall, holding alone five thousand people, overflowed in a few minutes, and the hundreds of newcomers at that hour were met by hundreds of others turning away to hasten to the overflow meetings in the Pavilion and in Association Hall, which, too, were speedily filled to the doors.

Several other halls could easily have been filled with the crowd of disappointed ones eager to hear the eloquent premier.

Many hundreds of people had come in from the country during the day, and most of these were among the vast crowd that by 6 o'clock was awaiting the opening of the doors. The doors were opened a few minutes before half-past 6 o'clock, and there was a terrific rush and crush, filling every corner of the vast hall within a quarter of an hour.

Two score Liberal members of parliament and as many candidates for honors at the approaching elections came to the city to honor the great premier, and Sir Wilfrid was accompanied by half a dozen members of his cabinet.

With him were Sir Richard Cartwright, the veteran of so many campaigns; Mr. Mulock, whose achievements as postmaster-general have given him an imperial reputation; Mr. Fielding, whose magnificent surplus of $5,000,000 for the current year is the last item to add to his brilliant financial record; Mr. Paterson, the able minister of customs, one of the old guard of Liberalism; and Hon. James Sutherland, the genial and popular representative of Western Ontario.

The occasion was a gigantic ovation, a marvelous tribute to the personal influence and the popularity of a man whose four years of power have been the most brilliant page in the history of Canada—that Canada which Sir Wilfrid loves with such passionate fervor, as was ever and again made manifest in his splendid oratory of last night.

The rapidity with which the hall filled up on the opening of the doors was simply incredible. The people swept through the various doors in hurried streams, the men leaping and jumping to get possession of good seats. The ladies, while not so agile, were quite as eager, with the result that the hall, which a few moments before looked like a vast, empty cave, was as if by magic peopled with row upon row of human faces. Such a scene may have been witnessed before, but while there were no people, men and women, who may be described as veterans in their experience of public meetings, not one of them had ever seen an empty hall in such a manner burst into life as it at the touch of an enchanted wand. When Roderick Dhu whistled, the poet tells us,

"That whistle garrisoned the glen

How representative London firms have thrived during the past five years! In 1895 the Conservatives were in power, then the Liberals. A few days ago the Advertiser published some statistics showing the immense

PAO TING FU EXPEDITION

Its Reported Success Is Not Confirmed.

Hong Kong Dispatches Tell of Trouble in Southern China—Rebellion Spreading.

London, Wednesday, Oct. 17—4 a.m.—There is no confirmation of the reported capture of Pao Ting Fu, of which, according to the Shanghai Echo, M. De Chine, the French consul there, has received news. The report is generally discredited in London, especially as there is no direct telegraphic communication between Shanghai and Pao Ting Fu.

Tien Tsin, Oct. 16.—The British column, under Lord Campbell, which forms part of the expedition against Pao Ting Fu, and is making a detour to the north of the Pao Ting River, reached Tu Liu, on the Grand Canal, yesterday.

Sir Ernest M. Sadow, who succeeds Sir Claude Macdonald as British minister to China, has started for Peking. M. De Giers, the Russian minister, is likely to return soon.

According to the same dispatch, should Pao Ting Fu resist the demands to surrender, the place will be bombarded and the inhabitants exemplarily punished.

MEET NO OPPOSITION.

Tien Tsin, Oct. 15, via Shanghai, Oct. 16.—The expedition against Pao Ting Fu has met with no opposition up to Oct. 14.—Reports received by courier say that a column of 500 French, marching to Heien Hsin to relieve a party of French priests, met with no opposition in the six days' march to the south. The fourth brigade of the British is now arriving. The Americans have evacuated the arsenal, which has been turned over to the provisional city government.

TUAN IS BOSS.

London, Oct. 16.—Since the Chinese court arrived at the new capital Sian Fu, says a special from Shanghai, reactionary edicts removing the moderates from high offices have been issued, showing that Prince Tuan holds the imperial seat.

REBELLION SPREADS.

Hong Kong dispatches tell of the continued spread of the southern rebellion. The Hong Kong correspondent of the Daily Express sends a report that the British torpedo boat destroyer Hardy shelled 2,000 rebels who were advancing on San Chun, killing 40 and wounding hundreds.

RUSSIA'S PLAN.

The Daily Chronicle has the following from Vienna: None of the powers except France and the United States approve the Russian proposal to carry the claims for indemnity against China to the arbitration tribunal at The Hague.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—The Russian government permits it to become known that its attitude in China will be increasing independence of the concert of the powers. Russia, it is explained, is disposed to attach less value to joint action, since her interests have been fully secured by the successful campaign in Manchuria. Moreover, Russia is not willing to "follow the irrevocable policy of some of the powers." The expectation is that the Chinese government is about to utilize all its resources of duplicity to keep the powers occupied with vain negotiations and proposals and the dispatching of notes, in order to gain time until the winter, counting on the rigor of the climate to prevent military operations, and allow China to gather her resources for a spring campaign.

RUSSIANS AT FIEH LING.

Shanghai, Oct. 16.—Official confirmation has been received of the report that the Russian southern army has occupied Fieh Ling, the terminus of the Shan Hai Kwan Railway. The occupation was effected Oct. 4.

THE EMPEROR.

Berlin, Oct. 16.—The Frankfurter Zeitung prints a telegram from Shanghai, which says that Emperor Kwang Hsu has arrived at Hsian Fu. The foreign office has no official information of the whereabouts of the Chinese court.

REBELS DEFEATED.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Secretary of State Hay has received a dispatch from Consul McWade at Canton saying that the imperial troops had recaptured Hui Chow, and that the rebels had dispersed to the eastward.

LOST HIS HEAD.

Confirmation has been received here of the execution of Chang Yen Hoen, former Chinese minister to the United States. Chang was a loyal adherent of the emperor, and a warm supporter of the latter's reform movements. It appears that the empress dowager took advantage of the late reign of terror at Peking, and because of Chang's influence with the emperor, ordered his execution by decapitation. Chang was pre-eminently the most liberal and enlightened of Chinese statesmen. He was executed July 29.

A NOTEWORTHY ACT.

London, Oct. 17.—Dr. Morrison, in the Times, describing the occupation of Peking and the demonstration in the forbidden city, emphasizes the self-denial of Gen. Chaffee, which has not received, he says, the proper recognition. "The American troops on the 16th," the correspondent remarks, "fought their way, driving the Chinese in front of them to the gateway. There was then no agreement to hold Gen. Chaffee back. He might have pressed on and taken the palace, and hoisted the Stars and Stripes. It would have been a fine prize, and the temptation must have been great. But Gen. Chaffee, possibly acting under Mr. Conger's advice, refrained. It was a noteworthy act."

PRAISE SERVICE AND CONCERT

Pleasant Affair Given in Belmont by the Choir of Christ Church.

A harvest thanksgiving praise service and concert was given last night in the Masonic Hall, Belmont, by the choir of Christ Church, which, under Mr. J. T. Dalton's excellent leadership, is becoming one of the best musical organizations of the city. The programme of sacred music, varied by recitations and patriotic songs, was decidedly enjoyable. All the selections were heartily applauded, but among those that were received with particular favor were the solos of Miss Maud de M. Smith and Miss Minnie Stephenson, both of whom possess full, rich voices of most pleasing quality. After the concert a dainty luncheon was served by the ladies of St. George's Church, under whose auspices the concert was given. The programme was as follows:

- Part I. (sacred)—Te Deum Laudamus (arranged from Mendelssohn's "Elijah")... Combined Choirs.
- Sacred song—Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me... Mr. J. T. Dalton.
- Anthem—O Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works... Mr. J. T. Dalton.
- Sacred song—The Reaper's Home... Miss Maud de M. Smith.
- Sacred song—Some Sweet Day... Mr. A. E. Galpin.
- Sacred song—My Mother's Bible... Miss Frankie Cullis.
- Anthem—Ye Shall Dwell in the Land... Christ Church Choir.
- Part II. (secular)—Solo and chorus—The Maple Leaf... Male Voice Chorus.
- Song... Miss Charlotte.
- Song—Lucky Jim... Mr. J. T. Dalton.
- Song—I'd Like to Hear That Song Again... Miss Maud de M. Smith.
- Song—My Wild Irish Rose... Mr. A. E. Galpin.
- Recitation—Peter's Ride to the Wedding... Mr. J. T. Dalton.
- Patriotic song—For Dear Old England's Sake... Miss Minnie Stephenson.
- "God Save the Queen" (arranged by Sir Michael da Costa).
- Miss L. Brown acted as accompanist.

EIGHT PERISHED!

Another Tenement House Horror in New York.

A Number of Persons Suffocated or Burned to Death.

New York, Oct. 17.—Eight people were either burned to death or suffocated early today in a fire which partially destroyed the three-story frame double tenement house at Nos. 45 and 47 Hester street, one woman being burned in full view of the spectators, after having thrown her child into the arms of a policeman below.

THE DEAD. The dead: Mrs. J. Strauss, Samuel Strauss, 12 years old; Lena Strauss, 9 years old; Morris Strauss, 2 years old; Mrs. Rosa Lewis, mother of Mrs. Strauss, 52 years old; Mrs. Horowitz, Mendel Strauss and Samuel Strauss.

THE ALARM. Janitor Nathan Gatz discovered the fire in the hallway and ran through the building shouting to the tenants. A private watchman stationed on the block heard him and sent in an alarm. When the firemen arrived the place was in flames and it burned like a straw stack.

Charles Strauss, a butcher, who lived on the second floor, heard the janitor yelling, and, picking up his 4-year-old child Josephine, ran out and down the rickety old fire escape. He made frantic efforts to get back for his wife and other children, but the flames were already shooting from the windows, and he was CUT OFF. His wife ran to the window and threw out Isaac, the 5-year-old boy. A policeman caught the lad and he was unhurt. Then before the eyes of the horror-stricken onlookers Mrs. Strauss was cut off from escape by bursting flames, and her life whirled out of her, while the spectators groaned in their helplessness. Inside the remainder of her family suffered the same fate.

NARROWLY ESCAPED.

Henry Bernhaltz, who lived in the rear, got his family out. Mary Martin and Mary Murray lived in the attic. They escaped, but Mary Martin was severely burned. Mrs. Lewis, in trying to get out, reached the second floor fire escape. There her body was found by the firemen.

The fire marshal has been notified by the police to investigate, as the fire is believed to have been incendiary.

Successful Students.

Holy Angels' School was on Friday prettily decorated with maple leaves, flowers and flags, interspersed with appropriate and inspiring mottoes—and the hearts of teachers and pupils beat high in anticipation of the coming of their beloved chief pastor, His Lordship Bishop McEvay, who was to present the successful students with appropriate awards for their arduous and painstaking studies. Accompanying his lordship were Rev. Fathers Aylward, McKee, Traher and Egan, and the members of the separate school board, and there were also present many of the parents and friends of the children. The bishop possesses the happy faculty of at all times winning the hearts of his audience, and on this occasion he was particularly bright and cheery in his remarks to the children. Appropriate addresses were also delivered by Rev. Fathers Aylward, Traher and Messrs. Pocock (chairman of the separate school board), Regan, Digman and Coffey.

PRIZE LIST.

Prize for Christian doctrine, presented by Right Rev. Bishop McEvay, 55 gold pieces, awarded to Mary Graham.

Gold medal for highest marks at entrance examinations, presented by Rev. M. McCormack, awarded to Jessie McGregor, who also received a beautifully-bound dictionary presented by Mr. T. J. Murphy, barrister.

Gold medal for good conduct and

FOOTBALL

London is to have a Thanksgiving Day game. A big effort had been made to play the championship game with the Ottawa team at Tecumseh Park on the holiday, but their demands were so exorbitant that the proposition was declined. Stratford's team has expressed its willingness to take a fall out of the coming champions, and the two fifteens will clash at Tecumseh Park on Thursday afternoon. Stratford has a heavy and fast team, which did not get into the O. R. U. series, owing to lateness in organizing. They are said to be one of the best teams in the west, and London will have to work hard to beat them. The game will be called at 3 p.m. sharp. The home fifteen has been doing great work. Their expenses have been heavy, and a trip to Toronto must be made on Saturday next, so a bumper crowd is expected at the holiday game. The line-up will be the same as that which put the Tigers out of business on Saturday last, with the exception of a shift around among the back division.

PISTIC

O'BRIEN KNOCKED OUT BY ROOT.
Chicago, Oct. 16.—Jack Root, the middle-weight champion of the west, knocked out Dick O'Brien, of Lewiston, Me., in three rounds tonight, at Tattersall's. Root kept O'Brien at long range by constant left-hand jabbing, and the latter was unable to land a single effective blow throughout the fight. The men met at catch-weights.

In the preliminaries, Harry Harris, of Chicago, was given the decision over Casper Leon, of New York, after six rounds of fast fighting, in which Harris had a big advantage in every round.

IN THE FIFTEENTH ROUND

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Matty Matthews, of Detroit, and Ferns, of Buffalo, met before the Cadillac A. C. tonight for the second time, in the welter-weight championship, and after 15 rounds of fighting Referee Siler gave the decision to Matthews. The decision on the former fight went to Ferns. The latter was hurt by a left shoulder blow by a back left shoulder blow in the second round, and tonight there were three open sores on the affected shoulder. Both men weighed in at 140 pounds at 3 o'clock today. Matthews was in the pink of condition, and Ferns was in good shape aside from his bad shoulder. Matthews did the leading and leading from the start. In the seventh, after Ferns had put his left on Matthews' jaw, the men mixed it up fiercely, Matthews having a shade the better of it. In the eighth round Ferns knocked Matthews' face with left jab a dozen times, but Matthews had the best of the infighting and rushes. Both landed good lefts and rights on the head during the ninth. Matthews had the best of the eleventh, putting rights and lefts on Ferns' head. After a hot opening in the thirteenth, in which Ferns had the best of it, Matthews rushed Rubie to a corner and put some hard punches to his head, the round closing with a fast mix-up, of which Matthews had the better. The fourteenth was Matty's round, and he was fighting cautiously when the last round opened. In this round Matty put two hard rights and a left to Rubie's jaw.

BASEBALL

BROOKLYN TOOK THE SECOND.
Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 16.—Pittsburg put up a miserable exhibition of ball playing in today's game for the world's championship, and presented the game to Brooklyn on errors. Leever's base on balls, followed by a wild throw, was responsible for Brooklyn's first run.

After that Leever pitched a fine game, but Williams' wild throws and O'Connor's drop of Eli's good throw were responsible for the other runs. Pittsburg could not hit Kitson effectively. The latter presented a run in the fourth by making a wild pitch when Wagner was on third base. The other run in the seventh was scored by the two batters and his advancement by Williams' and O'Connor's outs. Outside of the errors there were no special features, and the game lacked interest. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburg 0 0 0 1 0 10 2 4 8 Brooklyn 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0.

Batteries—Leever and O'Connor; Kitson and Farrell.

FATAL EXPLOSION

In a Detroit Factory—One Man Killed and Eight Persons Injured.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 17.—An explosion of rubber cement in the basement of a four-story building, at 15 Jefferson avenue, occupied by Mitchell Sons Company (Limited), manufacturers of shoes, at 1:15 p.m. yesterday, resulted in a fire which cost the life of a man and injured eight other persons, four of whom were girls. The fire spread with such rapidity that the employees were compelled to jump from the upper stories.

Ireson, who was killed, jumped from a third-story window and struck a sign in front of the building, breaking it to pieces and carrying down several others, who had crawled out on the window ledge to which the sign was fastened. He was so badly mangled by falling that he was scarcely recognizable.

The dead body of one of the employees, Ernest Lazzotte, was found in the ruins.

JOE'S PLACE.
London, Oct. 17.—Mr. Chamberlain, having served the purpose of the Unionists in securing a big majority in the parliamentary general election, which is admitted on all sides to be chiefly due to him, there seems a disposition on their part, manifested in the Unionist press, to put a stop to the colonial secretary's further ambitions.

The Conservative organs loudly proclaim the absolute necessity of retaining Mr. Chamberlain at the colonial office, asserting that he is too hasty and indiscreet for the foreign office. Hitherto the Unionist organs have carefully boycotted the scandal of the cordite contracts and the conduct of the Chamberlain family with the contracting firm which was brought to public attention by the Radical organ, the Morning Leader.

Today, however, the Times gives great prominence to a long anonymous letter, combating Mr. Powell Williams' attempt to make Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and the Liberal leaders responsible for the peculiar nature of the contracts. The letter concludes as follows: "If we are to maintain the high standard of purity in matters of public business which has hitherto been our pride, it is absolutely essential that in future no politician connected with the constituencies will supply warlike stores to the admiralty, and the war office should not have any word in the allocation of contracts."

A LESE MAJESTE TRIAL.
London, Oct. 17.—According to the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail, Dr. Heinrich Schweninger, who was Prince Bismarck's confidant and physician, testified at the recent trial of Maximilian Harden, editor of the Zukunft, for lese majeste, asserting that a certain member of the imperial household had been in company with the defendant, that Prince Bismarck emptied the famous bottle of Steinberger, which the emperor sent to him. Dr. Schweninger refused to answer the judge's question as to whether the emperor's house was in fact that Prince Bismarck could no longer hold the reins of government because he was a morphine-eater. The News correspondent hints that the imperial sympathizer with Harden was the emperor's eldest sister.

SCARCITY OF COAL IN FRANCE.

Knocked Out—The Figures Conclusive.

It is a difficult matter to make figures interesting, and yet in the present contest figures are the conclusive argument. For years and years the Conservative party blamed the Reformers for hard times, and at the last general election held up a desolate picture of the hard times that would surely come if the Reformers obtained power. The people, however, held a different view, and placed the power in the hands of the Laurier Administration; and in this contest the Conservative arguments are answered before the contest begins. The figures knock them out.

These facts, taken from the bank returns for August, 1895 and 1900, show that the business of the country has made even greater progress than the people realize:

The note circulation, 1895.....$30,737,522
The note circulation, 1900.....47,421,277
Increase.....$16,683,755
The public deposits, 1895.....$18,103,038
The public deposits, 1900.....300,175,770
Increase.....$282,072,732

The current and call loans, 1895.....$214,292,009
The current and call loans, 1900.....344,696,909
Increase.....$130,404,907

We say these facts answer the Opposition arguments before they make them. They are knocked out before the contest begins.

London should send a member to Ottawa who will assist in the continuance in power of those who have proven themselves so capable, whose policy in the conduct of government has made Canada a country prosperous at home and respected abroad.

Mr. Hyman, when elected, will bring to bear on the various questions coming up for consideration a well-balanced judgment. He can be safely trusted to do his part to continue and increase the progress and prosperity which the country now enjoys. In our issue of Saturday we showed that Conservative experts, surveying the prospects, did not expect the defeat of the Laurier Administration. It would indeed, be strange if the people defeated a Government under which they had received such splendid prosperity. The people will tell their opponents that they want "no change, and least of all such change as they would bring."

Canada's New Hold on Britain

Professor Drummond, a British expert, speaking of the British dairy trade, says:—

"Canada is making extraordinary efforts to supplant the Yankees in this trade, and is certain to succeed unless its rivals bestir themselves. Once the farmers of the United States led those of Canada in both the quality and quantity of dairy products; but today the situation is reversed, and the Canadians are constantly increasing their lead.

How Canada has increased her exports of these and other farm products in recent years is shown by the following statement of the value of our exports to Great Britain in the last three years of Conservative rule and the first three years of Liberal rule in Canada. The list includes butter, cheese, eggs, bacon, beef, hams, mutton, pork, apples, oats, peas, wheat, flour and potatoes. For these the figures were:

1894	$29,000,000
1895	28,000,000
1896	28,000,000
1897	48,000,000
1898	58,000,000
1899	58,000,000

For the three years prior to the present Government taking office the total value of these exports to Britain amounted to $65,000,000, and for the last three years under the preferential tariff $161,000,000. In the last four years our export trade in farm products has increased 64 per cent, while the United States export trade increased only 47 per cent.

Our Government knew what it meant to the farmer, as well as the city producer, when it established preferential trade with the motherland, and turned the attention of the whole British population to the Dominion and its capacity to supply the wants of the British people.

The good work must not be stopped. The electors of Canada must not put it in the power of the Opposition to carry out its policy of repealing the tariff preference in favor of Great Britain.

It turns out that H. H. Cook's so-called manifesto was written by one of the Opposition campaign organizers, who arranged for its publication simultaneously the day after the dissolution. It is really a rebuke of Opposition campaign literature, which Mr. Cook in his chagrin at not being able to get what he wanted, has been bad-tempered enough to sign. It is also asserted that the Opposition managers are promising Mr. Cook a senatorship for his aid. But it will be many a year and a day before they will be able to deliver the goods.

Significant Happenings.

There was a bye-election for the Legislature in Montreal on Saturday, and Hon. Mr. Gouin, the Liberal candidate, was elected by acclamation.

There was a similar bye-election in North Renfrew a month or two since, and the Liberal nominee was also returned without opposition in a constituency previously held by a Conservative.

There were three bye-elections in New Brunswick within the last month, and in each case the Liberal candidate won by increased majorities.

The tide is on the Liberal side this time. Their opponents will have to wait for a more favorable opportunity.

When has Canada been so prosperous or so well governed as she is today?

The people, when asked, as in the instances cited, say they are satisfied. They do not want a change.

The present Opposition had an inning of 18 years, and went out under a cloud. The cloud still rests over them, for they have not got rid of the men who caused it, and the country is in no humor to re-establish the old order of things.

Then and Now.

The Montreal Star is now lauding to the skies, the Tupper, father and son, Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. Messrs. Montague, Haggart and Foster. These are the leaders of the Conservative party now, as they were in the summer of 1897. They have performed no penance since then; they have apologized for no past misdeeds. How come it, then, that the Montreal Star has now taken them to its bosom—even adding in the two-faced pamphlet No. 6 game—when on July 21, 1897, it was moved to print the following editorial opinion of them:

"There are some gentlemen prominent in the Conservative party who can do the party and the country a great service—by retiring into private life. Never did a political party so much deserve, never did a political party so much need, a beaming and Conservative party deserved and needed one at the time of the last federal election. The Conservatives were distrustful of each other, disloyal to their leaders, and among them were men who were quite right to distrust each other. Before long there must be a great reconstruction of the Conservative party, and the exigencies of the situation may as well be recognized at once. Some of the old leaders can never be leaders again, and now is the time to get rid of them. If the Conservative party is to command the respect and confidence of the country it must have leaders worthy of respect and confidence. The Conservative party need be in no hurry for office, the cold shades of opposition are having an excellent tonic effect; but some day, and perhaps when least expected, the country will need the old party's services, and need them badly, and it is important that by that time the party should be purified and reorganized. The reconstruction will involve not only the getting rid of some of the old leaders, but the selection of new ones, and it must be borne in mind that there are no Conservative provincial premiers available, so that there is no danger of Sir Wilfrid's blunder being repeated by Sir Charles. There are, however, plenty of men of character, principle and ability available, and the sooner their leadership is recognized the better for the party and for the country."

The Star editor and proprietor are the same as in 1897. The Conservative leaders thus invited to get out of business because they were unworthy of public confidence are still "in it"; the promised reconstruction has not taken place. But the Star man, swallowing his declarations of three years ago, praises without stint all and sundry. Has he, too, succumbed to the promise of honor and glory if he will say that those whom he characterized as black three years ago are now as the driven snow? It looks like it, and it goes a long way to discount all the Montreal opposition organ's attacks on the present Government and its supporters.

The Work of Malice.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review interviewed Hon. James Sutherland when he arrived at the headquarters of his constituency the other day. Probably the most important of his utterances was in reference to the campaign slander concocted and persistently republished from day to day by the Toronto World, to the effect that Mr. Sutherland had written a letter to prominent Liberals to the effect that he himself, as well as other leaders of the Liberal party, were opposed to the bringing out of any more Catholics as candidates of the party, as they feared the anti-Catholic cry against the Liberals in Ontario. Questioned in reference to this matter, Mr. Sutherland replied as follows:

"No letter I ever wrote or any sentence of any letter I ever wrote could be in the slightest degree construed to give any foundation for the statements originated by the World that either myself or any leader of the Liberal party was opposed to Catholic candidates. The whole thing is a malicious fabrication, made out of whole cloth by the editor of the World. In an interview with the editor of the World in Toronto this week I told him just as I have told you, and more, for I told him he knew it was a fabrication when he wrote it. The World has not had the manliness to publish my denial; but I am not surprised, as it is only in keeping with the policy of misrepresentation and slander the Conservative leaders and papers have adopted throughout this campaign. I suppose for the want of something better to talk and write about."

Value of agricultural products and animals and their products shipped to Great Britain:
In year ending June 30, 1898.....$42,074,337
In year ending June 30, 1900.....72,559,421
The farmers of Canada know what this progress in the new era means. So do the merchants, manufacturers and mechanics.
It helps us all.
Canada does not want a change.

An Infamous Document.

"It is sent out on behalf of the Conservative managers, and is the most infamous document ever sent to an elector in Manitoba."—Hon. Clifford Sifton, when referring to a six-page campaign paper, printed by a Montreal paper, with a fac-simile of the Toronto Globe heading, and intended to make the people believe that the Toronto Globe was attacking the Liberal party.

The Voter's Opportunity.

The election is now upon us, the candidates are in most cases chosen, the campaign has passed into its last stage, and soon we shall face the decisive hour. The Government has lived its life and made its record, a record of which there is no need to be ashamed. The members of Parliament have attended to their duties with varied degrees of diligence and ability and must now give an account of their stewardship, and now the ordinary voter, who for four years has been an interested spectator of the country's life, must act the part of judge and give his vote under a sense of responsibility.

There are two parties and two great issues to be voted on, and each intelligent man should do his duty. There should be no neutrals—to be neutral is to be lacking in a sense of public duty, and to treat lightly a privilege that was only won by stern conflict. But there ought to be many independent men—that is, men who have no personal interest of a direct or selfish kind, but who are prepared to vote on the merits of the questions submitted.

We believe that the Liberal party can with confidence appeal to such, as it is a strong party, under a capable leader, with a clear policy and an honorable record. It is no small thing to guide successfully the affairs of a great country, to harmonize apparently conflicting interests, and to lead varied classes to work together for the good of the country and in sympathy with the empire.

At home we have had prosperity during the rule of the Laurier Government. The ruin that was prophesied has been conspicuous by its absence. There has been no unnatural inflation, but a steady progress, the signs of healthy commercial activity were never more real. Abroad the prestige of Canada has been tremendously increased. Canada never before cut such a figure in the eyes of the empire and of the world. Canada has clearly advanced a step on the line of its natural development. It has stood before the world as a free, self-governing nation, and as a willing and useful partner in great imperial enterprises.

To reject the Laurier Government at this stage of the proceedings would be to reject the noblest ideal that Canada has ever had before her. We do not for one moment undervalue all that has been done by Canadian statesmen of all parties in the past, but we do maintain that the present Government have carried their labors to a logical and successful issue, and that is all any Government can do. They have been faithful to the best traditions of the past, while they have discerned clearly and handled wisely the needs and opportunities of the present.

The voter has now the opportunity of giving them his support, and so taking his share in their great work.

Balanced Accounts.

Mr. H. H. Cook is giving his support to the Opposition because the present Government did not find it in the public interest to gratify his ambitions. Many hundreds of former Conservatives are supporting the Administration because they find it much to be preferred to the unstable men who express desire to tear the tariff to pieces, advancing it or lowering it, as those affected are willing to bow down and serve them.

The balance of trade as between Mr. Cook and these hundreds of independent men who formerly supported the Opposition is decidedly with the latter.

Will Resent at the Polls.

Is there one Minister who is not better off to more than the extent of his salary?—London Free Press.

Let the Free Press take a little courage in its right hand. Let it speak out. Let it say what it thinks. Let it say that the Minister who has made money dishonestly. If it does not do so, its arithmetic is the addition of cowardice to slander.—London Advertiser.

The Free Press did not say that any Minister made money dishonestly. Why should it? There was no dishonesty in Sir Wilfrid Laurier accepting the gift of a house and lot from his admirers, was there? The admirers might be Government contractors, but these little coincidences will happen in a busy world. Mr. Tarte, when he entered office, might be so poor that he did not own the newspaper he controlled editorially. We do not know whether he did or not. He said he did not, and

A Fair Outside Is A Poor Substitute For Inward Worth.

Good health, inwardly, of the kidneys, liver and bowels, is sure to come if Hood's Sarsaparilla is promptly used.

This secures a fair outside, and a consequent vigor in the frame, with the glow of health on the cheek, good appetite, perfect digestion, pure blood.

Loss of Appetite—"I was in poor health, troubled with dizziness, tired feeling and loss of appetite. I was completely run down. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and after a while I felt much better. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up." LIZIE A. RUSSELL, Old Chesley, near Ottawa, Que.

Biliousness—"I have been troubled with headache and biliousness and was much run down. Hood's Sarsaparilla and it gave me relief and built me up." A.
MORRISON, 80 Deane Street, Toronto, Ont.

London, Wednesday, Oct. 17.

Wheat, white, per bu. 64½c to 65c
Wheat, red, per bu. 64½c to 65c
Oats, per bu. 23½c to 24c
Peas, per bu. 49c to 50c
Barley, per bu. 33½c to 34c
Rye, per bu. 42c to 43c
Buckwheat, per bu. 41c to 42c
Beans, per bu. 75c to 76c

WHEAT.—The volume of trade fell off considerably this week. This was caused by limited receipts, and all the leading cereals were affected. Oats made the smallest sale.

Wheat prices did not change, $1.03 to $1.10 being the usual prices paid for good samples. Once in a while $1.11 and $1.12 was paid for small lots of extra nice white wheat, but of caps, oats and barley. Quite a lot of damaged stuff continues to come in, and sells at 90c to 95c per cwt.

Oats—Prices were a little better, owing to the light supply. The range was 70c to 75c—the latter for good black only and the former for poor white.
The bulk of sales of white were made at 72c.

Barley—The demand for malting and shipping stock was fairly good; 80c to 85c were the prices; very little trade was done. Feeding samples went at 40c, the demand being light.

Rye—Very little came in; the price was 80c.
No beans or corn offered.

Peas—Receipts fair; demand steady;
all good samples brought 40c to 45c.
Both millers and shippers were buying.
Buggy lots sold at 80c to 85c.

Buckwheat was scarce; the price paid was 50c per cwt.

Live hogs—Deliveries have been large; some days running up to 200 hogs; the ruling price was $9.10 for singles.

Dressed hogs were steady and in very good demand; of choice ranged from $3.25 to $3.50 according to quantity; single hogs bringing the most money; extra fat and coarse ones sold from $3 down.

Hay—Receipts were light and prices steady and unchanged. Young pigs sold quick at $5.50 to $6.50 a pair.

MR. HOUSE, OF BERLIN.

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew House. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds.
For over a year past Mr. House was tormented by severe pains in his back, which increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.

He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. That night he felt less pain. Daily the pains abated and in less than two weeks Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly.

There is only one sure and unfailing cure for Backache. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has proved this thousands of times.

Central New York is practically a dairy country.

Lola's Secret,
A Romance.

When she spoke to him next it was in a quiet, matter-of-fact way; all emotion, all agitation had vanished. She perceived at once that if she was to win him it must not be in that fashion.

"You are not thinking of going yet, Sir Karl," she said, "not just yet, I hope."

"It will take me some time to get my affairs in order," he replied, "but I shall go as soon as I can."

"We shall see you again, shall we not? I should like to give you one or two commissions in Paris, if you will accept them."

"I shall be pleased to render you any service," he answered, and to himself he added, "except that of falling in love with you."

"Thank you. It is seldom that we have a chance of getting anything from there. The name of De Ferras is proscribed in France. I will write out the list for you."

"But suppose that I am absent for some years?" he said. "Are they things that I should like to see?"

"I will wait," she answered in a strange voice, "until you bring them. You will come back some day—home must have some ties for you. You will come back, and it may please you to find me waiting for them, and for you."

Her voice was full of tenderness, full of passion, and love shone in her eyes. He was simple, frank and honest. He said to himself that, if she really cared for him, it was cruel to let her continue the delusion. He had better say something that would open her eyes at once to the truth, but, in trying to be diplomatic he made a terrible mistake.

"I hope to find you very happy when I come back," he said. "In all probability you will be the wife of some wealthy, kindly man, mistress of a fine establishment, and a queen of society."

He paused, started and averted his eyes. He stood before him and raised to his a pale white and full of pain, with eyes half-blinded with impatient tears.

"You wish me that?" she said. "You hope that, when you come home, I may be the wife of some other man—the mistress of some other home?"

"Certainly," he replied, deeply embarrassed. "What better fate could I desire for you?"

"You wish it? Remember this, and carry the memory of my words with you: I would have been dead had that such a thing should happen."

Without another word she went away, leaving him alone. He hated himself because of the position he was in. He said to himself that no man had ever been made to look so contemptible before; but he felt that unless he had spoken as he had he would not have been an honest man. Lola de Ferras evidently liked him, and he did not respond to her liking; therefore it was best to let her know the truth—yet how hateful the truth seemed to be to tell. How he looked himself and wished that any other man but himself had been the one to tell her. He did not wait to see Mr. de Ferras, but rode off at once, and did not draw bridle until he reached home. Then he tried by every means in his power to persuade himself that he had greatly exaggerated the whole affair. He was too true a gentleman and too noble a man to care to remember the humiliation of a woman.

Lola was in a whirl of emotion. She had gone to a pretty summer-house in the grounds, where she spent many of her leisure hours. She could not have trusted herself any longer in his sight.

"Cold and cruel heart!" she murmured. "He must know that I love him ever will. He must know it, although my lips never uttered the words. And why can he not love me? I can amuse him, while I have seen him tired and bored with others. I understand him and his thoroughly; why cannot he love me?"

She sat still, looking at the broad landscape, the dark woods, the purple hills, the broad winding stream; and, lovely as it all was, she said to herself that without him it would be a desert dreary and wretched. Nothing could make up for the pain of his absence. She stretched out her arms, and in her face there was a very tempest of grief.

"Oh, my love, my love," she sobbed, "will you never care for me? Shall I wait for you all my life long? Shall I call and hear but the echo of my own voice? Shall I love you year after year and be no nearer to you than I am now? Oh, Karl, if it be in the power of woman to win you, I will win you! I will devote my life to the task, and should I from the whole world have chosen to love this one man who will never love me?"

And then and there she made this vow, which influenced her future life, and made of it one long tragedy. She swore that she would win his love, that her beauty and the gifts nature had lavished upon her, should all be used for this one purpose. Even as she had studied love, so she would bear all his coldness with gentleness; but she would win him in the end. All the wild, impetuous passionate nature was roused. In that hour and in that mood she was capable of anything.

She knelt down upon the grass and registered a vow that he should be hers—that she would, in spite of all obstacles, win him, that she would, rather than she should take any other woman home as mistress of Scarsdale, she would kill him or kill herself.

"I shall be successful," she said to herself, as she went back to the house. "It may be long years, but I shall win in the end; and then—then I shall be happy."

She pondered long and deeply that one vexed question which he did not love her. And she came to the right conclusion at last he had preferred Dolores Clifden. Well, when Dolores was married, and he, tired of wandering, came home again, he would be almost sure to turn to her—unless indeed he met some one abroad. But he should not forget her; she would keep herself constantly before his mind; she would write to him, give him continually little commissions to execute for her, she would so entwine herself with his life that he would never be able to loosen the ties, slight though they were, that bound them together. She loved him so well that years of patient waiting seemed nothing to her; she could look back to the time when he had found that the real happiness of his life lay in her love. Until then—and the time would come—the very greatness of her love would attract him.

With a resolute look on her face which was never to leave it again, she went back to her mother.

"Has Sir Karl, some dear child?" asked Madame de Ferras, who had not finished his business with him.

"He was in a hurry today; he is going to Paris, mamma—to our beautiful France—and going soon."

"Going away?" she said slowly, and then she laid her hands lovingly on the dark hair.

"Does it grieve thee, dear Lola, that he is going away? I have often thought that this sweet girl I love so well was the brighter for his coming. Was I right?"

"He has been a pleasant friend, and I shall miss him very much," she replied.

"Nothing more, Lola?" said Madame de Ferras, gently. "Only a pleasant friend?"

"They are scarce enough, mamma," answered the girl with a careless laugh. "I am sure that amongst my friends the boys out there are the pleasant ones. Sir Karl is decidedly an agreeable companion. He understands one without the trouble of entering into a long explanation. Before he speaks he very often seems to know what I am going to say."

"That is the quick intuition of sympathy," returned Madame de Ferras. "There are persons who hardly need to exchange two words; they seem to read each other's minds at a glance. When does Sir Karl go, Lola?" she asked.

"He did not tell me. He said that he should not be here for the next few days, and as Dolores is to be married in a few weeks now, he will go soon, I should think."

Madame de Ferras had often said to herself that the master of Scarsdale was above all other men, the one she should choose for her daughter's husband. She liked his frank manner and his nobility of character.

"Nothing more, Lola?" she would say to herself, "for even my Beautiful France, if I could leave my daughter in charge of a husband like Sir Karl."

She had never said anything about it to Lola; but this had been one of the greatest desires of her life, and most probably had been the reason why she had sent for him to give her advice on every imaginable subject. She had been to believe and hope that her wishes would be fulfilled. Sir Karl seemed always so happy and amused when in company with Lola.

"Perhaps," she said to herself, "it is not the women who amuse that are always loved. Lola is not a laughing girl, and these fair-haired Englishmen love sentiment. If Lola had a little more sentiment, it would be all the better, perhaps, as she will have to marry an Englishman."

Madame de Ferras, who, in her gentle fashion, thought her daughter wanting in sentiment and romance, had no idea of the depths of tragic passion in her heart; and, if any had told her that Lola was capable of such self-sacrifice as to give her life for love or revenge, she would have neither understood nor believed it.

I would have death-like pains in the side, and blind spells, and thought life was hardly worth living. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets,' as advised. British Ambuscade a Boer Commando.

Enemy Lose 160 Men in Killed, Wounded and Missing—Reports From Canadian Commander.

London, Oct. 18.—Lord Roberts was today gazetted honorary colonel of the new regiment of Irish Guards.

BOERS SURPRISED.

A Durban dispatch says: Near Vryheid, a Boer commando was taken in ambuscade by Bethune's mounted infantry, the Boers losing 60 killed, 35 wounded and 65 taken prisoners.

BOERS USE EXPANDING BULLETS

Pretoria, Oct. 15.—Gen. Pole-Carew and the rest of the Guards have arrived here, including the detachment of the Coldstream Guards, whose train was thrown off the line near Pan railway station. Every wound which the men received in that affair was caused by expanding bullets, and some of them are terribly severe. The head of one soldier who was killed was smashed to a pulp. In another case a large portion of the back was carried away, while another man had his knee-joint smashed to atoms. The bullets used by the Boers were the worst and most destructive employed in the whole war. Both the driver and the stoker of the train were wounded. A feeling of great resentment prevails throughout the army against the use of these cruel expanding bullets, and it is hoped that all prisoners taken, with such bullets on them will be promptly shot.

The death took place on Friday afternoon of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, in the 86th year of her age. Deceased was a native of Nova Scotia, and removed to South-west in 1868. Her husband, the late Thomas Jones, died about a year after she leaves three sons and eight daughters. The sons are: Fleming, of Wallacetown; Thomas, of Lake Road, and Robert, on the homestead. The daughters are: Mrs. Thomas Brady and Miss Anna, Chicago; Mrs. Evans, West Lorne; Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin, Oshawa; Mrs. Southwood, Mrs. Walter Glasgow, Durban; Mrs. Charles Glasgow, Watson's Corners; Mrs. J. McIntosh, Eastview; and Mrs. John McKillop, St. Thomas.

Mr. Wrightman, who lives east of Springfield village, suffered the loss of one of his fingers a few days ago. He had been suffering from a felon which he lanced with a rusted instrument. Blood-poisoning set in and it was found necessary to amputate the finger close to the hand.

Mrs. R. McLellan, of Nilestown, died on Sunday after a lingering illness. The deceased was a native of this country with her parents in 1845. Mr. and Mrs. John Wroncott, and resided in London township for a number of years, when she was married to Mr. Henry Harris, and removed to Dorchester township, where her husband died. She was married some four years ago to Mr. McLellan, who still survives. She leaves behind her a family of seven sons and two daughters to mourn her loss.

After a separation of 35 years, the Cobban family, to the number of nine—Archibald Cobban, of Chicago; Mrs. A. Riddle, of Nebraska; Mrs. McRae, of Dunwich; Mrs. Kay, of Westminster; Daniel, William, James, and Miss Christina, of Canada; township—met at the home of the eldest brother, John Cobban, of Mount Brydges, on Oct. 11, when a very pleasant time was spent in social chat, and in recalling incidents and scenes of the long years for some of them have passed the threescore years and ten—the frolics and relics of their youthful days, when around one common fireside they share one common care and fare.

They recalled also some sad scenes, for some, who were shared with the common lot, are not. They spoke also of the sunshine and shadow of young days, and maturer years, and concluded that there had been more shine than shadow. A substantial mid-day meal was spread, a bill of fare to tempt the appetites of less hearty ones than those now invited to step into the spacious dining-room. As we saw them seated once more around the same board, we went back in memory to Scotia's lovely shore, where in youth, full days, with father at head, and mother at foot of table, they met, a happy unbroken band, and with bowed head before their partook waited till God was thanked and praised.

Besides five brothers and four sisters there were present a number of invited guests, including Mrs. Cobban, of Middlemiss, widow of a deceased brother; Mr. and Mrs. R. Cobban, of Muncey road, cousin to the family, and Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Leitch, of Delaware village.

The time for parting came, the usual "good-byes" were said, and all left for their respective homes, leaving brother John and his only daughter once more to pursue the even tenor of their way.

Babies Suffer With Eczema
Scald Head, Prickly Heat, Rash and Many Skin Irritations Which Are Immediately Relieved and Speedily Cured By Dr. Chase's Ointment

So soft and delicate is baby's skin that it is usually subject to irritations, itching and chafings, which become acute misery to the little ones. Many mothers are puzzled to know what to apply, and frequently do more harm by using harsh and irritating mixtures recommended by people they trust.

Every woman who has used Dr. Chase's Ointment in the toilet as a skin beautifier and cure for pimples, blackheads and similar disfiguring ailments, knows that it is so delightfully soothing and healing in its effects as to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is wonderfully prompt in relieving the many sufferings which come from itching, irritated and chafed skin, and is so thorough and far-reaching in its action as to completely cure the worst kind of baby eczema and scald head.

Mrs. A. McKnight, Kirkwall, Wellington, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know what Dr. Chase's Ointment has done in a very bad case of eczema on our baby. We had tried any number of cures without any permanent relief, but from the hour we commenced using Dr. Chase's Ointment there was great relief, and the improvement continued until there was complete cure. We think it is the greatest of family ointments."

No one preparation could possibly be of greater value in the home than Dr. Chase's Ointment, because scarcely a week passes that some member of the family is not troubled with some irritation or itching of the skin, pimples, blackheads, cuts or burns, in all of which the antiseptic, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment is quickly felt.

Your doctor, your druggist and any one else who knows of the merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment will recommend it to you as the standard healing preparation of the age, and as the only positive and absolute cure for eczema, salt rheum, and every form of skin irritation and eruption. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edman-Bates & Co., Toronto.

BOYS' BRIGADE CONCERT.

Nearly 500 people filled the auditorium of Croydon Memorial Church Sunday school last evening, the occasion being the concert held for the benefit of the Boys' Brigade. Lieut.-Col. Holmes, D. O. C., occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks expressed his pleasure at being present. He had been a firm friend of the Boys' Brigade for years. He was a strong advocate of drill in the schools, and in Winnipeg had the pleasure of seeing it introduced very generally. It had a strong disciplinary effect. Col. Holmes referred to his connection with the Boys' Brigade in Winnipeg. He had inspected them every year. The first camp had been held on the historic ground where Lord Wolseley landed in the Red River in 1870.

The programme was a choice one, and consisted of three overtures and two marches by the Sunday school orchestra; recitations by Miss Nina Burke; violin solo, Mr. D. Murray; song, "Lads of the Red, White and Blue," Miss Inez Ethelwyn Smith; cornet solo, Mr. C. B. Robinson; solo, "The Old, Old Home," Miss Eva M. Robinson; clarinet solo, Mr. A. L. McCarthy; solo, "The Holy City," Mr. Arthur Ash; xylophone solo, Mr. H. McKenna; "God Save the Queen."

RESOLUTIONS

Passed at the Middlesex County W. C. T. U. Convention.

The following resolutions were passed at the Middlesex county W. C. T. U. convention, held in Somerset Hall, city, a few days ago:

Prohibition—Believing that the remedy for the evils arising from the liquor traffic lies in total prohibition and that this sentiment of the province is strongly in favor of a prohibitory law, resolved, that we endorse the action of the Dominion Alliance in declaring for prohibition by provinces, and that we direct our energies in the direction of assisting in the attainment of this most desirable end.

The Cigarette—Whereas, physicians, educationalists and all those interested in the welfare of our youth declare the cigarette to be pernicious beyond words to health, mind and morals, and whereas in spite of this fact, the use of the cigarette among boys is steadily increasing; resolved, that we express our detestation of this habit and our determination to fight it to the death and that through Sunday schools and public schools, Epworth leagues, Christian Endeavor, ministerial associations and any other religious body we will endeavor to educate and agitate until the public mind is fully aroused upon this subject. And finally, that we faithfully circulate our petition.

Franchise—Whereas, we believe that the ballot in the hands of women is the quickest route to the prohibition goal and that it will also be conducive to the betterment of conditions among women generally; resolved, that we devote ourselves earnestly to the work of this department during the coming year by plentifully scattering literature and obtaining every available signature to our petition.

The Canteen—Whereas, in the past, the canteen in our military camps has been a great source of evil, and the means of leading many into drunkenness and, whereas, in accordance with the earnest protests of the W. C. T. U.,

143 Dundas St., FRANK A. BROWN.

there was very decided improvement of the conditions this year; resolved, that we express our deep appreciation of the better order of things, and our earnest hope that in the coming year the law prohibiting the sale of liquor in camps may be rigidly enforced.

The Lord's Day—Whereas, as Christian women, we are fully persuaded that God's command to keep his day holy is of paramount importance and that its unimpeded observance will result in disaster to both home and nation; resolved, that we heartily co-operate with the Lord's Day Alliance in its noble efforts to throw safeguards about this great day, and that we prove the sincerity of our convictions by patronizing those merchants who favor Saturday night early closing, and also that we refrain from Saturday night shopping.

Narcotics—The campaign against the cigarette is but begun. Unless past efforts are quadrupled no tangible good will result from the movement; therefore recommended, that every union be urged to vigorously prosecute the circulation of slot petitions, securing the signature of church boards, Sunday schools, young people's and temperance societies, and all other organizations willing to co-operate to secure the names of men who are of influence in the community; further recommended, that the literature now being published under the provincial department be scattered broadcast throughout every town and village in our county, which can be reached by the county union or local societies.

County Work—Owing, no doubt, in part, to the removal of the late county executive, county work has become somewhat disorganized, and the close bond of sympathy that should and used to exist between us as workers, weakened; therefore recommended, that the names of as many workers as will agree to attend a regular or parlor meeting held by a union other than their own, rendering what assistance they can in the programme, be secured and given the county president, whose duty it shall be to plan the best method of using these volunteers.

Interim Executive Meeting—Realizing the need of a closer heart and more perfect co-operation between the Middlesex societies, and feeling that nothing but personal contact can accomplish this; recommended, that a meeting of the county sub-executive, including the presidents of local unions, be called to meet between conventions. That time and place be left to the officers, and that each local union be asked to pledge itself to send its president.

Scientific Temperance—Having regretfully heard of the proposed change in the public school curriculum whereby the subject of scientific temperance would be dropped from the course, recommended, that each union make an unusual effort to interest the teachers in its section in the faithful teaching of this subject; and that to this end, a possible teachers' reception, to which the public school staff of instructors and trustees are invited, and at which brief addresses upon the cigarette problem, shall form the main part of the programme, be held.

Non-Alcoholic Medication—Recommended, that wherever practicable, secure Mrs. M. M. Allen to give work on non-alcoholic medication to loan to physicians in the locality, believing that through this simple agency the eyes of many of our practicing physicians will be opened to the possibilities of as effective means being employed for restoratives, etc., as that which often creates a desire in the patient for strong drink.

Temperance in Sunday Schools—Realizing the necessity of systematically presenting to our Sunday school scholars the doctrines of temperance, recommended, that the new Temperance Quarterly, prepared and published by the Provincial W. C. T. U., be introduced to all the Sunday schools throughout the province, through the medium of our union, whose business it will be to urge upon the Sunday school superintendents and teachers the necessity of procuring such. We would suggest that in order to facilitate this work, the local unions purchase the first set of leaflets and give them to the Sunday school superintendents and teachers in their locality.

Franchise—Whereas, the franchise petitions are to be presented at this winter's session of the Ontario House, and all possible pressure should be brought to bear upon the legislators, recommended, that letters be drafted by the sub-executive and sent to the county and city M.P.'s and the premier, requesting their vote in favor of the extension of suffrage to women.

Unfermented Wine—It is now some years since any marked advance has been made in the reform this department advocates. While many churches and some whole denominations are free from the guilt of representing the saving blood of Christ by that which is the world's deadliest curse, whole denominations, including about 1,000 Protestant ministers, still cling to this relic of the dark ages. Therefore, recommended, that the literature campaign suggested by the provincial department, to be issued, be carefully considered and faithfully worked out by our societies. And that the campaign include country churches in the neighborhood of each society.

Mothers' Meetings—Throughout our province this department has this year advanced greatly in the favor of our workers, because it enables them to present to the home-makers the claims of the various reforms in which we are interested. Recommended, that every union have at least one such meeting during the year, giving the programme a social purity, narcotic, scientific temperance or household economic trend, and that literature in accord with the topic be distributed.

A DETERMINED WOMAN.

Finally Found a Food That Cured Her.

"When I first read of the remarkable effects of Grape-Nuts food, I determined to secure some," says Mrs. C. W. Aldridge, of Salisbury, Mo. "At that time there was none kept in this town, but my husband ordered some from a Chicago traveler.

"I had been greatly afflicted with sudden attacks of cramps, nausea, and vomiting. Tried all sorts of remedies and physicians, but obtained only temporary relief. As soon as I began to use the new food the cramps disappeared and have never reappeared.

"My old attacks of sick stomach were a little slower to yield, but by continuing the food the trouble has disappeared entirely. I am today perfectly well, can eat anything and everything I wish, without paying the penalty that I used to. We could not, and would not, keep house without Grape-Nuts.

"My husband was so delighted with the benefits I received that he has been recommending Grape-Nuts to his customers, and has built up a very large trade in the food. He sells them by the case to most of the leading physicians of the county, who prescribe Grape-Nuts very generally. There is some satisfaction in using a really scientifically prepared food."

ANNIVERSARY CONCERT

Marks the Close of Another Successful Year in the History of the York Street Mission.

Last night a grand sacred concert was given in the York Street Mission, under the direction of Mr. J. T. Wolcott, organist of the First Methodist Church. It was arranged to mark the anniversary of the mission, which is now in a most prosperous condition. The various selections introduced by the chairman, Mr. Thomas McCormick, were well received. Piano duets were given by Mr. Fred Ellis and Mr. J. T. Wolcott; Miss Myra Pickard sang "Old Jim's Christmas Hymn," and "Life's Lullaby." The Misses Wilson favored with two quartets. Miss Beers recited admirably. Solos were also rendered by Mrs. Leute and Mr. McFarish. The programme was concluded by the singing of "God Save the Queen."

During the evening the congregation of the mission took the opportunity of showing the value they place upon Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Belcher's efforts to make it a success. They were made the recipients of an address, couched in terms that expressed the warm place which they hold in the hearts of the people of the congregation, and in addition Mr. Belcher was handed a gold-headed cane, and Mrs. Belcher received a beautiful vase. The cane was suitably inscribed. Mr. Edy read the address, and the presentations were made respectively by Mr. Bloomgarden and Miss Squires. Mr. Belcher replied, upon recovering from his surprise, in a manner characteristically happy.

When I first read of the remarkable effects of Grape-Nuts food, I determined to secure some," says Mrs. C. W. Aldridge, of Salisbury, Mo. "At that time there was none kept in this town, but my husband ordered some from a Chicago traveler.

"I had been greatly afflicted with sudden attacks of cramps, nausea, and vomiting. Tried all sorts of remedies and physicians, but obtained only temporary relief. As soon as I began to use the new food the cramps disappeared and have never reappeared.

"My old attacks of sick stomach were a little slower to yield, but by continuing the food the trouble has disappeared entirely. I am today perfectly well, can eat anything and everything I wish, without paying the penalty that I used to. We could not, and would not, keep house without Grape-Nuts.
