FOR PEACE. London, June 26.-The American Congregationalist pilgrims were accorded a reception in the library of Hagersville the memorial hall of Dr. Guinness Rogers' church. Dr. Rogers welcomed the Americans, and then Rev. Hugh Price Hughes addressed the pilgrims. During the course of his remarks, he turned suddenly to the Stars and Stripes and Union Jack and said: "There is one thing I want to say to you Americans. It is that that flag and this must never meet on the field of blood." The audience rose, cheered lustily again and again. Rev. Mr. Hughes urged the visitors to press upon their Government the necessity of a permanent council of arbitration. SOMETHING MORE THAN LIP ment 46 TUPPER WILL RESIGN.

Mr. Laurier Will be Premier of Canada by Dominion Day.

Ottawa, June 26 .- At yesterday's neeting of the Cabinet the political situation was thoroughly discussed and conclusion reached that as soon 39 as certain routine business was dis-posed of the Ministers will tender 30 their resignations to his Excellency. This business will only take a day or two, so that by Monday or Tuesday or next week Mr. Laurier will be en-

A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medi-cine, and less than a half bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any In England less than 90 years ago it was not unusual for a man to self his wife into servitude.

Bg Demonstration in His Honor in Montreal.

Mr. Laurier Outlines His Purposes as Government Head.

Two Great Mass Meetings Celebrate the New Era.

by the Premier-Elect and Sir Biobard Cartwright.

Montreal, June 26.-The remarkable series of demonstrations in honor of Mr. Laurier had a fitting climax in Montreal last night. He arrived in town from Quebec yesterday morning and went to the St. Lawrence Hall, where he spent the day receiving con-gratulations of his friends, and at the bame time discussing Cabinet possibilities. In the evening he was joined by Sir Richard Cartwright, and they dined at the residence of Mr. G. W. Stephens. They afterwards drove to the Champ de Mars, where a denonstration was arranged for the new Premier, which was unparalleled in size and enthusiasm. It was sponseen even on that memorable field. As early as 7 o'clock people began to flock there in hundreds, and by 8 o'clock the square was packed almost from end to end, and thousands lined the sloping banks. There were at least 20,000 people on the field when Mr. Laurier arrived. A platform was erected near the rear of the court house, but it was with the greatest difficulty that he reached it. When his tall figure appeared the crowd went wild with enthusiasm. He was accompanied by Sir Richard Cartwright; Mr. J. Israel Tarte, who was not defeated but robbed of the election in Beauharnois; Mr. Ethier, who redeemed Two Mountains; Mr. Madore, who defeated Mr. Lachapelle by 500; Mr. Bruneau, who defeated the Minister of Public Works; Mr. Monet, who achieved such a remarkable victory in Laprairie, Napierville; Hon. Jas. McShane; Mr. Robert Mackay, who reduced the Conservative ma-jority of 3,700 in St. Antoine to 167, many other prominent Liberals were also present. The scene was enough to stir the heart of the oldest campaigner of the lot. Not a fraction of those present had any expectation hearing the speeches, and not more than half could see the speakers, but they were there to cheer for Laurier, and well they did it.

THE PREMIER-ELECT. Mr. Laurier stood bowing his acknowledgments for some minutes before the enthusiasm subsided enough to enable him to speak. Having ex-pressed his gratitude at such a magnificent reception, he referred in warm terms to some of those beside him, Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Ethier, Mr. McShane, Mr. Penny and others. Having recalled the results in the other provinces, he added: "But duty most nobly. In 65 counties it 16 Conservatives and 49 Libtaken its place at the head of the we should be in the nour of victory. We have now a difficult task before us. Our farming interests are at a low as a stagnant; our industries are flat, and we have the school question to settle. But by using firmness, judgment and tact we shall face all these difficulties successfully one after the other. As to the school quespeal to the generosity and sense of justice of the Manitoba Government we will succeed in restoring to the minority the rights which they have been deprived of. (Cheers.) As to the tariff, I shall only say that our Canadian industries will have nothing to fear. We are not revolutionists—we are reformers. (Applause.) We will have to make changes, but it will only be after due notice to the partles interested, so that they will not pass unprepared from one state to an-From this day begins a new era, and from this day all Canadians without distinction of origin, creed or race, will be equally loyal subjects of her Majesty. Let us look ahead to the future of this Canada of ours, not to the future of Quebec, not to the future of Ontario, but to the future of the whole Dominion from one end to the other." (Tremendous cheering.)

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT. Sir Richard Cartwright was received with another roar of applause. He that on this occasion Liberal hearts from one end of the Dominion to the other were beating in unison in praise of the Liberal leader. (Cheers.) In thirty-three years of political life he never had the opportunity of addressing such an enormous assembly. "On the present occasion," said Sir Richard, "I am the bearer of a mes-Quebec. from the days of Jacques Cartier to the present time the people of Quebec have never shown themselves more thoroughly worthy than they are to-day, or with a better right to the title of citizens of a free community, and we entertain the highest possible hopes that the result of the past election will to no ordinary degree sweep away all those foolish prejudices which have in the past divided English from French, Catholic from Protestant. (Cheers.) I believe there never was a leader found believe there never was a leader found in Canada more calculated or betterable in every possible shape or way to reconcile and bring together those jarring elements which in times past have disturbed our common peace than my friend, Wilfrid Laurier. (Cheers.) As was stated by him, our object is not to destroy but to reform. (Cheers.) We desire above all things to do equal justice to all classes and all creeds in this Dominion. (Applause.) You have shown that you are Canadians first and English or French, Catholic or Protestant, afterwards, Of all the results which this election has brought about, the greatest, to my mind, is that the people of Quebec have shown themselves worthy of the noble leader which their province has given to the Dominion." AT ST. LAWRENCE HALL. Mr. Laurier, accompanied by Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Tarte and Mr. Dandurand, entered a carriage and drove to the St. Lawrence Hall, followed by several thousand people. St. James street was completely blocked and street car traffic was suspended for the evening. The crowd again insisted upon hearing Mr. Laurier. The Liberal leader appeared at one of the windows of the St. Lawrence Hall and addressed a few words amidst the wildest enthusiasm. He then introduced Sir Richard Cartwright, who was received with almost equal warmth. Richard Cantwright congratulated the people on their loyalty and fidelity to | terday. principles of truth and freedom. He admitted that not even in their most enthusiastic moments did the Liberal leaders expect such a magnificent majority from the Province of Quebec, but in giving it to Mr. Laurier the electors had done a thing which would be recorded in the history of Canada for generations to come. (Cheers.) They justified the choice which the party made in 1887, when, in spite of the prejudices of a few, they were determined to show that no prejudice of race or religion would be allowed to stand in the way of choosing a leader worthy of a free country. (Cheers.) Sir Charles Tupper rendered a public service when he tried to stir up prejudices of race and religion to the detriment of Mr. Laurier, for he showed that he entirely failed to appreciate the genius of the Canadian people. In the election of Mr. Laurier proof was given of the true solidity of the Canadians of whatever race or creed. He felt sure that noble example set by Quebec would be followed in other parts of the Dominion by a spirit of toleration and equity which would enable Mr. Laurier to settle all disquieting questions. (Cheers.) He was convinced that Mr. Laurier would remain true to the sentiments he had expressed in Parliament under circumstances which the Province of Quebec has done its might have shaken the nerves of a man less strong than himself. When the report from No. 2 was received it was at freezing point. Soon the returns were coming in from Malahide, Bayham, Yarmouth, Port Stanley, Vienna, and the village of St. Thomas. The chill was fast moving away from the Liberal quarters, and cheer after cheer was given for Laurier. It was getting warmer fast. All those who had gone home came out once more, and when it was announced that Wilfrid Laurier had been returned in East Quebec by 2,250 majority, such cheering was never heard in Aylmer before. There were fully 2,000 people in front of the Liberal rooms. There was no cold wave there now, when the bulletin board showed the Liberal gains to be Everything was at white-heat. At an early hour this morning the body of an unknown man, supposed to be Frank Burns, of Toronto, one of a party of five tramps, was found on the G. T. R. track a short dis-tance east of the station here. The man is supposed to have been run over by a west-bound freight. The body was badly cut up. Five men and a boy were seen hanging around a barn near where the body was found, and it is thought the unfor-tunate man is one of this party. They had been drinking all day, having bought two kegs of beer and taken it out to the barn. About 11 o'clock last night they were very noisy. They were going on so bad that the boy became frightened and left them, and came into town for the night. Four of the party were found in the barn this morning and arrested. The boy was also locked up. They claim they did not know that one of their number had left during the night. The remains of the dead man were in-terred in the Aylmer Cemetery, and

First Duties.

The result of June 23 will prove to be the beginning of a long and beneficent era of government at Ottawa under the same auspices as have made the administration at Toronto proverfor clean, careful and progressive rule. It was felt even by many of the of Conservatives that it for a change. The change

Mr. Laurier will start in as Premier with the same great advantage of personal tact and personal popularity as pulled the late Sir John Macdonald out of many a passing difficulty. He has the advantage, too of a personal authorsty with the general electorate that will stand him in good stead. Though a glowing speaker, in action he is thoughtful and careful; and he will be reinforced in this regard by Sir Oliver in power for a quarter of a century. to the great advantage of the public. Sir Oliver is a mascot, or luck-bringer, Pledged as Mr. Laurier is to make no tariff changes of an important character without due consideration, he has the advantage of being under no necessity of going at matters with The people of Canada expect him to take the time necessary to think things out. In this respect, after having taken the fullest advice, Mr. Laurier may be trusted to make few misforded Mr. Laurier of making twenty mistakes a day during the general conbeen capable of making them! Yet he captained his campaign without an error of omission or com-

There is really but one first duty before Mr. Laurier, apart from ordinary administration, and the thorough taking of possession. That first duty is to make the representation of the people future a reality, and not a farce. The infamous Franchise Act must be repealed, substituting therefor something analogous to the easily-unup-to-date, one-man-onevote system now in use in elections for the Ontario Legislature. Then the gerrymander must be wiped out.

We repeat, the thorough taking possession, with all that that legitimately implies; the instant repeal of the Franchise Act; and the undoing of the gerrymander-these are the first and only pressing duties confronting the Lauvier-Mowat Administration about to Everything else that is involved in clean, careful and progressive government for years to come, will follow in due course.

In Russell, the two Conservatives who ran as independents will lose their deposits. Mr. Edwards, the Liberal candidate, is a large employer of labor. He is a Protestant, and an attempt was made to defeat him by appealing to the large number of Catholic electors to vote against a candidate supporting Mr. Laurier, the bosom friend of Father Chiniquy! The electors have fitly rebuked this dastardly cry.

Post-Mortem Appointments. Today's dispatches from Ottawa are to the effect that Sir Charles Tupper is being urged to make certain apbers of Parliament and other clamor-

Sir Charles Tupper will be well advised if he refrains from taking a step so utterly without warrant. A defeated Government has no right to fill the three vacancies now existing in the Senate. A Prime Minister, whose party has been rejected by the electors, cannot be allowed to play such ducks and drakes with the public service of the country. And if by any means men Less should be given offices their appointment cannot be allowed to stand by the new Government. The office-seekers now in Ottawa will save themselves trouble if they recognize this fact.

Still at Sixes and Sevens. Sir Charles Tupper said, in an inerview, since his overwhelming de-

"When I came to Canada last winter, I found the Conservative party utterly demoralized, and was reluc-tantly compelled to consent to become its leader as the only hope of avoid-ing defeat."

At the time when Sir Charles arrived on the scene, and took up with the nest of traitors-according to Sir Mackenzie Bowell-we had the strongest possible protestations from the Conservative leaders that the party was never more united. As the celebrated author put it, "Who lies?"

By the Way.

One thing is certain, Sir Charles Tupper had his ambition to become Prime Minister of Canada gratified. But only for seven brief weeks. What a circus he made of it!

Astonishing, is it not, that so many Dominion Government officials have been Liberals at heart right along!

No doubt the sad fact of a young man being struck by lightning while being kissed by his sweetheart will effectually put an end to future kiss-

Says the Montreal Gazette: "It is moved to amend Mr. Laurier's first name from Wilfrid to Wellington. His Torres Vedas tactics justify the

A PERFECT WOMAN.

Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle. Many a man lives an old bachelor because he waited for the perfect woman, and waiting for a perfect man will make old maids in any community under the sun. These ideal people are scarce. And then, again, the chances are that if the perfect man should come along he would never think of proposing to the girl who was waiting for him, and we have never yet seen the man worthy of the perfect woman.

The Removal of the Engineer's Office Discussed.

The Money Spent on the City Streets to Date-Disputed Account.

The regular meeting of the Board of bers present were: Ald. Parnell (chairman), Pritchard, Heaman, Dreaney, Cooper and O'Meara, Engineer Graydon, Commissioner Ironsides and Sec retary Bell.

The most important discussion was upon the question of the removal of the engineer's office from its present place on the second flat to the ground floor. The sub-committee which had the matter in hand reported that it be referred to the council. Ald. Dreaney wanted the matter filed, while Ald. Pritchard thought it would be a gross misuse of the public money to remove the office, as it was very suitable where it is now. Ald. Heaman, seconded by Ald.

Cooper, moved that the matter go to the council, and this carried on the vote of the chairman. The report of the committee on the question of the employment of nonresident labor will come before the council on Monday night. Engineer Graydon reported progress on the matter of opening a street between Charlotte and Quebec streets. Ald. Cooper drew attention to the fact that the bank was being washed away by the water in the creek at Central avenue, at the foot of Palace street, and that the pipe should be carried about 35 feet further. The place was in a dangerous condition. If were not attended to at once. it might terminate in an action for damages to property against the city.

The engineer said the cost of carrying the pipe 35 feet would be about

Ald. Cooper and the chairman will investigate and report. The petition of A. Ritchie and others for a sidewalk on Layard street was referred to the engineer and member for the ward, with power.

Among the accounts passed was one of $144 60, being the city's portion of the cost of the overhead bridge on the Wharncliffe road over the G.T. R. An account from Cowan Bros. $66 60 for two lawn mowers at $15 each, and 200 feet of hose, was disputed. The chairman refused to sign the account, because he was unable to ascertain who had authorized the purchase of the hose. The purchase of the lawn mowers was sanctioned by the comwho thought cheaper might have answered the purpose. The account bears date of May 18. The matter was referred to the chairman The weekly pay sheet amounted to $798 28. The following is a statement of work done in the different wards for

SUDDEN DEATH AT STRATFORD. Stratford, Ont., June 24.—Death came very suddenly to Mr. Wm. Workman. hardware merchant here, about 5 o'clock Tuesday. He was in his office, and had just picked up the evening paper to read, when he was stricken with apoplexy, and fell back in his seat unconscious. Medical aid was immediately at hand, but he never regained consciousness, passed away yesterday afternoon. Mr. Workman was 60 years of age, a son of the late Dr. Workman, of Toronto, and had been in business here since 1865. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Sometimes persons become blime from impure blood, which develop scrofulous ulcers on the eyaballs, iritis, granulated eyelide, etc. In such cases Hood's Sarsaparilla has been marvelously successful in restoring sight. A BOLD ATTEMPT

To Rob a Bank-Dug a Tunnel 102 Feet in Longth,

Los Angeles, Cal., June 26.-The boldest attempt at bank robbery ever made on the Pacific coast has just come to light. The object of the attack was the heavy steel vault of the First National Bank, one of the largest financial institutions of its kind in Southern California, and to reach it the robbers had to dig a tunnel 102 the vault, when the police authorities stood. Sir Charles introduced were apprised of its existence. When the scheme was discovered the burglars had begun to remove the brick masonry supporting the steel vault. The work is believed to have been done by a gang of at least five or six persons, but only one suspect, Jas. K. Stephens, has thus far been arrested.

Leonard, Moses Masuret, N. S. Williams, George Burns, W. J. Reid, R. C. Macfie, John Cameron, T. H. Small-man, John Minhinnick, Thos. Beattie, A. E. Pavey and Ald. Dreaney.

THE VISITORS. The president's party consisted of Sir Charles and Lady Rivers-Wilson, General Manager Hays, Chief Engineer Hobson, General Superintendent McGulgan, George B. Reeve (general traffic manager), and Mr. Henry Deer (secretary to Sir Charles).

Sir Charles looks well, much better in fact than he did when in London last summer. Time deals lightly with him, and he appears to have the hap-py faculty of growing younger in-stead of older. He wore a light grey tweed suit, light-colored Fedora, and patent leather shoes. He carried a cane, and wore a bouquet of roses and daisies, with a sprig of scented geranium. Sir Charles greeted the Londoners cordially, and pointing over his shoulder, said he did not forget his visit here last year, when they had a conference at the Tecumseh

LADY RIVERS-WILSON. Lady Rivers-Wilson looked charming in a traveling dress of blue, with the regulation sleeves and a sailor collar provided with a highly-ornamented dust-proof linen covering. She wore a pink and white dress waist, with collar to match, and a silver locket studed with gems as a throat ornament. Lady Rivers-Wilson wore a hat of fine straw with a broad crown, ornamented at one side with feathers, and with a corresponding bunch of black silk ribbon on the other side. The hat also contained some material which matched the dress waist. She also wore a white dotted veil, white kid gloves, and carried a white parasol lined with black satin. To an "Advertiser" reporter who had a moment's chat with before the electric car arrived, Lady Rivers-Wilson expressed herself as greatly pleased with her trip, so much so indeed that she purposed coming back again as soon as it was

"You will have to see Mr. Hays about that," replied Sir Charles. The electric car had arrived by this time, and the party adjourned to it. LONDON'S COMING NEW STA-

In the trip which followed the re porter secured an interview with Mr. Hays, the general manager. Mr. Hays is a man in the prime of life, with vigor in every action, and a deep, penetrating bass voice. He has the aspect of a shrewd business man, and, as one of his own party said during the trip, "he is undoubtedly the right man in the right place."

The party lunched with Postmaster Patterson, of Toronto, at Eastwood, an hour or so later, and afterwards went on to Toronto, where they will pass the night. From Toronto they go to Ottawa, arriving there on Saturday. Then they will return to Montreal, and remain a few days. They have to be New York to attend a meeting on July 2, and while the great nation to the south is celebrating their independence on the morning of July 4 they will said on the Lucania. The party have been since April 25 on the trip. THE PRESIDENT'S SECRETARY.

Mr. Henry Deer, the president's private secretary, accompanied Sir Charles to America, and the trip is one which he will not soon forget. He did not go to British Columbia with the party, but left them at Owen Sound and went to Colorado, rejoining the party in Chicago.

Mr. Deer is an Old Londoner, and has been employed at the London offices for sixteen years past. The present is by no means the first responsible position he has occupied, and there is no man more conversant with Grand Trunk affairs than he. He is a jolly, companionable Englishman. and a great lover of natural history and athletic sports. He was agreeably surprised with the price of provisions in London, and surprised the other way at the price of clothes. His visit has given him a cl ser acquaintance with the road than he ever had before, he was greatly pleased—as and most Englishmen are-with its dimensions and evidences of prosperity.

One lad had to spell "frantic." He did it well, and then, after deliberate thought, he said its meaning was "wild." That was all right, too, and he was asked to write a sentence that would illustrate the use of the word. He thought a long time, his brows drawn, and his face a study. Then he had a spark of genius and he wrote the sentence, which he proudly handed to the teacher. She smiled at him, and this is what she read: "I gathered rantic flowers to day."

Miss Peckskills

By JULIAN HAWTHORNE.

Mrs. Morford, a beautiful and r.ch widow of eight and twenty, with an object of peculiar interest to myself. But you understand—you are in afternoon drive on the three hundred and sixty-sixth day of her widowhood, toward sixty-sixth day of he and sixty-sixth day of her widownood, found a messenger from Tillet's awaiting her, with the pearl necklace which she had sent to be cleaned, for the was about to re-enter the word.

They had a good time. Miss Peekskill spoke with noble rage of her spirometer; Mr. Glenn promised to the spirometer; Mr. Glenn promised to the spirometer.

Morford terminated. The messenger, a reticent and self-contained person, guardedly unbuttoned his overcoat and produced the gems from some secret shrine within himself, and remarked, while Mrs. Morford held them in the soft palm Morford wrote the receipt, that she would best keep a sharp eye out, for the crooks had got onto the fact that the necklace was out of the safe de-

It is said the syndicate has already practically obtained control of the Chicago and Great Western oad, which will be the connecting link between the Baltimore and Ohio and the Northern Pacific. It is also said that the apparent antagonism between the Adams' reorganization committee of the Northern Pacific and Villard was only assumed, and that now, when the scheme has been all but accomplished, a reconcilation has taken place.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A YARDS-MAN.

Toronto, June 26.-James H. Jamieson, a Grand Trunk yardsman, caught his foot in a switch Wednesday night, at the foot of Tecumseh street. Before he could extricate himself, he was run down by a backing train, and terribly injured. He was removed to The General Hospital, where he died soon after. Jamieson had been employed in the yards many years, and seventeen years ago lost all his fingers of his left hand while coupling cars. Recently he lost a finger and the thumb of his right hand.
