London Elopers Arrested At Windsor---Hamilton Men Committed For Trial On Serious Charge---Official Denial Given to a Report That Warrants Were Out For Sir Edward Carson and Others---Bonar Law and Carson Offer To Abide By Result of Referendum.

UNIONISTS WOULD ACCEPT THE RESULTS OF REFERENDUM

Bonar Law Offers To Guarantee This and Carson Backs Him Up—Asquith Not Favorable—Carson and Devlin Get Heated.

[Canadian Press.]
London, March 19.—Animated scenes and the exchange of strong epithets marked the introduction of a vote of censure on the British Government by Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons today. The word "liar" was hurled at the head of Joseph Devlin, National member for Belfast, when he declared that Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, had at one time been a home ruler. "It is an infamous lie," roared Sir Edward Carson, and when the Speaker suggested a modification of his language, Sir Edward substantiated it: "The statement is a wilful falsehood."
Shouts of protest and cheers in support of both members filled the chamber, and it was some minutes before the Speaker was able to make himself heard in an appeal for the avoidance of personalities. Mr. Law's proposition that a referendum of the country should be taken on the home rule bill and the local option proposal for Ulster was rejected by Premier Asquith, who said that he believed the Government's proposal offered the only hope of a lasting settlement. The vote of censure was based on Premier Asquith's refusal to give details of the scheme of local option by which the nine counties of Ulster would be permitted to vote separately on the question whether they should be left out of the control of the new Irish Government.

$4,000 DAMAGE IN CHURCH FIRE

Sunday School Room of First Congregational Church Guttered By Flames in Early Morning Blaze---Discovered By Advertiser Employee.

Damage in the neighborhood of $4,000 was done to the interior of the First Congregational Church, Dundas street, by fire originating from overheated furnace pipes about 2:30 o'clock this morning. The basement and Sunday school room were completely gutted, but the main auditorium of the church except the floor which in some places was burned through, escaped remarkably well, the walls are still in good condition, and steps will be taken at once by the congregation to reconstruct the basement and repair the damaged interior of the church auditorium.
Harold Fryer, of The Advertiser mailing-room staff, observed the fire on his way to work, and hurried down town to find an alarm box. He did not notice the box at Wellington street, but sent in an alarm from Clarence street. When the brigade arrived flames were leaping from the basement windows on both sides, but all the companies were in a few minutes at work, and inside of half an hour the fire was under control, although not entirely extinguished until about 4 o'clock. When discovered the house and offices of Drs. W. J. and H. A. Stevenson were threatened by the blaze on the east side of the church. A strong breeze was fanning the flames, which were spreading rapidly to all parts of the building.

Declares Start Will Be Soon Made On N. Midland Road

Promoter Welch Says Construction Will Be Under Way at an Early Date.

The coming summer is likely to see a start made on the building of the North Midland Railroad, the electric road which is to be built from this city to Clinton and Stratford. A. E. Welch returned from Toronto this morning, where he successfully appealed to the Ontario Legislature for an extension of the road's charter, to allow two years more to start construction and four years to complete it. He states that the project is now on a substantial financial basis and construction will be begun at an early date. Whether the line to Stratford or to Clinton will be the first constructed, has not yet been decided, pending instructions from the directors in England.
It is estimated that the road will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000 a mile. This is $15,000 a mile cheaper than the hydro engineers estimate as the cost of construction of hydro radials.
Mr. Welch declares that Col. Hendrie, of Toronto, declared in the Legislature Wednesday that the hydro engineers had estimated that hydro radials would cost $40,000 a mile to construct and he did not think that the municipalities would stand for this cost when they learned of it.

Skating Instructor Who Took a 15-Year-Old Girl Away Faces Serious Charge.

Only 15, but a would-be bride, May E. Eveland, 429 Elizabeth street, this city, was arrested Wednesday night in company with Wilfrid Tragenzo, 22, an instructor at a roller rink, as she was about to cross to Detroit and become Tragenzo's bride, or at least that is the charge she told the Windsor officers when Tragenzo was taken into custody on an abduction charge.

On Their Way Here.

The girl and her would-be husband are now on their way back from Windsor in charge of Detective Harry Down, who was sent to meet them this morning. Tragenzo and the girl left London last night on the evening C. P. R. train and were about to cross the river to the American side when Windsor officers, acting on instructions from the London police, apprehended them. Both admitted their identity and claimed that they were on their way to be married.

Met Months Ago.

Sitting in the Windsor police headquarters the little London girl, who looked more the schoolgirl than a would-be bride, told the officers that she had met Tragenzo months ago, when she went to the roller rink where he was employed. She had been going with him ever since, and said that yesterday she had agreed to his proposal to elope and be married in Detroit.

Father Discovers Absence.

It was Charles Eveland, the girl's father, who first discovered her disappearance. On his arrival home from work last night, he found the girl gone, leaving a seven-months-old baby unattended. He thought it strange that the infant would be left alone, and immediately inquired from neighbors whether they had seen the girl around the house or not. From a woman across the street he learned that the girl had been seen to leave, with a suitcase, in the direction of the C. P. R.

Appeals to Police.

With this information to work on the father immediately communicated with the detectives. The officers discovered that the girl had left, in company with Tragenzo, and the father thereupon swore out a warrant for the youth's arrest, charging him with abduction.

London Globe Printed Story That Arrests Were Likely Among Ulster Leaders.

WHAT WILL LORDS DO?

One Writer Predicts They Will Try To Prevent Use of Army in Ulster.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 19.—The Globe today says that warrants have been signed for the arrest of Sir Edward Carson and other leaders of the Ulster Unionists.

London, March 19.—It is officially declared that there is a solitary no truth in the statement made today by the Globe that warrants have been signed for the arrest of Sir Edward Carson and other Unionist leaders.

To Prevent Use of Army in Ulster.

The Finance Minister, Mr. Asquith, writing in the Pall Mall Gazette, prophesies that the House of Lords will amend the army bill, so as to prevent the use of the army in Ulster. He adds (referring to Mr. Redmond's speech of Tuesday night):

"The Government's master announces that he will meet force with force. Our answer is that force of Britain is not Redmond's to use and it will be so proven in the reckoning."

Anxious About Securities.

The Finance Minister's remarks that guarded inquiries are being made in London in regard to the provision of safe custody for securities held in the north of Ireland, to that a disposition is even manifest to transfer to Great Britain the bonds now held in the vaults of the banks in Ulster.

EAST LONDON MAN MAY BE ARRESTED

Charles Eveland, Father of the Arrested Girl, Declares He Will Lay Charges.

As a result of stories told the police this morning by Charles Eveland, the father of the 15-year-old east end girl who was arrested at Windsor yesterday as she was about to cross to Detroit with Wilfrid Tragenzo, East London men may be arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

According to the police the father declared his daughter was forced to stay in an East End house all yesterday afternoon until after threats she consented to run away to Detroit with Tragenzo, the 22-year-old skating instructor.

Detective Egleton has been placed in charge of the case, and is now working on the information he received. The girl's father stated that he would swear out warrants for two men on the arrival of his daughter with Detective Down and Tragenzo today.

FARMER KILLED ON A LEVEL CROSSING

Joseph Conroy, of Maidstone, Struck by G. T. R. Limited When His Horse Baked On Tracks.

[Special to the Advertiser.]

Windsor, March 19.—Once again a level crossing has proved fatal to one who attempted to drive across it, the victim in this instance being Joseph Conroy, a Maidstone Township farmer. The scene of the fatality was Pike's Creek. Conroy was driving along the road last night and came to the crossing in plenty of time to cross before the G. T. R. International Limited reached the spot. When on the tracks, however, his horse balked, and before Conroy was able to get it started or climb out of the rig, the engine was on him, and he was thrown aside like a straw.

He was picked up by the train crew and taken to Windsor, where an ambulance rushed him to the Hotel Elgin Hospital. There he died this morning, his skull having been crushed.

This is the second member of the Conroy family to die as the result of railway accidents within the year, as a few months ago Joseph's brother was killed in Minneapolis.

Joseph Conroy had only one arm, which handicapped him in the management of his horse, the other having been taken off by a threshing machine some years ago.

SNOW DELAYED TRAINS.

Toronto, March 19.—Trains out of Toronto for the east last night were blocked and delayed for several hours at Myrtle, a station on the C. P. R., 30 miles east of Toronto. The light snow fall of the morning was drifted by the gale of the evening and blew up in the cuts at that point. A derailed freight train added to the difficulty of clearing the track.

IS BRUGHESI TO BE MADE A CARDINAL?

Report Has It That Pope Tells Him So During an Audience.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, March 19.—A special cable to the Gazette from London says: A dispatch from Rome states that Monsignor Brughesi, archbishop of Montreal, was received in audience by the Pope yesterday. It is also stated that the archbishop was informed by his holiness of his impending elevation to the cardinalate.

The rumor has many times gone about that his grace of Montreal would be elevated to the highest rank of the Catholic hierarchy under that of the papacy, and it is confidently expected by Montrealers that he will ultimately be so honored.

Watch, Charm and Tie Pin Recovered Makes Identification Easy.

REMAINS OF MAN WERE BADLY INJURED

All Hoped That Popular Young Traveller Might Be Safe Are Blasted.

THREE BODIES RECOVERED

Gangs of Men Busy Turning Over Debris in Search of Other Corpses.

Positive identification of one of the three bodies from the Woodbine Hotel fire in Toronto, as that of John A. Graham, of this city, blasted all hopes that the young Londoner might have escaped from the blaze uninjured.

Since the fire on Tuesday night friends in this city have been anxiously awaiting news of Graham. Private and press dispatches during the morning confirmed the worst fears of his many friends here. The remains were identified by J. W. Cawse, a cousin, and A. E. Silverwood, the young man's employer. The body was badly charred and identification was only possible when his watch, Masonic charm and tiepin were recovered.

So far only three bodies have been recovered from the debris of the burned Toronto hotel. It is practically certain that the other two bodies are those of Max Cohen, New York, and Charles Wilmet, the Belleville horseman.

Dispatches last night said that the third of the bodies was that of Fred Levenson, a New York traveller.

Gangs of men are at work now turning over the debris in an effort to locate other remains.

Made Appointment for 8 o'clock.

Graham had talked to Charles Cope, a former Londoner, at 5:45 on the night of the fire and had made an appointment to meet him at 8 o'clock that evening. Cope never saw Graham after making the appointment.

Family at Stratford.

The late Mr. Graham was in his 31st year and is survived by his father, who resides near Stratford, one sister, Mrs. William Duncan, also living near Stratford, and three brothers, Duncan, Daniel and Charles, all of Saskatoon. The former is at present visiting in the city, and will look after the funeral arrangements.

The monthly meeting of the Hermitage Club, which was to have been held to-night, and at which the late Mr. Graham was to have presided, has been postponed by the club members indefinitely.

When the news of the conflagration reached the city, friends who knew that he was in Toronto on a business trip, wired to assure themselves of his safety. Although it was generally understood among his acquaintances that when in Toronto he stopped at the Queen's Hotel.

PROMINENT HAMILTON MEN ARE COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Police Court Hearing in Private—Reporters Locked Out and One Arrested for Contempt—Many Girl Witnesses Heard.

[Canadian Press.]
Hamilton, March 19.—Behind closed doors at the police-court this morning, A. B. MacKay and James Gow, prominent men, who figure in one of the biggest sensations that the police have sprung in some time, heard the partial method to get some place where they could get a line on the evidence, were finally driven from the building, after one of them who climbed a ladder and watched the proceedings through the faulth, was taken into custody, charged with contempt of court. He was given a warning by the magistrate and ordered out of the place.

The police had a dozen girl witnesses, and a number of others. Their evidence, it is said, told a scandalous tale which has been on the public tongue for months past. The authorities seek to prove that Gow was the householder of 194, Hughson street south, a lavishly furnished home in the south end of the city, that MacKay assisted in the management, and that both men had improper relations with girls under 18 years of age. This is an offence which is punishable with a prison term of two years. The men were committed for trial.

STIRRING SESSIONS AT WOODMENS' MEET

Big Delegation at Annual Camp Hear Fine Addresses—Western Lauds City.

Rousing sessions capped by a big banquet were the features at the afternoon and evening meetings of the convention of the Woodmen of the World which opened at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the new Masonic Hall yesterday. More than 150 delegates were in attendance and reports, as presented by the head clerk of the camp, showed gratifying increases in all departments.

Yesterday afternoon's session of the Head Camp, C. O. W. O. W., did not close until near 6 o'clock, when it adjourned until 9 a.m. today, a banquet tendered by the local camps preventing the intended night session. There was quite a sprinkling of lady members among the delegates.

The reports of the head camp commander, head clerk, head banker and head managers, having been read, were referred to the committee on reports and resolutions, which, with other committees, were named by the H. C. C.

A telegram was read from Sov. John T. Yates, Sov. Clerk of the United States, Omaha, regretting the inability of Sov. Commander W. A. Fraser and himself to be present at this convention. The H. C. C. outlined the business of the convention, intimating that the election of officers would be taken up in the morning. He also touched on the question of the readjustment of rates, paving the way for the most important discussion of the convention, which will also be proceeded with today.

Sov. Dr. Gamble, of Brantford, reported for the committee on reports and resolutions. The report which had attended his efforts during the past two years, and expressed the hope that the services of Sov. Dr. Harrison would be retained in the two offices held by him. A sentiment that was loudly applauded. All the officers' reports were declared to be highly satisfactory and the committee recommended their adoption, which the convention unanimously agreed to.

Sov. Patterson, of Hamilton, then presented the report of the committee on by-laws and revisions, which dealt with a long series of proposed amendments to the by-laws. Considerable progress was made.

NOTABLE CAREER IN POLITICAL WORLD COMES TO A CLOSE

Hon. William Paterson Passes
Away at the Home of His Daughter in Picton.

BURIAL AT BRANTFORD
Body To Be Brought to the Old Family Home for Final Rites.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Brantford, March 18.—The death took place at Picton, at 2:30 p.m. today, of Hon. William Paterson, ex-minister of customs in Canada, who for 29 years was in public life in Canada. He had gone to Picton to pass his declining days with his daughter, Mrs. Branscombe. Within the past week his condition became serious owing to his age, 75 years, and death was not unexpected. The funeral will take place here, it is expected, on Sunday next, the body being brought here from Picton.

Hon. Mr. Paterson was born in 1839 at Hamilton, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Paterson, who came from Scotland. At about the age of 6 years, he became an orphan, his parents both dying the same day. He was adopted by Rev. Dr. Ferrier, a Presbyterian minister at Caledonia, who treated him as his own son.

His business career commenced when he secured a position as clerk with the late Ignatius Cockburn, where he received his elementary training, a training which resulted in bringing out his latent business talents. Some time after that he joined in with the late Henry B. Leeming, and they purchased the candy and biscuit manufacturing business established by H. Winters. The firm name was Leeming & Paterson.

Mr. Paterson afterwards purchased the other share of the business and retained control. From the time when he first joined, the concern grew wonderfully. There were then employed about ten hands, while now there are fourteen travellers and 200 employees on the payroll of the firm, which is one of the most substantial of Brantford's industries.

Last Days in Picton.
In 1863 Mr. Paterson was married to Lucy O. Davies, of this city, whose life with him has been most happy. From this union there sprang two sons and one daughter, another daughter having passed away in infancy. There survive the widow, two sons, W. F., of this city, president of the William Paterson & Son, Limited; Charles Gordon, who holds a chair in the Theological College, San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. Branscombe, of Picton, with whom Mr. Paterson had been spending his declining years in the privacy of home life, away from political strife.

James Paterson, of Nelles Corners, in Haldimand County, is a brother of the late Mr. Paterson, while Mrs. George Houlding, of this city, is a sister of Mrs. Paterson.

For the greater part of his life Mr. Paterson resided in this city, together with his family, which socially took a large part in the activities of the community. After the election in 1911, Mr. Paterson removed to Picton.

Thirty-Nine Years Service.
Thirty-nine years of service to his country and not one blot on his escutcheon, with a name unblemished, untarnished and unattacked, that is the record of Hon. William Paterson. His success in every field of endeavor had been built upon the rock of honesty and integrity in public and private life, and his name was connected with civic and national achievement for almost half a century.

When left an orphan at ten years of age, his Scottish pluck came to the fore and he entered a life of business activity. When 28 years of age he recognized his duty to citizenship and entered the service of the municipality as a member of the town council, this being in 1867. He also served as a member of the county council of Brant, representing this town of Brantford. For him the mayor's chair was a stepping stone to higher honors, for before he had completed his term in that office, his ability was recognized and at the age of 33 he was the successful Liberal candidate in a re-municipal election, against Sir Francis Hincks, then Finance Minister.

On eleven occasions determined effort was made to bring about his retirement into private life, and in nine he was triumphantly returned to office.

First Defeat in 1896.
Mr. Paterson's first defeat came in 1896. Robert Henry, the Conservative candidate, obtained a majority of something less than a hundred over him. Mr. Henry, however, did not hold his seat long, being unseated because of unconventional electioneering methods. However, Mr. Paterson was needed in Sir Wilfrid's cabinet, and was elected for North Grey, which seat he represented until 1900. He then was elected in North Brant, which he continued to represent until September, 1911.

As Minister of Customs, Mr. Paterson had honorable and successful work towards framing the fiscal policy of the Administration. His department witnessed a growth, following the generally increased prosperity under Liberal rule—that it never enjoyed before. His part in the trade negotiations in 1911 with the United States was regarded as the crowning act of his long and useful career. More than that, it was the culmination of an agitation, which has featured the endeavors of both great political parties in Canada for 40 years. His action in bringing in the reciprocity pact did not meet with the approval of the manufacturers, whose efforts were put forth to unite with the Conservative party in defeating him. They were successful and in his last political fight, he went down, fighting with the Laurier Government.

GOVERNMENT READY TO BACK THE C. N. R.

Will Bring in a Bill Guaranteeing Bonds—Was Discussed in Caucus.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, March 18.—The Government will bring in a bill to have the bonds of Mackenzie and Mann guaranteed by the people of Canada to the amount of something over forty million dollars. The bill will guarantee that the Canadian Northern will pay the interest from year to year and the principal of the bonds when they fall due. If the company fails to make the payments the Government will be required to do so for the people will be pledged.

The case of the Canadian Northern was put before a Conservative caucus this morning. Hon. J. D. Reid and Finance Minister White, after the Premier had stated the case, expressed themselves in favor of giving Mackenzie and Mann the bond guarantee. This was flatly opposed by R. B. Bennett, Mr. Hepburn and W. F. Nickel, of Kingston. There was a long discussion in which all participated, including the Hon. Robert Rogers, who came out strongly in favor of the aid.

TESSIER RETURNED.

Three Rivers, Que., March 18.—A hotly contested provincial by-election, following the appointment of Hon. J. Tessier to the new portfolio of minister of roads in the Gouin Cabinet, closed today, the Government retaining the seat over J. A. Desj., Conservative, by a majority of 296.

COCHRANE HOBNOBBING WITH SIR ED. CARSON

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, March 18.—Frank Carvell called the attention of the Prime Minister in Parliament today to a report that Hon. Frank Cochrane had recently participated in a function in England where Sir Edward Carson was presented with a sword and fighting equipment and where the toast "No Home Rule" was honored. He asked if the Government felt that a Canadian minister should take part in such a demonstration in view of the delicate situation and high feeling in Britain.

Premier Borden replied: "This is the first time I have heard of the occurrence and I do not feel called upon to pronounce an opinion in answer to the question."

INWOOD MAN KILLED.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
Courtright, March 18.—Richard Fisher, aged 23, whose home is in Inwood, was instantly killed a few minutes before quitting time this evening when, as he was walking over a roof on the new buildings of the Western Construction Company, he tripped and crashed headfirst on to a cement walk 25 feet below. An inquest will be held.

The victim was a son of Angus Fisher. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and services will be conducted by Rev. Nell Campbell. Interment will be made at Inwood.

SALTS AND SENNA

Can you forget the horror of it? Oh, how it clings to memory, the one blot on an otherwise happy childhood. Now you have become a woman; same old bilious attacks, head splitting and those awful vomiting fits, same misery. Better have your physician examine you for gall stones, because there is no doubt but that is the cause of it all. Sanni treatment should be taken at once. Sanni will dissolve the stones and permanently cure you. Sold by all druggists. Manufactured by the Sanni Mfg. Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada.

Much Money Is Wasted"

"A Great Pity That People Buy So Much Worthless Medicine for Coughs and Colds."

"If You Could Make the Public Understand Its Virtues Only Mentho-Laxene Could Be Sold."

A prominent physician wrote the foregoing words to the proprietors of Mentho-Laxene—he prescribes it to his patients, he knows the ingredients, he has witnessed its marvellous action, he knows there are no opiates in it, and wants the general public to quit squandering money on so-called cold and cough "cures."

Mentho-Laxene, a pure essence, first designed only for physician's use, in concentrated form, is now becoming the most popular household remedy for Colds, Coughs, Catarrh, Hoarseness, etc., in existence. Can be taken pure in 10-drop doses, or made into a pint of cough syrup as per full directions with each bottle. Buy it from any up-to-date druggist.

In Brief Will Estate Is Divided Among Widow, Son and Brother.

[Canadian Press.]
Pittsburgh, March 18.—The will of George Westinghouse, who died in New York last week, was filed here for probate yesterday. The estate is said to be about $35,000,000.

The testament is brief. Margaret E. W. Westinghouse, the widow, receives two-thirds of the capital stock of the Westinghouse Air Spring Company, of which Mr. Westinghouse was owner, and one-third of such stock goes to his son. Certain personal office and household employees get a year's salary, and a bequest of $50,000 is made to Alexander Garden Updegraff. The residue of the estate is divided 40 per cent to the widow, 40 per cent to the son, and 20 per cent to the brother of the testator. The will is dated January 13, 1914.

SPOILS SYSTEM IN LICENSE TRANSFERS

Charge of Mr. Proudfoot Against Government.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, March 18.—After the tempestuous and protracted sitting of the Ontario Legislature yesterday, the atmosphere of the chamber this afternoon was in striking contrast. Everyone seemed languid and content with only a three hours' sitting.

W. Proudfoot (Centre Huron), in moving for a return showing the names of the licensees in Toronto before the reduction in 1908, with the names of license transfers in 1903, 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1913, accused the Government of perpetrating the spoils system in connection with the administration of the license law. He showed that several licenses were transferred to the places where the former licensees had been discontinued, presumably because the old places were good stands. This, he understood, was done with the co-operation of the liquor interests.

Mr. Hanna's Exclamation.

Mr. Hanna, who agreed that the motion for the return should carry, said when the licenses were reduced in 1908, the commissioners had regard to the geography of the city and districts to be affected. They endeavored to make the Senate Declines to Grant Hamilton Application.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, March 18.—For the third successive year the Senate has refused to grant the application of Andrew Lorne Hamilton, bank manager of Quebec, but formerly of Portage La Prairie, Man., for divorce from his wife. Three times the divorce committee of the Senate has found that divorce should be granted, and has so advised the Senate. But each time the advice has been rejected and the decision of the committee reversed by the Senate as a whole. The application is now a cause celebre.

Among the ladies there were many well masqueraded. Miss L. Yates received first prize and Miss Lawrence second. About 75 couples were on the floor. The Maccabee orchestra provided pleasing music.

LONDON, THURSDAY, MARCH 19.

Have you seen Mr. and Mrs. Robin tangoing down the sidewalk?

In Boston they are still earnestly discussing the proper length of courtship. But why measure romance with a yardstick?

What has become of the old-fashioned mother who didn't know the meaning of a vacuum cleaner, but made Pa and the boys beat all the carpets?

Everywhere the "Spring clean-up" idea has caught on and the more thorough cleaning the less fly swatting will be necessary a few weeks hence.

Cleveland young ladies are to have a baking contest and the cake is to be distributed amongst the outcasts of the city. Dr. Osler's proposal to chloroform them seems a more humane way of eliminating the useless.

From all sections and classes in England, many of them hitherto friendly to the militants, there has come a cry of protest over the destruction of the Velasquez. It begins to look as if there was something of the boomerang about that hatchet.

Ontario's game warden reports that the game laws have generally been well observed throughout the Province during the last year. With some few exceptions too it was found that most of the birds and animals peculiar to this section of Canada are on the increase. This is good news, indicating as it does the widespread acceptance of the conservation idea.

A man in a Virginia penitentiary is seeking a pardon because he says that he stole in order to supply his wife with good clothes. It is not a sound plea. If he means that he stole because his wife wanted him to do it, then he is a mean sort of man to try to throw the blame on her, and deserves no mercy. If, on the other hand, he means that he wanted to see his wife better dressed, then the plea is one of too broad significance. It would justify a man in a good many other crimes besides stealing. She might take a dislike to some other woman, and he would commit murder in order to remove a disagreeable person, and thus add to his wife's comfort. This man should stay in the penitentiary a little longer.

WILLIAM PATERSON.

NOTHING veteran statesman has been called away, in the person of the Hon. William Paterson, of Brantford. A Scotch-Canadian boy, he leaves a record like many of his race, characterized by indomitable energy and perseverance. He was a businessman; and the talents he brought to the support of his own private enterprises he carried into public life, and made a success of both. A leading citizen of Brantford, he occupied the position of mayor of his town, when he first became known to Canadians by boldly entering the political field against one of the strong men of the country, Sir Francis Hincks, and defeating him. He at once stepped into the front rank of the Liberal debaters in the House. His arguments were clear and logical; his language simple and yet forceful; while his voice was resonant and compelling—that of a regular Boanerges. With the advent of the Liberals to power in 1896, he became Minister of Customs, and with the Hon. W. S. Fielding was a recognized authority on all fiscal matters. An advocate of the fullest international trade relations consistent with the welfare of the country he went down to defeat with his leader at the last election, seeking to enlarge Canada's business, and improve her market through the reciprocity agreement with the United States, for which he was chiefly responsible. The labors of his last year of official life had been very heavy; and with his enforced retirement, wearied body and brain surrendered to the decrepitude of advancing age, and he disappeared from the public sight. But the rest he gained came too late to restore his health, and he gradually faded until the end came in peace.

So passes another of the old Liberal body-guard, one who in his prime bore his share of the party burdens; suffered his share of party reverses; enjoyed his share of party successes. A party man; but much more: a man who worked for his country, and gave it freely of all his strength and power. He spent the best of his time in Canada's service; and after his day of service was over, there was nothing left for him but retirement with the love of his family, the friendship of many who knew him well, and the admiration of those who had seen and appreciated his life work.

Like his old friend, Sir George Ross, in whose company he first entered Parliament, his life teaches a lesson to young Canadians. It tells them how one can use his talents for his own honor by giving them to his country's service; how from lowly estate one can rise to the highest places by patient endurance and unflagging energy; how the path of duty may be the path of glory, too.

RHODES' DREAM.

WITH the early completion of the Cape-to-Cairo railroad there will be written into the annals of British history another stupendous achievement. It will be great not only as a physical feat but also because of the light it has let into the Dark Continent, which with the exception of a few remote corners is no longer a fascinating if sinister mystery.

Right into the heart of Africa have the rails been laid, carrying the seed drill and the plow to parts for centuries associated with lust, loot and murder. Through the Africa of Livingstone, Baker and Stanley the railroad will run, opening up a vast area to development and trade, the greater part of which will naturally fall into the hands of the British.

Rails have already been laid into the Congo, 2,632 miles from Cape Town. Track laying gangs are working down steadily from the north and when the final link is made there will be nearly seven thousand miles of railroad from which civilization will spread in all directions. And with the coming of civilization hideous tribal customs and worship are bound to disappear, life and the home will become more sacred, education will supplant ignorance, and in time Africa morally and commercially will play a titanic part in the affairs of the world. Nobody but Cecil Rhodes himself knew how true was his vision when he planned the Cape-to-Cairo road, but the expansion that may follow for Africa appears limitless.

APPLYING THE GAG.

THE course of the Ontario Government in undertaking to suspend the rules, and force through the Legislature without discussion, a general measure to meet a specific case, was only a novel attempt to apply the gag, which the Opposition were justified in resisting. The trouble arose over the case of Mr. Ferguson, the member for Grenville, who accepted employment from the Dominion Government as a commissioner to inquire into the construction of the Trent Canal, in violation of the law. Originally, a member was allowed to accept a temporary employment from the Dominion in cases where special qualifications were required, and which he possessed. This was dropped out of the statutes at the revision of 1898, and Mr. Ferguson was therefore clearly subject to the penalties. The Government proposed to re-nact the old law by suspending the rules, and rushing a bill through all its stages at once. To this Mr. Rowell objected. He was quite willing to allow a bill to go through at once to relieve Mr. Ferguson, on the ground that he was innocent in intention, not realizing the position he occupied under the revised law. There was, therefore, nothing personal in his objection. But he would not consent to a general measure in which certain principles should be established without discussion.

There are two things involved in the question. There is the general principle of allowing a member to accept employment and emolument from the Dominion Government; and there is the indirect gagging of the Legislature by forcing bills through without discussion. On the first, there is doubtless something to be said on both sides. Cases will occur where a member has some special qualifications for a certain work, which would justify his appointment; but these cases are exceptional. Certainly the employment of Mr. Ferguson as a commissioner was not one of them. He had no qualifications that any other intelligent lawyer does not have. There are many number of Conservative lawyers, and some not lawyers, who could have done Mr. Ferguson's work just as well as he did. If it is a wise provision that members of the Legislature should not accept employment from the Dominion except in certain cases, then these cases should be clearly defined. But if the law is to be one full of loop-holes, then it is better to have no law at all, and allow the members full freedom. The subject is one that should be thoroughly discussed before any general law is adopted.

A more serious matter, however, is the exercise of power by a dominant majority to force its will upon a Legislature without full discussion, and in spite of the protests of the minority. Rules of order exist largely for the protection of a minority. And while the minority may be wrong in their views, their right to free utterance of those views should be carefully guarded. That is not to encourage factious opposition, but to give the public opportunity to become fully informed on all public questions. Unless these rules are carefully guarded, and the rights of all parties under them maintained, a serious blow is struck at civil liberty and political freedom.

CHARGING DOUBLE RATES.

THE attempt of the railway corporations to charge double rates for a single person occupying a drawing-room or a section in a sleeping-car is likely to be prevented by the railway commission. The proposition, of course, comes from roads like the C. P. R., which operate their own sleeping-car system. They naturally want to crowd as many passengers into a car as possible. It is different where they simply haul a sleeping-car for some other corporation. But while the desire of the railway is natural, the passengers should be considered also. If he goes to the expense of a section or a room he should not be penalized by making him pay double fare in addition. And if this is allowed so far as a section is concerned, there will be no reason why it should not apply to a berth. This is equivalent to two seats, and will accommodate two passengers. Therefore, if occupied by one passenger he should pay two rates. This is the logical result of the demand by the railways. It is just as well, therefore, to keep out the thin end of the wedge. Most people think they pay enough for railway fare, and a little too much for sleeping accommodation, as it is now. The railways might be content.

TWO KINDS OF EDUCATION.

[St. Thomas Times.]
Education in the past had for its subject matter symbols—reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar, rhetoric, logic and the like. The new education has for its subject matter reality—nature and history or subjects; the new education teaches boys and girls. According to the old education, knowledge precedes action; according to the new education, action precedes knowledge. In the old education things were done to the pupils; in the new education the pupils do things.

LEGAL QUERIES

BIRN.—A farmer hires a boy fourteen years of age and sets him to work a straw cutter which is dangerous for a man to work, and the boy while working the machine cuts his hand some way in the cutter so as to necessitate its being amputated at the elbow, and thereby sustaining permanent injuries. Whose duty is it to enter an action for damages for injuries in the interest of the boy, the home authorities or the crown attorney, as it is probable that the farmer will not pay unless he is forced to it?

Ans.—The farmer is not liable for damages upon the facts stated, but an action on behalf of an infant may be brought by his next friend, who may be any adult person.

CONSTANT READER.—Does a township have to pass on the hydro bill a farmer can get it from them?
Ans.—Yes.
Can they get it from a city line near by them, then living in the township?
Ans.—Yes, so long as the township is not selling it.

Ans.—A farmer who can take a certain amount, and how much, or can he take it for lights alone?

Ans.—This would depend on the regulations which the corporation supplying the electricity makes.

Ans.—How much per cent of the power has the hydro commission contract as spoken for now?

Ans.—Write Hon. Adam Beck, chairman Hydro-Electric Commission, Toronto, Ont.

Voice of the People

Women Teachers' Salaries.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
Why should the board of education be decry by citizens because of its being "our greatest spending body"? In the name of common sense why shouldn't it be? Public speakers on any and every occasion will declare that the education of the young is the gravest responsibility that rests upon the elder generation—that the teaching profession is the noblest of all professions—that education is a priceless boon, and so on, ad infinitum. Unless these are mere platitudes, why put our practice and our preaching at the antipodes of each other?

London having made a splendid start with its industrial education, and bidding fair to stand in the front rank in this direction, finds itself hampered seriously by inadequate buildings and equipment; with but two or three exceptions her schools are hopelessly unmodern; London's women teachers are the poorest paid of any city nearly its size in the province. Windsor, with one-third its population, has increased its minimum and maximum salaries to $600 and $900 respectively. The women teachers of London recently petitioned the education board to raise their maximum to $1,000, with an annual increase of $50. At once the cry of "efficiency" (or inefficiency) was raised. Now, Mr. Editor, I understand that the inspector does report each year to the board as to the efficiency of his staff. His last yearly report contains no hint as to inefficiency. On the contrary, he praises the zeal, the earnestness, the self-sacrifice of the teachers under his charge. Moreover, the Women Teachers' Guild has been for years risking hundreds of dollars in bringing eminent lecturers to the city, whereby its members may have their minds quickened and enlarged, their "vision" expanded. This does not seem to me to be the way of inefficiency. If this request of theirs were granted, some 73 teachers would be affected, at an expense of about $3,650. No. 1 committee evidently considers this too great an amount to be paid out to mere women, alleging that the "board of control" will not "stand" for such. In one department at the city hall salary increases amounting to $3,200, divided among 23 employees, passed without a dissenting voice. The head of the department with the straight $800 increase, eliciting from the mayor the remark that not only was it deserved but the holiday of some weeks also.

While one feels a sympathy for the limitations imposed on this spending body, yet there are expenditures which seem to have little or no justification. If there were no money for the women teachers, why recommend large increases for men teachers already in receipt of double the women's income? Why was it necessary to appoint a physical drill supervisor at a salary of $75 per month? Last year the teachers expended time and energy in familiarizing themselves with the "physical exercises," issued by the education department. If the teachers need no supervision in teaching the "Three R's" and literature, history, geography, etc., why should they have it in this, which at the most can have but ten minutes daily?

Thousands of dollars can be spent for business purposes, for the promotion of industry, yet the city is "too poor" to adequately man its schools—to pay its teachers a living wage, let alone providing for an old age.

Let us, who appreciate the work of these women with our children, see to it that if cheeseparing is to be done, it will be in some other department where there are more likely to be waste and extravagance.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for so very extended a space, I am very sincerely yours, SYMPATHETIC RATEPAYER.

My Sweetheart,
Her cheek is like the blushing rose;
Her starlike eyes are fair to see;
Her swanlike neck and Grecian nose
Have surely made a hit with me.
She has two shell-like ears, so cute,
And hair that's like a golden sheaf.
When I'm near her, I'm stricken mute,
Her beauty's quite beyond belief.

She never seems to move an eye
Or make e'en one coquettish sign
When other men are passing by.
And so I guess that she's all mine.
She always wears the same glad smile
Whenever I gaze upon her face.
She's of the kind that's well worth while;
I simply marvel at her grace.

I'd like to warm up to that girl,
That is a way I've often felt.
But if I did I'd be a churl,
For I am sure that she would melt.
I love that lady, if you please,
My heart is won as ne'er before,
But it's a hopeless case, for she's

Mother's Clubs

The regular monthly meeting of St. George's Mothers' Club was held in the school-room on Tuesday evening, when Mr. Thompson, Inspector of public schools for Middlesex, gave a very interesting and instructive address. Mr. Thompson spoke on "The Instincts and the Part They Play on the Development of a Child." He divided the instincts into classes and sub-classes, and showed the important part each plays in the development of a boy or girl, both at home and in the school-room. Speaking of self-will and temper, Mr. Thompson said that the child gains nothing by these outbursts, and that all irritating conditions should be removed in order that such tendencies might be checked.

Mr. Thompson does not believe in the doctrine that a boy should not fight. Boys and girls should be leaders as well as followers, and a boy must learn to fight his own battles in order that he may retain his self-respect and that manliness may be brought out.

At the close of the meeting a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Thompson.

VICTORIA SCHOOL.
An interesting debate between the Mothers' Club, of Chesley Avenue, and the club of Victoria School, was held in the kindergarten of the latter institution on Tuesday evening. The subject: "Resolved that the country is a better place than the city for child life." The debate was thoroughly discussed, the visiting club taking the affirmative, and winning by a close mark. Mrs. McCrae, of Chesley Avenue Club led in the discussion for her side, and ably showed how the country proved better than the city in sustaining physical, mental and moral life. She was supported by Mrs. Hyatt and Miss Andrews.

The negative side also put up some good arguments in favor of city life, pointing out that the advantages of education, and so on, were vastly superior to the country. Those taking part for Victoria School were, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. McKim, and Mrs. McDonald.

Mr. Gibbs, of the Chesley Avenue School, Mr. Ferguson, assistant principal at Victoria School, and Miss Benton, supervisor of kindergartens, were the judges. Musical numbers rendered during the evening by Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Palmer, were highly appreciated. At the close of the debate, the Victoria School Club served refreshments.

FISH DISHES FOR LENT

[BY CAROLINE COE.]

Turbot.

Any dry fish may be used, but those having much oil or color to flesh do not make as pleasing looking dishes. Halibut or whitefish are the nicest. Steam three pounds of fish until tender. Remove bones, skin and flake the fish. Sprinkle with a little salt and white pepper. Make a sauce of three cups of milk, six tablespoons of flour blended with five tablespoons of butter. Put milk in double boiler. Add flour and butter. Stir to avoid lumps. Let cook 20 minutes. When slightly cool add two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoon of minced onion and one teaspoon of minced parsley. Put layer of fish, then layer of sauce in baking pan until all is set. Sprinkle top with crumbs and dots of butter and bake until brown.

Crabmeat Cakes.

Boil and flake two cups of crabmeat. Make a thick white sauce using one cup of milk and two tablespoons of flour blended with two even tablespoons of butter. When smooth, put into milk. Turn into double boiler and cook 20 minutes. Add one-half teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of parsley, dash of nutmeg and one-half teaspoon of minced onion. Cayenne if desired. Turn in the cooked crabmeat and stir all together. Allow to cool a little. Make this mixture into little heaps or balls and allow to stand an hour in cold place.

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Why Indeed.

Dear Miss Grey: I get so much good from the answers to other people's questions, why should I not bother you with some of my own?

I have a large, brown silk motor veil that has become soiled with use, also got mud bespattered which left stains. How can I clean it? If with gasoline, how shall I use it, and will it rot the silk as I have been told?

I can tell you if I can buy the "Dipping Chocolate" for home-made candies; is there a recipe for it or is it a trade secret? I have very good success with melted chocolate, but would like to procure real dipping chocolate if I could. Please tell "Irish Molly" (more power to her elbow) that the only dose I know of that will make those "pesteriferous" little green rose lice "hump themselves" is "Canada green" tobacco, covered with water for 24 hours and the strong black water well sprayed on the bushes. One of your readers asked for the song "Chickadee," it is a childish little song, but brings back memories of the long-dead mother who sang it to me in her high, sweet voice over 30 years ago. I am happy to be able to send it.

THE IRISHMAN'S WIFE.

Ans.—I should advise you to use the gasoline. No, I do not think this will rot the veil. Simply wash it as you would in water, only do not use soap. Hang in the air to dry.

I do not know if dipping chocolate is purchasable or not. Does any reader, fond of making home-made candies, know?

Thanks indeed for the helpful note about destroying rose lice, and thanks also for the copy of "Chickadee." As you will have noticed, this has been published.

A Lamp That Smokes.

Dear Miss Grey: It is a wonder you don't get tired answering these troublesome queries day after day. This is the first time that I have trouble you so will be pleased if you will help me.

1. What can I do with a lamp that smokes when burning all night? Every morning the glass is jet black. I always turn it down so it don't burn too high and the burner is real new, too.

2. Have you a recipe for orange cake, one that doesn't take too many eggs?

3. I would like very much to get the songs "Pull for the Shore, Sailor."

Thanking you in advance.

WORRIED MOTHER.
Ans.—Although the burner is new it must be clogged somewhere to cause the blackening of the glass. Try putting it into enough cold water to cover well, add a little salt soda and bring to a boil. Remove from the fire, and when the water has cooled wipe the burner thoroughly and see if it does not give better satisfaction.

3. Two-thirds cup butter, 1/2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup water, 2 eggs beaten separately, 2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 orange, juice and rind grated. Use orange filling made by thickening three tablespoons orange juice with icing sugar.

4. Perhaps someone interested in the old song column will furnish this.

ANSWER FOR JANE.

A. You were naughty, dear child, and wrote on both sides of the paper, so I am not publishing your letter, but just the answer. I presume you desire something that does not require freezing. A Macedonian jelly would be nice to serve! Put place. When ready to serve, form into cutlet shape. Dip in beaten egg and then fine bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat. Drain and serve with slices of lemon or hot tartar sauce.

Salmon in Molds.

Remove bones, oil and skin from fish in one can of salmon. Mince fine with fork and rub into the fish three tablespoons of melted butter until smooth. Beat three eggs until light and foamy. Add to them one-half cup of fine bread crumbs. Season fish to taste with salt and pepper. Add one teaspoon of egg and crumbs. Put in well buttered molds and steam one hour.

Hot Tartar Sauce.

Put one-half cup of thick white sauce and one-half cup of mayonnaise dressing, one-half teaspoon of minced chives and one teaspoon of lemon juice. Put into double boiler to heat, not boil. Stir into this one-half teaspoon each of cucumber pickle, olives, parsley and capers, all minced fine. Serve at once piping hot.

Sauce for Salmon.

Thicken one cup of milk with one tablespoon of flour blended with one tablespoon of butter. Put all in double boiler and cook 15 minutes. Stir often to prevent lumps. Add to this the liquor and oil from one can of salmon. Salt to taste and a dash of cayenne. Just before serving add one teaspoon of catsup. Make from stove and stir in one well beaten raw egg. Serve at once.

Songs We Used to Whistle and Sing

Mrs. L. T. sends words of "People Will Talk," asked for some time ago by "Ruth," and desires to know if anyone is familiar with the words of "Who Will Care for Mother Now?" and

"It's goin' down to Dixie, Where they tell me I will find Money hangin' round like apples on the tree."

People Will Talk.
[Old Favorite.]
You may get through the world, but 'twill be very slow
If you listen all that is said as you go:
You'll be worried and fretted, and kept in a stew,
For meddlesome tongues must have something to say.

And people will talk.
If quiet and modest, you'll have it presumed
That your humble position is only assumed,
You're a wimp in sheep's clothing, or else you're a fool;
But don't get excited—keep perfectly cool.

For people will talk.
And then if you show the least boldness of heart,
Or a slight inclination to take your own part,
They will call you an upstart, conceited and vain;
But keep straight ahead—don't stop to explain.

For people will talk.
If threadbare your dress and old-fashioned your hat,
Someone will surely take notice of that,
And hint rather strong that you can't pay your way;
But don't get excited, whatever they say.

For people will talk.
If your dress is in fashion, don't think to escape,
For they criticize then in a different shape—
You're ahead of your means, or your tailor's made;
But mind your own business, there's naught to be made—
For people will talk.

Now the best way to do is to do as you please,
For your mind, if you have one, will then be at ease.
Of course, you will meet with all sorts of abuse;
But don't think to stop them—it's not any use.

For people will talk.

INTERESTING PAPER ON "EARLY COMPOSERS" AT MUSICAL RECITAL

Woman's Music Club Listens to Most Enjoyable Program—Mr. Mitchell-tree Plays.

A most interesting and instructive feature of the program rendered at the Women's Musical Club recital yesterday afternoon was a paper on Early Composers, prepared and read by Mr. F. Killmaster, organist of St. Paul's Cathedral. In an interesting way, Mr. Killmaster traced the history of music since earliest times. Much in connection with church music was due to Pope Gregory, who lived during the sixth century. The Agnus Dei and Gloria in Excelsis, and many of the chants sung in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches today were set to music by Pope Gregory.

Musical Renaissance.
After his time musical knowledge was but little increased until the 11th century, when interest was again revived, and in 1350 a musical renaissance took place in England, France and Germany; Italy for a time being but a follower. A German composer came to Venice from Bruges, and introduced the madrigal, which was to become so popular. In 1530, however, the Italian composer, Palestrina, established a new style of music, uniting old Gregorian modes, and also introducing new counterpoint and harmony. This might be said to be the golden age of ecclesiastical music.

Oratorios were introduced about the 16th century by Bach and Handel, and later, in the next century, the first opera came into existence in Paris. The Protestant Reformation had a great effect upon church music. Martin Luther advocated congregational singing, which had been almost done away with, and translated a number of hymns and songs from Latin into English.

Many of the English sovereigns, Henry VIII., and Henry VIII., and Elizabeth, particularly, had encouraged the musicians of their time. It was owing to Edward VI. that the Book of Common Prayer was set to music for use in the Anglican Church.

Mr. Killmaster interspersed his address with several early airs and an Ave Marie, and a pleasant feature was the singing by members of St. Paul's Choir of a motet, "Laudate nomen Domini," composed in 1511 by Christopher Tye. "Cherry Ripe," an old English ballad, was also sung by Master Robert Shaw, who possesses a peculiarly sweet soprano voice.

Mr. Thomas Mitchell rendered two numbers by Mozart—Fantasia in D minor, and a Rondo in C major. Anyone familiar with Mr. Mitchell's mastery of the piano will realize the beauty of expression and harmony with which he rendered his selections, and also his encore, "The Rose," a tender bit of his own composition.

Mrs. A. C. Paterson rendered Handel's "O Lord Correct Me" most beautifully, and Miss Florence Eggleston also delighted her hearers with her violin solo, "Air for G String," by J. S. Bach. The program was arranged by Miss K. Moore and Miss M. Raymond, and was certainly one of the most enjoyable ever rendered before the Music Club. There was a large attendance.

THE HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1914.

Neptune and Mars Give hint of wars.

An unfortunate day. Astrologers find that Mars and Neptune both are in evil aspect.

Soldiers of every rank, who are believed to be ruled by Mars, should be on their guard while this configuration prevails. There is an especially evil sign for naval officers and marines. The seers prophesy warlike activities, which will involve diplomacy, because of loss of life outside the limits of battle.

Steel-workers, foundrymen, smelters and all who are engaged in handling metals are believed to be subject to extraordinary dangers when Mars is adverse.

There is a warning against those who use sharp instruments. It is not an auspicious time for submitting to a surgical operation or for going to the dentist.

It is a time to guard against fraud and deception. The influences are believed to enable schemers of all sorts to be more convincing than in ordinary circumstances.

Investments are subject to a malignant rule of the stars today. Wise men and women will not buy what promises gain until the astral figure changes. New friendships or business partnerships should not be made while Neptune is adverse, for the evil vibrations are said to produce confusion and poor judgment.

Women are warned against indulging a desire for luxuries, for the sway of the stars is likely to intensify the emotions and produce extravagant impulses.

There is a strong probability of turmoil and unrest in London during April. It is predicted that Great Britain and Ireland will face a severe crisis. Debates embarrassing to the Premier and the Chancellor of the Exchequer are probable in Parliament.

Startling discussions of the marriage problem are foretold for this country. A movement to change the laws is a probability, which will produce scandal and criticism.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the prognostication of a quiet year. They may have many small worries, and they should beware of new ventures.

Children born on this day have the omen of a smooth and uneventful career, but the hour of birth may change this prediction.

GOLFINES USED FOR COATS.
That excellent understudy of corduroy, golfine, is evidently going to take the world by storm. Perhaps much of its success is due to the remarkably soft colorings which have been developed in this new cotton material. Chamols, the new and brilliant "egg yellow," rose emerald, and tomato are all deftly brought out here. For this reason coats of golfine have already made a deep indent upon spring fashion. One of the newest of these coats shows a deep yolk from which extend long and ingeniously strapped sleeves. The coat is hip length and terminates at the sides in places pointed both up and downward. These places are connected in the back by a strap which is repeated in the front by an extension of one pointed piece but tapers over to the other. Such coats will undoubtedly be very popular for the spring and summer.

WESTERNS ARE CONFIDENT OF BEATING THE DUTCHMEN

Game Should Give London Fans an Idea of What To Expect in Local Intermediate Hockey in This City Next Season.

The game between Berlin and Western University in Toronto on Friday night will not only determine the intermediate championship of Western Ontario, but it will also enable London fans to get a good line on the local players who, without exception, are available for hockey in this next year.

The present Western University team is a pretty formidable aggregation at the present moment, and as the prospects are that all the players will remain in London for another season, Friday night's game will go a long way in determining just what kind of a foundation this city has for a championship winner next season.

Perhaps never before in this city has the next-season hockey outlook been so good so far in advance as it is at the present time. Both Hagerman and Schumacher have shown so much improvement lately that they must be figured in on any London intermediate team of next season, while Chapman is almost certain to figure on next year's intermediate O. H. A. team. The rest of the players, McAvoy, the two Reids and Gilles, will also be available for the intermediates next season.

The Westerns are going to Toronto confident that they can beat the intermediate champions, and Berlin will likely be handed a surprise. The Dutchmen, however, are not going to take any chances and they will be prepared to play the game of their lives. A big crowd of local fans will take in the trip on the special train, which leaves here at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, via the Grand Trunk.

Canadian League Happenings From All Over the Circuit

The Ottawa club has not yet located a training camp. South Bend cannot accommodate the Senators and Shaughtnessy is now seeking other quarters in Indiana. The Senators have had two or three of their spring dates cancelled also. Pretty tough.

Dave Inker, the St. Thomas catcher, is a hold-out. If his demands were met, the Saints would only have the lease on the ball park and an old bat-bag left. Inker will likely fall in line when the warm zephyrs blow.

The Senators are after Billy Wright, of the Erie club. Wright was sold to Buffalo, but sent back to Erie for further Heart Disease.

Mrs. J. D. Talbot, Owen Sound, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from heart disease, and leaking valves. I have had recourse to every kind of treatment I could think might help me, including the skill of several doctors. I suffered so for years that at times I have felt that nothing but death could end my misery. I was advised by a friend, who had suffered untold pain and misery, just as I had, and had been cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, to give them a trial, so I decided to do so. I am now completely cured, and can eat and sleep as I have not done for years.

You are at liberty to use my name at any time as I am convinced they are the best pills on the market for any form of heart disease."

William Scarrow Carries Off the Honors
With 5 Wins and 3 Losses.

About a dozen men met for a three-game-each checker tournament at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, and while no one had a perfect score, William Scarrow came out top man, having played fifteen games, winning five, drawing seven and losing three, making a total of seventeen points. S. C. Campbell, the professional checker champion, from Toronto, was in fine shape, winning seven games and drawing two. There were others who ran up against hard luck and lost most of the games played. While no challenge is made, it is the desire of all the players to play any one who may care to play next Wednesday evening.

QUEBEC AGAIN WINS IN NEW YORK SERIES

Defeats Vancouver Team by Score of Ten to Eight.

GAME IS FAST AND CLEAN

Players Played Decidedly Better
Hockey Than First Two Games of Series.

New York, March 18.—Quebec won the right to meet the Montreal Wanderers in the finals of the professional hockey tournament that has been running at the St. Nicholas skating rink, when it defeated the Vancouver six by ten goals to eight tonight. The contest gave Quebec a total of 26 goals in their two games.

The contest tonight was the best seen so far during the tournament. The ice was hard and the men played decidedly better hockey than they did in any other games. It was particularly lively in the second period, when it looked as though the experts from the far west were going to win the game. At the end of the first period the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of Quebec. During the second period Vancouver pulled down with one goal to 6. Although they kept up their good work in the third session they could not quite land a victory.

A Clean Contest.
The game was decidedly cleaner than the contest on Saturday evening. There was little or no foul work seen. The one or two penalties handed out by the officials all were for minor fouls. The Canadian rule of allowing substitutes at any time created one little bit of trouble during the third period. Vancouver claimed that one of the Quebec goals was shot while seven men were on the ice. There was a little argument over the play. Finally the referee allowed the goal.

The first of the final games will be played on Saturday night. The second contest will take place next Monday night. It was particularly lively in the second period, when it looked as though the experts from the far west were going to win the game. At the end of the first period the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of Quebec. During the second period Vancouver pulled down with one goal to 6. Although they kept up their good work in the third session they could not quite land a victory.

The line-up and summary:
Quebec: Moran Goal Lehman
Mummary Point Patrick
Hull Centre O'Brien
Smith Left wing Nicholls
Malone Right wing Taylor
Crawford Right wing Harris
Referee—S. Cleghorn, Wanderers, Montreal.
Judge of Play—Karl Kendall, Wanderers, Montreal.

Trustees Reverse Decision Handed

ter Is More Fully

Ottawa, March 18.—The hitch which arose yesterday over the Stanley cup going to Victoria if they won the Victoria-Toronto hockey series has been straightened out. Trustees Foran and Ross of this city, at a conference yesterday, decided not to allow the cup to be taken west in case Victoria won, as the P. C. H. L. had not formally challenged. It develops however, that this was due to a misunderstanding between Frank Patrick, president of the league, and Emmett Quinn, president of the N. H. A., as to which should put in the challenge.

FIRST MAPLE SYRUP OFFERED ON MARKET

Prices Asked $1.40 and $1.50 Per Gallon — Cold Weather Effects Vegetable Supply.

The first maple syrup of the season was offered on Thursday's market. There were two one-gallon lots, and $1.40 and $1.50 per gallon were the prices asked. Several small quantities were sold, but the demand for the syrup was not very great. The sudden cold wave will stop the sap flowing, and there will be no more for several days. A dozen loads of hay were on sale, and brought from $13 to $14 50 per ton. The demand was fairly good. No straw was on the market. The highest price for three loads was $1.22 per cwt. Wheat continues at $1 per bushel. Butter and eggs were scarce on the market, but the price remains the same as quoted. Potatoes were offered for 90¢ per bag wholesale and 95¢ retail. The supply was rather small. No parsnips were offered, and are almost impossible to buy at present. A few sold at 25¢ per peck on Saturday. Very little lettuce or other green vegetables were on sale, on account of the cold weather. Apples sold as quoted. The supply was larger than usual, and the fruit was mostly of good quality. Meats were scarce and prices rather unsteady. The live hog market is weak, and a further reduction in dressed hogs is expected. None were on the market today. Cow hides are steady, and prices continue at 13c and 14c per lb. for No. 1, 2 and 3 quality respectively. Calveskins sold for 1c per lb. Grain, Per Cwt. NO MORE PAIN

"Kephaldol" Can Now Be Had at Your Druggists.

Here Doctor Stohr the famous Austrian nerve specialist, first used KEPHALDOL in his private practice and hospital work, in Vienna. Other noted physicians and surgeons adopted this formula in treating severe cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica and Lumbago, La Grippe and Colds, Neuralgia and Headaches. The wonderful properties of KEPHALDOL became known in England, where a company was formed to prepare KEPHALDOL TABLETS and supply them to the public at a nominal price. Canadians, visiting the Old Country, heard of KEPHALDOL, tried them, and brought them back to Canada. So great became the demand for KEPHALDOL here, that a Canadian office was established to distribute these tablets on this side of the ocean. So, what the famous physician did in Austria, has resulted in thousands and thousands of sufferers being cured of pain. KEPHALDOL is absolutely safe, having no ill-effects on the heart or other vital organs. If your druggist should not have KEPHALDOL, a 50c tube of tablets may be obtained by remitting the price to Kephaldol, Limited, 31 Latour street, Montreal.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS If Tongue Is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Don't Hesitate!

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother, see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

Exchange on London 20 marks 48½ pence for checks; money, 2½ per cent; private discount rate, 3½ per cent. London, March 19.—Money was dearer and discount rates were easy today. Another fall in Consols and home securities, due to fears of Uster and labor troubles, and further liquidation in Brazilian and Argentine securities, depressed the stock market until late afternoon, when better continental advices and local covering checked the decline and caused a general hardening in values. Consols fell fractionally higher, and Mexican issues were firm. American securities opened quiet and a fraction lower, 1½ to 2½ per cent. Values during the first hour, and later the market improved on New York bidding and closed steady. The dividend rate of the Bank of England was raised to 5 per cent at the directors' meeting today. TRADES COUNCIL WILL LEND AID TO STRIKERS

Decide To Appeal to Minister of Justice in Behalf of B. C. Miners.

London Trades and Labor Council last night decided to take an active part in the Dominion-wide protest of the Labor men of Canada against the treatment accorded the striking miners of Vancouver Island by the judiciary of British Columbia. Accordingly, local Labor men will circulate throughout the city a protest to be forwarded to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa. All the union workers of London will be asked to sign the protest, and in addition other citizens who may sympathize with the imprisoned miners for whose release the Labor men are petitioning. London Trades and Labor Council is a "live wire" organization, according to William Stokes, vice-president of the St. Thomas Labor Educational Association. He was gratified by the large attendance, he said, and expressed the view that elsewhere the London council was regarded as a wide-awake and aggressive organization. He reported that in his own city, St. Thomas, a number of new unions had been recently organized and that others are in process of organization which are expected to meet with marked success. Last night the London council discussed the proposal to send local delegates to the next Labor Day celebration at St. Thomas. The matter will be decided at the next meeting of the council.

REAL ESTATE BUSINESS IN A HEALTHY STATE

Record of Transactions for February in Excess of That of a Year Ago.

According to the figures of the assessment department relating to the real estate transactions in the city during the past month, the assessed value of the property was only 66 per cent of the consideration paid. This percentage is lower than it has been for a number of years and is accounted for by the number of new buildings being erected throughout the city. Houses erected on a piece of property after the assessment work for the year has been done, naturally increase the value of the property greatly, while it remains at the same valuation on the assessment books until the next assessment is taken. The result is that the percentage of the assessed value to the consideration paid by a purchaser is considerably lowered. There were 111 real estate transactions in the city during the month of February, and the sum of $181,000 was involved. The assessed value of the property was $119,860. These figures compare favorably with past years, and are considerably in excess of the figures for 1913, when property assessed at $106,380 changed hands, the consideration being $165,184.

Freed From That Weak, Languid, Always Tired Feeling, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Thessalon, Ont.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a blessing to women, and I cannot speak highly enough of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, Thessalon, Ont. Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound to restore their health. There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it? If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CHURCHILL THE BUTT
OF BERESFORD "WIT"

Lord Charles Very Personal in His Remarks on First Lord in the House.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 19.—A cable to the Herald from London says: During the debate on the navy estimates last night, Lord Charles Beresford said: "Why is the first lord not in the House? It is most unbecoming to the House and to myself, who sat in the House before he was born, and who was strong for reform on the lower deck when the first lord was at the business end of a feeding bottle."

Mr. Churchill entered the House shortly afterward and Lord Charles was proceeding to say the first lord had broken his promises and pledges, when Mr. Churchill yawned.

Lord Charles said he was sorry if he bored the first lord, and he could see right down his throat at that moment. Later Lord Charles said: "I have nothing to say about the first lord's flying in the air, as I do not suppose he'll ever get any nearer to heaven."

Magical Effect on Neuralgia
Throbbing Pain Goes Quickly

A YEAR'S SUFFERER CURED BY "NERVILINE."

No person reading this need ever again suffer from Neuralgia. Nerviline will quickly cure the worst Neuralgia, and Mrs. G. Evans, in her strong letter written from Russia, says: "One long year, the longest of my life, was almost entirely given up to treating dreadful attacks of Neuralgia. The agony I experienced during some of the bad attacks was simply unmentionable. To use remedies by the score without permanent relief was mighty discouraging. At last I put my faith in Nerviline; I read of the wonderful pain-subduing power it possessed and made up my mind to possess it. Nerviline at once eased the pain and cured the headache. Continuous treatment with this magic-working remedy cured me entirely, and I have ever since stayed well." Mrs. Evans' case is but one of hundreds that might be quoted. Nerviline is a specific for all nerve, muscular or joint pain. It quickly cures neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago, lambo back, neuritis and rheumatism. Forty years in use, and today the most widely used liniment in the Dominion. Don't take anything but "Nerviline," which any dealer anywhere can supply in large 50c family size bottles, or in a small 25c trial size.

North German Lloyd Vessel Is Unable To Find Trace of the Boat She Collided With.

[Canadian Press.]

Bremen, Germany, March 19.—An unknown three-masted schooner was sunk and the whole of her crew drowned through a collision last night in the North Sea with the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The steamer, named in the vicinity for two hours, but could not discover any trace of the schooner's crew, and she resumed her voyage to America.

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse left Bremen yesterday on her first trip since her reconstruction as a third-class and steamer passenger vessel. The captain sent the news of the collision in a wireless message to the company here.

New York, March 19.—Wall Street, noon.
Steadiness of the early market and the absence of outside selling orders, despite the injection of new, unfavorable influences into the speculative situation, prompted operations for the long account, and prices were advanced. The Government's suit against Lehigh Valley appeared to have been discounted in yesterday's decline, and the anthracite market showed no weakness. Reports from the steel trade told of decreasing new orders and the possibility of contraction of operations in some mills. These reports were partially offset by the favorable character of United States Steel's annual statement. The demand for stocks was not heavy, but at noon the general level showed a fractional improvement. Bonds were irregular.

TO SIMULTANEOUSLY

ATTACK MAZATLAN

AND TORREON CITIES

Said To Be Plans of Mexican Rebel Forces — Villa and Obregon To Command.

[Canadian Press.]

Juarez, Mexico, March 19.—A simultaneous attack on Torreon and Mazatlan was predicted in advices received today. It was said that while Gen. Villa's rebel army was moving against Torreon, another force under Gen. Alvaro Obregon would assault Mazatlan. Obregon was reported to be moving 12,000 troops against the Pacific coast port. This was said to be part of a general plan for an aggressive movement against all Federal forces in Northern Mexico.

The fall of Mazatlan, it was said, would mean virtual control of the west coast, while the capture of Torreon, the railroad centre of Central Mexico, would threaten the capital. If the rebels capture these two points, both armies would, it is said, move against Guadalajara, which is the strategic key to the south.

According to the plan, Guaymas would be ignored, in hopes that the California gulf port might fall with the capture of Mazatlan. It was said that the simultaneous movements against Torreon and Mazatlan had received the sanction of Gen. Carranza, now marching overland into Chihuahua.

FISHERMEN HAVE ASKED
NORTH BRANCH CLOSING

Want Angling Prohibited for Two Years and the Stream Restocked With Bass.

London fishermen who are interested in the proposal to have the north branch of the River Thames closed to fishermen for a period of two years, while the closed waters are restocked with black bass spawn, have forwarded a petition to Frank Glass, M.P., asking his aid in the proposition.

Hundreds of local fishermen are in favor of the branch being closed up and restocked, believing that it will be the only solution for local knights of the rod and reel to save the old fishing holes with which the north branch abounds.

If the men succeed in having the river closed they will ask to have inspectors placed on the ground between Richmond street bridge and a few miles north of the Adelaide street bridge to see that the law is obeyed.

WENT TO TRAIN

In London, Miss Burridge clung tenaciously to the thought that her work would be fulfilled and that he would come home on the International Limited. As the last passenger stepped from the train, her hope vanished in a flood of tears.

"I know he's dead," she screamed, as her friends tried vainly to comfort her.

To an Advertiser reporter who was at the station, she made a pitiful appeal for the latest news from Toronto. The reporter was unable to tell her anything, save that which she already knew, for it was not until this morning that the positive identification of Graham's body was made.

When the body was found, it was without Graham, all hope for the young man's safety was abandoned.

The death of her fiancée is not the first tragedy that has come in Miss Burridge's life, for her father, John Burridge, was a victim of the city hall disaster, his being one of the first bodies taken from the ruins.

WINDSOR POLICE

To The Advertiser today, Mr. Eveland declared that the boy had been in the first trouble his daughter had ever been in. He was at a loss to know why she had left with Tragenzo.

Never Saw Tragenzo.

"I have never seen this young man she ran away with, and do not know him at all," he declared to a reporter. "This Tragenzo has never, to my knowledge, been inside of Windsor. How may I have ever been foolish enough to go away with that man is beyond me."

Information from the Windsor police to the local department advised the London detectives that the boy and his two prisoners would arrive here at 4 o'clock.

Will Press Charge.

The girl is being held on a technical charge only, as the facts of the case are in charge of abduction. The girl's father declared this morning that he would press the charge to the limit.

SPECIAL MIDDLESEX PRIZES FOR FRUIT AT THE FAIR

Seventy-five Dollars Added to List of Awards by Committee.

Special prizes for a display of fruit grown in Middlesex County were decided upon at a meeting of the horticultural committee, held by the Young Ladies' Branch of the Methodist Church, on Wednesday afternoon. Seventy-five dollars was added to the prize list, the amount being equally divided between the fruit and flower sections. It was decided to give the extra money to the fruit section to supplement an amount set apart some years ago for a fruit display from Middlesex. Four prizes will be offered of $30, $20, $15 and $10.

Secretary A. M. Hunt read a communication from the Dominion Experimental Farm, asking that the board adopt a system of judging making use of points in a certain way. The board agreed. The committee recommended that the scheme be adopted.

W. W. Gammage occupied the chair at the meeting.

CHARRED BODY

Grave fears were entertained when it was learned that he had registered at the ill-fated house.

For many hours the telegraph and telephone wires were kept hot with a cross-fire of messages, but nothing definite could be learned. The rumor spread through the city that several Londoners had been burned to death in the blaze, which information added to the fears of those who watched for his home-coming here.

Previous to entering the employ of A. B. Silverwood about a year ago, Mr. Graham was connected with the H. T. Reason Company here. He was popular in the city and was a member of the Hermitage Club since its inception in 1900, also an active member of Masonic Lodge, St. John's No. 2094.

William Gibbons, 359 Dufferin avenue, traveller for the Dominion Specialty Company, was registered at the Woodbine at the time of the fire. Late yesterday afternoon he telephoned his wife that he was safe, but had lost all his personal belongings in the blaze. He will probably return to the city Friday night.

Escaped the Fire.

Thomas Maynard, 344 Queen's avenue, who was also stopped at the hotel during the conflagration, wired relatives here that he had not been injured, having been absent from the building during the fire.

Beattie Still Missing.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 19.—S. Beattie, who was at the Woodbine Hotel on Tuesday a little while before the fire, and who was supposed to have registered from Guelph, but is variously reported as coming from Guelph, Welland and St. Catharines, still cannot be located. At Guelph it is stated he is not a resident of that city, and had not been there recently, although he was in touch with local friends.

Not From St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, March 19.—The S. Beattie, registered at the Woodbine Hotel, Toronto, from Guelph, is not Samuel Beattie, proprietor of the Mansion House, here. Mr. Beattie intended to make a trip to Guelph and Toronto, and stop over at Toronto, but has not yet made the trip, and is alive and well at his home here today.

U.S. IS WILLING TO LISTEN TO ARMY
PEACE PROPOSALS

But Has Had No Official Word From Huerta as to Intentions.

WAIT TORREON BATTLE

If Constitution Alists Are Beaten, Compromise Candidate Might Be Accepted.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., March 19.—While no official word came to the White House today of the reported purpose of General Huerta to reopen parleys with the United States, by sending his minister of foreign affairs to confer with John Lind, administration officials indicated a willingness to listen to any new proposals for a peaceful settlement. They seemed to attach most importance at this time to the outcome of the impending battle at Torreon, which is expected to make a critical turn in the strength and prestige of the contending factions.

Attitude in Fall.

When the exchange of notes between Secretary Gurnea and Charge O'Shaughnessy and John Lind was concluded last autumn, the attitude of the Washington Government was firmly established as opposed not only to the recognition of Huerta, but any successor of his choosing.

Two Qualifications.

The Washington Government has been mindful that a peaceful settlement in Mexico depended not alone on the choosing of a man to whom diplomatic recognition might be extended, but on the attitude of the Constitutionalists, who have announced their unwillingness to compromise with the Huerta group.

Compromise Candidate.

Should the Constitutionalists be defeated at Torreon, it is within the range of possibility that the whole situation may be changed and a compromise candidate agreed upon. Speculation in official circles was not based on any definite information as to the nature of the visit of Mr. Lind was eagerly awaited.

Sale of Work.—A sale of arons, home-made cookies and candy will be held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, 326 Dundas street, by the Young Ladies' Branch of the Methodist Church on Friday afternoon, March 20.

Coming from St. Thomas.—A special cable from St. Thomas is coming over to attend the revival services in Wellington Street Methodist Church tomorrow evening. Rev. J. E. Brown conducted the very successful evangelistic campaign in that city three or four years ago. Mr. Brown will give a special address to young people tonight in Wellington Street Church, subject, "The First Step in the Wrong Direction."

Praise for C. E. Wheeler.—After rendering the most successful musical of the season in Convocation Hall, Toronto University last night, C. E. Wheeler, organist of St. Andrew's Church, returned home today. Toronto musical critics were loud in their praise of the excellent work done by Mr. Wheeler, and all agreed that it was without a doubt the most successful of the season. The hall was packed to the doors, and more than 150 musicians were tuned away.

The young lad pleaded the gun went off accidentally, and that his intentions were far from shooting bullets through a window. After hearing the lad's story, Magistrate Judd allowed him to depart with a warning.

Wingham Woman Found Furniture Had Been on Fire During Her Absence.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, March 19.—When Mrs. William Merrington returned home from a visit to London recently she was shocked to find some of her furniture damaged by fire. She notified the police, who found that a little girl had got into the house to look for some trinkets she had left when visiting Mrs. Merrington. In the search she had lit some matches and from these the fire caught fire. She put out the flames without assistance.

The child's parents offered to pay for all loss sustained.

BABE'S PARENTS STILL REMAIN A MYSTERY

Coroner's Jury Unable To Place Blame For Placing of Body in River.

Of the three witnesses, summoned by Coroner Dr. Robert Ferguson to inquire into the death of the infant whose body was found in the river near the York street bridge by Peter Grace, 288 Thomas street, on Tuesday, March 10, none were able, through their testimony, to throw any light on the mysterious murder of the child. A searching investigation had disclosed the identity of no person or persons who had seen the child committed, had witnessed the placing of the body in the water. The evidence given dated only from the sighting of the remains by Grace, and showed only that death had been caused by wounds inflicted by a sharp weapon.

Grace testified that as a result of his curiosity regarding a supposed stone, shaped peculiarly like the nude body of an infant, he had descended from the bridge, from where he had first sighted the object, to the water's edge. He had waded out to the body and taken it after birth.

P. C. Walter Harpur, who responded to the patrol call with the police ambulance, told of seeing the body on the bank, subsequent to its removal from the water. It had been taken to the undertaking rooms of Griffiths & Will-

Dr. Edward Fidler, of the staff of the Institute of Public Health, and who conducted the post-mortem, testified that the child had been stillborn, but had been terribly mutilated by a sharp instrument after birth.

The verdict brought in by the jury follows: "The jury finds that the body upon which this investigation was held was that of an infant, identity unknown, found in the Thames River, near the York street bridge, about 6 o'clock, Tuesday, March 10. The jury regrets that the perpetration of so dastardly a deed could not be discovered. The disposal and mutilation of the naked body was apparently the work of a heartless and degenerate wretch, if not the act of an insane mind."

The members of the jury empaneled were: Thomas McKim (foreman), James Dean, Wm. Richmond, Y. W. Thomas, Thomas Jeffries, Arthur Mann, Ed Dunn.

CIVIL WAR TALES TOLD TO LONDON GARRISON

Col. W. E. Hodgins Illustrates Modern Warfare With Some Rousing Stories of '61.

Col. W. E. Hodgins, D. O. C., delivered the fourth of a series of military lectures to the officers and men of the London Garrison in the Armories last evening. The colonel lectured on the Shenandoah Valley campaign of the American civil war.

Some of the fine points of the campaign as well as its defects were pointed out in the lecture. Lack of co-operation throughout had led to the defeat of Lord Wolseley from first to last. The co-operation of one army corps (35,000 men) of regular or trained troops would have given complete victory to whichever side it fought on.

The evil of civilian control, the interference of both the union and confederate cabinets, the movement of troops and the organization of the armies was the cause of many disasters, the speaker asserted. The value of strategy, "myself, mislead and deceive the enemy," was one of Jackson's maxims, and won for him many struggles. Cavalry was used throughout the campaign to gain information and to cover movements. It was pointed out how Jackson's cavalry was maneuvered in a manner far ahead of his time and which was only being lately copied by the regular armies of Europe.

The great value of strategy, the battles of Kernstown, with their far-reaching results, were given as examples. Strength at the decisive point is necessary. Jackson's forces, although inferior in numbers to the opposition, in the valley was superior on the field of battle to the Federals opposed to him. The enormous value of the command of the sea by the Federals gave them a great advantage. They could prevent arms, ammunition and supplies entering the confederate states. It gave them the choice of basis from which to direct their attacks.

The value of good commanders was essential. Napoleon said the man is everything, the men nothing. The confederates were numerically far inferior to the Federals; yet their armies were as skillfully directed by Lee and Jackson that for years their adversaries were kept at bay. The early victories of the confederates gave them great confidence in their leaders and themselves. Their early defeats had an opposite effect on the Federals. To the student of military art, this campaign affords an admirable example of an aggressive, defensive warfare, and one of the best instances in modern times of the degree to which skill and daring may neutralize superiority of numbers and resources. It is no wonder that the name of Stonewall Jackson as hero of this campaign is immortal.

At the close of the lecture a number of slides taken by Maj. Gordon Hall, while on a visit to the vicinity of the valley, were shown. A handsome vote of thanks was tendered Col. Hodgins. The next lecture will be given by Major Shannon.

INVENTOR DOES A "BRODIE"

Jumps From Fourth Story to Demonstrate His "Escape."

Fred Preston, of Niagara Falls, Ont., Carnegie medal winner, and incidentally an inventor of a fire escape, did a "Brodie" leap from the fourth floor of the Tecumseh House yesterday afternoon to demonstrate his "escape."

Preston's apparatus, a wire cable running from a small drum on the inside of the bedroom window, bore him safely to the ground after the leap. After the inventor had broken the ice, but no harm. Fire Chief Aiken, Pipeman Harry Tozer of fire headquarters and several others essayed the rather quick descent.

Last summer Preston saved a motion picture actor's life in a whirlpool rapids below the falls, after the boat in which the actor was posing for "movies" got caught in the grip of the whirlpool. He was given the Carnegie hero's medal for this.

the question of appointing a school plumber. The consensus of opinion was that such an official should be appointed.

Trustee A. M. Hunt pointed out that a new room should be opened at Riverview School. One of the upstairs rooms in the Victoria School annex, formerly a private residence, is unsuitable on account of the difficulty in satisfactorily heating it. The board will probably open the new room at once and the class will be transferred from Victoria School.

It was decided to pave Talbot Street schoolyard with rock asphalt. Before commencing to tear down the old Aberdeen School, the committee decided to take out $5,000 liability insurance to protect the board of education in the event of injuries to workmen.

Those present were: Chairman L. H. Martyn, Trustees Thomas Rowe, W. W. Gammage, Inspector C. B. Edwards and Secretary McElheran.
