Parish Notes.

A few envelopes for St. Alban's Cathedral Quarterly Interest Fund have not as yet come to hand. The Treasurer's book will be returned to the Bishop February 17th.

The Quarterly Collection for the Special Funds, Diocesan and Missionary, will be made on Feb. 21st, the first Sunday in Lent. This will be the first quarterly collection for 1904. Look out for the envelopes.

A concert is being arranged by St. Agatha's Guild for Shrove Tuesday evening, Feb. 16th, at 8 o'clock, in St. George's schoolroom. The Guild will be assisted by Miss Maud Cowan, Miss Hilda Boulton (violinist) and some members of the choir. Admission paid at the doors, 10 cents. It is hoped that everyone will be there.

The old worn-out carpet in the class room has been replaced by a nice warm carpet, the gift of Mr. Robert Crashley, to whom a hearty vote of thanks is given by all who work there.

The members of the Sanctuary Guild wish to thank the following kind subscribers to their funds:—Mrs. Robinson, $6; Mrs. Gosling, $3; A. Baines, $3; Mrs. Burton, $3; Mrs. Morson, $3; Mrs. Beatty, $3; Mrs. Spragge, $3; Mrs. A. A. Macdonald, $3; Miss Gamble, $3; Canon Cayley, $3; Mrs. Pringle, $1.50. Their thanks are also given to Mrs. Goldwin Smith, Mrs. Allen Baines and Miss E. Baines for flowers during the summer; the Rev. Father Davenport for Harvest Home decorations, and Mr. H. Winsor for having the Christmas screen put up.

Other gifts which were not mentioned in last month's issue of the Magazine are:—The handsome brass alms dish on the retable, which was given by Mr. James Saurin McMurray; a set of 10 small brass vases for the altar was given by Mrs. Jones; the original kneeling cushions at the communion rail were worked by Mrs. Gosling, and the velvet cushion and back to the Bishop's chair were made by Mrs. Phillips. The brass lectern, which holds the large Bible, was the gift of Mrs. Christopher Robinson. It was with the view of harmonizing the furnishings of the chancel that this lectern replaced the original lectern of oak, which was the kind gift of Mr. R. L. Cowan, and was, by his consent, afterwards presented to St. Stephens' Church.

For the benefit of those who have not yet seen the new Service Books we would like to say that owing to the systematic and capable way in which Mrs. Allen Baines, (who kindly undertook the responsibility of obtaining the books), arranged the collections, the sum obtained was $51.00 instead of $35.00 which the Rector asked for. The now very complete set of Service Books consists of two for the reading desk, two for the communion table, and a Litany book for the Litany desk. The inscriptions inside the books are as follows:—"Church of St. George the Martyr, consecrated St. Andrew's Day, 1853; presented at the Dedication Festival, Advent Sunday, November 29th, 1903. Rector, Rev. Canon John D'arcy Cayley; Wardens, Henry Leslie Moore Weller, Richard Allport Baines.

The arrangements for the Lenten Services will be published in good time on a separate leaflet. It is hoped that all our parishioners will obtain copies, and will endeavor to attend as many of the special services as possible. A well-spent Lent means a happy Easter. We anticipate visits and addresses from several of the Clergy of Toronto.

The Bishop of Toronto will hold a Confirmation in St. George's Church on Sunday evening, February 14th, at 7 o'clock. We trust that many will make a point of being present not only for their own sakes, but also to encourage the young soldiers of Christ, who then make their vows and buckle on their armor.

The Rural Dean of Toronto, Canon Welch, will preach at St. George's on Sunday evening, February 7th. Unfortunately he was prevented from coming to us last month as expected.

The Rev. J. Silva White, the new assistant of St. Luke's Church, who has recently come from the Northwest, preached an excellent sermon on "The Creation" on Sunday evening, January 31st. Mr. Phillips gave an appropriate selection from the oratorio "The Creation" after the service.

A most delightful and helpful anthem was rendered by the Choir on that evening which was highly appreciated and suggested the question: Why have we so few anthems at St. George's when we have so excellent a choir?

We notice that the Bishop of Toronto has added two well-known names to his long list of Canons—the Rev. Dr. Cody and the Rev. H. C. Dixon. Both clergymen well deserve the dignity conferred upon them—Dr. Cody for his wonderfully successful work at St. Paul's, and Mr. Dixon for his self-denying labors as our Diocesan Missionary Secretary.

One of the, if not the oldest clergyman in Toron'o, Canon Sanson, has recently died at the advanced age of 87. An enormous crowd attended his funeral which was conducted by the Bishop of Toronto and Archdeacon Baddy. The Rev. T. R. O'Meara who has been for thirteen years the valued assistant of Trinity has been justly appointed as his successor.

Missionary boxes will be distributed among our children for the Lenten Offerings for Foreign and Canadian Missions. We trust that not only the Sunday School children, but all the children of our families, will receive and use them. So highly favored as we are at St. George's with the means of grace, we ought to do much for those who need the Gospel no less than ourselves.

May we again urge upon the new members of the congregation of informing the clergy of their names and addresses that they may receive a hearty and a personal welcome.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

After three weeks' recess for Christmas holidays, the weekly Sewing Meetings were resumed on the 11th January. A letter has been received from Principal Williams, Garden Indian School, Qu'Appelle Diocese, to thank St. George's Branch for the bale sent in November. The children were very much pleased with the presents; everything is very useful, especially the boys' suits and the men's clothing.

Reverend S. Summerhayes, Clergy House, Minden, Toronto diocese, wishes to convey his most grateful thanks to the members of St. George's Branch for their splendid bale. It arrived at Mountain Lake Mission in good time for Christmas distribution. He adds: "May their Christmas be indeed happy in the thought of the pleasure these gifts will give to some of the lambs of His flock in this distant corner of the world."

A resolution of sympathy was sent to the family of the late Mrs. Lough, on the death of their beloved mother, who for many years was an active member and liberal friend to St. George's Branch. Her presence is very much missed by the sewing members.

The President will be much pleased to welcome any who will join the Auxiliary and meet her on Monday afternoons in the Sunday School room, St. George's Church.

The Sunday School treat was in every way a success. Our sincere thanks are due to Miss Cayley, Miss Nichols, Miss Dye and the other members of the St. Agatha's Guild for their praiseworthy exertions. The Superintendent of the Sunday School being absent requested the children to send him short accounts of the proceedings. Two of them are appended. The prizes were awarded to the following children:—
Attendance and Conduct Prizes—Bessie How, Nellie Lowe, Alice Hodgson, Gertrude Cable, Nellie Godard, Edna Anderson, Hazel Davies, Madge Mollington, Lizzie Abbott, Grace Wallis, Edith Buckle, Cassie Murdock, Florence Moxon, Clara Davies, Ethel Dorrington, Rita Beckwith, Eileen Sangster, Hazel Blaylock, Dottie Murdock, Claude Broley, Henry Godard, John Bourne, George Cable, Charlie Winsor, Ralph Graham, Wilbert Moxon, Charlie Buckle, Willie Da Costa.

ST. GEORGE'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS TREAT

Nearly all the boys and girls had arrived Tuesday night by 6.15 o'clock, and then we had tea soon after. When tea was over the room was arranged for the entertainment. About 7.35 o'clock the audience began to arrive, and about twenty minutes later the entertainment commenced; a speech by the Rector being the first number, followed by another by Miss Nichols. Then came a song and dance, "The Three Little Sailor Boys," by Wilbert Moxon, John Crashley and Willie Da Costa; a recitation, "What Grandma Says," by Vivienne Da Costa; a recitation, "Reminding the Chicken," by Florence Moxon; an action song, "In Olden Time," by May Murdock, Dot Murdock, Clara Davis, Grace Wallace and Hazel Blaylock; and a recitation, "How I was Sold," by Willie Da Costa. Then came "Mechanical Toys," by Eddie McDougall and Clarence Clubb as Chinamen, Robert Renshaw as Jack-in-the-Box, John Crashley as a soldier and Wilbert Moxon as a jockey. A recitation, "The Mouse and the Cake," by Madge Mollington, was the next number, followed by a piano solo, "Chatauqua Lake," by Edith Buckle; next came an exhibition of Club Swinging by Florence Moxon, and, after a recitation, "They ask me why I am so bad," by Robert Renshaw, the entertainment part of the evening's programme was concluded with a play, "The Old Year Out and The New Year In," the characters being as follows: Charlie Moxon as Santa Claus, Arthur Godard as Father Time, Reford Murdock as Jack Frost, Eddie McDougall as Fire, Wilson Wallace as Fun, Bert Thorpe as Ice, Cassie Murdock as the Old Year, Hazel Blaylock as the New Year, Gertie Potts as Mistletoe, Grace Wallace as Holly, May Murdock as a Snowflake and May Crashley as Frolic. After the curtain was drawn at the conclusion of the play, the most enjoyable part of the evening came for those who had won prizes, which were distributed by Canon Cayley, after which all those present joined in singing the National Anthem, which brought a most pleasing evening to a close.

WILLIE DA COSTA,

Age 12 years.

THE TEA PARTY

January the 31 Sunday 1904

Dear teacher I enjoyed the tea very much and did have plenty to drink and to eat I did like the concert very much but the only thing that trouble me that Rev Mr hair was not there to help us to eat and enjoy us.

MAY CRASHLEY,
Age 8 years.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with the deepest regret we refer to the death of Mrs. Lough, which took place at the residence of her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Mewburn, after a very short illness. For more than twenty years Mrs. Lough has been a most faithful attendant and communicant of St. Georges' Church, and she will be greatly missed and regretted. The Woman's Auxiliary passed a resolution of condolence to the family of Mrs. Lough at their meeting on January 25th.
