THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OF

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

SECOND SESSION OF THE TWENTY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THURSDAY, 16th February, 1860.

The General Assembly having been, by Proclamation, prorogued to this day, the Legislative Council met:

PRESENT;

The Honorable Dr. Young, President;

The Hon. Mr. Swabey, The Hon. Mr. Forgan,

Mr. Dingwell, Mr. Hutchinson,

Mr. Walker, Mr. MacIntyre,

Mr. Craswell, Mr. Johnson. Mr. Bagnall,

Mr. President acquainted the House that His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor had provisionally appointed the Honorable Edward Palmer, by Warrant, bearing date the Thirty-first day of January, 1860, a Member of this House, who desires to be admitted.

Ordered, That Mr. Forgan and Mr. Johnson be a Committee to attend Mr. Palmer, and see him qualified.

Mr. Forgan from the Committee appointed to attend Mr. Palmer, and see him qualified—reported, that they had, according to order, attended Mr. Palmer, who took the oaths in the presence of the Lieutenant Governor.

The Hon. Mr. Palmer was then introduced between Mr. Forgan and Mr. Johnson, and took his seat.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having come to the Council Chamber, and being seated, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod received His Excellency's commands to inform the House of Assembly—that it is His Excellency's pleasure, they do attend him in the Council Chamber instanter;

The House of Assembly, with their Speaker, having attended accordingly—His Excellency was pleased to open the Session with the following

SPEECH:

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

It affords me great satisfaction to meet you, assembled as you now are for the discharge of your important duties.

In alluding to those subjects to which I would more particularly direct your attention, I am persuaded that you will, on entering on their consideration, do so with the sole desire to further the best interests of this Colony.

I would direct your attention to the necessity which exists for perfecting the present system of Education throughout the Island; and more particularly would I invite you to consider the propriety of re-constructing the arrangements on which the Central Academy is now based, in order that the increasing requirements for instruction in the higher branches of learning may be met, and the usefulness of that establishment augmented.

The arrangement under which the Public Roads, Bridges, and Wharves are at present maintained and repaired, is somewhat irregular and unsatisfactory. This subject is well worthy of your notice, so that you may concert and mature a more efficacious method.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The Address which, last Session, you submitted to the Crown, praying that a Commission be appointed to investigate and settle the whole question of Land Tenures, was graciously received by Her Majesty. A considerable delay has occurred at home in arranging the preliminaries of the Commission, but that delay was unavoidable. A very short time will now suffice to complete the formation of a Commission, from the labors of which I anticipate the best results.

I have directed the Accounts of the last year, and the Estimates for the present, to be laid before you. These have been prepared with every attention and economy, and with a due regard to the efficient performance of the public service.

Mr. President, and Hmorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

I rejoice to be able to announce to you that the Revenue, at the termination of the financial year, exhibits a very satisfactory appearance; still, as the public debt is considerable, it will be your duty to use your best endeavor to maintain, and, if possible, augment the income of the Island.

In this direction much may be accomplished by a greater attention being bestowed on the manner in which the Duties on Foreign and Home made Spirits are imposed and collected. The Laws, also, regulating the issue of Tavern Licences, I commend to your consideration, for revisal.

The want of Lighthouses on the East and North Capes of the Island has been long seriously felt, and their absence has occasioned great loss of life and property. I have communicated with the Governments of the adjoining Provinces, with the view of obtaining their assistance and co-operation with us to make good this deficiency. On receiving replies, I shall direct them to be laid before you. The method at present adopted for the collection of Light duties appears defective, and is capable of being advantageously re-adjusted.

A preliminary arrangement has been made by the Government with the Bank of Prince Edward Island, by which, for the future, Treasury Warrants can be at once exchanged for cash. The absence of this facility has been felt as a great inconvenience. To confirm this arrangement an Act of the Legislature is required.

I have received from His Grace the Duke of Newcastle a Despatch, which shall be laid before you: it relates to the subject of the pre-payment of Letters addressed to England. This system prevails in all the other North American Colonies, and is productive of much convenience: I therefore feel assured you will give the matter your consideration, with the view of complying with the wishes of Her Majesty's Government, that it be adopted in this Colony also.

The several Acts of the Legislature of last Session have received the approval of Her Majesty, and are now in operation.

From the Statute Book of the Island not having been revised for some years much benefit would result from the consolidation of the Laws, to the propriety of which I would direct your notice.

We have reason for deep thankfulness to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest and general prosperity with which, during the past year, this Colony has been blessed; and I fervently pray that His favor may be continued to us, and that His wisdom may direct your deliberations, for the advancement of the welfare of this Island.

The Speech being ended; and the House of Assembly having withdrawn, His Excellency was pleased to retire.

PRAYERS were then read.

Mr. President reported His Excellency's Speech, which being read by the Clerk,

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to return the thanks of this House for his Speech delivered this day.

Ordered, That Mr. Dingwell, Mr. Forgan and Mr. Johnson be a Committee to prepare a draft pursuant to the above Resolution.

Which, being the only Tender, was adopted by the House.

PRAYERS.

Read the proceedings of yesterday.

On motion, the Address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, in answer to his Speech at the opening of the Session, was read the third time and passed, whereupon Mr. President signed the same, and which is as followeth:—

To His Excellency George Dundas, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Island Prince Edward, and the Territories thereunto belonging Chancellor, Vice Admiral and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency;

We, Her Majesty's dutifel and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council, in General Assembly convened, respectfully tender our thanks for the Speech with which your Excellency has been pleased to open this present Session.

We assure your Excellency that, in deliberating upon those subjects to which you have directed our attention, we shall be guided by a desire to further the best interests of this Colony.

The present system of Education merits our earnest consideration. In whatever respects its imperfections can be remedied, we will most willingly avail ourselves of the power of doing so; and while applying ourselves to this important subject, we will endeavour to mature such alterations in the arrangement on which the Central Academy is now based, as may afford superior advantages for instruction in the higher branches of learning, and by which we also hope that the usefulness of that institution may be materially increased and extended.

It is very evident that a change is required in the laws provided for the repairs and maintenance of the public roads, bridges, and wharfs throughout the Island. We shall, therefore, zealously proceed to this important part of our labours, and we trust that our efforts may conduce to such an alteration in the system at present prevailing as will prove satisfactory to the public, and a saving to the revenue of the Colony.

It is very gratifying to learn that the Revenue during the past year presents an appearance so satisfactory; but, keeping in view the public debt, we fully agree with Your Excellency, that our endeavors should yet be directed towards the maintenance and augmentation of the Income of the Colony. As conducive to this desirable end, we think that much may be done by providing more effectual means for the imposition and collection of the duties on both foreign and home-made spirits, in addition to a judicious revision of the laws regulating the issue of Tavern Licences.

We fully approve of the course taken by Your Excellency relative to the erection of Light Houses on the North and East Capes of this Island. We earnestly hope that your communications on this subject with the Governments of the adjoining Provinces will meet that attention which the necessity that prompts them demands, and that, ere long, we may look for the accomplishment of the project which your Excellency has so humanely initiated, and for a diminution in the loss of life and property heretofore so frequent in the vicinity of the localities pointed out by Your Excellency, for want of these essential establishments. Whatever alterations may be found necessary to render more effectual the collection of light duties, we will most readily concur in.

It is satisfactory to learn, that Your Excellency's Government has made an arrangement with the Bank of Prince Edward Island, by which Treasury Warrants may be exchanged, at once, for cash. We will most cheerfully concur in the passing of any Act which may thus relieve the public creditor and the Colony from those serious inconveniences and losses heretofore so often occasioned by the depreciation of our public securities.

So soon as the Despatch received by Your Excellency from His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, relative to the prepayment of the postage of letters from hence to England, shall be laid before us by order of your Excellency, it shall receive our best attention.

We are gratified to learn from Your Excellency, that the several Acts of the Legislature of last Session have received the sanction of Her Majesty, and are now in operation.

The present state of the Statute Book of the Island evidently calls for a revision and consolidation of the laws, and we shall be prepared to unite in such enactments as may be requisite to carry into effect this desirable and necessary improvement.

We most devoutly concur with Your Excellency in deep thankfulness to Almighty God, for the bountiful harvest and general prosperity with which, during the past year, this Colony has been blessed, and most heartily unite in the prayer of your Excellency, that this merciful favour may be continued, and that His wisdom may direct our deliberations for the advancement of the welfare of this Island.

We cannot suffer this our first opportunity to pass without heartily welcoming your Excellency amongst us, and expressing our sincere hope that your residence in this Colony may not only be conducive to your personal satisfaction and happiness, but attended by a progressive increase in the welfare and prosperity of the Colony over which you have been called on to preside.

Ordered, That the said Address be presented to His Excellency by the whole House.

Ordered, That the same Committee who prepared the Address, be a Committee to wait on His Excellency, to know when he will be pleased to receive this House with their Address—who returning, reported, that they had waited on His Excellency, and that he was pleased to say, he would receive the Address at twenty minutes before twelve o'clock this day.

At twenty minutes before twelve o'clock, the House accordingly waited on His Excellency with their Address—and being returned, Mr. President reported, that His Excellency had been pleased to receive the same, and to give an answer thereto, which was read by the Clerk, and is as followeth:—

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

I beg to express to you my sincere thanks for the hearty co-operation your Address assures to me in such measures as I have introduced to your notice, and which I trust may conduce to the welfare of this Colony.

For the generous sentiments of good will and welcome that your Address conveys, I entertain a deep sense of gratification, and a no less firm confidence in your just exertions, and well directed efforts.

Ordered, That Mr. Bagnall have leave to absent himself for one week.

Ordered, That Mr. Dingwell have leave to absent himself for one week.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at One o'clock.

THURSDAY, 23d February, 1860.

The Council met, pursuant to adjournment.

PRESENT:

The Honorable Dr. Young, President;

The Hon. Mr. Hutchinson.

To the Honorable the Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island.

May it please your Honors:

In retiring from the office of Clerk of your Honorable House,---an appointment which I have held for nearly nine years, having fulfilled the duties of Assistant Clerk thereof for the previous sixteen years, --- it is natural for me to reflect upon the incidents that have characterized the direct intercourse and close connection which have, during that period, subsisted between your Honors and myself; and whilst that reflection brings most forcibly to my mind the pleasing remembrance of the many courtesies and indulgences which have been extended to me by your Honors, and whilst I am most deeply impressed with a due sense of these obligations, and in an especial manner with the very flattering testimony which it has pleased your Honors, by Resolution, to bear to the efficiency of my services as Clerk of the Council, accompanied by your Honors, best wishes for my present and future welfare, I cannot but feel, at the same time, my utter inability to acknowledge them in language sufficiently strong and appropriate.

Permit me, then, in all sincerity, to assure your Honors that those courtesies and indulgences,

PRAYERS.

Read the proceedings of yesterday.

The following Petitions were presented to the House, and the same were severally received and read, viz:

By Mr. Palmer—A Petition of divers inhabitants of Charlottetown, praying that Water Lots, Nos. 21 and 22, extending Southwardly from the breastwork of Major Beate's property to the Channel of the Hillsborough,—which Lots are still in the possession of the Government,—may be granted to the City as a site for a Market House. Petitioners also suggest Hillsborough Square as a suitable site for the said Market House.

By Mr. Walker.—A Petition of Robert Mooney, late Registrar of Deeds and Keeper of Plans, praying the House to grant him the sum of £10, being the balance of his salary, as such, for the quarter ending the 30th June, 1858,—which sum was withheld by the late Government on the ground that petitioner had left the work of his office in arrear, and that the said sum would be required to defray the expense of bringing up the said work.

Ordered, That the said Petitions be referred to the Special Committee appointed to report on all Petitions relating to Miscellaneous subjects.

A Message from the House of Assembly, by the Hon. Mr. Longworth:

"House of Assembly, Friday, 30th March, 1860.

"Resolved, That a Committee be appointed, to join a Committee of the Legislative Council, to prepare an Address to Her Majesty the Queen, praying that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will be graciously pleased to visit this, Her Majesty's loyal Colony of Prince Edward Island, in the course of his contemplated visit, in the ensuing summer, to these North American Provinces.

- "Ordered, That the Hon. Mr. Longworth, the Hon. Mr. Coles, the Hon. Mr. Thornton, the Hon. Mr. Haviland, the Hon. Mr. Gray, and the Hon. Mr. Perry be a Committee, on the part of this House, to prepare the said Address.
- "Ordered, That the said Resolution be communicated, by Message, to the Legislative Council."

Mr. Swabey moved that the House do come to a Resolution as followeth:-

Resolved, That the following Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, viz:

To His Excellency George Dundas, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chiefin and over Her Majesty's Island Prince Edward, and the Territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor, Vice Admiral, and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Excellency;

The Legislative Council respectfully request that your Excellency will cause to be laid before them the Despatch received by your Excellency in reply to the Address of the House of Assembly, which bears date in their Journals, May 16, 1859, and which contained sundry complaints against the formation and character of this House, and which appears to have been duly transmitted to the Colonial Office.

The Message which your Excellency has been pleased to order to be laid before this House appears intended to give the substance of the reply to their Address; but it neither states of what the Legislative Council is supposed to be guilty, nor the nature of the consequences of the threat which it implies.

They respectfully, therefore, trust that your Excellency will be pleased to furnish them with the information they seek on these points, by causing the Despatch to be laid before them on which your Excellency's Message is founded.

Mr. Palmer moved, in amendment to the said motion, to strike out all after the word "Resolved," and substitute the following:—

"That it is indispensable for the interests and welfare of this Colony that harmony should at all times exist between the House of Assembly and the Legislative Council, and that this branch of the Legislature entertains no apprehension that, in pursuing such measures as will be most likely to insure that harmony, it will ever have reason to compromise the dignity of their situation, or that respect and independence which appertain to this Council."

And the motion being seconded, and the question of concurrence put on the proposed amendment, the House divided,—

The Hon. Mr. Palmer, a Member of Her Majesty's Executive Council, presented the following Message from His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, which the House received standing, and the same was read by the Clerk, as follows:—

MESSAGE.

GEORGE DUNDAS, Lieutenant Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor has received the Address of the Legislative Council, requesting to be furnished with a Despatch from His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, in answer to the Address of the House of Assembly, bearing date in their Journals May 16th, 1859.

The Lieutenant Governor has, already, by Message, informed the two Branches of the Legislature that he has received an acknowledgment of the above Address of the Assembly, which that House has accepted as a sufficient reply.

For the reasons assigned in his Message, the Lieutenant Governor must decline complying with the request of the Legislative Council to be furnished with the Despatch itself.

As neither this nor any other Despatch in his possession "states of what the Legislative Council is supposed to be guilty," nor conveys "threats," or "the nature of their consequences," as the Legislative Council seems to have expected, the Lieutenant Governor did not embody such subject-matter into his Message.

Government House, April 5th, 1860.

Mr. Palmer also, by command of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, laid before the House—

Copy of a Correspondence which has passed between the Governor General and Lieutenant Governor Dundas, on the desirability of extending the arrangements whereby certain productions of the several British North American Provinces are reciprocally admitted free, so as to include all articles either produced or manufactured within the said Provinces.

[See Appendix, No. S.].

Ordered, That the said Correspondence do lie on the Table.

Ordered, That seventy-five copies of "The Parliamentary Reporter" be printed for the use of Members of this House.

Mr. Dingwell informed the House that indisposition prevented him from attending in his place since Monday the 2d instant.

Ordered, That Mr. Dingwell's excuse be received.

Mr. President informed the House that urgent business prevents Mr. Walker from attending in his place.

Ordered, That Mr. Walker's excuse be received.

Mr. Swabey, by leave, presented a Petition of Mr. John Ball, setting forth his claim to be remunerated for services performed by him as Extra Clerk of this House, in the Session of 1859, and praying liquidation of the same.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie on the Table.

A Bill intituled "An Act to authorize the appointment of a Harbor and Ballast Master for Hillsborough Bay, and that part of the Port of Charlottetown not within the control of the City Council,"—was read a second time.

After some time, the House was resumed, and Mr. Palmer reported, that the Committee had gone through the Bill, and had made a certain amendment thereto.

Ordered, That the Report of the Committee be received.

The said amendment was then read, and is as follows:-

Folio 4, line 12.—After the word "Island," insert "or with the original grant or grants, or such "other satisfactory evidence as the said Commissioners may receive."

And the said amendment being read the second time, was agreed to by the House.

Ordered, That the said amendment be engrossed, and that the Bill, as amended, be read a third time to-morrow.

Ordered, That the second reading of the Bill intituled "An Act to make certain alterations in the Laws for the performance of Statute Labor on and the improvement of the Highways," do stand as the order of the day for Wednesday next.

The Hon. Mr. Palmer, a Member of Her Majesty's Executive Council, by command of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, laid before the House—

Copy of a Despatch from the Duke of Newcastle, dated 15th January, 1860, No, 4, with an enclosure, in reference to an Act passed by the Legislature of this Island, on the 29th April, 1859, intituled "An Act for raising a Revenue,"—which was read.

[See Appendix, No. 9.]

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table.

DISSENTIENT from the passing of the Bill intituled "An Act to authorize the City of Charlottetown to appropriate a certain piece of land as a site for a public Market House."

FIRST.—Because the piece of ground proposed by this Bill to be appropriated to the site of a Market House has never been enclosed since this Island became a British Colony, and for the last eighty years has been freely enjoyed by the public, without any impediment, as an open street or thoroughfare, and more commonly used as such than any of the streets of Charlottetown.

Secondly.—Because the said piece of ground has long since, in fact, become a part of Queen Square, and, if obstructed by a Market House for the purposes intended, will greatly prejudice the public in the enjoyment of the said Square; the more particularly as a large portion of the central part of the said Square was most injudiciously appropriated for, and is now occupied by, the present Colonial Building.

Thirdly.—Because the said Bill authorizes the continuance of the use of Queen Square for such Market purposes as it is at present occupied for, namely, as a market for horses, cows, sheep, hogs, and live cattle of all kinds; hay, straw, threshed and unthreshed grain, fresh and salted meat, tresh and salted fish, shell-fish, deals, boards, and various descriptions of timber, by which means the whole western half of the Square is so obstructed on Market-days that access to the Colonial Building is greatly impeded, and the amount of offal and putrid matter accumulated thereon creates a filthy soil and pestilential atmosphere in what was intended for the cleanest, healthiest, and most ornamental part of the Town.

FOURTHLY.—Because the Squares of large Towns, especially those in central positions, are highly important for ornamental plantations, healthy promenades, commemorative statues, military parade, and other congenial purposes.

FIFTHLY.—Because extensive areas in large towns (especially where such Towns are principally built of wood) are specially useful in staying the destructive progress of fires.

SIXTHLY.—Because there are several sites well adapted to the purpose, with sufficient space for all the purposes of a Market-house and Market-place, to be procured at a reasonable cost.

SEVENTHLY.—Because it is unjust that the City of Charlottetown should be deprived of nearly the half of one of its most valuable public Squares, for the purposes of a public Market, and also be severely taxed for the whole cost of the building, while the advantages thereof are intended for the inhabitants of Queen's County especially, and generally for others from all parts of the Colony.

Eighther.—Because, in passing this Bill, regard is had too much for the interests of the owners of private property, and too little for the public at large.

NINTHLY.—Because the said Bill is greatly in derogation of public rights long and freely enjoyed, and contains no suspending clause agreeably to Her Mayesty's Royal Instructions.

EDWARD PALMER.

THERLY.—Because it is at variance with sound legislation, and incompatible with the duties of good government, that licences should be granted to countenance immoral and destructive habits among the people—thus allowing and encouraging the evil habit of drunkenness, provided only the the privilege be paid for.

And then His Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech, to both Houses:—

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

The state of Public Business enables me to release you from further attendance in your legislative capacity.

In closing a Session of more than ordinary importance, and productive of a large amount of useful and practical legislation, it affords me great pleasure to express my sense of the zeal and assiduity with which you have performed your laborious duties.

One of the most prominent objects of your care has been to provide a means of rendering more complete your system of training and educating the youth of the Colony. I fully rely on the efficiency of the improvements which, on that important subject, you are about to introduce; and I look forward with pride to the contemplated establishment of the Prince of Wales' College.

Circumstances constrained me, in the course of the session, to make an essential alteration in the composition of the Upper Branch of the Legislature.

For this change I had been by no means unprepared; the possible necessity of it having been anticipated, not only by myself, but by Her Majesty's Government.

I have now every confidence that this aleration will result in producing that harmony between the two branches of the Legislature which I was so anxious to secure.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

In the name of Her Majesty I return you my thanks for the liberality with which you have granted supplies for the Public Service, and the solicitude with which you have provided for the augmentation of the Revenue.

I need not acquaint you of the approaching formation of that Commission which was the subject of your Address to Her Majesty last year. Your own energy, and the desire you have evinced to carry out, in this matter, the views of the Imperial Government, have tended in no small degree to this issue. In connection with this subject, I cannot but express the satisfaction I feel at your having agreed to the judicious purchase, from a non-resident Proprietor, of a large Estate in the Island. This arrangement will not only place it in your power to relieve the industrious Tenant, and enable him to become a freeholder, but it will throw open much Wilderness Land to profitable occupation.

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

It has been my pleasing task to transmit, for the purpose of being laid at the foot of the Throne, your loyal and affectionate address to her Majesty, expressive of your desire to receive and welcome on your shores His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, whose visit this Summer to a neighbouring Province had been officially announced. Although there has not yet been time to receive a reply to this Address, I think I may congratulate you and myself on the well-founded hope that we shall have the opportunity of personally paying our homage to the Heir of the Throne of England, the grandson of the Prince whose name is perpetuated in that of our Island.

You are now about to return to your respective Districts and homes. While you are receiving from your constituents and friends those acknowledgments which your arduous and useful services here so justly entitle you to claim at their hands, let me remind you to use the influence inseparable from your position, to encourage and foster that spirit of contentment and good-will now happily prevailing throughout the Island, and which is, under the blessing of Almighty God, so calculated to promote the welfare and prosperity of the people.

After which, the President of the Council said:

- " Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and
- "Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

"It is the will and pleasure of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, that this General Assembly be prorogued until Tuesday, the Twelfth day of June next; and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued until Tuesday, the Twelfth day of June next, to be then here holden."

J. BARRETT COOPER,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

APPENDIX No. 2.

Downing Street, 30th November, 1859.

Sir;

I have communicated to the Post-Master General your Predecessor's Despatch, No. 30, of the 14th May, reporting the failure of his endeavours to procure the concurrence of the Government of Prince Edward Island in the establishment of the system of compulsory pre-payment of postage on letters passing between this Country and the Colony.

As Prince Edward Island is the only one of the North American Colonies between which and the United Kingdom pre-payment is not in operation, Her Majesty's Government are anxious that this exception from the common rule should cease; and it will, therefore, be desirable that you should invite the Legislature to re-consider the subject.

It would, certainly, be most convenient that the system should be adopted and brought into operation, purely and simply, as proposed by Her Majesty's Government.

But, on the other hand, you will understand that, if the Legislature should wish, in some measure, to qualify the compulsory nature of the arrangement, with respect to letters sent to this country, there would be no objection, on the part of the General Post Office, to waive the detention of letters for non-payment, provided that all unpaid and insufficiently paid letters should be charged with the amount of deficient postage, together with a rate of 6d., in addition, as a fine.

If that proposal should be adopted, the postage collected on either side, on the delivery of unpaid letters, would of course be divided in the usual proportions of one-sixth to the Colony and five-sixths to the Mother Country; and the receiving office, after deducting a sufficient proportion to satisfy the claim of 1d. or 5d. the single rate (as the case may be), from the postage collected on the delivery of insufficiently paid letters, would account for the remainder to the dispatching office,—the fines on these classes of letters to be equally divided between the two Post Offices.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Sir;

I have to acknowledge Sir D. Daly's Despatch, No. 29, of the 13th May last, addressed to Sir E. B. Lytton, transmitting an Address to Her Majesty from the House of Assembly, in pursuance of certain resolutions of the House, praying that Her Majesty would direct a Commission to inquire into the existing relations of landlord and tenant in the Island, with a view to the passing of remedial measures. The House of Assembly also propose that this Commission should direct its attention to the fishery reserve question.

The resignation of Her Majesty's late Government has prevented an earlier answer to your despatch.

The Assembly, in their Address, not only pray for the appointment of a Commission, but they ikewise indicate in detail the measures which, in their opinion, should form the basis of that arrangement between landlords and tenants, which the Commission should endeavour to bring about. Now, without expressing any opinion adverse to the appointment of such a Commission, I am convinced that any prospect of a beneficial result from its labours would be nullified, if its action were fettered by such conditions as the Assembly would thus impose.

I cannot advise Her Majesty to entertain the question, unless it is fully understood that the Commission are at liberty to propose any measures which they may themselves judge desirable.

I have communicated this correspondence to Sir S. Cunard, as representing the landowners in this country, with a letter of which I enclose a copy.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Sir;

I am directed by the Duke of Newcastle to transmit to you copy of a correspondence between the Government of Prince Edward Island and this department, upon the subject of the appointment of a Commission to propose measures of arrangement between landlords and tenants in Prince Edward Island.

APPENDIX No. 3.

With reference to this communication, I am to suggest, that you would call a private meeting of such landowners as may be in this country, and ascertain whether there are any concessions which they are ready to make, with a view to bringing these questions to an amicable issue.

I am, &c.

My Lord Duke;

- 1. I have the honor to acknowledge to receipt of your Grace's Despatch, No. 11, of date 6th September, 1859, in which, with regard to the proposed Commission to inquire into the existing relations between landlord and tenant in this Island, your Grace expresses your opinion that any prospect of a beneficial result from the labours of that Commission would be nullified, were the independent action of the Commission fettered by its having prescribed to it by the House of Assembly, any particular measures, as a basis of that arrangement which it should be the endeavour of the Commission to bring about.
- 2. I laid your Grace's Despatch before my Executive Council, who unanimously assured me, that nothing could have been further from the wish of the House of Assembly than in any way to impede the free and independent action of the Commission, were your Grace to sanction its appointment; and that the principal reasons for passing the resolutions, which appeared to your Grace to indicate the circumscribing of the powers of the Commission, were to point out the existence of difficulties which a Commission might remove.
- 3. Under these circumstances, I have only to add, that while it is the wish of the Government of this Island that the Commission should be at liberty to propose any measures which they may themselves judge desirable, yet the Government trusts that the suggestions of the House of Assembly, as contained in these resolutions, may not be lost sight of by the Commission.

I have to request, that you will state to the Council, that I have laid this Address before the Queen; but that I have been unable to advise Her Majesty to interfere, as has been requested, with the proper local authorities in the formation of a new administration.

EDUCATION.

BOARD OF EDUCATION,

February 23d, 1860.

In transmitting the Report of the Visitor of Schools, the Board of Education deems it its duty to submit, respectfully, for the consideration of the Legislature, certain provisions of the existing Education Law, which, in the judgment of the Board, require revision, as well as to offer some suggestions, calculated, if embodied in an amended Act, to improve, or render more efficient, the whole system of public instruction in this Colony.

The amendments desiderated, are referred to under the following heads:

TEACHERS; THEIR CLASSES AND SALARIES.

A new gradation, according to seniority, combined with efficiency and merit, recommended.

- 1st. All teachers now licensed to be called in, re-examined, and classified Nos. 1, 2, and 3.
- 2. All future teachers on receiving licence, to receive from the Treasury Forty Pounds, per annum; at the end of two years, to be re-examined on professional attainments, character, and success in teaching, in order to receive the 2d Class Salary of Fifty Pounds; and after three years further teaching, to receive, on a successful examination, the highest Salary of Sixty Pounds, yearly.
 - 3. Payments of Salaries to be made Quarterly.

Acadian teachers to be put on the same footing as other Schools, supported under this Act.

AVERAGE DAILY ATTENDANCE OF PUPILS.

Where 40 children reside in the District, the average daily attendance should be kept at the present standard, viz: 20; and where upwards of 40, then half the number in all cases to be the standard average attendance.

Whenever the daily average attendance falls below the prescribed standard, then the amount of Salary ought to be in proportion to the actual average attendance, say, at the rate of Thirty Shilings per head, as in minor districts.

BOUNDARIES OF DISTRICTS.

All doubt should be removed, as to the power of the Board to alter, enlarge, or diminish the size of Districts, without any formal application of the inhabitants, or the necessity of appointing a Commission of enquiry—the same to be, as before, subject to the approval of the Frecutive Council.

Power may also be given to inhabitants to order at a meeting, enlargement of School-houses, and to assess for the same, as well as for the original building of it, and also for the final completion of School-houses, if the original specification shall be found not to be fully provided for the same.

All School-houses hereafter to be built and fitted up according to plans to be furnished by the Board.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Where disputes arise, or doubts exist, as to who are the legal and proper Trustees of a School District, the Board of Education should be empowered, by any means they think proper, to examine into circumstances, and determine who are the Trustees; and a certificate, setting forth the names of the Trustees, signed by the Secretary of the Board and two Members, shall be final and conclusive proof of their appointment and powers.

Where the Board find it impossible to determine who are Trustees, they may order, at any time a new election of Trustees on a certain day, which being posted on the School-house of the District six days before the day of election, shall be sufficient to call the inhabitants together; and the Trustees then elected, on confirmation by the Board, shall be deemed to be in office until the first day of July next after the date of election, or until some new election shall take place.

SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

Establishment of Libraries, in connection with District Schools, is recommended; when a certain sum is voluntarily contributed by the inhabitants, an equal amount or proportionate rate to be appropriated out of the public funds.

SUPERANNUATED FUND.

The establishment of a superannuated fund, to form an annuity for teachers incapacitated for duty from any cause—such annuity or retiring allowance to be proportioned to length of service, and to the amount which may be contributed yearly, by the teacher claiming the benefit of such fund.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

The Board of Education has more than once expressed a decided conviction that the appointment of a Second Master, or additional Teacher, is indispensible to the efficiency of the Normal School, The appointment of this teacher, either as Rector or as Assistant Teacher, cannot any longer be deferred without great detriment to the educational interests of the country. This fact is forcibly impressed upon them on every occasion on which they are called to examine candidates for the office of Teacher.

The term of attendance at the Normal School should be extended from three to five months. The year to be divided into two terms of five months each; candidates for the Teacher's office to be entitled to examination at the end of the first term, and if found not qualified, to be required to attend the second term. All candidates to be examined before being admitted into the Normal School.

The buildings are not such as the Board can approve. The old building should be removed; another of larger and proper dimensions erected in its stead, and with the face toward the street; and it should be properly furnished.

Persons holding recent certificates or diplomas from any British or Provincial training institution to be placed on the same footing as those holding certificates of attendance at the Normal School. Two of the City Schools might also be merged in the Normal School, Instruction and training in morality, being an essential, and the highest part of Education; and the Bible—God's revealed will to man, irrespective of nation or language,—being the only infallible standard of morality, it is necessary and proper that all the youth of our land attending all our public schools, of every grade, should have their minds moulded and regulated by its sacred teachings,—therefore the Board recommend that the introduction of the Bible into all our public schools, of every grade and class receiving support from the Public Treasury, be authorized; and that the teachers be required to devote one half hour of the former part of each school day to moral training from the Bible—no sectarian teaching being allowed; and the teacher's remarks to be simply explanatory and practical; the children of Roman Catholics to be allowed to use their own version of the Bible, when preferred; and no children being compelled to receive these instructions, whose parents or guardians may object to the same.

The Board would also take the liberty of stating, that they conceive the time has now come when our educational establishment should be completed by the crowning addition of a Provincial College. Past Acts and educational progress have paved the way for this highest and necessary addition. To supply it with Students, three or more intermediate or High Schools might be called into operation. A new and complete Educational Act, embracing the College, the High Schools, the Normal School properly equipped, and the needed amendments of Common School regulations, would be hailed as a signal advance in the educational interests of the country. All which is humbly submitted.

By order of the Board,

JOHN McNEILL, Secretary.

SCHOOL VISITOR'S REPORT,

For the YEAR 1859-60.

To the Board of Education.

Gentlemen;

In submitting to you a Report of my labors as Visitor of Schools, it is proper to state at the outset, that several circumstances have contributed to prevent my inspecting as many Schools as might probably have been expected.

In the first place, several Schools in districts widely separated, had not been visited by the last Visitor, and it was therefore necessary that they first should receive my attention.

Again, since my appointment, the two vacations for the year have occurred, in which the Schools are closed.

And further, several special cases, requiring immediate investigation, in extreme sections of the country; and the prevalence of contagious diseases in many settlements of the three Counties, have materially interfered with the Visitor's facilities for undertaking the whole field.

Notwithstanding these drawbacks, I visited many schools in each of the three Counties; some of them several times. It was desirable that it might be known whether the instructions of the Board were put in operation. Such frequent visitations to the same schools is considered more conducive to the establishment of a proper system and the introduction of necessary reforms, than a passing examination which is not to be repeated till some time the following year. Hence the value of the Visitor's inspection is to be estimated by the progress in improvements, rather than by the mere number passed over.

Although all the schools have not yet been seen, as three months of the year are still future, I expect to be able to report, before the end of the year, the actual number of schools which have been in operation and their general character.

The attendance indicates that a very large proportion of the rising generation are absent from School Such, indeed, is the irregularity in attendance, that some efficient means must immediately be taken to remedy it, if our Free School system would not prove a failure.

I have not entered now into a minute detail of our schools, except those in the City, although the materials are all before me; because they present, as the Board well know, a great similarity to the particular Reports so frequently laid upon your table; and because I believe it is a waste of time and money to draw out and publish such voluminous details, of very doubtful value.

I would generally mention, that there is a decided improvement in the method and the means of communicating instruction, and also in the quality imparted. As would be expected, some districts exhibit their improvements more than others, but there must be a full and constant attendance of the children in each district, to render the advancement prominent and satisfactory. Where the same teachers have been retained for several years, in general, satisfactory success has attended their continuous efforts. I have urged upon teachers the importance and propriety of devoting labour and time to the directions of the Board for teaching the elements of reading and spelling. General attention is now given to Dictation Exercises, Arithmetic in its various phases, mental and written, is a prominent study in all the schools, and in many, pupils have attained excellence in this branch.

General Information, or teaching common things of a practical nature not usually learned in books or by regular lessons, is also in the routine of some schools. These exercises are chiefly performed by means of oral instruction, and may be made so interesting and attractive, as to awaken generous emulation and a laudable spirit of enquiry. The teaching of a knowledge of common things prepares the way for such methods and subjects of instruction as advance the standard of general intelligence in schools in which such lessons are skilfully taught.

The changes in the Normal School, proposed by Mr. Webster, the H.M., I submitted in my monthly Report, to your meeting for the last month. Mr. McNeill, your Socretary, who conducted this Institution for the summer term, until the incumbent's appointment, is reliable authority for advice on educational improvements, either in the City or rural districts.

On this topic, I would recommend, that applicants for admission to the training department as pupil-teachers, would be examined previously to enrolment, on a certain course of subjects prescribed by the Board, and after attending classes in the Institution for a session, as required in the School Act, learning "what to teach and how to teach," they may then apply for a Diploma.

Thus,—a criterion to decide on the competency of candidates would be established, and a suitable selection could be made, to elevate the standard of qualifications and increase the efficiency of the staff of teachers.

But to secure such important improvements, the training in the Normal School must prepare for the introduction of a uniform system in all the schools; and to consummate this desideratum, a digest of the Principles of the Science of teaching, modified to supply our exigencies, should be compiled and condensed in a Manual of Instruction and Discipline, as a Guide to District Teachers.

The provision for scholarships in the Academy has excited rivalry in country schools for excellence in intellectual acquirements; and a small bonus, granted to buy illustrative apparatus for a Teachers' Institute, when organized in any electoral district, would be likewise good policy. One great difficulty in improving the profession is the isolation of the individuals who make up that profession—but the organization of Teachers' Institutes would excite intense professional interest. In these gatherings, Teachers meet and mingle, and the Teachers' spirit is awakened. They assemble at some central place, and employ a distinguished teacher to preside over their meeting and give them instruction. The exercises are interspersed with discussions, and the evening is occupied by lectures on educational subjects.

I now respectfully submit a brief summary of subjects for the consideration of the Board.

- 1st.—The Board should be invested with ample discretionary power to re-adjust school-district organizations;—to avoid controversies on the construction of the law, or other altercations arising from a variety of complicated circumstances, often of a trivial character, and causing serious consequences.
 - 2d.—The expediency of an improved style of school architecture, with appropriate appurtenances.
- 3d.—The District meetings for the engagement of teachers should be held simultaneously, at a certain fixed time, and their salaries paid quarterly.
- 4th.—Teachers distinguished for merit, fidelity, and long experience in the profession, should be suitably encouraged.
 - 5th.—Gradation of schools in the City, Georgetown, and several populous Districts.
- 6th.—Duplicates of Registers should be preserved in every school, for reference, to ascertain the actual progress, proficiency, and attendance.
 - 7th .- A Hand-book of the geography and history of the Island is required.

8th.—The organization of Teachers' Institutes and District Libraries should be encouraged.

The Report last published includes details for 1858, and up to the end of April, 1859; embracing the term when all the schools are in full operation, and in the most favourable condition for examinations.

There are two sets of scholars—for the country schools—one for summer and the other for the winter term.

In the busy seasons, young children, if able to travel, are sent to save time and trouble at home, and perhaps, to keep up the average, to avoid the closing of the school. Such were the general characte and condition of the schools, when I received my Commission.

I have had correspondence and intercourse with the majority of the teachers, for the adoption of the course of instruction ordered by the Board, and also to procure statistics necessary for my subsequent guidance.

The examinations of the schools not having been yet completed—from hindrances already mentioned,—I have not deemed it proper to present, in detail—with the exception of the City schools,—any exposition of their comparative condition and efficiency; thinking it expedient to withhold them for a future Report, and to offer, at the present time, such general observations as a partial view of the schools has suggested.

Frequent intimations of the closing of schools from sickness are sent me. In Princetown and other places the Board of Health or other authorities have interfered.

Such afflictive visitations of Providence, and other unforeseen emergencies, have occasioned serious embarrassments.

However, I purpose to proceed to New London, Cavendish, and adjacent localities—overlooked; not inspected since Mr. McNeill's visitation in 1857;—then, after completing a circuit of these districts and others claiming immediate attention, I intend to commence a continuous course of visitation, and report the relative efficiency of the schools.

The undersigned is impressed with the conviction that the solution of the most important practical question which concerns the future of our country—how shall our system of public instruction be improved?—will receive the generous consideration of the Legislature.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN ARBUCKLE, S. V.

February, 1860.

Our City Schools the past year have been successful. Their progressive improvement has been evident and gratifying; but there is still much to be done before they are brought to that state of perfection at which they should arrive. An important improvement might be introduced by dividing and grading our schools. The advantages of this system are numerous and great. At present large and small pupils are mingled promiscuously together without any regard to their comparative age or attainments. On the new system, scholars of the same age and qualifications are gathered into the same school, have teachers qualified to instruct them, and the intermediate and primary scholars can be taught by females. The teacher will have fewer classes, and more time to bestow on each. The scholars are arranged where they will assist and not perplex each other, consequently the instruction imparted will be more thorough. In view of these considerations the graded system is earnestly recommended to the attention of the Board as an important improvement. A well defined and specific course of study should be assigned to each school. Urbanity of manners is expected from scholars in the City Schools. It is as just for them to learn how to behave as to acquire knowledge. Scholars should not be guilty of boisterous shouting and disrespectful hooting at those who pass by. In former days, considerable attention was given to this branch of education. Good manners have an intimate relation to good morals.

POWNAL DISTRICT.

The appearance of this school answers the liberal provision made for it. The house is commodious, accommodates two departments, a male and female, is well provided with maps, elegant globes, and a large black board.

At my visitation in December last, the Masters of the other City Schools were present, by special visitation at my suggestion. In order to awaken a spirit of generous emulation and brotherly love in the profession, I recommended that the teachers in town and country of contiguous schools would agree to have monthly examinations in regular succession; as such conferences afford the advantages of associations for mutual improvement, and also a reliable criterion to ascertain a comparative estimate of skill and success in their responsible vocation.

At the exercises, the scholars shewed a creditable spirit of attention, and alacrity in reading; the enunciation was full and distinct; the pronunciation, with slight exceptions, accurate; and the expression of spirit and feeling in the recitation of interesting pieces of prose and poetry, very remarkable. In every department the investigation has been carried beyond the text book.

A searching examination of a large class on a variety of subjects—called the "General Information Class,"—shewed that a spirit of inquiry and reflection had been elicited.

Mr. Roche has had the principal management of this School for many years, the children of the district, with few exceptions, are entrusted to him, and he has consequently enjoyed peculiar privileges for the exhibition of tact and talent in promoting the progress and proficiency of his pupils in the primary and higher branches of education. Teachers, in general, encounter embarrassing difficulties in systematic arrangements, both from the irregular attendance and the frequent removal of children from school by parents—from capriciousness in most cases.

ROCHFORT DISTRICT.

This school, notwithstanding its position on one of the noisy thoroughfares of the city, is so far back from the street and so arranged that its situation is good. Mischief-makers caused a vexatious altercation between the master and a parent opposed to corporeal punishment; this untoward circumstance raised some excitement that soon subsided. When parents lend an ear to the complaints of their children in matters of discipline,—they paralyze the efforts of the teacher. In the government of a school composed of children varied in character and disposition, great patience and judgment are needful. Neither the pleasure nor displeasure of children should be consulted in the proper management of a School. Now, the good order, the attention, the docility, the decent demeanour, in the School, reflect credit on the master and his pupils.

The appearance, on examination, was very creditable. Parsing and Analysis excellent; the acquaintance with Geography respectable; in Spelling, the words were defined; the Reading was distinct, and proper attention paid to the emphasis and cadence; the writing department is satisfactorily conducted; the members of the Arithmetical Classes are making creditable progress; and the proficiency in the Elementary Rules is a prominent feature of the system pursued in this School, which is evidently in a prosperous condition.

HILLSBOROUGH DISTRICT.

The Trustees should, without delay, either enlarge the School-room or provide another. The pupils are at present grouped on the seats, and there is not sufficient space for class exercises, and in other respects the capacity of the School-room is objectionable. The relation between the master and his pupils seems to be what it should be. The oral examinations shewed the Reading to be good, and that pains are taken to make the scholars understand what they read. The appearance in Grammar, Arithmetic, Writing, and Geography, was equal to the average; some specimens of writing, consisting of copies and grammatical exercises, were neatly executed. The pupils are apparently diligent, and the master attentive and active. Besides the Register furnished by the Board of Education, there is a journal kept to record the quarterly statistics of the School.

KING SQUARE.

Mr. James McNeill has had the charge of this School for nine months, and by his praiseworthy devotion to his profession, and the fidelity with which he has discharged the duties of Teacher in this School, he merits suitable acknowledgments. The order in the classes, the progress in study, and the prompt obedience of the pupils to the requirements of their teacher have been creditable.

FEMALE SCHOOLS.

Kent.—Miss E. McKinnon has taught this School for many years, and has been very successful in her efforts to improve it. The Teacher seems to have entire control over the scholars, without the exercise of much severity. Every branch taught is well taught. The different classes made creditable progress in all their studies.

Sydney.—This is a very interesting School. Miss McDonald has laboured with patience and perseverance to discharge her arduous duties. She has large classes under her instruction in the several branches taught in district primary schools; and the order and discipline of the scholars shew that she exercises ingenuity and energy in their intellectual and moral improvement.

POWNAL.—The School-house is comfortable and commodious; apartments are suitably arranged for teaching two or more branches simultaneously without confusion. Miss Scantlebury is competent, kind, faithful, and thorough in her instructions. Her examinations have been satisfactory.

ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Mrs. Clark has charge of this School, and labours conscientiously. To train the neglected and indigent is a work of peculiar difficulties at all times, but especially in winter, when the want of clothing and shoes causes irregular attendance.

Bog Free School has been for many years conducted by Miss Harvie, whose reputation as an accomplished and assiduous teacher renders it unnecessary to speak at any length either of her method or success. She has a suitable supply of objects and pictures to enable her to make the lessons in the elementary branches attractive and interesting. There are fifty-eight scholars enroled, the daily attendance varying from thirty-nine to forty-seven. Her public examinations are generally well attended by ladies and gentlemen interested in the prosperity of the school.

JOHN ARBUCKLE, Esquire, A. M., Inspector of Schools.

Sir;

In compliance with your request, I hasten to put you in possession of my views with regard to the Normal School, and the measures necessary to be taken in order to make it an efficient instrument for the training of teachers.

I need not say that, in its present condition, it is not at all calculated for that object. This is well known to you. It may not be improper, however, to state some of the reasons.

There being but one Master in the establishment, he is compelled to divide his time between the pupil-teachers and the pupils of the model school, and consequently can do full justice to neither. He is unable to devote that time to the model school which is necessary to make it worthy of the name; so the students are deprived of the advantages of seeing the system exemplified in the practical workings of a thoroughly organized model school. Nor has he the necessary time at his disposal for imparting to the students in attendance a thorough knowledge of the theory and practice of teaching, and for giving them such instruction in common branches of learning as is desirable for raising the standard of the literary qualifications of teachers. Again, the practice to which he is obliged to resort, of requiring the students to give instruction in the model school, and depending on them to perform a considerable portion of the daily labor, is highly injudicious, as it is as useless to the students as it is injurious to the pupils they teach. The pupil-teachers should teach in the model-school, but not till they have acquired a knowledge of the system; and then no saving of time can be affected, for their practising must be carried on under the eye of the master. The furniture is very unsuitable, the seats being without backs, and high enough for men, and no desks being provided to contain books, &c. These and other defects in the furniture render the carrying out of the system impracticable. Besides, many things, quite as necessary for a model-school as the school-room itself, are wanting; but I need say no more on this subject, as all are aware of the present inefficiency of the institution, and only wish to hear of measures for its improvement.

You are aware, Sir, that a properly equipped model school is indispensible for such an institution as the one under consideration. The model school of Nova Scotia comprises three schools or departments, each having its own teacher, and all united under the same roof, and under the control of the principal. The highest of these is intended to prepare the pupil for College. This department we might dispense with for the present; and our model school would answer our purpose equally well with only two departments, a primary one taught by a female, and a higher one taught by a male. These two departments, under well-trained teachers, and with suitable apartments furniture, &c., would constitute a complete and efficient model school. Being provided with a smodel school, the head master could devote the whole of his time and energies to the improvement of the pupil-teachers. His duties would be,—to make them thoroughly conversant with the branches they are to teach, and best methods of teaching; to superintend their practising in the model school, and to exercise a surveillance over the whole establishment. This would make our institution a complete Normal School, having the necessary parts of teachers' seminary and model school, and provide the appropriate means for fitting teachers for the proper discharge of the duties of their profession.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant.

JOSEPH H. WEBSTER.

Charlottetown, January 13, 1860.

Number attending the Normal School, January 26, 1860:—Pupil Teachers, 17, Pupils Model School, 97—114.

JOHN McNIELL, Esquire,

Clerk of the House of Assembly, and Secretary to the Board of Education.

My communication in February to the Commissioners of the Board of Education, intended for their practical use, and not for publication, was merely a condensed recapitulation of such facts and suggestions as I thought should be submitted by me in my Report to them for that month.

When I received official intimation of my appointment, I applied to the Government for instructions, and was referred to the Board for special directions, as I was to act under their authority.

The document prepared for my guidance in the discharge of my duties I received on the 26th May. It is an excellent synopsis of the method of instruction and discipline to be pursued by licensed teachers—"permissu superiorum"—and evidently signifies that the inspection of schools would be conducted in future on the improved system now adopted in other countries.

I expected to derive important advantages from a careful perusal of Mr. Irving's Report, but as he was privileged to follow his own predilections, and adapt his proceedings to any emergencies, and as my duty was defined in a digest of directions, to qualify myself for the efficient performance of the requirements of the Board, I had to consult other authorities for information, to do the work assigned me in strict conformity to the course prescribed.

Having studied some of the most approved modern publications on the science of education and the art of teaching, I selected a series of lessons assimilated to processes recommended by eminent instructors, and modified to suit our exigencies.

The exercises were explained on the black board, and "viva voce" illustrated, consequently it is difficult to elucidate the spirit and method of the examinations.

However, in compliance with your intimation of the injunction of the Honorable the House of Assembly, dated the 9th ultimo, and transmitted to me on the 6th instant, a few days after my return from my circuit in Prince County, and the adjacent settlements in the District of New London, I proceed to give, as demanded, a descriptive exposition of the plan on which I conducted my arrangements and visits, presuming the order has been issued purposely to procure an accurate criterion to decide on the merits of the innovation on the customary course formerly pursued.

The several sections of the synopsis prepared by the Board of Education indicate the spirit and principle of their settled policy.

The establishment of a uniform system of instruction and discipline—but "to change is not to reform,"—and, as I would be responsible for the results of the experiment, introduced under my immediate supervision, I determined to exercise care and caution in my arrangements for the introduction of improvements.

Moreover, a majority of our teachers needed time to prepare for the transition from the old to the now method—indeed, some of the most experienced and skilful in the profession assured me, that, in the summer season, there were very few schools in which I would find a class competent to undergo such an examination as my instructions inculcated.

In course of my official circuits, private individuals applied for something like a key to this agreeable mode of conducting exercises in reading, and the teachers took notes of the lesson and examination. The prominent feature of the plan is to ascertain whether a pupil knows as much of every word he reads in his lessons as the instructor himself, and if not, it is the province of the latter to afford all the information he can, and make the words so transparent to the scholar, that the objects they represent "may be seen through them."

This plan is practicable in private families as well as in public schools; a few experiments will immediately reward the diligence of those who attempt it; the accomplished teacher will readily decide the limits to which such lessons should be restricted.

The design of the selections made for examinations has been generally approved when explained, and where there has been a fair opportunity of testing the experiments, its attractive novelty captivated the attention of all present—in fact, in several districts the sympathies of intelligent persons, from ranks which, on other public occasions, are always arranged in hostile attitudes against each other, have been enlisted to recommend it.

Roots, with prefixes and affixes, have been previously learned by rote in many schools; but the progressive lessons now exemplified have been prepared to provide a model unfolding the method of combining prefixes with roots, and likewise a specimen of the analysis of words by a minute dissection, which would furnish ample elucidation for any teacher of ordinary talent and tact to elicit the ingenuity of his pupils.

Believing that the syllabus of didactics given for guidance in the exercise of my office was designed to place the profession of teaching on the true basis, by elevating the qualifications of instructions, my efforts invariably tended to this point, keeping steadfastly in view the restrictions thus imposed, my aim has been to find out first the best things to be done, then to try to do them in the best manner I could. Therefore, in compiling a concise course of elementary exercises, I thought that a series of examples, purposely selected, would be a suitable preparation to test the improvements that the Board of Education—according to my interpretation of their instructions—wished to introduce. After a cursory examination by the teacher—as my object was to reach the elementary steps in every branch taught—I gave lessons in the rudiments of the departments, illustrating occasionally the method of teaching the alphabet and elementary sounds on the phonetic process; a simple contrivance by an eminent educator, makes this exercise a very pleasing drill to children. The characteristic of this ingenious plan is—to teach first sounds, and then their symbols, instead of presenting a letter at the outset to look at, and name it. In my opinion, neglect of elementary teaching is the cardinal defect in our educational system. I refer to the want of profitable employment in the lower classes. The manner in which examinations have usually been conducted and reported has had in this respect an injurious effect.

To merit confidence and commendation, the teacher considers it expedient to prepare the highest classes for an exhibition of their performances in some favourite lessons in a superior style. The teacher is obliged, in self-defence, to be always ready for the day of trial.

In places where the new system of preparing School Reports has been adopted, there is not now a disposition, as formerly prevailing, to show prominently at examinations the acquirements of the advanced pupils.

Every intelligent observer must be sensible that the variety of age, studies, and proficiency, to be found in our District Schools is the aggravating cause of the chief difficulties which embarrass teachers; as of course one class only can be taught at a time, the youngest pupils who need most guidance can learn nothing or next to nothing while the teacher is occupied with their seniors.

It is therefore necessary to create a public sentiment în favor of elementary culture in the primary branches. At a recent convention of teachers in Massachusetts, it was remarked, that in order to form a complete system of public instruction, it was necessary to have the training of Normal Students strictly confined to that department of the science and art of teaching which is applicable to the primary classes.

As peculiar tact is necessary for teaching the initiatory steps in the rudiments of education, it is recommended, that the elementary classes should be entrusted to accomplished masters, of experience in the profession, and an adequate provision be made for their remuneration.

Formerly, in the management of seminaries for teachers, their object had been engregiously mistaken, as their students were chiefly instructed in the higher branches, instead of trained in the art of teaching.

The organization of Normal Institutes or teachers' meetings, as now conducted on improved principles, should be suitably encouraged. By convoking a group of teachers in a school similar in character to their own, a good opportunity is given to enjoy the advantages of what may be regarded as the best element of the real Normal School. A spirit of generous emulation is thus raised, and in the competition to obtain distinction, teachers strive to show experimentally their ingenuity and efficiency. In order to direct aright our efforts to improve our own system, to ascertain the mistakes to be eluded, and the proper plans to be pursued, it will be more profitable to defer in the mean time the discussion of our deficiencies, and to consider what is approved or attempted in other places proverbial for judicious schemes for social advancement.

The division into classes uniform in their studies, is the distinguishing feature of the graded system. By this classification all the alphabet scholars are comprised in one school, and the other departments in similar combination. This method, modified, could be advantageously introduced into our city, and some rural settlements where schools are in proximity.

Aid and advice should be provided for teachers to perfect themselves in the art of teaching and governing district schools; such facilities and inducements must be the principal reliance for remedying existing evils, and for introducing valuable improvements.

Many of our teachers are intelligent, energetic, and faithful in their attention to their arduous duties. These will cordially co-operate in elevating the standard of district school instruction. But some few there are who would object to any plan proposed, except that of diminishing their labours or increasing their salaries.

Hoping that this outline of what I have done, what I have attempted, and the reasons assigned for the course I have adopted in the performance of the duties of my office, may, in a measure, answer your enquiries.

I remain, Sir,
Respectfully, yours,

19th April, 1860.

Aware that Arithmetic is too frequently begun to be taught by abstractions, I used a portable Numeral Frame for introductory instruction, and this simple apparatus enabled me to make exercises in this branch easily understood even by the youngest children.

Teacher-How many have I moved forward? Four.

How many more than four? None.

How many less? None.

Then four is the whole of four.

Move forward another four.

How many more? Four.

Is it the same number? Yes.

Then four is equal to four.

Tell me how many equal parts are here? Two.

How many altogether? Eight.

Then separating them, say—and one of these equal parts is half of eight, and the half of eight, four.

How many equal parts now? Three.

How many in each equal part? Four.

How many altogether? Twelve.

Then four is the third equal part of twelve.

Or the third of twelve.

Then the pupil may repeat understandingly four is the third of twelve.

Extract from Simpson's visit to Flanders.

WATERLOO.

"From eleven in the morning till seven at night the battle consisted of a succession of similar reiterated assaults on the part of the French, with unabated fury, and increasing numbers, and often with a boldness which perplexed our soldiers, and put their matchless firmness to the utmost trial. It may be believed that every fresh onset swept away multitudes of our infantry; still the survivors gave not an inch of ground, but made good the lines, and formed the squares. No men in Europe could have endured as they did. Again and again, the enemy's cannon and cavalry rebounded from their adamantine front, dismayed and scattered. These were the BREATHING times of our heroes!! Line was with admirale alacrity formed for a greater breadth of fire than the squares afforded, immediately on seeing the back plates of the cuirasses, when masses of French infantry approached with a heavy fire of musketry. They did go through their work, as Napoleon often muttered, 'unlike any troops he had ever seen.'"—Simpson. [Selected from his course of lessons, by John Arbuckle.]

CIRCULAR.

From Lieutenant Governor George Dundas, to the Governor General and the Lieutenant Governors of the North American Provinces.

[Copy.]

Government House, Prince Edward Island, January 27, 1860.

Sir;

I have to invite your Excellency's attention to the absence of Lighthouses on the East and North Capes of this Island, and to urge the expediency of placing lights on these two points, the dangers of which might be thus materially lessoned by their position being indicated to the many vessels passing up and down the Gulf of Saint Lawrence.

From the principal harbors of this Island being those of Charlottetown and Georgetown, and from their trade being almost exclusively confined to countries lying to the southward, the establishment of Lighthouses on the Capes I have named is, as regards the vessels of this Colony, a matter of much less importance than to those of strangers.

Many vessels belonging to the adjoining Colonies having been wrecked in the neighborhood of these headlands within the last few years, my Government is desirous of ascertaining the willingness of the Governments of the other North American Provinces to contribute to placing and maintaining efficient Lighthouses on the East and North Capes of this Island, and it is with this view I now address your Excellency.

Should this proposal meet with your Excellency's approbation, and should you recommend to your Council that a small sum of money be granted towards the erection and maintenance of these Lighthouses, my Government is prepared to ask the Legislative Assembly of this Island to vote a sum of money for the same purpose.

In this event, the details of the work and the amount of the respective shares of the expense to be borne by each Province, would be settled by Commissioners.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

VICTORIA REGINA.

CAP. XII.

An Act to repeal as regards the Colony of Victoria, and to enable other Colonial Legislatures to repeal certain provisions of the Imperial Acts of the Fifty-fourth year of George the Third, Chapter Fifteen, and of the Fifth and Sixth years of William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two.

[8th August, 1859]

Whereas by the First, Second and Third Sections of an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for the more easy Recovery of Debts in Her Majesty's Colonies of New South Wales.' Provision was made for the proof, by affidavit, affirmation, or otherwise, of certain matters requiring to be proved before any Courts of Law or Equity in New South Wales or its dependencies, and for the punishment of persons guilty of making such affidavits or affirmations falsely: and whereas, by the fifteenth and seventeenth sections of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to repeal an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the State, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof," and for the more entire suppression of voluntary and extra judicial Oaths and Affidavits, and to make other Provisions for the abolition of unnecessary Oaths. Provision was made for the proof by Solema Declaration et otherwise of certain matters or things requiring to be proved before any Court of Law or Equity in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad: And whereas it is expedient that the provisions above recited should be repealed as regards the Colony of Victoria, and that as well the said provisions as the Fourth Section of the said first-recited Act of Parliament should be alterable or repealable as regards any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by the Legislature or other Legislative authority of such Possession: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

- I. The First, Second, and Third Sections of the said first-recited Act of Parliament, and the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Sections of the said secondly-recited Act of Parliament, shall be and they are hereby repealed so far as they apply to Her Majesty's Colony of Victoria.
- II. It shall be lawful for the Legislature or other Legislative authority of any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad to which any of the Provisions contained in the said first-recited Act, or in the Fliteenth or Seventeenth Sections of the said secondly-recited Act, shall apply, to repeal, alter, or amend all or any of the Provisions, so far as applicable to such Possession, in like manner and subject to the same conditions as if the same had been originally enacted by such Legislature or Legis lative authority.

ENCLOSURE.

Copy of a Report of a Committee of the Executive Council, dated 22d November, 1859, approved by His Excellency the Governor General.

On a communication, dated 21st instant, of the Honorable the Minister of Finance, stating that it is desirable to extend the arrangements whereby certain productions of the several British N. A. Provinces are reciprocally admitted free, so as to include all articles either produced or manufactured within the said Provinces.

That it would also be important to ascertain how far it might be practicable to assimilate the Tariffs of the several Provinces, so as to permit entire Free Trade between them; and he recommends that your Excellency be requested to communicate with the Lieutenant Governors of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Governments of those Provinces are prepared to unite with Canada in recommending Legislation for the purpose of establishing reciprocal free interchange of all productions and manufactures of the respective Provinces, and further to enquire how far it might be practicable to assimilate the tariffs of the several Provinces so as to permit entire Free Trade between them.

The Committee concur in the recommendation of the Minister of Finance, and submit the same for your Excellency's approval.

Sir ;

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's despatch of date November, 24, 1859, enclosing the copy of a report of your Excellency's Executive Council on the subject of the expediency of extending mutual arrangements between the several N. A. Colonies, whereby all the manufactures or productions of these Provinces should be reciprocally admitted free. The copy of this Report I have laid before my Government. Constituted as the Tariff of this Colony at present is, there will be considerable difficulty in carrying out such an arrangement as that indicated in the above report, without returning to a Protective Policy which has long been abandoned; or without appearing to place restrictive duties on articles of American manufacture contrary to Treaty.

The Revenue of this Colony is raised by duties placed on articles imported irrespective of whence they come—the same rate being laid on British as on American productions. It would therefore be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to draw a line whereby the productions and manufactures of the N. American Provinces should be admitted free into Prince Edward Island, and the same articles produced or manufactured elsewhere be subjected to a duty.

At the same time, the Government of this Colony is desirous of considering any suggestions which your Excellency may please to make for the general benefit of Her Majesty's N. A. Provinces and they will give their utmost attention to whatever particulars or details in connexion with the subject your Excellency may submit to them.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Sir;

Her Majesty's Government have had under their consideration the Act of the Legislature of Prince Edward Island passed on the 29th of April last, cap. 1, intituled "An Act for raising a Revenue."

I have advised Her Majesty that this Act should be left to its operation, and an order in Counci to that effect will be forwarded to you by an early opportunity.

In the meantime I enclose for your information the copy of a Report by the Commissioners of Customs, containing some remarks on the provisions of the 5th section of the Act relating to the importation of spirits.

To the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Your Lordships having referred to us the annexed letter from Mr. Elliot, transmitting the copy of an Act passed by the Legislature of Prince Edward Island, entitled "An Act for raising a Revenue," and requesting that your Lordships will inform the Duke of Newcastle whether the Act may be left to its operation.

We Report-

That by the 5th section of the Act, Spirits from other places than Europe, the British West Indies, or any British Possession in North America, are prohibited to be imported into Prince Ec. ward

Island in any cask or package not capable of containing as least sixty gallons, whereas in the United Kingdom the restriction with respect to Spirits is confined to casks or packages containing less than twenty gallons.

It may, however, be presumed that the Legislature of Prince Edward Island have sufficient reason for adopting so stringent a regulation, and as neither the section referred to, nor the other provisions of the Law are repugnant to the Imperial Customs' Laws, we see no objection to the Act being left to its operation.

Downing Street, 21st March, 1860.

Sir:

With reference to my Despatch, No. 11, of the 6th of September last, in which I informed you that I had communicated to Sir Samuel Cunard, the correspondence which had taken place upon the subject of the appointment of a Commission to propose measures of arrangement between Landlords and Tenants in Prince Edward Island, I transmit to you the copy of a letter which has been addressed to me by Sir S. Cunard, and several other proprietors of land in the Island.

The Proprietors, it will be seen, do not think that the appointment of a Commission in the manner proposed by the House of Assembly in their Address of the 9th of May last, would be the most desirable mode of proceeding, as the labours of such a Commission could only terminate in a Report, the conclusions of which would not be binding on any of the parties interested. They suggest, therefore, instead, that three Commissioners or Referees should be appointed—one by Her Majesty one by the House of Assembly, and the third by the Proprietors—and that they should be invested with power to hear and determine all the questions in dispute. It is further suggested, that the expense of the Commission should be divided equally between the Crown, the Tenants, and the Proprietors.

If the consent of all the parties can be obtained to this proposal, I believe that it may offer the means of bringing these long-pending disputes to a termination. But it will be necessary, before going further into the matter, to be assured that the Tenants will accept, as binding, the decision of the Commissioners, or the majority of them; and, as far as possible, that the Legislature of the Colony would concur in any measures which might be required, to give validity to that decision. It would be very desirable also, that any Commissioner who might be named by the House of Assembly on behalf of the Tenants, should go into the enquiry unfettered by any conditions such as were proposed in the Assembly last year. I have, therefore, to request that you will ascertain and report to me whether the Tenants of Prince Edward Island, or the House of Assembly, on their behalf, are prepared to agree to the proposed reference.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Messrs. Cunard and others, to the Duke of Newcastle.

Bush Hill House, Edmonton, 13th February. 1860.

My Lord Duke;

We have been furnished with a copy of a Memorial, addressed to Her Majesty by the House of Assembly of Prince Edward Island, on the subject of the questions which have arisen in connection with the original Grants of Land in that Island, and the rights of Proprietors in respect thereof.

We observe that the House of Assembly have suggested that Her Majesty should appoint one or more Commissioners to enquire into the relations of Landlord and Tenant in the Island, and to negociate with the Proprietors of the Township Lands for fixing a certain rate of price at which every Tenant might have the option of purchasing his Land; and also to negociate with the Proprietors for a remission of the arrears of rent, in such cases as the Commissioners might deem reasonable, and proposing that the Commissioners should report the result to Her Majesty.

As large Proprietors of Land is this Island, we beg to state that we shall readily acquiesce in any arrangement that may be practicable, for the purpose of settling the various questions alluded to in the Memorial from the House of Assembly; but we do not think that the appointment of Commissioners, in the manner proposed by them, would be the most desirable mode of procedure, as the labours of such Commission would only terminate in a Report, which would not be binding on any of the parties interested.

We beg, therefore, to suggest, that instead of the mode proposed by the House of Assembly, three Commissioners or Referees should be appointed—one to be named by Her Majesty, one by the House of Assembly, and one by the Proprietors of Land; and that these Commissioners should have power to enter into all the enquiries that may be necessary, and to decide upon the different questions which may be brought before them, giving of course to the parties interested the opportunity of being heard.

We should propose that the expense of the Commission should be borne by the three parties to the reference, that is to say, in equal thirds, and we feel assured, that there would be no difficulty in securing the adhesion of all the landed Proprietors to a settlement on this footing.

The precise mode of carrying it into execution, if adopted, would require consideration, and upon that subject we trust that your Grace would lend your valuable assistance.

APPENDIX No. 11.

[See Page 87.]

Correspondence in reference to taking the Census of the whole of the British Empire.

[CIRCULAR.]

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Downing Street, 31st January, 1860.

Sir;

I have received a Despatch from the Governor of South Australia, of which I enclose a copy, referring to an Act which had been passed by the Legislature of that Colony, for taking a census of the inhabitants for the years 1860-1861. That Despatch encloses copies of a correspondence with the other Australian Governments on a proposal for taking a census in all those Colonies, simultaneously with that of Great Britain.

I directed a reference of that despatch to be made to the Registrar-General for his report, and I transmit for your information a copy of his reply to such reference.

Governor Sir R. Macdonnell has suggested the advantage which might result from the measure of obtaining at the same time one uniform Census throughout the whole of the British Empire, or at least throughout all the principal British Colonies.

You will perceive that to whatever extent that proposal might be finally adopted, the Registrar-General is at present unable to afford the information necessary for giving effect to it, as no scheme for the Census of the United Kingdom has been approved by Her Majesty's Government with a view to its being submitted for the consideration of Parliament, nor as yet has the exact day for the Census of 1861 been fixed upon. I would call your attention to the extract which accompanies the Report of the Registrar-General, containing the decision as to future Censuses in Europe, which has been arrived at by the International Statistical Congress in 1857, at Paris, and to which Congress Her Majesty's Government sent delegates.

The Registrar-General also intimates that the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council have passed a minute appointing a Committee to make necessary preparations for the next meeting of that Congress in London, in the month of July, 1860, at which possibly it might be considered desirable in some Colonies that delegates should attend on their behalf.

If any further details should be desired by your Government, in order to secure uniformity of plan, in the event of the project being adopted, I would suggest that you should place yourself in direct communication with the Governor of South Australia.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient, humble servant,
NEWCASTLE.

No. 1.

The Governor of South Australia to the Duke of Newcastle.

Government House, Adelaide, 15th September, 1859.

My Lord Duke;

- 1. In my Despatch, No. 350, of even date herewith, I have had the honor to transmit Act, No. 12, of last Session, being an Act to take a Census of this Province in 1860 or 1861.
- 2. It had occurred to me when the Act was first introduced, as an Act to take a Census in 1860, that the advantages of a Census, either in this or any other of the Australian Colonies, would be much enhanced if it could be taken simultaneously in all. As my Ministry agreed with me in opinion, a suggestion was made in a circular sent by this Government to the other Australian Colonies, to the effect that such a Census should be taken in all simultaneously every five years.
- 3. In the mean time, I communicated my views to His Excellency the Governor-General, who in reply proposed to carry the proposition still further, and to have the Census of these Colonies taken simultaneously with that in Great Britain, and his Government subsequently drew up a circuar embodying that view.
- 4. I had, however, previously suggested to my Executive Council an alteration in the South Australian Act as it had been first passed, which alteration, on the 15th July, I recommended by a message to the local Parliament, with a view to extending the period for taking the census to the year 1861, inclusive. That suggestion was adopted, and the Act passed in its present form.
- 5. Since then the enclosed correspondence on the subject has been received from Victoria, and your Grace will perceive that the Registrar-General of that Colony is not merely anxious to carry out my proposal, as well as that of the Governor-General, but also very properly draws attention to the necessity of adopting a uniform Act, and similar forms for that purpose.
- 6. As there now appears a fair prospect of a scheme being adopted in these Colonies,—especially as the postponement of the census till 1861 will facilitate unity of action,—it occurs to me that I ought to lose no time in apprizing your Grace thereof. I entertain a hope that you may consider the matter worthy of the attention of the Registrar-General in England, and that he may be inclined to offer some suggestions as to the forms of returns most advisable to adopt, and may also supply these Governments with other valuable hints as to the draft Bill most suited to effect the common object of these Colonies, if they are to act in concert with the authorities in England.
- 7. I have no doubt that the same officer might also furnish several useful forms for the scientific classification of the information to be obtained; and it might perhaps occur to Her Majesty's Government to take steps at the same time for obtaining an uniform census on the same day through the whole of the British Empire, or at least through all the principal British Colonies.
- 8. In any case, I feel that, in attempting to secure unity of action here, suggestions emanating from Her Majesty's Government in England, or from so high an authority as the Registrar-General there, would probably have more effect in ensuring that unity than suggestions emanating from any local Government. I have, therefore, brought the subject under your Grace's consideration, and now respectfully submit to you these observations, together with the enclosed correspondence, in the hope of promoting thereby an object of so much general interest.

I have, &c.

RICHARD GRAVES MACDONNELL.

Mr. Herman Merivale to the Registrar-General.

2nd December, 1859.

Sir;

I am directed by the Duke of Newcastle to transmit to you the copy of a Despatch from the Governor of South Australia, forwarding an Act which had been passed for taking a Census of that Colony, together with correspondence between himself and the other local Governments, on a proposal for taking a Census in all the Australian Colonies simultaneously with that of Great Britain.

The Duke of Newcastle will be obliged if you will inform him whether it is in your power to afford to the Governor the assistance he requests in the execution of this scheme; and his Grace will be glad to be favored at the same time with any suggestions as to the practicability of carrying such a plan into execution throughout the rest of the British Colonies.

1 have, &c.,

HERMAN MERIVALE.

No. 3.

The Registrar-General to Mr. Herman Merrivale.

General Register Office,
Somerset House, 26th December, 1859.

Sir

In reply to your letter of the 2nd instant, I have to state, for the information of the Duke of Newcastle, that as yet no scheme for the next census of the United Kingdom has been approved by Her Majesty's Government, with a view to being submitted to the consideration of Parliament, nor as yet has the exact day in 1861 been decided upon when the census will be taken, it not being possible to have it on the same day as in 1851, as the 31st March, 1861, will be Easter Sunday.

I am, therefore, at the present moment unable to supply the Governors of the Australian Colonies with the information they require for their guidance; but I will take care to call the attention of the Duke of Newcastle to the subject at the earliest possible period, and I shall have much pleasure in supplying his Grace with the required documents.

In the meantime, I now forward, for the information of the Governors of the Australian Colonies, an extract containing the decision as to future censuses in Europe which was arrived at by the international Statistical Congress in 1857, at Paris, to which Congress Her Majesty's Government sent delegates.

The Duke of Newcastle may perhaps not have heard of the meetings of this Statistical Congress, but they have been assembled at three different capitals,—at Brussels, in 1853; at Paris, in 1855; in Vienna, in 1857.

I will thank you to state to his Grace that the Lords of the Privy Council passed a minute on the 19th instant, appointing a Committee to make the necessary preparations for the next meeting of the International Statistical Congress in London, in the month of July, 1860.

If this were made known in the chief Colonies, delegates may perhaps be sent to this country to attend that proposed Congress as representatives of some of the Colonies.

I now transmit a copy of the forms employed in taking the census of Great Britain, in 1851.

I have, &c.,

GEORGE GRAHAM, Registrar-General.

Sir:

I transmit to you the copy of a letter which has been addressed to this department, by order of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade [28th January, 1860], suggesting the expediency of procuring the more important of Her Majesty's Colonies to be represented at the approaching Congress of Statistical Science, which will be held in London, in July, this year.

Should the local Government of your Colony be disposed to accede to the invitation which this letter conveys, either by deputing some one to represent the Colony, or by authorizing any gentleman who may visit England on his own account, or who may be now there, to act as its representative on this occasion, Her Majesty's Government will readily afford him any assistance which may be in their power.

Office of Committee of Privy Council for Trade, Whitehall, 28th January, 1860.

Sir:

It will probably be within the recollection of the Duke of Newcastle, that public attention having been called to the incomplete state of the Official Statistics compiled by the Governments of the various nations of the world, and the absence of such uniformity in the manner in which even those incomplete statistical returns are published by the respective countries as would facilitate comparisons between them, an International Statistical Congress was, a few years ago, organized, for the Durpose of taking steps for remedying these evils, with the sanction and co-operation of the Governments of many of the leading States of Europe. That Congress has already assembled on three separate occasions, in the several Capitals of Belgium, France, and Austria, and considerable advantage has already been derived from its labors.

On the occasion of the last meeting of the Congress at Vienna, in the year 1857, it was arranged, with the concurrence of the then Government of this country, that its next meeting should take place in this metropolis,—an intention which Her Majesty's Government now propose to cause to be fulfilled in the course of the ensuing summer.

With this object in view, the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have recently appointed a Committee for the purpose of making the necessary preparations for that meeting; and it has already been decided that it shall take place in the week commencing on the 16th July next.

It appears to their Lordships to be desirable that the Colonies of the British Empire should not be left unrepresented, on an occasion on which the representatives of so many Foreign Countries may be expected to attend, in accordance with the invitations to that effect now being dispatched by the Foreign Office, and which presents so favorable an opportunity of facilitating the realization of the important objects already referred to.

I am, therefore, directed to request that you will suggest to His Grace the expediency of procuring such of the Colonies named in the margin as His Grace North American Provinmay approve, to be so represented at the Congress, either by invitations addressed to the local Governments and Committees, or (if these are too distant) through the agency of distinguished gentlemen connected with them now in Europe. Any gentleman who may be thus deputed, or whose attendance may The Australian Colonies. be thus sanctioned, should be requested, previously to the assembling of the Congress, to place himself in communication with the Committee above spoken of, which is now meeting, under the directions of this department, with reference to the subjects for discussion.

Sir;

I have received from the Secretary of State for War, two letters, of which I enclose copies herewith, explaining the measures which would be requisite in order to give effect to the recommendations of Lieutenant General Sir Fenwick Williams, for the defence of the Provinces of Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. These measures, as you will perceive, would consist first of an addition of 16 officers and non-commissioned officers, and about 80 gunners to the Coast Brigade of Artillery, with a view to placing small parties of artillerymen in these Provinces to assist and instruct any volunteer artillery corps that may be formed for their defence; and secondly, an addition of two companies to the Newfoundland companies, so as to admit of stationing detachments in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

I shall delay replying to the enquiry addressed to me by Mr. Secretary Herbert,—whether the Provinces would be prepared to pay their respective shares of the expense of these measures, until I receive an answer from you to the present despatch,—but I do not doubt the readiness of the Government of each of Her Majesty's Provinces in North America to contribute to any well considered undertaking which may seem necessary for the security of that portion of the Empire.

Sir ;

The Lieutenant-General commanding the Troops in the North American Provinces having, in reports which he has addressed to the General Commanding-in-Chief, recommended that small parties of Artillerymen should be allotted to Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, and the Coal Mines at Sydney and Pictou, in Nova Scotia, with a view to instruct and assist any Volunteer Artillery Corps that may be formed for the defence of those places. I am directed by Mr. Secretary Herbert to transmit to you, for the information of the Duke of Newcastle, the enclosed copy of a letter received from the Military Secretary to His Royal Highness, from which His Grace will perceive, that the only means by which this object can be accomplished, will be by adding 16 officers and non-commissioned officers, and about 80 gunners to the Coast Brigade of Artillery.

The pay, clothing, and subsistence of these officers and men being calculated to amount to about £5000 per annum, exclusive of arms, barrack accommodation, and other incidental expenditure, Mr. Sidney Herbert will be glad to be informed, before taking any steps in furtherance of His Royal Highness's suggestion,—whether the Duke of Newcastle has reason to believe that the Colonial Governments concerned, will be ready to provide so much of the expense as will devolve on them respectively by a distribution of the force in the manner proposed—that is in the proportion of about 20 men to each station.

Sir;

With reference to the Report of Lieut.-General Sir W. F. Williams, Bart., of the 20th July last, respecting the necessity of a small number of Artillerymen being allotted to Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, and the Coal Mines at Sydney, in Cape Breton, and Pictou, in Nova Scotia, with a view to assist any Volunteer Artillery Corps that may be formed for the defence of those places. I am directed by the General Commanding in Chief to state, that as it would be very inexpedient to detach young soldiers of the Royal Artillery to those stations, and the two Batteries allotted to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick having besides no men to spare for these detachments, His Royal Highness is desirous of recommending to the consideration of Mr. S. Herbert, that an addition be made to the Coast Brigade of Artillery for this service.

His Royal Highness considers that about 20 men at each station would be sufficient, and he would, therefore, recommend that the addition should consist of the following detail, viz:—

1 Captain, 1 Lieutenant, 6 Sergeants, 4 Corporals, 4 Bombardiers, and 80 Gunners.

Sir;

With reference to my letter of the 12th ultimo, I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to transmit to you the enclosed copy of a letter from the Horse Guards, containing the recommendation of the General Commanding in Chief, that two companies should be added immediately to the Newfoundland companies, so as to admit of detachments being stationed in Prince Edward Island, and in Nova Scotia (for the defence of the Coal Mines at Sydney and Preston (sic.) in the latter.)

The expense which this increase would occasion would amount to about £7840 a year, exclusive of the cost of providing barrack accommodation, passages, arms, and pensions.

I am to request that you will move the Duke of Newcastle to take this proposition into his consideration, in connexion with that submitted in my letter of the 2d instant, in regard to an increase of the Coast Brigade of Artillery—Mr. S. Herbert being equally unable to authorize any such augmentation of the establishment of the Newfoundland companies as is further proposed, until informed whether the Governments of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island would be likely to make provision for the expenditure involved.

Sir;

With reference to Sir Edward Lugard's letter, of the 12th instant, with its enclosure from the Colonial Office, relative to the defenceless state of the Coal Mines at Sydney, in Cape Breton; and also to the reports of Lieutenant-General Sir Fenwick Williams, of the 19th July last, respecting the defences of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, which I forwarded for your consideration, on the 12th of August, I am induced to submit to you the expediency of adding immediately two companies to the Royal Newfoundland companies, in conformity with the suggestion of Sir Fenwick Williams, with a view to some protection being afforded from this Corps to the Coal Mines in Cape Breton, and at Pictou, in Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. It is very desirable that a service of this nature should be provided for by a local Corps like the Newfoundland companies, composed of men of above 10 years' service, who may have re-engaged to complete their 21 years, and are not likely to desert, than by detachments from regiments of the line in Nova Scotia, which should be kept assembled as much as possible. The subject is so fully entered into in Sir Fenwick Williams' report, that I need only state my entire concurrence in the opinion, which he has expressed, and that this addition to the Newfoundland companies is very desirable, whatever may be the determination with regard to any works of defence for these Provinces.

I am anxious, therefore, to recommend the measure to your early consideration, and should Her Majesty's Government be pleased to sanction the augmentation of the Corps in question, I should hope that the appointment of a Lieutenant-Colonel to command it may be sanctioned. It is at present commanded by a Major, but I think it quite reasonable and indeed essentia with a view to the necessary Inspections, that a corps of 4 companies, and employed abroad on detached services, should have a second Field Officer, in which case the senior should be a Lieutenant-Colonel.

I am, Sir, yours,

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

[No. 3, Military.]

Government House, January 20, 1860.

My Lord Duke;

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Grace's despatch, No. 22, of date 18th November, 1859, enclosing copies of two letters from the Secretary of State for War, explaining the measures which would be requisite to give effect to General Williams' recommendations for the defence of several of the North American Provinces, and enquiring whether these Provinces would be prepared to pay their respective shares of the expense of these measures.

I have laid your Grace's despatch before my Executive Council, with whom I have anxiously conferred on the subject. While my Government do not fail to appreciate your Grace's desire to adopt measures for the effectual defence of the Island, they fear that it will not be possible for them to raize so large a sum of money as that which the Secretary of State for War indicates as necessary to be provided by this Colony for that purpose.

The sum in question would be about one-eighth part of the whole revenue of the Island, which, when the balance was struck last year, was considerably less than the expenditure. Without, therefore, an increase of taxation, the amount requisite to defray the expense of troops could not be procured.

Such a proposition my Government feel would find no support in the Legislative Assembly, and, therefore, while they would express to your Grace their acknowledgments for the suggestion of measures calculated for the defence and protection of the Colony, they regret that the smallness of its means, and the limited extent to which its resources have been developed, leave them no alternative, but to decline respectfully an offer which, if accepted, would involve them in much embarrassment.
