WE ARE EXPERIENCING

Hard Times, and it behoves us all to be as economical as we can. For many this will mean making the most of the wearing apparel we have. Many a last season's coat or costume will have to do duty another Spring.

The question is, how can we make it presentable? Cleaning and Pressing will do much,
but if the buttons are shabby new buttons will work wonders. The addition of trimming buttons to a costume or coat adds a brightness which is refreshing. We have

Germany Abolishes Conscription.

Strength of Army 100,000: of Navy 15,000--Three Classes of Greek Troops Called to Colors--Victorious Soviets Show no Quarter--Soldiers and Policeman Killed in Ambush--Grain Dust Explosion Causes Immense Damage.

GERMAN ARMY AND NAVY.
BERLIN, March 20. The German army bill abolishing conscription and fixing the strength of the army at one hundred thousand was passed the Reichstag Friday. Independent Socialists and Communists voted against the measure.

GREEK CALLING MEN TO THE COLORS.
ATHENS, March 20. A Royal Decree was issued today calling three classes, those of 1913, 1914 and 1915 to the colors. King Constantine in a message to the people explained that the measure was adopted to insure greater protection to the Greeks in Asia Minor and the protection of the Near East, and to assist the Allies to secure the execution of the terms of the Peace Treaty with Turkey.

POLISH TROOPS FIGHT BRITISH.
BERLIN, March 20. Special despatches from Katowitz, Poland, report that Polish bands crossed the Silesian frontier into Silesia and became involved in fighting with British troops at Gross Katowitz. Several persons on both sides were seriously wounded, despatches state.

THE FALL OF KRONSTADT.
STOCKHOLM, March 20. Details of the fall of Kronstadt before repeated onslaughts of the Bolshevik army under command of Leon Trotsky, Soviet War Minister, have been brought here by refugees some between hundred left endeavoring to fight their way toward the east, and in other fortresses approximately one CHARGES AGAINST RAILROAD CONTINUES.

CHICAGO, March 20. Charges that the railroads of the United States knowing the Railroad Labor Board had no power to enforce its decrees were trying to disrupt Labor Unions through public opinion and were attempting to influence the BIG EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, March 20. An explosion of grain dust rocked the entire southern section of Chicago early Saturday night, wrecked one of the world's largest grain elevators and broke every window within a radius of a mile. Of the nine watchmen who were trapped in the structure by the blast, two are known to be dead and four are missing. The bodies of the two known dead were recovered Saturday. The elevator which consisted of a series of steel and concrete towers was built at a cost of more than ten million dollars and was operated by the Armour Grain Company. The explosion was due, it is believed by officials who made an early enquiry, to a fire that started in the loading chute. The blast set fire to the dust filled air and the resulting blast rent asunder a big tower releasing thousands of bushels of grain. The explosion hurled great concrete blocks for hundreds of feet and derailed a freight train which was standing on the track beside the elevator. Heavy damage was caused in nearby towns by the explosion. Windows were shattered in Hammond, Whiting and East Chicago. The heaviest sufferer was Whiting, where it was reported every window in the downtown business district was broken. Early estimates put the property loss at six millions.

ASHORE IN DIGBY GUT.
ST. JOHN, N.B., March 20. The steamer City of Colombo, six thousand tons, with general cargo, went ashore at four o'clock this afternoon sixteen miles below Digby Gut. The Government steamers "Amberden" and "Laurentian" were sent to aid the public through false paid publicity, were made before the Board yesterday by Frank Walsh, Attorney for the Unions, when he began his second day of cross questioning of railroad officers.

MILITARY LORRY BOMBED.
DUBLIN, March 20. Three bombs were thrown at a military lorry here on Saturday night, two of which exploded, killing two soldiers and wounding six others, including one officer. The remaining soldiers fired wounding three of the attacking party.

VERDICT AGAINST SINN FEINERS.
EDINBURGH, March 20. Nine out of fifteen persons alleged to be Sinn Feiners, one of them a woman, were found guilty of conspiracy against the Government yesterday. A verdict of not proven was returned in the case of two of the prisoners and four others were found not guilty. The nine were sentenced to from one to five years in prison and a fine of five hundred pounds was imposed.

THE WAY OF THE HUN.
BERLIN, March 20. According to the Vossische Zeitung's Hamburg correspondent, an Entente Commission arrived to-day in the town of Ratzeburg, northeast of Hamburg, to inspect a strong detachment of Reichswehr. A military band in the barracks played the German Anthem and disagreeable scenes ensued, owing to offensive shouts of troops the correspondent declares.

ANOTHER FATAL AMBUSH.
CORK, March 20. Seven soldiers and one policeman were killed and several wounded and seven members of the attacking party were killed in an ambush of military and police near Kinsale, early Saturday, according to latest reports received here. Some thirty soldiers were motoring along the main road when they were attacked by five hundred armed Irish Republicans who were concealed in thick woods. The Crown forces left the lorries and joined battle with the ambushing party which was continued until military forces arrived when the Sinn Feiners began to retreat. Passengers on the Cork and Brandon Railway line witnessed a thrilling pursuit in which many of the civilians were seen to fall, the remainder being in full flight. The entire district is in a state of ferment. The Crown forces are reported to have burned farm houses and produce in reprisal for the ambush.

NOTED NEWFOUNDLANDER DEAD.
OTTAWA, March 20. The death occurred here Sunday on Saturday night at his late residence on Daly Avenue of Martin Griffin, C.M.G., LL.D., who for thirty-five years was parliamentary librarian in the House of Commons. The late Mr. Griffin, who had been in failing health for some time, retired last June. Martin Joseph Griffin was a son of Capt. F. Griffin, of the Merchant Marine, and was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, 1847.

NATIONAL FISH COMPANY ASSIGNS.
HALIFAX, March 20. The announcement is made of the assignment of the National Fish Company under the Bankruptcy Act, to G. E. Faulkner, authorized trustee. The amount of the company's liabilities is not yet announced.

PROPERLY SO.
WARSAW, March 20. Clauses in the new Polish constitution just adopted forbid corporal punishment and do away with coat of arms.

THE BANKS OF NEWFOUNDLAND.
If ever you sail in a Yankee ship no dungaree jumpers wear. But have your monkey jacket always at your command, For beware of the cold nor'westers on the Banks of Newfoundland.

We had one Lynch from Ballana Hinch, Jim Doyle and Michael Moore. In the year of '58 when our sailors suffered sore. They pawned their clothes in Liverpool and sold them out of hand. Not thinking of the cold nor'westers on the Banks of Newfoundland.

Our captain being a Yankee, our first mate was the same. Our second mate an Irishman, from Limerick town he came. And all the rest were Irish boys, they came from Paddy's land. Only four or five of our seamen belonged to Newfoundland.

We had one female kind on board, Bridget Walsh it was her name. To her I promised marriage; on me she had a claim. She tore her female petticoat to make mittens for my hands. Saying "I can't see my true love freeze on the Banks of Newfoundland." One night as I lay on my bed, I had a pleasant dream. I dreamt I was in Liverpool away down in city field. With a comely maid beside me and a jug of beer in hand,

Mrs. Ada Champion is Rejoiced Over Her Good Fortune

Verdun Woman Restored To Health By Tanlac After 7 Years Suffering.

"It's enough to make anybody rejoice to see the wonderful way in which Tanlac is restoring my health," said Mrs. Ada Champion, a highly esteemed resident of 557 A. Lasalle Road, Verdun, P.Q.
"For seven or eight years I suffered from nervousness, loss of appetite, indigestion and general weakness. The least noise would make me so nervous I could hardly stand it, and it was almost impossible for me to get the sleep I needed. I suffered terribly from constipation, and felt dull and languid all the time, and it was more than I could do to take care of my children and look after my other household duties. I just felt so bad that life seemed hardly worth living."
"But in a very short time Tanlac has built me up so that I can eat and sleep as well as I ever could and never have any trouble from indigestion, constipation, or nervousness. I feel the good of Tanlac to my finger tips and can look after my children and do my housework with ease and am like an entirely different person. My gratitude to Tanlac is unbounded."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connor; in Paradise, by Mrs. Martin F. Byrne; in Upper Gillies, by Huber Andrews; in Portland, by H. C. Haines; in St. Joseph, Salmonier, by Mrs. J. Gushue; in Marystown, by Exploite Valley Royal Stores, Ltd.; in Flat Islands, by William Samson; in Jamestown, by Christopher Haines, and in Lewisporte by Urial Freake, -adv.

vessel, whose first, second and third holds are filled with water. The Colombo is bound for Philadelphia.

SINN FEINERS PREVENT EMIGRATION.
DUBLIN, March 20. Resumption of emigration to the United States has become evident and Sinn Fein leaders are taking steps to prevent it. An emigration agent in Listowel, County Kerry, has been threatened with death if he books any males between the ages of sixteen and forty for passage to the United States.

50,000 THROWN OUT OF WORK.
ROME, March 20. Much alarm and anxiety has been caused by the recent closing of blast furnaces and shipbuilding yards of the Liva Company, at Piombino, in Tuscany, because of financial difficulties. Fifty thousand workers and clerks have been thrown out of employment by the shut down.

The Banks of Newfoundland.

In the Telegram of February 24th, there was published a reprint article from the "Log Book" of the Glasgow Weekly Herald, containing a portion of the verses of that once familiar ditty entitled "The Banks of Newfoundland," contributed by a Mrs. Bell, who wrote down the words as given from memory by her husband, an old seaman who obviously was well acquainted with the yicarious life of the sailor of "ye olden days," before lgh and steam superseded oak, cordage and canvas. The "Skipper," in thanking his contributor, hoped that some person would be able to supply the verses complete. To-day we are in a position to give them, but with some slight difference in the text according to seaman Bell's version.

The words beneath were taken down from the lips of James Brack, an old time sailor, by Capt. P. J. J. Howard, of the Customs Department. Brack, who is now in the Tidewater Branch of the Customs service, is one of the old stock of mariners, having ploughed the briny for many years, sailing out of every employ in St. John's.

But I woke quite broken hearted on the Banks of Newfoundland.
But now my boys have fair winds and our ship she's bound to go. So see boys scattered around her decks shovelling off the snow. We'll wash down and scrub her round with holystone and sand. And we'll bid adieu to the Virgin Rocks on the Banks of Newfoundland.

The steamboat she's ahead of us, for New York we are bound. Where the boarding masters and runners they all come flocking round. Some they go to sprees and balls and some more drive out so grand. But little they know of nor'west wind on the Banks of Newfoundland.

Refrain.
So boys, fill up your glasses and merrily they'll go round. And we'll drink a health to the captain and the girls of Liverpool town.

Letters From Animals and Birds.
When primitive man began to write a record of his doings he expressed his meaning by using a series of pictures.
If, for example, he wished to write that he had travelled for three days over the mountains with a companion, and that he had killed a lion, he drew two men walking, then three sums and some mountains, and lastly a dead lion pierced by spears.

One advantage of this form of writing, which is still used by savage people, is that you can see its meaning without knowing the language of those who wrote it. Its great drawback, however, is that it is not possible for it to express proper names; to write "Mr. Smith went to London" would mean drawing an exact portrait of Mr. Smith and a recognizable picture of London!
Early men, therefore, sought for some better method, and at length evolved the system of writing by means of pictures representing syllables. If we used this kind of writing we could set down the name "Smithson" by drawing a picture of a smith

When primitive man began to write a record of his doings he expressed his meaning by using a series of pictures.
If, for example, he wished to write that he had travelled for three days over the mountains with a companion, and that he had killed a lion, he drew two men walking, then three sums and some mountains, and lastly a dead lion pierced by spears.
One advantage of this form of writing, which is still used by savage people, is that you can see its meaning without knowing the language of those who wrote it. Its great drawback, however, is that it is not possible for it to express proper names; to write "Mr. Smith went to London" would mean drawing an exact portrait of Mr. Smith and a recognizable picture of London!
Early men, therefore, sought for some better method, and at length evolved the system of writing by means of pictures representing syllables. If we used this kind of writing we could set down the name "Smithson" by drawing a picture of a smith

Relief of Jewish Captivity.
To write "Jones" in this way we might draw little pictures of a jam-pot (J), an ox (O), a nest (N), and an ell (E), and a ship (S). As this is rather a long business, our drawings would be very rough, and in course of time we would adopt conventional signs for them, made with as few strokes as possible.
Thus the jam-pot might become a square; the ox a straight line thickened at one end; the nest, a circle; the ell, a wavy line; and the ship a downward stroke representing the mast.
This is what happened in the case of our own alphabet. It came to us through the Romans, who had it from the Greeks. The Greeks received it from the Phoenicians, or Philitines, to whom it was given by their cousins, the Jews. The Jews themselves obtained the idea from the hieroglyphics of the Egyptians, possibly during their captivity in Egypt.

The Hebrew name for A is aleph, which means an ox. Turn A upside down, and you have the ox's pointed face and horns. In early times there was no fixed rule for the position of the letters. You could write from left to right, from right to left, from top to bottom, or from bottom to top of the page, just as you liked. The letters could stand on their heads or lie on their sides. Thus B, which is the Hebrew beth, a house, lay on its side originally. Draw a capital B, taking the loops pointed instead of curved; turn it sideways, and you will see the twin-pointed roofs of a house.
D was at first triangular. Its Hebrew name is daleth, which means a door. But how can a triangle represent a door? If you recall for a moment how much of their time the Jews spent in tents, you see the explanation at once.
M is an owl; you can easily recognize the ears and the beak. N has a curious history. If you look at any Egyptian writing you will see a figure that looks like the jagged edge of a saw. It really represents the undulating surface of water stirred up by the wind. This symbol, which had the same sound in the hieroglyphics as it has to-day, has become shortened and simplified into its present form.
The other letters have equally interesting stories, though some of them have been so badly treated in their adventurous passage through the ages that they are hardly recognizable in their original forms.—Tit-Bits.

Household Notes.
When making cream puffs, do not open door during first ten minutes of the baking.
To cut fresh bread, saw the knife gently back and forth with a slow motion.
Put a little sand in the bottom of Chinese lanterns, and they will not sway and hence will be less apt to take fire.

A pair of pliers is useful in removing hot vessels from the stove and oven.
Lettuce leaves and left-over berries will keep better in the refrigerator if they are put in air-tight glass jars.
Before cleaning a radiator, put dampened newspapers under radiator to catch dust.
Be sure that floors are perfectly clean and spotless before you apply wax to them.
A steel needle is excellent for loosening a cake from the center tube of the cake pan.
If your garbage can has a thick lining of newspaper, it will be much more easily cleansed.

American Duty on Herring.

Whether the vetoing of the Fordney Tariff Bill—one of the last official acts of President Wilson before giving place to his Republican successor—will dissipate the agitation amongst United States fish dealers for a protective tariff on fish coming into the ports of the Union in foreign bottoms is open to doubt. For be it well assured once American fish firms and fishermen become wedded to the idea that a protective tariff will be of the utmost benefit to them, and prevent rivals from underselling them in their own markets, it does not matter whether Republican or Democrat rules at the White House, a demand will be made on the Administration for the placing of a high duty on foreign fish. The American fishermen do not uphold competition on an equitable basis, nor do they seek it. They see in it the ruination of their fishing industries in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, or at least they believe that disaster will follow if their interests are not protected. The consumer is not considered, nor if the fishing classes get their way will he be allowed to purchase cheap fish. The fisherman in insisting upon protection against outside competition has no consideration whatever for the consumer, who is in the majority, but who apparently does not count, and has no privilege whatever in making an equal demand—and with more force—that he is entitled to the cheapest and best items of fish, as well as other foods. Yet to look for his own rights is a matter entirely for the consumer, but it does not appear that he has yet made any protest against the action of the United States Fish Dealers' Association which requested the imposition of an extra duty on foreign fish coming into United States ports for home consumption.

There appears to have been a diversity of opinion amongst the fish representatives who went to Washington some time ago, as to whether or not salt and pickled herring should be included in the extra tariff category, and also as to whether the duty should be increased on other varieties of fish. The sum of the tariff rates asked for by the protectionists was two cents per pound on pickled herring, three cents on salt codfish and thirty per cent ad valorem on salmon. The rate on herring was requested by Capt. A. W. Thomas, Vice-President of the Franklin Packing Company, of Port Ashton, Alaska, and was based on the premise that the growing herring industry of Alaska had to be fostered and encouraged as well as protected against the competition of Scandinavian, Dutch and British fish. During the war Alaska had practically a monopoly of the Western United States herring trade, but with the signing of the armistice the North Sea Fisheries were resumed, and because of the competition of these the Alaska herring fishery fell away from 105,000 barrels in 1913 to a pack of but 30,000 barrels in 1919. The figures for 1920 are not yet available. The contention of the Alaskan packers is that foreign herring can be sold at a less rate in United States than the home product. Eastern dealers expressed themselves as against any such proposed duty as Mr. Thomas had suggested. Their argument was that the United States-Alaskan fisheries can not supply the demand, the packing done in Alaska and on Cape Cod forming only a small percentage of the requirements. Newfoundland is the source from which the great supply of herring for U. S. markets is drawn, and a duty of two cents per pound on pickled herring, would mean four dollars per barrel for ordinary packages and more for Scotch cure, a rate at once prohibitive and discriminative. At present salt and pickled herring are on the free list of the United States tariff, and as the American fisheries cannot supply the demand, but must purchase from Newfoundland, Scotland or Norway, New York dealers are not too anxious to have the tariff on these fish raised. Newfoundland is interested as well, and with practically a monopoly of the herring production of the North American continent, it will be wise to watch closely any movement that may take shape in the form of the erection of a tariff wall against this industry by the United States and adopt measures to combat it.

From the Fleet.

The following messages were received from the fleet on Saturday night and subsequently:
(Saturday, March 19th.)
To Bowring Bros.
Viking—Crew panned 500 to-day; on board and stowed down 3,000; on ice; 6,000; blowing a gale from S.W.
Eagle—Heavy storm from N.E. last night; ship drove considerably to S.W.; little progress north this afternoon; heavy sheet ice.
Terra Nova—Position unchanged; blowing heavy gale from N.E.; ship jammed.
To Job Bros.
Neptune—Very stormy to-day; strong north breeze changing to N.W.; could do nothing until storm was over; ice conditions same as last night.
To Reid Co.
Safons—Heavy storm from N.E. with snow from midnight to 4 p.m.; made about three miles; ice broken but too tight to get through; all ships in sight.
(Sunday Night.)
To Bowring Bros.
Viking—Now in good patch; snowing at intervals and blowing a gale from south; everything working well; all well.
Eagle—Position 22 miles S.E. of Funks; made good progress to-day; conditions unchanged.
Terra Nova—Made about 25 miles N. by E.; ice in heavy sheets and unbroken; good sign of old seals; position 17 miles east of Funks.
Ranger—Making good progress north through heavy ice; all ships in company except Terra Nova and Neptune.
To Job Bros.
Neptune—Made good progress to-day; saw good many bedlamer harp. Position upon 20 miles E. by N. of Funks; other ships 20 miles south; all well.

Honesty Rewarded.

A delighted newsboy to-day was Thomas Woods, who some time ago restored a parcel of jewellery to Mr. J. Noah, when as a reward for his good service in restoring the valuables Mr. Noah, presented him with a suit of clothes, having personally brought the parcel to the Telegram office in the hope of being able to meet the boy and hand him the clothing direct. The young chap not being on hand at the time, was later called up by the editor and given the testimonial to his honesty left by Mr. Noah, whose action in thus recognizing Woods is distinctly laudable and highly appreciated.

Barbara Barr Gone to Bottom.

Yesterday Mr. T. H. Carter received a message stating that the schooner Barbara Barr, which for some time had been caught in the ice in St. Mary's Bay, had gone to bottom, and that her crew had reached St. Joseph's in safety. The Barbara Barr was on her way from Brazil in sand ballast.

Another Marine Disaster.

CREW OF LOST TUG "STADIUM" REACH ST. PIERRE.

S.S. Stadium, the new tug recently purchased by Messrs. Fred. H. Ellis & Co., went ashore at Miquelon during Friday night's storm and is now a total wreck. The following message received by Supt. Saunders of the Anglo Co. from St. Pierre gave news of the disaster:—"Stadium stranded last night; crew saved and landed. Tug St. Pierre going to Miquelon tomorrow morning, weather permitting. Will report when she returns tomorrow night.—(Sgd.) WHITE." Last night the following was received from St. Pierre:—"Captain and crew of Stadium are here.—(Sgd.) WHITE." Messages were also received by F. H. Ellis & Co. telling of the ship's loss but giving no particulars. The Stadium was bought at St. John, N.B., last month by Mr. F. H. Ellis, for use as an ocean going tug, and after undergoing repairs at Halifax, she left for this port, via Louisburg. It is believed she left the latter port on Thursday last, and being caught in the N. E. gale of Friday night, was running for shelter when disaster overtook her. The Stadium was 118 tons gross, and well equipped for the work she was intended for, and the loss to the owners, when starting on their new venture, is a severe one. Amongst the passengers on the tug was Mr. F. H. Ellis, manager of the Company, who has, during the past six weeks, been at Halifax, N.S., and St. John, N.B., in connection with the purchase of the ill fated tug. A smaller vessel than the Stadium, S.S. Hero, was also purchased by Mr. Ellis while he was in Canada and it is expected, it will leave shortly for this port from Halifax.

Holy Week Service.

At last Mass yesterday at the Cathedral it was announced that Office of Tenebrae would be sung at the Cathedral on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights at 7.30. On the morning of Holy Thursday the services will be as usual and on Good Friday Mass of the Pre-Sanctified will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Stations of the Cross will be held at 3 p.m. Good Friday.

Fish Carrier Abandoned.

Yesterday the Minister of Shipping, Mr. Cave, received the following wireless message from the United States steamship Triumph: "The British schooner Roberta Ray, of St. John's, abandoned and set on fire in latitude 43° 44' N., longitude 48° 11' W at noon March 19th. Crew taken off by S.S. 'Triumph.' The Roberta Ray is owned by Messrs. S. Harris Ltd., Grand Bank and left that port three weeks ago for Gibraltar port orders, with 4992 qts. of codfish shipped by her owners."

Naval Reserve Prize Money.

Dear Sir—Again I have to request space in your columns for the publication of a letter dealing with the question of Naval Reserve prize money. On Wednesday night last, March 16th, a meeting was held by Reservists, and a Committee appointed to wait on the Prime Minister for the purpose of discussing with him, the matter of Naval Prize Money. On the following Friday (18th) this Committee attended the Hon. R. A. Squires and talked over the subject for one hour, and at the expiration of that time, the members of the Committee were obliged to retire, having obtained about as much information as they had on entering the presence. All questions put to the Premier were answered in a very roundabout way, ending up with the statement that it is owing to a lack of foresight on the part of the late Government in not having arranged to pay out the Naval Prize Money and Imperial War Service Gratuity separately, and then making up the difference of $420.00. Well, perhaps it was, but then I wonder who is to blame for the false promises made in the manifesto of the present Prime Minister in the fall of 1915, in which he said, "I propose further that the soldier lads and the Navy lads, the record of whose deeds is as good as the record of any body of men in Great Britain or in the British Colonies, shall be placed upon the same basis as the soldiers and sailors of the neighbouring dominion."

We know for a fact that the Canadian R.N.R.'s have been paid Prize Money in addition to their War Service Gratuity, and all that we want, all that we ask is for Mr. Squires to act up to the letter of his manifesto and place us on the same status as the returned men of Canada. Thanking you for your courtesy, Mr. Editor.

Yours truly,
J. RODGERS,
ex-Skipper R.N.R.

Hockey Notes.

The game between the ex-pupils of St. Bon's and Bishop Field Colleges takes place in the Prince's Rink tonight at 7.30 sharp.

The St. Bon's team has been strengthened considerably by the addition of Tobin, Clouston and Canning.

The Fieldian team will not be altered.

The line-up is:—

| ST. BON'S | Goal | FIELDIANS |
|-----------|---|-----------|
| A. Gibbs | | Hunt |
| Tobin | | Defence |
| Muir | | Talk |
| Murphy | | Rendell |
| Canning | | Payn |
| | Right | |
| | Left | |
| | Winter | |
| | Spares—Fieldians, Rendell, Alderdice; St. Bon's, Gibbs, Clouston. | |

Judging by the above line-up this game should prove the most exciting contest of the season.

In a most exciting game of hockey the Reds at last succeeded in vanquishing the Blues on Saturday night in the Prince's Rink, the final score being 2 goals to 0. There was not a slow moment in the game, and we most humbly apologize to the players for our terrible mistake about the off-side rule. It has not been abolished after all.

The Methodist College girls will play the Mercy Convent girls at Mount Cashel to-day.

The C.L.B. Cadets Old Comrades will play the N.C.O.'s of the same corps at 10.30 p.m. in the Prince's Rink tonight. Both teams include some quite good players, including one or two League men.

George St. A.B.C. Officers Elected.

Yesterday the George Street Adult Bible Class held its annual meeting, and after the hearing of the Lesson and reports of the past year, the election of officers for the ensuing year took place and resulted as follows: Teacher, Mr. C. P. Ayre, re-elected; Asst. Teacher, Mr. I. C. Morris, re-elected; President, Mr. J. M. Barbour; Vice-Pres., Mr. H. J. Russell; Secretary, Mr. John H. Fowler, re-elected; Treasurer, Mr. Geo. Hunter, re-elected; Organist, Mr. C. R. Peat, re-elected; Librarian, Mr. Max Sinclair; Executive Committee, C. F. Scott, Ches. Peat, N. Halfyard, E. Hunter, W. Cave, Reg. Nicholle. The report of the Secretary showed a great increase in attendance and there are now 285 members on the roll. The Class is also in good financial standing and this year promises to be a far better one than last. The meeting closed with the Benediction at 4.50 p.m.

How a Bread Exhibition is Conducted.

To determine just what is good bread in the fullest sense of the term, and just what is not, is by no means the simple task that it appears, particularly when there are on exhibition anywhere from 100 to 1000 loaves, but in view of the forthcoming competition to be held at Carbonear next month it may be of interest to our readers to know the modus operandi. When the loaves are received at destination they are immediately taken charge of, the name and address of the sender removed from them and carefully recorded, and then a number is assigned to each loaf. Thus it is that when the judges enter the room where the bread is displayed all that they see before them is a huge array of loaves each bearing a number. This at once removes all question of partisanship in their decisions. After carefully examining each individual loaf, the judges select the twenty or thirty loaves that show an apparent superiority over the others. They are then cut and the texture carefully examined, but above all particular care is given to the bread which possesses the greatest degree of nourishment.

The first competition for years in Newfoundland will be held at Carbonear on April 7th, for which entries are invited from all over the country. There is no entrance fee charged, and the only stipulation in the competition is that the loaf must be baked from "Windsor Patent" flour. Three prizes amounting to thirty five dollars will be awarded the successful competitors.

For the benefit of those who will patronize the many dances during Easter, BISHOP'S have decided to offer for one week all their gorgeous Evening Dresses at Half Price. There are some beauties now to be had for as low as Twenty-Five Dollars. See the display in our windows, all prices marked in plain figures. In addition to this there is a special discount of Fifteen per cent off all Evening Dress, nets, silks and Evening Dress trimmings for the same period.

Police Court.

Larceny Case Postponed.—A man charged with the larceny of goods to the value of over $2,000, from the Furness, Withy Pier, was remanded for eight days.

Receiving Stolen Property.—In the much postponed case of a man charged with receiving some harness knowing it to be stolen property, Mr. Hatley, for the accused asked for a dismissal on the grounds that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction. He put the defendant in the witness box; and was cross-examined by the Inspector General. Defendant was fined $5.00 or 14 days and costs.

A Tub of Fat.—A man charged with the larceny of a tub of fat from a member of the crew of s.s. Rosalind, was fined $10.00 or 30 days, as it was his first offence.

Obituary.

On the 19th, three passed away, fortified by the rites of the Holy Roman Catholic Church, Ellen P. Fitzgerald, in the 54th year of her age. Portia Off Rocks.

COMING TO ST. JOHN'S.
The Minister of Shipping received a message this morning, stating that S. S. Portia had refloated at high tide after her passengers and freight had been transferred. The S.S. Daisy, which reached the stranded steamer at 9 o'clock last night. In the meantime the Senef had been on the scene, and had made several futile attempts to tow Portia off. The latest messages from Capt. Connors states that the ship is not damaged much. She has been ordered on here. A portion of the freight has been landed, and presumably passengers will be taken to destinations by Senef and Daisy.

"Plane "Jammed" in Snow.

There has been no news received to-day from the sealing fleet. The airplane for locating the seals did not get away yet, owing to a heavy snowfall on Saturday. Reports from Botwood yesterday, at noon stated that 18 inches of snow had fallen there.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.

The King vs. Nolan for Murder.

BEFORE FULL BENCH.

The trial of William John Nolan, indicted on the charge of having murdered his daughter, Belle, aged 9 years at Avondale in January last opened today in the Supreme Court before the full bench and a special jury which consisted of the following:—W. E. Bearn, Donald Butler, Elijah Sedmers, Wm. Shirran, Fred Butler, John T. Kelly, Michael Organ, J. O'Keefe, Chas. Hall, S. J. Tucker, Robert Hennessey, Robert Morgan.

The prisoner is a tall, heavily built man with black hair and a bushy red mustache. He is 50 years of age and is a farmer resident at Avondale. Mr. J. G. Higgins, B.A., is representing him whilst Hon. W. R. Warren, K.C., the Attorney General, and P. F. Summers, K.C., Deputy Minister of Justice, appeared for the Crown. Warren, K.C. opened the trial with his address to the jury, in which he gave a summary of the evidence of Nolan's guilt to his daughter which ultimately resulted in her death. Nolan was six years ago and in January last he was living in Avondale with three of his children. Mary aged 13, Gregory aged 11, and Belle aged 9 years. It was the duty, said counsel, of Nolan to provide for the child and he wickedly neglected to do so and death ensued, he may be convicted of murder. If the child were ill, he had to provide proper medical attendance. In August last Nolan commenced the attacks on Belle which culminated in her death in January. Nolan accused her of stealing money and punished her and on occasions he actually tortured her in such a manner as to mutilate her and he did it because he did not want her. In August he accused the child of stealing $10.00 from him and after beating her with a rope he took off all her clothes, put a rope around her waist and suspending her from a beam, threw cold water on her. He repeated this cold water torture on various occasions. A few days before Christmas the girl broke a cup. She had no boots or stockings on and it was very cold but he put her outside the house till she ran away to a Mrs. Prendergast who put a pair of her own boots on Belle and brought her back to Nolan. Nolan burnt the boots and after tying a rope around the child's waist, took her to a brook and threw three buckets full of water over her. In the house he threw more water over her and kept her in her wet dress all night, refusing to allow her to go to bed. In the morning her dress was frozen stiff. On or about January 5th Nolan accused Belle of stealing 50 cents and told her if it were not put back before he returned from the woods he would kill her. It was in the house, Belle then ran away towards the cemetery, losing her boots and stockings on the way. Nolan followed her and upon catching her, took her by the hair and kicked her in front of him all the way down the road, the child being unable to pick herself up and having to scramble in

Sturdy Simplicity

Dunham Traps are made with extreme care and accuracy. The result is sturdy simplicity. Nothing could be more simple than the two-piece Dunham Trap; and judging from service records of those in use since 1903, Dunham sturdiness is exceptional.

The Dunham Radiator Trap maintains a radiator at its maximum heating efficiency by permitting the passage of all air and water from the radiator, and holding all steam within the radiator until it gives up its heat.

Starving Authors.

The great Dr. Johnson is credited with the assertion that no man who was not a fool ever wrote except for money.

Yet, if this were to be accepted as true some of the greatest of contemporary men of letters in Europe should now be set down as fools. For while they continue to write they do not get any money. They cannot even get their works published, owing to the extortionate price of paper. Some of the best known, indeed, among them are literally starving.

Thus, Paul Fort, perhaps the foremost French writer of the present day, has recently appealed to the Paris Government for relief, declaring that he is reduced to living with his aged parents, his wife and his three children, in a single unheated attic room, without sufficient money to buy food.

In Germany Hugo von Hofmannstahl who wrote all the libretti of the Richard Strauss operas, has been begging in the streets of Berlin for something to eat, while in England Sir John W. Forster, who has just published the ninth and tenth volumes of his wonderful "History" of the British Army, writes to the newspapers to point out that, despite his privileged position, his well established position as a most gifted writer and his unique advantages of access to every kind of official documents in his literary work, his remuneration therefore does not amount to more than $4 a week; whereas the printers, the paper makers, the ink makers, etc., that is to say, the mechanic and artisan class of the literary profession and of the publishing industry, can command as much as $50 and $60 a week.

Indeed, John Forster, who holds the Chesney gold medal and English and foreign Orders of Knighthood, granted in recognition of his literary achievements, and who has a number of most valuable historical works and also some clever novels to his credit, declares that he would have been obliged to give up literature long ago had it not been for the kindness and also the enlightenment of the late King, in bestowing upon him the appointment of Librarian of Windsor Castle, and of Buckingham Palace, and of Keeper of the Royal Archives, an official residence in Windsor Castle, in the form of apartments in the Norman gateway of that historic pile.

Sir John Forster is a younger brother of the Earl of Portescue and A.D.C. of the King. Another brother, Capt. Sir Seymour Forster of the Royal Navy, is one of the equestries of King George besides being the latter's Sergeant-at-Arms in attendance in the House of Lords, while Lady Forster, the wife of the Earl and the daughter of Lord Harlech, is a favourite lady-in-waiting to Queen Mary.

The Forster family, which have always been renowned for its good looks, was founded by Richard le Fort, a Norman knight who was cup bearer to William the Conqueror and who had three horses killed under him at the Battle of Hastings.

Indeed, so great was his valor in that battle and so brave was his defence of the Duke of Normandy that he was thereafter known as "Richard le Fort Escus," or, "Richard of the Strong Shield." His son, Sir Adam, known as Sir Adam Forster, obtained, according to Domesday Book, a grant from the Crown, of Winston, in Devonshire, with which country the Forsters have ever since been identified.

front of him. As a result of the extreme cold her feet were badly frost-bitten when she reached home. Nolan then took a rope folded three times and beat her although she had on only a thin cotton dress and no underclothing. She couldn't stand up and he beat her around the floor. Next he took off her dress and beat her again and not satisfied yet he threw her out in a bank of snow; she having nothing on. He later took the child back, a neighbour having heard her crying, and Nolan subsequently dipping her feet in cold water put it on her before going to bed. Her elder sister took off the dress and put on a dry shirt but Nolan removed this and lashed the unfortunate child again, and made her stand up in the doorway. In the morning the child was petrified, the soles of her feet being black. Although a doctor lived within half a mile of him Nolan got in a Mrs. Prendergast to attend to the child. She advised getting a doctor but Nolan refused, so she applied hot poultices. As a result the soles of her feet came off with the bandages. Even when the child was dying Nolan refused to get a doctor and on January 17th she died, although her life could have been saved if a doctor had been called in time. She was buried next day but the facts came to light the body was exhumed, and examined at Avondale by Dr. Tait and at St. John's by Drs. Tait and Fallon. These are the facts which the Crown intends to prove. Cases of this sort are not unknown, concluded counsel, and parents have been convicted under similar circumstances, but not so badly as in this case.

The first witness to be called was H. J. DUBER, examined by Warren, K.C., he said he is Crown Lands Surveyor. He was sent to Avondale to make a plan of Nolan's house and the surroundings. He was cross examined by J. G. Higgins, B.A.

CONSTABLE DEYNE was next called, examined by Warren, K.C., he said he is the Police Constable at Avondale. He knew the prisoner and had had to serve a summons on him for assault on his (Nolan's) elder daughter Mary. He was present at the port mortem. Higgins, B.A. cross examined. Witness then became weak and had to be assisted out of court.

The proceedings were then adjourned until 2.30 p.m. when the evidence of Mary Nolan will be taken.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

SUMMER WEATHER AT BOSTON.
 BOSTON, March 20.
 A maximum temperature of seventy-seven degrees made this the warmest March day, with one exception, in the history of the local weather bureau.

ITALIAN ELECTIONS.
 LONDON, March 20.
 The Milan correspondent of the London Times is reliably informed that Premier Giolitti has definitely decided to dissolve the Italian parliament. Elections are likely to be held the last week in May.

SOVIET IN GEORGIA.
 BATHUM, Georgia, March 20.
 Turks who recently occupied Batum have left and a Soviet Georgian Government has been established. Russian and Georgian ships in the harbor have been declared state property. Turks are shelling Batum, doing damage to residences.

VALUABLE RECORDS DESTROYED.
 MINEOLA, N.Y., March 20.
 A fire of unknown origin last night destroyed the three buildings of the Medical Research Laboratory of the United States Air Force at Mitchell Field, causing a loss estimated at about two hundred thousand dollars. Property destroyed include valuable instruments and important records of scientific tests peculiar to aviation. More than fifty patients in nearby hospital wards, one within fifty feet of the flames, were removed. There were no casualties.

GREEKS PREPARING FOR OFFENSIVE.
 PARIS, March 20.
 Reports are current in diplomatic circles in Paris that Greeks are preparing a great offensive against Turkish Nationalists. The Temps, this evening, prints a Constantinople despatch saying an offensive on a large scale is imminent.

DOMINION MINES CLOSED.
 SYDNEY, N.S., March 20.
 Cape Breton to-night is in the grip of the worst slump that has hit the Eastern Coal Industry for many years past. Every one of the twenty five mines of the Dominion Coal Co. is idle, and will remain closed until Tuesday, and it is just a question whether many of them will be ordered to resume production then. Not a wheel has turned on the Sydney and Lunenburg railway, a subsidiary of the Dominion Coal Co., since Saturday noon, with the exception of one regular express. The closing of the collieries leaves this usually busy coal road without a pound of extra freight to move. The order to close all Cape Breton collieries of the Dominion Coal Co. follows on the heels of President Wilson's statement on the bad condition of the coal market, and it is feared here that the bottom of the decline has not yet been reached. About ten thousand railroad workers, miners and other classes of labor are affected by the shut down order.

KYLE TO PORTIA'S ASSISTANCE.
 SYDNEY, N.S., March 20.
 A report reached Sydney to-night that the steamer Portia from St. John's, Newfoundland, was ashore at St. Jacques on the South Coast of Newfoundland. Details received locally are meagre, but the ship's position is reported not to be a bad one, and there is hope of getting her off. It is reported that the Kyle left Port aux Basques to go to her assistance this afternoon. George Crowell of this city, who has a wireless outfit at his home on Bentinck Street, picked up a message to-day which told of the Portia's predicament. Another flash told him that the Kyle was leaving immediately to go to her aid, and expected to arrive as soon as she could get through ice, which is reported very heavy off South Coast.

CHAMBERLAIN WILL ACCEPT.
 LONDON, March 20.
 Political speculation as to the result of Bonar Law's retirement has not abated, but the only thing that seems certain is that Austen Chamberlain will be elected to the leadership of the Unionist Party and Commons at to-morrow's Carlton Club meeting of Unionist members of the House. Chamberlain has already informed Unionist whips that he is prepared to accept the leadership, providing the election is unanimous. This insistence of unanimity, possibly has its motive in the remembrance that, nearly a decade ago, both Chamberlain and Walter Hume Long, having equal claims to the leadership on Bonar's retirement, felt impelled to stand aside and allow Bonar Law to be elected.

STORM'S DAMAGE ONTARIO.
 TORONTO, March 20.
 Tornadoes, severe hail storms and heavy rain visited several sections of Ontario on Saturday, and caused a great deal of damage, besides taking toll of at least one life, and probably more. Hugh John McArthur, a farmer near Clemis, was killed by the crushing of his barn by a tornado, and his brother-in-law, Wm. Ferris, of the same village, who was with McArthur at the time was seriously injured. Probably Port Hope suffered most in a material sense from Saturday's rain-storm, as the estimated loss there is over a hundred thousand dollars and the Midland railway was damaged so Arrested on Suspicion.

FOR STEALING BALES OF CLOTH. A young man named Whelan was arrested by Head Constable Byrne and Detective Constable Simmonds, on Saturday night on a charge of having stolen goods to the value of $1000.00 from the Furness Wharf. Some time ago ten rolls of cloth, contained in 4 bales, were landed at the Furness Wharf pier and when the owner took delivery he discovered that eight of the rolls were missing. The matter was immediately reported to the police and after some little investigation sufficient evidence was obtained to warrant the arrest of Whelan, who is a casual labourer on the Furness Co. premises.

St. Patrick's Day at Holyrood.

Yesterday, the Feast of Ireland's Apostle, was commemorated here with more than usual eclat. The members of the Star of the Sea Society mustering record numbers convened at their hall at 9 a.m. and lining up in procession paraded to Holy Cross Church, where divine service was celebrated and a discourse on the abiding effects and lasting results of St. Patrick's work was given by their spiritual director, Rev. W. P. Finn. On this occasion the new organ lately purchased, was used for the first time. Under the finished touch of Miss Flynn, organist, one could easily understand that he was listening to a first-class instrument. Nor was the singing out of keeping with the organ. Indeed the members of the choir acquitted themselves admirably. After Mass, the Society re-formed its ranks and in due course drew up before the Presbytery, when Mr. W. P. Walsh, Vice-President, the President, Mr. J. J. Veitch, being away—presented their best respects to Father Finn, and then delivered one of the finest speeches ever heard on such an occasion. Only a verbatim report could do justice to its splendid ideas, and hearing it was necessary to appreciate its delivery. Father Finn in reply, recalled the great occasion celebrated in Tara seven years ago, when the people of the Old Country were enjoying in anticipation their fondest wishes, but war supervening set aside for the nonce their cherished expectations. The soul of a nation like that of an individual is immortal, and if now the glint merely is on the horizon, soon indeed will the sunburst flash forth and Irishmen the world over will renew their ardour in the warmth of its rays. He also expressed his pleasure in the Association having one of its oldest and most interested members honoured by the district. Whilst the Society is absolutely non-partisan in politics it must not forego the pleasure of showing its pride in a man of the standing and worth of Capt. John Lewis. Cheers were given for the King, Father Finn and Mr. W. P. Walsh. The procession then wended its way to the Hall when after some little exchange of compliments, it disbanded.
In the evening an entertainment was given at the Hall—an annual affair. Miss Flynn and her talented troupe staged an operetta, the rendition of which was precise, pleasing and profitable. The different members performed their several roles skilfully and gracefully. The piece was a rather heavy one, but the cast was there with the goods.—COR.

Fifty Years Ago.

SOME SEALING INCIDENTS.

Fifty years ago (1871) to-day, the S.S. Lion, Capt. Alex Graham arrived from the ice-fields, with 21,593 seals. The Lion struck the seals on the 13th March, 70 miles N.E. of the Funks. When they arrived at the main patch, the first object that met their gaze was the well-known brigantine, "Havelock," Capt. St. John, who was in the "middle of 'em," with a full load killed. Capt. St. John was short of nails to fix up bulk-heads, and they were supplied by Capt. Graham. The S.S. Eagle, Capt. William Jackman, was also in the same patch and secured a load. The Walrus, Capt. Muldowney, also had a full load. The Lion was frozen up for a few days, after having her seals on board, and left plenty behind her. Mr. Thomas Winter (T. & M. Winter) was out in the Lion on that trip, and it must be a consolation to our genial friend that during his first experience to the frozen pans that he proved himself—no linker. It is remarkable how the old shippers in the sailing vessels managed to get down to the far north in those days. One year, about 1870, the famous Capt. James Murphy was in the S.S. Mastiff, and he was certain he was further north than any steamer or schooner, but in early morning he saw a brig coming towards him with every stitch of canvas on her, and to his surprise found it was the Mountaineer, Capt. Martin Smart. On another occasion, Capt. Alex Graham, spoke skipper Jim Wilcox in the "Pearl" down at Belleisle. "How did you get down here," remarked Capt. Graham? "We walked here," replied skipper Jim. And so they did in a way, because the crew on the rams before the bows, shoved the ice away from the ship as they proceeded north. Truly they were giants in those days. This goes to show that practical experience, and keen observation can win over science every time. Capt. St. John's brigantine, "Havelock," one of the most fortunate vessels of our fleet, was afterwards practically rebuilt in Heart's Content in the seventies, and named the "New Havelock," and good fortune followed her almost to the end of her career.

New Law Firm.

HIGGINS, HUNT AND EMERSON. As announced in our advertising columns to-day, a new law firm has been formed to carry on the business of Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries. This new firm will be styled, Higgins, Hunt and Emerson, than which no names are better known in law circles in this country. Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., the senior partner, is one of the outstanding figures in the public and professional life of the colony. He has been President of the Nfld. Football League, President of the Hockey League, was for some years Speaker of the House of Assembly and is one of the rising lawyers of the country. Mr. C. E. Hunt was formerly in partnership with Mr. Morrison and on the dissolution of that firm, entered into partnership with Mr. Higgins. Although not in public life, none of the younger men at the bar is better known, and none more deservedly popular. Mr. Hunt is maintaining the old traditions of the Bar, a good lawyer, a clever writer and a witty speaker. Mr. Fred Emerson brings to the new partnership the hereditary legal ability and efficiency of the Emerson family. He studied law in the office of J. P. Blackwood and till recently practiced as a solicitor on his own account. The firm has ability, energy and youth on its side and should make its mark in the legal history of this colony, and that this will be so is the sincere hope of the Evening Telegram.

Obituary.

MARY BULGER.

On Saturday last, March 12th, there passed to the Great Beyond the soul of Mary Bulger, relict of the late Philip Bulger, and sister of Sergeant Kent of Placentia, at the age of 74 years, after an illness of about an hours duration, as only a short time previous she had been attending to her daily duties. Deceased was a kind and good neighbour, and made hosts of friends, who will greatly regret her passing, and miss for many a day her kind word of good cheer and encouragement, and ever sunny smile. Left to mourn are, one daughter, Mrs. Leonard, one grandson, four brothers, one sister, and other relatives, to all of whom the deep sympathy of the entire community will go out; with a heartfelt prayer that He who in His Infinite Wisdom has seen fit to send this cross, will send with it grace and strength to bear it cheerfully for His sake, and that in His mercy and love will grant eternal rest to the soul of the late Mary Bulger. Interment took place from her late residence, 89 Carter's Hill, to Belvedere Cemetery, on Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended.
"Oh Jesus unto her request,
In pity let Thy heart incline;
And grant her Lord eternal rest,
Let light for ever on her shine."

Stolen Property Returned.

On Saturday last Mr. J. Noah of New Gower Street received by mail a watch, the only missing article of a quantity of goods stolen from his store some 3 weeks ago. The other articles consisting of 3 dozen rings and one dozen watches, being picked up by a Telegram newsboy a couple of weeks ago, and returned to the police. The handwriting on the note accompanying the returned "ticker," was so disguised that the police will have difficulty in locating the thief from such a meagre clue.

Harbor Main Pleased By Bay de Verde.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir—Please allow me space in your paper to make a few remarks. Glad to hear of the victory in Harbor Main. No doubt if the time was come other districts would fall in line, especially Bay de Verde district which is suffering more this year than ever before, owing to "Regulations." Spring is approaching and what are we going to do this summer with no supplies being given? People are talking of leaving to go to another country, but where? To the poor house most likely if there is room. Thanking you for space.

MORE ROADS TO HAPPINESS.

Someone was a pitying friend of mine because she could so seldom go to the movies on account of her three small children. "Yes," she said, "I do miss the movies. Movies are fascinating, but then so are the children. You don't know what a lot of fun I get out of watching those children, and seeing their little minds and bodies developing."

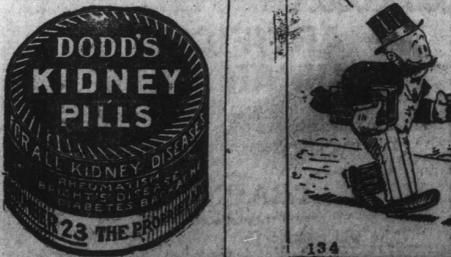

"Now, there's the baby. He has just begun to creep and it was so interesting to watch him from the time when he couldn't move his body an inch one way or another, through the time when he could just drag himself along a few inches. I wanted to see just how he would do it. My first baby crept on his hands and knees, and Ruth sat on the floor and hunched, but Junior gets up on his toes and his hands and goes along something like a kangaroo. I simply love to watch him."

As Thrilling as the Final Close-Up.
"And then to see him overcoming obstacles—it's a regular drama. The first time he found a chair in his path he didn't know what to do but just sat and cried. But the next time he began to work around it and from that he learned his first lesson in steering. And this morning I had the greatest fun when I was sitting sewing, watching him trying to get through a door that was ajar just a few inches. First he gave it a push that only shut it closer. After he had thought that over for a few minutes, he took hold of the door and pulled it towards him, but he was so clumsy it that that wouldn't let him through and he was dreadfully upset. Then he seemed to think it over and finally he did it—he backed off just far enough and then he pulled that door open and went through."

She Was Holding Her Breath.
"You'll laugh, but I was just holding my breath towards the last when I wasn't sure whether he was going to get the idea or not. I was just as excited as I am at the movies."
"Of course I don't claim it's all fun. Very far from it. There's an awful lot of plain grudging, but there's a lot of fun, too, if you are really interested in children. That's my good fortune—that I am."

I think she was very modest to call it just her good fortune, didn't you?
Somehow that conversation made me think of a passage from a recent magazine article by Mr. Edison.

Do You Get All the Joy You Can?
"One great trouble with the world to-day," says the great inventor, "is that people fail to enjoy the satisfaction and happiness which come from doing a job, no matter what it is, absolutely in the best way within Victory!

The twelfth of March it was the day in nineteen twenty one, when money flew from hand and mother told her son to mark right up for Cashin all in the great campaign. Then hoist the flag of liberty in good old Harbour Main.

Be careful in the booth room, don't mark your ballot wrong. Nor take a bribe from any one though the lure of gold is strong. That will do no mother let this not disturb your mind. That's not the sort of mettle that father left behind."

Remember what I told you or you may come to grief. For poor old Terra Nova is heading for the reef. Her crew they soon shall mutiny, she's sinking by degrees. She wants the sons of Harbour Main to buoy her on the seas.

"I know about that mother dear, with knowledge I am blessed. Six months ago I saw her fly the signal of distress. This is no hidden secret only known to me and you. But soon she'll be commanded by Cashin and his crew."

What ship can brave a storm please come and tell me now. With one captain on her quarter and another in her bow. Whilst the mate he stands between them, lips trembling with fear. While each gave different orders for the course they had to steer.

We dearly love our country up here in Harbour Main. (We fought and bled in Europe our freedom for to gain.) We're friendly with our neighbour, and we throw not sticks or stones. Yet we threw a shower of ballots which elected Lewis and Jones.

We are a class of people up here not easily bluffed. We may take little medicine and know when we've had enough. So here's good luck to Harbour Main and every hardy son. So well may they hold up their heads for the noble part they've done. WM. JOSEPH O'BRIEN. Topsail.

Fox gloves have nothing to do with foxes, but are the gloves worn by the fays or "folk," and are the little "folks" (fairies), gloves. Another derivation, not nearly so poetical, but probably truer, is that the word springs from "fosco" red.

German silver is neither silver nor German, but is a metallic mixture which has been used in China for an unknown length of time. Irish stew was unknown in Ireland until introduced there in very modern days.

Jerusalem artichokes have nothing to do with Jerusalem, but derive their name from their resemblance to "girasole," a sunflower, which they resemble.

Salad oil was not originally meant for salads but for salades, that is, helnets.

Toad sax has nothing to do with toads, but is "tod" sax; that is to say sax with toad or clusters.

Turkeys came not from Turkey but from North America, and reached Europe by way of India and Spain.

Wormwood has nothing to do with either worms or wood, but is derived from the Saxon "wer-mod," meaning man-inspiring, being a strong tonic.

Wolf's bane is a curious corruption. The Greeks named it white hane to distinguish it from the blue acornite. The Greek word for white is "leukos," but by a blunder the "e" was dropped and the word became "lukos," which is Greek for wolf.

Obituary.

EUSEBIUS (FRANK) LEWIS.

There passed peacefully away at his late residence, Duckworth Street, a well-known citizen in the person of Eusebius Lewis, Frank, as he was familiarly called, was one of the old school, now alas, becoming very few. Born in St. John's in 1844, son of the late William Lewis, Master Pilot, he at the early age of fourteen, took up the occupation of seaman, which calling he pursued for upwards of twenty years, sailing to practically every part of the world, and many an hour the writer spent in his company whilst he related some of the wonderful experiences of his travels. Retiring from the sea some forty-three years ago he accepted an appointment in H. M. Customs, which position he filled until his retirement through ill-health twelve years ago.

Left to mourn are his widow, formerly Miss Annie Ebsary, of the Southside, two daughters, Mrs. Robert Cairnes and Mrs. Jas. Brown; also two brothers, Frederick of the Pilot Service, and Richard of H. M. Customs. Interment takes place tomorrow (Tuesday), at 2.30 p.m.

Household Notes.

Fish should be boiled at least twenty minutes.
Stuffed celery is oftentimes served with creamed oysters.
Sprinkle asparagus with paprika after put on toast.
Add 1/2 cupful of chopped nuts to hard sauce. Delicious.

Apple sauce and cinnamon toast are a good, simple dessert.
Turpentine usually removes obstinate spots on waxed floors.
Chopped almonds are an excellent addition to pineapple jam.
When making eclairs, squeeze the butter through a pastry bag.
When making scalloped fish, use stale breadcrumbs, not dried crumbs.
If your toast is too hard to use, dip in cold water and reheat in oven.
Sand and warm water are excellent to clean fruit jars or milk bottles.
Dates are delicious stoned and filled with almond fudge while still soft.
Cream puffs are delicious filled with ice cream and served with sauce.
Breaded fish should be seasoned before cooking as the favoring ingredients must be cooked with it to get the flavor.

Produce and Provisions.

(From Saturday's Trade Review.)

Fish.—The fish exports this week were the lowest for any one week of the year, the total being only 2,597 quintals. The schr. Nellie T. Walcott took 2,223 quintals from Job's to London, and the Sable L. 276 quintals from Harvey's to West Indies. There was none cleared from the Outports. The Opportunity has let in all the cargoes were outside and the Newfoundland stocks there this week went up 15,372 quintals, and consumption the week was 4,572 quintals.

Cod.—The cod market continues dull on both sides of the Atlantic. New York the supplies of Nfld. cod are going at 50 to 55 cents per ton—about $120.00 per ton. The prices for the coming summer is not bright, and it looks as if cod will be around $90 per ton. If there is a big Norwegian crop the price may not reach even these figures.

Liver Oil.—Messrs. D. Haynes & Co. of New York write us this week as follows: The reported large crop from Norway has resulted this week in a weakening in the price of liver oil in New York. Small lots are now quoted there at $1.75 to $1.85 per gallon for Newfoundland, $1.85 to $2.25 for Norwegian, and $1.50 to $1.60 per barrel for New England branded frozen oil. Unbranded is being offered freely at $30 per barrel on the spot.

Wheat.—The market in Chicago continues to show signs of firmness, but we express the opinion that this is only a temporary fluctuation upward, and that the pendulum will swing back to a level of lower prices in the near future. The decline in the price of wheat and feeds will ensure lower prices for the coming spring and summer. The local market is very quiet and only a few hundred barrels of wheat have been imported since last week. The local quotations are $47.00 for No. 1, $46.00 for M. Family, $37.00 for Short Cut, and Fat Back $36.00 and $30.00 for Spare Rib.

Beef.—There has been no change in the price of beef this week. The price of St. John's since last issue has risen to 125 cents only, and is at its lowest point. A rise is expected in April for Spring beef, but not by any means to the extent of previous years. Boston in St. John's quoted at $36.00 per barrel wholesale, Family $35.00 and $30.00 to $31.00. These are very favorable prices for the coming year compared with last year's at $30.00. Low Beef it is expected will prevail all the spring and summer.

Wheat.—Canada has an over-supply of wheat, but the United States is owing to having filled so many of the European orders since New Year. They are now buying largely from Canada and this has stabilized the price there lately. The new wheat will no doubt change the situation in favor of the consumer, provided that the output is normal. There are reports of the "Hessian" and "Rust" from Kansas, and of experience do not take reports seriously. In the St. John's market leading brands are $14.00 and others $13.50 to $13.00 wholesale.

Sugar.—Raw sugars continue firm. Dealers seem to be making a determined and concerted effort to keep prices from slumping, encouraging a more wide-spread demand for their product than any previous year. We therefore look forward to an increase in American White Sugar before the spring has passed, and it would appear that the present is a favorable time to place orders. The control price of 23 1/2 cents and 25 cents retail, will, it is expected, end in June. The Food Board report sales for February ending March 19th, 975 barrels; this remaining, 5,400 barrels.

Butter.—The first cargo of new butter is expected to arrive here the first week of April from Canada. The stocks in St. John's are now down to about 1,150 puncheons which is quite ample for the demand that will prevail till June, when the first of the Westmen will be coming for fishery butter. As the crop is short in Europe there will be no big decline in the price as the quotation for 90 is $1.00 per gallon for Fancy, 90 for Choice.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Now that the Hockey League matches have all been played, I should like to be permitted to make a few comments on Hockey and other matters. I am of the opinion that it is not in the best interest of the game that while the League matches are unfinished there should, for any purpose, be played matches between the League teams. These matches help to detract from the interest in the League games and also affect the receipts. This rule was laid down by the Football League years ago and strictly adhered to. Five-a-side or any other matches, not involving the regular teams, were permitted but no games between the league teams until the fixtures were completed. I think that that is the proper attitude for the Hockey and Baseball Leagues to adopt.

In days gone by there used to be in the Football League Charity matches, and several hundred dollars each year used to be paid to the three Orphanages from the receipts of these matches. I do not know whether anything in that line is now being done. I think that is a much better method of helping charities than the indiscriminate getting up of matches for particular purposes. These arouse jealousy. It may be for a Protestant institution or it may be for a Catholic institution, and then there is a certain amount of resentment. My idea is that the League should distribute its own charity. There would then be no jealousy or misapprehension, one organization or denomination getting ahead of another. If, as in the past, the Football League distributed an equal amount each year to the three Orphanages, the Baseball League contributed to the Dorcas and St. Vincent De Paul Societies, and the Hockey League to the Child Welfare Fund, there would be no discrimination. Each denomination would be fairly treated. That would be as much as the Sports could be reasonably expected to look after.

It would of course be better still if the three Leagues were united as the Newfoundland Amateur Athletic Association and a central committee take charge of the combined receipts. Is this too much to look forward to? I trust not. I hope the day will come when I shall see the energies of the youth of the country organized along proper lines and every movement mean the helping of a cause.

Yours sincerely,
GEO. W. B. AYRE.

THE BEST-LOVED MEN.
It isn't all in getting rich, it isn't all in winning fame, a bigger thing than victory is how you've tried to play the game. Success is keeping faith with men and standing true to what is best. And finding joy in humble things and being fit for every test.

The good man need not come to wealth nor need he rise to world renown. Not often is the richest man the best-loved citizen in town; You'll find he walks in humble ways and modest is the garb he wears. And on his back from day to day life piles a multitude of cares.

His glory is a generous heart, a voice that carries hope and cheer, A willingness to do his work, a wish to be of service here; He asks no favored places from life, nor shirks the hardships in his way. But meets all men with head erect and plays the friend from day to day.

The best-loved man in any town is honest, manly, brave and true. Sharing his life with all who live, doing what work he finds to do; He may not climb the heights of fame nor come to treasure's golden fane. But he is still accounted great in all God asks a man to be.

Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd.
Gentlemen—I have used Minard's Liniment and have found it a good remedy. After the explosion I was pretty well shaken up having quite a number of bruises and cuts but thanks to Minard's Liniment I am my old self again. It healed the sores and bruises and gave me much relief. It is true to its name as the King of Pain, for it stopped the pain almost at once. I first noticed the ad in the Montreal Standard and decided to invest in a bottle, for which I am not sorry, but can say with truth that I am thankful for it having done all it claimed to do, and in my case much more and a satisfied customer is the best ad. one can possibly find. That is my view of it and I think you will agree with me too.
Yours very truly,

Potatoes—P.E.I. Potatoes are now up to $5.50 per barrel in the local market and home-grown $4.00 to $4.20. There is very little of the latter moving into St. John's owing to poor transportation, bad roads and frosty weather. There is, it is believed, good stocks of local potatoes in Conception Bay, and other points this spring, as the demand from Grand Falls, Bishop Falls, and Bell Island was only about half of what it had been each of the past five springs.

Hay—The price of hay is declining still in the Canadian market, but stocks held locally are still over $50.00. The low priced hay quoted here recently is for stocks to arrive, so that there will be no general $50.00 price till these consignments arrive the latter part of this month. The quotation here meantime stands at $54.00 to $56.00 for large lots, and $58.00 for single bales. These prices compared with $80.00 a year ago are a justification for a reduction in the price of milk.

Oats—The Oats market continues to weaken in Canada and the prices here are expected to be lower on the opening of the Gulf navigation. Direct service with Montreal is expected the last half of April when oats from there and P.E.I. will be coming forward in large volume. St. John's prices will meantime continue as quoted in last issue. Canada has more oats on hand at this season than any time at a corresponding date the past five years.

GERALD S. DOTY, Water Street, St. John's, Distributing Agent.

Feed—The price of all Feeds continue to decline in Canada and the United States, but we shall not get the benefit of this till April or May. All grains are coming down, chiefly owing to the fact that the farmers had abnormally large stocks last fall and held up as much as possible all winter in anticipation of better prices in the spring. The result is that the market is heavily overstocked and now all are rushing to unload.

THE BREAD MY DADDY LIKES.

Daddy is evidently not one of those back number lords of creation who believes that woman's place is in the home—and only there. His taste in a wife is an up-to-date woman who will prove herself a real companion. He knows that if she is a slave to her kitchen she can't enjoy the poise or have the interest in world affairs that a little extra leisure would make possible; and so he is pleased to eat MRS.
