ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS

Buy "VICTORY BONDS," the very best ABSOLUTELY SAFE INVESTMENT in the world to-day!

Uncle Sam's "Liberty" Bonds pay only four per cent. Canada's "Victory" Bonds pay FIVE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT, FREE FROM TAX. The Savings Banks only pay you three per cent. A mortgage, with possibly trouble to collect your interest, perhaps six per cent. Why do I say ABSOLUTELY SAFE? When the Dominion of Canada repudiates its Victory Bonds there will be no Savings Banks in Canada, and a Mortgage on a Valley farm will be quite as good as one on a crow's nest. You owe it to the brave fellows "over there" to buy to your maximum limit, and on your part you have gilt-edged security. BUY FULLY REGISTERED VICTORY BONDS! —WALTER SCOTT.

Provincial Forester to Fight Forest Waste

A conference of all Nova Scotians interested in progressive policy of forest protection for the Province is being arranged for the latter part of November and will probably take place at Halifax. The Canadian Forestry Association which has just concluded a series of well-attended public meetings in the province to win public support for the new move, states that the demand for better protection against forest fires and for provincial effort to stop the present rapid deterioration of the timber resources has been remarkably keen during the tour. At the present time, Nova Scotia is the only Canadian province not having an expert forester to direct its forestry policies. As a consequence, the forest fire losses have robbed the province of the bulk of its timber, doubling the cost of such wood products as apple barrels cutting down export trade materially and enhancing the cost of operating almost every line of business in the province. Such public bodies as the Commission of Conservation, the Canadian Forestry Association, the Western Nova Scotia Lumbermen's Association and hundreds of leading citizens have recently brought the situation forcibly to the attention of the Nova Scotia Government, asking that a Provincial Forester be appointed in accordance with legislation brought down by the present Government several years ago.

EXEMPTED FARMERS

Some Confusion Exists as to Necessity For Reporting For Extension

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Confusion has apparently arisen in respect of notices issued to farmers exempted from military service owing to their occupation and farmers who have reported for military duty but are on harvest leave.

On October 2, the military service branch issued a notice stating that men exempted as farmers, whose exemptions are expiring, should exemption to the proper registrar. This notice, it is emphasized, here did not refer to soldiers on farms furlough or harvest leave. It applied only to men who have never reported or been ordered to report for duty. This is the class of men who are allowed, in the event of their leave being extended, to engage in lumbering or other work of value during the winter months.

Some Speed

When the American destroyers arrived at an Irish port the natives were puzzled by the appearance of steel decks which were painted a bright red. So when the first American came ashore, an Irishman made bold to ask, "What makes your deck so red?" "Why, they're red hot from the spec' we made coming over," was the quick reply. The story has become one of the pet yarns of the port.

Increasing Their Rates

The Yarmouth newspapers have been obliged to increase their rates by fifty cents a year. It is impossible that newspapers can do business at the old rates. The increase in the price of paper, metal, ink, the heavy increase in living expenses must of necessity increase the price of all newspapers.

Would Work 19 Years Per Week.

As an illustration of the development of the publishing business, it has been estimated that if Benjamin Franklin should step up and take charge of the "Saturday Evening Post," which he founded in 1728, as it is now, bringing his facilities with him, it would take him nineteen years to print a single weekly edition.

If for the past four years you have enjoyed home comfort while others have been fighting on the battlefield, show now your keen appreciation by buying VICTORY BONDS TO YOUR LIMIT. CANADA MUST HAVE MONEY TO WIN THE WAR. KING COLE TEA. "YOU'LL LIKE THE FLAVOR"

The Value of Shipping

Contracts have been placed in Canada for nearly 100 wooden and steel ships and about 600 motor submarine chasers since the war began. These contracts have been keeping 25000 shipyard men busy. But without the Victory Loans these contracts could not have been placed. The new Victory loans will keep the shipyards going.

To show how shipping values have taken the upward trend in the past four years, the following instance, taken from the Pilot Advocate is a fair sample: "There is a traveler in port at present waiting to go on the slip which it is said could have been bought for $19,000. She was injured somehow and went into Sydney for repairs. The bill amounted to so much that the owners told those who made the repairs to keep the vessel for their work. She then changed hands at $40,000 and later at well over $100,000. She will likely change hands again before she leaves the slip here and it is probable that the figure will be close to $200,000 this time."

Cincinnati Man Discovers Drug That Loosens Corns So They Lift Out

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezons, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers. A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any store which handles drugs but this is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn or toughened callus and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn or callus is shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance, which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

Attempted Train Wrecks.

Since the first of September there have been no less than three attempts to wreck trains running through to Sydney, according to one of the engineers, who is on the night express. Between Sydney Mines and Florence there is rather a long curve and here, on these different occasions, heavy sleepers have been laid across the tracks. Fortunately the engineer has always seen them in time to prevent any serious accident.

SPANISH INFLUENZA RAGES IN CANADA

Thousands of Cases Reported With Many Deaths.

THOSE WHO ARE MOST SUSCEPTIBLE TO IT

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—Gives the Power To Resist This Disease.

The epidemic of Spanish Influenza which played such havoc in Europe, has reached this continent. Thousands of cases of the strange malady have appeared and many deaths are already reported.

Practically every ship which touches our shores from abroad, brings those infected with this disease.

Surgeon-General Blue urges that "the individual take all the precautions he can against contracting the disease by care and personal hygiene".

Spanish Influenza affects most severely elderly persons and others whose powers of resistance are weakened by illness, work or worry.

The really great danger from the disease is not so much in the disease itself, as that it often develops into pneumonia.

What everyone needs now is a general tonic like "Fruit-a-tives". This wonderful fruit medicine is not a germ-killer. It is a body-builder; a strength-maker; a blood-purifier; a power in protecting against the ravages of disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally as nature intended.

Everyone can take ordinary precautions, avoid crowded places, and use "Fruit-a-tives" regularly to insure sound digestion, to keep the bowels and kidneys regular and the whole system in the best possible condition.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

By instructions of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture, a free distribution of superior sorts of grain will be made during the coming winter and spring to Canadian farmers.

The sample for distribution will consist of spring wheat (about 5 lb.), white oats (about 4 lb.), barely (about 5 lb.), and field peas (about 5 lb.). These will be sent out, free, by mail, from the Central Experimental farm, Ottawa, by the Dominion Cerealist, who will furnish the necessary application forms.

Only one sample can be sent to each applicant. As the supply of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply very early.

J. H. GRISDALE, Director Dominion Experimental Farms.

The Armistice

New York, Oct. 24—With the despatch of the president's response to the third German note, we enter a new phase of the discussion. Hitherto the question has been solely one of whether the president would transmit the German application for an armistice. This the president has now consented to do, after a considerable debate.

It is now for our Allies to decide, first whether they will consent at this time to any armistice. They have the right to refuse, just as the president had the right to decline to transmit the German application.

They have the right to impose further preliminary conditions before taking up the question of conditions of an armistice, just as the president demanded certain assurances before he transmitted the application.

But if our Allies are willing to grant an armistice at this time then it is the business of Marshal Foch with the commanders of the British, French, Italian and American armies, to fix the terms of an armistice.

Quiet Times in Digby.

[Friday's Courier]

"Quiet times these!" A friend said the other day. "No place to go for spiritual advice on Sundays, no recreation during the week evenings, no company to come in, even the street lights, with their new shades, are giving no light. Nothing to do but to stay at home, toast your feet on the fender, read your paper, lock up the house and go to bed!"

LETTER FROM ENGLAND

MacLaine Stevenson, Youngest Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stevenson, of Brickton, Wounded and in Hospital.

Patterson Ward, East Suffolk Hospital, Ipswich, England.

DEAR MOTHER.—No doubt you have been looking for a letter from me ever since you got the word about me being wounded, but to tell the truth, I have had to wait for money to buy stamps.

As this is a private hospital we have to pay postage, which we do not have to do in military hospitals, but I believe we are used better here, than in the others. I got a bullet through the right foot (as you have likely been notified) late in the afternoon of September 2nd, (Labor Day) while making a second attempt to take the village Villiers, which is south of the Arras and Cambria road.

During the earlier part of the day, the fighting was fine or at least it was easy. A lance corporal and myself took the machine gun and advanced in front of the company to a sunken road, where Fritz had some machine guns. We were on his flank and had given many of the enemy a start before they were captured in the earlier part of the day.

Then we had the joy of commanding over fifty prisoners, making them strip their equipment and heading them back, while some of the others came forward to take the new position. Guess that is enough of that stuff, so will tell you a bit about the hospital.

Of course, as I have not been out of bed since coming here, I cannot tell anything about the outside, but it seems good enough to be inside between the white sheets and get lots of good grub without the sound of shells to disturb you.

My food is coming quite well, but as I sprained my ankle getting out, the sprain bothers more than the wound.

I sent down to London for some money so will mail this as soon as it comes. All the Canadian boys here write a line to their folks, but I don't write a letter, also this pad and envelopes, which comes in quite useful, as I brought nothing from France.

Will be writing the girls soon, will also write a line to the Red Cross here. When I leave this hospital, I go to Epsom Convalescent hospital and from there I get leave. After sick leave I go back to Bramshot and from there to France again, but let's hope I spend the winter in Blighty. Hope to hear from you soon. Best of love to all.

A Successful Moose Hunt.

[Written for the MONITOR]

Being the first snow storm of the season, Mr. J. McGrath, rose for an early breakfast, heavily clad in a duckback hunting suit and started for moose zone. Such a storm. Put up at Camp Everitt 9 a. m.; made fire, dried off; got early dinner. It pipe, started to hunt moose. When three quarters of a mile from camp, struck a big bull moose and two cow tracks.

As the tracking was good, Mr. McGrath felt quite confident that he could land Mr. Bull. So pussy footing of a mile from camp, struck a big bull moose and two cow tracks.

Like a flash, his trusty 401 Winchester Automatic went to his face, and looking along its trusty barrel, two hundred yards in the under brush. Like a flash, his trusty 401 Winchester Automatic went to his face, and looking along its trusty barrel, two hundred yards in the under brush.

Mr. McGrath made hasty tracks to the front for team and strike the moose's throat, from one of Marble's famous hunting knives, so that his game might freshly bleed. When dressed weighed about five hundred pounds.

Fish are said to be excellent brain food. It's a shame to waste the fish in some cases.

Winter Apples And Their Care

(Experimental Farms Note)

As winter apples are expensive it is important that the buyer and consumer should, when laying in the winter's supply, obtain varieties that will be in best condition successively through the winter.

He should also keep his apples so as to lose as few of them as possible from over ripeness or rotting. As soon as the fruit is received it should be put in the coolest place available without frost.

A temperature from 32 to 35 Fahr. is best. If there is a choice in the house, that with the moister atmosphere, such as a cellar without a furnace, would be the better for the air is too dry for keeping apples well in winter houses.

If the apples are in good condition, they may be left in the barrel or box. If, however, they show signs of rotting they should be sorted and the unaffected specimens wrapped in tissue or news paper which lessens the danger of any rot spreading.

If the room is very dry it will be better to put them back in the barrel or box after wrapping as they will survive less than if here exposed to the air. It is important to keep the fruit in clean receptacles, otherwise they may absorb unpleasant flavours.

Among the best varieties of apples in good condition early in the winter are Fameuse or Snow, Ribston Pippin, Hubbardston Nonsuch, Tomkins King, Jonathan, Grimes Golden and McIntosh Red.

The Fameuse and McIntosh Red are two of the most popular dessert varieties. These are both in good condition in November, but, while the Fameuse does not keep well, as a rule, much after the New Year, the McIntosh grown in some districts will keep in good condition until March.

Ribston Pippin, Hubbardston and Tomkins King are the three more apples of high flavour for November and December or later. Jonathan, while not grown to any extent in Canada outside British Columbia, is shipped East in boxes. It also comes from the Western States and can be depended upon until about the New Year. It is a handsome apple of good quality.

After the New Year the Northern Spy is, perhaps, the most popular apple in Canada but as the supply is limited they can be kept until late in the winter or spring, some of the sorts which do not keep well much after midwinter may be used first.

Among such are Rhode Island Greening, Baldwin, Wagener and Esopus Spitzenberg. For late winter and spring, in addition to Northern Spy, varieties which are usually available are Golden Russet, Roxbury Russet or Nonpareil, Stark and Ben Davis, and in Boxes the Western Yellow Newtown, Winesap, Stayman Winesap and Rome Beauty. Stark and Ben Davis are the least desirable for dessert purposes, and Stark is not acid enough for the best cooking. There are other good varieties.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to "remove complexion blemishes"; to "whiten the skin and bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty?" But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream.

Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any drugist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

A girl's dearest girl friend is apt to be one she has known less than two weeks.

The terms of Austria's unconditional surrender are more drastic even than those agreed to by Bulgaria and Turkey and show to Germany her coming fate.

IMPORTANT!

Board of Health Notice

As the epidemic of influenza is spreading rapidly in this county, many cases not reporting and some not very ill, are visiting their neighbors and spreading the disease broadcast.

I hereby give notice that no public gatherings, which include church meetings, schools, lodge and society meetings are allowed in the County and no visiting from house to house that is not absolutely necessary.

A social house gathering to be held until this serious state of affairs is past for these house gatherings are now very much to be resented.

Every case of even a slight cold is considered this same infection and the next case may be very severe. No other form of gripe is now prevalent, that is every case of gripe must consider themselves under quarantine until five days after all symptoms subside.

I wish to state that in connection with the above notice that in some parts of the county the epidemic appears to be quite well spent while in other it is worse than when the above notice was issued last week.

For this reason the local Boards of Health in the various districts (the Councilors are chairmen) will allow if they think proper, the trustees to open the schools in their districts. Churches may also be opened and other public gatherings permitted.

Epidemic Influenza

(Issued by the Department of the Public Health, Nova Scotia)

The public is warned against pinning faith to the use of camphor bags, gargles, throat sprays, etc., as preventives of influenza. It should be realized that the germs of influenza and of the pneumonia which so often complicates it; will resist immersion in strong germicidal solutions for several minutes, and could not possibly be destroyed by the odour from a camphor bag or similar device. Gargles and throat sprays may do harm rather than good, by irritating the mucous membrane and rendering it less resistant to bacterial invasion, so they should not be used except upon the advice of a physician.

It cannot be too strongly urged that safety lies particularly in avoiding close association with those who are ill, and, as many cases are mild and strongly resemble ordinary colds, those who have colds should be kept at a distance. The infective agent is given off in the discharges from throat and nose, and in the fine spray which is ejected in the acts of coughing, sneezing and loud talking. Such spray is ejected to a distance of from four to five feet. Keep out of its range.

The number of the organisms of influenza or pneumonia which float about in the open air or in the air of well ventilated and uncrowded rooms can usually be taken care of by the healthy individual. "Invasion in mass" however, may overcome the resisting power of even the strongest man. Such invasion is only likely when one comes within range of the cough or sneeze of an infected person.

Resistance to attack by the small number of germs which may be present in the air of well ventilated places depends mainly upon the general health. This should be maintained at the highest possible standard by avoiding excesses of any kind, getting a sufficient amount of food, plenty of sleep, a moderate amount of outdoor exercise, an unlimited supply of fresh air. Clothing should be warm, chilling should be avoided and wet clothing, including foot wear, should be changed for dry at the earliest possible moment.

There is grave danger in neglect of what may appear to be an ordinary cold. Many mild cases of influenza are scarcely to be distinguished from this minor ailment. Those who lightly regard what they think to be a mere cold may not only subject themselves to great risk, but endanger all with whom they associate.

The most important item in the treatment of influenza is to go to bed at once and to remain there until the doctor advises otherwise. This is the surest way to escape dangerous complications.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 29—After a period of more than five years spent in exploring the vast previously unknown territory of the Arctic regions, Vilhjalmur Stefansson, commander-in-chief of the Polar expedition which left Canada in June, 1913, arrived in Ottawa this morning and reported officially to the Deputy Minister Desbarats, of the department of naval service. Mr. Stefansson's work has resulted in the collection of valuable scientific information and data.

Stefansson has been granted a month's leave of absence by the government, and has gone to New York. He will make a lecture tour and donate the entire proceeds to the Canadian Red Cross. This arrangement has been made by the government.

The Diseases of the Tomato

Few people have ever stopped to consider the number of diseases to which the tomato plant is subject. A bulletin recently issued by the Division of Botany of the Experimental Farms enumerates forty-four of these diseases, and possibly there may be more. Many complaints to which the potato, tobacco plant and egg plant are subject, are also common to the tomato, the five plants all being members of the Nightshade family. Mr. McCubbin, Assistant in Charge of the Plant Pathological Laboratory at St. Catharines, Ont., is the author of the bulletin which can be had free upon application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. It consists of sixteen pages plates showing some of the diseases at the various stages. At a time when vegetable gardening is so general, there should be wide demand for the bulletin, which indeed no grower of the tomato should overlook.

The Bridge to the British Market

The Victory Loan is a bridge over which the farmers of Canada drive their hogs, their cattle, their grain and all their surplus crops to the profitable British market.

For, the money raised by the Victory Loan enables Canada to give credit to Great Britain. And only by means of that credit can Great Britain buy the products of Canada's farms.

Therefore, when you come forward at your country's call and loyally lend your money that Canada may continue her vigorous prosecution of the war, you are also benefitting yourself and the whole farming community.

It is the duty of every earnest Canadian not only to invest heavily in Victory Bonds 1918, but to work among his neighbors to make the loan a success.

Before the subscription lists close, every man should realize the sterling character of the investment; the good interest return of 5 1/2%; the undoubted security offered in the Bonds of this wealthy nation; and the vital importance to all classes of people, particularly to the farmers, of the Victory Loan 1918.

The Raising of Calves.

(Experimental Farms Note)

This subject could be very well divided into three parts, viz.: (1) Breeding, (2) Feeding, (3) Housing.

(1) Breeding.—In order to get the most profitable results for feed consumed and labor spent in raising calves it is necessary to see that the breeding of the calves is of the best, that their sires and dams are good individuals of the breed which you are working with, and that they have good records of performance behind them. This applies to beef breeds as well as dairy.

(2) Feeding.—As soon as the calf is dropped it should be separated from its dam and not given any food for twelve hours, when it will have developed a good appetite and be ready to take its first food which should consist of 5 pounds of its mother's milk. This should be duplicated in twelve hours which will make ten pounds per day, which amount the calf should receive for the first two weeks. At the end of the two weeks the calf should be getting 6 pounds twice a day, which should be continued for three weeks. At the end of five weeks, commence feeding the calf a small quantity of skim-milk, mixed with the whole milk, gradually increasing the skim milk and decreasing the whole milk, until at the end of the seventh week the calf would be getting 15 pounds skim milk per day. This amount should be continued until the calf is six months old. As soon as the calf is getting skim milk alone, there should be added to the milk a small quantity of equal parts of oil cake and ground oats with hulls taken out. This is a good cream substitute, which partly takes the place of the butter fat which is lacking in the skim milk. An ounce of this mixture, at first, twice a day, is sufficient, but should be gradually increased as the calf develops. When the calf is six or seven weeks old, there should be placed before it some nice, sweet clover hay and equal parts of ground oats and bran which it will soon learn to eat. It should have as much of this feed as it will eat up readily twice a day. Always be careful that there is no feed left over in mangers and that all pails and boxes in which calves are fed are kept perfectly clean and sweet. They should be fed an accurate quantity at regular times which is very important in keeping the calf's digestive organs in the best condition possible, which is very essential for rapid and robust development.

(3) Housing.—All quarters in which calves are kept, should be clean and they should be given all the room possible so as to allow chance for exercise. They should always be well bedded with plenty of light and good ventilation, so that the calf will develop a good strong constitution in order to be a healthy acquisition, when grown, to the farm herd.

Owing to the epidemic of Spanish flu throughout Canada, the demand for Minard's Liniment has so increased, that it has been necessary to work the staff overtime and practically double the output.

Ready built houses—"Made in America" are likely to play an important part in rebuilding France after the war. Nova Scotia should figure in this enterprise.

Always aim a little higher than the mark—if the mark is a dimple in her chin.

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERT SULTZ, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "it seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultze's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

Preparing the Flock for Winter.

(Experimental Farms Note)

The success to be obtained from the farm flock will depend very largely on the way it has been handled during the autumn month. The plan at the Experimental Farm, Nappan, N. S., is, before the breeding season opens in the fall, to go through the flock, pick out all the non-producers, poor milkers, or any that may have bad mouths or spoiled udders; also any that may be too old for breeding profitably, and discard them. In selecting out the breeding flock looks alone is not the only guide, as many times a ewe may be a profitable breeder yet be very thin, due to the fact that she has been brought down by a heavy milk flow. Good ewes should be retained in the flock as long as they breed and feed their lambs properly.

All lambs not intended for breeding purposes are sold. If the market happens to be flooded it is found to be more profitable to feed them well until January or February, by putting them on good aftermath until burning time, then finish on roots and meal.

Ram lambs intended for breeding are placed in a separate field with good clover aftermath and given a light grain mixture of 1/2 pound oats; 1/2 pound bran and 1-5 pound oilcake meal. The ewe lambs are also placed in a field by themselves, but not given much grain unless the aftermath is poor. All breeding ewes are flushed during the latter part of October or the first of November. This consists in putting them in a good field of clover and giving them a light grain ration of oats, bran and a little oilcake meal. Hence the ewes make a rapid gain in flesh. There are several advantages from this practice; 1st, the ewes which are bred in a thrifty condition are more apt to throw vigorous lambs; 2nd, they are more reliable breeders; 3rd, more likely to drop twins; 4th, the flock will all breed more evenly together which makes it much better at lambing time in that the lambs are all dropped within a short period of each other, thus making less work for the shepherd.

In selecting the flock ram it is the endeavour to choose the very best, typical of the breed and vigorous. Then he is fed well in order to keep him virile, but not too fat. He never gets grain until about a month before breeding season. He is never allowed to run with the ewes continually but put in with them two or three hours each day.

In dividing the pen for winter, all mature ewes are put together; shearlings in another pen and ewe lambs by themselves. The latter are not bred until one year old. Should there be any weak ones, they too are given a separate pen; otherwise they would not get a fair show at the trough with the more vigorous ones. The above method of preparing sheep for winter has been found to be most satisfactory.

The Sword and the Pen

(Springfield Union)

We share the New York Times' admiration for the President's literary accomplishments, and we give him full credit for framing a reply to Dr. Sol's note that makes perfectly plain the Allied purpose to negotiate no peace with the Hohenzollerns, but the Times goes rather too far in the credit it gives to the President's pen. That pen is mighty, as all the world knows, but not mighty enough to write the Kaiser off his throne. If William II. is toppling it is because Foch and Haig and Pershing and Diaz are battering down his armies. If they were not doing this the facile and brilliant pen of the President could write against Kaiserism until doomsday without endangering Bill Hohenzollern's job.

WRONG BOTTLE AGAIN!

Mr. Thomas Wade, of Alma, N.B., accidentally applied some acid to a sore leg, thinking the bottle contained liniment. Writing of the effect, he says: "The acid burned deep into my flesh and set up poisoning, causing me intense pain. I really thought I should lose my leg; but a friend advised me to try Zam-Buk. I did so, and the effect was marvellous! Zam-Buk very quickly ended the pain and drew out the poison. Eventually it completely healed the sore place."

Zam-Buk is best for all skin injuries and diseases. All dealers, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

HERE'S A WAY TO SAVE DOCTOR BILLS.

Physicians Give Free Advice by Which Parents May Profit.

It was an association of gentlemen, professionally physicians and chemists, all of whom were born in the drug trade, so to speak, and who have been connected with it all their lives, who first gave to the world Castoria, which as every one knows is a pleasant and effective remedy for the ailments of infants and children. It has always been recognized as a meritorious preparation, and its reward has been the greatest popularity ever enjoyed by any remedy ever put upon the market; attained not by flamboyant advertising or appeals to ignorance or vulgar prejudice, but by inherent merit. All physicians recommend it, and many, very many, prescribe it.

Many parents call in the family physician. Many other parents take advantage of what the physician told them when he was first called in consultation. All good family physicians say: Give the children Castoria. Healthy parents know this remedy of old, for they took it themselves as children. It was more than thirty years ago that Castoria made a place for itself in the household. It bore the signature of Charles H. Fletcher then, as it does to-day. The signature is its guarantee which is accepted in thousands of homes where there are children.

Much is printed nowadays about big families. Dr. William J. McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., is the father of one of these much-read-about families. Here is what he says:

"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Charles H. Fletcher has received hundreds of letters from prominent physicians who have the same esteem for Castoria that Dr. McCrann has. Not only do these physicians say they use Castoria in their own families, but they prescribe it for their patients. First of all it is a vegetable preparation which assimilates, the food and regulates the stomach and bowels. After eating comes sleeping and Castoria looks out for that too. It allays feverishness and prevents loss of sleep, and this absolutely without the use of opium, morphine or other harmful narcotics. Medical Journals are reluctant to discuss proprietary medicines. Hall's Journal of Health, however, says: "Our duty is to expose and record the means for advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge Castoria is a remedy which produces comfort and health by regulating the system, not by stupefying it, and our readers are entitled to the information."

New Flour Regulations Are Drastic.

Perhaps few, if any, of our readers fully realize just how drastic are the new flour regulations, and that it is absolutely necessary to buy the substitute when purchasing war flour and a positive violation of the law to induce the grocer to sell flour without the specified substitutes. According to the latest ruling of the Food Board only four substitutes are now obtainable with every purchase of war flour. Of these substitutes the Board demands that 25 per cent. of the purchase of flour must be obtained. That is when a 24-pound bag of flour is bought 6 pounds of either rye flour, corn flour, barley flour or oat flour must be obtained at the same time and so according to quantity purchased.

The order has been made most drastic and no doubt ignorance of it is creating considerable animosity between the grocer and, in some instances many of their oldest customers. It demands that these substitutes only must be sold with the flour and stipulates that any grocer neglecting the order and allowing the flour to pass over his counter without one or the other of those mentioned, is open to immediate cancellation of his Canada Food Board license, which positively means closing his business for a period at least and which has in several instances occurred in other towns. Furthermore, it makes the grocer liable to a thousand-dollar fine, and what is more it places the customer subject to arrest, prosecution and severe penalty as an accessory after the fact.

As ignorance of the law never saves a person in case of an action, these few simple facts may, possibly, greatly benefit both the dealer and the customer and, at an extent, alleviate the many little inconveniences that, during the stress of war, are continually coming up to perplex the buyer and add difficulties and explanations to already overburdened dealers. All of the grocers will be only too pleased to give any explanation possible regarding the ruling, but they positively cannot supply war flour without 25 per cent. of one of the above substitutes. This ruling has been made necessary from a patriotic standpoint and it is to be hoped the buying public will look at it in that way.

The Use of the Apple.

"Those who make a liberal use of apples will serve the dual purpose of saving for shipment overseas such articles of food as are fit for that purpose and at the same time furnish a useful and valuable food for the household."

"The apple without question is the king of fruits, whether fresh, dried, evaporated or canned, it is a wholesome food, easily prepared, attractive and palatable at all times."

"Always cook apples in earthen or granite utensils and use silver, granite or wooden spoons for stirring. The use of the apples as the basis for all manufactured jams is well known. This is due to the large amount of pectose which it contains. There is no waste to a good apple; even the paring and core may be utilized for jelly. Fruits are classified as favour fruits and nutritive fruits the apple comes under both of these heads." Extracts from a little booklet issued by the Fruit Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture giving 160 recipes for the use of the apple. The book can be had free on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Duke of Devonshire Acts Quickly.

His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire wants a share of Canada's Second Victory Loan. The following letter explains why:

OTTAWA, October, 1918.

MY DEAR SIR THOMAS,

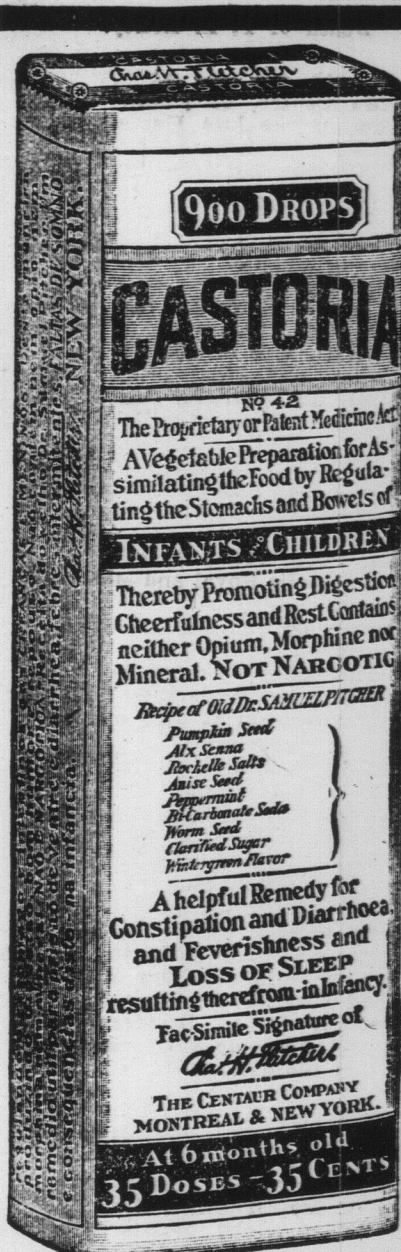

I shall be glad if you will again include my name in the first list of subscribers to the Victory Loan of 1918. This loan I am sure is of the utmost national importance in connection with Canada's continued effectual prosecution of the war, and the establishment of Imperial credits for the purchase of foodstuffs, munitions and other supplies urgently required by Great Britain and the Allies.

I have every confidence that the patriotism of the Canadian people which has so nobly sustained every duty and obligation imposed by the war will again respond to the appeal and that the Victory Loan of 1918 will be even a more striking and notable success than that of last year.

Believe me, my dear Sir Thomas, Yours very truly,
(Sd.) DEVONSHIRE.
HON. SIR THOMAS WHITE, K. C. M. G., OTTAWA.
