THE HOUSE MUST FALL

SR CHARLES REPRIES TO PRELIMINARY LAURIER

JOHN CHARLTON (bystander): "Let her go Tarte, no use—must fall—timber's unsound and out of joint."

Germany and England Enter Into a Treaty of Alliance, and Will Stand Together to Maintain the Territorial Integrity of China.

Their Object Also is to Keep the Ports Open—France is Wondering How This New Phase of International Relations Will Affect Russia—United States Supports the Alliance.

London, Oct. 20.—Germany and England have formed an alliance to maintain the territorial integrity of China, and to keep the ports open.

The terms of this important agreement between the two countries, which was arrived at Oct. 16 between Lord Salisbury and Count Von Hatzfeldt, German Ambassador to England, are officially given out as follows:

"The German Government and her British Majesty's Government, being desirous to maintain the interests of China, and their rights in the matter, have agreed to observe the following principles regarding a mutual policy in China:

"Firstly—It is a matter of joint permanent international interest that the ports on the rivers and littoral of China should remain free and open to trade and to every other legitimate form of economic activity for the people of all countries, without distinction; and the two Governments agree on their part to uphold the same for all Chinese territory, as far as they can exercise influence.

"Secondly—Both Governments will on their part make use of the present opportunity to obtain for themselves any territorial advantage in Chinese dominion, and will direct their policy towards maintaining undiminished the territorial condition of the Chinese Empire.

"Thirdly—In case of another power making use of the complications in China in order to obtain under any form whatsoever such territorial advantages to themselves, the right to come to a preliminary understanding regarding the territorial step to be taken for the protection of their own interests in China.

"Fourthly—The two Governments will communicate this agreement to the other powers interested, especially Austria-Hungary, France, Italy, Japan, Russia and the United States, and invite them to accept the principles recorded in it."

A Reassuring Sign for Peace.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—An inspired article in the North German Gazette regarding the Anglo-American agreement as a "reassuring sign for the peace of the world," and says that Great Britain, just as Germany does, expressly disavows all idea of making use of the complications in China for her special advantage, and in economic aims solely to the principle of equal rights for all.

Germany, it is added, does not take upon herself the obligation of assuring her ally France where other powers have already assumed special rights.

London Papers Approve.

London, Oct. 21.—All the morning papers discuss upon the high importance of the Anglo-German agreement. The Daily Telegraph, which described it as "the most remarkable success scored by British diplomacy since the Berlin treaty," says:

"The position clearly suggests that it was initiated by the British Government, and that an ill-considered call was made for its retention from the Foreign Office."

How Will it Affect Russia?

Berlin, Oct. 21.—With the exception of a few notoriously anti-British journals, the entire German press approves the Anglo-German agreement. Its effect upon Russia excites keen curiosity, it being so secret that the relations between Germany and Russia have lately become cooler.

GUERRILLA WARFARE IS STILL BEING KEPT UP IN SOUTH AFRICA

The Outlook Said to Be Dismal for the Early Resumption of Farming and Mining in the War Stricken District—Hutton En Route to England.

London, Oct. 21.—The South African war has again spread southward. The heaviest fighting of the week has been in the Orange River Colony, near the border of Cape Colony. The outlook is dismal for an early resumption of farming and mining. The devastation already wrought will take years to redress, yet the British general, Buller, is returning, Chermide and Hutton, as well as Buller, are all on their way to England.

A dragging guerrilla warfare threatens serious social sequelae at Cape Town and Durban. The Transvaal refugees there are now penniless and destitute, and riots are probable if they are not allowed to return in a few weeks. This is impossible, as the plight of those in the Transvaal is even worse.

The military position has been materially unchanged for a month. The British hold all the key positions, but are not active enough to prevent the Boers from gathering and sweeping down upon weak garrisons. The Boers are now acting on their individual initiative, without a Government or without orders from the commandant-in-chief. There is no reason to expect peace for months, yet Sir Alfred Milner is at Pretoria studying the toughest problem in his life. He knows that more Boers are under arms than a fortnight ago, and that the Military District Commissioner have failed to gain the allegiance of the burghers thru their incapacity.

Veteran Leader Spoke Late at the East Toronto Convention, But He Touched Up the Liberals Amid Great Applause.

He Pays a Tribute to Mr. J. Ross Robertson and Mr. Coatsworth—Mr. A. E. Kemp the Unanimous Choice of the Convention.

Sir Charles Tupper was in splendid form in St. Lawrence Hall on Saturday night. The aged but vigorous leader of the Liberal-Conservative party was evidently elated by the enthusiasm which he witnessed at the convention at the moment of his arrival, and launched into a speech, which, for force and wit and effect, was pronounced by all who heard it to be the greatest address of the campaign.

The audience greeted every sentence with applause, and the meeting terminated amid other good wishes, which all differences of opinion which might have been felt before the great leader spoke were all completely forgotten.

While the East Toronto delegates were voting in St. Lawrence Hall Saturday night for some of the officers of the Central Conservative Association, who were at the Centre Toronto convention, Mr. R. S. Neville took the chair, and requested Dr. Ryan to keep things going with a little speech. Dr. Ryan, who had been chosen by the unanimous voice of the Centre Toronto convention as standard-bearer of the party, there was a great whoop of congratulation, which had not spent itself when Mr. Brock and a large number of his friends arrived, and the convention indulged in another good, old-fashioned "three."

Mr. Brock was at once invited to come upon the platform by Mr. Bristol, who took the chair. The following also were invited to take seats upon the platform: T. H. Craig, Alan Lamb, Chas. Cox, Foster, Dr. Noble, Dr. Thompson, Mr. Dumas, W. J. Hamby, E. P. Roden, John Hewitt, Mr. Hale, ex-Ald. Davies, C. C. Robinson, John Laxton, J. B. Thomson, Frank Somers, R. Mitchell, John Greer, Chas. McDonald, Alex. Patterson, Dr. J. O. Orr, J. R. Reid, C. A. B. Brown, Joseph Thompson, Sam Fitzgerald, Joseph Bloomer, William Eastwood, J. W. Flavell.

The nominations were being made when Mr. O. A. Howland and William Laddick, O.C., arrived. They were most cordially received, and took seats on the platform. A little while later the careful doorkeeper asked permission to admit J. J. Foy and E. P. Clarke. They also came to the front along with A. E. Kemp, J. W. Flavell and others.

A. E. Kemp was nominated by Emerson Coatsworth, seconded by Ald. Foster. There was a motion that the nominations close.

J. A. Hecker rose, however, and nominated O. A. Howland. This was seconded by William Armstrong.

The following were also put in nomination: Emerson Coatsworth, Joseph Thompson, R. S. Neville, Ald. Foster, J. B. Reid. When the nominations had been closed, Ald. Foster was called upon, and retired in favor of the nominee of the convention, if all other than Mr. Kemp retired, Joe Thompson, in a humorous speech, also retired in favor of Mr. Kemp.

R. S. Neville, in retiring, made a spirited reference to the candidates selected in the West, Centre, West York and East York. Mr. Neville said so long way in helping Sir Charles Tupper and the Conservative leaders to carry the county. (Applause.) The nominee of the East Toronto Convention would get the unanimous support of every Conservative elector in the riding and they would bury Mr. Anderson so deep that he would never be heard of. To-day the Conservative party is a unit from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and it was the duty of the Conservatives of East Toronto to preserve the same united front. (Applause.) He retired in favor of Mr. Kemp.

Mr. Coatsworth Also Retires.

Mr. Emerson Coatsworth said if he would like to consider East Toronto only he would stand the test of the convention. But he had to consider the cause of Conservatism throughout the Dominion, and he realized that the party required men of the class who could challenge the respect of the entire country. He acknowledged that it was a sacrifice on his part not to allow his name to go before the convention, but he remembered that it was a sacrifice of another kind, but not less meritorious, in that Mr. Brock to contest the Centre Toronto riding. Mr. Coatsworth then continued "in retiring to-night I do so as a citizen of Canada and in the interests of the country."

UNVEILING OF NELSON MONUMENT

Was the Occasion Which Brought Out the Patriotic Utterances in Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The speech of Mr. H. C. St. Pierre, the well-known French-Canadian counsel, at the unveiling of the Nelson monument, was a most favorable comment on the part of the first movement towards erecting the Nelson monument was instituted by a French-Canadian, and he detailed the circumstances of the year 1803, when in Montreal, conditions were different. This Canadian referred to was named Girard. He was giving a party to a number of aristocratic French and English friends, when the announcement of Nelson's death came to hand. Then and there a movement was initiated which culminated in the unveiling of the monument.

The honored house of the monument, French-Canadians were on an equal footing with English and British. The unveiling of the monument was a most patriotic party. The meeting closed at 10:30.

An Opponent for Major Sutherland.

Woodstock, Oct. 20.—The annual meeting of the North Oxford Liberal-Conservative Association was held in the Town Hall here to-day, and the selection of a candidate for the riding in the coming Dominion election was the order of business. Mr. J. G. Wallace being the main, Mr. C. A. Muma, a Conservative, was the candidate in Queen's County. Mr. Foster followed him to the fore, and will then go to Christian County and York.

A number of nominations were received, among which were the names of Messrs. J. G. Wallace, H. H. Powell, D. W. Kern, A. Montague, C. A. Muma, F. Richards and J. O. Orr. A withdrawal in favor of Mr. Wallace.

In speaking of his nomination, Mr. Wallace said that he was not in a position to accept at present, but he had been considering the step for the past week. He asked the convention to bear with him until a definite answer. While he has not made a definite statement, it is generally conceded that he will stand.

New Brunswick State Complete.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The Conservative completed their nomination in this province on Saturday by selecting Mr. D. Wilson as the candidate in Queens County and Sanbury. Mr. Wilson represented Sanbury from 1887 to 1890, and was a candidate for the united counties in 1896 and 1898.

TWENTY CRAZY MEN REVOLTED AND OVERPOWERED THE KEEPERS

Seven of the Lunatics Are Still Free—With Insane Cunning the Patients Planned and Carried Out Their Scheme—The Keepers Badly Beaten.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Oct. 21.—There was a riot at the Mattawean State Hospital for the Insane at 6:30 o'clock to-day. Twenty of the patients, who are kept in the hospital, revolted and overpowered by about 20 insane patients. Some of the patients escaped, and seven are still at large. One or two of the keepers are badly bruised, as a result of the assault.

Guards Had No Suspensions.

After the patients had been given their usual Sunday night supper, they were taken to their apartments in company with the keepers. The keys were turned over to the patients, and they were left to their own devices. The patients, who were kept in the hospital, revolted and overpowered by about 20 insane patients. Hamilton, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The annual charity sermon, under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, was given this evening by St. Mary's Cathedral by the eloquent Rev. Father James Frenched.

Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, spoke on modern philanthropy, its progress and the success of Christian charity. Modern philanthropy, in his opinion, was defective in three ways in motive, means and model.
