THRU THE EVIDENCE OF GLOBE REPORTER

Reveals Origin of Gamey
Interview Which He Got
SENSATIONAL TURN IN TRIAL

"Did you see Stratton?"
"Yes."
"When?"
"Immediately after Gamey left the room."
"What was the purpose of your conversation?"
"He expressed himself as well pleased with the interview."
"Anybody else?"
"He asked me if it had been signed."
"It was not signed when Gamey left Stratton's room?"
"No."
"Why did you ask him to sign?"
"Because Mr. Stratton asked me to do so."
"Why did he want it signed?"
"In order to keep it."
"Anything further?"
"I also wanted it signed so that I would have something to show."
"Come from a Reporter."
"The foregoing dialog developed when M. O. Hammond, the police reporter who secured the interview from R. R. Gamey, was examined by Chas. Ritchie, K.C. Mr. Gamey had been dismissed from the witness box after an ordeal extending over thirteen hours and M. O. Hammond was called. Mr. Hammond's evidence was probably as big a surprise to the prosecution as to the defence, and it seemed to mark the turning point of the enquiry."
"What did you do with the original?"
"I returned it to Mr. Stratton the following day."
"Why?"
"Because he asked me to."
"You rewrote it to return it to him, was that the only reason?"
"I also wanted to keep it from being injured in passing thru the printer's hands."
"The witness was subjected to a very brief cross-examination. Mr. Hammond admitted to Mr. Johnston that prepared interviews were a not uncommon thing among certain public men."
"There was nothing unusual in the Gamey interview?" asked Mr. Johnston.
"No," Mr. Hammond also admitted that he frequently stayed late at the parliament buildings in order to secure announcements from council meetings.
"You couldn't see Mr. Gamey till 6.30?" asked Mr. Johnston.
"I couldn't."

STRIKING FEATURES OF YESTERDAY'S DEVELOPMENTS.

The story of a Globe reporter with reference to the origin of the famous interview with the member for Manitoulin, which the government organ was trapped into displaying in the course of the alleged plot, was one of the strong developments in the Gamey-Stratton bribery scandal yesterday. The reporter had been sent to the Parliament Buildings to secure the statement which would pledge Mr. Gamey publicly to support the government. The reporter saw a draft of the interview the day prior to securing it. Then it was on the desk of the Provincial Secretary. The next day he met Gamey in the office adjoining Mr. Stratton's, and received the doctored interview. He had been urged by Mr. Stratton to secure Gamey's signature, and he did. Mr. Stratton insisted on the original document being returned to him after its use, and to same, and he did. He will now be called upon to produce some or explain what he has done with it. As this incident followed immediately the events in which Gamey insists he received the cash bribe at the Parliament Buildings from Stratton's private secretary, it is calculated to connect the ministers directly with the bribery of the Conservative member, and is a strong corroborative link in the chief witness' story. Another strong factor in the net being woven developed in the declaration of Mr. Crossin that he saw Gamey deposit funds in the bank, which he said was the result of the booting of the accused. Altogether the Gamey case is believed to have been much strengthened by the evidence of the day.

MR. MELVIN O. HAMMOND,

Globe Reporter Who Gave Sensational Evidence.

GLOBE REPORTER'S STORY.

Mr. Stratton Connected Directly With Starting Feature.
The Globe reporter's evidence touching the history of the famous Gamey interview published by the government organ as pledging the Manitoulin member to support the government was the sensation of the hour, and it was clearly corroborative of Gamey's evidence connecting high government agents with knowledge of the alleged bribery plot.
Melvin O. Hammond, Globe reporter, was called against the government. Mr. Ritchie, Mr. Hammond, you are a reporter for The Toronto Globe—Yes, sir.
At what time of the day were you there?
I was there in the morning, about 11 o'clock.
Did you see Mr. Gamey?
Yes, sir.
What time?
About 11 o'clock.
What time did you see him?
I saw him at 11 o'clock.
What time did you see him again?
I saw him at 11 o'clock.
What time did you see him again?
I saw him at 11 o'clock.
What time did you see him again?
I saw him at 11 o'clock.

GAMEY'S STORY CLINCHED.

Manufacturer Saw Deposit Made and Relates All the Circumstances.
Edward Crossin, piano manufacturer, was next called. He and Gamey entered into partnership about April, 1901, and subsequently a company was formed, of which Mr. Gamey is president. When he was asked what conversation he had with Gamey, in September, Mr. Riddell at once objected. Finally, Mr. Crossin got a chance to say he had a conversation with Mr. Gamey during the last week of the 19th. Gamey came to the factory, and they went down to Mr. Crossin's office. As they passed along, Gamey suddenly said—
"Mr. Ritchie: Don't repeat what he said."
In consequence of what Gamey said, they went to the Traders' Bank, and Gamey deposited money there in a large or small amount—A considerable amount.
What amounts were they?—He told me they were $1000.
Never mind what he told you. Did you see the bills?—I could only see two or three bills on the face of it; they were bills of a large denomination.
Now, then, he went in there. Did he produce the bills?—Yes, sir.
When he produced the bills, did he make a remark, and tell you anything about it?
Mr. Riddell: I object to that.
The Chancellor (to witness): You are asked whether he made any remark; not what he said, at present—
Yes, sir; he did.
The Chancellor: Was that in the bank?—Yes, Mr. Lord.
Mr. Ritchie: Now, I submit, My Lord, the production of the bills is not like an ordinary statement made two or three days afterwards, such as, Your Lordships, understand, say is not evidence, but this is something accompanying an act; a man is about to deposit a certain amount of money in a bank, and makes a certain remark about it, and tells them what he is placing in the bank.
Means Wide Latitude.
Their Lordships consulted for a moment or so, and then consented to the introduction of the evidence.
Mr. Riddell: That is not evidence at all. That is not a remark accompanying an act as becomes evidence when an agent is doing an act for his principal; it is a statement made to him, which is nothing more or less than making evidence for himself. If it was one hour or five minutes afterwards, it is something after the occurrence, when he said that he got the bills, and he is giving an account of what he received.
The former excuses that the witness made.

RECENT RAILROAD HORRORS
BROUGHT UP IN THE COMMONS

Ottawa, April 15.—(Special World Correspondence.)—On a motion to go into supply, this afternoon, E. F. Clarke, M. P., brought up the question of a special government officer to inquire into the causes of the recent railway wrecks. He scored Messrs. Blair and Mulock for their inactivity. Mr. Blair admitted that the Railway Act provided for such an officer, but none had been appointed. He was determined, however, that one should be appointed, and was hunting for the proper sort of man. Mr. Clarke, without mentioning the Wansted case, the it was evidently in his mind, called the attention of the government to the large list of fatalities on railways during the past year. Why was not an officer appointed to make a thorough investigation? Did the government intend to appoint such an officer?
All Fatalities Should Be Known.
It was time, T. G. said, the railways had reported to the government the number of their employees, who had been killed or injured in wrecks, but this had not been done. All accidents should be known. An officer of the government should get the information. The public wanted it. He enlarged on the great importance of something being done to prevent railway disasters. This could be done by getting at the cause of those that had already occurred, and were occurring. The public demanded some action for one feared to travel by train in the face of the frequency of wrecks. He had little faith in enquiries by coroners' juries.
Arrangements for the Government.
What had Sir William Mulock, with his Department of Labor, done in the matter? Were the hours of the railway employees longer than they should be? Were the rates of wages too low? Had the staff of employees been reduced? Were there the causes of rail wrecks?
These queries might properly come within the purview of Sir William. But what had he done to check his responsibility. What was he doing?
Will Have Wreck Investigator.
Mr. Blair replied that the government was considering the appointment of an officer, specially qualified, to investigate all railway wrecks and accidents. All the investigations necessary were on the statute book, and had been since 1897, that it had not been put into force, why, he could not say. What he thought was to be done in the future was to make such enquiries in an efficient manner. He would be glad to have the House do the duty of the chamber would be judicious, and that a permanent official would be appointed.
Mr. Clarke: What is the usage in the Old Country?
Mr. Blair replied that there an official was associated with the Board of Trade, to make those enquiries into all railway wrecks, but his own investigation. Continuing he said that the majority of railway accidents were to employees in

SIR OLIVER MOWAT SINKING AT MIDNIGHT.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT, LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF ONTARIO.
At midnight Drs. Temple and Primrose, in attendance on Sir Oliver Mowat, announced that the venerable Lieutenant-Governor had taken a turn for the worse and the gravest consequences were feared.
Evidently the end is near.
For several months Sir Oliver has been growing feeble. When parliament convened Chief Justice Moss was appointed administrator because of the increasing illness of the venerable gentleman. For months he has been confined to his room.
Sunday night while being removed from his invalid chair the patient stumbled and fractured his thigh. Since then his condition has been growing steadily worse. The infirmities of age together with the accident, it is feared by his physicians, will end the useful life within a few hours.

WILL NOW STOP GAMBLING
SAY MANY CROWN OFFICERS

The gambling game in Toronto was given a few more jolts yesterday. Everywhere in the courts and among police officials and Crown officers, the decision given at Osgoode Hall on the previous day, in relation to the vexed question of "rake off" was read with interest. Chief Constable Graetz expressed himself in these words:
"I must say that I am pleased to see the conviction of gamblers is great. The Crown Attorney Dewar declined to announce his view on what the result of the decision will be, until he sees the official judgment of the court. The Crown Attorney Curry said, unreservedly, that the decision would aid the police in some way."
These instruments are to be delivered on April 20, and Moulton College will then have the finest equipped musical department in Canada.

Moulton College is affiliated with McMaster University. In its curriculum music is recognized as an important branch of education, and the facilities afforded by the college for its proper cultivation are of the most thorough and comprehensive character.
The Bell Piano Company take great pride in having had their instruments selected. Some of the finest made, such as upright, grand and rich golden oak, and the public are invited to inspect them at the Bell Company's Toronto warehouses, 140 Yonge-street, where they are now on exhibition, before being delivered to the college.

The Governors Place an Order for Twelve New Pianos.
At a recent meeting of the Board of Governors of the Moulton College for Ladies it was decided to quietly dispose of all the pianos in their music rooms and secure twelve of the best instruments which could be procured. After careful enquiries, an order was placed with the Bell Piano Company for twelve of their latest models, each to contain the inevitable repeating action, the patents for which are entirely controlled by the Bell Company.
These instruments are to be delivered on April 20, and Moulton College will then have the finest equipped musical department in Canada.

REAL TROUBLE NOW.

In the Police Court, resumed this morning the first result of the Court of Appeal decision was shown when the names of the 18 men who were caught in James' place and who have been living in the shadow of death for two years, were called and a week's adjournment granted. They are charged with having frequented his place at 292 West Queen-street, and were now awaiting their trial. After careful enquiries, an order was placed with the Bell Piano Company for twelve of their latest models, each to contain the inevitable repeating action, the patents for which are entirely controlled by the Bell Company.

INFRMITIES AS A SHIELD

The member for East York at Ottawa continues to direct the attention of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, or rather the country, to the fact that Sir Oliver Mowat, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, is unable, and has been unable for weeks back, to discharge the duties of his office...

Every day sees the situation more serious. Surely there ought to be a Governor in office, competent to read the evidence that is coming out in the Gamey affair...

They are no friends of Sir Oliver who are using his infirmities as a shield. In an attempt to break the force of Mr. Hammond's testimony, it was suggested that it was not unusual for people to hand manuscripts to reporters...

The government journals might preserve a part of their sub-judice reputation by not abusing Mr. Hammond for telling the truth. If a lawyer has a right to command a witness to "look at me, sir," the obligations ought to be reciprocal...

The Hamilton Times says that before many have to be issued there a grateful window. The Times is suspending judgment more vigorously than any of its contemporaries...

The Globe discovers that one of the first results of dropping Laurier from the teachers' examination is that the Tory papers don't know the meaning of sub-judice. The government papers do. It means that Gamey is a liar, a sneak, and a vulgar and ignominious scoundrel.

New Orleans. A special from Shreveport says that it has been established beyond doubt that the negro who was killed on Saturday, and whose body was burned for the murder of Mrs. Matthews, was innocent.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT

The usual quiet followed the storm of Monday and Tuesday. The muddy, soup-like waters of the Bay were still there to tell of the fierce battle of the elements during the early part of the week. The work of refitting and repairing was still delayed by the clouds of penetrating rain that insinuated itself uncomformably into every nook and cranny, making the day cheerless and raw. The Malacca resumed her regular trips, arriving and departing as usual. The Lakofie also left at 3.40 p.m., the usual hour, for Port Dalhousie. The schooner Strath Shaw was due to arrive yesterday, as expected, but will probably come down tonight.

A large number of boats are being made ready for launching at the Medlar and Arnot docks at the foot of Berkeley-street. Among them are the Cleopatra, Oriole and Bobs, owned by Mr. George Gooderham; the Invader (cup defender), and the yacht Cloria, owned by George H. Gooderham; The Canada, by Messrs. Bailey and Cox. Vreda, by A. Peuchen; Gloria, by H. McLeod, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Yama, by Mr. Pearson, and Zanetta, by Mr. Culverwell.

A despatch from Welland states that the new Canadian Shipyard Company have begun operations on their lands below Ridgeway.

Cleveland, April 15.—Fifty striking union firemen, armed with knives and clubs, boarded the steamer Howard L. Shaw when she arrived in the harbor to-day from Duluth, and attacked three non-union firemen. A riot call was turned in, but when officers arrived on the docks the attacking party had dispersed. The injured, Adolph Peters, Gladstone, Mich.; George T. Smith, Duluth; and Walter Sigler, Duluth, Smith, after being stabbed and beaten, was thrown into the river. He was rescued by men from the steamer. Peters' condition is serious.

Anti-Strike Association. Chicago, April 15.—In alarm at the constant occurrence of petty strikes thru which hundreds of satisfied men after 8000 workers along Chicago's waterfront have voted for the formation of an arbitration league. When the workers' council is completed, the power of local unions to call strikes will pass from its members to a body in which all marine laborers will be represented. If grievances cannot be adjusted by the council they will, if possible, be carried to the grand grievance committee of the Longshoremen's Association. The new council is expected to end strikes at Chicago and work a revolution in adjusting labor disputes. The unions to be included in the committee include the grain trimmers, lumber loaders, pilots and engineers, fishermen, oyster and watermen, electricians, grocers, engineers, dockmen and crane men, ore and package freight handlers, machine cooks, seamens, deckhands and ship carpenters.

Will Not Cut Prices. Buffalo, April 15.—Manager Louis Lautenschlager of the Independent Towing Company made the following statement yesterday: "The Independent Line will not cut rates from the normal rates now in force, as it is impossible to do business on a lower scale. If vessel interests pass from its members to a body in which all marine laborers will be represented. If grievances cannot be adjusted by the council they will, if possible, be carried to the grand grievance committee of the Longshoremen's Association. The new council is expected to end strikes at Chicago and work a revolution in adjusting labor disputes. see it to tow with the Great Lakes Company at its present figures, the Independent Towing Company is satisfied, as the cuts were made to put us out of the business. The Independent Towing Company will run tug enough to take care of its business and no more."

South Chicago, April 15.—The steamship Brazil arrived yesterday with the first cargo of coal received at this end of Lake Michigan this spring. The cargo is of anthracite shipped from Buffalo by the D. L. & W. Coal Company, consigned to E. L. Hedstrom.

Erie, April 15.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is expending $27,000 on an electric light and power plant on its docks here for the purpose of furnishing light and to run thirteen portable motors for operating the crane hoisting machinery. The plant will be in operation by May 20. Three new clutch machines have been installed on the dock, displacing 100 or handlers.

Elevator Being Built. Port Huron, April 15.—(L. M. News Association).—The work of building the new elevator for the Grand Trunk Railroad at Point Edward has begun. This house will have a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels.

Chicago, April 15.—The package freight handlers of this city have presented an ultimatum for an increase in wages. They are backed by the International Longshoremen, Marine and Transportation Workers' Association. A strike would involve 100,000 men.

Buffalo, April 15.—Mayor Knight has sent a letter to Daniel J. Keefe, president of the Longshoremen's Union, in which he urged that strike differences between the lake carriers and the marine firemen be settled by arbitration.

Popular Engineer Spilled. An interesting event yesterday was the marriage of George M. Arnold, the chief engineer of the Chippewa to Miss Emma W. Oldswager. The ceremony was performed at the Church of St. John the Evangelist by the pastor, Rev. Alexander Williams. The bride was richly gowned in velvet, adorned with cream medallions and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Elinoche Beane, carried a bouquet of pink roses, and was comingly attired in blue silk. The happy couple left by the evening train to spend their honeymoon at points across the line.

In Queen's Park. The Attorney-General's Department held that the signing of official documents by Sir Oliver Mowat's rubber stamp is perfectly legal. The only requirement is that he must be cognizant of the documents and direct the stamping.

The Ontario government have decided that there shall be no extension of hoop net fishing permits this year. The season closed yesterday, and the use of hoop nets now carries with it liability to a penalty. The season will remain closed for fishing with nets from April 15 to October 1.

Representatives from the central labor organizations of Toronto waited on Premier Ross and requested him to remain closed for fishing with nets from April 15 to October 1. The delegation asserted that there were plenty of skilled workers in Toronto now to meet requirements, and that all the manufacturers wanted was to keep down the price of labor by having plenty of competition for vacancies.

LEGISLATION AND TEMPERANCE. Bremen, April 15.—Home Secretary Von Posadowsky-Wahner to-day formally opened the International Anti-Alcohol Congress. In his speech, the Secretary pointed out that the increased mental and physical strain occasioned by the growth of civilization was apt to lead to excessive indulgence in drink. Legislation could only lend mechanical aid to the temperance movement. The real remedy must come from a higher sense of morality on the part of the people, which, however, need not interfere with enjoyment of life.

STORMS DO GREAT DAMAGE. Evergreen, Ala., April 15.—In a tornado opened over Peterman and Burnton on Monday, ten persons are known to have been killed and numerous buildings swept away, entailing heavy losses. Heavy rains and hail followed.

New York City.—A fierce windstorm swept the city early to-day, developing unusual severity after a night of rain. A cold rain fell steadily. The gate blew showery to-day the highest tide known in years, and did much damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts.

FEAR COMMERCIAL INVASION. Rome, April 15.—In the Agricultural Congress which is meeting here, and which is attended by well-known European economists, the principal topic yesterday was the advance of European markets by the United States. Alarm at the extent of the invasion was expressed.

The Popolo Romano, commenting on the proposition to establish a European currency, says: "The difficulties in the practical accomplishment of such a grandiose project are so grave and complex as to render it almost utopian. The movement intended to shut off Europe from the countries over the sea already has aroused in the United States, which is sensitive on the subject, a reactionary current, thereby further embittering the commercial relations between the old and the new world."

PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD. The Toronto Public School Board meets to-day to discuss the reports of the Finance, Management and Property Committees. They are expected to report a large amount of money. The Finance Committee will ask for nearly $18,000 for the March salary of the teachers, and the other officials. But the Property Committee's report will be a much less striking one, amounting to $20,000, which is an altogether unimportant amount. Even last year the report was a much less striking one, amounting to $20,000, which is an altogether unimportant amount. Even last year the report was a much less striking one, amounting to $20,000, which is an altogether unimportant amount.

GIVE CANADA PREFERENCE. London, April 15.—W. R. Wood, president of the London Corn Trade Exchange, who recently toured Canada as the delegate of the London Chamber of Commerce, writes a long letter to the Times to-day in favor of preferential treatment of Canadian products. A generous, patriotic, national trader, Wood urges that the United Kingdom should give preference to the colonies rather than to foreign countries for the margin necessary to supplement its own production.

PROPOSED TAX EXEMPTION

Effect of Ald. Noble's Motion Would Be a Rate of 24 1-2 Mills.

IT WOULD DISFRANCHISE VOTERS

Commissioner Fleming Makes Long Report to Legislation Committee on Subject.

Assessment Commissioner Fleming has forwarded to the Commission on Legislation a report upon the notice of motion, introduced in Council by Ald. Noble, that the Assessment Act be amended so that the city may exempt all buildings, plant, personally and dwellings, to the extent of $700 on each vacant lot. The Commissioner thinks the proposal most unwise, as to apply an exemption of $700 would result in a total reduction of the assessment of the city of $25,705,961. By reason of the exemption of $25,705,961, the rate of taxation, to provide the same amount as taxes on $138,645,365, the present total assessment, would be 24 1/2-100 mills on the dollar, or a rate of 24 1/2 mills.

Vacant Property Would Suffer. Agaid on a total vacant property assessment of $7,000,000, the increase would mean $38,500 in taxes annually from vacant lots. The increase in the taxes on personally owned property would be $40,386, and by the system, tools and plant of manufacturer, now exempt, would be taxed for all above the $700 mark. The plant of companies, such as the Consumers' Gas, Toronto Railway, Bell Telephone, Electric and Incandescent Light, which is on the public streets, amounts to $2,222,221 for the year 1903, and is separated because of it not coming under the heading of building or personal property, would be increased by over $10,100 per annum.

Would Disfranchise Voters. The most important point and one which will touch the general voter most, is contained in the fact that 15,000 different pieces of property would be below the sum of $400, which means that over one-fourth the number of the voters in this city will be disfranchised. Take one ward, for instance, in Ward No. 10, there are 2000 buildings, the amount of exemption would be $8,522,227, and the houses reduced below the value of $400 would number 1267.

FARQUHAR CHARGES AILED. Board of Control Held Investigation re City Engineer.

The Board of Control held an investigation into the charges brought by E. Farquhar, against the City Engineer's Department, yesterday. The first charge investigated was, that the sidewalk on Queen-street at the corner of Wellington-avenue and was not properly constructed. It was found upon opening the sidewalk in the place, that the work was only one inch of cement on the top of the pavement, where there should have been 1 1/2 inches, and the excavation had only been made 12 inches deep, whereas it should have been 14.

The third place visited was George-street, south of Gerrard, where it was charged that the sidewalk and curb were faultily constructed. Two openings were made, and everything found perfectly in order, according to the specifications. Price $2.

The Board will hand out their report in a few days, and if the charges are found to be not substantiated, Mr. Farquhar will have to bear the cost of repairing the sidewalks broken up.

"When the best grain is delivered at the Tillsons' mills there is much in it that is not food. So we put it through a thorough cleansing process that frees it from all foreign substances—hulls, straws, black specs and dirt. Our cleansing method leaves nothing but the pure meat of the oats, which is rich in muscle and tissue-building qualities. To this careful cleanliness is due the appetizing appearance of Tillson's Oats—the entire contents of the package is pure, strengthening food."

Grape-Nuts Handy Husband

Know How to Get Part of the Breakfast, Anyhow. "I know one dish I can prepare for breakfast as well as any cook on earth," said my husband one day when the cook was ill and he had volunteered to help get breakfast. He appeared with his dish, and I discovered it was Grape-Nuts, which, of course, was easy to prepare for it is perfectly cooked at the factory, but it was a good illustration of the convenience of having Grape-Nuts about. "We just added a little cream and, of course, had a delicious bit of food. We took up Grape-Nuts immediately after returning from a five years' sojourn in a hot country, and our stomachs were in a bad condition and we were in bad health generally. When we first tried it I confess we thought there were other and better things to eat and were told we must acquire a taste for this new food. Sure enough, in a day or two we liked Grape-Nuts better than any other kind of food on the table. We both gained steadily in health and strength, and this was caused by Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee. "A friend of ours had a similar experience. She was seriously ill with indigestion and could find nothing to eat that would not give her heartburn and palpitation, especially at night. She found that a small dish of Grape-Nuts with cream made her a satisfactory supper and gave her a comfortable night's rest. In a short time she has gained several pounds in weight." The writer lives in Topeka, Kan. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
