A picnic social and dance will be held in Oddfellows' hall, Carleton, commencing at 8 o'clock this evening.

The large steamer Maggie Miller was taken off the Millville route, the latter part of last week, and is now at Indian-town, where she will remain for the winter.

The case against R. Bryson, Matthew Anderson, and Avard Clark, for fighting on Union street, Carleton, is being tried this afternoon before Magistrate Ritchie.

Captain Frank Dodge, who has been at his home in Hampton, for some time, recently joined the baronetess Louisa as her commander on the steamer The Louisa is loading lumber for South America.

A young Dane, about 20 years of age, who arrived by the Montserrat, rammed away from the immigration shore yesterday afternoon. Dr. Berryman cared for the wounded last night, and he was taken to the immigration shed this morning.

The body of the man who was found on the mud flats near Mill street, Saturday, is still in the morgue on King St. east. The name of the man is not yet known, but it is believed he is an Englishman who with two companions came from Montreal recently. He has not yet been decided what will be done with his body.

Two cattlemen who claim to have been engaged to work on the C. P. R. steamer Montserrat, applied to Deputy Chief Justice at the police station this morning for assistance. They claimed they were hired by John Lyons, of a labor bureau in Montreal, to go to England as cattlemen on the Montserrat, and when they arrived here they found they were not required. Arrangements will probably be made to send them back to Montreal.

POPE PLEADS FOR SIMPLICITY IN THE CHURCH IN AMERICA

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A cable despatch to the World from Rome says: The Vatican correspondent of the Stampa at Turin is authority for the statement that when, a few days ago, Monsignor Thomas S. Byrne, Bishop of Nashville, Tenn., was engaged in private audience by the Pope the conversation of the pontiff dwelt principally upon serious abuses which are said to be found in the church in America, and which he declared he was determined to suppress at any cost.

THE INQUEST INTO THE DEATH OF MISS CLARKE TO COMMENCE TONIGHT

First Night OF BIG RACE Fifteen Thousand Spectators in Madison Square Garden at Start of Six Days' Race.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—All through the night thousands of persons sat in the high balconies of Madison Square Garden watching the riders in the six-day bicycle race, which began at midnight and will continue throughout the week. At the start it was estimated that 18,000 persons were crowded around the circular track. At 9 o'clock this morning no less than 15,000 remained and when daylight broke nearly half that number still clung to their chairs, following with their eyes the apparently tireless riders.

JIM PAUL TO CALL MOOSE Indian Guide From St. Mary's Has Been Invited to Attend Sportsmen's Show.

FREDERICTON, Dec. 4.—(Special)—News was received here this morning of the death at Hamilton last night of Robert Cochrane, a well known druggist of that place, and a native of this city. His father, Mr. J. B. Cochrane, was a member of St. Mary's Rifle Range. The first intimation he had of his son's illness was a telephone message announcing his death. The deceased had been in the drug business with Alonzo Staples and went to Aroostook County about fourteen years ago, working two years in Presque Isle and then returning to Hamilton. He had a large circle of friends here, to whom the news of his death was a great shock. Deceased was thirty-five years of age and is survived by a widow and one child. His only sister is Mrs. Fred Armstrong, of St. John, and one brother is employed in the C. P. R. office at Oshawa.

Three inches of snow fell here last night, with the result that there is good sleighing for the first time in some time. The weather turned quite cold here last night, and it is hardly likely that the big rig will be able to make any material rise of water in the river.

Jim Paul, the well known guide of the Moose, has been engaged by the management of the Boston Sportsmen's Show to attend and give daily exhibitions of moose killing.

Albert Emack, of Emack Brothers, shot a pure white deer near Doaktown last week, and brought the carcass home intact.

Charles K. Palmer, of the John Palmer Company, shot a big moose at Little River last week.

Engineer Barbour arrived from Boston at noon today with plans and specifications of the system of sewerage for the city. He will lay them before the committee meeting of the council this evening. It is understood that if the plans are satisfactory the council will issue a call for tenders for installing the system.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

The Evangelical Alliance met in St. Andrew's church this morning, and although only a small number of ministers were present, the meeting was a very interesting one. Rev. A. J. Prosser opened the meeting by leading the devotional exercises. Rev. Mr. Prosser reported having sent a letter to Sheriff Ritchie, containing the facts concerning the conducting of services in the jail. Rev. Mr. Prosser had not received a reply from the sheriff, and on a motion moved by Rev. D. Hutchinson, and seconded by Rev. Dr. Raymond, it was decided to send another copy to Sheriff Ritchie.

TRIAL OF MALPRACTICE CHARGES AGAINST DR. E. A. PRESTON AND HOWARD D. CAMP, WILL DEPEND UPON ITS RESULT--MISS CLARKE'S ANTI-MORTEM STATEMENT.

The leading topic of conversation on the streets the last few days is the probable outcome of the case in which Dr. E. A. Preston and Howard D. Camp have been arrested as principals in the alleged malpractice operation, which caused the death of Edith F. Clarke, of Adelaide street. Now that this case has been reported there is a widespread feeling that it is a matter of operations of a similar nature that is alleged to have been conducted for a number of years past and some other physicians, who are not now in the city, have been connected with the rumors. It is thought that the case now about to be investigated will be only one of a number that may be brought up. Only should the suspicions of those interested lead them to believe that criminal operations were committed.

MRS. ROGERS CASE

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Governor Bell, of Vermont, accompanied by his wife and a number of his staff, arrived in Chicago last night to attend the annual dinner of the New England Society. He denied that he intended to prolong his absence from his state until after the execution of Mrs. Mary Rogers, the murderer, next Friday.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

Judge Forbes said that as there was a meeting in the North End on Thursday evening, it would be a poor night to hold the Bible class, as every minister in town was wanted to attend the gathering.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

Prosser thought the matter should be looked into. Rev. David Lang, in reply, said that the matter was not for him to decide, but for the trustees of the church. Judge Forbes, on behalf of the trustees, said that the alliance was quite welcome to the use of the church.

Pastoral Letter Issued in Montreal Intimates That Certain Theatres May Be Placed Under the Ban.

Montreal, Dec. 3.—(Special)—Archbishop Bruchési issued a pastoral letter today that concludes with a pretty stiff warning to theatrical managers and the faithful of the Roman Catholic church. After reciting the circumstances of his warning last Sunday against attendance at any performance given by Sarah Bernhardt, his grace refers to the fact that Le Canada saw fit to publish an affront by reproducing his letter and then following it with a list of prominent Roman Catholics, who had attended the opening performance in spite of the church's enjoinder, and leaves that incident for all good Catholics to qualify as it deserves. However, to certain theatrical managers and those who will persist in attending prohibited performances he gives less scope for personal judgment for the sake of the church.

"We remind the civil authorities who are charged with the protection of good morals of their grave obligation, but for our part, in the legitimate exercise of our right and of our episcopal authority, we now warn these managers that if they continue in the course they have chosen, we will be obliged for some time to have recourse against them to measures more efficacious than the enforcement of the laws of the state. We shall not recede from the performance of our sacred duty and we will then see who will be submissive children of the church, and who will to be under the necessity of exercising this painful duty and we shall be glad to counsel us in bearing our cross."

Once Said That the Way to Keep the Stomach Healthy is to Exercise It.

But He Did Not Tell How to Make It Healthy.

The muscles of the body can be developed by exercise until their strength is increased manifold, with a proper amount of training each day will accomplish this result, but it is somewhat doubtful whether you can increase the digestive power of the stomach by eating indigestible food in order to force it to work.

Nature has furnished us all with a perfect set of organs, and if they are not abused they will attend to the business required of them. They need no abnormal strength.

There is a limit to the weight a man can lift, and there is also a limit to what the stomach can do.

The cause of dyspepsia, indigestion and many similar diseases is that the stomach has been exercised too much and it is tired or worn-out. Not exercise but rest is what it needs.

To take something into the stomach and refuse to let it from its work for a short time—something to digest the food—will give it a rest and allow it time to repair its strength.

The proper aid to the digestive organs is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which cure indigestion, gas on the stomach, flatulence and bowels, heartburn, palpitation of the heart, and all stomach diseases.

First and foremost, whatever the stomach gets when you use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, for one grain of the active principle is sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of food.

The Tablets increase the flow of gastric juice and prevent fermentation, acidity and sour-cravings.

Do not attempt to starve out dyspepsia. You must eat all your meals.

The common sense method is to digest the food for the stomach and give it a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not make the cure, but enable the organs to throw off their ailments.

Perfect digestion means perfect health, for under these conditions only do the different organs of the body work right and receive the building-up material found in pure blood.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a natural remedy and are a specific for stomach troubles. The ablest physicians prescribe them.

The Tablets are pleasant to the taste, and are composed of fruit and vegetable matter, golden standard in quality.

At all drug stores—50 cents per package.

London House Wholesale Suffered Heavy Loss From Leakage From Roof.

The stock of the London House Wholesale, Limited, 34 to 38 King street, was nearly destroyed yesterday by water leaking through the roof. No estimate of the damage could be made last evening, but the loss is said to be very heavy.

The leak was first discovered by Policeman W. J. Sullivan about 9 p. m., and under the impression that the premises were those affected, R. B. Patterson, of Brook & Paterson, was contacted with J. A. Chas. Patterson, vice-president of that company. Mr. Skinner, on arrival, quickly realized that the water was coming from the roof. This was soon cleared, but water continued to filter through the lower ceilings.

The building consists of five stories, and the section adjoining Messrs. Henderson & Hunt's establishment was the most affected by the cause of the disaster. The roof on this part of the building slants towards from King street and down towards the dividing wall between the two houses. A drain pipe is fixed at the dividing wall near the level of the street. In consequence the heavy and continuous rain of yesterday caused a large accumulation of water at this spot, and having no other outlet it had to run down the wall and, spreading first over the top floor, had soaked through one floor after another to the level of the street.

The fifth and fourth floors contain staples and piece goods, and the second floor holds a stock of ready-to-wear goods, and small-wares occupy the ground floor. The goods in that part of the building, which adjoins Brook & Paterson, Ltd., have escaped such injury.

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE

Instead of Meeting in June Next it Will be Postponed Until 1907.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—(Special)—The Colonial Conference, which in the ordinary course of events was to have met in June next, has been postponed until 1907. This is on account of Australia not being able to attend because of a general election. The dominion government has been advised to this effect. It was also suggested that the name be changed from Colonial Conference to Imperial Council. Canada suggested Imperial Conference instead of Colonial Conference if there were any necessity for a change in name.

In an opinion given by a prominent counsel to advise the prime minister of the colonies and prepare subjects for discussion, Canada would not consent because it would be an interference with the principle of responsible government.

Canada is ready at all times to meet in conference with the representatives of the British government and the different colonies but the trend of opinion today is along the lines of increased autonomy, not less.

Since the last Colonial Conference, Canada has been making rapid strides forward as a nation and doing much to contribute to the cause of the empire. It would, for instance, be satisfactory to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to report to the next Colonial Conference that Canada, since the last meeting, had relieved the British taxpayer of the payment of millions of dollars in the taking over of Halifax and Beauséjour garrisons.

At the present moment Hon. Raymond Prefontaine is in Britain making enquiries to assist him in establishing a Canadian navy and also with a view of getting information as to how to improve the direct means of communication between Canada and the motherland.

British imports increased by one-third, thanks to the preference and the recent proceeding before the tariff commission show that the colonies of the preference will not be successful in their attempts to destroy it. British immigration has also increased and two new provinces created in the west. Then there is the Transcontinental Railway project with direct steamship connection to South Africa and a contract for a direct line to New Zealand. Commercial agencies have been established at different points in England, in South Africa, Australia, Japan and Mexico.

Canada's internal development and contribution to the empire since the last colonial conference surpass all previous records in the history of the dominion.

FREDERICTON NEWS

Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 3.—(Special)—One of the worst storms the city has seen in months set in at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 9 o'clock tonight showed no signs of abatement. It moved for a short time yesterday afternoon, but the weather moderating, it turned to rain and for the twenty-four hours following there was a steady downpour. The weather turned cold this evening, and since 10 o'clock it has been snowing hard, a strong north-east wind prevails and it looks as if an old time blizzard was on the programme. The sea in the river here is still solid. Reports from Woodstock and other up-river points state that it rained heavily last night, but today snow has been falling.

There are 25,000,000 feet of lumber hung up in the main river at points above Grand Falls, and some 8,000,000 stranded further down between Bristol and Killbuck.

Had the rainfall continued another day or two the ice would certainly have broken up, with the result that a bulk of the logs would have been set in motion, and the chances of saving them in the spring would have been greatly lessened. As matters stand now, it is believed that there will be no material loss of water as a result of the storm.

President Randolph, of the Fredericton Room Company, said that he thought that at this season of changeable weather there was little danger to be feared from freights. He admitted that conditions today were somewhat alarming for a time, but the change from rain to snow seemed to largely dispel any danger. Should soft weather follow in the wake of the storm, however, it would not be surprising to see the ice break up.

In his opinion the position of the 8,000,000 feet of logs below Grand Falls is none too safe, even if they remain where they are until spring, but as for the big drive above the falls, he thinks that little difficulty will be experienced in saving them, unless the weather conditions next spring are extraordinary.

THE WATER WORKS

The heavy rains of the last two days are not thought to have affected the work on the water extension at Loch Lomond.

Engineer Hunter last evening said that except for the silt and gravel at the side the dam was finished and would be capable of standing any flood. The openings in the dam were fire in number—the fish way, the lower drainage gate, the sluice way and two log sluices. Mr. Hunter added that he had taken the precaution to have all the foregoing open and the water could get away without any difficulty. On section 2 there still remained sixteen feet to complete the tunnel, and the engineer mentioned that progress was slow because on damp days work had to be suspended as it was impossible to keep a light burning at the scene of operation.

In reply to a question as to the height of Lake Latimer he said before the rain it stood at 220.70 feet and would probably be above the 300 foot mark, when the full effect of the rain was felt.

Miss Laura Gleason was referred after a visit to her sister, Mrs. F. K. Smith, East Boston.

A TENTED CAMP OF CONSUMPTIVES

Rev. Dean Harris Writes From Arizona—Hundreds of Sick People—Air is the Most Healthful in the World, Despite Desert Character of the Country.

(Mail and Empire.)

TUCSON, Arizona, Nov. 21.—When writing last week of the purchase of Arizona from the Mexicans, I omitted to mention that with the deserts, mountains, rocks, and "gila monsters" Mexico sold to the American people the more precious sun and sand, and the purest and healthiest air on earth. From the day after I came here to the north-east, where just outside the city limits rows upon rows of white tents break the monotony of grey sand, mesquite and "grease" brush. Here on the desert, protected from the winds on every side by barriers of porphyritic mountains, is pitched the "camp of the consumptives," or "consumptives" as the rough class irreverently name them. Here consumptives from all the States of the East and the Westward congregated to form a community by themselves. The white canvas of the tent surrounded the consumptives with the patients of the deserts therein. Further on to the east I see white specks here and there on the foothills of the Catalinas. I ask a gentleman by my side what these specks are, and he cheerily replies: "These are the tents of the 'holders,' who wish to be alone and live their own lives in their own way." Today I visited the "Camp of the Consumptives." I seldom carry a better introduction, for I am one of those who depend much upon an accidental acquaintance. As I go wandering through the world I see many a face whose mild eyes and sweet and placid features bespeak a gentle mind and can tell me such a tale as this is worth more than a dozen letters of introduction, for written on it is the assurance of civility and kindness.

The tents are of cotton or ship canvas, with board floors, or "rumm'd" earth, or simply rug laid upon the sand, and are furnished and decorated according to the means of the occupants. Most of them are divided into kitchen, living and sleeping compartments. In some the gloom of the living room was relieved by the bright colors of a few Navajo blankets and Mexican rugs. In others were photographs of the dear ones at home, cutlery, knives, called "dolls" filled with water, which could be rapidly evaporated, and banjos, guitars or zithers lying on the table or suspended from the ceiling.

Now and then you entered a tent where an accumulation of Papago boys and girls, children, and Apache boys and girls, and Mopet stone hatchets advertised the archeological taste of the proprietor. Occasionally I entered a tent where the treatment for Cancer in all parts of the body. Some of the cures are simply marvelous.

Great Throngs Crowd the Store and Take Advantage of Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Merchandise Being Sold for Close to Half in our RE-ORGANIZATION SALE.

SATURDAY, every eye was turned towards Oak Hall. Saturday, store-keepers and citizens watched the outcome of the first day of our Great Reorganization Sale. Saturday, the greatest Clothing Sale ever held in St. John opened with a rush and a crush. From 8 o'clock in the morning until Eleven at night the store was crammed, jammed full of eager buyers—we were compelled to close for one hour between six and seven at night to straighten stocks. Saturday the effect of square dealing in the past, coupled with the fact that we had announced a genuine reduction sale, was proved by the hearty way in which the crowds besieged this store and carried off the goods. Saturday was a great big red letter day at the Oak Hall.

Sale will continue all this week, closing Saturday Night at Eleven. Tonight and Tuesday night we will remain open until 9 o'clock, for the accommodation of those who had to work all day and late at night on Saturday, and could not get here.

fears of dissolution, and the hope of life. And after the day the wearisome night and intermittent slumbers, and even these broken with hoarse cough, with the dreaded chills, and freezing fever, and perhaps, unwelcome dreams. Here each human will be putting up a brave fight against tracheanomyx, insidious foe, fondly cunning in their methods of attack. It is the combat of the body against millions of bacterial activities of microscopic parasites, which, living, feed upon the lungs, and when dead, poison the blood. In this unequal fight for life the mind is ever active, hoping the body—its yet living tabernacle and beloved companion—with hope, with unshaken resolutions for the future, and whispering as it alone can whisper "What magnificent help this friendly air of Arizona has given them!" Then the body has another friend, severe, if you will, but a friend, the terrible cough that cracks the body with the heave of desperation to tear out the deauring and dead bacteria poisoning the human temple. Ha!

Swing inward, ye gates of the year! For the dark shades of night are retreating. And the bright light is breaking at last!

The therapeutic air and loving soil are winning out. The cool is almost gone, its assistance is now rarely demanded, the dreadful night sweats are vanishing, and the soul rejoicing whispers to the valley, "The battle is won; the field is ours!"

In one tent, to which I was invited by the doctor, and her wealth of rich auburn hair easily reminded me of the "Norman Peasant's Daughter" immortalized by the Irish poet, Thomas Davis:

"To Minister's vale they brought her,
So the cool and balmy air,
A Norman peasant's daughter,
With blue eyes and golden hair.
They brought her to the vale of law,
And she died slowly there;
Consumption has no pity,
For blue eyes and golden hair."

The tent erected "to shield from sun" interiorly bore in its furnishings and decorations testimony that the hand which brought her to the vale of law, and the taste which were arranged the rug and furniture were not of the same quality as the tent. The young lady has been here two weeks, and already is suffering to experience a change for the better. May she and her companions in the tent return home with glorious expectations of a bright and happy future. It is well to remember that Arizona is a very large territory—one hundred and fourteen thousand square miles, and that all of it is not to be recommended for diseased lungs or shattered nerves. There are broad stretches of desert, where the winds raise clouds of finest dust; there are towering mountains and startling canyons and the country which exude baleful malaria, and plagues black with evil and breeding disease and pestilence, and the confusion of fire and acid and exploding gases in days gone by. But I am told by old pioneers—that the sand and granite banks of the Tucson Valley are the ideal

MAN'S UTTER DEPENDENCE

(The Outlook.)

The cardinal thought presented by St. Paul to pagan philosophers at Athens that human life is lived in God, is not yet appreciated even by the Church. The thought glides over the heads of men. On Him we live, and move, and have our being," as the shaker utters the sea, un- aware of vast life beneath the waves. The motion that tongue can utter are charged with each potent truth for daily human needs, a truth little used, as the two most emphatic, in God.

If this great saying is doubted, doubt soon finds that it has no standing ground. The motion that human life can be outside of the divine contradicts the infinity of the divine. The finite must certainly be encompassed by the infinite. But one need not appeal to metaphysical and logical considerations, as what a man's words might be supposed. Science, especially in the later researches, will be deemed by many to be more convincing than the testimony of the Bible. The testimony of the Bible, however, is not to be recommended for diseased lungs or shattered nerves. There are broad stretches of desert, where the winds raise clouds of finest dust; there are towering mountains and startling canyons and the country which exude baleful malaria, and plagues black with evil and breeding disease and pestilence, and the confusion of fire and acid and exploding gases in days gone by. But I am told by old pioneers—that the sand and granite banks of the Tucson Valley are the ideal

LAKE CHAMPLAIN CAME YESTERDAY

The steamer Lake Champlain, 4,004 tons, Captain Wm. Stewart, the second boat of the C. P. R., left to arrive here this winter, anchored off the island at 9.30 yesterday morning, and came up to her dock at 10.30. She left at 4 o'clock. The vessel brought out a small sized cargo, principally dry goods, and 238 passengers, most of whom were from the island. The fifty second, 183 steerage. There were sixteen children.

The officers are Captain Wm. Stewart in command; officer, J. Kendall; chief officer, J. Murray; chief officer, A. Lewis; fourth officer, Leav. Leslie; R. N. D. S. O.; purser, J. Webster; medical officer, Dr. Finkler; chief steward, J. Fowler; chief stewardess, R. F. Fyne.

Captain Stewart reports heavy weather, but that the steamer from the island, a strong westerly gale from the channel, was blowing at 15 miles an hour. Sunday was the best day of the voyage from the weather standpoint, but coming up the bay it was quite thick.

The larger number of the passengers are immigrants bound for the Canadian west. Most of them are Englishmen, fairly well to do, who have relatives and friends now located in the west, and who have purchased their tickets in advance. There are some forty Scandinavians, also westward bound. Many of the new comers brought with them their wives and families. There was no sickness aboard. Among the passengers were A. F. Fyne, general manager of the Carleton Foundry, and George Ham, C. P. R., general advertising agent. E. H. Turnbull, formerly a prominent resident of this city, but now residing in London, was also a passenger. All the passengers for the west went out on a special train last night at 9 o'clock. Messrs. Piers and Han also went out on the special in Superintendent Wm. Downum's private car.

Last night the first cabin passengers of the Lake Champlain were aboard the steamer. During the course of the meal the health of the general skipper was proposed by A. Poole and seconded by H. Sewell. The toast was received with hearty cheering, both the mover and the seconder shown by Captain Stewart, said all expressions of gratitude at being brought across in such good style. The captain thanked Mrs. Poole and Mr. Sewell and the gathering proved a most enjoyable one.

Every witness for the prosecution testified that Dr. McLeod performed the laparotomy operation, that he wore a mask while it was in progress, and that he was in the pay of the Babco company. The only evidence in rebuttal was the unsupported denial, although counsel for the defense made a strong point of the evil reputation of some of the witnesses.

After McLeod was released he made a statement to the press in which he said: "The only word I have is one of thankfulness. I have felt from the beginning that I had been acquitted, and it is a relief to me to have been unable to make a statement to the world about the case. I have borne up as well as I could, and I am glad to have been able to lean for support upon a number of friends who have been kind enough to write me and let me know that they were with me."

"I wish to say that, while I have borne up and upon the surface appeared natural, I have felt an awful strain because of the trial and realized it was the worst ordeal of my life. I feared only lest public sentiment should be so prejudiced against me that I would be convicted with the others, and I thank, from the bottom of a very grateful heart, the jury for their independence and the fair-mindedness of which they have manifested."

"Today Dr. McLeod held a reception at his home on Huntington avenue, which was attended by many of his friends, and which he held for the purpose of giving a talk to a long list of the worried and excited of the unfortunate afflicted into which he was plunged because he tried to save the life of a girl, who had been the victim of malpractices."

Attorney Parker has now taken a hand in the campaign against the malpractice case, and he will probably take the case to the courts in the absence of the Bishop place.

Public sentiment has become so aroused that most of the prominent citizens of the city have issued a statement in which they describe abortion as "murder," and call upon the people and the authorities to prevent any more cases like that of Susan Geary in Boston.

KIDNEY DISEASE AND ITS DANGERS CAN BE QUICKLY CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Kidney disease comes on quietly, it may be in the system for a long time before you are aware of its presence. There may have been backaches, swellings of the feet and ankles, distensions of the urinary organs, such as, brick dust deposits in urine, highly colored, sandy or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent urination, stones in bladder, etc.

Perhaps you did not know that there were symptoms of kidney disease, so the trouble kept growing worse, until, finally, you were obliged to seek medical aid, and, worst of all, Bright's Disease has taken hold of your system.

Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken at the first sign of anything wrong. There is no other safe way, (plasters and liniments are useless), as the trouble must be eradicated from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys, and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Mayhew, South Falls, Ont., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with my kidneys, and my back got so lame I felt miserable all over. After taking five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was so well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.50. All dealers or The Doan Kidney Pills Co., Toronto, Ont.

WHY SO WEARY?
Always Restless and Weak Isn't Natural—But It's Dangerous.
You have to work hard. This uses up lots of nerve force and tears down the body faster than it can build up. The result is a weak, nervous, and irritable system. You can't think off, and you can't get much out of your work. You feel like a worn-out machine. You are always tired, and you are always nervous. You are always restless, and you are always weak. You are always irritable, and you are always dangerous.

URUGUAY MUST PAY
Owner and Captain of Schooner Agnes G. Donohue Will Make Heavy Claims for Damages.
Halifax, N. S., Dec. 3.—(Special)—The Halifax sailing schooner Agnes G. Donohue arrived in port Saturday from Montevideo after a passage of fifty-eight days. This is the schooner which was seized more than a year ago by the government of Uruguay, and together with her commander, Captain Ryan, detained in Montevideo eleven months.

Captain Ryan feels very indignant at the outrageous treatment he received at the hands of the Uruguayan government. He was seized, he says, on the high seas for "alleged poaching," an offence against law whatever. When they found they could not proceed against him on that ground, instead of releasing him they trumped up a charge of robbery and piracy and sentenced him to three years' penal servitude. Captain Ryan's counsel appealed from this decision, and at the next trial these charges were abandoned altogether and a sentence of ten months imprisonment was substituted.

The whole proceeding was a farce, the captain says, from start to finish. At the stage Mr. Pelton, the well known Yarmouth barrister, whom the Canadian government sent to Montevideo to investigate, appeared on Wednesday for the number of Minnie Alice Young, whose body was found in Plympton woods on Saturday, June 17th, last. The prisoner has not as yet heard the news. Your correspondent informed Justice Hutchinson tonight.

People have been awaiting anxiously the decision from Halifax and the news of a new trial will be greeted with almost universal satisfaction. The new trial will probably take place in June.

The prisoner has not as yet heard the news. Your correspondent informed Justice Hutchinson tonight.

People have been awaiting anxiously the decision from Halifax and the news of a new trial will be greeted with almost universal satisfaction. The new trial will probably take place in June.
